SHOULD TURN TO NEW INDUSTRIES

WINNING THE WAR HAS BEEN MAIN OBJECT PAST FEW MONTHS BUT NOW WE MAY DO OTHER THINGS

RESUME WORK OF BUILDING THE CITY OF LUBBOCK

We Merely Stopped Long Enough to Have a Hand in Putting an Ex to Kaiser, and We Should Now Turn Attention to Developing Greatest Country in the World—The South Plains.

The most important history of the world is in the making. We have passed through a stressful period, but with the dawn of peace relief is at hand. We are now at the pivotal point—the transformation of a nation from a war basis to one of peaceful industrial pursuits. What happened during the past year or more is a record we all well know, but the curtain is about to raise on a new and happier scene—an era of prosperity.

Starting with the nation and going clear down along the line through business to the individual, all have been affected, by the world war—some probably more than others, but affected nevertheless. At the start things happened fast and furious and possibly many mistakes were made by the heads of the various departments, but as a whole the people of the United States have been protected, and by their loyalty and willingness to co-operate the great task of feeding and clothing our own army and feeding the armies of our allies was accomplished, and no one was especially hurt. Of course inconveniences were encountered and many of us felt keenly the sting in an industrial way, but we need only now to use good common sense and economy for a while longer to bring everything back to a basis where we will be doing greater things than ever in the United States, Texas and even Lubbock. True, operations almost ceased so far as improvements were concerned, and correctly so, because we had to win the war, and our undivided attention, energies and finances were required to quickly put a crimp in the kaiser's hide.

There are those, of course, who are crying calamity and trouble ahead, but they are looking through the wrong end of the telescope. They are blind to the world about them; they are totally ignorant of existing facts and conditions; they have not even begun to analyze the situation—take this kind of cattle in charge and show them where to head in. The calamity howler is a very undesirable citizen anyway, and the quicker the progressive citizen realize that these kind of citizens are given to understand that they should co-operate in building up a nation rather than pull it down, the better it will be for all concerned. Bring it down to our own community. We have no time for knockers. We have helped our part in stamping the kaiser's face out of sight, and now since the boys are coming back, we must get busy and whip into the building line again. Lubbock must go steadily on, and finish the job of making the CITY OF THE SOUTH PLAINS, that we started out to do some years ago. The foundation is already laid—we have now only to go forward with the building.

We realize that this section has passed through two years of rather dry weather, and short crops, but knowing the people of this section as we believe we do, we are not at all uneasy as to the future—we know how quickly they will take hold and pull the old ship of prosperity across the troubled waves and land it right slap in the center of the great south plains. Our farmers know what this country can do, and they have stood by their guns and will come out victorious in the end. The South Plains is a winner. Lubbock is sure to be the big city. Come to Lubbock.

The Manual Training Department of the Lubbock School received instructions from the Red Cross Department to make 100 dozen splints to be used in the hospitals in France. They have gone to work in earnest on the job, and will complete it as fast as they possibly can. This department of the school has done a great deal for the Red Cross, as well as all other departments of the school.

Mr. Pierce, we understand carried two thousand dollars insurance on the building and contents.

The following young men were reported in the casualty list given out under date November 22; from West Texas: Sergt. Gerry L. Alverson, Plainview, Texas, killed in action; James C. Cole, Post, Texas, killed in action; Carl Baker, Memphis, Texas missing; Charlie L. Teague, Knox City, Texas; Robert C. W. Williams, Vernon, Texas.

The new Texas cavalry brigades will not be mustered into the Federal service, according to a letter received by Representative Buchanan from Secretary of War Baker. The signing of the armistice has changed the policy of the war department, the secretary said, and it would now be the order to decrease rather than increase the size of the army.

Robert A. Houston, of Lamesa was reported in the list of killed in action, under date of November 21. Under the same date Willie Landrum of Lockney was reported missing in action, and Henry Drummond, of Stamford was wounded.

Washington, Nov. 26.—The Railroad Administration will not order removal of the Santa Fe general offices from Amarillo to Topeka, as contemplated, according to word received by Senator Sheppard today.

Washington, Nov. 26.—Notice that the country must prepare for another intensive war loan campaign, probably in the latter part of April, was given today by Secretary McAdoo in a letter to bankers explaining the treasury's program for floating certificates of indebtedness and bonds during the next six months.

Report on United War Work Campaign in Lubbock County

Below we give a report of the amount subscribed by the various districts in Lubbock County, with the quota assessed, the amount subscribed, and the percentage of the subscription to the quota. FIRST UNITS OF A. E. F. WILL RETURN TO U. S. THIS WEEK

Washington, Nov. 25.—First units of the American expeditionary forces to return from overseas are expected to arrive in New York about the end of the present week.

General March, chief of staff, announced tonight that 382 officers and 6,614 men of the air service and other detachments training in England are homeward bound on the Minnekakha, Lapland and Orca, British liners. The first two ships left Liverpool last Friday and the Orca sailed on Saturday. This announcement means that the movement of the American troops now in England, the majority of whom are in air service detachments, will continue steadily until all of them, some 20,000 have returned to this country. There are no regiments or other units of line troops in Great Britain. The first movement of the larger units, such as brigades and divisions, will come from French ports, it is assumed, as the British cross-channel service is completely occupied with the forces.

Before General March's announcement, Secretary Baker discussed with newspaper correspondents the return of American troops from France. Their homeward movement, he said, is dependent almost entirely upon the limitation of transportation facilities both at sea and in France. Besides employing in this work the German liners seized in this country, Dutch vessels taken over and all other available transports, Mr. Baker said some part of the British transport tonnage employed in carrying troops to France, will continue to be used in getting the men home. He pointed out, however, that Great Britain will need many of her ships to carry home Canadian, Australian, New Zealand and other colonial forces which have been in France longer than the American armies.

The secretary said the great British liners Mauretania, Olympic and Aquitania have been in the American transport service for a year and that the Mauretania is still so engaged.

SCHOOL DID NOT CLOSE FOR THANKSGIVING TODAY

The Lubbock School did not close for Thanksgiving this year. They have been closed so much since they started that it was thought best by the directors of the school that no more time be lost than can be helped, so they went steadily on with the grind, giving only a longer noon recess for the turkey dinner occasion.

W. C. Vaughn returned Saturday from Marshall, Texas, where he was called to the bedside of his two daughters. He came back by McKinney to visit two of his sisters. Mr. Vaughn reports that his daughters are doing nicely and will soon be about again.

Mr. Rix, manager of the Rix Furniture and Undertaking Company at this place accompanied by his wife, left Wednesday for Big Spring to spend Thanksgiving with relatives.

WOODMEN CIRCLE ENJOYS VERY PLEASANT EVENING

Last Thursday evening was a pleasant one spent by the members of the Woodmen Circle at the Hall. Three new members were obligated and given the password. They were Mrs. Barnett, Beulah Dixon and Mrs. Banks. We hope our enjoyable meetings will entice them to come back again.

Upon entering the hall we encountered the familiar face of Sov. Benson, who had been absent on an eight months pleasure and prospecting trip. The very beautiful ceremony of dedicating our service flag distinguishes this meeting from all others in the past. Our loyalty stands pledged to the memory of those on the Honor Roll. An earnest prayer was uttered by Sov. Luna for the safe return of those boys who have left the 'home fires' to help win the freedom of the world. How gloriously this has been achieved is related to us in terms of highest praise by the most noted men in the world today.

When the message that peace was declared was flashed from the cables of Europe we felt that being Americans was a priceless honor.

Spontaneous good nature was vibrant throughout the time spent in the dining room where sandwiches, cake and coffee were served.

Last month just before the ravages of the Influenza prohibited further public gatherings we welcomed two other members to our Circle, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Brown. Our thanks are due Mr. Phillips who treated us to ice cream at the Manhattan Parlor.

THREE AND A HALF INCH SNOW THIS WEEK

R. E. Karper, of the Lubbock Experimental Station reports the snow fall at three and a half inches, and he estimates the amount of moisture from that to be half an inch. The weather has been cold and damp most of the week, and at this writing there is still considerable snow on the ground. The temperature has rose quite a bit today and the snow will melt rapidly.

MOST BUSINESS HOUSES CLOSE FOR THANKSGIVING

The majority of the business houses of the city are closed today, in observance of Thanksgiving. This day will in all probability be observed by a greater number of people this year than ever before. Indeed the world has much to be thankful for.

W. A. Morris received word of the death of his father in Mississippi, which occurred last week. The information came too late for him to attend the funeral.

BIG WAR QUESTIONS TO BE SOLVED

PEACE CONFERENCE WILL BE HELD IN PARIS AND WILL BE ATTENDED BY PRESIDENT WILSON IN DECEMBER.

MCADOO ASKS CALL FOR FIFTH LIBERTY LOAN IN APRIL

Campaign Will Likely be Launched Latter Part of the Month. Heads of Navy Department State That Half American Fleet May be Sent to Pacific After Return From Europe.

Washington, Nov. 27.—President Wilson's plans for attending the peace conference are all matured with the exception of the day and hour of sailing. His departure, however, is certain, early next week. It is entirely probable that the first announcement of the personnel of the American delegation will be made in the president's address to the opening of congress, which will be delivered on Monday and Tuesday. At the same time, the president may take occasion to make something in the nature of a statement to the country, as well as to congress, on his going to Europe, something no other president has ever done.

The most important announcement that has yet been made in connection with the official plans for the peace conference came today. It was that there would be absolutely no censorship on the news on which the American newspaper correspondents send back home. At the request of President Wilson both the British and French governments will entirely relax all censorship on all American newspaper dispatches telling of the deliberations. Furthermore, to facilitate the transmission of news to this country, the government, through its recently acquired control of the cable lines, will give news a preference in transmission second only to government official business. News will take preference over all commercial business on the cable lines.

George Creel, chairman of the Committee on Public Information, also announced today that the committee's machinery in Paris would exercise nothing whatever approach to a censorship on the dispatches telling of the progress of the conference. All the committee's facilities, Mr. Creel said, are to be devoted to helping the American newspaper correspondents get the news back home. The committee's offices in Paris will be used as a headquarters for newspaper correspondents; stenographers, typewriters and interpreters are to be provided, and the committee's machinery also will be used to assist the correspondents to get their dispatches on the cables.

Washington, Nov. 27.—With the passing of German sea power, the impelling strategic reason for keeping the main strength of the American army massed on the Atlantic ocean no longer exists. Naval officers here anticipate, therefore, that the fleet will be divided when the war emergency has passed and substantially one-half of the main fighting strength of the navy go into a reorganized Pacific fleet. Secretary Daniels indicated today

TEXAS IS LEGALLY "DRY" SAYS ATTORNEY GENERAL

Austin, Texas, Nov. 27.—Notwithstanding that the court of criminal appeals has declared the Texas statutory law prohibiting sales of intoxicating liquors unconstitutional and refused a motion for rehearing today, Attorney General Looney declared that the state still is legally "dry" and his department will spare no effort authorized by law to prohibit traffic in intoxicating liquors.

The state comptroller, following an opinion given by the attorney general, said he would not issue permits to secure license to sell liquor in Texas.

The attorney general holds that only the portion of the law which prohibits selling intoxicants is affected by the recent decision and that those parts which make it a felony to transport, advertise, manufacture, deliver or restore liquors are still in force. He also holds that all liquor licenses became void when the act went into effect and that no law authorizing issuance of new licenses is now in force.

Injunctions restraining practically every railroad in the state from shipping liquors have been obtained by the attorney general and an appeal to dissolve one injunction has been made to a court of civil appeals by one of the railroads.

that a general re-arrangement of the fighting ships was to be expected. He gave no inkling of what is under consideration, however, his statement having been brought out by questions when he announced that Vice-Admiral Sims, commanding the American naval forces in European waters, would be nominated to the rank of admiral when Admiral Knight, commanding the Asiatic fleet, retires next month. Rear Admiral Gleaves, commanding the convoying forces, will be named by President Wilson for the vacant vice-admiral's post thus created. No change in assignments will accompany the promotions, which will be made for merit.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Notice that the country must prepare for another intensive war loan campaign, probably in the latter part of April, was given today by Secretary McAdoo in a letter to bankers explaining the treasury's program for floating certificates of indebtedness and bonds during the next six months.

The secretary stated that plans for continuous sale of government bonds, recently discussed as a strong possibility, had been abandoned and that plans had been made for "one more great popular campaign." Previously he had announced that the bonds to be offered then would be of short maturity, less than ten years, and it has been indicated that the amount would be around five billions.

Although Mr. McAdoo did not state the time of the campaign, it was learned the treasury plans tentatively to hold it the last three weeks in April.

Blocks of treasury certificates of indebtedness, ranging in amount between $500,000,000 and $750,000,000 would be marketed every two weeks, beginning December 5 to provide funds for running the government until payments from the fifth war loan begin to come in, and these payments then will be used to pay off the certificates. Every bank will be expected to subscribe 5 per cent of its gross resources monthly to these certificates.

The first issue of $600,000,000 minimum, announced today, may be subscribed between December 5 and December 10, will mature next May 6, and will bear 4 1/2 per cent. This rate is not considered as affording any indication of the interest to be born by the fifth war loan bonds.

Mr. McAdoo also disclosed today that the government's expenses this month will probably run to a new high record of $2,000,000,000 and that "the wise policy of prompt liquidation of contracts" may increase rather than lower the government's outlays.

TELEPHONE CASE IS REVERSED AT AMARILLO

The case of F. K. Mitchell against the Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone Company, appealed from the courts of this county, has been reversed and remanded.

In this case Mitchell was given a verdict and judgment for failure to deliver a death message.

John F. Pope of Floydada was listed in Monday's casualty report, as slightly wounded in action. William B. Norris, of Memphis, and Clyde R. Powell, of Miami, were also reported under the same date as having received slight wounds.

Rev. W. E. Lyon, presiding elder of the Lubbock District, accompanied by Mrs. Lyon, went over to Matador the latter part of last week. This is one of the new appointments in the Lubbock District and Brother Lyon is looking over the new field.

Horace Britton, of Lubbock, was reported wounded severely in the list of casualties under date of November 26th. Joe G. Dearman of Plains, was reported at the same time as having been killed in action.

A number of the American submarine chasers have returned home from the war zone, there being no more German Subs to chase.

A FAMILY MEDICINE

In Her Mother's Home, Says This Georgia Lady, Regarding Black-Draught. Relief From Headache, Malaria, Chills, Etc.

Ringgold, Ga.—Mrs. Chas. Gaston, of this place, writes: "I am a user of Theford's Black-Draught; in fact, it was one of our family medicines. Also in my mother's home, when I was a child. When any of us children complained of headache, usually caused by constipation, she gave us a dose of Black-Draught, which would rectify the trouble. Often in the Spring, we would have malaria and chills, or troubles of this kind, we would take Black-Draught pretty regular until the liver got well, and we would soon be up and around again. We would not be without it, for it certainly has saved us lots of doctor bills. Just a dose of Black-Draught when not so well saves a lot of days in bed."

Theford's Black-Draught has been in use for many years in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles, and the popularity which it now enjoys is proof of its merit. If your liver is not doing its duty, you will suffer from such disagreeable symptoms as headache, biliousness, constipation, indigestion, etc., and unless something is done, serious trouble may result.

Theford's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy for these troubles. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way, regulating the liver to its proper functions and cleansing the bowels of impurities. Try it. Insist on Theford's the original and genuine. E 79

NAVAL ESTIMATES FOR 1920 REDUCED OVER BILLION

Washington, Nov. 25.—Naval estimates for 1920 have been reduced $1,180,315,000 as the result of the signing of the armistice, Secretary McAdoo was informed today by Secretary Daniels. The original estimate on a war basis was $2,644,307,000 and this has been reduced to $1,463,992,000.

No reduction was made in the estimates of $600,000,000 for a second three-year building program of 156 ships, which has been recommended to congress by Secretary Daniels. This program contemplates ten super-dreadnaughts, six battle cruisers and 140 smaller warships and auxiliary craft.

The largest reduction was $313,421,716 in the estimate for the bureau of ordnance, and the second largest was $275,324,285 in the pay of the navy. Other reductions were announced as follows:

- Pay, miscellaneous, $5,015,000.
- Aviation, navy, $133,770,700.
- Bureau of navigation, $4,026,603.
- Bureau of yards and docks including public works $9,458,000.
- Bureau of supplies and accounts, $224,951,315.
- Bureau of construction and repair $37,500,000.
- Bureau of steam engineering, $28,000,000.
- Marine corps, $35,702,964.
- Naval emergency funds $113,145,008.

The house naval committee now is holding hearings on the 1920 naval bill and the reduced estimates probably will be transmitted to it within a day or two. Members of the committee have been insistent that the bill's total must be cut to the very lowest consistent with the operation and upbuilding of the navy.

CONVALESCENTS TO BE SENT TO 27 U. S. CAMPS

Washington, Nov. 26.—Soldiers who have been incapacitated by overseas service and who are convalescing in this country will be assembled at 27 camps for organization into convalescent detachments. General orders issued today by the war department provide for the formation of these detachments and the abandonment of the practice of transferring convalescent men from overseas to development battalions.

The convalescent men will be sent to camps nearest their homes. The order says: "It is the intention to discharge all overseas convalescents as soon as possible consistent with maximum physical improvement."

Intensive treatment and training for the detachments will be undertaken, the order provides, so maximum improvement of the men and their subsequent discharge may be accomplished in the shortest possible time.

The camps in which the detachments will be formed are: Beauregard, Custer, Devens, Dix, Dodge, Funston, Gordon, Grant, Hancock, Jackson, Kearney, Lee, Lewis, MacArthur, McClellan, Meade, Logan, Pike, Sevier, Shelby, Sherman, Sheridan, Taylor, Travis, Upton, Wadsworth and Wheeler.

CAMP DICK WILL BE VACATED BY JAN. 1

Camp Dick will continue for five more weeks at the utmost, in the opinion of Col. L. C. Brown, new commanding officer of Camp Dick, who assumed his duties yesterday. Colonel Brown said that no official advice has been received from Washington, but in his opinion, the camp will not be disbanded by Jan. 1.

"In a few weeks there will be no reason to continue the camp, as both the flying schools and the ground schools will be in condition to handle the men without their having to go to concentration camp. The post was a sort of necessity growing out of the failure of the flying schools to commission men as fast as the courses were completed in the ground schools."

"There were forty-five men sent to the camp today, but they will probably be sent out immediately. There have been 250 requests for discharges among the cadets, and when these are granted we probably will not be able to supply orders for pilots. The men will be granted their discharges some time this week. They were to have been given out today, but some slight miscalculations made it necessary for the lists to be revised."

NAVAL CASUALTIES FOR BRITISH NUMBER 39,766

London, Nov. 26.—British naval casualties from the outbreak of the war to November 11, numbered 39,766, the admiralty announced tonight. These were divided as follows: Killed or died of wounds, officers 2,466; men, 30,895.

Wounded, missing or prisoner, officers, 1,042; men 5,363.

In addition 14,661 officers and men of British merchant vessels and fishing boats lost their lives while nursing their ordinary vocation by enemy action and 3,295 were taken prisoner.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McWhorter of Baird, and Mrs. Henry Lambert are here this week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sowell.

SNOW EXTENDS SOUTH TO SWEETWATER

Sweetwater citizens awoke this morning to find the ground covered with snow and at the break of day snow was still falling fast. The depth of the snowfall has been variously estimated at from two to three inches. It is safe, however, to place the measurement on level ground at something more than two inches. The weather having moderated the snow has melted rapidly during the day and it is not likely that a great deal of the white covering will be in evidence tomorrow morning.

Good for Small Grain.

This first snow fall of the 1918-19 season will no doubt be of considerable benefit to small grain. Many farmers over this section of country have sown oats and wheat, while some winter rye also has been put in the ground. Those having seed in the ground are glad to see the snow and are hopeful of good yields from their small-grain crops.

F. E. WHITE LOSES HOME BY FIRE

A. A. Prince informed the editor that his son-in-law, Frank E. White lost his home and contents by fire last Thursday. Mr. White lived in Crosby county, two and one-half miles from the town of Crosbyton. Not a great while ago he was married to Miss Nina Prince of this place, and her friends here will regret to learn of the misfortune of this young couple. Their loss, Mr. Prince states was about three thousand dollars.—Sweetwater Reporter.

SAN ANGELO TO VOTE ON PROHIBITION SATURDAY

San Angelo, Texas, Nov. 24.—Claude A. Broome, local cattleman, will direct the prohibitionists' campaign in the local option election that is to be held here next Saturday, according to action taken by a mass meeting held here late in the week. An executive committee has been named, made up of thirty-one members, some of them anti-prohibitionists in politics. The voting strength of the precinct in which the election is to be held is estimated at 1,600.

REPORT OIL SAND AT SNYDER AT 200 FEET

Snyder, Texas, Nov. 25.—The report that the drill in the Dunn well near here has struck an oil sand at little less than 200 feet has created great excitement.

The drill has been stopped until the well can be cased. Casing is en route and developments of interest are expected as soon as the hole can be cased and work resumed.

FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLAR MILL FIRE AT CHILLICOTHE

Chillicothe, Texas, Nov. 25.—The Orient mill and the wareroom with 1,200 bushels of wheat and 1,500 barrels of flour burned between 2 and 3 o'clock Sunday morning.

The mill was the property of Frank Kell and J. J. Perkins of Wichita Falls and was valued at $50,000.

The insurance on the property was $25,000. The stock also was partly insured.

MARSHAL FOCH WILL ENTER STRASSBURG

Strassburg, Nov. 25.—General Gouraud entered this city Sunday at the head of the Fourth French army amid the tremendous enthusiasm of three hundred thousand people. Never before an army have such a triumphal greeting. The ceremonial entry at which Marshal Foch will take possession in the name of France and the allies is fixed for one-thirty o'clock Monday.

NEW HOPE COMMUNITY

The happenings during the past fortnight mean more to the world than anything recorded in history since the Passion week. Who is happier, the fellow who did his best to help make the world a better place to live in, or the one who let circumstances make as little difference as possible in his usual round of affairs?

To Avoid and Relieve Influenza
BY DR. FRANKLIN DUANE

Many people have been frightened by what they have read or heard of influenza. The more you fear the disease, the surer you are to get it. Go right about your business and forget it. As the disease is spread principally by contact thru sneezing, coughing or spitting, many health authorities have advised that everyone wear a gauze, which is daily washed and saturated with a one to five hundred solution of zinc sulphate in water, and then dried before wearing over the nose and mouth. You should avoid crowds, common drinking cups and public towels. Keep your strength up by taking lots of exercise in the open air and plenty of nourishing food. If you have any of such symptoms as chilliness, nasal obstructions, flushed face, headache, feverishness, restlessness, weakness, or irritating cough, give up work at once and go to bed. This will save your strength to help overcome the disease. Put your feet in hot water for fifteen minutes. Thoroughly loosen the bowels with some such mild and non-irritating physic as Dr. Beece's Pleasant Pellets. Drink principally of hot lemonade and then cover up with plenty of clothes in bed so as to get a good sweat. When sweating is free and the fever reduced take a dose of two Anuric Tablets every four hours, followed by drinking at least a glass or two of hot water. Anuric Tablets help quickly to relieve the soreness of the muscles and bones from which most patients complain and help the kidneys flush out the poisons. To relieve nasal obstructions and excessive discharge from the nose, probably nothing is better than such a mild, soothing, antiseptic wash as Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It will give great relief. Employed as a gargle, in same strength as made up for use in the nose, and as hot as can be borne, it quickly arrests soreness and dryness in the throat. Influenza weakens the patient's resistance to disease, so that there is danger of bronchitis and pneumonia developing. To combat this tendency and fortify the patient's strength insist that he keep in bed at least two days. Probably nothing will at this stage hasten the recovery and strengthen the patient more than an iron tonic tablet called "Ironite" or that well known herbal tonic, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which has been used by thousands in the past two generations.

REPORT FROM THE KANSAS CITY MARKET

Kansas City Stock Yards, Nov. 25.—Cattle receipts were 28000 head, market steady to shade lower, no choice fed steers included. Hog supply was 23000, market steady to 10 higher at the start, but weak at the finish, top $17.80. Sheep and lambs today $3000 market 15 to 25 lower, no choice lambs here, top $15.

Beef Cattle.

Receipts included a large number of cattle from Colorado and other western range states and some big strings of belated Kansas pasture cattle. Short fed steers sell at $14 to $18, with a very small number good enough to sell up to $19, although some show cattle sold on the open market last week at $20 to $25, a full carload at the latter price. Good western range beef steers weighing 950 lbs and upwards sell at $14 to $16, lighter steers down to $12, western grass cows $7.50 to $10.50, canners $5 to $5.75, choice heavy native cows up to $13, veals $11 to $13.75. Receipts of cattle and calves here last week aggregated 101,000 head, but the supply will be materially smaller each week from now on with good price prospects for sellers.

Stockers and Feeders.

Kansas and Oklahoma wheat fields are making a fine growth and many cattle went out to them in the last week. Feeders are a little higher at $10 to $13.50, stockers steady to 35 cents lower at $6.50 to $12, with most of the range yearlings and twos selling at $9 to $10.50.

Hogs.

Receipts last week were 104000 head as compared with 58000 same week last year, yet prices closed the week 10 to 15 higher. The liberal supply today opened steady to 10 higher, best medium-weights up to $17.80, heavy hogs $17.75, lights $17.65, but the close was very weak and bulk of sales ranged from $17.20 to $17.65. Stock pigs sell at $12.50 to $14, which is a very attractive price when compared with value of fat hogs. New rulings by Food Administration authorities last week made in an effort to reduce the movement to market, put all hogs weighing under 150 lbs. outside of the price limit regulations forcing them to sell without the protection of the price limit; also all hogs destined for Chicago or eastern markets must secure a permit before they can be loaded. Western markets had good runs today but Chicago was light.

Sheep and Lambs.

Prices have declined 50 cents since the middle of last week, best lambs worth $15.25, though the top today was $15. Fat ewes brought $9 today, but salesmen say they can be good enough to bring $9.50. 9 cars of 65 lbs. Arizona heavy hided feeding lambs sold at $14 today, ewe

EFFECTS OF ABUSE SHOWN BY PRISONERS

London, Nov. 23.—Pitiable conditions among British prisoners of war who have been liberated by the Germans since the signing of the armistice are described by Reuter's correspondent at French headquarters. Thousands of these men, mostly British, are entering France daily. The correspondent writes:

"I have never seen human beings in such a state of raggedness, hunger and misery. When the camp at Forbach, thirty-eight miles east of Metz, as well as those elsewhere, were broken up, the prisoners, most of whom were captured during the March offensive, were told to clear out and seek help from their allies. They started to walk the fifty or sixty miles to the allied lines, but were given no food and had no money. They were in shameful rags, the soles dropping off their boots. Some wore clorgs and no socks. They left the prison camps in droves of hundreds in charge of German officers and soldiers who had deserted. The weather was very cold and many died by the roadside within a few miles from friends. When the survivors entered the French lines, French soldiers who were hardened war heroes were horrified to see men in such a plight. It is not doubted that this suffering was intentionally imposed upon the British. Prisoners of other nationalities are agreed that the British were treated worse than the other prisoners at all German camps."

A further report of Sir Robert Younger's committee dealing with the treatment of British prisoners in the coal and salt mines of Germany, gives harrowing details of brutal treatment by the Germans. This report says:

"From testimony scarcely a month old, it is evident that there is no sign of improvement whatever in the treatment of prisoners in Germany. This disgrace is open and flagrant and the only possible inference is that Berlin deliberately approves of it. There is no doubt that work in the mines is inflicted as punishment. Here is an extract from a letter dated May 20, last, from a British private soldier:

"We have had little to eat since we left Hamlen. Two of our number have gone to the hospital with broken arms and the remainder are suffering from cuts on their heads and

Cheap, quick way to stop rheumatism

Try toning your digestive and eliminative organs with NR. Free your body from poisonous waste and relief is quick.

One Day's Test Proves NR Best

Are you willing to be convinced that sore, stiff joints or muscles can be relieved and rheumatism greatly benefited if not entirely conquered, for the insignificant sum of 25c.

Sound too good to be true doesn't it, yet thousands of people who had rheumatism have found that it can be done, and thousands more are doing it today.

You've tried the high priced and expensive things, found that they failed—you still have your trouble, why not try this simple, economical, yet sensible plan, and let results speak for themselves?

Just get a 25c box of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) and begin taking it tonight. It acts on the digestive and eliminative organs, improving digestion and assimilation and cleansing the body of accumulated waste, impurities and poisons. With good digestion and assimilation, the body is nourished and vitality and natural power of resistance against disease greatly increased. With the kidneys and bowels acting vigorously and regularly and the body freed from irritating poisons, relief must come.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) though mild and gentle in action, does its work thoroughly and quickly. There is nothing harmful in it, nothing to upset the stomach, and no gripping, pain or any discomfort. The only result is pleasant, glorious, welcome relief and benefit.

Try it—you take no risk in doing so for Nature's Remedy costs only 25c (enough to last twenty-five days), and is sold with the distinct understanding that it must relieve and benefit or money back.

More than one million people in this country are using Nature's Remedy today. Five million boxes are used every year. What better proof of its great merit could be offered? It is sold, guaranteed and recommended by your druggist!

bruises as the result of floggings they received at the last place. I felt in a faint unable to work any longer last Saturday and the man in charge, a civilian, kicked me back into my senses and kept me down in the mine sixteen hours after all my gang had gone up. If you could only see the boys here! They are worked to death."

The record of daily promiscuous violence might be further illustrated. To scores of men who have given evidence concerning the mining camps, kicks, blows and insults became a part of the normal routine. Here is an example from the testimony of a man who had been at one of the Hamlen Salt mines.

"In January, 1918, I refused to complete my task as it was a physical impossibility. I was taken out of the mine dressed only in shirt and drawers—it is too hot in the mine to wear anything else—and put for the night in a hut which was not weatherproof. In the morning it was half full of snow. The next day I was taken to the mine and again beaten until I had finished my task. I received nothing to eat from the time I went into the mine on the first morning until 2 o'clock the next afternoon."

OPEN LETTER TO THE WOMEN OF TEXAS

Will you not make your State a Christmas present by paying your poll tax by December 25th?

Texas women should be prepared to meet whatever opportunities offer; while there may be no chance to vote in a general election in 1918, there will be important municipal elections in which we should take part.

As the poll tax money goes into the general school fund, you are contributing to an increase of the State's educational facilities, and we believe you will be gratified to feel that your poll tax is taking the place of the liquor license money, that formerly went into the school fund. The women of Texas have worked long and earnestly to eliminate liquor, what an opportunity to prove our faith and gratitude by helping to build up the fund that educates our children.

By paying your poll tax before Christmas, it will swell the available fund for the purchase of school equipment early in the year, and also help to make possible an increase in the salaries of teachers.

With the compulsory school attendance law strengthened by provision for free text books, Texas will soon move up in ranking of educational efficiency, to a place more nearly commensurate with her progress along other lines.

The 36th Legislature, in its action, should reflect, as never before, the sentiment of the whole people of Texas. A number of vital measures will come up for consideration:

Constitutional amendments for Prohibition and Suffrage.

Amendments to the Child Labor and 54 hour laws, making them more effective.

Amendment to the wife desertion law so as to prevent the interpretations by trial and appellate courts making the law a joke, and a travesty on justice.

Amendments to the laws pertaining to women, removing the disabilities of coverture and sex, and giving them the same rights and opportunities as men.

A law requiring the father of illegitimate children to assist in their support and education instead of forcing the entire burden on the unfortunate women and society. I shall be in Austin during the 36th legislative session, and it will be my pleasure to render all possible service toward the better establishment, not of woman's rights, or man's rights, but of Human rights.

May we not have your co-operation if you agree with these amendments, and won't you begin an organized effort to get the women in your community, city, and county, to pay their poll tax, and so be enabled to assist these reforms in a practical way.

You pay your poll tax under same

In our great rejoicing over a World Peace, we must not forget, that in the period of reconstruction following cessation of military activities, there will be grave economic problems to be faced, and their solution will depend largely on the consecrated, intelligently directed effort of the women of America. We will have a part in making ours the most humanitarian, as well as the greatest government in the world.

You have been tried in the balance, and have proven the faith that is in you, and I know you will continue to stand together for progress. Your poll tax receipt will prove a veritable weapon of defense in making Texas fit to receive our boys as they come back to us. We need to grow to keep up with them.

It has taken bullets to make the world safe for Democracy. Now let's see to it that Ballots keep it safe. Pay your poll tax, and do it now!

WANT WOMEN TO ACT AS PRICE REPORTERS

The women of Texas were urged to volunteer as price reporters for the United States Food Administration by John Reagan of Houston, personal representative of State Food Administrator E. A. Peden, when he spoke before the Federation of Women's Clubs in Dallas last Friday. This step is being taken over the State. Mr. Reagan said, to eliminate possibilities of profiteering now that peace has come. The Food Administration is a war measure and will automatically pass out of existence when peace is legally signed. This, the speaker said, may be two months away and may be six.

"If we abandon food control and return to an era of exploitation and profiteering, a starving Europe making inroads upon our food supplies will invite famine in the United States within six months, Mr. Reagan declared. As a result of competition rocketing. Gigantic fortunes will be of hungry foreign nations invading our markets, prices will go sky-high by cornering food stuffs—and whether the American people will complacently meet such a situation is a matter no one can prophesy.

"I am not here to forecast the future based on selfish acts; I am here, however, to internest the future based on American self-denial. The emotional stimulus of war has been taken from us. If all goes well we shall enjoy for some time a security of life with an ample measure of comfort, and the very presence of this security is going to dull the responsibility which we must hold toward England, France, Belgium and Italy for having held the line so long as to make our democracy safe.

"The loss of shipping and the increased demands for transportation has isolated the stores of food in the Southern Hemisphere and the Far East. Within thirty or sixty days the world should begin to release cargoes from military duty and to send them further afield for food, and before the next harvest arrives the entire world's food supply should be accessible. On the other hand, the cessation of hostilities will create an enormously increased demand for food, and we must be deeply concerned that the starving millions who have been liberated from the German yoke shall have such supplies as will enable them to return to health and prosperity. The war has been brought to an end in no small measure by starvation itself, and it can not be our business to maintain starvation after peace.

"The need for conservation has not changed in the least. The lifting of restrictions on wheat flour is based on the covenant that there shall be no waste; and the increase in the sugar ration is based on the same sacred covenant that there be no waste.

Robert Wood, son of R. C. Wood of Tahoka, died at his home in Tahoka last Sunday, of influenza.

GIRLS' REFORMATORY CHIEF WORK OF FEDERATED CLUBS

Women must pray for wisdom before they pray for power. Women must learn not to push into positions the unfit, they must prove themselves fit to bear burdens before they can make themselves experts in one line. It is the woman's work to secure teamwork, to match the universal with the individual.

"Work is the product of the soul. A hen with her head cut off is active but we don't call her efficient. Now that the soul of America is laid bare; now that we know that she is not a materialist, but a Democrat, and that democracy is the essence of idealism, we know that we view the soul of America with the dross burned out. But war does not settle great spiritual questions. And that is the problem that faces America today, more especially the women of America."

These are some of the thoughts set forth by Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, second vice president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, when she spoke before the State Federation convention in Dallas last week.

There were social events, but there were serious things, also there were earnest discussions. And as Mrs. R. E. Buchanan said, "Ladies of the Federation, I am impressed more and more with the seriousness of these meetings.

The women are entering heart and soul into the fight for a Woman's Reformatory in Texas. It is a big undertaking, but they believe in their cause and will leave nothing undone to procure it. They will continue their work for the soldiers through the Recreational Canteens all over the State. Mrs. Bacon Saunders, commandant of the canteen at Fort Worth, received high praise from the Fort Worth women who attended the State Federation Convention.

KAISER'S STOREHOUSE OF FOOD DISCOVERED

Amsterdam, Nov. 24.—"How Wilhelm Held Out," is the title of an article in the Frankfort Volks Stimme by Wilhelm Carle, a Socialist, who discovered the hoards of provisions which the former Emperor had in his Berlin palace.

"The quantity," the writer says "exceeded all expectations. In large white tiled rooms was everything, literally everything one can imagine in foodstuffs. It is inconceivable that after four years of war such huge quantities could be hoarded. There was meat and game in cold storage, salted provisions in large cases, white meat in sacks piled to the roof, thousands of eggs, gigantic boxes filled with tea, coffee, chocolate, lard, jelly and jam; hundreds of sugar loaves and endless stacks of peas, beans, dried fruits and biscuits. Their value amounts to several hundred thousand marks.

"These hoarded foodstuffs can not be better used than to be preserved as a lasting memorial to our posterity, which should see how, while millions in Germany starved, those elected by the grace of God, held out."

Joseph Hoffman, of Slaton, was brought to the Lubbock Sanitarium last week for medical and surgical attention. He had gotten his left leg torn up in a separator while threshing maize, and the foot and leg were badly lacerated, much of the calf of the leg was torn and maize ground into the flesh. He was doing very well at last reports and will not likely lose his foot, but amputation has been considered.

POTTER SCHOOL LAND CASE WAS CONTINUED

OCTOBER DEATH RATE IN TEXAS INCREASED 257 PER CENT

Austin, Texas, Nov. 26.—The Texas death record for October shows an increase of 257 per cent over the September report. This increase is due to influenza and its complications, according to Dr. W. A. Davis, State Registrar of Vital Statistics. During September 2,515 deaths from all causes were reported to the Bureau of Vital Statistics. Of this number 129 were ascribed to influenza and complications. Of 8,996 deaths from all causes reported for October, 6,089, or 67 per cent of the entire number, were ascribed to influenza, pneumonia and bronchial pneumonia.

Dr. Poling Describes Life In the Trenches

Holding the undivided attention of an audience which taxed the seating capacity of the First Presbyterian Church, yesterday afternoon Dr. Daniel-A. Poling, associate president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, delivered his lecture, "Found in France, the Spirit of the Trenches."

Visiting Christian Endeavor workers from Waxahachie, Grand Prairie and other near by cities were present. The local organizations of the city were represented by members of the Young Men's Christian Association, the Young Women's Christian Association, the Women's Christian Temperance Union, and Epworth League.

Dr. Poling is president of the National Temperance Council, composed of all these organizations. He has just recently been appointed religious work director for France, succeeding Bishop Wilson of the Methodist church. He spent several months with the American troops in the front line trenches, during the early part of the war. It is upon his visit to the various places of battle that he gained the information for his lectures.

Preceding the address H. E. Storr, song leader of the Y. M. C. A. in the various local camps, led in the singing of a number of sacred and patriotic songs. Dr. Poling was then introduced by Mr. Storr.

Prefacing his lecture Dr. Poling spoke of the work of the association, and congratulated the local members upon the assistance they were giving the 3,000 representatives of the organization overseas.

"I went to France to see the American soldier," Dr. Poling said. "I lived with him; was with him on every front and in every port; also in every great camp. I slept with them, ate with them; therefore, I know what they eat and what they sleep with and my understanding of that interesting little animal, the 'cootie,' is very intimate and thorough.

"The work of the Red Triangle can not be too fully appreciated. It brings into the spirit of the trenches comradeship.

"I never saw a man injure another man up there, or seek to. I have seen a man carry, in addition to his own kit, the entire equipment of another man who was suffering from gas. Three miles and a half, under the severest condition of opening spring, through mud filled trenches, he walked with his double load, helping a man he had never seen before. The men flock to the canteen and come there for a different sort of companionship than furnished elsewhere in their life. It is here they turn to the music of their life, and the little 'Jenny' as the talking machines are called by them, are never idle.

Stories of Unalloyed Courage.

"There are so many tales of unalloyed courage, and so many to tell them well. I have not time to dwell upon them. His bravery is very prompt and very honest, and no soldier of the world is braver. He confesses his fear, which is not pretended; tells how fast he ran, how paralyzed his tongue was, how he caught himself saying, 'Engine, engine, number nine; running on the Chicago line,' or wincing his forehead with his revolver. It would be very poor form for an American to speak of this in any way that would make invidious comparisons, and to speak thus would insult the American soldier, who so thoroughly appreciates and so enthusiastically magnifies at his own expense the prowess of our allies, who have done so much for us, who for four years have stood between us and destruction, and who even now must very largely teach us the modern art of national self-defense."

At this point in his lecture Dr. Poling spoke of the men who had been left at home. "It must be said, that credit is due to the men in our camps today. If it were not for them the war would not have been won. They must not be forgotten, as it is harder for them to stay at home, no doubt, than it would have been for them to go across.

"The spirit of the trenches is not confined to those who stand in the mud of the trenches and experience their horrors," Dr. Poling continued. "The women, too, have been in the farthest place of the line. The long vigils of the soldier in nights that promise only terror and in days that bring only hardship, are not kept alone. The mothers of men, their wives, their sisters and their sweethearts, stand there, too. And not only these, but the fathers and the brothers denied the privilege of bearing arms, but entering into the supreme ordeals of those who do bear them, by day and by night, in tense silence, suffer in spirit the agonies which the bodies of their sons and brothers must experience at every station of the flaming trail which leads from the base to the far rim of 'No Man's Land.'"

"Spirit of the Trenches."

"The spirit of the trenches is the spirit of Christian Endeavor, for in the trenches of France and in the camps at home and on the ships of the sea are today more than 170,000 of the young men of our movement. In every Y. M. C. A. group that I met I was greeted by Christian Endeavorers, under helmets and with gas masks at attention. They had come from every State. In a deep dugout within the first line I found the Lieutenant, who was the first officer after the entry of the United States into the war to receive the Croix de Guerre. He is now Major Robert Patterson of Huntington, Ind. a leading Endeavorer of his local church.

"I found in the trenches the spirit of victory and the spirit of sacrifice. We have made no sacrifice. Only those of you who have sacrificed your own flesh and blood have made a sacrifice of note; the rest of us have made only good investments. England, with her millions of 'dead' and France, of whom it is said 'Only God knows how many of her sons have been given,' offers too great a comparison to our own losses for us to accredit ourselves with too much sacrifice. Not only for themselves were the men willing to sacrifice, but in every instance, where he deserved it, the enemy was taken care of at the risk of the life of some of our boys.

The meeting held for Dr. Poling last night at the First Presbyterian Church, was presided over by W. Roy Bree; general secretary of the Texas Christian Endeavor Union. Dr. Poling, again delivered a part of the lecture given in the afternoon, and also spoke in the interest of the Christian Endeavor work. A special musical program was rendered by the choir. This closed the visit of Dr. Poling, who will continue on his tour in Texas.

BUCKNER ORPHANS HOME BURNS AT GOODNIGHT

Buckner Orphans Home high school building was burned down Wednesday evening of this week about 7 o'clock, at Goodnight.

There was $4,000 fire insurance carried on the building and $1,000 carried on its contents. The building cost more than $25,000 most of which is a total loss to the Buckner Orphans Home.

It is believed the first originated from a defective flue in the building. This comes as a severe shock to our orphan children, and those who believe in "Visiting the Orphans and Widows in their afflictions," as the Good Book says should open their hearts and pocket books to the relief of these unfortunate orphan children.—Claude News.

POSSIBILITIES AND PROFITS OF OUR REFINING INDUSTRY

During the present activity and excitement attending the discovering and development of our Texas oil fields, resulting in vast fortunes being made by the investors, how many of us realize how much greater the profits are for the refining companies who commence operations with their profit fixed and assume no risks.

This is very clearly set forth by the committee of public lands, United States Congress in their session of January 1915. A Mr. Oliver, sent to Oklahoma by that body in 1914, showed a chart representing 75,000,000 barrels of oil for which was received $107,000,000. Of that amount $7,000,000 went to the property owner and broker, $13,000,000 to the oil company who drilled for oil and $86,000,000 to the refinery.

Our Texas Company is another example of what success attends the refinery. In 1907 this company was capitalized at $100,000, while today it is a $60,000,000 concern, paying 26 per cent on its capitalization for the first three months of the year. The 1000 barrel plant at Jola Park in Wichita county earns its total cost every 30 days, which is regarded as nothing uncommon.

Owing to the heavy production of oil near Ranger district and the great need of refineries in that section, the Great Southern Oil and Refining Association was organized by Ex-Gov. Colquitt and C. U. Connelley of Eastland, together with several others. They will build a refinery at Eastland Texas on 41 acres purchased for that purpose. In addition have 3,600 acres of oil leases, 327 of which are located in the heart of the Ranger field, where their well is now drilling.

A limited portion of this company's stock is still available at $10 per share, and their representative, Mr. Gallagher, will take subscriptions at the Merrill Hotel until Saturday.

This investment offers the compensations of an oil company and oil refinery and the investment today pays many many times within twelve months. (221p)

WOULD ERECT $100,000 STATUE OF MARSHAL FOCH

A resolution authorizing the erection of a statue to Marshal Foch in Washington and appropriating $100,000 for the purpose was introduced in the house last Thursday by the Republican senator from Oregon.

SOUR, ACID STOMACHS, GASES OR INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" neutralizes excessive acid in stomach, relieving dyspepsia, heartburn and distress at once.

Time in five minutes all stomach distress due to acidity, will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas, eructations of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, foul breath or headache.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in relieving upset stomachs. It is the surest, quickest stomach sweetener in the world, and besides it is harmless. Put a cap to stomach distress at once by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder caused by fermentation due to excessive acids in stomach.

To Propose Changes in the Judicial System

Radical changes in the judicial system of the State are proposed in a constitutional amendment to be submitted at the next session of the Legislature, according to Representative-Elect H. B. Hill of Shamrock, who will represent the 124th District. The amendment is fostered by the Texas Bar Association and letters explaining the proposed changes have been sent to each Representative and Senator in the State.

Possibly the most radical of the changes proposed by the amendment will be that abolishing the Criminal Court of Appeals, the Civil Court of Appeals and the various county courts. The Civil and Criminal Courts of Appeal and the Supreme Court as now organized have a total of thirty-three judges. Under the amendment the three courts will be abolished and the power of the three vested in the Supreme Court with fifteen Judges who will be elected for terms of ten years each and who will receive $6,000 a year.

In explaining the need for abolishing the Courts of Civil and Criminal Appeals, Representative Hill said in many instances decision of the courts as they are now constituted were in conflict. As an instance of this kind he cited the famous pool hall cases where the civil courts granted injunctions in conflict with the action of the criminal courts in holding the law unconstitutional. The Supreme Court is now far behind with its docket and lawyers who have studied the proposed change in the Constitution, according to Representative Hill, are of the opinion that if they are approved by the citizens of the State it will enable the court to catch up with its docket in a few years.

Under the provision of the amendment the State is divided into nine judicial districts. Each of these districts will elect seven District Judges who will hold court in any part of the district in which they are needed. In this way it is hoped to reduce the expense of the courts of the State. Under the system now in force when a District Judge completes the work in his particular section he adjourns court but collects his salary for the balance of the year. Under the proposed system, after a Judge completes one term the Supreme Court may send him to some other part of his district where he will be required to hold court. The amendment practically gives the Supreme Court control of the entire judicial system of the State and at any time its docket gets heavy it will have the power to call in these District Judges to sit on the supreme bench.

Supreme Court Judges are required to hold Circuit Court at least one month out of every twelve, under the provisions of the amendment. This particular section is generally favored by lawyers for the reason that it will enable the higher courts to keep in constant touch with the working of the lower tribunals and will result in a closer understanding between the two branches of the judicial system. The District Courts will have jurisdiction over matters now coming before the County Courts.

Another matter to receive the attention of the next Legislature, according to Mr. Hill, will be that of finding some simple method for collecting delinquent taxes. Under the present system, people hesitate in purchasing land sold for taxes on account of the big risk involved. The law provides many loop holes for a person to recover land sold in this manner.

Representative Hill will probably introduce a bill to eliminate the red tape in tax sales and placing the transaction on a par with the sale of bankrupt stocks of merchandise.

HERE ARE FINAL RESULTS OF THE LAST ELECTION

Final returns of the recent elections show that drys have gained four states, suffrage two, and that Republicans elected twenty-one governors to the Democrats nine. In the senate Republicans have forty-nine to the Democrats forty-seven, and in the house Republicans have 239; Democrats 193; Independents 1; Prohibitionists, 1; and Socialists 1.

Ohio, Florida, Nevada, and Wyoming went dry. Minnesota, California, and Missouri stayed wet.

Michigan and South Dakota adopted suffrage, Louisiana rejected it and Oklahoma is still doubtful, with a possible majority of less than 500 either way.

The following states elected Republican governors; Arizona, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

The nine states electing Democrats were Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Nevada, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Carolina and Tennessee.

Prosperity and War Savings Stamps are twin brothers. Adopt them both and you will always be glad you did.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Ever it is true that the great people are those who give open thanks to the Power they recognize for the good which comes to them. Something in the strong heart has made Thanksgiving an instinct of forceful civilization. It has been so since the time when Miriam, the prophetess, played upon the timbrel while her handmaidens danced and the daring Israelites praised God because they had safely passed the sea. The old Greeks made thank offerings to their gods, and the bearded Norsemen expressed their clamorous gratitude to Odin and Thor. To the world-dominating Anglo-Saxon, with his religion of Christ, came the same impulse, and it has clung to him in each vast wilderness he has invaded. Not only has he been a giver of thanks, but he has dignified and glorified the duty and made it a feature of his national life.

It was almost a matter of course that there should suggest itself to the Puritans, rigid and God-fearing as the most earnest of Cromwell's round-heads the idea of a thanksgiving that should be formal, but it was from the flux of a new nature's munificent influence upon their lives that there came a mellowing to the character of the day's observance, that a certain hardness disappeared and that the occasion became one of open joyousness. The little shrub of observance planted in 1621 by the good Gov. Bradford has grown into a mighty tree with flowers amid its fruit.

It was good, all that happened about the time of the first Thanksgiving day. The Pilgrim fathers were in particularly jubilant mood, for them, on that occasion. Years of scanty crops and threatening starvation had been followed by a bountiful harvest and there was an absolute generosity in the preliminaries to the famous dinner. It was to be a game dinner, a dinner fit for any epicure who ever lived, and none so mean in all the colony but should be present.

So opened were the hearts of those rugged worshippers that they were not content with even this but summoned old Sachem Massasoit and all his swarthy retainers, and when the feast was spread red man and white man sat down together and were brothers. Here was Christian spirit; here was an exhibition of that broad humanity and care for the other man taught by Him who walked the strand of Galilee. Here was practical Christianity, and who shall say that from this hour, when such kindly hospitality was shown, when the good things God has bestowed upon men were eaten appreciatively and joyously, and when thanks were given more sonorously than in the past, there was not given birth to the germ of that broadness and joyousness, even in worship, which has become a trait of the American character.

DEMobilIZATION

Soon the troops will be coming home. Not all of them, for undoubtedly some will be retained, with soldiers of the Entente, for various duties, until Germany and its allies shall have complied with the conditions of peace. It may even be that fresh men will be sent over to relieve those who have been in the fight and have earned their release.

Demobilization of such a vast force, as we have in Europe is a tremendous task. It can no more be accomplished quickly than its opposite—organizing, equipping, preparing for active service and transporting a great military organization to the front—can be accomplished quickly. It is not alone the matter of bringing the men home and of mustering them out of the service, although that of itself is as great an undertaking as it was to get them across the ocean. The United States has spent untold millions abroad in public works of various kinds. Of course nothing or next to nothing will be reclaimed from the results of our expenditure on port and railway terminals for the reception of men and materials, and in other ways, but there will be a great amount of work to be done upon them before they are abandoned. Then there are immense quantities of all sorts of war material—guns, munitions and other articles—that are clearly ours, and that must be collected and brought back. There are sick and wounded in hospitals, who will be cared for where they are as long as that is necessary and who will then be taken to the returning ships. The work of all our charitable organization will be brought to an end and the personnel brought home. Moreover, the continued shipment of food for the troops and for the civilian population and the replacement of clothing and equipment worn out or lost by the soldiers are really, although not strictly, a part of demobilization.

When we remember that not only all our available shipping but a still larger tonnage of British vessels has been employed in carrying men across the ocean at the rate of about a quarter of a million a month, and that now we have more than two million men to be repatriated, there is nothing astonishing in the estimate that it will require fully two years to establish the country again on a normal peace basis. The return is sure to be more leisurely than the feverishly performed work of putting men into the field. It will be not only feasible but desirable that much of the shipping be now diverted to operations more pressing than the return of the American forces.

It is to be hoped that neither the authorities nor the people will be too anxious to complete the demobilization in a hurry. It will be an appreciated honor if some of our brave men and officers are permitted to share in the occupation of German forts and cities. In any event, the people of the devastated regions and some others of our allies will long need such assistance as our men can give them, and it will be given ungrudgingly and enthusiastically.—Youth's Companion.

INFLUENZA AND ALCOHOL

No more harmful rumor has been circulated in connection with the influenza epidemic than the one to the effect that whisky is a preventive or cure for the disease. The truth is, the worst thing one can do is to take alcohol when he is suffering from influenza, and those who drink intoxicants are much more liable to contract the disease than those who abstain from it.

Out here at the Government depot there were 400 cases of influenza. Three deaths resulted. But none of the deaths was caused by the influenza; all three of them were caused by alcoholic pneumonia—brought about because the patients heard that whisky was a good thing to take when one had the disease. It is stated that one of the unfortunate victims stated upon his death bed that he had read an advertisement saying liquor was being used in the treatment of the disease, and that he had taken whisky on that account. The person or persons printing such advertisements are therefore little better than murderers.

Whatever you think of prohibition or whether you think anything of it let alcohol alone—for the present at least. Do not weaken the system by using excessive stimulants when there is such great danger. And if you should be so unfortunate as to contract the disease, let the physician prescribed for you; do not get it into your mind that you can cure yourself by drinking alcoholic beverages. Dangerous to handle at all times, alcohol is a greater menace than ever now that we have this epidemic with us.—Columbus Dispatch, Nov. 6, 1918.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

It is unfortunate that so many truths are truisms. We would realize that early shopping at Christmas is a holy obligation if people would give up saying so. We tell each other about it, and repeat it to ourselves. And on December the 24th we join the good old annual bull-fight.

Proverbs were made to be neglected. Even ethical fundamentals are accepted to be disregarded. We agree that it is wrong to lie; we feel insulted when we are called liars; and we would be ashamed to be without a punition enough to tell a good one when expedient.

When Moses broke the stone tables of the Law on Sinai he probably saw what was coming. "What's the use of ten commandments?" he thought. "Or twenty? They'll all be endorsed and disobeyed by the same people." The ancient rule about Christmas shopping has additional backing this year. Consideration for sales girls we have habitually withheld, but here it is Miss Columbia that speaks. "Make work easy for salespeople," she says. "Don't exhaust their reserve energy—they need it for knitting. Don't make it necessary for storekeepers to hire extra clerks—they are wanted for war work. Don't buy useless things. Buy chiefly for children. Spread shopping over Nov-

FOOD PRICES IN EUROPE

Take a large cake of ice and hold it against the back of your neck. It will keep you from getting hot under the collar.

The following is a vindication of the government, which allows food to be sold to the allies at lower prices than obtained here. Many people have got mad at the president and administration for permitting it, but they should really give the policy their hearty endorsement.

A weekly wage of forty shillings is thought good pay for a skilled workman in England, where salaries are lower than here. It amounts to ten dollars a week. Offer it to a city sewer-digger in America and he will faint.

Yet British workmen, for this absurd (to us) salary, have been helping us in various ways. For a long time they have been building 150 aeroplanes a day, against 35 or 40 combat planes shipped by us in a year. In other words, British workmen, starting any morning at 7 a. m. could have quit at 10 on the same morning and rested for a year. They would have built 40, our first year's shipment; but they kept right on and supplied our army as well as theirs.

Most of the ships that carried our army to Europe were British. The British workman built and manned them—for a newsboy's income, and we should not grudge him a slight reduction on pork and beans.

The Hohenzollerns do not know where they are going but they are on their way, according to a dispatch from Amsterdam, under date of November 22, which says: "All members of the Hohenzollern dynasty will leave Germany in the near future. Their destiny is unknown." Our sympathy goes out to that country wherever they decide to make their future home. This is one bunch that we positively refuse to invite to come to Lubbock.

Continue to save. Be economical. Keep on investing in those War Savings Stamps. The only cost of the war that has stopped is the powder and lead bill and it is small compared to the others. The Government is spending $50,000,000 daily and must continue to do this for months to come. It's your business to make your War Savings Stamp book grow.

Lubbock will be placed in the Mountain Time Zone after the first of January, 1919. The new zone line enters Texas on the east line of Childress county and runs in a zigzagging fashion through the state touching Sweetwater, Big Spring and San Angelo, leaving the state somewhere in the vicinity of Del Rio.

The person who cashes his War Savings Stamps now, unless financial conditions are such that he is forced to do so, is not backing up the boys and he is not showing the proper kind of patriotism. Keep those War Savings Stamps and add to them.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER SAVES THREE WAYS

YOU SAVE WHEN YOU BUY IT

YOU SAVE TIME WHEN YOU USE IT

YOU SAVE MATERIALS IT IS USED WITH

—A moderate priced Baking Powder of greatest merit. Honestly made. Honestly sold. Economical in every way. Every particle is full of actual leavening value. A full money's worth.

—You save time when you use it. Calumet is all baking powder. It begins to raise bakings the instant they are put into the oven. You don't have to keep "peeping" to see if bakings are all right. You know they are. Calumet is sure—never fails. That's economy. And true economy—in cost—in use—in time.

One trial will prove it and show you in results why millions of proud, thrifty housewives prefer Calumet to all other brands.

The unflinching strength of Calumet guarantees perfect results. Not only saves flour—sugar—eggs, etc.—but saves Baking Powder. You use only a teaspoonful—you use two teaspoonfuls or more of most other brands.

Calumet contains only such ingredients as have been approved officially by the U. S. Food Authorities.

W.S.S. FUND FOR EVERY FIGHTER

Every soldier, sailor and marine who returns home from the service should find a "fighting fund" waiting for him. Every home should commence building up this fund now by investing in United States War Savings Stamps and laying them aside to be given to the fighter upon his return.

If relatives and friends of the men who have achieved victory want to show their appreciation they will now commence putting aside War Savings Stamps to be presented to them on their return.

By doing this, it is pointed out by the Government, not only will there be a number of first-class Treasury securities paying good interest, to assist every fighter when he returns to civilian life, but the money invested in these War Savings Stamps will enable the Government to feed and clothe the soldier, sailor or marine until he is discharged. To properly care for its men until demobilization is made, the Government must spend in the neighborhood of $50,000,000 every day and, it is further pointed out, it will be approximately a year before the army can be demobilized and the fighters returned home.

Start that fund for that fighter now by investing in War Savings Stamps for him.

Show him that you appreciate what he has done.

SOCIETY NOTES

The Philathea Class of the Baptist Sunday School gave a social at the beautiful suburban home of Rev. J. B. Cole last Friday evening. The weather was inclement but this class never lets anything daunt them and they exhibit the same zeal in social affairs as in their church work. They had as their guests a number of the nurses from the Sanitarium and other friends from every church in town. Stunts, contests and music were entered into with zeal and a jollier crowd could not have been found. No young men were present this time but many plans were discussed as to entertainments they would have in the future. "When the boys come home." Thirty-five or forty young ladies were present. Miss Halsey was awarded a pie for the rearranging of a long list of "pied" Bible characters.

The Auction Bridge Club held its usual meeting Tuesday afternoon at the beautiful home of Mrs. A. V. Weaver on West Broadway. There were eight members present. Mesdames J. S. Johnson and R. K. Henderson were invited guests as also Misses Winnie Bates, Bernice Wolf, Marion Conley and Carey Abney specially invited for Mrs. Weaver's niece who is spending the winter in the city. Refreshments of plimeto sandwiches, cheese, apple pie with whipped cream and coffee were served to those present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dow entertained a few of their friends Tuesday with a twelve o'clock dinner. Those present were Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Griswold, Mr. and Mrs. Sam T. Davis and little son "Rusty", Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Ellis, and Miss Emma Dorn, sister of Mrs. Dow who is visiting here from Colorado. After the dinner the guests were entertained by piano music and selections on the Victrola.

Mrs. W. S. Norton went to Albuquerque, N. M., where she was called to the bedside of Mr. Norton, who is there sick. Mrs. O. D. Hargis is teaching in Mrs. Norton's place during her absence.

Mr. Clyde Lewis and Miss Ora Sawyer were married in San Antonio on the 16th of November. Both of these young people lived in Brownfield, but are well known in Lubbock, where they have the good wishes of their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Wilson left Sunday for Brazoria, Texas, for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rix are spending Thanksgiving in Big Spring.

Mrs. M. B. Sawyer of Brownfield is spending the week in Lubbock.

Mrs. Johnson of Moore, spent the week-end in Lubbock with her daughters, Misses Heene, and Alberta.

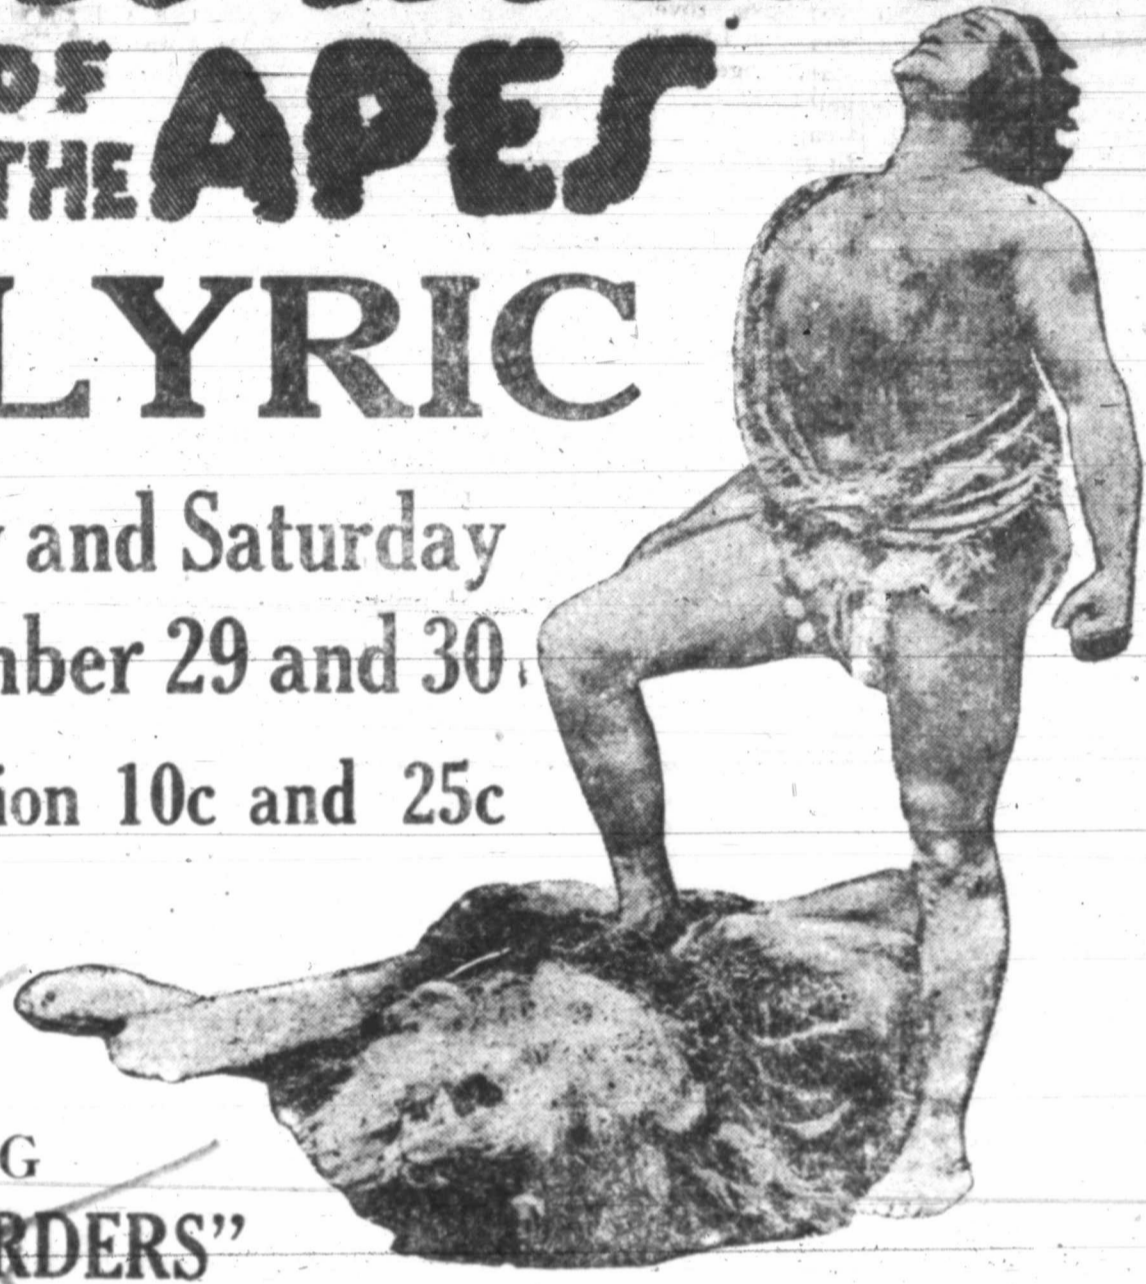

Miss Pearl Webb passed through Lubbock Tuesday from Ralls enroute to Clovis, N. M., for a visit.

YOU SHOULD HAVE YOUR LIBERTY BONDS REGISTERED

Washington, Nov. 23.—To insure against loss or theft of Liberty bonds owners are being urged by the Treasury to have their coupon bonds registered, although the procedure results in a great amount of work and expense for the government now that the number of bond owners runs above thirty millions. The registration can be arranged at most banks, and is done without cost to the owner. After registration, if a bond is accidentally lost, stolen, or destroyed, the government will pay it at maturity just the same, and interest checks will be mailed to the bond owner twice a year without requiring him to go to the trouble of clipping coupons and presenting them at a bank.

NEWS ITEMS FROM THE CENTER COMMUNITY

Mr. Burr Jones was in this vicinity last Thursday on business.

Mr. Taylor was ill again last week. We hope that he will be up again soon.

R. H. Haney and Edgar Abney motored south Saturday on business.

Eugene Emery and sons, Haney and Walter, were seen hauling feed from Mr. Abney's to feed their cattle which are in this locality.

Some of the farmers of this section have begun their listing.

E. A. Abney and wife spent Thursday evening with relatives of this community.

W. A. Dunn was in Abernathy one day last week.

Mr. John Shrader and family spent the day with Mrs. Shrader's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bowtey one day last week.

The other day Mr. Aubrey Perkins was passing through this vicinity and his car stopped on him. After working on it for some time someone discovered that he was trying to run it without gas.

A real nice little snow has been falling the last few days and is still falling at this writing. It will measure on an average of about three inches. This certainly looks favorable to the farmers for a good underground season for the future crop.

Let us all remember the 28th, as we are asked to do by the President. First of all let us thank God for guiding and directing such a great man as we now have for President of the great United States. Next let us thank Wilson for the way he used his wisdom which God had given him. But we must not forget to thank our great general who led our boys to victory. Also the boys and girls who have given their service to Uncle Sam. We hope to meet them again some day and praise them for their bravery and loyalty, but those who shed their life's blood "over there" we hope to meet in Heaven above where there shall be no pain nor sorrow.

THE SOLDIER SPEAKS.

(Captain L. B. Myers.)

We have fought your fight, we have spilled our blood,
And the graves of our pals are green;
We have gone where you sent, thru battle and scourge,
And we've come through with Victory clean.

The years of our lives are shortened by far
That the hopes you cherished might bear,
And all we ask, that the fighting is done,
Is treat our dead pals square.

And "Brotherly Love" may go for some,
Who haven't been seared by flame;
And letting the Hun may do for the breed
Who answer a coward's name.

But ask us to take the hand of a beast,
While our comrades' blood drips red,
And we'll say to the teeth of such infamy:
"Remember the boys who are dead"

There may be those who would build their wealth
With trappings of German mould,
And maybe there live a pitiful few
Who would revel in Prussian gold;

But the men from the trenches in Flanders field
Are strong in the pride of race,
We are journeying back to the West-erland
To look our old friends in the face.

We are coming back with the joust with death,
To the old remembered ways,
To tread in the paths of ambient peace
And we seek neither honor nor praise.

But the ghosts of the pals we left behind
Call out from the new turned loam,
And all that we ask, is remember the boys—
Our pals who will never come home.

WORK OF AMERICANS IN FRANCE AMAZING

American Headquarters in France Tuesday, Nov. 19.—The extent of America's military effort in France at the time the armistice was declared is shown by statistics which the Associated Press is now permitted to make public. While the stupendous figures required to tell the story are in themselves amazing, it should be remembered that they show only a part of the great effort made in war preparations in men, money and material.

On the morning of Nov. 11, the United States had in France 78,391 officers and 1,881,376 men, a total of almost 2,000,000. As has already been announced, there were 750,000 combat troops in the Argonne action. This number does not include the American unit engaged on other parts of the front.

The American Army has brought into use in operation 967 standard gauge locomotives and 13,174 standard gauge freight cars of American manufacture, in addition, it has in service 350 locomotives and 973 cars of foreign origin. To meet demands which the existing French railways were unable to meet, 845 miles of standard gauge railway were constructed. Five hundred miles of this have been built since June 1.

On top of this, the Department of Light Railways reports the construction of 115 miles of road and 140 miles of German light railways were repaired and put in operation. Two hundred and twenty-five miles of French railway were operated by the Americans. In addition the American Expeditionary Forces had in operation Nov. 11 more than 53,000 motor vehicles of all descriptions.

Ten steamer berths have been built at Bordeaux, having a total length of 4,100 feet. At Montor, near St. Nazaire, eight berths are under construction with a total length of over 3,200 feet. Warehouses having an aggregate floor area of almost 23,000,000 square feet also have been constructed. This development of French ports increased facilities to such an extent that even if the Germans had captured Calais and other channel ports, as they had planned, the allies loss would have been strategically unimportant.

Over in Denver Colorado, churches are permitted to hold services, theaters and shows are allowed to continue, and schools to operate, but those in attendance must wear a flu mask. It is probably only a matter of time, oh, maybe a thousand years, when everybody will be required to wear a mask at all times when in public gatherings.

ESTIMATE OF DAMAGES TO BE ASKED OF GERMANY

Le Matin presents the present tentative estimate of the sum which it says should be demanded from Germany by France alone: For the 1870 debt, 60,000,000,000 francs ($12,000,000,000); expenses of the present war 40,000,000,000 francs ($8,000,000,000); pensions 40,000,000,000 francs; reparations of damages, 100,000,000,000 francs, $20,000,000,000; total 340,000,000,000 francs or $68,000,000,000.

HAVE YOU PAID YOUR W. S. S. PLEDGES?

All War Savings Stamp pledges for November will be due for liquidation before Dec. 1, it was announced today by Louis Lipsitz, State Director of the War Savings Committee, who pointed out that the signing of the peace armistice does not release anyone from the pledge made the U. S. Treasury Department to invest in War Savings Stamps.

The War savings director also called attention to the fact that the Government's expenses have not stopped but are going on at the rate of about $50,000,000 daily or $1,500,000,000 every month and that this expense will continue for months to come.

Resolution of Respect.

We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to our deceased brother W. C. Green, submit the following:

Whereas, death has removed from our midst and fellowship our worthy and beloved brother, W. C. Green.

Be it resolved, that we as a Lodge, have lost a friend and true Brother, Claud as we knew him was a real Odd-Fellow. His chair is vacant, his voice is still, his presence no more, but his real spirit shall live on with us.

As Brethren we bow in humble submission to Him that doeth all things well, and ask His blessings on the Brotherhood and loved ones.

Resolved further, that in memory of him we recommend that a copy of this resolution be spread on our minutes, also one furnished the family, and the Lubbock Avalanche for publication.

A. A. Collins,
W. A. Morris, Committee.

ESTIMATING THE COST OF THE GREAT WORLD WAR

The $175,000,000,000 which the war has already cost, according to an estimate of the Federal Reserve Board, is only the total amount of money that has been spent by the several belligerents. The estimate takes no account of the property destroyed. This will be less, though not very much less, if a bill of damages made out by a Paris newspaper in behalf of France is to be accepted as a clue to the probable total. However, for the purpose of speculating as to the probable amount of indebtedness that will have to be liquidated as a consequence of the war, that bill of damages is not very significant. It is probably grossly extravagant, for one thing, and, for another, it is well to keep the fact in mind that the allies will be dealing with bankrupt debtors.

Of the $200,000,000,000 which the Federal Reserve Board estimates will have been spent before peace shall be formally made, $50,000,000,000, it says, has been raised by taxation, leaving $150,000,000,000 as the total of bonds issued. Of this amount our own share will be, according to this estimate, about $23,000,000,000. But this is subject to the deduction of about $5,000,000,000 which is the total of the loans made to the allies. Thus the public debt of the United States will have been increased by about $15,000,000,000, the interest on which will be something like $175,000,000 annually.

When one reflects that this is within $300,000,000 or $250,000,000 of expenses of the Government before the war, the additional tax burden thus entailed, even without considering what will be required for a sinking fund, is apt to excite a painful feeling in the average taxpayer. Nevertheless, the event is not likely to justify the dismal reveries which the mathematics of the matter may occasion. We shall have increased production and decreased waste as a result of the war, and that is a formula which guarantees a much earlier recuperation than will seem to be possible under superficial consideration. Energy and economy are the magic twins that will do the work of liquidation, and, in doing it, impose on us habits which, considering only its financial aspect, will make the war a boon bought at a bargain.

Profit Sharing Sale

To Our Customers and the Public Generally:

For the first time this early in the season, we shall begin a GREAT PROFIT-SHARING SALE, now in Full Swing, and will continue UNTIL DECEMBER 7TH.

We know that we are just now entering the season of most rapid and profitable selling. OUR STOCK IS LARGE, COMPLETE AND DEPENDABLE. The trend of prices is still upward-high as they are now. But notwithstanding these facts, we have decided upon sweeping and substantial reduction on EVERYTHING IN OUR ENTIRE STOCK. DISCOUNTS WILL VARY FROM TEN TO TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT but NOTHING WILL ESCAPE REDUCTION.

Repeated shortage of crops, added to many special calls for cash, make it difficult for many good people to secure all they need without some price concession from today's values.

As merchants, we realize our obligation to help relieve this situation as far as we can, which, with other good reasons, impel us at this time to make substantial reductions on everything.

In addition to these special prices, every customer will have an equal chance to obtain one of our five prizes, aggregating Five Hundred Dollars in value, to be awarded on December 24th.

Liberty bonds will be accepted as cash at face-value in payment of merchandise and old obligations, but no money will be advanced on bonds.

Three hundred votes will be given for each dollar paid on old notes and accounts.

BEYOND DOUBT this is an UNUSUALLY good time to buy in-season goods at prices materially less than normal.

Note the price-concessions below, and make your arrangements to avail yourself of these special offerings.

Shoes for Men, Women and Children

We carry only good grades of all leather shoes. Because of a scarcity of efficient laborers in shoe factories, deliveries will be slow and the prices high for some time yet, hence it's a good time to buy.

Special discount on all Star Brand, Nettleton, and Helming & McKenzie Shoes, Rubbers and Overshoes, 10 per cent off regular prices.

On all other brands including J. & K. and Red Cross, TWENTY PER CENT OFF.

Ladies' and Children's Dresses

On all Ladies and Children's dresses, coats and suits, the discount will range from TEN to 25 PER CENT OFF OF regular price.

On all men's, women and children's Underwear 20 PER CENT OFF regular price.

By a glance through our stock, you will see that we are offering the VERY BEST MERCHANDISE, select and dependable, at substantial discounts. It is as we stated at the outset, the period when sales are largest at full, regular prices. But we have decided to make a REAL PROFIT-SHARING OFFERING, one that WILL MEAN A SAVING OF THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS IN THE AGGREGATE to our customers, one in which every purchaser will share. And now, as in the past, we will make good on every price and promise.

CHURCH NOTES

Special Laymen's Service. There is being arranged by the laymen of the Methodist church a special program to be rendered in the Methodist church Sunday night, December 8th. The public is invited to this service and it will be worth your time to attend this meeting. It will be a program of short talks, good music, etc., and you will enjoy it. Be present and encourage the laymen in their work, which is becoming a very important part of the church work.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather Sunday morning there was a good crowd out to Sunday School at the Methodist church and quite a sermon by the pastor, J. T. Griswold. He took as his theme "Worship God" and his discourse was well received. The layman's meeting was also well attended, considering the weather, and a good program was rendered.

C. H. Grollman and Company have a double page ad this week inviting you to take advantage of their great money raising sale. Read their ad and see what they offer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Agnew and Mrs. Hoyat Agnew and baby, returned Wednesday from a visit of a few days with Mrs. W. R. Standefer at Wilson, Texas.

The sale at Lubbock Dry Goods Company now on, will be among the greatest yet—Don't miss it.

Miss Beatrice Caraway, one of the nurses at the Lubbock Sanitarium, was called to bed Sunday on account of the sickness of her parents.

Rev. Collins and several members of his family are confined to their home with influenza this week.

Last Friday the Senate Political and Election committee voted nine to two to dismiss proceedings against Senator La Follette of Wisconsin, for an alleged disloyal speech at St. Paul more than a year ago.

PLANT PECAN TREES FOR SHADE TREES

P. L. Downs of Temple, Texas, has written the following account of his experience in the use of pecan trees for shade trees and in budding fine pecans upon the wild and comparatively unproductive wild pecan trees.

If anyone doubts the practicability of planting pecan trees for shade trees in the black land section, I wish to dissipate that idea. As a practical demonstration that pecan trees will grow successfully and fruit abundantly in Temple, I would give the "doubting Thomases" a very urgent invitation to visit my premises at any time and personally inspect the various types of pecan trees I have growing in my yard.

I have twenty-five pecan trees on my small residence lot, 110 feet by 150 feet, and these, in addition to hackberry and catalpa trees. Some of these are natives, transplanted from my farm, others were grown on the premises from the nut, while others have been transplanted from various nurseries.

As an illustration of the practicability of budding and grafting the native or wild trees, I would like for those interested to see a large native tree, transplanted from my farm to my yard twelve years ago, that has never been bloomed, much less borne any fruit. Last year, in June, one limb of this tree was grafted with a Halbert paper shell pecan graft. Two long limbs have been the result, and I will gather from these grafted limbs this year about fifty fine Halbert nuts.

On a similar tree, of the same age and history, three limbs were grafted with the Burkitt pecan. Two out of the three developed successfully and bore about twenty-five to thirty fine large nuts. Another native tree, twelve years old, that has borne for several years a very small uncommercialized nut was grafted last June with an improved paper shell type, and has borne this year several bunches of pecans. Several native trees that have never borne and that were grafted last year with the Bradley, the Schley and the Money-maker, all improved paper shell types, show long limbs and splendid growth, and while they have not borne this year, they will doubtless fruit in another year.

These results, while not great, have been obtained during the most severe and protracted drouth ever known in this section. On another tree planted and grown from the nut twelve years ago that has never previously bloomed or borne any fruit, was budded last September a year ago with a Halbert bud resulting in a new growth from six to eight feet in length. All of the limbs on the native stock were cut off, leaving the new budded Halbert stock as the main stem of the tree, and I have just gathered from this tree about sixty nuts of the Halbert type.

I simply mention these instances to show that the cultivated pecan, or in other words the budded or grafted tree or nursery tree will bring substantial results in so much less time than a native, or wild tree.

On a San Saba nursery tree, planted last year, I find already one cluster of pecans. From two Texas Prolific trees, about eight years old, transplanted from the nursery and which have been bearing heavily for several years, I am gathering every few days quite a basketful of fine, large pecans. On a Kincaid nursery tree that bears every year, and now is eight years old, I will get this season nearly half a bushel of splendid nuts. The Twentieth Century and Stewart (both nursery trees and annual bearers) now eight years old, while not bearing so heavily this year are producing good results.

It is certainly gratifying to the occupants of "Pecan Shade" that, while the pecan crop in this section this year is exceedingly short (because of the severe and protracted drouth, no doubt) we can enjoy the fruits of our efforts in "planting pecan trees for shade trees" and afford our "kiddies" and their neighbor friend an opportunity to have a "nutting party" every few days during the picking season.

Superintendent Hull of the Santa Fe, at my suggestion, had planted in the Santa Fe Park here early last year a number of Texas Prolific, Colorado and San Saba pecan trees. Some of these trees fruited last fall, in less than one year's time after being planted. These same trees have fruited again this fall, and the park keeper has just handed me a number of choice nuts gathered from the trees.

How any one, with these few practical illustrations and undoubted verifications, can doubt the practicability of planting pecan trees or offer as a reason for not doing so that it takes pecan trees too long to grow or to bear, is beyond my comprehension. The 50,000 shade trees in Temple that have been grown here in the last thirty-five years could just as easily have been pecans, walnuts or some other nut tree. In such event Temple would have been recognized as the Pecan City, and these trees would be worth as much to the town as its grain crop.

Secretary W. A. Spencer of the Temple Chamber of Commerce, in charge of the Bell County exhibit at the Waco Cotton Palace, testified that the pecans from my yard, covering various types, elicited universal and favorable comment and made quite an attractive addition to the exhibit. A number of people interested in pecan growing and doubting the wisdom of planting them in this section called to especially see them and made numerous inquiries regarding them.

Moral: "Plant pecan trees for shade trees."

PLANS ARE MADE TO RETURN WAR WORKERS

Washington, Nov. 25.—Plans to assist in the return home of thousands of war workers in Washington soon to be released by the transition of government bureaus from a war to peace basis, were considered at a conference today of personnel officers of the war department.

J. C. Schofield, chief clerk of the department, was directed by Secretary Baker to prepare recommendations as to methods of aiding the workers. Mr. Baker said it would be "tragical" to have the workers, many of whom, he said, came to Washington to work for the government from purely patriotic motives, thrown suddenly out of work. Suggestion has been made, officials said, that provisions be made to supply transportation home for the employees or that some bonus be paid as recompense for short discharge notice.

TOTAL SUBSCRIBED TO LOAN IS $6,989,047,000

Washington, Nov. 19.—Total subscriptions to the Fourth Liberty Loan are $6,989,047,000, the Treasury Department announced tonight after final tabulations had been completed. The oversubscription of $989,047,000 was 16.48 per cent. Every Federal Reserve district exceeded its allotted quota.

This makes the fourth Liberty loan by far the greatest war loan ever floated by this or any other Government. For the fourth consecutive time in the last eighteen months of war the American people have given more than the Government asked to finance the war program. Including the four Liberty loans and war sav-

Thousands of American mothers, fathers and friends are anxiously scanning the casualty lists each day when they are given out, to see if a son, brother, relative or friend, is reported dead, wounded or missing, and most of us are able to find in the long list each time someone that we have known. The department is yet quite a bit behind with their reports, and it is feared that when all the accounts are in that the Panhandle will have several in the killed-in-action list. Our boys were brave, determined, and the type that counted for much when they went over the top. We hope that the mothers of the thousands of Panhandle boys will be spared that grief, and their sons will soon be returned to them, with that wonderful satisfaction of having done their full duty.

Panther Division Casualties Heavy Says Returned Captain

The casualties of the Panther Division total higher than was expected, according to Capt. E. M. Matson of the Hundred and Forty-first Infantry, who has just returned from overseas. The Division has been in more severe fighting than has been announced and instead of having three days of it, as was indicated by Washington dispatches, recently, the Texans and Oklahomans fought for sixteen days, from Sept. 26 until Oct. 12.

The Seventy-first Infantry Brigade, formerly commanded by Brig. Gen. Henry Hutchings, lost 2,200 men in three days of fighting, Captain Matson said. The Seventy-second lost but slightly less heavily.

Two Majors Killed. Maj. Henry Hutchings of the Hundred and Forty-first, son of the general, was killed by Hun shell fire just after he had given the order to go over the top and he had taken but ten steps when he was struck. He was killed almost instantly, but his men never hesitated, they had been so well disciplined, and fought with all the more vigor.

Maj. B. F. Wright of Waco, Hundred and Forty-fourth Infantry, was killed as he was leading an attack to capture a German machine gun nest. A machine gun bullet got him. The nest, however, was taken, although the loss was tremendous. Wright undertook to take the nest with 120 men and 100 of them were killed or wounded.

Captain Matson formerly commanded Company B of the Hundred and Forty-first and he declared that its every officer, both commissioned, and noncommissioned, had been killed. Matson was with his old company but a short time after it reached France, having been transferred to special duty back of the lines. He has been mustered out and is now on his way to Laredo, his home, where he expects to remain. He commanded Company B throughout the training period at Camp Bowie.

Division Split Up. "The Panther Division is nothing like it was when it left here last summer," said Matson. "After we reached France many were taken from each regiment and placed in other divisions. Out of my own regiment 700 men were transferred. And hundreds of others were taken from the Forty-second and Nineteenth Divisions and sent to us. Besides practically all of the former National Guard line officers have been relieved. They were either let out of the service or were given duties back of the front. Colonel Johnson, who commanded the Engineers, Capt. L. G. White, assistant inspector who was a preacher here; Colonel Jackson, who commanded my regiment; Col. J. S. Hoover, who had the Hundred and Forty-third, were among those relieved early in the game. Col. J. E. Muchert, as you know, was relieved.

"The Division landed at Brest. Sixteen torpedo boat destroyers abreast escorted us into the harbor and two of the ships carried balloons. We saw no submarines at all going over, but every precaution was taken in case we should. The Thirty-sixth Division did not use the Vaterland, now the Leviathan, but I do know that the vessel carried as many as 10,000 soldiers at one time abroad. Yet before the war we Americans did not worry about invasion, saying it was impossible to transport soldiers here!

Infantry Loses Heavily. "The Hundred and Forty-second also lost heavily in the fighting, but I think my own regiment lost more. It was the hardest hit. The Indians of the Hundred and Forty-second started in easy and without much enthusiasm, but when they saw blood they got excited and turned into savages again and tore into the Huns with such havoc that there was no withstanding them.

"Practically all of our fighting was hand-to-hand with the Huns. We had no trenches in the Rheims sector, nor in the Argonne. We did have holes, partly made by shells and partly by ourselves, when we dug in after we quit fighting.

"Hundreds of the men were gassed. I don't know how many fatally. When you get a good whiff of the stuff you've got to vomit and you can't wear the mask when you do that. This happened with our men and it only made matters worse. Officers of the Rainbow Division who were assigned to us declared we tackled harder fighting than did their own division and the Rainbow was the first division of the National Guard over there.

"On Sept. 25, one day before the Texans were ordered to go over, the top for the first time, the men were extremely anxious and nervous, not through fear but because they were simply anxious to wade in and it was a novel situation to them. They went over at 5 a. m. and then kept it up, day and night until Oct. 12. Oct. 8 and 9 saw our hardest battles and heaviest losses.

Anxious for Home. "I left the division one day after the armistice was signed, and believe me, the officers and men of the Thirty-sixth were glad when the news was received. We were all at breakfast when the information came and there were great cheers, singing and clapping. The men want to come home. They think they've had enough and have done enough. Their feeling is so strong in this regard that they half jokingly say anyone who says they want to remain at the front ought to be sniped. And most of them want to come back and farm, too. They can't get back one day too soon to suit them.

"As to a review of the division being held here, the citizens would never know it. Too many of the officers and men have been changed. What they want to have is a reunion of the old Camp Bowie forces in a year or so, here in Fort Worth. We saw little of General Smith, commanding, but Col. E. J. Williams, chief of staff, was about as usual and very popular. While you know that Lieut. Col. Alvin Owsley is now adjutant and that Maj. W. L. Culbertson is inspector, there have been many other staff changes. Maj. J. S. Upham, assistant chief of staff; Lieut. Col. W. R. Scott, former adjutant; Maj. J. V. Kuznik, former ordnance officer; have all been transferred. Regular Army officers succeeded National Guard officers who were given other duties. Both artillery regiments are not with the division any more but are attached to corps headquarters.

"The men of the division are so anxious to get home that often I have heard them express envy of a man having an arm or leg shot off, for they get invalidated back home.

Huns Willing Prisoners. "My new duties took me all over France. Part of the time I had charge of German prisoners. You have read frequently where one American soldier captured 50 to 100 prisoners single handed. Maybe you didn't believe it, but it is true. However, it doesn't take so much valor for often 100 Huns wanted to surrender, insisted upon it, and were happy when allowed to. That accounts for these wholesale surrenders to one man.

"I saw Lieut. Col. J. J. O'Reilly frequently, and he is making good in charge of the division sanitary train. Maj. Lloyd Hill of Fort Worth is one of the few old officers who made good and stuck. He is well thought of as an officer. Hill has a battalion in the Hundred and Forty-fourth.

"There is plenty of food in France. None of us had trouble in getting all the meat, bread and vegetables we wanted, but there was a scarcity of sugar. Butter also is plentiful. Cost of food in war-stricken France is much less than the cost over here where there was no fighting.

"Back of the lines, when our division is resting, they are always billeted in French homes, the American Government paying for it, and at good prices too. But at the front the men slept, not in good warm dugouts but in the open, in shell craters or small holes they dig themselves.

"The weather has been very wet over there, but the men are not getting sick. Only newcomers seem to get ill and we had our time of it here at Bowie. The men fought with zest during all the fighting and were anxious to keep it up. It was only when the armistice was declared that they were anxious to return home. If they are not allowed to come back soon I am sure they will formally request it.

Huns Dodge Bayonet. "The Huns in their fighting against the Thirty-sixth, tried to avoid bayonet fighting and stuck to their machine guns, the very thing we were anxious to avoid. The Huns couldn't do anything to the Texans in hand-to-hand fighting and it was only the withering machine gun fire from rocks and trees together with gas attacks that did the most damage. "Once, when the Seventy-first was ordered over the top, the wave was broken, part of the men leaving too soon, and this caused some confusion. There was some mistake in orders for which the men were not to blame and the losses were heavy on this account. Anyway, when our men ever started for an object they got it every time. The first orders read to reach a point thirty miles to northwest and that is what they accomplished.

"The French losses will likely turn out much less than those of the British, for the latter bore the brunt of the fighting always. There was too much of an understanding between German and French. The latter fought for a few days and then would go to rest up for a few weeks while the British always kept on fighting to the last ditch. All allied soldiers are now glad its over with. "The German prisoners I handled gave every sign of being glad to be captured. They often told us so. But in writing back home they insisted that they were sorry and wanted to get back into the fight. They had to write this I suppose, otherwise it would have been dangerous for them to return."

Come to Lubbock.

Reflections of David.
By Geo. M. Hunt, Lubbock, Texas

Near Bethlehem, my native home,
Where, as a youth, I used to roam,
I watched beside the murm'ring rills,
My father's flocks among the hills.

Along still waters I was led,
Beneath the twinkling stars o'er-head,
For me there was a cheerful scene,
While wand'ring thru the pastures green.

While in my shepherd's garb arrayed,
In Palestine my harp I played,
And from the music, catch sweet strains,
Resounding o'er Judean plains.

I've strolled along the mountain streams,
Beneath fa'r Luna's smiling beams,
Or gathered flowers thru the day,
That always bloom in early May.

I've seen the robin and the wren,
When flitting thru the wooded glen
And other birds whose plumage shines
While singing in the swaying pines.

But now those happy times are gone,
And lonely days are drifting on,
In Babylon so far away!
We think of home land ev'ry day.

We sat down by the river side,
And in our loneliness we cried,
When we remembered Zion's songs,
And the Babylonian wrongs.

But here our Jewish captive band,
Could sing no songs in this strange land,
And, waiting in the ev'ning breeze,
We hung our harps on willow trees.

The average man's intentions are several leaps ahead of his actions.

TEXAS INFANTRY TO REMAIN IN SERVICE

Fort Worth, Texas, Nov. 23.—According to advices received here today the infantry companies of the Third Brigade, National Guard of Texas, are to be placed on a peace footing at once and retained in the service of the State. The new National Guard will take the place of the former Guard, which served in France as a part of the Thirty-Sixth Division.

An armory will be provided for each company and the men will be furnished with uniforms, arms and equipment. Drill will be held once a week and a summer encampment to last one month.

General Harley in his communication compliments the officers and men of the new infantry regiments very highly and says they were paid a high compliment by Secretary of War Baker, also, when he designated them for Federal draft recently.

CANYON COMMUNITY

The weather is very pleasing to most of the people that are through with their work because it will put a season in the ground for a good crop. There has been about two inches of snow fell.

Mrs. T. Crim returned Monday from Kaufman County, where she was called to the bedside of her mother.

Quite a number of people have come out to the school house and gave some interesting talks of the Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Richie has gone to East Texas to be with his wife and other relatives.

Miss Maud Hufstedler and Mrs. Fletcher Richardson visited the school Friday afternoon.

The school is progressing nicely and more new pupils are being added to the roll each week.

J. P. Webb had a sale of his farm implements and stock. He had good luck in selling everything that was put up. Mr. Henry Webb from Plainview came down to be at the sale. Mr. Parks was the auctioneer.

Bromo and Inez Crim spent Saturday and Sunday with homefolks.

Mr. D. E. Fowler's family has the "flu" but are all getting along as well as could be expected.

Saturday was a good nice cool day for the men and boy to hunt rabbits, and there were quite a number of them killed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Burford have moved into the teacherage.

Mr. Jobe Green's little son, Rob, has been in the sanitarium the last two weeks. He had an operation. We are glad to report that he is up and probably will start to school on Monday.

The farmers are all about through with their work as the weather has been fine the last week and almost all of the maize is headed and the cotton picked.

The influenza has visited almost every family in this vicinity but is showing signs of going away.

Mr. G. T. Crawford had a telephone put in his house while they had the "flu."

Mrs. T. Crim left last Friday for Kaufman county where she was called to the bedside of her mother.

The school has been postponed for several weeks on account of the influenza epidemic.

REV. HUNT'S CHURCH RAISES SALARY THIS YEAR

The following from the Abilene Reporter, shows the thrift of the St. Paul church at Abilene, and appreciation for their pastor:

At a meeting of the official board of St. Paul Methodist church which was held Thursday night the official board raised the salary of the pastor, Rev. J. W. Hunt, to $2,500 and adopted plans for an enlarged year's work. This congregation is having a steady growth, new members being received every Sunday. The present membership is well over five hundred.

DR. SENSABAUGH IS ASSIGNED BIG WACO CHURCH

The Central Texas Conference of the Methodist church which recently convened, assigned Dr. Sensabaugh, who until the last session of the Northwest Texas Conference was presiding elder of the Abilene District, was assigned the pastorate of the Fifth Street Methodist church at Waco, Texas. This is one of the strong churches of the Central Conference and the many friends of Dr. Sensabaugh will be pleased to know that he was recognized as one of the foremost preachers of the state, which he is.

Dallas is on the job. The Chamber of Commerce is already working on a plan to have all Texas and Oklahoma soldiers meet there next spring in a reunion.

SOME NEWS ITEMS FROM THE RALLS BANNER

A whole mountain of feed is stored at the elevator, which indicates that this crop is yielding far beyond the expectations of our farmers. Maize is bringing something over $32 per ton.

The big brick building which is to be occupied by Bird and Dean, located on the corner of the square, where the Masonic building was formerly located, is now almost complete, only some necessary finishing work being required to make it ready for occupancy.

Joe Brown was called to Stamford this week on the sad mission of attending the funeral of his father.

His many friends here extend him their sincere sympathy in his sad bereavement.

Now that the war is over Ralls is destined to have an era of unprecedented prosperity and growth. In fact, the most sanguine expectations of our optimistic citizens will be more than realized in the growth that our town is destined to experience in the very near future. Electric lights will be among the first improvements and we are informed from a very reliable source that an up-to-date plant will be established here at no great distant date, and among other improvements is to be a factory that will carry a pay roll of something like $20,000.00 per month.

GEN. PERSHING LEADS ARMY INTO LUXEMBURG

Luxemburg, No. 21—(Thursday) General Pershing entered the city of Luxemburg this afternoon ahead of his troops. The American commander and his staff drove into the capital in automobiles. The general was greeted by thousands of cheering Luxemburgers and with the blowing of sirens and the ringing of church and school bells.

The eighteenth infantry of the first division were the first American troops to enter the city.

The Americans were greeted by thousands of civilians, who lined the streets through which the troops marched. School children tossed flowers in their pathway and each soldier was presented a bouquet of chrysanthemums.

Information over the phone Monday stated that about three inches of snow fell there Monday morning.

CASCARETS' WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—Take Cascarets tonight.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Migraine Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sends out fumes like garbage in a tight barrel. That's the first step to unfold misery, indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental depression, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

Prepare for the hard times that may come, invest in War Savings Stamps now. Get the umbrella ready for the rainy day.

BIG SURPRISE TO MANY IN LUBBOCK

People are surprised at the INSTANT action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika. ONE SPOONFUL flushes the ENTIRE bowels tract so completely it relieves ANY CASE sour stomach, gas or constipation and prevents appendicitis. The INSTANT, pleasant action of Adler-ika surprises both doctors and patients. It removes foul matter which poisoned your stomach for months. B. P. Hopkins, druggist.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Crist! Try It! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a small bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glazes with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scrub robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

PRESIDENT WILSON HAS SIGNED BONE-DRY BILL

President Wilson signed the bone-dry prohibition measure last Friday that will prohibit the sale of all intoxicating liquors after June 30, 1919, and continue in force until the last of the American troops have been demobilized.

The bone-dry rider known as the Sheppard amendment, provides that the manufacture of beer and wine shall cease May 1 of next year and the sale of all kinds of intoxicants shall stop after June 30. Importation of wine from other countries is to be prohibited after May 1. The bill originally contained a provision which would have forbidden the importation of wines immediately upon the approval of the act.

McADOO RESIGNS AS SEC. OF THE TREASURY

Washington, Nov. 22.—William G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury, director general of the railroads and often discussed as one of the presidential possibilities of 1920, has resigned his office to return to private business.

President Wilson has accepted his resignation. Mr. McAdoo will give up the treasury portfolio as soon as a successor has been appointed. He wished to lay down his work as director general of railroads by January 1, but will remain if the president has not then selected a successor to him.

Upon the new secretary of the treasury, whoever he may be will devolve the task of financing the nation through the transition of war to peace; which probably will include at least two more Liberty Loans and possibly also a further revision of the system of war taxation.

Letters between President Wilson and Mr. McAdoo, made public today with the announcement of the resignation, give Mr. McAdoo's reasons for leaving the cabinet solely as a necessity for replenishing his personal fortune and express the president's deep regret at losing his son-in-law from his official family.

O. B. COLQUITT NOW WANTS PERSHING PRESIDENT

Former Governor O. B. Colquitt of Dallas, says that he is for Pershing for President of the United States in 1920.

"General Pershing should be elected President," said Gov. Colquitt, "and I believe that he will be elected. It makes no difference which political party shall nominate him, he ought to be elected. I do not consider that General Pershing has any politics so far as the organized parties in this country are concerned. He is a soldier and has been a soldier all his life. His achievements entitle him to be President and I am for him on any ticket. There will be two million soldiers all over the United States who will also be for him for President."

"SYRUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! It coated your little one's stomach, liver and bowels, need cleansing as one. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has sore throat, diarrhoea, chill of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well-playful child again. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

DEMobilIZATION BEGAN AT CAMP TRAVIS SUNDAY

Two hundred and fifty men were discharged from the 165th Depot Brigade at Camp Travis at 9 o'clock Sunday morning, the first of thousands at the cantonment who are soon to be returned to civil life. The men marched in a body to headquarters, where they saluted the flag and then received honorable discharges. Each man, as well as those who hereafter are discharged, will be presented with a war service certificate, the gift of the organizations that have maintained war aid agencies at the camp. A peculiar incident is that Maurice D. Bryant, Acting Sergeant Major of the Depot Brigade, the first man to be inducted into the army at Camp Travis, was the first man to be discharged.

NEWS SQUIBBS FROM TERRY COUNTY HERALD

Terry county went over in due time in its drive for the United War Work fund, and the dollars are still rolling in. It is reported that the Needmore community in the north part of this county, says they are going to double their quota, and they want it so stated, and want us to give them something hard next time.

This and Yoakum county had $3,000 to raise. Terry taking $2,200 and leaving $800 for Yoakum to raise. Every blessed one of the Plains committee was sick with influenza or pneumonia last week, and they were given another week, and we bet Yoakum will show up alright in the end.

T. H. Green of the Gomez community has ginned ten bales of cotton and is not over the first time, the field of 100 acres being apparently as white behind as in front. He will realize close to $5,000 for his cotton, not to say anything about a 100 acre field of splendid grain. He said he did not want $4,000 for his crop before he started gathering, and do not blame him.

Chas. Acker informed us this week that he got all his feed cut, shocked or ricked before the wind storm last Saturday. The cotton farmers report that but little cotton was blown out, the biggest damage being dust and trash blown into the staple. The storm reached as far east as Cleburne, with cyclones in portions of Oklahoma.

Yesterday morning was the coldest morning this year. The minimum temperature at the Government weather station registered 22.

The news came into Brownfield Monday, that Clyde Lewis and Miss Ora Sawyer, were married at Camp Travis last Sunday afternoon 6:30 p. m., thus terminating several years of youthful sweethearts into that blissful state of permanent sweethearts.

45 AMERICAN VESSELS LOST BY ACTS OF ENEMY

Loss of 145 American passenger and merchant vessels of 354,449 tons and 775 lives through acts of the enemy during the period from the beginning of the world war to the cessation of hostilities November 11, is shown by figures made public by the department of commerce's bureau of navigation. The report does not include several vessels the loss of which has not been established, as due to acts of the enemy.

Nineteen vessels and 67 lives were lost through use of torpedoes, mines and gun fire prior to the entrance of the United States into the war.

AMERICAN CASUALTIES NOW ESTIMATED AT 235,117

Washington, Nov. 23.—The total casualties in the American expeditionary forces up to the signing of the armistice were 235,117, divided as follows:

Killed in action and died of wounds, 36,154.
Died of disease 13,811.
Died from other causes, 2,204.
Wounded 179,925.
Prisoners, 2,163.
Missing, 1,660.

Chief of Staff General Peyton C. March made this announcement today. The American forces in France have taken 44,000 German prisoners and 1,400 guns. The casualties of the American forces in Northern Russia are not severe. The movement of troops from France will be expedited in every way, he added, and "they will not sneak into the country, either."

Demobilization of the American expeditionary forces already in progress with the movement homeward of the sick and wounded will be hastened by the return at an early date of eight divisions of national guards and national army corps, eight regiments of coast artillery and two brigades of field artillery. This announcement was made today by General March on receipt of dispatches from General Pershing. The divisions which General March said had been designated by General Pershing to return as soon as the sick and wounded have been removed to the United States are:

National Guards: 31st Georgia, Alabama and Florida. 34th Nebraska Iowa, South Dakota and Minnesota; 38th Indiana, Kentucky and West Virginia; 39th Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana.

National Army: 76th New England; 84th Kentucky, Indiana and Southern Illinois; 86th Northern Illinois, including Chicago; 87th Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi and Southern Alabama.

The coast artillery regiments to be returned as soon as possible were announced as the 46th, 47th, 49th, 50th, 73rd, 74th, and 75th. The two field artillery brigades to be brought home are the 65th and the 163rd.

Fifty-two aerial squadrons, 11 construction companies and special units in England will be brought home as soon as possible.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S FRUIT SALT—best powder given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or expel the worms, and the Child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 5c per bottle.

INFLUENZA REACHES HIGH STAGE AT VEGA, TEXAS

According to a dispatch in the daily papers of Friday last the influenza epidemic had just reached its most critical stage in that community. Last week and continuing through this week, there have been more cases there than at any time since the scourge commenced to sweep over the country. Last week there were hardly enough well people to care for those who were sick. The addition of three nurses from Amarillo improved the conditions materially.

Two deaths occurred last week, where "Flu" was followed by pneumonia. There is scarcely a family in the whole country that has not had one or more cases of the disease. Three cowboys from the ranches are being cared for in the court house, having been moved there from the hotel.

UGH! CALUMEL MAKES YOU DEEPLY SICK

Stop using dangerous drug before it salivates you! It's horrible!

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to attack your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee: Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tonic tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.

THE LIVING HUN SPIRIT.

The Hun still is in our midst. The same modern Judas Iscariot who has slunk along the dark alleys of the nation while American boys were dying in France, betraying, conniving with crimes of every description, dipping his hands in the foulest crimes of history is still at large. He was unable to destroy the faith of America in its time of trial. All the wiles of a degenerate race could not shake the ideals and principles of the United States while the stress of war was upon us; but he has not despaired. While the Hun across the sea cries "Mercy, Mercy," when there is no mercy, the Hun in our midst is seeking by every insidious device in his power to dethrone reason and to confound the authorized spokesman in the coming peace negotiations. "Brotherly Love" is his theme now. To a Christian nation he comes with the doctrine which Christ taught. But he forgets that the same Christ who taught brotherly love did not let the money changers back into the temple. He forgets that a Christian nation does not let its murderers go free. He forgets that leniency is only meted to those who deserve leniency.

The graves are still fresh in Flanders. The dismantled homes of thousands of humble, peace loving peasants are still smoking along the old battle front in France. May these ever rise before the vision of Americans while the honeyed words of Hunied-interests are whispered in beguiling tones to American ears. The fight against savagry, brutality and oppression still are on. It behooves every American to remember. We remembered the Maine, we remembered the Lusitania, but we still have ships on the seas. The dead children of France and Belgium we did not forget and we cannot forget that their debt has not been paid in full. "France wore the yoke of war. Germany must bear the yoke of peace." The November portion of that W. S. S. Pledge is due by November 30th. Be ready to meet it. The Government says your pledge is a binding obligation. Don't worry if your sins find you out; they will be sure to call again.

The Edith Unit of the Red Cross this week donated the sum of $161.90 to the Tahoka Chapter of the society. This donation was made through A. R. McGonigal, a prosperous and patriotic citizen of that community. Mr McGonigal stated that the money spring, but since that date so many was raised in his neighborhood last have removed from the community the unit disbanded and it was thought best to turn over the money to the chapter here so that it might serve some patriotic purpose. The Edith community is to be commended for having donated this neat sum where it will serve a noble cause.

This week a deal was consummated whereby the Tahoka Hardware Company, which has been under the management of B. H. Robinson for the past several years, was bought by L. B. Wright, of Lubbock. S. A. Richmond of Lubbock, is here to take charge of the stock. It is rumored that Mr. Wright intends moving a part of the stock to Ranger, Texas. It is hoped that he will decide to continue the business in Tahoka.

The New Home community, in the northwest part of the county have just completed a commodious new school building, and will start their school next Monday. Misses Ellis and Cole, two accomplished young ladies of Lubbock, have been employed to teach for them this term.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Slaton, and daughter, Lucile, left Monday overland for points in east and south Texas on a vacation for the benefit of Mr. Slaton's health. They will probably be absent from the city through the winter.

$500,000,000 CUT MADE BY SENATE ON REVENUE BILL

Washington, Nov. 22.—Reductions aggregating $500,000,000 in the year called for by the new war revenue bill were made today by the senate finance committee in revising the measure downward to the six-billion dollar total for 1919 proposed by Secretary McAdoo. The decrease was confined principally to the tobacco, luxury, semi-luxury and other special and excise schedules.

Among the more important decisions today were elimination of the luxury schedule proposed in the house bill, levying 20 per cent on costly articles of clothing and other merchandise and estimated to raise $184,795,000; elimination of the house tax of two cents a gallon on gasoline, estimated to yield $40,000,000; reduction from 10 to 5 per cent or about $200,000,000 in revenue in rates on many articles classed as semi-luxuries and a reduction of about one-half in the house rates on tobacco, a cut of about $54,000,000 in revenue.

McAdoo's Plan Defeated.

The committee defeated the decision on the plan, suggested by Secretary McAdoo and presented yesterday by Chairman Simmons, for incorporating in the measure specific rates on 1920 taxation, by which the total revenue yielded would be limited to $4,000,000,000. Republican members still vigorously oppose legislation for 1920 and the committee decided to pass that question temporarily.

Tomorrow it will resume revision of the miscellaneous taxes with a view to cutting off another $500,000,000 necessary to reduce the whole to six billion dollars.

In cutting the excise, or semi-luxury schedules today, the committee reduced from 10 to 5 per cent the house rates on the following articles:

Piano players, phonographs, photographic films, esndy, portable electric fans, thermos bottles, slot machines and tar soaps and powders. The chewing gum rate was cut from four to three per cent; that on hunting and Bowie knives from 100 to 10; on fire arms from 20 to 10, and on paintings and statuary from 10 to 5 per cent.

Other Taxes Eliminated.

Ten per cent taxes imposed in the house bill on bathing suits and photographs or reproductions were entirely eliminated and that of ten per cent on fur and wool articles made applicable to fur manufacturers only. In the excise schedule no change was made in the five per cent sales tax on automobiles, tires and accessories nor in the ten per cent on sporting goods and liveries, tapestries, textiles and yachts and motor boats.

The ten per cent sales tax on precious stones, jewelry and imitations, clocks, watches, opera glasses, and similar articles was reduced to five per cent.
