THE TELEPHONE GIRL

The telephone girl sits still in her chair
And listens to voices from everywhere;
She knows all the gossip, she knows all the news,
She knows who is happy and who has the blues;
She knows all our sorrows, she knows all our joys,
She knows all the girls who are "chasing the boys."
She knows all our troubles, she knows of our strife,
She knows every man who is mean to his wife;
She knows every time we are out with the boys,
She knows the excuse that each fellow employs.

If the telephone girl told half that she knows
It would turn all our friends into bitterest foes;
She would sow a small wind that would soon be a gale,
Ingulf us in trouble and land us in jail.
She would start forth a story which, gaining in force,
Would cause half our wives to sue for divorce.
She would get all our churches mixed up in a fight,
And turn our bright eyes into sorrowing night;
In fact, she could keep the whole town in a stew,
If she told but one-tenth of the things that she knew.
Oh! kid, but doesn't it make your head whirl
When you think of what you owe to the telephone girl!

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Apply few drops then lift sore, touchy corns off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic!
A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation. Freezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

It Helps!

There can be no doubt as to the merit of Cardui, the woman's tonic, in the treatment of many troubles peculiar to women. The thousands of women who have been helped by Cardui in the past 40 years, is conclusive proof that it is a good medicine for women who suffer. It should help you, too.

Miss N. E. Vane, of Hixson, Tenn., writes: "I was possibly the case that you refer to. My troubles were terrible, and I suffered indescribably. I can't tell just how and where I hurt, about all over, I think. I began Cardui, and my pains grew less and less, until I was cured. I am remarkably strong for a woman of years of age. I do all my housework." Try Cardui, today. E-76

The following letter has come into the hands of the County Clerk. If you are in a position to give Mr. Davis the desired information, he will appreciate it and probably give the lady her husband's heir rights:

"County Court Clerk, Slaton, Texas. Dear Sir:—It has been suggested to me that there is a tract of land in Texas, which has been eluded some years. The said land belonging to Alexandria S. Tucker, of Landerdale County, Ripley, Tenn. The said Alexandria S. Tucker has been dead for years. He was the grandfather of my husband and would naturally be his heir to his part of the estate as all of the said Alexandria S. Tucker's own children now being dead. We have been informed that a copper mine has been discovered on this tract of land. Any information you may give me will be highly appreciated, if you find on record anything concerning this, I can give you information of all the nearest relatives of the said Alexandria S. Tucker for I knew all of the family well. Yours truly, Mrs. Della Johnson, Curve, Tenn., Route 1."

BUILDING UP OUR WOMANHOOD

Given Up to Die by Her Friends, a Young Lady Recovers Her Health and Increases Weight—45 Pounds.

A Powerful Nation Needs Strong Healthy Women.

A nation is no stronger than its women. Hence, it is the duty of every woman whether young, middle aged, or in advanced life to preserve her health. If you are sick and suffering don't wait until tomorrow but seek relief at once—today. Tomorrow your illness may take a chronic turn.

There is a remedy for almost every ill. Thousands have found Peruna to be the best remedy as did Miss Clara, a girl of 21, 21st St., Grand Rapids, Michigan. She writes a friend: "I don't need Peruna any more. I am all well after taking six bottles. I weighed ninety pounds before I started and was poor and weakly. I had such a cough and spitting all the time that I never expected to recover. My friends gave me up. I could eat nothing. Now I can eat and weigh 125 pounds. I must thankfully recommend Peruna to my friends."

Miss Lohr's letter is an inspiration, a message of hope to suffering women. It tells you that you too may be strong and well and vigorous.

Peruna may be had in either liquid or tablet form. Ask your dealer. If you value health, do not accept a substitute. Dr. Hartman's World Famous Peruna Tonic is what you want. The Peruna Company, Dept. 79, Columbus, Ohio, also publish Dr. Hartman's Health Book. The book is free. Write for it. Your dealer will give you a Peruna Almanac.

SHALLOWATER ITEMS FOR THE PAST WEEK

The Ladies Club met again at the school building Thursday. Misses Halsey and Craddock were present and demonstrated some fancy canning. After the demonstration several dishes were prepared and a dainty and delicious luncheon was served. The ladies then went outside the building and several very interesting games were played, which were greatly enjoyed by old and young alike. A number of little girls were present who were given a sewing lesson by Miss Craddock, assistant County Demonstration Agent. The Club also brought a lot of canned goods and clothing which they sent to the Buckner Orphan's Home. The Club of this place is surely having some interesting and profitable meetings of late. All ladies, young or old, of this and adjoining communities are cordially invited to attend the club meetings and join if they so desire. Next regular meeting will be Thursday, June 19.

The baseball boys have matched a game with the Badger Lake team to be played here Saturday afternoon. Shallowater should come out and root for her new team.

A good rain fell here Monday which will greatly benefit growing crops.

Saturday night the Social Center met and reorganized. Mrs. J. C. Bowles, J. C. president, Mrs. Geo. W. Roberts, vice-president, and Miss Opal Warren is secretary. After the business session a brief program was rendered. This was followed by a number of games for all which were played both in the house and outside. Then refreshments were served in the Domestic Science room. An interesting program is planned for next meeting. But it is to be borne in mind that the program committee is not an entertainment committee, and that the success of the Social Center will depend upon the aid and co-operation of everyone in the community. The prospects are bright but if it is to succeed each one must respond when called upon. Everyone is invited to come out, "get in the game," and make the Shallowater Social Center a success and a source of pleasure and profit to all.

LUBBOCK LADY TO GET FRENCH CROIX DE GUERRE

"For having valiantly given his all in the defeat of the Imperial German army on the great field of Destiny," Calif F. McDermitt, Corporal, deceased about November 11, has been posthumously awarded a French Croix de Guerre, being the highest Medal given by that government.

Calif F. McDermitt enlisted in the early part of the war, after having been married only a short time. His wife, Mrs. Myrtle McDermitt, sister of Mrs. P. O. Brock, lives in Lubbock. A letter written by the Captain of the Company in which Corporal McDermitt was serving, has been received by his wife which reads as follows:

"Lagesse (Aube) France, March 12, 1919.—Your letter of January 4 received, and will try to answer your questions as far as I can: Corporal McDermitt was killed almost instantly by machine gun bullets, on the morning of October 8th. He was corporal of an automatic Rifle Squad, and was in the advance when we ran into a little strip of woods where there were four machine guns, and he and all of the squad were caught in the fire of those guns. They are all buried in what is known as 'Burton Hill Cemetery' just south of St. Etienne. There are twenty-seven of my men in this place, and I visited it when we came out of the lines. We lost ninety men, killed or wounded that morning, including two officers. So far as I know yet, no one has been found that was a member of your husband's squad, but I can tell you that his daily life was that of a good soldier and an earnest non-commissioned officer and his deeds shall always live in the memories of us who survive, along with those who made the supreme sacrifice. He was never in a hospital, as he was buried on the field where he fell. Again accept my heartfelt sympathy in the great loss of your beloved husband, Sincerely,
CAPT. H. E. STONE,
Co. D 141 Infantry."

"Under war department rules, this decoration will be furnished to the nearest relative of the deceased." Mrs. McDermitt is in receipt of a letter from the Adjutant General's Office, Washington, requesting information regarding the nearest living relative.

CHURCH NOTES

Baptist Church

The church life of any community is its largest factor in the growth and fruitage of genuine character. As are the churches so is the character. It is as true today as in the days of Jesus that the Christian church is the light of the world and the salt of the earth. If the churches are strong and spiritual and active, it is blessed by them but if they decay and mope and become mere clubs and guilds for entertainment and amusement they will soon descend to the level of the sinful world and their light will become darker than the darkness of the world about them. America's wonderful power in the world today is the fruit of the churches directly and indirectly. Israel grew and prospered as long as she was religious and fell to pieces and bit the dust when her people became hollow formalists, pharises and hypocrites. How we need in this hour of victory to remember our God and His power to deliver and keep His own who pray day and night unto Him. We have the awful spectacle of the costly piles of church architecture in Europe made the death traps and graves of the common desolation of nations who while they held to church forms were within full of death and corruption.

Sunday the services at the Baptist church will be conducted by the pastor. The morning sermon will be on the subject, "A League of Nations That Will Endure." At night "The Value of a Christian Life." This may be the last sermon by this pastor for some time and a kind invitation is extended to all the members and friends of our church. The pastor holds in his heart the greatest love for all the people of Lubbock and wishes for this town the largest and best of our Father's blessings. Sincerely,
Your brother,
J. B. COLE.

SOME LOCAL ITEMS FROM THE LYNN COUNTY NEWS

PUBLIC OPINION.

It's an absolute fundamental rule of law, that constitutional law, an organic law, can only be created, made, adapted and amended by the voice of the people. The Federal Suffrage amendment now pending is no exception to the rule. The rule gives an exclusive privilege. U. S. Constitution, 14 Amd., Sec. 1, in part reads: "No Statute shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges of the citizens of the United States."

The issue as to this amendment was not canvassed, when present legislators were elected, can they lawfully ratify it? Would their act be the voice of the people? Would it not abridge the privileges of the people?

It seems to me, that the correct remedy for this class of amendments is, that the issue should be canvassed in next biennial election and the legislators selected by the votes of the people, and instructed for and against the amendment. This would be the voice of people, legal, fair and clean politics.

There is plenty of time, why such a hurry? What the motive? If present legislators should ratify the amendment, it would be the roughest kind of politics, progressive politics. We noticed the Attorney General ruling as to the legal right of present legislators to ratify the amendment, I admit that it's progressive, long explanatory and argumentative. To explain, if the Supreme Court should hold (rule) that before a man can be convicted of a felony there must be an indictment as a basis found against him, by a grand jury; this decision would need no explanation or argument, the court only held as to a fixed rule of constitutional law.

GEO. L. BEATTY.

H. L. Henry and family spent Sunday with relatives in Lynn county, and he reports a very fine rain all the way from Lubbock down there and still further south. They returned to Lubbock Monday morning.

Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Priest and children of Rusk, are visiting Dr. Priests' brother, Mr. E. C. Priest and family.

E. Lee Brown, traveling salesman of the Magnolia Oil people with headquarters in Lubbock, is in Fort Worth this week transacting business.

J. W. Youngblood, of Brownfield, who was brought here several days back to a sanitarium is now receiving medical treatment and will probably undergo an operation soon.

CALOMEL SALIVATES AND MAKES YOU SICK

Acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver and you lose a day's work.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.
It's a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can't kill.
Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.
Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone sets better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.

ALLIANCE WITH AMERICA IS WANTED IN GERMANY

Berlin, June 3.—There seems to be a widespread demand on the part of Germans that efforts be made to induce America to enter into a sort of limited alliance with Germany or take protectorate over this country, giving Germany financial aid and protection and taking in return the lion's share of the profits of the country's industrial activities. This sentiment, which first made its appearance last December, appears to have become stronger very recently.

CAROL THOMPSON KEPT VERY BUSY THESE DAYS

County Agricultural Agent, Carol Thompson, is kept very busy these days. The recent scare that the farmers are having with the worms, which is causing a great loss to them, is trying to be met and combated as far as possible by him. "The rank growth of weeds which the most of the farms have this year is the most probable reason for the early appearance of the worms." There is two kinds that are infesting the farms, the cut worm and the web worm. The latter seems to be the worse of the two. It comes from the Miller fly which makes its nest on weeds most of the time. To show that weeds are, in fact, the real cause of the great number of worms, Mr. Thompson says "two or three days back while out in the country, studying the methods which would possibly be the best to combat them, I found a farm of about one hundred or more acres which was very weedy, and about fifty acres of cotton and feed stuff in this farm was cleared down by the worms, while in an adjoining farm of about seventy acres which was well cultivated, scarcely any weeds on the ground, was found to have a very few worms and practically none of the stuff killed."

"The most successful way at this time when cotton and feed stuff is most too small to spray, to rid it of the worms, is to continually stir the ground, the most successful way to do this would be to use a harrow, which would knock many of them off of the growth." At this time it is unwise to chop the cotton, account of the fact that although you might not have lost any of your stand, the possibility is that you may in case where one might wish to spray their crop, Mr. Thompson advises the use of what is called a Bran spray which is used for killing out grass hoppers. He also adds that "to make the spray more effective; to use a few lemons, which seems to attract the worms to the Bran."

While there is some reason to be pessimistic toward the worms and the destruction which they are now doing to many of the farms, many of the old time farmers who have fought them many times before think, that in short time they will disappear.

REV. J. W. HUNT TO RESUME PASTORATE

Rev. J. W. Hunt, Missionary Secretary of the Northwest Texas Conference, attended the Centenary meeting at Memphis last week. He was accompanied by Mrs. Hunt, and these good friends found time as they were passing through Dallas to run in and shake hands with the editor. Bro. Hunt did fine service in the campaign in his conference, and will resume his pastorate at St. Paul's, Abilene, July 1. He gives a good report of St. Paul's under the leadership of Rev. L. N. Stuckey, who has had charge during Bro. Hunt's leave in the Centenary campaign.—Texas Christian Advocate.

Edward Griffith, brother of Harold Griffith of the Rix Furniture and Undertaking Company, arrived here last Thursday from Big Springs and has accepted a position with the Quick Service Filling Station.

Mel Cope says he got a dandy rain Sunday and has no worms in his crop so he expects to go over the top with a fine crop this fall.

Nature and the Indian

The Indian never liked work but he wanted his agaw to get well as soon as possible so that she could do the work and let him hunt, therefore he dug purpose root for her, for that was their great remedy for female weaknesses.

Dr. Pierce uses the same root—called Blue Cohosh—in his "Favorite Prescription" skillfully combined with other agents that make it more effective.

Women who are worn out, who suffer from pain at regular or irregular intervals, who are nervous or dizzy at times, should take that reliable, temperance, herbal tincture which a doctor in active practice prescribed many years ago. Now sold by druggists in tablets and liquid, as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. for trial package.

JACKSON, MISS.—"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a good medicine and I have recommended it many times to women who suffer. This medicine has a great comfort to me after motherhood. The doctor seemed unable to give me any relief or help, but I had very prompt relief as soon as I started to take the Prescription." It cured me of my trouble and restored me to a perfect state of health, and that is why I do not hesitate to speak a good word for Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription whenever I have an opportunity. —Mrs. K. G. SUTHERLAND, 200 Pounder Street.

NEW HOPE NEWS ITEMS OF PAST WEEK

Misses Halsey and Craddock met the poultry and canning clubs at the school house Friday afternoon. Louis Richardson worked for the Cash Dry Goods Store at Lubbock Saturday. Owing to the amount of work being done among our people the literary society was not so well attended Tuesday night. The Conservation Club is to meet with Mrs. S. D. Pate on Monday afternoon, June 23. Let's remember the date and try to learn the good things Miss Halsey is here to teach. The rain Sunday afternoon kept us from having Sunday school. A much bigger rain came Monday afternoon. Our community has, so far been fortunate in escaping all the hail. Misses Elsie Wilke, May Cewart and Dixie Cromer are in Lubbock this week attending the short course in home nursing, cooking and sewing. M. F. Klattenhoff, of Slaton, was looking after his farm interests at New Hope Monday. A FEW NEWS ITEMS FROM CROSBYTON REVIEW

Lieut. Quincy L. Hames of the Mount Blanco neighborhood, arrived on Tuesday afternoon's train with a bride, being married at Sweetwater Sunday to Miss Louva Nettie Kiker, a talented young lady of Bronte, and the happy young couple are now at the country home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hames, nine miles north of town. Lieut. Hames is another one of Crosby county's popular soldier boys who volunteered at the first call of his country to arms and who won a commission. His many friends are glad to see him take this important step in life and all join the Review in extending congratulations and best wishes for a long, happy and prosperous married life. R. A. Crausbay one of the substantial farmers and stock men on the East Plains, was a caller at the Review office while in town Wednesday. He has quite an acreage in wheat which he says has been slightly damaged by rust and high winds, otherwise it is good with the exception of about 100 acres that was put in late. A telephone message to Judge B. H. Howard yesterday morning stated that his daughter, Mrs. Lillie Payne of Ralls, had gone to Lubbock to enter a sanitarium for treatment. Mrs. Payne has been quite sick, but hope she may witness a speedy and permanent recovery. Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Williams and children of Lubbock came over Sunday and spent the day with the former's brother, W. W. Cooper and wife. Little Miss Lillian Williams remained for a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Cooper. Postmaster K. J. Matthews of Mt. Blanco was a business visitor to our city Tuesday and in speaking of the cold snap that we were experiencing, said it reminded him of one day in June eleven years ago when he had to wear his overcoat all day to keep comfortable. Rev. J. B. Cole of Lubbock preached a very interesting sermon at the Baptist church Sunday night to large and attentive audience. He has been called to the pastorate of this church and will very likely accept. The Baptists of the community will be fortunate to get him as their pastor for he has the reputation of being a very able preacher.

BUY YOUR WINTER SUPPLY OF COAL NOW

It has been called to the attention of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, that there will probably be a great shortage of coal this coming winter. Dr. Garfield, of the U. S. Fuel Administration says that a coal famine is coming, and that from August on it will be practically impossible to get a full supply of coal. Thousands of miners are going back to Europe, and coal production is falling below normal. A shortage of many millions of tons is practically certain. In addition to the shortage in production, the greatest demand for cars in the history of the country will be made next fall, to handle the immense crops, which means that the local dealers will find it almost impossible to get cars for coal. It is to be remembered that two years ago, during the worst storms of the winter, the city authorities found it necessary to limit the amount of coal which could be purchased by one person to 500 pounds at a time. The result was that many persons had to pay a much larger price for their fuel in order to get it delivered promptly than they otherwise would, through no fault of the local dealers. The price of coal is advancing steadily, and by early fall, customers will be compelled to pay a much larger price than now. The storage capacities of the local dealers is only approximately 25 percent of the annual consumption of coal. These dealers have no more room for coal, and unless the consumers of this vicinity purchase their coal and have it delivered, the dealers will be unable to get on hand sufficient coal to carry Lubbock through the winter. Therefore the Board of Directors urgently requests that every citizen who can possibly do so, purchase his winter's supply of coal now, and thus prevent a local shortage, and perhaps a great deal of suffering next winter. GEO. W. BRIGGS, Sec'y.

CONDITIONS SEEN AS THEY REALLY EXISTED OVERSEAS

Chaster A. Henderson, brother of J. E. Henderson, bookkeeper at the Avalanche, returned home from overseas the latter part of last week. Mr. Henderson enlisted last July and went to Camp Travis, where he remained only a few days until he was placed in the 156th Infantry of the 39th Division. Less than a month after he arrived there, they were sent to New York. August 22nd they sailed for overseas. Eleven convoys made the trip across together in eleven days, landing at Brest, September 3rd. They were in Brest only a few days until they were ordered to St. Florencia where they were billeted in small villages until transferred to other divisions, because the 39th will be remembered as a replacement division. Up until this time there had been very few, if any, American soldiers in that part of France. On September the 19th Mr. Henderson was placed with the 355th Infantry of the 89th Division, which was at that time enroute to the Euzevzin sector, or better known as St. Mihiel. From there we find that the Company which Mr. Henderson was with, going to the Meuse. Here they were held up two or three days, waiting for transportation across From the Meuse they were ordered to the Argonne forest, at which place we find them when the armistice was signed.

Mr. Henderson was very modest in speaking of his experience while overseas to the reporter. Account many of the returning soldiers have told things, which were not believed by other men who saw service overseas. But nevertheless he appreciates the fact that his friends who remained at home, are wanting all the information that they can get as to the conditions that really existed overseas. And from his conversations with friends and acquaintances we find many interesting facts, which will go to show that Mr. Henderson had his eyes opened while there. Some of the really interesting things that he found there were: German ignorance, especially among the so-called lower classes, which were the backbone of the German fighting units, of the governmental conditions. They were held in abject ignorance of the points of vantage even that were taken or lost on the battle front. In case a certain sector was defeated and driven back, they were told it was only a small sacrifice made to gain bigger advantages. "Americans were thought to be a wild, uncivilized Indian, and to fall into their hands would mean death." Imagine their surprise, when three or four Germans were the first to be captured at St. Mihiel, after being told by an American soldier that they would not be hurt if they surrendered. In fact we find they were as ignorant of military and government conditions "as the Mexican peon."

Another of the peculiar instances which at this time is history, is that the American soldiers, who were the cause of the defeat of the German army are now the most thought-of soldiers in Germany, and are treated with much more respect by the civilian populace than any other nationality there. Now when the boys are leaving there, men, women and boys are out telling them goodbye and waving their handkerchiefs to their heroes who came over and freed them from the Kaiser and his rule.

No Worms in a Healthy Child
All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TAILORLESS, and TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Present to take. 6c per bottle.

COMMERCIAL CAR MAKES ROUND TRIP TO BIG SPRINGS

Shipping facilities in the western part of the State is getting to a stage where people who have for years been handicapped on account of the distance are now using commercial cars which is making it possible to go to and fro in a very short time with a load of about one to two thousand pounds. An instance of how they are now in use by business men who cannot afford to try to use the railroad for many things which demand quick service is fully shown by a well known local furniture company. A player-piano which was not in stock at the local house was wanted on short notice by one of our citizens. This man having a house at Big Springs which had the piano in stock, sent one of their men in their Dodge commercial car after it. Leaving here about nine-thirty in the morning and going by way of Lamesa where they loaded another piano for the Big Springs house and drove on to Big Springs, reaching there in the afternoon. After disposing of their load and loading the other piano on about three o'clock in the afternoon they left Big Springs and arrived in Lubbock at supper time. Altogether two hundred and forty miles was made in one day, carrying loads each way.

THE POOL HALLS WILL GO
 (Houston Post)

The law passed by the last legislature, closing the pool halls, was to have gone into effect May 1, but owing to an injunction having been issued by Federal Judge Wilson of the Northern District of Texas against the enforcement of the law, no effort is being made to enforce it and owners of pool rooms are not observing it. The operators of pool halls may just as well prepare to close up, however, for the doom of their places has been sealed in Texas. A court injunction may prevent temporarily city and State officials from enforcing the State law, but it will be only a temporary lease of life for public pool halls.

The demoralizing effect of pool halls is well known and the Texas Legislature did well to abolish them along with saloons. They are notorious vagrants and gamblers and they promote crime and viciousness while they serve no good purpose. While it has been illegal to gamble in pool halls, it is common knowledge that certain forms of gambling go on in them, for it is difficult even for proprietors who try to prevent it to succeed entirely.

In some respects the pool hall is worse than the saloon, for the pool hall tends to claim too much of the time of those who frequent them. When the Government started to enforcing the work or fight rule last year, in connection with the draft, the pool halls were the first places the officers headed for to gather in the loafers.

Just one day before the law was to go into effect the police of Houston made a raid on a local pool hall and the result was that ten complaints were filed against the proprietor for violation of the law which prohibits minors from entering a pool hall. The evil influence that such a place exerts over youth led the Legislature some years ago to close them to boys under twenty-one years of age.

As an enemy to industriousness, ambition, thrift and good morals, the pool hall in Texas will not be tolerated. A court injunction which stops enforcement of an act of the legislature will not be a permanent bar against carrying out of the will of the majority of the people of the State.

OPTIMISTIC TENDERFOOT

Grovesville, Tex., June 9.—To The Avalanche: A change has come over me since I last wrote. I have suddenly become optimistic. I had a talk with our Editor and he said I ought to be optimistic in everything and that I was due this sausage, potatoe, and shoe man an apology. Also these little worms that eat on our crops. Now, Mr. Restaurant man I beg your pardon. For if I had got any sausage at all for that 40 cents I might have had colic and the doctor cut me open for appendicitis and the undertaker buried me and cost me a whole lot. I thank you sir for courteous treatment, you probably saved my life. Now to the shoe man; I take back what I said about you. If you had charged me what those shoes should have sold for ($2.00 per pair) and not have stole the $8.00 I might have spent the balance for gasoline and had a run-a-way and killed a good woman and a lot of innocent children. You no doubt done me a great favor. Now for the po-

SERVICE!

Life Insurance is providing for two great lines of service which vitally concern both the present and the future of every individual. The young man who is embarking upon a business career and who has started to build one of the units of social life; viz: a family, finds in life insurance a service that he cannot do without unless he wishes to do a great injustice to his family and society.

This life insurance service goes with him and permits him to discharge his duties safely. Without it the individual would create a hazard and a liability which the entire social fabric of our life would have to absorb. That would mean grief, disappointment and failure to properly develop life and culture it, and in a thousand and one ways reflect and react back upon the folly of the individual who attempts to do without this service. Then again, the individual who has the bulk of his earning period before him has an opportunity through the service which life insurance provides, of building for himself a bulwark in the form of an independent reserve fund for old age, that he cannot safely do without.

The young man of twenty-five looking forward sees himself at age sixty-five, with only:

- One chance in a hundred of being rich.
- One chance in twenty-five of having any income at all.
- One chance in twenty-five of being physically able to work.
- One chance in two of being alive, and with
- Two chances in three of being a PAUPER.

Therefore life insurance comes to the young man and offers him service which must appeal to every person with an open mind and good judgment. He must see in it a service that he CANNOT safely do without. There are so few chances through any other avenue for a man to reach age sixty-five with a competency that when he declines life insurance he wagers a "one hundred to one" shot, and that's a gamble that carries extreme hazard. Will YOU take the risk?

In so many ways its all round utility serves the urgent demands of business—big and little—the retailer and wholesaler, the manufacturer and consumer, the contractor and farmer. tatoe man, I am under lasting obligations to you. If you had not lied to me about the price of those potatoes and then stole by giving me short weight, or short count, and had not undermined me by slipping in those two rotten ones I never would have got out and worked out my potatoes, whereby I am going to have an ample supply of my own and thereby need not keep the wolf from my door. I am indebted to another grocery man in Lubbock for selling me a sack of meal. He charged me $1.50 for a "Big Bale Tobacco sack" of meal. If he had not stole about fifty cents of that money and lied to me about the price I might have got a whole bushel of meal and my whole out-fit have died with palagra.

A doctor in Lubbock I am also indebted to. I was very sick, and sent for him. He lied and said he was sick and could not come. No question but what he saved my life. These cotton worms are a blessing in disguise. For what I know they may be silk worms. I thank them too. But all praise is due our Editor. For all this change has been made, and these calamities been averted through the medium of all these big lies in the Avalanche. Now gentlemen please accept my thanks. Your
OPTIMISTIC TENDERFOOT.

Mr. Tenderfoot is a good friend of ours and we believed every word of it when he told us last week that he would not be an optimist because he would have to lie too much, and then we find that he has "fopped" over and is an optimistic-extremist.

Mr. Tenderfoot seems to find all the niggers in the woodpile in town. They are all town folks who are crooks, thieves, robbers, swindlers, liars, cut-throats, etc. Now, Mr. Tenderfoot, the writer has not lived in town all his life. About twenty of the forty years we have inhabited this land, we spent in the rural districts, and we know a few of the crooks and turns of the "honest farmer" and well as the saintless business man (townsman), and when you come to think about it, about seventy-five per cent of the town people were raised on the farm and taking the old theory that has stood for ages, and is true to this day that the training during the first few years of a person's life moulds the character of the men and women that the child will make, we take it that most of the business men were once farmers, and country people, as we were, and learned those tricks that Mr. Tenderfoot is so prone to complain about, while on the farm. We know of some people (of course Mr. Tenderfoot never was guilty of it nor the editor of this paper), who would take wood to town and sell it, have it nicely stacked up with nice-straight wood, cut into regulation lengths, heaped away up—a dandy good load of fine wood which he offered to the town man at so much per load. He got his money—he went and unloaded it and when the town man went home he did not recognize it as the same pile of wood. It was turned up-side down and was a mixture of crooked wood—all lengths up to eight or ten feet and made about half the sized pile after the cotton-frames were taken out from under it. "Honesty"—well, yes—we don't think. Then what about the fellow that brings eggs to town and sells them for a fancy price and knows that at least half of them have been set on by a hen for a week or so—a rotten deal that! honest, fair, straight, and then the other fellow who we believe to be honest brings in a sack of chickens—

Seeds! Seeds!!
 Bulk Watermelons, Sweet Clover, Alfalfa, Spanish Peanuts, Millet, Velvet Beans, Black-eye Peas, Hegari, Beans, Blue Grass, White Clover, Pop Corn.
Davidson Feed Store
 Postoffice Street Lubbock, Texas

he says they are fops—nice ones; the town man buys them at so much per pound and twice what they are worth, but they are scarce, and hard to get, so the town man agrees to pay so much per pound, forks over the money and takes the said sack full of chickens, empty them out and half of them begin advertising at once that they are full grown "banty" hens and at once begin to negotiate for nest-friers do not act that way, but those "banties" were sold to Mr. townsman for "nice young, tender chickens," when as a matter of fact they were so tough they could not be stewed to tenderness let alone fried. Oh, Mr. Tenderfoot, the thieves, liars, rascals and robbers do not all live in town, and neither town nor country has any right to complain at the other. It is a deplorable state of affairs that exist. Honesty is no longer considered in a deal by many people—too many people. The town cannot get along without the people in the rural districts and neither can the ruralist get along without the town, but why could we not all be honest with each other rather than rush through life with a skinning knife in each hand seeking to skin every fellow that we come in contact with. Mr. Tenderfoot says he does not like the word cooperate—well, it would help to blend the interests of each instead of widening the breach. Let's cooperate.

RECRUITING PARTY IS IN OUR CITY THIS WEEK

Lt. Dury L. Helm, First Lieutenant 19th Infantry, and recruiting party are now in this city to give the young men of this and the surrounding cities a chance to take advantage of the unusual opportunity to enlist in any branch of the service and in any part of the world. The party will be here only a short time so do not let the opportunity slip.
Do you want to help settle the border problem? If you do, see any member of the party and enlist in the 19th Infantry, one of the oldest regiments of infantry. This means immediate service with an organization that is going to help settle the above problem.
Enlistments taken for any branch of the service and at any point in the world. Can also take a certain number in the special units at El Paso. Why not spend some time in seeing the world? Uncle Sam pays your bill and at the same time teaches you a trade.
All foreign service means an increase of 20 percent on the base pay. Besides this good, neat clothes and plenty to eat are furnished free of charge.
Remember that service in the army in time of peace is much easier than in time of war—the only kind you have heard of for some time. Ask any of the men on the recruiting party why they re-enlisted. They are in the Regular Army and understand the advantages of such service.
No one who is not at least eighteen years of age need apply as no minors are accepted.
Apply to any member of the recruiting party or see Lt. Helm at the Merrill Hotel.
Do you want to take a trip to Panama, Europe, Alaska, Siberia, Philippines, see immediate service on the border? If you do, take advantage of the opportunity and enlist now. Do not wait until later when you will have to take a trip to some distant recruiting station.
Is your present position one that pays you as well as the Army with a chance of travel and a pension at the end, also a chance to learn a trade as you go along?
Members of the party are Sgt. Ritchings, Corps. Cox, Barry, Smith, and Pvt. Johnson, Paramillo, Williams, Motor Truck Driver Kerns.
Marvin Shelburne, of Scott, N. M., is here this week visiting with his aunt, Mrs. Emery Butler. Mr. Shelburne has just recently been discharged from the army, after serving eleven months with the Headquarters Company of the 18th Division at Camp Travis. He will probably go to Ranger and secure work in the oil fields.
Bedford Mashburn and Dock Powell, of Brownfield, were in town one day this week. Mr. Powell was en route to Amarillo, and Mr. Mashburn will visit in Cisco a few days before returning home.

LUBBOCK-TATUM DAILY MAIL SERVICE SOUGHT

Pete Beall, who for the past three months has been operating the daily mail line, between Lubbock and Plains, recently sold or rather sublet his contract to John Cates of Plains, who is now operating it.

The people and towns who are served by this line have suffered many delays of their mail the past winter by the failure of the carriers. This failure is based upon many reasons, one of them was the heavy snow which fell and lay on the ground several days during the latter part of December and the first part of January. The patrons along the line and the business men of the different towns have complained of the service many times during the winter. Brownfield business men tried to get the Postoffice Department to have the mail carried on the train and to have daily train run from here, but this plea seemed to have done no good. Another of the reasons which in fact is the one that is at the bottom of the poor service rendered on the line is, that when the line was bid on by the carriers they figured on a good supply of passengers going to and from many prospectors which had in other years drifted to this country and paid the carrier a good price for riding. Of course as is known now, most of the travel is done on the train. People make it a point when going to Brownfield from other points of the State, to reach Lubbock on the day that the trains go down. So it is now that the carriers are not getting this extra money which had heretofore helped them along. And we find when talking to Mr. Beall that the carriers are losing money as he says, "during the three months which I operated it, I lost about one hundred dollars per month."

Mr. Cates, who has the contract, is taking the matter up with the postoffice department at Washington, telling them that the "bondsmen are compelled to have the line run at a loss," and are asking that they put up for bid a contract for daily mail service from Tatum, N. M., to Lubbock, in place of the one to Plains. Mr. Beall thinks that should the contract be let for daily service to Tatum, that it should at least pay one thousand dollars per month, thereby insuring enough money for the carrier to have up-to-date cars and able to keep them in shape to go every day in the year regardless of the weather.

We believe that the postoffice department should consider at least the damages done to the carriers for the failure of traffic over the line, account of the unprecedented drouth over the western part of the State the past two or three years, which has kept many people who otherwise would have travelled away.

LATEST PLAY STAGED IN LUBBOCK RECENTLY

We believe this is the latest play out. The play consisted of only two scenes, three characters and several streets, located in Lubbock. The characters were, Rev. Griswold, pastor of the Methodist church, Rev. C. E. Lynn, of East Lubbock mission, and Rev. Hendricks, of Lamesa, who was in Lubbock the first of the week visiting. Scene 1.—Rev. Hendricks meets Rev. Griswold down town.

Rev. Hendricks—"Bro. Griswold, I want to go up to Bro. Lynn's house and visit a few minutes, will you please give me directions for going there?"

Rev. Griswold—Scratching his head as if in deep study; "Why let's see, you go, well you go to the Methodist Church", another pause, "then after you arrive there, go on say about five blocks south of the church" another pause, "then go on, well say about three blocks west, then let's see, well you are now in a neighborhood where people live near enough to Brother Lynn to direct or show you the place." Curtain.

Scene 2.—(Notice, in making a success of the play you should be furnished with an airplane view of the city, showing at least some of the principal buildings). Brother Hendricks goes off in deep study, and wanders west on Broadway to where we do not know.

Twenty minutes later.—Rev. Griswold is halted on the street near a well known sanitarium by a gentleman who had seen Rev. Hendricks out on Broadway, evidently this gentleman knew the Mr. Hendricks was not acquainted with the streets. He makes inquiries of Mr. Griswold of his whereabouts. Later they leave going on west in search of the missing man. Curtain.

Moral: The houses in Lubbock should be numbered and the street names painted and posted.

CIGARETTES STUNTS BOYS BRAINS—EDISON

The big, brainy men who have made history and won success in business have little use for the cigaret. The following letter was written by Thomas A. Edison to Henry Ford:

Friend Ford—The injurious agent comes principally from the burning paper. The substance thereby formed is called "Acrolein." It has a violent action on the nerve centers, producing degeneration of the cells of the brain, which is quite rapid among boys. Unlike most narcotics, this degeneration is permanent and uncontrollable. I employ no person who smokes cigarets. Yours,
THOMAS A. EDISON,

DAWSON CO. MAN UNDER ARREST AT SWEETWATER

Sheriff Russell, of Dawson County, brought Henry Crossett whom he had arrested in that county last week on a warrant from Travis county charging him with murder, here and placed him in the county jail to be turned over to Deputy Sheriff Holley of Austin.

The charge against Crossett is alleged to have resulted from the death of a woman with whom he had been living in Austin as man and wife, following an illegal operation some two or three weeks ago. The woman is said to have lived in Dawson county before going to Austin, and the remains were taken back there for burial. The physician who was charged with performing the operation is alleged to have committed suicide.

SHALLOWATER-HARDY CONSERVATION CLUB

Shallowater Conservation Club members had another fine meeting at the school house Thursday with twenty members present.
