CHAMBER COMMERCE IMPORTANT

LUBBOCK HAS MAINTAINED A PERMANENT ORGANIZATION SINCE 1913 IN ACTIVE ORDER.

IT SERVED WELL TO HELP WIN THE WORLD'S WAR

This Organization Heads the Procession In All Important Movements Started for the Development of Lubbock County and Growth of the City.

By R. K. Evans
Chamber of Commerce organizations are today among the leading factors in the development of the cities where they are located. Whereas a few years ago these associations of business men were found only in the larger cities, Chambers of Commerce are now maintained in nearly every progressive city and town in America, as well as in the other leading nations of the world.

The first Chamber of Commerce organizations were largely of the booster type, and the secretary was chosen mainly for his "hot-air" abilities, rather than for any other qualities. Today the personnel of these organizations are based upon more lasting qualifications, for the business men have come to the realization that the Chamber of Commerce should be sustained because of its constructive work in the community, rather than for dispensing hot air.

The successful secretary of the present, is the man who studies his community from every standpoint of progress, and is ever on the alert to render all possible service in the development of his city and surrounding country along the lines of greatest value. It is the wise board of directors who can recognize these conditions, and direct the energies of their organization along proper channels, appropriating the money collected to the best advantage.

The Chamber of Commerce undertakes to promote civic development. It should be, and is representative of the best type of citizenship. A man can no more divest himself of the responsibilities of citizenship than he can lay aside his religion, or his duties toward his children. He is bound by the ties of the common good to every agency which works for the development of his community, and the Chamber of Commerce is the vehicle for practically every movement for civic and community development.

The private interests of the individual are important only in direct proportion to the importance of the community interests. In more definite terms, that the individual interests may obtain the greatest degree of activity and returns, the people of the community must be ever willing and ready to help keep development at the highest degree of efficiency obtainable. A live business never thrived in a dead town, conversely, a dead town cannot sit in the same company with live business and business men.

before the public all the time, and the country is now reaping the benefits of this course. This does not mean that the Chamber of Commerce devotes its entire time to advertising. On the contrary, during the years since its organization it has been the leader in all movements looking toward the betterment of civic and community conditions in this section.

It has not only taken the lead in starting these movements, but has stood behind everything which would be beneficial to this section. Several years ago it had a large part in developing a market for the kaffirs and grain sorghums grown in West Texas, and the secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce was secretary of the West Texas Kaffir and Milo Maize Association, which organization was very largely instrumental in directing the attention of dealers in feed and seed to this section.

Realizing the necessity for co-operation between the farmers and the business men, and being fully cognizant of the fact that what is beneficial to the one must be beneficial to the other, the Chamber of Commerce has used every endeavor to further the friendly feeling existing between the business men and the farmers and ranchmen of Lubbock County and surrounding territory, and to maintain the position of Lubbock as a trading point for the fifteen counties of the South Plains.

The work of the Chamber has been closely correlated with the work of the County Agricultural Agent and of the Home Demonstration Agent; and the Chamber of Commerce has co-operated as far as possible in every movement to give the farmers and ranchmen a better market for their products. Two instances are worthy of special mention, these being the South Plains Sheep and Wool Growers' Association, wherein the Chamber furnished a warehouse for the storage of wool; and the securing of a cotton classer who is assisting very materially in holding up the price standard and maintaining the market for Lubbock County's enormous cotton crop this year.

The organization has backed every movement for good roads, and in co-operation with the City Commission has put on foot the movement for paving our city, an accomplishment which in itself bespeaks the wonderful influence for good which the Chamber exerts in community affairs.

In 1913 a County Fair was started, and has been maintained entirely by the business men of the city through the Chamber of Commerce. With the exception of two years this fair has been held every fall, and has been of inestimable value to this entire section. Largely through the efforts of the Chamber, the proposition of purchasing and improving county parks was presented to the people in the election, November 4th when by a more than two-thirds majority vote of the people, the Commissioner's court was authorized to purchase such parks for both Slaton and Lubbock. These parks are to be improved, driveways laid out, trees planted, and the parks made in every way suitable for pleasure resorts, and gathering places for the people.

It is the intention of the business men to organize a South Plains Fair Association, and erect suitable buildings in this park, where a great South Plains Fair, which will be thrown open to all the counties of the South Plains, can be held every year.

The activities mentioned above are but a few of the many matters handled through the organization of Lubbock where a more hearty co-operation is given to any movement looking toward the benefit of its people. Lubbock today has the name of being one of the most progressive cities in West Texas, and this reputation is largely the result of the efforts of the business men of this city through their Chamber of Commerce.

Space would not permit a detailed account of all the constructive and educational work which has been carried on by the Chamber of Commerce since its organization, and it has been our intention to pass over these matters as briefly as possible, giving space only to the more important.

With the foundation of past achievements on which to build, the Chamber is just now entering upon the period where it can be of greatest usefulness to the Community. Lubbock has become the center of one of the richest, if not indeed the wealthiest sections of the State in proportion to population. We doubt very much if the oil production of any of the counties of North Central Texas exceeds by any large margin the value of the cotton crop alone on the South Plains. This crop is estimated at approximately fifty thousand bales, and has a potential value of between ten and fifteen millions of dollars.

The Chamber of Commerce is the agency through which public spirited men make their investment in community development. The membership dues constitute but a fraction of that investment. It is the thought, the loyalty, the faith, and the mental and moral force of those unselfish men, with the welfare of the community at heart, that constitute the greater investment on which real community dividends accrue.

Nor do the accomplishments herein set out constitute all of the real dividends resulting from that greater investment. There is not an intelligent man in Lubbock who does not sense the spirit of good will, of courage, of optimism, of progress the spirit of mutual confidence and unselfish purpose which the Chamber of Commerce has engendered in this community.

It would be incomplete to conclude a summary of the activities of the Chamber of Commerce without paying a tribute to the unwavering loyalty and intelligent direction of those who have had in charge the activities of the organization since it was brought into being. They are:

FATHER OF J. B. BLANDFORD PASSED AWAY LAST WEEK

When the news reached Colorado Sunday morning from Ft. Worth reporting the death of Mr. C. C. Blandford a gloom was cast over all who had known him and his loved ones here, for he was one of Colorado's pioneer citizens and was well known and loved by all old time citizens. There is something particularly sad when one of the earliest settlers are taken. Those who stood for all that was for the good of humanity and the upbuilding of God's kingdom. Those who traveled all the hardships and stood true under all conditions of life. To such as those are the younger citizens indebted for whatever blessings of life come from perseverance and to such do they owe a debt of gratitude.

Mr. Charlie C. Blandford was born in Union county Kentucky, July 6, 1850. He came to Colorado in 1882 and was one of the leading citizens till a few years ago when he moved to Fort Worth. He was manager for Padgett Bros. business here for years and for the last several years has been a traveling salesman for them.

He was a faithful member of the M. E. Church for more than twenty-eight years and his pastor always found him loyal to all her principles and doctrines. He was a devoted husband, a loving father, and a good citizen. What can be said more of any one? He leaves a wife and six children to mourn his departure. Three sons and three daughters, including Mrs. C. T. Harness and Mrs. Royall Smith of this city, George of Utah, J. B. of Lubbock, Charlie and Miss Nora, of Ft. Worth.

For years he had been in failing health and it was the hope of his loved ones that he might be spared that they might have the pleasure of ministering unto him as he had showed his devotion to them. But God willed it otherwise and His will is supreme so they look for that reunion where there will be no more partings, nor suffering and God shall wipe away all tears. The body was brought here Tuesday and after impressive services at the M. E. Church conducted by Rev. W. P. Garvin, pastor, assisted by Rev. D. R. Hardison, pastor of the Christian church, was laid to rest in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.—Colorado Record.

THANKSGIVING BRINGS A LOWER TEMPERATURE

Wednesday morning brought very damp weather, continuing through the day and Thanksgiving brought ice, sleet and snow, with the waning from Northeast to Northwest, with good indications for a continued cold spell of several days. The thermometer played around fifteen above this morning, rising to twenty in the afternoon. Very severe weather is reported further north in the Panhandle, gradually moderating south.

BEGIN MAILING PACKAGES EARLY BEFORE CHRISTMAS

There is going to be a tremendous mail business from now on till after Christmas, and Postmaster Robbins suggests that patrons of this postoffice begin mailing their packages early so they can be handled before the final rush reaches the postal channels.

Not only are the post offices all over the country short on help, but the trains are crowded and running behind schedules and if you wait till the very last day, you may be disappointed in getting your packages mailed and even if you are fortunate enough to do that they may be delayed so much enroute that they will reach their destination several days after Christmas.

Begin now. Mail your packages and write on the outside: "Do not open till Christmas."

Vote Monday—Don't Fail!

A BOOST OR A KNOCK—WHICH?

THE PROPERTY TAX PAYING VOTERS OF THE CITY OF LUBBOCK WILL BOOST OR KNOCK LUBBOCK MONDAY

WILL WE, OR WILL WE NOT ISSUE PAVING BONDS?

The Future of Our City Depends Largely Upon the Nature of Your Ballot at the Polls Next Monday. Be Sure to Vote, One Way or the Other. It Means Much to Everybody.

Your chance to boost Lubbock is at hand. Monday, December 1st, 1919, will soon be at hand and on that date the election will be held in which Lubbock people will have an opportunity to vote for a bigger and better city, a progressive move that if supported by the people will mean a great stride forward for Lubbock—

if defeated it will mean that LUBBOCK, THE PRIDE OF THE PLAINS—THE HUB—THE RAILROAD CENTER, will have to take a back seat and see a hundred thousand dollar building program for 1920 die—absolutely die—for this is what will become of much of the new building program that is being planned for the coming year, if the paving proposition fails.

Lubbock people cannot afford to defeat this issue, and we do not believe they will, if they vote, but the trouble with most elections of this kind, the people are either too confident of its victory, or else they are too indifferent to give it the attention that it should have.

There is not a man who owns property in Lubbock that this proposition will not BENEFIT—notice we say BENEFIT, NOT AFFECT. The man who is working for a salary will be benefitted, and the small additional tax that he will have to pay on property that he owns will be so insignificant in comparison to the increase in the value of his property and the permanency of his position and the probability of promotion, that he cannot afford to vote other than favorable from the standpoint of financial gain, to say nothing of the civic pride in his city.

For some time the Lubbock streets have been in bad condition, and cannot be made otherwise till paving is done. True the first program reaches out only a short distance from the business center each way, but when that much is done, the paving district will widen rapidly. People will come to our city and build fine homes good business houses, factories, etc., which will all help to build additional blocks of paving, and Lubbock will in years to come become the city of the plains that we have often spoken of, and which the people from all over the southwest expect us to make.

Remember then, that Monday is your opportunity to boost Lubbock up a bit, and the favorable vote for the issuance of these bonds will mean the single boost that the town has had for a long time and on the other hand—its defeat will mean a great jolt and retard its growth and development.

Our city has the brightest prospects now, that ever stood out before a people full of optimism, progress and anticipations and we cannot afford to throw one straw in the way to prevent the realization of our hopes and expectations for the future. Lubbock is widely advertised as one of the most rapidly growing, fastly developing and progressive cities in Texas, and many people will move here and improve property that have already purchased or buy property when the real foundation for a sure enough city is laid, and paving is that foundation. We cannot be a city in the true sense of the word till we have paved streets, therefore let us go to the polls Monday and do the duty of every progressive citizen vote for the betterment of our town, and for its future development.

RANGER FORCE OF STATE MAY BE INCREASED SOON

Austin, Tex., Nov. 26.—The Texas Ranger force of eighty-two men is proving inadequate to meet calls for state police, according to an announcement from the governor's office today and authorities are considering increasing the force to meet unsettled conditions.

All but ten of the rangers are permanently stationed on the Mexican border. These ten are kept at Austin to meet the requests coming from interior points of the state. Several calls for rangers have come from the northwest Texas oil fields recently and to meet these demands two men were taken from a court guard at Marlin. With only one man available today, a district judge asked for the presence of five rangers during a murder trial in his court and a request for six to act as police at the A. and M. College-Texas University football game at College Station tomorrow was also received.

The governor has authority to increase the ranger force to an indefinite number in cases of emergency.

BIG CROP—PROSPEROUS CONDITIONS IN FLOYD

Floydada, Texas, Nov. 22.—The Floyd County cotton crop is the largest in years, latest estimates placing the production at 10,000 bales. Thus far approximately 4,500 bales have been ginned. The five county gins are working overtime to accommodate the rush. A farmer usually has to wait from twelve to twenty-four hours to get a bale through, and the gin yards are crowded with men and teams at all hours.

The shortage of labor has led perhaps a majority of the cotton farmers to pull instead of pick the crop. The schools in both Floydada and Lockney have been closed until release in order to release extra hands for the harvest.

The price received for good cotton here has averaged around 40 cents. Floydada buyers have refused to accept any snap cotton at any price. Lockney buyers are paying from 20 to 34 cents for same.

Floyd county is extremely prosperous this year, with a $2,500,000 wheat crop to her credit, a $1,750,000 cotton crop about to be realized, and a bumper crop on her usual large acreage devoted to grain sorghums.

The acreage devoted to wheat will undoubtedly be less than that of last year unless farmers sow late in the winter. The reason for this is mostly due to lack of labor, and a delay in the harvesting of fall crops because of rain. The conditions of wheat for this time of year is excellent. Many acres are being grazed lightly now, and pasturage of this sort will be plentiful this winter.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SAYS "VOTE FOR PAVING"

For a number of years one of the leading questions in the minds of everyone interested in the growth and development of Lubbock has been that of paving. The discreditable condition of the main streets of the city, has always been the most serious obstacle in the way of progress.

On Monday, December 1st, the people of Lubbock will be given an opportunity to lift our city out of the recurrent periods of dust and mud, which in the past have not only been a source of annoyance and trouble, but also have been productive of considerable actual financial loss.

During the dry periods, the dust nuisance has cost every merchant, and through them every consumer in Lubbock, a large amount of money through the deterioration of stock. Then when the rains come, the entire business section of town is turned into a sea of mud and water, making transportation almost impossible during the period of the rains.

Since Lubbock became a city, almost enough money has been spent on these streets to pay the cost of paving, and because of the heavy traffic, without appreciable results. It has been said many times, and with a great deal of justice, that the main streets of Lubbock provide an example of the worst roads in Lubbock County.

Paving will provide permanent streets in good condition, regardless of weather conditions. The city will be relieved of a great deal of expense in keeping the streets in passable condition, because after paving, the cost of upkeep will be very small, almost nominal. The merchants will be free from the greater part of the dust evil.

With paving, will come a satisfactory system of drainage, which will render sanitary conditions in the city much more desirable. It is necessary from the standpoint of protecting the city from disease. It is worth hard money to every property owner in Lubbock, regardless of location; it is also worth money to every farmer who does his trading in Lubbock; it is worth money to the merchants directly, because it will bring more trade to Lubbock. From every viewpoint, it is worth many times its cost.

Paving is the symbol of prosperity, and of the progressive spirit which has always characterized the citizenship of Lubbock. It is worthy of consideration from the standpoint of civic pride, regardless of the material benefits which are certain to accrue.

Citizenship carries with it a definite responsibility in the use of the ballot; more especially on occasions like the present, when the proposition affects directly and vitally the life and welfare of the community in which he resides. It is the duty, and the privilege of every citizen of Lubbock who is interested in the development of the city, to cast his vote in the election Monday.

Let's make it unanimous for the paving, and life Lubbock out of the mud!

BOARD OF DIRECTORS,
Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.
Vote Monday—Don't Fail!

SERVICES OF WATCHMAN SECURED BY MERCHANTS

The need of a night watchman had become so acute during the past few weeks that a few of the progressive merchants of the city secured the services of G. C. Hufstедler, for a night watchman. Mr. Hufstедler is now on the job all hours of the night.

The merchants believe that it pays them returns to hire the watchman in added protection badly needed at this time. It is thought that the city will take this matter up at an early date and probably provide for funds to pay for the services of the night watchman.

LYNN COUNTY FARMER HERE PROSPECTING FOR HOME

HELP THE BOYS GET WELL WHO SERVED FOR OUR SAKE

Austin, Tex., Nov. 21.—Quick and generous response in the campaign for funds to construct hospital buildings at Carlsbad for housing Texas soldier boys who contracted tuberculosis while serving their country in the army may save many lives, asserted Dr. C. W. Goddard, State Health Officer, with emphasis.

"Every day, every week and every month counts heavily," said Dr. Goddard, "and there should be no delay and no lagging in this golden opportunity to do something for the magnificent young men who offered their lives for their country and who are now afflicted. By an immediate contribution the lives of many of these young men will be saved. Many more will be cured and restored to their friends and countless others will be treated so as not to spread tuberculosis among relatives and neighbors."

"Furthermore," said the State health officer, "the medical profession stands solidly in the opinion that quick diagnosis and treatment will save many patients afflicted with the great white plague, therefore, it is our duty to come to the rescue in a most generous fashion in the campaign which closes on Nov. 26th. I am happy to say that pledges on the first day of the drive, Nov. 19th, amounted to over $200,000.00 and this augurs well for the future. We need every cent of $500,000.00 and in this last large and worthy war cause every citizen should do his duty. This is quickly realized when I tell you that one physician turned away twenty-three young soldiers because he could find no hospital to treat them. All tubercular hospital wards are filled. Once we build the houses at Carlsbad the federal government will supply ample funds for maintaining our soldiers, giving them the best medical care and attention and do all things necessary for them. There are 4,000 Texas soldiers who have tuberculosis and 200 need hospital treatment at once. Keep them in Texas and this perfect climate for treatment."

HEALTH DEPARTMENT CONDUCTING SURVEY

Austin, Nov. 22.—In order to secure data to give the next legislature knowledge of conditions in state eleemosynary institutions in the state prisons, the state health department, at the request of the governor is conducting a health survey of these institutions.

Lengthy questionnaires containing inquiries into every phase of the life of inmates, sanitary conditions, food number needing medical attention, number of incurables, etc., are being mailed to the heads of all the institutions. Institution superintendents are also invited to make suggestions for improvement of conditions in which inmates are kept. When these questions are answered representatives of the health department will make personal visits to the various institutions.

Information gathered will then be compiled into a booklet to be presented to members of the next legislature.

LUBBOCK PEOPLE UNANIMOUSLY IN ACCORD FOR PAVING

It was the plans of the writer to come in personal contact with as many as possible of the citizens of Lubbock and find out from an expression of their opinions how they felt about the paving election December 1st. Since following those plans for a limited time we have decided to discard them, finding that it was useless to carry them out for the following reasons.

In many trivial matters of the past it oftentimes appears that there are three classes of people here; 1st, there seems to be a class who are naturally of a progressive and boosting disposition. When a thing is offered for their decision and the thing in question appears to influence the upbuilding of the town, community and section within which they reside, favorably, they are optimistically in favor of it and immediately voice favorable comment. In few cases—very rare—it is found that these people jump at the conclusion too soon where proper investigation would result in a different view of the thing offered; 2nd, There is the other extremist, all known as good men, who are just as naturally against everything offered that promises an additional tax, a habit probably inherited from grandfathers; unless these men are shown by facts stated, proven and true figures to substantiate the fact that the tax is needful and that it will return dividends in accord with the expenditure, it is a fruitless task to attempt to change the first opinion of these people; 3rd, fortunately for the common good of both causes stated above, this next class when offered a proposition of tax nature, they first investigate the need and its merits, then by application of their common-sense judgment and business intuition they see the results of the proposed project.

The thing in question is paving. It is true that if there are present in Lubbock the three above described people it is true that every class is strictly in favorable disposition toward paving and will show their interest by voting favorable at the polls December 1st. One man, who as we are informed has been against and talked against the additional tax levying, said recently to the writer, when approached on the paving subject: (it must be said that we expected him to be against the paving) "That Lubbock must pave. Things less important can be postponed, but paving cannot if the dreams of the founders and builders of this city come true—and the additional tax should only be 3 cents on the $100 property valuation of the property here". We were almost sure he'd bring the tax part in, but was glad to learn that he, an inveterate knower and dodger of tax would vote with the crowd December 1st.

Now we feel assured on the general opinion of the citizens of Lubbock regarding the paving program and feel glad that on issues of importance they merge together to push it over. The paving election will carry here and, should carry unanimously. We believe we are safe to make this proposition in any person if there be one yet who is unfavorable to the paving program, to give him a free ride over our city election day—that is if he signs the necessary papers to free us from damage received during the ride.

Here is one other thing we Lubbock people have to be thankful for: With all the many and great things which our wonderful city has been blessed during the past twelve months we have on this Thanksgiving day a citizenship unanimously in accord and pushing and boosting the paving proposition.

THANKS THE CHILDREN FOR PICKING COTTON

To the Avalanche:
I feel like it is my duty to thank those school boys and girls for their help in my cotton patch. It is surely appreciated and their work was good. They all did a nice clean job. They saved two bales for me and those two teachers that had charge of them did their duty, especially one who controlled those sixteen boys. She earned her salary and those boys did remarkably well. And I also want to thank those good folks who spent their day in gathering my cotton on Sunday. I feel like they did a Christian deed for helping to save my crop, and I hope they will be rewarded for this good deed. I will remember all these good folks and hope they will not forget me.

108 LUBBOCK CO. FARMERS THANKFUL FOR HELP

There are about one hundred and eight Lubbock county people who needed financial aid during the drouth of the two years past and who through the instrumentality of Lubbock County Commissioners Court, received this very need that have rights to be thankful today.

Picture if possible one hundred and eight families of Lubbock county, some of these were widows with families, toiling incessantly to make a living, battling against the drouth and the hardships brought on because of war conditions, many farmers lost their help when the draft carried their boys away, today in the land of plenty. Some of these very families, after receiving this financial help are today in easy circumstances. A few have called at the Commissioners court and told them of the success they had made this year. Some of them will have several thousand dollars in the bank after this crop is harvested.

Approximately eleven thousand dollars were loaned to these families through the Commissioner's court who acted as agent. Not one cent will the Commissioners receive nor expect. A charge of five per cent interest on the amount loaned to the farmers was made, which is about half of that charged by Texas Banks. There are people who wonder how this rate of interest will pay and here is how it paid this year.

Practically every person who borrowed money from the above source were unable possibly because they were without collateral, to secure loans through the local banks, or it might be that conditions with the banks were such that they were unable to care for them. Every article purchased with this borrowed money was for the purpose of raising crops this and the past year. Cotton seed, sudan seed and feeds, and grain for the work horses and many like things, without which they could not have reaped the bountiful harvest of the present year. Citing one instance of the success of the venture: One borrower from this fund will gather 70 bales of cotton this year!

O. E. Sears, of the Sears Land Co. of this city, went to Lamesa last Sunday returning home Monday afternoon.

SEAGRAVES AND CROSBYTON GET DAILY TRAIN SERVICE

Commencing Monday morning, December 1st, two daily trains between the towns of Crosbyton and Seagraves will be started. The new schedule provides that the passenger train from Crosbyton going to Seagraves will remain in Lubbock until connections are made with the north, south and west bound trains; that the train leaving for Crosbyton in the morning from Seagraves, will remain in Lubbock until the north bound afternoon train arrives here. Thus practically all connections will be made easily in every direction from Lubbock for points in the three branch lines out of Lubbock. The only connection missed during the day will be the train from Crosbyton to Seagraves leaving Lubbock before the afternoon northbound Amarillo train.

This service of the railroad comes not because the demand of traffic created it, but as we are informed, to give extra service for passengers and mail and in the hopes that in the near future traffic would demand both trains. A daily freight train service between these points will be made we understand. Thus the towns served by this road will receive first class service in the future.

Instructions as yet, have not been received regarding the mail service between Lubbock, Brownfield and Seagraves, but is assumed by parties well informed, that this will be a matter of actuality within a few days.

THANKSGIVING DAY ON STATE PRISON FARM

Austin, Tex., Nov. 25.—Copies of the Thanksgiving day program to be held at the Eastham state prison farm have reached Austin, and the celebration by the convicts of their acquisition of a home in the new fire-proof and sanitary prison there promises to be a unique event in Texas history.

Special music will be rendered by the Huntsville prison band, and Fritz R. Smith, a member of the board of pardons, said that there is no scarcity of talent in the penitentiary. Eastham farm inmates will stage a comedy, while Billie Still, Gambling Dick, Willie Kidwell, and Panama Kid appear in vaudeville program. Then comes broncho riding and a number of mounted races.

Champions of the Huntsville prison and the Eastham farm will appear in boxing and wrestling matches.

Proceeds arising from admission charges go to a convict entertainment fund, and it is easy to believe that the statement, "There may never be another show like this in this part of the country," appearing on the program, is true.

According to Mr. Smith, prisoners will be given the run of the big baseball park on that day, and guards will be as inconspicuous as is consistent with the safekeeping of the men.

At Eastham farm the convicts have their own motion picture show, baseball park and athletic gear. They are allowed a half holiday on Saturdays and encouraged in entertaining themselves with clean sports and amusements, according to Mr. Smith.

PIONEER STOCKMAN DIES AT HOME IN SAN ANTONIO

Col. T. L. Fairris, well known capitalist and retired stockman of the South Plains, died at his home in San Antonio, Texas, last Friday, Nov. 21, 1919, following an illness of several years. Col. Fairris resided in Lubbock County about twelve years, or until last April. He was formerly in the stockraising business in this section. About four years ago because of the weight of years and failing health he retired from active work in these lines and moved to this city and purchased a good deal of town property and a fine residence. For the past three years the Colonel's health has been so poorly that he was practically an invalid and following advice of friends he disposed of his Lubbock home and bought in San Antonio at which place he resided since leaving here.

The deceased is survived by his wife, two sons, George S. Fairris, of Plainview, and Edwin Fairris of North New Mexico; two daughters, Mrs. Dr. J. E. Mayfield and Mrs. Dr. J. H. Reagan, both of San Antonio. Funeral services were held at the Cottage Presbyterian church of this city Monday afternoon, Nov. 24, conducted by Rev. T. H. Pollard. Interment was made immediately following in the Lubbock cemetery.

You Do More Work.

You are more ambitious and you get more enjoyment out of everything when your blood is in good condition. Impurities in the blood have a very depressing effect on the system, causing weakness, laziness, nervousness and sickness.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC restores Energy and Vitality by Purifying and Enriching the Blood. When you feel its strengthening, invigorating effect, see how it brings color to the cheeks and how it improves the appetite, you will then appreciate its true tonic value.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is not a patent medicine, it is simply IRON and QUININE suspended in Syrup. So pleasant even children like it. The blood needs Quinine to Purify it and IRON to Enrich it. These reliable tonic properties never fail to drive out impurities in the blood.

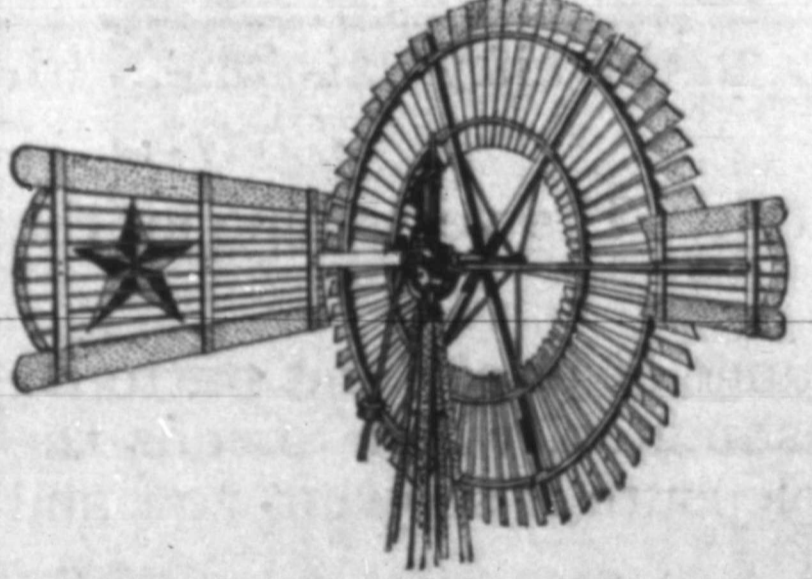

The Strength-Creating Power of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC has made it the favorite tonic in thousands of homes. More than thirty-five years ago, folks would ride a long distance to get GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC when a member of their family had Malaria or needed a body-building, strength-giving tonic. The formula is just the same today, and you can get it from any drug store. 60c per bottle.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(By Margaret Dupre).

One of the most interesting basketball games of the season was played on the high school court last Thursday afternoon. This game was played between the high school team and the teachers. The teachers, who played were: Miss Lena Cole, Miss Thurman, Miss Cooper, Miss Hazel, Miss Nichol, and Mrs. Meskimmen. The high school team was composed of Julia Jennings, Bessie Smith, Winnie Levy, Annie Ruth Quinn, and Neallie Jackson. The high school won by a score of thirteen to two. Miss Thurman, the star player of the teachers' team, made two scores for the teachers by taking advantage of fouls, and making two free goals.

Monday night the Seniors met at the home of David Benson for the purpose of practicing their play. This play will be given at the Lindsay Theatre the 16th of December. We hope that it will be the best play ever given by any class of the Lubbock high school.

Monday afternoon Dr. Peebler of this city and Dr. Roder, of New York visited Mr. Slagle's physiology classes. They lectured on influenza, what causes it, and how to prevent it.

Another basketball game was played Tuesday afternoon between the high school team and the grammar school team and the high school team won by a score of 13 to 2.

Mr. Dupre went to Houston Wednesday to attend the State Teachers Association, which will be held there Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Several new pupils have entered the primary and grammar schools this week.

HEALTH

The Care of the Skin.
Because of the very important functions that the skin discharges, it is necessary to health—to say nothing of beauty—to keep it in the best possible condition. That does not consist simply in keeping it clean, although that is, of course, essential; it must be kept always in such a condition that it will perform thoroughly and actively all its functions, and in order to maintain that condition we must remember that the skin is an eliminative as well as a protective organ. If it is called upon to get rid of too concentrated an amount of poisonous material from within, it may suffer quite as much as from injurious influences that act from without. It is very important, therefore, in maintaining the health of the skin to see that the digestive and excretory organs function properly so that as little waste material as possible remains to be excreted in the sweat. If these organs are in good order, they must be kept so by good living—which decidedly does not mean high living—and by daily active exercise.

A muddy skin, especially in the young, is almost always a sign of indigestion and sluggish excretion, but another frequent cause of blemishes on the skin is a disordered nervous system. So intimate, indeed, is the relation between the skin and the nervous system that a great many physicians regard most skin diseases as of nervous origin.

The quality of the skin varies greatly with different individuals. Some have naturally a coarse, rugose, more or less hairy skin. Others have a skin that seems to be only a thin veil of the finest texture, tinted with healthy blood that flows actively through the minute vessels in and beneath it. This freshness can be maintained for a long time by preserving the elasticity of the skin by cleanliness, by friction and by exercising its contractile power. The skin contracts under the influence of

TORPEDOED!

Don't blast your Liver and Bowels, but take "Cascarets."

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, bad taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach and colds.

Are you keeping your liver and bowels clean with Cascarets, or shocking your insides every few days with Calomel, Salts, Oil and violent pills?

Cascarets work while you sleep; they cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Cascarets never gripe, sicken or cause inconvenience and Cascarets cost so little too.

COMPROMISE RATES MAY BE ACCEPTED BY MINERS

Washington, November 22.—Secretary Wilson's proposal for a wage advance of 31.61 per cent for day laborers and 27.12 cents per ton for coal diggers, was accepted today by John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America on behalf of the miners.

Mr. Lewis declared the miners stood on their demands, submitted yesterday to the sub-scale committee for a seven-hour day, a Saturday half holiday and reference of internal disputes back to the districts in which they arise for settlement. The announcement followed a two-hour session of the miners' wage scale committee.

Explaining the basis of the wage scales he had suggested Secretary Wilson issued a statement saying that cost of living in mining regions had advanced 79.80 per cent and the increase would just equalize the situation for the miners.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Refusing to accept proposals made by Secretary of Labor Wilson as a basis for further negotiation, soft coal operators of the central competitive field, rested their case today with Fuel Administrator Garfield, whose official approval is necessary to validate any new wage agreement.

The public would not stand for a wage advance above their offer of 15 cents per ton to coal diggers and 20 per cent to day laborers, the operators asserted. They refused to make further overtures or even to restate their proposition, which was withdrawn following the deadlock Friday, unless the government, through the fuel administration, assumed responsibility for the added burden to the nation's fuel bill.

Up to Garfield. The operators are prepared to leave the entire situation in the hands of the government unless Dr. Garfield can find a way out of the difficulty, their spokesman announced. No joint meeting of the sub-scale committee was held today.

Dr. Garfield notified the mine owners that he would not meet their committee, of which Thomas T. Brewster is chairman, until after he has consulted Monday with Attorney General Palmer, Director General Mines and Judge C. B. Ames, assistant attorney general. It was considered likely that the negotiations might have to go over until after the cabinet meeting Tuesday, when, it was expected, a policy to get the mines back into operation before the threatening coal famine brings disaster will be worked out.

Say Figures Partisan. Operators' representatives authorized the statement that in their opinion, figures on which Secretary Wilson based his proposals showing living costs in the coal regions were partisan. The secretary told the sub-committee Friday that he did not speak for the government, it was said.

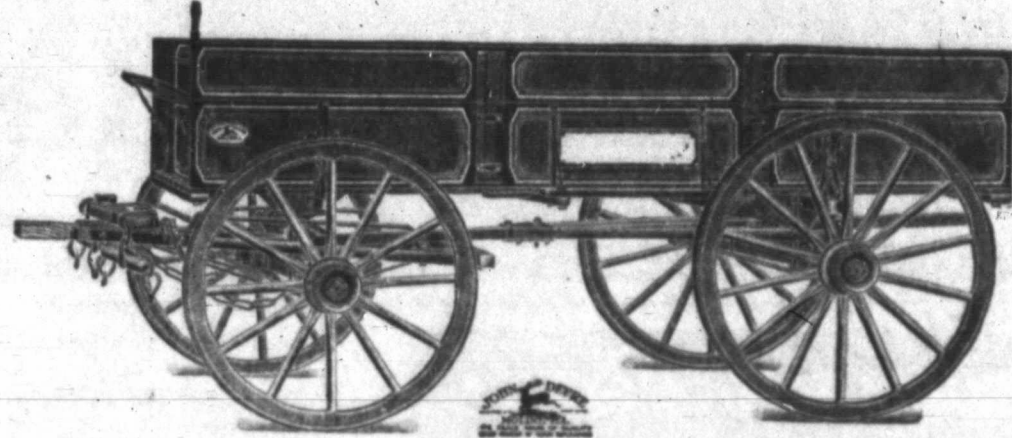

John L. Lewis, head of the miners, tonight charged the operators with "criminally delaying" the negotiations through a "conspiracy" on the part of the "powerful interests" including both mine owners and others who "have been openly opposing a settlement."

SHALLOWATER COMMUNITY FAIR WAS HELD

(Delayed). The people of Shallowater decided to have a community fair, which was the first to be held in Lubbock county.

A short but excellent program was rendered in the auditorium. Mr. M. M. Dupre of Lubbock gave an interesting talk, after which there were several readings and a chorus by the music class. The basket ball game between the high school girls and the teachers of Shallowater and Hardy, came after the program. The teachers won by accident. The score was 8 and 4. Mrs. Brasher, formerly of Cisco, was our very efficient referee. During the game the exhibits were being judged by the following: Mr. Thompson, Briggs, and Karper judged the live stock and farm products. Miss Parker, the Domestic Science Teacher, from Slaton, and Miss Halsey, judged the cooking, sewing and canning.

Miss Mitchell and Miss Pool, the teachers of Hardy, judged the school work. The booths, which represented the High School, Music Department, Intermediate and Primary Grades, were decorated in class colors, and carried out very effective ideas. The winning team and visitors were served refreshments by the defeated team in the Women's Club room.

The high school got the blue ribbon for having the prettiest booth. F. C. Oliver, representative of the Drovers National Bank of Kansas City, Mo., of this city, returned last Saturday night from Spur and other points in Dickens county where he had been several days transacting business.

NEGRO AFTER LICENSE FOR GETS NAME OF FIANCEE

Last Saturday morning, bright and early, Douglas Thomas, a large burly looking negro, arrived at the Clerk's Office in our city and requested a marriage license. Douglas gave his name to the clerk and started out. Sam T. "That's whar I started boss, down stairs to find out her name."

three minutes he returned with his bride-to-be who gladly furnished the clerk with her name. They were then married by Justice Fain in his office in the presence of many curious onlookers.

SEEK TO CHANGE THE TIME ZONE OF PLAINS

The act of Congress approved on March 19, 1918, entitled "An Act to save daylight and to provide standard time for the United States," provides that the orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission in this regard may be modified from time to time. Accordingly, now comes the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce, and in behalf of a certain district in northwest Texas, known as the Panhandle and Plains region, respectfully petitions that the above entitled cause may be reopened and a rehearing granted with a view to modification of the order of October 24, 1918, effective January 1, 1919, and for this purpose we submit the following:

The Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce is an organization representing the interests of thirty-eight counties in the Panhandle and Plains region of Texas in matters of Commerce, general and development of the different localities and welfare of the several bodies politic. The official headquarters of this organization are located in the city of Amarillo, Texas.

Prior to the order of October 24, 1918, all of this region had been located for many years in the second or "Central Time" zone and from long use had become accustomed and habituated to this standard of time.

Under the Daylight Saving provision advancing the time one hour in March this region was again restored to its accustomed time standard, but since the setting back of the time in October much inconvenience and dissatisfaction has been developed, resulting in an almost universal demand for a restoration of the conditions existing prior to January 1, 1919.

While this is felt in all conditions of public and private life, the principal objection comes from those engaged in commercial pursuits on account of the great handicap in actual business operation. The working hour comes about one hour after sunrise, while the closing hour comes about an hour after dark, giving rise to many inconveniences and much confusion in the handling of traffic.

Moreover, on account of the close connection of this portion of the state with other portions of the state still within the Central Time zone, business and commercial conditions demand that the old situation be restored.

We therefore respectfully petition that this matter be reopened and that this section of the state, or so much of it as may be shown necessary may be restored to the Central Time zone, and that a time and place may be designated for a hearing of the matters herein presented.

Respectfully submitted,
Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce,
A. S. STEWART, President,
F. R. JAMISON, Secy.-Mgr.

CATTLE STEADY—SHEEP AND HOGS HIGHER

Though hog receipts were the largest of any Monday for some time past, the market ruled higher. Demand was active. Cattle were steady and sheep a quarter higher. A more hopeful view of the fuel situation, together with mild weather and the fact that the big killing plants are equipped to use fuel oil, in case of coal shortage, is continuing a broad demand for all classes of live stock. Outgoing shipments are being handled without delay.

Today's Receipts.
Receipts today were 30,000 cattle, 15,000 hogs, and 800 sheep, compared with 34,000 cattle, 11,000 hogs, and 800 sheep a week ago, and 32,500 cattle, 25,750 hogs, and 13,100 sheep a year ago.

Beef Cattle.
Compared with total receipts of cattle the per cent of beef grades was relatively small, and the market was fully steady. Prime cattle were lacking. Good to choice short fed and good grass steers were scarce. Plain to medium kinds predominated and sold slowly at weak prices. Butcher cattle were steady. Most of the steers sold at $10.25 to $12.50. They were grass fat grades. Short fed steers sold at $13.50 to $17.25. Cows brought $5.25 to $12.50, only a few above $10.50. Fat heifers were scarce. Veal calves were steady.

Stockers and Feeders.
Thin cattle were in liberal supply. Offerings with quality sold readily but the ordinary kinds were dull and lower. Receipts from Texas and the Southwest were liberal. Straight feeders are quoted at $9.50 to $12.50, fleshy kinds up to $13.75, stockers are selling at $7.50 to $11.50, stock calves $9 to $12, and stock cows and heifers $6.50 to $9.00.

Hogs.
Hog prices were 25 to 35 cents higher, and the local market under large demand continued the high spot in the entire circuit. The top price was $14.55, and the bulk of the offerings sold at $14.25 to $14.50. Saturday packers here paid $14.09 for their droves, and no other market showed an average price of $14 or better. Local packing demand is urgent and receipts remain short of a year ago. Outlet for pigs and stock hogs is broad with prices ranging from $13.25 to $14.50.

Sheep and Lambs.
Sheep and lambs were quoted a quarter higher. Short fed lambs sold mostly at $14.50 to $14.75, ewes $7.50 to $8.00, and yearlings $10.50 to $11.50. There was considerable inquiry for feeding lambs and good breeding ewes, but offerings were small.

Thanksgiving Holiday.
Thursday, November 27, Thanksgiving, will be a holiday. The yards will be closed to all business except receiving, feeding, and watering stock.

COMMISSIONERS RECEIVE BIDS FOR ERECTION OF BUILDING

During the busy session this week of County Commissioners Court, bids were received from local lumber yards on furnishing a bill of lumber to go into the construction of another house on the county farm. The house will probably be about five rooms. It is stated that the intentions of the commissioners are to cultivate a larger body of land the coming year, and the new house will be necessary to house those who attend to it.

SCARCITY OF COAL RESULTING IN EMBARGOES

Reports of communities over the plains country without fuel and prospects for a severe cold snap caused an embargo to be placed on car load shipments of coal seed from this section this week. Practically all the fuel in sight in many of these communities is that which is promised by the Santa Fe railroad.

Mrs. Dora Giles, of Bisbee, Ariz., was here last week visiting with her parents, Grandpa and Grandma Ditto, of Gomez, and her brother and family, Wesley Ditto, of this place. Mrs. Giles left last Thursday morning with her parents and accompanied them as far as Lubbock, and from that point the old people went to Carlsbad, Texas, for the benefit of Grandpa's health. Mrs. Giles will visit a few days at Spur, Texas, and go from thence to Munday, Texas, at which point she will make her future home.

a sister for a few days. Newt Copeland, of Tatum, N. M., passed through here this week on his way to Meadow, Texas, where he will visit his brothers, Ote and Harry and families. Newt informed us that he had sold his cattle to his brother, Ote, to be delivered right away, but as everybody over his way could now make ten dollars per day or better in the cotton patch, he was up against the real thing to get help to deliver them, and we fear he will find the same condition prevailing here.

I. Townsend, of Bronco, Texas, was here this week with four bales of cotton. This makes his eighth bale out and about ten more to gather. Three thousand six hundred dollars, besides nine tons of $80 seed for this successful New Mexico stockman-farmer.

While ginning a bale of cotton for L. Townsend one day this week, the boiler section of the gin caught fire and delayed operations several hours, as water did not seem to effect the fire very much. One of the popular acid fire extinguishers was brought into play, and soon smothered the fire, and the ad writer of this particular brand of fire extinguishers ought to know the facts in the case at once, and all the popular magazines in the country would at an early date carry a full page of the Brownfield gin on fire, and a man with a nifty bronzed can plying the deadly fire liquid on the surging flames.

82.4 PCT. TEXAS DRAFTED MEN WERE FIT FOR WAR

Washington, Nov. 25.—Texas registered 990,522 men for the draft, of whom 816,200 were physically qualified, a percentage of 82.4. For the nation at large 23,908,576 registered and 18,798,600 were fit, a percentage of 78.6. Texas was ninth on the list of states in percentage of physical fitness of its men. Wyoming was first with 87.2 per cent. In the number of men 18 to 45 registered for the draft only New York, Illinois, Pennsylvania and Ohio, led Texas. This is according to War Department figures.

Starting Health Figures. Washington, Nov. 25.—Preventable disease cost the United States $4,000,000,000 less in 1917 than it would had the health conditions of twenty years ago prevailed in 1917.

Four hundred thousand less deaths occurred in 1917 than would have had the 1900 death rate prevailed. Annual illness of workers still costs this country $2,000,000,000 each year.

One man in every three called by the army was found to be physically unfit.

The figures were given out by Surgeon General Ruppert Blue of the United States Public Health Service in urging a plan for nationwide conservation of health and calling on all health agencies to co-operate in a carefully prepared program.

Surgeon General Blue suggests a conference in Washington to consider a health program prepared by the Public Health Service.

TEX-OKLA. BOUNDARY FIGHT GOES TO WASHINGTON

Austin, Nov. 24.—Attorney General C. M. Cureton declared today that he expects to leave for Washington on next Saturday to resist any effort on the part of Oklahoma officials to obtain orders or proceedings of any kind through the United States supreme court which would give Oklahoma control or possession of the disputed oil property in Red River, now held by a Texas receiver.

Following failure of the governors of the two states and their representatives to reach an agreement at the Fort Worth conference, it was intimated Oklahoma would carry the fight to the supreme court and seek a writ of prohibition against any further action on the part of Texas.

Defects due to governmental operation are cited as the principal contributing causes.

PANHANDLE FARMERS TO CUT WHEAT ACREAGE

Amarillo, Nov. 25.—According to reliable reports the wheat acreage will be reduced in this section next year. An enormous crop was harvested by Panhandle farmers this year, but on account of poor transportation facilities, poorer markets and other causes, farmers have lost large sums. Many of them who harvested thousands of bushels, will not make expenses.

A majority of the farmers will plant some wheat, but the total acreage will be reduced at least one-third as compared with this year. In Eastern New Mexico farmers will plant a larger acreage than ever before.

BURLESON CONFIDENT OF LEAGUE'S ADOPTION

Austin, Texas, Nov. 25.—Postmaster General Albert S. Burleson arrived in Austin last night from Washington. After a brief visit here to his sisters, Mrs. Lilly B. MacDonnell and Miss Emma Burleson, he will go to San Antonio to spend Thanksgiving Day with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Negley. Mr. Burleson will return to Washington via Austin.

Mr. Burleson said he felt sanguine that the covenant of the League of Nations will ultimately be adopted. He declared that the acts of the Republicans have been a disappointment and the Republicans must answer for neglect.

"No legislation has even been enacted to restore the railroads to private ownership or about Jan. 1, 1920, as it was certainly expected there would be," the Postmaster General said. "Certainly the fault does not lie with President Wilson. He has advocated all the constructive measures. His wise and sage advice has not been followed; certainly the ones who are responsible for ignoring his broad suggestions and appeals are the ones who must suffer for it in the future."

"But, I'll tell you what the Republicans have done. They have made microscopic examination of the League of Nations, to the end that they might possibly find here or there something in that great document to disparage and make therefrom, if possible, an issue on which to pitch the 1920 campaign. The Democratic party feels secure, however, while it was in power and was largely re-responsible for legislation enacted it may well stand firmly on the laws it advocated. The responsibility will fall later on the Republican party—the party of inactivity to the present, the one that is, to my mind, standing in the way of legislation that is absolutely essential to the greatness and prosperity of North America, following on the heels of the war that makes new and more comprehensive statutes indispensable."

WOODMEN FROM 18 STATES PLAN TO FIGHT NEW RATES

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 24.—Delegates of the Woodmen of the World from eighteen States met here today and formed an organization to fight the increased insurance rates adopted last July.

About 100 persons attended the meeting and it was voted to raise $100,000 to carry on the campaign and finance the suit pending at Nebraska City, Neb., to restrain officials of the sovereign camp from enforcing the new rate schedule, effective Jan. 1, next.

The new organization is to be known as the Protective League of Woodmen of the World and Woodmen Circle. Claude Wilkerson, of Sedalia, Mo., was elected president and treasurer, and Judge Hal Adams of Jacksonville, Fla., secretary.

Mr. Wilkerson emphasized the new organization would consider seceding from the parent body unless the new rates were lowered.

It was alleged the new schedule in effect, is an increase of from 100 to 300 per cent over the present one. States represented at the meeting include Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas.

"How to Select Laying Hens." (By F. W. Kazmeier, Poultry Husbandman, Extension Service, A. and M. College, College Station, Texas.)

Every farmer and poultry raiser should make it a point to closely cull his flock in the fall of each year. It is often possible to discard a third of the number, or more, thus reducing food bills without noticeably affecting the egg yields.

1. Hens that molt late, and quickly, are the best layers. By this is meant hens molting during the latter part of September, October and November are better layers than those molting earlier. It is poor judgment to keep these birds molting early and sell those molting late, although this is done on many farms.

2. Individual hens with pale colored shanks, in such breeds as the Rock, Wyandottes, Reds and Leghorns, are considered better layers than those with bright and yellow shanks. This indication is true only when applied in the fall of the year, and among breeds with yellow shanks.

3. The above principle applies also to the color of the ear lobes in breeds with yellow, creamy or white lobes. The many varieties of Leghorns can be divided by this indication. The Rocks, Wyandottes, and other American, Asiatic and English breeds have red ear lobes, hence this indication for these breeds is valueless.

4. A constitutionally strong bird, one that passes through the molt quickly and easily, is better layer than one that develops all kinds of ailments during this period.

5. Hens that show the least broodiness are better layers than those that are broody a large part of the time.

6. A bird with closely worn toenails is considered a better layer than one with long nails.

7. A hen that goes into the molt with worn and ragged plumage is a better layer than the bird with no such marks that bespeak hard work during the preceding year.

8. A bird first off the roost in the morning and the last to return to it at night is considered a better layer than the one that spends the major portion of her time on the roost, or stands around with a "humped up" appearance in a corner of the pen or basks all day in the sun.

9. A singing and working individual is always a better layer than the quiet and lazy kind.

10. Hens that go to roost with a full crop are good layers, hence the saying "A heavy eater is a good layer."

11. A fowl must carry a little fat in order to be in laying condition. A poor or lean hen can never be a laying hen.

12. Rather large comb and wattles for the breed is considered another characteristic of a good layer.

13. Some breeders insist that Leghorns with rather high tails are better layers than those with very low tails.

14. Pullets that commence laying early are considered better layers than those that mature late, hence the statement: "Keep the early laying pullets."

Feeding for Egg Production. A good way of feeding hens for egg-production is something as follows:

Early in the morning give a very sparing feed of corn, wheat, kafir, or milo, or some similar grain. Keep before them at all times, in a good dry mash hopper, the following mixture:

100 lb. wheatbran; 50 lb. wheat middling or shorts; 10 lb. cottonseed meal; 10 lb. peanut meal; 35 lb. best grade poultry beef scrap, 1 lb. salt.

About an hour and a half before sunset, give another feeding of grain in the litter. At this time give them all they will eat; in fact just a little more. It is very important that the fowls go to roost with a full crop. All of the above should be supplemented with milk and water in separate dishes. Give them green feed, grit, and oyster shell.

LOCAL ITEMS FROM THE RALLS BANNER

W. Wester, son of Prof. and Mrs. J. K. Wester, is here this week visiting. This young man saw service in France, and acquitted himself in a manner to reflect credit on himself and his country.

J. W. Willis acted wisely last year when he planted wheat, as his yield amounted to 1800 bushels, and then when cotton gathering time arrived, he finds that he has about 18 or 20 bales of cotton. Truly, diversification helps swell the bank account.

A negro and Mexican, who have been working on Charley Ashley's place, went prairie dog hunting one day this week, and as a result the negro received a run shot wound thru the hip. The Mexican was carrying a 22-caliber rifle, and was in the act of shooting a prairie dog, when the negro stepped in front of the gun, with the above result. The wound was dressed, and the negro was sent to his home at Houston.

G. R. Moore, of Shamrock, and senior member of the firm of G. R. Moore & Sons, was here this week visiting his son, Lawrence, and looking after business affairs. That Mr. Moore has the utmost confidence in the future of our town is attested by the fact that while here he purchased the brick building occupied by J. J. Caudle's hardware store, from J. J. Caudle. We understand that Mr. Caudle will retire from the hardware business and move on the farm, he seeing greater possibilities in the bosom of Mother Earth than in the hardware business.

MONROE ITEMS OF THE PAST WEEK

All the farmers have been enjoying the fine weather we had for the last few weeks. Most of all of them have their feed shocked and put up and others are threshing and picking cotton. But all are wearing a broad smile and seem to be very happy for as they pass by you can hear the money jingle in their pockets.

LOCALS FROM THE LYNN COUNTY NEWS

We are informed by a prominent Grassland citizen that the gin run by Thomas Brothers in that community, has put on a day and night shift, and ran 85 bales the first twenty-four hours. This gin had turned out 1240 bales up until Wednesday night of this week.

In the week's issue of the News, an article appeared stating that Tahoka hotels had closed their dining rooms and the town was minus this service. We are glad to correct this statement on the part of the St. Clair Hotel. Mr. Williams informs us that he has never closed his dining room, and was prepared to give first class service in this line. He stated, however, that he was keeping no regular

Mentions of the Conference in Advocate

Texas Christian Advocate.

We do not recall ever attending a greater Conference than this one. The attendance was great from the first hour to the last. Practically all of the preachers were there and many laymen from various sections were also in attendance, while the people of the community turned out in great numbers. That section of Texas has suffered from crop failures two or three years now, but the crop this year is anything but a failure.

That country is the garden spot of Texas this year, and as those preachers gather at Conference there was a note of victory in every ringing word. They have stayed there through very severe trials and they have occasion to rejoice at improved conditions.

Bishop McMurtry is an unusually good presiding officer. He is always in complete control of the business of the body. Nothing is done hurriedly, and yet all business is transacted rapidly. Any member of the Conference feels at liberty to speak out at any time, and while the Bishop insists that the rules of parliamentary practice must be observed, he does it in such a way that there is not the least sting in it. His long service in the office of Secretary of the Board of Church Extension gave him fine training in all the affairs of the church, and intimate knowledge of every section of its territory. Then he is a man of affairs—he knows business, and believes that the King's business should be conducted in a business-like way.

Rev. G. S. Wyatt, after many years of faithful and effective service, asked for and was granted the superannuation relation. While his bodily strength is failing his mind is alert and his heart mellow. He is an optimist and a dispenser of good cheer. He loves his brethren and they love him.

Rev. Simeon Shaw, after sometime in temperance work, goes back into the pastorate at Canyon. He will have a wonderful field there in that important student center. The Conference took action looking to the building of a modern and adequate church at that place. Brother Shaw is a strong preacher and Canyon will enjoy him.

Sunday at Lubbock was a great day. The weather was clear and cool just such days as one sees nowhere except on the Plains. People came from all over that section and packed the great auditorium. Bishop McMurray preached at the morning hour and George Stuart in the evening. Both sermons were high-class, and were greatly appreciated by the great audiences that heard them.

The appointments were read Sunday night at the close of the service.

Rev. G. W. Shearer is the new presiding elder on the Lubbock District. He goes from Childers Station where he had a year of success. There were a large number of conversions and additions and a surplus on collections. The salary has been increased for the coming year. Brother Shearer is a diligent student and will make a valuable leader in that rapidly growing district.

Dr. J. T. Griswold had a great year at Lubbock. There were more than one hundred conversions and two hundred additions. There was a gain of 350 in Sunday School enrollment. The Centenary quota was doubled and the amount raised for all purposes aggregates $12,500. The Lubbock church building is probably the best in the Conference. It has auditorium capacity for something like fifteen hundred and is modern and well equipped.

Rev. A. L. Moore, the capable Secretary of the Conference, goes from the Plainview District after a successful quadrennium, to Memphis Station. Memphis is one of the best towns in the Conference, and our Methodism is strong there. Few pastors will have a larger opportunity than Brother Moore this year, and those who know him have no fears about his ability to meet the demands.

Rev. W. E. Lyon was appointed Missionary Secretary for his Conference and the New Mexico Conference. He has a great responsibility and a great opportunity. He is a frontier field where wise leadership will bring amazing returns. Brother Lyon is a diligent and energetic man and has given much thought to the details of the work to which he has just been appointed.

SOME LOCALS FROM THE POST CITY POST

Next week is District Court week and court will open Monday morning. Sheriff Craver requests us to state that the Grand Jury and Petit Jurors will be excused for this term and can go ahead with their crop gathering. So if your name is on either list remember you will not be expected to come to court.

Rev. Kidd, of Clyde, Texas, has been appointed by the Methodist Conference which convened at Lubbock last week, to fill the pulpit of that denomination in Post the coming year. He will probably arrive here in time to hold services Sunday.

At 6 o'clock last Saturday afternoon Mr. H. L. Henderson and Miss Winnie Bell Knox were united in marriage at the bride's home at Justiceburg by the Rev. J. Pat Horton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Graber, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Greenfield, Md. and Mrs. W. O. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. H. Clark, attended the Methodist Conference at Lubbock last Sunday.

Gorns Come Off Like Banana Peel

"Gets-It" Leaves Toe Smooth As Your Palm. Never Fails.

Ever peel off a banana skin? Well that's the way "Gets-It" peels off any corn or callus. It's a picnic. Nothing else in the world will do it.

"2 Drops of 'Gets-It' Goodbye Corn!" but "Gets-It" because of the new secret principle in the "Gets-It" formula. "Gets-It" does away forever with "contraptions," "wrappy" plaster, ointments that rub off, blood-letting knives, and scissors that snip into the "quick." "Gets-It" causes pain. It takes but a second or two to use "Gets-It." There's no fussing or trouble. It dries immediately. You put your stocking right back on again. Your corn will come off painlessly in one complete piece. That's common-sense. It never fails. "Gets-It," the only sure, guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. A. & M. COLLEGE CLASSING COTTON FOR LOANS

Director T. O. Walton, of Extension Service of the A. & M. College, has issued the following announcement to cotton farmers and bankers:

In a statement issued a few days ago Governor W. P. G. Harding of the Federal Reserve Bank announced that banks in the federal reserve system will hereafter be required to make loans and advances on cotton in accordance with the value of individual bales because of the great difference in value of bales of high and low grade and short and long staple.

In view of this ruling it is highly desirable that farmers who wish to obtain loans on cotton and banks that desire to make such loans should know the correct grade and staple of the cotton offered as collateral. As very few farmers or bankers know how to grade cotton correctly the A. & M. College offers the services of its staff of expert cotton classers to grade and staple cotton to be used as security for loans anywhere in the state.

To obtain the benefit of this service samples weighing seven or eight ounces, drawn from both sides of the bale, identified by tag or card tag showing number of bale, should be sent to the nearest cotton office listed below. A card or certificate showing the grade and staple of each bale according to official U. S. cotton standards, will be promptly returned.

All of these offices are operated co-operatively by the A. & M. College and the U. S. Bureau of Markets with local farmers associations which pay a large portion of the expense, and charge a small fee, varying from 25c to 50c a bale for this service.

The location of government cotton classing and marketing offices and the names of the cotton classers in charge are as follows:

Dallas, Texas, W. M. Mangum, 1308 Southwestern Life Bldg.; Houston, Texas, W. B. White, No. 7 Dealey Building; Vernon, Texas, S. H. Johnson; Memphis, Texas, W. W. Harwell; Weatherford, Texas, S. L. NEW TRACTOR AND ROAD GRADER TRIED OUT

The County Commissioners are testing out a large tractor and road grader on the canon hill just north-east of Slaton. The writer, in company with Judge Moore and the Commissioners, visited this hill, and watched the work. It is surprising the way the grader cuts into the rocks and gravel, and gouges out an immense amount of dirt so easily.

It is estimated that this tractor will complete the hill in ten days work. To have used teams and scrapers would probably have taken many months, and would have cost at least $5,000.00 to put this hill in shape. The tractor and grader are doing the work much better than the teams could possibly have done it.

This hill has been practically impassible here since the road was laid out, because of the very steep incline making it practically impossible to pull over it with a load, and even difficult to travel over in an automobile. After the work now being done on it, this hill will be easily passed over by all traffic.

One may get an idea as to the power of the tractor, when they see it pulling the grader up a 13 per cent grade, and moving the dirt out at the same time. The demonstration is being made by the Avery Company, and the writer believes it would be an economical purchase for the Commissioners if they would buy this outfit, for even on the level roads it will do the work better, and put the road-bed in shape more rapidly, economically and satisfactorily than any other system.

WEST TEXAS FARMERS SHOULD HOLD COTTON

Farmers of West Texas! Hold your cotton for a better price and demand that the unjust discrimination against your cotton shall cease. Do not get scared at the present slump.

Judge W. F. Ramsey, Federal Reserve Agent of the Eleventh District says: "I am only surprised that the steel strike, the rise in call money rates, on some days nearly to 30 per cent, the drop in foreign exchange and the tie-up in foreign shipping by the coal supply being cut off, and other factors have not caused a greater drop in cotton prices. The fact that cotton has not gone lower is most convincing evidence that the cotton trade of the world believes in the existence of a short cotton crop to fill a great world demand. Cotton should be marketed gradually. The man owing money should sell some of his cotton to pay his debts." Every sound business man fully endorses this statement from Judge Ramsey.

The farmers are the only people who can hold cotton without injury to some one.

We are still of the opinion that it is unfair to the cotton raisers of West Texas and especially of the Plains for their white middling cotton not to bring as much as the infer-

What is Life Insurance?

Life Insurance is NOT a panacea for every ill. No company claims this and no honest agent so represents.

Life Insurance does NOT shorten or prolong human life. If it shortened Life, the companies could NOT insure at present rates. If it lengthened Life for even ONE YEAR, the companies would have too much business.

Life Insurance is NOT a cross that the poor must bear. It is NOT a pleasure that the middle classes cannot enjoy. It is NOT a luxury that the rich monopolize.

"Thanksgiving Day" 1919

History tells us that the Pilgrim Fathers in the new world—grateful for a golden harvest—gathered together for a feast of rejoicing.

And they called it "Thanksgiving Day."

And year by year this all-American custom of giving thanks has grown into the hearts and minds of our people. No other holiday in any season is so typically American as our own Thanksgiving Day. Of all the world's festive occasions this day alone is consecrated purely to our nation—to the firesides of America.

We are coming to the close of a year filled with many blessings. Have we not just cause for gratefulness? When the Beneficent Author of All Good has seen fit to shower upon our nation such blessings as this year has brought, the season takes a new meaning—sweeter, fuller than ever before—filling us with a glow of gratitude such as no other Thanksgivings have ever done.

We are thankful for twelve months of peace and contentment; for a harvest unsurpassed in our country; for the triumphant return of our gallant army; for the brain and brawn and sinew of American manhood dedicated to the work of Reconstruction.

And this bank is thankful, too, for the confidence, friendship and co-operation of the men and women of this community. May the good things that the year has brought to each and everyone fill us with a new determination to work and to strive with a freshness of spirit and hearts filled with the desire to serve for the good of our people, our town, our community.

BROWNWOOD POULTRY SHOW DECEMBER 4TH TO 6TH

Entries are pouring in for this event at a rate that promises to make it a marked success. Those desirous of showing birds are urged to forward entries at the earliest possible moment, so that the association may not accept more than there is room for. The exhibits promise to be of a very high character, and Mr. W. H. Lawson, Secretary of the Poultry Association states that he believes the exhibit will be fully equal to any in the State. Brownwood, and Brown County, breeders—and they are many—will show largely in every class, and it will take sterling birds to carry off the blue ribbons in this event. Mr. Lawson says he believes the coming show will mark a new departure in the poultry business in this section, and will largely justify the carrying out of plans now under consideration by the Brownwood Chamber of Commerce to put on an annual fair in Brownwood, at which encampments of Boys and Girls Clubs may be had, and their products exhibited. There will be a large exhibit of this character at the Poultry Show, together with an exhibit of Pecans from the enormous crop of this year, with handsome prizes for the best exhibits.

COTTON CLASSER'S OFFICE MOVED TO COTTON YARD

The Government Cotton Classer's office was moved Monday-morning of this week from its former location in the rear of the Security Bank & Trust Company's building to the cotton yard. The move was made, we are informed, because of the demand of the farmers who preferred the classer to be near the yard on account of taking less time in classing their cotton. The old house northwest of the square and formerly used as a public weigher's house was moved to the cotton yard to be used for the office of Mr. Williamson, the government classer.

Business will be some better down at the present location, thinks Mr. Williamson because many who would have had their cotton classed but did not because they were rushed for time will now spare a few minutes for this work. The cotton classer has classed and graded nearly three thousand bales and the people are realizing more each day the good to be derived from this office.

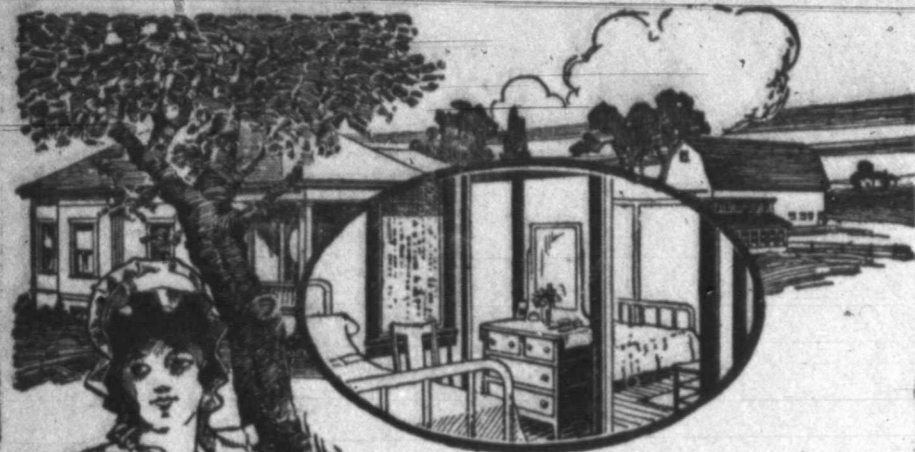

Representative R. A. Baldwin, of Slaton, was here the first of the week attending to business matters.

Kansas City Life Insurance Co.

So closely is insurance associated with the name of W. C. Rylander in this district that most every man who has contemplated the purchase, or in the words of Mr. Rylander, thinks of investing in the benefits derived from carrying a reasonable amount of insurance on his life cannot overlook the fact that a great institution is in our city whose intentions are to serve skillfully every man or woman who desires life insurance.

The District Manager, W. C. Rylander, of Lubbock has jurisdiction over the counties of Lubbock, Hale, Swisher, Crosby, Floyd, Motley, Lamb, Farmer, Bailey, Hockley, Garza, Lynn, Dawson, Gaines, Yoakum, Terry, Borden and Cochran, comprising the heart of one of the richest and fastest developing districts in the Great State of Texas. Mr. Rylander established this agency here October 1917, or just about two years ago and has personally accepted applications for Life insurance amounting to over one-half million dollars since coming here.

Life insurance for a business, heartily believing that every man who has dependents should provide for their future welfare; with a meritable belief that at the present time or surely in a short time in the future, that every man or person who for financial or investment reasons cares to borrow funds, shall necessarily carry a policy, in an insurance company whose foundation is built for strength, upon the life of the borrower.

This is not, however, the reason contributable for the remarkable success of the Kansas City Life Insurance Co. in this district. But backing this company with full confidence as to security; having studied thoroughly its fundamentals, putting his whole soul into advancing a business; talking consistently and persistently and about its merits and the importance of realizing the value received from life insurance is the agency through which success has been attained and will proceed to be maintained.

This company operates in twenty-three Western States and now has life insurance in force amounting to over $175,000,000.00, with a net increase during the first six months of this year of the stupendous sum of $25,000,000.00.

Mr. Rylander is a native Texan and has lived to see the Lone Star State develop from sparsely settled territory to its present enviable position in world-wide development. He loves the Life Insurance business and of course embraces a broad conception of its purpose, its results, and the necessity of it.

To know the good derived, and the utmost confidence with which the District Manager of the Kansas City Life Insurance Company has in its merits, we will cite one instance which happened near here furnished to us by the generosity of Mr. Rylander:

"A farmer living seven miles of Plainview in Hale County, applied to the Kansas City Life Insurance Company on November 9, 1916, for a policy of insurance in the amount of $2500 which was issued in due course, the applicant being rated by the medical examiner as a first class risk.

On October 24, 1917, less than one year from the date of his policy, we received a telegram from our representative at Plainview, stating that the insured had had an accident in which his arm had been caught in a threshing machine on October the 19th, and that after amputation gangrene set in and he died from the effect of same, on October 24th. The claim was approved the same day and a check in the amount of $5000, or double the face value of the policy, was issued and forwarded to the beneficiary on the same day."

Thus we only expect of a company of which our estimable citizen W. C. Rylander to represent. He is a consistent Christian, a member of the Methodist Church of this city and a Sunday School teacher for the Wesley Class of this church; a progressive man who contributes to every worthy enterprise of civic betterment and a man whom it will do you good to be associated with. He invites THINKING men and real business men who desire to build the SAFEST and BEST estate on earth—a Legal Reserve Life Insurance Estate—and maintain it at the very lowest cost, to call on him and talk the matter over; believing that any unbiased man who can stand the required medical examination will supply himself with the necessary life protection.

Guarantee Abstract Co.

The Guarantee Abstract and Title Company of this city has an enviable position in their broad field of work, that only thorough understanding and execution of the fundamental principles of the business brought to them. Strict attendance to their own field of endeavor with prompt thorough and efficient service has contributed no small part in the attractive business done by this company, which was founded under the present name in November, 1911. This company is successors to the Plains Abstract & Title Co., which was organized by pioneers of western Texas or known better as Brown-Speth and Abernathy, with M. G. Abernathy a well known citizen now living in our city, as manager. Later this business was purchased by C. L. Pickett, now living at Post City, and run under his management for some time or until November in 1911 when the Lubbock County Abstract Company also of this city and the Plains Abstract and Title Company, merged and changed the name to the Guarantee Abstract & Title Co., which it is now well known by.

Today the Guarantee Abstract & Title Company have one of the largest or most complete abstract plants in this section of the country, embracing complete sets of abstracts to all property of Hockley, Cochran and Lubbock counties, within which are numerous townsites. Every convenience of any importance known to the betterment and efficient management of an abstract plant is installed or owned and operated in their plant in our city. For instance, the best of machines, including the famous Edison Mimeograph and Royal typewriters, are used in preparation of works pertaining to the abstract and title business. With these modern facilities you are assured of good and neat work, the appearance of which results only in the care taken by the management.

Every institution which attained success in any commercial field whatever kind, has some other contributing factor besides the stocks and equipment that promotes the success of the enterprise, or in fact insures its success or failure. No better instance of this can be hardly shown more clearly than the personnel of the Guarantee Abstract & Title Company. C. L. Adams, under whose management this business is being run, was raised a Texan, most of the time living in Bosque county. From nearly every angle of the Abstract business he has thoroughly studied, learning more of the fundamentals of the business, probably while associated in the county clerk's office in Bosque county. Mr. Adams followed the call of the west and the pioneer life and came to our section of the plains in 1908. From the very first he has been directly associated in the abstract business in our county, therefore we are led to believe that he is in touch with the many changes that have been made and understands their cause more thoroughly than any person probably in the county; that is those things which may or might be a prominent item in the real value of deeds and etc., to all the property here.

While we might say here is a person who "eats work and thrives thereby" Mr. Adams, having that true sportsmanship and realizing the value of periods of relaxation that helps in healthfulness, takes a certain amount of time each year or season for hunting. Here is a veritable hunter. And those who have had the experience to be out on some of the hunting trips with Mr. Adams know his skill as a marksman. These trips are never prolonged, for in the business which he deals, there are apt to be matters that demand his personal supervision.

Should in any way you might need the advice of one who understands the business, or work done in the ways of making complete abstracts are additional work to an old abstract, you will find in the Guarantee Abstract & Title company a personnel that is trained to do accurate and neat work and deliver same back to the client immediately upon its completion. You can not go wrong when seeking the services of C. L. Adams and the Guarantee Abstract and Title Company.

STATE HIGHWAYS ENGINEERS GO OVER ROUTE THRU HERE

Messrs. J. W. Benjamin, of Amarillo and F. P. Sexton, of Fort Worth, division engineers of the State Highway Department, were here a short time the first of the week making a trip of inspection of the highways through Lubbock. These men were taken out over some of the principal highways by local men Monday and express themselves pleased with the roads through this section. "Roads through this section of the country can be made the best in the State," says one of these men; "if an expenditure of work and funds would be made to keep the roads maintained in good shape."

CASH YOUR JUNK BUY W. S. STAMPS

To the Mayor Addressed:
My dear Sir:
Fifty million dollars worth of junk is going to waste now in this Federal District alone. Such waste is a crime and most certainly should be corrected. In line with its general plan of Conservation and of Saving, the Government is making a special effort to bring this out; get it sold, and get the money invested—preferably, of course—in War Savings and Thrift Stamps.
With your influence as the principal officer in your city, it is well within your province to render the Government and your own people a splendid service, and I ask that you issue the enclosed Proclamation, have it published in your local papers, giving it as wide a circulation as is possible. In addition to this, I ask that you get in touch with all the civic organizations in your city, and with all your leaders in Civic affairs, to the end that the week of November 23rd to 29th, inclusive, shall result in a real and a lasting good to your people.
The Governors of Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and New Mexico, have issued Proclamations, officially designating the week of November 23-29, inclusive, Salvage—Clean-Up—Conservation week, for the expressed purpose of bringing out Junk of every description, selling it, and getting the money properly invested, and your proclamation in line with theirs, will result in great good indeed.
If you will give this endeavor of the Government your real, hearty and sincere support, it will result in cleaning up your city, bringing from the garrets, barns, closets, trunks, materials of many kinds, useless as they are, but possessing a cash value that can be easily realized upon.
Faithful as you have been to every public call, I know you will answer this summons now, and I am depending upon you absolutely to assist in making the week a complete success

Right off the Farm!

Here's a food product that really does come right off the farm—Crockett & Weil's Country Made Syrup. It's a genuine cane syrup, made in the good old-fashioned Southern way; just pure cane juice cooked in an open evaporator.

REAL Country Made SYRUP
The Crockett & Weil Kind

is the very best syrup you ever tasted for that very reason. There's nothing taken out and nothing added—for it isn't needed. When you take pure cane juice, boil it right and pack the syrup right—why, you get the best kind of syrup ever made: That's the Crockett & Weil kind all the way. They are busy now, right down in the Louisiana cane fields, making Country Made Syrup. Leading grocers will soon have it, so when you order say: "The Crockett & Weil Kind."

(We'll tell you why: there are lots of so-called country made syrups produced in factories.)

A Proclamation.
Whereas, At the request of the United States Treasury Department, Savings Division, the Governor of our State, by official Proclamation has designated the week of November 23-29, inclusive, as Salvage—Clean-up—Conservation Week—and
Whereas, Every citizen is asked during this week to make every effort to bring out and to sell all Junk of every description, including scrap iron, old clothes, rags, bones, bottles, old rubber, tin foil, paper and magazines, that this great amount of materials now uselessly wasting may be converted into cash and usefully invested, and
Whereas, It is a public duty as well as a personal service to promote in every way possible this plan of thrift and salvage, that the more than fifty million dollars worth of junk in this Federal District now wasting, may become of useful value:
Therefore, I, C. E. Parks, Mayor of Lubbock, do issue this proclamation, and do call upon all the citizens of Lubbock to lend their every support and assistance to this most worthy enterprise, and
I do further enjoin upon the citizenship of Lubbock to search out all of their closets, garrets, barns, sheds, trunks; to gather together all articles that are of no use, including junk of every kind; see that it is sold; and I heartily urge that they invest for themselves the money thus received in War Savings and Thrift Stamps.
In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal.
Done at the city of Lubbock, Texas, this 20th day of November, A. D. 1919.

BIG FOOTBALL SCENE IN FILM FEATURE

The manager of the Lyric theatre announces that, beginning with Friday and Saturday he will show Vitagraph's latest serial thriller, "Smashing Barriers," a brand new concoction of daredevilry and romance, written especially for William Duncan, the most famous male star of photoplay serials today.

Instead of opening this serial with a lot of blood and thunder action, Vitagraph has taken an altogether new tack and starts off the interest and excitement with something altogether unusual for a serial, a college football game. Coming at this season of the year and with the action woven around a sport that is king in American athletics, it is a welcome relief and full of timely tension for motion picture fans in any part of the country. An exciting moment in a football game has never failed to give the proper thrill and it won't fail here.

William Duncan has as his chief support in this newest serial, Joe Ryan and Edith Johnson, favorites of the other previous Duncan thrillers.
