HOUSE OPENS IMMIGRATION FIGHT

STONE MAY ASK RETIREMENT OF BUREAU CHIEF

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION ON MANY MATTERS IS CAUSE OF ACTION

By E. B. MacDONALD (UN Staff Correspondent) WASHINGTON, April 4.—Retirement of W. J. Burns, chief of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice, is expected to be one of the first developments after Harlan F. Stone takes over the office as attorney general.

Stone, it is understood, desires to build up his own staff of investigators. In addition to the natural difficulties that would be expected from retaining one of his predecessors' closest personal friends, Stone and Burns are known to hold divergent views on a number of questions, notably that of dealing with radicals.

On the one hand Stone openly has expressed himself opposed to those who believe the United States government to be in imminent danger of immediate and violent destruction at the hands of radical elements, directed from Moscow through the Third Internationale.

On the other hand, Burns regards the alleged growth of radicalism here to be the foremost problem confronting the government in general and his department in particular.

Recently Burns aided Secretary of State Hughes in presenting of alleged radical activities in this country to the senate Russian committee and when called before the house appropriations committee he testified the "red menace" was so real that an appropriation of $2,200,000 to combat it would be needed for 1925.

Stone never has concealed his antagonism toward what he believed to be the illegitimate methods employed by former Attorney General Palmer in his campaign against the "reds" which reached its height in 1919. He stood with the liberal elements which fought

ROGERS ELECTED GOVERNOR OF ROTARIANS

By United News. WICHITA FALLS, Texas, April 4.—Harry Rogers, San Antonio, was elected district governor of the Rotarians at the closing session of the annual convention here Friday. He defeated Dr. M. A. Bralley, Denton, by 53 votes.

Galveston was favored for the 1925 convention, but a final decision will not be made until a meeting of the secretaries and presidents is held during September at the call of the governor.

Practically all the visiting Rotarians had left for their homes Friday night.

Amarillo, the town that won the cup for the largest attendance at the Rotary convention here, had only one man present Friday afternoon when the award was made by Lige Coles, of Houston.

Governor and Mrs. Dabney and the Rev. J. K. Thompson, of Amarillo, presented Rogers with a pair of engraved cuff links presented with a silver service set, Fort Worth, Dawley's term ends July 1.

Plans for trip to Brownwood discussed.

"On to Brownwood." This is the slogan adopted by the Junior Chamber of Commerce following a rousing meeting of the Board of Directors at the local offices yesterday afternoon, with reference to the annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Brownwood, May 13, 14, and 15.

A committee of five from the organization was appointed by the president to draw up plans leading toward a good representation for Lubbock and surrounding territory at the convention, and to look into the possibility of a special train from this city.

Secretary Davis pointed out that it would only be necessary to have 125 full fares in order to guarantee the special train, and owing to the fact that Dr. P. W. Horn, president of the Texas Tech College, construction of which is to begin here in the very near future, was to be one of the principal speakers on the three-day program, he felt it was not only a privilege, but the duty of Lubbock to go to Brownwood at least 200 strong, thus emphasizing their faith in the future of the college, and carrying out the boosting spirit of the Hub City.

The arrangement committee for the trip met in a short session immediately following the directors meeting, and began plans for an extensive publicity campaign.

By United News. AUSTIN, Texas, April 4.—Approximately $3,900,000—representing the last of the apportionment of $12 per capita for the current scholastic year—was in the mails today for the various schools.

The checks were sent out by the state department of education on Thursday. The apportionments are $3 each.

During the present year the public schools have received approximately $16,000,000 in apportionments.

SENATE OPENS BITTER DEBATE

ATTACK G. O. P. DEFENSE BLAMING HARDING FOR PRESENT SITUATION

(By RAYMOND CLAPPER) United News Staff Correspondent. WASHINGTON, April 4.—Democrats in the house and senate leaped gleefully into the first skirmish of the presidential campaign Friday with a counterblast against the republican "exonerators" during which Minority Leader Robinson declared he would force a vote on the world court.

Democrats charged the republicans with hiding behind a dead president. They twitted Senator Lodge for pigeonholing the world court proposal advocated by Harding and Coolidge. They accused the republicans of strewing the political path with dead cats, and then assailing democrats who tried to clear them away.

Senators and Congressmen piled in from the cloak rooms and lobbies to listen to the sizzling cross-fire. The curdling whoops forecast one of the liveliest political campaigns in recent years.

Minority leader Robinson led the charge in the senate by answering the charge of Senator Pepper at Portland Thursday that the Democratic investigations had aimed at the republicans and hit America.

"We did not aim at America when we shot point-blank at Albert B. Fall," Robinson said. "We did not aim at America when we disclosed the machinations of Mr. Doherty and Mr. Sinclair. We injured nothing worth preserving when we referred to a grand jury the refusal of Sinclair to testify."

Calling attention to Pepper's statement that Harding made grave mistakes in appointing F. D. La Follette and Forbes, Robinson declared: "He would make it appear that the dead and not the living are responsible for the wrong of which the country so rightly complains."

He then alluded to Pepper's statement that any one who disturbed the repose of the late President Harding is a political ghost. "Who is the ghost in this case?" Robinson shouted.

"I did not seek to hide behind him. I did not characterize as political ghosts those who say he made terrible mistakes. I have not and never had any disposition to speak disrespectfully of the late President Harding. As most senators know he was my intimate personal friend."

Herein, the Alabama tornado, then opened up.

"Senator Pepper said the democrats aimed at the republicans and hit the country," he thundered. "He is wrong. We aimed at a crooked tree and three cabinet members fell out."

"Representative Longworth in his speech at Philadelphia last night calls the democrats buzzards. But if the republicans will stop furnishing dead carcasses for the buzzards to feed on, the buzzards will disappear."

He suggested that the democrats use the buzzard as a party emblem I suggest that the republicans use a dead elephant with an oil can tied to his tail as their emblem.

"If all the crooked republicans were hit, they would be piled up around the capitol."

Meanwhile in the house, Tom Connolly, of Texas, assailed Coolidge.

President Coolidge removed Secretary Denby and Attorney General Daugherty either because he thought they were guilty or they had not the moral stamina to protect innocent men," Connolly declared. Answering the criticism of the investigations, Connolly declared that no republican objected in all official corruption was uncovered.

Tincher, of Kansas, retorted that the republicans are not opposing proper investigation but "that the country is getting tired of you democrats playing politics with them."

GIRL TAKES LIFE BY INHALING GAS FUMES

HOUSTON, Texas, April 4.—After picking flowers for her funeral, Miss Vera Marshall, pretty 19-year-old, sales girl, took her own life by inhaling gas early Friday. A half emptied bottle of carbolic acid and burns about the girl's mouth indicated she had attempted to drink the acid first, but had chosen gas as the more painless method.

"Dispondent over not having the pretty clothes and the fine, soft and dainty garments other girls had broke the girl's heart, an aunt, with whom she had lived until last week, told police.

"Vera was occupied with futile longings for expensive clothes," the aunt said.

"She was unhappy all the time," Miss Marshall had moved from her aunt's home to a rooming house during the past week. The proprietor of the place described her as a "model roomer."

W. W. Rowe, chief petty officer in the United States Navy, who was sleeping in the next room was overcome by gas seeping in beneath doors. Except for an open window in his room, he undoubtedly would have died.

He revived after officers had turned off the gas in the girl's room.

"In my sleep, I could smell gas, but I just could not wake up," the navy medical officer said.

LANGLEY PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO RUM CHARGES

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Reiterating his eloquent plea for justice which he made before the house when his name was first brought into the charges that "two members of congress" had accepted bribes, Representative Langley of Kentucky, pleaded not guilty to two indictments charging a conspiracy to violate the prohibition act before Judge Hitz of the District of Columbia supreme court.

Millard F. West, former deputy internal revenue commissioner indicted with Langley, also pleaded not guilty. Both men asked 20 days in which to file demurrers to the indictments.

"We want an immediate trial," Henry F. Davis attorney for Langley declared. "We want to go to the mat with them on the merits of this case."

Date for the trial has not yet been set since the United States attorney is waiting for four others named with West and Langley to plead.

Says Kramer Turned on Friends. WASHINGTON, April 4.—The first of the prohibition Commission's evidence against Representative Langley, of Kentucky and other officials in order to escape indictment himself, according to a charge made in a statement by the joint legislative committee for modification of the Volstead act.

"At last the government of the United States has been confronted with the shameful and humiliating spectacle of the first federal prohibition commissioner, John F. Kramer, sinking into a federal grand jury room in Washington and turning government's evidence against a member of congress and other high government officials to escape indictment 'himself on a conspiracy to violate the prohibition act that he was sworn to enforce."

Kramer the committee said was the appointee of the Anti-Saloon League and on leaving the government service was employed by the league at $25,000 a year.

PACIFIC COAST CONGRESSMEN DEMAND ENTIRE EXCLUSION JAPANESE; JAPAN VIGOROUSLY PROTESTS

By United News. WASHINGTON, April 4.—Consideration of the restriction immigration bill introduced by Representative Johnson of Washington, chairman of the house committee on immigration, will start Saturday, it was decided late Friday by the house.

Following an effort by Representatives Snell of New York, chairman of the rules committee to bring the feature up under suspension of rules which would limit debate, the house by a unanimous vote decided to bring the bill up Saturday without the "gag rule" in effect.

An even more bitter fight than was waged on the tax bill and Henry Ford's Muscle Shoals offer is expected to take place during consideration of the Johnson measure.

Modification Asked. Not only house representatives from industrial centers where large foreign populations exist signified their intention of fighting the bill to the last but foreign countries and the state department have asked that the bill be modified.

Antagonism to the measure is particularly tense among the elements in the so-called Japanese situation. Congressmen from the Pacific coast have demanded that the Japanese be excluded entirely while Japan and the state department have entered protests against any such action.

"Breaks Gentlemen's Agreement" Secretary of State Hughes pointed out that the legislation contemplated in the Johnson bill would violate the so-called "gentlemen's agreement" between Japan and the United States. Under this agreement the United States agrees to accept all Japanese with passports and Japan issues passports only to Japanese students, business men, etc., excluding the labor or immigrant classes.

Important sections of the measure are: Quotas are based on the census of 1890 as against 1910 in the existing measure. The per centage admissible is two per cent against three.

Wives, children under 18, and parents over 55 years of age who are American citizens are exempted from the quota. Preliminary examination is made overseas. The burden of proof of fitness is on the alien, not on the United States.

Be Deported From Galveston. GALVESTON, Texas, April 4.—Aliens in the southwest states, who are to be excluded from the United States again will be deported from Galveston, according to word received from Washington Friday by James R. Bryan, director of immigration for this district.

Deportation of aliens through the port of Galveston was discontinued a few months ago after more than 300 had been sent from here during three months that this was a deportation port.

Aliens will be sent from here only on ships that sail direct to the country, the alien is being returned to, Bryan said.

LOAN TO MEXICO BE DISCUSSED IN EL PASO

By United News. EL PASO, Texas, April 4.—With the purpose in view of discussing a 10,000,000 pesos loan to the Mexican government, a party of Californians are expected to arrive here in a few days according to information in Mexican official quarters. The party will be accompanied by Juan Platt, confidential secretary to President Obregón, it is said.

The Californians, it is reported are seeking extensive concessions for commercial enterprises in Lower California and Mexico, in return for the loan.

Consul General E. D. Ruiz said that Platt was expected here, as he had no information as to any proposed loan.

NEFF AND OTHER STATE OFFICIALS NARROWLY ESCAPES INJURY

By United News. AUSTIN, Texas, April 4.—Governor Pat M. Neff, and a score of state and University officials narrowly escaped injury Friday when actual work on the stadium of the University of Texas was started and the platform upon which they were standing collapsed. One woman was knocked unconscious when a flag pole on the platform struck her head. She recovered within a few minutes.

The governor fell to the ground but jumped to his feet unhurt. No one was seriously injured. The ground breaking ceremonies, which were interrupted for a few minutes, continued with a dance by 1500 women students.

Just Folks by Edgar A. Guest. THE LITTLE SLEEP DESTROYER. Along about six o' the morning, She wakes with a shout of glee, And then with a mirthful warning Comes pattering in to me. She stands at my bedside smiling, And pinches my whiskered cheek And then in a way beguiling, She giveth my nose a tweak. She pokes with her little fingers And tickles me under the chin, And that sweetest of morning singers Then begs to be taken in. Gone is the sleep I needed, Sped is the night away, Now, must her cry be heeded, Now must I wake to play.

STARVATION FACED BY MEXICANS IN FORT WORTH. By United News. FORT WORTH, Texas, April 4.—Thousands of peons in the Mexican quarter here are facing starvation and soup lines will have to be established by the city soon, according to C. W. Woodman, head of the federal farm labor bureau here. The peons have left Mexico and wandered northward in search of employment in the beet fields of Wyoming, Colorado and Nebraska, which will not begin for some time, Woodman says. Fort Worth is the leading city in the United States as a shipping point for Mexican labor.

LOCAL STUDENTS ARE IN NATIONAL CONTEST

Miss Lola Oldham, instructor in the domestic science department of the Lubbock High school, stated Friday that keen interest in the National-Meat Story contest which is being conducted by the National Livestock and Meat Board of Chicago, is being shown by students in her classes.

Miss Oldham stated that Mr. Ainsworth, local meat market owner, had recently contributed a number of booklets containing valuable information concerning this work to the class, which have been read with much care.

The manner in which some of the contestants are going about their work evidences their confidence in their having an even break with all other contestants in the country.

It is well indeed that Lubbock high school students are taking such interest in this contest, for while it is national in scope, local contestants should feel that they are given a vantage point in that they live in a portion of the great southwest, which is so well known for its numberless herds of beef cattle.

OBITUARY

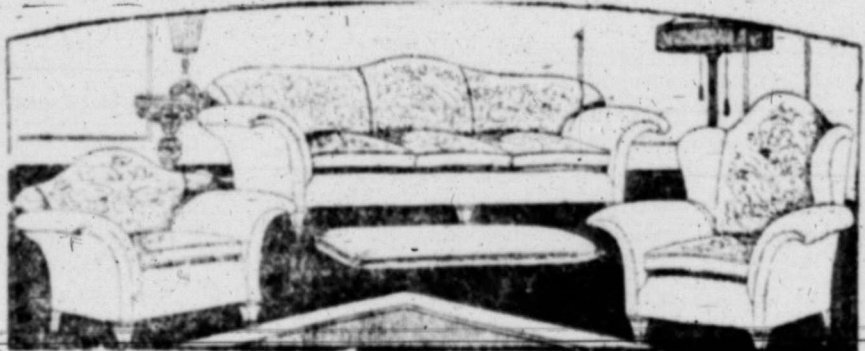

"In Loving Memory of Isaac Dawe Two Months in Heaven" Beyond the sunset's radiant glow There is a lighter world we know. And up there in Glory land, Our dearly beloved husband and father has been two months. With his loved ones and God, He left us, falling "Asleep in Heaven." Like a lily his life did close, Angels uncurtained that repose, And that evening dawned in Heaven. Softly and sweetly around his flower-decked casket where his loved form lay in that last long sleep that knows no awakening and "from which none ever wakes to weep," the male quartet of Idalou which he loved to hear, sang "Beautiful Isle"—yes, there is one more light in Heaven's window for us—a beacon light, a star of hope and promise. With aching hearts we kiss God's chastening rod, and bow to the Divine will of Him who doeth all things for the best, to those who love Him, for it is well with our dead. Our crushed hearts are filled with loving gratitude and appreciation to our kind and sympathetic friends and neighbors for all their sympathy and comfort during the short illness and death of our dear husband and father and also for the untiring service and sympathy of his nurse and doctors. To each and everyone for the fragrant flowers sent him while in the hospital. And who sent beautiful flowers which lavishly mantled his flower-lined grave. The beautiful service conducted by our pastor, Rev. W. B. Hicks, and also the beautiful prayers by Rev. Summers, were comforting, and fell like a balm upon our bleeding hearts. May God's richest blessing rest upon each and everyone of you, dear friends of ours and of our dear husband and father. Gratefully, Mrs. Isaac Dawe —His wife, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Dawe —Mr. and Mrs. T. COTTONSEED MEAL and HULLS

There is no question but that cottonseed meal grows in popularity as its intrinsic value becomes known. There is no foodstuff known that will place the same amount of fat on cattle within so short a time as cottonseed meal combined with cottonseed hulls, and this fact is recognized wherever this feed is used. When fed to dairy cows, its use increases the quantity of milk, improves the color, and the cream therefrom makes richer and better butter.

THE TAUNTER.

You can't fool the people in a country town. Every time the people of Lubbock see a certain man eating downtown they know his wife is entertaining her club.—Amarillo Globe.

What children some folks do raise anyway! And the Amarillo Globe seems to have adopted one of the most unruly of them all when they put their paragraph to work. He seems to have a jealous disposition too, or else he is just simply downright ignorant.

Lubbock is stepping on the gas, and the progress that we are making with the old bus is simply exciting some of the fellows who have been riding in the lead car for some time past.

Any way, Lubbock is no longer in the small town class; and we are going to entertain more conventions and large gatherings here this year than possibly any other city in the west.

ITALY GOES TO THE POLLS SUNDAY.

The Italian general election to be held tomorrow (Sunday) for a new chamber of deputies may look like a great joke to the average American, but not so to Premier Mussolini and his fascist followers.

First of all, the new Italian electoral law was devised to allow the fascisti to remain in power whether the country wanted it or not and in order to achieve this extraordinary result, the law provides that any party polling 25 per cent, or one-fourth of the votes actually cast, will elect two-thirds of the deputies composing the Italian chamber of deputies, or 356, out of a total of 535.

In practice the law works this way: The country is divided into fifteen electoral districts, and the tickets are divided into two main categories, namely, national, or majority, tickets. The former are the tickets which on polling 25 per cent of the votes will elect a majority of 356 deputies; the second are only after the whole or part of the 179 remaining seats, and which the law allows to the minority, which may or may not be opposition.

A national or majority ticket must be presented in all the fifteen constituencies or electoral districts; the minority tickets must be presented in at least two districts. In each district the majority tickets will carry a number of candidates equal to two-thirds of the deputies the district elects, owing to its population. The minority or district tickets must have no more of one-third of the candidates. For example: Suppose a district elects 30 deputies. Then the majority tickets will carry 20 names and the minority tickets 10. Furthermore, while the votes of majority tickets are counted "nationally," the votes of the minority tickets are counted only in relation to the districts in order to allow each district to have one-third of its deputies in the chamber. To exemplify: A majority ticket may or may not get 25 per cent of the votes in one, two, three or more districts; but if the total of the votes polled by the same ticket in all the districts is equal to the 25 per cent or more of the votes cast, it elects two-thirds of deputies in "all" the districts. A minority ticket will elect its one-third of deputies, regardless of the number of votes it receives. Naturally, there can be more than one majority ticket and many minority tickets. But only the majority ticket polling the largest number of votes above the 25 per cent required by the law, elects the 356 candidates, while the rest of the majority and minority tickets will divide among themselves the seats allotted to the minority in proportion to the votes which each ticket receives.

The majority tickets are each distinguished by party emblem, and so are the minority tickets. The emblem is the same for all the districts in which the ticket is presented.

Should no majority ticket secure the required 25 per cent of the votes cast, then the electoral proportional system, formerly in use, comes into play and each ticket, whether majority or minority, elects the number of deputies to which it is entitled in proportion to the votes polled.

All the controversies arising out of the new electoral law will be settled by the court of appeal of Rome, which will also make the final count.

IS THERE A GAS FIELD NEAR LUBBOCK?

The old timers believe there is. Some of them have stated that they are pretty confident that there is gas in abundance, and all that has to be done is to make some investigations along this line. If Lubbock can find this great gas deposit it will be one of the most important steps toward the development of this country that could be made. It would solve the problem of cheaper fuel, which is one of the greatest needs at this time, the lack of which is standing in the way of locating many important industries at this place. We are of the opinion that this should be taken into consideration at a very early date, as upon the solution of this problem lies the determination of many big ventures for this section of the South Plains.

With the location of the Texas Technological College, the responsibility of the people of this section to furnish the essential industries that go with it is increased very materially, but Lubbock must rise to the task, and supply, every thing that the operation of the Tech college demands. It will not only be for the betterment of the schools, but it will mean much to the entire South Plains country and in fact, the entire Southwest.

A few thousand dollars spent in an effort to secure all the gas that will ever be needed in this section might be the means of bringing to this section several billion dollar plants.

It is reported that the Abernathy well that was abandoned and left as a dry hole some months ago, is standing full of water, and there is a continual pressure from below that keeps the water stirring, which people believe is gas pressure, and with the proper developments might break into a wonderful gas field.

Abernathy is fifteen miles from Lubbock and it is believed that it is possibly situated in the edge of the field with the main deposits to the south toward the canyon or around Lubbock. Lets investigate the gas possibilities in this section. We may have the greatest gas field in the southwest right under our feet.

ANOTHER MONARCHY GONE.

Greece, after a desperate struggle, has declared itself a Republic. In solemnly deposing King George II, the deputies demanded the expatriation of all members of the royal family, but Alexander Papanastasiou, the Premier, refused, declaring the Republic should treat them generously and thus give proof of its magnanimity.

The decision of the Assembly has to be confirmed by popular verdict when more trouble is anticipated, because the Royalists are determined to miss no chance to strangle the Republican move.

Difficulties began with King Constantine, who, as a result of his pro-German sympathies, kept Greece neutral during the first half of the war. Eleutherios Venizelos, who bitterly opposed his pro-German king fled to Saloniki and set up a provisional government there under the protection of the Allies. This, in 1917, led to the flight of Constantine—a flight which was expedited by the British navy taking possession of the army and navy stores and equipment and funds. Mr. Venizelos, immediately, returned to Athens at the head of the government. Greece was promised much by the Allies but received practically nothing. The old government has been wrecked and now the people propose to follow the example of other nations of the world and do a little governing themselves.

DO WE HAVE DEPOSITS OF MATERIAL FOR LAYING PAVING, CLOSE TO LUBBOCK?

We understand that the price of the paving for Lubbock is going to be rather high, and the reason assigned for some of the high price is the cost of transporting the sand and gravel necessary to the making of the foundation for the paving. We do not think the City Commissioners should be in too great haste in letting the contracts for this work, especially without first investigating the cost of getting these materials. We are of the opinion that it can be secured close to Lubbock at possibly a much less price which would mean a saving to the city as well as to the property owners who will have to foot the bill for the paving abutting the property that it will touch.

It is a big job. It is a lot of money, and many and many people are effected by it, and we should strive to get the very best proposition that can be had, as in the manner by which this contract is handled will mean the amount of money that the people will have to dig up.

Little Avalanches

Lubbock girls contemplating entering the West Texas Chamber of Commerce pageant to be held at the convention at Brownwood are beginning to wonder what the governor's attitude toward the "queen of the pageant" will be this year. They haven't forgotten what happened at the coronation ceremony at San Angelo.

MARKETS

FORWARD MOVE IN ALL LINES IS TAKEN

By WILL JOHNSON, (UN Financial Editor) NEW YORK, April 4.—The stock market has laid aside its ill fitting mantle of pessimism and engaged in an impressive game of follow the leader.

Virtually all classes of stocks fell into line Friday behind the rails and moved forward in a broad though somewhat limited, turnover for the day.

Pronounced strength appeared in oils and public utilities, cotton rallied sharply, copper moved into higher ground and United States Steel common broke through par for the first time in several weeks.

There are two factors which were generally accepted in Wall Street as being responsible for the improved trading sentiment. First, the expectation of a highly constructive report by the Dawes reparations commission over the week end; the second, the increasing realization that pessimism as to the business outlook has been very much exaggerated.

Among the leading rail, New York Central, Southern Pacific, and Norfolk and Western were prominent while in the minor group Erie, first preferred, was easily the feature, it moving into the highest ground since 1918.

While gains far outnumbered losses in the industrial list that group for the most part moved irregularly, early strength giving way to a moderate reaction.

United States Rubber made a sharp gain of 2 5/8, reflecting declaration of regular quarterly dividend. Motors inclined to heaviness, while oils and coppers showed pronounced strength. Among the oils in demand at better prices were Cuden, Phillips, and Associated.

Heavy buying by trade interests and speculative shorts sent cotton rapidly upward in early trading, carrying May option above 30 1/2 cents for a gain of more than $5 a bale. Other options also came in for brisk demand at proportionate gains. The exceptional volume of trade buying and speculative and short covering was chiefly attributed to reports of rapid improvement in the cotton goods situation.

Officers Believe Gang of Swindlers Operate on Mexican Border. By United News. JUAREZ, Mexico, April 4.—A close search of the border is being made for what officials believe to be a gang of international swindlers, whose operations have covered a large section of the country. The investigation followed an attempt by a man giving the name of Leon Diaz, described as a Spaniard, who attempted to get a draft for $15,700 cashed at the First National bank of El Paso, Texas, according to Anselmo Alvarez, manager of a Juarez wholesale company, who Diaz attempted to have identify him, Diaz represented himself as a cotton grower and presented a draft purporting to have been issued by Credito Espanol de Mexico on the Equitable Trust company of New York. Telegrams for verification showed the draft to be a fake, according to Mr. Alvarez. Several other similar transactions have been reported and in one or two instances were successful, authorities say.

Second prize—$5.00 in gold.
Third prize—$2.50 in gold.

All essays will be graded on the following points:

Originality..... 40 per cent
Business appearance..... 10 per cent
Spelling..... 5 per cent
Punctuation..... 5 per cent

Not less than 200 words or more than 600 words will be considered, and must be written on one side of the paper.

The principal of each school will appoint a committee that will grade all essays of their school and select the three best for their school and mail them to the Flag Contest Committee of the Elks Lodge of Lubbock, Texas, and mark them in such a manner that the committee can turn them over to the final judges who will select the three best submitted.

All schools that enter this contest should have their essays in the hands of the committee by May 1, 1924, so that the school that wins the flag can have it presented to it before the close of this term.

FAMOUS ACCOMPLICE IN SCISSORS MURDER RETURNED TO JAIL

NEW BRAUNFELS, Texas, April 4.—Clayton G. McDaniel, wanted at San Antonio in connection with the famous "scissors murder" case, effected one of the most daring escapes in the section of the country when he leaped through a train window to freedom.

McDaniels was being returned to San Antonio in custody of an officer. He was handcuffed but requested to visit the men's smoker and rest room. The officer complied and unlocked the handcuffs, stationing himself outside the door of the room.

When he failed to appear in a reasonable length of time it was discovered that he had leaped out the window of the train while traveling at a speed of 45 miles an hour. A long search proved futile.

FAIR SECRETARIES OF THE SOUTH PLAINS WILL MEET IN BUSINESS SESSION AT CROSBYTON APRIL 10TH

The fair secretaries of the South Plains will meet with the secretary of the Crosbyton Chamber of Commerce at the courthouse at Crosbyton, Thursday, April 10th, at 10:00 o'clock a. m.

Officials of the various South Plains fairs and chambers of commerce together with the county and home-demonstration agents of this section have been invited, and a large attendance is expected.

Chris Harwell, president of the South Plains Fair Association together with Manager A. B. Davis, also of that association, County Agent David F. Eaton and County Home Demonstration Agent Mabel Marsh all of Lubbock, have signified their intentions to attend and there will probably be others from this vicinity who will attend.

The meeting will be a very important one.

LOCAL KIWANIS CLUB IS OPERATED VERY EFFICIENTLY

The board of directors of the Lubbock Kiwanis Club has been successful in keeping operating expenses of the club down to the minimum, and this week Secretary Geo. Brewer is sending out checks made out for the quarterly dues, which he is asking each Kiwanian to sign and return to his office in the least time possible.

A regular meeting place has been provided and necessary dishes, knives and forks and in fact everything needed to serve the luncheons have been bought out of the club treasury without any expense being added to the individual members, but it is necessary that all dues are paid promptly in order to keep the club on a sound financial basis.

The fact that the meeting place has been provided and equipped without adding any extra expense to members is a fine example of what the Kiwanians can do through close co-operation with their board of directors and officers.

OBITUARY

"In Loving Memory of Isaac Dawe Two Months in Heaven"

Beyond the sunset's radiant glow There is a lighter world we know, And up there in Glory land, Our dearly beloved husband and father has been two months. With his loved ones and God, Just so softly as fades the light, He left us, falling "Asleep in Heaven."

In the shadows of the early Saturday evening, Feb. 9, 1924, And as the good night kiss was given, Like a lily his life did close, Angels uncertain that repose, And that evening dawned in Heaven.

Softly and sweetly around his flower-decked casket where his loved form lay in that last long sleep that knows no awakening and "from which none ever wakes to weep," the male quartet of Idalou—which he loved to hear, sang "Beautiful Isle"—yes, there is one more light in Heaven's window for us—a beacon light, a star of hope and promise. With aching hearts we kiss God's chastening rod, and bow to the Divine will of Him, who with all things for the best, to those who love Him, for it is well with our dead.

Our crushed hearts are filled with loving gratitude and appreciation to our kind and sympathetic friends and neighbors for all their sympathy and comfort during the short illness and death of our dear husband and father and also for the untiring service and sympathy of his nurse and doctors.

To each and everyone for the fragrant flowers sent him while in the hospital.

And who sent beautiful flowers which lavishly mantled his flower-lined grave.

The beautiful service conducted by our pastor, Rev. W. B. Hicks, and also the beautiful prayers by Rev. Summers, were comforting, and fell like a balm upon our bleeding hearts.

May God's richest blessing rest upon each and everyone of you, dear friends of ours and of our dear husband and father.

Gratefully,
Mrs. Isaac Dawe
—His wife,
Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Dawe
—Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Dawe
—His Children,
Sueinella, Cathryne, Mammie Dawe
—His daughters.

COTTONSEED MEAL and HULLS

There is no question but that cottonseed meal grows in popularity as its intrinsic value becomes known. There is no foodstuff known that will place the same amount of fat on cattle within so short a time as cottonseed meal combined with cottonseed hulls, and this fact is recognized wherever this food is used. When fed to dairy cows, it use increases the quantity of milk, improves the color, and the cream therefrom makes richer and better butter.
