HOLD-UP TERROR CAPTURED AT HOUSTON

By United News
HOUSTON, Texas, May 6.—Lonnie Hinton, negro believed by police to be the man who has been terrorizing residents of the Heights for more than a year, was identified by six hold-up victims Tuesday.

The negro was arrested at day-break Tuesday following a gun battle with E. P. Good 1516 Victor street.

Good, a street car conductor, was on his way to work at about 1:30 a. m. when the negro approached him with the command, "stick 'em up."

By way of reply Good fired three shots at the negro. One of them pierced the sleeves of his shirt.

The negro fired two wild shots. Good and fled. The intended victim then reported to police, who took the negro into custody at his home later.

Hinton is accredited with nearly a hundred hold-ups that have taken place in the Houston Heights during the last year. Officers have been scouring the vicinity each night for the past six months, hoping to apprehend the bandit.

APPEAL IN COOK FRAUD TRIAL ALLOWED

By United News
FORT WORTH, Texas, May 6.—A writ of error will be permitted in the case of Dr. Frederick A. Cook convicted in federal court here for misuse of the mails, allowing an appeal to the circuit court of New Orleans.

Judge John N. Killits, of Toledo, Ohio, conducted the trial of Dr. Cook last November, and heard the plea for an appeal in federal district court here Tuesday.

Before the record of the trial is sent to the circuit court, Judge Killits asked to have several annotations made in the record, so that the judges might understand the atmosphere of the court room and the heated controversies among attorneys, resulting.

Among other matters under discussion was the entrance of "John Barleycorn," said by the court, seemingly to have entered the room with a defense attorney and resulting in unusual behavior toward the bench.

One of the defense attorneys leaped to his feet and denied that he was drinking during the trial, adding that any one who told the judge he did, told a falsehood. He then demanded the name of his accuser.

The judge said that the words and actions of the attorney lead to the belief that he had been intoxicated.

Another matter discussed was the action of former United States Senator Bailey in turning his back to the bench during discussion of legal procedure.

Small, but effective opera glasses have been invented that are mounted on spectacle frames and can be worn in that manner.

Lubbock Co. Democratic Convention Votes to Give Delegates Free Hand Instructing Only For Clean Government

The Lubbock County democratic convention was held Monday afternoon at two o'clock at the county courtroom of the courthouse.

Prominent citizens of Idalou and Slaton represented out of town precincts, while Lubbock precincts were represented by well known and influential local citizens.

County Chairman R. J. Murray was present and presiding. F. D. Brown was thereupon elected as secretary of the convention. There was then appointed by the chair a committee on credentials, composed of R. L. Douglas, R. A. Baldwin, H. T. Kimbro and J. H. Hankins, who reported that all present were entitled to sit as delegates.

The question of representation in this convention having been brought up upon motion duly carried, it was voted that each precinct represented in this convention should have and be entitled to one

FINAL PLANS OF DATE FOR ALLIED TRIP BE MADE TODAY CONFERENCE IS NAMED

With only six more days remaining before the opening day of the sixth annual West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at Brownwood, the central committee of the On to Brownwood campaign composed of members of the Chamber of Commerce, Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, has been called into special session this morning at 9 o'clock at the offices of the Chamber of Commerce where several matters of importance regarding the trip will be taken up.

Paramount in these matters is a decision as to the advisability of making a call for a few more tickets in order to fill out the fifth car of the special train which will run from Lubbock to the convention. Four Pullman cars have already been reserved and according to the announcement from the local offices, a few over the four car capacity have pledged and paid for transportation. In all probability a call will go out today and those yet wishing to take advantage of the trip and reduced rates will be given an opportunity to do so.

According to dispatches sent out from the convention city, all plans for the thorough entertainment of visitors have been completed. All railroad yards of the city will be thrown into a temporary addition, rivaling even in its own right, and all camp grounds in or adjoining the townsite have been reworked, and all modern conveniences have been installed. Thus both automobile delegations, as well as occupants of special trains will be accorded the best of surroundings.

According to the present schedule which in all probability will not be changed, the Lubbock special will pull out of the city at 9 o'clock on next Monday night, arriving at Brownwood early Tuesday morning. No set program of entertainment has been arranged by the local committee, and no restrictions will be placed on members of the delegation, except that they stay "within the law." Thus they will be free to mix and mingle as they see fit in what will in all probability be one of the biggest meetings ever held in the southwest.

DR. HORN WILL DELIVER AN ADDRESS AT CANYON

Brakeman Crushed to Death, WACO, Texas, May 6.—Falling between two box cars from the top of a freight train, R. C. Carroll, of Waco, 38, a brakeman on the Cotton Belt Railroad was crushed to death at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, 30 miles east of here. He was married and had three children.

TAX COMPROMISE BE ASKED BY G. O. P.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Senate republican leaders, accepting the defeat of the Mellon tax plan, have decided to make a determined stand for a compromise to supplant the democratic schedules, which are unpalatable to them and to President Coolidge.

The president still adheres firmly to the Mellon plan, despite its decisive defeats in both houses of congress. Besides a general opposition to the Simmons rates, he is especially displeased with other changes fostered by the minority party, including their corporation tax scheme, and that providing publicity of income tax returns.

While the president's position was being explained at the white-house Tuesday administration senators met in a conference at the capitol. They decided to stand for a compromise on the surtax rates at a 32 per cent maximum, but in no event to go beyond 37 1-2 per cent which the house bill provides. The democratic maximum now in the bill is forty per cent for $500,000 and above.

The president is still hopeful that changes will be made which will make it more satisfactory. But his expressed opinions on the legislation revived prospects of a veto, in the event the democratic plan stands successfully on the floor and through the conference, where it will be exposed to other assaults.

Senator Smoot had advised Coolidge to veto the bill, the democratic rates prevail, and if the house and the Bureau pension bill becomes law. Smoot has maintained all along that the democratic schedules, cut beyond the treasury surplus in view of other appropriations which, it appears will get through.

He placed this situation before the president, and informed him of the cost of other measures, including the pension bill, estimated at $85,000,000 this year and first payments under the bonus which will be around $135,000,000.

Besides this, Smoot emphasized that a $32,000,000 appropriation was tucked on the veterans bureau measure passed Monday and an agricultural bill is still to be enacted which will bring another outlay.

The Belgians, who have acted as peacemakers in the situation, have reassured the British regarding the part the reparations commission will play in working out the plan, and the British now believe that the French will co-operate in settling details of the report, leaving the reparations commission to act as a sort of body of stewards. They would supervise the execution of the scheme, which will be largely automatic.

It is believed in authoritative circles that the question of inter-allied debts will not come before the conference.

Britain refuses to share French pessimism over the German elections, believing that the reichstag will approve the experts report despite the new nationalist strength in the body. Informed observers here argue that the nationalists must realize the tremendous responsibility which would be imposed on them by rejection of the report and point out that the nationalists, as well as other Germans must see and appreciate the difference between the present financial stability in Germany and the still recent chaotic conditions there.

STEPHENS TO BE BURIED HERE THIS AFTERNOON

Funeral services for G. F. J. Stephens will be conducted at the First Methodist church this afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. Jack M. Lewis, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Three sisters of the deceased and a number of other relatives who were notified of his sudden and unexpected death which occurred at his home here Monday night at 10 o'clock, have arrived in Lubbock.

WEST TEXAS: Tonight part cloudy; colder north and west portions. Wednesday generally fair.

MODIFICATION JAP EXCLUSION IS VOTED DOWN

CONFEREES FIX EFFECTIVE DATE OF MEASURE ON JULY 1, THIS YEAR

By United News
WASHINGTON, May 6.—Disregarding the request of President Coolidge, senate and house conferees have closed the door against modification of the Japanese exclusion provision as written in the immigration bill already passed by both houses. The conferees fixed the effective date of the Japanese exclusion provision at July 1, this year, instead of March 1, 1926.

As Coolidge desired and voted down a provision favored by Coolidge and presented to them, requiring that the law should apply to any nation with whom a treaty was concluded in the meantime. This was designed to cover the Japanese exclusion.

The conferees action was made known Tuesday after their report was completed. The report will be presented to the house and senate Wednesday and will be acted upon first by the house.

The president, in addition to the advance of the date asked that a provision be inserted in the bill providing that the law should not apply to any nation with whom a treaty was drawn up, meanwhile, changing the application of the law. This would allow this government to draw up a treaty with Japan, desired by President Coolidge and Secretary of State Hughes, Senate and house conferees were closeted for several hours Tuesday, working out their final report.

Senator Norris, of Nebraska, charged in the senate Tuesday that the committee was holding up its report until the results of the California primaries Tuesday were received. He declared that President Coolidge "had played politics" with Japanese exclusion as he had with other measures, and that his political maneuvering had even extended to influencing committees of congress. Coolidge, on the eve of the primaries in California, had taken care to let it be known that he favored exclusion, Norris said and if the result there is favorable, the report will be made public immediately.

Committee agreement on the immigration bill came after an all day session.

Senator Reed of Pennsylvania, author of the senate bill would not divulge the nature of the vote by which the agreement was reached, nor would he intimate what arguments were put forward to cause the committee to cross the expressed desire of president to soften the period of influencing committees of congress. Coolidge, on the eve of the primaries in California, had taken care to let it be known that he favored exclusion, Norris said and if the result there is favorable, the report will be made public immediately.

Senator King suggested that the finding of the committee was backed with sufficient votes to insure the permanence of its opinion if the matter should again be referred to it. King described Tuesday's decision as absolutely final.

The census of 1890 was determined on as the basis for admission of aliens eligible for citizenship. Immigrants to the number of two per cent of the 1890 figure may enter the United States until July 1, 1927, when the quotas again will be determined according to national origin. This will be done

EIGHT KILLED IN AUTO-TRAIN CRASH

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., May 6.—Eight persons were killed near here Tuesday night when the Chicago bound twentieth century limited train of the New York Central struck an automobile at a grade crossing.

The victims included John M. S. Acee, an Amsterdam clothing store proprietor who is supposed to have been the driver of the car; his wife, their three children, a sister-in-law, Mrs. John Karan and her infant daughter and David Spirano, said to have been a clerk in Acee's store.

There were no witnesses to the accident, according to officials of the New York Central to whom the report was made and they are unable to understand how the driver of the car failed to see the approaching train. It was stated that there were no cars on the Amsterdam siding and that the stretch of track at that point is open to view. The century proceeded on its run after a delay of 30 minutes.

BANK HEAD GIVEN MAXIMUM ON 9 COUNTS

By United News.
WICHITA, Kansas, May 6.—Found guilty on nine counts of receiving deposits in his bank knowing it to be insolvent, J. N. Richardson, president of the defunct American State bank here was fined $45,000 and sentenced to 45 years in prison Monday.

Judge Jesse D. Wall, of the Sedgewick county district court, imposed the maximum penalty.

Counsel for Richardson filed a motion for a new trial and after overruling it, Judge Wall pronounced sentence. Richardson's attorneys took immediate steps to appeal to the state supreme court.

The American state bank closed its doors here on June 19, 1923, with a shortage of $2,000,000.

In sentencing Richardson, Judge Wall made no comment on the case. Reading from his previously prepared sentence, the court asked Richardson if he knew any reason why sentence should not be passed.

"I do not," the banker replied, palling.

"Then on the first count, I will fine you $45,000 and command the sheriff of Sedgewick county to take you to the Kansas State Prison at Lansing, there to serve the indeterminate sentence provided by law."

The sentences were identical on each of the other eight counts.

Richardson stood as if stunned by the blow, but made no comment. He turned from the bar, pale and dazed and faltered to a seat beside his wife who was in the court room as sentence was passed.

Mrs. Richardson displayed no emotion. She grasped the hand of her husband and squeezed it affectionately. Both sat silent as attorneys arranged the details of the appeal bond which was set at $50,000.

Richardson's attorneys sought to place the blame for the bank's failure upon the shoulders of Phillip O. Drum, cashier, who, they claimed, had agreed to take the responsibility. O. A. Powell, vice-president is on trial now on charges similar to those which Richardson was convicted three weeks ago.

Prior to its failure, the American state bank was recognized as the largest state institution in Kansas and was regarded as one of the strongest financial houses in the state.

Charges of mismanagement were brought against Richardson a few days after bank examiners had made an investigation of the shortage.

WORK TO START SOON ON AMARILLO TOURIST CAMP

AMARILLO, Texas, May 6.—Work will start Monday on Amarillo's new tourist camp, on West Sixth street where $6,000 will be spent in erecting buildings. The camp, to be opened June 1, will be inclosed by a board fence, and buildings include a community house, keepers' house, kitchen and bath houses. There will be sixteen private kitchens, each equipped with a gas range, water, sink and tables. The keeper and his wife will be in constant attendance. Moderate fees will be charged.

Amarillo is the focal point of seven highways, and it is estimated that 5,000 cars will stop at this camp during the season.

FIDDLERS TUNE UP FOR OLD TIME FIDDLERS CONTEST

If a list of noted instrumentalists who are to take part in the Old Time Fiddlers' Contest Wednesday night at the Lindsey Theatre is any criterion there will be keen excitement for this event will be one of the most exciting and entertaining staged in Lubbock in many a day.

In addition to local talent competitors from a number of towns and counties over the district have entered their names, confident of their abilities to carry off the honors.

It behooves the local aspirants to limber up their bow arms for it is no secret that some of the best talent in this part of the state will be here.

In addition to the fiddling contest a diversified program has been arranged, including mandolin, banjo guitar and harmonica playing for prizes, and some exceptional dancing. Also and by no means last the old fashioned square dancing to the fiddling of the old timers is calculated to please and entertain every one, young and old alike.

The latter for the old time memories it will bring back and the young people for the glimpse it will afford them into the past and simpler, but perhaps not less enjoyable and enjoyed diversions of their parents.

The regular picture program will be run in connection with the contest featuring Leatrice Joy and Owen Moore in "Silent Partner."

OWSLY ENTERS RACE FOR VICE PRESIDENT

By United Press.
FORT WORTH, Texas, May 6.—Alvin M. Owsley former national commander of the American Legion Monday night became an active and avowed candidate for the democratic vice presidential nomination.

Friends of Owsley in democratic county conventions throughout Texas Tuesday will seek to have the former legion chief endorsed as their state's choice for the office.

Should Owsley be endorsed by the state convention, a national campaign will be made in his behalf.

Announcement of Owsley's candidacy was made in Dallas Monday by his law partner, who will manage his campaign should Owsley get the endorsement of Texas. His candidacy is based on the probability of his being endorsed by his home state at the May 27 convention.

GERMANS FAVOR ACCEPTANCE OF REPORT

By United News.
BERLIN, May 6.—In the belief of the German government the elections here have demonstrated that the German people strongly favor maintenance of the national present policy, namely, acceptance of the experts report, a government spokesman declared in a general press interview here Monday.

Speaking for the government, he expressed the belief that the majority of the new Reichstag favor the Dawes plan, although the government is not certain whether a two-thirds majority vote can be obtained for adoption of such features of the plan as the railroad clauses. There is a question, however, as to whether the two-thirds vote is legally necessary for fulfillment of the project.

Increase in the communist vote is attributed by the government to growing despair on the part of a large selection of the population.

But despite tremendous and unexpected gains by the nationalist and communists and despite the fact that the folkists made an unexpected poor showing Germany has apparently been saved from a real monarchist wave and from the sabotage of the Dawes report.

Provisional final results, announced late Monday afternoon that the standing of the parties in the reichstag is as follows:

Socialists 99; Nationalists 93; centrists 61; communists 59; folk party 44; folkists 28; democrats 25; Bavarian folks party 15; national liberals 6; Honoveraner 5; Bavarian peasants 4.

By THOMAS L. STOKES (United News Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 6—Riding to victory with the aid of republicans insurgents, democrats in the senate have put over their entire income rate tax program including both normal and surtax schedules.

The surtax schedule, which sets a maximum of 40 per cent beginning at $500,000 was adopted by the senate Monday afternoon by a vote of 43 to 40, despite the defection of two democrats, Bruce Maryland; and Edwards, New Jersey.

The normal rate schedule, reducing present rates below $8,000 exactly in half, was adopted by a large margin 44 to 17. On this vote Bruce and Edwards again deserted their party ranks. The vote came as a surprise, Senator Simmons of North Carolina, introducing the democratic schedules as an amendment which was followed by the roll call.

Senator Simmons, North Carolina introducing the democratic schedules as an amendment which was followed by the roll call, Senator Smoot, Utah, chairman of the finance committee and champion of the Mellon plan, announced that he would call for a vote on the rate schedules when the senate considers the bill in open session. The action Monday was taken by the senate sitting as a committee of the whole.

The democratic victory Monday sounds the death knell of the Mellon rates. All that Smoot and other republicans hope to gain by another vote is a compromise, which they will try to effect meanwhile.

The democrats controlled seven republican votes on each amendment, Brookhart, Frazier, Howell, Johnson of California, Ladd, Norbeck, and Norris voting for their surtax schedule. Howell, was not present on the second vote but Capper of Kansas, switched over and stood with the democrats.

Johnson, of Minnesota, farmer-labor member joined the democrats in both votes while Shipstead voted with them on the normal rates. He was absent when the surtax vote was taken.

Hayard, democrat, of Delaware, was paired against both amendments while Trammell, of Florida, democrat, was paired against the party surtax schedule, which was unexpected. Jones, of Washington, republican, declined to vote on the normal tax amendment, declaring with a smile that he was "personally interested in the result."

The surtax schedule adopted Monday begins with a one per cent rate at $10,000 and graduates upward to forty per cent on incomes of $500,000 and above. This compares with a scale having a maximum of 37 1/2 per cent beginning at $200,000, which was voted by the house, and the Mellon rate with its 25 per cent maximum for incomes of $100,000 and over, which was placed in the bill by the senate finance committee after the house had rejected it by a large vote.

Under the democratic normal vote the tax is two per cent on incomes up to $4,000; 4 per cent between $4,000 and $8,000 and 6 per cent above.

The only difference in this scale and the one in the house bill is between $4,000 and $8,000; where the rate is five per cent instead of four. The Mellon plan provided three per cent up to $4,000 and 6 per cent above, a reduction from four per cent and eight per cent respectively as at present.

Though the vote came unexpectedly Monday, there was no attempt by republicans to stave it off. They have realized that the Mellon rates would be defeated and accepted the test on the democratic program which had to come sooner or later.

Ad the efforts of Senator Smoot will now be directed toward building up a compromise movement. When the senate dissolves as a committee of the whole.

OVERSTREET IS AT HOME FROM TOUR OF DISTRICT

R. E. Overstreet, field man for the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association, is at home after making a tour of his district which was climaxed when he attended the regular meeting of the state board of directors at Dallas last week.

Mr. Overstreet reports conditions being very favorable throughout the state, and he is hopeful that the increased membership in the association will make it possible for the producers to have some part in controlling cotton prices this year through cooperative marketing.

The Farm Bureau, Mr. Overstreet declares, is growing in strength every month and will in time become one of the great institutions of the cotton growing states of the union.

NEGRO IS ARRESTED ON A CHARGE OF BURGLARY

Curtis Ray, negro, was arrested by Chief of Police Carter, Monday afternoon on a burglary charge shortly after the negro had fled from the Barrier Brothers dry goods store when his attempt to steal a number of silk hose from the store were thwarted by Mike Barrier who wrested the box containing the hose from the negro's hands.

The negro entered the store and when all of the clerks of the store were busy waiting on customers, he grabbed the hose from a counter threw them into an empty hat box and threw a bit of paper over them and started to the door carrying the box. Mr. Barrier noticed the negro just as he was about to leave through the back door of the store and when he clinched the box in one hand and tried to hold the negro with the other, the negro freed himself from the hold and fled into the alley. Mr. Barrier followed him about a block then called the police and they went to a servant's quarters near the First Baptist Church where passers-by had last seen the negro. His arrest was affected, and it was learned later that negro had just been released from the county jail after serving a term for carrying a gun.

The negro was unable to make bond and will remain in jail pending the acts of the court.

WORK STARTED ON BUILDING FOR RIX CO.

J. W. Neves, local contractor, has started excavation work for the basement of the Rix Furniture and Undertaking Company building at the corner of 13th and J, and this building which will be 78 by 125 feet in size, will be pushed to completion.

The foundation and walls will be built to accommodate a three or four story building, and a false roof will be constructed, making it possible to enlarge the building by tearing away no part of the main structure.

"We will need more two, three and four story buildings in Lubbock when the population has reached the 25,000 mark," Harve L. Rix, of Big Spring, who is here visiting his brother, declared Tuesday.

The Rix Furniture and Undertaking Company, which has stores at Big Spring, Lubbock, and Lamesa, is one of the fast growing business institutions of West Texas. It has been built because of the confidence the Rix family has and still has in the possibilities of West Texas, and in all probability will someday be one of the biggest retail found distributors of furniture to be found anywhere in West Texas.

SUPERB GOWNS WORN BY PLAYERS IN THE "SILENT PARTNER"

"How the women would flock to see these gowns—if this were a fashion show!"

This is how Director Charles Maigne commented on the magnificent costume display during the filming of a scene of "The Silent Partner," a Paramount picture featuring Leatrice Joy, Owen Moore and Robert Edeson, which comes to the Liddsey Theatre today. Here are some of the more notable costumes worn in the picture:

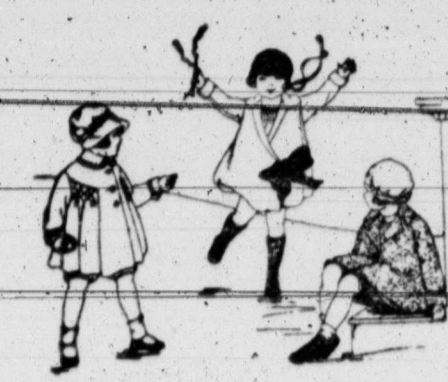

Leatrice Joy (as Lisa Coburn)—What there is of the bodice in this unique evening gown is of pomegranate velvet. The skirt of gold cloth is lightly draped on one side, and allowed to fall in a full train upon the other. In the midst of this fullness is an opening through which the hand may be slipped while dancing.

Bess Flowers (as Mrs. Nesbit)—Just a faint suggestion of the vampire is found in this skin-tight creation of Nattier's blue velvet. The train is a series of velvet ruchings, cascading from the hip. Maude Wayne (as Gertie Page)—In contrast to the snaky type of dress described above, this frock of chiffon petals, shading from white to black accentuates the more youthful and bouffante lines. Leatrice Joy is featured in the production with Owen Moore and Robert Edeson. The story is a domestic drama of great power.

LAW AND THE PEOPLE

A certain northern writer has penned the following pitiful statement in which he says that: "Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, has the courage of his convictions. At the dinner of the Missouri Society in New York the other night, he appealed to men and women of religious faith, of moral principle and public spirit to strike the 18th amendment, the cause of all this demoralization, from the Constitution. He declared that the national prohibition law cannot be enforced, that it should not have been passed, that no liberal mind can support it, that it is no more moral or immoral to drink or refrain from drinking alcoholic beverages than it is to eat or refrain from eating roast beef. He denounced the hypocrisy of Senators, Representatives and Judges who are 'secretly bibulous' while openly supporting prohibition. He warned against the peril to the Bill of Rights and the dangerous assumption of police powers by the Federal government to the detriment of State rights and home rule accompanying the efforts to enforce the Volstead law."

Dr. Butler's reference to all this demoralization calls to mind an article in the April Atlantic Monthly which takes the ground that democracy is breaking down because people are getting into the habit of disregarding law and doing as they please. It is true that disregard of one law—our present difficulty—tends toward disregard of law in general, but the responsibility would seem to rest less upon the people than upon the lawmakers, who need to be watchful and deliberate in making laws before they are quite sure that such laws will be acceptable to the majority of the people. Hitherto Americans have been a law-abiding people, and there is no real basis for the assumption of a sudden change in their character. The wide reputation of a single law now witnessed is a phenomenon that calls for earnest and fearless inquiry on the part of the selected servants of the people.

Such educated fools as Dr. Butler seems to be, is what is accusing such a lot of trouble in the enforcement of the prohibition laws of the United States at this time. Such men as Dr. Nichols in the pulpits is a disgrace to educational institutions, and should never be placed at the head of an institution where the young manhood and womanhood of the nation are forced to remain under his influence. Dr. Butler knows well that if the people of his position in the United States want the law enforced, and will use their influence to that end that there will be no doubt in the world that it will be very emphatically enforced.

The people of the great South does not want booze in the United States, and they should by all means see to it that men are elected to the offices of influence that will lend every ounce of their support to keeping the Eighteenth amendment intact so that there will be no loop holes for the anti-prohibition forces to get a foot hold in America again. If any changes are made they should certainly be for more stringent laws along this line. The people as a whole have been wonderfully benefitted by the closing of the legalized saloon, the most regrettable feature of the matter being that the government at this time is in the saloon business through the medium of the lax prescription regulations, which distributes thousands of gallons of whiskey among the people of the United States, and we venture the assertion that ninety-eight per cent of it is prescribed when there is possibly no need for it, and to persons that should not have it, but are given the stuff as medicine, when something else would do just as well. If the legislature will tighten the hoops on this law, and make it hold rigidly and more effectively, cutting out all possible leaks, the Eighteenth Amendment will make the United States bone dry, and the nation will be a happier, more prosperous one, and will be an example of a christian nation, and worthy of that name.

PLENTY OF JOBS FOR NATIONAL SAVIOURS

Why is it that none of our national saviours came to the front for Muscle Shoals until Henry Ford offered to take it off government hands, pay over one hundred millions of dollars for it, and make cheap fertilizers for the farmer? The latest objection is that Ford will not live through the terms of the lease and then what? The Ford organization is so perfected it has passed out of the realm of personality. Moreover, Edsel Ford has already proven himself an industrial genius and worthy to carry on his father's work in his father's way. Why do not some of our saviours come to the front and save the American merchant marine? Is the country again to be crucified on the cross of politics?

False Cuban passports have been sold to foreigners desiring to enter the United States, for the sum of $200 each. Several Spaniards have been deported because of forged passports.

WOULD DESTROY PARCEL POST SERVICE.

An item recently appearing in the daily press, furnished by the New York Herald-Tribune's Washington Correspondent, quotes a very emphatic declaration by Postmaster General New, regarding the proposed legislation, which is now confronting Congress, dealing with the matter of increased postal rates. At a conference with President Coolidge and General Lord, Director of the Budget, the Postmaster General declared that the proposal in Congress to get $100,000,000 additional from parcel post receipts to finance the increase, would destroy entirely the parcel post service. "There must be a readjustment all along the line," said Mr. New, "if the postal employees are to be granted the proposed increases which would aggregate from $125,000,000 to $150,000,000 a year. We are asked to pay for this by increasing parcel post rates to yield at least $100,000,000. That is impossible. It would absolutely destroy the service. Some readjustment must be made but it will be absolutely necessary to distribute the burden."

No man is in a better position to know the requirements of the Postal Department than our Postmaster General. There is a grave menace to the business of the country if his recommendations are ignored and because of pressure based on sentiment, hasty and inequitable legislation of this kind is passed.

The postal clerks themselves recognize the need of distributing the cost of the increased salaries over a wider field than that proposed in Congressman Paige's bill, for at a recent meeting of Chicago Post Office Clerk's Union, they submitted recommendations which pointed out several changes in Postal service which would increase the efficiency of the Department sufficiently to pay the proposed increase.

These recommendations by the clerks themselves, as well as the report of the Post Office Department, which has spent $500,000 investigating costs in the Department itself, should be given consideration before any rates are established.

We recommend to our readers that they write their legislative representatives so as to counteract the pressure being brought to bear to pass this proposed hasty legislation which is opposed to the views of our Postmaster General, to the postal clerks themselves, and to good common sense business practice.

AL SMITH INELIGIBLE.

The newspaper discussion of the possible nomination of Al Smith, Governor of New York, as a candidate for the presidency, is surely intended only as a space filler. Mr. Smith is the very personification of the spirit of Tammany. His nomination would inevitably cause the next election to be fought and won on the issue of simple patriotism. Party lines would disappear. The reelection of Mr. Coolidge would be deemed essential to the safety of the best interests of the country by literally millions of Democrats, as well as by Republicans. The men who are counting in pre-election estimates the solid south as a certain asset in case of Mr. Smith's nomination is utterly deluded. The nomination of Mr. Smith would be beyond the shadow of a doubt wreck the solid south.

Neither the Republican nor the Democratic party can afford to consider the nomination of any man who is not a sincere friend of the United States Constitution. The proper thing and the only thing that can be safely done is for both parties to nominate men to whose direction the country may be safely entrusted so that the campaign can be fought out on political issues, not on the issue of loyalty and morality.

BOSS MURPHY IS DEAD

There was much to admire in Mr. Murphy from the personal side. Genius, and Mr. Murphy possessed it, is always admired. There is always praise for the man who fights his way to the top through sheer ability, and this Mr. Murphy did. He was a man of great force of character. But in the public view the passing of Mr. Murphy means the end to another influence of such character which the nation as a whole and thoughtful men universally wish to see terminated. Democracies are beset with perils. There is the danger that lethargy and blind adherence will open the way to popular despotism no less baneful than monarchical sway. It is autocracy none the less whether exercised through the ballot box or the descent of thrones. Mr. Murphy belonged to a school of absolutism that must pass. That he honestly and conscientiously followed his philosophy of politics does not prove it right.

The death of the Tammany leader must be recorded as one of the stupendous events of the political campaign of 1924. Thousands will mourn his passing. All must attest to the genius he possessed. None can deny he did many good works. But the system he represented, which suffers mightily in the loss of so able an exponent, will wither, and men to come will rejoice at that.

The Duke of Northumberland, editor of the London Post, one of the greatest conservative papers in Great Britain, asserts that England made a mistake when it joined the League of Nations. He asserts that "the settlement of Europe was delayed for many weeks in order to incorporate the covenant in the peace treaty," and that "the great powers embarked on the scheme in which few, if any, had any real faith." He ridicules the theory that the League is found on the principle of equality—that each nation has one vote, that Ecuador is the equal of Great Britain. He denounces such a condition as absurd and a lie. The Duke of Northumberland boldly declares that the peace of Europe is only possible when Great Britain has the most powerful army and navy in the world.

It is generally believed in Washington even by those who have vetoed the contrary, that President Coolidge will veto the bonus bill passed by both houses of Congress.

MARKETS

FOREIGN MARKET BRINGS MANY SENSATIONS

By EDWARD J. CONDLON (UN. Financial Editor).

NEW YORK, May 6.—The foreign exchange market was far more interesting than the stock market. Dealings in the latter were less than 500,000 shares and at no time did trading appear brisk. The leading industrial stocks were content to consolidate gains of the previous day so that the uplift in prices was fairly general.

The later dealings saw improvement in such conservative issues as Brooklyn Union Gas and Consolidated Gas with Baldwin, Studenbaker, and Davison Chemical bringing up the rear. The public support accorded the market was extremely narrow at times. But on the other hand, professional bears did not appear very sure of their ground and confined their attacks to a scattering of the leading industrial stocks.

It was in foreign exchange that the street found mystery, intrigue and even sensation, though the sensational part of the proceedings was not found in any changes of price. According to the gossip, the group which extended the $100,000,000 credit to France in March, viz. the Morgan syndicate, have been heavy buyers of francs. Whether or not the bankers are acting for the French government is open to dispute, but it is reasonably certain that such a move is designed principally to catch the central European shorts who have become emboldened since the franc has recorded no important advances recently. Dealers in foreign exchange reported some of the heaviest buying in more than a fortnight. Francs crossed six half cents before mid-day and finished close to the top quotation of the day.

Bonds were steady in a quiet session of trading, with few features noted. The dull in new offerings this week is enabling the market to digest some of the heavy offerings of the previous week. Cheap money has not proved the incentive to speculative buying that might appear at first glance. All of the security markets are apparently content to mark time for the present.

EGG MOVEMENT DURING WEEK BEEN NORMAL

CHICAGO, May 6.—Movement of eggs has been normal. As the weather has become warmer producers will do better if they market their eggs two or three times a week. Prospects are that from now on they will also get better results by selling their eggs to dealers who are buying on a graded basis.

"Swat the Rooster Day" is still in effect in some territories, and it is natural at this time of the year for producers to sell their surplus of old roosters. This increases the production of infertile eggs, which are of much better keeping quality. The movement of live fowls is now showing a fair increase, indicating that in some territories the peak of the laying season has been reached. Indications are that the ruling prices on live poultry from now on will show a seasonal decline. Butter production is increasing rapidly, and on account of present market values consumption is very good. Indications are that the entire product will be used for current use for at least the next thirty days.

LOCAL AMATEUR SQUAD WORKING OUT DAILY PREPARING FOR CLASH WITH TAHOKA HERE NEXT THURS.

Each afternoon at the Merrill park, following their defeat Sunday at the hands of Tahoka, the Lubbock amateurs have been working out vigorously and vociferously, both in fielding and batting, and are fast counting out into shape for the game Thursday afternoon when they meet Tahoka here in a return exhibition.

They are, as yet, however, sorely perplexed and disagreeable on account of the unavoidable stiff joints and sore muscles, which are the natural consequence of the first spring training. But these inconveniences are fast being relegated to the background, and with a few more days of intensive training will be entirely done away with.

Skipper Allen stated Tuesday afternoon late that he would probably use about the same line-up that figured so gallantly in the first defeat of the season. This line-up includes Hensley, third base; Gaithey, shortstop; Shepard, second base; with "Woman", Sanders or the skipper himself handling the initial corner, and Ernest Karr probably doing the receiving work. In the guarded positions will probably be Jackson, Harry Hunter and Frank Jones.

The man for mound duty, of course is yet undecided, but in all probability Terry will be the beginner of the exhibition. Terry is the lad who went in at the opening of the sixth inning at Tahoka, and served three successive strikeouts, allowing one safety in the following inning. And this too, was practically the first ball he had thrown this season. He probably will not go the full route on account of not having yet whipped into condition. In the reserve mound staff comes Lewis Hunter, Sanders, and E. Hunter.

The exhibition, the first of the season in local terrain in the amateur world, will be called at about 3:30, according to Skipper Allen. Admission will be 50c.

OLSON TO MEET CAL FARLEY TONIGHT

Chas. Olson, local man, champion middleweight wrestler, Canada, who is to meet Kala Pasha here Friday night at the city auditorium, is scheduled for a match tonight with Cal Farley, champion of the A. E. P. at the Fair Theatre in Amarillo. This will be a finish match, two falls out of three, and is considered as a grudge match, as these two men have met twice before, and as yet have not been able to reach a decision.

In January, 1920, Olson and Farley went four hours to a no-fall, no-decision draw. Again just a short time ago, the men met, and with each having one fall to his credit, were not able to reach a decision on the third fall for lack of time, as the match was stopped at midnight on Saturday night.

On Friday night Olson will meet Kala Pasha "The Terrible Turk" under auspices of the local Post of the American Legion. Pasha holds the middleweight championship of Texas and the Southwest. He has plenty of strength, endurance and science, and is certain to give Olson one of the hardest matches he has ever had. As both men are well schooled in the art and science of their game, the man with the stamina to stand the most punishment probably will draw the decision.

Also either man has much to gain in this match, and it is certain that they will both extend themselves to the limit for the decision. Thus local fans are accorded the privilege of witnessing a match equal to the best.

Local Legion men will be in charge of the affair, and with reasonable financial success, Olson will locate in Lubbock, where he will be ready to take on all who come this way.

Tickets are now on sale at Bowen's Drug Store, Martin's Bakery and Hines Motor Co.

LOSS OF GIANTS BRINGS REDS NEAR TOP

The situation at the top of the National League became as tight as a banjo string Tuesday when the Giants lost another game to the Phils in Philadelphia, 5 to 4, and permitted the Reds, who were rained out in St. Louis, to ascend to within half a game.

Cy Williams fourth and fifth homers coming in the second and sixth innings, proved the undoing of the Giants. Williams first clout came when the bases were unoccupied but the second found Mokon on base and put the Phils in the lead. Incidentally it was the first time this season the Giants lost two games in a row.

The Dodgers climbed to third place when they defeated again the Braves in Brooklyn 3 to 0, while the Cubs were pushed into fourth by their defeat by the Pirates in Pittsburgh 2 to 0. In the Brooklyn game Captain Zach Wheat, of the Dodgers, poled his fourth homer of the season and his 102nd in his long major league career. The consistency with which the Robin outfielder has been hitting National League batter of the season and late tabulations show him far ahead of Rogers Hornsby who until lately had been leading the league.

The Yankees one and a half game lead over Detroit in the American League remained stationary when both clubs won their games Tuesday. In New York, the Athletics lost their eighth straight game when Waite Hoyt outpitched Ed Rommel. The score was New York 3; Philadelphia 2. The Tigers came from behind in the eighth and ninth innings in their game with the White Sox in Chicago and won six to four. Harry Heilmann, the leading batter in the American League, knocked his fifth homer in Tuesday's game. In Cleveland the Indians lost to the Browns, 7 to 4; while the Red Sox clubbed a 14 to 4 win over the Senators in Boston.

DELIGHTFUL TEA FOR MEMBERS OF SEVENTH DISTRICT

The Antheaum Club was hostess to the members of the Seventh District Convention Tuesday afternoon at a delightful tea where over three hundred guests passed down a long receiving line, and were entertained with music from a most enjoyable orchestra, and with a great deal of the "visiting" that constitutes one of the greatest appeals of a convention to the average delegate.

The parlors of the Baptist church were lovely with roses and carnations, and tall baskets of the blue bonnet, the same color scheme that has been so effectively carried out in many of the features of the district meeting, here being successfully repeated with most striking effect.

Punch was served at the entrance hall, and in the dining rooms, delicious cake and brick ice cream in which the color motif was reflected, was served.

The members of the Antheaum Club and others of the local hostesses, the State officers and chairmen, and a large number of the district chairmen were in line.

The note of gracious welcome which has characterized Lubbock's attitude from the moment of the first guest's arrival, which in fact, goes even farther back to that moment when the invitation was extended to the Seventh District at Clearendon, was again struck at Tuesday afternoon's tea, and on all sides comments of appreciation and of pleasure are being heard from the members of the convention.

GOOD WEATHER IS PREDICTED FOR FLIERS

By United News. CORDOVA, Alaska, May 6.—Three United States Army fliers "carrying on" their world encircling attempt despite the apparent loss of their commander, Major Fredk. L. Martin, will have favorable weather soon for their flight to Chicago on the Island of Attu, according to predictions Tuesday night.

Reports received here said that the barometer is rising in the western Alutian group and that only a light wind is blowing from the northwest. The gale that held the three planes at Nazan on the Island of Atka since Saturday night appears to have subsided.

The flight to Chicago, westernmost settlement of the Aleutian Islands will not be difficult, but after leaving Attu, the fliers must pass over 800 miles of open water to the Kurile Islands. This hop is regarded as the most difficult flight they will attempt.

While his colleagues carry on, Major Martin's fate remains a mystery. It will be one week tomorrow noon since he left Chignik to fight a head wind in an attempt to reach Dutch Harbor.

SANITARIUM COTTAGE IS OCCUPIED BY SEVEN PATIENTS

Seven patients of the Lubbock sanitarium were moved into the ten room cottage, which has just been completed and which was designed to help care for the demand that it being made upon the sanitarium each day for more room.

Regular hospital beds, a number of which were already in the possession of the sanitarium management, were placed in the new cottage, while chairs and other furniture was furnished by the Rix Furniture Company, and will be used until regulation hospital furniture has been received, orders for which have already been made.

The contract for an addition on the main sanitarium will be let in the very near future, and when this addition has been completed, this will be one of the most commodious sanitariums in West Texas.

Jesus was the great principle of self-denial and His followers must imitate Him in order to be like Him and able to enjoy His presence.

Man has ever been willing to receive every blessing from Jehovah but not always willing to return that reasonable service required.

In vindication of His law the Jews have been scattered to the corners of the earth.

David was unwilling to offer to the Lord that which cost him nothing. He was willing to pay the price. Christians today expect much and are willing to give little. God wants our love, our best for Himself.

Are we unwilling to give Him our best? Are we not willing to pay the price of Christianity?

"Let down the bars" is the cry of the age. Christ taught us we cannot serve two masters. The church's duty in the world is not only to contend for the principles of Christ but to live them as well. May she ever be true to her trust.

At the close of the service one soul was restored to the fold and another made the good confession.

AT THE CHURCHES

CHURCH OF CHRIST

A slight decrease in attendance was noted in the Bible study, but we are growing in this part of the work and interest is fine.

The business meeting proved that many are interested in the work from this angle and a large amount of business was disposed of satisfactorily.

On Wednesday evening May 7th, the building committee will have plans of the church to be built so all may see them. If you are not a regular attendant at prayer meeting you'll want to go this time and help these men make the final decision of the plan as they expect to let the contract soon.

"The Price of Christianity" was the subject for the morning sermon. Bro. Carney read from 2 Sam: 24, and a few of the salient points in this excellent sermon follow:

Man's inward nature was patterned after God and it has ever been the task of Jehovah to keep man up to that standard so he would appreciate his superior.

Every excellence has its cost.

FOREST EXHIBIT AT PANHANDLE EXPOSITION

AMARILLO, Texas, May 6.—An exhibit of the United States Forestry Service probably will be included in the attractions of the Amarillo Tri-State Exposition this fall, according to a letter received by Manager O. V. Vernon from the service's district offices at Albuquerque, N. M.

This exhibit covers the work of the Forestry Service and the Bureau of Biology Survey. The forest exhibit consists of models showing the danger of forest fires and wrong cutting, the value of forests for flood prevention, and the kinds of timber grown in the southwest. The Biological Survey's exhibits consists of mounted animals and the birds of the region and a demonstration of rat, gopher and other rodent poisoning.

This exhibit will be a new attraction for the exposition. One time-honored "attraction" will be distinctly among the missing, however. That will be the "wheels" or camouflaged roulette devices, where the boys endeavor to drag down ducks and dolls and other articles through the medium of being lucky. The ban on these and other gambling devices will be rigidly enforced, President R. T. Emmett declares.

AMARILLO BUNCH WILL STOP IN LUBBOCK

AMARILLO, Texas, May 6.—The special train carrying Amarillo's delegation to the Brownwood convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will arrive in Lubbock next Monday afternoon, May 12, at 3 p. m. The entire evening will be spent in the Hub of the South Plains, and Amarillo folk expect it to be one of the most enjoyable stops of the trip. Those who have not been down that way recently are anxious to see with their own eyes the developments of which they have read so much.

The Amarillo party, reinforced by delegations from North Panhandle towns and the West Texas State Teachers' College Band of Canyon will parade the business district immediately upon arrival. They will then scatter about town, renewing old acquaintances and making new ones, after which they will have supper.

Lubbock will be the final stop of a day spent in visiting the towns along the Santa Fe to the north. Other towns include Plainview for lunch; Hale Center, 3:05 p. m., 30 minutes, and Abernathy, 4 p. m., 30 minutes. On leaving Lubbock at 11:30 p. m., a night run will be made to Brownwood. On the return trip, Friday, May 10, stops will be made at towns between Sweetwater and Slaton. Amarillo is expecting the support of Lubbock in bringing the 1925 convention to the Plains, not only in votes, but in urging neighboring communities to be sure and have representatives at Brownwood. She believes that holding the convention here will be of great benefit to the Panhandle region and also will greatly strengthen the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

OVER 250 REGISTER FOR WOMEN'S MEET

of the Seventh District. Mrs. J. T. Whitmore, Snyder, chairman of the Membership Committee, reported for her work, saying that new clubs are being organized rapidly, and that this district holds the record so far, having nine new clubs that have already applied for membership into the state and district federations. Following Mrs. Whitmore's report Mrs. John F. Bacon, Lubbock, gave in a most interesting manner, a brief history of Lubbock County. This history will appear in full in an early issue of the district papers and will also be filed in the records of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society. Mrs. T. V. Reeves, Canyon, secretary of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, spoke on the work of the society, and urged the recording of the early history of the Panhandle and Plains. She told of the Museum that is part of the society, and how it has grown in a few years from one or two articles to a collection that was now valued into the thousands of dollars. She urged the members of the Seventh District to observe Texas Day which is a part of all club programs and to make of it a real Texas Day, with songs, folk lore, and stories of this section of the State.

Mrs. R. A. Underwood, second vice-president, read a letter from Miss Decca Lamar West, Historian, T. F. W. C., in which Miss West asked the Seventh District and all individual clubs to support the work of the historian, to send records in to her office, and to stand behind the Federation in the work it is attempting to do.

Mrs. Don Cullton, chairman of Public Welfare, reported for her department, and introduced her division chairman, Mrs. R. R. Townsend, Lamesa, chairman of Health, and Mrs. Lon V. Smith, Floydada, chairman of Fire Prevention. The reports from this department showed a great deal of excellent work that has been done. Mrs. Smith in her report stressed the policy of the state committee, to increase the number of schools teaching fire prevention, and having adequate fire protection. She reported that at present over two thirds of the Seventh District schools are including Fire Prevention in their curriculum, and that she hopes to be able to report one hundred percent by the time of the State Federation meeting in Amarillo in November.

Mr. W. E. Satterfield, State Fire Inspector from the State Insurance Commission, addressed the convention on fire and its control. He complimented the work of the Seventh district, but added that a great deal remained to be done. Mr. Satterfield traced the development of civilization down through the ages, pointing out the force and the aid that fire has had since earliest days, but also emphasizing the fact that it has also become one of our greatest foes. He placed a large share of the responsibility for the thousands of fires that occur annually on the housewives, since so large a number of fire hazards originate in the home. He asked the assistance of the Seventh District in carrying out the program for fire prevention that is being worked out by the State committee in conjunction with the State Insurance Commission.

At the close of his talk, all clubs from towns from A to C inclusive gave their reports, which is always one of the most interesting features of our district meetings since in this way delegates from all parts of the district become familiar with the work that is being done in the individual clubs, and are able to have an interchange of ideas that proves most helpful.

After regular business and announcements the session was adjourned for luncheon. Luncheon was served by the ladies of the Slaton clubs and the Posey community club, with Mrs. Baldwin of Slaton a most gracious hostess. The speakers on the noon program were: Mrs. Reese Tatum, Mrs. Henry Redmond, Mrs. Phebe K. Warner, and Mrs. W. C. Martin. Miss Margaret Whittaker, teacher of Expression in the Slaton schools, gave a delightful reading and responded to continued applause with an encore. The members of the hostess clubs were introduced to the guests, in a few words from Mrs. Baldwin. Miss Mabel Marsh, Lubbock County Home Demonstration Agent, who is responsible for so much of the excellent work that is being done in the county, was introduced to the members of the convention, and her work complimented by Mrs. Baldwin.

A delicious two course luncheon was enjoyed by a large number of delegates and visitors. The color scheme was carried out in delicate shades of rose and lavender, with sweet peas and blue bonnets for the floral motif. Little blue bonnets were in each place as favors.

Afternoon Session.

The afternoon session began with a most interesting number, a club meeting held by the Home Demonstration club girls of Lubbock county. The scope of the work that is carried on through these clubs was explained and found to embrace many lines, millinery, dressmaking, poultry raising, gardening, community work, cooking, interior decorating and other activities. The roll was called to ascertain how many counties had Home Demonstration agents, and a large number responded from Wilbarger, Dalhart and Potter to Hale, Lubbock, Lynn, Crosby, and many other counties lying between. The meeting was put on by the Lubbock County girls in charge of Miss Mabel Marsh and assisted by Home Demonstration agents from neighboring counties, and was easily one of the features of the afternoon program enjoyed most by the members of the convention.

Mrs. Henry Redmond, Corpus Christi, president T. F. W. C. then conducted a Club Institute on Club Ideals and Methods. This Club Institute brings a real message to the club women, and gives them something so practical, so helpful, and so tangible that it alone would have made the afternoon program well worth while. In round table fashion, the ideals of the clubs and the club women as upheld by the State and District Federations were discussed, and many interesting ideas were advanced. Courtesy, loyalty, cooperation, were held out as the duties of every member toward their president, whether of an individual club, a county organization, or the State Federation. In return, the president must have a sense of fairness, unflinching loyalty to her members, knowledge, courage, and a broad and fine vision in order to give to her members and her organization the best service which they have a right to demand. Executive ability and parliamentary knowledge were also thought to be absolutely necessary qualities that must be found in an executive, but above all else, leadership and loyal service were paramount. Mrs. Redmond emphasized the importance of upholding the Constitution of an organization. If the rules and by laws of such an organization are worth anything they must be observed and obeyed.

A very emphatic word regarding club correspondence was said when Mrs. Redmond pointed out that the need of attending to all correspondence promptly, urging that club and federation business be dispatched with efficiency and speed. In this same connection, she urged that accurate files be kept and a record of the work as it is being done, saying that nothing expedites business so much as to know where to secure necessary information.

The duties of the department and division chairmen were then discussed. It is the duty of all department chairmen to have supervision over the work being done to keep in touch with all divisions and to be ready at all times to render any service that the division chairman may require. It is the duty of the division chairmen, and all this applies to the state chairmen as well as to the district chairmen, to keep her department chairmen informed as to the work that is being done, and to carry out the plan of work that has been adopted by the department and division chairmen.

Attention was called to the program that is undertaken in Clubs, and conventions. One fault was found with the average program, that it undertakes to cover too many subjects, with the result that little is learned of a number of things, and nothing very lasting or more than superficial is really obtained. Clubs were urged to try to devote more time to certain subjects, and not to scatter their energies too widely. In conclusion, Mrs. Redmond spoke of the ideals that are the Federation's, the vision that it has of the future, and the stand that it has taken on many issues. She emphasized the fact that the Federation endorses principles and measures, and that it stands for all that is high of purpose and for the betterment of the community and the state. Following Mrs. Redmond's talk, which was most profitable and inspiring, the report of the fine arts department was heard. Mrs. Tillman Jones reporting for the department, and Mrs. I. D. Cole for the division of music. Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Cole both called attention to the fine arts program which was held Tuesday evening. Mrs. Carl Goodman gave a report of the work that had been done by Mrs. J. L. Showell, chairman of literature, up to the time of her death a few weeks ago, and spoke of the outlines for the division of literature that had been on Mrs. Showell's desk at the time of her death, and which have since been mailed out to a number of the district clubs.

The music clubs of the district gave the report, following the fine arts department. Mrs. Charles Webster, Memphis, reported for the department of Art Education; Mrs. G. T. Vinyard, Amarillo, for library extension; Miss Ruth Lowes, Canyon, for the division of kindergarten; Mrs. Arthur Ware, state chairman of scholarships and loan fund, spoke of the work of her division.

Mrs. W. C. Martin, Dallas, state chairman of publicity, addressed the convention on the value of publicity, and urged that the Seventh District support the Federation News, and that individual clubs send in their news items to the district chairman of publicity. Resolutions, which will be acted upon this morning were read by Miss Capitola Gerlach, chairman of resolutions. All resolutions must be properly signed and sent through the committee on resolutions if they are to receive attention from the convention.

The credentials committee was called upon to report, and gave the total attendance of two hundred and fifty five which places the Seventh District meeting easily as the largest meeting of the district.

After announcements from the local chairman, Mrs. Jesse Summers, the session was adjourned until nine a. m. Wednesday morning.

Fine Arts Program Enjoyed

Hundreds of Lubbock people as well as the more than 255 delegates of the federated clubs convention, enjoyed the program of fine arts evening as carried out at the First Methodist church last evening at 8:30 o'clock.

The spacious auditorium was filled to capacity, and many expressions of appreciation of the program were heard. It would be unfair to site the work of any one artist appearing on this program as being outstanding, as each number was appreciated and added its bit to the general program.

The number of widows in the United States nearly doubles the number of widowers.

in such a manner that not more than 150,000 aliens in any one county may enter in one year. Preference within each country's quota will be given to laborers skilled in agriculture and also to close relatives of citizens of the United States but these preferences combined shall not exceed 50 per cent of total quotas. Certain non quota immigrants such as American citizens wives and children under 18 years of age, professors, students, of accredited schools, and returning aliens temporarily absent from this country, were agreed upon. Natives of independent countries of the Western hemisphere, including Canada, will be admitted unconditionally, according to the committee agreement.

A motion was made and carried that the delegates elected by Lubbock county to the state convention vote as a unit on anything they vote on.

The following resolution was then offered and unanimously adopted. "We, the democrats of Lubbock County, Texas, in County convention assembled on this the 6th day of May 1924, do hereby instruct our delegates who are to represent us in the state convention to vote for delegates to the national convention who believe in a clean and honest government, honestly administered; who believe in the virtue, validity, and vitalizing power of our state and national prohibition laws, and the right enforcement of these and all other laws; who believe in the full participation of the womanhood of our country in directing the affairs of government; who believe in a thorough housecleaning at the National capitol of all bribe-givers, bribe takers and sellers of political influence.

"Believing in a representative form of government, and having full confidence in the integrity and sound judgement of a delegation which truly represents the above principles; we instruct our delegates not only to write these principles into the platform of our party, but we further instruct them to stand for the selection of a delegation for the National Convention, who will name a Democratic nominee for president, who can consistently and in good conscience stand on such a platform."

On motion duly carried, the delegates from Lubbock county to the state convention were instructed to present to that convention the names of H. T. Kimbro, of Lubbock as a candidate for the position of delegate to the National convention, and to do everything possible toward his election.
