AMERICAN WOOL GROWERS WILL FORM A NATION-WIDE POOL

The Devil's Dream

(By W. E. James)

"Around the World in 80 Days,"
By Jules Verne, isn't it—
We made the trip from end to end,
And all in thirty minutes!

The ladies of the Methodist Missionary Society were responsible for an enjoyable evening Friday, Nov. 1, when they staged "A Trip Around World."

Between eighty and one hundred Sonora citizens made the trip in relays of six, piloted by some of Sonora's most lovable young ladies, who were familiar with the different countries and their exact locations. There were no accidents reported.

Beginning with Villa Acuna—an oasis in Mexico more or less familiar to Sonora's male population—passports were secured which entitled the holder to all he could eat and drink—tamales and hot coffee. This noted little city was in charge of Mesdames Lem Johnson, Joe Trainer, M. O. Britt and J. T. McClelland. J. W. Trainer was the bar tender and Lem Johnson acted as chief bouncer. However, the crowd got through Villa Acuna without the detention of a single member, and no rough stuff.

Holland—the land of wooden shoes, pretzels and sour kraut—was the next stop. Here the popular foods of the country were served by Mesdames Haynie Davis, Rose Thorp and Robt. Kelly.

The tour led to Italy, where visitors ate spaghetti by the yard and conversed in "dago" language with Mesdames Ed Mayfield, Blanton and Hutcherson.

By this time the tourists were fairly well "loaded" with good things to eat, and in splendid condition for seeing pink elephants, boa constrictors, and the many ferocious animals to be found in the tangled jungles of Darkest Africa. The animals were in care of Mesdames Babcock, Lowrey, Stites and Driskell. Visitors were treated to a confection of stuffed nuts.

In Japan the tourists met some former Sonora friends in the persons of Mesdames M. G. Shurley, McCalmont, Tom White, Mans Hoggett and Robt. Rees. These ladies spoke the language of their adopted country and showed the American heathens some very interesting wonders. The tea, served in regular Japanese style, was delicious.

In Iceland a bevy of Esquimaux met the party and almost froze the entire made famous by local drug stores group with generous slices of the pie and drink emporiums. Mesdames Ira Shurley, Rector Cuesenbary, Dudley Westbrook and Miss Elizabeth Caldwell were responsible for the "chilly sensations" experienced in Iceland.

The last and greatest country on the globe claimed the attention of the weary, travel-worn Sonorates—the land where the Stars and Stripes waved a glorious welcome. Personal friends met the incoming steamers and gave the returned tourists a hearty welcome. They were Mesdames Chas. Evans, M. M. Stokes and Miss Bernice Stokes.

Back home again the visitors were entertained with good old American songs sung by several of Sonora's most talented young ladies. A realistic war dance was given by a band of Comanche Indians, whose tepee occupied the center of activities.

Not being satisfied with the "skinning" administered through purchase of foreign antiques, the tourists had to submit to an old-fashioned P. T. Barnum humbugging by a "down east auctioneer," who closed out at a high figure the entire stock of "valuables" donated by the ladies. The "Trip Around the World" terminated happily with an Indian war dance.

Sonora's two sweethearts, little "muchacha," and little Miss Mary Miss Jamie Trainer, as a Mexican Jane Evans as a "colonial dame," were the outstanding attractions and created a great deal of merriment. Their closest rivals for honors were E. E. Sawyer's fluent Indian speeches

U. S. Mail Schedule Might Be Changed

In all probability the present U. S. mail schedule will be changed, according to Postmaster T. C. Murray. Mr. Murray has a letter from the post-office department in Fort Worth, stating that a request has been made for a change of schedule.

If a change is made, mail from San Angelo will leave there at 8:00 a. m. and arrive in Sonora at 11:00 a. m., and will leave Sonora in the afternoon at 2:00 and arrive in San Angelo at 5:30. This would permit the dispatch of mail here the same day it is deposited.

It is believed that petitions will be sent from Sonora, Eldorado, Christoval and San Angelo asking for the change.

Lions Will Have Play November 14

"Mail Order Brides," a farce comedy in three acts, will be presented jointly again by the Sonora Lions and Parent-Teachers' Association in the high school auditorium Thursday, November 14, it was learned from Claude Roe, who is directing the play.

This play was presented to a full house Monday, October 28, at which time about $150 was profited. Proceeds derived from the play will be equally divided between the two organizations.

As an extra added attraction, a new specialties between acts, "Amos and Andy," a blackface burlesque in one act will be given.

This is the last time this play will be given in Sonora. It is likely that it will be carried to Ozona under the auspices of the Ozona Lions club.

All Business Houses Will Close Monday

Monday, November 11, Armistice Day, will be commemorated here when all business houses will have their doors closed, and will pause to pay tribute to the boys who gave their lives to defend our country and to those who were in service during the world war.

There will be no school Monday, M. O. Britt, superintendent of the Sonora Schools said. An Armistice program was given this morning at the school.

The Lions program committee are arranging an Armistice program for Monday's meeting.

Get your Christmas cards at The News office, and keep home money at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Love were here from their ranch today on business.

Mrs. Clomer Holman, of Hunt, is a guest of friends here this week, and Postmaster Murray's knowledge of Spanish monetary values.

The Methodist ladies, who never do things by halves, thank the general public for the sprinkle of the "coin of the realm" which fell unstintingly into the coffers of the society. They feel sure everyone had a good time and "got their money's worth." Another event is promised for an early date.

OLD SPANISH TRAIL OFFICERS TO BE ELECTED

With the return from California of the members of the Old Spanish Trail Motorcade the word is brought that at the convention meeting at San Diego a nominating committee was appointed for each OST State to select a state vice president for the new national board of directors. Under the OST constitution a vice president is the state leader and state directors are elected to serve with the vice president. The state groups constitute the national board of directors with a managing director as the interstate contact official.

The nominating committee chairman for East Texas is T. H. Neese, president Security Bank of Beaumont and the delegate of the Beaumont Chamber of Commerce and the Sabine-Neches automobile club. The West Texas nomination was referred to the Hill county OST group of which Emil A. Loeffler of Junction is chairman. West Texas is entitled to a vice president and a national director.

It was recognized at the San Diego meeting that the work of road improvement and of pavement is now well looked after by the state highway departments and local people, but drawing travel south to the Old Spanish Trail and its territory is a work that must be co-ordinated in the interest of all territory from Florida to California.

The San Diego meeting decided the primary work was to mark the Old Spanish Trail and thus preserve its name and capitalize its historical allurements and to couple with this the distribution of travel information to the northern people. The Old Spanish Trail Association has already built up a national distribution system.

"The Old Spanish Trail," according to Harrah Ayres, the managing director, "should not be thought of as a mere highway with a selfish interest, but as the southern travel artery that can be made noted throughout the whole continent and as travel is drawn to it the whole southern borderland country will be served by it. No singly highway," he says, "is sufficient for this far southern country, but the Old Spanish Trail name and its historical background will be the drawing power to bring people south and all highways are needed for the distribution of these travelers after they get South."

The nominating committees will report to the present managing director, Harrah Ayres at San Antonio. They will then be called together to plan travel development policies and a working budget, select a president, arrange for state directors and a managing director.

HIGHWAY WILL TOP 23 MILES ON DEL RIO ROAD

Twenty-three miles of asphalt topping will be put on the San Angelo-Del Rio Highway at an early date, provided Sutton county will increase the present rightofway from 60 to 100 feet. This information came from H. L. Taylor, superintendent of maintenance work on highways in this section. Mr. Taylor declared that, unless the 100-foot rightofway could be secured, the state would not top the road.

President Caldwell appointed a committee from the Lions Club to confer with the commissioners' court relative to the additional 20 feet on either side. It is believed that the commissioners will guarantee to the state the rightofway asked for. This committee will meet with the court next Monday.

At this meeting of the Lions, O. G. Babcock called attention of the Lions to a municipal band. Mr. Britt stated that Ozona had employed G. J. Kane, wind instrument instructor, whose services were also available to Sonora. Mr. Babcock and Superintendent M. O. Britt will consider the matter with the Parent-Teacher association this week.

Advisability of repeating a play presented jointly by the Lions and P. T. A. was discussed by the Lions. Lion Roy Aldwell, mayor, had a few words in regard to trash left in gutters. He asked the co-operation of the business men and citizens to not sweep trash into the street. Each business house, he said, should have a garbage can to the rear of the building.

Little Fall Wool Has Been Purchased

The sale of fall or short wool has been slow, according to all reports. March Brothers sold about 100,000 pounds in San Angelo this week, and it is understood that the price paid was near the 20 1-2-cent mark.

The Wool Growers Central Storage Company of San Angelo, rejected bids from 18 to 21 cents, it has been reported. The Texas Wool and Mohair Company of San Angelo has not made any sales, it is said.

The nominating committees were appointed from among the members on the motorcade, most of whom were official delegates from their home locality. They are to confer with their home folks after returning with the story of the things they learned on the motorcade trip.

Pantages Guilty

Alexander Pantages, 54, vaudeville magnate, was found guilty by a jury at Los Angeles of attack on Eunice Pringle, 17-year-old dancer. The jury recommended the maximum penalty.

MIGHT LOCATE A SALT PLANT IN SONORA SOON

A plant that would have an output of two carloads of stock salt daily and to cost $20,000 might be located in Sonora before the completion of Santa Fe rails, O. F. Friest, representing the Dr. Rountree interests of Austin, said here Tuesday. The plant would employ about twenty men.

Mr. Friest stated that it was his aim to sell $30,000 worth of stock in the incorporation to Sutton county ranchmen and Sonora business men. He believes that if that amount of stock is subscribed in local capital, Rountree will establish a plant and main offices in this city. "Sonora is in the heart of the livestock raising country, and is the most logical location for such a plant or office," Mr. Friest informed a representative of this paper Tuesday. He pointed out that Rountree had many customers in this county, and it is the intention of this company to establish the plant in Sonora.

In speaking of Sonora, he declared that a wonderful future was in store for the town, and that he expected to see much more development in the county.

He left here Wednesday morning for Crockett county where he thinks it is possible to sell ranchmen there considerable stock. It is understood that, provided sufficient stock is sold in these two counties, a director will be named in Sutton and Crockett counties.

ALL U. S. OUTPUT TO BE SPONSORED IN SAN ANGELO

San Angelo—A nation-wide pool, the objective of which will be the gathering and sale of 300,000,000 lbs of wool, the entire output of the United States, will be sponsored at the National Wool Growers Association meeting here November 20 and 21, it was announced here Saturday by Texas members of the organization.

The plan is the largest ever undertaken by American wool growers, has the support of the Federal Government and is expected to be a sequel to a conference held in Chicago October 4, when the movement was discussed.

The price of wool has decreased, and the pool likely will prevent a recurrence, it was declared. Owners of wool and mohair warehouses will be urged to join the proposed pool, and warehouse representatives will be here to consider the project. Whether the warehousemen will unite could not be learned here Saturday, but Texas wool men assert this is the biggest thing ever undertaken for the wool market.

Two members of the Feredal Farm Board are coming for the convention, it was announced by Claude C. Wild, secretary of the Board of City Development. The members, C. B. Denman and James C. Stone, are expected to take active part in discussion of the pool.

Frank J. Hagenbarth, Salt Lake City, is president of the national association, while the secretary is F. R. Marshall, Salt Lake City. Both will attend.

George P. Willingmyer, wool specialist of the United States Department of Agriculture, will act as judge of a wool show, winners to receive cash prizes. A. B. Connor, director of experiment stations of the A & M College, will discuss the Texas public land system.

The fact that the present tariff schedule calls for a duty of 31 cents on Australian wool eliminate Australia as a problem to American wool interests.

It was announced about 3,000 will attend the convention. As entertainment features the delegates will be taken on a trip to Del Rio, while another trip will be made to Sonora to inspect the A & M experimental station there which has a five-section ranch.

In order to put over the wool pool it will be necessary that warehousemen join. It was represented much of the effort of the delegates will be made in this direction. The national association has 12 affiliated organizations.—Star-Telegram.

Halbert Suggests Robison Monument

A monument for the late J. T. Robison, land commissioner of Texas for a number of years, whom he characterized as the greatest friend the West Texas land owner ever had, is proposed by B. M. Halbert, one of the leading goatmen of America who was here in company with his wife Tuesday. Mr. Halbert thinks that the monument would be a lasting esteem West Texans have had for Robison. The monument should be located in West Texas, and built of Alpine granite.

Whether the monument should be placed on the grave of the commissioner or upon the highest hill in West Texas that Robison loved is a matter for the public to decide, Mr. Halbert said. Mr. Halbert has suggested that every five-dollar donation represent one vote, and that the "sky" is the limit, each five-dollar contribution for the monument to entitle the donor to a vote in determining the location for this memorial.

W. L. Aldwell, Mr. Halbert said, should serve as treasurer. Mr. Halbert would like to see the monument erected and dedicated to the greatest friend West Texas ever had.

Dee Gibbs May Enter Sutton Sheriff's Race

It has been reported here that Dee Gibbs, a former sheriff of Kimble county and at one time sheriff of Mason county where his father was also sheriff, may enter the race for sheriff in this county next year. He is now living in Sutton county where he has a ranch.

Breeders and Feeders Start Big Movement

A. B. Connor, J. M. Jones, R. E. Dickson and W. T. Carter attended the banquet given in Dallas by the State Fair board in honor of the Texas Breeder-Feeder Association which was organized a short time ago. This organization is interested in the feeding and finishing of cattle on Texas feeds. The association held the first feeder cattle sale at this year's fair—with the aim of promoting the cattle feeding industry.

E. E. Jackson, of the Fair Board, at the meeting subsequently turned the meeting over to Frank P. Holland, Jr., president of the Texas Breeder-Feeder Association. Much interest was in evidence in the support of this movement, by cattlemen, farmers, bankers, the press and other groups. This association passed resolutions calling upon Governor Moody to submit to the next special session of the legislature the matter of providing an appropriation of $30,000 revolving fund to be used in testing rations for finishing beef cattle and sheep.

HAS FIRST HEALTH IN 25 LONG YEARS

"I am now in good health for the first time in twenty-five years and Sargon deserves all the credit. My stomach was badly disordered, blisters were continually breaking out in my mouth. My nerves were upset, I never slept well, and there was an awful pain in my side, near my gall bladder. I was habitually constipated and had one headache after another.

MRS. J. E. COX

"I had no idea any medicine could do for me what Sargon did. There isn't an ache or pain in my body now! My stomach is in fine condition and the blisters in my mouth are gone. I'm no longer nervous, but sleep fine and since the Sargon Pills put my liver in working order, I've been entirely free of constipation and headaches. I think Sargon is the greatest medicine on earth."—Mrs. J. E. Cox, 3212 Holmes St., Dallas. Sonora Drug Company, agents.

WARNING OF COUNTERFEIT $20 BILL IS BROADCAST

J. P. Jarvis has received a warning from Gulf Refining Co. headquarters at Houston to beware of a counterfeit bill in circulation, being a $5 Lincoln bill which has been raised to a $20 bill. The party passing these counterfeits is said to be traveling in a car with a Pennsylvania license, and with the letter B on the plate; he is said to be white American, aged 40 to 45 years, high cheek bones, 5 feet 10 inches tall, weighs 175 lbs., medium build, brown hair, clean shaved, good looking, smooth talking, and swings left shoulder when walking.—Brady Standard.

LIVING WITH PEOPLE OF OTHER RACES

Religion must work to be practical and one reason that interferes with its working is the superiority complex that too many have: it merely makes them over self-conscious and miserable. By doing just a little study and traveling about a modest amount one soon learns that there are others who are worthy of our highest esteem. Very often we find that these others are really doing bigger things under vastly harder conditions than we are accomplishing. Very illuminating passages of Scripture are chosen for our study this week. In addition to those given above look up, with care, Ruth 1; 1-18; John 4:5-10; Acts 10:1-11 and Romans 1:14.

Mutual needs help greatly in being vitally interested in other nations. One of the finest love stories is that of Naomi, the Jewess, and Ruth, the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law. Ruth would rather be an alien in Jewry than live at home without Naomi. Here was a precious friendship that thrived irrespective of all national boundaries. Boaz and Ruth did not find any problem about inter-racial marriage as their lives were bound together in abiding love. It is right to be proud of one's nationality, but it is presumptuous to conclude that others cannot serve humanity as well. This matter of service is one of the basic tests of national worth.

Jesus taught a lesson that many found it hard to learn when he addressed the Samaritan woman as they sat at Jacob's Well. The real question was not that of a superior place or race but rather of an acknowledgment of the one True God. Again it was demonstrated that relationship to Jehovah and service to mankind are of greater moment than earthly lineage.

The same lesson is continuously taught with the growth of the Christian Church. An early problem was to have the teachers think right toward those of various nations. The work of the Holy Spirit on the Day of Pentecost, following the sermon of Peter, was a disclaimer of provincialism. There was a common blessing for all who would believe. But even Peter needed a special teaching vision to make him ready to go with the divine message to the home of Cornelius, the Roman centurion. The world is still trying to learn "What God hath cleansed, make not thou common." Peter's conviction, as expressed in the household of Cornelius, was "I perceive that God is no respecter of persons."

Parallel Parking Near Postoffice

Parallel parking will be enforced on the street between the Corner Drug Store and the Hotel McDonald, Frank Holliday, city manager said this week. Parking markers on the streets in the business district will be made, he said. The city will strive to enforce all traffic rules.

All business men have agreed to see that alleys and gutters are free of trash, etc.

Hotels, drug stores and cafes have been asked to secure health certificates for their employees. Most of these places had certificates and those who did not have them were eager to get them.

Mr. Holliday reports that sewer collections are coming in slowly. He urges all who have connections with the sewer system to pay their rentals promptly.

ARMISTICE DAY

"In Flanders field, where poppies grow" lie buried the brave heroes of the World War who journeyed overseas to protect loved ones at home. On Armistice Day let us all bow in prayer, giving them our sincere tribute of gratitude and affection. And let us, too, pray for those among us who suffered the loss of their loved ones in the conflict. These are no less heroes!

A Round of Slugs
(By S. U. M. Bull)

John Eaton and Alvin Hollmig, who are said to be two of the cleverest packers of the hog hide, are organizing an all-star town football team. About fifteen or twenty of stars are now coming out for practice. John Eaton will captain and manage the team. The first game will likely be played with Ozona or Eldorado. It is remembered that for the last two years Sonora has had a pretty good town team. Gate receipts will be given to the high school football team, it is understood. A schedule will be announced later. Present prospects are that the team will average about 170 pounds in weight, and should beat that provided Issy Leaman is a member and John Eaton eats as much as he usually does. This team of all-stars will see plenty of stars before the season ends.

There are two sides to any question. This was true Wednesday night when a prominent jurist and a wool buyer started an argument in the Corner Drug Store. Both left the store satisfied they had won their points.

"Buzzy" Stokes has started taking private lessons at a night school, and he is the only pupil in the class. It is reported that he is progressing nicely, as there are no others in the class to take up his time. It is not known what subject he is pursuing but it is conceded that he is preparing for a professional career.

"Issy" Leaman, the poor and "weasley" little boy who looks as if he had been half starved, is capable of tearing through a house, leaving a hole large enough for an elephant to pass through. Some call "Issy" a home-wrecker, but we believe that he is practicing to buck the football line.

News emanates from Junction that Coke R. Stephenson, a member of the legislature, is entertaining the idea of running for congressman. Several papers in that section have endorsed his candidacy, and he will no doubt get a bit of support in that section. Cliff C. Belcher, Del Rio attorney, will get most of the votes in this territory as well as the Del Rio and San Angelo sectors. Thomason will get a solid vote in El Paso. If Stephenson becomes a candidate, then Thomason will be out next congressman.

There is a time in the average man's life when he longs for the pleasant surroundings of a happy home. Many satisfy that longing while others, not willing to sacrifice part of their present income for their future welfare put it off. But the man who makes the sacrifice is the one who comes out ahead in the end, for he not only enjoys his home while paying for it but has a permanent investment of which he will be proud in the years to come.

PEACE ON EARTH

GOOD WILL TOWARD MEN

Eleven years ago, on this day, the most fearful holocaust of modern times came to its termination, and scenes of carnage, sacrifice and disaster were again clothed in the vestments of peace.

There came into being the glorious prospect of international amity, the hope for universal brotherhood among men of all nations and creeds that had long been envisioned by the guides and leaders of humanity.

Much has been done in furtherance of this beautiful ideal, much remains to be accomplished. Never was man faced with a more difficult or more inspiring task.

As we voice our thanks for the peace and prosperity of our land, let us give a thought to the brave souls who passed on that we might live in security and comfort; and let us, too, unite in prayer for the realization of the noble ideals promulgated by those who are dedicating themselves to the Christlike task of promoting world harmony and mutual understanding.

THE STOCK MARKET AND PROSPERITY

While stocks "faw down and go boom" and a multitude of speculators find themselves the victims, our national prosperity continues on an even keel. During the height of the Wall Street slump public officials as well as business leaders have come forth to reassure the public that the slump in market should have no great effect on our national prosperity.

Level-headed government, a sound banking system, and above all good business organizations, keeps the indisposition of Wall Street from throwing the entire nation out of "whack."

At the same time, we are confronted by a statement by Axelander Legge, chairman of the Farm Board, that the shrinkage in stock values has had a very deteriorating effect on the prices of wheat. This only goes to show that other industries because they are organized, and work co-operatively, are safer than the farm industry from the effects of a stock exchange slump. When the good work being done by the Farm Board and other agencies finds fruition in a thorough organization of the farm industry, farmers will have less to fear from irregularities in Wall Street.

LION EDITOR SQUARES HIMSELF

Probably seventy thousand Lions grinned at the pictures of the Lions of Sonora in the October issue of the Lion. They were presented in the pajama garb they wore at a Lion luncheon, parading the street in night garb, singing "America" at the cross roads, and comporting themselves in general as if inviting a term in the hoosegow.

The story said they were the Lions of Sonora, California. But now arises a real Lions roar from the South—Sonora, Texas, claims those sleep-walking, pajama-clad chaps and takes almost a column of the first page of the Devil's River News to tell the world so. The editor, who started the club on the pajama idea, says, in part:

"The LION, official magazine of the order of Lions, publishes photographs of the Pajama Parade as held by 'us Lions,' but lays the scene in Sonora, California, thus taking from the Texas town all the glory—and the free advertising.

"The editor of the LION must hail from Sonora—a native of California—or else he didn't have his 'mind on his business.'" Or maybe some newspaper man sent the article in, and the editor could not read his miserable scribbling and said 'Sonora, California,' just for spite."

Well, it wasn't exactly that way, but here is what happened: Somebody sent to the LION a newspaper clipping, telling all about the Pajama Parade. The date line read "Sonora," just like that. Not "Sonora, Texas," but just plain, unilluminated "Sonora," as if all the world must know where it was. Moreover, all the paper had been clipped away except that one story, so that nobody could tell what paper, or when, or where, had printed it.

Some fine photographs were sent The LION, but they, too, bore nothing to indicate that they were Texas-born and bred.

Now the Sonora, Texas, club is only a year old, and had not reported any activity since its charter night; whereas Sonora, California, is an elder club, and has frequently reported its doings. So, without even remembering that Texas has a Sonora, he wrote the story about Sonora, Cal.

So much for Sonora, Texas; but just wait until Sonora, California, is heard from!

The Velvet Hammer

(By Harvey Walker)

To the Hon. Jas. E. Ferguson and Ma:

I was sorely disappointed, Jim, when I read your letter to me in The News of last week. I know that you read my announcement some weeks ago on the latest ticket, viz: "The Frijole Ticket." As you are one who has long expressed sympathy for bean eaters I cannot understand why you come in and muddle the waters just when it was apparent that I was sailing along splendidly.

You ask me as a reader of The News to get a move on and tell you if I want you to run. In answer, will say that as you are one of these chronic runners, the way is open, and I had just as soon you were along with Tom Love and Barry Miller in the "Salt Creek" voyage I propose to assist you in taking just after the election, and if the craft upon which this voyage will be undertaken sinks with the whole of you in a whirlpool, it would not materially affect the future of Texas.

You will labor under great difficulties, Jim, in this race while I will have no handicap of former campaigns. You were new when you got into office on that land tenant plank, which every jackleg lawyer knew was unconstitutional, and you had not organized that "American party" nor had you sawed wood for Ma as governor. And now all these things will be brought up against you, especially that wood sawing because much of it is still fresh in matters political; while I, as the avowed standard bearer of the Frijole Party, pledge to wear Wild Cat overalls and only serve one term, will have something entirely new because I will absolutely retire and begin growing turnip greens after living on four thousand per for two years. You, Jim, will, in all probability, keep your tongue out running till you collapse.

Now, Jim, if you just must run like I have seen "purps" with what they call "running fits," why, then change your name slightly. For instance, "Jaymes Fergersin," or "Fames Jugeson," pour the hot air to the "deer peepul" about how one cent a gallon saved on gasoline will put money in their pockets and the highway department still be able to buy chat in Oklahoma to finish our roads. And say, Jim, that the penitentiary would be entirely too full for the convenience and comfort of the convicts if it were not that Dan keeps about a "steenth" of them out on parole, would be a good one for you to stress because you know you are credited with great benevolence toward the convicts when you were doing the woodwork for Ma.

Your tobacco tax idea is o.k., Jim; but beware of putting Brown Mule chewing tobacco on any tax list, because it is a favorite brand of mine and lots of those barefoot country boys, Barry Miller thinks are without educational opportunities, were fetched up on Brown Mule that they had filched from their daddies' trouser pockets. There is not a living lover of this tobacco who would not fight a stack of wildcats forty feet high before they would cease to adorn the left side of their faces with the stain of its juice. I am "agin" spinach, Jim, but I really fear to offer even it as a substitute for taxation. How would it do to tax the K. K. K.'s? or if they were too scarce just levy a heavy one on those Hoovercrats because if you were to secure the nomination there would be plenty of them show up at the election to produce a lot of lucre.

Now, if all those jersey cows and other assets you possess are not sufficient to bring you a sustenance, why don't you investigate the office of justice of the peace in Austin. I am told that many holding this office in the cities pocket more than $4,000, the amount a governor is supposed to "pull down."

Let me hear from you again soon, as I do not take the Forum.

P. S.—Jim, if you should decide to withdraw please do not endorse me for I think such action would cost me fifty thousand votes cool off the bat.

41,785 ALIENS ADMITTED TO UNITED STATES IN AUGUST

Washington, D. C.—Of the 41,785 aliens admitted to this country in August of this year, 22,778 were immigrants, more than half of whom were from Europe, according to a statement issued by the Bureau of Immigration, Department of Labor. Germany continued to lead all other countries, with 2,301 immigrants.

Although the total number of immigrants for August is an increase of 2,710 over the July total, it is 1,861 less than the number admitted during the corresponding period of 1928.

ARE YOU INTERETED IN HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM?

As the high school football season draws toward a close, the thought comes as to whether the season has been a failure or a success. Have the boys made an honest effort, or have they loafed through the grid battles?

Thus far the Bronchos have won four games, tied one and lost two. The two losses were the inevitable outcome from playing two real football machines, and were not due to a "white feather" in the Broncho corral. There are four more games to be played between now and Thanksgiving Day. Next Monday (Armistice Day), the team will go to Rankin. Three games will be played at home. Miles will come here on Nov. 15; Rocksprings on Nov. 23 and Eldorado on Thanksgiving Day. The Bronchos expect to win the remaining games, which will give a total of eight wins and one tie out of eleven conflicts.

This seemingly successful season is a joy to the school, since victory has been so noticeable by its absence for the past five years since Butler's production.

There is one little worry, however, connected with this great season. That is the financial side. Last Saturday there was a gate receipt of $43.75, leaving a net profit of $2.75 after expenses were paid. There was a net loss darkening the sky on the day when Kerrville invaded our city.

It will be a great relief to the financial condition if the entire population of Sonora will come out to see the last three games of this season. The boys have worked hard and unselfishly for that keen pleasure of producing a team of which the school and the town may be proud. The team deserves the patronage of all.

In these last games, in which several of the boys are wearing the Broncho uniforms for the last time, it is hoped that the entire town will turn out with the old enthusiasm and "pep" that makes the boys put up a real fight! Make them feel that their efforts are appreciated. They are your boys and they hope you are behind them.

Don't forget the next game—3:30 p. m., Friday, November 15.—Contributed.

WHO IS TO BLAME

This is a true story that happened in a town in Iowa.

A man entered a store and made a small purchase. As the merchant was wrapping it up for him the customer pointed to a package under his arm and said:

"I wonder if you would mind wrapping this up a little better for me? It got kinda damaged in shipping."

"Not at all," said the merchant.

"What have you been getting?"

"Some kind of patented salt I've been reading about in the farm magazines," replied the customer. "It was announced in an advertisement the other day that they had just got in a carload and were selling it at a special price in 10-pound lots so I sent for some of it to try it out. It's something new, I guess, and I've never seen any of it, but I thought I'd try it out on this special offer."

"What did it cost you?" queried the storekeeper. The customer told him.

"Huh!" snorted the storekeeper. "Special, my eye! They just hooked you, that's all. I have it right here and sell it every day at ten cents a pound less and you don't have to take it in ten-pound lots either."

"The deuce you say!" returned the customer. "Don't that beat all? I've been reading of it in the farm papers quite a while and thinking I'd try some, but I didn't know where to get it until I read it in an ad the other day, and then I sat right down and sent in my order."

"Better try buying at home next time," announced the proprietor a little acidly, as he handed him the re-wrapped package. "You'd saved a dollar on this."

"Thanks for the advice," returned his customer with his hand on the door latch. "Now let me give you some. You better try advertising what you have to sell and at what price. I'd have bought it a long time ago from you if I'd known you carried it, but you just sat back and waited for me to come in and buy it."

"The advertisement told me they had it, and I bought from them. Probably a lot more of your customers did the same, and I don't see that you can blame them if they did. When a business house lets me know it has something I want I am going to buy it from them instead of going some place else to ask if they have it. If you don't care enough for your customers to inform them what you have to sell you'll continue losing business too, tended to others."—Exchange.

Sunday School Classes Entertained Saturday

Teachers of the primary department of the Methodist Sunday School entertained the children of that department Saturday afternoon with a Hallowe'en party in their class room at the church. The room was especially decorated, and the children came in costumes making quite a gay scene as well as occasion.

After several games, piano numbers and readings given by the children, refreshments of apples and cookies were served.

For the past four Sundays, this department of the school has received the banner for attendance. We are well pleased at the work being done and the interest shown by pupils.

Those present Saturday afternoon were: Rena Glen Shurley, Nadine McCalmont, Wynona Hutcherson, Katherine Brown, Warren Reddock, Ardelle McCalmont, Thelma Barrows, Robbie Joe Wyatt, Libby Joe Wallace, Geo. D. Wallace, Jimmie Langford, Doris McDaniel, Ira Archer, Lillian Glasscock, Clayton and Wayne White, Billy and Bobby Crowley, Viola Barrows, Emma Lou and Elma Lee Logan, Wayne and Margaret Chipman, S. H. Stokes, Jack Shurley, Wilma Hutcherson, Bertha Joe Glasscock, and Margaret Sandherr.

Teachers present were: Mesdames Joe Logan, Tom Sandherr, Chipman, Lowrey and Merton Shurley.

Visitors present: Mesdames Crowley, McCalmont, Reddock, G. W. Logan and Neal Roueche.

This department of our Sunday School is open to all children between the ages of six and nine years and who do not attend another Sunday School. We will be glad to have new pupils or visitors each Sunday at 9:45.—Reporter.

O. S. T. Motorcade Pleased With Sonora

The motorcade party over the Old Spanish Trail sends word to Sonora that they appreciated the warm-hearted greetings gave and that they were sorry some of the Sonora people did not follow on with them to California. At San Diego they directed Herral Ayres to give this message to Sonora. Frequently on the motorcade, he says, someone would speak of the Sonora greetings. They looked for friendly hospitality at the luncheons or night dinners, but Sonora's delegation that came all the way to Junction first warmed their hearts, then they saw that arch at the Sutton county line and wanted to get photographs but couldn't stop. Then the greeting at Sonora where they all could meet one another, and the attentions the committee gave, showed what West Texas friendliness was and they did not forget it.

Its a long gruelling drive across this continent, Herral Ayres points out. With all the comforts the constant schedule is a task. Some of the cars spent a month, averaging 200 miles daily before they arrived home again. The San Antonio party was out 19 days and drove 3,760 miles. The charming friendliness of West Texas, he says, was all he knew it would be. Not only Sonora but Junction, Ozona and Fort Stockton extended big-hearted western friendliness.

Ozona Lions Club Entertains Visitors

One hundred and eight people, Linos, their wives, visitors and local citizens of Ozona, attended the second inter-city Lions get-together meeting at Ozona Thursday night. District Deputy M. M. Fullmer, president of the Ozona Lions, presided.

A well planned and intensely interesting program was carried out. Prof. J. L. Bishop, superintendent of the Ozona Public Schools, welcomed the visiting members and guests. He said that Ozona and the Lions club were happy to have with them citizens and fellow Lions of neighboring towns, and those of Ozona who were not members of the Lions club.

W. E. Caldwell, president of the Sonora Lions club, and who headed a delegation of sixteen Sonora Lions and citizens, responded to the address of welcome. Lion Caldwell made it plain that the Sonora delegates were glad to be present, and stated that those who had on former occasions been guests of Ozona, knew just what to expect; and if the present entertainment equalled former ones, Ozona's guests were in for a royal time. Sonora's sixteen representatives received hearty applause when they arose to be introduced by Lion Fullmer.

T. A. Kincaid, president of the Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association made a short talk spiced with a great deal of humor which was responsible for much merriment.

W. E. James, of Sonora, addressed the assembly, taking as a subject "An Old Wagon Wheel." Lion James built the wheel from the hub out, likening its construction to the standing of a town and community in relationship to public institutions, the whole being bound together with ties of love and brotherly feeling. The part to be played by Lionism in support of the different institutions was stressed by the speaker. Activities of various Lions clubs over the United States was cited as examples of how local clubs could keep their wagon wheel in good working condition. Lion James localized the subject by relating a few of the accomplishments of the Sonora club in relation to public welfare. In an after comment, Lion Fullmer tersely told of the activities of the Ozona club. He stated that much food for thought had been presented by the story of "An Old Wagon Wheel," and said the Ozona Lions would make use of suggestions contained therein.

Lion Swinney, vice-president of the Ozona club, made the closing speech. His subject was "Personal Responsibility." His address was very interesting and brought a realization to each individual of a responsibility to his fellowman heretofore known but lightly passed upon. Lion Swinney has been requested to make this same speech in Sonora at some future time.

Lions and visitors were entertained by instrumental selections by Miss Riddle and Mrs. Fuller, and two readings by Miss Cox, which were heartily encored. A mixed quartette from Sonora, composed of Misses Groom and Frances and Messrs. Roe and R. C. Hill, rendered "Santa Lucia" in a highly pleasing manner. As an encore the quartette sang "Annie Laurie."

The following Lions and visitors from Sonora were in attendance: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. James, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gilmore and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Niel; Misses Groom, Frances, Swanson; Messrs. Roe, Hill, M. C. Puckett and H. L. Taylor.

Mrs. Lowrey Hostess to Missionary Society

Mrs. J. D. Lowrey was hostess to the Methodist Missionary Society of the Methodist church Wednesday evening at her home. The meeting was opened with the song "Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus."

Invocation, Rev. F. M. Jackson. Increase in attendance and the addition of six new members this quarter is very encouraging. The mission study, "The Roads to the City of God" led by Mrs. Lem Johnson, is more interesting with each lesson. Mrs. Johnson showed four posters, representing how four nations had been freed from bondage by the Christian religion. The business session was conducted by the President, Mrs. E. E. Sawyer.

It was decided to have a Christmas sale December 14. There will be many nice things for Christmas gifts on display.

A sausage sale will be held Saturday, November 16.

The society will meet in prayer service with Mrs. Lem Johnson next Thursday and with Mrs. Ira Shurley Wednesday.

W. L. Davis presented the society with a $25 check which was greatly appreciated. — Reporter.

CALLS ON RED CROSS INCREASE; RESPONSE TO ROLL CALL URGED

Society's Activities Reach Millions Each Year—Chairman Payne Asks Generous Support in Membership.

Disaster relief work, service to disabled veterans and their families, public health work and its many other activities caused expenditures of $11,064,000 by the American Red Cross for the year ended June 30, 1929, according to the annual report of the organization.

This work by the Red Cross is supported by the annual Roll Call for members, which is held from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day, November 11 to 28.

Directing attention to the heavy expenditures by the Red Cross during the past year, and to the fact that the organization was called upon for assistance in 120 disasters in the United States and its insular possessions, Judge John Barton Payne, the chairman, said:

"The Red Cross is a volunteer society, supported by its membership, and belongs to all of the citizens. While it is a semi-governmental agency in that the President of the United States is its president, and one-third of its governing board are representatives of Government departments, yet it receives no financial support from the Government.

"Funds for our work for war veterans and their families, for carrying on disaster relief, for our varied health activities, the life saving and first aid work and our many other activities, all are derived from the membership fee. The public is asked only once each year—at the Annual Roll Call—to join in this support of the Red Cross."

The Red Cross expended an average of $936,000 per year in the past seven years, in disaster relief work from its own treasury, statements show. The work for world war veterans also has caused heavy expenditures.

VERY LATEST

Who could venture into the new season without a velvet frock? For daytime as well as evening, transparent velvet drapes most flatteringly into the new long-limbed lines.

The dress illustrated is of transparent velvet, and presents the new waistline, slenderizing mode. The new features are the flare skirt, the uneven hem and the fitted hip. The dip on the skirt is a distinguishing feature also. This "new silhouette" is bound for great popularity.

There are too, those who advocate the new silhouette in the high shades of chiffon.

The tailored suit, for which the ensemble has never become quite a substitute, is popular this Autumn. The overblouse is the significant detail in some new fashions. It is emphasized by the use of splendid fabrics, with beautiful needlework and interesting designs. They play into the ensemble effect by matching the coat lining.

No less than 270 shades have been chosen by manufacturers for gloves for this season's output. Among these shades, the rich beige, brown, tan and silica tones are outstanding as are also the novelty colors, a new green, red, and blue. Much detail work is apparent in all the new gloves. The new styles include the one-button type; the slip-on, in styles with a strap to hold them securely about the wrists, or with a single button or two or three buttons; and the perfectly plain type with either straight or pinked tops. The gauntlet gloves are being brought out in striking styles with fine detail work.

Made of very ornate sections with open-work designs and enamel insets in bright colors, there is a new flexible watch bracelet having a clasp of its own for fastening. In the center the sections have special hinges to allow the wearer to remove the watch without taking off the bracelet. The bracelets are made of white metal.

Dancing Stars to Appear in Angelo

San Angelo, Nov. 6.—West Texans have a treat in store in San Angelo the evening of Friday, November 8, when the internationally-known dancing stars, Ruth St. Denis and Ted Shawn, make their appearance at the Municipal Auditorium, this being one of the few Texas cities included on the tour.

The world renowned masters of the dance are to open the 1929-30 Standard-Times concert series, which includes, later in the season, personal appearances of Paderewski, Gallucurci and Will Rogers.

Accompanied by a symphonic quartet, under the direction of Sol Cohen, Miss St. Dennis and Mr. Shawn are to present a varied program of solo and duet dances on the San Angelo program.

The West Texas audience at San Angelo will see in Miss St. Dennis and Mr. Shawn a pair of dancers who have built up unprecedented fame on the stage of this country and they have just completed a trip around the world, during which they received acclaim such as has been awarded no other dancers. The two are well known to the American public, touring the country many times with their famous Deishawn troupe. Recently they have been specializing in a solo and duet program, and eastern critics have been unanimous in declaring the program is much improved as the work of the two artists is more cleverly evident.

Because of San Angelo's new auditorium having such a large seating capacity, plenty of seats will be available until the last minute. It is surprising that the most expensive seat in the house sells for $2.50, this being made possible because of the large number of seats which can be sold. The new auditorium, in other words, has made possible the bringing of such attractions to West Texas.

Armistice Day

The beautiful symbol of the Unknown Soldier . . . the memory of the long, bitter struggle . . . the loss of loved ones . . . these things overwhelm us on Armistice Day with an emotion too strong to express. Our anguish over the dreadful conflict is assuaged by our joy at its cessation, and we feel confident that the stemming of the torrent on that memorable day in 1918 presaged a future of international harmony and peace.

"There Is No Substitute for Safety"

A MISSTATEMENT YOU SHOULD INSTANTLY

CHALLENGE!

One of the favorite resources of the tire dealer who has an inferior product to sell is the time-worn misstatement "All tires are about alike." It is his interest to have you believe that; otherwise he rarely could make a sale. Is there, however, any truth in the claim? Has it ever been true?

It would be strange indeed—if "all tires are about alike"—that one tire consistently should set the pace year after year for the march of the whole industry. It would be even stranger—if "all tire are about alike"—that one tire against the vigorous competition of all others steadily should sweep into a position of indubitable dominance.

It would be even yet more strange—if "all tires are about alike"—that one tire should so succeed to public confidence and favor that last year its percentage of gain in sales recorded nearly three times the percentage of gain in sales recorded for the industry as a whole. Yet one tire has done all these things—and that tire is the Goodyear Tire! That is why Goodyear, a comparatively young enterprise, has grown to be the largest rubber company in the world.

Challenge the dealer who seeks to get your good money on the specious idea that "all tires are about alike." They may be priced about alike, but there the resemblance ends. We will demonstrate to you the superiority of a Goodyear both in tread and carcass—the two main parts of a tire.
