OPEN MIND

To the readers of the Devil:

Now that the governor's race is coming to a close and the people are confronted with the task of choosing the next chief executive of our great state we wish to ask our friends to give the candidacy of the Hon. James Young of Kaufman their careful consideration. We have known Jim Young almost all our lives. He was born and reared in the same county that we were born. He served as Congressman from our old home district in East Texas for 10 years and we believe that the records will bear us out in a statement that Texas never had a better representative in Congress than Jim Young. The fact that all of his old colleagues in congress are supporting him for governor is ample of this assertion.

We don't think that any man has ever offered himself as a candidate for governor of this state that was better fitted to be governor than is Jim Young. Often men run for office that are able men but are not good men and often good men that are not able men. Not many times will we ever see one of our cleanest men and one of our ablest men combined in one man as is the case with Jim Young.

To those who see fit to vote for James Young for governor we will consider it a special favor.

The percentage of increase in these western states—Texas, Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Utah, Nevada, Idaho, Washington, Oregon, California, and South Dakota—9.5 over 1929 as against an 8 per cent increase for the nation and amounts to approximately 1,600,000 head and was due both to a larger number of ewes and to higher percentage lamb crops in most states. All of the western states show more lambs than in 1929 except Texas, in which there is a slight decrease.

Texas stands first in the number of breeding ewes with 3,163,000 as against Montana's 3,011,000 the next largest number. However, Texas had only 62 percent lamb crop as against an average of 81 percent with the result that the estimated number of lambs docked in Texas is but 1,961,000. This puts Texas fourth in number of lambs. California is first with 2,471,000; Montana, second, 2,439,000; Wyoming third, 2,050,000.

The 1930 crop of lambs in the western states is 7.5 per cent larger than the 1928 crop, and about 20 per cent larger than the crop of 1927.

Breeding Ewes Increase

With the beginning of 1930 there were about 23,157,000 ewes one year old and over in this group of states. This was about 800,000 more than inventories showed a year earlier. During the last three years the number of breeding ewes in the range sheep states has increased about 3,800,000 head or nearly 20 percent. Present holdings of yearling ewes are more than ample to fill normal replacement needs in flocks this fall, but further immediate expansion in breeding stock is not expected.

least find out if advertising will do our product any good or not and, in my opinion, may call the attention of the Government to where our trouble really is."

We are in receipt of a letter from our member, Mr. B. H. Willis of Beaumont, Texas, from which we quote as follows:

"Mr. Seth Brown, who is a member of the association and runs a market at Devers, Texas, some days ago put out a sign, 'choice cuts reduced from 42c to 28c'. He tells me he has had just as much money passing through the cash register as ever and the only difference is that there is a little more work attached to it for the same money, but the people are consuming a lot more meat. That substantiates my contention exactly that if the price is reduced it will result in the people buying a lot more meat."

We are in receipt of a telegram from Mr. Leon Goodman, who is a cattleman in the Midland country and president of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, which we quote as follows:

"Through consistent declines past ninety days livestock prices have reduced ruinous levels occasioned by packers' contention of over supply all meat animals. If Farm Board has power to purchase wheat, cotton, other commodities to stabilize markets and care for over supply then livestock growers entitled to same protection. Urge you aid livestock producer by seeing they secure same protection as other producers through Farm Board. Comparatively small amount of money efficiently expended by Government at this time in purchase of meat products would stabilize markets and save thousands who face certain ruin under existing conditions."

Swift and Company has furnished us with beef prices to Fort Worth trade on April 1st and July 1st, which are as follows:

	April 1	July 1
Choice yearling steers and heifers	22 1/4	18 3-4
Medium and good yearling steers, heifers	20 1/2	17 3-4
Fair and plain yearling steers and heifers	17 3-4	13 3-4
Common to fair yearling steers and heifers	16	10
Heavy steers, similar to cake fed	18 1/2	14
Medium to good cows	15	9 1/2
Fair cows	14 1/2	8 1/2

We are furnishing you the above, thinking it will be of interest to you.

The writer attended the annual meeting of the National Livestock and Meat Board which was held in Chicago on the 26th and 27th of June. A copy of the annual report of the Board will be sent you from the Chicago office.

The board members discussed the present cattle market situation at length. Mr. White, president of Armour & Company, advised that his company was sending out 150,000 letters calling attention to the supply of meat and reduction in wholesale prices. His letter urged retailers to push the sale of meat at these reduced prices. Mr. Carey, chairman of the board, issued a statement, copy of which is enclosed herewith. It's felt that if the consuming public could be fully advised of the situation that they could bring about a reduction of retail prices and that would materially assist in the movement of supplies which are now on hand.

On Monday, June 30th, the writer met M. F. E. Mollin, secretary of the American National Livestock Association, in Kansas City, where both testified in the hearing being held by the Packers and Stock Yards Administration to determine the reasonableness of yardage and feed charges at Kansas City. The Administration is holding hearings at various places on the charges at the various stock yards. We took the position that members of the association pay large sums each year in yardage and feed charges and that they are interested in knowing whether or not such charges are reasonable.

Carey's Statement

"The fact that meat now is available in abundance at unusually low wholesale prices, which in some instances have not been equaled in a number of years, should prove beneficial not only to the consumer but to the livestock and meat industry as well.

"Adjustment of the present price levels and otherwise encouraging a larger volume of meat business will have the desired effect. The retail business should exert every effort in this direction.

"The wholesale price of beef not only is low, but the quantity of beef available at the present time is larger than at any time for the past four years and cattle supplies are on the increase. The wholesale price is approximately twenty-five per cent below the figure of a year ago.

"The wholesale price of lamb in recent months experienced a similar decline, reaching its lowest large volumes of lamb available for level of the last ten years, with the market and pork, likewise, has shown a downward trend.

"Such a depression in wholesale meat prices should prove to be a boon to consumers, and if they are familiarized with the situation there is no question that they will take advantage of it to the fullest extent, for, as is well known, we Americans are a great meat eating people. It remains, then, for the livestock and meat industry to call the public's attention to the facts for the mutual benefit of all concerned."

The Devil's Dream (By W. E. James)

Around the bend
The big boat will glide—
Hop right in an'
We'll all take a ride.

At about eleven o'clock tomorrow night the boat will set sail for one more trip up "Salt River." From all indications the load of human freight and blasted hopes will be the heaviest ever going over the saline route. At least 9 candidates for governor will be aboard the fast sailing vessel, to say nothing of the number of lesser lights headed up-stream.

Sutton county will probably have three aboard the old boat bound for head-waters. Just how comfortable those candidates feel who have no opponents is not known, but we surmise they are in a happy mood with nothing to worry about except the high price of groceries and the scarcity of other things not openly sold on the market.

The election here bids fair to be a quiet one. Very little campaigning is going on with practically no heated arguments. Sterling's 350 million bond issue and "Ma's" ability to govern Texas without Jim's assistance have the lead, while a majority of straw votes point to honest Jim Young as the choice of Sutton county for governor.

The fever-heat of the local contest seems to be centering around the sheriff's race. The three candidates, all good men, are going about their campaign in a quiet, orderly manner without a word of disapproval for the other's methods or merits. Nothing so strains the loyalty or tries the friendship of closely associated citizens as a political race, but in the instance of our homefolks it seems to be "may the best man win," and when he gets installed behind the mahogany, we'll all step up and congratulate him, and say, "we're with you, old hoss, go to it." That's the spirit that gets a fellow there and back.

Go to the polls tomorrow and vote according to the dictates of your own conscience, and then, win or lose, you will have done your duty and proved your loyalty to cause and country. What more can a good citizen do on election day?

Four days of next week—Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday—will be camping days for the Boy Scouts of Sonora and adjoining towns. Camp will be pitched on the Llano River at Camp Allison. All activities will be under direction of Scout Executive B. W. Draper of San Angelo. Mr. Draper will bring with him a crack team of Scouts who will give demonstrations of Scoutcraft at the First National Bank on the evening of August first. All parents of Boy Scouts are requested to be present and if possible bring along one or two neighbors to witness the ceremonies. Over at Ft. Stockton a similar demonstration was held recently at which over 2,000 people were in attendance. Scout has gone over big in that section and should be as thoroughly sold in Sonora and Sutton county. Let's turn out in large numbers and show our boys and their guests we know how to appreciate the Boy Scout movement in the Ranch District of the Concho Valley Council.

Two-Gun Ike was in town yesterday after supply parts for a well drilling machine. He stated to a News reporter that he had started one of the biggest jobs he had ever undertaken since the day he tried to catch a neighbor's "domineer" rooster. Mr. Ike ("Mr." since he made his "pile") states that if his project goes through it will be one of the greatest blessings that ever came Sonora's way. It will be a profound miracle, coming as it will from the headwaters of Dry Devil's River. His idea, as explained to us, is to drill a well right where Dry Devil's River comes out from under the hill on the Lone Goat Ranch. He says he will go down until the bit strikes—not liquid gold, but—artesian water which is to be turned into the river bed. The effect of such a miracle can be readily felt by every citizen of Sonora and the ranchmen along the banks of the stream. There will be water in abundance, stocked with the finest fish to be had; livestock need never suffer for lack of a thirst quencher, and the parched land will smile again and bring forth fruits in great numbers, in fact, boun-

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MET AT CHURCH

The Methodist Missionary Society met at the church Wednesday, July 23. Having finished all studies for which credits are given, the society took up the study of the Bible under the supervision and instruction of the pastor, Rev. F. M. Jackson. The Book of Acts was discussed at this meeting. A very interesting and instructive hour was passed. The Book of Romans will be discussed at the next meeting, parts having been assigned to each member.

The third zone meeting of this year was held at Christoval yesterday. Among the number from Sonora in attendance were: Mesdames Geo. Hamilton, J. D. Lowrey, C. E. Stites, Lem Johnson, A. J. Smith, Ira Shurley and daughter, and Misses Gertrude Babcock, Annella Stites and Faye James.

S. J. R. No. 2 PROPOSING A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON NOVEMBER 4, 1930

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas, that Art. V of the Constitution of Texas shall be amended by adding a new section to be known as Section 3a, to read as follows:

"Section 3a. The Supreme Court may sit at any time during the year at the seat of government for the transaction of business and each term thereof shall begin and end with each calendar year."

Section 2. That Section 3 of Art. V of the Constitution of Texas shall be amended by repealing the sentence of said section which reads: "The Supreme Court shall sit for the transaction of business from the first Monday in October in each year until the last Saturday in June of the next year, inclusive, at the Capitol of the State."

Section 3. If the Constitution shall not have been previously amended so as to provide that the Supreme Court shall be open at all times, then, in that event the foregoing Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State, at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1930.

tiful will be the crops, irrigated as they will be from the once arid stream. Two-Gun says there is no need for alarm over the thought of flood waters drowning out the town as in the days when the river ran wild. He has arranged for a flood-gate which can be operated by little power. This gate may be thrown on and off, giving as much or as little water as may be needed to keep the water within banks. An issue of stock certificates will likely be placed with the Lions Club for sale at an early date, or to be exact, as soon as Mr. Ike proves beyond a doubt his ability to drill a straight hole one thousand feet. The splendid price received for his goat hair, he says, assures the drill going down to that depth.

In September, 1882, at historic old Fort Terrett, he was married to Miss Mattie A. Smith. Six years later, with his father-in-law he came to Sutton county to begin drilling water wells. His wells were among the first in this section. He did this work four years.

In 1883 he had a desperate conflict with a huge panther. At the Bell Hollow Spring, now a point on the Old Spanish Trail, he was watering sheep when the panther jumped on one of the animals. He knocked it off with a pole and then had a hand-to-hand fight with the beast, finally killing it. He bore large scars on his arms where the animal tore the flesh. His shirt was torn into threads during the struggle.

In 1898 he again started to drilling wells and passed into the twentieth century boring the earth for water wells. He did this through 1901. He then bought sheep and was engaged in the ranching business until 1908, when he opened a blacksmith shop in Sonora. While doing this work his health failed and he stopped this work.

In 1917 he served as deputy sheriff under Sheriff B. W. Hutcherson. He served in this capacity for five and a half years. He also served in 1923 as city marshal here.

Pall bearers were Joe F. Logan, Ed Glasscock, B. W. Hutcherson, Ed. C. Mayfield, J. D. Lowrey and Roy Hudspeth.
