Sonorans may well expect to be called on by a group of young salesmen earning prizes by selling subscriptions to the Devil's River News. Tuesday at 8:30 the first young man, John Schnase, appeared and before the day was over the group grew to nine.

Boys and girls are eligible to sell, and new subscriptions are worth 130 points while renewals are worth 65. The coupons earned are redeemable at Home Hardware and Furniture, and 130 points are worth $1.30 in purchasing power on most items in the store.

John Schnase was in the lead Wednesday, and Taylor Jones and Pablo Romero were close behind.

If you buy your paper at the newsstand now is a good time to subscribe, save money, and do a favor for an energetic salesman. If you already subscribe, then a subscription for a friend or relative is a nice remembrance. The contest is still open. If your son or daughter would like to earn prizes by selling subscriptions have them come by the News office.

Senate Lauds Jubilee

The Senate of Texas congratulated the people of Sonora and Sutton County on the celebration of the Diamond Jubilee in a resolution adopted May 21. The resolution proposed by Senator Dorsey Hardeman cites the Diamond Jubilee as a tribute to the early settlers "who braved the frontier hardships" as they moved Texas civilization farther westward and expresses appreciation for "the public spirited citizens of that area who have planned this observance to perpetuate a part of Texas heritage."

Noting that Sonora was an early trading center on the San Antonio-El Paso Road, the resolution tells of the early founding of the E. F. Vander Stucken general store.

Other historical background in the resolution states that "Sutton County was created in 1887, and was named for John S. Sutton, See Senate, Page 8

Wool House, Lions Club Cited at 4-H Roundup

The Sonora Wool and Mohair Company and the Sonora Lions Club were jointly honored at College Station on Tuesday evening at the opening session of the Texas 4-H Roundup. Five other Texas business concerns and organizations were also recognized by the Texas 4-H Youth Development Foundation—all for their support and contributions to 4-H over a period of years. Each was presented a specially designed plaque by the Foundation.

Calvin T. Johnson, Dallas, chairman of the Foundation, cited honorees from Sonora for their outstanding record of supporting 4-H programs. For 27 years, he said, they have co-sponsored the Sonora Wool and Mohair Show. The junior wool and mohair judging contest was the first of its kind held in the nation and con-

28th Wool, Mohair Show Scheduled Here June 8-10

The 28th Annual Wool and Mohair Show featuring the National 4-H Wool Judging contest will officially begin at 5 p.m. Tuesday, when all entries of wool and mohair must be in the warehouse of the Sonora Wool and Mohair Company.

Also on Tuesday, judging contestants will be registered and grouped. The show, which will run from June 8-10, is an all-Texas show for 4-H Clubs, F.F.A. chapters, and adult producers and includes junior wool, mohair, range, sheep, and goat judging.

The show will be highlighted Thursday with the National 4-H Wool Judging Contest. Counties from Texas with teams qualifying to enter this contest are San Saba, Kendall, Sutton, McCollough, and Edwards. The Sutton County team members are Kerry Joy, Rick Street, Tim Thorp, and Mark Rousselot.

At 10 a.m. Thursday, the El Dorado Woolens, Inc. will present their new wool and mohair products to participants in the show and all other persons interested. The climaxing event of the show will be the presentation of the awards at the Sonora Lions Club luncheon at the Sonora Elementary School cafeteria at 11:30 a.m.

Sponsored by the Sonora Lions Club, the purpose of this annual show is to encourage a thorough knowledge of range vegetation, production of profitable livestock, profitable production and preparation of wool and mohair, and to sponsor a type of club work applicable to the ranch area.

Each year since 1949 Sutton County's 4-H Club has received the trophy as best all-around club until last year when Bandera County won this honor. Sutton County has seven times been overall high team at the show.

In 1963's competition, John Paul Friess was named the winner of the Joe Berger Memorial Award as the premier exhibitor of the show. Last year Frank Craddock of Bandera County won this honor. Other junior grand champions were Ricky Powell of Menard, single fleece of wool, and Ray Glasscock, bag of wool. In the adult division for the second year the grand champion fleece of wool was exhibited by Melinda Earwood, and the Grand Champion bag of wool was shown by her father, Armer Earwood.

Also in 1964, trophies for Grand Champion mohair fleeces went to Hicks and Pember of Bandera in the adult division and to Adele Wright of Llano in the junior division. The Bandera County 4-H Club won the livestock, mohair, and range management judging contests last year, while the Ozona team won the wool judging contest. The San Saba 4-H Club team won the National Wool Judging contest.

Group leaders for this year's show are Gene Wallace, chairman, George Wallace, R. W. Wallace, Bill Morris, Preston Love, Glen Richardson, Philip Jacoby, Lin Hicks, Hensel Matthews, Bill Savell, and Billy Galbreath.

The Sutton County 4-H senior range judging team composed of Kaye Ellis, Martha Love, Susan Allison, and Louis Wardlaw III, won first place in the senior division of the state 4-H Range Judging contest held at San Angelo College Saturday.

Kaye Ellis was the high point individual in the contest. Edgar Glasscock was the coach of the senior range team. The Sutton junior 4-H range team, composed of Tom Green, Roger Langford, Scott Jacoby, and Deborah Wardlaw, won the junior division of the range judging contest by outscoring all junior and senior range teams. W. F. Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Green was high individual, Jacoby tied for third high individual and Miss Wardlaw was fourth high individual. Mrs. Philip Jacoby was coach of the junior range team.

4-H Range Judges Win State Title

Kerry Joy, Rick Street, Tim Thorp, and Mark Rousselot, all members of the Sutton County junior wool and mohair judging team, placed fourth in the state 4-H Wool and Mohair contest. This win enables the team to qualify for the National Wool Judging contest to be held here during the 28th annual Wool and Mohair Show.

Bill Green, Mark Jacoby, Chris Frizzell, and Chris Berger competed in the senior division of the wool and mohair judging contests. Mrs. Jacoby, Mrs. Billy Green, W. F. Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Street, and D. C. Langford, county agent, attended the contests with the 4-H members.

Judges Win at Ozona

Again in the junior division, Sutton County's team No. 1 placed first in the range judging contest, while team No. 2 placed second. HELP WANTED

Under the Civil Rights Act of 1964, employers were forbidden to discriminate against job applicants on the basis of race, creed, color or sex. This section of the law goes into effect July 1. One portion of the new law in particular may cause some difficulty.

In advertising for job applicants, employers may not specify a preference for any particular race, color, creed or even sex. A broadcasting network, in a letter to its own personnel managers, warned that after July 1, for example, "you won't be able to specify 'female' if you should need a secretary."

Trying to visualize what want ads will sound like in the months ahead, the network came up with the following: "Help wanted: Person; must type and take shorthand; preferably one with long blond hair who uses lipstick, feels more at home in a dress..."

Failure To Send in Larvae Specimen Could Aid Screwworm Infection Spread

Screwworm eradication officials are becoming increasingly concerned over the decrease in total larvae specimens being submitted by Texas farmers and ranchers during this critical screwworm season.

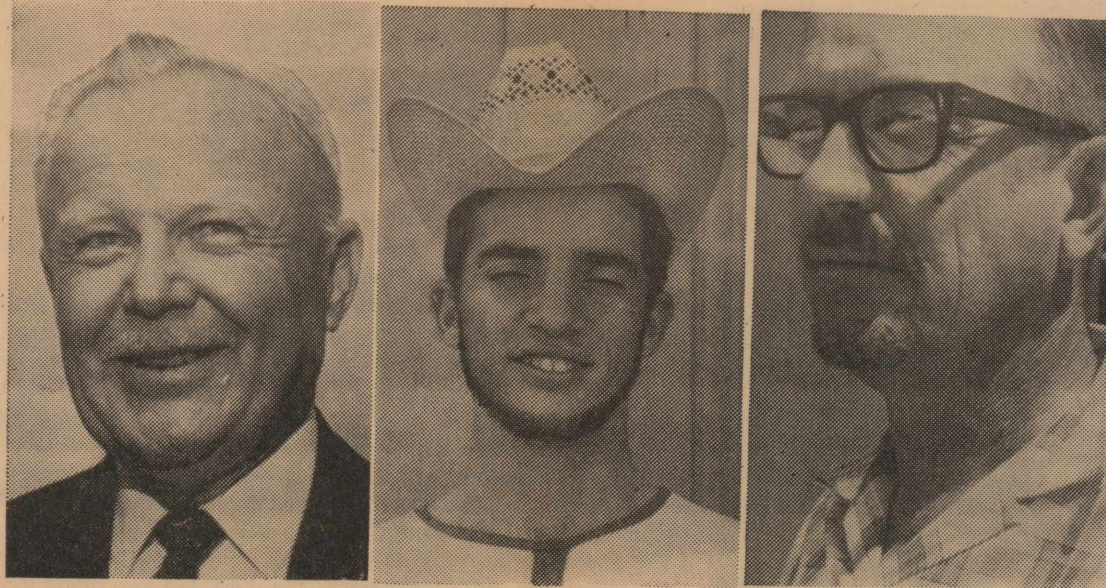

This past week's heavy rains and the promise of continued mild temperatures and moist conditions give rise to concern that screwworms could spread rapidly and not be detected until a self-sustaining population has already become established, officials say.

On the average, only two-thirds as many samples are being received now as in the past.

Officials say that while this may indicate that livestock producers have considerable faith in the sterile fly technique and the screwworm eradication program, it also indicates the failure of many stockmen to check their animals with regularity.

The fact that screwworms have once again been permitted to establish a foothold in South Texas is due in large measure to farmers and ranchers' failing to inspect their livestock, failing to treat wounds following castration, dehorning, shearing and marking, and failing to collect samples to send to the laboratory for identification, screwworm officials explained. They added that screwworms do not suddenly explode in an area unless there are a large number of attractive wounds for them to infest.

BY NOW YOU HAVE PROBABLY GUESSED who these beard growers are. But for those of you who can not recognize them because of their newly acquired decoration, they are from left to right John Eaton, Jerry Shurley Jr., and A. E. Prugel.

By Grady Roe
It was recently suggested to me by the esteemed editor of that fabled publication, the uh, er, uh, Devil's River News, that I write a weekly column for the Devil. This suggestion was readily accepted by the budding young columnist, although a grave mistake on the part of the esteemed editor. However, I have learned that a person must profit by other's mistakes, as well as by his own. So, this is a note of warning to the subscribers.

I felt that in this first laughingly called column we should get acquainted. I guess the best way to acquaint myself with you is by describing myself physically. Nobody can describe me mentally, since there is not enough to describe.

First, I have red hair. This is fine except that most folks think my hair is just embarrassed, and is really white.

Second, I am kind of thin. This is not so bad, except whenever I turn sideways I disappear, and I have a hard time in winds.

Third, I look like a movie star. Now, I bet you are thinking, "Count Dracula", but you are wrong. I'm a cross between Kirk Douglas, Rock Hudson, and Walter Brennan, but I'm mostly Brennan.

And, fourth, I am six feet, five inches tall. This is not so bad except for short beds, chandeliers, low-flying airplanes, and girls at dances who fog up my tie clip.

Now that you know me, I can start next week with my column. There's no telling what you can expect, but I shall return. (You know, some general should have used that in the war . . .).

IS&GRA Endorses Right-To-Work Law

The Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association endorses Section 14B of the Taft-Hartley Act, the so-called right-to-work law, says Gaylor Hankins of Rocksprings, president. He said the sheepmen's organization opposes repeal of this law.

He commended Texas Governor John Connally for his stand supporting the law, and the Texas House for its resolution asking that Section 14B remain on the books. The administration has called for repeal of this section.

"Along with the right to join a union should go a corollary right not to join a union," Hankins declared. "Where compulsory unionism is practiced, the individual loses his freedom of choice and self-determination."

He pointed out that much is being said these days about the rights of minorities, some of it by the very people who want to repeal Section 14B and take away the right of a minority not to be forced into a union against its will.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

BOOM!

A Kentucky judge, skeptical of the testimony of a scientific expert, recalled a story he had once heard from a lecturer:

"Take the bumblebee. Apply to him the recognized aerodynamic tests. From the size, shape and weight of his body, in relation to total wing area, he cannot possibly fly. But the bumblebee does not know this, and he goes ahead and flies anyway."

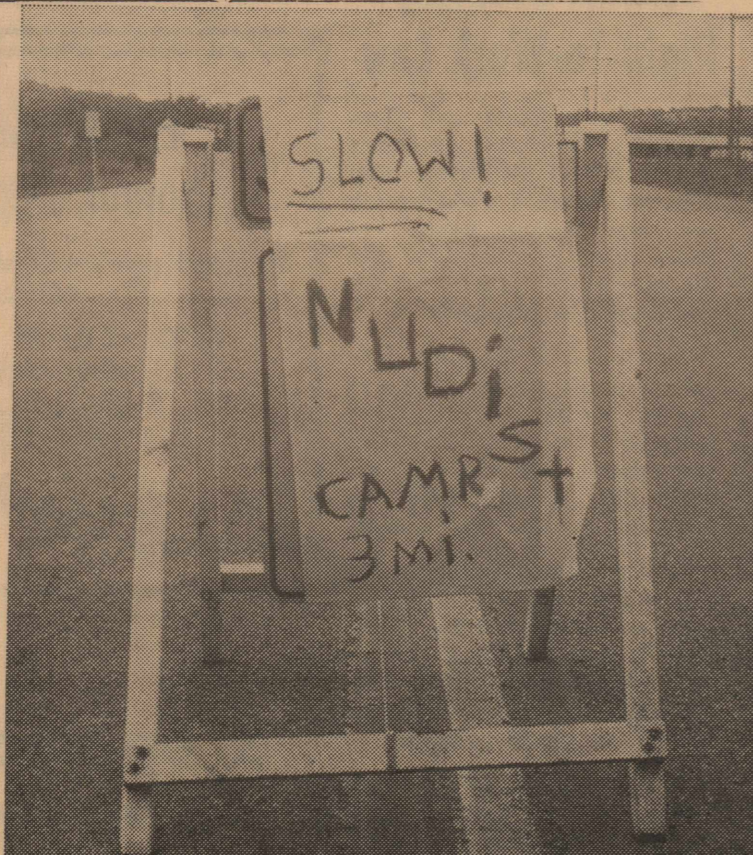

The story sheds light on a new troublemaker, the sonic boom. Experts, applying the recognized aerodynamic tests, predicted that the boom could not possibly cause extensive damage. But windows, not knowing this, went ahead and broke anyway. As supersonic flights multiplied, so did complaints about cracked plaster and shattered bric-a-brac. Rightly or wrongly, the boom was blamed for making a dog neurotic and a man arthritic, for rupturing a swimming pool and splitting a toilet bowl.

All this commotion raised some novel points of law that are still not settled. For example: When is it negligent for a pilot to break the sound barrier? Can you collect insurance for sonic boom damage if your policy protects you against "explosions"?

Luckily for most claimants, the United States Air Force stands ready to pay for the damage it causes—without quibbling about such technicalities. Air Force bases have set up regular procedures for handling claims.

However, the Air Force has no desire—indeed, no right—to pay for damage it does not cause. This is no easy road to government money. Every claim is meticulously investigated by a team of specialists before it is paid.

No doubt the problem will get worse when civilian airlines switch to supersonic jets. As an Air Force claims official put it to a group of insurance men:

A BIT DECEPTIVE was the sign that a few mischievous teenagers erected on the Ozona highway inside the Sonora city limits. One person remarked that he looked around for something that was nude and the only thing he found was sheep—even they had on some wool.

"You ain't seen nothin' yet." But for the present, the problem has been kept within reasonable bounds. Pilots are carefully schooled in holding sonic booms to a minimum. And citizens are coming to realize that the booms are caused not by hot-rodgers in the sky but by vital defense training. The message is getting across that the boom is a boon in disguise, that this man-made thunder is not the irksome sound of mischief but the reassuring sound of security.

YOUR MINISTER SAYS

By the Rev. Arno Melz
Pastor, Hope Lutheran Church
"For what is man profited if he gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?" Matthew 16:26

Several years ago a magazine article carried pictures and stories of the ten richest men in the world. The sum of money, property and other investments these men owned was quite impressive. Those who measure success by wealth may have remarked if only I were rich what all I could do.

In this and following articles I will tell you how you can become rich. You will perhaps not have great piles of money, but you will have wealth in the peace, happiness and the final hope of living with Jesus when you leave this earth.

To gain this wealth you need only accept Jesus as your Savior and make whatever sacrifices necessary to be His follower. The sacrifices required of us are simply giving our time to hear His Word, giving our talents to spread His Word, and giving our treasures to support His Word.

Jesus asks so little and gives so much in return.

To give our time to follow Jesus is a good investment because we can gain so much. In our Scripture text the question is asked, what would you gain if you were active in all the clubs, societies and gatherings of our community, but did not have time to hear God's Word? You would gain popularity and prestige at the most, but you would lose your soul.

The redeeming of our soul from sin is the most valuable gift we can receive. David said, "none of them can by any means redeem his brother nor give God a ransom for him. For the redemption of their soul is precious." Peter said, "you were redeemed not with corruptible things, as silver and gold, but with the precious blood of Christ."

If your soul has been redeemed by the blood of Christ, you are one of the richest people in the world, for none can be richer. For what is a man profited if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul? Become rich today by accepting Jesus as your Savior. Amen.

BUT, SANTA, WHAT A LITTLE BEARD YOU HAVE !! was the winning caption in the contest and was submitted by Mrs. Louis Olenick. In the picture are Jimmy H. Harris and Rhonda E-Lise Peeples, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gray Peeples.

Mrs. Olenick Wins Caption Contest

Mrs. Louis Olenick was the winner in the caption contest that was announced in last week's issue of the Devil.

Winning honorable mention in the contest were the following captions: "Great! Santa is coming twice a year now.", "Oh, my! All Sonorans have gone beatnik.", and "And what would you like for Christmas little girl?" all submitted by Mrs. Olenick.

Also winning honorable mention "That's just one, Jimmy, and I'd like to yank out the others, too!", or "I take a dim view on beards myself.", or "Well, you can just keep your old beard. Personally, I don't give a snap of my fingers about it!" (notice the position of Rhonda's hand.) These captions were submitted by a woman who asked that her name be withheld.

Mrs. Jo W. Hardgrave also submitted an honorable mention caption, "Uh unh—you can't tickle me with your red brush—Mommie didn't tell me Fuller Brush men GREW red brushes on their faces."

Foreign Policy Is Like Raising Children--J. A.

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Devil's River this week discusses college students or foreign affairs, we aren't sure which.

I noticed in a copy of a newspaper I was reading last night between gun fights on a western that a bunch of college students have been picketing the White House, protesting the U. S. policy in Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic, on the grounds it's wrong.

I kept on reading but never did find out what they thought would be the right policy.

What they don't know, but what me and Secretary of State Rusk and the other foreign policy experts have known for years, is that the right policy generally can't be determined till years later.

Handling foreign policy is like raising a child. You try to do what you figure is right at any given moment, but whether you were right or wrong doesn't come out till the kid is grown, and half the time, whatever it was you did, you can't remember what it was.

In fact, lots of times, the kid will turn out all right, regardless of what you do. Lots of kids grow up in spite of their parents, and I have a notion foreign policy operates along the same lines. Of course to be fair, it ought to be brought out that lots of parents turn out all right despite their kids.

Also, I have a notion that college students protesting foreign policy is about like high school students picketing a university on the grounds the college students aren't studying hard enough, and grammar school pupils picketing high schools, and kindergarten kids picketing grammar schools. Since there's nobody left, this leaves the kindergarten kids free to act on their own, but you never hear much out of them on foreign policy.

When a crisis turns up in foreign affairs, if you're going to wait till you're absolutely sure you're right, you won't get much work done, which is why I wouldn't be interested in the job. Foreign affairs is like a doctor-patient relationship. When a man's sick, he wants a doctor, whether the doctor knows what's wrong with him or not. The least the doctor can do is prescribe something.

By the way, if those college students find out about how I run this bitterweed ranch, they'll find so many things I do wrong they could picket this place from now on, which wouldn't be a bad idea, if they'd stand where the fence is weak, to turn my sheep. Mine isn't as good as the White House's.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

ACCENT ON HEALTH Mower Is Friend -- If Properly Used

Almost anyone with a lawn to mow will admit that "man's best friend" in the summer time is a power lawn mower.

Although power mowers are tops among labor saving devices, they pose some potential hazards. They can save you time, money and back-breaking efforts, but they can also kill and maim.

In a recent year, some 70,000 accidents involving power mowers were recorded. Lost in the carnage each year are approximately 50,000 toes and 18,000 fingers, not to say anything about other injuries and the loss of life itself.

Perhaps we need to have power mower handling courses just as we have gun handling courses to promote safety.

A rotary blade on a mower—whirling at some 4,000 revolutions a minute—can hurl a hard object such as a stone or nail much like a bullet. These missiles can have the impact of a 22-calibre bullet, with enough force to kill anyone in its path.

Safety with a power mower—as in any event—lies with the individual. An understanding of the mower and a respect for its potential could save you a limb, or even a life.

Before you mow next time, make sure your mower is in good shape with all safety devices secured and all nuts and bolts properly tightened—especially the one holding the blade.

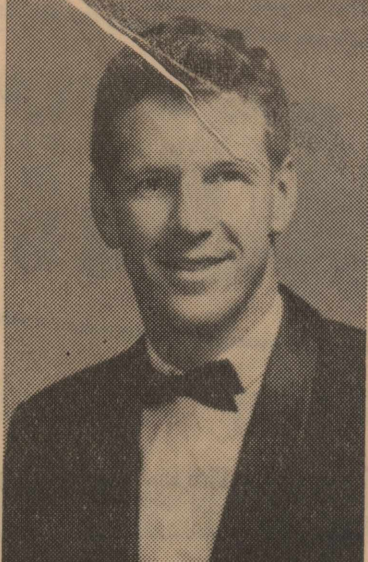

Check the fuel before starting the motor. And never add gasoline while the engine is running.

Clear your yard of all children and pets before you begin. If your neighbors are in a nearby yard, wait until they leave before you mow. You wouldn't schedule a shooting match with people standing about at random. Protect yourself with proper clothing when you mow. Wear long trousers, shoes and work gloves.

Watch where you go, particularly for slopes and any objects ahead. And when you leave the mower, stop the motor.

Your power mower can be your best friend this summer, if you treat it with respect and handle it with care.

The Devil's Workshop
An Idle Mind Column

By Della King

Dear Somebody,
We all like a good joke. Honestly we do. We like to have a good laugh.

But some things just are not funny. And plain, unadorned useless destruction does not have a morsel of wit, cleverness, or humor in it. The only sharp thing about cutting up the hose used to water the sunken garden was your knife. And slicing it again Tuesday night after it had been mended was not smart. It was doubly senseless.

The hose is being put away at night now.

We are very proud of the downtown garden. It is a spot of beauty that grows prettier each day. Almost everyone enjoys seeing it. The work on it has been voluntary and people all over town have contributed to the project.

Somebody, next time you want to do something, why not do something worthwhile? There are lots and lots of things that you could do that people would deeply appreciate.

If you want to be a comedian, I'm sure you can think of something that is really funny, not merely destructive. It is easier to tear up than to improve or entertain, but it is also more satisfying and actually more fun to meet the challenge of the difficult.

Party Compliments Mrs. Jack D. Moore

Mrs. Jack D. Moore was feted at a shower by Mrs. C. W. West Jr. of San Angelo in the Doyle Crawford home on Saturday, May 22.

Pink and blue muffins and cherry punch were served.

Fourteen guests attended the party.

STRONG CHURCHES

Make STRONG COMMUNITIES

Do you ever feel trapped? Do the walls of a meaningless life seem to close in on you sometimes? Here's good news! Every life has a gate, and it is never locked. But it only opens from one side . . . your side.

Seek for the gate with all your heart, and you will find it. Open it, and you will enter a world full of meaning and beauty. You'll step from darkness to light . . . and never look back.

The key? It's waiting for you in Christ's teachings. His Church will help you to find it, and in His service you will discover life's real purpose. Go to church this Sunday, and hear God's words of promise and comfort. They are meant for all who yearn to widen the cramped horizon of their lives. They are meant for you.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	II Kings	6	8-19
Monday	Psalms	124	1-8
Tuesday	Isaiah	26	1-9
Wednesday	Jeremiah	7	1-7
Thursday	Matthew	16	13-20
Friday	Luke	13	22-30
Saturday	II Corinthians	4	7-18

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

May Ends on Wet Note With General Rainfall

By E. B. Keng
Soil Conservation Service
Heavy rains over the weekend helped to make May one of the wettest on record. Part of the Sonora area received rains of up to three inches Friday afternoon, with the heaviest rains reported in southeast Sutton county. General rains covered the area early Monday, with most of the Edwards Plateau soil conservation district recorded 1.5 to 2.5 inches. Most of the rainfall was slow and little runoff occurred. Most ranchmen measured from 5 to over 9 inches during May. Representative rainfall for the Monday rain included Alvis Johnson 1.5; L. P. Bloodworth 1.6; J. A. Cauthorn 2.0-2.6; Thomas Morris 2.1; Dick Hill 2.0; Ben Cusenbary 1.4-2.2; Herbert Fields 1.27; Hospital ranch 1.5-1.8; Fred Earwood 1.5; Cris Haines 2.6; Jerry Shurley 1.7-2.3; Duke Wilton 2.6; Mayer & Rousselot 1.3-1.8; Wesley Sawyer 2.2; Collier Shurley 1.9; C. Brockman 1.5-2.1; E. DeBerry 1.5; Sawyer Eagle Well 2.1.

W. B. McMullan received rains of 1.2, 1.3 and 2.2 on Friday, Saturday and Sunday at his Jack Mann Edwards County ranch. Other reports include Joe Logan 1.1; W. F. Berger (O'Leary) 2.0; Gene Wallace 4.0 (Saturday and Monday); Bill Savell 2.5-3.5; Lin Hicks 2.0; W. L. Davis 1.2; G. H. Davis 1.6.

The May rains have replenished the soil moisture and grass is growing rapidly. Three dry summers have weakened the grass cover and the current above-normal rainfall was badly needed to restore grass vigor and production.

By E. B. Keng
Soil Conservation Service
"The rainfall of May 29-31 has started considerable new growth at the tips of mesquite branches. Ranchmen should wait several days to allow this new growth to stop before aerial spraying is resumed." This advice was given Tuesday by Cecil Meador, former employee of the Experiment Station at Spur, where much of the aerial mesquite control work was developed.

"Poor results are usually obtained when spraying is done immediately following a good rain—while a growth spurt is in progress", Meador continued. When the plants are growing rapidly most of the sap flow is apparently upward to form the new leaves. There is not enough downward movement of sap to translocate the 2-4-D chemical into the roots to produce a good kill.

Meador feels that the good May rains should make conditions favorable for spraying—probably by June 7-10, unless additional rainfall is received.

Mesquite stands on the Herbert Fields, Ben Cusenbary, Rip Ward, Ruth Shurley, Edwin Sawyer and Thomas Morris ranches were checked. Meador recommended waiting another year to re-spray mesquite on the Cusenbary and Morris ranches, which were originally sprayed in 1960.

"Around the time the county was created, Charles F. Adams settled near the townsite of Sonora ...

"Earlier, around 1879, the first Anglo-American settlers had arrived, among them, E. M. Kirkland, who brought a herd of sheep to the free range, thus starting the ranching enterprise which has given Sonora prominence as an outstanding wool and mohair center in the United States ...

"The Panhandle and Santa Fe Railroad reached the town in June, 1931, to facilitate shipment of wool, mohair, cattle, and lambs, which have been largely responsible for the area's thriving economy."

The document further commends the citizens of Sonora and Sutton County for their enterprise and high sense of civic responsibility and notes that "the Annual Sonora Wool and Mohair Show has gained national and international attention."
