You can't win for losing... You can't win for losing might well be a popular saying with the City officials this week as they attempt to solve the problem of having Interstate Highway 10 pass through the golf course and airport.

Certainly too much work and effort has gone into Sonora's golf and air facilities to completely lose them, but on the other hand if we lose such an important asset as the highway's closeness, there'll be lots fewer people to enjoy golf and flying facilities.

City officials will make some Sonorans mad no matter, but a problem has been placed in their laps and it has to be solved.

And G. H. Davis stands to lose either way. With possibilities of a southern route being almost entirely eliminated because of the extra expense of dealing with small land owners and the necessity of taking in the football field, a northern route is almost assured. If the highway goes through Sonora's golf and air facilities, then Sonora will look to Davis to make available land to recreate these community assets.

Davis already has a taste of having a highway separate his land, as about 1/3 of his property is cut by U.S. 277. A highway east and west through his land would cut off two more pastures and add inconvenience.

Residents to the north of Sonora can only eye-ball and guess how close the highway will come to their homes. But they generally want the highway either through their house or out of sight and earshot.

As for the "Devil", we hope the town will benefit from the highway's location since we've grown mighty fond of Sonora in our two years here. It would be more pleasant to grow a little rather than to diet and tighten up our belts.

We see the proposed close northern route as the most beneficial to Sonora and hope the city fathers concur. We think that the golf course and airport are important assets, but they can be adjusted with far less effort than can Sonora's economy.

Clayson White reports that he found a porcupine by the highway, apparently killed by a car.

Clayson says it has been many a day since he has seen a porcupine in this part of the country, and he can't find anyone else who has seen one of the prickly critters around here recently.

To Sutton County Citizens: May I make this progress report for our forthcoming Diamond Anniversary Celebration. I am delighted with the planning and organizational work on this great project, one in which all citizens can and must participate, to do the best job. It will be our only 75th party and there is a job for all.

The food committee is functioning magnificently. They need some prime beef to go with the Spanish kid and lamb. Let Gene Wallace or Herbert Fields know your wishes.

The committee for selling stock reports a fine response from the public; however, only a few have been solicited. For your information, some firms are buying $100 stocks, some individuals the same, and in lesser amounts. We are happy in receiving a check from El Paso Natural Gas Co. for $125. We feel that since this party is for Sutton County folks honoring our pioneer citizens that no one should have to solicit another; we are all on the soliciting committee it seems.

The parade committee has done a fine job lining up many vehicles and antique cars. A bottleneck right now is getting teams for the vehicles. Bill Savell reports all ready for downtown dances and affairs. The Pageant program is shaping up nicely, Mac Bundy says, and it promises to be real interesting for all.

But may I remind you that the big job is ahead. Much planning and preliminary work has been done, it is true, but shaping up for the final plans will require the help of many, as well as the carrying out of these plans.

We are happy in knowing of so much interest over all Texas in our project. Many ex-citizens, teachers, preachers and others have indicated their plans to attend this event. It should be an enjoyable affair for us all, for we know that it will be conducted in the old-fashioned, almost forgotten, way of family visiting, and at this we can demonstrate our traditional hospitality spirit.

This progress report is given with much pride, for we do have our feet on the ground and the cooperation of the public assured.

Sincerely, Buzzie (H. V. Stokes) general chairman, Sonora Diamond Jubilee

Parade Begins 4-H Rodeo Thurs.

Approximately 200 entries representing New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas have been received by Mrs. Louis Powers for the three-day AJRA approved Sutton County Junior Rodeo, sponsored by the Sutton County 4-H Club.

The rodeo has been slated from July 15 through 17 with a rodeo parade highlighting Thursday's events. Andrew Moore, who is in charge of the parade, says that all participants will meet at the Courthouse at 4 p.m. The parade will be routed down Main Street to Concho where it will turn left and continue to the Gulf Service Station corner, turn right on US 290 and return to Main Street.

Moore said that any persons having completed floats for the 75th Jubilee celebration parade are welcome and invited to participate in the rodeo parade.

Miss Randee Fawcett and Miss Diana Cahill will be flag-bearers in the parade.

Louis Powers, rodeo chairman and arena director, and Mrs. Powers, secretary, urge everyone to contribute to the 4-H fund by buying a ticket whether they attend the event or not. Ticket funds will go to the 4-H Club

Calf Sale Scheduled

The Sonora Livestock Exchange has announced plans for a special July 22 sale.

The sale will feature feeder and stocker calves, as well as sheep and goats.

The calf sale will begin at 11 a.m. and the sheep and goat sale will follow.

Kaye Ellis is visiting in Corpus Christi with the Rev. and Mrs. Ronnie Thompson until August 5. This week she completed a session as counselor at Camp Capers.

City Agrees To Negotiate Proposed Interstate Route

City commissioners agreed Monday to negotiate with the Texas Highway Department about the proposed route of U.S. 10 through Sonora, emphasizing that the resolution to negotiate made no binding commitment on the City of Sonora.

Stressing the seriousness of the route selection, the commissioners discussed the effect on the municipal airport, the golf course, homeowners along the route, and the flow of tourist and highway-trade money into town.

City commissioners agreed Monday to negotiate with the Texas Highway Department about the proposed route of U.S. 10 through Sonora.

Stressing the seriousness of the route selection, the commissioners discussed the effect on the municipal airport, the golf course, homeowners along the route, and the flow of tourist and highway-trade money into town.

The route proposed by the Highway Department would veer north from existing U.S. 290 at about the Sonora Veterinary Clinic. Coming toward Sonora, the highway would go north of the race track and clip the south extensions of the airport and golf course. It would continue north of the city power plant, south of Sonora Cemetery, and northeast out of town.

Access roads are proposed west of Sonora, at the US 277 intersection, and at the intersection with the Fort McKavett Road east of Sonora.

This proposed route complies with the State Highway Commission recommendation that the location of the highway be as close to Sonora as possible. However, the Highway Department will not condemn the city property. A second route runs about a mile north of Sonora.

ment engineer, says that after approval of the City's resolution further planning and study will begin. He anticipates a public hearing within two months.

Other questions about construction of the multi-lane highway have concerned the necessary right of way, size of interchanges, and required distance from the airport. Lane says that the minimum right of way is 360 feet, but that the size of interchanges depends on existing conditions. The distance of the highway from the airport also is not an established figure.

WTCC Background, Function Reviewed At Board Meeting

Henry Sears, one of the vice-presidents of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, was principal speaker at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce board meeting here Tuesday, July 6.

Representatives from the 13 county area of District 9 met with the officers of the WTCC as part of an intensified program participation and membership campaign being conducted this year by the regional Chamber.

Sears, president of the First National Bank of Hereford, stressed participation by WTCC members in all of the organization's activities. He gave a brief background of the WTCC so that people might better understand its function.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce was founded in 1918 and is the oldest of the four regional chambers of commerce in Texas. Serving 132 counties, it is the largest from a geographical standpoint comprising approximately 54% of the land area of Texas, he said.

Sears said that the financial support of WTCC is obtained from voluntary memberships. With 3,000 members from every economic segment of the area, the WTCC represents the greatest cross-section of leadership in agriculture, industry, and business in West Texas, he added.

"Broadly stated, the two major goals of the WTCC are to promote economic development on an area basis and to improve our business climate," Sears explained.

The 13 counties that were represented at the meeting were all in District 9 of the WTCC and included Coke, Concho, Edwards, Irion, Kerr, Kimble, Menard, Real, Runnels, Schleicher, Sterling, Sutton, and Tom Green. W. R. Cusenbary is vice-president of this district.

'SS' Day and Headquarters Opening Mark Week of Jubilee Progress

Sufficient Stubble Day and the opening of the Diamond Jubilee headquarters marked a week of progress in plans for Sutton County and Sonora's celebration of the 75th anniversary of the county.

Jubilee headquarters were opened Wednesday in the old Vander Stucken building between Neville's Department Store and Sonora Gas Company. A sign has been painted on the building, and decorating plans are underway.

The headquarters will be open from 9 to 11 a.m., and from 2 to 5 p.m. Stock certificates and beard and costume buttons and permits will be on sale there, and information about the Jubilee will be available. The telephone number is 2-6101.

SUFFICIENT STUBBLE With the passing of Sufficient Stubble Day, July 15, men not growing beards will be required to display permits costing $1.50 or buttons costing $3. They are being sold at Sonora Feed and Supply, Stockmen's Feed Company, and Jubilee headquarters.

George "Bud" Smith, beard committee co-chairman, says that prizes will be awarded for best beards. Categories being considered are best trimmed, longest, an most ferocious.

MUSEUM Mrs. Collier Shurley is planning a display of antiques in the building next to C. G. Morrison Variety Store. Beginning about August 10 she would like for people to bring old articles for the display. She says that any keepsakes or other items which persons have had a long time would add to the display. Mrs. Shurley hopes to have an article from every home in Sutton County.

Assisting her are Mmes. G. A. Wynn, Louie Trainer, Bob Vicars, Stella Keene, Manila Trainer, and Joe Brown Ross.

Other Jubilee preparation activities include the purchase of bunting to be hung on U.S. 290 and downtown.

George Stewart, Jubilee president, says that teams are needed to pull wagons and that meat donations are needed for the barbecue.

Events planned for Jubilee week include a basket supper and old-fashioned preaching and hymn singing Sunday evening, August 15; a reception at the headquarters from 1 to 8 p.m. Friday, August 20; and presentation of a live-action historical pageant Friday and Saturday

WHAT IS AN EDITORIAL?

What is an editorial? It isn't a news story. And a news report isn't an editorial. A news story contains only the facts—just the facts, ma'am, without any expression of the reporter or editor's opinions or ideas. The news story tells you what happened, to whom, where, when, how, and why. The editorial, however, is a completely different matter. It is separated from the news columns by typographical style, headline, and placement in the newspaper. It is in the editorial that we express our opinion. In the news story we tell only what happened; in the editorial we present our ideas about the event. And remember that the editorial page is also open to your opinions. Just write a letter to the editor and sign your name to it.

Hot Weather Treats

Pour fruit juice into ice cube trays and add fruit like a pineapple wedge, cherry, strawberry, orange slice or lemon wedge. Use with iced tea or fruit drink when chilled.

Long crusty rolls make interesting sandwiches for supper or lunch. Hollow out the roll and fill with chicken, shrimp or meat salad. Dress up with olives and pickles speared on picks to make a kabob garnish.

Like to make quick cookies? Use a packaged cake mix with ¼ cup soft shortening, 1 medium egg and 2 tablespoons water. Add shredded coconut or ½ cup mixed candied fruit and bake as a drop cookie in a 375°F. oven about 10 minutes.

Add flaked salmon or crabmeat to Potato salad (potatoes marinated in French dressing, first) and serve with pickle fans and cherry tomatoes.

Deviled eggs make a good garnish for salad plates. Mash the hard-cooked yolks with salt, pepper, dry mustard and cream. Refill the whites. Garnish with parsley sprig.

Helen's Favorite: Southern Burgers

1 pound ground beef
1 medium onion, chopped
½ cup catchup
2 tablespoons prepared mustard
10 ½ ounce can chicken gumbo soup
Brown beef and onion in hot fat. Stir in catchup, mustard and soup. Simmer until mixture thickens a little, about 15 minutes. Spoon over split toasted buns. If desired, make early, refrigerate and reheat.

Miss Sentell Earns Achievement Medal

Miss Kelley Sue Sentell has been awarded the junior medal for outstanding achievement in the tennis department at Heart O' The Hills Camp for junior girls at Hunt.

June Marks High In Infestations

June proved to be the month with the highest number of screwworm infestations in 19 months, announced Screwworm Eradication officials recently.

Records show that there were more infestations in June than in any previous month after November 1963, added the officials. In Texas alone there have been 138 cases of screwworm in 1965 compared with 15 in 1964.

Records show that no screwworm cases have been confirmed in Sutton County, however.

J. A. Mows Into Problem With Modern Thinking

Editor's note: The Devil's River philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Devil's River considers the economics of lawn-mowing in his letter this week.

Dear editor:

On an average weekend during the summer I estimate there must be at least 20 million lawnmowers running in the United States, and while it's no concern of mine, the noise doesn't bother me, I can't hear it from out here on this bitterweed ranch, and I don't own one myself, I let a cow do the mowing, it's cheaper, no breakdowns, requires no fuel and you can do it while sitting in the shade on the front porch, still I was interested in an item I read in a newspaper last week while my cow was cutting the grass.

According to it, some scientists have developed a new lawn grass that grows solid but only three inches tall. Stays the same height, no matter how long you let the sprinkler run. Never have to mow it.

I was discussing this with a friend of mine in town who mows his lawn every week and is good at figures and sells lawnmowers. "Look," he said, "say there are 20 million lawnmowers in this country and they average about $50 each. That's a billion dollars worth of lawnmowers. Also, they must use at least $100,000 worth of gasoline a week, parts are always needing replacing, blades have to be sharpened, lots of boys earn $2.50 a lawn or more mowing for other people, hospitals get business from lawnmower accidents, insurance companies sell accident policies, take it all in all, those grass scientists are fixing to wreck a two-billion-dollar industry, right when the President is banking on an expanding economy to justify more tax cuts to open the gates to the Great Society. Those scientists ought to destroy that new grass and start working on one that grows twice as fast and requires mowing two times a week. Make two blades of grass grow where one grew before, each twice as tall, and double the lawnmower business and keep this country moving forward."

GREEN NEWS

HAPPY GOLF NEW YEAR

The Sonora Golf Auxiliary is Four Years old.

Takes you back a bit, doesn't it? It is our time to say—"Remember When?", and not be tabbed as nonprogressive because we are living in the past. Makes us feel that special glow and respect when we say, "Why son, I remember when this golf course was just a pasture and that park was a draw filled with white round rocks that looked exactly like golf balls. Well, we played golf just like there were 18 greens.

Now, what was I going to tell you? Oh yes, this is the best yet. There were four of us in this group and we were all a little down in our backs because we would stop and pull weeds ever so often; then we'd stop and rest while we built this course and clubhouse in our minds.

We certainly did an excellent job of that too, (This Dream Building). That's not all. "You know son, I dreamed and thought of this course and clubhouse so much that sometimes I could see 'em for a second or so." The others always acted like they hadn't heard me, when I mentioned these things I saw. Guess they were afflicted with the same thing, cause they always acted like they hadn't heard me. Think that people traveling in the desert call this seeing things a mirage.

Then there were those of us that would have days and evenings overrunning with meetings to organize our Golf Club. The meetings with speeches and discussion just boiled down to the one word "Impossible." Of course I'm a dedicated coward so my opinion was a mumbled impossible, too. But there is one thing this whole club just gets all fired up mad about now (me too, with no mumbling) and that is that word, Impossible, when you talk about Sonora's Golf Course. Don't get the wrong idea though; this same feeling just doesn't hold weight around the house to the economy, nobody will hurt, the economic index won't waver, and people can sit on their lawns on weekends and enjoy their tax cuts.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

with some chores because some of those are impossible.

We had our business meetings and you would hear, "We are now ready for group discussion." This was followed by an unbearable period of uncomfortable silence. The explosive and enthusiastic debate, discussion, and opinions would almost scare you into saying exactly what you think about the whole situation. Then we always came to an agreement.

The next day we play golf, bridge, or visit and plan a club supper. Makes you want to sing "I Love Those Dear Hearts and Gentle People Who Live in My Home Town."

Seem to be running about a day and four hours late in getting this thing over to the news office. Don't suppose Della and John are prepared to give us an entire page for Granny's Green News. And we never did get around to our story about Bill Tittle, Bobby Fawcett, Web Elliott, Bob Vicars, and Wanda Cahill. And that one reminds me of the one about Son Allison, W. B. McMillian, Uncle Bud, Vernon Rogers, and Louis Davis helping past president Lunetta Morgan plan a ladies luncheon—but that can wait.

But let me tell you about one of our lady golfers that was helping her friend learn the old golf game. She was angry; that would be an understatement. Found out she was so "put out" with her golf ball that she refuses to speak to it for a week. Harry Harrison told me another that will fit in with our Diamond Jubilee. Next week we will not omit any names or news we scoop.

Golf Club Auxiliary captains for our New Golf Year are president, Peggy Sharp; golf vice-president, Wanda Cahill; bridge vice-president, Mary Jean Hamill; secretary, Ann Hill; treasurer, Pauline Thompson; scrapbook, Bobby Fawcett; and Green News, Granny Jones.

'Thousand Clowns' Is Current Comedy At Point Theatre

A comedy about the taming of a carefree bohemian who has snuffed at making a living on the world's terms, is the current attraction at the Point Summer Theatre. This is "A Thousand Clowns", a major Broadway hit for over a year after its opening in the spring of 1962. It is being given at the Point Summer Theatre through July 18.

Jerry Fitzgerald of Austin is starring in the role originated in New York by Jason Robards, Jr., the role of a television writer who has thrown up his well-paying job because of his conviction that life should be enjoyed and not just endured. He has resigned as a writer of a television program for children called Chuckles the Chipmunk merely because he found it revolting—a reason that others find inadequate as an excuse for his remaining unemployed.

He is living in contented (and slovenly) idleness with his precocious twelve-year-old nephew—who tries to needle his uncle by reading him want-ads from the newspapers—when a team of investigators from a child welfare agency arrives to check on his suitability to bring up the boy.

One of these, a humorless bureaucrat, is readily disposed of by the ex-TV writer's refusal to be serious about anything. However, the other member of the social agency team, a pretty newcomer to social work, to be portrayed by Dana Haskell—is charmed by the writer's daffy habit of meeting everything in life with a gag, by his view that the world is merely a circus with a thousand clowns tumbling out of a trick automobile.

The comedy's plot reveals how her enchantment with the maverick's irresponsibility in the end turns him into a responsible fellow. The play's many chuckles arise from the head-on conflict between the jocular viewpoint of a man who insists on kidding everything, and that of the disapproving representatives of society, with their social-welfare jargon, who think the able-bodied ought to be gainfully employed.

Reservations for "A Thousand Clowns" may be made now at the Point Summer Theatre Box Office, EM 7-2924 or by writing P.O. Box 176, Ingram. Ticket prices are $3, $2.25, and $1.50. Performances are Wednesday through Sunday nights with curtain at 8:30 p.m.

"Puff" Your Old Golf Clubs Here For Extra Cash!

YOUR MINISTER SAYS

By the Rev. Rollin Polk
St. John's Episcopal Church
Twenty years ago the first atom bomb was exploded.

When Jesus was being captured in the Garden of Gethsemane, He said, "Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves? When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness."

Many people believe that our own day is the hour of the "power of darkness". And some, on the other hand, are entirely unaware of the evil forces that are loose in the twentieth century. There are very real similarities between the first century and our own. Perhaps the Cross is in the same relationship to the tragedies of our lives as the A-bomb is to rifles and cannon. That is to say that the Cross and the evil that we are aware of are really one and the same thing. And the A-bomb is no different from the other weapons of warfare.

The difference in each case is one of degree. The Cross on which Christ died shows what happens when the evil and sin of the world piles up. This is the hour of the "power of darkness". The A-bomb shows what happens when physical power is released in its extreme form. A great number of guns or even matches could do the same damage as one A-bomb.

The A-bomb shows the ultimate result of war—self-destruction. The Cross shows the ultimate tragedy of all the little animosities between man and man and between man and God.

But there is a world of difference between the Cross and the powers of darkness that are afoot. By His death and Resurrection, Jesus Christ effected a victory over evil that need never be repeated. An Easter hymn says, "The powers of death have done their worst, and Christ their legions hath dispersed." The evil abroad today, then, has no final power over mankind or God's purposes.

But complacency has no place in the Christian religion. The power of Jesus Christ must be allowed to operate through each of us. "Lord, revive thy Church, beginning with me". Worship your risen Lord this and every Sunday.

MRS. KENNETH R. TEUTSCH

Miss Jo Ann Lowe, Kenneth Teutsch Wed In Double Ring Ceremony Sat., July 10

After a wedding trip to New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rodger Teutsch will make their home in Pasadena.

Miss Jo Ann Lowe and Teutsch were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Arno Melz of Hope Lutheran Church Saturday, July 10, in First Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lowe, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. W. W. Teutsch of Pasadena.

The couple were married under an arch decorated with peppermint and white carnations, and flanked with candelabra and baskets of white gladiolus. All flower arrangements and bouquets were prepared by Mrs. Tom Neville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown designed and made by her mother. The scoop-neckline bodice and skirt with chapel train of re-embroidered chantilly lace were beaded by Mrs. James D. Trainer. The bride's illusion veil was fingertip length. She carried an orchid on a Bible with cascades of stephanotis.

Miss Brenda McCutchen and Miss Linda McCutchen sang accompanied by Miss Peggy Lynn Grobe, organist.

Miss Evelyn Jane Lowe, sister of the bride, and Libb Mills Wallace, the bride's cousin, were honor attendants to the couple.

Bridesmaids were Miss Cindy Galbreath, Miss Randee Fawcett, and Mrs. Leon Calland of Houston, sister of the bridegroom.

The maid of honor, bridesmaids, flower girl, and candle lighters wore matching street-length dresses of red silk organza over taffeta. Their headpieces were silk organza bows with short illusion veils attached.

Groomsmen were Tommy Teutsch of Pasadena, brother of the bridegroom, Jack David Wardlaw, and Leon Calland of Houston.

Ushers were Bill Glasscock,

Texas Miss Wool Committee Formed

A new Miss Wool of Texas committee has been formed to give better planning to the Miss Wool program in the Lone Star State.

Gaylord Hankins of Rocksprings, president of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association, announced appointment of three men: Howard Derrick of Eldorado, Chairman, Joe York Jr. of Brackettville and Hershell Wilson of Coleman. Mrs. Ralph Jones of Ozona, Mrs. Mark Griffith of Coleman and Mrs. Sayers Farmer of Junction of the Woman's Auxiliary of the TS&GRA were named to the committee by Mrs. Joe Dobson, president.

The committee will act as liaison between Association officers and Womack-Snelson Advertising Inc., the agency with direct responsibility for the state's Miss Wool program.

"We feel that when a young woman is named Miss Wool of Texas she is receiving one of the top honors of the nation," said Hankins. "She is a contestant for Miss Wool of America, royal ambassador for the wool industry. Her program deserves the best in planning. This will add dignity and fashion to our program."

The new Miss Wool of Texas, Janice Archer of Austin, made her first official appearance at the Attorneys General National Conference in San Antonio late in June. During the coming year she will appear in all the state's major fashion marketing areas, Hankins said.

Mr. and Mrs. Will G. Smith and their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Campbell of Carlsbad, N.M., were in Sonora recently visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Nell Hollman, Mrs. Manila Trainer, and Mrs. H. L. Taylor.

Roe-ving Around

By Grady Roe
Well, agent 6% back again to continue my adventure. You may remember that I was interrupted last week and couldn't finish my story. At any rate, I will continue on.

I decided to meet Joe Fingers at the best hotel in Roosevelt, where he had gone on vacation before trying to pull off his next job—stealing Madison Square Garden and holding it for ransom. So, it was on a fine Saturday morning that I checked into the Roosevelt Hilton. The hotel was really something. My room was on the second floor, and, as I went in, the maid, a blonde, turned and stared. The rest of the morning was spent doing what agents do in hotel rooms with maids. I beat her in two out of three games of Chinese checkers.

I had heard that Joe Fingers always played bridge in the afternoons by the pool; so I decided to go for a swim and look over the man I was to stop. I dressed in my Official Undercover Agent Swimming Suit, which was equipped with a two-way radio, a box of grenades, two rifles, a knife, and a tear gun. The boys at the lab are working on something with better protection now, but they are just too slow.

Anyway, I went down to the liver-shaped pool. Funny thing, that pool. The owner of the hotel had had an actor-turned-doctor to remove his appendix, and since the first operation had gone so well, the doctor removed the guy's liver as an encore. Anyway, the owner was always walking around telling people the story of his operation, and used the pool especially so he could describe it better.

Sure enough, there was Joe Fingers, playing bridge with some poor fool. It sure looked silly for two grown men to be dancing around singing, "London

S. Neal Completes Linguistics Course

Smith Neal, Sonora High School English teacher, attended and completed the Linguistics Institute at Sul Ross State College in Alpine.

The Institute was designed to teach the linguistics method of teaching language to the 75 Texas junior and senior high school teachers of English who attended. These participants represented a cross section of English teachers. They came from all over the state (60 counties were represented) and from all sizes of schools.

The participants were selected because of their academic backgrounds and leadership in their schools. A total of over 300 applied.

So, until next week, this is agent 6% signing off.

COMMUNICATIONS — Your Tool for Progress

In case of fire, this telephone rings the alarm

In many of our towns, fire protection comes from a volunteer fire department. An effective communications system summons these volunteers by ringing all members' telephones at the same time. What's more, it is a distinctive ring which means "FIRE!" and brings firemen on the run. Here is another example of how Communications becomes a Tool for Progress—a communications service of great value to every town with a volunteer fire department. For full information about our many communications services, please call our Business Office.

On days when the heat is unbearable, people go to the lakes or beaches to be cool and comfortable. The cool breeze of the lake or sea shore is air in motion that has been cooled by the process of water evaporation. This same process is created by a Paramount Evaporative Cooler. The large squirrel cage blower continuously pulls outside air through wet redwood filters thereby lowering the temperature through evaporation of water in the filters. This cool, fresh, filtered air is then directed into the area to be cooled.

Some of the advantages of a Paramount Cooler are:

- Low cost of equipment, operation and maintenance
- Quick and easy installation
- Maximum comfort at all times
- 100% fresh, cooled, filtered air
- Fresh air ventilation, without cooling, for spring and fall—just turn off the water

See the Paramount DeVille evaporative cooler at your WTU Showroom.

Normal installation FREE for WTU residential customers.

TEEN SCENE

By Margaret Bundy

May I have your attention please? I have a very important announcement to make. Cathy Grelle wants the world to know that she is no longer grounded, and is coming into town next weekend to stay with Susan Prugel.

Perry Teaff wandered into town Sunday. He will only be in Sonora for about a week. On the 20th, he is leaving for Argentina, but will be back later, during August.

Eddie Sawyer, Jane Sawyer, and Stan Bundy are leaving for Maine Wednesday along with the rest of Eddie's family.

Maxine Davis has been in San Antonio lately.

Yvonne Young was home from school last weekend.

The Sonora Junior Rodeo is going to be this weekend. The 4-H members have been selling tickets.

Speaking of rodeos, quite a few kids were seen in Ozona at the rodeo last weekend. Among these were Susan Prugel, Gail Espy, Roy Glasscock, Judy Lancaster, Bill Glasscock, Martha Love, Libb Wallace, Kay Campbell, Nancy Prugel, Jessie Lem Johnson, Buck Bloodworth, Stan Bundy, Prissy Howell, Guy Askew, and Mark Shurley.

Barbara Trees has been commuting between Sonora and San Angelo, where she is in summer school.

Carol Hopf is returning to Sonora from San Antonio, where she has been at Trinity.

Corky Fields was home a couple of days. He has been working on an oil rig near Lubbock.

Bert, Buck, and Lee Bloodworth are right in the middle of building a new house. They ought to be able to move in around the first of August.

If any of y'all have any news to report for the next couple of weeks, I'd appreciate it if y'd call Cee Wee Johnson and tell her. Your friendly reporter is leaving town for a while, so there ain't gonna be a "Teen Scene" for about two weeks.

We spend our summers by the Inlet. Eddie and I love to walk the beach, watching with fascination the wild churning of the water where the ocean waves meet the strong river current.

"That's my name," he said, when I told him the churning water was called an "eddy."

It's more than his name. It's a picture of his life — and every child's.

Growing up is a succession of crosscurrents. The influences of the home meet those of the school — the playmates — the community — the times. Strange, new experiences must be fitted into the child's ever-widening world.

Religious training is the surest stabilizing force in this turbulent period of growth. Strengthened by parental faith and example, a child discovers in his Church that there are values greater than whim or adventure. He realizes that his own and his family's standards are rooted in the truths of God. And he learns with the firm rudder of faith to steer a bold course — out of the Inlet's swirling eddies — across the sea of life.

Foreign Students View Economic Growth

A number of foreign students at the University of Texas are members of a seminar program conducted for the first time this year with funds from the U.S. State Department.

The students, representing eight countries, attend group seminars stressing economic development and understanding American technological, social, and political institutions.

The group, composed of 11 foreign students, recently viewed a "ranchman's life" for two days in Sutton County.

While in the Sonora area, they watched the handling of sheep, Angora goats, and cattle, toured the Sonora Wool and Mohair Co. and Sonora Livestock Exchange, and observed an irrigated farming project and a feed lot. Staying in the homes of Sonora families, the visitors found friendships with the Texans.

The students also plan to visit a small urban community, San Marcos, which has employed self-help programs and local resources to revitalize its economic life.

Before they complete their studies in August they will tour three large urban areas—San Antonio, Houston, and Corpus Christi—to observe metropolitan economic development.

The students, both undergraduates and graduates, have been studying for at least one year at American universities and colleges. Selected by the Institute of International Education, they represent the following countries: Korea, Iraq, Ceylon, Venezuela, Pakistan, Thailand, and Iran.

Indians, Colts Tie, Schedule Play-Off

The Indians and the Colt 45's were both victorious in their games Tuesday, resulting in a two-way tie for championship of the second half of Little League baseball play.

A single elimination play-off for second half champions will be played Thursday at 8 p.m. between the Colts and the Indians, both having a 6-win, 3-loss record.

The Colts were champions of the first half of the Little League season, and if they win the second half title, they will also win the season title. However, if the Indians win the game, a seasonal play-off will be scheduled for Monday, July 19 at 8 p.m. against the first half champions, the Colts.

The Dodgers were ranked in third place in the Little League standings and the Cardinals were fourth.

The Colts are sponsored by the First National Bank, the Indians by Elliott Chevrolet, the Cardinals by Stockmen's Feed, and the Dodgers by Foodway Stores.

TIPS OUTDOORSMEN

Easy Maneuvering - When fishing alone it is difficult to cast and guide a boat at the same time.

This can be overcome by mounting an oarlock on the transom, to one side of the outboard motor.

Set the motor at low speed, straight ahead. Then use a long-handled oar to rudder the boat from the transom oarlock with one hand, while casting with the other hand.

Quick Measuring Device - Don't guess about the legality of your catch, Mr. Fisherman.

Fasten a metal ruler to one side of the boat, where it will be handy, then stretch your fish against this ruler for a quick check of legal length.

Save on all your sporting goods when you buy at the Gulf Restaurant and Discount Center.
