Broncs Blank Rocksprings, Tangle With Iraan Friday

by Gary McGilvray

The Sonora Broncos swept to their second victory last Friday night in Rocksprings as they stomped the Rocksprings Angoras 39 to 0 on a rain-soaked field.

The rains came on and off throughout the whole game as the Broncos easily won out over the smaller Rocksprings team. The first Sonora touchdown came on the fourth play after Sonora got the ball. The score was set up on a 35-yard pass from quarterback Bill Glasscock to Noe Chavez. Glasscock then carried the ball over from the three-yard line. Laney Cook then came in for Glasscock and fired a two-point conversion pass to Eddie Howell.

seven yards. Mike Wuest kicked the conversion.

Cook again led the Broncos on their final scoring play as he returned a Rocksprings punt 64 yards for six more points. Glasscock then threw to Chavez for the fifth successful extra point conversion in as many tries.

The unscored upon Broncos will meet the Iraan Braves for their first district contest in Bronco Stadium at 8 p.m. Friday night. The Braves are fresh from a 13 to 12 victory over last year's district champion's the Big Lake Owls.

Iraan runs a modification of the single-wing offense which has been hard to stop so far this year. Their tailback, John Joy, who has the same job as the T-formation quarterback, has been their big gun this year. He and his teammates have not lost a game in two outings.

The Broncos, who will have a slight weight disadvantage, have, so far this year, scored the only touchdown in a scrimmage with Class AAA Del Rio, whipped Class AA Mason 22 to 0, and run over outclassed Rocksprings 39 to 0. The Bronco defense will be out to continue their perfect record of not having been scored upon when they meet Iraan.

The Broncos will be ready and waiting for Iraan as the winner of this game may well decide the outcome of District 8-A.

CINDERS

By John T. King

John Eaton, not content to let the Jubilee die a peaceful death, is proposing that all the Jubilee picture takers get together and have one big movie and picture showing session.

The Devil has about 150 Jubilee shots soon to be displayed, and we feel sure that there are thousands more in town. I'd bet there are movies made by everybody that could lay hands on a camera.

John even took one. I understand it records, among other things, three heroic leaps made by Jack Kerbow after receiving his first jolt of energy from the Dry Devil's River Super Saturated Solution.

No date has been set for the showing, but it's a good idea. Keep your pictures handy.

The tough Bronco defense held the Angoras to only three first downs and they never got past the Sonora 40-yard line. This defensive team has not been scored upon this season.

In the second quarter, half-back Ed Lee Renfro plowed over from the five-yard line. This touchdown was also set up on a long pass play this time to Jerry Shurley. Cook threw to Renfro for the two extra points.

The Broncos got the ball once again during the waning moments of the first half, and Cook capped off the scoring in that half by throwing a 20-yard scoring pass to Chavez. Cook then ran over the two extra points to bring the half time score to 24 to 0.

The Bronco scoring continued in the third quarter as Cook threw another touchdown pass to Chavez, this one went for

Griggs Stresses Belief in Child To Lions, P-TA

Believing in the child, respecting him as an individual, and knowing he can better himself are points a teacher can teach a child, no matter his aptitude, said Dr. J. R. Griggs at the annual Lions-P-TA supper Tuesday.

The executive director of the Texas Foundation of Voluntarily Supported Colleges and Universities said that when a youngster is taught to like school he will pick up a little knowledge, determination, and inspiration to go forward.

Improvements of educational opportunities in rural schools have made a good education available to almost every child. His entry into the college of his choice is no longer dependent upon the schools he attended, but on the effort he put forth while attending the schools, said Dr. Griggs, contrasting this to the early-day Texas schools that were not always educationally adequate.

Junior High Team Whips Ozona, 32-6

Every Junior High football team member saw action last Thursday, September 16, while handing Ozona a 32-6 defeat.

Snatching Ozona passes out of the air almost became a habit. Robert Mata intercepted three, Dwain Davis, one, and they turned them into Sonora touchdowns, putting the Sonora team out front. The extra points were added by Jesso Cook, David Wuest, and Robert Mata.

The squad is composed of 18 eighth graders and 16 seventh graders, working under the direction of Bob Snodgrass and Oliver Wuest.

In the opener of the season at Eldorado, the Junior High team walked over Eldorado 22-6.

THEY KNOW A GOOD THING

People of action, effectual people, movers, doers, workers—those are the people of Sutton County. Time and time again they have substantiated the old adage of "actions speak louder than words" by cooperating with one another to get something accomplished. The Diamond Jubilee was an excellent example of Sonorans' ability and willingness not only to get a job done, but also to do it well.

For at least 30 years, Sonorans have used this ability to support the Lions Auction. They know that many wonderful things are accomplished in a group effort through the Lions Auction, and they are willing to work tirelessly for this end.

Funds raised from this annual auction are used for aid to the blind, County welfare projects, the Fire Department, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, 4-H work, Little League, the Wool Show, school projects, the swimming pool, and a host of other community projects.

Last year the people of this area contributed $5,496 to these projects through the Lions Auction.

The extent of the generosity of the people of Sutton County is manifested when they are asked to donate livestock, merchandise, and other items, do it cheerfully, and then buy them back at unheard of prices.

But these people know a good thing when they see it. They know that they will be compensated in the good feeling they get from knowing that their money will be well spent for the benefit of the whole community.

The Sonora fire boys are again asking for the cooperation of the citizens when they answer fire calls. If people will stay off the streets and the telephone lines in town until several minutes after the ringing of the fire alarm, it will help the boys a great deal. As one of the boys put it, "We don't go tearing up to the fire hall, when the siren sounds, just for fun. We're trying to save someone's property. We do our job gladly, but we need the cooperation of every citizen to do our best."

September 27, 1935
Planned not at all in the form of a birthday gift, although today is the anniversary of his birth, nearly two hundred citizens of Sutton County this week signed a petition requesting that T. C. Murray, postmaster, be continued in office.

Perfect Partner for Steak

Families in the rice producing states (Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, and Texas) like big, thick, juicy steaks just as much as families in other parts of the country. But what they like to eat with their steak may differ from the steak accompaniments served elsewhere.

As you may have guessed, rice is a frequent partner for steak in the southern states which produce most of the rice used in this country. For example, Mushroom-Almond Rice, a favorite recipe from the files of a Texas homemaker, is often served with steak, and with roast beef, too. It is a savory mixture of rice cooked in beef bouillon with onion then mixed with sauteed almonds and mushrooms, and it takes lots less time to prepare than it does to broil a thick beef steak.

Indeed, families of the men who produce rice in this country like to eat rice in every conceivable way and rice is kept on hand at all times, uncooked and cooked — the latter stored in their refrigerators and home freezers. They know how easy it is to cook rice and how simple it is to reheat refrigerated and frozen rice. The magic 1-2-1 method of cooking rice, originated in the rice belt, is as follows: Combine 1 cup regular milled white rice, 2 cups water, and 1 teaspoon salt in a saucepan. Heat to boiling, stir once, cover, lower heat. Simmer 14 minutes. Do not peek. To reheat cooked rice, add 2 tablespoons liquid to each cup and cook, covered, for 4 to 5 minutes.

Mushroom Almond Rice
1 cup chopped onions
4 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 cup uncooked rice
2 cups beef bouillon
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup sliced almonds
1 can (4 1/2 oz.) sliced mushrooms
Cook onions in 2 tablespoons butter until tender. Add rice and continue cooking until golden. Add bouillon and pepper. Stir well. Heat to boiling. Cover pan, reduce heat and simmer 15 minutes or until liquid is absorbed. Saute almonds and mushrooms in remaining butter. When rice is tender, add almonds and mushrooms and toss lightly. Makes 6 servings.

Texas' Master Water Plan Embodies Advanced Ideas

AUSTIN — Texas' master water plan now is being developed.

It embodies concepts far more advanced than those of any other state, says Harvey O. Banks, San Francisco consulting engineer.

Banks, who sold California on kicking in $2,000,000,000 in state funds for a water supply for its mushrooming population growth, is a special advisor to the Texas Water Development Board.

Speaking to members of the Municipal Panel of the Texas Water Conservation Association, representing more than two-thirds of the Texas population, Banks warned West Texas to develop new pricing techniques by recognizing water is worth the price paid for it.

Banks was among several notable speakers informing city officials of the state's water planning efforts.

"Unless Texas is willing to put up a stack of cash, the state will not have any control over water policy decisions," he said.

Joe G. Moore Jr., new executive director of the Texas Water Rights Commission, said Texas' projects call for moving surplus water to areas where it is needed.

Moore's group will formulate plans for meeting water needs to the year 2020. Hearings will be held by the six-member board next summer in all river basin areas.

OIL PRODUCTION UP — For the first time in 10 years the Texas Railroad Commission hiked the October oil production allowable over September.

Commission ordered October production at 28.8 per cent of potential. That fixes allowable at 2,944,109 barrels a day.

September allowable was 2,864,660 barrels daily or 28 per cent of potential formula.

Last year's formula for October was 27.9 per cent.

Safety Department Reports One Death In Sutton County

A monthly report from the Texas Department of Public Safety shows that last month in Sutton County one person was involved in a personal injury accident and there were three property damage accidents.

The report further showed that one person in Sutton County has been fatally injured this year. In 1964 there were two fatal accidents.

Property damage in Sutton County for 1965 totals $39,840 as compared to $46,160 in 1964, according to the report.

Entomologists Urge Extreme Caution In Further Treatment of Cattle Grubs

By W. H. Newton and P. J. Hamman, Extension Entomologists, and M. A. Price, Texas A&M University

Cattle producers in the Edwards Plateau and Texas Hill Country areas should use extreme caution in treating for cattle grubs with systemic insecticides for the remainder of the season.

Large grubs are present in the gullets of cattle in some areas and a few grubs have begun to appear in the back as a result of unusually early heel fly activity last winter and early spring. The presence of large grubs in the body, particularly in the gullet, makes treatment with systemics risky. As a general rule, grub treatments should not be administered within 30 days of the time that the first grub normally appears in the back of the animal.

Under normal conditions, the heel fly emerges from the pupa during the first warm weather in early spring, from the latter part of February to late April, and begins to deposit eggs on the hairs of the animals' body in the leg and flank regions. In a few days the eggs hatch and the tiny larvae begin their slow migration through the subcutaneous tissues toward the gullet. Larvae may reach the gullet within from one or two weeks up to two months or more, depending on the distance travelled through the body.

Very little growth of the grubs occurs during this migration and the larvae reaching the gullet are scarcely larger than when first hatched from the egg. Larvae remain in the gullet tissues for several weeks, perhaps up to six months developing through one or two instars. The grubs then leave the gullet and begin their migration to the back of the animal where they appear as lumps or cysts three to six weeks later.

In most areas of Texas, grubs can normally be expected to appear in animals' backs from the latter part of September through January. However, in the Hill Country the situation has historically been more erratic with grubs appearing as early as late July and early August during some years. This means that heel fly activity occurs as early as November during some years.

The danger in treating with systemics too late in the season is the probability that larger, more advanced stages of the grub may be present in the gullet. The rapid absorption and activity of the systemic material results in fast kill of the larvae in the gullet. Activity of the dying grubs and the release of toxins from their body—a phenomenon not completely understood apparently results in a foreign protein reaction which involves rather severe inflammation and swelling of the gullet. Animals are unable to regurgitate and free their rumens of accumulating gases and bloat results. Death can follow in more severe cases if the bloat symptoms are not relieved.

In view of the early grub maturity which we have encountered, we are recommending that no further grub treatments be administered this season in the Hill Country and Edwards Plateau or on cattle which originated in that area of the state. In the future, we are anticipating a cut-off date of July 1 for grub control in this area of the state. Systemic grub control materials which are on the market include Ruelene 8R, Ruelene 25E, Co-Ral 4% Pour-on, Co-Ral 25% wettable powder and Ne-guvon 80% soluble powder. Any of these chemicals can conceivably cause reactions when used too late in the season so utmost caution should be observed. Animals should be observed for 36-48 hours following treatment for any possible adverse side effects.

House Bill 73 Releases Property Owner Of Responsibility of Hunters, Fishers

The most recent piece of Texas legislation that applies to outdoor recreation is House Bill 73. It became effective on September 1, 1965, says Sutton County Agent D. C. Langford.

The Act limits the liability of any owner, lessee or occupant of real property who gives permission to another person to enter his "premises" for purpose of hunting, fishing or camping. The word "premises" in this case means lands, waters, water courses and private ways including all buildings, structures, machinery and equipment.

House Bill 73, says Langford, is designed to encourage land uses for hunting, fishing or camping that are non-commercial. It does not limit or change in any way the liability that applies to commercial recreation enterprises that operate for a profit.

The provisions of the Act specifically state that if a landowner allows other persons to enter his premises for hunting, fishing or camping he does not (1) extend any assurance that the premises are safe for such purposes, or (2) owe a greater degree of care to persons granted permission than he owes to a trespasser, or (3) assume any responsibility for injury to persons or property caused by an act of persons granted permission.

Roe-ing Around

By Grady Roe

It was a fine and sunny September afternoon, perfect weather for the ceremonies that were to take place. Yes, on this day, Capable Casey, that fun-loving, nice, good, sweet, strong, brave, and a little bald hero was to drive the final spike in the last rail of the new railroad. This was to be done after the owner of the railroad made a speech and cut a ribbon. To top it all off, a brand new, sparkling, modern, diesel-type choo-choo would pull up to the station with free lemonade for everyone.

Casey was late in picking up his sweetheart, that fair, kind, cute, and long-nosed damsel, Sweet Sal. Sal's nose was so long, most people thought that she loved bananas, and was always eating one. When Casey finally did arrive at Sal's, she was a little mad that she had been kept waiting. Casey, driving a horse and buggy, explained, "Sal, I would've been here on time, but this is a new horse and his name is Star, and he's used to being ridden, so, it was just pretty hard to hitch my wagon to uh, er, Star."

When Sal came to, she and Casey were off to the ceremony. They arrived, it turned out, with plenty of time to spare before the big event, so, Casey decided to meet the new owner. He discovered the owner, who was somewhat nervous, tying strands of spaghetti together and eating his shoelaces.

"How do you do," said Casey, "I'm Casey, of the heroes." "Glad to meet you", was the reply, "I'm Billy King of the new railroad." "Hmmm," said Casey, "King of the road. Has a nice ring to it. I may write a song someday."

"What would you call it?" "Casey, of the Heroes, of course."

"Oh dear," said the owner, "it's nearly time to begin. I'm so nervous. Will you excuse me while I comb my tie and straighten my hair?"

This was soon done, and Casey, Sal, and King went to where the ribbon cutting was to take place. King grandly pulled out a pair of scissors, and stabbed a little older for the ceremonies that were to take place. Some of the people moved away a little, and out of range. King got two small children, and another lady, before he finally got his nerves under control, and began his speech. "In the words of that famous poet, scholar, and sweetheart of a guy, my father, Kong King...

Aha! Will the owner finish his speech? Will Casey stay awake? These are but unimportant questions. For, if one looks close enough, and stares real hard at that old man over there, he'll get eyestrain. But wait! That old man is really the evil, sinister, mean, cruel, somewhat naughty Black Bruce, who wants Sal for his own. What plan does he have in mind. Can Casey stop him? Continued next week.

Sonoran's Brother Receives Promotion To Major General

President Johnson nominated recently U.S. Marine Corps Brigadier General Wood B. Kyle for promotion to major general. Kyle is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kyle of Hillsboro and the brother of Mrs. Duke Wilson.

The nomination is contingent upon the approval of the Senate and would be effective as vacancies occur.

Presently, Kyle is serving as Deputy Chief of Staff at Marine Corps Headquarters in Washington, D.C. General Kyle, who earned two Silver Star medals during World War II, assumed his current assignment on November 2, 1963.

He was born March 3, 1915, in Pecos and completed high school in Hillsboro. The Seniors had fun exerting their authority last week. Several boys, including Libb Wallace, Carl Teaff, Grady Roe, Jerry Shurley, and Mike Wuest, boasted freshly polished shoes Thursday and Friday. The shoe-shine kids were, of course, freshmen. Among these were Lee Bloodworth, Monty Dillard, Susan Prugel, Bud Smith, and Terry Trainer. Everything went all right until Brenda Browne broke the bottle of shoe polish.

The biology room has been the center of attraction all week. There have been wasps, fish, horned toads, frogs, spiders (including a tarantella), and all sorts of creepy animals in there. Debbie Galbreath has the job of watering all of them. Debbie, tell them about the spiders crawling up your arm!

This week, two more clubs have been organized at school. Officers of the Speech Club are Gary McGilvray as president, Eddie Howell as vice-president, Brenda McCutchen as secretary, and Linda McBride as treasurer. Members of the Library Club elected Eddie Sawyer for president, Grady Roe for vice-president, Jan Cavaness, for secretary, and Eddie Howell for treasurer.

Former student Primo Gonzales is now playing half back at Angelo State College. Eddie Howell, along with several other football boys, went to San Angelo Saturday to watch the game between ASC and Sam Houston: Larry Shroyer was seen wearing a backless shirt Friday. Did you say Cee Wee Johnson might have had something to do with it, Larry?

Wade Stokes is going to school here this year. Brent Johnson has been limping around on an injured ankle this week. He said that he was going to start practice at the first of the week again, though. Did anyone see where Stan Bundy made a touchdown Friday night? It's kind of hard to do if you didn't even play, isn't it?

School pictures were made last Wednesday. There was the usual trading of ties and jackets among the boys, and the crowd of girls around the mirror. Rain at Rocksprings Friday night sure had everybody running. Prissy Howell reports that her cheerleading pompoms literally fell apart. The Broncos have scored two victories now. The coaches say that Sonora is going to mark up another Friday. What the coaches say usually goes, so BRONCOS, BEAT IRAAN !!!

THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE REGULARLY

HAPPY LANDING

This takes nerve! Imagine dropping into space with nothing but a "silk umbrella" between you and eternity! Yet men do it every day, and they trust that umbrella as we would trust our best friend.

Faith is something like that white parachute, as thousands upon thousands of Christians can testify. Faith upholds you and supports you, no matter how rough the going may be. Without faith in a loving God, man is very much alone . . . and man was never meant to deal with life's problems by himself.

Like the first parachute jump, faith isn't easy at the beginning. It takes courage to hand over the reins of one's life, but you can be sure of one thing . . . you'll always land on your feet. Strengthen your faith by attending the church of your choice.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

PP&K Registration
Open Until Oct. 8
At Sonora Motor

Registration for PP&K or Punt, Pass and Kick, a national contest sponsored in Sonora by Sonora Motor Co. opened September 1 and will continue through October 8, said John Bell, competition director for the contest.

PP&K enables boys to demonstrate their punting, passing, and kicking ability in competition for prizes. The zone competition will be held Saturday, October 9, at the football field. Points will be awarded for each foot of distance the ball travels on the fly. Points will be subtracted for each foot the ball lands to the left or right of a center line. A total of 18 local awards will be presented including warm-up jackets, football helmets, footballs, and trophies.

The contest will feature as prizes trips to National Football League games for district and area winners culminating with a "Tour of Champions" to Washington, D.C., and to the annual NFL Play-Off Bowl game for the 12 finalists.

The Sutton County area will have a zone winner who will be eligible to compete in District competition and possibly be among one of the six to win the national contest.

Headquarters for registration is Sonora Motor Co., managed by Joe Hull. Sutton County area boys, ages 8 through 13, must be accompanied by a parent or guardian at registration. This competition is free and no special equipment is needed. No body contact is involved.

Contestants upon registration will receive a booklet of PP&K competition tips written by Minnesota Vikings' punter, Bobby Walden; Cleveland Browns' quarterback, Frank Ryan; and St. Louis Cardinals' place-kicker, Jim Bakken.

Methodists To Hear Rev. Kermit Gibbons Hard-Fought Game Ends With 6-6 Tie

The Rev. Kermit Gibbons, district superintendent, will preach at First Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, September 26.

After the worship service, the first Quarterly Conference for the Conference Year will be conducted by the Rev. Mr. Gibbons. Also planned at the Methodist Church that evening is an ice cream social and fellowship period at 6:30 p.m.

"All church officials are expected to attend the Conference," states the Rev. Allen G. Roe, pastor, "and all church members are most welcome."

A 6-6 tie was the result of a hard-fought game Thursday, September 16 at Ozona between the Sonora and Ozona "B" teams.

The Sonora team scored with a pass from J. V. Cook to Ernest Berrera late in the fourth quarter. The extra point pass fell incomplete.

A battling line held the persistent Ozonans repeatedly from scoring a winning touchdown.

The "B" team won their opener at Eldorado, 14-6.

HELPING SONORA celebrate during the Jubilee was Leonardo Virgen, who was building fences in Sutton County from 1913 to 1959. His last fence was built for Mrs. Frank Thompson.

Boosters Discuss Friday's Prospects

Prospects of the Friday, Sept. 24 game with Iraan, the first district game of the Bronco season, were discussed by members of the Booster Club and Sonora coaches last Monday night when the club met.

Members pointed out that Iraan had scored a victory over last year's district champions, the Big Lake Owls, and that the result of this game might well forecast the outcome of District 8-A.

A film of the Sonora-Rocksprings football game was viewed at this meeting. Sonora defeated Rocksprings 39-0 last Friday night in Rocksprings.

The Sonora "B" team and the Junior High team will meet Eldorado here Thursday, and Booster Club members urged everyone to come out and support these teams.

E. Schlieter Speaks Dr. Browne Speaks at Cancer Meeting To Proposed Lodge

Edward Schlieter, head of the Elks Lodge organizational committee for Texas, was guest speaker at the proposed Sonora Elks Lodge meeting Monday, September 20, in the Parish Hall of St. John's Episcopal Church. Schlieter discussed the steps of becoming a chartered Elks Lodge.

The next scheduled meeting is next Monday, September 27, in the Parish Hall. John Martin, organization chairman for Sonora, urges that everyone interested in becoming a member of the Elks Lodge attend this meeting.

Dr. Charles F. Browne, guest speaker at the Sutton County Cancer Society meeting Thursday, September 16, said that the main objective of the educational phase of the Cancer Society program was to inform more people about cancer and how to recognize the danger signals.

He emphasized that this year the Cancer Society would stress the early recognition of the disease. He also said that 15 percent of all cancer victims would be alive today had their cases been diagnosed earlier.

Dr. Browne warned of the effects of cigarette smoking on the lungs. He said that the most prevalent form of cancer today is lung cancer and that five percent of those people who have lung cancer are not alive five years after it is discovered. He pointed out that if people would stop smoking, 75 percent of lung cancer could be prevented.

The American Cancer Society area representative was at the meeting and presented Mrs. W. B. McMillan and Mrs. Alvis Johnson with outstanding service certificates. The Sutton County Cancer Society also received a certificate for breaking the goal set in the Cancer Drive and bettering the previous year's total.

The group also viewed a film about skin cancer entitled "Sense in the Sun".

The Dutch-treat supper was held at the Commercial Restaurant and 29 persons attended.

Plans were made for members of the Cancer board to attend a district meeting in San Angelo, September 28.
