Donations Make It Possible

The Sonora Chamber of Commerce made a donation to the Food and Resource Center of Sutton County (Food Pantry) in the amount of $2500. This is made possible because of all the support the chamber receives through sponsorships and membership. Pictured above are Paul Ramsdell, Treasurer of the Food Pantry, Leigh Lloyd, Chair of the Food Pantry, Corey Norrell, President of the Sonora Chamber of Commerce and Donna Garrett executive Director of the Sonora Chamber of Commerce.

The Food and Resource Center of Sutton County will hold it's first Food Distribution on Tuesday October 28th from 1 to 6 pm. The Food and Resource Center is located at 704 Glascock, on the corner of Glascock and 277 South. To register and receive food, bring a photo ID and prove of income or need to the facility on Tuesday.

The Food and Resource Center is a grass-roots effort by the citizens of Sutton County. Their mission is to positively impact Sutton County by providing free and reduced-cost access to the social services, nutrition, and skills training that help bring people out of poverty and improve health. The Board of Directors consists of: President - Leigh L. Lloyd; Vice-President; Noemi Samaniego; Secretary - Linda Cahill; Treasurer - Paul Ramsdell; Shirley Payton, Carl Teaff, and Jennifer Nichols.

The Center partners with the Concho Valley Regional Food Bank, Sonora Bank and Sonora ISD to provide the Food 2 Kids program in our local schools. Most of our food is purchased from the Food Bank in San Angelo. To volunteer at the Food and Resource Center contact Linda Fisher.

this techno hit "Can't Stop The Rock (Run)" for the Crane Golden Cranes before the game started. Sonora finished the game with 457 rushing yards as the Broncos rolled to a 48 to 29 district win. Last Friday night was Homecoming for the Sonora Broncos. The Broncos met the Crane Golden Cranes for the second district game of the season. Crane is one of the very few teams that has a winning record against the Broncos. As the teams met in the center of field for the Acevedo and Sid Anderson were not going to be playing. Acevedo is the leading rusher for the Broncos, and Anderson is one of the leading tacklers from his linebacker position.

Crane won the toss and elected to receive. The first two plays of the game were penalties: one against each team. Crane opened with a play action pass play. Ethan Patlan, Lionel DeLeon and Liam Yourgalite pressured the Crane quarterback into throwing the pass into the ground to avoid a sack. The second play was the quick pass to the right, but it was way over the receiver's head. Their third down pass was incomplete. Their quarterback pooch punted, and Louie Castro fair caught it.

Elijah Cross got the first Bronco carry, and he gained 12 yards and a first down. After a holding penalty against the Broncos, Brett Castillo came up the middle on the second man through option and gained 37 yards to the 23-yard line. After Hughes missed his first pass attempt, he kept the ball on the read option and gained 16 yards setting up a first and goal at the seven. Castillo took a quick pitch and came right up the middle for the first touchdown of the game. The Broncos tried the swinging gate. Gabe Rollert got the play started by snapping the ball to Cross. Crane was ready for it, and Cross was stopped short of the end zone. With 9:43 left in the first, the Broncos led 6 to 0.

Hughes executed an onside kickoff and Jonathan Gutierrez recovered. Sonora was not able to capitalize as they lost a fumble three plays later.

Crane tried to run, but Patlan stormed through and tackled the player for a one-yard loss. The second play was an incomplete pass. On third down, they managed a run for a five-yard gain. Crane's quarterback punted, and the ball rolled to the Broncos' 14-yard line. Runs by Castillo and Cross moved the chains to the 27-yard line. Hughes took the snap and started the option play to his right. When the linebacker committed on Hughes, he pitched the ball to Castillo who turned the corner and ran 73 yards for the second Bronco touchdown. From the swinging gate, Hughes took the snap and rolled to his right looking to throw. As he got near the right sideline, he decided to do it himself. He split two defenders for the two-point conversion. With 6:01 left in the first, the Broncos led 14 to 0.

On the ensuing kickoff, Luke James and Michael Mungia helped tackle the returner at the Cranes' 23-yard line. Crane threw a quick pass to the left where James once again was the first to make contact. Patlan got another

On behalf of all the employees and Directors of Sonora Bank, it is our privilege to make this commitment for a $25,000 donation.

This check is made payable to the Sutton County Health Foundation for the benefit of the Food Pantry Program. An additional $10,000 will be sent to on January 15, 2015, and the remaining balance of $10,000 on January 15, 2016.

It is our privilege to assist the Sonora Food Bank in funding this important program. Sonora is both fortunate and blessed to have such a dedicated group of volunteers to put this wonderful program in place that will feed and educate our citizens in need.

Thank you for all you are doing for our community!

Would you ever tell someone that they look fat? That they'll never be able to run that 5K? That they can't cook worth a dang? That their nose is too big? That they're too weak? That they just aren't good enough? Then why on earth would you ever say that to yourself? Give yourself the same courtesy you would give others. The way we speak to ourselves can hold us back or move us forward. Don't marinate in negative thoughts. We are all beloved children of God. Each of us has the power of the Holy Spirit inside. We are all part of a mighty kingdom. Marinate in that! When your thoughts are full of optimism, hope, confidence, gratitude, and blessings – so shall your life be.

Colts Take Two from Crane

By Nancy Glasscock

The 7th grade Colts bounced back from the Grape Creek loss last week and defeated the 7th grade team from Crane 18-14 last Thursday night at home.

The Colts got off to a bumpy start but finally put points on the board with eleven seconds left in the first quarter. Jalen Lopez set up the Dermody touchdown after a great run to the one-yard line. The try for two was no good. Crane scored twice and had one good two-point conversion to make the score Crane 14 Sonora 6.

Later in the game, Wilson Johnson completed a halfback pass to Lopez in the end zone. The two-point conversion failed again. The score was 14-12 in Crane's favor. With time running out in the fourth quarter, it appeared the Colts were going to lose the team's second consecutive game. The Colts got the ball back with less than a minute and a half left in the game. Lopez made an incredible catch, broke several tackles and was finally brought down at the one-yard line. Center Jansen Morris snapped the ball to Dermody who made it across the goal line for the winning touchdown due to the offensive line's push.

There was no question which team was in charge of the 8th grade Colts' game against Crane right from the start. Wesley Dutton took the Crane kickoff, 75 plus yards for the first touchdown. Brandon Martinez kicked the first of two extra points, and the Colts never looked back.

At the half, the score was 20-0 after two more Colt touchdowns. JR Velasquez took the ball and ran 82 yards scoring the Colts' second touchdown. Then Dutton went to the air and threw a long touchdown pass to a streaking Dylan Taylor in the end zone for the third Colt score.

A Crane kickoff returner took the third quarter opening kick-off all the way for the only points the visitors scored. The Colts quickly put more points on the scoreboard after Brian Van Winkle caught a pass on the home sideline. Dutton then passed to Velasquez to make the score 26-6 in Sonora's favor.

Dutton returned a Crane punt for a touchdown. The Cranes no sooner got the ball back on offense than Willie B. Munoz intercepted a pass in the flat. Dutton then kept the ball on the read option and took it around the right to make the final score 40-6.

Next Thursday, both Colts teams travel to play TLCA's middle school teams at Lakeview Stadium in San Angelo.

We'd like to express a huge thank to everyone who was able to attend both the Homecoming Parade and Sonora's Toast to Texas Wine. It was a great weekend!

We had such a great line-up for the Homecoming Parade including cheerleaders and football players of all age groups, Little Miss and Mr. Sutton County, Sonora Police Department, Sutton County Sheriff Department, Fire Department, Mighty Bronco Band, the Caverns of Sonora, Bronco Stampede, Athletic Trainers, and of course our Homecoming Court. Our winners include Sonora Bronco Cheer for Most Spirited, Col. Pete Bradley and family for Best Decorated Vehicle, and the Sonora Bank for Best Decorated Float! We'd like to thank Bronco Nutrition, Bronco Salon, Buck N Bass, Gigi's Deli, Main Street Salon, and Sew Addicted, for providing gift certificates for prizes. Thank you to the City of Sonora and Sonora Police Department for blocking the streets.

We are so pleased to be able to put together the second annual Sonora's Toast to Texas Wine, but of course we couldn't do it without a lot of help. We want to thank our vintners for making the trip giving Sonora a taste of their passion. Thank you, William Chris Vineyards, Val Verde Winery, Wedding Oak Winery, and Christoval Vineyards. Thank you, Kuebel Family Generations for you luxurious goat milk products. Thank you, Kellie Martin, Karen Roach, and Shalayne Mayfield for providing the artwork and photography. We'd like to thank Sew Addicted and Mr. D's for providing gift baskets. Thank you, Sonora Police Department and Officer Gary Hall for making sure our event was kept safe. We would like to thank Janelle Sparks, manager of the Mercantile Building for the venue. A big thank you is owed to Gigi's Deli, Linda Love-Cahill and Ann Morris for the food, venue, help setting up, and clean up after the event. We'd like to thank Scott Jordan, Erika Campbell, Mac Mayhew, Steve Fuqua, Mike and Sandy Glover for helping set up and clean up.

We'd like to thank Eddy Smith at KHOS and Tabitha Sanchez-Abrego at KLDE for providing us time on the morning show, The Sonora Voice, The Devil's River News, Eldorado Success, the Ozona Stockman, and the Junction Eagle for running our articles and ads.

Sweet or Sour For The Pork?

By Pascual Hernandez

It is estimated that there are over 2 million feral hogs in Texas. The ever-increasing pest is harming water quality, landscapes, gardens, native plant and animal communities, and agricultural production in many areas of the state. Trapping is one method of control. Two keys to success are trap placement and pre-baiting.

Feral hogs are omnivores; they eat both plants and animals, thus a wide array of baits can be used with success. So the question arises, "What kind of foods are they most attracted to when trying to trap them?"

One size does not fit all when it comes to baits. However, research by Dr. Tyler Campbell (formerly with USDA-APHIS/WS) suggests that wild pigs are attracted to baits that have a sweet pungent odor, such as strawberry or berry flavorings. That's why we see several commercial "pig baits" that contain some type of strawberry flavoring. Many baits work, and landowners are encouraged to vary baits among traps to find out what pigs find most attractive at a particular location or season. However, the more abundant the food supply, the more difficult it is to attract pigs to these baits.

Shelled corn is often used, but landowners have also been successful by fermenting corn, milo, rice, or oats to increase the odor attraction. Old fish grease, catfish "stink" baits and overripe fruit and vegetables have also been used successfully. Still others have used maple syrup on corn.

Some research in the southeast indicated that while catch rates were no different between shelled corn and soured corn, we know from experience that non-target species such as raccoons or deer use shelled corn more than a soured grain product. Please note: We do not advocate the use of diesel on corn to encourage use by wild pigs and discourage use by non-targets such as deer or raccoons because we do not know the full impacts of diesel ingestion by the pigs—some of which may be destined for human consumption.

When it comes to toxic baits, research at the Kerr Wildlife Area has concentrated on sodium nitrite, a toxicant that has been used with good results against feral hogs in Australia. Sodium nitrite kills by disrupting blood's ability to carry oxygen to the brain. Pigs are highly susceptible to sodium nitrite because, unlike humans and other mammals, they lack the ability to produce an enzyme that reverses the effects.

Research indicates the poisoned pigs pose little or no threat to scavengers or predators. Developing bait/sodium nitrite mixtures that deliver a lethal dose to swine and a "delivery system" - a feeder that feral hogs can access but can't be used by non-target wildlife - are the focus of research at the Kerr.

This is one of several topics that will be addressed at the Wildlife Ranches Workshop slated for October 28 at the Sutton County Civic Center. The 9 a.m. program also features topics such as "The Biology of Texas' Main Exotics" and "Managing Habitat For Multiple Species". Cost to attend is $20 and includes program materials, a catered lunch, and 3 continuing education units (CEUs) for those with a pesticide applicator license. Call the Sutton County Extension Office at 387-3101 for registration or more information.

tackle for a loss. On third down, Rollert intercepted, and the Crane drive was over.

After two runs lost yardage, Hughes threw deep to Rollert who leaped, caught, and then ran for a 37-yard reception to Broncos' 13-yard line. Three plays later, Bryan Garcia ran for a first down at the Broncos' five-yard line. On first down, Hughes tossed a touchdown pass to tight end Jonathan Martinez. Hughes' kick hit the left upright, and the PAT was no good. The scoreboard displayed 20 Bronco points to none for the Cranes. There was still 1:26 left in the first quarter.

Just as it looked like the game was going to be a complete blowout for the Broncos, Crane scored on a 73-yard touchdown pass to make the score 20 to 7 with five seconds left in the first quarter.

Noah SanMiguel returned the kickoff about thirty yards. Then he got the wide receiver in motion pitch and gained twelve yards and a first down. The duo of Hughes and Rollert moved the chains when Rollert caught a quick pass on the slant pattern. Castro caught the next pass and moved the ball to 25-yard line. Hughes kept the ball and gained 15 yards to the 10-yard line. A promising drive ended when a high snap led to a scramble for the ball and an eventual lost fumble.

Crane managed to run for one first down before the Bronco pass rush caused a three and out. Castro fair caught their punt at the Broncos' 44-yard line. Sonora ran three times and gained only three yards. They were now facing fourth and seven from their own 47-yard line. Coach Phillips showed his faith in both the offense and defense and went for it. Hughes handed off to Castillo. He was hit short of the first down, but he refused to go down. His second effort moved the chains. Castillo got the ball again, and he gained about 20 yards. Two plays later, Hughes ran 13 yards untouched into the end zone for the next Bronco touchdown. Hughes kicked the PAT, and the score was now 27 to 7 in favor of the Broncos with 2:50 left in the first half. Each team had some plays on offense, but neither could score before the half ended.

Crane kicked off to start the second half. Carter Zook covered the football at the Broncos' 33-yard line. Hughes hooked up with Rollert for the first down. The drive ended on a questionable call. Hughes threw to SanMiguel. It was ruled a catch and fumble instead of an incomplete pass. The Cranes had great field position deep in Bronco territory.

The Bronco defense was determined to keep the Cranes from scoring. Crane did manage one first down before disaster for them hit. The Crane quarterback tried to throw a screen pass to defeat the Bronco rush. Jarred Willey stepped in front of the running back, intercepted, and ran 79 yards for a pick six. Hughes PAT kick was good, and the Broncos led 34 to 7.

Crane had a good return on the Broncos' kickoff. After one first down, Crane turned the ball over on downs. After three plays, the Broncos were once again facing fourth and long. Hughes started to his right on the option play. He pitched the ball to Castillo who gained 20 yards for a first down at the Cranes' 30-yard line. Cross got the handoff and sprinted for his first touchdown of the season. After the PAT, the Broncos led 41 to 7 with 5:08 left in the third.

Three plays after the kickoff, Crane scored on a 57-yard pass play. They tried a pass for two points, but the Broncos had it defended and it fell incomplete. The score with 3:55 left in the third quarter was 41 to 13 in favor of the Broncos.

The Broncos started the next drive on their own 34-yard line. This drive featured a 20-yard run by Hughes and a 15-yard run by Kevin Martinez. Zook got the wide receiver reverse pitch and gained 13 yards for a first down at the Cranes' 28-yard line. A fifteen yard penalty for a chop block ended this drive.

Crane answered with their best drive of the game. They mixed a few runs with some crisp passing to score their third touchdown on a one yard run. They passed successfully on the PAT. Crane had narrowed the score to 41 to 21 with 9:35 left in the game.

The Broncos made one first down before being forced to punt. Rollert punted for the first time in his varsity career. It was a beauty. It covered 39 yards. It was a high spiral that was fair caught by Crane at their 32-yard line.

Crane came out throwing. On their third play, they threw deep and Castillo intercepted for the Broncos. Cross broke through the line and rambled 30 yards to Crane's 20-yard line. Garcia got three consecutive carries and he scored the last Bronco touchdown on an eleven yard run. After a successful kick, Sonora had the game in hand with a score of 48 to 21 with 3:15 left in the game.

Crane drove the field and scored a touchdown and two point conversion to make the final score 48 to 29.

The Broncos had 25 first downs to only 9 for the Cranes. The Cranes rushed 20 times for only 4 yards. Sonora ran the ball 48 times and gained 457 yards for 9.5 yards per carry.

Hughes completed 8 out of 19 for 123 yards. He also rushed 9 times for 50 yards. Cross and Castillo rushed for 115 yards on 9 carries and 189 yards on 12 carries respectively.

This week the Broncos travel to Lake View Stadium to play TLCA. The JV Broncos will be at Bronco Stadium while the Colts travel to San Angelo.

CITY OF SONORA VOTERS TO CONSIDER SALES TAX INCREASE

Each year budgets have to be stretched to accommodate the city expenditures with the daily city services, projects, and our ongoing sewer and water infrastructure. The increased demands with rising costs needed for maintenance, repairs, and infrastructure payments have caused the city to possibly having to dip into budget reserves. To offset with this expenditures, the City Council has passed an ordinance to bring to the voters in the November 4, 2014 election to increase the sales tax from the current 8% to 8.25%. All the surrounding small and large cities where some of us make purchases are currently charging 8.25% in sales tax. The advantage to increasing the sales tax is that it is broad-base tax, not limited to property owners, but shared by all persons including all the tourist who purchase taxable items in the city. The impact on local residents is neutral since the income generated by the sales tax count as a credit in the General Fund Budget, thus reducing the property tax accordingly.

An example of the total amount that you would have to pay extra in a $20.00 purchase would be an additional 5 cents if the new tax rate passes.

Early Voting by personal appearance will be conducted at City Hall, 201 E. Main St. on October 20, 2014 to October 31, 2014. Election Day will be on November 4, 2014 at City Hall for both Ward 1 and Ward 2. Please note that the Additional Sales and Use Tax Election will be the only one being conducted at City Hall and only registered voters that live within the city limits are eligible to vote for this election.

holds to 5 plays and we have the ball back! This time Braden Bailey goes for 30 yards on a quarterback bootleg and well let's just say he's got some good wheels on him as no one came close! 2-point conversion fails on an incomplete pass. On 3rd and long little Jorge Lejia picks the ball and takes it 40 yards for another touchdown!!! 2-point conversion was successful on a fake reverse that was ran PERFECT! Defensively we made a few changes and it paid off! Not many can take a 4 year old and make him a linebacker!!! But anyone in our town knows of a young kid named Buddha and let's just say he's a tough little guy!! Slevin Solis was moved to rusher and he had a dominate game!! He did however get a little to expected, as tackled one of the other players! That resulted in the only first down our defense gave up! Our outside linebackers had an awesome game as Ashton Bryant and Carmello Alvizo had constant pressure on the other team and had a field day pulling flags! The secondary of course had a pick six, and never gave up a completion! I've said it all season and it's stayed true! Our defense is our heart and soul!

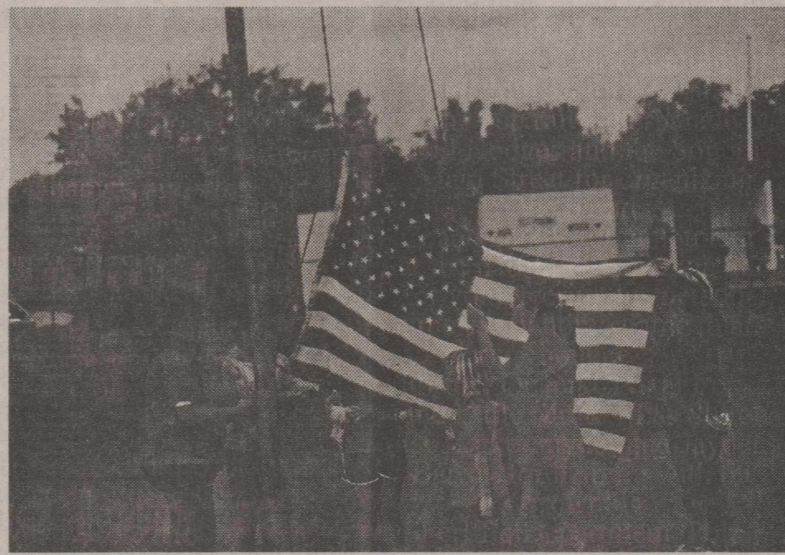

The hustle and aggression is unmatched! Even when we lost we shut teams down that averaged high scoring games! I'm so proud of these young men! They have fought hard all year and it payed off! Regional tourney is Nov. 1 in San Angelo Texas. Times for the games are still TBA.

I would like to say congratulations to the Sonora bronco team as they pulled of three wins in a row and finished to season strong! Great job guys!!

I must say thank you you our amazing cheerleaders!! Girls y'all worked so hard this year and it showed! I'm so proud to have each one of you at each game! The time and practice you put into it paid off and showed, you had my team feeling like a varsity team! Words will not or cannot be enough to express my gratitude to each of you! To the coaches thank you from the bottom of my heart for being apart of duh a great experience for me, my coaches, parents and family!! You are bronco nation!

Well here it is Sonora! Your Team Horse-Power showing everyone where we come from and what we bring when we play!!

Girl Scouts

By Nancy Glasscock

I was a Girl Scout. Back in the day, girls started as Brownie Scouts in the second grade. That's when I started my memorable scouting adventure in a little town the size of Sonora. Our meetings were every Tuesday after school in the Methodist Church basement. I loved the meetings, the summer day camp at Whisky Hollow, and especially selling cookies. In those days, you actually sold the cookies door to door. I peddled cookies in my part of town that were piled in a red wagon. I was a self-motivated, outgoing salesperson. It also helped me learn how to make change!

In the fifth grade, I became a Girl Scout. It was fun earning badges and going on overnight campouts. I learned how to cook in cast iron kettles buried in the ground. In the eighth grade, my scouting adventure came to an end. There was no Senior Troop in my town. I never lost my love of scouting and later was a Committee person for my son's Scout Troop.

According to current research that contacted several thousand women who had scouting experience as children and teens, these women display significantly more positive life outcomes than non-Girl Scout alumni. Former Girls Scouts who completed the survey had a greater perception of their self-worth, felt more competent and capable. These former scouts also mentor and volunteer with more youth organizations and other community endeavors.

The National Girl Scouts organization is 102 years old. We are very fortunate to have mothers in Sonora who want to continue the tradition. Nancy Jimenez and Alicia Herrera meet with groups of Daisies and Brownies at the Scout Hut on Water Street. If anyone is interested in attending a meeting please call Alicia at (325)226-0146 or Nancy at (325)226-1443

Thank You

The students of Sonora High School would like to say a huge "THANK YOU" to some of our local community members for making Homecoming 2014 such fun and a great success:

- Kate Jennings & Lindsey Geske and the SHS Student Council for the Tailgate Lunch & Homecoming Olympics
- John Creek and his staff for cooking at the SHS Homecoming Tailgate Lunch
- Sara Hogan & Katy Baugh & the SHS Cheerleaders for the fun dress up days and the awesome pep rally on Main and for all they do
- The Mighty Bronco Band for all the music at the pep rallies and games
- Mr. Louis James for the giant "S" for burning and the sounding of the horn every Friday night
- The Sonora Volunteer Fire Department for being on hand at the burning of the letters
- Wylie Wagoner for volunteering his DJ services at the burning pep rally
- David Creek for donating all of his trailers for use during the pep rally and parade
- Bill Hodges and the Sonora Main Street for organizing the parade
- Coach Dukes for announcing at the half time crowning and for volunteering his personal time every home game to announce
- Former Queen Crystal Lopez and Little Mr. & Miss Sutton Co. Luke Snyder and Jayden Barron for helping with the crowning
- Sheriff's Department, Police and EMS for leading the parade and for always watching over us when needed
- All of the "football moms" for decorating downtown
- The Bronco football coaches and team for giving us a reason to celebrate

The community of Sonora for always being so supportive of all the students of Sonora Mr. Hartman, Mr. Wimberley and all of the teachers at Sonora High School for allowing us to enjoy Homecoming Week and for enduring all of the craziness that it brings... We are so blessed to be a part of Sonora ISD.

Lowe's Register Tapes for Education Program
The Intermediate and Elementary school are starting the Lowe's Register Tapes for Education Program for the 2014-2015 school year!

Beginning on August 17, 2014 running through March 31, 2015, parents, families and friends of your students can collect our register tapes and contribute them to our school. We will then redeem the value of those register tapes for free educational equipment from the Lowe's Register Tape Education Program catalog.

The key to the success of this program is for the community to help us by saving their Lowe's receipts and turning them in to either the Intermediate or Elementary office!

Thank you for your help!

Sutton County Friends Of NRA 2014 - Another Successful Year

By Tonya Brown

Sutton County Friends of NRA held its 7th Annual Dinner/Auction on Saturday, 9/20/14. The Sutton County Civic Center was decorated red, white and blue to emphasize the evening's theme: To Honor Our Veterans. Although attendance was down from previous years, those in attendance showed their $$$ when it came to the game participation and the Live Auction. Auctioneer, Buck Buchanan, kept the ball rolling while bidders bid against a family member, friend, neighbor or out of town guest.

The committee awarded 5 Veterans a special gift in appreciation for their services to our country. Each received a US Flag encased with a Letter of Authenticity from the Port Authority of NY and a 9-11 First Responder medalion. The flags were flown over Ground Zero on 9-10-14. Drawn recipients were: Joe Schaefer, Sonora TX - Jim Neddo, San Angelo TX

- Daniel Candler, Del Rio TX - Deene Holden, Ozona TX and a final presentation to the voice of KHOS, Mr. Eddy Smith, Sonora TX. This presentation was given in memory and appreciation of service for US Veteran, George E Smith, Sr., Eddy's father. Special music was provided by the Vocal Fusion quartet of San Angelo TX. They performed The National Anthem to open the evening and closed the evening with the Lee Greenwood song: GOD Bless the USA!

The committee was pleased with this year's event and once again reached the goal of maintaining High Caliber Club status. This is earned if the committee has a net profit of $25,000 or more. Committee members take great pride knowing that their hard work has paid off and local organizations are benefiting from their efforts. Monies raised at West Texas Friends of NRA events comes back to West Texas. The NRA Foundation receives 50% of net proceeds to fund state and national safety & educational programs. The other 50% comes back to West Texas in the form of grant money. Sutton County 4H Shooting Club, Eaton Hill Nature Center, City of Sonora Police Department and Sutton County Sheriff's Department has received grant money from the West Texas Friends of NRA.

Sutton County Friends of NRA thank Sonora citizen's and all our out of town guests for being supportive of efforts to preserve our Second Amendment rights. The organization has received many unsolicited donations throughout the last several years and appreciate each and every one. Donations allow the committee to net more event proceeds. In turn, those proceeds go to educate and promote tomorrow's youth.

Do your part and join us on September 19, 2015 for our 8th annual event. Mark your calendars now!
