? YOUR NAME ?

By CHARLES DIDWAY

TAYLOR

If your name is Taylor you have the distinction of being the possessor of one of the commonest English surnames. The other two are Smith and Brown.

Taylor, meaning "a maker of outer garments," comes from the French "tailleur" (to cut). In German, the equivalent of Taylor is Schneider, derived from "schneiden" (cutting). The spelling of Schneider has been Anglicized in some cases to give us the rather common family name Snyder.

The transition of Taylor from "tailor" is attributed to the inconsistency of early English spelling.

Zachary Taylor, twelfth president of the United States, and a military hero, was the descendant of an English immigrant as the "Other famous Taylors have included Bayard Taylor, poet and traveler, and Henry Osborn Taylor, American author.

BUCY

This surname is cloaked in uncertainty so far as an unimpeachable interpretation of its meaning is concerned. However, there are a number of Bucys scattered throughout the United States—all good, substantial citizens. The most reasonable opinion as to the derivation of the name is that it is of French origin, from the same source as the name Bussey. The latter name comes from the French "DeBussey," which designated "one from the province of Basse," which is near Paris. Claude Debussy (1862-1918) was a French composer.

COLLINS

If Collins is your name, it is a certainty that some remote ancestor bore the given name of "Nicholas." Collins means "the son of Collin," and the latter name is a diminutive form of Nicholas, a common Christian name in England. The name Collins appears in the Domesday Book, a tax record compiled more than 800 years ago in Scotland. Anthony Collins was an English author and freethinker.

GARDNER

The surname Gardner, spelled also Gardener and Gardiner, is of occupational origin, denoting "one who tended a garden," an occupation of no little importance back in the days when family names were being ascribed. One of the earliest bearers of this name in America was Lion Gardiner who came to these shores in 1653 from Scotland. Percy Gardner was an eminent English educator.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this opportunity to express our gratitude and appreciation to the many friends for their kindness, sympathy, and beautiful floral offerings during the recent illness and death of our beloved husband and father.

Mrs. G. L. Blackshear, children, and grandchildren.

Evelyn Jennings
And Joe Wicker
Married July 23

Miss Evelyn Jennings of Muleshoe and Mr. Joe Wicker of Slaton were married in Clovis, N. M. Wednesday evening, July 23, by Rev. J. T. Barbee at the Baptist parsonage.

Mrs. Wicker is the daughter of G. O. Jennings of Muleshoe and is well and favorably known here. She was a member of the 1938 graduating class of the Muleshoe high school and for the past year and a half she has been employed at St. Clair's Variety Store.

Mr. Wicker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wicker of Slaton. He is employed by the Santa Fe Railway system as timekeeper and recently has been on special work here and at Sudan.

Attendants at the marriage ceremony were Miss Mary Katherine Hammons and Roy Bagley, of Muleshoe.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lassiter and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Harrison of Amarillo spent the weekend in Muleshoe visiting in the home of Mrs. Harrison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Beavers.

Jack Bates, accompanied by Hugh White of Sudan, left Wednesday of last week on a trip to Arizona and California. They visited Audie Luttrell in Arizona. He is a former Bailey county resident who is now in the Army.

FUNERAL HELD AT OLTON FOR ORIS W. COLEMAN

Funeral services for Oris William Coleman, 29, first casualty of the wheat harvest in this region, were held July 22 at Olton. Coleman died presumably of a heart attack, while he was working in the wheat field Monday afternoon at his home in the West Side community. He collapsed while standing on a truck and catching bundles of wheat his father was pitching up to him.

SURVEY UNDERWAY, LAMB COUNTY ROAD PROJECTS

Surveying began last week on three lateral roads out of Amherst on which the road district voted $90,000 bonds to construct sometime ago.

The projects planned are north from Amherst on the Earth road, five miles; south from Amherst, five and one-half miles, and from Amherst to Speers Gin.

PUBLISHER AND SOCIETY EDITOR MARRIED JULY 18

Miss Ruth Maples of Levelland and Forster Weimhold, editor of the Sudan News and Hockley County Herald at Levelland were married Friday night, July 18, at the Baptist parsonage at Morton with Rev. A. A. Brian, pastor of the First Baptist church of Levelland performing the ceremony.

Mr. Weimhold is well known in Lamb and Bailey counties, and Mrs. Weimhold has been society editor of the Levelland paper for the past year.

Young man in hospital: Nurse, I've fallen in love with you. If I get well I'll have to leave, so I don't want to get well.

Nurse: Don't worry, you won't. The doctor's in love with me, too, and he saw you kissing me this morning.

Cannibal King: What are we having for lunch today?

Cook: A couple of old maids.

King: Ugh! Leftovers again.

Bula Young Man Receives Injury While Swimming

J. W. Fahrlander, 23, a resident of Bula and a truck driver on the East-West road now under construction, sustained serious injuries to his left leg in an accident at Monument Lake in south Bailey county about 3 p. m. Sunday. Fahrlander is a son of Mrs. L. W. Painter of Bula.

The young man with a number of friends was swimming at the lake. W. B. Gage, Bula ginmer, was operating a motor boat, and Fahrlander caught his leg in the boat's propeller.

Gage was leaving the shore with a party of young people for a swim around the lake when one of the young ladies called to Fahrlander to get her wrist watch. Not knowing that the young man was near the boat, Gage started the motor and raced away out into the lake. He returned to the shore in a few minutes and learned that Fahrlander had been injured and had been pulled from the water by companions.

Mr. Gage took off his shirt, and with the assistance of another man, pulled it tight around the injured leg to prevent loss of blood. The injured man was taken to a Littlefield hospital for treatment and up to Wednesday of last week had received three blood transfusions. Fahrlander's physician reported that he suffered a complete severance of all the muscles in the calf of his left leg, which was partially cut off. His condition has been reported fair but satisfactory.

Premiums for individual cotton growers, the AA figures continued, will be figured on a lint cotton basis. Payment of premiums will be made with a commodity note which each grower will be required to sign guaranteeing payment of the premium on or before maturity date. The maturity date is at about the time cotton is picked or about the time indemnities are usually paid.

In paying the note, Arnold continued, it may be paid either in cotton or the cash equivalent. In the event the note is not paid when it matures, the cash amount of the premium will be deducted from the indemnity paid the grower, or from the first Government payments he receives. These payments include cotton loan, parity payments and AA payments.

Rev. Mitchell Is Supply Pastor For Clovis Church

The following news item is from the Curry County Times (Clovis) of July 24:

Rev. Jess Mitchell, recently of Muleshoe, Texas, where he has been newspaper editor for several years has accepted the supply pastorate of the Presbyterian church in this city, during the enforced absence of Rev. Clyde Barton, regular pastor, occasioned by his need of rest and health recuperation.

Rev. Mitchell filled the pulpit of this church last Sunday morning, speaking to a very attentive audience, many of whom, at the close of the service, expressed their great appreciation of his message.

Rev. Mitchell is a regularly ordained minister of the Presbyterian church, has enjoyed several successful years' experience as pastor, filling some of the larger pulpits of this western area, and is a forceful and eloquent speaker. He has spoken in Clovis on various occasions during the past and is already well and favorably known to many local citizens.
