Blood drive Nov. 29

Haskell's next Red Cross community blood drive will be from 1 to 5 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 29, at the First Baptist Church activity center.

"We're asking all area residents to roll up their sleeves and donate," said Brian Burgess, local blood drive chairman. "At the end of our last blood drive in July we had collected 31 pints of blood. We think we can do better than that if every person eligible to give will do his part. Our goal is 50 units."

To be eligible, donors must be 17 to 70 years old, weigh at least 110 pounds, be in good general health and must not have given blood for at least 56 days.

Burgess stressed that this particular blood drive is especially important. With the onset of the holiday season, the demand for blood escalates dramatically, he said.

Red Cross supplies more than half of the blood used in the United States through its 56 regional blood centers. Haskell is assigned to the Red River Region Red Cross Blood Services Center in Wichita Falls which provides blood for patients in 41 hospitals in 35 counties in north central Texas and southern Oklahoma. One hundred pints a day are needed to meet patient loads. Burgess said that since there is no monetary compensation for blood given at a Red Cross blood drive, the blood collected by the Red Cross is the safest blood available.

While it still takes only 10 minutes to donate, the time required for the health history, the mini-physical and questions has increased the donor's stay from 20 minutes to an hour. Each pint donated undergoes eight tests, including possible exposure to the AIDS virus, hepatitis and syphilis.

Said Burgess: "If you don't get paid anything, and it takes so long to do, why are people still willing to lie down in a lawn lounge chair to allow a nurse to stick a needle in their arm and drain out a pint of their blood? It's simple, because these people care. They know that the blood they give saves lives, thousands of lives. A lot of people would give blood for a family member or friend, but our donors give for the sake of folks who are for the most part, people they will never know."

While there are too many donors to list, the Red Cross records show the following "above and beyond the call of duty" donors have given more than 110 gallons of blood (886 pints):

- 10-Gallon Club at least 80 units
- Olen King, 90 pints
- 5-Gallon Club at least 40 units
- Dimpel Nehring, 60 pints

Christmas promotion to offer bigger prizes

The 1988 Christmas drawing program, sponsored by the Haskell Retail Merchants Association, will be different and larger, says Conrad Roewe, association president.

Chairman for the Christmas of the Christmas program is Thomas Long. Customers will be asked this year to drop their tickets in the box of the store that gave them. This will give them double chances to win.

There will be one big drawing date--Saturday, Dec. 17, at 2 p.m.--on the south side of the courthouse, instead of the weekly drawings held previously. This will insure giant jackpots: one for $2,000, one for $1,000 and two for $500.

Prize winners must be present at the drawings to claim their prizes, although it will be acceptable for a spouse to accept the prize if the ticket bears the name of the wife or husband. Winners must be at least 18 years old.

Prior to the jackpot drawing on the 17th, each participating merchant will bring his/her box of tickets to the downtown stage and will draw for a prize from that store before emptying all tickets (including the store's prize-winning ticket) into the big hopper from which the jackpots will be drawn. Tickets must be stamped on the back with the names of the stores which issued them.

The jackpots will be issued in 20 certificate denominations which may be redeemed at participating businesses.

No owner or manager or members of their immediately families are eligible to win, whether a participating merchant or not. Employees of businesses may win on tickets from other businesses, but not from tickets received at their places of employment.

Long has appointed the following captains to contact Haskell businesses to invite their participation: Lois Richardson, Mattie English, Frances Lane, Hess Hartsfield, Veda Furrh, Wayne Bradford, Wallace Cox Jr., Buster Gholson and Thomas Long.

With the giant jackpots and valuable prizes to be given by merchants totaling $17,000, the incentive for local citizens and area residents to do their Christmas shopping in Haskell is its strongest in years.

Roewe listed as further incentive to "shop Haskell"

Roewe reminded that other incentives to "shop Haskell" include easy access to stores, saving time, competitive prices, wide selections of merchandise, friendly and helpful assistance from people you know by name, service after the sale, charge accounts, gift wrapping and definite appreciation of your business.

Arts and Crafts Sale

A large crowd attended last Saturday's Arts and Crafts sale at the Civic Center, sponsored by the Haskell Young Homemakers.

Great American Smokeout is today

Haskell smokers are being asked to join about 20 million other Americans today (Thursday) in the 12th annual Great American Smokeout.

It's a day designated by the American Cancer Society (ASC) for cigarette smokers and other tobacco users to refrain from smoking.

The Haskell County unit of the ASC has distributed promotion kits to the hospital, medical clinics, the drug store and nursing homes.

Last year, a Gallup survey revealed that 19.6 million American smokers participated in the Smokeout by quitting or cutting down for the day. The ASC hopes at least one in five of the nation's 50 million smokers will make the attempt this year.

Traditionally, the Thursday before Thanksgiving is Smokeout Day. The Great American Smokeout offers a chance for smokers to take care of themselves and get some support while they're doing it.

Local cancer officials are urging Haskell tobacco users to set aside their cigarettes, pipes, cigars, snuff and chewing tobacco for 24 hours. Many of those who do will then be able to "kick" their habits for good.

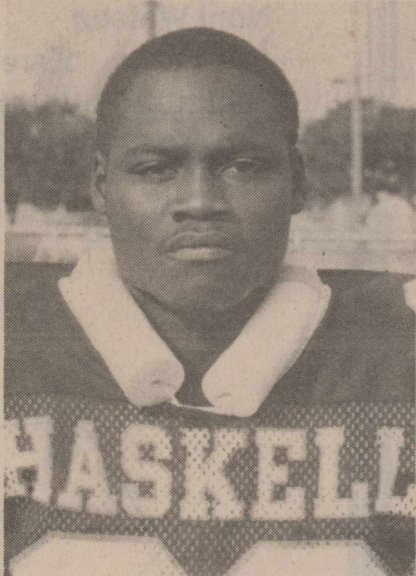

The American Cancer Society has a toll free number for tips on how to quit smoking. The number is 1-800-ACS-2345.

Early paper next week

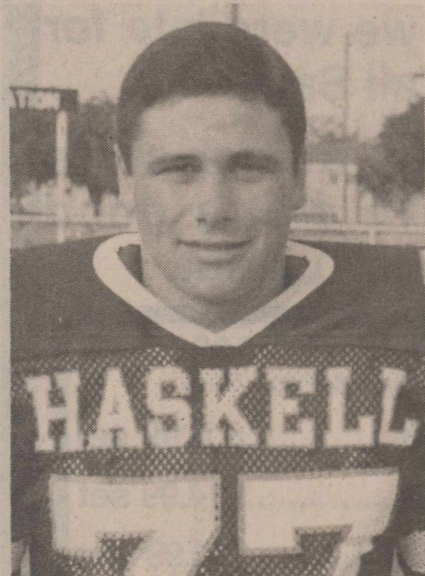

Due to the Thanksgiving holiday, The Free Press will be published a day early next week.

The early publication schedule will necessitate early deadlines for next week's edition. News and advertising deadlines will be noon Monday.

Haskell to host playoff game Friday

Football season in Haskell is not over.

On Friday night, local fans will be treated to a playoff contest between two explosive six-man outfits.

The May Tigers and the Harrold Hornets will lock horns in a game which promises to produce plenty of fireworks.

The game begins at 8 o'clock at Indian Stadium. Admission will be $4 for adults and $1 for students and children.

May, boasting a 9-2 record, is the champion of district 12-A. The Tigers posted a 5-0 district record in a circuit which included Strawn, Gordon, Blanket, Carbon and Sidney. Last week the Tigers defeated Rule, 48-30, in a bi-district playoff.

Coached by Mitch Lee, the Tigers' high-powered offense is led by tailback Keith Musick who has rushed for 2,340 yards and scored 37 touchdowns. He is a 155-pound junior.

Giving him plenty of support is Dale Greenrock, another junior at 150 pounds. Greenrock has rushed for 1,154 yards and scored 18 touchdowns.

Tiger quarterback is Scott Ford, another junior at 170 pounds, who has completed 55 percent of his passes and thrown for 13 touchdowns.

Chris Hardy, 140-pound sophomore safety, has recorded 107 tackles and intercepted 10 passes, while middle linebacker Sammy Young, 180-pound senior, has recorded 93 solo tackles.

Harrold boasts an even better record at 9-1. The Hornets, coached by Ron Brandon, peeled off nine consecutive victories before losing their last game last week to Jayton, 20-6, after their tailback was injured and taken out of the game in the second period.

"We played a real good defensive game," Brandon told The Free Press, "but our offense really sputtered."

The Hornets' tailback is junior Scott Lambert. He's only 5-3 1/2" and 135 pounds, but Brandon said he is extremely quick and a hard runner. He has rushed for more than 1,300 yards in the Hornets' two-back offense which also features Ben Segler, 170-pound senior who has rushed for more than 1,000 yards.

Quarterback for the Hornets is Ricky Gillespie, 140-pound senior, who has completed well over 50 percent of his passes.

Harrold's top defensive hands are Darren McNeal, 155-pound senior defensive end; Shawn Muse, 135-pound right side linebacker; and Kade Kimbrew, 170-pound senior noseguard.

STAGE performs Saturday

STAGE, a Wichita Falls teen communication theater, will perform at Haskell High School auditorium at 7 p.m. Saturday.

The teen theater group is an approach to education which utilizes drama to increase awareness of the major problems which teens face.

The 16 cast members are all high school students. They perform skits that range from teen pregnancy and peer pressures to adolescent depression and substance abuse. Other skits deal with teen suicide, sexual abuse, divorce and AIDS.

The program is free of charge and the public is invited.

Teen STAGE is being sponsored by the Red River Hospital in Wichita Falls, Headstream Memorial Center of Haskell and the Haskell High School Student Council.

Baptist youth to repair toys

Youth of the First Baptist Church of Haskell are asking for used toys so they can repair them and give to the Child Welfare Board for distribution at Christmas.

Randy McLelland, youth director, said the youth would accept any kind of toys which can be repaired.

Anyone with toys to donate to the project may bring them to the church office, or call McLelland at 864-2581.

Herbert and Dora Kretschmer

Kretschmers to mark anniversary

Children of the couple will host the celebration and all friends and relatives are invited.

Herbert and Dora were married Nov. 22, 1938, in Haskell. They have resided in the Irby community most of their lives.

Anyone remembering a story about the wedding day or their 50 years of marriage are requested to write it on a sheet of paper and bring it to the reception. The children will make an album of memories for them.

No gifts please.

Stout, Rawlings marry here Oct. 29

Miechell Dawn Stout and Montie Lynn Rawlings were united in marriage at 7 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 29, in a candlelight ceremony at Weinert Foursquare Church. The Rev. Kathryn Byrd, pastor of Faith Chapel in Rochester, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Stout of Haskell. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rawlings of Snyder.

The altar of the church was decorated with six candelabras covered with springer and gypsophila. Baskets of white and rose glads were on each side of the altar. A cross shaped candelabra and unity candle adorned the front of the church. Pews were marked with bows of illusion and ribbon scattered with seed pearls.

Escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore an original gown by Phyllis for Bianchi of satin and lace in white. The fitted bodice of re-embroidered alencon lace had a Sabrina neckline and a brief peplum. The bodice and lace peplum were enhanced with tiny seed pearls and paillettes. Beading was repeated on the Victorian sleeves. The long full skirt of satin fell into a chapel train. Tiny seed pearls outlined the hem.

A wreath of silk flowers and lillies of the valley held a long veil of imported English illusion, dotted with pearls. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses, a rose tiger lily, white trumpet flowers and accents of pearls and an illusion bow scattered with seed pearls.

The groom wore a white long tail tux. His boutonniere was a rose with gypsophila.

Maid of honor was Kimla Wendeborn of Rule. Bridesmaids were Denise Hood of Snyder, Sheila Shafer of Snyder, sister of the groom, and Tammy Bledsoe of Weatherford, cousin of the bride. They wore matching floor length gowns of rose satin and carried lighted brandy glasses with illusion bows, pearls and a rose tiger lily.

Brandy Shafer, niece of the groom, was the flower girl, and Bryce Hudgens, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

Best man was Tommy Holliday of Snyder. Groomsmen were Brent Bearden of Abilene and Luke Proctor and Pat Kohl, both of Snyder. They wore white tuxedos with rose cummerbunds.

Ushers were Shane Stout, brother of the bride, and John Foster of Abilene. They also wore white tuxedos.

The reception, hosted by the bride's parents, was held in the First National Bank Community Room. The bride's table was draped in white with springer and gypsophila encircling the top edge of the table. The four-tiered cake was decorated with fresh flowers and ribbon. An ornate brass and crystal candelabra was the centerpiece. The punch bowl and other appointments were brass.

The groom's table was draped with an onasburg and satin cloth. A square of antique German lace was placed in the center. Chocolate cake and hot wassil were served. A two-tiered fruit arrangement was the centerpiece.

The bride is employed by West Texas Utilities in Abilene. The groom is employed by Coca Cola in Abilene. They will make their home in Abilene.

Josset club meets with Mrs. O'Neal

The Josset Extension Homemakers met Nov. 8 in the home of Mrs. Gladys O'Neal. The hostess read three enjoyable short selections, one of which stressed the positive approach to life.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Margaret Jones, vice president. Eleven members answered roll call by naming a diet plan each had either read or heard about, or one in which they had participated. There were two visitors present, Mrs. Ed Fouts and Mrs. Lou Gilly, county extension agent.

Minutes of Oct. 11 were read and approved. Mildred Robertson gave a treasurer's report. There were no communications, council report or unfinished business. The new business concerned a discussion of the Christmas party which will be Dec. 13 in the home of Mrs. Phylecia Bailey. Each member will bring a gift to exchange, a dish of Christmas goodies and a poem or reading concerning the holiday.

Mrs. Gilly presented the program which was enjoyed by all present. Each member presented started her Personality Profile by marking a checklist of her strengths and weaknesses. By transferring and scoring these choices on a score sheet and totaling scores, each found her personality classification. There are four basic personalities into which all people fit. While there were some surprises, some could guess their classification before scoring. The program was very interesting and informative.

Refreshments were served to Mary Abbott, Edna Anderson, Earmal Bevel, Flo Holder, Reatha Mullins, Helen Owens, Mildred Robertson, Margaret Simmons, Margaret Jones and Margaret Wall.

The door prize was won by Helen Owens.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lynn Pace IV

Gartner, Pace exchange vows

Catherine Muscato Gartner became the bride of William Lynn Pace IV in a candlelight ceremony Sunday afternoon, Nov. 6.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Muscato of Clovis, N.M., and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Pace III of Haskell.

The altar of the Christian Church chapel held an arch of greenery and tapers flanked by spiral candelabra tied with peach bows. Stained glass window sills in the foyer contained arrangements of greenery, baby's breath and candles.

Minister Dusty Garison, officiated and Marjorie Pace, grandmother of the groom, provided traditional music. Featured was "O Perfect Love," played at the wedding of the groom's parents. After the couple lit the unity candle, each of their mothers was presented a single rose.

The bride's V-necked gown of peach taffeta was accented with bodice pleats and off the shoulder puffed sleeves. The skirt fell to a short chapel train. She wore a single strand of pearls, and silk peach roses affixed to a comb were in her hair. The bridal bouquet was a peach glabella centered in asparagus fern, baby gladiola, lemon leaves and galax leaves.

Maid of honor was Vicki Seigler of Abilene. Her floor length gown was peach lace over satin. She carried a single long-stemmed peach rose.

Flower girls were Season and Arielle Gartner whose dresses were white lace over satin accented with a peach sash at the dropped waist. Peach silk roses with brief peach and white ribbons were worn in their hair. The girls carried a basket of rose petals.

Seth Pace served as his brother's best man, and Ben Pace was ring bearer. Candles were lighted by Joseph Pace. Matthew Pace seated guests. Like the groom, all wore white western shirts, peach rose boutonnières, jeans and boots.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall. An oak registration table held the wedding book, rice bags on a crystal tray and a bud vase of a single rose with baby's breath and fern.

Wedding cake decorated with peach and white roses, mints, nuts and punch were served by Flora and Brenda Pace, assisted by Ruby Holt and Kathy Garison. Centerpiece for the table was a brass temple jar containing silk magnolias, lillies and greenery.

The groom's parents hosted a buffet dinner in their home honoring Mr. and Mrs. Will Pace IV and wedding guests Sunday evening.

--Haskell Nursing Center--

By Sondra Davis
Activity Director

Exercise is a way of keeping fit for our residents. There have been 10 to 14 residents joining me each morning at 9:30 to exercise. I am so proud of them. Afterwards, we take a look at the current events for the day.

On Monday afternoons, we have several ladies who are coming to the art group. They have a lot of artistic ability.

Tuesday morning, several ladies of the United Methodist Women came out for singing and a devotion time. They were accompanied by their pastor, Kenny Kirk. I was sorry I missed them. I attend an activity directors' inservice at the Rehab Center in Abilene that day. I appreciate Vivian Shaw for playing dominoes with several of the residents. Thanks also to Mr. Louise Chambers for taking Pauline Williams to vote.

Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Hodges came out for a devotional time with the residents. On Wednesday, Mrs. Gigi Hopper, my regional activity consultant from Albany, came to Haskell to show me where to begin first.

Thursday morning, Dale Huff, minister of the Church of Christ, arrived after our exercises and current events, and led the residents in singing some of their old familiar gospel hymns. That afternoon, 16 residents came out to play bingo and at 7 p.m. they enjoyed music from Bonnie Workman's Country Western Band.

Friday, following our exercises, we had a small service in honor of Veterans Day. We said the pledge to our flag and sang "America" and "My Country 'Tis of Thee." Thanks to Colene Moody for playing the piano for us.

After lunch we had an afternoon at the movies with popcorn and Kool Aid. I appreciate Vivian Shaw for volunteering to play bingo with us and help fix pop corn at the movies. For the month of November, the Methodist pastor and church is coming to our nursing center at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday and at 4 the Church of Christ minister and members are here for a service. We appreciate all of our pastors and churches for their support.

Study Club has program on graphology

The Progressive Study Club met in regular session Nov. 10 in the community room.

Mrs. Reatha Mullins, president, welcomed members and guests.

Mrs. Jill Druessedow, program director for Skills of Graphology, introduced Mr. John English, a handwriting analysis.

Mr. English brought a very interesting program on people's handwriting. Graphology is a method of analyzing character, personality and health. People who write in lines that slant upward are said to have ambition. Those whose lines slant downward are said to have pride.

Heavy lines and thick strokes in crossing "t's" show power and force. When the "a's" and "o's" are closed the writer is a reserved, quiet sort of person, perhaps cautious.

Mr. English had members and guests write part of a song so he could analyze their writing. They had a lot of fun learning about their personalities.

Reatha Mullins reminded members to bring a cake, cash donation for the Children's Welfare Fund and gifts for Galveston at the next meeting Dec. 8.

Pumpkin pie tarts, grapes, cheese, crackers and coffee were served by Franciene Johnson, Mattie English, Frances Lane and Leesa Toliver.

CHLORINE & COLON CANCER

The drinking of chlorinated water has finally been officially linked to an increased incidence of colon cancer. BREAST CANCER DETECTION UNIT AVAILABLE TO AREA WOMEN

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1988

HASKELL, TEXAS

A Service of

HASKELL MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

CALL 864-2621 FOR APPOINTMENT

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women in the United States will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as the result of breast cancer.

Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate.

A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, even before it can be felt.

Appointments may be made by calling 864-2621.

The Mobile Breast Cancer Detection Unit will be in Haskell on Friday November 18.

The American Cancer Society has established guidelines for a mammography in asymptomatic women. (Women who have no symptoms of disease). Those guidelines have been adopted by the American Academy of Family Physicians, American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, and The American College of Radiology. Those guidelines are:

I. 35-40 years of age - One baseline mammogram.

II. 40-50 years of age - A mammogram every 1-2 years depending on breast type and risk factor.

III. 50 years of age and over - An annual physical examination and annual mammogram.

IV. Asymptomatic women under 50 years of age with significant high risk factors should be examined at appropriate intervals. These risk factors include previous breast cancer and family history of cancer.

V. A symptomatic woman should have a mammogram at any age when she experiences a mass, nipple discharge, skin changes or unexplained breast pain.

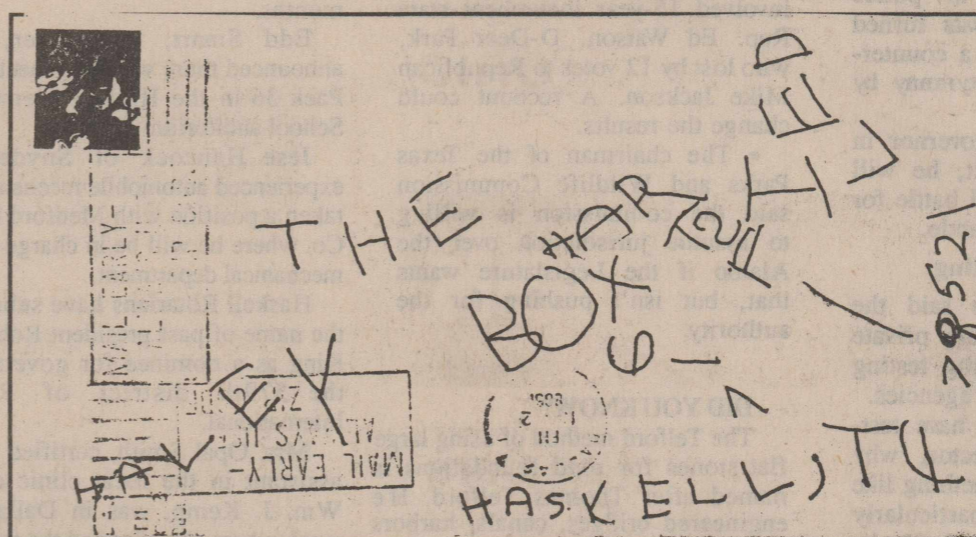

A screening mammogram is an x-ray of the breast using extremely low dosages of radiation (usually comparable to dental x-rays) and is designed to find very early cancers.

A female technologist who is highly trained in mammography will perform the examination.

The charge for the screening mammogram is $50.00. The Unit accepts cash, check, VISA, MasterCard and American Express.

For more information or to make an appointment call 864-2621.

Bipartisan political clout is invaluable

AUSTIN—Good news not only travels fast, it has an immediate healing effect.

Texans everywhere got a real psychological boost when the Department of Energy announced the lucrative supercollider project would be built near Waxahachie in Ellis County.

The $4.4 billion physics lab, asked.

Clements is expected to submit proposals for drug testing state employees to the new Legislature.

A spokesman for the Texas Public Employees Association said the group will fight any attempt to test new or current state workers for drug or alcohol abuse.

The governor also ripped state agencies for "turf fighting" which creates costly duplication of services.

Battleship Texas

The Battleship Texas is scheduled to "sail" next month from its San Jacinto Battleground berth to a Galveston drydock for repairs to keep her afloat.

The repairs will be largely funded by private dollars raised in several grassroots efforts.

Textbooks Approved

Following the state's approval of textbooks last week, conservatives criticized some of the selections as "trash, filled with errors," and "providing no hope."

One critic submitted a 50-ft. long list of potential errors which the State Board of Education said it will analyze.

The board ignored all requests to delete classic literature from books.

"That's a big victory," said Mike Hudson, Texas director of People for the American Way, a national organization that urged the board to retain the stories.

Early Retirement

Hundreds of Texas public employees will be able to retire early if the Legislature adopts a plan proposed by the State Board of Education.

The board recommended that lawmakers change the retirement eligibility requirements of the 500,000-member Teacher Retirement System.

Presently, a school employee can retire with full benefits if his or her age and years of service totals 95. The board proposal would lower that total to 85.

A governor's taskforce told Clements the law automatically suspending driver's licenses for teens who abuse drugs and alcohol is not being enforced but could be an effective deterrent.

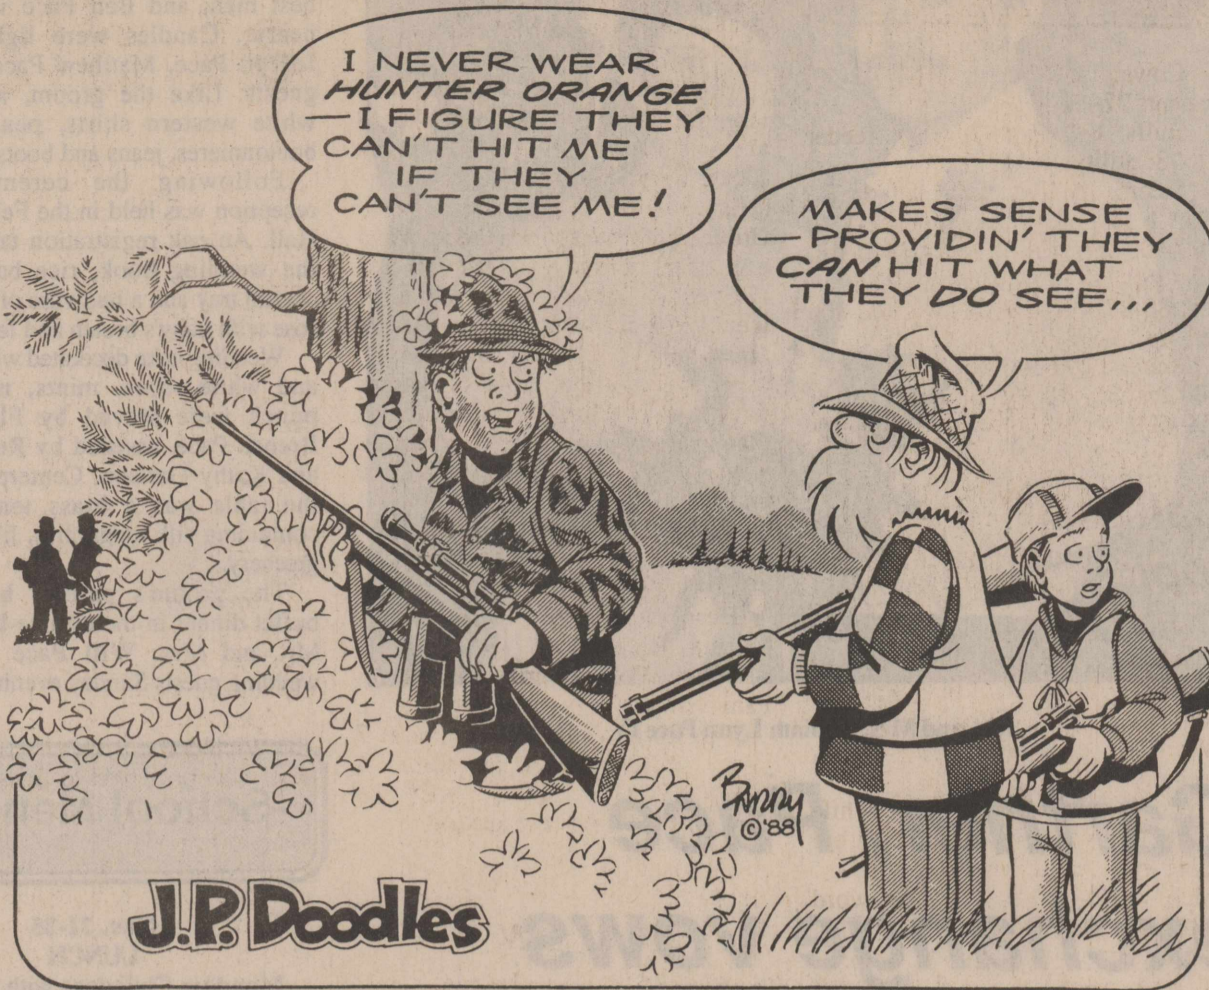

The panel also recommended that medical schools be required to teach a course on substance addiction.

- The closest statehouse race involved 15-year incumbent state Rep. Ed Watson, D-Deer Park, who lost by 12 votes to Republican Mike Jackson. A recount could change the results.

- The chairman of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission said the commission is willing to assume jurisdiction over the Alamo if the Legislature wants that, but isn't pushing for the authority.

A dollar bill lasts about 18 months and changes hands 400 times. It stays in a person's pocket less than two days.

Five- and 10-dollar bills stay in the pocket about a week while larger bills can last a whole month.

Americans buy half of the things they use by check, more than a third with cash and about one-eighth with credit cards.

So it says in something called News USA, a publication which comes across this desk on a monthly basis.

Chicago Tribune columnist Mike Royko credited a Fort Worth judge with the best analysis of the presidential election:

It may be the season to be jolly, but city councilmen in Odessa are getting a lot of flack about their idea, of all things, of a Christmas tree.

Councilmen okayed the "erection" of a 60-foot tree on the City Hall parking lot.

The price tag has been estimated at $4,000, but that doesn't include the cost of a contingent of city workers traveling to Cloudercroft, N.M., to search for 400 pine boughs to be placed around a metal pole implanted in the parking lot.

Editorialized the Odessa American: "While city fathers are maintaining the tree will be good for the community, we have to question how this affects the morale of municipal employees. For several years, since the bottom dropped out of the price of oil, workers have been asked to cut corners and understand barebones salaries. Then, suddenly, the city fathers go on a Christmas spending spree. Happy Holidays, y'all."

From Anson football coach Charles Copeland following his team's loss to the Haskell Indians:

"We lost because we made mistakes and Haskell just has a very good football team. They deserved to win. I wondered what kind of team could defeat Hamlin 34-0. Friday night I saw that team."

Some questions are just hard to answer.

The gal tallying up the charges at an Abilene cafeteria Sunday asked if I wanted the $4.99 special.

When I asked her what the difference was, she replied: "Well, your tray comes to $6.29. If you want the special, it'll be $4.99 and you can keep coming back until you have all of everything you want."

Hungry Americans?

Editor: Twenty million hungry Americans?

There can't be that many street people out there. So, what are the Boy Scouts saying when they claim that one out of 10 Americans go hungry at some time every month? Isn't this the land of plenty?

Hunger is one of five "unacceptables" which Boys Scouts of America has vowed to attack. Already we have mounted ongoing campaigns against drug abuse and child abuse, and illiteracy has been a target since we were founded. The merit badge and advancement programs stimulate the desire to read and be recognized for it. We are making inroads on the problem of youth unemployment, the fifth "unacceptable," with our vocationally oriented Explorer program.

But this fall the task at hand will be to combat hunger in America by taking the appeal door-to-door in an effort to fill the nation's foodbanks. The Boy Scouts realize that we, alone, cannot eliminate hunger but we hope our campaign in addition to getting nourishing food into the mouths of those who need it will also jog the nation's conscience.

Dr. J. Larry Brown of Harvard University School of Public Health, heads the Physician Task Force on Hunger in America. He says the USA is the only industrialized nation with a widespread hunger problem, one affecting an estimated 20 million persons, including 6 to 7 million children. We produce enough food, but as a nation we lack the will.

Hunger has emerged as a national problem because of a fundamental shift in the economy which sees a higher percentage of the population in lower paying jobs, according to Brown, and because we have weakened known successful food programs.

On Saturday, Nov. 19, in most parts of our country, Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers will distribute plastic bags to America's households. We hope to fill the bags with nonperishable foods, which will be turned over to community food banks to be used locally to meet hometown needs.

An ambitious national goal of 100 million canned and boxed items faces our organization. Numerous community groups, religious organizations and governmental agencies have pitched in to help us. We know that with the support of local residents the Chisholm Trail Council will be doing its part. We can all help by contributing to this Scouting for Food good turn effort.

Dr. David Bailey, Chairman John H. Clark, Scout Executive Chisholm Trail Council, BSA

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

the largest scientific project ever undertaken, promises to bring thousands of jobs and billions of dollars to the Texas' hard-pressed economy.

The announcement, which came on the heels of a Texan's election to the White House, also served as a reminder that bipartisan political clout is invaluable.

On Nov. 8, voters showed much independence and divided the offices among both parties. Texas Republicans won the White House and a few high court seats, but Democrats gained in congressional and statehouse seats.

Moment of Unity

The Supercollider announcement was balm to sore political wounds because Texas Republicans and Democrats could claim a share of the credit.

In this instance, both parties worked for the good of all Texans, a shining moment in a political season otherwise noted for harsh attacks, mud-slinging, charges of voting fraud and racism.

It was a moment of unity which cannot last in the contact sport that is Texas politics, but can always return again.

Rains, Hispanics

Hopes for heavy Republican gains among South Texas Hispanic voters were dashed by a heavy turnout for Democrats which some say was a backlash to tactics by Secretary of State Jack Rains.

Rains' office implied voting fraud and prepared to police balloting there, but was turned back by a lawsuit and a counter-charge of racism and tyranny by Democrats.

If Rains runs for governor in 1990, as many predict, he will no doubt face an uphill battle for votes along the Rio Grande.

State Drug Testing

Gov. Bill Clements said the state should emulate many private employers and start drug testing new employees in state agencies.

"If you're going to have testing in the private sector, why shouldn't you have something like it in state government, particularly for people in sensitive jobs?," he Officers for the Indian Band Alumni and Friends Association were elected during a recent meeting.

Officers are Sharla Carver, president; Dr. James Kemp, vice president; Peggy Adams, secretary-treasurer; Elaine Davis, reporter; Paula Everett, art director; and Glenda Drinnon, membership chairman.

Members decided to have a fund raiser during the basketball season and will meet later to finalize plans for the event.

Membership dues were set at $5 per year with lifetime membership at $25. Any member wishing to renew his membership or anyone wishing to join should send his name, address and dues to Peggy Adams, P.O. Box 176, Weinert 76388.

Money raised from dues and fund raisers will be used to finance the band scholarship and to provide support for the band.

The group's first scholarship was awarded to Michael Rodriguez of the 1988 graduating class. It is the group's desire to be able to increase this scholarship in addition to increasing the number of recipients to more than one.

Homemakers have program on recipes

Haskell Young Homemakers' monthly meeting took place Nov. 8 at the First National Bank Community Room.

Lisa Huff from West Texas Utilities presented holiday recipes and packaging ideas in a program entitled "Holiay Delights." Two such ideas were "chocolate pizza" with maraschino cherries and simple instructions for a beautiful Christmas wreath. While admiring the holiday display, some of the tasty recipes were enjoyed by members and visitors.

A short business meeting was held to finalize plans for the Arts and Crafts Sale held Nov. 12.

Hostesses were Gina Foster, Norma Richardson and Tommy Anderson. The door prize was won by Pam Mathis.

The Christmas party will be at 7 p.m. on Dec. 13 in the home of Leesa Toliver. Gifts will be exchanged in a Chinese auction.

4-H members win at district 4-H show

New ways to prepare and serve old favorites joined traditional recipes as 173 boys and girls from 21 counties exhibited their nutritional knowledge and cooking skills at the Rolling Plains District 4-H Food Show in Wichita Falls Nov. 5.

Four seniors will advance to the state competition next year. Each received a plaque and ribbon in addition to advancing to the state contest.

Second-place senior winners will participate in the state event if the first-place winners can't make it. Intermediate and junior division winners also received ribbons and plaques, but do not compete beyond the district level.

Special cash awards, sponsored by the Wichita Falls Area Cattlewomen, also were presented to first-, second- and third-place winners in main dish, breads and cereals and nutritious snacks and desserts categories in which beef was an ingredient.

Four-H members from Haskell County and their awards were:

Kacy Baitz, first; Heather Guess, third; Emily SoRelle, third; Jennifer Swoyer, third; Christy Martin, fourth; Shanna Murphy, fourth; and Jonathan Lammert, fifth.

Other participants from Haskell County were Kim Gilly, Paige Lammert, Joni Martindale and Kaki Stapleton.

Each contestant had earned a championship in his/her county to advance to the district meet, which was viewed by thousands of shoppers during the daylong competition at Sikes Senter Mall. Contestants were quizzed on nutritional values, preparation methods and costs of preparation.

The show is one aspect of the year-round foods and nutrition project in 4-H, explained Elaine Houston, district director with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

She said the project helps youth learn the relationship between science, foods and nutrition, and food preparation, as well as food buying, managing time, use of energy, and food storage and safety.

Three members of the City Park Committee discussed projects when they had their first meeting Monday evening. From left, they are Lisa Shaw, Chester Lamb and Larry McMillin.

Park committee discusses projects

Recent improvements in Rice Springs Park and ideas for future projects were discussed Monday at the first meeting of the newly created City Parks Committee.

Objective of the committee is to study the needs of the park and present ideas and suggestions to the City.

Committee members noted the new spillway, the fence and the new parking area at the park and expressed pleasure that the City has budgeted funds for the construction of restrooms. The installation of benches at the park was discussed as a possible first project for the group.

Park Committee members were appointed recently by the mayor. Larry McMillin is chairman of the group. Other members are Chester Lamb, Louetta Davis, Franciene Johnson, Charles Swinson, Joe Cortez and Lisa Shaw.

TAX PLANNING

Written By
James E. Rodgers, CPA

SELLING A BUSINESS?

Most businesspeople sell only one or two businesses in a lifetime. It, therefore, seems prudent that they seek professional legal and accounting assistance when they sell a business.

There are tax and nontax concerns which need to be reviewed before a buy-sell agreement is finalized. There are as many different ways to sell a business as there are businesses for sell. Despite the fact that there is no "normal" buy-sell agreement, there are guidelines which will give you the best tax and financial position when you choose to sell.

The cleanest and safest way to sell is an all cash sale. Assuming you can live with the tax consequences, you'll have a lump-sum of cash to reinvest as you see fit. The buyer takes the business and does with it as he or she sees fit.

More commonly, businesses are sold on some installment method. You might receive a certain amount of cash as a down payment with the balance due over a period of years. If you are relying on the success of the business to help the buyer make the payments to you, you could end up with less cash than planned.

If your company is being acquired by a larger corporation, you may choose to take stock in the new corporation in lieu of cash. There are advantages and disadvantages to this method of selling. Don't be oversold on the benefits of this method by some biased party.

Some buyers may request that you stay on with the new company either as an employee or as an equity owner in your old company for some period of time.

If you have a business worth selling, take the necessary steps to ensure that you do it properly. Selling to someone without the proper experience, without the proper financial backing or to someone who has fraudulent intentions may well cheat you out of some very hard earned money.

Steers wind up at 5-5

Rochester's Steers lost a 50-45 see-saw game to Guthrie Friday night to close out their 1988 football season with a 5-5 record.

The Steers' Kevin Conner opened the scoring with a 3-yard touchdown run. Guthrie tied the score a 6-all on a 14-yard pass from Clint Miller to Marshall Holcomb, after which Conner put the Steers ahead again by returning the ensuing kickoff 70 yards for a score. Holcomb ran 44 yards for the next touchdown, but Rochester countered with a 35-yard pass from Brad Bevel to Denny Tibbets to take an 18-13 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Guthrie re-took the lead in the second period on a 4-yard run by Holcomb but Conner came right back with an 8-yard touchdown run to put Rochester back in front. A 22-yard pass from Miller to Aubry McCauley gave Guthrie a 28-25 halftime margin.

The Steers made it 33-28 in their favor in the third period when Conner ran 12 yards for a score, but Holcomb ran 47 yards to put Guthrie back on top.

Each team scored two touchdowns in the final period, Guthrie scoring first on a 5-yard run by Holcomb and Rochester countering with a 35-yard run by Conner. McCauley then passed 30 yard to Heath Adams for his team's final score and Rochester scored on a 28-yard pass from Bevel to Tibbets.

Each team scored seven touchdowns, but Guthrie was able to add 8 extra points, while Rochester managed only 3.

Tibbets and Ross Shaver led the Rochester defense with 25 and 24 tackles, respectively.

The highway department's "Auto Visitor Survey" for the third quarter of 1988 shows that friendliness is what visitors enjoy most about Texas, followed by scenery and good highways--in that order.

Safety restraints save childrens lives

Safety seats can save children from injury or death in automobile accidents.

Since passage of the Texas child safety seat law in 1984, public awareness of the need to use child safety seats has increased. However, studies conducted in urban areas during 1988 show that only half of Texas children under age 4 actually ride in safety restraints.

Indians, Maidens open at Seymour

Haskell basketball teams officially open their 1988-89 seasons at Seymour Friday night.

The Indians will play Vernon in a scrimmage here today (Thursday) and the Maidens scrimmaged Vernon here Tuesday.

First home games of the season will be next Tuesday when the Merkel teams come to Haskell.

Both the Indians and Maidens are coming off very successful seasons of a year ago and predictions are that both will go far again this year.

Eight of the 10 players Coach Randy Stone used last year in compiling a 29-6 record are back this year, giving the Indians a firm foundation on which to build another championship team.

Returning are Dusty Meeks, Brad Bevel, James Rike, Sam Beakey, Cole Larned, Chan Guess, Paul Harevey and Derrick Billington.

Those eight, along with the graduated Mark Young and Patrick Perez, were the mainstays on last year's outfit which won the district, bi-district, area and regional before losing in the state semifinals in Austin. Michael Mendoza and Casey Reed also graduated.

Coach George Martin's Maidens, who have won three consecutive district titles, also have a number of returning veterans.

Returning from last year's district and bi-district champions are Joy McKeever, Missy Davis, Dala Harri and LaKay Gibbs, all of whom saw plenty of action during last year's 25-6 season. Sheila Unger and Dalyn Gilly, up from the junior varsity, are expected to join the returning quartet in forming the top six.

Six members of last year's Maiden team have departed via graduation. They were Robyn Dever, Sheree Dumas, Tiffany Moeller, Leiza Morales, Tamra Burnett and Vicki Chavez.

Alamo popular tourist attraction

The Alamo is the most popular tourist attraction in Texas.

A survey by the highway department reveals that more out-of-state tourists visited the Alamo than any other attraction during the third quarter of this year.

Good customers

Ruth and Herbert Williams of Rule standing between Gil and A. C. Richardson, were presented an award last Tuesday during Richardson Truck & Tractor's field day. The Rule couple received a limited edition and serial numbered toy Magnum tractor in recognition of their loyalty to the Magnum product. They had ordered a new Case-IH tractor before it was ever introduced. In the background is Kenny McCastlain, territory manager for Case-IH.

'Take the Wheel' field day

A large crowd attended Richardson's Truck & Tractor's "Take the Wheel" field day last Tuesday. Visitors at the tent set up south of town saw demonstrations of the company's Case-IH Magnum tractor line and enjoyed a catered barbecue lunch. A. C. Richardson, owner, said approximately 165 people attended the event. One hundred and thirty-five barbecue plates were served.

Indians dominate all-district

Haskell may not have won the district 7-2A championship, but the Indians dominated the all-district team announced this week.

Indians filled eight places on the 28-member offensive-defensive teams chosen by the district coaches.

Heading the list of Indians on the first team were Fred Shaw and Bo Watson, each of whom was selected on both offense and defense, and Chan Guess, who made the first team on defense and was a unanimous selection as the all-district kicker.

Also making the first team were Alberto Alvarez on offense and Paul Harvey on defense.

Derrick Billington was a second team selection on both offense and defense, while Harvey and Roger Roewe were second-team choices on offense and Rodney Johnson was a second-team defensive selection.

Cole Larned of the Indians was chosen for the five-member all-district "Fighting Heart" team.

In addition to filling eight places on the first-team all-district, the Indians had two of the four unanimous choices. Guess, as a kicker, and Shaw as a defensive lineman, shared this honor with Scott Easley, Hawley's outstanding tackle, and Stamford punter Eddie Hall, both of whom were also two-way all-district selections.

Haskell's eight places on the all-district first team were the best representation of any 7-2A team. Hamlin and champion Anson each had six players on the first team, while Stamford had five and Albany and Hawley had two each.

--Weinert--

by Myrtle Phemister

We enjoyed a cool front and half inch of rain Friday night. But the wind and hail storm we had Friday afternoon were not welcomed. The Whites and Stewarts and several others on "the sand" suffered quite a bit of damage to hog houses, irrigation pipes and cotton that was ready for harvest. Our sympathy!

Congratulations

We have so many to honor this week: Kenny Forehand, whose cross-country team won the Regional race in Lubbock last week, and who went to State Competition in Georgetown on Saturday, bringing home a 9th place in that race.

To Freddy and Daisy Horan, whose granddaughter, Ashley Shae, arrived November 12th at 5:30 a.m. to bless the home of their daughter, Shadella and Craig Foster, of Stamford, and who weighed in at 6 lbs. 13 oz. Ashley joins another sister, Savannah Nicole.

Great-grandparents are Harvey and Lenora Griffes. Weinert congratulates this 5 generation family!

We congratulate Pete and Imo Brockett for the lovely home they have purchased in Munday, though we regret losing them as they move away from Weinert.

Crystella and Bob Raynes on the arrival of their eighth great-grandchild Brittany Janae, weighing 7 lbs 1 oz, born to Missy and Greg Norman Nov. 12 in Wichita Falls.

Grandparents are Ronnie and Delores Stewart of Munday.

We want to congratulate the following students who made the honor roll on the Munday School list. Kent and Kole Sanders, A students, sons of Kenneth and Brenda Sanders; Shanna Murphy, daughter of Mary and Ed Murphy; and Anthony and Andrew Garza, sons of Anita Garza, who made the B honor roll. We are proud of you.

Those celebrating birthdays this week include Crystella Raynes, Stacy Hester, Tiffen Mayfield, Melanie Wood, Tabitha Crump, Floyd Patton, Keith Sanders, John Castorena and Kent Sanders. Happy birthday to all!

Coleen and W. C. Nance spent some time in the home of her parents, Pud and Susie Brockett, while they "readied" their trailer in Munday. They are enjoying their retirement and spend more time on the road than they do in Munday is the report from nearby sources. But they enjoy having a "haven" to come back to. Congratulations, for the retirement!

Ted and Faye Jetton arrived home Friday, after Ted spent some time in the Brownwood hospital. He is improved, but will need a few weeks to recuperate from the "silent" heart attack he suffered.

Jackie Frantz of Dallas and Jimmie and Claude Young of Holiday were in Weinert with their parents, the Jettons, this weekend.

Edward Alexander was in Abilene for a check-up this week and found he is needing cataract surgery. With so many of us with similar problems, could it be the water? The weather?

David and Peggy Phemister of New Braunfels with their grandson, Jonathan Phemister of Chicago, Illinois were in town for a few days.

The Wayne Phemister's of Avoca with Ricky of Haskell were also in town and enjoyed a visit, and a supper of Ann Horan's hamburgers while here. Umm, good!

A nostalgic trip is to turn east at the signal light, and see an old landmark done. The red brick building on the left, that housed so many enterprising businesses in times past, is gone.

For so many years it was Scotch Coggins barbershop; Mr. Martin's grocery; the tailorshop, which was also a dry-cleaners. The building has been demolished and soon the debris will be cleaned away, and only memories will recall that "used to be".

Across the railroad track, however, you will see the new structure that is the lovely, country home of Sandra Mathison Nichols and her son, T.

Rene Vojkufka reports a delightful 3-day trip with the Nocona Fun Tour group to San Antonio and Austin.

They viewed the film "Price of Freedom", and toured the Alamo. They also visited Sea-World and other points of interest in the San Antonio area.

On their return they stopped in Austin in time to visit the Senate Chamber and hear Governor Clements' announcement speech that Texas has been their recipient of the Super-Collider project that many states have been "wooing", which was a historic event, indeed.

They toured the Capitol, the LBJ Library, and other places on their way home. Ten from Haskell, also made the trip.

Doris and Dale Carroll with Denise and Douglas were in Odessa for the weekend to visit her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Briles and children.

Leitha Halloway of Dallas spent the week in Weinert visiting with her sisters, Faye Brian and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Sanders and other relatives.

They were all in Wichita Falls on Thursday to see the Wayne Offutt family and enjoyed a visit in their newly remodeled home.

Claude and Mae Harrison of Lubbock were guests of the Harlan Weinerts and R. S. Sanders this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Qestion Greer of Snyder were guests in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Herricks and Tina, and attended worship services at the Fousquare Church on Sunday.

The J. A. Mayfields entertained their daughter, Alexia and Duane Rimmer with Adrienne Wynn of DeSoto this week.

Justin and Rance Parrott of Wichita Falls spent the weekend with their grandparents, Doris and Jerry Walker, and enjoyed a trip to the farm to "help" drive the tractor.

Donnie Crump, pastor of the Baptist Church returned safely from a Revival campaign he shared with 5 other pastors to Belize, British Honduras, in Central America. He reports the need is great there, and the rains came each day of the campaign.

Kayla Daniel of Ft. Worth was in town to visit her sister, Sarah Guess, and they each had a booth at the Arts and Crafts show held in Haskell the past weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hager will be in San Angelo with their Limousin bulls for the annual West Texas Classic Bull Sale, which will begin at 1 p.m. on Saturday. Good luck, Hagers!

Ronnie and Ginger Moody, and daughters, of Albuquerque, N.M. were in town last week, and picked up his mothers bedroom furniture. Mrs. Moody is improved in health and will fly to spend the winter in their home. Her new address will be 5208 Simon Drive, N. West, Albuquerque.

Alton and Mildred Sanders were in Miami, Texas for a Lay Renewal Revival at the First Baptist Church there. Alton served as music director, and Mildred was coordinator of the youth program.

The Baptist church is sponsoring a Fun-Fellowship and Food hour each Sunday night at 8 p.m. for the youth, 5th grade through college age, and invites any and all youth to attend.

The awards ceremony for the soccer teams will be presented at the soccer field in Haskell at 1 p.m. on Saturday, November 19th. Several of our children are involved and parents, grandparents and friends are invited.

The Baptist church will host the annual Community Thanksgiving service on Sunday, Nov. 20 at 6 p.m. with food and fellowship following. Everyone is invited to attend.

--Obituaries--

J. E. Walling

J. E. Walling Jr., a Haskell native, former mayor and longtime civic, church and business leader, died early Saturday at Hendricks Medical Center in Abilene. He was 77.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church with the Rev. Jim Turner and Dr. Troy Culpepper officiating. Burial was in Willow Cemetery, under direction of Holden-McCauley Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Jack Ray, Charles Swinson, Raja Hassen, Leon Jones, Dr. Frank Cadenhead, Joe Holder, Robert Culpepper and John Fouts. Loid Renfro was an honorary pallbearer.

Walling was born in Haskell on Jan. 10, 1911, the son of James Edgar Walling and Frances Irene Watson. A member of the First Baptist Church, he was secretary of the Sunday School for 35 years. He was past president of the Texas Butane Dealers Association, a two-term mayor of Haskell, a charter member and past president of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce and a former director of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

He owned and operated the Exxon distributorship in Haskell County for 55 years.

He is survived by his wife, Hazel Walling; a daughter, Ellen Rieger of Haskell; a son, Ed Walling of Haskell; four sisters, Mattie Muriel English, Frances Lane, Hortense Lees and Sarah Hodge, all of Haskell; and four grandchildren, Anna Leigh Rieger, Jessica Michelle Rieger, Emily Louise Walling and James Edgar Walling IV, all of Haskell.

He was the widower of Ida Neinast.

Rules for the pecan and bake shows may be picked up at the county extension office in Haskell, 101 S. Ave. D.

Pecan entries must be in the extension office by 5 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 29. Food exhibits may be entered between 7:45 and 9:45 a.m. on Thursday, Dec. 1, at the Haskell National Bank Community Room.

Rule plans war memorial

Between World War I and World War II, citizens of Rule planned a monument to commemorate the men in the community who gave their lives in the service of their country. For a number of reasons, the project was never completed.

Now, there are citizens who are interested in carrying this project to completion.

The monument will include recognition of men in the Spanish American War, World War I, World War II, the Korean War and the Vietnam War. The exact nature, location and design of the memorial is to be determined by a committee to be selected within the community.

Work on the project already has begun with a study of designs from which the final design will be selected. The monument should be ready for dedication some time in 1992.

Support for the monument will be solicited from interested persons. Further information of the project will be forthcoming.

Additional information at this time is available by writing the Rule Community War Memorial, Box 192, Rule 79547.

Churches schedule Thanksgiving service

The Community Thanksgiving Service will be Sunday evening.

An annual event of the Haskell Ministerial Alliance, the service will be at the First Christian Church, beginning at 7 p.m.

The Rev. Jim Turner, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will bring the sermon.

All persons interested in singing in the community choir should meet at the First Christian Church at 6 p.m. Sunday.

The service will feature hymn singing, special music and the sermon. An offering will be taken to support the two ministries of the Ministerial Alliance, the Crisis ministry for local residents and the Transient Fund ministry for out-of-towners in need.

Officers of the Haskell Ministerial Alliance are the Rev. Katie Hopper of the First Presbyterian Church, president; The Rev. Dusty Garrison of the First Christian Church, vice president; and the Rev. Kenny Kirk of the First United Methodist Church, secretary and treasurer.

All citizens of Haskell and surrounding areas are invited to attend the Thanksgiving services.

Haskell gears for the holidays

PARADE

Many out-of-town organizations, have called the Chamber of Commerce wanting to enter the Christmas night parade.

The parade will be Saturday, Dec. 3, beginning at 6 p.m.

An increased number of local entries also are expected for the parade.

Early indications point toward the seventh annual parade being the biggest ever.

UNIFORM LIGHTING

Once again, all merchants are asked to outline their store windows with lights. Occupants of the courthouse are asked to do the same.

If all lights are flush with the window shape, the uniform result will be even more beautiful.

STORE WINDOWS

Christmas windows should be decorated and unveiled in time for the 6 o'clock parade.

CHRISTMAS DRAWINGS

The one giant drawing at 2 p.m. Dec. 17 on the south side of the courthouse will have the largest jackpots and most valuable prizes by participating retail merchants.

WIC program again available

The special supplemental food program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC) is again able to serve qualifying 3- and 4-year-olds, and postpartum women on the program for inadequate diet alone.

Mothers may obtain details by calling 864-3430 in Haskell.

Formerly, limited funding required additional evidence of nutritional risk.

Scouts to collect food here Saturday

Boy Scouts of Troop 136 will man a food collection station Saturday, near the flag poles on the courthouse grounds.

Residents are requested to contribute non-perishable food to the project, which scouts will present to the Haskell Ministerial Alliance for distribution to the needy.

It's the local effort in the Boys Scouts of America "National Good Turn" program designed to help meet the needs of the hungry.

Emphasis is on food most needed for nutrition, such as peanut butter, baby formula, complete packaged meals and canned goods, especially tuna, chunky soups, stews, meats, fruits and vegetables.

Scouting for food will bear out scouting's position as a caring and "giving" organization.

For information on giving food, contact assistant scoutmaster Doyle Mitchell at 864-8081.
