Pros and cons of election issues

Two proposed constitutional amendments, as well as three county education district propositions, will be on the Aug. 10 statewide ballot.

The League of Women Voters of Texas Education Fund has prepared the following unbiased, nonpartisan pro-con material to assist voters in making up their minds on how to vote.

Constitutional Amendment PROPOSITION NO. 1 WORDING ON BALLOT: The

constitutional amendment to allow the voters of a county education district to adopt certain exemptions from the district's ad valorem taxation for residence homesteads and to provide for the taxation of certain tangible property.

Explanation

The school finance law approved by the 72nd Legislature created 188 new county education districts, composed of single counties or groups of counties (The Haskell County Education District is a single-county district.) These districts have the limited purpose of levying the required local first-tier tax to raise the equivalent of 72 cents per $100 of assessed market value and redistributing the proceeds among local school districts within the county education district.

This proposed amendment would authorize the new districts to hold elections to allow voters within the districts to decide whether to grant an exemption on a percentage of the assessed value of residence homesteads; whether to grant an additional exemption on the homesteads of elderly; and whether to impose taxes on certain types of personal property. In the enabling legislation that was passed during the regular session of the legislature, the amount of the homestead exemption was specified as 20 percent and the exemption for elderly and disabled persons was set at $10,000. These exemptions would be in addition to the existing $5,000 homestead exemption, the $10,000 exemption on homesteads of elderly and disabled persons, and the freeze on property taxes for elderly and disabled persons.

The enabling legislation also directed the county education districts to present the propositions to their voters in an election to be held Aug. 10. The wording of the proposals on local ballots will be identical across the state, but the order may vary. Decisions made by voters in a district would apply in that district only, contingent upon the decision of voters statewide on the proposed constitutional amendment which authorizes these

Haskell softball team wins state championship

A team representing East Side Baptist Church in Haskell claimed the championship of the Boys' Church Slowpitch Softball State Tournament in Grand Prairie last weekend.

Coached by Todd Campbell and Ronny Tanner, the Haskell team won four consecutive games to race through the double-elimination tournament unbeaten.

All four games were played

Saturday.

The Haskell team won the championship with a 12-10 victory over the defending state champion team from the First Baptist Church of Crosby (Baytown) in the tournament finals.

Earlier, Haskell had defeated Plymouth Park of Irving, 16-6; Lamar Baptist Church of Arlington, 16-4; and Birchman Baptist Church of Fort Worth, 9-0.

There were eight teams in the tournament, made up of boys 18 and under.

Johnny Rodriguez, one of five Haskell players named to the all-state team, was chosen as the tournament's most valuable player. Others on the all-state team were Erik Harvey, Jay Miller, Rusty Stocks and Chris Tanner.

This was the first year for East Side Baptist to field a softball team. The team was organized about six weeks ago for the purpose of playing in the state tournament.

Roasted pig tops luau menu

Roast pig will top the menu Saturday night at the second annual "Texas Hawaiian Luau", being sponsored by the Haskell County unit of the American Cancer Society.

The party will be from 8 to 10 p.m. in the backyard of Abe and Ruby Turner.

The pig will be roasted by Dr. Cliff Ray, Dr. Tom Hairgrove and Doyle High.

Invitations have been mailed to those who have supported American Cancer Society functions in past years. Others wishing to do so are invited to attend the luau.

Last year's luau, also held at the Turner home, proved to be a very popular event, and raised more than $2,000 for the American Cancer Society.

Nancy Plunkett is in charge of this year's luau. She is being assisted by Darlene Walton and a number of other volunteers.

WTU names new manager for Haskell

Gene Rhoads has been named local manager of the Haskell office of West Texas Utilities Company. He replaces Mike Martindale who has been promoted to business operations manager for the Three Rivers area.

Rhoads, formerly local WTU manager at Rule, was born in Rule and graduated from Rule High School. He worked for Spencer L.B.R. Co. and Halliburton in Rule before joining WTU in 1957 as an appliance serviceman in the Stamford office. He transferred in that position to the Rule office the following year. In 1978, he was named Rule local manager.

Rhoads and his wife, Shirley, a teacher's aide in Rule, have four children, Fred, Teresa, Linda and Mike, and four grandchildren.

Nemir named administrator at hospital

Bill Nemir began duties Monday morning as administrator of Haskell Memorial Hospital. He succeeds Bud Comedy, who retired last month.

Nemir, who has been associated with the local hospital since 1980, has spent 34 years in the medical care profession, working in just about every capacity from orderly to administrator.

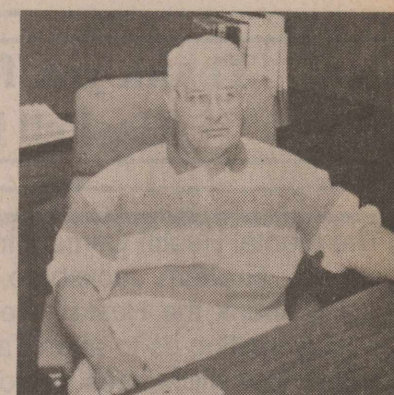

He is a registered nurse, a certified registered nurse anesthetist, a certified respiratory therapist and an advanced nurse practitioner. He has served as administrator of hospitals in Texas and Louisiana and has also worked as administrative consultant for a chain of nursing homes.

He came to Haskell from Winfield, La., where he was an anesthetist and assistant administrator of Humana Hospital, in charge of physician recruitment. He established Anesthesia Inc. in Winfield and free-lanced nine hospitals in Louisiana and East Texas.

From 1981 until last year, Nemir was anesthetist at Haskell Memorial Hospital. He also established and operated under contract the Respiratory Therapy Department at the local hospital. Just last month, he was named director of nurses at Haskell Memorial, a position he relinquished to become administrator.

Nemir also served as administrator of Navarro Hospital in Corsicana and served as administrative consultant in Oklahoma and Louisiana for Texas Medical Consultants.

In addition to Respiratory Therapy Department in Haskell, Nemir and his family own Nemir Medical in Haskell. The family, will continue to operate those businesses. His wife, Jacquie, and daughter, Kim, are both certified respiratory therapists. Also active in the business is a son, Kip. Another daughter, Kacye, is a student at Texas A&M University.

Nemir is a native of Roscoe, where he grew up. He attended San Angelo College, North Texas State University, John Peter Smith Hospital School of Nursing in Fort Worth, Texas Wesleyan College in Fort Worth, Harris Hospital School of Anesthesia in Fort Worth and Southwest Texas State University School of Respiratory Therapy.

The new administrator is optimistic about the future of the Haskell hospital at a time when many rural hospitals are closing and others are facing serious financial shortcomings. "As long as the citizens continue to utilize our services and our local physicians, we can work toward the ultimate goal of making the hospital self-sustaining," he said. "It's a viable goal, but not one which can be reached overnight."

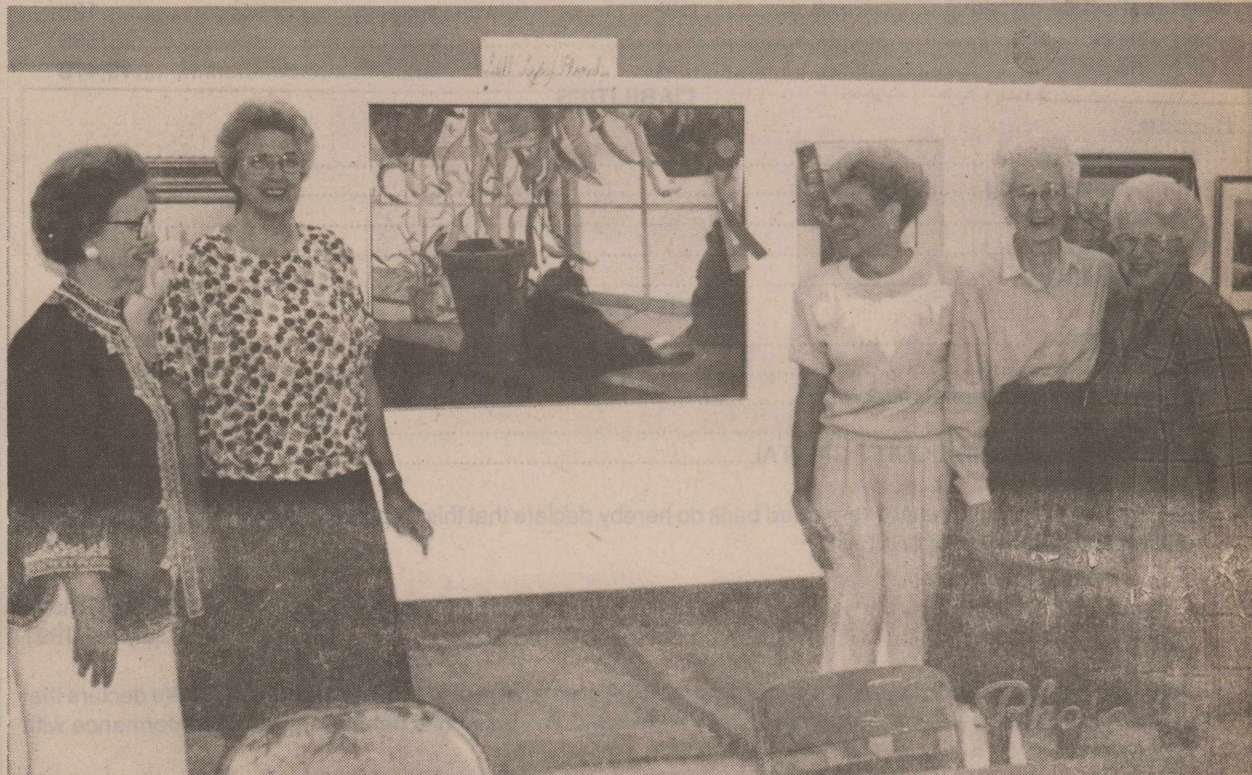

Nemir said Haskell Memorial is fortunate in that it has had a real supportive public and a progressive, intelligent board which has made right decisions. He also complimented the past administrator who "was a good administrator, maintained tight control and foresaw changes."

The new administrator said the hospital is actively recruiting a physician's assistant, as well as another family practitioner. Also being considered is a program whereby Haskell and other area rural hospitals can share surgical services.

Retiring

West Texas Utilities hosted a party Friday in honor of Wayne Wainscott, who is retiring after 40 years with the company. Many of Wayne's friends dropped by to wish him well.

Couple sets wedding date

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin E. Frierson of Haskell announce the engagement of their daughter, Deanna, to Mark Alan Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Sullivan of Canyon.

Deanna is a graduate of West Texas State University and is a certified public accountant, employed as an auditor for Maxus Energy Corp. in Dallas.

Mark graduated from the University of Texas and earned his MBA from West Texas State University. He is a manager of planning and analysis for Lifeco Travel Services of Houston.

A Sept. 28 wedding is planned in Dallas.

70 attend reunion of Phemisters

Seventy family members of the Virgil and Ida Phemister family met at Seven Oaks Hotel in San Antonio on the weekend of July 19-21 for their 51st annual reunion. There are 149 family members.

Host family for the event were Tommy and Mildred Terrell Perry, with their three daughters, Barbara, Cathy and Nancy, assisted by their only grandson, Steven.

The Joske pavillion in Brackenridge Park was the scene for the Friday night picnic, at which time Helen Boykin of Weinert, with her sons, Raymon and Janie Boykin of Vernon, Doyle and Rita Boykin of Texas City, feted the entire group with a Mexican Fiesta "pile-on" buffet supper, with homemade ice cream and other desserts furnished by Jennifer Tipton Pollastro and her husband, Eugene, of Austin.

Twenty or more cities were represented as the group registered at the hotel and gathered in the ballroom for their favorite pastime, singing gospel songs, until late in the night.

On Sunday morning, the family's missionary family, Wimon and Linda Tipton Walker, with their three children, Martin, Marcella and Marissa, of Botswana, Africa, were in charge of the devotion.

The Walkers have been in Africa for five years and are home for a furlough before going back for a projected stay of nine years more. She is the daughter of Lola Phemister Williams of Harlingen, and Wimon's parents reside in Washington.

They showed slides of the countryside, the people, the church meetings (which are held outside, under the shade of a tree). They speak the Sethwana language fluently at this time, and the children are also able to communicate with the natives, and Martin attends the native school where they live in Shaskwe, Botswana.

In the business meeting, the group voted to move the reunion site to Austin for the convenience of the new chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pollostro of Austin, with the date to be announced later.

Six of the original Phemister children were present, and a moment of prayer and memories recalled, were used as a memorial to Roy Phemister, the first one to be deceased. Roy was present last year and was buried on Sept. 1, 1990, in Munday.

Children present were Alma Terrell, Marvin Phemister, Helen Boykin, Edith Davis, Retith Keahey and Hugh Phemister. Jenell McCoy of Wichita and Carlos Phemister of Sweetwater were unable to attend.

Those registering at the reunion were Alma Terrell, Mildred and Tommy Perry, Barbara Perry, Nancy and Steven Perry, Dee Anne Williams, Kevin McCrary, all of San Antonio; Marvin and Myrtle Phemister, Helen Boykin and Greg Phemister of Weinert; Randy and Lisa Phemister, Geoffry, Joseph, Dacia and Deshea, Edith and Richard Davis of Haskell.

Retith and Coy Keahey of Rule; Ann Glasscock with Amanda and Tonya of San Angelo; Jimmy Terrell, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pollostro with Emily, Nicky and Christopher of Austin; Laura Terrell, with Jessica and Kandis, Birdie and Clyde Terrell of Abilene.

Wayne and Linda Phemister, with Laura of McAllen; Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Phemister, Jonathan and Mathew of Fort Worth; David and Peggy Phemister, with Marcus of Azle; Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Williams of Harlingen; Michael Boykin of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Boykin, with Tommy of Texas City; and Hugh and Norma Phemister of Montague.

Many friends of the family came to join in the festivities which included golf, swimming, dominoes, picture taking, visiting and eating.

Children's clothes needed at pantry

The same agency operates a food pantry for emergency food to qualifying individuals meeting the income guidelines and being in a crisis situation; and an energy crisis program to assist qualifying households in an actual energy crisis and meeting established criteria.

TAX PLANNING

Written By
Gerald Rodgers, CPA

IRS FILING REQUIREMENTS AFTER DEATH OF A TAXPAYER

Death and taxes may be inevitable, but even death does not end an individual's tax obligations. The IRS expects the survivors to meet the deceased's tax return filing requirements. Knowing the requirements and the options available to survivors will make this particular chore less difficult at an already difficult time.

If the deceased was single, the personal representative (the person appointed to handle the affairs of the estate) must file a return for the deceased. Income and deductions will be those incurred on or before the date of death. However, medical expenses for the deceased can be deducted even if they're paid after the date of death but within the calendar year. The return is signed by the personal representative.

If the deceased taxpayer was married, the surviving spouse reports all the income and deductions, and can generally use married filing joint status for the year. The return is signed by the surviving spouse and the personal representative of the deceased. If no personal representative has been appointed by the due date of the return, only the surviving spouse needs to sign the return.

The due date of the return, whether the deceased was married or single, is the regular filing due date - usually April 15.

In some instances, a surviving spouse can use joint filing rates for two years after the death of a spouse. To qualify, the survivor must have a dependent child and pay over half the cost of maintaining a home for the child. The surviving spouse must also have been eligible to file a joint return with the deceased and must not have remarried by the end of the year of death.

Amendments...

elections. Thus, voters who go to the polls on Aug. 10 will be asked to vote simultaneously on a constitutional amendment and to vote on the local tax options authorized by the proposed amendment. If voters approve the proposed amendment statewide, the locally adopted options would go into effect without delay. This is being done in order to enable the new taxing districts to implement voter decisions in the property tax bills scheduled to go out in October.

Pros and Cons Of Proposed Amendment FOR

1. Trustees of the new county education districts are appointed by local school boards rather than being elected by voters, and thus do not have the discretionary authority to decide whether or not to grant these exemptions or impose these taxes on personal property. Therefore, the power to make these decisions must rest with voters in the county education districts.

2. This amendment would make it possible for homestead exemptions and personal property taxes to be continued, but at the option of voters rather than by action of the county education district board.

AGAINST

1. Passage of this proposed amendment would shift the tax burden from residential property to businesses. It would affect county education districts across the state very differently. Those that are dependent primarily upon residential property would be forced to raise residential property taxes more than those that rely on commercial property.

2. Tax exemptions for some property owners would result in higher taxes for others. Only 259 of the more than 1,050 school districts in Texas currently grant the homestead exemption. This amendment could result in a large increase in property tax exemptions statewide, narrowing the property base that must provide the local share of public school funding, which contributes approximately half of all school funding. This would mean higher taxes for the remaining taxpayers in order to maintain the required local funding.

Pros and Cons

CED Proposition No. 1
WORDING ON BALLOT: The exemption of 20 percent of the market value of the residence homestead from ad valorem taxation in the Haskell County Education District.

FOR

If locally granted homestead exemptions are completely eliminated, homeowners in the local school districts that have been granting homestead exemptions are likely to face large tax increases. This proposed exemption could cushion the impact of expected increases.

AGAINST

In districts with substantial commercial property, this proposal would shift the tax burden from residential property to business. Districts that are largely residential would suffer losses of tax revenue and would have to raise tax rates to generate the required amount of local funding.

Pros and Cons

CED Proposition No. 2
WORDING ON BALLOT: The exemption of $10,000 of the market value of the residence homestead of an individual who is disabled and of $10,000 of the market value of the residence homestead of an individual who is 65 or older from ad valorem taxation in Haskell County Education District.

FOR

This proposal would alleviate the impact of higher school taxes on those most likely to be adversely affected by them.

AGAINST

Property taxes are already frozen for individuals 65 or older and for disabled persons; this proposal would create an even larger exemption. This proposal is not need-based and would exempt many individuals who can afford to pay the higher taxes, increasing the burden of other taxpayers.

Pros and Cons

CED Proposition No. 3
WORDING ON BALLOT: The taxation of all tangible personal property, other than manufactured homes in Haskell County Education District that is not held or used for the production of income.

FOR

This would spread the tax burden over a wider base by generating revenue from non-income producing personal property such as boats, cars and motorcycles.

AGAINST

Appraisals, verification of property and collection of the tax create costs to taxpayers that may offset the income generated. Many local governing bodies do not collect this tax because it has a high delinquency rate and is difficult to enforce equitably.

Constitutional Amendment

PROPOSITION No. 2
WORDING ON BALLOT: The constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds to provide educational loans to students.

Explanation

This proposed amendment would authorize the legislature to allow the Higher Education Coordinating Board to issue up to $300 million in general obligation bonds to finance educational loans to Texas students attending Texas colleges and universities. The maximum interest rate would be set by law. An interest and sinking fund would be established to pay the principal and interest on the bonds as they mature. The legislature could provide for the investment of bond proceeds and establish the interest and sinking fund. The state cannot issue bonds to finance student loans without this constitutional amendment because the Texas Constitution prohibits the legislature from lending the credit of the state without specific authorization in the constitution, and prohibits use of public funds for grants and loans to individuals. Previous amendments authorized issuance of $85 million for student loans in 1965, $200 million in 1969, and $75 million 1989.

FOR

1. These loans are urgently needed to meet the fall 1991 demand for loans to financially needy students. If this amendment is not approved, approximately 15,000 Texas students (the number who received loans last year) may be unable to attend Texas colleges and universities this year. These loans go only to financially needy students who otherwise could not afford to attend college.

2. The student loan program usually operates as a revolving, self-supporting fund. Because changes in federal loan programs have created large increases in demands for state loans, and because most of the many loans made in recent years are not yet due, the bonds to be issued are necessary to fund the program until payments on recent loans begin to come in. The bonds will be paid back, plus interest, by borrowers, not taxpayers.

AGAINST

1. The state does not need to incur any more debt. The bonded indebtedness of the state now totals $7.5 billion. General obligation bonds, which accounted for $2.3 billion in debt at the end of fiscal 1989, reached $2.8 billion at the end of 1990.

2. This proposed $300 million debt will not stand alone. The legislature should undertake a comprehensive evaluation of overall state debt before voters are asked to add to it.

"DECISIONS MADE EARLY"

Many people plan for what might happen—fire, burglary, injury, and accidents. Now more and more people are planning for what will inevitably happen. It simply makes good sense to prepare for that which we can not avoid.

Pre-need funeral arranging allows one to control the type of service they would prefer, select a means of financing it, freeze the prices at today's price, and save loved ones the anguish of deciding these matters at a later date. Really it is the loving thing to do for your family.

PHARMACY TOPICS

By Elbert Johnson, Registered Pharmacist

Old wives' tale come true: doctors at Coombe Lying-In Hospital in Dublin, Ireland, found that it does indeed take longer to deliver a large baby than a small one - an average 7.7 hours of labor for a 10-pound tyke vs. 3.8 hours for those under 5 1/2 pounds.

Breast cancer risk goes up with a high intake of saturated fat and down with a high intake of vitamin C, according to a statistical study reported in the Journal of the National Cancer Institute.

Constant dieting is probably unhealthy, say scientists at the University of Pennsylvania. Centers for Disease Control in Atlanta suggest that lack of exercise is more of a health problem than obesity. With exercise, health improves and weight may go down, too.

New product is said to reduce gas and bloating from beans, cabbage, and other problem foods. Naturally derived enzyme breaks down indigestible sugars while they're still in the stomach so that they won't "explode" in the gut.

--Letters to the Editor--

Readers state views on City Hall

For

Editor: Much has been said against building a new City Hall, mainly that we do not need it or it costs too much money, or both.

Anyone who has worked at Haskell City Hall will know that space--work space, storage space and meeting space, is sorely needed. The city office with the much needed computer equipment etc.--the wiring is exposed because it cannot be hidden in the wall or under the floor. The present fire proof vault is too small to hold all the permanent records that must be preserved, and the important current records and computer tapes. The storage space for office supplies also contains the ladies' rest room. I worked for the City from 1966 to 1987 and it was a constant battle repairing roof leaks and storing records.

When City Hall was built in 1927, it was spacious enough for the needs of the time, but times have changed, the city has grown and it no longer meets those needs. The current facilities necessitates the abandoning of other offices on certain days to hold elections, Social Security meetings, etc.

Please, those of you who are opposed to a new City Hall, re-think your position. Our elected officials have come up with a remedy. Support them in it. No, it will not be cheap, but then, what is?

Mary Watson

Against

Editor: Knowing my opinion and the opinion of others whom I have talked to lately, I would like to write a few words.

I am a widow, own property and pay taxes. I do not need another dollar attached to my taxes. Our town is full of widows, and I feel that I speak for most of them.

As everyone knows, we have many vacant houses and buildings in our little town. I know the economy is bad, but I am an optimist. I think things will get better, but not overnight.

We do not need a new city hall. The one we have could easily be made to meet the requirements of the state with a lot less money than has been projected.

We have people in Haskell who could do a great job of renovating the building. It would eliminate the necessity of hiring "out of town" people. I believe in using hometown labor when at all possible.

Too, anything that costs as much as the anticipation of a new city hall should be brought before the people for a vote.

We have elected these people to be the City Council and represent us. They should strive to provide essential services to the young and old. If they know the majority of people are against an issue, they should try to do better with what they already have. I feel as if the town has been poorly represented.

We have water, sewer and street problems, plus growth problems concerning our youth and the civic advancement of our town, which are needed much more than building a new building to store our city records and a museum that we do not need at this time.

It has always been a part of our great American heritage to extend a helping hand to those we can. Building a new city hall will not help those who are less fortunate than we.

Cox couple gets award as employers

(Editor's Note: Walter Cox is the son of Ms. Virgil Conner of Haskell and Mrs. Cox is the daughter of the late Jack and Sallie Sanders of Weinert and the sister of Mrs. Dudley Phelps of Haskell. The following article appeared in the Naples Monitor.)

One of the top awards at the 1991 Art-Tex Private Industry Council (PIC) banquet last week in Mt. Pleasant went to a Naples business--Custom Roofing, owned by Walter and Sue Cox, who were presented with the PIC "Private Sector Employer of the Year" plaque.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox started building the roofing plant in Naples in 1984 and were producing roofing products by May of 1985. From the beginning, the largest percentage of their production employees have been JTPA participants, a division of the Ark-Tex Job Training Partnership Act program. Custom Roofing employs approximately 70 workers and 75 percent or more are former or current JTPA participants. As of last week, five participants have been presented with five-year tenure awards.

Cox said he was extremely pleased with the JTPA on-the-job training program because JTPA not only benefits them, but most importantly, trains participants for a new job skill and full-time employment.

Guest speakers for the banquet were Lonnie A. (Bo) Pilgrim of Pilgrim's Pride, and Sherman Tate, an Arkla Gas vice president.

Do you love your country? Have integrity, common sense and backbone?

Then, you might want to run for Congress. There's help available.

THRO (acronym for Throw the Hypocritical Rascals Out) is a brainchild of retiree-turned-political-activist Jack Gargan, who has just announced a nationwide talent search for qualified people to run for congressional seats in the 1992 elections.

A 60-year-old retired financial planner, Gargan catapulted to national prominence last summer when he borrowed $45,000 from his retirement savings to place full-page ads in five major newspapers across the country. "I'M MAD AS HELL, AND I'M NOT GOING TO TAKE IT ANYMORE" screamed the headlines in bold print.

He enumerated a long list of congressional misdeeds and abuses of power, called for the ouster of all congressional incumbents, and asked for contributions from those who felt the same way so he could "put another ad in another city."

By election day, Gargan had parlayed his five ads into 245 full-page ads in newspapers across the country. Time magazine named him "Hero of the Week", he was a guest on more than 250 radio shows, and appeared on practically every major TV talk show in the nation.

While the campaign was credited with a miraculous 12-percent closing in the spread of votes in practically every voting district in the country, it succeeded in ousting only 16 incumbents. The problem, says Gargan, was that more than 80 congressmen had no challengers at all, and most of the rest had only token opposition. "You can't throw 'em out if they don't have anyone running against 'em," he said.

To correct the situation for the 1992 elections, Gargan is launching a nationwide talent search for qualified applicants in each congressional and senatorial district. He promises help in getting on the ballot and running a campaign as well as "an endorsement worth thousands." Qualifications include love of country, integrity, common sense and backbone.

All applicants must pledge to limit terms of office, roll back the recent congressional pay raise, reduce staff and perks, eliminate deficit spending and initiate meaningful election reform.

"This is truly a non-partisan effort," says Gargan. "We don't care if the applicant is a Democrat, Republican or Independent. Our committee will endorse the best qualified challenger in each primary and/or runoff election."

Applicants will be screened by a panel made up of former congressmen and defeated congressional candidates. THRO will not take an active part in the screening process, says Gargan. Instead, he will continue his efforts to publicize the "gross misconduct and excesses of incumbent members of Congress."

If you want to run, send your application to THRO, 4127 W. Cypress St., Tampa, FL 33607. If you just want to help Gargan's cause, you can send your check to the same address.

Harrell family has reunion

Descendents of Will, Ike, Nath and Charlie Harrell held their annual reunion July 27 at the Haskell Country Club.

Will, Ike and Nath were all early settlers in Haskell County, settling in the Foster community where they farmed and raised large families. Charlie never lived in Haskell County but he visited here very often. All four brothers are buried in Haskell. The wives of Will, Ike and Nath are buried beside them, as well as several of their children and grandchildren.

There were 64 family members and eight family friends attending this year.

Oldest family member was Viola Tidwell (Will's daughter), and the youngest was Kenneth Baker (Will's step-great-great-grandson). The Vernay and Donna Lusk family traveled the longest distance, for which they received a pair of Dutch Doll wall hangings made by Marjorie Harrell.

After all stuffed themselves on the delicious food, the craft auction took place with Roy Paul and Pat Glover doing the auctioneering. Proceeds from the auction pay the reunion expenses.

Doctors back tobacco curbs Rural doctors

Texas physicians supported an aggressive package of anti-tobacco policies during a recent meeting of the Texas Medical Association House of Delegates, including support for divestiture of tobacco company stock by all Texas physicians and education institutions.

The actions of the TMA House of Delegates were reported in an article in the July issue of Texas Medicine, the association's official news magazine.

Among anti-tobacco measures adopted by the physicians are policies supporting an end to government support for the tobacco industry, a ban on free samples and vending machine sales, classification of cigarette smoking as a class A carcinogen, and placement of tobacco products under regulation of the Food and Drug Administration.

Doctors also called for larger warning labels on cigarette packages.

Sanders family reunion in Seymour

The 17th annual reunion of the Jack and Sallie Sanders family of Weinert was held Saturday and Sunday, July 20-21, in the air conditioned building Donnie Portland Fancher donated to the city of Seymour.

The youngest son, Rocky, and his family were this year's hosts.

The reunion was held in conjunction with the annual Alexander family reunion, the maternal relatives of the Sanders children. Mrs. Sallie Sanders, the mother, was the daughter of George and Harriet Alexander of Weinert. Their children and grandchildren have had a reunion in Seymour Park for many years.

Each year, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Blakely of Micanopy, Fla., send out beautiful folder invitations with pictures of one of the Alexander children. Inside is the program and on the back are pictures of that particular family. This year's invitation featured Lola and her seven children. All of Lola's children were present this year.

A video was shown of Lola's 80th birthday party and music with dancing afterwards. Her children are Barbara of South New Jersey, Pauline of Phoenix, Ariz., Wanda Mae of Wyoming, Gloria of Paradise and Charles, Rocky and Dale of Wichita Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Troy Blakely were president of this year's reunion. Rocky Cowley barbecued the meat for all the meals. Andy Sanders and Charles Pitman were auctioneers where money is raised each year for food and rental of the building.

The oldest member present was Bertie Alexander of Weinert. Youngest was Shawn Taylor Gray of Odessa, five-month-old grandson of Bill and Martha (Sanders) Maupin. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Capernille of Pitman, N.J., traveled the farthest. Eighty-one people attended.

The Sanders children present were Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Mitchell, Kendall and Allison of Haskell, Oman and Darrell Sanders of Coleman, Ethel Slade of Eagar, Ariz., Mr. and Mrs. Andy Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Carrouth, ReNetha, Crystal and A. 12-year-old has many talents

(Editor's Note: Kris Lukauskis is the current Miss Texas National Pre-Teen, and will represent Texas at the national pageant in Orlando, Fla., on Nov. 30. She is sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Morris of Abilene. Kris is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Whorton Jr. of Abilene and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Whorton of Rule.)

Kris Lukauskis

Fla., on Nov. 30. She is sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Morris of Abilene. Kris is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Whorton Jr. of Abilene and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Whorton of Rule.)

Kris Lukauskis is living proof that a 12-year-old can possess talent, intelligence and personality, as well as beauty. Her crown as the Miss Texas National Pre-Teen emphasizes this.

Kris started Taekwondo approximately two years ago. As she does in most everything she endeavors, she excelled. At the young age of 12, she already has earned her black belt. This in part is accredited to her talented Taekwondo instructor and mentor in part, Stan E. Albaugh. Not only did he instruct her, he was also an inspiration with his encouragement. In fact, it was he who encouraged Kris to enter the pageant.

Kris is successful in many aspects. Her list of honors is impressive, to say the least. It includes Madison Middle School Merit Award in physical education, 1991; Songahm Taekwondo world championship, second place sparring; All-City Orchestra, Texas Music Teacher Association Theory Test Silver Medal, 1991; National Piano Guild Audition--National Level Award; Gold Medalist solo/ensemble violin competition; Alternative Learning Program for Gifted Students; Honor Roll, Final Round Geography Bee, 1991; PTA Special Award for Cultural Arts; Good Citizenship Award; Madison Middle School Merit Award in Super Citizenship, 1991; Madison Middle School in recognition of Outstanding Achievement in the field of science; as well as Miss Texas National Pre-Teen Pageant and Talent winner.

Although her forte is Taekwondo, Kris also is an accomplished violinist and pianist.

Kris also is active civically. She is a member of the "Just Say No" Club, Madison Middle School Orchestra, American Taekwondo Association (Black Belt certificate), and Abilene Youth Orchestra. She even finds time to be a summer volunteer for the Dr. Lawson Family Practice, and Dr. Morrow, D.D.S., and has volunteered for the first annual Abilene Railroad Festival.

Last, but certainly not least, Kris is a top scholar, starting out at St. John's School in Abilene, and now in Madison Middle school. Throughout her entire school career, Kris has maintained a straight "A" average and is presently in the top five percent of her class.

Kris was selected Miss Texas national Pre-Teen on the basis of excellence in talent, communication, participation and excellence in academics, and overall leadership. She competed for this title in a field of 61 contestants.

With a career goal to become a family practice physician, and already being the accomplished young lady that she is, there is no doubt that great things are ahead of her. It is a combination of these assets, as well as many others too numerous to include in the scope of this article, that make the Lukauskis family so proud of Kris.

Oct. 4, 5, 6 have been set as the dates for Haskell's Homecoming. Several classes have started plans for their special reunions. J. W. and Sandra Wallace, Mollie Moeller and Vickie Josselet met with Dickie and Shirley Sloan in their home in Rochester last Thursday night to plan a get together for the classes of 1962, 1963 and 1964. Tentative plans call for an evening meal Sat., Oct. 5 at the Country Club. Another meeting will be held to finalize plans.

Anita Herren recently bought a summer home in Ruidoso, N.M. and has enjoyed being up there with daughter and son-in-law, Jan and John Gannaway of Lubbock. Also going up were grandchildren, Julie and Jim Gannaway, Rob, Cindy, Jessica and Brandon Howard and Kim Howard.

Mary Ann and Jack Morris of Greenville came last Monday to visit their aunt, Nettie McCollum. Mrs. Morris remained for a visit while Mr. Morris attended to business in Midland, Lubbock and Amarillo. They returned home Friday night.

William and Juanita Stewart of Ft. Worth visited his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stewart and Mrs. Stewart's aunt, Eunice Sonnamaker.

Marvin and Betty Clanton of Richardson spent Friday night with their cousin, Ethel Lou Shelton. On Sat., they, with Mrs. Shelton went to Canyon and saw the "Texas" pageant in Palo Duro Canyon. They returned to Haskell on Sunday and the Clantons returned home Monday.

If you missed the Brazos West 6th Art Festival, it was your loss. Many beautiful and unusual pictures and photographs were exhibited. My compliments to all who participated.

Sgt. Jack L. Bevel, Jr. of the United State Army is stationed at Ft. Kobbe in the Panama Canal Zone. His wife, Brandi, recently joined him there. He is the son of Jackie and Royleene Bevel of Kennedy, Tx. and the grandson of Neet Bevel.

Mrs. Opal Baty of Shamrock has returned home after a visit with daughter and son-in-law, Donna and Ford Cole, and grandchildren, Kerri and Loren.

Spending the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Jess Leonard were their son, Gene and his son, Lee from Mabank, Tx.

Debra Harvey of Odessa was recently involved as a volunteer in a mock disaster drill at Midland International Airport. Debra says it was a frightening experience but that it is important to know what to do in case of an emergency. She is employed at the airport. Debra is the daughter of Jackie and Joy Harvey, Odessa, the granddaughter of Jack and Alta Fay Harvey and Neet Bevel and the great granddaughter of Florence Lamed.

Last week, Charlotte Foreman of Odessa brought grandson, Trey Rogers home and spent a short time with her son and family, Flint and Lisa Nanny and Amber and with me. She was enroute to the Wayland community.

Lewis and Gayle Jones of San Antonio visited Lewis' mother, Clarris Jones and Gayle's father, Hugh Ratliff.

The Greater Independent Baptist Church celebrated its 23rd homecoming Sunday, July 21. Former pastor B. J. Robinson of Wichita Falls brought the message. He also brought a choir of beautiful voices. Notes From The Rolling Plains

(Note: The following is one of a series of stories by noted wildlife photographer Wyman Meinzer offered by Haskell Save-A-$ for your enjoyment.)

Since when do we think we are more developed in our schemes of life than the wild creatures about us? Just last week I finally attained a collection of photos that I've needed for twelve years. They were of the mating behavior of the roadrunner. In all the years I've spent in the brush I have never been blessed to observe such a secretive behavior from these ever interesting creatures. After several days of watching the interaction between the two chapparral it occurred to me that the art of romance is not just limited to the two legged Romeos in fine cars and designer suits. Numerous times the male approached "Sweetheart" with gifts of love. With his long tail wagging and neck bowed handsomely, his offers of grasshoppers, katydids, and sticks went unheeded. Even a show of his flying prowess one day hardly drew a glance from the coy little Sweetheart. When I had almost given up and resigned myself to the fact that no more young roadrunners would be added to the rangeland this autumn, Romeo came forth with his grandest gift of offering. Cooing softly while trotting down the gravel road, this Casanova of chaparrals sported a long slender spotted whiptail lizard from his beak. Noting the new offering of love, Sweetheart flew from her perch in the old mesquite and received him with all the warmth of a long lost love. After their affection for one another had been consummated, Sweetheart daftly snatched the lizard from the beak of Romeo and dashed into the brush. Looking a bit embarrassed for having to pay such a lucrative price for a few moments of attention, Romeo padded off into the brush to finish out his day with a meal of yellow grasshoppers. As I sat in the shade of a mulberry tree contemplating the shots I had just added to my files, it occurred to me that the game of love and money is not something we humans have a corner on.

Farm Bureau endorses amendment

The president of the Haskell County Farm Bureau is urging Haskell County residents to vote for a constitutional amendment that would authorize a County Education District to adopt certain homestead exemptions.

At the same time, Lonnie Hodgins, president of the Haskell County Farm Bureau, is urging voters to vote against the second constitutional amendment that would allow the state to sell additional bonds to finance student loans.

"Texas Farm Bureau policy states that we are for increasing homestead exemptions and for restricting state indebtedness by limiting issuance of bonds to fund state expenditures," Hodgins said.

The statewide passage of amendment No. 1, which Texas Farm Bureau favors, would allow the three propositions attached to that amendment, if approved by local County Education District voters, to become effective, Hodgins stated.

One proposition would allow voters in each County Education District to determine if their district should provide a resident homestead exemption not to exceed 20 percent of market value but no lower than $5,000. Another proposition would allow voters in each County Education District to determine if their district should provide an additional disabled and elderly homestead exemption of $10,000. Texas Farm Bureau favors these propositions, Hodgins said.

He urged a "no vote" on the third proposition which would allow the voters in each County Education District to determine if their district should tax non-income-producing personal property such as automobiles, boats and airplanes.

Hodgins also urged county voters to vote against Constitutional amendment No. 2. That amendment would allow the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board to sell up to $300 million in general obligation bonds to be used for loans to students attending institutions of higher education in Texas.

Group has meeting on insurance

The Haskell County Alzheimer's support group held its monthly meeting at the First National Bank conference room. There were many in attendance, along with some new members.

The meeting was led by Cary Headstream who informed all of many aspects of Medicare and the needs of Medicare supplements in order to see them through a medical crisis. Cary has a local agency and invited members to come by at their convenience for further discussion of their needs and how they might possibly be met.

A business meeting followed the speaker, and there was much discussion concerning the fact that the group will celebrate its first anniversary of establishing a support group in August.

Refreshments were furnished by Mrs. Joy Jones of Rule who provided homemade ice cream. It was not just the plain variety, but "peanut butter and jelly" ice cream.

Cattle drives were made from Spanish ranches in South Texas to Louisiana and Mexico over a century before the famous cattle drives of the post-Civil War period in Texas.

NOTICE OF CALCULATION OF EFFECTIVE TAX RATE, ESTIMATED UNENCUMBERED FUND BALANCES, AND DEBT SCHEDULE

Property tax rates for the following special districts: North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority, Haskell County Water Supply District #1, and Haskell Memorial Hospital; and for the Cities of O'Brien, Rochester, Rule and Weinert.

This notice concerns 1991 Tax Rates for Tax Units listed above. It presents information about three Tax Rates. Last year's Tax Rate is the actual rate the Taxing Unit used to determine property Taxes last year. This year's effective Tax Rate would impose the same total Taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback Tax Rate is the highest Tax rate the Taxing Unit can set before Taxpayers can start Tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amounts of Taxes by the Tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by State Law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

Services will begin at 7 p.m. each evening and 11 a.m. Sunday. The church is located midway between Munday and Knox City.

Dr. Culpepper was pastor of the First Baptist Church in Haskell from 1966 to 1973, and is well known in the area. He is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University, Southwestern Seminary in Fort Worth and Luther Rice Seminary in Jacksonville, Fla.

After serving as a full-time pastor for more than 35 years, he resigned the North Baptist Church in McKinney in 1988 to devote his time to evangelism, interim pastor and Bible studies. In 1991 he has served one church as interim pastor, taught three Bible studies and this will be the fifth revival. He and his wife, Gene, make their home in Haskell where they are members of the First Baptist Church.

Sanders, a native of Weinert, is a farmer and a deacon in the First Baptist Church of Weinert where he has served for more than 20 years as the minister of music. He has led music in revivals in Texas and several other states. He and his wife, Mildred, have participated in more than 50 Lay Renewals. They also took part in crusades in Korea, Germany, Norway and Ecuador. He has been nominated to serve as music director of the Haskell-Knox Baptist Association in 1991-92.

"Many people in this area have been members of the Gillespie church or know about it," said the Rev. Ross Anderson, pastor. "This would be a good time to get back to Gillespie and hear some good gospel singing and preaching."

Anderson, who lives in Haskell, has been pastor at Gillespie since last September.
