

Medford couple wins tournament

Jack and Ruby Medford won first place in the championship flight of the Haskell Country Club's Couples Tournament last weekend.

Second place went to David and Doylene Strickland and third was won by Greg and Kim Clonts.

In the first flight, the first-place winners were Andy and Patricia Correll, second place went to Raymond and Irma Kemper and third place to Harvey Croft and Frieda Fly.

Jerry and Jean Carver took first place in the second flight. Harold and Pat Wicker took second and Bill and Lucille Griffin won third.

first win of the infant season after disappointing losses in their openers last week.

The Indians bowed to 1A power Munday by a respectable 21-14 score, while the Panthers lost a close 13-6 decision to Knox City.

Spirits are high in the Haskell camp this week despite last week's narrow loss at Munday. The Indians played on even terms with the power-laden Moguls and came close to pulling off a shocker.

Seymour, which has endured some bad times in recent years, appears to be headed back and the Panthers' effort against tough Knox City last week attests to that fact.

"They're a good team," said Indian Coach Walter Hargrove of the Panthers. "They have a number of good players, including running back Greg Adkins, quarterback Ronnie Miller and tight end Blake

The Indians had 223 yards of total offense last week against Munday. Jason Torres ran for 79 yards in 13 carries and Cody Josselet rushed 21 times for 55

Last Saturday, Virgil Hudson gave a timely demonstration of his skill with a lariat rope.

While sitting on his horse at the corner of Hughes and Clark Streets, he noticed that Mrs. Byson's buggy horse had got loose from her with the buggy and came tearing from the west side down Hughes Street.

Virgil got his rope down and as the horse came to the corner of the square it turned south on Clark Street. He gave chase and made a throw and caught the runaway horse around the neck with the rope and slowly checked the frightened animal without damage to the buggy or horse.

Virgil was riding a good cow horse and did the thing so skillfully that a cheer went up from the crowd collected along the street.

Notes From The Rolling Plains

(Note: The following is one of a series of stories by noted wildlife photographer Wyman Meinzer offered by Haskell Save-A-$ for your enjoyment.)

The salty smell of horse sweat filled my nostrils as the two horsemen and I trotted through the dense mesquite brush last week. As usual, I worried with my camera in an attempt to somehow come up with a safe method to transport it while we pounded through the brush at various intervals. In the distance the dogs once again sounded off and the race was on. Larry yelled, "They are looking him in the eye", and again we spurred the horses in to a reckless dash toward the distant action. Cursing the brush and bouncing camera, I raced pell-mell behind them, not wanting to miss the moment when this hog man from Oklahoma came face to face with this "mesquite bear", an old wild boar hog. When we arrived the four dogs had surrounded a very large wild boar. With foam dripping from his popping jaws and knifelike tushes protruding from his upturned lips, a wild boar is one of the most fearsome foes in America. Some liken him to an enraged bear because of his quickness and dangerous tushes. The boar raced through the brush as we rode up and Larry quickly dropped his rope and tried to put a loop on the big boar. Before he turned the horse to get away the hog swerved to the horse and cut her high on the leg. Soon the raced stalled in a little opening in the mesquite. The boar was making a stand. Slipping form his horse, with no weapon but a rope and his bare hands, Larry stood face to face with the butcher of the brush and, for an instant, time literally stood still. In slow motion the big hog started toward the man and quickly accelerated in to the lightning attack so characteristic of his breed. Fighting to keep the boar away form his vulnerable legs, Larry dance and dodged, but the boars brute strength and speed quickly ruled. With a head thrust that would lift a 200 pound man into the air, he knocked Larry's hands away and drove into his legs. One tush ripped a frightening gash in his right leg and then followed by driving a white tush into his left knee. Man against beast, hands against teeth, I watched this duel in awe as the curtain of time rollled back 10,000 years. Wyman Meinzer

Back the team

Editor: Now that the football season is underway, a few things are well worth mentioning. How many times have we heard the remark: "We attended all the games when my son played football and my daughter played basketball, but we don't go any more?"

Citizens, are we supporting our teams, or are we supporting our children only?

This leaves an opening for someone to say, "Look who's talking," since I haven't attended a night game in five or six years. The last night game I attended was in the 1985-86 season. At that time I lived in Anson, but chose to sit on the Haskell side. As I recall, I was sitting in the second row of seats, near the ground. Even then, a kind gentleman steadied my body as I left the bleachers. I was 76 then, and rather weak-kneed.

Now, a word to the sports writers and the commentators in the press box. Most young people and even adults like to be recognized. Please consider the entire team. Many good athletes play the entire season with little or no recognition. The glory usually goes to the boy who catches the "Hail Mary" pass or makes the near impossible touchdown, and the real hero who clears the way for the runner is completely ignored.

T. Jackson

Who pays?

Editor: I believe Mrs. Green addresses the wrong people when she suggests that to avoid higher utility bills, the 173 people who voted yes in the recent election should be responsible for the cost of the new city hall.

No one would be paying higher utility bills if the election had passed. The ad valorem tax would have been used to finance the project, not the utilities. The 299 citizens who voted "no" eliminated the use of the tax, thus necessitating the increase in utility

Therefore the burden of $42 a year on the 200-plus widows and low-income couples comes not from the people who voted "yes", but instead (it comes) from the people who voted "no".

Jill Druesedow

Un-represented?

Editor: The sadly un-represented taxpayers and voters of this community have become anxious and weary of the reckless, unfeeling and totally un-acceptable way this City Council and City Administrator have muzzled their rights and wishes, and best interests. You have bull-headedly trod upon the rights of the people to have a say in the matters that deeply involve us all.

The Council and Mayor are elected by the people to represent them in a manner in accordance with their wishes. All these elected officials have approved the building of a City Hall that is definitely not approved by the majority of the taxpayers here.

Since all the Council members went along with this absurdity, which one represents me and the 299 other voters who have veheminently shown their opposition? Which one is representing, or listening to, the people who thought they were electing someone who represented the desires of the majority?

Another big problem is the glaring "conflict of interest" situation we have with the Mayor and one Council member being public school teachers. (Also, the fact that most of the other members' wives are employed by the school district.) These jobs are entirely supported by state and local taxes paid by "We the People." Why should the big majority of the taxpayers have to pay the salaries of people who are in direct opposition to the needs and desires of the community?

addressing. How much money was spent by the Council on the unauthorized mailing of Council propaganda to voters---mailed out just before the recent election? The commercial gilts. Concerned Citizens Committee has to pay for everything it does by donations, while the Council used taxpayer funds. By what authority,

As soon as one more person asks why this column has appeared irregularly in recent weeks, I will have heard from both readers.

Actually, it isn't that I've been too lazy to write. We've had some space problems, and I learned long ago that I get far fewer complaints when I leave out my stuff than I do when I leave out someone else's.

I think it all started with beer.

A dozen or so years ago, Miller Brewing Co. came out with "Lite" beer, soon to be followed by Bud Light, Coors Light and just about every other kind of light beer.

Quickly to follow were light (or lite) cigarettes, cheese, mayonnaise, salt, oleo, butter, syrup, canned fruit, soft drinks and whiskey.

Even people are getting into the act. Vice President Quayle has been referred to as "Bush Light."

The term continues to spread. So I shouldn't have been shocked the other day when I saw a Dillard's ad advertising "Hanes Alive Lights". support hosiery.

And you'll just love the colors: barely there and barely black.

An unusual letter this week comes form Bob Black, the former Haskellite now on death row in Huntsville.

He said he had just received news that the state might set an execution date for him on Oct. 23.

"If you are interested in corresponding or doing an interview before that date, you will find me cooperative," he wrote.

He says he can be interviewed between 8 and 11 a.m. on Wednesdays by making an appointment with the prison.

As far as is known, no presidential candidate has come forward to accept the endorsement of THRO (Throw the Hypocritical Rascals Out).

But the organization's founder, Jack Gargan, has announced a campaign to draft self-made Texas billionaire H. Ross Perot for President in 1992.

Gargan hopes an outpouring of letters, petitions and phone calls will convince Perot to run on an independent ticket.

Gargan gained national notoriety during the 1990 elections with his "Made As Hell, And Not Going To Take It Anymore" ad campaign protesting the sins of congress and asking for the ouster of all incumbents. Although he founded THRO, he says the Perot draft idea is a personal venture, and is not connected with the THRO

September is a beautiful month. It is as if nature is gathering her forces to make a display that will be remembered all winter.

This is the ideal time to dig and divide daisies, irises, day lilies and other perennial flowers. water right away, wrap the stems in damp newspaper or sprinkle water on the flowers and seal them in a plastic bag (creating a miniature green house) and keep them in a shady spot. Cut the stems at a 45degree angle with two-inch vertical slits up the middle of the stems. Leaves left under water will rot, and leaves above the waterline will divert water away from the flower. Flowers that ooze a sticky or milky juice when cut (poppies, daffodils) should be passed over a flame to seal the stem. This prevents a rubbery substance from forming at the cut that will prevent water absorption.

In late summer or fall, when it's time for saving seeds, leave them in the hot sun for several days to make sure they're dry. Then place them in a plastic bag, seal it tightly, and drop it in the freezer until planting time next spring. This eliminates insects or diseases ruining the seeds and provides almost a 100-percent chance of germination.

Sept. 12, at 10 a.m., at the Haskell National Bank building we will have a flower workshop. Guests are always welcome. So please feel free to come.

Don't forget to enter your pretty flowers in our fair. See you next

HOME OFFICE DEDUCTION

It may be easier for you to deduct the business use of your home because of a recent court ruling.

For years the IRS has relied on what's been known as the "focal point test" to determine whether you can deduct expenses related to your home office. The test requires that you use the office on a regular and exclusive basis as your principal place of business where you meet customers or patients. Employees must satisfy one more requirement: the home office has to be for the convenience of the employer.

A new test which is being used allows you to deduct certain home expenses if you have no other place for your office. For example, if you have to perform the administrative duties of your business in an area of your home, you may be allowed to deduct home office expenses. You don't need to meet customers or perform your business duties at your home office, but you must use the office regularly and exclusively for business.

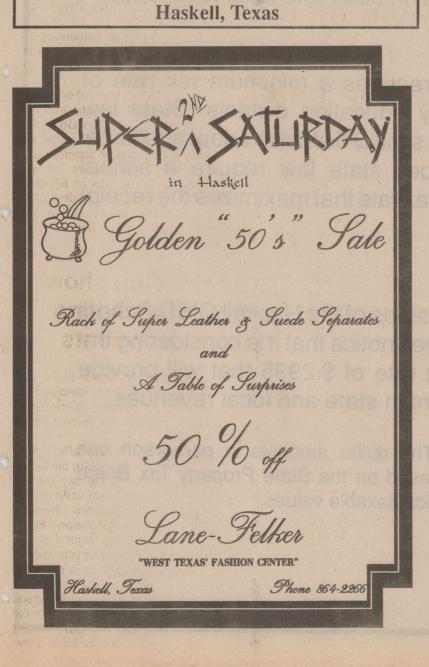

The deductions for a home office can be significant, and travel from your home office to where you perform other services may be deductible. Part of the cost of your home would be depreciable, or if you rent, you may deduct part of the rent expense. You may also deduct a portion of your utilities and maintenance costs and property taxes.

If you live on the East Coast in an area served by the 4th Circuit Court and you satisfy the requirements of the new test, a court challenge by the IRS will be unlikely. If you don't live in the 4th Circuit, you can still rely on the new test, but the IRS may challenge the deduction.

Since a home office could mean significantly more deductions, we suggest you discuss the situation with your accountant if you use part of your home for business.

NOTICE OF COMPARABLE TAX RATES AND REVENUES

The legislature has enacted a statute on school funding to comply with a court mandate enforcing the state constitution. Under prior statutes (S.B. 1) the tax rate for last year provides $4,710. per student in state and local revenues. Under this statute (S.B. 351) that same rate now provides $5,122 per student in state and local revenues.

State law only requires a minimum tax rate of $.8493 for county education districts. State law does not require a school district to adopt additional taxes. Neither does state law require a school district to adopt a tax rate that maximizes the receipt of state funds.

The board of trustees of the Haskell CISD School District hereby gives notice that it is considering the adoption of a tax rate of $.2995 that will provide $4,778 per student in state and local revenues.

PLEASE NOTE: The dollar amounts in paragraph one above are figures based on the State Property Tax Board taxable values not local taxable values.

14 victory, but only after stopping an Indian drive in the game's dying seconds.

The young, inexperienced Indians battled the state-ranked Moguls on pretty even terms throughout the night, and remained in the game until the very end.

The first half was a defensive standoff until just before halftime when Munday's Chad James broke the ice with a 3-yard touchdown run. A 2-point conversion staked the Moguls to an 8-0 lead.

Haskell came back in the third period with Cody Josselet running 7 yards for a touchdown after Jonathan Tatum's 30-yard punt return had put the Indians in scoring position. The extra point attempt failed, but Haskell was back in the game, 8-6.

Munday's heralded Bobby Dockins answered with two thirdperiod touchdowns, on runs of 42 and 40 yards as the Moguls stretched their lead to 21-6.

But in the fourth period, Josselet scored again for the Indians, getting the touchdown from 3 yards out. Mart Guess passed to Johnny Rodriquez for the extra points as the Indians cut the margin to 7 points.

Late in the game, the Indians drove to the Munday 16 where they faced fourth and 4 with time running out. They surrendered the ball after getting 3 yards on the fourth-down play.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 5, 1991

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 114 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize home rule cities having a population of 5,000 or fewer inhabitants to amend their city charters by a majority vote of a city's qualified voters at an elec-tion held for that purpose. The amendment makes clear that home rule cities that have declined in population below the population required to initially adopt a charter may nevertheless continue to amend their charters.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment allowing home-rule cities with a population of 5,000 or less to amend their charters by popular

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 10 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to authorize the Texas Department of Transportation to expend money, from any source available, for the costs of the turnpikes, toll roads, or toll bridges of the Texas Turnpike Authority, provided that any monies expended from the state highway fund shall be repaid to the fund from tolls or other turnpike rev-

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment mandating the repayment to the Department of Transportation of monies expended to assist the Texas Turnpike Authority in the construction, maintenance, and operation of turnpikes, toll roads and toll bridges."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 26 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Veterans' Land Board to invest, as authorized by law, moneys of the Veterans' Land Fund which are not immediately committed to the payment of principal and interest on bonds issued by the Veterans' Land Board, the purchase of lands, or the payment of expenses. Investment of such moneys would no longer be restricted to investments in bonds or obligations of the United States. The proposed amendment would also authorize the Veterans' Land Board to invest, as authorized by law, moneys of the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund which are not immediately committed to the payment of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued by the Veterans' Land Board for the benefit of the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund, the making of home mortgage loans, or the payment of expenses. Investment of such moneys would no longer be restricted to investments in bonds or obligations of the United States. The proposed amendment gives the legislature power to implement the amendment and to delegate such duties and authority to the Veterans' Land Board as it deems necessary.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to further implement and enhance the administration of the veterans' housing assistance and land programs and to expand the investment authority of the Veterans' Land Board."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 4 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to authorize the issuance of a maximum of $1.1 billion in general obligation bonds. The proceeds of the bonds are to be used to acquire, construct, or equip new prisons and substance abuse felony punishment facilities, mental health and mental retardation institutions, and youth corrections institutions, to repair and renovate existing facilities of those institutions and to acquire, repair, or renovate other facilities for use as state prisons or substance abuse felony punishment facilities. The $1.1 billion is in addition to the $900 million currently authorized by the constitution to be expended on bond issues for facilities of correctional and mental health and mental retardation institutions. The bonds would constitute a general obligation of the state. The bonds and interest on the bonds would be paid from the first money coming into the state treasury that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution, less any amount in a sinking fund at the end of the preceding fiscal year that is pledged to payment of the bonds

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of up to $1.1 billion in general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping new prisons or other punishment facilities to confine criminals, mental health and men-tal retardation institutions, and youth corrections institutions, for major repair or renovation of existing facilities of those institutions, and for the acquisition of, major repair to, or renovation of other facilities for use as state prisons or other punishment facilities."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 39 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow a county, junior college district, or municipality to exempt tangible personal property from ad valorem taxation if: (1) the property is acquired or brought into the state in an enterprise zone to be forwarded outside the state, (2) the property is assembled, stored, repaired, maintained, manufactured, processed, or fabricated in the enterprise zone, (3) the property is transported outside the state not later than 175 days after being acquired or brought into an enterprize zone, and (4) the person who acquired or brought the property into an enterprise zone is a qualified business. A county, junior college district, or municipality may exempt such property by entering into a written agreement with a qualified business that states the duration of the exemption and the terms on which the exemption is granted. Any action to exempt property must be taken before April 1 of the first year in which the property would otherwise be taxed. The term "enterprize zone" means an area that (1) has been designated as such by a state agency responsible for economic development, and (2) has pervasive poverty, unemployment, and economic distress. The term "qualified business" means a business that meets the qualification established by general law, and requires that the qualified business is actively engaged in a new business in the enterprize zone or is expanding a business that is already active in the enterprise zone. An enterprise zone is created to foster economic development in an area of pervasive poverty and unemployment.

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 8 proposes a constitutional amendment that would establish a Texas Ethics Commission with the powers and duties provided by law. The commission would consist of eight appointed members selected as follows: two members of different political parties appointed by the governor from a list of at least ten names submitted by the members of the house of representatives from a list of at least ten names submitted by the members of the senate from each major political party; two members of different political parties appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives from a list of at least ten names submitted by the members of the house from each major political party; and two members of different political parties appointed by the lieutenant governor from a list of at least ten names submitted by the members of the senate from each major political party. A major political party is a political party required by law to hold a primary. With the exception of the initial appointees, commission members would serve for four-year terms. A member who has served for one term and any part of a second term would not be eligible for reappointment. The commission would be authorized to recommend the salary of the members of the legislature and may recommend that the salary of the speaker of the house of representatives and the lieutenant governor be set at an amount higher than that of other members. If the commission recommends a change in salary, the voters would be authorized to accept or reject the salary change at the next general election for state and county officers. If the voters approve the recommended salary, that salary would take effect January 1 of the next odd-numbered year; if the voters reject the recommended salary, no change in salary would occur. The commission would set the per diem of the members of the legislature and of the lieutenant governor. The per diem could be raised or lowered biennially as necessary to pay members' costs, but could not exceed the amount allowed as of January 1 that year as federal income tax deduction for living expenses incurred in a legislative day in connection with a member's business as a legislator, disregarding any federal income tax exception for legislators residing near the Capitol. The commission would have other powers and duties provided by the commission's enabling act (Senate Bill 1, 72nd Legislature, Regular Session). The amendment would also provide that an increase in the emoluments of the office of Lieutenant Governor would not make a legislator ineligible to serve in the office of Lieutenant Governor.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment creating the Texas Ethics Commission and authorizing the commission to recommend the salary for members of the legislature and the lieutenant governor, subject to voter approval, and to set the per diem for those officials, subject to a limit."

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 6 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the board of trustees of each statewide public retirement system to invest the funds of the system in such manner as the board considers prudent. The board would no longer be limited to investing the funds of the system in securities.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to allow the board of trustees of a statewide public retirement system to invest the funds of the system in a manner that the board considers prudent."

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 21 proposes a constitutional amendment that would permit the legislature to create debt by or on behalf of the state if the legislature submitted the debt question to the voters of the state in the form of a proposition and a majority of those voting approved the proposition. The legislature may call the election, by joint resolution approved by at least twothirds of the members of each house, during any regular session or during any special session if the subject of the proposition is included in the Governor's proclamation for that special session. A proposition must clearly describe the amount and purpose for which debt is to be created and must describe the source of payment for the debt. The amount of members of different political par-ties appointed by the governor from newed unless the right to exceed or renew is stated in the proposition. The legislature may enact laws necessary to implement the authority granted by a proposition. A law enacted in anticipation of the election on a proposition is valid if, by its terms, it is enacted subject to approval of the related proposition. State debt that is created following voter approval of a proposition and that is approved by the Attorney General is incontestable for any

> The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the voters of this state to consider state debt questions in the form of ballot propositions that must clearly describe the amounts, purposes, and sources of payment of the debt only after approval of the propositions by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature."

PROPOSITION NO. 9 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 11 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the commissioner of the General Land Office to issue patents for certain public free school fund land for which there is not a valid transfer of title from either the State or the Republic of Texas to a private party. A patent is a document of title issued by the state. On application to the School Land Board, a person is entitled to receive a patent if: (1) the land is surveyed public free school fund land, (2) the land was not patentable under the law before the adoption of this proposed amendment, (3) the person acquired the land without knowledge of the title defect out of the State of Texas or the Republic of Texas and held the land under enain of which dates from at least January 1, 1941, (4) the person has a recorded deed on file in the county courthouse and, in conjunction with his predecessor in interest, has claimed the land for at least fifty years as of January 1, 1991. and (5) the person, in conjunction with his predecessor in interest, for at least 50 years has paid taxes on the land together with all interest and penalties associated with any delinquency. If the applicant is denied a patent, the applicant may file suit against the School Land Board in a district court in the county where the land is located within 60 days from the date of denial. The proposed amendment does not apply to beach land, submerged land, or islands, and may not be used to resolve a boundary dispute. The proposed amendment also does not apply to land found by a court to be stateowned or to land on which the state has given a mineral lease that is in effect when a patent is sought. A patent under this proposed amendment for land within five miles of mineral production shall reserve minerals to the state in the manner provided by law for reservations of minerals in sales to claimants of unsurveyed school land within five proposed constitutional amendment is similar to the version of article VII. section 4A, that was in effect between 1981 and 1990. The main difference is that under the earlier version the applicant for a patent to land had to have a chain of title that dated back to at least as early as January 1, 1932.

miles of production. An application for a patent under this proposed amendment must be filed with the School Land Board before January

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the commissioner of the General Land Office to issue patents for certain public free school fund land held in good faith under color of title for at least 50

PROPOSITION NO. 10 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 15 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to pass general laws to exempt property owned by a nonprofit corporation organized to supply water or provide wastewater service from ad valorem taxation. A nonprofit corporation would be eligible for the each major political party; two debt stated in the proposition may exemption if its bylaws provide that on dissolution, the assets remaining after the discharge of the corporation's indebtedness will be transferred to an entity providing water supply or wastewater service, or both, which is exempt from ad valorem taxation. The transferred assets must be property that is reasonably necessary for and used for water supply and wastewater ser-authorizing the legislature to exempt from ad valorem taxes certain property of a nonprofit corporation that supplies water or provides wastewater service."

PROPOSITION NO. 11 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 8 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to pass laws to authorize the State of Texas to operate lotteries and to enter into a contract with one or more legal entities that will operate lotteries on behalf of the State of Texas.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing a state lottery."

PROPOSITION NO. 12 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 34 proposes a constitutional amendment that would increase the total amount of bonds that may be issued by the Texas Water Development Board to provide wholesale and retail water and wastewater facilities to economically distressed areas of the state. The proposed amendment increases the maximum principal amount of the bonds from 20 percent to 50 percent of the $500 million amount authorized by article III, section 49-d-7, of the Texas Constitu tion. The proposed amendment would increase the maximum aggregate dollar amount of bonds that the Texas Water Development Board could issue from $100 million to $250 million.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to increase from 20 percent to 50 percent the percentage of Texas water development bonds previously authorized by Texas voters that may be issued for economically distressed areas."

PROPOSITION NO. 13 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 2 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to pass general laws authorizing Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board or its successor to issue and sell up to $300 million of general obligation bonds to finance education loans to students. The maximum net effective interest rate to be borne by the bonds would be set by law. The amendment would also authorize the legislature to provide for the investment of bond proceeds and to establish an interest and sinking fund to pay the bonds and provide for the investment of such fund. Bonds authorized under this amendment would be paid from the first money coming into the treasury in each fiscal year that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution, less any amount in an interest and sinking fund established at the end of the preceding year that is pledged to the payment of the bonds or interests.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds not to exceed $300,000,000 to continue existing programs to provide educational loans to students, with repayments of student loans applied toward retirement of the bonds."

Our sincere sympathy to the families of John Bean of Stamford; also of Bonnie Mae Storrs and Edd Wilson; and to Nauta Fay, Don and families upon the death of their mother, Jessie Ree Connally. She was a great lady.

Had an enjoyable visit at the Stamford Carnegie Library with Linda and John Dalliston and Barbara Bean Billington. That John is quite a character! He is a native Australian, and still has an interesting accent. He and I are fellow poets, but mostly he writes the cowboy kind and is much more talented than 'yours truly'. My poetry is written primarily as a past-time, although I do enter an occasional contest but my poetry rhymes, and the winning ones usually don't.

Sam Turner has completed all of his treatments for the time being. The treatments have left him weak. He has been unable to be out.

If all goes as planned, Charlene and Ed Murray will go to Dallas to get her dad for a weekend visit. Leon is presently having treatment at Baylor Hospital. Write him %Jim and Kathy Flower, 3150 Lisetta, Grand Prairie, TX 75051.

Surely did hate to miss the First Sunday Singing in Seymour this past Sunday afternoon, but could find nobody to go with me, and hated to go alone. Wanted to see my new friend, Inez Jack from Red River Hospital, who lives in Seymour. Also, my youngest granddaughter has a friend, Samantha Nicole Powell who lives there and would like to have seen

An odd incident occurred to Mrs. Anderson on Wed. morning, the 4th when the back glass of her automobile suddenly shattered with first a small hole appearing, then a larger one. While the glass was being replaced that afternoon, Mrs. Anderson visited with her friend, Mildred Smith of Stamford.

Ennis Webb had day surgery this past week in Abilene and seemed to be doing fine when I dropped by the Webb home on Saturday. At least, he was well enough for Faye to have gone to work that day.

Want a little excitement (make that a 'lot') in your life? Then, why not attend the Bobcat Pep Rally each Friday afternoon in the high school gymnasium at 3:00: Those cheerleaders certainly do a rousing, good job at stirring a person's enthusiasm and team spirit! Get there early or you may not find a seat! Congratulations to the Rule Bobcats and Rochester Steers for winning their games this past Friday night-Rule defeating the Trent Gorillas by a score of 53 to 6, and the Rochester Steers sounding beat the Southland Eagles by 58 to 16. Way to go, teams!

It was a pleasant surprise to see the James Martin family from Old Glory at The Drug Store Cafe on Sunday, Sept. 1. With them were their son, Lanham's pretty wife and daughter. Marilyn worked with me in the Medical Records Dept. at the Stamford Memorial Hospital. She and most of her family are quite active in the Fort Griffin Fandangle each year, being natives of Albany.

The family reunion that the Travis Boyds attended in Blum was the Goodman-Boyd Reunion. Lorene was asked if she had relatives in Stamford, but she said not that she knew about.

Do all you readers enjoy the Editorials as much as 'yours truly'? "Plain Talk" by Wendell Faught in the Aug. 29th issue of the Haskell free Press was an especially interesting one when he told of towns that are sometimes in a county of the same name: for instance, Haskell being in Haskell County, Dallas in Dallas County,

In that same issue, Mary Kaigler's 'From the Inside Out' about her first day of school brought back some memories of my first day-some good, some not so good. My problem was that Mother had a new baby at home, therefore, I had to go alone to register and was I scared! When the teacher, Miss Mae James, asked my name, I whispered it to her. After about the 6th time when she couldn't understand, she asked Sammy Adkins, the boy behind me if he understood what I said. Since mother had taught me to print my name, I finally had the sense to do so for that poor, patient lady. Others probably felt the same way about their first teacher for I loved that dear lady. In spite of her having red hair, which used to signify "quick tempers" to us older generation, she never once lost her kindness and sweetness-unless of course, you misbehaved in class. (Now, all you red-haired people, don't jump on my case! I love red hair, and always wanted a red-haired

Was distressed to learn that Ethel Greeson was hospitalized at Haskell Memorial Hospital this past Wed. night, the 4th. Get well soon, Ethel, I miss my "breakfast"

The Lions Club Annual Labor Day Hamburger supper at Slim Sorrells Park here in Rule was enjoyed by all who attended. They were privileged to hear Bonnie Workman and her band: Mildred Egly of Sweetwater, Jim Clay Anson, Donna Hill Hamlin, Joyce Whitley Rotan, Garland Cox Stamford, Glenn Whitfill Sweetwater and Bonnie Workman

On Tues., Sept. 3, Lorene Boyd and Vicky Anderson were guests of the Haskell Church of Christ's Ladies Bible Class. A downpour was in progress at the time they arrived at the church, so they were slightly damp when they got inside. Later, we heard that 3 1/2 inches fell that morning.

After the class, the ladies picked up a dozen meals from Experienced Citizens Center, which they delivered in Rule. Was happy to meet Myrtle Phemister and many other ladies at the church.

Reminder: Don't forget the annual Rule Jubilee to be held on Oct. 5. Starting at 2 p.m., there will be a downtown parade. Other entertainment is planned at the Slim Sorrells City Park. Arts and crafts spaces will be available. Climaxing the day will be a Rule Jubilee Queen contest at 7 p.m.

Public Notice

TO ALL INTERESTED PERSONS AND PARTIES:

The Strickland Bridge Inc. Company has made application with the Texas Air

Control Board for Permit No. C-20986 to construct a Concrete Batch Plant at

Haskell, Texas. The proposed location is Haskell County 1/4 mile South of City limits on East side of Highway 277. Additional information concerning this application is contained in the Public Notice section of this newspaper.

On June 28, 1991, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (Southwestern Bell) filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission) to add a new optional service offering for business Private Branch Exchange (PBX) Trunk customers called Digital Loop Service. The application has been assigned Docket Digital Loop Service provides digital transmission of circuit switched voice and data communications between the customer's premises and the central office. This service allows the customer to use a 1.544 Mbps facility capable of delivering up to 24 line terminations. Southwestern Bell will provide Digital Loop Service within the customer's serving central office where facilities are available.

If approved by the Commission, the rates for the Digital Loop Service facilities will be $445 per month for each digital transmission loop arrangement which provides a capacity of up to 24 line terminations, plus $3 per month for each line termination and $9 per month for each channel termination. The proposed rate for the unlimited use of the central office varies from $12.25 up to $18.90 per month for each line termination depending on the rate group classification, determined by the customer's location. Southwestern Bell estimates revenue of $2.1 million from this offering during the first year.

As proposed by Southwestern Bell, customers who currently receive digital loop compatibility through facilities installed under a special construction agreement will have the option to receive their current digital loop arrangements pursuant to the Digital Loop Service Tariff or continue to pay their current charges until they make a change of location or account. Any increase in the number of line terminations to a customer's current digital transmission loop arrangement will be provided pursuant to the proposed Digital Loop Service Tariff; however, the customer will continue to have the option of paying current charges for the existing digital transmission loop capacity. Southwestern Bell's proposal to "grandfather" existing digital loop facility arrangements is subject to review and approval by the Commission. Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible, but not later than October 15, 1991. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256. Paint Creek falls

After Lueders-Avoca scored three first-period touchdowns Friday night, Paint Creek came back to make a close game of their 1991 opener, but the Pirates' effort fell a touchdown short. Lueders-Avoca claimed a 32-25 victory.

The Pirates, learning a new system under new coach Larry Halliburton, finally got untracked in the second period when Rodney Medford ran 31 yards for a touchdown to cut the lead to 19-6. After the Raiders scored again, Geovanny Mayen passed 4 yards to Rodney Tsoodle for another Pirate score to make it 25-12 at halftime.

The Mayen-Tsoodle combo clicked again for a 64-yard touchdown in the third period as the Pirates pulled within 7, at 25-18.

L-A lengthened its lead to 32-18 by returning the ensuing kickoff for a touchdown. But in the fourth quarter, Ricky Rodriquez scored for Paint Creek to complete the night's scoring.

Defensive standouts for the Pirates included Rodriguez, who intercepted a pass that sout down a Raider drive, and Teny Martin who recovered a fumble to set up a Paint Creek score.

Coach Halliburton said he was well pleased with the Pirates' effort after the first quarter, "We started blocking and tackling like we were supposed to do," said the coach.

This week Paint Creek will host Harrold.

NOTICE OF COMPARABLE TAX RATES AND REVENUES

The legislature has enacted a statute on school funding to comply with a court mandate enforcing the state constitution. Under prior statutes (S.B. 1) the tax rate for last year provides $6,124. per student in state and local revenues. Under this statute (S.B. 351) that same rate now provides $6,618 per student in state and local revenues.

State law only requires a minimum tax rate of $.8493 for County Education Districts. State law does not require a school district to adopt additional taxes. Neither does state law require a school district to adopt a tax rate that maximizes the receipt to state funds.

The board of trustees of the Paint Creek School District hereby gives notice that it is considering the adoption of a tax rate of 26.49 that will provide $6,555 per student in state and local revenues.

Child Welfare Board

at Rhineland

Music by Sage

Sat., Sept. 14

The Haskell County Child Welfare Board ended the summer recess and began its seventh year on Sept. 3 in the Department of Human Services office.

In the absence of Tom Long, chairman, Mary Martin, secretary, called the meeting to order.

New members Troy Gailey, Bruce Adamson and Nancy Toliver were welcomed. Others present were Lizette Hastey, Suzanne McGuire, Sue Miller, treasurer; Linda Haynes, Child Protective Services supervisor; and Cindy Asbury, Haskell County caseworker. Floyd Chenault and Julian Estrada are the other members.

After the reading of the May 1991 minutes, the treasurer reported that a play pen and car seat had been purchased. A request had been made by the supervisor as being very necessary.

Another play pen had been purchased at a bargain price. There had been several donations; one was from the Vacation Bible School conducted jointly by the Lutheran, Methodist and Presbyterian churches. A refund had been received from one family. Two families had received funds for gasoline and food to take children out of town to doctors. These two amounts will be reimbursed. The board has provided this service for several years. Sue Miller is the contact person.

The secretary read a report of the board orientation in June 25, which was conducted by Sam White, Knox County CPS, Linda Haynes and Cindy Asbury for new members, Julian Estrada, Floyd Chenault and Bruce Adamson. Each was given a notebook containing constitution by-laws, a list of membership, DHS organizational charts and other materials. Those who could not attend were given the material and briefed at this meeting.

The resignation of Debbie Earles which had been received in June was accepted. She will remain the contact person for Haskell Elementary School.

The secretary also gave a report of Region 04 Foster/Adoptive Parents Advisory Council meeting at DHS Headquarters in Abilene on June 23. She has been serving as liaison from Child Welfare Council for about a year. There are 10 F/AP groups in the region; Ann Bailiff of Brownwood is chairperson. There are many problems, special needs and regulations. A new concern is how to provide funds for collegeage foster children. Substance abuse training dates were set up in Abilene, San Angelo and Wichita Falls for August.

It was decided to have a display of free materials at the Haskell County Fair in the educational section. It was also decided to continue making pictures of Santa Claus and children as a fund raiser. New members were briefed on the procedures to provide toys, food and clothing for children at Christmas. Last year, 206 children in 65 families received wrapped gifts. This was possible because of the generosity of local merchants, various civic clubs, churches and caring individuals.

The board voted to change the meeting date back to the original one, the third Tuesday of each month, beginning Oct. 15. The time is 6:30 p.m.

Anyone who wishes may attend meetings. The DHS office is located on North 1st and Avenue E.

Foreigners must report transactions

"Foreign investors who acquire or transfer any interest other than a security interest in Haskell County's agricultural land are required by law to report the transaction to our office within 90 days," Glenn Brzozowski, county executive director of the Agricultural Stabilizztion and Conservation Service, reminded this week.

The ASCS official reminds foreign investors that a report must be filed if all or part of the agricultural land is sold, or if the title is transferred to another person. Failure to report could result in a civil penalty of up to 25 percent of the fair market value of the interests held in the agricultural land.

For reporting purposes, agricultural land is any tract of more than 10 acres now in farming, ranching, forestry or timber production. "This includes land in agricultural use when purchased, as well as land later converted to agricultural use," Brzozowski said.

He defined interest as any right, title or legal share of ownership in agricultural land, such as partnerships, trusts, estates or shares in a corporation that owns agricultural land.

ASCS is responsible for monitoring how much agricultural land in Haskell County is owned or controlled by foreign individuals mor interests.

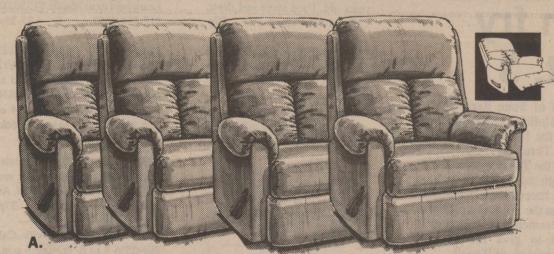

Stenholm gets honorary degree

U.S. Rep. Charles W. Stenholm, added a second honorary degree to his lengthy list of achievements when Abilene Christian University presented him with an honorary doctor of laws degree Aug. 26.

"Charlie Stenholm is a well-deserving recipient of this honorary doctorate," said Dr. Royce Moneys, new ACU president. "He has given so much of himself for the people of this congressional district and has served the American people in an exemplary fashion. His longtime support of ACU has been of great benefit to our students, faculty and administration. We count Representative Stenholm as one of the dearest friends of the university."

PROCLAMATION

CITIZENSHIP DAY AND CONSTITUTION WEEK

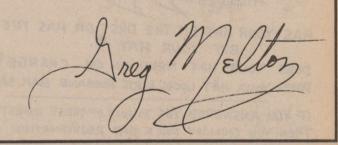

WHEREAS, We the People did ordain and establish a Constitution for the United States of America to secure the blessings of liberty for ourselves and our posterity; and

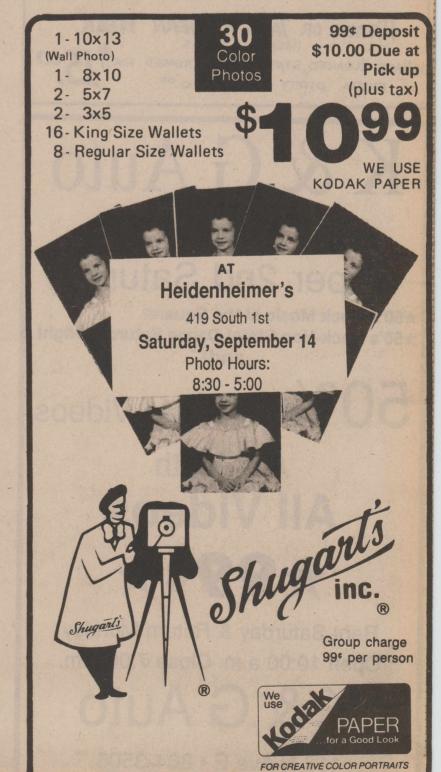

WHEREAS, the President and the Congress of the United States have designated September 17 as Citizenship Day and the week of September 17-23 as Constitution Week; and

WHEREAS, the people of the City of Haskell do enjoy the blessings of liberty, the guarantees of the Bill of Rights, equal protection of the law under the Constitution, and the freedoms derived from it;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Greg Melton, Mayor of the City of Haskell, do hereby proclaim September 17 as Citizenship Day and the week of September 17-23 as Constitution Week, and invite every citizen and institution to join in the national commemoration.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Haskell to be affixed this 9th day of September, 1991.

Rochester 4-H girl competes

Some 110 youth from across Texas demonstated their sewing and comparison shopping skills at the Texas 4-H Fashion Show held Aug 14 in Nacogdoches.

Among the participants in th "Coming Attractions" fashion show was Mindy Ballard of Rochester who competed in the Construction Tailored Daywear category. Mind: constructed a two-piece suit featuring a black skirt and a floral print top with black lapels to match

"Whether they win a top award or not, all the youth who participate in this show are the greatest," said Lou Gilly, Haskell County extension agent. "They competed in local and district competitions to get to the state show and represent the best from across the state."

CRP land

Glenn R. Brzozowski, Haskell County executive director for ASCS, visits with Kenny Thompson, who has 442 acres in the CRP program on the S. L. Griffith farm in the Paint Creek community. They are admiring the excellent stand of Kleingrass that was seeded in 1990 and is in its second year of CRP. Thompson says the program has helped him stabilize some areas on the farm that were seepy and alkaline and causing an erosion problem. It has also benefited his overall farming program by stabilizing some of his farm income and financing as well as enhancing his overall farming operation.

Tempa Toney directs play

Tempa Toney of Rule directed a play presented last week at McMurry University.

"Talley's Folly" was presented. Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights in the Little Theatre of Ryan Fine Arts Center.

Written by Lamford Wilson, the play featured two characters portrayed by McMurry students Kristi Carlson and Kevin Helmer.

The CRP programs not only benefit farm producers, but also game hunters, fishermen and recreation areas. By controlling erosion, game birds and deer have a better habitat, fishing holes have less pollution and lakes and rivers are more inviting for swimming and skiing.

The "resting" of the land is a necessity. This ensures valuable nutrients and minerals are balanced for use in the future. It also provides a break from the muchneeded chemical used in crop production.

Sufferers of Gaucher's disease imrpoved greatly when given doses of enzyme lacking in those with the genetic disease, say researchers at the National Institutes of Health, in Bethesda, Maryland. The Food and Drug Administration is expected to approve the treatment soon.

Young women who do not ovulate with each period may be at increased risk of osteoporosis, the New England Journal of Medicine reports. Stress and too much exercise may be the cause; progesterone supplements may be the cure.

Vitamin deficiency may leave a person at risk of emphysema and bronchitis. A Johns Hopkins University study found that a lack of vitamin A seems to affect the growth and development of oxygen pathways to the lungs, much as smoking does.

Finnell fish fry

Friends of State Rep. Charles Finnell of Holliday have announced plans for the Finnell Fish Fry, to be held Thrusday, Oct. 3, in support of the Texas legislator.

Although no names have been released, a statewide elected official described as the "leading architect of state government streamlining" is scheduled to give the keynote address in support of Finnell.

A rural flavor will again be evident at the Finnell Fish Fry. The buffet-style meal and musical entertainment is scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m. in the Holliday school cafeteria.

Tickets, priced at $15 each, are available from the Committee for Responsible Representation, P.O. Box 639, Holliday, TX 76366, or by calling (817) 586-1131.

Public Notices

TO ALL INTERESTED PERSONS AND PARTIES:

You are hereby notified of the opportunity for written public comment concerning the Construction Permit Application No. C-20986 by Strickland Bridge, Inc. to construct a concrete batch plant at Haskell, in Haskell County, Texas. The proposed location is 1/4 mile south of the city limits of Haskell adjoining Hwy. 277 on the east. This facility will propose to emit the following air contaminants; cement dust and other particulate matter. A copy of all materials submitted by the applicant is available for public inspection at the Texas Air Control Board Regional Office at 1290 South Willis, Suite 205, Abilene, Texas 79605, telephone (915) 698-9674, TX-AN 840-1160 and at the Texas Air Control Board, 12124 Park 35 Circle, Austin, Texas 78753. All interested and affected persons may inspect these materials and submit written comments to the executive director of the Texas Air Control Board.

Any person residing in a permanent residence within one quarter (1/4) mile of the proposed location of the plant may request a public hearing concerning the proposed construction of the plant. All comments received in writing by October 12, 1991 shall be considered by the board in its decision on the application. All comments will be made available for public inspection at the Texas Air Control Board Regional Office. 36-37c last on Thursday for tests. The doctor there sent her on to Hendrick's at Abilene. After tests she had to undergo colon surgery, and has been seriously ill. Her family was encouraged about her condition when I called Sunday afternoon. She is in Intensive Care, but she can receive cards there.

We lost another one of our community members last week. Mrs. Sammy Griffith has been seriously ill for several weeks, and Sunday, Sept. 1st. she died. Her funeral at her beloved Baptist Church was one of the sweetest services I've ever heard. Her own children, sons-in-laws and grandchildren had the service and grandsons served as pallbearers. A son-in-law, Rev. Bill Goff, Emilie's husband, delivered the eulogy. Kenny Thompson, Wanda's husband, sang her favorite hymns and a nephew, Jimmy Griffith had the graveside service at the Howard cemetery. We extend our deepest sympathy to this family, especially Mr. Sammy.

We were glad to have Dora Bergstrom back at the Methodist Church Sunday. She has been visiting her son Arvie in Los Angeles. She had some surgery on her throat while she was there. Her Dr. Bergstrom wanted her to come there for it.

Scouts forming new dens

Cub Scout Pack 136 is in the process of forming new dens for the coming year.

There is a lot of room for more boys to join the Cub Scouts.

First grade boys can contact Bob Cass at 864-8918 about joining the Tiger Cubs. The Tiger Cubs meet twice a month and do fun things with their adult partners.

The Wolf den leader is Phoi McGuire and they meet Mondays at 5 p.m. at the Scout Hut by the park. Wolfs are second-graders.

The Bear den, which is made up of third-graders, meets Thursdays from 2:45 to 4 at the Scout Hut. Leaders are Fran Cass, Mary Adamson and Jimmie Fleetwood.

Fourth-graders are Webelos I's and their leaders are Dusty Garison, Kenneth Patton and Randy Shaw and they meet on Thursdays at 5 p.m. at the Christian Church.

The oldest Cub Scouts are the fifth-graders who are Webelos II's. Their leader is Paul Brown and they meet on Tuesdays at 5:30 at the Scout Hut.

This is an open invitation for boys to join the pack. Questions can be directed to Bob Cass at 864-8918 or 864-3677, or Lisa Shaw at 864-2686 or 864-2023.
