Fifth candidate in council race

Terry M. Diggs became a fifth candidate for one of the two two-year terms on the City Council when he filed his candidacy Monday afternoon.

The filing period remains open until next Wednesday, March 18.

Incumbents Ronny Tanner and Ruby Turner, along with Kim Nemir and D. L. Layland, had filed earlier.

There also are two candidates for a one-year term on the council, incumbent C. T. Jackson and Iva Lee Gipson.

The list of candidates for mayor remained at two this week. Present mayor Jill Druessedow is being opposed by Pat Henry.

City schedules closed sessions

The Haskell City Council will have two executive sessions today (Thursday) to discuss personnel and legal matters.

In one session, council members will huddle with attorney Ronald Clark of Sherman to discuss matters pertaining to the suit against the city by the Concerned Citizens.

In the other, they will evaluate applications for the city administrator's position. A dozen applications had been received as of Monday for the position being vacated June 1 by Robert Baker.

Rule staff seeks old yearbooks

The Rule school annual staff is trying to locate annuals that were printed between the years of 1939 and 1950.

The staff plans to include in the 1992 annual a history of Rule school annuals. The school has only annuals or copies of 1939, 1941 and 1950.

Anyone with these annuals should contact Bobby Robertson, annual sponsor, at the superintendent's office, 817-997-2521.

The staff also is looking for a 1937 Haskell annual.

Recycling project to begin

The City of Haskell will begin a recycling program Friday and Saturday.

On Saturday, from 9 a.m. until noon, the city will accept newspapers, cardboard and computer and office paper at the old Ford Tractor building north of Allison Farm Supply.

It is being sponsored by the Haskell Rotary Club.

Wanda Dulaney, carnival coordinator.

Rides at the carnival will be $1 and the Rotary Club will receive a percentage of ticket proceeds from all tickets sold. Money will be used by the club for its scholarship fund.

Rides will include a Ferris wheel, tilt-a-whirl, octopus, swings and six kiddies' rides. There also will be games for all ages.

St. Pat's theme for 2nd Saturday

St. Patrick's Day will be the theme this weekend for the Super 2nd Saturday promotion in Haskell.

Participating merchants will feature "Shamrock Sales" and will decorate their windows in green. They also are being asked to encourage their employees to wear green.

Visitors to downtown during the day will hear Irish music being played over the public address system at Walling TV & Electronics. There will be clowns to entertain the children.

Also featured will be various concession stands offering food and other items.

Hearing set Friday on suit against city

A hearing on the Haskell Concerned Citizens' suit against the City of Haskell and present and former members of the City Council has been scheduled for 10 a.m. Friday in 39th Judicial District Court of Haskell County. Judge J. Neil Daniel will preside.

The Concerned Citizens filed a petition in district court Feb. 24 calling for an injunction to prohibit the city from proceeding with plans for a new city hall.

The suit alleges that the city has failed to comply with necessary financial requirements for building the city hall, while continuing to pursue the project.

An answer to the petition, filed by the city's attorney, Ronald Clark, alleges the suit "is merely a delaying tactic which will impose costs on the city."

"Unless and until the City Council actually acts, or begins to act, to create a debt without following the proper statutory procedures, this court should not enter a temporary injunction restraining the City Council from doing anything merely because a few disappointed citizens do not want a new city hall," the answer reads in part.

It further states that "plaintiffs cannot even allege an ordinance, resolution, or contract which has been entered into which is illegal or voidable, nor show any interference with their own vested property rights."

In addition to entering the objection to the plaintiffs' request for an injunction, the city asks to be reimbursed for all costs and damages imposed by any delay caused by the suit from each plaintiff jointly and severally, as well as attorney's fees and "such other and further relief to which it may show itself justly entitled."

Sales tax rebate shows sharp rise

The first sizeable impact of the city's new half-cent sales tax was reflected in Haskell's rebate check from the state comptroller this week.

This month's check was in the amount of $16,597.69, a whopping 113.49-percent increase over the check for the same period last year.

The payment includes taxes collected on January sales and reported to the comptroller in February by businesses filing monthly returns. And obviously, Haskell's portion included taxes on some sales that had been made in earlier months and not credited until now.

For the first three months of 1992, the city has now received $55,502.60 in sales tax rebates. This compares to $38,263.24 for the first quarter of last year. The 45.05-percent increase is pretty well in line with the 50-percent increase in the sales tax rate (from 1 percent to 1.5 percent).

Other Haskell County cities receiving rebate checks this month included Rule, $1,591.96; Rochester, $850.62; and Weinert, $718.65.

Collectively, the cities of Haskell County have received $64,825.16 so far in 1992.

Attorney's authority questioned

The attorney for Haskell Concerned Citizens has been asked to show his authority to act on behalf of two Haskell women who are listed as plaintiffs in the suit which has been filed against the city.

In a motion filed in district court Monday, Ronald H. Clark, attorney for the city, referred to a newspaper article which stated that Mary McCollum and Gladys O'Neal had stated that the two women said they had not been asked to be listed as plaintiffs in the suit. (Mrs. McCollum's name is listed as Mary Elenor McCullam on the petition.)

The motion asserts that the plaintiffs' attorney is without authority to represent these two plaintiffs.

Winners

Derrick Ortiz, left, received 10 tickets to the carnival as first prize after he was declared winner of the contest to name the city's recycling program. To his left are Joshua Arismendez and Jordan Coffman, who won honorable mention. Behind them are two members of the steering committee, Teresa New and Jerrie Sue Hise.

The reception, catered by Flora Pace of Haskell, was held in the fellowship hall of the church. Mauve fruited punch and the bride's cake, a three-tier pound cake with cream cheese icing and fresh flower decorations, were served. All appointments were of brass.

The groom's table was covered with a blue cloth. The groom's cake, a red velvet with chocolate icing and chocolate curls, was served with coffee. The appointments for the groom's table were of brass.

--Paint Creek--

by Mabel Overton

The Paint Creek Water Supply Corporation had its annual meeting at the Paint Creek School auditorium Saturday evening. The president, Wallar Overton, called the meeting to order. The audit was given by Mr. Don Cobb and Tim Jennings gave the manager's report. Joseph Thigpen, the Corporation's lawyer conducted the election. Joe Kimbrough, Ray Perry, Bobby Morris and Wallar Overton were on the ballot. Ray Perry and Wallar Overton were re-elected.

We have had the supper catered in years past, but this year Mr. Vernay Andress knew some good cooks, and he had them prepare the meal. I wish I knew their names. I know Mr. Grady Ward cooked the barbecue. Anyway, the supper was delicious. Several businesses from the Water Corporation buys materials, donated prizes. The Paint Creek Methodist Church won a nice, big Igloo ice chest.

Did you read the All-District basketball players in the paper Sunday? Roman Morgan was voted Most Valuable player. George Mayan, Rodney Medford, and Rodney Tsoodle made First Team. Tony Martinez and Ricky Rodriguez made Second Team.

Laura Barbour and Cindy Howard made the Second All District girl's team. These players have given us some of the most exciting basketball games we have had in years. I am sorry the basketball season is over. But watching track, and tennis and golf will be fun, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Watson are in Olney with their daughter Sue Holcomb and her husband. Sue is a patient in the Olney Hospital. We hope she is better.

The Mother's Lap Ladies did not read last Tuesday, but were asked to come on Thursday and assist in evaluating the children in the primary grades. Mother's helping with the first grade tests were Mrs. Jenny Collins, Violet Earles, Mabel Overton and Faye Walton.

Visitors at the Paint Creek Methodist Church Sunday morning were Bill Ehrie, and Tracy Gomersall from McMurry University. Tracy is a senior at McMurry. She gave some interesting facts about McMurry, and then played several pieces on the flute for us. She was accompanied by our pastor's wife, Mrs. Parsley at the piano. We surely enjoyed her music.

Sammie Griffith celebrated his 83rd birthday with a family dinner in his home Sunday. Those present were Emilee Goff and Marilyn Griffith of Abilene, Dan Riley and Earlene Griffith, Kenny and Wanda Thompson, Casey, and Katie, Bill and Bertha Griffith, Ronnie and Brenda Reel, Leigh Ann, Jodie, and Lindsey.

Mr. Griffith has lived in Paint Creek for 47 years and turned 83 on March 9.

TAX PLANNING

Written By Richard E. Rodgers, CPA

THE BEST OF TAX-ADVANTAGED INVESTING

We all like to earn money, and we all like to pay less tax. Fortunately, there are some investments that allow you to do both. For example:

Municipal bonds ("munis") are issued by state and local governments. Interest income is exempt from federal tax, and state tax as well if you live in the state that issued the bond. As with all tax-advantaged investments, make sure that munis are right for your situation. Depending on your tax bracket and the respective investment yield, you may end up with more after-tax dollars by purchasing a fully taxable bond than by purchasing a muni of comparable quality and maturity.

Bills, notes, and bonds issued by the U.S. Treasury pay interest that is exempt from state income tax. U.S. Savings Bonds (Series EE) earn a competitive rate of interest, and you don't have to pay tax on the income until the bonds mature.

Investment real estate has been hurt by recent tax laws. But real estate still offers excellent tax shelter due to depreciation deductions, especially if your income is less than $100,000. Appreciation potential is good and, when you sell, long-term real estate gains are taxed at a maximum rate of 28%, versus 31% for other income. If you choose to exchange your real estate for another property instead of selling, you may be able to defer capital gains tax.

Common stock in growth companies is an often-overlooked, tax-advantaged investment. Instead of paying dividends, growth companies reinvest cash in their businesses, hopefully increasing stockholders' future capital gains (subject to a favorable tax rate).

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR WASTE DISCHARGE PERMIT AMENDMENT

WEST TEXAS UTILITIES COMPANY, Attn: System Production Department, P.O. box 841, Abilene, Texas 79604 has applied to the Texas Water Commission for an amendment to Permit No. 00963 in order to add three outfalls to monitor stormwater. The proposed amendment will also enforce more stringent requirements as needed in order to meet existing applicable rules and regulations. The permit currently authorizes a discharge of condenser cooling water and previously monitored effluents at a volume not to exceed an average flow of 253,800,000 gallons per day via Outfall 001 plus flow variable discharges of low volume wastewater via Outfall 002, which will remain the same. The applicant operates a steam electric generating station known as the Paint Creek Power Plant.

The plant site is at the end of FM Road 2082 and at the northeast end of Lake Stamford in Haskell County, Texas. The effluent is discharged into Lake Stamford in Segment No. 1235 of the Brazos River Basin.

In accordance with the Texas Surface Water Quality Standards, the Commission staff must determine the existing uses for the receiving water in the area of the proposed discharge and whether the proposed discharge will cause significant degradation to any high quality waters in the area. The designated uses for Segment No. 1235 are high quality aquatic habitat, contact recreation and public water supply. The effluent limitations in the draft permit will maintain and protect the existing instream uses. No significant degradation of high quality receiving waters is anticipated. All determinations are preliminary and subject to additional review and/or revision.

The Executive Director of the Texas Water Commission has prepared a draft permit based on the application submitted by the applicant and other information presently available.

Legal Authority: Section 26.028 of the Texas Water Code and 31 TAC Chapter 305 of the Rules of the Texas Water Commission.

No public hearing will be held on this application unless an affected person who has received notice of the application specifically requests a public hearing. Any such request for a public hearing shall be in writing and contain (1) the name, mailing address and daytime phone number of the person making the request; (2) the statement "... request a public hearing"; and (3) a brief description of how the requester, or persons represented by the requester, would be adversely affected by the granting of the application. If the Commission determines that the request sets out an issue which is relevant to the application, or that a public hearing, would serve the public interest, the Commission shall conduct a public hearing, after the issuance of proper and timely notice of the hearing. If no sufficient request for hearing is received within 30 days of the date of publication of the notice concerning the application, the permit will be submitted to the Commission for final decision on the application.

Requests for a public hearing on this application should be submitted in writing to Kerry Sullivan, Assistant Chief Hearings Examiner, Texas Water Commission, P.O. Box 13087, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711, Telephone (512) 463-7906. Information concerning any technical aspect of this application can be obtained by writing Lesley Pedde, Wastewater Permits Section, Texas Water Commission, P.O. Box 13087, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711, Telephone (512) 463-8201.

Issued this 26th day of February, 1992.

Great!

Editor: The Board of Trustees of the Paint Creek ISD wishes to take this opportunity to congratulate Coach Michael McCoy and his excellent team for earning the title of 1992 bi-district basketball champions and for representing our school and district so well.

To our knowledge, this squad is the first boys' team in the history of Paint Creek to hold the title of bi-district champions since its consolidation in 1938, 54 years ago.

Thank you not only for the way you represented our school, but also for the sportsmanship exhibited in each contest throughout the season, for the obvious training you endured, for the thrills you gave your supporters, and for never quitting, even when the odds were against you.

To the cheering section, faculty, students, parents, and fans of the 1992 basketball squads, both boys and girls, we appreciate your presence at the games, the pep rallies that inspired not only the team but the school as well, banners hung in the halls, and everything that caused these teams to be the best they could be by building up the "Pirate Pride" in our students and athletes. It was your energies and imagination that made these teams realize that they were not alone in their quest for the bi-district championship and with your backing and support, they proved themselves on the court.

This winning season was obviously a team effort by our community and we are proud of everyone who played a part. Winning can be contagious and the effects of this season will be felt for years to come. Thank you 1992 Pirates and everyone who rode this tide of victory throughout the season for making each of us winners in 1992.

This season will always be remembered as a season in which we all won because we each contributed in a positive way to further the cause. Let us now use this victory to launch the school and community to the greatness it is certainly capable of and richly deserves.

Again, thank you Paint Creek Pirates of 1992! It was great!

Colors send messages. Tina Sutton, who is national fashion consultant for Hit or Miss, a leading off-price women's career and casual fashion store, offers these common reactions to specific colors, along with recommendations for when to wear them.

Navy Blue: Trustworthy and conservative. Wear it when you're making presentations or want to inspire confidence.

Black: Sophisticated and authoritative. Use it to show you're in charge.

Taupe: Classic and practical. Because it's so warm and likeable, wear it when you need cooperation from peers.

Red: Energetic and dynamic. There's a feeling of motion with red, even when someone is standing still. Wear it to capture the attention of others.

Purple: Regal and powerful. Although most women love purple, many men do not. Avoid wearing it when meeting a man for the first time. It may be risky.

Bright Green: Fresh and lively. A good color to wear if you're cheerleading friends or coworkers on a project.

Orange: Friendly and playful. Wear it when meeting with peers rather than superiors.

Soft Pink: Soft and compassionate. It lacks authority, but can be used to soften a bad situation. Wear it when dealing with a difficult matter.

Dark Green: Rich and traditional. It makes you look secure and successful. After all, it's the color of money!

Yellow: Cheerful and eye-catching. Wear yellow to inspire creativity and optimism.

Hot Pink: Trendy and bright. Though not conservative, it's an attention-grabber!

Aqua: Soft and refreshing. Although it lacks power, it's soothing and likeable. Wear it to have a calming influence on others.

Rochester youth has top Duroc

Kurt Sloan of the Rochester FFA won first place with his medium weight Duroc at the Houston Livestock Show.

The animal brought $8,500 in the sale which followed the show. Of this, the Rochester youth received $7,500, the other $1,000 going to the show's scholarship program.

PROCLAMATION

Thousands of older Texans offer employers the experience and wisdom of a lifetime of hard work and dedication. Our mature population is both willing and able to put that knowledge and expertise to work for the benefit of our great state.

Texas is proud of the contributions made by our mature workers in today's society and we must maintain and strengthen this valuable resource in our labor force of the future.

For over twenty-five years, the Senior Community Service Employment Programs, through organizations such as Texas Farmers Union Green Thumb, have provided older workers the opportunity to apply their lifelong skills and abilities in local community projects while receiving marketable training for employment transition into the private sector.

Therefore, I Joe Duesedon

Older workers' abilities hailed

"To meet the economic and social challenges of the future, Texas must conserve and nurture one of our most important resources---the older worker," concludes Joe Rankin, president of Texas Farmers Union.

For over 25 years, the Green Thumb program, sponsored by the Union and funded through the Department of Labor, has provided meaningful community service employment and training for over 1,000 senior Texans.

Operating primarily in the rural areas of 119 Texas counties, Green Thumb has given older jobseekers the opportunity of sharing their years of experience, hard work and dedication in local community projects. Green Thumb's emphasis upon training has allowed program participants to transition back into private sector employment.

"During Older Worker Week,

March 8 through March 14, let us recognize and highlight the workforce contributions of our seniors while we strengthen our commitment to assuring that we invest in their talents and resourcefulness as productive partners in tomorrow's future," emphasized Rankin.

The Texas Green Thumb program encourages employers to consider utilizing the skills and abilities of seniors for their job openings not only during Older Worker Week but every other week. Hiring experience, dependability, reliability and dedication is good business.

Contact the Green Thumb state office at P.O. Box 7898, Waco, TX 76714 (817-776-4081) for information regarding senior employment and training opportunities.

The Paint Creek Extension Homemakers met March 2 in the home of Frances Fischer.

Ann Sinclair, president, called the meeting to order. Seven members and one guest read the TEHA prayer. Frances gave a short devotional titled, "What's in a Name?"

Correction

Miss Deneice Lynn Rogers and Mr. Darrin Thomas Wright were united in marriage Saturday, Feb. 8, at East Side Baptist Church in Haskell.

The wedding story in last week's Free Press omitted the last name of the bride.

Young people are having increased difficulty in developing an adequate base of personal skills and resources which would make their lives healthy and productive. They have fewer and fewer opportunities to experience a meaningful role in family life and in the traditions of the culture. Without a meaningful role it is difficult to develop a sense of meaning, purpose and significance through being needed, listened to, and taken seriously.

These young people carry this inadequate base of personal skills and resources into personal relationships and jobs. As a result they struggle harder tapping less of their potential than previous generations appear to have been able to do.

Adults or children who feel capable know that they can learn to do things. They recognize that there is often as much to learn from failure as from success. They see themselves as able to work through things even against difficult odds. They maintain a sense of perspective so that neither grand successes, failures, nor the opinions of others sway them to the breaking point. They are neither afraid to listen nor to change when necessary. They rely on the reasoning power and strength of personal inner resources. They also pull together what they see and hear, comparing this with their own values and beliefs.

If you would like to become a more capable person or if you would like to learn ways to help children become more capable people, make plans now to attend a series of meetings on "Developing Capable People" to be held on Thursday nights, March 26, April 2, 9 and 16. The meetings are being sponsored by the Haskell County Home Economics Committee and are free of charge to people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap or national origin. The meetings will be conducted by Lou Gilly, county extension agent-home economics, beginning each evening at 7 p.m. in the county extension office located at 101 S. Ave. D in Haskell. See the meeting announcement elsewhere in this newspaper for more specific details about the meetings.

In these meetings, blueprints for the strategies and activities through which parents, teachers and other adults can encourage young people to develop significant perceptions and skills will be provided. It is hoped that through this process, encouragement and direction can be given to the efforts of parents, teachers, families, and most important, young people, in realizing their own potential.

The acceptance of new knowledge about families usually occurs very slowly. We cannot turn back the clock, nor would we want to, but through a little sacrifice of our valuable time to participate in meetings such as these that have been planned, we can learn how to recreate opportunities that helped produce healthy youth in the past.

Firemen monitor weather

As spring approaches, along comes severe weather conditions.

As storms approach the Haskell area, Fire Department weather spotters are dispatched to predetermine watch areas in the county.

The Fire Department, along with city, county and state law enforcement officials, track the storm's activities as it approaches. These spotters also receive information from the National Weather Service and officials of areas already covered by the storm.

In the event people should take shelter, the city warning sirens will sound unless there is absolutely no forecasting.

Fire Department officials will also drive city streets sounding vehicle sirens.

If during a storm, these sirens are heard, shelter should be taken immediately.

Spotters strive to warn everyone of an approaching danger, but for systems to work efficiently, people must be aware of weather conditions. Television and radio weather statements are the best way to stay informed.

Remember, the key to personal safety is knowledge of the situation and the ability to react quickly but calmly, to an emergency.

PHARMACY NEWS

By Elbert Johnson,
Registered Pharmacist

New Help for Cystitis Sufferers: Cystitis, a common infection of the bladder, usually can be treated with 3 to 5 days of antibiotics, but in some cases, it becomes chronic. Potential causes include sexual intercourse in which bacteria from surrounding areas are pushed into the urethra, contraceptive diaphragms that might obstruct the free flow of urine, waiting too long before voiding (which weakens the bladder), and menopause, when decreasing estrogen levels increase the sensitivity of urethra and bladder tissue to infections. Treatment can include antibiotics just before or after intercourse, trying another contraceptive, regularly timed voiding, and estrogen replacement therapy.

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of four women in the United States will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as the result of breast cancer.

Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate.

A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, ● even before it can be felt.

Guidelines For Screening Mammography
Established by the American Cancer Society.

- I. 35-40 years of age - One baseline mammogram.
- II. 40-50 years of age - A mammogram every 1-2 years depending on breast type and risk factor.
- III. 50 years of age and over - An annual physical examination and annual mammogram.
- IV. Asymptomatic women under 50 years of age with significant high risk factors should be examined at appropriate intervals. These risk factors include previous breast cancer and family history of cancer.

V. A symptomatic woman should have a mammogram at any age when she experiences a mass, nipple discharge, skin changes or unexplained breast pain.

A screening mammogram is an x-ray of the breast using extremely low dosages of radiation (usually comparable to dental x-rays) and is designed to find very early cancers.

A female technologist who is highly trained in mammography will perform the examination.

The charge for the screening mammogram is $65.00. The Unit accepts cash, check, Visa, Mastercard and American Express.

Junior high team has amazing record

By Lee Decker
War Whoop Sports Editor
 They are the young, the forgotten, the future, and they are the best. Junior high basketball. Besides parents and students, most people don't even know it exists.

They don't have fancy uniforms, school-bought shoes, cheerleaders or a full page story in the War Whoop.

Yet out of all the hype from varsity basketball, ironically the boys' class of '96 team scaled as the most successful team by far.

Describing the team in one word is simple---dominant. Webster's describes dominant as being commanding, controlling or prevailing over all others. That definitely would describe the class, considering the facts.

First the class rolled through its schedule destroying every team in its path, cruising to an unprecedented 16-0 record and racking up 581 points, an average of 42 points a game.

While playing great team defense, they allowed only 21 points a game.

The class ended their junior high career with a 30-1 record. The class not only has gained respect from the fans, parents and their opponents, but also from varsity players as well. "They remind me of the Stamford team we played as seventh and eighth graders," replied senior point guard Chris Tanner.

Oddly enough the team to which he refers was undefeated in district play and was state ranked.

"What makes them such a force is that they have six or seven players that can score 10-20 points each game," commented varsity three-point specialist Mart Guess.

Although being highly rich in talent, what really makes them impressive is the chemistry of the team.

Every needed aspect to make a great team is there. First, there's the point guard, Mik Everett.

"He's the prototype point man because he feeds the ball inside before looking for his own shot," Tanner explained.

When Everett looks to the big men down low, you know it's going to be either Justin Lisle or Cody Cooley.

"Justin plays just like you want a post to play, rough and hard-nosed, while Cody relies on a great shooting touch and height," said junior center Tommy Isbell.

The class also enjoys the luxury of having two other starters who can step up and take charge. This prestige falls on the shoulders of Corey Green and Frankie Masias.

"If the team sometimes seems to be struggling, Corey and Frankie can turn the switch and get the team revving, especially Frankie. He is a master defenseman. He can block shots, rebound, and sometimes he looks like a machine. He's awesome," coach John Foster said.

Finally, the last ingredient to the recipe is the bench. Jace Yates made his contribution by being a prolific sixth man, while Joseph Thigpen, Christopher Tatum, Justin Stewart and Jeremy Futch all provided fireworks from the relief spot.

"I don't hesitate to put any of my players out on the court because I know they can get the job done," said Foster.

Foster took over the coaching spot in the class' eighth grade year. The class breezed through the season racking up 16 wins to no losses and a second consecutive district championship.

All in all, the record speaks for itself. During their stay in junior high, the class rang up 1,242 points, an average of 42.8 points a game while allowing only 24 points a game. Impressive for any league.

--Rule--

by Vicky Anderson
Next week will be Spring Break for Rule students and teachers.

Happy birthday is wished to John and Paul Leonard and Coy Keahey.

Linda Edwards of Farmington, N.M. and her aunt, Vicky Anderson went to the Dallas/Forth Worth International Airport this past Monday for Linda to have an interview. Afterward they were met by Haskell native, Marguerite Anderson of Dallas. The ladies had coffee at nearby Marriott Hotel.

On the way back to Rule, the ladies spent the night with Tom Massey and sons, Mark and Thomas in Graham. Mr. Massey is a nephew of Mrs. Anderson. That night Robert Ferguson Jr. came over for a visit.

On Tuesday morning the ladies stopped by the Garden Terrace Nursing Center where they visited Robert Ferguson, Sr., who recently had another stroke, but apparently is improving.

We understand that J. C. Halliburton has been dismissed from the hospital and is recuperating at home.

Finally got to meet Gerry Spain of Haskell on Wednesday of last week. Had wanted to meet her for years as her late husband, Harold Russell Spain was one of the best employers that I ever had. He was in charge of the department where I worked at Altus Air Force Base in Oklahoma during World War II.

Airman First Class Kevin S. Saffel is on leave for a visit with family from Minot Air Force Base, N.D.

When visiting at Rice Springs on Wednesday, it was good to see employees: Dawn Gilciland, R.N., Lou Hisey, Ruth Ann Klose, Jeryl Ann Cooper, Travis Boyd, Hohnnie and Mary Franklin. Kathryn Matysiak was there visiting. Residents that were seen and visited were Gladys Dyches, Lois Speck, Modena Lewis, Rosa Weaver, Alvena Holle, Ruby McCafferty, Belle Turner, Mr. Strickland, and Mae Doyle was walking down the hall.

Happy birthday next week to Jeanne Burleson and Gladys Dyches.

Don't forget "A Night of One Act Plays" tonight at the Haskell Memorial Civic Center, beginning at 7 p.m. Schools participating are Haskell, Paint Creek, Rochester and Rule.

It was good to talk with Lucy and Bart Holland on Thursday, the 12th. Thanks, Lucy, for your nice remarks.

Sympathy is extended to the families of Frieda Quade of Sagerton and John Dickson Ferguson of Hamlin.

Is it stuttering?

Certain early speech patterns of youngsters can be mistaken for stuttering, but sharp listening skills can help parents know if there is reason for concern.

Dr. David B. Rosenfield, a neurologist at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, lists five hallmarks of stuttering:

- Stumbling on a sound more than five times: b-b-b-b-b-b-ball.
- Adding a sound that does not belong or a sound other than the intended vowel: ba-ba-ba-book.
- Getting out the beginning of a word but pausing before completing it.
- Struggling at getting words started.
- Revising or switching words in mid-sentence: I want a gl- cup of water.

Commodities due on April 9

USDA surplus commodities will be distributed in Haskell on April 9.

A schedule of times and places will be announced later.

Students may enter art contest

Congressman Charles Stenholm has announced plans for the 11th annual art contest for high school students in the 17th district.

Since it was launched in 1982, the nationwide competition has generated more than 2,500 district art competitions involving nearly 375,000 high school students. One winning entry from each congressional district will be displayed in the U.S. Capitol in Washington.

Students in grades 9 through 12 from Callahan, Coleman, Haskell, Jones, Runnels, Shackelford, Stonewall and Taylor counties may enter a preliminary contest in Abilene on Saturday, April 11. Artwork should be brought to the art department of Cooper High School any time after Monday, April 6. Judging will be at the Cooper cafeteria.

Other regional shows will be in Big Spring, Gainesville, Graham, Post, Colorado City, Stephenville and Weatherford. Winners from the 35-counties of the 17th district will be announced at an awards brunch in Abilene on April 25.

Artwork must be no larger than 32x32 inches (framing not required) and two-dimensional. Eligible categories are paintings, prints, drawings or collages. If a student chooses to do a landscape, it must portray a Texas scene.

For more information and entry forms, contact Stenholm's Stamford office at 915-773-3623.

First-grader names recycling project

First-grader Derrick Ortiz's entry in the City of Haskell's recycling contest won first place.

Steering committee members had asked the elementary students to name the city's new recycling project.

Ortiz's entry, "Project CART" (Citizens Are Recycling Together), took top honors.

Honorable mention winners were pre-schooler Joshua Arismendez with "HOW--Recycle (Help Our World)" and early childhood student Jordan Coffman with "Project Good Earth."

Ortiz received 10 tickets to the Rotary Club-sponsored carnival and Arismendez and Coffman each received five tickets.
