Shingles should be treated early

It's important to get shingles, a painful skin condition, diagnosed by a physician immediately.

A sharp pain, especially on your trunk or face, followed within a day or two by small blisters, could mean you have shingles, and the pain could worsen.

'Cooling-off' rule protects purchasers

Better Business Bureaus are reporting that many consumers misunderstand their rights in regard to cancelling purchases under the three-day "cooling-off" rule.

Here is a reminder of where and when this rule applies.

Under the Federal Trade Commission's "cooling-off" rule, you have three business days to cancel any purchase of $25 or more that you have made in your home or somewhere other than the seller's usual place of business, such as a rented hotel room. The rule also provides protection for consumers who purchase items at a prouct party given in a private home.

However, as with every rule there are exceptions. The rule does not apply to: sales made at the sellers' usual place of business; sales made totally by mail or by phone; sales for real estate, insurance or securities; and sales for emergency home repairs. The rule also does not apply to sales that begin as retail transactions at a business establishment and are completed with the signing of a contract in your home. (For instance, ordering carpet at a store and then signing the contract when someone comes to your home to measure the floor space.)

In cases when the rule does apply, the seller must give you the proper cancellation forms along with any contract or receipt pertaining to the sale. The date of the sale should be noted on the cancellation form, which must read in part, "You may cancel this transaction without any penalty or obligation, within three business days from the above date." If you decide to cancel the sale, sign and date the cancellation forms. Mail or deliver a coy to the address given for cancellation any time before midnight of the third business day after the date of the contract. Also keep a copy for your personal records.

Since proof of the date you mailed the cancellation form to the company is important, send it from the post office via certified mail with a return receipt requested. You do not need to give a reason for cancellation.

To avoid having to cancel a purchase, be sure to completely read and understand the contract before you sign on the dotted line.

Paint Creek Board of Trustees, administrators, and office staff held their annual dinner Friday, April 17 at the Zentner's Daughter in Abilene. This is the only paycheck the Board members receive for their work all year.

Mrs. Phoi McGuire, the teacher most badly hurt in the wreck in Ft. Worth last week end, is much improved and probably will be able to be back in school this week. We are so thankful that there were not more injured in this horrible accident.

The Paint Creek FFA students, under Mr. Stephen Green are involved in woodworking projects this spring and they are doing a fine job from what I could see. Marcus Overton is building a home entertainment center, Casey Thompson and Josh Howard are building a deer blind, Capella Tsoodle is making a quilt rack and Eric Blair is building a nail box. Marcus took me to see his project, and I was amazed at how well they all are doing.

Dr. Mike Overton and daughters, Paige and Brooke of Allen spent several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overton, and the Wallar Overton family during spring break.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Fischer had their children at home for Easter. Linda and Gaylen Lawrence and children Craig and Cole of Abilene, and Kay and David Creek of Sonora and Gene's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fischer of Haskell.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan had guests for Easter. Jan and Harold Abbey, Zane and Brenam from Oklahoma City, Buzzy and Carlyn Address, Adam, Andrew, and Aaron from Abilene, and Vernon and Billie Address from Abilene. Mr. and Mrs. Address are Mrs. Morgan's parents.

The UIL meet was held at the Paint Creek School Tuesday afternoon, and will meet again Thursday at Paint Creek. Our lunchroom ladies fix such scrumptious refreshments, the UIL folks like to meet at Paint Creek.

Mrs. Phoi McGuire is still not able to be back in her classroom, following the wreck the teachers were in when a car broadsided the van they were coming home in from Ft. Worth.

The district track meet was held last Thursday in Jayton. The girls 400 meter relay team placed second and will go on to regional competition in Abilene. The relay team consisted of Jodie Prickett, Stephanie Cox, Laura Barbour, and Cindy Howard. Stephanie Cox also placed 4th in the 200 meter run. Congratulations to these athletes and to the other Paint Creek athletes who competed in the district track meet.

County Treasurer attends seminar

Willie Faye Tidrow, Haskell Co. Treasurer, was among almost 200 treasurers and other members of their staffs that took part in the 20th annual County Treasurers' Seminar at Texas A&M University April 13-16.

The seminar theme was, "Unification." The seminar was program of the Young Institute of County Government of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the County Treasurers Association of Texas and was sponsored and conducted in cooperation with the Texas Association of Counties.

Treasurers who attended all sessions were awarded 2.0 continuing education units (20 hours) by Texas A&M's office of continuing education.

State Comptroller John Sharp delivered the keynote address.

Subjects discussed ranged from depository contracts, investment policies, grants, and county records to self protection. More than 30 speakers addressed the seminar.

Concurrent round table discussions were a part of the program, with county groupings conducted by population.

Reports were presented by the Texas Association of Counties.

During the annual banquet, several scholarships were presented by the association including one to Shelly Balis, daughter of Evelyn Balis, Knox County Treasurer.

Mary Jane Short wins Bible contest

Mary Jane Short, 11, of Rochester, represented the First Baptist Church of Rochester in the 1992 Texas Children's Bible Drill at the Abilene FBC on April 10. The purpose of the drill is to help children increase in knowledge of the Bible, develop skills in effectively handling the Bible, and begin developing memory skills. Mary Jane competed in four different drills: 1 Quotation; 2 Completion; 3 Book; and 4 Key Passages.

Marsha Reid, Mary Jane's discipleship training leader, helped Mary Jane memorize 25 Bible verses and references, the locations of 10 key passages, and all the names of the books of the Bible in the proper order. During the drills, all verses had to be known and key passages and books located in 10 seconds or less.

During a special awards presentation, Mary Jane received a certificate and seal designating her a State Winner with a perfect score. Because of a perfect score, she was also presented the Bible with which she drilled.

She is the daughter of Larry and Linda Short, granddaughter of Warren and Jane Short of Rochester and Elmer and Bernice Hilliard of Haskell and the great-granddaughter of Ira and Tennie Mae Short of Rochester.

You're never too old to quit blowing smoke

To The Citizens of Haskell County:

I do appreciate the confidence you have shown in me, and I will do my best to discharge the duties of the office to the best of my ability and in such a manner as to merit your continued confidence.

Sincerely,

John Fouts

Chronic Pain Vs Acute Pain:
There is distinct difference between the acute pain of an accident and lingering, often debilitating chronic pain, and these two types of pain should be treated differently. While acute pain may be treated with narcotics and bed rest, chronic pain "management" (not cure) involves mild pain medications, therapeutic massage, physical therapy, exercise, and biofeedback, all designed to make the person able to function despite some residual pain.

We are saddened to learn of the critical illness of one of Dorothy and Bill Dodd's grandsons in Brownwood, formerly of Rule. The young man is the son of the former DeeDee Dodd and Tommy Hart, formerly of Lueders. We wish his speedy recover.

CORRECTION: Sorry have misspelled "Oweida" Weaver's first name in a past news article. Another misspelled name was Cade Kitley. Beth, I did have it spelled right when it left my desk, honestly! For proof you can look at the other two papers that I submit articles to.

Congratulations to Jack Wilcox and Lou Landes upon being named Man and Woman of the Year for the City of Rule.

Your writer spent a few days with a daughter in Rule last week. While there, went to Tanner's Grocery where it was nice to see clerks: Doris Lehrmann, Laverne Lee and Kenny Tanner. Jo Simpson, a walking buddy came into the store, and a brief visit was enjoyed with her.

Leota Covey was encountered coming from the bank this past week, and she is doing good with her walker.

Congratulations to Faye

Dunnam of Rule, Owen Aikin of Rochester and Gertude Vaden of Stamford, who were all winners in the first part of the Senior Citizens Spelling Bee.

Aren't the bluebonnets and wild flowers pretty now? Two of my "green-thumbed" neighbors have inspired me to do some gardening and flower planting. So, this past week have set out bluebonnets, marigolds, caladiums, rosebushes, etc. Then, in the garden, my husband and I have set out tomatoes, banana peppers and onions so far.

At the Experienced Citizens Center this past Monday we visited with Faye Wright, Dovie Anderson, Faye Simpson, Margaret Jones (mother of Rule's Wes) of Haskell, Carothers, all of Rule; Elda and Owen Aikin of Rochester, Coy Keahey of Rule, Lorrie Hamilton.

Ennis Webb of Rule has been a patient in Haskell Memorial Hospital as has Elvin Shipman of Lake Stamford, who suffered a fractured right arm from a fall. We wish these men an uneventful recovery.

This past Wednesday, Mildred Smith and Vicky Anderson spent the day in Hamlin visiting friends and relatives. Mrs. Smith's oldest daughter, Trica Mueller, resides there; and the two had lunch together. Mrs. Anderson visited her cousin, Milton Crow; then had lunch with Lucille Connally. Sitting at the table with the ladies were LaVerne and Gene Witt. Gene and Mr. Anderson both worked at Hamlin Auto Parts for Bob Ridell in the early seventies. Only then, we learned that Hazel Riddell died three years ago. In Hamlin the ladies visited former Rule residents, Linda and David Guadalcazar in their furniture store.

Visiting Pauline McKinley over the Easter holiday were her daughter, Susan from Houston and granddaughter, Nikki Powell from Seymour.

The Regional One Act Play contest will be held at Amy Graves Ryan Little Theatre on the campus of McMurry University in Abilene. These will begin at 3 p.m. on April 25. Good luck to everyone.

On Friday, Mildred Smith and Mrs. Anderson were in Rule. They had coffee at "The Playhouse" with Jerri Kitley, Nelwyn Beakley and Paula Oliver. Next, they stopped at the Village Primitives and for lunch they had chicken 'n dumplings at the Drug Store Cafe.

At the cafe we saw the Jimmy Teichelman family. Had a chance to compliment Greg on his fine performance in the UIL events. Soon afterward, in came Tommy and Michael Casey, so had the chance to also tell Tommy how proud everyone is of him, Greg and Shane.

Enjoyed a brief visit this past week with Stamford American editor Patsy Rogers of Rochester and Sharon Gilbreath of Stamford.

On April 13, Mrs. Anderson was in Haskell to take her news items, and dropped by the ECC. While there visited with the directors, Florence Peden, Faye Simpson, Elda and Owen Aikin, Margaret Jones (mother of Wes Jones of Rule), Dovie Anderson, a Mrs. Carothers, Coy Keahey, Loree Hamilton, and Faye Wright, all of Rule; then the Hess Hartsfields of Haskell.

While in Haskell visited Ennis Webb and Elvis Shipman both of whom were patients in the Haskell Memorial Hospital. Faye Webb and Lorene Boyd were at the hospital, also. Spoke with Mildred Berry, medical record clerk, while there.

Get well wishes are sent to Delanie Camp, who continues to have problems with her legs.

Our deepest sympathy is sent to Faye Wright and Claire Halliburton upon the loss of their father and husband, Elgin Wright.

Four year old Luke Kitley of Abilene spent Friday and Saturday nights with his maternal grandparents in Rule while his parents: Danny and Nikki Kitley were busy with UIL track events at Elmer Gray Stadium at ACU.

Saturday morning at Wal-Mart was like "old home week" as we saw Pam, Stephanie and Brandon Cox; Sheri, Erika and Justin Sanders of Rule, Sheri's mother, Agnes; our nephew, Butch Gray, his wife, Denise and daughter, Stephanie, all of Hamlin, and Doris Rainwater of Stamford.

The H.O.M.E. Club (an extension of Young Homemakers) will have a salad supper on Thursday, April 23 at 7 p.m. in the Homemaking cottage located in the Junior High building. All interested come and bring a salad and a friend.
