Clutching hands

Those hands belong to the Indians' Tommie Isbell as he hauls in a 6-yard touchdown pass from Mart Guess late in the second quarter of the Haskell-Stamford game Friday night. It was one of two TD receptions by Haskell's split end.

Indians end year with 6-4 record

The Haskell Indians put the icing on their first winning season in five years Friday night by outlasting the Stamford Bulldogs, 34-27.

The victory brought the Indian record to 6-4 for the season. They finished 4-3 in district 7-2A, good enough for a tie for third place, one game behind co-champions Hamlin and Rotan, each 5-2 in district.

Although Haskell had the upper hand in practically all statistical categories, Friday's victory did not come easy for the Indians.

After taking an early 7-0 lead, they saw Stamford score three touchdowns to go ahead 19-7 with little more than 4 minutes left in the first half. But the Indians struck for two quick touchdowns in a span of 36 seconds just before halftime to go into intermission nursing a 20-19 advantage.

Stamford scored a quick touchdown in the third period to go out front 27-20 but the Indians tied the score 27-27 late in the period. The Indians scored the winning touchdown three minutes deep into the final period and then held off a Bulldog threat which carried to the Indian 5-yard line in the final minute of play.

Casey Larned intercepted a Stamford pass on the Stamford 48 and returned to the 28 on the game's first play from scrimmage. Seven plays later, the Indians scored when Justin Lisle barreled over from a yard out and Jason Torres kicked the extra point. The scoring drive was fueled by a 20-yard pass from Mart

Guess to Tommie Isbell and a 9-yard run by Lisle.

After the Indian kickoff, the Bulldogs promptly marched 62 yards for a touchdown. After runs of 11, 11 and 9 yards by Chris Gardner, David Fernandez scored on a 5-yard run. Isbell blocked the extra point attempt so the Indians held to a 7-6 lead at the 5:23 mark.

Less than a minute later, Stamford intercepted a Haskell pass which was returned to the Haskell 31. On the first play from that point, Gardner raced in for a touchdown. Gardner then attempted to run over a 2-point conversion but was stopped short of the goal so the score remained 12-7 with 4:13 left in the first quarter.

Stamford made it 19-7 at the 4:22 mark of the second period when Hondo Henderson ran 12 yards and Max Villanueva kicked the bonus point.

The Indians took the ensuing kickoff and marched 73 yards in 14 plays for their second touchdown. Guess passed to Isbell for the final 6 yards. He also had completions of 12 and 18 yards to Jonathan Tatum in the drive. The score then stood at 19-14 with just 42 seconds before halftime.

On Stamford's third play after the next kickoff, the Indians' Cody Josselet stripped the ball from Fernandez near midfield and returned it 54 yards for a touchdown. The extra point attempt was blocked, but the Indians had regained the Board explains taxes

The following statement is issued by the School Board in an effort to clear up confusion on school taxes:

Many taxpayers are confused when they try to understand how school taxes are illustrated on the 1992 tax statements.

The County Education district tax and the Haskell CISD tax added together constitute the total school tax owed by each taxpayer.

The County Education District (CED) tax was created by the last legislature, is mandated by law, and the increase in this tax was mandated by law. The local school board has no authority in setting of the CED tax rate. The CED tax is actually a state mandated property tax, involving the school districts in Haskell County.

The Haskell CISD tax rate is set by the local board. For every one cent of the tax rate the local board does not set, the Haskell CISD loses $18,000 in state funds. The funding law forces local boards to set whatever tax rate is necessary to generate enough additional state money to fund the remainder of the school budget which cannot be funded by the CED tax and other state funds.

A federal judge has ruled that the CED tax is unconstitutional; however, ordered that the tax be paid for 1992. The upcoming legislature is charged with creating a new and constitutional method of funding our schools.

It is the desire of the Haskell CISD Board of Trustees and Superintendent that the taxpayers of our school district understand that they set the local tax rate at the level necessary to provide the state and local funds needed to efficiently run the school.

Rule chamber to have drawing

Plans have been completed by the Rule Chamber of Commerce for the annual Christmas drawing.

The drawing will be at 10 a.m. on Saturday, Dec. 19, in the downtown area. Santa Claus will also arrive some time in the morning.

One thousand dollars will be given by the chamber, divided into 10 100-dollar gift certificates.

Rule merchants also will contribute to the drawing.

Beginning Nov. 16, merchants will give one ticket for each $5 purchase.

Other Christmas activities planned by the Rule chamber include a poster contest and a home and yard lighting contest. Additional information on these events will be announced later.

Scouts collect food for needy

If you want to help the Cub Scouts with their "Scouting for Food" program with a donation of canned goods, just contact a Cub Scout to pick it up, or call cubmaster Doyle Mitchell, 864-8081.

All food stays in Haskell for distribution to needy families.

Thousands to be given away by merchants

Eighteen jackpots, totaling $4,500, will be given away next month in the annual Christmas drawings sponsored by the Haskell Business Association.

Participating merchants are now giving tickets to the drawings with each purchase by their customers.

Drawings will be held: Saturday, Dec. 5, at 3 p.m. and at 8 p.m. The afternoon drawings will feature five jackpots totaling $1,000 and the evening drawings five jackpots totaling $500.

Saturday, Dec. 12, at 3 p.m. There will be five jackpots totaling $1,000.

Saturday, Dec. 19, at 3 p.m. There will be three jackpots totaling $2,000.

Drawings will be on the south side of the courthouse. Persons whose names are drawn will receive the full amount if they are present. Those not present will get only half of the prize money, with the remaining half going to make up additional prizes.

Prizes will be in the form of $20 denomination certificates redeemable at participating businesses.

No owner or manager, whether participants or not, or their families will be eligible to win prizes. Employees of businesses are eligible to win on tickets from other businesses, but not from tickets received at their places of employment.

Record tax rebate received by City

The City of Haskell received its largest sales tax rebate check ever from the comptroller of public accounts this week.

The amount of the check was $29,279.37, which represented September sales by monthly filers. This is a 62.16-percent gain over the $18,056.06 received last year.

But to keep things in perspective, it must be remembered that this month's check was based on a 1.5-percent local sales tax rate, compared to only 1 cent last year.

This month's rebate brought the total for the year to $209,535.75 for the City of Haskell, or 48.38 percent more than the $141,216.55 in the first 11 months of 1991.

The City of Rule's check this month was in the amount of $2,740.24, slightly below last year's $2,956.84 for the same period. For the year, Rule has received $18,046.01, down 9 percent from last year's $19,842.13 for the first 11 months.

Rochester got $1,125.72 this week, compared to $1,333.43 last year. For the 11 months of 1992, Rochester has received $7,807.16, a substantial increase over the $6,129.18 for the same period in 1991.

Also receiving checks this month were the cities of O'Brien ($442.57) and Weinert ($423.92).

The local tax rate in O'Brien, Rochester, Rule and Weinert is 1 percent.

Together, the five cities have received $240,186.89 so far this year. This is an increase of 40.27 percent over the $171,229.91 for the first 11 months of 1991.

Haskell's new 1.5-percent tax rate went into effect last Oct. 1, although it took a few months for the full impact to be reflected in monthly disbursements.

A Haskell fumble on the second play of the third period gave Stamford possession at the Indian 30, and it took the Bulldogs just four plays to score. Wayland Damron got the touchdown on a 21-yard run. Jody Lefevre passed to Mike Alvaredo for a 2-point conversion and Stamford was out front again, 27-20.

Late in the third quarter, the Indians marched 43 yards for the tying touchdown after Keiland Riley recovered a Bulldog fumble. Guess passed 9 yards to Isbell for the score and Torres' kick made it 27-27. Lisle had a 15-yard run and Guess had completions of 5 and 6 yards to Isbell and Lisle, respectively, in the drive.

The Indians marched 50 yards in seven plays for the winning touchdown after Brandon McFadden recovered a Bulldog fumble at midfield. Lisle scored the touchdown on a 1-yard run and Torres again booted the bonus point. The score came with 8:43 remaining in the game.

Following an exchange of possessions, Stamford took over on its own 47 with 5:20 to go and promptly drove to the shadows of the Haskell goal. On a second and 3 from the Indian 6, Torres stopped Damron for a 1 yard gain. Then on third down, Isbell, Brant Breeden, Larned and Josselet combined to smear Lefevre for a 3-yard loss. On fourth down, it was Breeden, Larned, Keiland Riley and Joseph Rodriguez who stopped Damron for another yard loss.

With 54 seconds remaining, Haskell took over and Guess fell to one knee three consecutive times to run out the clock.

Isbell was the top tackler for the Indians, being in on 18 tackles, four unassisted and 14 more with assists. Breeden was in on 14 and Larned was credited with 12. Brandon McFadden had 10, while Rodriguez and Josselet each had 8.

Offensively, Lisle carried the ball 23 times for 122 yards, while Josselet carried 9 times for 44 yards. Guess completed 14 of 27 passes for 137 yards.

SIDELINES

Who would have thought a week ago that the district 7-2A race would wind up with clearcut winners?

Going into Friday's games, four teams were tied for first, Hamlin, Rotan, Stamford and Winters. With the right combination of outcomes, the race could have wound up with six teams tied for the lead.

In the end, Hamlin and Rotan won first- and second-place respectively. Actually, the two teams tied with 5-2 records but Hamlin got top billing by virtue of its earlier win over Rotan.

Hamlin meets Cisco, runnerup in district 8-2A, in Abilene's Shotwell Stadium Saturday night. Rotan goes to Brownwood to take on Goldthwaite, champion of 8-2A.

Had it not been for Jim Ned's forfeit of its victory over Hawley, Jim Ned would have tied for first place.

The Indians never played a bad game all year. The Winters game would have to be the closest they came. They lost that one, 29-0.

But the other three losses were each by a touchdown or less: 2-7 to Seymour, 20-27 to Rotan and 14-20 to Hamlin.

If memories need refreshing, the six victories were over Monday 7-0, Knox City 25-0, Anson 13-7, Hawley 31-12, Jim Ned 20-0 and Stamford 34-27.

Usually when a team opens a game with a pass, it's an indication that it will be throwing a lot.

But after Stamford's Jody Lefevre was intercepted by Casey Larned on the first play from scrimmage Friday night, he didn't throw again until the final 28 seconds of the first half.

All night, the Bulldogs threw just four passes, completing one for 13 yards.

Keiland Riley recovered two fumbles, one of them leading to a touchdown. Brandon McFadden's recovery also led to a touchdown and Cody Josselet's "steal" went down as a recovery, as well as a 54-yard touchdown return.

Ball control played a big part in the Indians' win. The Indians ran off a season-high 73 offensive plays, 46 rushes and 27 passes. Stamford managed just 41--37 rushes and 4 passes.

The U.S. Mint turns out about 17 billion coins a year.

Season statistics for Indians given

Freshman running back Justin Lisle rushed for an even 900 yards in 196 carries during the 10-game football season for an average of 4.6.

Cody Josselet rushed 44 times for 241 yards for an even better 5.5 average.

Mart Guess carried 64 times for 91 net yards and Jason Torres had 32 carries for 74 yards.

Jonathan Tatum had the best per-carry average, 5.7 with 68 yards on 12 carries.

Guess was easily the total offense leader for the Indians. The junior quarterback completed 71 passes in 192 attempts for 1,170 yards. Tatum was a perfect 2-for-2 in passing, netting 25 yards.

Tommie Isbell led the team in receptions with 29. But his 394 yards were second to Tatum's 516. Tatum caught 25. Joseph Rodriguez caught 10 for 173 yards and Lisle caught 5 for 65. Robert Huff, Shawn Jordan, Josselet and Torres each caught one pass.

During the season, the Indians rushed for 1,393 yards and passed for 1,195. In the six district games, the rush-pass ratio was almost dead even--964 rushing and 969 passing.

On defense, Isbell was the team leader in tackles with 120. Brant Breeden was second with 110.

Other top tacklers were Casey Larned with 89, Deon Walker with 72, Josselet with 68, Torres with 67, Brandon McFadden with 66, Matt Perry with 47, Robert Huff with 45, Kevin Conner with 41,

Paint Creek club meets

On Nov. 2, five members and two guests were present for the Paint Creek Homemakers Club meeting at the extension office.

They read the TEHA prayer, and Frances Fischer gave a devotion on "Grin." This is very good for your health. Each member answered roll call with "Something I am thankful for, but often take for granted."

Dolores Medford read the minutes and gave the treasurer's report and Dorthay Wells gave a report on information day held Oct. 17.

The club passed the 4-H recommendations for the year of 1993.

County Agent Lou Gilly gave a program on "You and Your Drinking Water." It was a very interesting program and everyone enjoyed all the good information on what should be done to take care of their water.

Members discussed their cookie exchange for their December meeting, which will be held at the extension office at 10 a.m. on Dec. 1.

A pot luck lunch was enjoyed by Peggy Burnett, Lorene Harris, Frances Fischer, Dolores Medford, Dorthay Wells, Lou Gilly and Joetta Burnett.

SUGGESTIONS FOR CUTTING YOUR INSURANCE COSTS

In searching for ways to cut costs, don't overlook your insurance policies. Try these suggestions for cutting your insurance costs without increasing your risk of being underinsured.

Cut insurance costs across the board by increasing your deductibles. Your willingness to pay a higher portion of future losses can reduce your premiums in the meantime. If you invest the savings, you'll soon have enough to pay the higher deductible if you suffer a loss.

Eliminate unnecessary or overlapping policies. Health insurance for pets and replacement insurance for contact lenses are usually too costly when compared with the benefits received. If nobody else depends on your earning power, a life insurance policy may be unnecessary. Flight insurance, cancer (and other "dread disease") insurance, mortgage and credit-card insurance (the ones that pay off your obligation if you die), and rental-car insurance often overlap one of your other policies.

Shop around. Premiums on similar policies can vary considerably from one company to another. Publications such as Consumer Reports are helpful, as are organizations such as the National Insurance Consumer Organization (121 N. Payne Street, Alexandria, VA 22314).

Ask for discounts. Automobile insurance is frequently discounted for safe drivers, good students, graduates of driver's education courses, and owners of cars with air bags. Many companies give discounts if you buy more than one policy from them.

Don't blindly slash premiums as a goal in itself. A single underinsured misfortune could easily undo many years of reduced premiums. The goal is to maintain adequate coverage at the lowest price. Review all of your policies with your insurance advisor.

Postal Service issues mail fraud warning

The U.S. Postal Inspection Service is warning consumers to beware of a notice in the mail that says the IRS is holding a refund check "in your name."

To claim the money, the notice says all you have to do is send $10 to an address in Florida. Those who send in $10 don't get a refund. Instead, they get a claim form--something the IRS gives away for free.

Millions of notices have been sent to addresses throughout the U.S., and postal inspectors have seized almost $1 million from accounts belonging to the scam operators. There have been numerous complaints and inquiries in the Texas and Oklahoma areas.

"The postcards are designed to look official," says Paul Griffo, national spokesman for the U.S. Postal Inspection Service.

Any offer that requires you to pay a certain amount up front should be looked at dubiously. Do not call the 900 number printed on the postcard. Scams that employ this method usually charge high fees to victims who respond by calling.

Help needed to decorate park

Help is needed to assist in the decorating of the Rule Park for the Christmas season.

There are lights to be strung and other work to be done. Additional decorations are being added this year.

Anyone who can spare a little time is encouraged to come to the park at 1 p.m. Saturday. Those physically unable to work are invited to come anyway and bring encouraging words and perhaps a pot of coffee.

The park decoration is sponsored by the Rule Chamber of Commerce, Rule Lions Club, the mayor of Rule and other interested citizens who say that Rule has one of the prettiest parks in Texas.

Health program planned by club

The Haskell Progressive Study Club will host Rev. Dorothy Thompson at 7:30 p.m. today in the Haskell National Bank community room.

This will be a community involvement program relating to health, and the women of the community are invited to attend.

A photographer-turned-minister, Rev. Thompson worked six years on the Methodist Hospital Chaplaincy staff, specializing in ministering to oncology patients before being chosen director of Breast Cancer Awareness Program of the Abilene YWCA.

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women in the United States will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as the result of breast cancer.

Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate.

A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, even before it can be felt.

Guidelines For Screening Mammography Established by the American Cancer Society.

- I. 35-40 years of age - One baseline mammogram.
- II. 40-50 years of age - A mammogram every 1-2 years depending on breast type and risk factor.
- III. 50 years of age and over - An annual physical examination and annual mammogram.
- IV. Asymptomatic women under 50 years of age with significant high risk factors should be examined at appropriate intervals. These risk factors include previous breast cancer and family history of cancer.

V. A symptomatic woman should have a mammogram at any age when she experiences a mass, nipple discharge, skin changes or unexplained breast pain.

A screening mammogram is an x-ray of the breast using extremely low dosages of radiation (usually comparable to dental x-rays) and is designed to find very early cancers.

A female technologist who is highly trained in mammography will perform the examination.

The charge for the screening mammogram is $70.00. The Unit accepts cash, check, Visa, Mastercard and American Express.

They're turning peer pressure around at the First Baptist Church in Haskell. After extensive studies on the perils of using drugs, including alcohol, many local young people have pledged to stay drug free. Their commitment was indicated by signing a large red banner which read, "I'm Drug Free and Proud of It!" at the church last Wednesday night. The banner is on display in the Family Activity Center of the church. Each Wednesday night, 75 to 100 or more young people gather at the center for Bible study and recreation.

PHARMACY NEWS

Meeting Menopause Head-on: Irregular menstrual periods or changing characteristics of menstrual flow can signal the onset of the climacteric, but the exact time of menopause (shut-down of ovaries) varies between women. It is best estimated from a mother's history. Estrogen replacement therapy can help to treat the symptoms that can accompany menopause. Other treatment options include vigorous exercise to stave off hot flashes, lubricants to help vaginal dryness, and Kegel exercises to help with urinary incontinence and urinary tract infections.

TIPS ON STAYING SAFE AND SOUND WITH NATURAL GAS.

For more than 80 years, Lone Star Gas has been providing safe, dependable energy to its customers. By following a few simple rules, you can help make sure you and your family stay safe and sound with natural gas:

- Always have qualified service people install, regularly check and maintain all gas heaters and appliances, following the manufacturer's instructions for installation, ventilation, and operation.
- Always use a gas appliance only for its intended purpose. An oven, for example, should not be used to heat a room.
- Always keep flammable materials and substances away from gas heaters and appliances. Remember, a pilot light is constantly burning.

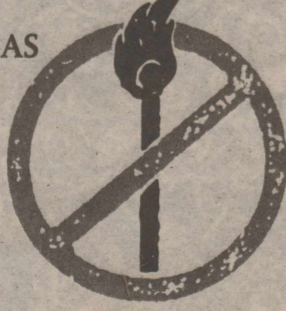

IF YOU SMELL GAS in your home, or know you have a gas leak, follow these rules:

- 1 Everyone should leave the house immediately, leaving the doors open for ventilation.
- 2 Do not switch anything electrical on or off.
- 3 Do not use your telephone (telephones use small amounts of electricity).
- 4 Do not strike a match or do anything else that might cause a spark.
- 5 Go to the nearest telephone and call Lone Star Gas Company. Wait until we have found the cause of the gas leak before returning to your home.

If you smell gas while you're outside, contact Lone Star Gas immediately.

CONTRACTORS, BEFORE YOU DIG, call your local Lone Star Gas Office, and we'll help you avoid any potential problems.

SAFETY TIPS. We've put together a brochure that includes safety tips designed to educate your whole family about the proper usage of natural gas. For a copy, or if you have any questions, call us at 1-800-545-3427.
