Jackie and Joy Harvey of Odessa recently visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harvey and helped celebrate Mr. Harvey's birthday. Also attending the birthday celebration were Bennie and Connie Harvey and Paula. Jackie and Joy visited with Joy's mother, Neat Bevel.

Edna Calloway of Kaufman has been visiting her nieces here in Haskell and her sister, Florene Larned in Rice Springs Care Home.

Pat and Sue Glover of Richardson spent the weekend with their uncle and aunt, Chunky and Viola Tidwell.

Judy and Chuck Hicks of Abilene visited with Mrs. Hick's parents, George and Faye Gray. They all attended Sunday services at the First Baptist Church in Weinert and Mrs. Hicks sang.

Angela Jordan of Stamford and Nancy Morales spent the weekend in Dallas.

The Community Choir met Sunday afternoon at the Hopewell Baptist Church. The program theme was Black History Month.

Daughter and son-in-law, Charlotte and Vern Foreman of Odessa spent the weekend in Rockport visiting with daughter and son-in-law, Jeanie and Hyrum Richards.

Don't forget the Kiwanisfest roast beef lunch on Sunday, Feb.

14 at the Haskell Civic Center.

The Haskell Ministerial Alliance will have its annual Round Robin Revival beginning Sunday night, Feb. 14 at the First Baptist Church. Services will be held at a different church each night.

James and Joan Turner of Watsonville, Ca. have been visiting with Buck and Carolyn Everett. James and Carolyn are brother and sister. On Friday, Curtis and Doris Jordan took the Turners to the Lubbock International Airport to board their flight to Ca.

Spending the weekend with Emma Bland were her daughter and family, Dana and Mark Gibson, Emily and Trent from El Reno, Ok.

Visiting with Susie Kreger was her brother, Carl Marion from San Diego, Ca.

Bryan and Nancy Middlebrook and son, Josh, from McKinney visited last week with Bryan's parents, Bill and Peggy Middlebrook.

Roy and Maxine Boling have bought a home in Weinert and are in the process of moving to Weinert from Olney. Mrs. Boling is the sister of Ida Farrell of Weinert.

Judy Berry of Abilene took her mother, Henrietta Sego and her aunt, Bessie Evans to spend the weekend in Dallas with Mrs. Sego's other daughter and husband, Jane and Bill Bell.

During a recent visit here daughter, Suzy McElmurry suggested we name Haskell the Mistletoe Capital of the World. Makes about as much sense as being called the Duck Capital. We could have a Mistletoe Festival, invite all our kissing cousins, etc.

Dave and Barb Gilles of Monticello, Mn. spent the weekend with Elmer and Bernice Hilliard. Mrs. Gilles is the niece of Mrs. Hilliard. They have been visiting in Harlingen and Houston and were enroute home. On Saturday night, both couples were at the Wagon Wheel in Abilene square dancing with the Key City Square Dance Club, Ralph McMullen was the caller. On Sunday, Ellen Hilliard and Jean Ballard of Abilene and Pat Shaw and Marshal of Roscoe visited in the Hilliard home. Sunday afternoon, the Hilliards and Gillesses visited in Rochester with Larry and Linda Short, Ross and Mary Jane.

the First Baptist Activity Center. The party was hosted by his mom, Gussie Billington and his sister, Lynelle Roberson. Attending were: Lori McDermott, Loren Cole, Zach Collins, Nathan Long, Kaylie and Bridgett Billington, Marcus Johnson, Leon and Ginny Goudeau, Brittany Jordan, Timothy and La Kiesha Roberson, Bucky Howeth, Blake and Izaia Billington, Veronica Gonzales, Amanda Villegas, C. J. Villegas, Monique Holloway, Mickey Holloway, Karen Johnson and Birdie Goudeau.

Open house set at Paint Creek

The newly completed classroom/office building at Paint Creek School will be shown Sunday afternoon when the school hosts an open house. Visitors are invited to attend the program between 2 and 4 p.m.

A special guest will be State Commissioner of Agriculture Rick Perry, a graduate of Paint Creek.

All parents, area school personnel and community members are invited to attend.

No bus service

Due to lack of passengers and freight, there has been no bus service to Haskell and surrounding towns. The only rural transportation is Double Mountain Coach.

PHARMACY NEWS

By Elbert Johnson, Registered Pharmacist

Careful Cleaning: Long-term use of commercial cleaning agents could lead to persistent lung problems, particularly in those with underlying lung disease and smokers. The primary culprit is chlorine bleach products, which, when mixed with strong acids or ammonia (which are contained in many cleaning products), can release toxic gases. It is especially important to avoid mixing bleaches with tile cleaners or ammonia.

BREAST CANCER DETECTION UNIT AVAILABLE TO AREA WOMEN

TUESDAY, MARCH 2nd
HASKELL MEMORIAL HOSPITAL
1 North Avenue N
HASKELL, TEXAS

A Service of Transamerican Diagnostic Services
(Providing Mammography Services for over 5 years)

Call 864-2621 for appointment

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women in the United States will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as the result of breast cancer.

Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate.

A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, even before it can be felt.

Guidelines For Screening Mammography Established by the American Cancer Society.

- I. 35-40 years of age - One baseline mammogram.
- II. 40-50 years of age - A mammogram every 1-2 years depending on breast type and risk factor.
- III. 50 years of age and over - An annual physical examination and annual mammogram.
- IV. Asymptomatic women under 50 years of age with significant high risk factors should be examined at appropriate intervals. These risk factors include previous breast cancer and family history of cancer.

V. A symptomatic woman should have a mammogram at any age when she experiences a mass, nipple discharge, skin changes or unexplained breast pain.

A screening mammogram is an x-ray of the breast using extremely low dosages of radiation (usually comparable to dental x-rays) and is designed to find very early cancers.

A female technologist who is highly trained in mammography will perform the examination.

The charge for the screening mammogram is $70.00. The Unit accepts cash, check, Visa, Mastercard and American Express.

All Your Home's Little Holes That Leak Air, Can Add Up to One Hole

Big Enough To Chase a Cat Through!

You could be losing a lot of air. Air you pay to heat or cool. Why not start saving instead?

It doesn't take a smarty-cat to see that sealing those little holes can help you save on your energy bill...month after month.

So, take a tip from HandyCat! Inspect your home for all those little places where you could start saving energy...and money! Look for cracks around windows, doors and plumbing wall joints. Consider adding insulation to your attic.

And when it's time to replace your worn out furnace or air conditioner, install a high-efficiency, energy-saving electric heat pump that will help keep you comfortable--better-year-round. For more information on state-of-the-art heat pumps, call WTU or your heating and air conditioning supplier.

Apply caulking to windows, cracks and where plumbing pipes meet walls.

Install weatherstripping to door edges to provide a tighter seal.

Add extra insulation to your attic.

Replace worn-out furnace or A/C with an energy-efficient, electric heat pump.

Jim Ned had one last chance and Coffman was not relaxed. "I reminded the team during the timeout of the Duke-Kentucky game last year and anything could happen," the coach said. But Jim Ned had not Christian Laettner and the inbound pass fell into the arms of Huff as time expired.

Isbell led the team with 14 points and 10 rebounds. Mart Guess added 9 points on 3-point shots.

On Tuesday, the Indians set up their showdown by beating Rotan, 57-41, despite starting the game down 13-1. The Indians finally got their offense in gear, pulling ahead by half and cruising to the victory.

Students who advance to the state contest will compete for scholarships and other prizes, and a chance to represent Texas at the national MATHCOUNTS competition in Washington, D. C., April 29-May 1.

In addition to the Rochester team, there will be teams representing seven middle schools in Abilene and others from Brownwood, De Leon, Early, Lawn, Miles, Ranger and Sweetwater.

the schedules left to play. Coach Kerry Gartman knew he would have a hard time getting his girls fired up for the Rotan game since they had not won a district game and had won only one game all season. In order to get them thinking about the game, he changed defenses and opened up the offense which seemed to work as the Maidens opened up a 19-2 first-quarter lead and continued the scoring in the second period, making five 3-pointers enroute to a 41-10 halftime lead. In the second half, the Maidens slowed down as not to let the game get out of hand and finished with a 63-24 victory.

Teresa Diaz had a career high of five 3-pointers as she led the Maidens with 19 points, followed by Shana McKenzie with 15, Sarah Mullen 9, Holly and Heather Hobgood 6 each, Cynthia Rodriguez and Veronica Gonzalez 3 each and Georgie Root 2.

Teresa also led the team in assists with 8. Holly had 6, Heather 4 and Cynthia, Veronica and Sarah each had 1.

Leading the team in steals with 4 each were Heather, Holly, Teresa and Veronica. Cynthia, Sarah and Georgie each had 3 steals and Jill Mullen had 1.

Teresa and Georgia dominated the boards by grabbing 8 rebounds each, followed by Sarah 7, Shana 6, Veronica and Jill 5 each, Heather and Holly 4 each and Cynthia 3.

Jill led the team in blocks with 3. Shana and Teresa each had 2 and Cynthia had another.

Last Tuesday night the 3-1 Maidens traveled to Jim Ned to take on the 3-1 Lady Indians. The winner would still be in the second half race while the loser would find themselves virtually out of contention. The gym was packed and the fans got their money's worth as they saw the game decided in the final minute.

The first quarter proved to be close as expected as both teams adjusted to changes that had been made since the last meeting of the two teams. The Maidens were ahead 11-7 near the end of the first quarter, but the Lady Indians knotted the score at 11 after two quick buckets.

The Lady Indians continued their scoring in the second quarter as they took a 16-11 lead but the Maidens fought back with two 3-pointers by Teresa and two baskets by sophomore post player Jill Mullen.

After halftime, the Maidens came out ready to play as the lead changed hands several times with Jim Ned taking a 1-point lead into the fourth quarter on a last-second layup.

Both teams played hard in the fourth quarter with both teams in the position to win the game, but with 30 seconds left to play the Lady Indians scored 4 unanswered points to take the victory away from the Maidens, 57-51.

Teresa and Shana led the scoring with 10 points each, followed by Holly with 9, Jill with 8, Sarah with 6, Heather with 4 and Cynthia and Georgie with 2 each.

Holly led the team in assists with 7 and Teresa had 3, Heather 2 and Cynthia, Sarah and Shana with 1 each.

Cynthia had 3 steals to lead in that category while Holly and Teresa had 2 each and Heather, Sarah, Shana and Georgie each had

1. Jill pulled down 8 boards, while Sarah and Shana each had 7, Teresa had 6, Cynthia 5, Holly and Georgie 4 and Heather 2.

Beauchamp completes marine basic

Marine Pfc. John Presley Beauchamp recently completed basic training in San Diego, Calif.

During the training, he was taught the basics of battlefield survival, the Marine's typical daily routine and personal and professional standards.

He participated in physical conditioning and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including rifle marksmanship, first aid and close-order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training.

Upon completion of basic, Beauchamp was selected for presidential guard duty. Following Marine combat training at Camp Pendleton, Calif., he is scheduled to undergo security forces training at Quantico, Va. He will then be posted to the Marine barracks in Washington, D.C., to await further assignment.

Beauchamp, a 1992 graduate of Round Rock High School, joined the Marine Corps in October.

He is the son of Larry and Frankie Jo Beauchamp of Round Rock, formerly of Rochester, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Beauchamp of Rule.

--Obituaries--

B. L. Kuykendall

B. L. Kuykendall

B. L. (Kirk) Kuykendall died Tuesday, Feb. 2, at Haskell Memorial Hospital. He was 80.

Funeral services were Thursday afternoon at Holden-McCauley Funeral Home with the Rev. Truett Kuenstler officiating. Burial, directed by Holden-McCauley, was in Willow Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Herbert Kretschmer, Wilton Weise Sr., Leonard Weise, G. W. Cox, Jerry

Don Klose, Gentry Middleton, Walter Kretschmer and Don Kretschmer.

Mr. Kuykendall was born Oct. 2, 1912, in Graham. He came to Haskell County 43 years ago from Goldthwaite. He worked as foreman on the Box Springs Ranch until he retired in 1983. He married Maude Crenshaw in Goldthwaite on Aug. 6, 1949. She survives him.

Other survivors include three sons, Bedford Lee Kuykendall of Boise City, Idaho, John Addison Kuykendall of Lubbock and Jerry Lynn Kuykendall of Albuquerque, N.M.; a daughter, Linda Jo Kuykendall of Abilene; a brother, Joe Bailey Kuykendall of Fort Worth; four sisters, Minnie Adams of Haskell, Dorothy Mason of Hobbs, N.M., Ruby Dee Featherson of Goldthwaite and Letrice Duncan of Goldthwaite; six grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a grandson, five sisters and a brother.

Will Pittman

Will "Colton" Pittman of Fort Worth died Feb. 2 at his home. He was 67.

Funeral services were Friday morning at Emerald Hills Chapel and burial was in Emerald Hills Memorial Park.

A native of Haskell, Mr. Pittman was a carpenter and a 42-year member of Carpenter's Union 429. He also was a member of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Thank you for reading The Haskell Free Press.

Tiger Cubs enjoy visit to ostrich farm

The Tiger Cubs group of Pack 136 met Feb. 4 at the ostrich farm with Bobby and Robin Loyd as hosts. The Big Idea for February is #6 Know Your Community.

Robin and Bobby introduced the group to Roy Forehand who is a partner in the ostrich farm. He led the group to the pens and explained the different aspects of the operation. Mr. Forehand answered questions from the group. The boys learned how fast the birds will run and saw one of the birds do his "ostrich dance."

Inside the building, a hatchery is being assembled. The boys saw two chicken eggs that were beginning to hatch. The hatching process is very scientific. For now the hatchery is hatching chicken eggs. As experience is gained, ostrich eggs will be hatched.

The group left the ostrich farm and met at the scout hut for refreshments and to work on table decorations for the upcoming Blue and Gold banquet.

Attending were Robin and Bobby Loyd, C. J. Villegas and Mickey Holloway, Adam and Dickie Greenwood, Scott and Debbie Kennedy, A. J. and Randy Shaw, and Lisa Shaw, Tiger Cub coordinator.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knipling visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kieke one night last week.

Blood given by 30

By Brian Burgess

Considering all the sickness in the area, the turnout for the Feb. 2 Haskell County Bloodmobile was great.

The area Red Cross office didn't send me the list that told total previous donations, so I apologize for not being able to tell just how many pints each donor has given to date.

I do know that there are some who hit new milestones. Bill Swinney moved up to 6 gallons (that is 48 pints). Dale Huff and Lois Howard both moved up to the 3-gallon level. For others that I'm sure to have missed, I apologize. Every donor is a real hero in my book.

Thanks to First Baptist Church for the fee-free use of its fine facilities. Thanks to the Extension Homemakers who have provided volunteer services at every Bloodmobile for years. Volunteers at this mobile were Ophelia Newsom, Reatha Mullens, Margaret Jones, Martha Toliver, Amanda Crawford, Kim Crawford, Lena Crawford, Mira Patel, Nisa Patel, Usha Patel, Kay Smith and Bruce Adamson.

And thanks to the professional volunteers, Verla Price, Leota Covey, Ruby Myers, Myra Myers, Cindy Barnes and Todd Barnes.

Weinert club has program on wildflowers

The Weinert Extension Homemakers Club met Feb. 2 in the home of Estalynn Liles with Faye Jetton as co-hostess.

Myrtle Phemister, president, called the house to order and Mrs. Jetton read a poem, "A Hug." Mrs. Liles gave a reading on "forgiveness" and then presented the program for the day on "Wildflowers of Texas."

Mrs. Liles gave members books she had ordered from a flower company in Eagle Lake, Texas, about wildflowers, herbs and how and when to plant or sow. She also showed slides about flowers and how and where they grow best in the state.

Roll call was answered by giving a seed exchange. A variety of seeds were exchanged and a few green plants also were given.

Betty Sanders, secretary-treasurer, read the minutes and gave the treasurer's report. The Council report was given with members looking forward to Tri-County Rally Day which will be in Knox County in March.

A report on livestock show was given and the clean-up day for the highways around Weinert, to be held April 3, was discussed.

Next Council Day will be March 17 and next Club Day will be March 2 with Lavita Burgess as hostess. The program will be on "Illiteracy" by Erma Liles and guest speaker will be Kila Lackey of Avoca. Everyone is invited to come to the meeting in the Weinert school.

Those attending were Myrtle Phemister, Betty Sanders, Jimmie Weinert, Erma Liles, Henrietta Rueffer, Cordie Cunningham, Lavita Burgess and the hostesses, Faye Jetton and Estalynn Liles.

Thank you for reading The Haskell Free Press.

Teacher returns to Headstream

By Dell Anderson

The clients and staff welcomed back Ann Kiser as teacher and recreation director in February. We want to wish Dirk Barrington well wherever he goes. He really worked hard for us while he was here.

We had a birthday party the last of January and got a lot of good clothes donated from Wal Mart in Stamford.

On Feb. 4, Travis Solomon Jr. and Billie Snyder from Seymour took us to Wichita Falls where we had a good time eating at Grandy's and shopping. Eight clients went and we had fun being together.

Texas rural areas are likely to have a larger proportion of the population over 65.

Finding the keys to timelock

(Last in a Series)
By Lou Gilly
County Extension Agent
Home Economics

There are many books and articles written about managing our time and getting our lives organized. I have yet to find one that can successfully help everyone. The best way to find balance for your timelocked life is to own less, do less, and say "no."
I hope the following 11 suggestions will help you ease the pressure of time.
1. Develop a New Sense of Time. Time can't be controlled; don't try.
2. Plan Life, Not Time. Pay better attention to your life as a whole rather than to your schedule alone. Calendars are tangible; lives are not.

3. Manage Time Organically. There are many ways to do a job well. The usual tactics--list-making, prioritizing, orderly scheduling--are one way. If another approach works better for you, stay with it. When it comes to managing time, the destination is what counts, not the means of transportation.
4. Decelerate. Rushaholism is an obstacle to managing time. It's hard to remember that the fastest way of doing things isn't necessarily the best way. When hurried, ask yourself, "Do I really need to rush? What's the worst thing that can happen to me if I don't? Is that worse than what it's costing me to hurry?"
5. Modulate. When it's not possible to cut back or slow down, it helps to at least vary the rhythm of our days. No matter how busy you are, always take some time off.

6. Reduce Awareness of Time. The less often you check the time, the more acute your actual sense of time will become.
7. Seek Sanctuary from Time. One way to make life less hectic is to limit data input while seeking regular opportunities to ignore time altogether. Create a mental map of hassle-free zones where you can't be reached; retreat to them often.
8. Limit Purchases. Consumption takes time. Choosing, mastering and servicing purchases contributes to timelock. The less we own, the more time we have at our disposal.
9. Pay Attention to Yourself and Others. Live according to personal standards, not those of experts, co-workers, spouses, your mother or your father. Give full attention to the people you love on a regular basis, without the TV on, a newspaper in hand, or a constant mental review of what else you might be doing.
10. Upgrade Family time. Leading less hectic lives improves our ability to pay attention to our families. Any "sacrifices" made to ease our schedules will be more than paid back in an improved quality of life at home.
11. Achieve More by Doing Less. In the end, timelock cannot be alleviated and balance achieved by simply reorganizing one's schedule. Reducing the volume of our activities makes it possible not only to ease time pressure but to get more out of life overall. Before adding a new activity, subtract an old one. Practice saying "no" until you get good at it. And above all, accept that you can't have it all, and wouldn't want to.

The key to timelock is in our hands. Pressure from the economy, work and family demands will always be with us. Our culture won't help us cut back. Seeking a better sense of time and a more humane schedule takes personal commitment. If enough of us make that commitment, the culture will change.

Schedules given for commodities

Haskell residents eligible to receive USDA surplus food commodities may pick up their food today at the Experienced Citizens Center.
Recipients 60 years and older will be serviced between 8 and 9 a.m.; those under 60 between 9 and 10.
Commodities also will be distributed at the Rule Church of Christ between 9 and 10 a.m.
Since this will be the first commodity distribution for 1993, recipients must sign their cards and have proof of income.

Corey Mills on Honor Roll

Corey Mills of Haskell was named to the Honor Roll for the fall semester at Howard Payne University.
A psychology major, he is the son of Johnny and Polly Mills of Haskell.
Students must maintain a 3.50-3.64 grade point average for Honor Roll recognition.

Mrs. Bartley hostess to Baptist WMU

The East Side WMU met at the home of the president, Wilma Bartley, on Feb. 2. She called the meeting to order and members said the watchword, Joshua 1:6, together.

Prayer focus was Nigeria and missionary Bonnie Brown who works with the student ministry in Port Harcourt. They need more adult volunteers to work with students in the fellowships.

Ladies present and taking part in the program were Wilma, Ruby Green, Dell Anderson, Nell Rogers, Minnie Faye Dean, Deborah Laird and Maggie Threet.
On Feb. 16, the district WMU will meet at East Side. Members are looking forward to having many ladies from other churches present. It begins at 9:30 a.m. and concludes with a covered dish luncheon.

TAX PLANNING

Written By
Richard E. Rodgers, CPA

IS A LIVING TRUST RIGHT FOR YOU?

You've probably heard about living trusts. Maybe you even have one. But for most people, living trusts remain a mystery.

What is it? A living trust is established when you transfer property to a trust during your lifetime. Most living trusts are revocable, which means that you can amend or revoke the trust at any time. You must personally report all of the income earned by a revocable living trust.

Having a living trust generally won't reduce your estate taxes, since property in a living trust is included in your estate. But if you are married, and your estate is worth $600,000 or more, your living trust can be designed to reduce the total estate taxes paid by you and your spouse.

Advantages of a Living Trust:

- When you pass away, probate won't be required for the property in your living trust. This could save considerable time and professional fees.
- If you become incapacitated, your living trust can appoint someone to manage your financial affairs. Without a living trust, a guardian would have to be appointed by a court.
- It's more difficult to challenge a trust than to contest a will, and your living trust generally won't be a matter of public record.

Disadvantages:

- The costs of establishing and maintaining a living trust can be substantial.
- You'll still need to probate any assets that are outside the living trust.

We can answer your general questions about living trusts. However, preparation of trust documents will require the services of your attorney.
