Indians win their way into regional

The Haskell Indians won their way into the Region 1-2A basketball tournament Tuesday night with a 68-56 victory over the Wall Hawks in an area playoff game in Abilene.

For the second consecutive year, and the fifth time since 1988, the Indians have reached the regional and the right to compete for a berth in next week's state tournament in Austin.

A torrid first half, highlighted by the pin-point "bombing" of 3-point ace Mart Guess, powered the Indians to their win over Wall. They shot to a 22-15 first-period lead and then stretched it to 41-26 by halftime as Guess scored 14 points, including four 3-pointers.

The Indians continued their hot pace in the third quarter, building a 21-point margin late in the period, which ended with them on top, 54-35.

But Wall fought back in the final period, going on a 15-2 run to narrow the gap to 6 points, 56-50, midway through the quarter. With 3:31 to go, Brian Brzozowski took a pass from Guess and put it through the hoop, and then sank a free throw to complete a 3-point play and put the Indians out front, 59-50. From that point, the Indians had things pretty much their own way.

Brzozowski was the team's leading scorer, getting 21 points on the strength of 7 field goals and 7 of 10 free throws. Guess wound up with 19 points, 15 of them coming on his five 3-pointers.

Shannon Meeks and Casey Coleman each scored 7 points, while Robert Huff and Jonathan Tatum each had 5.

The Indians advanced to the area playoff with a 61-53 win over the Dublin Lions in Abilene Friday night.

Cody Cooley canned back-to-back 3-pointers to open the fourth quarter and propel the Indians to victory. Cooley's shooting sparked a 14-3 run as the Indians pulled away.

Cooley's 16 points led the Indian scorers and Coleman was right behind with 14. Brzozowski scored 12 points, half of them in the first quarter before he got in foul trouble. Guess scored 10.

The Indians led 34-28 at halftime, but Dublin had tied the score at 43-43 by the end of the third period.

Indians play Friday in regional Haskell will play Shallowater Friday night in a first-round Region 1-2A game in Moody Coliseum at Abilene Christian University.

As of Wednesday morning, it was not known whether the Indian game would be played at 6 p.m. or 8 p.m.

Shallowater advanced to the regional with a 77-70 win over Panhandle in an area game Tuesday night.

The other half Friday's regional twinbill will pit the Stamford Bulldogs against Clarendon. Stamford advanced with a 64-58 victory over Anthony in an area playoff Tuesday, while Clarendon was winning over Hale Center, 63-49.

Winners of Friday's games will meet Saturday afternoon for the regional championship and the right to represent the region in next week's state tournament in Austin.

Leads attack

Cody Cooley was the big offensive gun for the Haskell Indians Saturday night as they bested Dublin, 61-53, in a 2A bi-district playoff in Abilene. The Haskell sophomore scored 16 points.

LULAC chapter to be formed

An organizational meeting of a local chapter of the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) will be held Tuesday at the Haskell National Bank community room.

LULAC representatives from San Angelo and other area cities will be present to assist in the organization.

The meeting begins at 7:30 p.m.

Early vote totals 158 as of Tuesday

One hundred fifty-eight persons had cast early voting ballots for Democratic and Republican primaries in Haskell County as of noon Tuesday.

County Clerk Rhonda Moeller said 146 Democrats and 12 Republicans had voted with three and a half days remaining for early voting. Last day to vote early is Friday.

Democratic and Republican primaries will be conducted next Tuesday.

Election officials stressed again that a person may vote in either the Democratic or the Republican primary, but not both.

When going to vote next Tuesday, voters are requested to bring their registration cards to simplify the process.

Four contested races in Democratic primary

Spirited races for County Judge, two County Commissioner seats and a Justice of the Peace will be climaxed next Tuesday (March 8) when Haskell County voters go to the polls to vote in the Democratic primary election.

Those are the four local offices for which more than one candidate has filed.

Voters will cast ballots from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. at 10 voting precincts in Haskell County, four in Haskell and one each in Rule, Rochester, O'Brien, Weinert, Paint Creek and Sagerton.

County Judge candidates include J. M. (Stick) Raughton, Giles M. Kemp, Jerrell (Judo) Johnson and incumbent B. O. Roberson.

Contested commissioner races include the one in Precinct 2 where the candidates are James R. (Jimmy) Hannsz, incumbent Ronnie Chapman and E. L. (Elmer) Adams.

The other contested commissioner race is in Precinct 4 and the candidates are Don Hisey and incumbent C. A. (Bud) Turnbow.

Two candidates are seeking the Justice of the Peace position, including incumbent Gina Brown and challenger Don Flippin.

Unopposed county candidates include District Clerk Carolyn Reynolds, County Clerk Rhonda Moeller and County Treasurer Willie Faye Tidrow.

Also unopposed is 39th Judicial District Judge Charles Chapman.

Since no Republican is seeking nomination to any of the above offices, the winners of the Democratic primary (or runoff if necessary) will be unopposed in the general election in November.

Also running unopposed in the Democratic primary is Charles Stenholm, seeking re-election as U.S. Representative. Stenholm will face Republican opposition, however, in the general election. The same can be said for State Senator Steve Carriker, unopposed in the primary, but facing opposition in the general election.

State Representative Charles Finnell, District 68, is unopposed in the primary and assured of re-election since no one is running as a Republican.

Contested major state races among Democrats are for U.S. Senator and Governor. Four Democrats, Michael A. Andrews,

Jim Mattox, Richard Fisher and Evelyn K. Lantz, are seeking the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senator. In the governor's race, Governor Ann W. Richards is opposed in the primary by Gary Espinosa.

There also are contested races for Railroad Commissioner, three Supreme Court seats and two criminal appeals court judges.

High candidacy fuels GOP interest

The candidacy of Haskell's Doyle High for the State Senate is the top local attraction in a rare local Republican primary in Haskell next Tuesday.

Voting will be from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. in the First National Bank.

High, local businessman and pharmacist, is opposed by Tom Haywood of Wichita Falls for the District 30 Senate seat now held by Democrat Steve Carriker, who is unopposed in the Democratic primary. The High-Haywood primary winner will face Carriker in the November general election.

Another local name on the Republican ballot is that of Agriculture Commissioner Rick Perry, who is unopposed in the primary.

The names of seven candidates, including that of incumbent Kay Bailey Hutchison, appear on the ballot for the position of U.S. Senator. Mrs. Hutchison, elected to the unexpired term of Vice President Lloyd Benson in a special election last year, is opposed by Stephen Hopkins, Ernest J. Schmidt, Tom Spink, M. Troy Mata, Roger Henson and James C. Currey.

Three candidates are seeking the Republican nomination for U.S. Representative of District 17, and the right to oppose Democrat incumbent Charles Stenholm in the general election. Republican candidates are Roy Emerson Falls, Phil Boone and Don Schmidt.

George W. Bush, son of the former president, is a candidate for Governor. He is opposed in the primary by Ray Hollis.

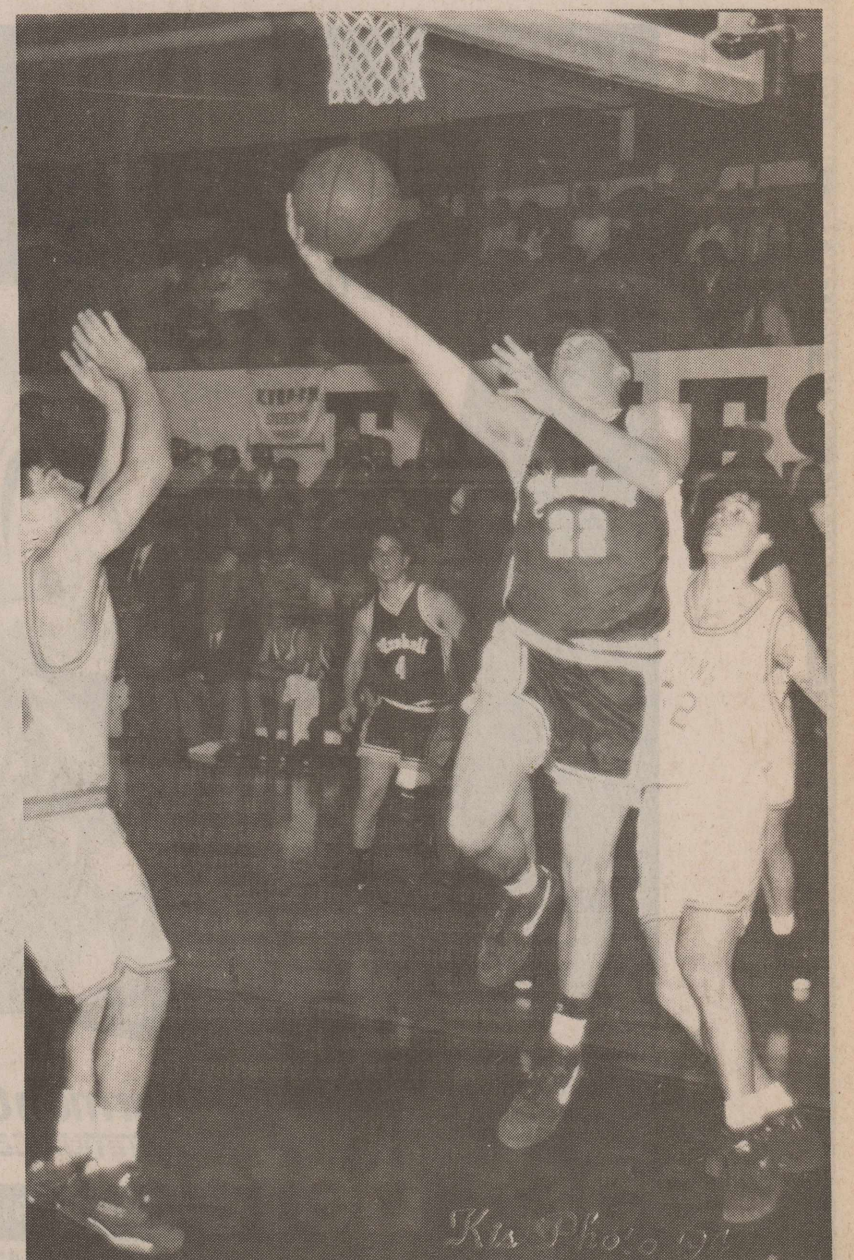

Two candidates, Richard Watson and Leland Dysart, are seeking the Republican nomination for District 14 representative on the State Board of Education.

There are four Republican candidates for Attorney General and two for State Treasurer. Only other contested Republican primary races are for Supreme Court and Appeals Court judges.

14 for Casey

Casey Coleman scored seven field goals for 14 points in the Indians' 61-53 victory over the Dublin Lions in a bi-district playoff game in Abilene Saturday night. The victory vaulted the Indians into the area playoff.

Against Dublin

The Indians' Jonathan Tatum added 7 points to the Haskell cause in Saturday night's bi-district playoff win over Dublin.

Spending four days in Abilene last week with Danny, Nikki, Luke and Ben Kittley was Vicky Anderson. The 76th Annual ACU Lectureship was attended on Monday through Wednesday. On the afternoon of the 23rd it was a privilege to sit with Ruth Wilcox and Molly Cannon of Rule at the "Old Time Sing." One day lunch was enjoyed with granddaughter, Tori Miller, and another day with granddaughter Nikki Kittley, her husband Danny and great-grandson, Ben. Then, another day breakfast was enjoyed with Tori and husband Kris. Mr. and Mrs. Kittley and Mrs. Miller are all Rule natives.

It was indeed an uplifting and inspirational time with so many good gospel preachers and teachers bringing lessons. The singing was out of this world, too. The theme of this year's lectureship was "A Light To The Nations: Messages from Isaiah". Another day it was good to run into John and Orheana Greeson from Rule.

The Rule City Council election will be held on May 2nd for the purpose of filling two council seats and the position of Mayor. The Rule City Council meeting was changed to March 3 at 6 p.m. Topics to be discussed are increase in garbage rates, purchase of a new police car, and budget. A special meeting will be called later on to adopt a budget for 1994-95.

Tomorrow night, March 4th, there will be a "Night of One Act Plays" at the Haskell Memorial Civic Center, beginning at 7 p.m. Schools participating will be Haskell, Paint Creek, Rule. Admission will be $3.00 for adults and $2.00 for students.

Anniversary greetings are sent to James and Jo Ruth Lisle on the 1st, Eddie and Jackye Leonard on the 3rd. Birthday greetings are sent to Lee Ann Gray, Etta Hargrove, Carla Dennis, Eddie Proctor and Pamell Anderson.

Get well wishes are sent to Denise Turner, Buford Westmoreland, to the Ed Murray children, Michael and Jeffrey whose little sister Jennifer took the chicken pox home to them. Get well wishes are sent to Amelia Hickman, Lois Hughes, Karen Kainer Jones, Ernest Jordan, Johnny Kainer, John Page and Jack Weldon. Also, Robert Halliburton, Sue Sanders and Leon Biffle.

Sincere sympathy is expressed to Cole Alsbrook upon the death of his sister, Frankie Lee Edwards of Austin, also to the family of Jerry Larance, Duke Stone, Viola Duggan, Joy Denton and Della Corzine.

Teresa Unger and Chad Stephen Parrack

Unger, Parrack to wed Aug. 27

Ervin and Gwen Unger of Haskell have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Teresa Faye Unger, to Chad Stephen Parrack of Fort Benning, Ga. He is the son of Dale and Donnell Parrack of Brownwood.

The wedding will be Aug. 27 in Abilene.

Miss Unger is a 1989 graduate of Haskell High School and is a Nursing major at Texas Tech University. She is employed by UMC Hospital in Lubbock.

The prospective bridegroom is a graduate of Brownwood High School and Texas Tech University with a degree in International Economics. He is a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army.

Deadline near for sign up

"If you don't have Part B of Medicare and you want it, you have until the end of March to sign up," says Glyn Hammons, Social Security district manager in Abilene.

Every year, the government offers a three-month enrollment period--Jan 1-March 31--during which people who turned down or previously dropped the Part B coverage can sign up for it.

"If you enroll during this period, your coverage will begin July 1," Hammons said, "and you'll probably pay a slightly higher monthly premium."

The current cost for Part B coverage is $41.10 per month, but most delayed enrollees pay a 10-percent surcharge for each year they could have been enrolled but weren't.

Part B coverage, also called "medical insurance," helps pay for doctors' care, outpatient hospital visits and other medical services. People are offered the option of signing up for Part B at the same time they are automatically enrolled in Medicare's Part A program. Part A helps pay for inpatient hospital care and certain other services.

Hammons said people who want to sign up for Part B should call the Abilene Social Security office or call Social Security's toll-free number 1-800-772-1213.

Mary Dewey gets Scout Merit Award

Mary Dewey of Haskell Troop 136 was recipient of the Award of Merit at the recent Double Mountain District banquet in Rule.

The Award of Merit is the district's highest award for adult scouters.

Mrs. Dewey has served in many areas of scouting. She started in Cub Scouts in 1985 by working with the Tiger Cubs. She became a Pack 136 den leader in 1986 and served two years. She was secretary-treasurer for four years and served on the Cub Scout Pack Committee for eight years.

In Troop 136 she has served with the Boy Scouts as secretary-treasurer and on the Troop Committee for four years. On the district level, she was Cub Scout Day Camp den leader at Camp Tonkawa several times, was on the staff at Dad 'N Lad and Boy Scout Camp at Camp Tonkawa and served on the District Planning Committee. She was named Scouter of the Year for 1989.

Doyle Mitchell, cubmaster of Haskell Pack 136, and Kenny Thompson, assistant scoutmaster of Troop 148, also received awards by being named Scouter of the Year.

Mitchell has been cubmaster of Pack 136 since 1992 and has been assistant scoutmaster of Troop 136 since April 1987.

Thompson became Webelos leader of Pack 136 and then became assistant scoutmaster of Paint Creek Troop 148. He attended Timber Tag 63 in 1987.

Boy Scout leadership awards were presented to Kenneth Patton and Paul Brown of Troop 136.

Cub Scout leadership awards to leaders in Pack 136 were given to Bruce Adamson, Cub Scouter Award; Pam Steele, Den Leader Award; Valiene Bullinger, Den Leader Award; Leland Terry, Webelos Leader Award; and Lisa Shaw, Cub Scouter Award.

Loose dogs in violation of city code

Police Chief Tom Bassett reminded citizens this week that it is illegal for dog owners to allow their dogs to run at large.

Article II of Section 3-21 of the Haskell Code states:

"It shall be unlawful for any person to permit any dog to run at large within the limits of the city. It shall be the duty of each owner or keeper of a dog in the limits of the city to have such dog on a leash or in the care and custody of some responsible person when the animal leaves or is allowed to leave the property of such owner or keeper."

The code further states that it is the duty of the police chief, or any city employee working under his supervision, to impound loose dogs.

Bassett said the police department has had a number of complaints concerning loose dogs and he is calling on citizens to cooperate.

Singles invited

Haskell area adult singles are invited to a get-together Tuesday night at the First United Methodist Church in Aspermont. It begins at 7.

Hargrove relieved of coaching

Walter Hargrove, Haskell High School football coach, has been reassigned by the school board to the classroom.

Hargrove, who also teaches English, has been a coach and teacher in the Haskell school system for seven years, the last four as head football coach and athletic director.

Originally from Rotan, Hargrove previously coached at Sweetwater, Canadian, Snyder, Lubbock Coronado and Hamlin.

He said he plans to stay in the coaching profession, hopefully as a head coach.

"I wasn't looking to leave here, but this is part of the business," he said. "I'm certainly not bitter at anyone. Someone is going to get a good group of kids who have been fun to coach. So, everything here will be all right."

Haskell was 4-4-2 last season, with one of the victories coming over district 7-2A champion Hamlin.

Vote for one of our own

Rarely do the citizens of Haskell County have the opportunity to vote for one of their own for an important legislative office. This year they do. And in the person of Doyle High, Republican candidate for State Senate, District 30, they have an outstanding candidate. High's credentials as a public-spirited citizen and civic leader need not be elaborated on to the people of this county. More importantly, his conservative political philosophy mirrors that of the majority of our citizens. And lastly, High stands the best chance to unseat ultra-liberal Steve Carriker and give the people of Haskell County and District 30 a legislative voice more in line with their own conservative ideas and ideals.

Arnot deserves promotion

The average person often is in the dark when it comes to electing judges to the state courts. Name familiarity often is the chief criteria in voting for a candidate. But Haskell County voters have good cause to vote for Bud Arnot as Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals. Arnot has served with distinction as an Associate Justice on the court and has earned the right to be promoted to Chief Justice. He is easily the choice of those most directly involved in the operation of the Court of Appeals. In a recent preferential poll of attorneys by the State Bar of Texas, Arnot received more votes than the two other candidates combined, receiving 132 votes to 82 for Republican Billy John Edwards and 28 for Democrat David Stubbeman.

BY WENDELL FAUGHT

If your child claims to be allergic to school, it may be the truth.

Many youngsters are exposed to allergens in school, and the allergens can trigger asthma attacks, says Dr. Benjamin Interiano of Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

Asthma is the leading cause of school absenteeism, Interiano said. It accounts for 10 million lost school days per year. It is prevalent among African-American children, who suffer more serious attacks.

Asthma attacks can be caused by allergens to dust and mold. Chalkboards, plants, dusty carpets and chemicals used for art and science projects can also be culprits.

It was one of those multiple choice yes or no questions on a questionnaire from Medicare. Are you married and does your wife work?

I wasn't smart enough to figure out how I was supposed to answer a question whose answer was both yes and no.

Nor was I smart enough to figure out how to send my check to the Abilene Reporter News in payment of a classified ad I ran in that newspaper.

"Please remit to P.O. Box 3863," said the statement. But a self-addressed envelope enclosed in the bill was addressed to P.O. Box 30.

A number of familiar names will appear on the ballots for Tuesday's primary.

There's a Yarborough (Grady) running for State Treasurer and another Yarborough (Bill) for the Supreme Court. There's a Doggett (Teresa) running for Comptroller.

There's a George Bush running for Governor, and also a George Bush for the Supreme Court. And a John Marshall for Attorney General.

Perry backs High

Editor: With the election just a few days away, I want to express my support for Doyle High for State Senator in the Republican Primary.

Doyle is from hometown of Haskell and is a respected businessman and pharmacist. He and his wife Roberta own The Drug Store in Haskell. I have known Doyle for 20 years and know him to be a hard working, honest Texan.

A land owner, Doyle is strong in his belief of property rights. He'll vote against taxes and work to cut fat from the budget. Doyle is a supporter of tort reform and is strong on fighting crime. And, he is a strong supporter of term limits for public officials.

But more importantly, Doyle has the vision and vitality to be a hard working State Senator.

If you know Doyle, you know he is the kind of man you will be proud to have in the State Senate representing the 30th Senatorial District.

I hope you will cast your vote for Doyle High on Tuesday, March 8th.

Rick Perry
Commissioner of Agriculture

High supporter

Editor: I've lived in Haskell since 1935. And I am so excited that Doyle High is running for the State Senate. There could be no better choice to represent us and our area.

I have known Doyle for over 25 years. He has touched so many lives with his kindness---he genuinely cares about people in our area.

Doyle has always been a family man. I believe that Doyle and his wife Roberta make a perfect team. Together they can do anything!

When I broke my leg last year, Doyle was the first to visit me. I wasn't surprised though; he's always looking out after people. He often visits the local rest homes and would go anywhere to help someone in need.

Doyle High is a great man. That's why we need him to represent us in Austin. I've been a Republican all my life and I know that Doyle has always upheld conservative values. He has the energy to stand up for us and for what we believe in. Most of all, he really knows us.

Please join me March 8th and vote for a conservative leader we can all count on. Vote for Doyle High!

Thanks

Editor: I would like to take this opportunity to thank the City Police of Haskell, Joe Ray, Steven and Tom, the Sheriff's Department, Johnny Mills and David Halliburton, Highway Patrol, James Davis, for a job well done in the recovery of all of my tools in a burglary of Cliff's Garage Saturday night, Jan. 29.

Working together as a team it makes their jobs easier and safer for all involved. We as citizens of Haskell County, should show our appreciation to an understanding group of officers in our town and county. Let's show them that we care.

Cliff Morris

Praises teacher

Editor: A couple of weeks ago I attended the Texas Computer Educators Association convention in Austin. I attended a session while there that was conducted by Haskell High School's journalism teacher Jill Druessedow.

I was very impressed with the presentation Jill and her students made to fellow teachers. She gets so excited speaking of her students and their many accomplishments they have attained together. Jill's excitement and enthusiasm couldn't help but spread on to the watching teachers. The spectators' comments as they were leaving were very positive and envious.

During the session she showed the video that had been made by her students of the city of Haskell. As I watched the video I was even more proud to call Haskell my hometown.

If every teacher in the State of Texas had the attitude and enthusiasm of Jill Druessedow we would have the best schools in the nation.

I hope that Haskell realizes what a "gem" they have in Jill. (Today, "gems" are very hard to come by.) Not only is Jill very involved in her school, but also in civic organizations and her church.

Haskell, be proud of what your school is doing with and for your students!

Against health plan

Editor: As a member of the Seniors Coalition, I want you to know that most seniors do not favor the Clinton Health Care Plan.

Under the Clinton plan, senior citizens will surely face drastic cuts in Medicare coverage, lose their right to choose their own doctors, face long waiting lines, and possibly be denied life-saving medical treatment.

These matters are documented in a report, available at no charge, from the 2-million-member Seniors Coalition. I urge you to contact the Coalition today at (703) 273-5449, get a copy of their report, then do stories that will alert people in our area to the real facts behind the Clinton Health Care Plan.

Donald Erickson

Wants tokens

Editor: I am a lover of history and I have a somewhat unusual hobby. I collect old tokens used by stores, barber shops, pool halls, bakeries, saloons, forts and other businesses years ago.

These tokens were good for 5 cents, 10 cents, 12 1/2 cents or such in trade or merchandise or good for a loaf of bread, one drink, one shave, one ride or whatever. They were usually made of metal, and while having the general appearance of a coin, they were made in all shapes and sizes.

I am hoping that if you have a "Letters to the Editor" section or such in your paper that you might mention my search. I know that this request is relatively unimportant, but as our elderly pass away and the younger members of the family inherit their possessions, tokens and other items are considered junk and thrown out. I do get a great deal of enjoyment from my hobby and I do believe that these concrete reminders of our great heritage are worth preserving.

I have reason to believe that some of these tokens were used in your area and I would be most interested in obtaining some of them for my collection.

I would like to hear from anyone having one or more of these tokens or from anyone that might be able to help me. Any help that you can give me of any kind is greatly appreciated.

Charles Finnell

Finnell announces for House

State Rep. Charles Finnell of Holliday has announced for reelection to the Texas Legislature from the 68th House District.

The vast 13-county district represented by Finnell includes Archer, Baylor, Clay, Cottle, Foard, Haskell, Hardeman, Jack, Montague, Throckmorton, Young, Wilbarger and rural Wichita County.

Finnell, dean of the northwest Texas delegation to the Texas Legislature, emphasized the importance he places on priorities of rural citizens and smaller cities.

"The opportunity for meaningful public service in state government has never been greater," stated Finnell, a small businessman and native of Archer County. "I am asking citizens of this region for their continued support in my efforts to streamline state government, improve the rural health care delivery system, to resist and contain governmental mandates, focus on crime victims, and represent the interests of agriculture and small business alike."

Finnell is ranking member of the House Committee on Agriculture, Livestock and Wildlife. He is a leader on the influential Rules and County Affairs committees.

Continuing a family tradition, Finnell is in general partnership with his brother, Leslie, as Finnell Brothers, a crude oil production company doing business in Texas since 1960. He is a Texas commissioner of the Interstate Oil and Gas Compact and a member of the Holliday Chamber of Commerce. Finnell and his wife Kay attend the Holliday United Methodist Church.

"This is a time for vital decisions to be made that will impact heavily on the lives of people and the interests of this great district," Finnell said. "I look forward to this challenge and to representing you and your family."

Finnell is unopposed in his bid for re-election to the Texas House of Representatives.

IGA chief calls health plan threat to small businesses

The Independent Grocers Alliance (IGA), the nation's largest voluntary supermarket network with more than 2,500 independently owned supermarkets in 49 states, has stepped out against President Clinton's health care plan, saying it discriminates against small business owners and would ultimately increase the prices consumers pay for groceries.

"President Clinton's proposal may well be the single most destructive piece of anti-small business legislation that I've ever seen," said IGA Chairman and CEO Thomas S. Haggai at a Feb. 17 press conference.

"Based on IGA's Hometown Proud philosophy, we agree with the administration that all citizens should have access to health care, but the plan unfairly places a disproportionate amount of the funding responsibility with small business owners," Haggai said.

Under the Clinton Health Security Act, unionized and large companies with more than 5,000 employees are allowed to continue to provide health insurance under their current plans. However, small business owners would be forced to enter regional government-controlled programs—regardless of how successful, effective or efficient their plans have been, Haggai said.

The administration's proposal also stipulates that employers would be required to pay 80 percent of coverage for employees and their dependents. Haggai said that since more than 95 percent of the business community is composed of small employers, the President's plan would cost small business owners nearly $29 billion in new expenditures, according to a study.

The IGA chairman said that independent and family owned supermarkets make up more than half of all grocery retail outlets in the country. "Since net profit for supermarkets is already less than one cent per dollar of sales, the Clinton health plan would compel these independent retailers to pass the new costs on to consumers in the form of higher prices," Haggai said.

"We are shocked at the proposal's inequity," he added. "The President's plan seems to be out of character for him because when he was attorney general for the state of Arkansas, we spoke at the same convention where he sharply criticized legislation that was detrimental to small business. He has always presented himself as a friend to the small business owner, but now his own proposal threatens entrepreneurs by requiring them to enter government alliances steeped in excess costs."

The IGA Benefit Trust currently provides health coverage benefits for more than 37,000 supermarket employees and their families. IGA has been offering health care coverage under the self-insured plan for more than 40 years.

Banishing the Dark: Those who regularly and unaccountably become depressed with the onset of winter may be suffering from seasonal affective disorder (SAD), a condition related to sunlight deprivation. Daily exposure to very bright light through specially created light boxes can relieve these symptoms or even prevent the onset of SAD. Usually patients need to use the light box for 30 minutes each day, and it should be used under a doctor's supervision.

Kyle Wilfong

Kyle Gene Wilfong of Houston died Tuesday, Feb. 22, at a Houston hospital. He was 36.

Funeral services were Thursday morning (Feb. 24) at the Haskell Church of Christ with Dale Huff, minister, officiating. Burial was in Willow Cemetery, directed by Holden-McCauley Funeral Home.

There will be a memorial service at 2 p.m. on Saturday, March 5, at Westmoreland Chapel of South Main Baptist Church, 4100 S. Main, Houston.

Mr. Wilfong, an appraiser, was born Feb. 28, 1957 in Knox City. He was a 1975 graduate of Haskell High School and also graduated from Texas A&M University. He was a member of the Church of Christ and the Texas Association of Assessing Officers, and was past president of the Gulf Coast chapter. He also was a member of Sigma Chi Alumni, the Woodland Heights and Houston Heights Civic Association.

He was the son of Andy and LaQuita Wilfong of Haskell, who survive him.

Other survivors include a sister,

Paula (Mrs. Blaine) Bennett of Stamford; and two brothers, Calvin Wilfong of Knoxville, Tenn., and Joe Wilfong of Vernon.

Memorials may be made to Ben Richey Boys Ranch, Tipton Orphan Home or the donor's favorite charity.

Marvin Phemister

Marvin Winford Phemister was born Oct. 24, 1913, the third child of Virgil and Ida Phemister, and was one of nine children born into this farm family in Cooke County Texas, near the city of Pilot Point.

His brothers are Carlos Phemister of Sweetwater, Hugh Phemister of Montague, and Roy Phemister, deceased.

His sisters are Helen Boykin of Weinert, Edith Davis of Haskell, Jenell McCoy of Wichita Falls, Alma Terrell, deceased, and Retith Zuck Keahey, deceased.

Marvin grew up on the farm, and loved the soil and made agriculture his life long vocation. He was honored in 1993 by being selected by Texas Farm Bureau as Pioneer Farm of the Year in District 3, being nominated for the honor by his home county, Haskell.

In 1924, the family moved to Haskell County, settled on a farm between Haskell and Weinert, where Marvin attended Ballew school, and later, Draughon's Business College.

In 1933, Marvin met Myrtle Sanders in Weinert, and on Sept. 3 of that year, the two were married and lived together these 60 years and 5 months.

Marvin and Myrtle were blessed with three children, Dr. Lola Williams of Harlingen, Texas; Wayne Phemister, high school principal of McAllen, Texas; and David Phemister, minister, of Oklahoma City, Okla.

They are loved by nine grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren, seven step-grandchildren, and six step-great-grandchildren, for a total of 48 immediate family survivors. There are also a host of nieces and nephews and an innumerable number of friends to mourn this man's death.

Marvin and Myrtle obeyed the Lord's call and were baptized into Christ in a farm pond in July 1934, and have been faithful members of the Church of Christ for all these years.

They were charter members of the Weinert Church of Christ where Marvin served as Bible teacher for 50 years, and as elder for 45 years.

Marvin was very civic minded and did his part in making the world he lived in a better place. He was a charter member of the Weinert Lions Club, the Weinert Water District, the City Council and served many years on the Weinert School Board. He served on the Haskell Hospital Board for many years, the Tax Appraisal Board, the Haskell County Farm Bureau Board of Directors and the Haskell County Soil and Water Conservation Board, of which he was a member at the time of his passing.

He served as State Director of Texas Farm Bureau for a term of six years.

Marvin started the Phemister family reunion and for a number of years hosted the gathering on the family farm just south of Weinert.

In 1993, Marvin and Myrtle were honored at the reunion observing their 60th wedding anniversary and Marvin's 80th birthday.

Marvin was plagued with heart trouble for many years, and on Feb. 26, at 10:30 p.m., with his family gathered at his bedside, he gave final blessings and instructions and departed this life for the reward that is promised to all who will heed the word of God: "Come unto Me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest."

Funeral services were Tuesday afternoon at the Haskell Church of Christ with Dale Huff and John Snider officiating. Burial, directed by Holden-McCauley Funeral Home, was in Weinert Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Rick Phemister, Randy Phemister, David Bryan Phemister, Greg Phemister, Marcus Phemister, Eugene Pollastro, Eddie Kirk and Robert Tipton.

Memorials may be made to the Weinert Cemetery Association, P.O. Box 188, Weinert; American Heart Association, P.O. Box 998, Haskell; or to the donor's favorite charity.

Katherine Hix

Katherine Hix died Saturday at Rice Springs Care Home. She was 85.

Funeral services were Sunday afternoon at the Church of Christ with Dale Huff, minister, officiating. Burial, directed by Holden-McCauley Funeral Home, was in Willow Cemetery.

Mrs. Hix was born July 21, 1908, in Hill County. She had lived in Haskell since 1969 and was a member of the Church of Christ. She married Joseph Hix in Anson in 1970. He died Sept. 27, 1992.

She is survived by two step-daughters, Sherry Williams of Azle and Judy Hix of Abilene; three step-sons, Wayne Hix of Wichita Falls, Charles Ray Hix of Pleasanton and Richard Hix of Wichita Falls; a brother, Ed Farquhar of Arlington; two half-sisters, Bertie Mae Hickman of Abilene and Mildred Wesley of Canyon; a brother-in-law, Coyt Hix of Haskell; and a nephew, Wayne Tomkins; and 10 step-grandchildren.

Frances Hills of Terre Haute, Ind., died Tuesday, Feb. 22, at Southwood Nursing Home in Terre Haute.

Funeral services were Monday afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Rule with the Rev. J. R. Williams officiating. Burial, directed by McCauley-Robison Funeral Home, was in Willow Cemetery.

1901, in Haskell. She attended Rule schools, Abilene High School and Simmons College. She was a member of the First Baptist Church and the Philadelphian Club. She lived in Denton from 1941-1988. She was the widow of William Lamont Hills.

Band students win big in zone

Haskell High School and eighth-grade band students participated Saturday in the Region II South Zone UIL Solo and Ensemble Contest.

Students were judged on a scale from 1 to 5 with 1 being best. Haskell received nine "1's", two "2's" and one "3".

Earning "1's" were:
Piano solo: Ann Rieger and Kaki Stapleton, 8th graders.

Flute solo: Dacia Phemister, Kelli Cunningham, Sarah Cothron and Shelly Palacios, 9th graders.

Also Saxophone solo: Chris McSmith, 8th grade, and Wendy Dulaney, 9th grade.

Also receiving a "1" rating was the brass ensemble of Wayne Hodgins, senior; Charissa Huff, sophomore; Katy Martin, junior; Andy Martin, senior; and Robert Huff, senior.

Because of the levels of difficulty of the music they played and their rating of a "1", the brass ensemble has advanced to the State UIL Solo and Ensemble Contest which will be May 28-30 at Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos.

"I am really excited about the outcome of the students' participation in this contest," said band director Michael Copeland. "The students put in extra work outside the classroom and their other activities to make sure they were ready. I am looking forward to our UIL concert and sight reading contest at Hamlin on April 20. The band is working hard toward that event now. There are less than 30 rehearsals left."

Well balanced diet necessary

Eating for good health does not require large doses of vitamins and minerals, but it does require a varied, well-balanced diet.

Lynne Scott, director of the Diet Modification Clinic at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, recommends:

- 50-55 percent of calories from carbohydrates.

- 15-20 percent of calories from protein.

- Five daily servings of fresh or frozen fruits and vegetables.

- Less than 300 milligrams of cholesterol daily.

- Less than 30 percent of total daily calories from fat. (To determine daily grams of fat, multiply number of calories by .3 and divide by 9)

The Latin motto on our coins, EE Pluribus Unum, means "out of many, one." It refers to the creation of the United States from the original 13 colonies.

Lora Headstream and Jeremy Jordan

Lora is the daughter of Cary and Donna Headstream and the granddaughter of Margie and Aubrey Headstream. She is a 1993 graduate of Haskell High School and is completing her freshman year at Texas Woman's University where she is majoring in home economics.

Jeremy is the son of Mike and Julia Jordan of Haskell. A 1992 graduate of Haskell High School, he is employed by H&J Mechanical in Rule, installing and servicing Carrier products.

Lora and Jeremy hope that everyone will share the happiness they have found with one another at 6 p.m. on May 14 at the Haskell Church of Christ.

TAX PLANNING

Written By
James E. Rodgers, CPA

EMPLOYING HOUSEHOLD WORKERS CREATES TAX LIABILITY

Though Congress talked a good deal about changing the tax rules affecting domestic workers, there still has been no change in the requirements that got so many politicians in hot water last year.

If you employ household workers, you should be aware of the tax requirements governing their wages. If you pay $50 or more per quarter to anyone for performing services in your home, you are required to pay FICA (social security and Medicare) taxes of 15.3% on the wages. You should require the worker to pay half the taxes (7.65%), but if you don't withhold the employee's share from his or her wages, you are still responsible for the total 15.3%. You may also be liable for other payroll taxes, such as federal and state unemployment tax.

If the services are not provided at your home or if the provider is an independent contractor, you are not considered an employer and are not subject to these requirements. If you engage an agency or service who provides workers to perform services for you (and the agency hires, fires, and pays the workers), it is generally the agency's responsibility to take care of payroll taxes.

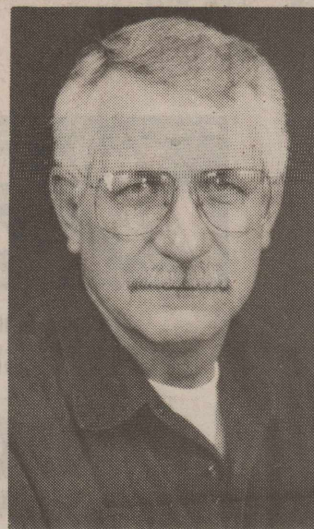

Some household workers resist any tax withholding or reporting to the IRS because they want their take-home pay to be higher. However, when the worker applies for unemployment or social security benefits, your failure to comply with the law may come to light. You could be held responsible for back taxes, plus interest and penalties.

Congress may get around to dealing with this issue in 1994, but there's no guarantee. In the meantime, if you need details on the requirements or assistance with the tax filings, please contact our office.
