Westland Amusements opened June 1 and will continue through Saturday. The carnival opens at 6 p.m. each day.

Tonight (Thursday) will be family night with unlimited rides for $7 per person.

Swimming pool hours announced

Hours at the swimming pool are 2 to 8 p.m. on Tuesday, and from 2 to 6 p.m. Wednesday through Sunday. The pool will be closed on Mondays.

Rule pastor to leave for Estonia

The Rev. Stewart Farrell of the First Baptist Church in Rule will leave June 8 for Estonia. Estonia is south of Finland, across the Baltic Sea.

Farrell is among six making the trip from the association, including Mike Smith, director of missions.

They will be involved in construction work during most of their 10-day stay.

They will be refurbishing and completing a Baptist Seminary that was built before World War II, but never completed.

They also will be leading Bible studies and preaching and speaking as opportunities present themselves.

Farrell will be taking some gifts to the Estonians that are representative of Texas.

Commodities due next week

The Aspermont Small Business Development Center will distribute USDA surplus commodities in Haskell County next week.

The schedule calls for distributions in Rochester on Tuesday, Sagerton on Wednesday and Rule and Haskell on Thursday.

In Haskell, the food will be distributed from 8 to 10 a.m. at the Experienced Citizens Center.

Beautification project

The newly organized Haskell County Hospital Auxiliary planted flowers at the hospital last week to help make patients and family members feel better. Some members were not able to attend. The flowers were purchased from Allison Farm Supply. The Auxiliary is seeking more members. Anyone interested may call 864-2271 or the hospital.

Celebrity dinner and auction scheduled for Saturday night

The American Heart Association could accomplish virtually nothing toward reducing disability and death from cardiovascular diseases and stroke without the public's financial contributions.

Haskell area citizens will have opportunity Saturday to help toward further scientific research toward these goals when the local chapter of AHA sponsors a Celebrity Celebration Dinner and Silent Auction. It begins at 7 p.m. in the American Legion building in Haskell.

A donation of $10 will admit one to the evening of festivities. Guests will be served steak dinners, complete with all the trimmings, by local "celebrities." These celebrities will attempt to garnish tips to raise additional money for the association.

The silent auction also will be a part of the evening's fun and fellowship. Items for auction will include motel and resort lodging, theme park tickets, tickets to sports events, theatre tickets, autographed items from noted sports figures, musical artists and actors and actresses.

A couple of big-name items will be auctioned "live" at the end of the evening. Other surprises are in store for those attending.

All money from the dinner and auction will be used to benefit the American Heart Association.

For more information, contact Mary Rike (864-2332), Kim Meredith (864-3950) or Abe Turner (864-3284).

Junior golf clinic next week

A junior golf clinic is scheduled Tuesday and Wednesday (June 7-8) at the Haskell Country Club, to be followed on June 9 by a junior golf tournament.

The clinic on Tuesday and Wednesday will be from 9 to 11 a.m. for 13-17-year-olds. The 12 and under age group will meet from 1 to 3 p.m.

Registration for the Thursday tournament will begin at 8 a.m. and play begins at 8:30.

For more information, call 864-3400 or 864-3490.

Board appointments made by Council

Board appointments, discussion of a co-op road project and naming a city attorney highlighted last week's meeting of the Haskell City Council.

Nick Jimenez was appointed to the Housing Authority, Kim Meredith and Jill Druessedow were re-appointed to co-chair the recycling committee, E. J. Stewart was re-appointed to the water board and Ruby Turner was appointed to the ambulance board.

The Council also voted to retain Bill Jones as city attorney and changed the meeting time of regular meetings to 5:30 p.m. on the second and fourth Mondays of the month.

The Council tabled a request to join the county and country club in providing the funds for re-paving of the road to the country club. The proposal called for each to provide $5,000 of the $15,000 cost.

City administrator Sam Watson told the Council that the county has loaned one of its older cars to the city to be used as a vehicle for the fire chief, resulting in a one-percent discount on the fire key rate. The car was painted by Bobby Hanson for the cost of the paint.

Watson also reported that the city will earn a 5-percent key rate reduction by having three firemen attending fire school this summer at Texas A&M.

Mayor Ken Lane told council members that it is his understanding that Haskell can qualify for a Type 4 landfill almost immediately. This type of landfill can accept anything except putrescible materials and must be covered only once a week. I could accept such waste as old furniture, tree limbs and construction materials. White goods (refrigerators, stoves, etc.) could be stacked there.

The Council asked the mayor to check into the feasibility of this type of landfill.

The Council adjourned into executive session to discuss the LULAC suit against the City.

Haskell High School yearbook dedicated to Gerald McCoy

Haskell High School's yearbook, The Chieftain, was dedicated to Gerald McCoy, former principal and science teacher, at a May 20 ceremony at the flagpole.

Editor-in-chief Andrea Bridwell, flanked by the yearbook staff, made the official presentation.

A surprised Mr. McCoy stepped forward to accept the honor, shaking his head in disbelief.

"We sort of told him he was there to say a few words about someone else," said Jill Druessedow, Chieftain advisor. "He seemed totally surprised."

The yearbook has not been dedicated to an individual in many years.

"We wanted to honor Mr. McCoy because of his dedication to our school," Bridwell said. "His philosophy also seemed to fit our theme of 'It's not the easy, it's the Haskell way.'"

The dedication reads:

"The yearbook staff proudly dedicates the 1994 Chieftain to Gerald McCoy. At one time, the words Haskell High School and Gerald McCoy were almost synonyms.

"This ramrod straight, grey-haired educator spent 35 years in the Haskell school system making a difference.

"Whether as science teacher, as administrator, or as the voice of the Haskell Indians during football season, Mr. McCoy focused always on students and their education.

"The former college professor expected his students to be committed to learning, to performing their best, and to remembering their manners. His students later were successful in college science classes because of his teaching, and many of his students entered science-related fields because of his influence.

"While Mr. McCoy's way was never the easy way, it was the Haskell way."

Jennifer Comedy

Comedy to compete in state contest

Jennifer Comedy will compete June 8 in the Texas 4-H Fashion Show at Texas A&M University in College Station.

For her winning ensemble Jennifer constructed an Oregon Trail jacket and a hunter green corduroy straight skirt and long-sleeve, oversized cotton shirt.

The jacket is made of mauve polished cotton and is covered with patchwork designs of various shades of green, pink and purple. To add a unique "style" to the jacket, Jennifer used ultra suede trim.

She qualified for the state event by winning in county and district competitions.

Business group seeks new members

By Ed Walling

A membership drive is now underway for the Haskell Business Association. A Total of 67 letters were recently mailed out to Haskell businesses.

The drive is going real well and several have joined to keep the "aliveness" of Haskell going.

Before the mail-out, there were 33 members active on the list. The businesses are:

Barbara's, Boggs & Johnson, The Carousel, Carpet Express, Conner's, Country Daizie, The Drug Store, F&D Electronics, Fieldan Inn, First National Bank, Frazier's Appliance, Haskell Free Press, Haskell National Bank, Haskell Tire & Appliance, Hassen's, Heads or Tails Western Wear, Heidenheimer's.

Holden-McCauley Funeral Home, KVRP Radio, Kay's Cleaners, Lanco Insurance, Lane-Felker, M System, Modern Way, McGee's Lumber Yard, Nanny Plumbing, Richardson's Case/IH/True Value, The Slipper Shoppe, Smitty's Auto Supply, Sport About, State Farm Insurance, Toliver Chevrolet & Olds and Bill Wilson Motor Co.

Businesses that have recently joined are Johnson Pharmacy, Cecil's Country Meat Market, Hatahoe, G&G Carpets and West Texas Utilities. Several are still considering membership.

At our April meeting, we voted on taking individual memberships for $5 per month. Several individuals wanted to be a part of the "aliveness" of Haskell since they did not own a business. The association is greatly appreciative for this interest and concern.

We need your help and projects for the betterment of our town. Our leaders, businesses and volunteer workers need to be congratulated for a job well done.

If you were mailed a letter or not and would like to join, please contact Ed Walling (864-3845) or Barbara Harris (864-3238).

A donation to the Haskell Business Association was made by William D. McSmith, Jr., D.O. (Hospital Clinic). Thanks.

Goals are as essential to success as air is to life. (David Schwartz)

The family of Carrie Kimbrough Osment would like to thank our family and friends for the beautiful floral tributes, phone calls, cards, delicious food, and visits during this very sad time in our lives. Our special thanks to Alene Bredthauer, Reba Cheyne, Faye Simpson, Cindy Guess, the lovely staff of Haskell Healthcare, and Dr. McSmith, for their loving care of our mother during her last and final journey home. The service was lovely and we appreciate Dr. Troy Culppepper for the message; Randy McLelland and Lyndle Reeves for the beautiful music; the ladies of the First Baptist Church for the delicious noon meal; also, Phylecia Bailey and Rev. ## TAX PLANNING

Written By
Gerald Rodgers, CPA

Tax Planning Should Include Estate Planning

It's just not true that estate taxes are only a concern of the very wealthy. In fact, you are potentially exposed to estate taxes at rates beginning at a whopping 37% if the value of your estate exceeds $600,000. (In effect, you have a $600,000 exclusion before the tax kicks in.) The $600,000 threshold can easily be surpassed by many middle class families that simply own a nice home and have adequate life insurance coverage. Other assets that can push you over the threshold include retirement plan accounts, closely held business interests, and your cars, furnishings, collectibles, etc. Remember, what makes the estate tax so nasty is that it starts at a 37% rate.

The good thing about estate taxes is that thoughtful estate tax planning can greatly reduce and often eliminate the IRS's bite. An estate tax plan is simply a series of steps that allows you to carry out your wishes regarding the disposition of your wealth in a manner that minimizes estate taxes.

For example, a married couple with assets worth up to $1,200,000 can often arrange things so that each spouse can take advantage of the $600,000 exclusion. The couple can then transfer all that they own without paying any federal estate taxes. In the worst case scenario, where the entire $1,200,000 is included in the estate of one spouse, the IRS would collect $235,000 in estate tax. With even minor planning, the $235,000 could have gone to the couple's heirs instead.

The above is a simple example. In real life, estate planning is usually more complex. But the bottom line is that good estate planning can often save big tax dollars—and who isn't interested in that?

Rule class of '64 have get-together

Five of the 10 girls who were seniors together at Rule High School in 1964 met over the Memorial Day weekend for a 30-year reunion at the home of Sharon Fischer in Richardson.

Attending were Lana Bell Davis of Houston, Estell Wampler Reed of Cleveland, Texas, Sharon Fischer of Richardson, Elaine Elmore Holcomb of Rule and Louetta Barbee Davis of Haskell.

The remaining five had unexcused absences and received demerits. They were Dolores Stryker Lee of Forney, Betty Andrews Sorrells of Rule, Carol Sue White McGee of Haskell, Pauletta Cox Moore of Knox City and Missy Denton Henry of Pleasanton.

They looked at old and recent pictures, read the class will and prophecy, and share old and new memories. Estelle Wampler Reed made each lady a beautiful Friendship Love Knot to commemorate the event. They also visited the John F. Kennedy Memorial Center, which was one of the points of interest on their senior trip 30 years ago.

Plans were made for their Homecoming Reunion on Saturday, Nov. 5, at the Philadelphia Club House in Rule following the Homecoming general assembly. All friends and teachers of the class are invited to stop by. If anyone knows the address or location of anyone that was ever in this class, please contact Louetta Davis (864-3340) or Elaine Holcomb (864-2181).

The women are planning to get together every Memorial Day weekend and revisit a point of interest on their "Tour of Texas Seniors Trip 1964."

They departed Monday afternoon for their respective homes and are looking forward to next year's get-together at Wimberly, outside of Austin.

Croatia: Past And Present

(NAPS)—Though historians believe the land now called Croatia was inhabited back in the stone age, and later, part of the Roman Empire, not much is known about the place or its people until the seventh century when Slavic tribes, especially the Croats, moved in.

Over the centuries, the country was part of the Byzantine, Hungarian, Ottoman and Austrian empires. It enjoyed a brief independence after the first World War but was occupied by Germany and Italy during World War II and became part of communist Yugoslavia thereafter.

Today, the newly independent country of Croatia is an important economic factor in the new Europe, particularly in cooperation with its neighbors of Austria, Greece, central Europe and near-by Italy and Spain.

Gospel singers perform Saturday

A gospel singing program, featuring The Huckabas of Irving will be hosted Saturday night by the First Assembly of God of Haskell. The program begins at 7:30.

The Huckaba family consists of three vocalists and a four-piece band. Johnny Huckaba sings lead and plays rhythm guitar. He also is a song writer.

Regina, Johnny's oldest daughter, sings soprano and plays piano for the group. Shereen, youngest daughter, sings the alto part, and Brett, the youngest son, serves as the group's drummer. Michael Huckaba, Johnny's nephew, plays bass guitar.

The Huckaba Family, originally known as the Spiritual Sounds, is celebrating its 20th year in gospel music. The group, which has four gospel recordings, performs at churches, concerts, banquets and other functions in all parts of Texas, as well as other states.

years, 1990-94. Johnny was named "Mr. Gospel Music" in 1990, 1992 and 1994.

The group sings a number of newer songs as well as old favorites.

Public Notice

On March 23, 1994, GTE and Contel ("The Companies") filed applications with the Public Utility Commission of Texas ("PUC") to restructure the Companies' Switched Transport rate category and reduce the Carrier Common Line (CCL) charge of its Switched Access Service. The tariff sheets in GTE and Contel's applications, if approved, will bring the Companies' state access tariffs into structural parity with their interstate tariffs for the Local Transport rate category, which became effective on December 30, 1993.

GTE and Contel propose to implement the new tariffs on a revenue neutral basis. The Local Transport category of GTE and Contel's Switched Access Service is primarily for interexchange carriers.

Persons who wish to intervene should file a motion for intervention with the PUC by June 17, 1994 with reference to Docket No. 12866 (GTE) and/or 12865 (Contel). Requests for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757, or call the Public Utility Commission Public Information Office at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227 or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

D-DAY

JUNE 6, 1944 - JUNE 6, 1994

By Senator Phil Gramm

The greatest invasion force ever assembled stood off the French coast as dawn broke on June 6, 1944: 9 battleships, 23 cruisers, 104 destroyers and hundreds of troop transports, 5,000 ships bearing 100,000 men.

The naval bombardment that began at 5:50 that morning was the first assault on five beaches code-named Utah and Omaha for the Americans to the west, and Sword, Juno and Gold for the British and Canadians to the east.

Another 195,700 sailors fired guns, ferried supplies and cared for the wounded on the ships and landing craft in the English Channel, while 31,000 airmen flew bombing runs and reconnaissance missions.

The attack had been long in coming. From the moment British forces were thrown into the sea at Dunkirk in the face of stunning German attack, military strategists had planned a return to the Continent. Only then would the Allies be able to confront the enemy's power directly on the ground.

During the first months of 1944 the United States and Great Britain concentrated land, naval and air forces in England to prepare for the operation, named "Overlord."

The day before, five-foot swells and low clouds compelled General Dwight D. Eisenhower, commander-in-chief of the Allied Expeditionary Force, to postpone the assault to the 6th.

Airborne units led the invasion. Just past midnight, the U.S. 82nd and 101st Airborne Divisions dropped near Ste. Mere-Eglise and Carentan to secure roads and beach exits from which the U.S. VII Corps could push to capture Cherbourg.

By first light, the entire horizon off Normandy was filled with the Allied armada. The massive naval arsenal began bombarding German positions along the tops of the cliffs, and 2,000 planes bombed the beaches.

The landing by regiments of the 1st and 29th Infantry Divisions and Army Rangers on Omaha Beach was wrenching. The first wave landing at 6:30 a.m. found the beach was a tangle of obstructions. Enemy guns fired down from cliffs and concrete cones, logs tilted seaward and slanted poles strewn across the narrow strip of beach thwarted the assault at the water's edge for much of the morning.

Mid-morning reports painted such a bleak picture of battlefield conditions that Lt. Gen. Omar Bradley considered pulling off the beach and landing the troops elsewhere. Losses had been high — 2,500 men killed in action — but if chaos ruled at first, raw courage asserted itself and by day's end, Americans controlled Omaha Beach.

The Utah Beach landings took place about a mile south of the planned target, an error that helped the U.S. 4th Infantry Division by reducing the losses. Landings in the British and Canadian sectors also went well.

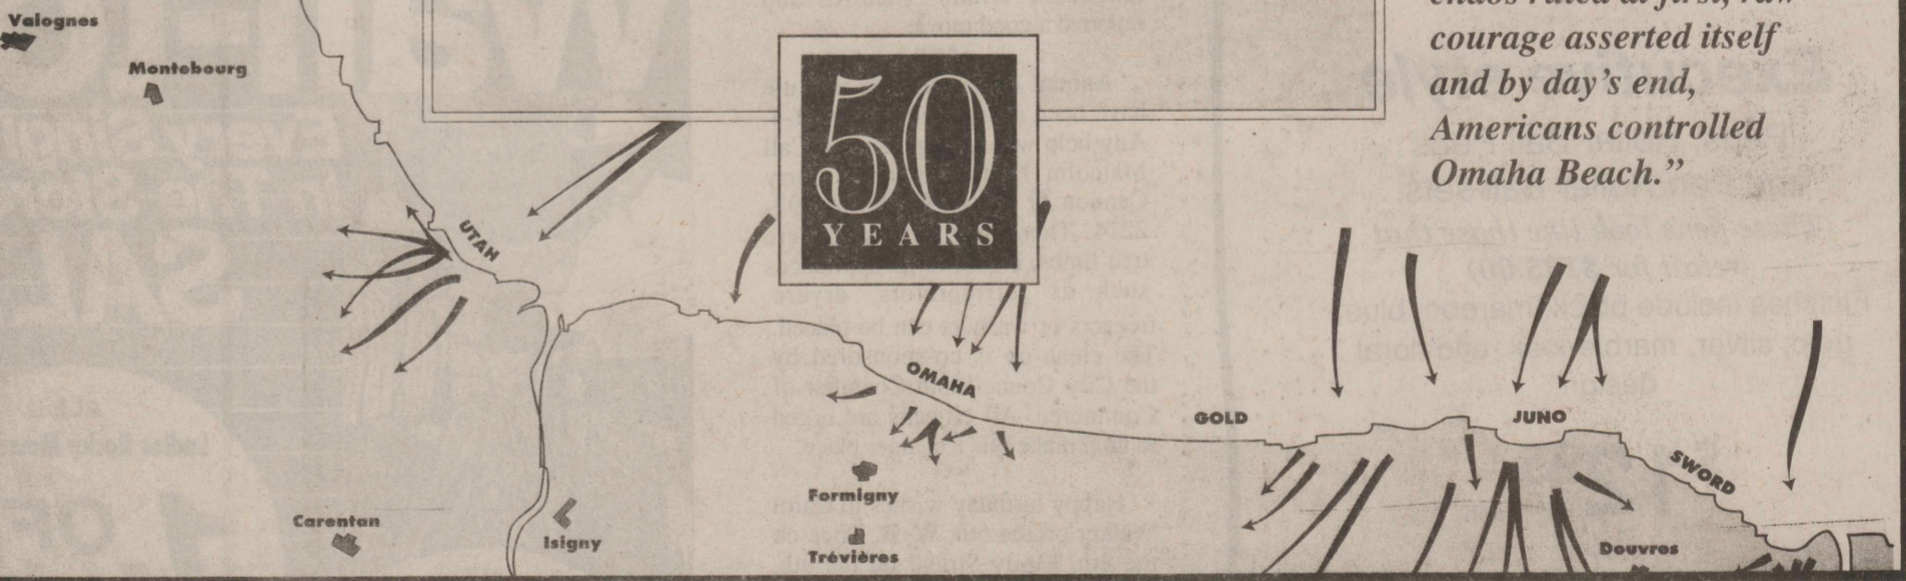

By the evening of June 6, 1944, Allied power had prevailed all across the Normandy coast. The Americans had yet to surge far enough inland to prevent enemy artillery from hitting the supply depots and unloading points they were building along the beaches, yet more than 100,000 men were ashore, the first of millions who would follow.

As the sun set on Normandy that Tuesday, few who were fighting the war realized what they had achieved that day: the beginning of the end.

"Airborne units led the invasion. Just past midnight, the U.S. 82nd and 101st Airborne Divisions dropped near Ste. Mere-Eglise and Carentan to secure roads and beach exits from which the U.S. VII Corps could push to capture Cherbourg."

School is nearly over and students are getting ready to start hunting for summer jobs--some for the first time.

One thing to remember is that job applicants will need to show an employer-to-be their Social Security card.

Most young people whose parents claim them as dependents for income tax purposes already have a Social Security number--as the law requires. But if you have never had a Social Security number, you'll need to apply for one. If you are 18 or older, you'll need to apply in person at your local Social Security office.

If your card has been lost or stolen, you can get an application for a free replacement card by calling the toll-free number, 1-800-772-1213, any time of the day. Or you can visit your local office.

Providing the correct name and Social Security number to your employer ensures that you will get credit for your earnings and that your Social Security earnings record will be correct. Your future benefits will be based on this record, so it's important that it accurately reflects all of your earnings.

Workers can check their earnings by completing a Personal Earnings and Benefit Estimate request form available from Social Security. Just call the toll-free telephone number and ask for this form.

Study club has final meeting

The final meeting of the 1993-94 club year of the Progressive Study Club was held May 26 in the community room.

The traditional salad supper was enjoyed by the two charter members, Anita Herren and Frances Lane; almost all of the active and life members; and special guests, past presidents and new officers of the Mesquite District and several Texas Federation officers.

The theme was "A Federation Celebration." Nancy Toliver, past first vice president, called the meeting to order and expressed her delight that so many guests had come since the theme was "Honoring the officers of the Past, the officers of Today, and the officers of Tomorrow."

Billie Cannon gave the invocation, and a delicious meal was enjoyed.

The tables were arranged in a square "U" and covered with ecru cloths. The head table contained an arrangement of Texas bluebonnets with accents of red, white and blue in a red basket. Mary Kaigler did the arranging.

The other tables were decorated with white balloons and red lanterns. The registry and serving tables also contained arrangements of bluebonnets and greenery in attractive baskets. The piano had a red, white and blue throw draped across it, a red, white and blue stuffed toy, a stick horse and blue boots. Franciene Johnson was in charge of these arrangements. She was aided by Kay Croft, Jo Nored Lane, Sue Medford, Kim Meredith and Margie Huss.

Nancy Toliver began the program by having Ruby Holt introduce the guests for "A Federation Celebration." They were past presidents of Mesquite District: Marie Ward, Phoenix Club, Aspermont, 1960-62; Anita Herren, Haskell, 1962-64; Erma Liles, Haskell, 1964-66; Lena McGee, Knox City Study Club, 1978-80; Dorothy Drain, Pyrean Club, Stamford, 1984-86; Winifred White, Knox City, 1988-90; Louise Massey, Stamford, 1990-92; and Janoma Stephens, Knox City, 1994-96.

Mrs. Kaigler also introduced the new officers of Mesquite District: President, Sherri Mitchell of Albany; president-elect, Almeda Young of Hamlin; second vice-president, Mary Kaigler of Haskell; secretary, Alminice Harrison of Stamford; and treasurer, Louise Massey of Stamford.

The Texas Federation of Women's Club's officers were also introduced: President, Dorothy Kemp of Corpus Christi, and recording secretary, Janoma Stephens of Knox City. Another guest was Frances Dear of Knox City. Mrs. Kemp had driven from Corpus Christi.

Remarks were made about the usefulness of Federation to create friendships, the dedication to unity through individual diversity, and the importance of ecology.

The summer workshop will be held in Stamford on July 13. The changes and latest news should be available by that time. Reporting on club activities and projects is of great importance. Anita Herren, Federation counselor, spoke of how much is accomplished when efforts are combined, like doubling the thread when sewing on a button.

The installation of new officers was unusual and entertaining and given by Erma Liles. The theme was "Home on the Range." She showed the branding irons used by her father, and she "branded" the letters in the word, "federation", such as education, dedication, enjoyment, enlargement, reporting, talent, time, international and unity in diversity, as she also "branded" Oleta Cornelius "foreman" president; Nancy Toliver, assistant foreman, first vice president; Jerrene Couch, wrangler, second vice president; Ruby Turner, record keeper of incidents and accidents, recording secretary; Jill Druessedow, corresponding secretary; Doris Reeves Jordan, dealer of the "green"; treasurer; Helen Fouts, historian of "The Spread"; and Donna Cole, right-hand aid to the president, board member.

The charge to all was learn, labor and love. Each officer had a beautiful bracelet from Erma's own collection placed on her wrist to symbolize that she had been "branded" for her task.

Erma was dressed in a red cowgirl hat, red dress and red boots. The outgoing officers received gifts of small ceramic pots of ivy from President Cornelius, who was unable to attend.

The yearbook was one of the top three chosen by the state committee. Jerrene Couch announced that the yearly fundraising project, the chicken spaghetti supper, would be held Oct. 14.

The club voted to aid the Red Cross by having the telephone committee call past donors who have given blood. Each is to keep account of the time spent.

Treasurer Jordan made a motion that donations be given to the Cemetery Association for 1993-94 and the same for 1994-95. The motion carried.

The yearbook committee to assist vice president Toliver is Eva Dunnam, Judy Patterson, Thula Perry, Sue Medford and Margie Huss.

The closing was the singing of the Federation song, "Daughters of Freedom's Land," led by Donna Cole.

Group discusses long-range needs

Critical issues facing county residents over the next five years were discussed April 28 when 19 "key individuals", who are knowledgeable about the issues and people of the community met.

Issues, related to the Texas Agricultural Extension Service's statewide goals included those:

- affecting the health, safety, productivity and well-being of people,
- affecting the stewardship of the environment and the natural resources of the county and state,
- affecting economic competitiveness, viability and stability in the county, and
- important to the development of life skills and leadership qualities in youth and adults.

The group selected nine major issues to include in the Haskell County Long Range Extension Program that will be developed in the county extension office during the next three months.

Participating were Steve Alsabrook, Bob Aycock, Glenn Brzozowski, Joetta Burnett, Lynn Dale Dudensing, Odene Dudensing, Andy and Christye Gannaway, Sharee Gardner, Dalyn Griffith, Richard and Mickey Holloway, Steve Lehrmann, Kim Meredith, Bill Nemir, Usha Patel, Myrtle Phemister, Mildred Robertson and Alice Yates.

Pecan producers should check trees

It is time for pecan producers to begin conducting surveys for the destructive pecan nut casebearer. Casebearer eggs are just visible to the naked eye and are greenish white when first deposited. They become a reddish color before hatching.
 When eggs are found, trees should be tagged and inspected daily. Eggs hatch in four to five days after they are deposited. The larvae migrate to buds below the nutlets where they feed for one to two days before entering the nutlet.
 Estimated spraying dates should be set five to eight days after eggs are found. The pecan nut casebearer larvae should be killed before they enter the nutlet. Once inside, they are protected until they emerge from the nutlet.
 A second insecticide application may be required where eggs are found and nutlet damage continues seven to 10 days after the first insecticide application. This is especially true in case of a hard one-half inch or more rain which will reduce spray residues by 40 to 60 percent.
 Currently, the estimated spraying dates for the Haskell County area are from May 29 to June 4.

 For more information concerning the pecan nut casebearer, contact County Agent Max Stapleton at 864-2658.

Haskell native's book is published

Northwest Publishing Co. of Salt Lake City has notified Haskell native Gene Mullins that publication of his western novel, Dog Bark, is imminent. The book should be available to bookstores by June 2.
Dog Bark, set in the 1880s in the Haskell area, is Mullins' first published work. He has written four other novels that are scheduled for publication in the near future. Two are westerns: Bear Paw, a sequel to Dog Bark, and Kill the Man Again, which continues the story of some of the characters. Weeds and Thorns is a modern romantic mystery and The 8:45 Booger Bear, a murder mystery, also are set in Texas.

Mullins, a 1959 graduate of Haskell High School and a former teacher and coach, is now working on Buffalo Horn, a saga of the Kiowa Indian nation in the 19th century. He also plans a further historical novel about the tribe, Kiowa Koitsenko.
 Mullins has spent years studying the history of Texas and the native Americans of the area. He and his wife, Beth Wasserman Mullins, collect western and Indian art and artifacts.
 Mullins is a retired teacher and coach who taught history, government, geography and economics to high school students in Marlin and Navasota.

ARTICLE IV DIRECTORS

Section 4.01. NUMBER AND GENERAL POWERS. The business and affairs of the Cooperative shall be managed by a Board of seven (7) directors. The Board shall exercise all of the powers of the Cooperative except such as are by law or by the Cooperative's Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws conferred upon or reserved to the members.

SECTION 4.02. QUALIFICATIONS. No member shall be eligible to become a director or to hold any position of trust in the Cooperative who is not a member receiving service from the Cooperative at his primary residential abode in the area served by the Cooperative, or is in any way employed by or financially interested in a competing enterprise or a business selling electric energy or supplies to the Cooperative, or a business primarily engaged in selling electrical or plumbing appliances, fixtures or supplies to the members of the Cooperative, and no person shall take or hold office as a director who is the incumbent of or candidate for an elective public office in connection with which a salary is paid. When a membership is held jointly by a husband and wife, either one, but not both may be elected as director, provided however, that neither one shall be eligible to become or remain a director or to hold a position of trust in the Cooperative unless both shall meet the qualifications herein above set forth. Any director who shall miss three (3) Board of Directors' meetings in a row, without an excuse duly accepted and noted by the Board, shall lack eligibility to further serve and it shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to remove him from the Board. Any employee who resigns or retires from employment by the Cooperative shall not be eligible to serve as a director for a period of ten (10) years following such resignation or retirement. In the event an incumbent director, having served on the Board of Directors a minimum of six years, ceases to meet the requirement of receiving service from the Cooperative at his primary residential abode, such incumbent director shall nevertheless be qualified to continue to serve as director so long as he remains a member of the Cooperative and his primary residential abode is located within the area served by the Cooperative, or in close proximity thereto.

Directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast unless the members in advance of any balloting resolve that a majority of the votes cast shall be required to elect, and this Bylaw provision shall be drawn to the attention of the members and explained to them prior to any balloting. Drawing by lot shall resolve, where necessary, any tie vote.

SECTION 4.04. TENURE. The business and affairs of the Cooperative shall be managed by a Board of seven (7) directors which shall exercise all of the powers of the Cooperative except such that are by law, or by the Articles of Incorporation of the Cooperative, or by these Bylaws conferred upon or reserved to the members. SECTION 4.05. NOMINATIONS. It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to appoint, not less than sixty (60) nor more than ninety (90) days prior to the date of a meeting of the members at which directors are to be elected, a Committee on Nominations, consisting of not less than five (5) nor more than eleven (11) members of the Cooperative who are not existing Cooperative employees, agents, officers, directors or known candidates for director, who are not close relatives (as hereinafter defined) or members of the same household of such existing employees, agents, officers, directors or known candidates for director, and who are so selected so as to give equitable representation on the committee to the geographical areas served or to be served by the Cooperative. The Committee shall prepare and post at the principal office of the Cooperative at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting a list of nominations for directors to be elected. ## Who Says Work Can't Be Fun?

Okay, so a full day of hauling isn't everyone's idea of fun. But it can be a little easier with the Polaris 2 x 4 400L. With a new 400 engine that's liquid-cooled to take on more work. You also get a 200-watt alternator, 12 volt DC outlet and speedometer. And the renowned no-shift Polaris Variable Transmission (PVT), with new E-Z shift high, low and low range reverse. It's still work, but at least quitting time comes faster.

Polaris ATV's may not be ridden by anyone under 18, and all riders should take a safety course. For safety and training information, see your dealer or call Polaris at 1-800-POLARIS. ATV's can be hazardous to operate. For your safety, never carry passengers, and never ride on paved surfaces or public roads.

Vaccine Against Pneumonia: People who are at risk for pneumonia—those older than 65 and those with chronic kidney disease, diabetes, heart disease, or other disorders that may lower immunity—should receive a pneumonia vaccination. The vaccine, which protects against pneumococcal bacteria strains that cause 88% of all cases of pneumonia, usually needs to be administered only once. It does not protect against viral pneumonia or Pneumocystis carinii, the type of pneumonia commonly found in people with AIDS.
