Most airlines are boosting the number of miles a passenger must fly to earn a free flight, from 20,000 to 25,000.

Translation: It's going to cost you more to fly free.

Do school kids still have to memorize The American's Creed?

I did in about the fourth or fifth grade. As I remember history, a national magazine conducted a contest 70 or 80 years ago in which readers were asked to submit entries.

William Tyler Page used parts of several historic literary gems to come up with this winning entry:

THE AMERICAN'S CREED

"I believe in the United States of America as a Government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

"I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies."

The Rio Grande which forms the entire Texas-Mexico border is the state's longest river. From El Paso to the Gulf of Mexico near Brownsville, the Great River rambles for 1,896 miles.

Next in length is Red River, which forms most of the state's northern border with Oklahoma. The Red's length is 1,360 miles.

The state's third longest river is the Brazos, measuring 840 miles. The Colorado is 600 miles and the Trinity 550.

Next come the Neches (416 miles), Sabine (360), Nueces (315), Guadalupe (250), San Antonio (180) and San Jacinto (85).

Boy Scouts help club plant shrubs

Boy Scouts of the Cowboy Patrol of Troop 136 cooperated with members of the Haskell Garden Club in planting shrubs in front of the Haskell Post Office to celebrate National Garden Club Week, June 5-11.

With the help of assistant scoutmaster Kenneth Patton, Craig Cunningham, Dawson Druessedow, Kevin Patton, Jason Trammell and Brent Watson dug the numerous holes for the shrubs, then added the soil mix before planting.

Garden club members participating were Mona Gibson, president, Linda King, Marion Carlisle and Florence Peden.

Once established, the shrubs should lend year-round color for all to enjoy.

Burleson 'pilot' takes third title

For the third year in a row, Roger Cirelli of Burleson won the overall fun fly championship at the Texas Chiefs Model Airplane Club's Open House and Fun Fly last weekend.

And for the same three years, Bob Hawkins of Kress was the runnerup by a very small margin.

Such close and fierce competition was the theme of Saturday's events.

The third-place finisher in the open class was Bill Kunz of Denton.

Hawkins won the opening event--a challenging 10 touch and goes. John Rimmer of Victoria took the climb and glide event and was also winner of the plaque for the pilot coming the longest distance to compete. Fifteen loops was won by Cirelli. As a fitting climax, Hawkins, Cirelli and Kunz had identical 24-second times to tie in the 10 rolls event.

The novice class had Stanley Hash of Ralls edging Jimmy Kemp of Lockney.

The remainder of Saturday and all of Sunday were open to any type of planes. Pete Dubree and John Smith, both of San Angelo, put on a stirring aerial combat match with scale P-51 fighters. Their show included some very near collisions as they maneuvered through the sky.

Sunday afternoon, spectators and pilots selected their choices for the plaques. Bob Hawkins' beautiful Ryan ST trainer was chosen as best military plane. A Stinson SR-5 revived memories of aviation in the 30s and won best civilian plane award for R. L. Howard of Abilene.

Raffle winners were: Jim Belyeu of Plainview, radio; Cody Murphree of Rotan, kit; Alan Plumlee of Stamford, fuel pump; James Weaver of Throckmorton, Kwick Klip; and Rex Pittman of Haskell, gallon of fuel.

Enough merchandise was donated by the model industry that every entrant received some award.

The Texas Chiefs Model Airplane Club expressed its appreciation to the Haskell Chamber of Commerce for use of the PA system and people to help time, the City of Haskell for their cooperation, and to the local sponsors whose donations made this event possible.

Paint Creek ISD to care for kids

Paint Creek ISD will operate an "infant lab" during the 1994-95 school year.

Faculty members and school employees may pay to have their pre-school children cared for in the facility.

In addition, high school students may enroll in a Pre-Employment Laboratory Experience (PELE) course in which they will work in the facility while earning vocational credit through the home economics department.

All new equipment cannot be purchased due to lack of funds. Therefore, the school will appreciate the donation or loan of any spare infant furniture.

Items needed include: four cribs, changing table, high chair, rocking chair, waterproof mattresses, sheets for four cribs, other miscellaneous items for nursery.

"Please assist us in furnishing the facility to provide a service to Paint Creek teachers as well as to educate our students and prepare them to become experienced employees," said Cherry Pittcock, home economics teacher.

To make donations or loans, contact Ms. Pittcock, or Debbie Hobgood, 864-2471.

Applications for trooper available

The Texas Department of Public Safety is accepting applications for out-of-state applicants until July 15, and applications for in-state applicants until Aug. 19 for its December recruit school.

Following 23 weeks of intensive training, successful applicants will be commissioned as state troopers for the DPS, charged with enforcing traffic laws on rural Texas highways. Troopers investigate accidents, recover stolen vehicles and other property, seize illegal drugs, apprehend wanted persons and perform a variety of other law enforcement duties.

The DPS will consider applicants who are at least 20 years of age and have either 60 hours of college credits or prior military or law enforcement experience. An applicant must successfully complete a written examination, a physical exam, an agility test, oral interviews and a thorough background investigation before being accepted.

The DPS offers state benefits, and a starting salary for trooper-trainees (while in training) of $1,721 per month. Following graduation, troopers will be paid $1,938 per month, with a raise every six months for the first year. Commissioned officers also receive hazardous duty pay and monthly allowances. Uniforms and equipment are furnished.

For details, contact the nearest DPS office.

Davis Chapman TCU graduate

Charles Davis Chapman of Haskell was among 838 Texas Christian University students who completed degree requirements at the close of the 1994 spring semester.

Chapman, son of Charles Chapman and the late Peggy Chapman, graduated cum laude and received a bachelor of business administration degrees with a major in finance.

Jackpot playnight set for Saturday

The Haskell Horse Club will sponsor a jackpot playnight Saturday, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Events will include barrels, flags and poles. Competition will be in five age groups: 8 and under novice, 8 and under regular, 9 through 12, 13 through 15, and 16 through 19.

There also will be an open barrel race.

Highway roadsides to be mowed

Haskell County motorists will notice freshly mown roadsides in the coming weeks.

The Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT) has awarded contracts totalling $981,778.77 for mowing state rights of way in the Abilene district's 13 counties including Haskell.

Glenn Jennings, Haskell County maintenance supervisor, said the 1994 mowing contract for Haskell County, awarded to Elmo Martinez, Jr., of Jayton, totaled $55,727.

"We delay the start of mowing season until late spring each year to allow the wildflowers to seed properly so we'll continue to have flowers in the following spring," said Jennings.

"A later mowing also gives more time for ground nesting birds to develop and escape from the nest. The right of way grass area contains more nesting sights as compared to surrounding pasture and farm land."

In addition, Jennings said, TxDOT's mowing practices help preserve roadside gardens. Without supplemental watering and fertilization, frequent mowing puts undue stress on native grasses whereas grasses like Johnson grass and many noxious weeds can withstand frequent mowing.

The mowing schedule prescribed by the TxDOT vegetation management policies limits summer mowing to strip mowing and spot mowing, except in urban or high-traffic areas.

Strip mowing includes cutting grass along a 15-foot wide strip of roadway from the pavement's edge, thus providing motorists with adequate sight distances.

According to Bill Burnett, TxDOT executive director, the department's No. 1 consideration in roadside vegetation management is to improve motorist safety by providing adequate sight distances and overhead clearances. Other goals include enhancing environmental quality and reducing erosion damage to the road base.

"We all know that roadside vegetation does more than give us something pretty to look at," said Maribel Jaso, Abilene district engineer.

"The roots, stems and leaves of plants reduce erosion, keeping the road base from crumbling, Jaso said. "Also, grasses seven inches and taller act as water and air filters which is important for water and air quality. And, probably unknown to many, new federal laws require permanent grasses for controlling storm water runoff."

Contractors are scheduled to perform one full-width mowing and two strip mowings during the 1994 growing season.

Indians land six on all-district team

Six Haskell Indians were named last week to the 5-2A all-district baseball team and another Indian landed on the second team.

The Indians, therefore, had nearly half of the members on the 14-member all-district first team.

First-team selections included Shannon Meeks, pitcher; Chuckie Castillo, catcher; Cody Cypert and Jason Torres, infielders; and Chris Silvas and Jonathan Tatum, outfielders.

Infielder Casey Larned was a second-team choice.

Two other Indians received honorable mention, outfielder Stacy Walker and infielder Stephen Campbell, who was voted most valuable player by his teammates.

The Indians, playing baseball for only the second season after the baseball program was revived, were runnerup in district 5-2A, posting a 14-2 district record. They represented the district in the playoffs, losing to Cisco in bi-district.

Correction...

A garbled paragraph in the scholarship story in last week's Free Press improperly identified three of the awards.

Robert Huff was recipient of the $1,000 Herren scholarship (R. W. and Anita Herren). Wayne Hodgins and Trece Burson each received a $1,000 scholarship from the Haskell-Mattson-Weinert Ex-Students Association.

If the stem of a carnation plant is bent into the ground, it will form a new root.

Winning the Bacterial War: It seemed that humans were winning the war against infections, but the bacteria are fighting back and antibiotic resistance is becoming a major problem. The longer that antibiotics are used, the greater the chance that bacteria will find a way to resist the antibiotic effect. Other factors contributing to bacterial resistance include world travel, which introduces new strains of bacteria around the globe; the similarity of many antibiotics, which means that resistance developed to one may extend to others; and people not finishing their courses of antibiotics, thereby leaving some bacteria active.

Public Notice

On March 23, 1994, GTE and Contel ("The Companies") filed applications with the Public Utility Commission of Texas ("PUC") to restructure the Companies' Switched Transport rate category and reduce the Carrier Common Line (CCL) charge of its Switched Access Service. The tariff sheets in GTE and Contel's applications, if approved, will bring the Companies' state access tariffs into structural parity with their interstate tariffs for the Local Transport rate category, which became effective on December 30, 1993.

GTE and Contel propose to implement the new tariffs on a revenue neutral basis. The Local Transport category of GTE and Contel's Switched Access Service is primarily for interexchange carriers.

Persons who wish to intervene should file a motion for intervention with the PUC by June 17, 1994 with reference to Docket No. 12866 (GTE) and/or 12865 (Contel). Requests for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757, or call the Public Utility Commission Public Information Office at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227 or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Celebrity event

Editor: What a celebration!
Only in Haskell County could our Celebrity Celebration for the American Heart Association have been so successful.
The entire Board of Directors for the Haskell County Division would like to thank everyone for their hard work in making this event such a big success.

Our celebrity waiters spent a lot of time selling tickets and decorating the tables and collecting those all-important tips. The entertainment by Christye, Andy and Randy was great, and we appreciate the hard, hot work of our cooks, Max and Robbie. Our auction of items from celebrities was especially successful, thanks to Haskell's own auctioneer, Doyle High. We also want to thank the American Legion for the use of their building.
To all those who supported our celebration by buying tickets and bidding on auction items, we send a huge "Thank You." Hopefully through your support, more research and education in fighting heart disease can be funded.

by Vicky Anderson

May I ask a favor of my readers? If you have any news, please leave it at my home, or in Rule, at H&J Mechanical (where I will be working for the next week). Else, it can be left at one of my Rule daughters. Claire Halliburton knows our address, so you might want to call her. It becomes more difficult to obtain any Rule news since we have lived in Stamford two years now. Thank you so much!

A Memorial Day program was held in the Rule Cemetery at 7:30 p.m. There was a good attendance. Sorry that I do not have any details to give you.

There was a Ladies Night Out at the Rule Church of Christ on June 6. This is always an enjoyable evening.

Belated Happy Birthday is wished Gena Robinson, and Bertha McQuinn; and one is wished Faye Webb on the 10th, Danny Hisey on the 11th, Rick Kittley on the 14th, and Lavon Beakley on the 17th. Hope that Tom and Denise Turner had a happy anniversary on the 6th, that L. B. and Polly Cox will have one the 12th, Rick and Beth Kittley will have a good one on the 12th and Patrick and Brenda Pace on the 15th.

Denise Turner's mother had surgery recently, and is doing well. Her father is still having heat problems, and will return to his doctor in a few days. Ruth Wilcox continues to recover from gall bladder surgery. We wish these people a speedy recovery.

Our sincere sympathy is expressed to the families of Estelle McBay and Wendell Gomez.

Family night was held following Sunday night services at the Rule Church of Christ on May 29th. Later a meeting of the parents of the youth was held to discuss activities this summer. A former Ruleite, Tori Jenkins Miller and her husband, Kris will be helping with the youth work this summer. Kris is a native of Paducah, Kentucky. The Millers are both ACU students.

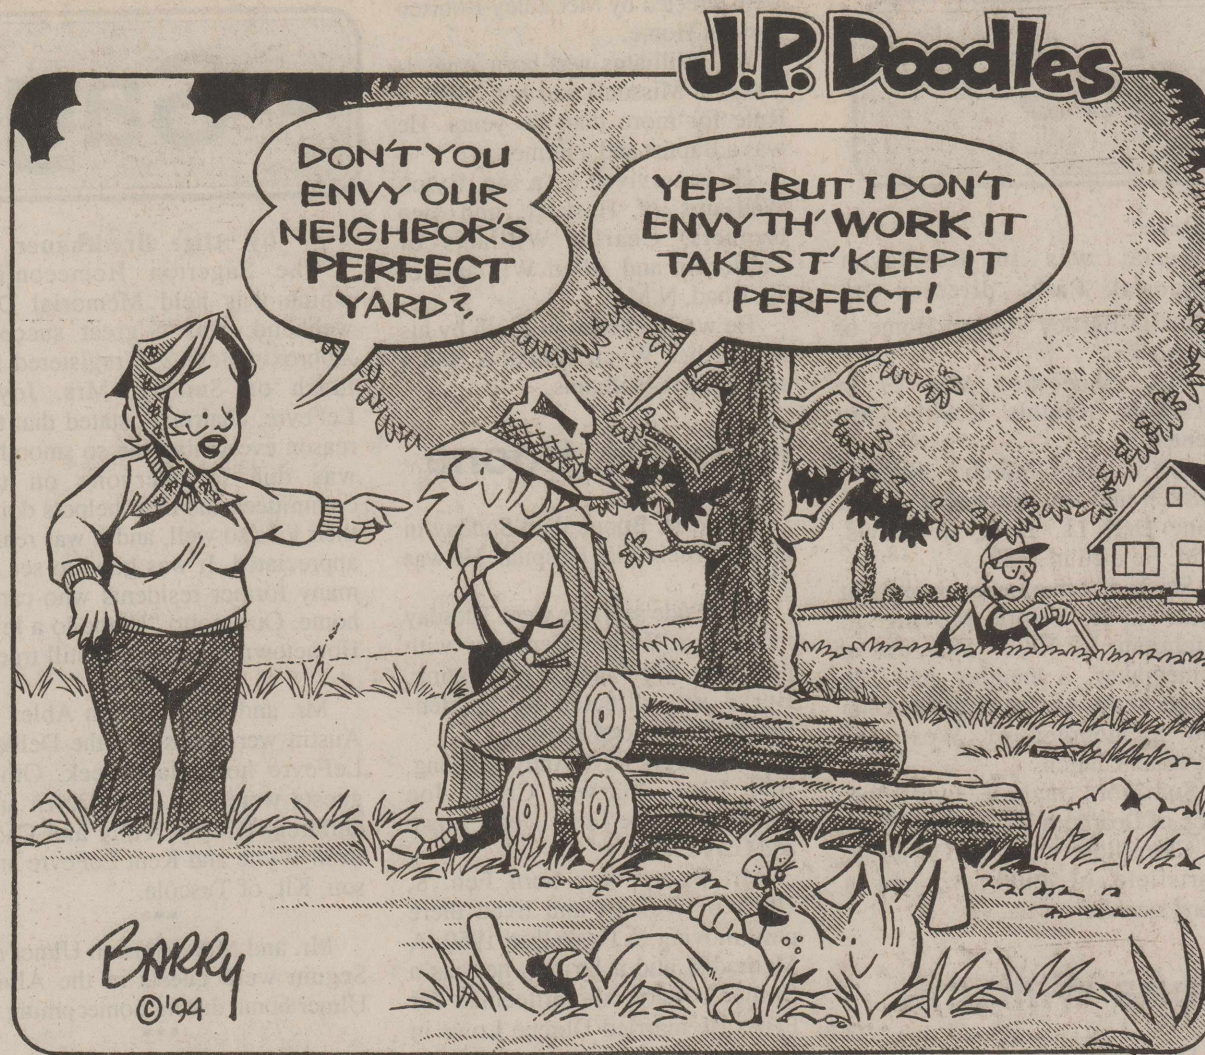

Our congratulations to former Rochester and Ruleite Venecia Elmore, who was salutatorian of her school's graduating class of 43 in Anna. She was a three year member of the Beta Club and president her senior year. Her parents are Pam and Eddie Elmore. She is the granddaughter of E. L. Elmore of Rule, Kathryn Adkins of Rochester and the late W. T. Adkins, and is the niece of Joyce Turner of Rule.

It was good to see Ruth Eaton at the Farmers National Bank in Rule on Monday. She told me that she has known my Rule sons-in-law for years, but only met my daughters on Saturday night. Recently saw sisters Helen Pinkard and June White and earlier had seen Cheryl Robison at a distance. On Monday it was nice to see Pearl Rinehart and Norva Smith at the bank.

Proclamation

Whereas, the gardeners of this country produce a multitude of foods for our people and enable us to export to other countries which are in desperate need; and
Whereas, our gardeners help to preserve and foster our traditional spirit of independence and individual initiative; and
Whereas, gardening instills in our people, both young and old, a greater appreciation for nature, in general, and for our beautiful land in particular; and
Whereas, such appreciation naturally leads to a greater respect and care for our environment; and
Whereas, gardening in addition to being most beneficial for our country, furnishes a pleasant and productive full or part-time activity for a large number of our citizens; and
Whereas, our gardens also yield flowers of great variety and breathtaking beauty; and
Whereas, these flowers bring beauty into our lives and satisfy our aesthetic needs;
now, therefore, be it
Resolved, that the week of June 5-11, 1994 be designated as National Garden Week.
Proclaimed by me on this 1st day of June, in the year of our Lord 1994.

The kiss of the sun
For pardon!
The song of the birds
For mirth,
One is near God's heart
When planting in the earth.
I paraphrased the little saying above.

June is the time to mulch chrysanthemums and check them carefully and feed them every two weeks with liquid fertilizer.
Also, plant zinnias, marigolds and cosmos for autumn brightness.
To keep chrysanthemums compact, pinch off the tip of each stem. Do this weekly until the middle of August.
Water roses thoroughly this summer, at least twice a week, if there has been scant rainfall.
To discourage black spot and mildew, water in the morning and avoid wetting the leaves. Fertilize all roses monthly with a good 5-10-10 per plant.
Caring for plants and flowerbeds in the summer can be a time-consuming job. There are not any short cuts to gardening. It is hard work.

I wasn't born with a certified green thumb or a degree in botany. I read a lot, trying to read the latest in gardening, and pass it on to you, my readers.
Providing and sharing gifts from my yard is one special way of pleasure that I really enjoy. I divide my flowers, and since I love their fragrances, I found this recipe for potpourri:

- 1 cup of pink rose petals
- 1/4 cup pink rose buds
- 1/2 cup lavender flowers
- 1/2 ounce rose geranium leaves
- 1/2 ounce blue delphinium leaves
- 4 tablespoons orris root powder
- 5 drops rose oil
- 2 drops lavender oil

Dry all the flowers and leaves until crisp, mix together in a large bowl or crock. Add the orris root powder. Mix well. Add the oils, one drop at a time, mixing well after each drop. Put in a large jar or crock to mature. Seal tightly for six weeks and stir daily. Drug stores usually have the powder and oils.

One more idea about roses, it is hard to have a "rosy" outlook when you're dealing with "black spot", the worst disease of roses. The fungus of the "black spot" is carried in the soil; and it usually requires many applications of a high-powered fungicide to keep it in check.

Here is a formula you might want to try:

Combine 1 tablespoon of baking soda, plus a teaspoon of liquid dish washing detergent in a gallon of water. Spray this on the rose foliage this spring. Don't wait until you see the black spot. It is good for aphids, also.

If you don't have a pair of rubber gloves to pick okra, slip bread wrappers on your hands to keep them from itching.

If you are bothered with worms, plant some dill nearby.

When cultivating cauliflower, try covering the heads with old nylon stockings. It will keep them from burning in the sun and protect them from bugs.

I hope I have been helpful and you will have flowers and vegetables to enjoy.

Happy gardening to all.

Summer snacks

Summer means more play time and an increased need for high-energy snacks.

"Parents can reinforce good eating habits by providing plenty of health 'treats,'" says Dr. Corinne Montandon, nutritionist at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

- Montandon recommends:
- Frozen low-fat yogurt.
- Fresh fruits and juices.
- Frozen orange wedges, banana slices or grapes.
- Shakes made with low-fat milk or fruit juice.
- Peanut butter-stuffed celery pieces.

Osteoporosis

Grandmothers, their daughters and their granddaughters are the focus of a study examining whether heredity has an impact on bone growth and development.

Results could help future generations of women avoid osteoporosis, says Dr. Steve Abrams of Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

Abrams suspects that family members with a history of osteoporosis may not absorb calcium as well as people with no history of the disease. He also believes there is a connection between hormone levels and the body's use of calcium.

Great-granddaughter has unusual wedding

By Jon McConal
Fort Worth Star-Telegram
GRANBURY, May 30--Fantasy Kay Moore-Serratt and Donald Cummins Reynolds wanted the unusual for their wedding.

They achieved that when they tied the knot this past weekend at the Squaw Creek Ranch owned by Reynolds' family. They hired a chuck-wagon cooking crew who prepared the wedding dinner in steel pots heated over coals.

And they were carried to the altar in a carriage pulled by two giant horses. As the vows were repeated, cattle bawled in the background. Then they had festivities, which Fantasy's mother promised in an invitation would be "unique and extraordinary."

The festivities held on the ranch seven miles south of Granbury were certainly that for me. I was mistaken first for a tent erector and then for a bartender. Actually, I was there by an invitation from my longtime friend, Jerry Baird of Snyder.

Baird, a rancher and employee of Western Texas College at Snyder, has been doing chuck-wagon cooking for 10 years.

I watched him and his cooking crew that includes Eddie Sandoval of Fort Worth and J. D. Barham, Jackie Green and Ted Floyd of Snyder. His wife, Mickey, handed me a sourdough roll cooked in a 1900 wood stove.

"Think these fancy folks will like that?" yelled Green.

As I ate the roll, Baird told about learning chuck-wagon cooking when he was a youngster growing up on a West Texas ranch.

"We'd work cattle and I'd hang around them old wagons and visit with the cooks," he said. "And, yeah, I think folks will enjoy this meal." The menu called for potato salad, corn on the cob, pinto beans, sourdough rolls, rib-eye steaks and chicken.

Already, the smells from the pots were delicious. Baird, a short but strongly built man, stirred a pot and explained why he loves cooking this way.

"A bunch of people here today, they have never seen anybody cook this way," he said. "This is a part of Texas history and this kinda helps keep it alive and allows people to see the real Texas."

That was obvious from a youngster who stopped to watch. He wore a tuxedo. He pointed to an iron pot with a heaping mound of coals on top and asked, "Is the cow in there?"

Baird answered the youngster and then watched the crowd assemble. He smiled.

"We've cooked for some fancy goings-on. But we never have cooked for a wedding," he said.

I walked to the house and asked Margie Reynolds, mother of the groom, about having the wedding here when obviously they could have had the event anywhere they wanted.

"He (her son) brought her to the ranch on their second date," she said. "They love this place."

Belinda Serratt, Fantasy's mother, agreed.

"This is where they started courting," she said. "I think this is fantastic."

Meanwhile, as the chuck-wagon crew sliced huge rib-eye steaks, the ceremonies began.

Nearby stood giant oak trees that probably were here when Luis de Moscoso, an early Spanish explorer, walked through this area in 1542.

Most people were dressed formally. One woman wore a beautiful long dress and cowboy boots.

As bobwhite quail competed with a vocalist singing about the sunrise and sunset, the couple arrived in a stunning carriage pulled by two giant horses named Pete and Link.

The minister said several nice things about the marriage, prayed several times and then pronounced

Donald and Fantasy man and wife.

Later as folks lined up for the thick rib-eyes, I asked Don, 24, about the wedding site.

"Well, we are a kind of different couple," he said.

Fantasy, also 24, agreed.

"This is a ranch-style wedding and I wanted the people to take their shoes off and enjoy, she said.

That is what I did as I poured a drink from the chuck-wagon crew's bottle. But I didn't take off my shoes.

(The bride is the great-granddaughter of Alma Merchant of Haskell. Her grandfather is John Ray Merchant of Jayton and her grandmother is Glendora Parker of Carlsbad, N.M., formerly Glendora Strickland of Rochester.)

Brunch honors bride-to-be

A patio brunch honoring Jennifer Sue Lundy, bride-elect of Dan S. Williams, was held Saturday, May 28, in the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Foreman in Odessa.

The tables were covered with white cloths and black place mats, the bride's colors. Each table was centered with an arrangement of yellow daisies. The patio was decorated with black and white bell string among the many potted plants of Mrs. Foreman's.

Hostesses were Charlotte Foreman, Jolie Jenkins, Monica Childs, Janette Gist and Julie Murphy.

Out-of-town guests included the prospective groom's mother, Mrs. J. W. Williams of Fort Stockton, and the bride-elect's grandmother, Lois Redwine of Haskell.

SECTION 4.01. NUMBER AND GENERAL POWERS. The business and affairs of the Cooperative shall be managed by a Board of seven (7) directors. The Board shall exercise all of the powers of the Cooperative except such as are by law or by the Cooperative's Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws conferred upon or reserved to the members.

SECTION 4.02. QUALIFICATIONS. No member shall be eligible to become a director or to hold any position of trust in the Cooperative who is not a member receiving service from the Cooperative at his primary residential abode in the area served by the Cooperative, or is in any way employed by or financially interested in a competing enterprise or a business selling electric energy or supplies to the Cooperative, or a business primarily engaged in selling electrical or plumbing appliances, fixtures or supplies to the members of the Cooperative, and no person shall take or hold office as a director who is the incumbent of or candidate for an elective public office in connection with which a salary is paid. When a membership is held jointly by a husband and wife, either one, but not both may be elected as director, provided however, that neither one shall be eligible to become or remain a director or to hold a position of trust in the Cooperative unless both shall meet the qualifications herein above set forth. Any director who shall miss three (3) Board of Directors' meetings in a row, without an excuse duly accepted and noted by the Board, shall lack eligibility to further serve and it shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to remove him from the Board. No former employee whose employment has been terminated by the Cooperative may be eligible to serve as director. Any employee who resigns or retires from employment by the Cooperative shall not be eligible to serve as a director for a period of ten (10) years following such resignation or retirement. Nothing contained in this Section shall, or shall be construed to, affect in any manner whatsoever the validity of any action taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors, unless such action is taken with respect to a matter which is affected by the provisions of this Section and in which one or more of the directors have an interest adverse to that of the Cooperative.

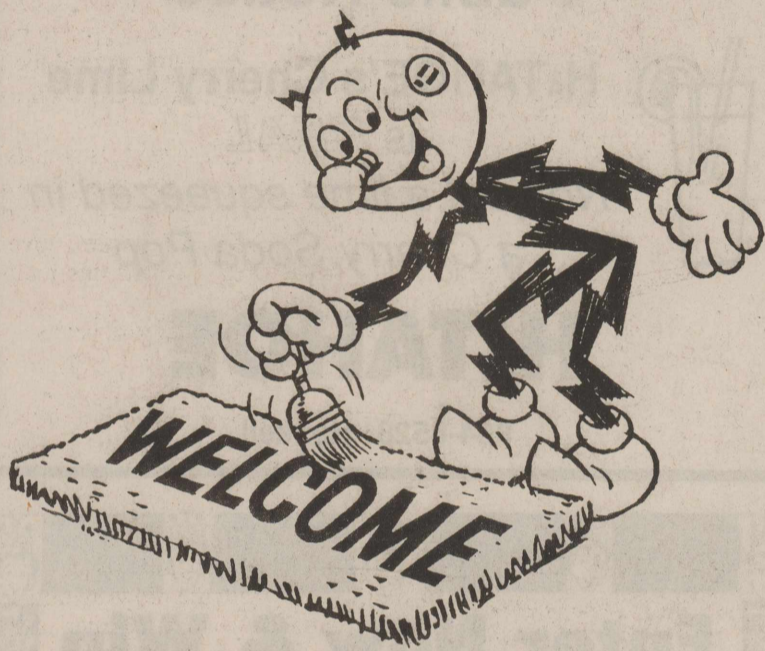

In the event an incumbent director, having served on the Board of Directors a minimum of six years, ceases to meet the requirement of receiving service from the Cooperative at his primary residential abode, such incumbent director shall nevertheless be qualified to continue to serve as director so long as he remains a member of the Cooperative and his primary residential abode is located within the area served by the Cooperative, or in close proximity thereto.

SECTION 4.03. ELECTION. At each annual meeting of the members, directors shall be elected by secret written ballot by the members and from among those members who are natural persons; provided however, that when the number of nominees does not exceed the number of directors to be elected, and if there is no objection, secret written balloting may be dispensed with and voting may be conducted in any other proper manner. Directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast unless the members in advance of any balloting resolve that a majority of the votes cast shall be required to elect, and this Bylaw provision shall be drawn to the attention of the members and explained to them prior to any balloting. Drawing by lot shall resolve, where necessary, any tie vote.

SECTION 4.04. TENURE. The business and affairs of the Cooperative shall be managed by a Board of seven (7) directors which shall exercise all of the powers of the Cooperative except such that are by law, or by the Articles of Incorporation of the Cooperative, or by these Bylaws conferred upon or reserved to the members. SECTION 4.05. NOMINATIONS. It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to appoint, not less than sixty (60) nor more than ninety (90) days prior to the date of a meeting of the members at which directors are to be elected, a Committee on Nominations, consisting of not less than five (5) nor more than eleven (11) members of the Cooperative who are not existing Cooperative employees, agents, officers, directors or known candidates for director, who are not close relatives (as hereinafter defined) or members of the same household of such existing employees, agents, officers, directors or known candidates for director, and who are so selected so as to give equitable representation on the committee to the geographical areas served or to be served by the Cooperative. Any fifteen (15) or more members of the Cooperative, acting together, may make additional nominations in writing over their signatures, listing their nominee(s) in like manner, not less than twenty (20) days prior to the meeting, and the Secretary shall post such nominations at the same place where the list of nominations made by the Committee is posted. The Secretary shall mail to the members with the notice of the meeting, or separately, but at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the meeting, a statement of the names and addresses of all nominee(s) showing clearly those nominated by the Committee and those nominated by petition, if any. The chairman at such meeting, after all nominations so made have been duly announced, shall call for additional nominations from the floor. --Library Notes--

By Joan Strickland

In keeping with National Garden Week, June 5-11, I'd like to tell you about some of the books we have available at the library. I think these books will be informative, helpful and interesting to anyone who likes flowers, trees, plants, etc.

We have:

A Complete Guide to Gardening, Square Foot Gardening, Shade Gardening and Herb Gardening in Texas.

Gardening for Fun and Food, 10,000 Gardening Questions, and the Complete Gardening Manual.

Living with Houseplants, Favorite Houseplants, All About House Plants and House Plants for Five Exposures.

Native Texas Plants, Azaleas, Roses, the Ivy Book Book, American Wildflowers, Texas Wildflowers and Wildflowers of the United States.

Miniature Plants, A Field Guide to Texas Trees, Plant Propagation, The Pruning Manual, and much more.

Also along this same line, we can't have all these wonderful plants and gardens without a little help from our friends. We also have books on butterflies, birds, insects, etc., and books on flower arranging.

The Haskell Garden Club has planted forsythias and crepe myrtle here at the library and I am happy to say they are thriving in all this heat. Sometimes we take the things around us for granted. Do you realize how important gardening is to all of us? All the food we eat comes directly or indirectly from gardening.

Much of the beauty in the world is generated by the flowers, vegetables, shrubs and trees we grow. Gardening and working in the yard is an excellent form of exercise both physically and mentally. And after all the work, get a glass of lemonade, pull up a lawn chair and watch the garden grow, flowers bloom and count your blessings.

Remember, the summer reading program begins June 22-July 27. Paige Hagadone will read the first Wednesday morning from 10:30-11 a.m. and Kerri Ferrell of Rule will read each following Wednesday. Make plans to come and enjoy the story time.

Correction: Two weeks ago it was stated wrong in our article about book donations. It should have read in honor of Karla Page by Marsha Whittemore, and in memory of Ida and J. E. Walling by Ed, Mary, Jay and Emily Walling.

Memorials: Eunice Mann, James Eaton and Nored Boone.
See you at the library.

The five most populated states in the U.S. are California, New York, Texas, Florida and Pennsylvania.

Granddaughter top graduate at Midland Lee

(Adapted from the Midland Reporter-Telegram)

Midland Lee High School's valedictorian, Elizabeth Harris, and salutatorian, Erica Traxel, both enjoyed the schools' science and honors philosophy courses.

Miss Harris said she and Miss Traxel had been top achievers for most of their years in high school but never really competed for the top spot.

She said others were interested and kept her informed of her grade-point average. "I've never checked my GPA," she said.

Miss Harris is the daughter of Robert and Linda Harris. She is the granddaughter of Faye Simpson of Rule and the great-niece of Carolyn Reynolds of Haskell.

Far from the nerdish image some may have of top achievers, neither of the women openly flaunt their mental prowess. In fact, Miss Harris had trouble being taken seriously when she told one friend she was valedictorian.

"I told a friend in Amarillo and he laughed at me--he thought I was lying," she said.

Miss Harris plans to attend Texas A&M University, hoping to get a degree in biochemistry before going to medical school. She hopes to return to Midland after college.

Mrs. Simpson attended the graduation of her granddaughter Saturday. Also attending from this area were Sonny and Carolyn Reynolds, Patti Wilson and Lee Wilson.

Local club promotes National Garden Week

By Gladys O'Neal

The Haskell Garden Club is promoting National Garden Week, which began Sunday and continues through June 11.

Haskell has a nice, active club, affiliated with the State of Texas. Members want to let Texas know that our town is appreciative of our people who garden and desire to have a greater knowledge to beautify our town.

This is a golden opportunity to let Haskell people, who love nature and have an appreciation for beauty, know gardens are conducive to a greater respect and care for our environment.

Gov. Ann Richards, issued a proclamation April 18 for this week to be observed in Texas.

Therefore, Haskell Garden Club is honored to observe this week and work toward making Haskell a more beautiful place to live, and enjoy. We are proud to say, "We live in Haskell."

Students take part in quilting project

Paint Creek seventh- and eighth-grade English/Art students recently participated in an exciting project entitled, "Kids Making Quilts for Kids."

The project is sponsored by At-Risk Babies Crib Quilts (ABC Quilts), which is an organization that has distributed more than 100,000 quilts to children and babies at risk from AIDS, drug addiction or abandonment.

Students worked in groups of four to create infant-sized quilts to send these children. Following the sewing project, students wrote papers describing what they learned through the project.

In addition, students studied the art of quiltmaking by having a guest speaker, Mrs. Walton, tell stories of making quilts and mattresses during World War II when commodities were limited.

Marriage Licenses

Eight marriage licenses were issued in May by County Clerk Rhonda Moeller.

They were to: Roy Don Wilson and Rebecca Ann Isbell, both of Haskell.

Kerald Reid Searcey of Gould, Okla., and Donna Beth Hill of Haskell.

They came from as far away as Kennewick, Wash., and as near as Hawley, Texas, to attend to the 50th reunion of the Haskell High School class of 1944, held May 27-29 at Embassy Suites Hotel in Abilene.

There were 32 in attendance. They all had a most enjoyable time renewing old friendships and reminiscing about school days.

Letters were read from two former teachers, Mrs. Mary Couch Ogilvie and Mrs. Mildred Byrd, who remembered their old students.

Attending were:

Royce and Jimmie Lou Adkins, Olein Adress Elmore, V. A. and Betty Brown, Nance Collins Perrin and Jim, Lonnie Roy and Lois Davis, Bob and Betty Dulaney, Cecil Jack and Betty Gholson, Crawford and Wortha Holloway.

Raymon and Jan Mobley, Dorothy Morris Harris and Raymond, Janice Pace O'Neal, Dorothy Post Sanderson, Raymond Schwartz, Chester Pat Speer, Marigene Sellers Milch and Al, Janet Turner Owens and Wes and Carolyn Williams Pippin.

And the rest were sorely missed.

A scholarship fund in memory of the late Leon Biffle has been established at Farmers National Bank in Rule.

Contributions to the fund may be made to Patrick Pace at the

It is hoped that a scholarship may be awarded each year to a graduating Rule High School senior who plans to continue his/her education, beginning in 1995.

We would like to thank all the people of Rule and the surrounding area for the kindness shown us during our sorrow at the loss of a husband, father, grandfather, and great grandfather. Special thanks to John Greeson, Travis Boyd, and the singers who gave of their time and comfort.
