Weevil program Oct. 27

An important meeting on the proposed Boll Weevil Eradication Program is scheduled for next Thursday (Oct. 27) in the Haskell National Bank community building.

The meeting will begin at 10 a.m. and all Haskell County residents interested in the program are invited to attend.

Lindy Patton, executive vice president of Rolling Plains Cotton Growers Association, and Frank Mevers, Boll Weevil Eradication Program executive, will be on hand to answer questions about the program.

The forum is being sponsored by the Haskell County office of the Texas Agricultural Service. For more details, contact Max Stapleton, county extension agent, at 864-2658.

Cotton farmers in Haskell County will soon have the opportunity to join together with cotton producers throughout the central Rolling Plains to eradicate the destructive boll weevil.

Haskell County is one of 19 counties that make up the proposed Central Rolling Plains Boll Weevil Eradication (CRP zone). The zone is one of nine eradication zones established under proposed plans to eliminate boll weevils from Texas and Oklahoma.

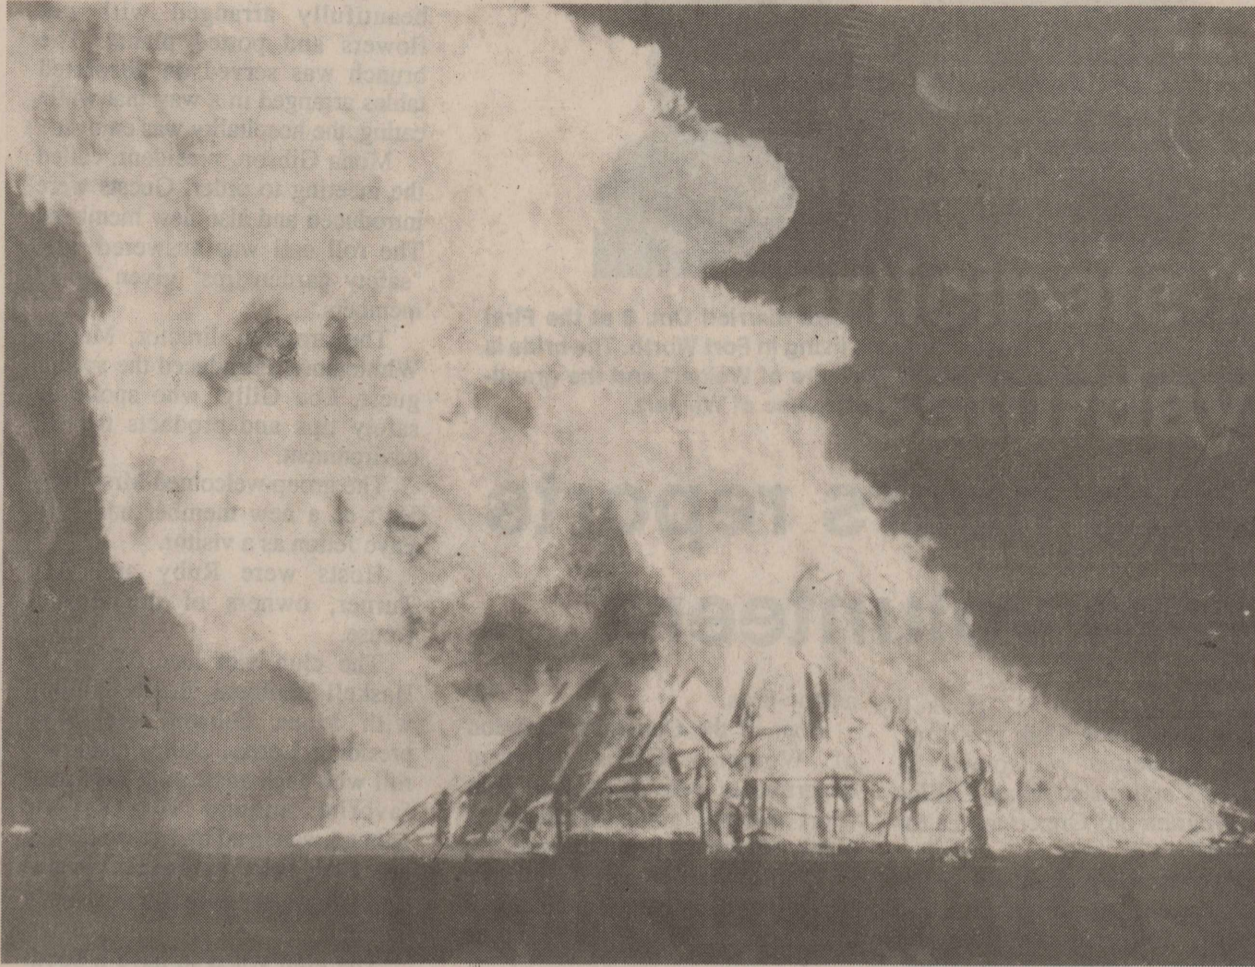

The boll weevil costs Texas cotton producers an average of $25-$50 million per year in crop losses and chemical treatments, with much of this loss in the Rolling Plains. Individual attempts to control weevils also disrupts management programs for other pests, adding additional costs.

Farmers in the Southern Rolling Plains organized their zone last spring and voted overwhelmingly to be the first zone in Texas to begin eradication efforts. The Texas Boll Weevil Eradication Foundation began treatments for weevils in that zone in late September.

Cotton farmers from counties throughout the Rolling Plains organized steering committees to do the work necessary for bring eradication to this area.

Haskell County producers got together and organized a county steering committee, then elected representatives to serve on the CRP Zone Steering Committee. Representing Haskell County on the zone committee are Steve Alsbrook, Larry Lefevre, Steve Lehmann, John Grindstaff and Mike McGuire. This committee put together plans for the upcoming referendum.

In the referendum, farmers will vote to (1) officially establish the Central Rolling Plains Eradication zone, (2) elect a Texas Boll Weevil Eradication Foundation board director from the zone, and (3) establish the assessment rate for paying for the program.

Huge bonfire

Haskell seniors lit a huge bonfire Thursday night at the Danny Josselet residence as a spirit builder for the Indian football team. It must have worked; the Indians upset Hamlin, 7-6.

Haskell to host Baptists

The 89th annual meeting of the Haskell-Knox Baptist Association will be Monday at the First Baptist Church in Haskell.

The afternoon session will begin at 4 p.m. with a fellowship meal at 6 p.m. and worship service at 7 p.m.

Stewart Farrell, pastor of First Baptist Church in Rule, will moderate the meeting, with Alton Sanders from First Baptist Church in Weinert leading the congregational singing.

Ross Anderson, pastor of Gillespie Baptist Church, will deliver the annual sermon. The denominational speaker will be Ed Schmeltekopf, associate executive director of the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Haskell-Knox Baptist Association is made up of 18 Southern Baptist churches and missions. Messengers elected by their respective churches will act on various reports during the business session.

The public is invited and encouraged to attend, said Mike Smith, director of missions for the Double Mountain Baptist Area.

Weinert women to clean highway

The Weinert Homemakers' Club will have its annual highway cleanup day Saturday.

Members will meet at 8 a.m. at the Weinert school.

Indians travel to Anson Friday

The Haskell Indians travel to Anson Friday night for a district 7-2A clash with the improving Tigers.

Fresh from a 7-6 win over Hamlin, the Indians need a victory to stay in the championship race.

Anson, which lost its first six games, came alive last week and blasted Rotan, 34-0, to move their district record to 1-1, the same as the Indians'.

Indian Coach Dwayne Gray warns that the Tigers have played a rough schedule and their record is deceiving. He expects a tough battle for his team.

Haskell, which lost its district opener to Stamford two weeks ago before rebounding with the big win over favored Hamlin, now stands at 5-2 for the season.

Gray said he hopes his team will have more offensive punch than it has shown in recent games. In the last three games, the Indians have scored early, but have not scored in the second half.

Many participate in Super Saturday

The Super Saturday promotion in Haskell Saturday will feature "Clubs and Organizations Day" and a "Fall Harvest of Sidewalk Sales."

All organizations and club booths will be on the north side of the courthouse.

Food booths will be operated by First Assembly of God (chuck wagon), St. George Catholic Church (Mexican food) and Mayree Turnbow and Florence Peden (sandwiches, chili, beans, cornbread, cakes and pies).

The Haskell Garden Club will sell baked goods, plants and speciality items; the Progressive Study Club will have a bake sale; and the Texas Chiefs Model Airplane Club will have a model airplane demonstration.

Also participating will be the Haskell Girl Scouts, the Haskell Rotary Club and the Haskell 4-H Club.

Chief Justice candidate visits

A pair of air racers flew into town last Wednesday.

Judge Bud Arnot of Abilene and Bill Laws of Coleman landed their racing-modified vintage World War II AT-6 trainers at the Haskell airport. The planes previously competed in the annual national Air Races in Reno, Nev.

"I started racing my plane in the Nationals at Reno in the early 80s, and my plane, the 'Silver Baby', won the Silver trophy twice. I raced for about nine years," Arnot said. "My friend Bill Laws first came out as an observer, got the bug and later raced his plane, 'Catch 22'. He finished third in the Gold in 1990 and won the Silver in 1991."

Arnot was in Haskell to promote another type of race. The judge is completing eight years as an Associate Justice on the Eastland Court of Appeals. He is now seeking to be promoted to the position of Chief Justice upon the retirement of Austin McCloud, who has served 23 years on the court.

The key issue to the voters in the November election is not who is qualified to be on the court, Arnot said of his opponent who is a sitting district judge, but rather who is the most capable of leading the court into the next century.

Citing his experience and familiarity with the daily workings of the court, his service as president of the Appellate section of the State Bar of Texas and his work with the Texas Center for the Judiciary, Arnot observed, "There are two good judges in this race. But it's best to elect as your team captain someone who has been on the team."

"It's a changing world, even in the judiciary," Arnot said. "To survive as a rural court we must have access to all of the latest books and research aids. We've been working hard in this area, and the Eastland Court of Appeals is now in the forefront of all the courts in Texas in its technology."

City getting less money from sales tax

The City of Haskell received a check for $13,835.59 this week as its share of sales taxes collected on August sales.

The check represents a 5.21-percent decrease from the $14,597.05 received last year for the same period.

In the first 10 months of 1994, the city's rebate checks have totaled $173,935.49, down 7.82 percent from the $188,710.90 received in the same period last year.

Rebates are figured on the city's 1.5-cent sales tax. The rate increased to 2 cents Oct. 1, but will not be reflected in the rebates until December.

The City of Rule received a check this week in the amount of $973.49 and the City of Rochester received $648.15.

For the year to date, Rule has received $16,164.20, compared to $17,119.76 for the first 10 months of 1993. Rochester's year-to-date total stands at $6,253.22, compared to $6,313.57 last year.

Although Weinert and O'Brien did not receive checks this month, the year-to-date totals for those two cities are $1,628.23 and $1,326.47, respectively.

Except for Haskell, all county cities have a 1-cent sales tax rate.

For the county as a whole, the five cities have received $199,307.61 in sale tax rebates in the first 10 months of the year, 8.29 percent less than the $217,343.01 of last year.

Girls invited to basketball clinic at HSU

Girls in grades 3 through 9 are invited to participate in a one-day Cowgirl Basketball Clinic at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene.

The clinic will be held Saturday, Nov. 5, from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Registration will begin at 8 a.m. on the day of the clinic.

Instruction will be by Julie (Roewe) Goodenough, girls' basketball coach at Hardin-Simmons, and members of the HSU team.

Each participant will receive an HSU Cowgirl Clinic T-shirt, a Cowgirl gym bag, a season pass to all Cowgirl home games and an invitation to a pizza and autograph party with the HSU Cowgirls after one of their home basketball games.

The fee for attending the clinic will be $20. Enrollment forms are available at Sport About in Haskell.

County soldier serves in Haiti

A 20-year-old soldier from Weinert was among the first troops to arrive in Haiti when American troops landed on that island last month.

Donald Mahan, son of Linda and Leonard Mahan of Weinert, went ashore with the 10th Mount Infantry from Fort Drum, N.Y. on the first day of the invasion.

In a telephone conversation from Port-Au-Prince with his parents, Mahan said the Americans were warmly welcomed and are being treated well by the natives.

Mahan attended school in Weinert until the school consolidated. He then graduated at Munday.

Candidate visits

Bud Arnot of Abilene, candidate for Chief Justice of the Eastland Court of Appeals is greeted by Don Comedy after he flew in at the Haskell airport.

Crash

The Indians' Bucky Harvey wraps up Hamlin quarterback Eric Brown in this action in Friday night's district 7-2A game, won by Haskell, 7-6.

Weinert FCE warned of scams

The Weinert FCE Club met Oct. 4 with nine members and three guests present.

The meeting was held in the County Kitchen for the convenience of the hostesses, Kathryn Schonherstedt and Henrietta Rueffer.

Roll call was answered with "The most useful thing I have in my home," and the microwave oven was the item most named by this group of time-conscious homemakers.

The program, "Consumer Wise, Read the Fine Print," was given by the agent, Lou Gilly, and she warned against the scams that appear and the sweepstakes letters we all are swamped with, as well as some warranties we receive on many products we purchase as she said, "Read the fine print."

Myrtle Phemister, president, presided over a lengthy business meeting that included voting for the nominee for Club Woman of the Year; a report of the Homecoming committees; and announcements of forthcoming events.

Oct. 22 will be "Make a Difference Day" for the Weinert club as they meet at 8 a.m. at the school house to begin their highway cleanup project. They will also put their 15th quilt in the frames, to be quilted and given to the Rehab Auction in January.

Plans for Information Day on Oct. 26 were discussed and the Weinert club will be the welcoming committee. The meeting will be for all county clubs and will be at the Bevers House with Ruby Turner catering the meal. The program will begin at 9:30 a.m.

Weinert club was appointed to be the nominating committee for the Council officers for 1995-96, and time was spent selecting the nominees.

A called Council meeting will be held at the kitchen on Oct. 19 for the purpose of selecting the new officers and to finalize Information Day plans.

Club members also selected the programs they prefer hearing during the 1995 club year.

Present for the meeting and enjoying the refreshments prepared by the hostesses included Dolores Medford, Peggy Burnett of the Paint Creek club, also Jimmie Weinert, Alta McGuire, Estalyn Edwards, Cordie Cunningham, Alice Yates, Betty Sanders, Myrtle Phemister, Henrietta Rueffer, Kathryn Schonherstedt and the agent, Lou Gilly.

Next meeting will be Nov. 1 at the Weinert school and will be a salad luncheon at 12 noon. The program will be a "Show and Tell" craft and handwork show called "Timely Gifts for Giving" at 1 p.m.

Karen McGuire and Eddie McClellan were married Oct. 8 at the First Baptist Church in Fort Worth. They are living in Fort Worth. The bride is the daughter of Lowell and Nancy McGuire of Weinert and the granddaughter of Louise and Earnest McGuire, also of Weinert.

Club hears reports from volunteers

Thursday, Oct. 13, Haskell Progressive Study Club president, Oleta Cornelius, welcomed 33 members and guest Jenny Collins to a program on "Opportunities for Service."

Opportunities presented were the Noah Project, by Jo Nored Lane; Center for Experienced Citizens, by Ruby Holt; Cemetery Association, by Ernestine Herren; and the Hospital Auxiliary, by Jenny Collins.

Each speaker told of her personal interest and involvement in aiding the local agencies, explaining the functions and needs for the services, and urging other members to consider volunteering their own time and talent.

During a business meeting, Frances Gray and Kay Schonherstedt were accepted as new members. The pledge to the American flag was led by Evelyn Cobb, and Franciene Johnson read the club's constitution and by-laws.

Four of the General Federation of Women's Clubs program departments were recognized with short resumes given by the local club's department chairpersons.

Departments and those presenting them were: International Affairs, Mary Martin;

UN/NGO/UNICEF, Kim Merideth; Child Outreach, Yuvie Cadenhead; Cultural Exchange, Billie Cannon; Texas Heritage, Mary Kaigler; Historical People, Donna Cole; Education, Jane Coston; Adult Literacy, Judy Ray; Continuing Education, Franciene Johnson; and Arts, Ruby Turner.

Serving refreshments from a table featuring fall colors and cornucopia were hostesses Doris Jordan, Marjorie Huss, Mildred Berry, Sandy Forehand and Anita Herren.

The club will sponsor a cake sale on Saturday, Oct. 22.

Gardeners enjoy Bevers House brunch

The Haskell Garden Club met Sept. 8 at the Bevers House for a morning brunch.

Martha Burns gave the blessing. The patio in the backyard was beautifully arranged with cut flowers and potted plants. The brunch was served on decorated tables arranged in a way that while eating, the hospitality was enjoyed.

Mona Gibson, president, called the meeting to order. Guests were introduced and also new members. The roll call was answered with "safety garden tips" given by 17 members.

The program director, Marsha Whittemore, introduced the special guest, Lou Gilly, who spoke on safety tips and products for the environment.

The group welcomed Mrs. Ruby Holt as a new member and Mrs. Faye Jetton as a visitor.

Hosts were Ruby and Abe Turner, owners of the Bevers House.

The club met Oct. 13 at the Haskell National Bank building with Mona Gibson, president, presiding. Lorene Dewey called the roll with each answering with their favorite autumn flower. The minutes were read by Lorene Dewey and they were approved. Wanda Ham, treasurer, gave the treasurer's report.

The club voted to have a booth on the square Nov. 4 for Super Saturday. Antiques, treasures and bakery items and plants will be sold that day.

Marsha Whittemore introduced the program, "Fruits of Nature's Way." Florence Peden told about perennials for the garden. She told how they could be a life-time hobby and be very rewarding with little work.

Composts and mulches were given by Dee Sprayberry. Several forms, such as grass clippings, leaves, egg shells and coffee grounds, were a few she mentioned. A corner in a plot of the garden or yard is a good place for a compost pile. October and November are good months to use a compost.

The first color of spring is usually the bulbs. Lorene Dewey said tulips, violets, redbud trees bring color to spring. Birds also bring color.

Juanita Rhea critiqued arrangements and horticulture brought by Gladys O'Neal, Juanita Rhea, Florence Peden, Wanda Ham and Lorene Dewey.

Refreshments were served to 16 members by the hostesses, Margie Dornier, Helen Cox and Dee Sprayberry.

Stamford grads set 50th reunion

Stamford High School graduates of 1945 will celebrate the 50th anniversary of their graduation on Saturday, Oct. 29, at the VIP Community Center.

The celebration will be at the same time of the Stamford Homecoming.

The class will meet from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. All classmates and friends are invited to attend.

For further information, contact Billie L. (Hewett) Kupatt at (915) 773-2893.

Happy coaches

Coaches Dwayne Gray and Mark Coffman are all smiles as they watch the last seconds tick off the clock Friday night as the Indians defeated Hamlin.

Cross country teams win at ACU

The Haskell girls placed second and the Haskell boys came in third at the cross country meet at Abilene Christian University Saturday.

There were 15 girls' teams and 18 boys' teams competing.

Frankie Masias came in second for the top individual finish by the Indians, and Gava Ortiz placed eighth. Other Indian runners were Caleb Brown, Elvis Gonzales and Josh McWhorter.

Charissa Huff won eighth place and Wendy Gray placed ninth in the girls' division. Other Maiden runners were Jennifer Comedy, Tonya Burson, Anita Rapp, Sherita Tidrow and Jessica Martinez.

Couple honored at Branson

In recognition of their upcoming 62nd wedding anniversary, Glenn and Maggie Merchant were honored with a special anniversary song at the Blackwood Family Show last week in Branson, Mo.

The Merchants, long-time Haskell residents, were traveling with a tour group on one of Abilene's Sun Set chartered VIP stages.

Formerly known as the Blackwood Brothers Quartet, the group which was formed 50 years ago, is now performing under the name of The Blackwood Family. Several Blackwood females have entered into the picture.

Other Haskell people making the trip to Branson were Pauline DeShazo and Marie McCain, both of Lake Stamford in the Paint Creek community.

No problem

Drizzling rain didn't seem to interfere with the fans' enjoyment of Haskell's 7-6 victory over Hamlin Friday night.

Sunday luncheon at Country Club

The October luncheon at the Haskell Country Club will be this Sunday.

All members are encouraged to attend and to bring a covered dish.

Hostesses are Margaret Ratliff and Ruby Holt.

Dr. Beasley to speak in Rule

Dr. William Beasley of Hardin-Simmons University will be guest speaker today (Thursday) at the Philadelphia Club in Rule.

The program will begin at 2 p.m. in the club house at 701 Union Ave. Guests are welcome.

Two elected to SWCD Board

Kenneth Newberry of Rochester and Kenneth Sanders were elected to the Haskell Soil and Water Conservation District board of directors in the Oct. 14 election.

Newberry represents zone 1 of the district, while Sanders will represent zone 2.

Newberry replaces Dan Wadzeck, retiring director who served the Haskell SWCD the past 15 years. Sanders, who was appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late M. W. Phemister, was elected to that position.

Other members of the board include Burnell Gilleland, chairman;

Steve Alsbrook, vice chairman; and F. A. Ulmer, secretary-treasurer.

The Haskell SWCD promotes sound soil and water conservation programs on agricultural lands within the district and serves as a voice for farmers, ranchers and local community entities on conservation matters.

The board coordinates the conservation efforts of various local, state and federal agencies and other organizations and has authority to enter into working agreement with these governmental agencies and private concerns to carry out its purposes.

Board members are responsible for carrying out the district program within the framework of the Texas Soil Conservation District Law.

The board meets the third Friday of each month at 9 a.m. in the Haskell Soil Conservation Service field office. All meetings are open to the public.

All conservation programs managed by the district are of a voluntary nature to the landowner or operator or other potential users of the SWCD's program.

--Letters to the Editor--

Convention

Rogers-Cox Post 221 would like to thank the following individuals and businesses for their help in making our 13th district American Legion convention a success:

Legionnaires: Abe Turner, Kevin Wade, Gene Plunkett, Andy Anderson, D. E. Livingood, Homer Lett, Mearl Davis, David Davis, Jim King, Tony Williams, L. Q. Greer, Tom Dewey, Bob Gray, Grady Ward.

Auxiliary: Nancy Plunkett, Vickie King, Ruby Turner, Jane Boon, Flora Pace, Beunis Thigpen, Doris Jordan, Jewel Pittman, Amelia Perry, Becky Malaise, Elaine Glover, Teresa Diaz, Merlene Beggs.

Businesses: The Personality Shoppe, Barbara's Boutique and Modern Way.

Alcoholism

Editor: Many people still look down at and treat alcoholics as outcasts. I wonder if these people, who are many times family or friends, don't realize or don't believe that alcoholism is a disease.

Doctors strongly believe that alcoholism is inherited. Some doctors believe alcoholics are born without an important chemical in their livers. This chemical is said to prevent alcohol from going directly to the brain. Alcohol reaching the brain is believed to cause the urges and cravings for more alcohol.

I would like to encourage your readers who may have an alcoholic family member or friend to stop and remember it is a disease. Although the person may never fully overcome all the effects of this disease, with love, support and professional help it is possible for them to stop the drinking.

I don't believe there is one alcoholic who isn't crying for help, silently if not out loud.

(Editor's note: We believe it appropriate in this case to withhold the name of the letter writer, something we seldom do.)

Spaghetti supper

Editor: Members of Haskell Progressive Study Club wish to thank all those who helped to make our annual chicken spaghetti supper fund raiser the success it was with a crowd of over 400.

A special thanks to Mr. Sam Bitner for the spaghetti and Mr. George Sweat for De Coty coffee.

A lot of planning, preparation and hard work is done by club members to make the spaghetti supper a meal one would enjoy. Proceeds from the supper are turned back into various other organizations as well as community projects.

Following is a list of organizations and donations made by the Study Club over past years:

Haskell Civic Center (over $10,000), senior scholarship awards, fifth-grade student recognition awards, Cemetery

Association, Child Welfare, American Cancer Association, assistance with wheel chair curbing on street on square, donations to City Park, Haskell County Library, Heart Fund, March of Dimes, Mental Health Clinic, Noah Project, Salvation Army, West Texas Rehab Center, Girlstown, Ben Richey Boys Ranch, Red Cross Blood Drive, M. D. Anderson Patient Rehabilitation Center and sponsorship of a girl for Girls State.

Women of the Progressive Study Club don't stop here. Members of the club are also volunteer workers at Experienced Citizens Center, Haskell County Hospital Auxiliary, church work, visiting of care homes, phone committee for Red Cross Bloodmobile, Noah Project and American Legion.

Again, thank you for your continuing support. Our theme for this year is Unity In Diversity and with all our club members working together, with support from the community, we truly strive to make a better world.

Girls get horse experience

This week at our Girl Scout meeting we all had an experience with a horse.

The mare's name is Scarlet. Her owner, a Girl Scout, Audra Arendall, is a barrel racer. She told us all about barrel racing.

We learned that the horse uses its tail for a fly-swatter, and also never walk up behind them.

Audra's parents, Charlotte and Chris Arendall, also helped us learn about horses.

We all got to ride on Scarlet as she followed Chris around. It was educational and fun at the same time.

Scholarships are available

High school students with a grade point average of "B" or better and interested in applying for $1,000 college scholarships should request applications by Dec. 15 from Educational Communications Scholarship Foundation, 721 N. McKinley Road, P.O. Box 5012, Lake Forest, IL 60045-5012.

To receive an application, a student should send a note stating their name, address, approximate grade point average and year of graduation. Requests for applications will be fulfilled on or about Jan. 13, 1995.

One hundred and fifty winners will be selected on the basis of academic performance, involvement in extracurricular activities and some consideration for financial need. A total of $150,000 will be awarded.

The Central West Texas Fair opened here Monday to crowds which exceeded all expectations of officials. Exhibits in all departments are the equal of any seen in any of the larger fairs of the state. Four-day program of horse racing, with betting permitted under the certificate plan, started Wednesday and drew a crowd of several thousand.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Nickell, teachers of the Mitchell School, accompanied a group of 22 pupils from the school on a visit to see the fair yesterday. The group also visited the Free Press plant while here, and the Rule Oil Mill on their return home.

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Violence against men, women, and children continues to become more prevalent as a social problem within all of our communities.

WHEREAS: The problems of domestic violence are not confined to any group or groups of people, but cross all economic, racial, affectional preference, and societal barriers; and are supported by societal indifference.

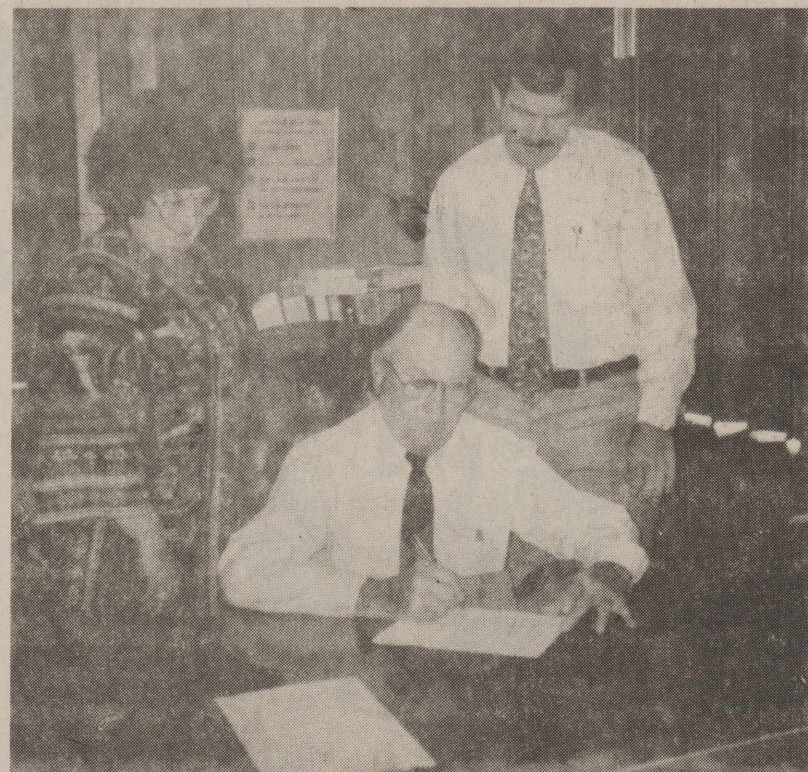

WHEREAS: The crime of domestic violence violates an individual's privacy, dignity, security, and humanity, due to systematic use of physical, emotional, sexual, psychological and economic control and/or abuse.

WHEREAS: The impact of domestic violence is wide ranging, directly affecting men, women, and children, as well as society as a whole.

WHEREAS: It is battered women themselves who have been in the forefront of efforts to bring peace and equality to the home.

NOW, THEREFORE: In recognition of the important work done by the domestic violence programs, I, B. O. Roberson, County Judge of Haskell County, Texas, do hereby proclaim the month of October 1994 as Domestic Violence Awareness Month and urge all citizens to actively participate in the support of the activities sponsored by the Noah Project-North to work toward the elimination of personal and also institutional violence against men, women, and children.

Indians pickle Pipers, 7-6

The Haskell Indians jumped right back into the thick of the district 7-A championship race Friday night with a 7-6 victory over the Hamlin Pied Pipers.

Casey Larned's 40-yard touchdown run in the second quarter and Cody Cypert's conversion were all the offense the Indians needed to hand the favored Pipers their first district loss.

Larned's touchdown run came on the second play of the second period as the Indians faced a third and 6 situation.

Hamlin's touchdown came midway through the final period when David Bell ran 17 yards. The Pipers then elected to go for a 2-point conversion, but Eric Brown's pass fell incomplete.

"I felt we played about as well defensively as we are capable of playing," said Indian Coach Dwayne Gray. The Indians recovered five Hamlin fumbles, one of them by Frankie Masias at the Haskell 1-yard line in the fourth period when the Indians were leading, 7-0.

Cory Green recovered two fumbles, Michael Rodriguez got one and Larned had one as the hard-hitting Indian defense led the team to victory.

Haskell's touchdown came on the end of a five-play 62-yard drive after Rodriguez' fumble recovery at the Indian 38. Larned picked up 8 and then 10 yards to the Hamlin 44. Keiland Riley got 5 yards and then lost a yard before Larned burst open for the 40-yard scoring run.

Hamlin's deepest penetration in the first half reached the Haskell 39 where the Indians stopped the Pipers on fourth down just before the half ended.

On their first possession in the second half, the Indians drove from their own 43 to the Hamlin 24 on the strength of the running of Justin Lisle and Larned. But with third and 2, the Indians were flagged for holding and the ball moved back to the 34 and the drive was stalled. After taking a 5-yard delay penalty, Cypert punted to the Hamlin 13.

From there, the Pied Pipers began their longest drive. Bell ran 19 yards, Dekendrick Woodard picked up 22, Sean Bolden added 5 and Bell carried three straight times for gains of 7, 2 and 6 yards to the 26. Brown then passed to Bolden, but the receiver fumbled and Larned pounced on the ball at the 17.

Three running plays moved the Indians out to the 25 from where Cypert lifted a fourth-down punt to the Hamlin 49.

Brown passed 26 yards to Cooper to the 23, and five running plays moved the ball to the 2-yard line. But Woodard fumbled as he attempted to go over and Masias recovered for the Indians at the 1.

In three plays the Indians could move only to the 4 so Cypert punted to the 35.

After Woodard picked up 4 yards to the 31, Brown passed 14 yards to Scott Latham to the 17. Bell then scooted in for the touchdown with 5:55 to go. Brown's pass for the extra points fell incomplete.

Haskell had another opportunity when Green recovered a fumble at the Hamlin 48 after the Pipers had mishandled Cypert's punt. But they were unable to gain and Cypert punted to the 19.

Brown passed 15 yards to Bolden and then 22 yards to Latham to the Indian 44. But the Pipers had to surrender the ball at the 38 with 49 seconds left after two incomplete passes and two running plays netted just 6 yards.

Ryan Olson led the Indian tacklers with 13 stops. Larned was credited with 11, Bucky Harvey with 10, Jamie Hodgins with 8 and Lisle with 7. Coaches also singled out Green for an outstanding defensive game.

Top offensive hand for the Indians was Larned who rushed for 84 yards in 15 attempts.

-BIRTHS-

Mark and Leisha (Solomon) Greenroy of Fort Worth have announced the birth of a daughter, Promise LeAnn, born Oct. 5 at 7:01 p.m. She weighed 6 pounds, 8 ounces and was 19 1/2 inches long.

Grandparents are Travis and Alma Solomon of Haskell and Bob and Shirley Greenroy of Houston.

Sidelines

The district title probably won't be settled until the final week of play on Nov. 4. That's when Stamford and Hamlin lock horns in Hamlin.

But the championship won't necessarily go to the winner of that game. If Haskell can win its three remaining games, the Indians have to be considered in the title picture.

In the event of a three-way tie for first place, which seems highly possible, the first- and second-place teams will be determined by coin flip.

The Indians attempted only one pass against Hamlin, that on their first possession.

Haskell remains a first-half team, as far as offense is concerned.

Of the seven first downs they had, five came in the first half. The other two were gained on their first possession in the second half.

Hamlin may have led in most of the statistical categories, but the Indians led in the one which counted most--5-0 in recovered fumbles.

It was Haskell's third game without a lost fumble. They've lost only one in the last four games and just five for the year. And they've had only three passes intercepted, two of them within two minutes at Stamford.

Happenings...

by Lois Redwine

Spending the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Jess Leonard were their grandson, Lee Leonard and his friends, Charley Thomas and Russell Dyer, all of Mabank. The boys came to hunt doves but rainy weather prevented this.

Dr. and Mrs. Barry O'Neal and Rachel from Irving and Gladys O'Neal visited last weekend in Irving with the Barry O'Neals son, Ben. He is a law student in Texas Tech.

Peggy Middlebrook and Jane Coleman were in Albany last Saturday attending Octoberwest, a street fair featuring arts, crafts and food on Albany's Main St.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Cadenhead returned on Oct. 9 from Zaire. They spent 3 weeks there working with missionaries and other medical personnel from 6 states. They worked in an orphanage camp for children and helped treat and nurture the 400 plus displaced Rwanda children. A sea of Rwandan children surrounds the city of Goma amid the one million refugees who fled there this past summer. Southern Baptists are among groups of helpers from the U. S. and nations around the world.

Elmer and Bernice Hilliard were at Eisenhower Park at Lake Texhoma last weekend for a reunion with Mr. Hilliard's World War II Navy buddies. Time was spent visiting, reminiscing and taking pictures. They also visited with Mr. Hilliard's brother and sister-in-law, Jesse and Dot Hilliard in Dennison.

Spending the weekend with Hess and Dorothy Hartsfield were their son, daughter-in-law and grandchildren, Danny, Shelley, Haley, Ryan and Neil. They helped Mrs. Hartsfield celebrate her birthday on Saturday.

If you are in the vicinity Oct. 29-30, don't miss the Permian Basin Balloon Festival in Midland on the grounds of the Permian Basin Petroleum Museum. Liftoff will be each morning at sunrise and promises to be an awesome sight. Other activities include Hot Air Fun Run, Bicycle Rodeo, fingerprinting, balloon glow and great food. Sponsored by Lambda Alpha, ESA with proceeds going to Midland and Odessa Crime Stoppers Programs.

The Permian Basin Oil Show at the Ector County Coliseum in Odessa continues through Oct. 22. A must for anyone interested in the newest oil related technology.

Out of town relatives and friends attending the funeral services for Alvin Sherman include Harold and Jean Yearwood, Snyder; Wendell and Mayrene Morrow, and Mac and Carolyn Weathersbee, Donny, Dee Ann, Dayme, Dane and David Mullins, all of Rotan; June Sherman and Bill, Mary, Mark Sherman, and Gayle and Boyd Reay, all of Lockney; Bob and Peggy Morrow of Clovis, N.M.; Valeria Russell, Brownfield; Gloria Willingham, Irving; Katie Sexton, George and Lynn, Nathan, Nikah, Neisha Sherman, Amarillo; Bobby Darnell, Lockhart; Sam and Betty Reedy, Tyler; Eddie and Mrs. Kate Mears, Menard; Roger and Bobette Pierce, Big Spring; Marina Nemir, Donna Barker and Sheila Stroman, Franky Don and Wynette Mullins, Wes, Terrie, Tyler, Coby, Parker Morrow, all of Sweetwater; Anna Lou Shaver, Rochester; Hank Sherman, Kathy and James Boatman, all of Roscoe; and Kieth, Shelly, Jeremy Mullins of Hale Center.

--Green Thumb--

By Gladys O'Neal
Haskell Garden Club

The caladiums have been beautiful but now the bulbs should be dug before a frost comes. Dry them and store them through the winter.

Put the pansy plants in a bed that has been prepared with a great deal of manure. If you are thinking about a fall garden, plant the cool weather vegetables as such as radishes, turnips, mustard and lettuce.

In September, I wrote about getting the beds ready for bulbs. Daffodils, tulips and Dutch iris can be planted. It's a little early, but if you've refrigerated them, they can be planted.

Bulbs require a soil that has good drainage. Heavy compact soil prevents good root growth; waterlogged soil will make the bulbs rot. To improve soil drainage, spade the area to be planted to a depth of 12 inches. Work in a generous amount of well-rotted manure or compost or sphagnum peat moss.

Also spade in a fertilizer high in phosphorus, calcium and magnesium or phosphorus-rich bone meal can be worked into the soil at the bottom of the planting hole or bed you've dug.

To plant a clump of bulbs, dig a hole 9 to 12 inches deep, then refill the hole with loose soil until the depth is correct for the bulbs. Set each bulb point up and press gently.

After planting the bulbs in the fall, cover the bed with a 3 to 4 inch layer of mulch such as straw, wood chips or compost. Mulch insulates the soil during the cold winter months. Remove the mulch as soon as the bulb foliage begins to appear above the soil in the spring.

Spring and tulips are practically synonymous. With proper selection, daffodils can bloom over a three-month period from mid to late winter.

When you add lilies to your garden, you add a long season of color and dazzling blooms.

Aside from good drainage, bulbs need a minimum 15 week cold period, but they must not freeze.

Now about irises: They bloom when few other plants do--after the spring-flowering bulbs. Most people grow the bearded type. They live through severe droughts and cold. Blooms usually appear in May and June. Some do bloom in the fall. Irises need full sunshine and soil with good drainage.

Maybe you can't grow everything like you want to. But maybe you can get a few ideas, suggestions or hints on how to be a Good-Guy-Gardener, from these writings. Anyway I surely enjoy trying to help you in some small way.

This old world we're living in, Is mighty hard to beat; You get a thorn with every rose, But ain't the roses sweet!

THE $51 PER BALE ADVANTAGE FOR COTTON PRODUCERS

More than $51 per bale paid in cash for the 1993 crop.

Your local and regional cotton cooperatives offer a vertically integrated system that takes your cotton from the field to the textile mill. It's a system that adds valuable income to your farming operation. Ginning, warehousing, marketing, textile manufacturing, and cottonseed processing all work to increase the value of your cotton crop every step of the way. For the 1993 cotton crop, combined cash payments from the local and regional cotton cooperatives averaged $51.62 per bale, over and above the value of your lint cotton. Thus, the more cotton you send through the cooperative system, the more you can add to your net profits. Consider the cooperative advantage for your cotton crop. From your local cooperative gin to the warehouses, the oil mill, the marketing association and the denim mill - it's just good business. See your local or regional cotton cooperative today.

Football Fans Love No-Fumble Snacks

Football fans will love (l to r) Parmesan Cheese Sticks, Hot Sticks and Spicy Mustard Sticks.

(NAPS)—If you want to score a touchdown with your hungry football fans without running yourself ragged, here are some ideas for easy-to-prepare hot appetizers. The main ingredient is Bread du Jour® breadsticks. All you do is mix up different toppings, brush on and bake. The result is these crowd pleasing snacks that take only minutes to make.

HOT STICKS

1 tablespoon taco seasoning mix

PARMESAN CHEESE STICKS

2 tablespoons Parmesan cheese

1/8 teaspoon garlic powder

SPICY MUSTARD STICKS

1 teaspoon Dijon mustard
1/8 teaspoon dried basil

In a small bowl, add any of the combinations listed to 3 tablespoons melted butter or margarine. Brush top surface of original or sourdough Bread du Jour breadsticks with butter mixture. Bake at 400° for 6-8 minutes or until golden brown. Serve hot.

If the crowd decides to stay for dinner, Bread du Jour can help there, too. Great main dish recipes from some of America's premiere restaurants are contained in "A Celebration of the Home-Cooked Meal." To order your copy send your name and address to: Bread du Jour Recipe Book, 1230 N. First Street, St. Louis, MO 63102.

Harvest Carnival set for Oct. 29

The Haskell Business Association invites the public to join the fun at the Harvest Carnival, to be held Saturday, Oct. 29, at the Haskell Civic Center.

The fun begins at 6 p.m. and will continue until 10.

The carnival will feature games and contests for everyone. There is no admission charge, but game tickets will be sold for 50 cents each.

Activities will be sponsored by the business and include: Color Wheel, McGee's Lumber Yard; Sucker Booth, Carpet Express; Treat Walk Personality-Slipper Shoppe; Cake Walk, Lane-Felker; Dart Throw, Larned Sales Center; Basketball Throw, Sport About; Penny Toss, Fieldan Inn; and a Duck Pond, KVRP.

Others are Football Throw, First National Bank; Ring Toss/Candy Jar, Barbara's Boutique; Putt-Putt, F&D Electronics; Junior Basketball Throw, Hartsfield Insurance; Tic Tac Toss, Nanny Plumbing; Washer Toss, WTU; Go Fishing, G&G Carpet; and Baseball Throw, M-System.

Haskell Butane will sponsor a

Pie Throw, which will feature Jimmy Lisle, Bill Stewart, Jo McGuire and Bobby Tidwell as targets.

A hunter green and cranberry full/queen size quilt in the Triple Irish Chain pattern has been made by Pat Grand and will be given away the night of the carnival. Tickets are on sale at the sponsoring businesses. A donation of $1 gives the donor one chance, $5 buys six chances. The quilt is on display at The Carousel.

For those who like to eat while having fun, there will be a concession stand complete with popcorn from Haskell National Bank.

Other activities will include a Jewelry Booth, Heads or Tails/Rick Plemister; Face Painting; Magic Show; and a clown.

There also will be a costume contest for all ages. Prizes will be awarded to the contest winners.

The Roman Empire lasted over 700 years and at its height extended from northern Britain to the Persian Gulf.

All residents of the community and surrounding area are invited to attend.

Crop reform bill contains deadlines

The recently enacted crop reform bill contains important deadlines for farmers who are concerned with maintaining eligibility for USDA benefits such as farm program payments.

The reminder comes from Glenn Brzozowski, executive director of the Haskell County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS).

The new law, signed by President Clinton on Oct. 13, requires producers of insurable crops to take out at least the minimum catastrophic level of insurance to remain eligible for USDA benefits.

Brzozowski said that while producers of fall-seeded crops have until early next year to sign up for catastrophic coverage and remain eligible for benefits, those who wish "buy-up" coverage on their fall-seeded insurable crops must do so by Oct. 31. He urges these producers to check with their local private crop insurance agent to determine applicable crops and other options.

"Buy-up" coverage is available only through private crop insurance agents but farmers seeking only catastrophic coverage may sign up within the next few months at either their local ASCS office or with private agents.

The new law--the Federal Crop

Insurance Reform Act of 1994--combines the crop insurance and disaster assistance programs into one program beginning with the next year's crop. Its provisions virtually eliminate the possibility of future crop disaster assistance programs.

Brzozowski said, however, that for 1994 weather-related disasters, the current ASCS crop disaster assistance program will continue much like it has in recent years. The target date for farmers to begin applying at county ASCS offices for partial reimbursement on their 1994 weather-related crop losses is early December.

The 1994 program is similar to those in recent years in which farmers with crop insurance who suffered crop losses greater than 35 percent of normal production (40 percent losses for those without crop insurance) would be eligible for partial reimbursement.

TAX PLANNING

Written By
Gerald Rodgers, CPA

There's Still Time for Year-End Tax Planning

As we enter the gift-giving season, here's one present you can give yourself: a lower tax bill.

To start saving money, estimate your 1994 taxes. Then fine-tune your withholding and estimated tax payments. Your goal is to pay the IRS enough to avoid a penalty, without making Uncle Sam an interest-free loan.

If it looks like you're headed for an overpayment, consider skipping your fourth quarter estimate, or ask your employer to withhold less from your remaining paychecks. If an underpayment seems likely, increase your withholding, or consider making a catch-up estimate.

As a general rule, try to pull deductions into 1994, and postpone income until 1995. But consider the opposite strategy if you expect to be in a higher tax bracket next year, or if you're subject to the alternative minimum tax this year. Savings and 401 (k) plans at work are excellent tax shelters, so consider participating to the maximum extent possible.

If you own stocks, bonds, or mutual funds that have declined in value, consider selling them for a loss and replacing them with similar securities. This is called a "swap." But be careful not to swap for an "identical" security within 30 days, or the wash-sale rules will disallow your loss.

Up to $3,000 of losses may be used to offset salary, interest, and dividend income. If you want to take even larger losses, consider selling some of your profitable holdings. Then, you may use an even larger amount of investment losses to offset your investment gains. And since gains aren't subject to the wash-sale rules, you may immediately repurchase your winning positions.

See us for help with swap sales, and other year-end planning strategies before it's too late to do anything to cut 1994 taxes.
