

Will Rogers Memorial Round-Up To Be Greatest Event In Bailey History

Two big parades, two big rodeo performances, dances, and other entertainment are now being developed for the first annual Muleshoe's Will Rogers Memorial Roundup. Committees handling various phases of the big celebration are going in high gear to get everything in shape for the event which is scheduled for Thursday and Friday, August 30 and 31.

Lloyd Alsop, active minded young Muleshoe insurance agency man, thought up the idea of naming the local celebration in honor of one of Muleshoe's earliest and most constant friends, the late Will Rogers, world renowned philosopher and humorist.

Alsop won out over 62 other contestants who submitted fine names. The executive committee decided that the Will Rogers name is a natural for this celebration, since Will regularly visited local ranches during round up time, helped handle the cattle, visited with local friends and generally enjoyed himself for several days. In those days he used to date line his newspaper columns from Muleshoe. He was a guest of the Halls on their ranch east of town.

Mayor Ray Keeling telephoned Will Rogers, Jr., in Beverly Hills, Calif., to get permission to use the name. The latter said the family would be honored to have Muleshoe use the name; he is sending a 16-mm film showing his father's rope tricks and vaudeville acts to be exhibited before civic clubs and other groups here.

Two Parades Planned

The parade committee found so many possibilities for the children's section of the parade they decided to hold the kiddies' parade the following day. So the main parade will move at 4 o'clock Thursday, the kiddies' parade Friday at the same hour. There are seven divisions in the kiddies parade with merchandise prizes for winning entries.

The Muleshoe band definitely will be on hand on both days to make music and the parade committee is hopeful that other bands will come here to take part. Bob Gray, director of the Muleshoe band, has called for practice to begin August 13 and will assemble seniors and juniors that day.

Good Will Tours Planned

Good will tours of the entire section will be made by a motor vehicle caravan. The first day's trip will take the rodeo boosters west and south, through Clovis, Portales, Morton, Loveland, Littlefield and Sudan. On the second day the tour will go east through Plainview, north to Tulia, back to Dimmitt and Friona. Both trips will be a little more than 200 miles in length.

Literature will be distributed in each community and a short entertainment program will be offered.

Mrs. Naomi St. Clair has accepted the general chairmanship of the parade of the kiddies on the second day and has appointed a number of local ladies to assist her in making the arrangements. The Rotary Club of Muleshoe is offering $100 in four prizes for the best floats to be entered. Nearly thirty floats have been promised so far. Many other organizations and firms will have a float of some kind in the parade.

Friday afternoon will be the Childrens Parade which the committee divided into seven major divisions: Hand Cart Floats, Decorated Bicycles, Clowns, Mother Goose Characters, Uniformed Scout Troops, Uniformed Cub Packs and Pet Show.

LED TO SLAUGHTER—Here shown being led to the horse trough for a nice dunking is Ray Keeling, ye mayor, whose grin changed to growls a moment later as he hit the water. But the weather was hot and the water was cold, so hizzoner seemed to enjoy it. It was his penalty for shaving, since the men of Muleshoe are growing beards to publicize their Will Rogers Memorial Roundup here last of the month. Gene Lowe, Buddy Blackman, Myron Pool, Jr., and others are pushing and hauling the big boy along.

WHAT'S THIS! WHAT'S THIS—Mayor of Muleshoe runs amok! As soon as he came out of the horse trough Keeling grabbed everybody in sight and tossed them in, too. Here he is shown tossing Roy Bayless into the trough, assisted by Gene Lowe. Innocent bystanders went into the trough, whether or not they had a shaving permit or whether or not they sported beards.

Osborn Sells Controlling Interest In Muleshoe Bank

Jesse M. Osborn, president of the Muleshoe State Bank, announces the sale of the controlling interest in the bank to a group of businessmen from Lubbock, Plainview, and Dallas.

Mr. Osborn stated that he wished to give more attention to some of his other business affairs, but would continue to devote a portion of his time to the bank. No radical changes in the policy of the institution are anticipated by the change in ownership.

Lions Sponsoring Miss Muleshoe

The Muleshoe Lions Club this week voted wholehearted support of the Will Rogers Memorial Round-up when it agreed to sponsor the Miss Muleshoe Contest, and to provide other added attractions to assure this city the outstanding civic celebration of the year.

By unanimous vote of the board of directors, the Lions agreed to provide a $100 wardrobe to the winning contestant. In addition to winning the title and the wardrobe, the young lady selected will represent Muleshoe at all civic attractions in neighboring localities when this city is asked to send a princess or delegate. She will serve as Muleshoe's official beauty representative until the 1952 contest decides her successor.

Plans laid by the committee composed of Lloyd Alsop, Lee Pool and Carroll Goss, included the selection of the winner at a gala Pageant of Beauty to be held at the High School Auditorium on the night of Aug. 30. Immediately following her coronation the title holder will be escorted to the Rodeo Grounds to make her first official appearance following her grand entry.

Merchants in town are asked to select an entrant for the event that is open to any comely young lady in the Muleshoe trade territory, and to have her ride on their float on the opening day of the round-up.

Three All-American football stars have been invited to judge the local beauties and to select the winner. Names of the judges will be released as soon as their acceptance has been obtained.

Special music for the event is also being arranged and the Lion sponsors assure the Round-Up Committee that the beauty show will be one of the outstanding entertainment events of the celebration.

Two Big Parades In Round-Up

Interest in the event was growing by leaps and bounds following announcement of the official name for the round-up.

Chief Jones parade committee of the Rotary Club enlisted the aid of Mrs. L. L. St. Clair who immediately suggested a children's division for the Thursday afternoon event. As the plans developed it was decided that the youngsters be given a parade of their own on the following day.

Thus Muleshoe was assured of two spectacular street parades. Thursday the Opening Day parade will feature bands, floats, and other marching attractions provided by business firms, clubs and other adult organizations.

Mrs. St. Clair accepted the chairmanship of the event, and the Mesdames Morris Childers, Mary Nell Chapman, Howard Elliott, Rufus Gilbreath, Harold King and Red Wright were named as committee women.

Preliminary plans for the youngsters' event included prizes for each division winner, the participation of the High School Band and such other floats from the Thursday parade as sponsors cared to enter.

In the meantime 19 other floats in addition to those announced last week, were entered to bring the total floats pledged to close to 40. Early Wednesday morning the first out of town entry was received from Mrs. F. A. Andreas of the Pleasant Valley Social Club.

Other sponsors secured during the week included Davis-Lenderon, Douglass Implement Co., Hornbrook Drilling Co., McDonald Implement Co., C. & H. Chevrolet, Arnold Morris, Harts Hardware, Johnson and Pool.

Dyer Hardware and Furniture Co., Bovell Motor Supply, Weston Auto, St. Clair Stores, Benton Food Market, Muleshoe Softball Club, Piggy-Wiggly Store, Muleshoe Food Store, Ray Griffiths Elevator and the Muleshoe Elevator.

Mr. Grandy said a full faculty will be on hand at the opening of schools. There are a few vacancies at the present time but they are expected to be filled within a short time.

It would be appreciated very much by school officials if the persons dumping the dead trees on the school property near the elementary school would remove them as this site will be in use as soon as the school starts.

Babson Discusses

CROPS

New Boston, N. H., August 3.—The season is now far enough advanced to make a fair estimate of the U. S. crops for 1951. Hence, I have been busy this past week getting necessary data to make an intelligent forecast.

372,000,000 ACRES PLANTED
Statistics show that more acreage has been planted this year than at any time since 1933. Ordinarily, due to the crops now in storage, the Federal Government would have demanded reduced acreage for most products. Due, however, to the Korean situation, all farmers were given the green light with no restrictions.

Owing to the increased use of farm machinery with modern methods of furrowing and draining, farmers are raising more crops per acre. This is especially true where farmers are using fertilizers and carefully selected seeds. Selected seeds, especially in the case of corn, is a revolutionary step. (Modern methods of selecting laying hens are largely responsible for the surplus of eggs.)

WHAT STATISTICS INDICATE
As a result of all these favorable factors, I forecast a corn crop of about 3,300,000 bushels which would be the third largest in U. S. history. The wheat crop I estimate will be about 1,100,000,000 bushels which should be the largest ever harvested.

Oats should be about the same as last year, namely, 1,400,000,000 bushels; barley should harvest about 265,000,000 bushels, a little more than last year; rye should harvest 26,000,000 bushels, or more than last year. Hay cut this year should be 115,000,000 tons which would be 3,000,000 tons more than last year.

FEWER POTATOES EXPECTED
The government has discouraged potato growing with the result that the forecast is for only 350,000,000 bushels compared with 439,500,000 bushels last year. This means that not so many will be destroyed. Tobacco, however, is up, the forecast being 2,300,000,000 pounds compared with 2,000,000,000 pounds last year.

As to miscellaneous crops, it looks as if sugar beets and flaxseed would be less, but the rice crop should be larger. Beans, hops, peas, tomatoes and cabbage should yield about the same. The quick-freezing process, however, should ultimately help peas, beans and tomatoes.

GOOD FRUIT YEAR
Present indications are that citrus fruits in Florida will have a good season due to plenty of rain. The demand for citrus is constantly increasing due to the quality and advertising of the concentrated quick-frozen juices. Recent crop failures in California and Texas should keep down total national production and hold prices up.

The peach crop is estimated at 67,000,000 bushels compared with 65,500,000 last year; pears 2,000,000 compared with 31,000,000 last year; while about the same amount of cherries, apricots and lemons may be expected. The apple crop should continue good, about as last year; around 122,000,000 bushels; while grapes are running ahead of last year. The hope for both of these staple fruits rests with canning the juices.

WHAT ABOUT PRICES?
As to prices, wheat now is about $2.29 per bushel same as a year ago; corn is $1.77 compared with $1.56 a year ago; beef sides are .59 per pound compared with .53 a year ago; pork is .53 compared with .66 a year ago; granulated sugar is .088 compared with .081 a year ago; coffee is .53 compared with .56 a year ago; cotton is .38 compared with .39 a year ago; wool tops are $2.57 compared with $2.15 a year ago; while K. C. hides are .37 compared with .27 a year ago.

In closing let me say something about the Kansas City flood. I know Kansas City, being part owner of forty high-grade drug stores there. But note this fact. If this flood had happened twenty years ago it would have done very little damage as the land had not been built upon. Kansas had experienced a long period of dry years and real estate promoters said, "Taint going to rain no more". Thereupon a great building boom developed on this low land. But they were wrong. Moral: Man has not yet controlled the weather. After a long series of dry crop years, wet years are sure to follow; and after we have good rains, as has been the case since 1933, dry years are sure to follow.

BIOLOGICAL WARFARE WORRIES PHILOSOPHER

He Offers His Farm To Repel Any Invasion Of Foreign Airborne Insects

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has another idea to get out of work, if you ask us, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:
It was so hot out here yesterday I was able to read only the front page of my newspaper, takes too much energy to turn a page in weather like this, and down toward the bottom of the page I noticed an article advising farmers to keep an eye on germ warfare.

That is, as I understand it, the next war will have some novel ideas in it, apart from shootin at each other, and among these will be biological warfare, which I understand consists of the enemy spreadin disease among livestock, or boll weavils in the cotton, or potato bugs in the potatoes, or corn borers in the corn, etc.

Now you take the ordinary farmer, he's gonna have a hard time discoverin when war has been declared, as he's already afflicted by about all the insects there are. Why I've seen years when my crops was so infested, if I'd known about biological warfare, I'd figured the rest of the world had just declared war on me. Talk about wild rumors, we're gonna have plenty, but the thing has its brighter side.

For example, it's gonna be mighty handy to be able to tell your wife, no use tryin to make a crop this year, them Russians airborne boll weavils will get it before a man has a chance to get started, or them Chinese beetles will sabotage me, sure as anything.

And I've been thinkin, what this country needs is an anti-insect belt, a buffer area, sort of like a radar net-work, to repel an invasion, to sort of protect the rest of the crops, and if suitable financial payments can be arranged, I will enlist my farm in such a plan. Will let it grow up in weeds and grass, so when foreign insects hit here, they'll starve to death before they get on over into the real farmin section. By strategically locatin similar farms throughout the country, we might be able to whip the thing. Washington ought to get to work on this right away. Will be glad to lease my farm for a reasonable amount to the government, and meanwhile will bend every effort to get it in the proper run-down shape and will guarantee to keep it that way. When danger threatens American agriculture, you'll find me willin to do my part.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

FARMER and BANKER

Return of hard times would bring complete government domination of the farming industry, a gathering of country bankers was told at a meeting in Dallas Monday. Fred M. Shaw of the Texas Research Foundation was speaker.

Mr. Shaw is right with some good ground to spare. Farmers will be completely regimented by government without a depression, if the present trend continues, although it will not come as quickly as it would under depression conditions. And the outbreak of a full scale war would have the same effect. Even the present small scale conflict has moved things in that direction.

But there is a more constructive argument for co-operation and mutual assistance between farmer and country banker.

Their welfare is affected, favorably and unfavorably, by identical conditions. The country banker has played a constructive role in Texas farming. He has charged some pretty high interest rates in the past, but he had to do so. He is in much better position to serve today than ever before. And independent, individualistic, country banking is an essential part of our grass-roots economy.

There is much merit in this move for closer co-operation between farmer and country banker, which seems to have originated with a country banker, P. B. (Jack) Garrett. Mr. Garrett heads a Dallas bank, but he is smart enough to know that all Texas bankers are country bankers. Crop growing and livestock raising are still the basis of the Texas economy, despite the outpourings of oil and industrial products. —Dallas News.

Connally Hits Plan To Expend Billions Abroad

Declaring that "the shoemaker should stick to his last", Senator Tom Connally (D. Tex.) last week strongly criticized the Economic Cooperation Administration for its plans for large-scale assistance to the whole free world.

"Where are you going to get the revenue and the money and the taxes to do that?" Connally demanded. "You fellows who spend all your time spending money for the government do not ever think about how we have to struggle here in Congress to get the money. Right down the hall now the Finance Committee is in session struggling with a tremendous tax bill. You want to take that money that is squeezed out of our people and take it over across on the other side of the world to build up and take care of these little wobbling countries?"

Connally, the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, reminded Foster of the Administration's earlier statement that it planned drastic reductions in ECA funds in Europe and the diversion of those funds to European rearmament.

"Yet," said the Senator, "you come up here for hundreds of millions for Southeast Asia. What does that have to do with Europe?"

"You were appointed to take care of ECA over in Europe, get out of the business over in Europe and divert the funds you have been receiving for ECA to the military rearming of Western Europe, and here you are putting the main emphasis on going out to Southeast Asia and chasing a problem out there instead of sticking to Western Europe."

"Do you think the Russians are going to come over through Southeast Asia and then attack us over here?" Connally asked. "Western Europe is our danger if we are going to be invaded or going to be attacked. It will be through Western Europe if we are attacked."

The first rodeos on record were held in Greece.

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Outdoors With Jesus

"Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest". (John 4:35.)
Read John 4:1-39.

Many have gazed in amazement at the beauty and bounty of the "amber waves of grain" beneath sunny skies. Perhaps some of us have paused long enough to go to the edge of some field. If so, our mood has suddenly changed, for we have seen there the kernels of wheat falling to the ground. We have said to ourselves: "Why is the field of grain standing? It should be cut. What is the delay? Each day's loss is great."

In His day, Jesus said, in a figure of speech drawn from the outdoors, "Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest". The unceasing call, "Send us missionaries", comes from east and west. It encircles the globe. People are saying, "Why do not more come to tell us? Is it because they do not love us, or because they do not love Jesus very much?" There are harvest fields in my own country and in yours; indeed, in the very communities in which each of us lives. "Lift up your eyes", Jesus says, "and look on the fields".

PRAYER

Lord God, our Father, forgive our slowness in answering Thy call. Help us to realize the urgency of the harvest. Enable us that we may do our part in the salvation of our fellow men everywhere. In the name of Jesus we ask it. Amen.

Plainview Choir Visit Enjoyed

The members of the choir of the First Methodist Church in Plainview enjoyed their visit to Muleshoe almost as much as the local people enjoyed the visitors' singing and the pleasure of meeting them.

Under direction of Charlie Dean, a former district attorney, who is composer as well as singer and director, the group, consisting of more than 30 voices sang several songs just preceding the sermon by Dr. Caradine R. Hooton last Thursday night in the revival which closed at the local Methodist church Sunday.

Mrs. Dean played the electric organ as accompanist. The group has several fine soloists. The congregation gladly would have listened to more. The choir joined in singing with the congregation of old hymns. Five local ministers were in the congregation that night.

After the services the entire group from Plainview were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bigam and Miss Gwyneth Bigam for a lawn party in the Bigams' beautiful back yard. Cold watermelon, ice cream and cookies were served to fifty-nine persons.

OPS Grants Price Increase For Pork

LUBBOCK.—Dollars and cents ceiling prices that will mean increases of 3 to 9 cents a pound in the cost of pork loins have been issued by the Office of Price Stabilization in order to offset the cost to processors and sellers of substantial increases in the cost of live hogs since last January, the Lubbock district OPS office advises.

The higher ceiling price affect pork loins weighing 16 pounds or less and will affect retail prices of roasts and chops. The prices replace those frozen at seasonally low levels by the general ceiling price regulation issued last January. The new interim regulation, which was immediately effective, sets a maximum ceiling price of 52 cents a pound for regular pork loins weighing 16 pounds or less delivered in Chicago to the buyers by a seller who slaughters hogs or cuts the loin from a dressed hog he bought.

For pricing purposes the country is divided into six zones and actual ceilings in various areas will reflect specified transportation cost additions.

The district OPS office said the ceiling will be effective pending establishment of uniform dollars and cents ceiling for pork products.

The agency has announced dollars and cents ceiling prices on scrap tires, tire parts and scrap tubes and set ceiling prices for other kind of scrap rubber for each seller on the basis of his selling price between November 15 and December 31.

It also placed dollars and cents ceilings on three standard types of antifreeze applicable to retail sales and sales to retail dealers. For all other sales, sellers determine their ceiling prices by applying to the spelled out ceilings the same percentage discounts or price differentials that were in effect from April 1 to December 1, 1950.

The new ceilings, effective August 6, and the spelled out prices are at the same level at which major brands were frozen January 26, 1951, under the general price regulation. They are 25 cents per gallon at retail higher than such brands at the offset of last season.

The ceilings for standard types of anti-freeze per gallon are $1.50 for volatile (such as synthetic methanol); $1.40 for diluted synthetic methanol; and $3.75 for permanent (glycol).

The regulation requires that all anti-freeze packaged 30 days after the effective date must specify the type of anti-freeze, its strength and the ceiling price. Retailers must post ceiling prices in their establishments.

And regulations, establishing a method for calculating ceiling prices for all canned and pressed fruits and berries, will apply first to light sweet cherries, dark sweet cherries, red sour pitted cherries, and apricots of the 1951 pack.

PMA Urges Cover Crops For Cultivated Fields To Add Nitrogen

Because of the nitrogen they add to the soil, legume cover crops have a cash value in addition to their other soil improving qualities, says H. E. Schuster, chairman of the Bailey County Production and Marketing Administration committee. Urging farmers to get a green cover on their fields which have been in cultivated crops during the growing season, he particularly stresses legumes since they gather nitrogen from the air and add it to the soil.

The amount of nitrogen which cover crop gathers varies with the size of the crop, recent experiments indicate. In Tifton, Georgia on land that was later put into cotton, the average of seven different cover crops of Austrian winter peas and vetch gathered over 62 pounds of nitrogen per acre. That amount of nitrogen in commercial fertilizer would have cost about $13.00. In contrast the average of 10 cover crops in Texas gathered but little more than 17 pounds of nitrogen to the acre. That would have cost about $3.25. But Texas does grow some big cover crops. At College Station Texas two fields with heavy stands of cover crops showed an increase of 156 pounds of nitrogen per acre, with a value of about $28.50.

The tests indicated also that soils that were in cover crops continued to produce more over a four-year period than those which lay bare over winter.

But even this does not indicate the full value of the legume cover crops, the chairman points out. These crops hold the soil in place, help to maintain the organic matter content of the soil, they act as depositories for left-over fertilizer at the end of the growing season, and they generally help to increase the productivity of the land. In the chairman's words, cover crops, particularly legumes, will improve the best of our soils. That's why they are included in the Agricultural Conservation Program. Farmers are urged to make arrangements for their seed without delay so that they can get their crops in time to make a good growth this fall.

JENNINGS HAVE MOVED TO LITTLEFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. Olen Jennings last week left Muleshoe after having lived here for 17 years. Mr. Jennings is employed in the parts department of the Littlefield Buick Agency. They are at home at 1112 Southwest 5th.

Mrs. Jennings recently sold her business, the Dixie Lee Shop. Mr. Jennings has been employed at the C. & H. Chevrolet Co.

Only about three per cent of the adult population of the United States is naturally red headed.

ation is taking place in agriculture, says Dr. Timm.

Farmers have found it more profitable to do only what they can do efficiently and trade with those who produce and distribute other goods to greater advantage. This is one of the main reasons, Dr. Timm says, for such a high standard of living in the country today, both on and off the farm. He warns that the efficiency of agriculture must continue to increase. Production must be kept up or high unit costs will strangle the farmer.

AGRICULTURE AND BUSINESS ARE MORE INTERDEPENDENT

Agriculture and business are depending more and more on each other, declares Dr. T. R. Timm, agricultural economist for the Texas Extension Service. One of the main reasons for this development is the increasing commercialization of agriculture.

Dr. Timm points out, for example, that cash annual operating expenditures by farmers have increased from 5 to 18 billion dollars in the past 15 years.

Farms produce 71 percent more per person on them now than they did 15 years ago. Production per person during the last 15 years has increased at a faster rate in agriculture than in industry. An industrial revolu-

MRS. BOBBY JOE KIMBROUGH

Miss Kay Malone And Mr. Bobby Joe Kimbrough Marry Tuesday Night

Before a beautiful altar decorated with white gladiola in a ceremony performed by candle light, Miss Kay Malone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Malone became the bride of Pvt. Bobby Joe Kimbrough, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Kimbrough, Tuesday night, August 7 in the First Baptist Church in Muleshoe.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white Duchess satin and imported Chantilly type lace which was fashioned with lace drop shouldered yoke framed with double cuff of lace. The fitted bodice had long fitted lace sleeves ending in points over the hands and a slender point at center front of waistline, accenting its smallness. From this, stemmed an immense skirt. Made of satin with panels of ruffled lace panels it was swept into a long and graceful train at back and was worn over hoops to emphasize fullness. Her silk veil of illusion in finger-tip length was joined to lace Juliet cap-trimmed with white lilies. She carried a Rainbow Bible with white orchid and Fleur de Amour.

While soft music was being played, the candle lighters, Miss Leatrice Martin and Sondra Wagon lighted the candles at the altar.

Mrs. Inez Bobo sang "Always" and "Because", accompanied by Mrs. Elaine Damon at the organ. The maid of honor, Miss Billie Faye Graves was dressed in a long aqua satin dress with an over skirt of net. Her hat was of aqua satin with a shoulder length veil of aqua net. Gloves of aqua satin with shirred satin tops were worn also. She carried a bouquet of orchid gladiola florette with maline and ribbon in crescent shape.

The bridesmaids, Miss Barbara Douglass, Gay Sanders, Donna Kimbrough, and Jerie Nell White wore identical dresses like the maid of honor's in orchid with bouquets of white gladiola florette with aqua maline and ribbon. The candle lighters also were dressed like the bridesmaids and wore a corsage of white gladiola florettes.

The ushers for the occasion were: Jim Sybert, Charles Gaede, Ed Nickels, and Bruce Horsley. The officiating clergyman, Rev. R. L. Self of Estelline, Texas, was a boyhood friend of the bride's father.

For the wedding the bride's mother chose a chartreuse lace dress with matching lace hat trimmed in pink roses. Her corsage was of "Rubrum Lillies". The mother of the groom wore a mauve crepe dress with lace

Lovely To Look At Easy To Live In

Here is a ranch house that will look good in the country or in town. To add to the original beauty, we suggest you place it among some nice trees; if this is not possible, provide plenty of green shrubbery.

The house was designed for just such a setting in green, with red brick veneer walls and white boards and batten on the porches. Although it is designed for brick veneer, 4-inch concrete block veneer or ordinary wood siding will look good.

In addition to the outside attractiveness of the house, the interior arrangement is designed for the utmost comfort living. The kitchen work room combination is arranged so there will be a minimum of effort in preparing meals and preserving food. At the same time, the work room provides an excellent place for a home freezer, washing machine water heater and work clothes closet.

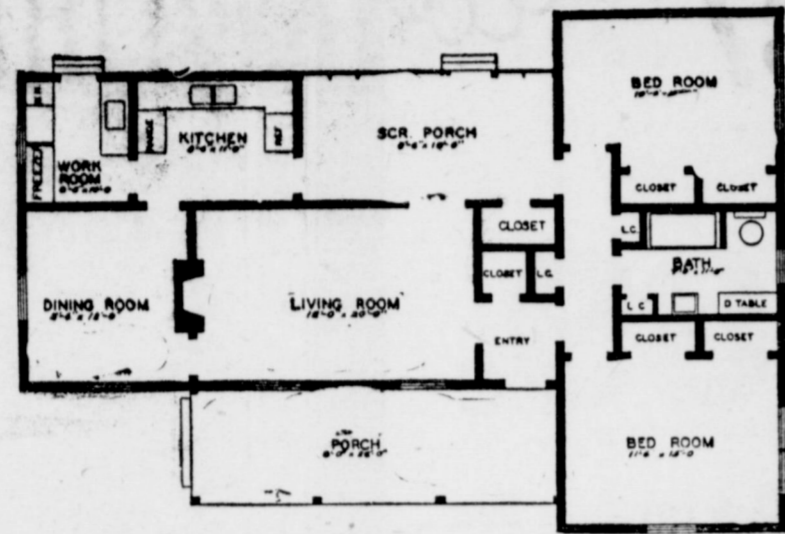

One glance at the floor plan and you'll be impressed with the abundance of always needed storage space. The screened porch on the back could be easily glassed-in to make an ideal everyday living room or a delightful place to serve the family meals both summer and winter. You can obtain blueprints for this THE MULESHOE JOURNAL FARM & RANCH Plan No. 4809 and a handy list of the materials by which you can figure your construction cost accurately. F H A Loan Funds Available

The local office of the Farmer's Home Administration has received information regarding loan fund allocation for this new fiscal year.

Authorization has been given to start submitting loans for eligible applicants. Funds are available for new loans and also for making supplemental loans to farmers already owing the agency.

Full time farm operators of family size farms are eligible for the new loans. As it has been in the past, only applicants who are unable to secure adequate credit from the local commercial sources are eligible. This agency will definitely not make loans that would be in competition with any local concern. These production type loans can be used for the purchase of machinery, livestock and farm operating expenses. The same limit of $3500. remains as the total amount any one man can borrow in one year. The agency will continue its supervised credit program or urging all borrowers to adopt a diversified program of income, to develop a strong live-at-home program and to follow all of the best improved farming practices. Loans will be for a specific purpose based on the farm plan for the crop year.

The local county office records reveal that on July 1, this year, the agency had loans outstanding.

Texas Draft Call In October Is 742

AUSTIN, Aug. 4— The Texas draft call for October is 742 men, Brig. Gen. Paul T. Wakefield, state Selective Service director announced today.

This compares with a September quota of 619 and an August call of 772. From March through July, state calls were decreased but beginning with the August call, quotas have been increased, the state draft director pointed out.

The October quota of 742 is the state's share of a national quota of 41,000, biggest national monthly quota since March. Part of the September and October quota of men will see service with the Marine Corps.

General Wakefield said that local board quotas for October will be assigned and mailed "around August 8 or 9". No local board quotas will be available until that time. Local boards have received September calls.

"I got the story on 50,000 Miles-No Wear and changed to New Conoco Super Motor Oil"

says H. Joseph Johnson
Taxi Fleet Owner
Maryville, Missouri

"Our fleet of cars are driven 25,000 to 30,000 miles a month. We find that motors lubricated with Conoco Super outwear the bodies of our cars."

"50,000 Miles-No Wear!" Proved Here:

After a punishing 50,000-mile road test, with proper drains and regular care, engines lubricated with new Conoco Super Motor Oil showed no wear of any consequence; in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crankshafts. AND gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 99.77% as good as for the first 5,000!

NEWSPAPER DELIVERY

"I make daily trips of 250 miles and more, delivering newspapers into Nebraska," reports Paul M. Foss, Cheyenne, Wyo. "After 70,000 miles exclusively on Conoco Super, I don't even have to add oil between 1,000-mile drains."

USED CAR SALESMAN

"A real money-saver—that's Conoco Super," says W. H. Grubbs, Used Car Salesman, Fort Worth, Tex. "I was driving a 1939 car using 2 quarts every 500 miles. I changed to Conoco Super and stopped having to add oil between drains."

VISITING JONES FAMILY
Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jones and children, of Louise, Texas, are visiting here in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Jones. The Jones also had as guests their son, Bryan Jones and his sister, Mrs. Fillmore Hendrix, of Lubbock.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES
Not physical force but spiritual understanding gives man power and strength, points out the Lesson-Sermon titled "Spirit" which will be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, August 12. At the outset the Golden Text states, "Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts" (Zechariah 4:16).
Further elucidating the theme is this Bible verse from Psalms: "God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power be lengthened unto God." A more detailed explanation is found in this citation to be read from the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Moral and spiritual might belong to Spirit, who holds the wind in His fists; and this teaching accords with Science and harmony. In Science, you can have no power opposed to God, and the physical senses must give up their false testimony."

ATTEND BARBECUE
Several members of the Muleshoe JayCees attended a barbecue chicken dinner given by the Littlefield Junior Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night. Those from Muleshoe attending were Mr. and Mrs. Tootie Middlebrooks, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Blackman, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Barnett, Carrol Howell, Gerald Priboth and Wilma Sowder.

Ever buy a car from this angle?

SURE, a trim new Buick makes a mighty pretty picture when you see it in your driveway, or watch it wheel by. But if you could get a mechanic's-eye view of this big, broad beauty as it sits on a lift, you'd see an impressive picture of rugged brawn that makes good-to-look-at Buicks give such a good account of themselves on the road. You'd see the full-length torque-tube drive that firms the whole power relay system, and steadies your going like a giant hand beneath you. You'd see big sturdy wheels with really wide rims that provide surer footing, give better car control, make tires last longer. You'd see all four wheels cushioned by stout coil springs that are completely service-free, practically breakproof — and a principal reason for the ever-level Buick ride. But mainly, you'd see the massive foundation that backbones every Buick —

the deep, wide, X-member frame that's rugged as a rock, and a brute for strength. So when you look at the beauty of a Buick — the big mileage power of its valve-in-head Fireball Engine — and the moneysaving ability of its Dynaflo Drive* — don't overlook the tough stamina that goes with it all. And don't overlook the fact that a new '51 Buick, with all its heft, costs less per pound than any other car of comparable size, structure and weight. Better come see us first chance you get — and find out what a smart buy this is — from every angle.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

No other car provides all this:
DYNAFLO DRIVE* • FIREBALL ENGINE • 4-WHEEL COIL SPRING DUAL VENTILATION • PUSH-BAR FOREFRONT • TORQUE-TUBE DRIVE WHITE-GLOW INSTRUMENTS • DREAMLINE STYLING • BODY BY FISHER WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT BUICK WILL BUILD THEM
