LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR—Haskell County's own Rick Perry was elected Lieutenant Governor during last Tuesday's election. Perry, who was joined by his family, defeated John Sharp to take the victory.

Rule Bobcats to play Whitharral Friday

Junior runningback Brian Lehrmann scored five touchdowns Fri. night as the Rule Bobcats knocked off the Guthrie Jaguars 58-28 in District 4A six-man football action. Head coach Paul Page's Bobcats, ranked number 11 in the state, wound up the regular season with nine wins and only one loss and will advance to the playoffs against the number 6 team in the state, Whitharral, on Fri. night in Crosbyton, beginning at 7:30.

Lehrmann started the scoring in the first quarter on a 25-yard pass from junior quarterback Josh Smith. Senior kicker Rafael Huerta added 2 points on the kick following the touchdown, one of his five conversions on the night. Later in the first quarter, Smith connected with Lehrmann on 48-yard pass-run scoring play. The quarter ended with Rule leading 14-

0. Rule's defense, led by Huerta, junior Cody Tibbets, and senior Eric Robinson, shut the Guthrie offense down inside the 10-yard line three times during the game, including once in the first quarter.

Guthrie scored in the second quarter when Quenton Gass got loose on a 17-yard run. However, the Bobcats answered with two runs, one of 32 yards and the other 42, plus a Huerta kick, to make the score near halftime 28-8. Senior back Brandon Richardson added a touchdown right before the half on a 25-yard pass from junior quarterback Seth Lee. The first half ended with Rule up 28-14.

The Jaguars kicked off to Rule to begin the second half. The Bobcats wasted no time in adding six more points on another pass from Smith to Lehrmann, this one a 43-yarder, raising the score to 34-

14. A little later in the third, Lee found Chance Richardson on a 39-yard pass play. With senior Byron Fields' kick, Guthrie was still down 34-22. Still in the third quarter, Rule's determined drive toward the south end zone ended successfully on a tough 4-yard run by senior scoring leader and runningback Jay Louder. With another of Huerta's good into-the-wind kicks, the score became Rule 42, Guthrie 22. Following another successful defensive effort by the Bobcats after a Guthrie fumble was recovered by Eric Robinson on the Jaguar 38-yard line, Smith found Robinson wide open for a 33-yard bomb, the seventh touchdown of the night for Rule. Huerta's kick made the score 50-22, when the third quarter ended.

Fourth quarter action saw the Bobcats score their final TD of the night on a 19-yard run by Tibbets. Once again, Huerta added the 2-point conversion. After Brandon Richardson's 2-yard scoring run, the strong Rule defense held the rest of the way to finish the night for the Bobcats' ninth win of the season, 58-28.

Also playing solid defense for the Rule Bobcats were seniors Louder and Michael Hunt and juniors Grant Hisey and Joe Sotelo, who blocked a Jaguar punt and recovered a Guthrie fumble in the first half. Playing much of the game were juniors Jeremy Hertel and Mike Casey. Also seeing some action in the game were seniors Richie Culpepper, sophomores Justin Coker and Humberto Sotelo and freshman Bobby Flores.

The game with Whitharral at Crosbyton will begin at 7:30 Fri. night. It will mark Rule's first trip to the football playoffs since 1991.

Indians close out season against Electra

For everything there is a season and a time for every purpose...

The Haskell Indians closed out their 1998 football season Fri. night when the Electra Tigers shut them out 0-40.

Electra turned on the juice early using a balanced running and passing attack to score six first half touchdowns. The Tigers' quarterback, Scott Anzaldua, threw for three TD's, all to Bob Bowden, on passes of 30, 12 and 25 yards while running backs, John Curry, Kyle Kimbro and Ryan Smith, ran for the other three touchdowns.

Electra winds out their season with a record of 2-3 in district 9-2A and 7-3 overall.

The Indians finished 1-4 in district 9-2A and 3-7 overall. In a season of ups and downs for the Indians, their kicking game, punting and punt coverage was among the leaders in district 9-2A. The kicking and punting game proved to be the most valuable of all the Indians special teams.

The entire Indian team put a lot of work into this '98 season, which brings to mind that the virtue of all achievement is victory over one's self. Those that know this victory will never know defeat!

Sagerton News

By Dorothy M. Clark

The community was saddened by the death of a lifelong resident, Jack Monse. Funeral service were held at Faith Lutheran Church Wed., Nov. 4. Jack grew up in our community and attended school here and graduated from Rule. Jack will be remembered for his devotion to his family and for his care that he gave his wife, Lois, during her bout with arthritis. As Pastor Zell stated in his sermon, Jack was a patient, kind and gentle man. His friends in the community respected him and always said "Jack was a good ole boy." He will be missed and the community extends its sympathy to his family.

Canadian Mounted Police at Regina, Saskatchewan. Little Thomas missed this event because he was just too tired and slept through it all. The Zells enjoyed seeing all the relatives and report that Thomas made the trip on the plane just fine. He's already flown more miles at his tender age than most Sagertonites have ever done. We're glad to have the Zells back home in the parsonage safe and sound.

Corine Lowack hosted a family dinner in her home Sun. for Charles and Helen Diers, Bobby, Kim and Kade Lowack and Alden, Janice and Ricky Lowack of Old Glory. It was a special day for Charles and Helen as Nov. 8 marked their wedding anniversary. Congratulations to them.

Don and Patsy Bivins of Valley View spent the weekend in the home of her parents, Joe and Dorothy Clark. The Clarks hosted a surprise birthday for Don Sat. night. Guests included Esther Kinman of Stamford, Corine Lowack, Melvin and Allella Baitz, Leon and Mae Stegemoeller, Carl and Mindi Stegemoeller of Hobbs, N. M. Don reached another plateau in his life and we really can't tell just what his age is now, but most of us aren't glad the speed limit isn't that amount any more!

The Hobby Club bazaar was another success and the ladies are to be commended for their hard work for the benefit of the community. Ten booths of arts and crafts were displayed, good homecooked food was served and everyone enjoyed the daylong festivities. Johnny Guinn won the turkey that was given away and Misty Adkins of Stamford was the lucky winner of the beautiful handmade quilt. Proceeds from the bazaar will be used for scholarships to local graduates and for other local projects. The club thanks everyone for supporting them.

The Rule football team won another exciting game last week and will begin the district playoffs Fri. night with Whithare. Again, we wish them well and hope that we can go to another game the following week.

State Capital

HIGHLIGHTS

By Ed Sterling
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — About one-third of Texas' 11.5 million registered voters cast ballots in the Nov. 3 election, tallying out as a Republican "coat-tails" sweep of statewide offices.

Popular incumbent Gov. George W. Bush picked up more than double the number of votes cast for the challenger, longtime Texas Land Commissioner Garry Mauro.

Continuing down the ballot, in the race for the powerful office of lieutenant governor, Agriculture Commissioner Rick Perry edged Comptroller John Sharp by 85,000 votes, or less than 2 percent of votes cast.

Former Texas Supreme Court Justice John Cornyn, running for attorney general, beat former Attorney General Jim Mattox after both men waged a multiweek war of mudslinging television ads.

Railroad Commissioner and "One Tough Grandma" Carole Keeton Rylander, 59, achieved a narrow (1 percent) victory in the race for state comptroller over up-and-coming 38-year-old Paul Hobby of Houston.

David Dewhurst, a Houston businessman, won an 18-point victory over state Rep. Richard Raymond, D-Benavides, for commissioner of the General Land Office.

State Rep. Susan Combs of Austin beat Brookston rancher L.P. "Pete" Patterson for agriculture commissioner.

And, former Secretary of State Tony Garza of Brownsville won the race for railroad commissioner with a 16-point margin over Huntsville lawyer Joe B. Henderson.

The Libertarian Party fielded candidates in the statewide races, but none managed to garner more than 2.7 percent of the vote.

MAP Program Reaches DFW

Good drivers in 39 underserved ZIP codes in Dallas and Fort Worth are now eligible to get help in finding lower-cost car insurance through the Texas Department of Insurance.

A toll-free call to 1-888-799-6277 connects with TDI's automobile insurance Market Assistance Program, which uses the Internet to send eligible drivers' applications to participating insurance companies.

Launched July 1 in Austin, El Paso and the Rio Grande Valley, the program added ZIP codes in Houston on Sept. 1. Underserved ZIP codes in the remainder of the state will join the program on Jan. 1.

Insurance Commissioner Elton Bomer started the program to help good drivers who became insured by the state's assigned risk plan or by county mutual insurers. County mutuals specialize in covering problem drivers at unregulated rates.

"The MAP is a Texas-style approach that encourages insurance companies to voluntarily cover these misplaced drivers at rates that match their driving records," Bomer said.

Applications from eligible drivers go to nine insurance company groups that write about two-thirds of the car insurance sold in Texas. They are Allstate, Farmers, GEICO, Nationwide, Progressive, Prudential Property & Casualty, Safeco, Southern Farm Bureau and State Farm.

Each insurer is participating voluntarily and has agreed to charge customers obtained through the MAP the same rates as its other standard and preferred car insurance customers.

Bush Reappoints Mike Moses

One of Gov. Bush's first official acts after winning re-election was to declare his intention to reappoint Dr. Mike Moses to another term as commissioner of education.

Bush first appointed Moses in 1995 to the Texas Education Agency which oversees the state's vast public education system. That term of office expires in January. The reappointment is subject to Senate confirmation.

"I am honored that Governor Bush has asked me to serve another term," Moses said. "I really enjoy working with George Bush and his team. I am honored to be able to serve."

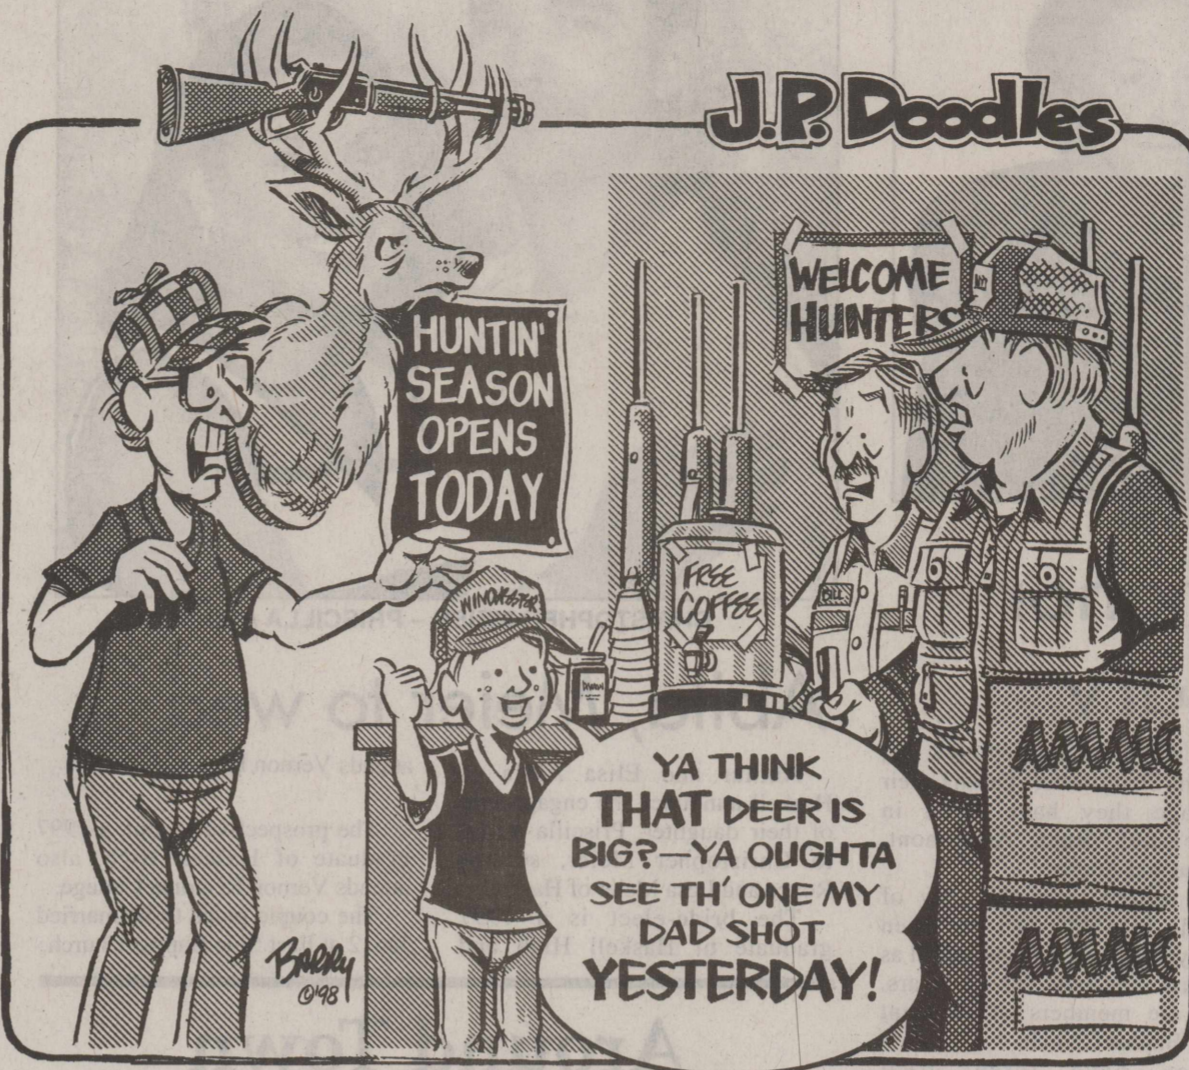

Moses has implemented the Governor's Reading Initiative, administered the rewritten education code and downsized the Texas Education Agency from 1,144 employees to 834 employees. He also has worked to improve the state's curriculum standards.

"We have a good education system in Texas. It is improving mightily and will continue to do so under my leadership and the leadership of Mike Moses," Bush said.

The number of students passing all parts of the Texas Assessment of Academic Skills has risen from 55 percent in 1994 to 77 percent in 1998. Also, the number of students taking Advanced Placement exams, which allow them to earn college credit, increased 18 percent this year, compared to the national average of 8 percent.

From The Inside Out

By Mary Kaigler

"The past is a work of art, free of irrelevancies and loose ends," wrote Sir Max Beerbohm in the 1800s.

During this past year, members of the Haskell County Historical and Genealogical Society have gathered pictures of some of the relevant events and realities of the county's past, tying up the loose ends of their extensive research into an artful calendar: A Look Back at Haskell County.

Arriving from the printers last week, just in time for Christmas "gifting", the limited edition of calendars will no doubt be a sell-out fund raiser for the Society's projects. For anyone whose roots extend into the soil of this historical part of West Texas, this "look back" will be a treasure for more than just the next 365 days.

Well done and attractive, the calendar not only has ample space for the necessary daily notes and reminders that invariably fill the days of busy lives, it also features each month, a vintage picture along with a brief explanation of the event and place shown.

Beginning with January, a picture taken in pioneer Haskell County in 1886, showing 20 or more ranchers and cowboys on an early-day cattle roundup, identifies Henry S. Post, "Uncle" Tom Ballard, Henry Labriere and Jim Bailey. From there throughout the calendar year, pictures include the T.G. Carney home built in O'Brien in 1906, when the town was called Carney; a 1907 street scene in Weinert showing Richelman's Grocery Store; the first fair in Haskell around the courthouse square in 1903; a 1909 scene of Rule, with buildings identified; and a view of the Haskell square from atop the courthouse showing the Collier-Andruss Drug Store and Linden Hotel.

Some of the important historical events shown in the calendar, which shaped the lives of early residents, were an early-day baptizing of a large group of converts in the tank at Balzer's Gin at Sagerton in the Fall of 1908, and the laying of the cornerstone at the new Haskell Methodist Church in January, 1920. The Methodists had organized in 1885 and built the first church in Haskell County in 1889.

Scenes of early-day farming, picking and weighing up cotton, hog killings and bailing hay with the help of itinerant farm hands, wagons and mules, give an apt picture of the agricultural heritage of the county.

Carefully considered and edited, the pictures for the calendar were chosen by Wanda Ham, Ernestine Herren and Mattie Felker English. Many of the photos had to be digitally enhanced to restore them to a printable quality. It will be hard for anyone to see them without wanting to see and hear more of the County's colorful history. The Society is selling them for $6.50 each to raise funds for their ongoing projects of restoration and preservation. They are hoping others in the county will also become as interested in becoming as active in such endeavors as they undoubtedly are.

The Haskell County Historical and Genealogical Society was formed in 1993, after considerable interest in such a group was indicated by a number of county residents. The first officers elected to serve were from across the area. They were President, R. S. Sanders of Weinert; Vice-president, Wanda Irby of Seymour; Recording Secretary, Doris Robbins of Stamford; Corresponding Secretary, Wanda Ham, Haskell; and Treasurer, Sue Medford, Haskell. The Executive Council also included the following: Editor, Kathryn Schonerstedt of Weinert; Librarian, Dorothy Hartsfield, Haskell; Genealogical Records Secretary, June White, Rule; and Historian, Wayne Dunnam, Haskell. Ernestine Herren was chairman of a committee for the collection and preservation of Bible, obituary and cemetery records. At the end of their first year full year in 1994, the Society numbered 50 charter members. Membership in the Society is open to everyone. A newsletter is sent quarterly to each member, giving interesting and historical facts and family histories.

Looking back, by looking into the Haskell County Historical and Genealogical Society's calendar, gives one a good feeling about the grit and strength of a hardy breed of good folk who helped tame this county we enjoy living in today.

As writer Tom Macaulay wrote in the 1850s, "...No man who is correctly informed as to the past will be disposed to take a morose or despondent view of the present."

In their dedication to preserving the facts and events of our yesterdays, the Historical Society is doing a service for those of us who are so busy with today. Their "Look Back" calendars, which are available at the Library, Basing's and from members of the Society, will artfully combine both yesterday and today for us right up through January 2000.

Legal Matters

By Attorney General Dan Morales

Nothing is more important than the safety of a child in a car. Your children depend on you to make sure they are protected when traveling on the road.

In Texas, all front seat passengers are required to wear seat belts. By law, children under age 2 must ride in child safety seats and those aged 2 to 4 must ride in children's car seats or wear seat belts.

Parents sometimes offer various excuses for not using safety seats or seat belts. However, no excuse can outweigh the importance of protecting our children and ensuring their safety.

Because the Attorney General is the chief consumer advocate for the citizens of Texas, I want to make sure that all Texas children are as safe as possible while in a car. I am pleased to offer the following tips on selecting a car seat that will best protect your children.

Car Seat Safety

Many parents find installing safety seats to be very difficult. According to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA), about 80 percent of all safety seats are properly installed.

There are a wide variety of safety seats available. Make sure that the one you buy both fits your car and has a label stating that it conforms to all federal motor vehicle safety standards.

The safety seat you buy must be properly installed and adjusted according to the manufacturer's directions in order to work. Seats that are not properly installed give your child no protection. A properly installed seat should be so secure you cannot move it at all.

If you are unsure about which safety seat matches your vehicle, or have difficulty installing a safety seat, call the manufacturer for assistance. Many maintain a toll-free number for this purpose. Also check the owner's manual for your vehicle.

Any safety seat over 6 years old, or which has been through an accident, should be retired. You should not use care seats made before 1992 as they are considered unsafe and potentially hazardous. In addition, age, sunlight and our hot Texas weather can cause the plastic in safety seats to deteriorate, making them prone to failure.

Don't rely on a safety seat you bought used. There is no way to know how old it is. It may be missing crucial parts or have been through an accident that has caused hidden damage, putting your child at risk.

Airbags

There has been a lot of publicity lately about the danger air bags pose to children riding up front in safety seats. Never use a safety seat in the front seat of a vehicle that has an air bag. Remember, in an accident the safest place for your child is always in the back seat. Even in the back seat, however, they should be in a safety seat or wearing seat belts.

Recalls

Manufacturers frequently recall infant and child care safety seats. More than 350 different safety seat models have been recalled in the past 12 years. To keep informed of recalls, you can register your car seat with NHTSA via its website (www.nhtsa.dot.gov/people/injury/childps/). NHTSA will then notify you if your car seat is recalled. The website also lists all recalls announced between January 1988 and early 1998.

For more information

If you cannot afford a new infant or child safety seat, ask for help. Many cities and hospitals offer free or low-cost car seats to those who need them.

This Week's Devotional Message:

FAITH AND SERVICE CAN HELP US FORGET ALL OUR WOES

We all have times when either things go wrong or else we're afraid they will, and these real and potential calamities seem to come all at once. We worry about our health, our job security, bills, taxes, and so on. This can throw us into a real fit of depression, and we often wonder if it's all worth it. But take heart; there are some constructive things you can do while you're waiting for the answers. First, go out and help someone who needs you. This will give you a good feeling and take your mind off your own troubles. Second, attend your House of Worship and pray for God's guidance. Talk to your clergyman, who will also pray for you. Remember that he is there to help you whenever you need him, so just let him do it.

HASKELL HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 1948

HHS Class of 1948 holds reunion

The Class of 1948 of Haskell High School held their 50th reunion Aug. 29-30 in Abilene. The group gathered at the Embassy Suites beginning at 2 p.m. on Saturday with hugs, handshakes and a few tears as they remembered the Class of '48.

While working, going to college, taking care of families and businesses the years passed. To celebrate their 50th reunion they needed a special celebration.

Buck Rogers, Dick Tracy, space travel, wrist watch size televisions, wireless phones were a bunch of pipe dreams or were they? The class has witnessed ninety percent or more of all discoveries of medicine, science, engineering, exploration and so much more.

The class held a short business meeting noting the passing of class members James (Cotton) Foster, Roy Harris, Jimmy Turner and Charles Smith.

During the meeting, some of the members revealed deep secrets of things past, like who was really responsible for some of the Halloween pranks. Many memories were shared and special awards were given for the most children, most grandchildren, most great-grandchildren, best female hair color, man with the most hair and the one who traveled the longest distance to attend.

Sunday morning the group shared a breakfast buffet and promised to stay in touch. Three classmates live in California, two in Florida, two in Oklahoma, one in Louisiana and the rest in Texas.

Members present included Freddie Kendrick Brewer, Gene Brown, Betty Adkins Criswell, James Dodson, Marvin Hancock, Doris Taylor Harrell, Raja Hassen, Gay Nell Dipple Helweg, Jolene Hattox Henderson, Patsy Cain Johnson, Bobby Ray Kimbrough, Billy Charles Matthews, Anita Pitman Medford, Ruth Alvis Mock, George W. Mullins, Don Nanny, Don Peavy, Nancy Ratliff Plunkett, Jane Gentry Smith, Joyce Crow Smith, James Strain, Jenelle Kennedy Sullivan, Genelle Bailey Weeks, Anne K. Rike Winstead and spouses.

The group will meet again in 2003. Of a class of thirty, four are deceased and twenty-four attended the reunion.

Underground storage tanks face compliance deadline

by Greg Kaase
Haskell Co. Extension Agent

If you own property with an underground storage tank on it, you may be facing a compliance deadline from the Environmental Protection Agency. Owners of underground tanks used for storing petroleum products and chemicals have until Dec. 22 to make their tanks environmentally friendly.

Corroded tanks can leak and contaminate surrounding water supplies. That's why in 1998, the Environmental Protection Agency set up tough anti-corrosion standards. The EPA gave owners of existing tanks ten years to upgrade, remove or properly close them. But Nathan Weiss (WYS) of the Texas Natural Resources Conservation Commission says a lot of owners have let the time slip up on them.

The TNRC estimates only half of the owners have complied with the new rules. In Texas, that leaves at least 33,000 tanks that do not meet EPA requirements. Why have so many owners waited so long? In a word: cost.

Upgrading or removing an underground storage tank is not cheap. Weiss says the cost of removing a tank ranges upward from $3,000. But noncompliance could be even more expensive.

Tank owners face possible fines of $11,000 a day if they don't meet the new standards. So Weiss encourages owners to do everything they can to meet the deadline. Owners can ask for an extension if they simply cannot get it done. Weiss stresses that his agency which enforces the EPA regulations would rather help than punish.

If you want more information, call the Texas Natural Resource Conservation Commission at (512) 239-6718.

Boy Scout popcorn sale underway

The Scouts of the Chisholm Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America are pounding the pavement as they kick off their annual Trail's End Gourmet Popcorn sale, known as "Popcorn '98." The sale lasts through Nov. 23 and Scouts will be selling "Regular Popcorn, Microwave Popcorn (both butter flavored and light), Caramel Corn (with almonds and pecans), 97 percent Fat-Free Caramel Corn, Chocolate Caramel Crunch and Low Fat Chocolatey Caramel Crunch, a new item for this year," said Sheila Phillips, who is serving as Council Popcorn Kernel this year.

As in years past, Popcorn '98 will not only help raise money for local scouting units, it provides opportunities for the Scouts to learn and grow. "A unit's combined efforts during Popcorn '98 can clearly demonstrate to the Scouts the value of planning, organizing and commitment. Scouts develop and practice new skills, learn about sales and marketing and reach new levels of personal success," says John Clark, Scout Executive. "In addition, Scouts may fulfill requirements for Achievements, Activity Badges, or Merit Badges, assisting them in their Scouting advancement."

"The local Scouts give a lot to their communities and by helping to support them, you are actually helping your community," says Sheila Phillips. "And what better way to help than through the purchase of this excellent popcorn. It's a great American snack and makes a wonderful gift for the holidays!"

Last year the Scouts sold almost $195,000 worth of popcorn, raising more than $127,000 for Local Unit and Council activities. The Council has set a goal of $217,000 in gross sales for this year.

"We appreciate the support that our Scouting activities have received from the community and wish to express our thanks to everyone who participates," says Sheila Phillips. "When the Scout comes to your door, welcome him. He's selling some of the highest quality popcorn you can buy. And if you are not contacted by a Scout, please call the Chisholm Trail Council at 915-67SCOUT to place an order."

HHS sets Book Fair Nov. 16-20

Haskell Secondary School is hosting a Scholastic Book Fair the week of Nov. 16-20. The book fair will be in the Secondary library, at the south end of the high school. This event, which is held annually during Children's Book Week, encourages young readers by bringing them the newest titles from more than 150 publishers. Students, parents and teachers can find old favorites and the latest works by popular authors and illustrators. Many of the materials will be geared toward the junior high audience, but older readers should find items of interest also. In addition, there will be a selection of elementary materials for younger readers, parents and teachers.

Everyone is invited to attend the book fair, beginning Mon., Nov. 16. The library will be open from 8:00 to 4:30 Mon. through Thurs. and from 8:00 to 12:00 noon on Fri., when the fair will end. The public should enter by the south door of the high school and follow the book fair signs to the library. Proceeds from the book fair will be used to purchase new materials for the secondary library.
