HAS APPENDECTOMY

Mr. J. C. Shanks is doing nicely after undergoing an appendectomy. He is in a hospital in Lubbock.

A bumptious playwright who had a new show opening sent a couple of tickets for the first night to the mayor of the city with a note suggesting that the chief executive could bring a friend "if he had one."

The mayor returned the tickets with a courteous letter stating that previous engagements made it impossible for him to see the show the opening night, but he would purchase two tickets for the second performance—if there was one.

Motor Vehicle Safety Law Leaflets Available At Local Service Stations

Texas motorists were urged today by Public Safety Director Homer Garrison, Jr., to apply to any gasoline service station for a copy of the state's official leaflet about the new Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Law, which becomes effective on January 1.

"This leaflet was prepared," Director Garrison said, "to give the information they should have about this law before it goes into effect. It can be read in five minutes. I hope, of course, that all motorists will really study the facts that are set forth in the leaflet and will keep it in their car for future reference in case they have an accident and are confused about what to do."

"It does not attempt to cover all of the provisions of the law and carefully avoids legal language, so that any layman may understand it easily. It was written to help the great majority of motorists, private passenger car owners and operators and small business firms operating one or two delivery cars. The larger owners of motor vehicles, of course, will want to study the entire law in greater detail."

"The leaflet is free and provides important information about the following subjects: what the law is, who it affects, what to do after an accident, the circumstances that require suspension of both operating license and registration plates, and the several means the law provides for avoiding this penalty.

"Any motorists can obtain one or several merely for the asking. It may save them a lot of trouble expense and inconvenience."

Mental Health Is Adjustment To Oneself, Fellowmen, Role In Life

Between the states of behavior known as mental health and mental illness there are classifications which are a combination of both, in which a person on some phases of life is quite normal, quite healthy, and on other features behaves poorly.

The psychopathic personality is not all mentally healthy nor all normally, and even in the same situation he does not always behave the same way. He is usually more against people and situations than he is for them and the broadest definition of a psychopath is an antisocial person.

He's the kind of person who may know the rules of the game of life but refuses to apply them to himself. He is morally irresponsible, not because he doesn't know what morals are but because he fails to make them a part of his life. The extremes of psychopathic personalities usually include such people as the sexual perverts, the alcoholics, the dope addicts, the kleptomaniacs, those who constantly start fires, and the "bone wolf" criminal. There are less serious characteristics of psychopathy, too, such people as the oversensitive, the unpredictable, the cranks, the moody, the sourpusses and the stuffed shirts. The person who refuses to assume independence, who enjoys the dependence of relief and charity, any one who forces himself into the life of others either by brute force or by complete dependence may fall into the broadest definition of psychopathic personality.

How does a person get to be psychopathic? It is possible that some people might be born with out the capacity to learn right from wrong, though developing normally in other ways. It is possible that a rough part of town where everyone is out to get whatever he can by fair means or foul would breed children who assumed that same "survival of the fittest" philosophy. It is possible that home abuse or neglect in training would keep a child from ever seeing anything good to model his actions on. It is more probable, however, that a combination of all of these, heredity, environment, and home training, with emphasis upon the home, play a part in the development of an antisocial personality. All children go through a phase when they must have their way, punishment or not. When an adult has no regard for anyone or anything besides his own desires, his own aims, he has failed to develop beyond a normal childhood state and would quite likely fall into the category of psychopathic personality. Mental health is adjustment to oneself, one's fellowmen, and one's role in life; the psychopath usually fails to adjust to his fellowman.

Watch For Swine Flu

College Station, Nov. 14—Hog producers are warned to be on the alert for swine flu. The weather during this season of the year . . . warm days and cold nights . . . is favorable for flu development, says Dr. C. M. Patterson, Extension veterinarian of Texas A. & M. College.

Hogs should be protected from the elements. A well bedded shed that is clean and properly ventilated is the best shelter for hogs at this season of the year. Better check to see that the hogs use the shelter you provide, because they will probably prefer to stay outside, says Patterson.

Swine flu, says the veterinarian is seldom fatal, but the loss of flesh is mighty important. In addition to the losses on fat hogs, gilts that are being kept for brood sows may also be affected. Small, weak litters often result when the gilts have had a bad case of flu.

Whenever there is doubt about the diagnosis of sick hogs, Patterson suggests calling in a veterinarian, for there is a chance the hogs might have a disease that would prove fatal. Hogs that have flu should be provided with a comfortable house that is free from drafts and should be fed on a light, slightly laxative diet.

Patterson says it's a good idea to check all hogs daily, especially those running in the field.

Prompt and proper attention for the sick animals is a must for all farm animals if they are to produce maximum returns for their owners, says Patterson.

HOUSE PLAN No. 34

New, Modern Ranch House

If you like the long, rambling ranch type house you will really "take to" this Farm & Ranch Plan No. 5034. It gives you casual ranch house appearance in a very compactly arranged home.

The casement windows in the attractive kitchen will let in plenty of Old Sol's rays to both the work area and the eating space. This eating space is large enough for serving the family meals in comfort. Cabinet space is plentiful, and the arrangement of sink, range, and refrigerator will require a minimum of housewife mileage in meal preparation. Off the kitchen the utility room will provide space for laundry equipment and possibly a freezer chest. Field hands can get rid of sweat and grime in the shower off the utility room before entering the rest of the house.

The arrangement of the bath, utility room, and kitchen in one single area permits a rather simplified plumbing system which will appreciably reduce the cost for materials and labor.

The living-dining area is more spacious than that found in most homes of this size. The large picture window and casements opening on each side will provide an abundance of light and plenty of ventilation.

All three bedrooms have wall space convenient for desirable furniture arrangements. The closets are unusually large, designed with sliding doors to save valuable floor and wall space. In addition, there is linen storage in both the bathroom and hall.

We suggest that this house be built of brick or masonry veneer with a concrete slab foundation and metal casement windows and

Manus To Face Tom Green Co. Swindle Charges

Ernest Manus, smooth talking confidence man who came to Muleshoe in the latter part of September under the assumed name of A. R. McKillip and impersonated a cousin of the prominent McKillip family here, was transferred to Tom Green County jail at San Angelo Thursday morning to face similar charges there.

The Bailey County Grand Jury returned an indictment against him last Tuesday charging him forging and passing and swindling with worthless check.

The complaint was filed by Gerald Priboth of Muleshoe, who previously had sold the man his cafe for $8,500, only to have the check for that amount returned. Priboth cashed another check for Manus for $150 which was also returned.

Other activities of Manus, then known to local people as McKillip included the purchase of a new Chrysler from the Covin Motor Co. here, explaining the payment would have to wait until the draft cleared. He then went to Clovis and placed another draft for $100,000 and another for $30,000 in a Clovis bank. When he attempted to buy another Chrysler car in Clovis, officers became suspicious and picked him up after checking on the drafts. He was placed under bond.

Manus then persuaded the two McKillip brothers to accompany him to Kansas where he supposed was to straighten his affairs and officers picked him up in Oklahoma City on their way back after checking his criminal record which consisted of four and one-half typewritten pages and dated back to 1916.

Sheriff Freeman said that he was wanted in San Angelo on another "cousin" charge and officers there had several complaints filed against him.

Cerebral Palsy Clinic Scheduled

A clinic for the examination of cerebral palsied children will be held Monday, November 26, at the Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center, 3502 Avenue N, Lubbock.

Orthopedic specialists from Midland, Plainview and Lubbock, a neuropsychiatrist, pediatrician, eye specialist, and a dentist will be present to examine children.

Cerebral palsy is sometimes referred to as spastic paralysis or birth injury and may be evidenced by the child's inability to sit alone, stand alone, walk or hold objects at the age these things are accomplished by the average child. Research has shown that treatment is most effective if started within the first few months of the child's life although children respond to treatment begun at a much later age.

Parents planning to bring children to the clinic are requested to register the children at the Center prior to the date of the clinic. Information regarding the clinic may be obtained by writing Dr. Esther Snell, Director, or calling Lubbock 6541.

TIMELY TIPS FROM YOUR
H. D. AGENT
By Mrs. Dian Reed

Homemakers the country over are face to face with the problem of preparing Thanksgiving dinner and at the same time being able to visit with family and friends during the day. Louise Mason, Extension foods and nutrition specialist of Texas A. & M. College, says advanced planning and preparation plus the use of the home freezer can just about take the homemaker out of the kitchen.

For the Thanksgiving dinner Miss Mason recommends a traditional meal: roast turkey with stuffing; giblet gravy and cranberry sauce; mashed potatoes; creamed onions with toasted peanuts; string beans; celery; peach pickles; hot rolls, butter; pumpkin pie-whipped cream and coffee.

The turkey can be dressed and stuffed four or five days ahead of time, wrapped and placed in the home freezer. The pumpkin pies and yeast rolls can be baked and stored in the freezer. The fresh vegetables can be washed and held in the refrigerator. The cranberry sauce can be prepared and stored ahead of time. This advanced preparation will lessen the hustle and bustle of preparing the meal, says Miss Mason.

Other members of the family can help prepare and arrange the table decorations. They may also assist by helping do the grocery shopping. For after all points out Miss Mason the Thanksgiving dinner should be a family affair.

The turkey may be roasted with or without a stuffing. The skin should be greased to hold the moisture in and the grease can be applied with a folded cloth that has been dipped in melted fat. Miss Mason says the bird should be placed breast down on a rack and in a shallow open pan for roasting. The turkey should be covered with the cloth that was moistened with fat. No basting is necessary while the turkey is being roasted.

An eight to ten pound turkey should be cooked for about three and one-half hours in an oven at not more than 325 degrees. Larger birds require longer cooking time, and 30 minutes per pound is the generally recommended cooking time for the larger birds. If low heat is used, there is less shrinkage and the drippings are not burned, says Miss Mason. The drippings are needed for making the giblet gravy.

With a minimum of effort the Thanksgiving dinner can be made ready on time and mother can come out of the kitchen and enjoy the day with the family and friends.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK
A Special Pumpkin Pie

2 eggs
2-3 cup brown sugar

1/2 cup cream
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 lemon, rind and juice
3/4 cup black walnut or pecan meats (optional)
1/2 teaspoon salt
Separate eggs and beat separately. Combine beaten egg yolks, pumpkin, and all the ingredients except the egg whites. Fold stiffly beaten egg whites into the combined ingredients. Fill pie shells. Bake in a hot oven (450°F) for 15 minutes, and in a moderate oven (325° F) for additional 30 minutes. Makes 2 seven inch pies.

BABSON DISCUSSES—

Your Age

BABSON PARK, MASS., Nov. 9—In 1850 there were eleven workers under 65 years of age for every person over 65 years old. Gradually the number of workers over 65 has increased until in 1951 there are only five working adults under 65 for every adult over 65. Projecting this trend to 1960 we find there will be only about three working adults for every older. If we project to 2000 A. D., which is only fifty years hence, fantastic conclusions are indicated. The time can come when the idle retired population will be greater than the young and middle-aged workers who must pay the taxes to support them.

PENSIONS HERE TO STAY

The vast majority of people over 65 will never own sufficient income producing property to live on. Even though practicing thrift all their life long, they can lack the ability to invest advantageously and establish financial independence. Hence, most aged citizens must rely on their children or on pensions.

Many persons think the problem of the aged can be disposed of by voting in favor of whatever pensions are demanded; but this is only like pulling yourself up by your "boot straps". Distribution of vast sums of money by the Government to any group, whether oldsters, veterans, or farmers, means making it harder for the other groups, unless offset by a corresponding increase in the production of goods and services.

OLDSTERS POLITICALLY POWERFUL

The oldsters are becoming a formidable political pressure group. They have made California a pensioner's paradise. Political proposals on behalf of older citizens are often foolishly supported by members of the younger generation. They welcome the opportunity to shift to the State the financial burden of supporting aged parents. What will happen when the oldsters, teamed up with their friends, account for a greater percentage of the national electorate? Will they vote themselves preposterously generous incomes from the Federal treasury? This would be highly inflationary because it would put the nation completely out of line with the nation's productivity.

MEDICAL PROGRESS AGGRAVATES OLD AGE PROBLEM

The modern American trend toward birth control is a large factor in bringing about an alarmingly high percentage of oldsters in the population. Yet, turning the clock backward on this trend might cause our population to expand beyond the ability of the land to support it. Some have suggested that medical science will eventually solve the problem by discovering how to preserve full powers of body and mind until 85, thus deferring the average age or retirement by ten or twenty years. To me this seems to miss the point completely.

The problem is concerned not with the age of retirement, but with the length of life after retirement. If science succeeds in stretching the period of adult vigor to 85 or more, it is quite likely that it will also succeed in stretching considerably the period of declining vigor and senility, bringing the problem right back where we started. From the humanitarian point of view, progress in medical science is desirable, but from the economy point of view it is dangerous.

CAPITALISM NEEDS NO GAS CHAMBERS

In spite of all the discouraging aspects of the problem of our retired citizens, American industry, operating as a free capitalistic enterprise, can produce plenty for the aged without lowering the standard of living of the productive workers and their families. Pensions and other benefits can be expanded slowly enough to prevent shock to the nation's economy. No lethal chambers for excess senile population need ever be necessary.

In a free capitalistic society productivity per worker can be multiplied indefinitely. It is amazing how many labor saving machines and labor saving methods of distribution can be devised when needed. The solution lies with young workers

Cub Scout Pack Is Being Formed

A Cub Scout Pack is being organized in Muleshoe with the Elementary P. T. A. as sponsor. Corky Estes, of the Higginbotham Bartlett company has accepted the post of Scout Master for this new Scout group. The Pack is composed of boys who are too young for the regular Scout organization. Interested parents and others met last night to perfect organization and will meet again tonight at 8 o'clock in the office of the Bailey County Rural Electric Cooperative for further work on the project. Names of boys who are becoming members will be published, probably in next week's paper.

Early Christmas Mailing Advised

A letter from William B. Allen, Jr., director of Public Relations of the Post Office Department, in Washington, D. C., to A. J. Gardner, Muleshoe postmaster, stresses the importance of early shipping, early mailing, proper wrapping and proper addressing of Christmas parcels.

The Department, said Mr. Allen, again is faced with a big problem in handling of Christmas mails.

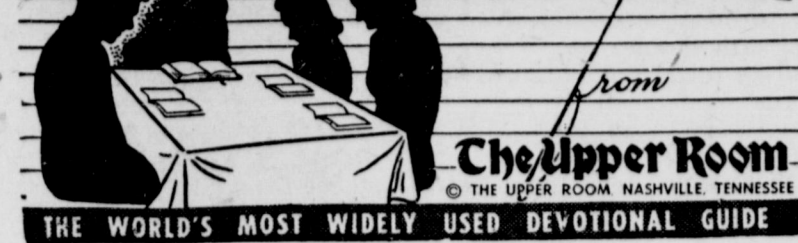

Mr. Gardner said it is very important that all parcels be securely wrapped and tied, and that the addressee's correct mail address be affixed to help speed delivery during this rush time. The more people who mail early, the more the work of all connected with the Post Office Department and the handling of the mails will be speeded.

MULESHOE GROUP ATTEND TEACHERS' MEETING

A group of Muleshoe school teachers attended the regional meeting of the Texas Classroom Teachers Ass'n., held in the Herring Hotel, Amarillo, Oct. 29. In the group were Mrs. Ed Johnson, George Glover, Miss Mittie Hill, Mrs. Radie Boone, and Mrs. John Watson.

Using improved machines and methods and producing not only an abundance of goods for themselves and their children, but also an abundance for the leisure class of retired oldsters. One thing more, even more than economic security oldsters need the respect and sympathy of their descendants. Old people hunger for a share in the social and spiritual life of the young, even more than for a share in the wealth.

TODAY'S meditation

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

GOD — THE COMPASSIONATE FATHER

Jesus had compassion on them, . . . and they followed him. (Matthew 20:34.) Read Mark 1:40-45. Two small girls and their mother occupied bus seats in front of me. I saw the father outside, with a look of concern on his face. As he looked at the little girls' faces in the window, the shine of love for them was in his eyes.

As the bus started, one child said comfortingly, "You will be all right, Daddy." The other called, "Do take care of yourself, Daddy." The mother told me later that they planned being away from him but a few days; however, the little girls always felt this way when they left their father behind.

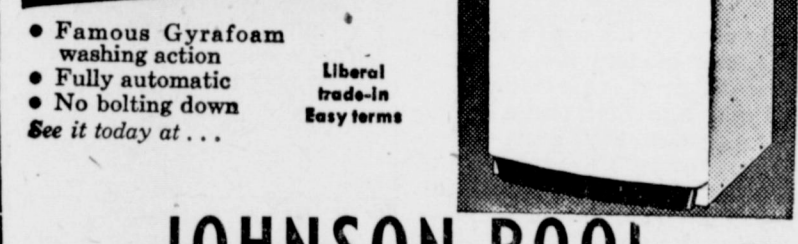

This appealing story is a reminder that when we, as God's children, realize the Father's love, we do feel very near to Him. The knowledge that He is nearer than hands and feet, brings peace, rest, and happiness.

Sudan Elevator Operator Being Sued By Government For $978,364.00

The Commodity Credit Corporation has filed a claim for $978,364 against a grain dealer at Sudan who allegedly failed to make delivery on large quantities of wheat and milo stored in his elevator.

The claim against O. L. Shannon was filed Thursday with US Deputy Commissioner Olive Fluke in federal district court in Lubbock. An injunction and restraining order were served on Shannon to prevent sale of grain or other assets at his elevator holdings.

The CCC, a federal agency which makes loans on farm products, holds warehouse receipts from Shannon for 30,790,572 pounds of yellow milo, No. 2 grade, and 47,772 bushels of wheat, also No. 2, according to the petition filed here.

The grain was stored at Shannon's elevator in Sudan under the terms of the uniform grain storage agreement. The various contracts called for delivery on September 1, 1948, and June 1, 1949, and June 1, 1950.

The CCC charges Shannon failed to make delivery on those dates and does not have the grain in storage on his property now.

The federal claim was filed by Frank B. Potter, US District attorney of Fort Worth, A. W. Christian, Assistant district attorney, and Lee P. Pierson, attorney representing the US Department of Agriculture.

Shannon, 47 years old, is a long time resident of Lamb County. He moved from his farm to Sudan in 1948, when he engaged in the grain business. He built an elevator at that time and engaged in the grain business since then, but also has branched out into other fields.

He has built about $500,000 worth of new buildings — mostly residences — in Sudan, and has also built a cotton warehouse and has added to his grain storage facilities. Work on a cotton compress, a project begun several months ago, has not been completed.

The case probably will come up during the federal district court term scheduled to begin the first Monday in December.

Low-Down on a high-powered Performer

Let us tell you this:
The Buick pictured here packs more power than you find in any other car of its size and room and price.
That's the power of Buick's newest high-compression valve-in-head eight—the F-263 Fireball Engine, that really gets miles from a gallon of gas.
Add to this the fact that it tips the scales at 3817 pounds curbside—and you begin to see why this big-powered beauty is such a nimble-footed number out on the road.
But that's only Chapter I of the performance story.
There's a big-car feel to the way this trim traveler covers the ground—bogs the curves—holds its course on the straightaway—smothers the bumps with its big soft coil springs on all four wheels.
There's a big-car room inside—six-passenger room—headroom, hiproom, shoulderroom, kneeroom, front and back.

Come in, look it over, and we think you'll agree—it's big in everything but price.
And that's where it really shines. If you've shopped around you'll know what we mean when you read the price tags, and what they include in the way of standard equipment that shows up as "extras" on so many others. Such things as an oil filter, air cleaner, vacuum booster, built-in summer ventilation are all yours at no extra charge.
It's hard to believe but it's true. If you can afford a new car, you can afford this Buick at the prices we're quoting today.
Better come in and look this smart buy over.

No other car provides all this!

DYNAFLOW DRIVE—saves strain on driver and car
FIREBALL ENGINE—high-compression, valve-in-head—gets more miles from every tank of fuel
PUSH-BAR FOREFRONT—combines smart style and unsurpassed protection
WHITE-GLOW INSTRUMENTS—assure greater clarity, especially at night
TORQUE-TUBE DRIVE—seals the chassis, steadies ride, improves driving control
4-WHEEL COIL SPRINGING—cushions and levels the ride, saves servicing costs
SELF-ENERGIZING BRAKES—hydraulic—multiply pedal-pressure five times at brake drum
DREAMLINE STYLING—tapered, car-length fenders, gleaming sweepers on most models
Plus: Self-locking luggage lid, Step-On parking brake, two-way ignition lock, Safety-Ride rims, Hi-Poised engine mounting, Body by Fisher

Latin America Subject At WSCS Meeting Monday

The Women's Society of Christian Service met Monday afternoon at 2:30 in the church. The meeting opened with the singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers." Mrs. Roy Bayless read several of God's promises to His people and Mrs. I. W. Haney led in prayer. Mrs. Bayless told the story of "The Orchid Weaver," a Brazilian botanist who is a Christian. He is Dr. Frederico Hoehnes and has named and described some 300 varieties of orchids and collected near 30,000 plants. Mrs. Buby Jennings brought Chapter 5 of the Latin American study, Brazil, Colossus of the South. She told us Brazil had been kept whole and intact by Portugal, greatest melting pot of the world, a peaceful land with no tradition of revolution and civil war, and possesses the bulk of South America's Fabulous wealth. The words of Isaiah can be applied now to Brazil: "The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light." Growth is the clarion word that tells the story of Protestant work in Brazil.

Mrs. Tom Smallwood told of vast amount of Venezuelan iron deposits. Bethlehem Steel of the U. S. after spending millions of dollars and months of hard work will be converting this ore for Venezuela on the Delaware River in Maryland. Mrs. Finley Pierson told of the Latin American Confederation, a great part of the Federation of Methodist Women to help bring God's Kingdom in. The lesson closed with assignment of "Mexico Leads The Way," Chapter VI, for next Monday.

A short business session was in order. District meeting at Canyon was announced for Thursday, Nov. 15, at 10 o'clock. Several members were reported sick, and wishes for their immediate recovery were expressed. Ten members were present. Mrs. Bayless dismissed with prayer.

SAND HILLS PHILOSOPHER

Says Eisenhower Should Realize No President Elected By Acclamation

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm is off on a subject this week that everybody apparently knows as much about as everybody else.

Dear editor:
I'm always sort of neutral in politics, that is I like cigars from both sides, although naturally I make up my mind when I settle down with a ballot, consequently I can look at next year's Presidential race with considerable calmness and detachment. After looking at a field needing plowin the same way for years, it's no trouble to do the same with a political race, from Precinct to Presidency.

In the first place, in regard to the Presidential race, since it's exactly a year before the votin takes place, it seems to me the boys are startin out too soon, just don't see how they can put on a show good enough to hold my attention twelve long months.

A candidate who figures he's got it won now may find by next November he's run out of oil, burnt out a bearin.

But the big problem of course is Eisenhower.

As I understand it, nearly everybody outside of Taft is on record as contendin Eisenhower would make a fine President, and this includes Democrats, Republicans, big shots in both parties, and people who vote like they please. For example, Truman says he would make a fine President, Dewey says he would make a fine President, and lots of lesser lights in both parties say the same thing.

But a few minor points are missin. In the first place nobody knows whether Eisenhower is a Democrat or a Republican or neither.

In the second place, nobody knows whether he would run, although if you ask me I think maybe way down at the bottom of his feet he's itchin a little.

In the third place, nobody knows whether if he ran which party it would be in.

Now this is something new and has thrown the politicians into more confusion that the time two loads of un-branded steers belongin to two separate owners got mixed up in my pasture. How can you line up votes for a man when it may turn out you've been linin em up for the other side? The problem is too big for me, although sooner or later I guess Eisenhower will have to come around to recognizin, if he's willin to try for the job, that no President ain't never yet been elected by acclamation. Personally, I'm glad I don't have to make such a decision myself. Too hard on you. Reminds me of the hours I used to spend tryin to decide which field I was gonna let lay out durin the next year. Finally solved the worry by lettin em all lay out.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

usually fall into a coma and die about three to ten days after the first symptoms appear.

Dr. Cox states in Texas the dog, fox, cat and skunk are the animals most apt to cause rabies. Last year the State Department of Health examined 4,491 heads of different animals for the purpose of rabies diagnosis. Only 1,220 or 27% were found to have had the disease. Of those found rabid there were 868 dogs, 167 fox, 59 cats and 43 were skunks. The highest percentage of positive rabies found on examinations are during February, March, and April.

How To Combat Rabies Is Told

AUSTIN, Texas. — To help combat rabies in Texas the Texas State Department of Health has prepared a twenty page pamphlet entitled Facts About Rabies. According to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, this information will be sent to citizens upon request.

In the type of rabies called "furious" the animal is irritable and will snap at nonexistent objects or attack anything in its path. In the excitement stage the animal is extremely vicious and violent. Paralysis follows this stage, usually affecting the hind legs first. Death follows the paralysis in four to seven days after the outbreak of the first symptoms.

In "dumb" rabies the symptoms are drowsiness and paralysis of the lower jaw. To all outward appearances the animal has a bone or some other object lodged in his throat. Such animals do not roam but will strike at movement. They are completely insensitive to pain and will
