and answer session will follow the information presentation.

Haskell CISD began discussions with Rochester CLISD about a possible consolidation in late spring 2002. Rochester has also discussed a possible consolidation with Rule CISD and Knox City-Q'Brien CISD.

Rochester has now submitted a proposed consolidation agreement to the three districts, and Haskell is considering its response. Rochester will be deciding which school district they will seek to consolidate with in the near future.

Why should Haskell CISD be interested in pursuing a consolidation agreement with Rochester, or any other school district? Haskell Superintendent Eddie Bland said the short answer is declining enrollment.

Popcorn sale starts

Haskell Cub Scout Pack 136 and Boy Scout Troop 136 will begin their annual popcorn sales Sat., Oct. 11. Orders will be taken until Nov. 12, with delivery around Nov. 21.

This year they will be featuring seven types of popcorn to choose from: Butter Light Microwave; Unbelievable Butter Microwave; 5-flavor Microwave Variety Pack; Caramel Corn with Peanuts; Caramel Corn with Almonds & Pecans; Chocolatey Caramel Corn with Almonds & Pecans; Chocolatey Caramel Corn with Almonds & Pecans; Chocolatey Caramel Crunch and Cheese Popcorn.

Haskell citizens wishing to support the young men in this endeavor, may order from any local Scout "Since the 1997-98 school year Haskell CISD's student enrollment has dropped from 722 to 571 students, or about 4.5% per year," he said. "The total state funding our district receives is directly related to the number of students attending school. This loss of 151 students will produce a loss state in funding of more than $700,000.00 this school

Declining enrollment has caused schools in rural Texas to consider all options in order to continue to offer students the best education possible. Consolidation is one of those options. However, before any consolidation can occur, residents of both communities would have to vote to approve it.

"Consolidation would bring changes to our district requiring transitional adjustments for our students, parents and community," Bland said. "Should we decide not to pursue a consolidation agreement with Rochester, our district will still be making difficult decisions in the future that will be equally challenging.

"The future will bring many

"The future will bring many changes to rural public schools, including Haskell CISD. As we make difficult decisions it is vital for all of us to stay focused on the most important issue—our students. While change is inevitable, it can also be very positive for our students."

The Haskell Board of Trustees and administration would like input from all citizens before continuing the process. A meeting will be held Mon., Oct. 13 in the high school auditorium, beginning at 7:00 p.m.

Everyone is strongly encouraged to attend and participate in this meet-

Haskell Homecoming activities will get underway on Friday, with registration in the High School Gym at 1:00 p.m., followed by a pep rally at the Gym at 3:15.

Open House at Haskell High School will be held from 4:00 to 5:00 p.m. The Progressive Study Club Spaghetti Supper is scheduled from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. in the school cafeteria. 7:30 is kickoff time for the Haskell-Stamford football game.

On Saturday, registration will-begin at Haskell Memorial Civic Center, followed by noon luncheon from 11:30 to 1:00. Late registration will be at 1:00 p.m. at the Civic Center.

At 2:30 the General Assembly will begin at the Civic Center. Dan Hartsfield will be the speaker.

At 5:30 and 6:30 the Ex Students basketball games will be held at the gymnasium.

At 9:00 p.m. an Ex Student Dance will be held at the Civic Center.

At 8:00 p.m., a Mattson Ex Student Dance will be held at Irby

Basketball game set for exes

The Haskell Exes basketball rematch of even-year grads and odd-year grads will be played Sat., Oct. 11 at the Haskell High Gym, with the girls' game beginning at 5:00 p.m. and the boys' at 6:30.

The 'evens' had a clean sweep when they met in competition earlier last spring, and the competition is heating up for former Haskell basketball stars to relive their glory days

Players who played in the spring need to bring their game shirts and pay a $5.00 fee. New players will pay $10.00, which will include their game shirts.

Admission to the game is $3.00 for adults, $2.00 for students. Sports trophies from past years will again be on sale.

The event is sponsored by the Haskell Educational Foundation to help raise funds for student scholarships and mini-grants to Haskell teachers to use for projects and programs beyond the books, to enhance the academic studies environment of their students.

Also, the Foundation will be selling memorial/honor bricks to be laid in the paved patio in front of the gymnasium.

Commissioners' Court report

During the Sept. 8 regular meeting of the Haskell County Commissioners' Court, upon the recommendation of Galen Chandler, District Director of Texas Cooperative Extension, the court approved the hiring of Jane Rowan as Family and Consumer Science Agent for Haskell County.

The date of the December meeting was changed to Dec. 9.

A motion was approved to hire Mary Villarreal at the Experienced Citizens Center at $5.15 per hour.

Also approved was a resolution on the Indigent Defense Grant Program to assist the county with the implementation of the provisions of the Fair Defense Act and the improvement of the indigent criminal defense services in the county. County Judge David Davis was designated as the authorized official to sign the resolution. He will be the designated program director and contact person for this grant.

At a special meeting of the Commissioners' Court, Sept. 23, Dr. Wayne Cadenhead was appointed as Local Health Authority for Haskell

The Court accepted the proposal from County Attorney, Shane Hadaway, to move his private practice to the County Attorney's office at the Courthouse, and to hire Stacia Leach as secretary to replace Bette Enriquez, who has taken a job with the Texas Dept. of Public Safety. Leach will be paid the probationary salary of $15, 386.00 per year for the six months probationary period.

A motion was approved to make the rent on any lot at the Anchor that is not large enough to install a septic system, 50 % of what the normal lot

A motion was approved to pass a resolution protesting the possible removal of Veteran's healthcare services from the Texas VA Medical Center Big Spring location to a point farther west.

Approval was given to the sale by the Appraisal District of lots 1 and 6, block 42, of the Haskell Frisco addition to Robert Tribbey for $50.00

After discussion, the Court voted to leave the Sheriff and Constable fees as they are.

The county burn ban was lifted by the Court.

4-H celebrates the power of youth

by Brandon Anderson and Jane Rowan

Haskell Co. Extension Agents

4-H'ers across the nation will celebrate the 4-H youth development movement's nearly seven million members and more than 600,000 volunteers and their commitment to a world in which youth and adults learn, grow, and work together as catalysts for positive change during National 4-H Week Sun., Oct. 5 through Sat., Oct. 11.

4-H Week Oct. 5-11

"The Power of Youth" is the theme of this year's National 4-H Week. The 4-H youth development movement empowers youth to reach their full potential working and learning in partnership with caring

Youth are powerful, energetic, whose strength as leaders is the core of the 4-H youth development movement. Youth have the power to contribute significantly to communities, to be equal and caring partners, to create positive change, and to imagine new possibilities and directions. As young people learn, building their skills and knowledge, their power increases. The 4-H youth development movement brings young people and their families together with volunteers, community members, and professionals in a powerful partnership through which all learn and grow.

4-H youth development takes Land-Grant University knowledge and expertise to youth in urban, suburban, and rural communities across the nation. 4-H volunteer leaders and more than 3,500 professional educators encourage youth ages 5-19 to participate in a variety of activities from aerospace to zoology that emphasize 4-H's 'learning by doing" philosophy. Hands-on projects range from citizenship to expressive arts, consumer science, environmental education, leadership, and technology as well as animal and necessary to do a seeness that Currently 96 4-H members in Haskell County participate in five clubs including the Haskell Jr. Club, Haskell Sr. Club, Rochester Club, Rule Jr. Club and Rule Sr. Club. Club managers include: Debbie Brister, Valiene Bullinger, Renee Dudensing, Tammy Parham, Lynette Tribbey and Faye Urich. Twenty-eight adults volunteer as 4-H Leaders.

State earmarks $295 million for enterprise fund

AUSTIN-Economic development sounds like just another pair of political buzz words unless you don't have a job.

With the beginning of the state's new fiscal year, Texas' economic development functions were folded into the governor's office. That was a matter of legislative fiat, as well creation of the $295 million Enterprise Fund, a financial pot designed to allow Texas to respond fast in attracting new employers to the state

Luring Toyota to San Antonio, an effort mounted well before creation of this fund, stands as the top accomplishment in recent years. The idea behind the new fund is to make something such as landing Toyota happen more often in Texas.

With private money, the governor's office has launched a marketing campaign called Texas One. The job-generation program is headed by Massey Villareal, chair of the Texas Economic Development Board.

Texas One has one big job ahead of it, but the employee picture in Texas already has gotten a little better. In August, Texas gained 28,500 jobs. That was the first monthly increase since May 2000.

Gator 'aid' to Texas...

Sure, everyone knows Texas produces a lot of cotton, cattle and oil (to keep the list of famous Texas products in chronological order), but alligators as a cash crop?

According to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, the state has 29 licensed alligator farms with 44,000 alligators.

This is a lot smaller than the alligator industry in Louisiana, which has 122 licensed farms, but even so, it's a $10 million business in Texas. That's the estimated income derived from the sale of alligator hides and products made from hides, including boots, belts, purses and other items.

The first Texas alligator farm was licensed in Rockport in 1986. TPWD got $5,200 in license fees in 2001.

Seen any geckos lately?

Another Texas reptile has been showing up in strange places—on highway ramps and overpasses. Michael Ford, a graphic designer in the Texas Department of Transportation's bridge division, is the artist who designs the decorative features that grace many new highway projects in the state.

If you look at Ford's work close up, you'll see that each design element features a hidden gecko, Texas' lovable, bug-eating lizard.

Ford's work can be seen in the Harlingen area at Palm Cord Dr. and U.S. 83, at Dixieland and U.S. 83 and at Spur 54 and U.S. 77. The designer also created a concrete prickly pear pad in a retaining wall near SeaWorld in San Antonio and a gargoyle for Lubbock's new East-West Freeway.

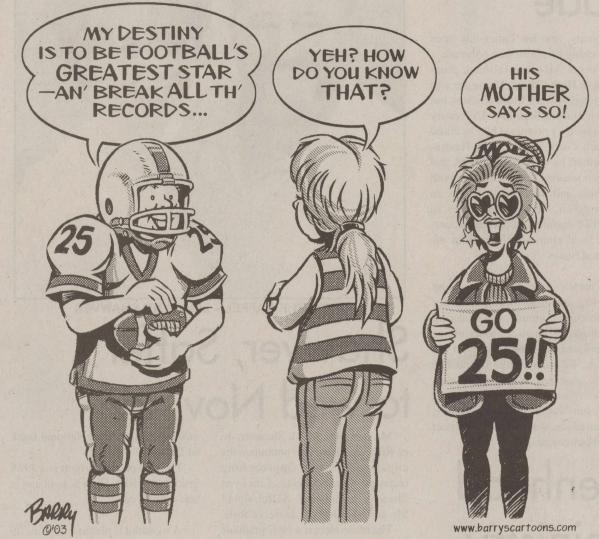

Lawmakers with megaphones...

The Capitol had only been in use for a little more than 30 years when lawmakers began to chafe at a design problem.

Acoustics in the House of Representatives were terrible. No matter how much air some legislator put into his rhetoric, voice just did not carry well in the large chamber.

During the regular session in early 1919, someone suggested a solution: Buy some megaphones for members.

No action seems to have been taken on the proposal, however. In time, of course, the state installed an electronic amplification system. Modern lawmakers learned to turn away from their microphone if they want to say something to a colleague

Cattle Brucellosis eradication in Texas: Close, but not yet

by Brandon Anderson Haskell Co. Extension Agent

Animal health officials were disappointed, but not surprised in September, when they detected a cattle herd infected with brucellosis in Henderson County, breaking a 13month stretch during which no newly infected herds were detected in Texas. Texas and Missouri are the only states in the nation not free of this bacterial disease, which is detected through testing of blood, milk or tissue from cattle. Although some infected animals exhibit no signs of disease, brucellosis can cause cows to abort, deliver weak calves or produce less milk.

"We are closing in on the last infected herds in Texas, and after months of not finding infection, we were hopeful we might have finally eradicated the disease," commented

Dr. Max Coats, deputy director for Animal Health Programs at the Texas Animal Health Commission (TAHC), the state's livestock health regulatory agency. "With more than 153,000 cattle herds in Texas, finding the last infected herds is like looking for the proverbial 'needle in the haystack.' We still may find a few more infected herds in Texas before we join the ranks of the other brucellosis-free states in this national disease eradication program."

"Twice now, we've gone longer than a year without finding a brucellosis-infected herd in Texas," said Dr. Coats. "The first time was from July 2000 through December 2001, but soon after, we detected and depopulated four infected herds in Montgomery, Rusk, Henderson and Colorado Counties. Then, after a lull of more than a year, we detected the latest infected herd, in Henderson County, through our routine testing of adult breeding cattle being sold at livestock markets. We're in the process of testing neighboring herds and tracing cattle movement into and out of the Henderson County herd to determine if infection has spread."

Dr. Coats explained that, because cooked meat is safe for human consumption, the cows and bulls from the infected herd will be sent to slaughter. The owner will receive quarantine. Now, by depopulating infected herds as soon as possible, we can stop disease spread, and the producer can be in business with new, test-negative animals within weeks."

Dr. Coats said Texas continues to apply the "tried-and-true" formula for eradicating brucellosis, which involves vaccinating heifers, testing breeding cattle prior to change of ownership and collecting blood samples from cattle at slaughter. Vaccination is now voluntary in most instances, and ranchers, may have their accredited veterinarian adminster RB-51 vaccine to heifers four to 12 months of age. (Bull calves do not receive the vaccine, because it can make them sterile.) RB-51 provides heifers protection against brucellosis, but unlike earlier vaccines, it does not create confusion about test results.

Brittany L'Shae Williams of Haskell, senior biology student, was named to the Texas Tech Dean's List for the Summer 2003 semester. To be on the Dean's List, a student must have taken 12 quality hours during the semester and maintained a 3.5-3.9 grade point average.

"To ensure infected animals are not moved from herd to herd, breeding cattle 18 months or older, or younger cows that are bred or have calved, must have a negative blood test for brucellosis before changing hands at a livestock auction or through private treaty. This 'firstpoint' testing of cattle has been the most effective and efficient method of finding infection," he said.

At slaughter plants, blood samples animal identification information, such as ear tag numbers or backtags, are collected from cows and bulls, he explained. When samples test positive for brucellosis, payment from the slaughter facility, and an indemnity from the U.S. Department of Agriculture and TAHC to help offset the loss of not only the adult cattle, but also nursing calves. Weaned steers and spayed heifers may be kept, because these animals cannot spread brucellosis, which is transmitted primarily by infected cows during abortion or

"Years ago, Texas had thousands of infected herds, which often were quarantined for up to a year or longer, while we periodically tested the cattle, to ensure all infected animals were removed and slaughtered," said Dr. Coats. "During the quarantine period, animals could be sold only to slaughter, creating a hardship for the rancher. There also was the chance that infection could be spread to nearby herds during the the TAHC or USDA field staff use the animal identification information to trace the herd of origin, so the remaining cattle in the pasture can be tested. If infection is confirmed, neighboring herds and other potentially exposed cattle are tested to determine the source of the infection, and to find out if the disease has spread to other herds.

Dr. Coats strongly urged ranchers to maintain young, purchased heifers separately from other cattle in their herd, until the purchased animals are tested after delivering their first calves. "There's always the possibility that these very young heifers may have been exposed to brucellosis and are incubating infection when they're bought. We strongly recommend that these young heifers be kept in a separate pasture, then tested as adults, just to ensure that disease isn't introduced into the main breeding herd," he said. "It's always better to be safe than sorry.'

"Cattle brucellosis one day will be regarded as foreign animal disease in the U.S.," said Dr. Coats. "In Texas, we've come so far since the days when 1,500 or 2,000 infected herds were quarantined, and we were testing entire counties to 'clean up' infection. We can eradicate this disease in Texas, and even though Missouri may beat us to the eradication finish line, we won't be too far behind.'

October garden checklist

by Brandon Anderson

Haskell Co. Extension Agent •October is a good time to reduce the insect and disease potential in next year's garden. Clean up the garden, removing all annuals that have completed their life cycle. Remove the tops of all herbaceous perennials that have finished flowering or as soon as frost has killed the leaves.

•October through November is also an excellent time to purchase bulbs while you still have a good selection in the garden center.

•Chill tulip and hyacinth bulbs in the refrigerator until mid or late December before planting. The lower part of the refrigerator is best. Do not leave bulbs in airtight plastic bags

Haskell Home Health Agency

What is home care?

RN, BSN

Home care can be for anyone. It involves a wide range of health and social services that can be delivered at home to recovering, disabled or ill persons in need of medical, nursing, social or corrective treatment and/or assistance with the essential activities of daily living.

What kinds of services are available to me in my home?

Many types of services are available through home care, including: nursing, physical therapy, speech therapy, medical social services, and home health aide services.

How am I eligible for home care?

If you have Medicare benefits, you may be eligible for home care: if the care is ordered by a physician, if you experience a normal inability to leave your home or if absences from your home are infrequent or of short duration, and you have a need for skilled nursing services, physical or speech therapy. Most private insurance companies will cover home health benefits that are ordered by a physician.

What questions regarding home care do you have for the nurse? Send your questions to Haskell Home Health Agency, 417 S. First, Haskell, TX 79521 or call 940-864-5074 or 1-877-864-5074.

Sign-up for direct and countercyclical program underway days following the end of the marketing year: Final countercyclical payment (100 percent of actual payment, less any advances

Agriculture Secretary Ann M. Veneman announced Sept. 30 that the enrollment for the 2004 Direct and Counter-cyclical Program (DCP) will begin Oct. 1.

'Today's announcement begins the second year of successful implementation of the 2002 Farm Bill," said Veneman. "These programs will have made available some $8 billion to America's producers by the end of this month."

Producers must sign contracts annually under the DCP, which is a change from Production Flexibility Contract requirements under previous farm legislation.

Producers have until June 1, 2004, to enroll for the 2004 DCP. Late-filed applications will be accepted through Sept. 30, 2004, if accompanied by a $100 late fee. Producers can opt out of participating in the program any year if they choose. For both the 2002 and 2003, more than 98 percent of the eligible base acres were enrolled.

The 2002 Farm Bill authorizes direct and counter-cyclical payments to enrolled producers. Both payments are computed using the base acres and payment yields established for each farm. Producers receive direct payments at rates established by statute regardless of market prices. Counter-cyclical payment rates, on the other hand, vary depending on market prices. Counter-cyclical payments are issued only when the effective price (which takes into account the direct payment rate, market price and loan rate) for a crop is below the target price for the commodity. For "other oilseeds," because of the existing loan rate, the maximum counter-cyclical payment

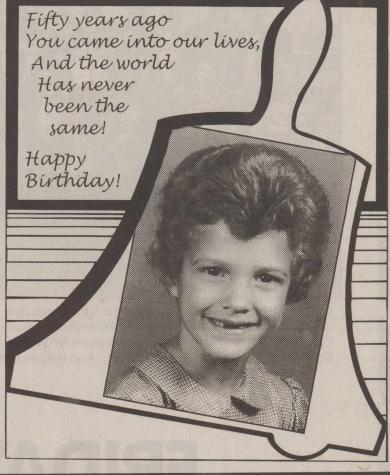

The following is the schedule of payments for the 2004 DCP:

Beginning Dec. 2003: 50 percent advance direct payment; Oct. 2004: 50 percent final direct payment; Oct. 2004: first advance counter-cyclical payment (up to 35 percent of projected payment); Feb. 2005: second advance counter-cyclical payment (up to 70 percent of projected payment less first

Dates vary by crop: In general, 30

Classifieds Sell Call 864-2686 received). By the end of Oct. 2003. producers will have received some $8 billion in DCP payments for the 2002 crops and the direct and the first advance counter-cyclical payments (if any) for the 2003 crops. For all years, refunds to USDA's Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) will be due if there is a violation of eligibility requirements or, in the case of counter-cyclical payments, if the advance payments exceed the final payment rate.

Save Lives with Fire Prevention!

Fire Prevention Week is Oct. 5-11 and it's the perfect time to learn about fire prevention in and around your home.

Prevent fire danger in your home:

Firemen train to put out a house fires. Have you had a fire drill in your home?

Practice home

fire drills.

Know

your exits.

Check your

Don't wait until

it's too late!

1. Have your furnace or heating system checked by a competent service company at least once a

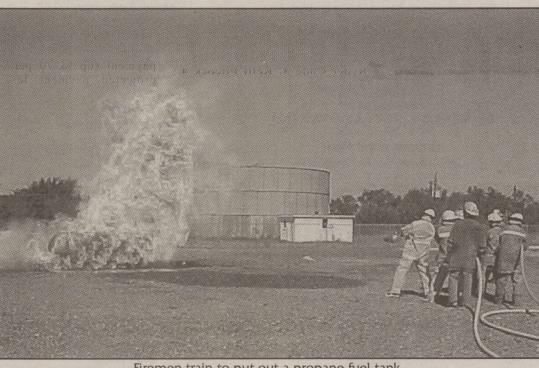

2. Take special care with fireplaces. Use a spark screen to prevent sparks from flying and be sure the chimney is unblocked and free of excessive creosote accumulation. Fireplace fires are very common.

3. Keep combustible items away from all heating units.

4. At any sign of electrical trouble, shut off power to the circuit and have it checked by a good electrician.

5. Check cords and plugs frequently for signs of broken insulation or frayed wires.

6. Keep matches and cigarette lighters away from children.

Firemen train to put out a propane fuel tank.

Prevent Wildfires!

Prevent fire danger around your home:

1. Control vegetation within 30 feet of your home.

2. Keep trees and brush away from power lines.

Space trees at least 25-30 feet apart.

Install spark arrester on chimney.

Keep roof and gutters clean.

In rural areas, know where existing water sources can be found, such as ponds, that can be used as a source of water for fire trucks.

7. Stack firewood away from home.

Firemen train to put out rangeland fires.

This Week's Devotional Message: THE GREATEST DISCOVERY OF ALL IS THE JOY OF FAITH

Since men had sailed the seven seas, All manner of discoveries,

Like ways in which to fight disease, Have helped us to progress. We generated heat and light, And learned the way to read and write; In all these things, achieving quite A measure of success.

But now we've come to recognize The helping hand our faith supplies, With each constructive enterprise We've asked the Lord to bless.

So let's give thanks each Sabbath day For blessings we cannot repay; Then we'll discover in this way A life of happiness.

Albany Lions put the bite on the Indians

If you do not have speed, be quick. If you are not quick, be big. But what if you are big, quick, and have speed to burn-you have the 4th ranked team in Class A in the Statethe Albany Lions. And this team was Haskell's final non-district opponent. The Lions roared and roared, 41-0.

Scoring on their first four possessions of the game, Albany's quarterback, Spencer Balliew, threw to receiver Jordan Morales for two of three TDs, and also ran for one TD. Albert Martinez, a running back for the Lions, scored the other TD during these first four possessions. Peyton Parsons kicked 3 of 4 PATs.

Albany's outstanding defense has held their opponents scoreless for 15 straight quarters. The Haskell Indians, however, managed to have more offense against the Lion's than Albany's last two opponents.

Haskell, having to make several adjustments in personnel, played as hard and gamely as they could, but were definitely no match for the 4thranked Lions. Albany has too many

The Lions scored on a one-yard run in the second quarter and added one more TD in the third quarter when Balliew had another good run. That was all of the scoring and made the final, Albany 41, Haskell 0.

Ramon Cuellar was named Haskell's Defense Player of the Haskell's difficult non-district schedule this and last season would finish off a weaker team that lacked heart and character. But, the Haskell Indians have both. They are looking forward to the upcoming District 8-2A race. The Indians will host the Stamford Bulldogs in the Homecoming game Friday night at Indian Field. Kickoff time is 7:30

Coach Brad Brunson said, "Albany is an exceptional football team. Their kids did a great job. This is one of those games you can't look back on. Our focus must be on the future. We can't spend the week feeling sorry for ourselves. We have to get ready for the Bulldogs.'

School's IN, Dial-up's OUT

> Indians host the Stamford Bulldogs Friday 7:30 p.m.

Brandon McClatchey, Haskell QB, had 16 rushes for 52 yards. Josh Barbee, running back, had 12 rushes for 8 yards. L. J. McCulloch had 2 rushes for a negative 3 yards. Ronald Chapman had 2 rushes for negative 2 yards. McClatchey was 2 for 5 via the air with one interception. McCulloch had one catch for 8 yards, while Julio Solano had one catch for negative one yard.

The eighth grade Warriors continued to win by downing the young Lions 34-22, while the 7th grade Warriors lost 0-38. No sub (7th, 8th and JV) games will be played this week.

Indians Blast Roby 43-7; Will Travel To Roscoe Friday Night champions in District 8-A, launched conference play Friday night by smothering the Roby Lions, 43-7, on Indian Field.

The Tribe's victory gives the Indians a 2-3 record for the season, and a perfect record, along with the Albany Lions, in 8A conference standing.

Friday night, the Indians invade Roscoe for their secon conference tilt. Coach Smith will have a full roster eligible for this week's game against the determined Ros-coe squad and the contest is slated to be tough assignment for the Tribe.

The Indians scored in every quarter Friday night, and Roby was able to muster a counter only in the final period when many second stringers were on the field

maxing a 30-yard drive.

A short time later, Lynn Coleson, fullback, galloped 15 yards for the second Indian tally. Jerry Wheatley converted for the only extra point gained in the game for the Warriors.

Highlighting the half-time was crowning of Paula Rat-liff, Senior, as Band Sweet-of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ratliff.

Brock again led the Indians scoring attack early in the second period. He plowed his way over from the 10-yard line for the counter to climax a 40-yard drive that was set up by Wheatley.

On a guard-around play that completely fooled the opposition,

Intercepting a Lion pass on Rol 45-yard line, Frank Classon, right half, raced it all the way back to pay dirt to put the Indians further ahead.

Two more counters for the Indians came when Wheatley on a keper carried from the 3-yard line for the first one. Then, as the game's most thrilling play with only 43 seconds remaining. Jim McMillen, substitute center for the Indians, intercepted a Lion pass and raced 80 yards for a touchdown behind brilliant interferences. ference by his teammates.

Roby's points came in the fourth when Freddie Stuart, quarterback, heaved a 30-yard pass to Jerry Stuart who went 19 yards to score. M. Deel, Lion center, kick-

Freshman Boys Defeat Stamford

The freshman Tribe defeated the Stamford Bulldogs convincingly 44-24. Leading the scoring barrage was Sammy Baker with 10, followed by Lance Hanson with eight.

The victory raised the team's record to 2-4.

Indians Down Winters

Indian Charles Alexander rushed for 235 yards last Friday night behind excellent blocking of his teammates to lead the Tribe in a 33-7 win over the Winters Blizzards.

> Alexander scored three touchdowns on runs of 87, 70 and 19 yards. The first TD came on the Indians first offensive play. The Blizzards marched 76 yards in 16 plays before the Indians ever handled the ball offensively. With less than 3:00 left in the first period, Winters kicked the ball to Haskell after the touchdown drive. The Indians were penalized 15 yards on the kickoff return and got their first chance from their own 13 yard line. Alexander took the handoff from Pringle and ran off-tackle enroute to the 87yard score. Kick by Randy Ivy was good, tying the score at

The Indians' next score came with 1:15 left in the half when Alexander again ran off-tackle, this time 70 yards. Ivy's kick was good

During the first half the Indians ran that same play four times. The other two runs totaled 31 yards.

Things didn't cool off for the Tribe during the half because it took just six plays to put more points on the scoreboard. The TD came on a 19-yard run by Alexander. Ivy's kick was good, making the score 21-7.

Alexander stopped the next Blizzard scoring drive when he intercepted a pass on the Haskell goal line. Four plays later the Tribe fumbled the ball back to Winters. The Blizzards manpunting to Randy Ivy on the 34. Ivy, behind excellent blocking, carried the ball 66 yards for the TD. Kick failed.

Two plays later Billy Holmes pounced on a loose ball to set up a 21-yard touchdown run by Darrel Smith. Kick failed.

The Indians play Stamford here Friday night in the big Homecoming game, and a lot of pre-game and halftime activities are planned for the exes.
