Out In The West, Where The Air Is Pure, The Climate Agreeable, And The People Friendly The Best Place On Earth To Call Home

Kitty's Korner by Kitty Montgomery

The cool front which drifted into the area last week has been a most welcome relief from the summer heat. It has also improved dispositions, perked up the populace, and promised Ozonans relief from the dog days of summer, or at least reminded us summer would not last forever.

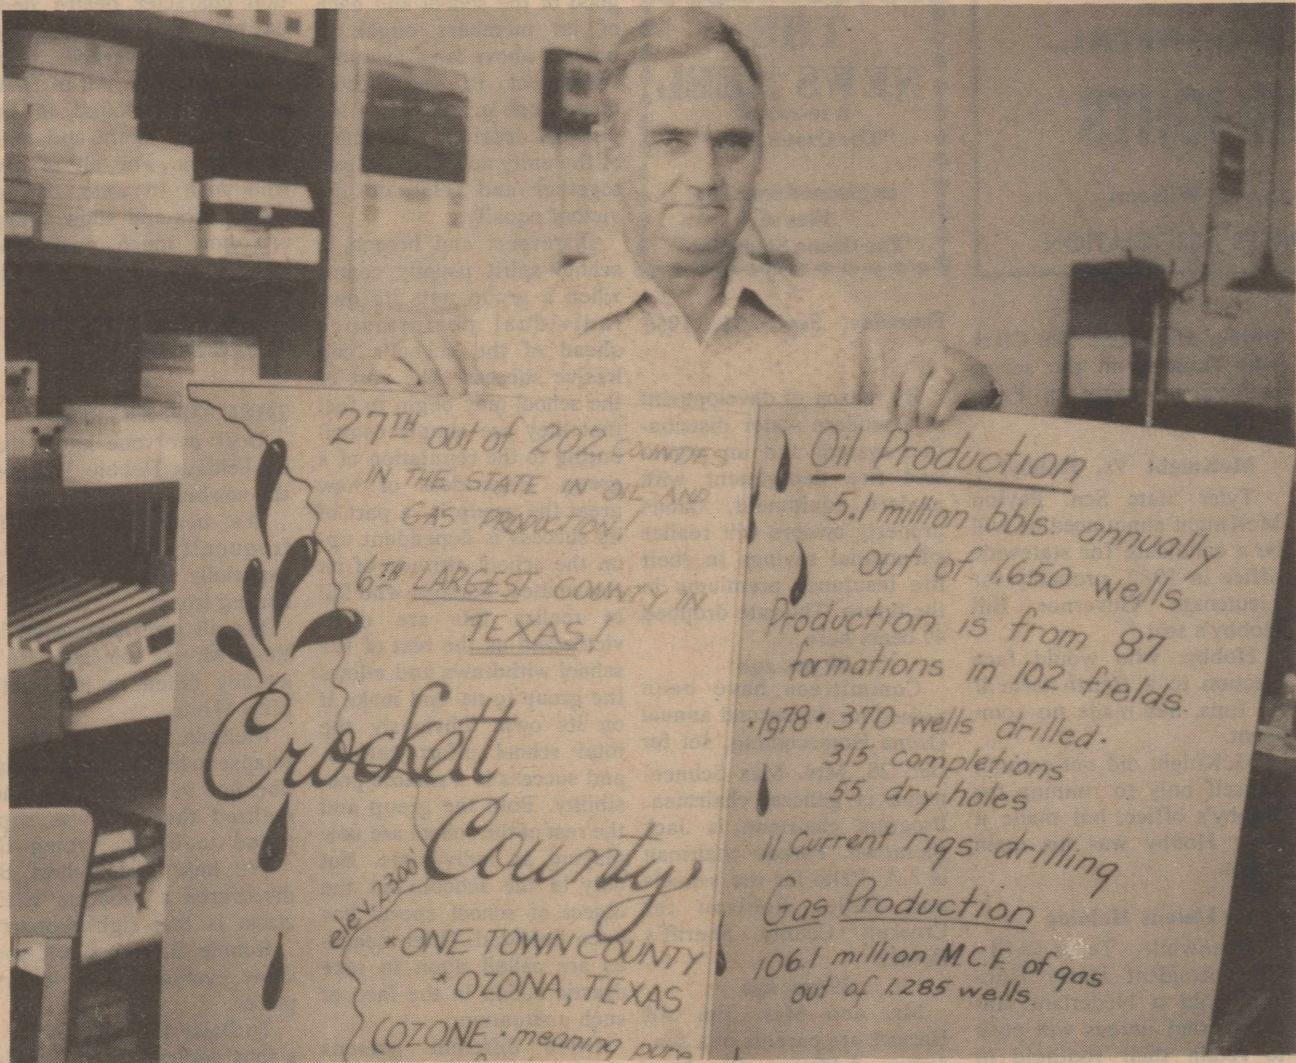

Some of the old timers are predicting an early fall and a hard winter. They come to these conclusions by various methods which space will not allow us to list. The most logical, given us by Evert White predicting an early fall, the humming birds are leaving. We have found this to be as true a barbing of fall as mesquite trees putting out in the spring tell us there will be no more frost.

Anyway, the first cool spell always perks me up and I need all the perking up I can get. It always improves Tom's disposition 'cause we get to turn off the air-conditioning and that means no more gripping about the electric bill. He thinks nothing of buying $100 worth of cigarettes a month, but he hits the ceiling when the electric bill hits that amount.

I'll do most anything to save energy, walk instead of drive, quit cooking on the electric range, stop washing and drying clothes, give up bathing in hot water, anything but give up being cool in the summer and warm in the winter. I'm going to hang onto that until the last west dries up and Tom spends his last dollar on the electric bill. And he can't complain long enough nor loud enough to change my mind.

Mrs. Post, our garden correspondent and gardening consultant, returned home this week after spending two or three weeks with her daughter in Houston. I never cease to be amazed at Mrs. Post, she is really the most remarkable woman. She called to tell us she was leaving, but her column for the week was already in the office. When we learned she would be gone yet another week, we felt sure there would be no "Tips for Gardeners" that week. Low and behold, when we got the mail the following Monday, her column was there, mailed from Houston. She didn't miss a week and we already had her column for this week when she called to tell us she was at home. You just don't find that kind of dedication in the younger generation, and I often wonder what's to become of us when there are no more Mrs. Posts in the world. We only have a handful of doers in this town and Mrs. Post is certainly one of them.

We've gotten a lot of comment about Vic Pierce's continuing saga about early Ozona, the third in the series is inside, we've also sold a lot of papers. Mr. Pierce is another remarkable Ozonan, who always does what he sets out to do. He has a memory like an electronic calculator and can spin a tale like Will Rogers. If I can be just half that sharp when I'm 86 years of age, I shall count my blessings. He is the perfect example of the ageless society and has a wit like a razor. He says what he thinks and isn't afraid to get involved. That's a rarity these days, and even if you don't agree with him, you have to admire him.

OZONA RECOGNIZED AT TULSA OIL SHOW-Jack Bailey shows some of the posters used to promote Ozona at the recent International Petroleum Exposition held in Tulsa, Okla. Ozona was one of 32 oil-producing areas represented. Bailey and his wife, Charlene, manned the Ozona booth. The posters were made by local artist Judy Probst and are on display now at the museum.

Ozona represented at Tulsa Oil Exposition

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bailey represented the Ozona Chamber of Commerce at the International Petroleum Exposition in Tulsa on September 11 and 12.

They were met at the airport on Tuesday evening by a delegation headed by Mr. Jack Wood, their host for the IPE and escorted to the Exposition Center where they placed posters and maps for exhibition giving information about the oil and gas industry in Crockett County. On Wednesday morning, they visited with Mr. John Houchin, the president of the IPE and retired chairman of the board from Phillips Petroleum Company, Mr. M.C. "Mike" Enright, the IPE Secretary-Treasurer and retired regional manager of Gulf Oil Corporation, and delegates from other areas.

The theme of the IPE was Energy '79 and there were cities from 32 states honored as "cogs in the wheel" of the energy picture during the four day show which had 378 exhibits.

The Bailey's were im-

SERENADE IN THE PARK-A one-man concert by this horn player went on for several hours Monday. Many Ozonans cast curious glances, but the little girl pictured gave the musician and his music her rapt attention for the better part of an hour. The cornet player was hitchhiking to California and stopped for a day to practice.

Simpson services Friday

Funeral services for Mary Lou Simpson, 87, were held Friday at 3 p.m. in Ozona First Baptist Church with burial in Cedar Hill Cemetery under the direction of Sheppard Funeral Home.

Mrs. Simpson died Thursday at 3:15 a.m. in Crockett County Care Center after a long illness.

She was born January 27, 1892 in San Saba. She had been a resident of Ozona the past 20 years and resided with her sister, the former Claudia Butler, before taking up residence at the Care Center.

Survivors include her sister, Mrs. Claudia Creighton of Christoval, and a niece, Mrs. S.R. Boyd Jr. of San Angelo.

Dr. Dwyer to move to Ozona

Dr. and Mrs. Pat Dwyer were in Ozona Wednesday through Sunday, making arrangements to move to Ozona where the doctor plans to set up a medical practice. Mrs. Dwyer is an airline stewardess and flies for Eastern. She will drive to San Angelo and commute from there to New York.

The couple has rented an apartment at the Country Club Apartments. They have no children.

Dr. Dwyer will set up practice in the office formerly used by Dr. Blanton. He selected paint colors and planned some office decoration while he was here.

Work has begun on separating the offices which were combined with Dr. Owensby's when Dr. Blanton left. Dr. Dwyer plans to open his office shortly after October 1, according to E.L. Kirklen, Hospital Administrator.

Proposed constitutional amendments analyzed Three amendments for Nov. 6 voters

Crockett County voters along with other Texas voters will vote "for" or "against" three proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution in the general election Nov. 6.

In the 1979 regular session, the Texas Legislature proposed 12 constitutional amendments for voter consideration. Three of the proposals, appointments of notaries public, legislative review of state agency rule-making, and a farm and ranch guaranteed loan program, will be submitted to voters this year. The remaining nine will appear on the general election ballot Nov. 4, 1980.

Since adoption of the present Texas Constitution in 1876, the document has been amended 233 times while 375 proposed amendments have been submitted to voters. The 12 proposals approved by the 66th Legislature for vote in 1979 and 1980 bring the total number of amendments submitted to 387.

Amendment (1) on the ballot would authorize the legislature to provide terms of office of notaries public that are not less than the current terms of two years and not more than four years. It also would provide that the secretary of state shall appoint a convenient number of notaries public for each county. It would add temporary provisions to the Texas Constitution to establish Jan. 1, 1980 as the date on which the amendment would take effect and to provide that each person appointed a notary public before that date would continue to serve as a notary public for the term for which the person was appointed.

The office of notary public is an ancient institution that originated in Roman jurisprudence and has been in existence in England since the earliest days of English history. A notary public is an officer with authority to administer oaths, take acknowledgments to documents and certify the validity of instruments by affixing the person's signature and a notary seal to the instrument.

Notaries existed in Texas before and during the existence of the Republic of Texas and since Texas became a state. Originally, notaries public were appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate, but since 1940 the appointment is by the secretary of state.

Those arguing for passage of the amendment claim that extending the term of office from two years to four and appointing notaries for the state instead of each county will reduce government personnel and costs to both government and notaries public by decreasing renewal and reappointments. They also point out that processing notary public applications and renewals is time-consuming and costly for county clerks' offices. Currently all applications must be forwarded from the county clerks to the secretary of state for approval. Opponents of the amendment argue the convenience and personal contact that is found in county clerks' offices, especially in rural counties, would be lost if the secretary of state took over all responsibility for the appointments. Also, that passage of the amendment would increase state control over a function that has been handled successfully at the local level, adding to the growing state bureaucracy, and causing centralization of state government down to and through the office of notary public.

Proposed amendment number 2 would provide for legislative review of the process of rulemaking by agencies in the executive department. The proposed amendment would authorize the legislature to enact law establishing procedures for "legislative review" of state-agency rulemaking.

Proponents of the amendment argue that passage would provide for the close and continuing supervision needed by the state bureaucracy in order to make it more responsive to the people and to the public policies expressed by their legislature, and just as the governor's veto is a necessary check on the powers of the legislature, legislative review of agency rules can serve as an important check

PARK WALL BEING DISMANTLED-Ozonans found the wall in front of the Davy Crockett statue partially dismantled Monday morning, along with the broken beer and whiskey bottles which have become commonplace litter for downtown Ozona on Monday. Apparently the vandals gave up after removing the two large rocks flanking the steps. The rocks, weighing in excess of 100 pounds each, were replaced by county employees Tuesday. It took two men and considerable time to replace the cut rocks.

Firemen busy but fire damage minor

Ozona firemen answered several calls over the weekend, but no major damage resulted from fires.

Early Friday morning the department was called as a result of a fire in the school cafeteria. An electrical short caused an oven fire and there was some damage to the oven, however cafeteria workers used a fire extinguisher and put out the blaze before firemen arrived.

Saturday night the department responded to an alarm on Monterey Street. A pile of old lumber had caught fire and the flames were getting dangerously close to a telephone cable. Firemen extinguished the blaze and were back at the station within thirty minutes.

Later that night several calls were received from persons reporting a large fire east of Ozona. Units were dispatched, but were unable to locate the fire, which lit up the sky for miles around. One unit checked as far east as the Sutton County line. The fire, still highly visible, could not be definitely located. Later it was discovered the flame was on the Bloodworth ranch where a drilling rig had hit a large gas pocket.

The rig was not damaged and the flames which were visible for 25 to 30 miles were coming from the flare line.

Monday night a car pulled away from a gas pump at Maness Texaco with the gas hose still in the tank. The gasoline pump was pulled from its mountings and a large amount of gasoline spilled and ignited. Steve Hubbard used a winch line to drag the flaming pump away before other pumps became involved. Firemen arrived and extinguished the fire. The major damage was limited to the pump.

Crockett County Care Center News

by Joan Nicholas
Director of Activities & Social Care

The winner of the Bingo certificate of the week was Frances Borrego. This was donated by Watson's Department Store and the second prize went to Paul Cavin.

Last week, in Bible class we studied in the books of Psalms and Proverbs. We marvelled at the vocabulary used over 2000 years ago and I sometimes wonder what type of vocabulary will emerge from the 20th century! I fear for the most part it will be inferior. The Hebrews wrote exquisite prose poetry which, not only has a message, but is so delightful to the ear.

In reading and discussion group we covered items in "Grit" and then turned to a "Medical Profile of George Washington" by Rudolph Marx, M.D. We learned that Gilbert Stuart, the artist who painted the most well known portrait of our first president, used cotton to fill out the sunken cheeks of the President, in spite of the fact that Washington was the proud possessor of two sets of very awkward and noisy dentures made of ivory. Also, Washington's complexion in the picture has a rosy glaze, whereas in actual fact it was rather sallow and pockmarked from a bout with Smallpox at the age of nineteen.

Mary Lou Simpson had lived among us for some time before she passed away last week, and we will miss her. She was the sister of Claudie Creighton who now lives in Christoval, and we extend our sympathy to her and her husband.

Mike and Elvira Pena have moved out of the Care Center and we wish them good luck as they once more make a home for themselves.

We have two new residents. One is Tomasa Ramos who transferred to us from the hospital, and the other is Della Tinsley, mother of Bill Taylor. We welcome them to our community at the Care Center.

Leona Harris returned from her visit in San Angelo and was honored with a birthday party Monday afternoon. I understand that Mrs. Bode Owens came over from Barnhart for the occasion and also brought a cake. Unfortunately I missed the party as I was attending an eight-hour workshop in Abilene. I am really looking forward to introducing to our group some additional exercises, done with music, that will be enjoyable for participants as well as being beneficial.

We thank Joe, Santiago, and Santiago Jr. Ybarra who brought us music last Wednesday evening, as always, very much enjoyed by all residents.

Also, Charlie Beaird and his band, The Cajun Fiddlers and Broken Strings, of Big Lake, entertained residents Saturday night. Bode Owens accompanied his wife on her visit Monday afternoon.

Livestock feeding projects

The 4-H Livestock Feeding Projects will get underway September 28, with weigh-in and shearing beginning at 8:00 a.m. at the County Show Barn.

Any youth 9 years of age or older who is interested in feeding lambs or pigs should contact Billy Reagor, County Extension Agent, by September 21. Call 392-2721 or come by the Extension Office on the top floor of the courthouse annex so Mr. Reagor will be able to line up the livestock for the feeding projects.

Baptists to observe anniversary

On Sunday, September 30 at 11:00 a.m. the First Baptist Church will observe the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Church Sanctuary. We wish to extend a special invitation to our school teachers and the people of Ozona, especially those who were here at the time of the building.

Dr. Clyde Childers who led the church in paying off the indebtedness of the Sanctuary will be our honored guest speaker.

Also Mrs. M.M. Fulmer whose husband was pastor when the Sanctuary was built will be with us to share in the program.

There will be a covered dish dinner immediately after the services in the Civic Center.

Lion J.V. downs Robert Lee crew

The Ozona Junior Varsity Lions in their first outing last Saturday defeated the Robert Lee Steer's Junior Varsity 13-6. The Lions led throughout the game and dominated the offensive charts. Following the blocking of Mike Couch, Thomas Gries,

Ruben Perez, Simon Hernandez, Stanley Najer, Ismael Castro and Robert Massey, the Lions backs moved the ball 216 yards on the ground and with aerial attacks. The rushing was led by Joe Villarreal with 59 yards on ten carries. Harvey Huerca followed with 42 yards and scampers by Ernest Badillo, Willie Payne, and Joe Vasquez brought the rushing total to 132 yards.

The passing game was controlled by Dale Perry and Will Mason who had 70 yards and 14 yards respectively. The scoring came and a 24 yard pass to Larry Payne and an 11 yard run by Joe Villarreal. Ernest Badillo kicked the extra point for a game total of 13.

The defense held the Steers to only 6 points as Rudy Enriquez intercepted 3 passes, Kelly Buckner intercepted one pass, Ruben Perez had 7 tackles and 8 assists and Thomas Gries had 6 tackles and 6 assists. Other defensive standouts putting a halt on the Steers were Joe Vasquez, Dennis DeHoyos, Mike Couch, Rudy Martinez, David Zimmerman, and Santiago Lopez.

The Lion's J.V. and the Eighth Grade Cubs travel to Iraan this Thursday to meet the Braves. The junior high game begins at 4 o'clock and the J.V. game kicks off at 6:30. Please come support your teams!

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

By Jerry Lay

What were the five greatest football games ever played...A sports service recently took a survey to find out—in the opinion of experts from coast-to-coast...And here are the five games they picked:

1. Notre Dame 35, Army 13, in 1913. This game was picked because of its historical importance. This one game, more than any other, proved the value of the forward pass in football.
2. Illinois 39, Michigan 14, 1924. The game when Red Grange made runs of 95, 66, 55 and 40 yards each for 4 touchdowns in the 1st quarter. This is voted the greatest individual performance of all-time.
3. 1925 Rose Bowl. The classic meeting of football's most famous backfield (Notre Dame's Four Horsemen) and the man some call the greatest single back in history (Stanford's Ernie Nevers).
4. 1940 National League title game (Bears 73, Redskins 0). This game was picked because it helped establish the modern T-formation; and because many say the Bears—that day—were the most perfect football team ever seen on a field.
5. 1958 NFL title game (Colts 23, Giants 17 in overtime). The experts said this was the most exciting big game ever played.

You probably have some favorite games yourself that you'd rank among the five greatest of all-time, but these are the ones the experts picked, and we thought you'd enjoy reading it.

Days of the buckboard, muddy roads, pioneer life recalled...

Pierce shares memories of early west

By Victor I. Pierce

[PART III in a series. Last week Mr. Pierce's story ended with a profile of Judge Davidson. This week he continues with his recollections of early day leaders and happenings when Ozona was a frontier town.]

Newton Graham, a lawyer just out of college, was another man that did a lot for the people of Crockett County. It seemed he made a big mistake in selecting Ozona to come to practice law.

Judge Davidson had done so much for the people of Crockett County, and the people thought he was an angel. These people resented the coming of another lawyer to Crockett County because he might take some of Davidson's law business. But Judge Davidson himself did not resent Newton Graham practicing law in Ozona. He was too big a man for that; I think he was really glad to have Newton Graham in Ozona for I heard him say many times, things about Graham that were very, very nice about his ability as a lawyer. I also heard Newton say many times that Judge Davidson will get it done in some manner; he never fails.

Newton Graham was my kind of lawyer, and I can say that all the papers, deeds, contracts, wills, and other things he made for me and other people have come thru all these years and stood up 100% thru oil companies and estates. One thing he said to me many times was "If you got it, somebody will take it off of you in some way or another."

One time I asked him what he was going to charge me for some papers he made for me. His answer was, "Just whatever it is worth to you." I told Newton, "You can not make a living on that price." He answered, "I've paid out two ranches within a few years charging in that manner."

T.A. Kincaid Sr., was a man that alone made the Sheep and Goat Raisers Association of Texas. He was president of it for ten years and paid things out of his own pocket, even the salary of the secretary. He went all over the United States where there were sheep meetings, and built the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association up to where it is today. He gave it a voice in Washington on wool and other things such as tariffs on wool and mutton and grazing sheep on government land. T.A. Kincaid was a man that got things done. He was a big land owner and probably ran more and better sheep than any man in the state of Texas.

Crockett County produced lots of leaders able to do anything that would help the people. I hate to say this, but today Crockett County does not have even one person that is a leader. The leaders are all gone and their sons have failed to make leaders.

Elections in Crockett County determine the beginning and end of eras of the county. The first election I can remember in Crockett County was one to be remembered. At that time there were some big buildings and a lumber yard (where West Texas Utilities and a garage now stand). There were three big rooms and a big shed to store lumber that for some reason were never occupied.

About two days before this election some white men began gathering Mexicans and putting them in this unoccupied lumber yard with plenty of beans (cooked in wash pots), lots of barbecue meat, gambling games, and lots of beer and whiskey. They were keeping them ready to vote in mass when the polls opened on election day.

The opposing side also had a gathering of Mexicans ready to vote when the polls opened election morning, but getting started too late they did not have very many Mexicans ready to vote so they had several Mexicans to act real drunk and go in to the old lumber yard that had nearly all the Mexicans herded inside, to get some more Mexican voters.

About 2 o'clock in the morning before the election these Mexicans that were acting drunk took some boards loose on back side of the building and took all the Mexicans out thru Dr. Clayton's yard to their own yard, took them under guard and marched them to the polls and voted them and won the election.

At this time this was all legal but before another election, the legislature made this illegal, so it never happened again, and all Mexicans ceased to vote in any Crockett County elections for many years.

The next election I can remember was a prohibition election to vote out saloons and whiskey from Crockett County. It was a very hot election, both sides pulling no punches. This election must have been about 1903 as it was held in the new rock courthouse. I was going to school in the old courthouse at that time.

As I remember both sides had men and women in front of the courthouse talking, trying to convince the voters to vote their way. Each class of students was marched down to the front of the courthouse and sang a sad song that they had been practicing for over a month. I can only remember a few of the words of the song our class sang. "Poor thing she is dead, she led a terrible life for she was a drunkard's wife." We sang this song to the voters two times that day. Both sides sent livery stable vehicles to the ranches to bring in cowboys to vote.

The prohibitionists won and Ozona is still dry and just this year (1978) went dry in another whiskey election.

Ozona, at one time, was run and controlled by saloons owned by gamblers. There was one killing a month but nobody ever got a conviction, the gamblers were always the witnesses and they always proved they killed in self-defense.

I was coming home from school one day when a man ran out of a saloon with another man running after him and shooting him, hitting him in the back and killing him. They turned the fellow loose; the gamblers swore he killed him in self-defense.

A man named Barbee (the grandfather of Beal Barbee) sold a ranch for cash, put the cash in his saddle pocket, left Ozona real early a horse back to go to Waco where his family lived on another ranch he owned there. He, his horse or saddle were never seen again after he rode out of the livery stable. Several people with money disappeared never to be seen again. Lots of good people were afraid of these saloon men and the gamblers.

There was a ranchman by the name of Jeff Moore, a Canadian who had a ranch ten miles east of Ozona. He was a big, tall raw-boned fellow with his arms so long they came down to his boot tops. Jeff Moore was a fellow that had very few words to say to anyone.

He announced that he would run for sheriff of Crockett County and his campaign slogan was "If you elect me I will run all the gamblers out of Ozona". He was elected by a big majority in July but would not take office until March 4 next year.

At that time a lot of people made their living hauling wood to Ozona, and selling it. The land all belonged to the state of Texas so anyone could cut wood when ever they could find it. There was a wood hauler by the name of Bud, a giant of a man who could cut and haul more wood than anybody. Bud, about three or four times a year, would get on a big drunk and the gamblers would win all his money. Bud always ended up whipping the gamblers that won his money. He whipped so many gamblers that no gambler would try to win Bud's money—this Bud was quite a character. He used to come inside of a livery stable where us kids were playing marbles and play marbles with us or get down on "all fours" and bet us a nickel we could not ride him, he always won. He always got a big kick out of pitching like a horse and throwing us off.

The day Jeff Moore took over the Sheriff's office, Bud was playing marbles in the livery stable with us kids. Sheriff Moore rode his horse in the livery stable giving his horse to a stable boy to take care of. Bud walked up to Sheriff Moore and said, "Sheriff, I heard you are going to run all the gamblers out of Ozona. Now if you pull off that gun, I will beat the hell out of you and you won't be able to run anybody out of Ozona!" Sheriff Moore never said one word to Bud, just pulled his gun off and handed it to the boy that took his horse and told him to put it in the office.

What Bud, nor anybody else in Ozona knew was that Sheriff Moore was, at one time, a champion prize fighter in Canada. Bud took a run at Sheriff Moore, but those long arms connected with Bud's head and down he went. He knocked Bud down four times before Bud had had enough.

Bud said, "Mr. Moore, you are the only man that ever knocked me down and I want to help you put these gamblers out of Ozona."

Moore replied, "Get up Bud, I am putting you in jail," and he took him to jail.

News of the fight spread quickly. Sheriff Moore went to all the gamblers, told them to be out of Ozona before sundown the next day or he would put them in jail. They knew he would so the next day Ozona only had one gambler that did not leave.

This gambler had a big place, a saloon, a gambling room, dance hall, and a red-light house built out of lumber with a grass roof. All this was surrounded by an 8' high brush fence so that you could not see who was going in or coming out. It had just one gate on the south side toward the Mexican houses.

The next morning after the owner of this place had not left town, the sheriff rode into this enclosure horse back with lots of matches and set the grass roof on fire then rode around the 8' brush fence and set it afire. All the girls and everyone else had left except this fellow. Sheriff made his word good and put him in jail afterwards turning him out and telling him not to ever come back to Ozona.

Jeff Moore was an educated man. He was a cashier in a bank in San Angelo for many years (leaving San Angelo later and buying a ranch near Del Rio.) He was elected president of the Sheep and Goat Raisers Association. He made a good president, but he would never make a speech.

The next election I can remember is one I hate to remember or talk about. There were so many good people on each side and they all have descendants now living in Ozona.

Uncle Dave Parker was a ranchman that moved into Ozona and was elected sheriff of Crockett County. He had a lot of grown boys and girls in his family and was close kin to all the Friends, Coates, and Davidsons. He was a good man, he helped the needy from his own pocket. In Ozona we had no nurses so the well took care

OHS Band boosters hold first meeting of year

The Ozona Lion Band Boosters held their first meeting of the new school year Thursday, September 13, in the Band Hall. There were 14 interested "boosters" in attendance.

Officers for the 1979-80 year are: Mrs. Jess Marley, president; Mrs. R.N. Aycock, vice-president and treasurer, and Mrs. Bob Wallace, secretary-reporter. The urgent need for new uniforms was discussed and it was brought to the attention of the members that the present uniforms are now getting beyond the point of repair.

It was decided after much discussion that all money-making projects for this year would be ear-marked for "new uniforms." Kelly Glaze, new band director, quoted a price of approximately $20,000.00 for the needed 100 uniforms. Several projects for making money were discussed such as car washes, cake sales, contests between sections of the band, etc. These ideas were tabled to be discussed at the next meeting.

Mrs. Alonzo Lopez will head the "Poor Man's Supper" again this year. The event will be held in October. The following "boosters" will be in charge of contacting parents of band members.

For the 7th grade are Mrs. Dick Webster, Mrs. Frank Justiss and Mrs. Joe Miles. In charge of 8th grade are Mrs. George Ybarra, Mrs. Joe Ybarra and Mrs. Glenn Capps. Ninth grade will be led by Mrs. Virginia Weatherford. Mrs. Blas Vargas will be in charge of contacting parents of 10th grade members. Mrs. Jesus Guerra is in charge of 11th grade and Mrs. Bob Wallace, 12th grade. Kelly Glaze will be in charge of collecting money for high school and Mrs. Aycock will be in charge for junior high.
