Veterans benefits reported

A. O. Fields, veterans service officer for Crockett County, recently received an official report showing the amount of monetary benefits paid to the veterans residing in Crockett County by the Veterans Administration for the year 1981.

The report was compiled by the Texas Veterans Affairs Commission, who commended Fields on the valuable service performed by him for the veterans, their dependents and survivors who reside in the county.

The amount of monetary benefits by category are as follows: compensation and pension, $224,070; readjustment and vocational rehab, $44,511; insurance and indemnities, $19,787. This amounts to a total of $288,368, which the Commission feels is being put into immediate circulation, providing a significant economic stimulus to the economy of the county.

The Commission felt the information would be of interest to the Crockett County Commissioners Court as well as the residents of the county.

Bland Tandy dies in Houston

Ozona friends and relatives received word on Friday of the death of Bland Tandy, oldest son of Mrs. H. B. Tandy and the late Dr. Tandy. Bland lived in Houston and was 56 years of age. He attended Ozona Public Schools.

Survivors include his wife, four children, his mother, a sister, Nan, and two brothers, Kerry and Mills.

Memorial services were held in Houston following cremation, on Monday. Mrs. H. B. Tandy (Faye) lives at Wesleyan Manor, a retirement home in Georgetown, Texas.

Day Care Center lull seasonal

The Ozona Day Care Center has continued its regular schedule and activities throughout the summer, even though attendance has dropped the past month. However, during the summer lull preparations for full capacity attendance are being made for the fall.

At this time, definite plans have not been made for infant care, children under 18 months, in the fall. Not enough interest has been expressed. Those interested in infant care need to call the center, 392-3641, as soon as possible.

Barbara Rice, center director, has asked that anyone with children's books or toys who would like to donate them to the center, to please do so, and the staff will appreciate these donations.

OHS BAND TO ORGANIZE

All high school band members will meet Monday, August 9, at 7:00 p.m. at the Band Hall.

A complete schedule of summer rehearsals will be given at that time.

OZONA STUDENTS GET TASTE OF COLLEGE LIFE at Sul Ross orientation held last week at Sul Ross University. The four spent three days on the campus meeting officials,

Entry blanks available-

26th Annual Youth Rodeo to be staged Aug. 6-7

The 26th Annual Ozona Youth Rodeo will be staged Friday and Saturday, August 6-7. Entry blanks are available at the Chamber of Commerce office. To be eligible, a contestant must be unmarried and not over 19 years of age. No more than three events may be entered by each contestant.

The Ozona Lions Club sponsors the event each year, with the assistance of the Chamber of Commerce. Co-chairmen for this year's event are John Parks and Billy Reagar.

The rodeo will get underway Friday afternoon with the downtown parade at 5 p.m. Shows begin each night at 7:30. There will be a dance each night on the slab at the rodeo arena. Music will be furnished by "Red Bandana," local country and western band.

Events are divided into three age groups, with one go-round for everyone. Friday night or Saturday morning slack will be held. Saturday morning slack will begin at 8:00. The Saturday night show will be made up of the top 6 in each event from the first go-round, with the exception of bull riders, who are allowed only one round.

Entry fees are $7 per event in all classes except bull riding which is $10. Fees must accompany entry blanks. Entries close at midnight, Monday, August 2, with drawing for places and go-rounds to take place Tuesday evening.

A silver buckle will be awarded average winners in all events, with a silver Cheyenne roll name plate awarded to second places. Silver halter name plates will be awarded to third place winners. Silver trophy buckles for best all-around performances will be awarded in each age group. To qualify for all-around a contestant must place in at least two events. Trophies are displayed in the window at Watson's Department Store.

Reigning rodeo queen Kim Bishop, will lead the parade, followed by this year's contestants. Kim, the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tite Bishop, is a sophomore student at Ozona High School. She was first runner-up in the High School Rodeo Association queen contest this year and captured the rodeo queen title at the Rankin youth rodeo. She is active in 4-H and spends her summers on the youth rodeo circuit.

Paula Bailey is in charge of the queen contest. The contestants will have a week of activities and judging events before the queen is selected. The new queen will be presented on the final night of the show and crowned by the reigning queen. The winner will have an opportunity to participate in the Miss Rodeo Texas Pageant held in San Antonio later this year.

The three divisions in the rodeo events include those 12 and under, both boys and girls. Girls will participate in barrel races, pole bending and flag racing, while boys will have pole bending, breakaway roping and flag racing.

In the 13 to 15 age group, girls will compete in goat tying, barrel racing, pole bending and flag racing. For boys events are steer roping, bull riding, calf tie down and hair pulling.

Events for youngsters in the 16 to 19 age group are the same for girls and for boys, with the exception being ribbon roping instead of hair pulling.

Lions Club members will be in charge of all rodeo events as well as maintaining the concession stand which will feature charcoaled hamburgers, drinks, etc. Eddie Hale's arena director again this year and flag judge. Jim House will return as rodeo announcer. Bucking judges are Lloyd Comer and Jim Bob Bailey. Clayton Robinson, recently installed Lions Club president will also oversee operations, and Johnny Jones will be in charge of the parade.

Thief gets two-year sentence

Bill Mason, District Attorney, announced today that George Rebeck was convicted and sentenced by Judge Troy Williams to serve 2 years in the Texas Department of Corrections. Rebeck was convicted Friday, July 23, of theft over $200.00 in the June 15, theft of two saddles, four bridles and two saddle blankets, valued at over $1,600.00, from Jimmy House, local Ozona resident.

Mason said all the property was recovered in an extensive investigation involving Crockett County Sheriff's Officers, Midland Police Officers and the investigator from Mr. Mason's office.

The District Attorney related that the Crockett County grand jury is in session and will hear evidence in several cases on August 2, 1982.

School starts next month—

Vacation nears end for students

Vacation is drawing to a close for Ozona school children and teachers, with less than a month before classes begin in all schools.

Football and band activities get underway as early as next week, registration to begin August 11. In service training for teachers begins August 16, and classes in all schools start August 23.

Several new teachers have been hired, but the faculty will not be complete until next week.

New in high school will be Don Abbott, who comes here from Mason, where he was head football coach. Abbott will fill that position here and teach P.E. He has a BS degree from Howard Payne University.

Another new face at high school will be John Curry, who comes here from Van Horn where he took his basketball team to state last year. Curry will be head basketball coach and teach history and government. He holds a BA from McMurry University and an M.Ed. from Sul Ross State University.

Milby Sexton, with a BS degree from Sam Houston State, will teach physical science in high school.

Retained for high school librarian is Sherry York, who holds her BA, MA, and Med. degrees from Sul Ross.

Joining the faculty in Junior high school are Frances Curry, English, BA, Sul Ross; Don Stark, BS from Stephen F. Austin University, special education; and Donnie York, BS degree from Sul Ross, librarian.

New faculty members at Ozona Intermediate include Dolly Abbott, fifth grade, BS from Howard Payne; Kathy Grendahl, special education, BS, Angelo State; Judy Probst, third grade, Sul Ross; Cora K. Worthington, fourth grade, BS, Sul Ross.

Ozona Primary will have three new teachers, two of which have taught here before. Nesa Chandler, former kindergarten teacher, will teach second grade. She has a degree from Angelo State. Susie Childress, who taught at the elementary level here a few years ago, will teach first grade. She has her BS from Angelo State. New to Ozona and the faculty will be Ellen Lipsep, who will teach second grade. She is a graduate of Baylor University.

Registration for Ozona Primary students, grades K through 2, will be held August 12, from 9 a.m. to 12 and from 1 to 4 p.m. Ozona Intermediate will register also August 12, with the same schedule for grades 3 through 5.

Junior high registration will be held August 12 and 13, for grades 6, 7 and 8.

Ozona high school students will register August 11, for seniors; August 12, for juniors and sophomores and August 13 for freshmen.

Physicals set for athletes

Physicals for all boy athletes in all sports have been scheduled for early next month. High school athletes will be given the free physicals August 5, at 4 p.m. in the high school library. Junior high athletes will take physicals August 19, at 4 p.m. also in the high school library.

Head coach Don Abbott stressed the physicals are for all sports and will be the only ones given free of charge this year. Dr. Don Carlisle will conduct the examinations.

Football shoes and socks will be issued to varsity and junior varsity players Wednesday, August 4, at 7:00 p.m. at the field house.

Monday, August 9, the squad will begin 2-a-day workouts. The first workout is set up for 8:00 a.m. and players will vote on times for workout at that time. Workouts in pads begin the following Friday.

Coach Abbott said the team is picked by Texas Football magazine to finish last in District 6-AAA, but he expects the Lions to do much better. Coming up from class 2-A last year, the Lions will be in District 6-AAA, along with Ballinger, Coahoma, Colorado City, Crane, and Sonora.

The Lions will have two scrimmages before taking on Junction in the pre-season opener Sept. 3, here in Ozona. They will scrimmage Fabens in Pecos Aug. 20 and Stanton in Stanton, August 27. "Both teams are rated pretty high in state and the scrimmages should be a good test for the Lions," Coach Abbott said.

Abbott said the coaching staff for football was fairly complete, with the exception of one coach short in high school. All coaches attended coaching school in Houston last week.

THE DEATH OF ERA

By Edwin Feulner

A handful of men are responsible for killing ERA. So lamented Kathy Wilson, president of the National Women's Political Caucus, as the controversial amendment was laid to rest on June 30 after ten years of bitter confrontation.

Washington was ablaze with tearful recriminations. Maureen Reagan, the president's popular eldest daughter, who had recently finished fifth in a five-person Republican primary race for a United States Senate seat, read society the riot act at the National Press Club. (Over the years, numerous other pro-ERA figures had addressed the Press Club throngs; Phyllis Schlafly, president of Stop ERA, had never even been asked to speak at the club, I am told — not even in her hour of victory.)

In Lafayette Park, across from the White House, mothers and daughters, everyone proclaiming themselves "sisters," railed on against our vicious male-dominated society. The ERA battle isn't over, they declared; it has only just begun.

The Lafayette Park demonstrators were all dressed in regulation ERA green. Green T-shirts. Green sashes. Green buttons. Green ribbons. Green for envy, I suppose. No green on June 30 at the quiet lair of Phyllis Schlafly, who was being dutifully ignored. One would hardly know she had won. On July 7, for example, a writer for The Washington Post rewrote history declaring the defeat "ERA's Triumph."

Passed by Congress in 1972, the Equal Rights Amendment proved that only cats have nine lives. During their first seven-year go around, ERA supporters were unable to win approval in 38 state legislatures — the minimum required to make a proposed amendment part of the Constitution. Three-plus years ago, facing defeat, they lobbied for and won an extension — the legality of which still is in question — until June 30, 1982. Not a single state was added to the ERA column during the additional three years.

ERA supporters claim, and can produce convincing polling evidence, that the majority of Americans support equal rights. ERA opponents produce equally convincing evidence showing that a majority of Americans oppose the likely consequences of the ERA: the creation of unisex society. Both sides were probably correct.

Why the ERA lost will be analyzed in great depth in the months and years ahead. Let me add the observations of one whose main objection was the fact that approval of ERA would have resulted in a heyday for sleazy lawyers and buried us in an ocean of new litigation.

ERA lost, first, because it was not enough for its supporters to gather a simple majority. The Constitution of the United States, according to the wisdom of the Founding Fathers, is a document that is to be tampered with only after the most careful, deliberate consideration — and then only with the approval of three-fourths of the states, not a simple majority.

Second, ERA lost because the National Organization for Women and other pro-ERA lobby groups were unable to motivate the vast majority of women in middle America, who while they may have supported the amendment in principle were often disgusted by the tactics employed by the women's movement.

As The Washington Post story on July 7 noted: "Ten years ago, when the drive to ratify the Equal Rights Amendment began, Georgia Fuller would never have considered splashing blood-red paint on the columns of the National Archives. Or burning the president in effigy. Or going on a hunger strike. . . . Or leaping over the White House fence. Or getting arrested." But over the years, Georgia Fuller has done all those things in an effort to rally the troops behind ERA, the story said.

Yet for every Georgia Fuller, there are hundreds, probably thousands, of women who find such activities disgraceful and were turned off by the activities of their "sisters."

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Governor Bill Clements apparently has decided that Texas and the nation have waited long enough for present and past presidential administrations to come up with a national energy policy, so he has come up with one of his own.

Clements said last week that he will present his plan to the upcoming Southern Governors Association meeting at Hilton Head, S.C. Clements is slated to become chairman of the group at the close of that conference.

Clements said his proposal will properly represent the "Texas position" on a national energy policy. He expects the plan to gain the support of both the Southern Governors Association and the National Governors Conference, which meets next month.

Clements described the Reagan administration's energy policies as "in limbo."

So far as an overall energy policy goes, "this administration does not have such a policy," he said, pointing out that Presidents Carter, Ford, Nixon, Johnson and Kennedy didn't either.

The Republican governor, who currently is facing Attorney General Mark White in the race for re-election, gave few details of the plan other than it addresses differences in the pricing of interstate and intrastate natural gas sales.

Senate Campaign

The 1982 election campaigns are beginning to heat up again and one of the hottest statewide races at the moment is the contest for U.S. Senate.

Democratic incumbent Lloyd Bentsen and his Republican foe, Dallas congressman Jim Collins, traded barbs last week, with Collins charging that Bentsen improperly reported a $79,850 campaign contribution and Bentsen criticizing the GOP contender for voting against disaster aid for farmers.

Collins said the $79,000 from the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee properly should have appeared on the committee's financial report, not Bentsen's.

Bentsen said Collins' charge implied his campaign was "being too open" and was the "dumbest thing I've ever heard."

Bentsen's charge that Collins repeatedly voted against emergency disaster aid for farmers during the past 14 years came after Collins took credit for getting a U.S. Agriculture Department task force to survey severe crop damage recently suffered in the High Plains area.

Bentsen's campaign also has just released a poll showing that National Conservative Political Action Committee advertisements attacking Bentsen have done more harm to Collins in the Panhandle.

The poll, conducted by Shipley & Associates, Inc. of Austin, shows that the incumbent's lead in a 19-county area near Lubbock rose while the GOP challenger suffered an increase in "unfavorable impressions" because of the ads.

Bentsen is among the "liberal" politicians targeted for defeat by NCPAC.

Airline Hearing

Attorneys for the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission have recommended that Southwest Airlines lose its license to sell beer and liquor for five days or allegedly serving seven cans of beer to a 14-year-old boy on a flight from Lubbock to Austin.

The boy contended he drank three beers on the flight from Lubbock to Dallas and four more from Dallas to Austin. He claimed he was so drunk when he arrived in Austin that he needed assistance from airport police officers.

The flight attendants testified, however, that it would have been "impossible" to serve any passenger that many drinks, particularly because the plane was only in the air for 31 minutes on the Dallas-to-Austin leg of the flight.

A final decision on the matter is expected in a month or two.

Bid Rigging

And in other legal hassles, two more highway contractors have been fined a total of more than $300,000 in the federal investigation into bid rigging on state highway construction contracts.

U.S. District Judge James Nowlin ordered Stafford Construction Co. of Lubbock to pay $100,000 on one count of conspiracy to restrain trade and $500 on one count of mail fraud.

Brannon Contractors Inc. of Victoria was fined $200,000 on a similar conspiracy charge.

Stafford pleaded no contest and Brannon pleaded guilty to charges they conspired with other contractors to fix bids on numerous highway projects during the last few years.

Both companies have agreed to cooperate with the ongoing investigation.

Boswell & Crafton Inc., also of Lubbock, previously was fined $200,000 on bid rigging charges.

Fuel Tax

A task force appointed by Gov. Clements has made formal a recommendation that the state impose an aviation fuel tax to help support airport development.

The panel voted 15-3 to recommend a one-cent-per-gallon tax for airliner fuel and three cents per gallon for private aircraft.

That recommendation is not likely to please the airline industry, which is already faced with dire economic conditions that may force more than one company out of business.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Kitty,

A note of thanks to all whose time, effort and monetary donations made the Fourth of July celebration possible. And a special thank you to the Ozona Fire Dept., C. L. Roy, Dale Hobson, Leonard Boyd, Girl Scout Troops, Willena Holden, Bob McDaniels and their band members, John L. Henderson and Max Schroeder.

We of the Board of directors of your Chamber of Commerce enjoy coordinating these occasions and we hope that those who attend enjoy them also.

Ozona Chamber Of Commerce

July 26, 1982

Dear Kitty,

I have just returned to work from another stay in Shannon Hospital. This means I have hundreds of people in Crockett County to thank for their cards, letters, floral and food gifts, visits and phone calls.

I have had to be out of the office about four months. I believe surgery has corrected most of the problems with the hip and legs which started 30 years ago in Korea. My only defense about having to be out of work so long was that thirty years ago exposure to the Chinese Army put many of us out of work. I was fortunate in that I still have most of my parts to be put back together.

I am especially sorry that most of the people employed by Crockett County Hospital, the pharmacists, and others suffered from my hospitalization. I am terribly sorry that my absence caused them distress.

My special thanks again go to Doctor Owensby. Dr. Owensby had recently suffered the death of his son and then to have to cover my patients for four months unaided deserves the gratitude not only of me and my patients but the whole county.

A new doctor is to arrive soon. He appears to be the type of man and doctor who will be at home here and will prevent one doctor having to work without assistance. I hope everyone finds him to be as friendly, courteous and likeable as I have. Medically, he has an excellent reputation as a family practice physician.

Again, Lee and I are proud to live in a county that showed us so much concern during my recent surgery. Sincerely yours, Don L. Carlisle, M.D.

Dear Kitty and Tom,

Late as usual!

Don't know what we'd do without "our paper" — it's still home to me and Doc loves Ozona and all he knows there. I have to fight to get The Stockman, he wants to read it first.

Keep up your good work! Sincerely, Jessie Baccus (Mrs. C.H.)

Strake Talk

Keeping In Touch

This is the first of what I intend to be a number of weekly columns from me, discussing various topics of importance to Texans. During the coming weeks, we will discuss such things as President Reagan's "New Federalism" proposal, the need for better laws dealing with drunk drivers, illegal aliens, the education of our children, and a host of other issues that will be on our political agenda.

I believe these columns will provide a unique opportunity to stimulate public discussion on these important issues. Indeed, this may be the only way, I have challenged my opponent, Mr. Hobby, to a series of free-wheeling debates on political issues, so both our views could be put before the people of Texas. We met in debate one time in Houston. In the view of all observers, Mr. Hobby lost and he has announced that he will not debate again. So I have chosen this route to try to let you know my position on the issues. I feel you are entitled to know that before you make your decision in the November election. Additionally, I hope you will let me know your views. They are important to me.

The office of Lieutenant Governor is exceedingly powerful in Texas. It affects all our lives. In addition to presiding over the State Senate, the Lt. Governor appoints all Senate committees, their chairmen, and assigns all legislation to the committee of his choice. He presides over the Legislative Budget Board, which significantly shapes state spending. It is an office all Texans ought to be concerned about.

I hope you will watch for this column. Tell your friends and neighbors about it. Discuss the issues. Together, we can make a contribution to the political processes, and hopefully improve all our lives. Let me know your views on the issues. I discuss in the weeks ahead. Just write me at 1213 W. 34th, Austin, Texas, 78705.

Debra Says

By Debra Price

This is the time of year to go through closets to evaluate what is being worn and what clothes are hanging unworn. Categorize your wardrobe as follows:

Clothes worn frequently
Clothes seldom worn
Clothes never worn

First, concentrate on the never-worn-the space takers. They clutter the closet and cause a slowdown when putting together a versatile wardrobe. Consider the reasons why these garments are not being worn. Is alteration or cleaning needed?

If so, is it worth the time and expense. Some garments have never been right-color or style has never been suitable. These need to be sold, traded or donated to charity. When planning to sell clothes, plan to sell them while they are still in style, rather than letting them hang dormant for a few years.

Clothes in the "seldom-worn" category are more difficult to discard. Often they take up prime closet space "just in case!" Decide if new accessories or an alteration would update the item to the "frequently worn" category. If so, pin a label on the garment, stating to keep it with the core wardrobe. If you can't bear part with an article, hang in another closet. Next year, if it hasn't been worn, get rid of it with a clear conscience.

Clothes that remain should be enjoyable to wear and suit your current lifestyle. Hang in the jackets in one section, separate suits so that pants and skirts are hanging in their own section. Hang all dresses and shirts together. This invites greater versatility-consider the many combinations that can result by combining skirts, pants and blazers.

While trying on the core wardrobe, make a list of new purchases needed to improve the wardrobe. Perhaps a lace collar for a classic sweater, or a wide, wrap belt for a brown wool skirt.

Make the list now, then wait to buy until the new fashions arrive, or buy on clearance sale. Plan your shopping trip early, before the new arrivals for updating your wardrobe have been picked over.

Tips For Gardeners

From The Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

Though the sun has been torrid for days we were refreshed with the most welcome shower last week.

Midsummer is the time to enjoy the early morning when passing crisp, fresh roses, cannas, day lilies and other blooms you may have in your garden.

Colorful coleus plants may be used to fill in where annuals and perennials have finished blooming. The glorious daisy has proven to be a sturdy plant that will take the hot dry weather and prolong lasting attractive blooms.

If you have a Norfolk Island pine, to help keep the plant healthy, use a sprinkling of fertilizer (12-6-6) in March, May and July. The plant should be repotted annually until it is in a 7 or 8 inch pot, then no further repotting is necessary. It is beneficial in spring to remove some of the surface soil and replace with fresh compost. The recommended soil is a compost of 2/3 loam and 1/3 leaf mold with a small amount of sand. In the summer protect the plant from direct sun. If left too crowded or not given enough sufficient light, it will become ragged.

Gourd season is here if you are interested, so a few suggestions may help you cure them. To do so successfully, leave the gourd on the vine until it is perfectly ripe, then cut it off, leaving one inch of stem. Save only unblemished specimens. Punch a small hole in the bloom end of the gourd before storing in a dry, airy place until needed. If you want to coat them, wait six months or a year, before waxing or varnishing. They need to be thoroughly dry. Polish with a piece of burlap or other rough cloth. If you don't grow your own, native gourds may be gathered along the roadside or in pastures.

If your pyracantha's lose their green luster, turn bronze and drop leaves, this may be caused by tiny lace bugs. Spray thoroughly with a solution of 57% malathion emulsifiable concentrate at the rate of one tablespoon for gallon of water. This is an old remedy, so there may be a new one on the market now.

TABLE ACCESSORIES

In past columns, we have discussed ideas and thoughts concerning wall accessories-but we must not neglect the equally important consideration of table accessories. Properly selected table accessories will help give your home a decorator look and compliment your major furniture.

Aside from the usual decorative ash-trays, candy dishes, etc., a whole new world of table accessories is now available. But there's more to consider about table accessories than just selecting them. To be really effective, and to give your home a truly decorator look, you must use and display them properly.

One rule is to avoid a cluttered look and not use too many jumbled items on your tables at one time. A cluttered look can take away from the beauty of each individual accessory.

If you have more items than you can use at one time, why not use fewer pieces-but then change them around frequently, which solves that problem, and gives your rooms a fresher look more often.

And, in using table decor make sure the colors harmonize with other things in the room. That way you'll truly be using table accessories to add to the overall decorator appearance of your home.

For ideas, and for a wonderful display of furnishings--and furniture--we invite you to stop in at Brown Furniture.

There aren't many of us left who remember Sixbey's General Store. It was more than a store; it was a gathering place, a news bureau, a bright spot in a boy's summer afternoon.

You would come in from the hot dusty street and the shaded store was cool. Immediately you encountered a tantalizing blend of scents--apples, licorice, spices and smoked ham. Grown-up conversation enhanced your feeling of excitement as they viewed and reviewed town happenings. You always took a long time to decide between a chocolate or a lemon drop, so that this exciting visit could be prolonged.

Our town has changed since then. For those of us whose memories linger in Sixbey's Store, it hardly seems the same place.

Yet one thing's the same. At the corner of Elm and Main, St. Mark's steeple still points skyward. Man's need for God never changes. And the Church remains constant as it teaches the truths of God's love and presence.

4 Ozonans at Sul Ross orientation

Four Ozona students participated in freshman orientation held last week at Sul Ross University in preparation for the fall semester.

They were Jack Thompson, Mercedes Stratis, Terry Crawford and Karen Keilers. They were among 143 incoming freshmen who spent three days on the Sul Ross campus meeting university officials, visiting with faculty members and touring the campus. They also participated in career and educational planning sessions designed to help them select their fall classes.

Dr. Mike Meyers, director of the Center for student development and orientation director, said, "We find that the fewer surprises incoming students encounter at the first of their college career, the more successful they are. These sessions are designed to eliminate some of the surprises." In addition to the sessions, the students were treated to a get-acquainted party with other orientation participants.

Thompson received a $400 scholarship from the freshman leadership program and Crawford was awarded a $400 industrial arts departmental scholarship during an awards program capping off the three day event.

Third Sunday church services were given by the First Baptist Church. Residents really enjoy their afternoon services and really appreciate all churches who participate each week.

A game of '42' was played on Monday morning by Paul Cavin, Ola Mills, Maude Pettit, and Nila Turnell. Also on Monday morning Shelly Rumley, Pam Miles, and Kim Williams gave manicures to our lady residents.

Tuesday morning bingo winner of the El Chato dinner for two was Hilario Cortez. On Friday our two day winner of the gift certificate from Westernman Drug was Juana Hernandez. Louise McWilliams won second. Everyone who bingoed on Friday was given a small token gift. Thanks goes to Anna Belle Patrick for some Avon soap prizes and for bringing popcorn. She was a volunteer on Friday as was Sophie Tijerina, Barbara Davee, and the following ladies who helped both Tuesday and Friday: Ofilia Enriguez, Dorothy Doll, Alice Ross, and Louise Johnigan. Twenty-one residents played on Tuesday while twenty played on Friday.

Many thanks goes to Sara Hignight for conducting a sing-along on Tuesday afternoon. Once the residents "got in the swing" they didn't want to let Sara leave.

Wednesday morning it was "Welcome back" to Ruth Hester from the ceramic class and on Friday the same goes to Dorothy Doll who conducted the crafts class. Our ladies always miss these two when they are gone. Ladies enjoying these two activities include: Frances Borrego, Ola Mills, Jessie Deaton, Maude Pettit, and Juana Hernandez.

Mark your calendars for August 19. That is the night we will have our big volunteer recognition party. If you have been a volunteer during the past year, you are urged to attend our special "Thank You" given for you.

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

By Jerry Lay

One of the most amazing baseball teams of all-time was the 1930 St. Louis Cardinals. They were the only team in big league history to have a 300 hitter at every regular position in one season. They had Jim Bottomley at first who batted .304, Frank Frisch at second (.346), Charley Gelbert at short (.304), parky Adams at third (.314), Jimmy Wilson catching (.318) and an outfield of Chuck Hafey (.336), Taylor Douthitt (.303) and George Watkins (.373). Plus, they had 3 utility players who batted .366, .374 and .396 that year!

Of all the players in big league baseball history, which one led the league in stolen bases the most consecutive years? Surprisingly the answer is not Lou Brock, Ty Cobb, Maury Wills or any other base-stealing champion you might think of first. It was Luis Aparicio who led the American League in stolen bases an incredible 9 straight seasons, from 1956 through 1964.

I bet you didn't know... L-B Motor Co. has new and used cars for you to make your choice from when you are ready to trade so come on by. Also see our pickups.
