Lions get by Kermit to take Bi-District title

By Ross A. Alexander

In a game highlighted by stellar performances from David Badillo and Will Mason, the Ozona Lions, on the move and resolute, destroyed a nest of Kermit Yellow Jackets in Crane Stadium Friday night. The Bi-District Champions put on another championship caliber defensive exhibition as the head-hunting squad of Massey, Fierro, Delgado, and Hernandez showed why the Lion secondary is the fiercest and most feared in West Texas.

"This is the hardest-hitting team we've faced all season," #86 Rex Kilgore moaned after the game. Earl Overton, the head coach of the Kermit team praised the coaches and players from Ozona following the clash played before a large stadium crowd. "That Ozona team is well-coached and poised with good disciplined execution when they had to have it. It's also a hard-hitting bunch that really deserved it."

Defense however was the feature occurrence on the field in Crane Stadium. Johnny Rodriguez, having another fine game, sent Kermit back Jesse Yanez home with a headache as the Yellow Jacket running back crossed the line of scrimmage early in the game, delivering a vicious hit after a pickup of one. That head-hunting effort spurred others by Lion defenders and the powerful Kermit runners and receivers got the message promptly.

Rowdy Holmsley, playing against the most brutal offensive front to face the Lions this year, was simply fearless as he tormented the Kermit QB and assorted Yellow Jacket backs all evening.

"I feel Rowdy had an outstanding evening, much like the night Ed had last week," said coach John Curry afterwards. "He played with an assertive aggressiveness tonight and they could do little with him. We're all happy to see Rowdy coming around."

Coach Curry also praised his defensive secondary, who were hitting like gangsters with a punishing abandon which intimidated the Kermit receivers and runners. "They like to hit, and whenever a back starts out of the backfield you can count on somebody zeroing in on him with gusto."

Fabian, who allowed Kilgore to get behind him in the 1st quarter, but was spared the embarrassment by a dropped pass, unloaded on Burleson after the big back had gained 18 yards with under a minute and a half remaining in the opening quarter, reducing Burleson's offensive effectiveness for the rest of the evening.

As the defenses continued to joust with one another, the crucial punting element emerged as a factor, because Harvey's boomers carried long, high and deep, while Kermit's were relatively short and of little consequence.

Badillo, on a brilliant call from his head coach, fired a TD pass to Bullet Flores at the 4 minute mark in the 2nd quarter only to have it called back because of an infraction. However, Badillo, on his next series, working with under 50 seconds left in the half, moved the Ozona offense over 40 yards in just 5 plays to position star Lion kicker Will Mason's perfect field goal with just 7 seconds left in the half.

Robert Hearne, on the subsequent kickoff, demonstrated the Lion's championship caliber defense with a terrifying hit that produced a loud audible groan from the Kermit fans. It was that type of night.

The 2nd half started slowly for Ozona. Bullet Flores, after a fine 9 yard run which carried to the Lion 44, could not get a grip on the pitch from his feild general operating on a 1st and 10 situation. The alert Kermit defenders anxiously gobbled up the loose football and the offensive unit promptly made the turnover a costly one as they drove into paydirt with 5:37 showing in the 3rd. The kick was good as Kermit moved out to a momentary 7-3 lead.

Although Badillo was intercepted with 3:34 remaining in the period, Rowdy, playing like a man on fire, snuffed out a big 4th down run and the Lions took over at the Lion 16 yard line. As 4th quarter action got underway, Badillo, the Lion Player Of The Week, directed a splendid drive upfield once passing to the ever-dangerous Diego Leal for a 34 yard gain to the Yellow Jacket 47. Badillo smoothly alternated his Hurricane, Flores and his own running to move to the Kermit 25 with just 8 1/2 minutes left in the ball game. Facing a 3rd and 5, Badillo, under an oppressive rush, rolled calmly to his right and found Flores who made a fine catch for the 1st down, keeping the drive alive.

With 8:13 to go and down 7-3 against an increasingly belligerent defensive unit, Badillo, as cunning as ever, fired his Hurricane at the defense after sending Flores wide. When the crafty QB saw that the defensive personnel were pinching somewhat to the inside, he faked convincingly to Harvey and sprinted around the right side and into the end zone for the TD culminating the finest scoring drive of the season. Will Mason, the premier kicker in West Texas successfully converted and the Lions had enough to win, with 5:44 left in the contest.

Kermit QB Ramirez moved the team using QB keepers into Lion territory with fine off tackle quick openers and on an 11 yard quickie, he managed to move the unit to the Lion 13 with only 2:32 remaining. After two keepers put the pigskin on the Lion 7, Marcello Hernandez, playing with his standard level of all-out abandon, mercilessly hit Kermit's fine running back McIntyre, stopping the 3rd down effort short of the 1st down and knocking himself completely out in the process. Marcello eventually walked off under his own power amid the thunderous applause of an appreciative and vocal Ozona throng.

The tension mounted as Kermit's offense returned without their kicker and the

Pecan show plans getting underway

Plans are well underway for the Annual Crockett County Pecan Show which will be held Monday, Nov. 29, at the Civic Center. Pecans have already begun to fall from what looks like a short crop. However, the quality of the nuts seem to be excellent, so those who plan to enter the show should be collecting pecans at the earliest opportunity.

Pecan enthusiasts and homeowners of pecan trees are gathering and sorting pecans for the show. Homemakers and youth are selecting recipes for the food division of the show.

To enter the pecan show, a person must have 45 large, heavy, uniform nuts off the same tree. Place them in a paper bag and bring them to the County Extension Office or Civic Center before 9:00 a.m. on November 29.

The chairmen of this year's show is Beth Boyd, Buster Deaton, processing chairman; John Parks, finance chairman; Mrs. Jerry Hill, food chairman.

In the pecan division, $50.00 cash prize will be presented to the Grand Champion Pecan. Reserve champion will receive $25.00 cash and Most Entries will receive $10.00. Plaques will be presented to Champion Native, Champion Shelling Division, and Champion In-Shell Division.

Both youth and adults are welcome to enter the food division of the Crockett County Pecan Show. Bring food entries to the Civic Center on Monday, November 29, from 7:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. The food categories are cakes, pies, cookies, candy, bread, and miscellaneous. All youth will also compete in the Youth Division.

Pecans must be in each recipe that is entered. The entire recipe must be entered for judging, or in case of cookies, bring 3 dozen. Cover food with clear plastic wrap and place your name and food category entered on bottom of container. The recipe must be turned in with food.

There is no limit on the number of entries. $10.00 will be presented to the person with the most entries. A $10.00 award will be presented to the Champion and $5.00 award to the runner-up in each food category. $10.00 will be presented to the Champion Youth Entry and $5.00 for the Reserve Champion Youth.

The Pecan Show will open to the public from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. Pick your food entries up at 7:00 p.m., November 29.

The Crockett County Program Building Committee sponsors the show and everyone is welcome to enter. For further information, call the County Extension Office at 2-2721 or Beth Boyd at 2-2066.

Great American Smokeout set

Giving up cigarettes is cause for celebration. Every year the American Cancer Society offers smokers a chance to have fun while they're trying to quit. The occasion is the Great American Smokeout, a day smokers around the nation try to go a full 24 hours without cigarettes. This year, smokers are invited to put aside their habit, with pleasure, on November 18.

In conjunction with the Great American Smokeout, Mary Helen Parks, art teacher for the Ozona Junior High and High School, is sponsoring a Great American Smokeout poster contest to inspire teenagers and adults to give up their smoking habit for a day.

This year the Great American Smokeout will celebrate its sixth anniversary and all indications are for another immensely popular day. During last year's Smokeout, 3 out of 10 cigarette smokers either cut down or cut out smoking for the day, according to a Gallup study. Close to 5 million actually quit for the day.

Although 54 million Americans continue to smoke, the number of people who've quit has increased over the years. Currently, there are 33.3 million ex-smokers.

The Great American Smokeout offers millions of Americans a well-deserved holiday, a day off from smoking.

Join the celebration Thursday, November 18. It's worth celebrating!

New bank to hold groundbreaking Fri.

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the Crockett County National Bank, a national banking association in organization, have been announced by Mr. Stan Lambert, president-elect of the bank. The groundbreaking is scheduled for Friday, November 19 at the site of the new bank which is located on the northwest corner of Highway #163 and First Street.

Construction on the 7,000 square foot building which includes a four-lane drive-in facility is expected to begin within the next 30 days.

Templeton Construction Company, a general contracting firm from San Angelo, has been selected as the general contractor for the building project. Templeton Construction Company recently completed the new banking quarters for the First National Bank in El Dorado and the remodeling of the First National Bank in Mertzon. Architects for the bank building project are Coffee and Crier, from Austin.

The groundbreaking is scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m. The public is invited to attend.

MEDFLY: R.I.P.

By Edwin Feulner

Though the event went virtually unnoticed in most parts of the country, America closed the book on the "medfly" story a few weeks ago, when the U.S. Department of Agriculture declared the emergency over.

From beginning to end, the bizarre medfly saga was an example of environmental loony-tunes.

The end came quietly: no television cameras, no TIME and NEWSWEEK cover stories, just a simple announcement by Assistant Secretary of Agriculture C. W. "Bill" McMillan saying that the infestation had been eradicated, and thanking everyone for their cooperation.

The trouble is, not everyone cooperated. And because of that, we have learned, the cost of eradicating the voracious agricultural pest increased in less than two years from an original estimate of less than $1 million to more than $173 million—about $228,000 per head for each of the 757 little bugs that were zapped during the eradication program.

When the first tiny bugs were discovered in California's Santa Clara Valley in December 1980, pest-control experts recommended spraying the area with a chemical known as "malathion." The chemical had been safely used in California and elsewhere for some 25 years, in both agricultural and nonagricultural bug control programs. In New Orleans and the Tidewater, Virginia, area malathion was used for mosquito control. It was as safe and effective a chemical as is known.

But Governor Jerry Brown balked. The governor apparently felt he knew better than all of the doctors and scientists, including officials of the California Department of Health Services, who found the chemical safe. So instead of authorizing the needed aerial spraying, Governor Brown called on Golden Staters to hand-strip their fruit trees and even called out the National Guard to help. At the peak of the confrontation, the state employed 4,000 workers to battle the flies and quarantined 623 square miles of land.

As Dr. Jack Early, one of the country's leading authorities on agricultural pest control, said, the eradication program became "a circus, and all the while the problem was spreading."

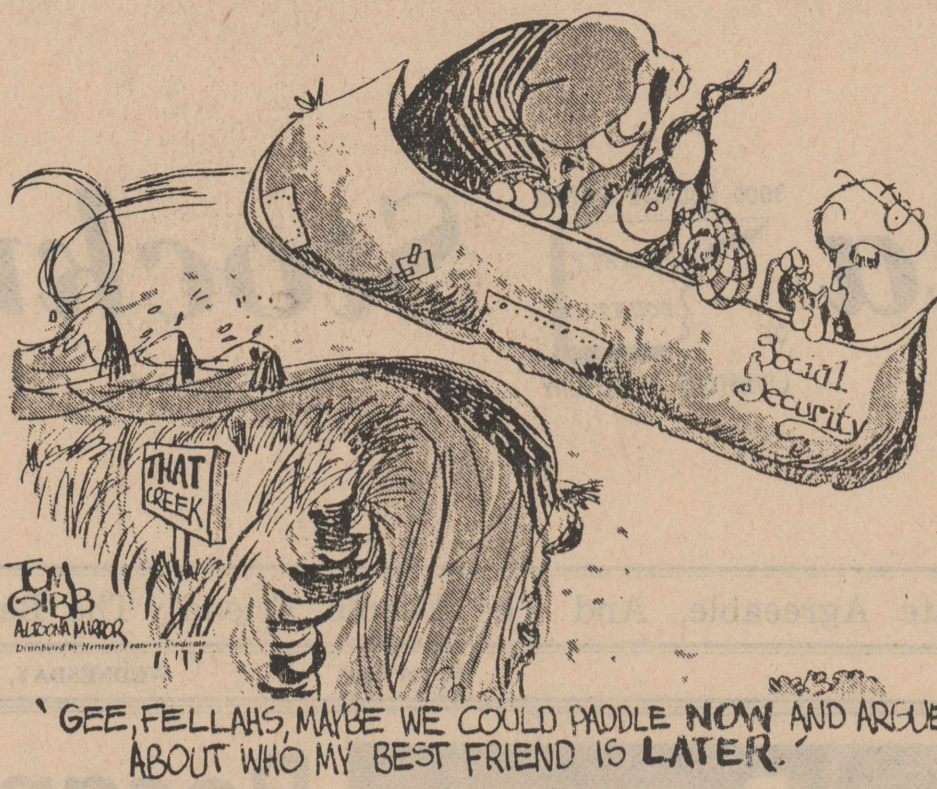

The rest is history, reported in cover stories in America's news magazines and watched by tens of millions of amused Americans on TV's nightly news.

"Unfortunately," notes Dr. Early, president of the National Agricultural Chemicals Association, "the delays took a price. Instead of the $748,000 U.S.D.A. had estimated in December 1980 to control the very limited infestation in Santa Clara County, the program cost more than 200-times that, and covered much of the state, from Los Angeles County in the South to the outskirts of Sacramento in the north."

Said Early, "No country can afford too many $173-million mistakes. We especially can't afford them today, with the world population increasing by an estimated 70-million people each year. The United States, after all, is one of the very few countries on earth that grows more food than its people need for themselves. This is possible only because of our advanced farm technology, including carefully tested agricultural chemicals."

Let's hope our understanding of the Medfly fiasco prevents a similar event from ever taking place. A lot of people around the world are depending on us.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—As Governor-elect of Texas, Mark White's transition team is fine-tuning his legislative package and scrutinizing qualified candidates for various appointments he will make in the next few weeks.

At the top of the list of appointees is the new Texas Secretary of State, a new Public Utility Commissioner, and, perhaps, a new Supreme Court chief justice.

The big question mark is: just how many appointments will outgoing Gov. Bill Clements leave for the man who defeated him?

Clements still can make more than 220 appointments to boards and commissions.

The hitch for Clements is that his "midnight appointments" must face confirmation in the Senate, where an appointee is rejected if at least 11 senators vote against him.

White won't be able to appoint a successor to Chief Justice Joe Greenhill who resigned last month unless: 1) Clements fails to name a replacement before Jan. 18, or 2) the Senate acts to reject Clements' pick.

Clements said last week he intends to pick a new chief justice, but a couple of days later he got a letter signed by 15 Democratic senators asking him to leave the task to White.

Senatorial Courtesy

The letter stopped short of threatening to block the appointment, but the wording and number of signatures indicated a Clements nominee might be in trouble.

Perhaps the real issue is whether an appointee can overcome political pressures from former Atty. Gen. John Hill, who is considered a sure bet to run for chief justice in 1984.

Clements' most recent appointee, Tommie Gene Smith to the Public Utility Commission, also has yet to be confirmed, and speculation has it the Democrats are moving to "bust" the retired Army general from San Antonio.

Quiet pressure is apparently being put on Sen. Glenn Kothmann of San Antonio to use senatorial courtesy to nullify Smith. Kothmann hasn't said what he'll do.

PUC Under Gun

Such a move would give White two appointees to the PUC, since Commissioner George Cowden's term expires next August, which is plenty of room to let White fulfill his campaign promise to appoint a woman-consumer to the post.

But other changes for PUC are planned by various legislators, including Sen. Lloyd Doggett, D-Austin.

Doggett last week prefilled a bill which would eliminate the controversial fuel adjustment clause, also a White campaign pledge.

The bill expands the three-member board to six members, who would be elected from single-member districts.

It allows the Texas Attorney General a larger role in representing consumers in rate cases before the PUC.

Other similar bills are expected to be filed, and White has not endorsed any specific bill to reform PUC.

He said PUC reform will be a top legislative priority for his administration.

One Billion $$

White, acting in his capacity as attorney general, last week began presenting evidence in a lawsuit to collect $1 billion which he says the federal government owes Texas in offshore oil revenues.

In a Beaumont courtroom, he offered geological surveys to contend that the Feds drained oil and natural gas from Texas deposits without compensation.

Money awarded to Texas in settlement would go to the Texas Public School Fund.

Matagorda Island

Texas has moved closer to assuming control of 19,000 acres of federal land on Matagorda Island, and may finalize the controversial plan by mid-December.

The proposal would give Texas control, but not ownership, of the property for the next 100 years.

Dolph Briscoe

Former Gov. Dolph Briscoe, who was seen quite a bit helping Mark White on the campaign trail, said recently he plans to announce in January or February whether he will run in 1984 for the U.S. Senate seat now held by Republican John Tower.

That race will be the hottest on the ballot, and sure to be sought by others including former U.S. Rep. Bob Krueger.

you and the LAW
PRESENTED BY THE STATE BAR OF TEXAS

Q: I have been living with my boyfriend for two years. We decided to split up and go our separate ways with no hassles, but a friend told me that we had a common law marriage and would have to get a legal divorce. Is this true?

A: Over this many years of cohabitation you may indeed have created a common law marriage. An uncontested divorce would be the best way to protect both of you. During the relationship either of you may have incurred debts which creditors may assume were against community assets. You need to clarify who owns what, and who will pay what, and put it on public record to prevent future confrontations and lawsuits. This will also quiet all possible charges of bigamy in case either of you plans to marry again.

Q: The house where we live in my wife's name only. If she sells it can the money from the sale be put in the bank in just her name without involving it in community property? Also, can a married woman have a bank account in her "maiden" name legally?

A: Let me begin with the easiest question: yes, in Texas a woman may retain her name on accounts or anywhere else as long as she is not doing it to defraud creditors.

As to the proceeds of your home, we'll need a little more information. Remember this, however: separate property may be managed solely, without the knowledge or consent of the other spouse. Your wife's name on the deed suggests it is her separate property. If you question this, she will have to prove her separate money bought the home, and if she owes you anything, it may only be for taxes and maintenance while you lived there.

Q: I heard on a recent radio talk show, where an attorney appeared as a guest, that a couple could set up a revocable trust and name someone as a trustee. This, the attorney claimed, would avoid many inheritance taxes and probate. Is this true?

A: Trusts are flexible tools in tax planning; they may be as broad or limited as the giver—the trustor—may desire.

Whether money in trust escapes inclusion in your estate at death depends on the terms of your gift into trust. For example, can you revoke, or call back the assets? Can you direct the trustee how to spend the money during your lifetime? Either of these powers may pull the assets back into your estate.

Remember that the more control you exercise over assets, the closer they get to your taxable estate. You must decide if you want to lose future control only to reduce taxes.

Q: I recently purchased an item at a local department store but when I got home I found it had a defect. The clerk refused to exchange the item or give me a refund. What legal recourse do I have?

A: Unless the item you purchased was sold "as is" or with a similar conspicuous written disclaimer, you have the right to return the defective item within a reasonable time. Unless the flaw is minor or unimportant to the item's use, the store should substitute a good quality item for the item you return, or it should refund your money. If you wait too long to return the item to the store, however, the store will be under no obligation to you. If the store refuses to refund your money or to give you another item, and you have been prompt in making your complaint to the store, you can sue the store for the difference between what the item was supposed to be worth and what it is actually worth, plus any extra damages the laws may allow.

Send your questions to "You and the Law," State Bar of Texas, P. O. Box 12487, Austin, 78711. Answers may appear in columns in hypothetical terms; personal answers not possible.

Letters to the Editor

November 15, 1982

Dear Kitty,

I think most of us are weary of the constant financial hassle between the Commissioners' Court and our hospital.

Let's give County Attorney Cameron an opportunity to investigate and report on the hospital district concept for Crockett County before we make negative noises.

Hospital districts seem to work very well in other counties, some with communities even smaller than ours, and it would seem to me that residents of the Biggest Little Town in the World ought to have a modern, well-equipped hospital at their disposal and one in which our doctors can take pride and that will keep them here! Four doctors in Ozona is phenomenal in this day and time.

In talking with a board member of Schleicher County Medical Center in Eldorado, he tells me that at first there was some dissension and opposition against forming a hospital district, but now those who were against it initially are all for it, and no one is hurting tax-wise as a result. They have a beautiful, modern facility.

Let's keep open minds until we have the facts. Sincerely, Joan Nicholas

With the opening of deer season, I always have questions about good recipes for deer sausage. Recipes for sausage are included this week.

Fresh Breakfast Sausage
25 pounds lean deer, antelope or elk meat
25 pounds very fresh regular pork trimmings (50 percent lean, 50 percent fat)
1 pound salt
1 1/2 to 2 ounces ground sage
1 1/2 to 2 ounces black pepper
1/2 ounce red pepper (if desired)
5 ounces sugar

For Small Quantities
2 pounds wild game meat
2 pounds regular pork trimmings
2 teaspoons salt
4 teaspoons ground sage
2 teaspoons ground black pepper
1/4-1/2 teaspoon red pepper (if desired)

1 teaspoon sugar
Thoroughly mix trimmings and grind through a plate with 1/8-inch holes. Spread coarsely ground meat on table top, sprinkle seasoning on top and thoroughly mix. Regrind through a plate with 1/8-inch holes. If a 1/2-inch plate is not available, sprinkle seasoning on top of trimmings, thoroughly mix and grind once through a plate with 1/8-inch holes.

If sausage is to be stuffed, do this immediately for best results. Stuff into natural hog casings, plastic bags or muslin bags (any cloth bag made from strong cloth that has been washed several times can be used). Natural hog casings can be obtained from meat markets, local meat processing plants or stores. Soak them in warm, salty water for about 1 hour or until they are pliable.

If bulk sausage is to be served soon after making, 1/4 cup of water may be added to about 4 pounds of sausage. Knead with hands until sausage becomes sticky. Pack tightly in small molds, pans or cans and chill overnight before slicing.

Cured and Smoked Sausage [Country Style]

37 1/2 pounds of deer, antelope or elk
12 1/2 pounds of very fresh pork fat trimmings (fatback)
1 pound salt
1 ounce saltpeter (potassium nitrate-obtainable at drug store)
2 ounces black pepper
1/2 ounce ground cloves (or 1/2 ounce ground nutmeg, if desired)
1/4 ounce garlic powder (if desired)

Prepare and grind meat and add seasoning as for fresh sausage. Stuff into natural hog casings or muslin casings. Hang or place on racks to cure and dry for 24 to 48 hours at a temperature of 38° F. to 40° F. The recipe used for fresh breakfast sausage can be used to make cured and smoked sausage.

Smoking: Smoke the Sausage 1 to 2 hours or until light brown color is obtained.

District Garden Club meet draws large crowd

Garden club members from throughout this area were on hand for the annual District VIII Texas Garden Clubs, Inc. Fall Convention held here over the weekend.

Seventy persons attended the supper and meeting the evening prior to the convention at the Circle Bar Solarium.

Members gathered at the Civic Center Saturday morning for coffee and registration, approximately 100 attended from district towns. Host clubs were the two Ozona clubs, one from Big Lake and one from Iraan.

The general assembly was convened at 9:30 in the auditorium by Mrs. Charles Speck, Jr. of Big Lake. The invocation was given by Rev. Wayne Boyce and Judge Johnny Jones gave the welcome address. The greetings address was given by Mrs. Tom Stokes, president of the Ozona Garden Club. Mrs. Bob Markland of Coleman gave the response.

Mrs. E. A. Park, district director, conducted the business meeting. A skit on conservation was given by Mrs. Henry B. Horn of Del Rio prior to lunch.

Following lunch the afternoon session got under way with Mrs. Bailey Post giving the invocation. Mrs. Lee Graves introduced the program. "Native Plants, Beaumont to El Paso, Dalhart to Brownsville," was presented by Benny Simpson of the Texas A&M University Research and Extension Center at Dallas.

Mrs. Clifford Frazier of Iraan was in charge of door prizes. Mrs. Bill Mason headed up the credentials committee and Mrs. Cumbie Ivey, Jr. of San Angelo was in charge of resolutions.

Co-chairmen of the convention were Mrs. Lee Graves of Ozona and Mrs. Charles Speck Jr. of McCamey.

Tips For Gardeners

From The Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

We will be most fortunate and grateful if a severe freeze is delayed until after Thanksgiving. For several years, very early freezes have browned and deadened the beautiful fall foliage so many enjoy at this special holiday season. Our city is aglow in many kinds and colors of leaves now.

Perennials of nearly all kinds can still be set out, divided or transplanted this month. Proceed with basic soil improvement work until severe frost. The surface of ground turned over in the fall should be left rough so that the maximum benefit of winter rain is received. Branches of dogwood and other shrubs or trees that have trailed the ground and rooted can be cut off now and transplanted. Get a ball of dirt if possible. After placing the new plant in its planting hole, give it plenty of water.

After last weeks garden club meeting of this district here and the most informative and beautiful photographs and slides are shown by the two guest speakers, of our native flowers, shrubs, grasses, and trees, I hope more of the many varieties we have will be used in the new as well as older landscaped yards.

If you have small children in the family and want to interest them with starting a living Christmas tree, it will be fun to buy a small Norfolk-island pine. It has become a popular house plant and usually does better than one from the real pine family. The Norfolk is not a pine at all, but a member of the Araucaria family and comes originally from the Norfolk islands in the South Pacific. It is a handsome, regal and stately plant which grows symmetrically, with a central trunk and leader from which radiate tiers of 4 or 5 branches each. They spread horizontally and droop gracefully. The Norfolk is not demanding in care, provided two requirements. One is good light. In the winter it can be placed in a south window. In summer it likes less sun. For outdoors in summer place in a partial shade and turn plant regularly to maintain even growth. It may need to be staked as it grows taller. The rule is to keep the soil evenly moist. The amount of water depends on the pot size, sun and temperature. Plants can remain in the same pot for 2 or more years. Best repotting time is early spring before new growth begins. A suitable soil to use consists of equal parts of soil, peat or leaf mold and sand or perlite. Add sprinkling of balanced fertilizer, but withdraw nutrients during the fall-winter-spring rest period. At that time less water is needed.

Use light weight ornaments in decorating it for Christmas, but don't load the tree to the bending point. Avoid using heavy lights that produce heat, but the tiny lights on fine strands of wire are a possibility for lighting. This tree will be a joy to watch the entire year. Do not prune, for the result is disappointing. Keep a small one growing to replace one that is overgrown for your use and area.

Piase Fierro was the winner of the Ruger Rifle and scope at the drawing held Friday in the Village Shopping Center parking lot. The Chamber of Commerce sponsored the event and sold tickets for the drawing.

Womans League has bazaar workshop

Ozona Woman's League met Tuesday, Oct. 9, at the Civic Center turning one of the meeting rooms into what resembled one of Santa's workshops.

Mrs. Bob Childress and Mrs. Gary Vannoy directed members in the making of different projects for the bazaar while, bazaar-chairmen George Ann Aycock and Mary Jo Mason assisted Judy Probst in assembling buttons for each member to wear before and during the event as advertising.

Beautiful handcrafted items filled the room and can now be viewed in the different shop windows down town Ozona. Hostesses Jann Miller and Cathy Dawn Moore served "giant chaplupas" to the busy workers. Those present and responsible for everything from dried vine wreaths to delicate paintings were Mmes. The Door and The Key

The hopes and visions of mankind... the ideals to which we aspire.
Can we fulfill them? Is there a DOOR to our spiritual hunger?
Men say the Church is the Door! Jesus said He was!
No contradiction... Christ founded the Church!
But useless is the door without a key.
Why not gather the family together and head for your place of worship this week?
The decision to seek the Door—that is the KEY.

Community group is formed for singles

"Singles" are adults! They are here to stay. When we speak of "singles" we refer to all adults 18 years and plus, who have never been married, or who have been divorced or widowed, male and female, with or without children. One out of every three persons over age 21 is single. One-half of Bankcard holders, living in cities of over 90,000 population, are single. 42% of all housing units purchased in 1980 were bought by singles. A survey in the Lubbock area reported that 38% of the children in "X" grammar school were from one-parent families.

This broad group of adults is one of the most diverse in any community. Some share living space with their own children, with other family members or with friends. Some bear the sole responsibility of their children, some have children who do not live with them presently, others have never had children. Another group are those in nursing homes and retirement centers. Singles are represented in all occupations and professions, and in all socio-economic categories.

Those who have been widowed or divorced have, most often, passed through a crisis period of re-adjustment involving a change of residence, loss of love, dealing with grief and/or guilt. There can be economic stress, sudden independence often having to make new friends, not to mention the difficult task of forming a new identity as one no longer married but standing singly in the world. If there are children involved the role of single-parenting can create additional pressures and self-image doubts. Psychologists say that the crisis period seldom takes less than two years to resolve.

Singles face a stereotyping that is just as demeaning and debilitating as that sometimes imposed on "rebellious and thick-headed" adolescents or "senile and cranky" senior citizens by well-meaning, but mistaken adults. Untrue myths that intrude into the lives of singles include such beliefs as:

Most singles are promiscuous; emotionally unstable; are intensely seeking a partner; are unhappy and uncreative; can not fit into their former church affiliation; and, raise emotionally bankrupt children.

Meeting the needs of this diversified group in our community is a real challenge. To help pin point and speak to these needs, you are invited to join with a newly formed, non-denominational "singles" group, meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Clayton, 101 East 11 Street, on Tuesday, November 23, from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. Free nursery facilities will be provided at the Ozona Day Care Center.

Iron Man could be seen exhorting his champion defensive unit. "I told them to play better than they had ever played before on this one...I wanted everyone to realize how very important the upcoming play would be one way or another...and they did a pretty good job."

With just a matter of moments left in the game, Ramirez attempted a QB keep, but Rowdy just absolutely refused to be moved out and the talented young Lion defender stopped the play cold.

As the stunned Kermit crowd fell silent, Badillo returned onto the field to kill the clock. With 13 seconds, time inexplicably was called and Head Coach Abbott huddled with the Hurricane on the sidelines.

"He told me to just run around in the end zone and kill as much of the clock as I could and then fall on it...but I didn't get a good handle on it so I fell on it right there...Boy, I thought I was dead," the Hurricane said smiling broadly. A huge Kermit defender cruelly speared Harvey while he was on the ground, drawing a penalty on the dead ball foul, sealing the victory for the surging Bi-District Champions.

"We came out with an intensity that we've never had before...I know we've never had it," said a merry and exhilarated Magic after the game. "We wanted it so bad...the coaches wanted it...the players...the fans wanted it. I loved it."

The Ozona multitude cheered their team with ecstatic fervency following the contest. This victory should reduce the population of cynics and blind doubters in Crockett County.

Don Abbott's motto, "Play Like Champions" is being complied with. This season, this team, this town, has Magic this year...of that there can be little doubt.

The Bulldogs of Stamford will discover how hungry Ozona's Lions really are in San Angelo Stadium this Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. as the surge towards a state championship continues.

Biographies abound at County library

The Crockett County Library has received several new biographies which you are invited to check out.

Lyndon B. Johnson: A Memoir by George Reedy has received a great deal of publicity recently. This biography by his long time aide and former press secretary presents the former president as a man of two distinctly different faces.

Let the Trumpet Sound is the first major biography relating the life of Martin Luther King, Jr. This book explores the life and career of the noted civil rights leader.

Two new biographies involve women on N.B.C. television. Am I Getting Paid for This is Betty Rollin's account of her experiences as a network correspondent for N.B.C. news. Another woman in the news is featured in Anchorwoman by Jessica Savitch.

Reagan by Lou Cannon is considered the definitive biography of our president. The book points out the president's achievements and failures during his career as a radio announcer, an actor, a politician and finally as president.

Sports fans may be interested in browsing through Red Smith's To Absent Friends. The author, now deceased, was sports writer for the New York Times. Red Smith writes of great personalities of the sports world -- Babe Ruth, Joe Louis, Jim Thorpe and many others.

Notes from locker room

By-Ross A. Alexander

John Curry's soft voice was barely audible above the tumult of an exuberant dressing room. "The level of aggressive hitting indicated that we came to play and Kermit may not have been ready for that kind of attack. They thought our perimeter was somewhat soft and they concentrated their strength there, but this team converges well I think and the secondary reacts and closes in quicker than many others. Although we did yield significant yardage between the 30's, we stiffened considerably inside the 20. The desire and even the crowd's enthusiasm factored into the performance out there tonight. We could hear the crowd all evening and that's quite helpful. I guess you could say that we bent...but we didn't break."

Ed Borrego: "Rowdy had a super game tonight...boy, did he play...everyone's happy about how he took the fight to these Yellow Jackets. I'm glad to see Will Mason back doing his thing...thanks to all the terrific fans...they helped us when we needed to know they cared."

Willie Payne: "I was pumped up pretty good tonight...I hope Rowdy keeps it up like he had it going tonight...that's gonna help. I overran the play a couple of times tonight and it hurt us, but when we needed a big play to stop them, we delivered."

Henry Delgado: "God was with us tonight and He helped us stand and stop Kermit. We are #1 as long as we've got God on our side."

Greg Florio: "We've felt confident that we can stop big play teams, because like the Iron Man said last week, we aren't going to let any one guy do a job on us...now that we've knocked off Kermit, we're ready to go on to the regionals."

Robert "The Hammer" Hearne: "We've been doing that all year long...now they've moved me over into the middle and plans are to show 'em what we're there for."

Allen Dews: "David simply played a great game tonight...I'd rather stand on the sidelines and be a part of a winner, than to play all the game and end up on the losing team. Our defensive unit did the job so well tonight...that's the Dirty Deeds Defense, and they'll keep it up I'll guarantee it."

Javier Sanchez: "David led the way tonight...he has to be the best quarterback I've seen this year. Our defensive front four did the job by hanging tough...Rowdy played real good."

Crockett County Care Center News

BY ANN McCARTNEY
DIRECTOR OF ACTIVITIES & SOCIAL CARE

First Sunday services were conducted by members of the United Methodist Church. Speaker for the day was Bonnie Warth. Communion was served to all those who wished to participate.

Monday morning Paul Cavin, Maude Pettit, and Johnny Henderson all enjoyed a game of dominoes.

Monday afternoon we had our monthly birthday party for our November honorees: Moriama Perez, Virginia Russell, Alice Locke, Floy Clare Short, and Ramona Lugo. The lovely birthday cake, made in the shape of a turkey that is so often thought of as our Thanksgiving bird and thus denoting November, was made and donated by Troop 189 of the Girl Scouts. Each lady was given a lovely corsage. These were donated by Maxine's Flower Shop.

Tuesday was bingo playing morning. Volunteers Adlina Flores, Ofilia Enriguez, Marie Pierson, and Doris Karr helped residents find their winning numbers. Winner of the El Chato dinner for two was Grace Cotter.

Wednesday morning Marie Pierson was back again to help with ceramics. Residents participating included Bertha Miller, Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos, Ola Mills, Maude Pettit, and Moriama Perez.

Wednesday afternoon it kept on sprinkling from time to time so Clayton of Clayton's Village Drug sent all our milkshakes to the Care Center. This was really a delightful treat to wake up to.

Thursday morning Bonnie Warth and Madye Jo Humphreys manned the beauty shop. In the afternoon the Lutheran Church brought our Bible study which was followed by Spanish hour conducted by the Catholic ladies. A special tribute to our Care Center residents who were veterans was given between these two programs. Patriot songs were sung for Johnny Henderson and Mauricio Hernandez. An additional treat was the serving of cookies furnished by Ruby Olson.

Somedays we have surprises that are so nice. This week the sister of our L.V.N. Cruz Trevino, Juanita Pruned and her co-worker Hortensia Guevara, both of San Angelo, brought by the Care Center seventeen children, all approximately four years old and all members of their Head-Start Class. These students had been on a field trip to Fort Davis and stopped by to see our residents. Such a nice surprise. We hope they do it again.

Friday morning was once again bingo playing time. Anna Bell Patrick made popcorn for everyone, volunteers Ofilia Enriguez and Adlina Flores were again here to help. Winner of the gift certificate from the Teacher's Store was Johnny Henderson. Second place winner was Ola Mills. Frances Borrego was able to leave the hospital long enough to play. Everyone enjoyed the games and refreshments.

Friday afternoon we had a short reading period and then once again worked on ceramics. A large Christmas tree for our Care Center residents is in the making.

Christmas program scheduled

This year's program will include holiday recipes, home decorations, gift wrapping ideas, and shortcuts for holiday entertaining.

YEARBOOKS GO ON SALE

Orders are being taken for the 1982-83 Lion Yearbook until Friday, November 19. Students in all schools were given forms at school this week, and the forms as well as all money must be turned in to the yearbook staff by Friday.

Yearbooks are $14, or $15 with a plastic cover.

To order a yearbook, contact Mrs. Jan Henderson at Ozona High School or any yearbook staff member.

No yearbooks will be sold after Friday.

GRANTS MADE AVAILABLE

By-Cyndi Trujillo

A grant is basically a way to help students get through school financially, according to Mr. Jim Williams, OHS counselor.

OHS students who plan to apply for financial aid should do so in January.

In order to apply for financial aid, students should obtain an application for the school they plan to attend.

Three kinds of applications are available. They are: Family Financial Statement, through ACT; Financial Aid Form, through SAT, and Basic Educational Opportunity Grant, BEOG, through the government. The BEOG is also known as the Pell Grant Program.

The federal government has not yet set up a limit on how much money they will give for financial aid this year. The amount, however, is expected to lower and the middle class will probably not be able to receive as much financial aid as in the past.

Forms for financial aid application, along with more information, can be obtained from Mr. Williams.

LIONETTES LOSE IN SCRIMMAGE

By-Irma Ybarra

The purpose of a scrimmage is to learn where weaknesses and strengths lie before playing against another team, and the Lionettes learned a lot in their first scrimmage against Fort Stockton here last Tuesday. The girls played "real well" at the first of the scrimmage, according to Coach Deaton, "overall they looked good."

Coach Deaton added that the team had weak points in their defense, and needs to work on some special plays, but she felt that considering the scrimmage was against a 4-A school team of seniors only, the Lionettes will be "right in there with everybody else" if they keep working.

The next scrimmage will be against Iraan November 18, with the JV game beginning at 5 p. m. and the Varsity game following immediately afterward.

BALLOONING

By: Robbie Turnley

At 100 feet you can talk to pedestrians. At 2,000 feet you can hear a dog bark. At 5,000 feet you can't hear anything. Hot air balloons have no forward or reverse gears, no steering, no control over direction of flight. The balloon, traveling the same speed as the wind, unites with the airflow. Though your ground speed may be 10 miles an hour, in the gondola you have no sense of motion, no wind in the face.

Silence.

At first the hush feels haunting, like the eye of a storm. It forces conversation just to break the spell. Later you relish the calm and shut up just to listen to nothing.

Muted moments are rare on earth. Even in the dead of night you can still hear the crickets, the furnace, the rustling breeze.

Ironically the visual beauty of ballooning can only be appreciated from a distance. Usually aeronauts gather in herds, launch their pods on masse and travel in packs.

When 2,000 brilliant balloons amble across the azure sky, even the colorblind take a second glance.

But I prefer solitude to color. Cast upon the wind in one balloon, we drift higher and higher until civilization sinks away. The basket never seems to move. Instead the world appears to drop away beneath it. Unsure of where we're headed or where we might end up land, we feel a grand abandonment reversed only for balloonists and hobos: With no chase car and no means of communications, we savor our solitude as the earth turns quietly 10,000 feet below. Car move without a sound. People vanish.

SILENCE. YOUTH AGAINST CANCER GETS UNDER WAY

By-Noemi Gonzales

The Youth Against Cancer held their first meeting Thursday, November 11, at Becky Childress' house.

Both high school and junior high members attended.

On November 18, the YAC plans to sponsor the Great American Smokeout.

They will have buttons and other accessories to be distributed in order to persuade people not to smoke on this day.

This summer the YAC went to a convention at Trinity University in San Antonio. Representatives who attended from Ozona were Terry Abbott, Jo Anne Hearne, Susan Scott and Dennis Young.

BAND ADDS FLAIR TO HALF-TIME

By-Gayla Bell

Many of you surely noticed that Friday night's half-time show just wasn't the same. The show began the same way, but after the first tune, "Glorious Entry" everything changed. The tune "Soul Train" was played in order to feature the front line. At the end of the song, flashes of gold and silver could be seen as the light hit the instruments. Arms were thrown into the air and a loud "Yow!" was heard throughout the stands. Next, the Ozona High School song was played, and to accent this, the band formed the letters OHS.

The band came off the field to the tune of "Dixie", which featured the entire percussion section. After the band was off the field, they formed a victory line and the Lions came out of their locker room to the Fight Song.

Mr. Glaze, band director, changed the half-time show in order to keep Lion spirit built up in the band, football boys, and fans.

EIGHTH GRADE BAND PARTICIPATES IN HIGH SCHOOL PEP RALLY

By-Gayla Bell

The eighth grade band played at the high school pep rally Friday. They joined the band in the school song and fight song.

Participation in this event was geared to encourage Jr. High band members to want to join the High School Band.

PRESIDENT REAGAN'S OBJECTIVES

By-Robbie Turnley

When Ronald Reagan took office as President of the United States in January of 1981 he promised to do a lot of things. He has fulfilled some of them.

First of all, he wanted to get the percent of people unemployed down from 8% during Carter's administration to close to 5%. Right now, it is almost 11% and there are more people unemployed (11.6 million) than since the Great Depression.

Social Security was in debt when Jimmy Carter left office but now the system is almost broke. The old people and young people are scared to death. The old people are afraid that their benefits will run out and the young people are afraid that there will be no money for them when they retire.

The deficit in the federal budget was about $80,000 in the whole during Carter's administration. Now, it is over $110,000 and rising. President Reagan has reduced the funds for education and he needs to reduce government spending.

As for the natural gas pipeline, linking England and the Soviet Union, Reagan is proposing sanctions against the company that is building it. This action has the allies-infuriated.

President Reagan has lifted the grain embargo from the Soviet Union but farmers in the United States are going bankrupt. They are going broke because the bad weather is destroying their crops and also prices are down because of a surplus.

Reagan did a good job handling the air controller strike as he fired them. This was right because if they strike, there might be a major airline accident. Military controllers took over for them.

President Reagan is doing it the Christian way by opposing pornography and abortions. We, the staff, feel that the president is doing a mediocre job with domestic policy while his foreign policy needs improvement.

As a result of Reagan's poor performance, the Democrats are posting an offense to win the presidential election of 1984.

President Reagan recently has proposed a bill that has been approved by Congress to raise taxes this year.

The President has done a good job "maintaining the peace" here and abroad. The United States is now working for an arms control deal with the Soviet Union.

Gas prices have not up but are presently going down. Some places are now selling gas for less than a dollar per gallon again.

The stock market has gone up recently. The Dow-Jones is now about 1,000 shares.

In the area of foreign affairs, President Reagan and America have good relations with countries such as England, France, Egypt, Israel, and West Germany. But we need to improve relations with countries such as the Soviet Union, China, Argentina and Cuba.

Reagan has done a good job pushing for school prayer but it didn't pass in Congress. The President feels prayer is necessary for a successful day.

Among the Democrats who might run for president are: Walter Mondale, former vice-president under Jimmy Carter; Ted Kennedy, Massachusetts Senator; and Jack Kemp, New York representative. Among the Republicans that might run are: President Ronald Reagan, Alexander Haig, former secretary of state under Reagan; Bob Dale, Kansas senator; and John Connally, former Texas governor.

LIONS WIN BI-DISTRICT

By-Noemi Gonzales

Despite a cold and windy night at Crane, the Ozona Lions squeezed by the Kermit Yellowjackets Friday night with a score of 10-9 to conquer the Bi-District Championship.

Throughout the first half, it was defensive match-up by both teams.

Both teams exchanged punts about six times because of the teams' strong defense.

Neither defense was able to accomplish much until Fabian Delgado intercepted a Kermit pass on the Ozona 41. From there Ozona was aided by a Kermit penalty which set the ball at the Kermit 39.

Later, Badillo scrambled to the 23-yard line, and with a late hit penalty by Kermit, the ball was moved to the nine yard line, which aided Mason to make a field goal with 7 seconds left in the first half. At the end of the first half it was Ozona-3, Kermit-0.

After receiving the ball in the third quarter, the Lions fumbled at their own 41-yard line, which led to a Kermit first score with 5:37 left in the third quarter. After the extra point, Kermit led 7-3.

The Lions took over at their own 28-yard line, with Kermit intercepting at their own 48-yard line.

Held by a tough Lion defense, the Yellowjackets were unable to make a first down on a 4th and 2. Lions took over at their own 16.

After a long drive, the Lions' Badillo scored from 8 yards out with 5:44 left in the game. PAT was good.

Also after a long drive, the Yellowjackets were stopped by the Lion defense inside the Lion 5.

On an attempt to run down the clock, the Lions caused a safety which made the score Ozona-10, Kermit-9.

With 13 seconds left to play, Kermit took over at their own 27. From then on, the Lions kept the Jackets from scoring and time ran out. The final score was 10-9, Ozona.

This victory gives the Lions a chance at the playoffs against Stamford.

The Lions will play Stamford, Saturday, November 20, at 2 o'clock in San Angelo at Bobcat Stadium. Pep rally will be held at Lion Stadium at 9:30 a.m. Saturday in front of the boy's field house.

The Heat Pump the most efficient system for heating and cooling.

A heat pump can actually produce more than 2 units of heat for every unit of electricity used, in a properly insulated home.

Unlike a conventional furnace, the heat pump doesn't make heat. It transfers or "pumps" heat. Even on cold days, there is some warmth in the air. The heat pump transfers this heat into your home to warm you and your family.

THE ELECTRIC HEAT PUMP WILL SAVE YOU MONEY! If you have plans to buy, build or remodel, or need a new heating and cooling system for your home, call a local factory trained HEAT PUMP DEALER or talk with WTU. We will arrange for a WTU heating and cooling specialist to contact you.

Energy savings may vary according to home construction, family size, or energy usage habits.

Portrait of a Lion Defender

By-Ross A. Alexander

To look at Marcello Hernandez, one wouldn't think that he personified the type of aggressive head-hunting destroyer typical of the championship Lion secondary. He is lean, almost frail, soft-spoken and bespeckled, with a warm pleasant personality and tends to be rather bookwormish.

However, ever since he was elevated to fill in for injured Lion star Will Mason in mid-season, Marcello has been an uninhibited terror for unsuspecting runners and receivers.

Working within a truly top-notch defensive secondary made up of the likes of fellows like Greg Fierro, a virtual gangster-like hitter, Fabian Delgado who can hit with authority, intercept with flair, and covers deep patterns with competence, and All-World Robert "Magic" Massey, who is as dangerous on defense as he is on offense, Marcello has won acceptance and respect among his select group of defensive secondary fellow travelers and has been used by his head coach in his complex offensive schemes from time to time.

With under a minute to go in the contest, Marcello put an incredible hit on a Kermit runner, stopping the forward momentum and completely knocking himself out in the process.

After a time out was called, trainer Gary Davis gingerly helped the brave Lion off the field and down to the Lion Locker facility.

"Where am I?" Marcello asked.

"You're in Crane, Marcello...in the stadium dressing room...you were knocked unconscious when you hit that dude from Kermit like you did," replied Gary.

A frown etched itself into Marcello's brow as he strained to speak.

Art group visits hill country

Polly Perner, Joyce Maness, Beth Marks, and Joan Nicholas, of the Charlotte B. Phillips Art Group, spent two days in the Texas Hill Country last week.

The highlight of the trip was walking the scenic trail through Lost Maples State Park along the Sabinel River, viewing the brilliant fall foliage, and gathering ideas to use in future paintings.

Mendez is winner again

"Are we winning the game or losing."

Gary applied a cold towel and spoke softly to the brave young man.

"We're winning, we've got possession and the clock has fewer than 13 seconds left on it.

Just then, the Ozona crowd erupted into cheers as the clock flashed those eagerly awaited zeroes, and Gary turned to Marcello and smiled.

"Marcello, we won... we're Bi-District Champions."

Marcello's vacant look began to fade.

"We really won, Gary?"

The trainer saw water beginning to fill Hernandez' eyes and he placed his hand reassuringly on the warriors shoulder.

"Yes, Marcello, we've won."

As the enormity of Gary's words hit home, the water overflowed and ran down his courageous face freely.

"We won...we won..." he kept repeating softly.

"We won."

Zeke came through the door and hugged his teammate.

Such is the way with champions.

Ozona to observe Thanksgiving

The annual community Thanksgiving service will be held November 23, at First Baptist Church at 7 p.m. The program will feature special singing by the choirs of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church and the Templo Jerusalem. Messages will be brought by two of Ozona's newest pastors, Rev. Wayne Boyce of Ozona United Methodist and Rev. Clinton Eastman of Calvary Baptist, along with Rev. Jim Chaumont of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. The entire community is invited to attend. Refreshments and fellowship will follow in the fellowship hall.

Cards of Thanks

THANKS to all the community for backing the Lion football team. The town looked great last week and we are sure will look just as good this week with your support slogans on the windows of the stores. This really makes the boys and coaches feel good that you are saying to them, "YOU ARE IMPORTANT." also thank you for your vocal support at the game last Friday night. The coaches have told us this makes a difference in the way the boys perform. Come out again this Saturday, at 2:00 p.m. at the stadium in San Angelo. We will be playing Stamford for Area Championship.

Thanks again, Some Fans
