Pageant to be presented

A pageant, "Our Country, Tis of Thee," will be presented Monday, February 27. There will be two performances, 2:20 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. in the gym at Ozona Intermediate School.

The public is invited to attend either performance. Given in conjunction with Texas Public School Week, the pageant is approximately one hour long and is given by the fourth grade students of Ozona Intermediate School. Narrator will be Miss Tame West. Teachers of the students are Mrs. Jim Dudley, Mrs. Ben Macias, Mrs. Vance Worthington and Mrs. Fred Jones.

Spring sports coming up in Ozona schools

Winter has turned the corner and spring sports are next on the agenda for all Ozona schools. The high school tennis team, coached by Mitch Rasberry, had a practice meet yesterday in Sonora, and the high school track teams will travel to Fort Stockton Friday and Saturday for their first competition, along with the boys and girls golf teams.

Pete Maldonado is head coach for boys track this year, assisted by David McWilliams and Milby Sexton. Terri McColloch will head up the girls coaching staff, assisted by Becky Dillard. The girls team will not see their first competition until March 3, when they will be in Junction for a meet along with the boys team.

Rip Sewell, athletic director, will take over the coaching of boys golf this year, while Jack Probst will coach the girls. Before the Ozona district tournament March 17, the girls will play in Big Lake and Iraan. The boys team will be practicing for the district tournament. All golf tournaments for the boys add up for district. After the Ozona meet, they will play in Colorado City March 27; Sonora, April 2; Crane, April 7, and the Coahoma meet will be held in Big Spring April 17. The Regional meet will be held May 1-2 in Odessa, and the state meet May 10-11 in Austin.

Girl golfers have a different schedule and only one district opponent, Crane. The Crane meet is set for April 7. They will be assured of a berth at regional in Odessa April 17-18, as first and second place teams qualify for regional. The state meet for girls will be held in Austin, May 1-2.

The boys district track meet will be held in Coahoma this year on April 19, with regional set for May 4-5 in Odessa. The state meet will be held in Austin May 11-12. The district meet for the girls team will be held April 6, in Sonora with regional in Odessa April 16-17, and the state meet in Austin, May 4-5.

The junior high school track teams also have a full schedule this year. Boys will be coached by Gene Hood, Don Payne and Thomas Hanson. Girl track coaches are Renee Schultze and Carol Sessom. The district meet for boys and girls in junior high track will be held April 14, in Crane to wrap up the season.

A large number of tennis players have come out for that sport in both high school and junior high. Rasberry will have both girls and boys in the high school division and has a busy schedule, ending with girls state meet at Austin May 3-4 and boys, May 10-11. Jeannine Henderson is junior high tennis coach. The first meet for the junior high boys and girls will be at Sonora March 13. The season will close with the district meet at Sonora April 27-28.

Blood Drive is set for Ozona

Your opportunity to help further health care for someone less fortunate will be March 15, when the United Blood Services blood mobile visits Ozona. The staff will be collecting blood at the Chamber of Commerce Building between 3:00-8:00 p.m.

The ever urgent need for blood increases with advances in medical science. A donation of blood will result in successful transplants, the repair of damaged hearts, the treatment of leukemia and restoration of the burned and injured.

Through the participation in the volunteer blood program, blood donors unselfishly share the blessings of good health. United Blood Services would like to present each donor who had reached the one gallon or multi-gallon level a pin and a certificate as appreciation for the regularity of donating blood.

Ozona residents donated 192 units of blood during 1983 to help replenish blood supplies for area hospital patients.

During this coming year projected needs are increasing by 11% over last year and this means we must have the support of every healthy individual to support the community blood center.

Grand Jury indicts six Ozona men

A 112th District Grand Jury, meeting in the district courtroom here last week returned indictments against six Ozona men in relation to four separate incidents which occurred in late 1983.

Indicted for burglary were Manuel C. Perez, Mark A. Vallejo and Rick Tambunga. The three were accused of going into various schools and destroying several classrooms late in December of 1983. Total amount of destruction could exceed $4,000. Burglary is a second-degree felony which is punishable by 2 to 20 years in prison and up to $10,000 fine. The three will be brought to trial or enter pleas before the judge. Edward M. Vargas Jr. was charged with and indicted for theft of over $750 from Steve Lavendar, Nov. 7, 1983, relative to some camera equipment.

The grand jury indicted Jesus Borrego for aggravated assault and bodily injury to Mike Sanchez, in an altercation on December 11, 1983.

Richard Cardona was indicted of aggravated assault on a police officer. While resisting arrest, he struck Trooper Cliff Babbitt, DPS, December 25, 1983.

District Attorney Bill Mason expects pre-trial hearings on all the cases to be held in the near future.

J. Marley files for county job

Jess C. Marley has authorized the Stockman to announce his candidacy for Crockett County Commissioner, Precinct 1. Marley, who filed as a Republican, will be on the general election ballot in November and will be opposed by the winner of the Democratic Primary in May.

Marley is an experienced businessman and served as commissioner in his precinct for ten years. He is president of Marley, Inc. and treasurer of C. O. Spencer Welding and Construction, Inc., plus operating two ranches. A 1962 graduate of Texas Tech University, he taught school for seven years before winning his first race as Commissioner, Precinct 1.

Marley expressed his interest in running Crockett County in a businesslike manner, and assured voters he will not make promises he cannot keep. He asks the support of all voters in his precinct and will make an effort to visit with each and every one.

Childress exhibits champion

Ira Childress, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Childress of Ozona, exhibited the Grand Champion Open Class Angora Doe at the San Antonio livestock show Wednesday night.

After winning the open class with a yearling doe bred by Ira and Clay Childress, he showed for champion against other aged does to win the championship.

Reserve champion went to the Amanda Brice of Leakey. Entrees numbered 347 goats, being the largest Angora Goat Show held in the United States. Armer Earwood of Sonora judged this event.

spent in consideration of personnel evaluations and contracts. Principals Walter Spiller, Bob Wallace, and Jim Payne were given contract extensions through the 1985-1986 school year, as were Assistant Superintendent Ted Cotton, athletic director Rip Sewell, and head basketball coach John Curry.

Mr. Charles Womack, principal of Ozona Junior High School, did not request an extension of his contract, but the board members voted to extend a vote of confidence and appreciation to him for his thirty-three years of service in Ozona Public Schools. Mr. Womack plans to retire at the end of the 1984-85 school term. Head football coach Don Abbott's present contract was not extended by the Board of Trustees. His current contract extends through the 1984-1985 school year.

Members also voted to call a school board election for Saturday, April 7, to elect two members to the Board of Trustees. Incumbents whose term expires at the end of this year are Jeffrey Sutton and Henry Sellers.

Dan Brainard, founder of Maximum Security Systems, appeared before the board to present a school drug prevention program that centers around the use of highly trained dogs. Mr. Brainard explained that while it is true that one of the many things the dogs can do is to detect the presence and location of narcotics, the primary value of the program is its effectiveness in altering attitudes and reversing peer-pressure experienced by young people in regard to the use of drugs.

The board gave approval for the addition of Sam Tambunga, Jan Scott, Bill Williams, Teri O'Neal, and Karen Childress to the 1983-1984 Ozona substitute teacher list and the addition of Joe Ortiz as a substitute bus driver.

FOOD IN ANTARCTICA?

By Edwin Feulner

A recent report from the United Nations' Food and Agricultural Organization (FAO) warns that millions from the Third World face starvation unless the West helps them out with an immediate one-million tons of food. Three times that amount, FAO says, will be needed before the 1984 harvest is in.

In the long run, the U.N. agency says, the poorer nations are going to need heftier supplies of "plant-protection chemicals," fertilizers, animal pharmaceuticals, and help with other aspects of food production, storage and transportation.

Farm futurist Jack D. Early echoes these concerns, noting that as many as 20 million people die each year from chronic hunger and malnutrition. Approximately one-fourth of the world's population will die before it reaches the age of 40, Dr. Early says, because of malnutrition.

So what is the United Nations doing about the problem, besides publishing reports and grousing around for more food and technological assistance from the West?

Well, the answer isn't very encouraging. The FAO is considered one of the U.N.'s least-efficient agencies. Its budget is more than $100 million a year, of which the United States contributed $26.5 million (one-fourth of the total) in 1982. The agency's top bureaucrats are paid fat salaries; the agency has been accused of corruption; and the vigor with which it combats world hunger will not leave you breathless.

While the FAO is promoting the freebie distribution of farm chemicals and Western-grown food in less-developed nations, other U.N. agencies continue to attack U.S. corporations for exporting these same chemicals to the Third World. The thesis, I guess, is that pesticides are desperately needed if they're provided free of charge; if Third World governments are made to pay for these same pesticides—and somebody in the West might make a profit (a dirty word at the U.N.)—then the U.N. opposes pesticides.

Though it has gone unreported in the daily press, Dr. Early and his colleagues at the National Agricultural Chemicals Association (perhaps not realizing that the U.N. really loves pesticides; but hates profits) have taken measures to diffuse some of the U.N. and Third World's persistent criticism of the American pesticide industry—"bad guys" like Union Carbide, Stauffer Chemical Company, and Dow.

Working with U.S. environmental and leftist church groups, NACA and other members of the so-called Agricultural Chemicals Dialogue Group have developed voluntary guidelines governing the advertising of agricultural chemicals abroad. The effort—aimed at reducing the misuse of pesticides in developing countries—was coordinated by The Conservation Foundation, one of the more rational environmental groups.

While the new guidelines may in some cases reduce the purchase of pesticides overseas, they won't reduce the need. Which means we can expect more FAO pleading for freebies—more calls for U.S. multi-national corporations to show that they are "responsible world citizens" willing to give a helping hand.

It's interesting that as all this has been going on, some of the same countries that are desperately in need of Western aid to prevent massive hunger have become involved in a new U.N. crusade. The U.N.'s Third World majority now complains that they don't have enough say in the running of Antarctica. Perhaps they think they might have more success "growing" frozen food?

YOU'RE GOING TO STOP THIS POLITICAL PANDERING AND TAKE A COURAGEOUS STAND ON THE DEFICIT?...GIVE ME YOUR GLASS, CONGRESSMAN...YOU'RE SHUT OFF.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Gov. Mark White, who has been swimming upstream in his bid to call a special legislative session to raise taxes for teacher salaries, may be finding the current turning his way.

White's top assistant, former Texas speaker aspirant Gerald Hill, said last week his telephone poll of House members indicates the majority of his former colleagues are of a mood to consider a tax hike for state highways and educational reform.

House Speaker Gib Lewis said he believes Hill's findings could be accurate. Lewis for months opposed any tax increase, but not long ago said he could support a temporary tax tied to education reform.

Hill told reporters the mood now favors higher taxes on gasoline and other items if White can guarantee "a new and improved road system" and improvements to the quality of education.

White's first efforts to pass such a bill last session were ineffective and as late as a couple of months ago legislators were nervous and cynical of his plans to call them into special session to raise taxes in an election year.

The big roadblock was Lewis, since Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, who presides over the Senate, was the first official to acknowledge the need to raise taxes.

Three Turn-Arounds
Turn-arounds on at least three major factors now indicate White has a chance to get his tax hike in a special session.

The new stance by Lewis is critical. The Speaker is losing a good many of his staunch lieutenants to retirement and may be harder pressed for votes to stop a tax hike. Moreover, at least two of his top floor leaders, Hill and Jim Turner of Crockett, have joined White's staff, and other exiting legislators who will lobby various issues will also need to rely on White's signature in the future.

White's hiring of the well-respected Hill and Turner gives new credibility to his legislative liaison team. Hill is well-liked by House members and is savvier in the ways of passing bills. Turner, who announced just last week he will resign his House seat to work for the governor, held positions on the powerful tax and budget committees. Any bill shaped by White will need expertise to navigate those waters.

Election Year
With election filing deadlines behind them, lawmakers without heavy opposition can breathe easier—and even vote for a tax hike if that is their conviction. The governor's indications that he would call the special session after the primary elections, instead of before, has also helped. Most House members are Democrats and wanted to avoid the intra-party bloodbath that a pre-primary session might have precipitated between liberals and conservatives.

Now, a recent report from the Reagan administration stressing the need for educational reform, plus the coming Texas report from staunch conservative H. Ross Perot, which will outline several "no frills" reforms, may defuse any Democrat-Republican fight over the tax hike.

As Gerald Hill said, "We want this to be a coordinated effort that everyone can support."

Highway Funding

State highway commissioners pointed out new directions last week for financing new roads, also a big sore point in legislative budget battles.

The commissioners urged that state funds not be spent buying land for proposed highways. That land should be bought by builders who plan to develop land along proposed highways and stand to profit from the new roads.

That means that areas with enough local backing to buy land for new highways will probably get new highways.

Such a change will also relieve pressure on the Legislature to raise taxes to support highway construction.

Of course, if White is successful in raising the gasoline tax, new revenues by law will be divided between education and highways.

Mattox Re-indicted

Texas Attorney General Jim Mattox was re-indicted on a felony charge of commercial bribery in Travis County last week.

Letters to the Editor

February 16, 1984

Dear Kitty,
Every now and then something worth reading is written—more than now these days. But we lucky son-of-a-guns have someone who can write a piece like "On Minding the Store" and make you wish you had been there. Evert White's name should be prominent in the last paragraph.

Tips For Gardeners

From The Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

Beauty in a garden can be yours if you plan now. Fulfill your dream with spring and summer beauty, and celebrate the glory of the fall season.

Each spring, fall-planted bulbs come into bloom to make a spectacular show which they are beginning now. We just hope the very severe weather of the two months hasn't hurt the bulbs too much. Keep them watered if no rain soon.

Also, plans now will bring a more colorful spring for many years if you plant peonies next September or October. To send in your order soon will assure you of a better selection and grade of peony roots. These lovely garden perennials are known to have lived many years without being moved, or almost forever they say. Don't expect blooms the first year, but once established, you can expect beautiful blooms each year, if properly planted and cared for. For this area, select the early varieties that bloom before

Mrs. Sanders is Sorority sweetheart

Members of Xi Sigma Omega Sorority and their husbands attended a Valentine Banquet February 14, at the Circle Bar Dining Room. Donna Sanders was crowned Chapter Sweetheart by last year's Sweetheart-Barbara Wallace. Brenda Newton and Arlene Clayton were named as her attendants.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Burger, Dr. and Mrs. Don Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Fatout, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Hale, Mrs. Malene Lott, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Pena Alfaro, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Pullen, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wallace, and guests Mr. and Mrs. Don York.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE

Winners in Duplicate Bridge Club play Saturday at the Country Club were Mrs. Clay Adams and Mrs. B. W. Stuart, first, and Mrs. Douglas Moore and Mrs. Cuatro Davidson, second.

In play Sunday Lottie Puckett and Fred Atkins of Sonora were first, second went to a Big Lake team and Jean North and Evert White were third.

summer begins. Flower types are double, Japanese, the enchanting singles, and tree peonies. The single peonies are not as popular in American gardens as they deserve to be. They withstand the stormiest weather. They are lovely in the garden and wonderful for cutting when buds are just opening. If you mounded your peonies in the fall for winter protection, remove excess before growth starts. These buds are very brittle and easily damaged. After buds are several inches high, make a circle 6 inches away from the crown and apply an annual top dressing (about a cup of low-nitrogen, high phosphate and potassium fertilizer (5-10-10) to each plant. Dig it in lightly and give a thorough soaking if needed. These fleshy tubers grow deep. Should your old peonies fail to bloom, they may be planted too deep. Only 2 inches or less of soil should be directly above the eyes or buds of the tubers. Start saving your waxed cardboard milk cartons to use if you need protection for tender plants from cold wind or freeze this and next month.

The best time to prune roses will be next month before the 15th. If pruned now the new growth may be killed again by a freeze.

Myrtle Post Garden club in meeting

The Myrtle Post Garden Club held its first meeting of the year Monday, February 21, in the Civic Center. Mrs. Ben Williams and Mrs. P.K. Smith were hostesses.

A beautiful centerpiece of yellow daffodils adorned the refreshment table. Mrs. Smith presented the club with the verticle arrangement.

Members answered roll call with favorite vegetables they raise. Tomatoes won over spinach, asparagus and English peas.

Mary Kay Brewer presented horticultural tips to the members. Sterilizing soil in the microwave, transplanting herbs, and facts of hummingbirds were presented. Members were delighted to learn that the small birds hitch rides with larger birds when they migrate and that strawberry instant breakfast mixed with water is the best source of nutrition to feed small birds.

Members learned living memorials are now being given for the Emerald House. Many Ozonans have been thoughtful in giving their gifts. Mrs. T.R. Conner, treasurer, is in charge of receiving the gifts and Mrs. Jack Brewer and Mrs. Lee Graves are in charge of the Emerald House projects.

A report on survival gardening with tubs, barrels, baskets and old tires was given by Mrs. Lee Graves. A challenge was given to members to try this type of gardening with hopes of a bountiful harvest. A plant sale in May and other projects were discussed.

Special guests for the evening were Dean Stroud, Ann Clinton and Pauline Clinton.

Members present were Mrs. Mozelle Houston, Mari-del Dudley, Jean Conner, Polly Mayes, Joycelyn Graves, Mary K. Brewer, Marge Smith and Sara Hignight.

The next meeting will be March 19 in the home of Mrs. T. R. Conner. Guests are urged to attend.

HURRY UP AND RELAX

Highways, interstates, turnpikes, freeways, expressways — they crisscross America, leading in every imaginable direction. And, they get you there so fast, you are past the right exit before you know it. We live in such a speed-oriented world that, when we are not working, we feel we must "hurry up and relax." At times we even feel guilty when we are not busy about something.

We don't really like our foolish pace. We speak longingly of peace of mind and quietude, and we take tranquilizers by the ton. We search frantically... on vacations, on "lost weekends," on "fun activities"... but tranquility is hard to find.

Perhaps we are seeking too hard. Perhaps tranquility is not to be sought. Rather, isn't it what happens when you are at peace with yourself, no matter the circumstances?

You can be at peace with yourself only when you are at peace with God. He is the very center of your being, and His peace is freely given when you accept it.

Accept this great gift of God in the very best place of all — His Church.

Crockett County Care Center News

BY ANN McCARTNEY
DIRECTOR OF ACTIVITIES & SOCIAL CARE

We had two parties this past week with the Valentine theme. First of all, the Girl Scout Troop 189, with leaders Thelma Janes and Barbara Clark, sponsored our monthly birthday party using this theme. These twelve girls made two heart-shaped cakes, individual Valentine cupid, punch, and even brought gifts to our two celebrities, Paul Cavin and Elzy Bishop. They also had a corsage and a boutonniere donated by Maxine's Flower Shop. Paul also received a letter of recognition from the Governor of Texas. He, at age 96, is our oldest resident and also rates as one of our most active.

Our second party included the crowning of our Valentine King and Queen. Last year's king and queen, Johnny Henderson and Tomasa Ramos, crowned this year's king and queen, Jesus Hernandez and Juana Hernandez. Mrs. Jesus Perez brought cookies and from Big Lake, Ms. Loreet Loftin and Mrs. D.E. Cook sent Valentine cups filled with gumdrops for party favors. We really appreciate all these people helping make our parties a success.

Tuesday morning's bingo winner of the certificate for El Chato's dinner for two was Inez Biggs. Friday's overall winner of the gift certificate from Watson's Department Store was Ola Mills. Minnie Karr won the second place gift donated by the Big Lake W.M.U.

Anna Bell Patrick donated Avon handcream for the first four residents to bingo and also served popcorn donated by yet another volunteer, Mattie Cooper. Volunteers who helped either Tuesday or Friday, sometimes both, included Patrick, Cooper, Martha Emert, Nina Mayfield's sister from Ardmore, Oklahoma; Elodia Zapata, Elisa Talamentez, Amalia Lumberas, and Elena Lopez as well as resident Maude Pettit.

Wednesday morning's ceramic class was once again directed by Doris Karr. A special thank you also goes out to Ann Shaw who has cleaned some pieces for us lately.

In the afternoon on Wednesday, Jo Davidson came and had her second session of plaster crafts. Residents participating in one or both of these craft events include: Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos, Bertha Miller, Pearl Morris, Inez Biggs, Maude Pettit, Ola Mills, Moriama Perez and Johnny Henderson.

Thursday was another big day. In the morning Lola Rios and Clara Byrd fixed hair for all the ladies. In the afternoon Ted Turnley led the Bible study. Maude Pettit played the piano for the song service. That night the Knox Band came for their monthly concert. Band members Jamie Knox, J.D. and Don Kilgore, and Cindy Perez furnished some good listening and dancing music.

Friday afternoon Sara Hignight came to play the organ and lead a sing-along with our residents.

Sunday Church services were brought by the First Baptist Church. Dr. Lanham, Mattie Cooper, and Louise Johnigan came and the reports are that it was a lovely song service.

Dominoes were played this week by Moriama Perez, Inez Biggs, Ola Mills, Maude Pettit, Nina Mayfield, Bertha Miller, Hilda Dysart, Paul Cavin, and visitor Hillery Phillips.

We had magazines donated, donuts were donated by Donuts, Etc.; Maxine's Flowers brought everyone a tulip plant, Sylvia Fierro brought candy, the Children III Department of the First Baptist Church of Big Lake sent Valentines and our adopted grandchildren from Vicki Stokes fifth grade class sent Valentines. It is nice to have friends who remember.

PHONE NEWS TO THE STOCKMAN.

D.A. discusses rape

The following article is a public service by The Ozona Stockman through the cooperation of Bill Mason, 112th Judicial District Attorney, and Thomas Cameron, Crockett County Attorney, and the Prosecutor Council. Its purpose is to make you aware of a prosecutor's role, of your responsibility as a resident of this county, and how we can work together to alleviate some of society's problems.

This is the first in a series of articles on rape, and it discusses rape prevention. The second article discusses the men who rape; who they are and why they rape. The third article will discuss the victim and the events which may follow the rape.

Rape has been cited as the fastest growing violent crime in the United States today. The chances of your being raped increase daily. Last year, in Texas, a reported rape occurred every 1 hour and 17 minutes. FBI statistics say that nationally only one in ten rapes are reported to police. Regardless of your age, marital status, income, educational level or race, you are a potential victim. Some facts:

Rape is a crime of violence, not sexual passion. Rape victims are 6 months to 93 years old. Eighty percent of the time the rapist and victim live in the same neighborhood. Fifty percent of the time the rapist knows the victim. Ninety percent of the time the rapist and victim are the same race. Fifty percent of the time the rapist is married and has a normal sex life. Rape occurs just as often in rural areas as in major cities.

The responsibility of reducing the incidence of rape is upon the victims and potential victims. Recognize that you are a potential victim and always practice preventative measures. Encourage and provide rape education to friends, family, and especially your children. Never let a stranger into your home, even one in a repairman's uniform. (The Boston strangler posed as a repairman). Check a repairman's identification and call his office to verify it. If a stranger wants to use your phone leave him outside and make the call for him.

Never give personal information to strangers over the phone. Should you receive a misdialed phone call, do not reveal your name, number or address. Instead ask what number he is calling. If you receive an obscene call, hang up immediately.

Install a peephole and chain. Never admit to a stranger that you are alone. Replace all locks when moving to a new place, or if you lose your keys. Do not give your keys to your landlord. Deadbolts are recommended.

Use only your initials on the mailbox and in the phone directory.

Leave outside lights on at night and keep lights on in more than one room in the house. Keep curtains drawn at night. Leave a light on when you are not at home.

Keep your doors and windows locked. Have your house keys ready before getting out of your car to enter the house. If it looks like your house has been broken into, do not enter or call out. Use a neighbor's phone to call the police.

Get to know your neighbors and check on each other. Report any strange cars in the neighborhood.

Look around the area before entering or leaving your car. Before entering your car look inside. Lock your door as soon as you get in and keep windows up as much as possible.

Travel well-lit, busy streets and avoid back roads and short cuts.

Do not pick up hitchhikers or stranded motorists when alone. You can call for help for a stranded motorist from a safe place.

Park your car in a lighted area and always lock it up. Do not leave your house keys with a parking attendant.

If you have a flat tire keep driving until you reach a well-lighted area occupied by other people.

If your car breaks down take a moment to assess your situation. If you are in an isolated area open the hood, trunk and door and tie a handkerchief to the antenna. Then hide nearby where you can see the car but not be seen easily. This way you choose who helps you. A car full of drunks is trouble. A state trooper is perfect. A man, his wife and six assorted children is another good choice.

Walk close to the street and avoid passing close to shrubbery, dark doorways and other places of concealment.

Dress appropriately. Wear clothes and shoes that allow freedom of movement.

Be alert and aware of your surroundings at all times.

When arriving at home by taxi or private car, request the driver to wait until you are inside.

Have your key ready so you can immediately open the door.

When babysitting tell your parents who you are babysitting for, the address and phone number and time you can be expected home.

Call your home before leaving to return home.

A parent should accompany their child on the first occasion and meet the people.

Never let a caller or someone at the door know that you are a babysitter.

Follow the at home rules listed above.

Rape and murder of children is rare. Molestation and sexual annoyances are fairly common. Eighty-five percent of the sexual assaults on children are by people known to them, not by the strangers they have traditionally been warned about. Information about sexual assault should be a part of every child's basic safety information. Several good books and pamphlets have been written on how to talk about sexual abuse with your children. A good book is "The Silent Children; A Parent's Guide to the Prevention of Child Sexual Abuse" by Linda Tscherhart Sanford. It is published by McGraw-Hill.

Children need close supervision when using a public restroom. They are a favorite spot for molesters. Small children, especially, should always be accompanied by a grownup they know when they use a public facility.

Tell your child never to open the door to anyone except you or someone you told him was coming. If you hear someone at the door, don't let your child handle the situation alone.

These are some of the preventative measures you need to adopt. Sources for brochures and other information on rape and child sexual assault are the Department of Human Resources, your local rape crisis center, police department and/or sheriff's office or Mental Health/Mental Retardation center.

Fifth graders in play

The fifth grade classes of Mrs. Stokes and Mrs. Glasscock presented the play "Kids for America" to the Women's Forum.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT PATTERN AVAILABILITY

*Why aren't there more patterns for larger sizes, petites, men, teenage boys, etc.?

The pattern companies are doing their best to meet consumer demands. For example, for larger sizes, more patterns are being made available by increasing the number of large sizes for a pattern and by producing more multi-sized patterns.

For petites, adjustment lines have been added to Misses patterns. While these styles have not been specifically designed for the petite figure, they are suitable and certainly increase the choice of styles.

Some of today's fashions are also suitable for maternity wear. And, some pattern companies will list the patterns suitable for this category and others in their classified index or show suitable styles in their maternity section.

*I finally found just the right fabric for a pattern I have been wanting, and now it's not in the catalog. Why?

New, up-to-date fashions and craft projects are added to the pattern catalogs with each issue to support consumer demand. To make room for these new designs in the catalog, each company periodically discontinues patterns which have not sold well.

*Is there anyway I can purchase a discontinued pattern?

A discontinued pattern may sometimes be obtained by writing to a pattern company. However, only a limited number of patterns do remain available, so it is best to write as soon as a pattern is no longer in the catalog. Write to the consumer relations company listed in the index of the pattern book. Some companies may have collect or toll free telephone numbers listed. Note: Burda and Kwik-Sew do not keep discontinued patterns.

Dreams Come True At Lack's

Dear Valued Friend,

Many people consider the often-used phrase, "something for nothing," slightly unbelievable in today's fast-paced world, and certainly out of fashion. Well, that's what they think...you and Lack's know better! We're making it truly unbelievable by bringing it back as a fitting and altogether satisfying conclusion to our exciting 46th Anniversary sale and celebration. It's our way of giving a real big "thank you" to all the nice folks who made our 46 years possible - our valued customers - and that's you!

Starting this Friday, you'll want to catch the extraordinary savings on Lack's fine home furnishings (yes, come see substantial price reductions on fashionable living rooms, decorative all wood bedrooms, stylish dining rooms, fresh carpet designs, relaxable bedding, quality-built appliances, and entertaining televisions and stereos). Lack's brings down the cost of dressing up your home (you expect "more" from Lack's every day of the year - expect to discover even "more for less" now during Lack's Customer Appreciation Sale).

Customer Appreciation Sale
Lack's Furniture Centers
February 24th through March 3rd

While you're here, take a good look through our exceptional displays of the newest and most wanted home furnishings...look long and hard. Then, pick the item you really want...the one you may have only dreamed about owning (or even one you've just purchased). Take the registration form on the back of this letter and drop it in the special registration box when you come to Lack's. The rest is in the hands of fate...and fate will be more than kind! When you consider only a very limited number of letters are being sent out (that's the only way to register), and an even smaller number will actually take the time to come to Lack's and register...that just increases your chances of being one of the winners (and your "something for nothing" opportunity is an odds-on favorite of becoming a dream come true!).

So don't hesitate...come in now to your nearest Lack's and drop your winning registration form into the hopper. Then, on the date of the drawing, out come the lucky winners...and even more "dreams come true" at Lack's! And, one of the winners might as well be you (now that'd be really nice).

Sincerely,
Melvin Lack

P.S. The value of the "dreams come true" at Lack's prices is $500.00 - if the item you select is $500.00 or less, it is yours ABSOLUTELY FREE; if the item is valued over $500.00, you pay only the difference. Lack's 46th Anniversary offer applies even if you've already purchased the item from Lack's during our celebration - you'll receive up to $500.00 credit against your purchase! No purchase is required to register, but you must be 18 years or older.

WTU due to make refunds

West Texas Utilities customers who paid interim rates the latter part of 1983 will begin receiving refunds this month.

However, all refunds will be small, and some customers won't get them at all, company officials said.

They'll be small because the higher rates were charged for only a short time. Some customers won't be affected, because their rates were not changed during the period.

WTU started charging interim rates on October 22 when it became evident that a requested rate increase filed June 10, 1983 would be delayed indefinitely by the Public Utility Commission of Texas. Interim rates were allowed by state law, subject to refund, if after three months the PUC had not ruled on the company's request.

WTU has asked for increase of $26 million annually and the PUC staff recommended $10 million. The Commission eventually approved $12 million, with the new rates effective Jan. 6, 1984.

WTU now will pay customers the difference between the interim rates and the new rates, plus 12.83 per cent interest. Refunds are being credited to customer bills, while checks are being mailed to those who have disconnected from the WTU system.

Amounts to residential customers are averaging less than $5, including interest.

Customers in the following towns, which had denied the rate request and appealed to the Commission, are not affected: Hawley, Tuscola, Lawn, Merkel, Putnam, Clyde, Cross Plains, Santa Anna, Lueders, Aspermont, Jayton, Marfa, Valentine, Presidio, Alpine, Balmorhea, Rankin, Iraan, Estelline, Quitaque, Turkey, Memphis, Dodson, Shamrock, Sonora, Sterling City, Bronte, Menard, Junction and Miles.

PAYNE COMPLETES COURSE

Willie Payne Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Payne, has completed a 1984 engine, emission and related systems course for trucks in Sweetwater.

He is now a certified service technician for Ford.

C.C. gas and oil news

Aminoil Inc., Englewood, Cole., No. 3 Shannon "A", Crockett County Strawn oil discovery, 3 7/8 miles northeast of the Escondido, South (lower Strawn oil) field and 18 1/2 miles southwest of Big Lake, was finalized for 22 barrels of 46 gravity oil, plus one barrel of water, with gas-oil ratio of 8,091-1.

Production was through an 18-64-inch choke and perforations at 8,030-60 feet, which had been acidized with 2,000 gallons.

It topped the San Andres at 2,688 feet on ground elevation of 2,759 feet.

Drilled to 8,925 feet, where 5 1/2-inch casing was set, it is plugged back to 8,656 feet.

Location is 660 feet from the most northerly south line and 660 feet from the most easterly east lines of 39-BB-TCRR.

J. Cleo Thompson, Dallas, will drill two 10,500-foot wildcats in Crockett County.

The No. 1 Henderson 38-8 is 15 miles east of 7,289-foot Canyon gas production and three miles southeast of 9,395-foot Ellenburger gas production in the Perner Ranch multipay field, 1 3/8 miles south of 8,364-foot Pennsylvanian gas production in the Howards Creek field and 15 miles southwest of Ozona.

Location is 697 feet from the north and 2,719 feet from the west lines of 38-ST-

TCRR.

The No. 1 Henderson 21-2 is 1 1/8 miles northwest of 6,422-foot Canyon gas production in the Ozona multipay field, one mile northeast of a 10,502-foot failure, 2 5/8 miles northeast of Northeast field and 9 1/2 miles southwest of Ozona.

Location is 830 feet from the south and 1,414 feet from the east lines of 221-ST-TCRR.

Estimated tax payments

Last year, about 625,000 federal income tax returns were filed by north Texas area taxpayers who owed money to the Internal Revenue Service.

If you expect to receive income not subject to withholding in 1984 such as interest, royalty income, rental income, or cash payments of some kind, you may need to file a declaration of estimated tax for 1984, says the Internal Revenue Service.

Whether you must file a declaration of estimated tax, Form 1040ES, for any year depends on how much you estimate your income tax will be for that year. The IRS says not to include income exempt from tax in deciding whether you must file a declaration.

The 10,502-foot failure, Exxon Corp., Midland, No. 1 Henderson "B", was plugged and abandoned May 28, 1980. It tested 30 minutes, making gas at the rate of 5,640 cubic feet daily, through an 1/8-inch choke and perforations at 9,220-424 feet.

The Shannon (San Andres oil) field of Crockett County was extended one location east with completion of Robert G. Co. & Associates Inc., Dallas, No. 1 Todd Ranch, 19 miles east of Iraan, for 43 barrels of 31 gravity oil, no water, with gas-oil ratio of 1,200-1.

Production was through a 24-64-inch choke and perforations at 2,347-421 feet, which had been acidized with 2,000 gallons and fractured with 28,650 gallons and 44,000 pounds of sand.

Scheduled as a 3,500-foot wildcat, it was drilled to 3,508 feet, with 4 1/2-inch casing set at 2,605 feet, and plugged back to 2,560.7 feet.

Location is 330 feet from the north and west lines of 15-YZ-EL&RR.

A trace of moisture was recorded.
