Kitty's Korner

By
Kitty Montgomery

We sort of understood what that old saying "you never miss the water till the well runs dry" meant here in the office Tuesday afternoon when the electricity went off briefly. There's very little you can do with an electric typewriter when you are without electricity. Nobody could even remotely remember what happened to the old manual we used to have.

We could have written things out in long-hand, but without the electricity, the air-conditioner was off and it was getting too hot to do much labor before the lights came back on and machines started humming again.

We all breathed a sigh of relief and realized how important the key Benjamin Franklin held in his hand on that stormy day so long ago, was to our everyday lives.

I'm never going to complain about how high my electric bill is again. Probably not until next summer.

I think we have had a cool front move through the area. It was only 94 degrees at mid-afternoon Tuesday. It looked as if we might get a good rain Thursday night. There was booming thunder, dazzling lightning and some rain. However, a check of the official gauge at the water district office revealed not a trace.

Open house for Heritage School set

"The Opening" of the Heritage School, the Ozona school building constructed in 1910-1912, is scheduled for Sunday, September 22, at 3:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. The building, more recently referred to as the "old" junior high school, has been put back into educational service following an extensive remodeling project.

Plans for the program for "The Opening" include: a musical presentation by the Ozona High School Band, welcoming remarks and introductions by representatives of the School Board of Trustees, greetings and presentations by the county's historical groups, and a time to reminisce about the building's memorable past. Also, included in the afternoon's activities will be a pictorial display of the building's past, a tour of the building, and a time for refreshments and visitation.

Fowler wins football contest for the week

The first winner of the weekly football contest was Keith Fowler, who tied with three others before the Monday night game between Dallas and Washington. Keith was the only one of the four to pick Dallas over the Redskins.

Two of the games listed on the entry blank were in error, the last two listed. They are scheduled to be played this weekend.

As usual, entry blanks may be found on the sports page, sponsored each week by local merchants. Anyone is eligible to enter the contest. Entries must be in the mail or the Stockman office by 5 p.m. each Friday. All entry blanks must be clipped from the pages of the Stockman.

County sales down for first quarter, 1985

State comptroller Bob Bullock released the sales and use tax analysis for the first quarter of 1985.

In Crockett County, with 101 outlets reporting, gross sales for the first quarter of this year amounted to $9,168,298. Compared with gross sales for the first quarter of 1984 which were $9,988,608, sales for this year were down 8.2%.

Use tax purchases amounted to $19,384 for the first quarter of this year. Sales subject to tax amounted to $3,462,927, indicating most purchases were made by tax exempt entities.

Handing over the keys

Jim Marks, longtime owner of Jim's Foodway, turns the business and the keys over the new owner Oscar Tumlinson, Monday morning. Tumlinson, left, comes to Ozona from Midland where he spent 42 years in the grocery business.

Court approves tax rate decrease Monday

Crockett County Commissioners voted unanimously Monday to set the tax rate for the county at 47.5 cents per one hundred dollar valuation. According to Dick Kirby, county auditor, this amounts to an 18 percent decrease in the tax rate from last year.

Commissioners voted unanimously to approve the $5,536,000 budget. Last year's budget was $5,744,900, $200,000 higher than 1985.

The Crockett County Consolidated School District tax rate was to be set during the regular meeting Tuesday night. Commissioners will meet again at 1:30 p.m. Friday to adopt that tax rate.

John L. Henderson, representing the sheriff's department appeared before commissioners with a request to change the tone on all radio equipment used by the county. Henderson cited too much interference from the Parker County Sheriff's Department's radio equipment as the reason for needing to change the tone.

Commissioners granted the request which will cost approximately $1,125. They will also consider another request that a booster be placed on a tower in the Pecos River area. Henderson reported that the sheriff's office "almost has to send two units to a call from the Pecos River Store because officers cannot reach Ozona by radio."

Gordon LaBarre, Ismael Lujan, and Dan Ramirez were hired by the county during Monday's meeting. Ruben Mendez was transferred from his duties in the cemetery to the road department.

Ed Moore reported to commissioners that the motor in a chip spreader was ruined and that not fixing the transmission was abuse that had caused the engine to explode. He also discussed the need for a policy handbook for county employees as a guideline for employees' sick-pay and days off. County Judge Al Fields stated that he had a Tarrant County Handbook that could be used as an example. Commissioners will work this item out in a special meeting later this month.

Garland Young, with the Civic Center, made a request of commissioners for eight good tables which will be used for dominoes and card games. He was instructed to check prices at Value City in San Angelo where they are "reasonable and have good stuff." The present tables are Samsonite and are used two to three times per week but are no longer stable. Young also reported that the back to school dance held recently at the Youth Center was attended by 160 students with 130 who did not leave. He stated that the dance was a big success.

Louise Ledoux and Marilyn Cox

were present at the meeting to report on the progress of the library's move. Mrs. Ledoux stated that they were still awaiting the arrival of bookshelves. She added that she plans to work at the library in its new location before the official opening to get all of the bugs out. The contents of the library cannot be moved until the bookshelves are received.

Commissioners unanimously voted to appoint Mary Kay Skains and Elliott Barrera to the library board. The board membership has always been changed at the start of school but will be changed to rotate at the first of each calendar year.

In other action commissioners voted unanimously to approve a proposal from American Pipeline to construct a pump station one mile into Crockett County at the Upton County line near Iraan. A pipeline will run from the other side of the Sutton County line through Todd Field onto McCamey.

Crockett County Hospital and Care Center Administrator Don Hopkins reported to commissioners that the hospital was in need of a new stove. After some discussion, Hopkins was instructed to hire a stove repairman to try to repair the present stove and to find out why the elements keep going out. Hopkins also stated that the air conditioning at the Care Center had not been functioning properly but that the hospital board would try to wait until next summer to purchase another one. The possibility of securing another physician for the hospital was discussed but no decision was made.

Midland man buys food store

As of Monday morning Jim's Foodway, IGA, became T & T Village Supermarket.

Jim Marks, longtime owner of the store in the shopping center here sold the store to Oscar Tumlinson of Midland.

Tumlinson is a 42-year employee of the M*System stores and was operations manager over the area before his retirement. He said he and his wife, Betty, looked at many small towns before deciding Ozona was the one. Oscar and Betty have a 14-year-old son, Jason. They all preferred Ozona, over the many other small towns they had visited. Jason is an eighth-grader and presently attending school in Midland. The mother and son plan to move to Ozona as soon as they sell their home in Midland. Meanwhile Tumlinson is living in a motel.

Jim and Beth Marks moved to Ozona 26 years ago, from Fort Stockton where Jim was a market manager for the Foodway Stores. He came here in October of 1961 as manager when the store was Evans Foodway. The Winn-Dixie grocery chain purchased the store and after about a year, Marks purchased the store.

The Marks' two daughter, Anita and Susie, were raised and educated in Ozona, both graduates of Ozona

High School. Susie and her husband Rick Vannoy live in Midland. Anita's husband is Randy Suggs. They live in McClean with their daughter, Monti Jo, the Marks only grandchild.

Jim and Beth are looking forward to retirement. They plan to travel, hunt in Colorado, fish, and just enjoy life. Beth is an accomplished artist in oil paintings and ceramics, and the couple plans to make some arts and crafts shows around the country.

Ozona will remain home for the Marks. Jim says "we have no intention of leaving Ozona, it will always be home."

Inventory was taken at the store Saturday night and Tumlinson became the official owner Monday morning. Marks will be in the store for several days to introduce Oscar to customers and help out.

Tumlinson, who started his grocery career as a sack-boy at age 15, says he plans no changes in personnel and customers can expect the same friendly service to which they have become accustomed.

Marks said "I would like to thank everybody for giving me the opportunity to be in the position I am in. It would not have been possible without all the good people of Ozona." He added "I certainly hope everyone continues to show Oscar the same consideration they have shown me."

Lions drop opener to Greenwood crew

Friday night the Ozona Lions opened the '85 season with a disappointing loss to the Greenwood Rangers by the score of 28-0. They will be in Eden this Friday to tangle with the Eden Bulldogs.

The Lions traveled to Greenwood hoping to start the season on a winning note but unfortunately the Rangers would not cooperate as they scored two touchdowns in the first and final quarters of the ballgame.

The Rangers took the opening kick off and put together a scoring drive on their first possession that covered sixty-six yards in eight plays. The score came on a nine yard run by junior running back Brad Rose with 8:09 left in the first period. The PAT was successfully added by Chad Cottrell and Greenwood led 7-0. Ozona's David Adams returned the kickoff twelve yards back to the Lion thirty three and Ozona began their first offensive possession of the young season. The Lions were then unable to move the ball enough for the first down with carries by Adams and Chuy Hernandez and Harvey Fierro had to punt the first of his three punts for the night. Greenwood picked up where they left off on their first possession as they once again marched the length of the field for their second score of the quarter. This score came on a two yard burst by Rose again and after Cottrell was finished the Rangers led 14-0 with 1:59 to play.

The Lions again received the kickoff and Fierro returned it twenty-four yards to the thirty-four and the Lion offense was again on the field. The Ranger defense proved to be as tough as it was the previous possession and at the end of the quarter the Lions were facing a fourth down and one trailing 14-0.

The opening play of the second quarter failed to net the Lions any yardage as Adams was stopped for no gain and the ball went over on downs. Greenwood then drove down to the

U.S. GEARING UP FOR SHOWDOWN WITH TERRORISTS?

By Edwin Feulner

As the Reagan administration learned the hard way, as it muddled its way through the relatively brief TWA hijacking and hostage-taking, U.S. military power has its limits.

Its greatest limit, however, seems to be a persistent unwillingness to use it.

The high jewel of the Reagan administration's allegedly tough international policy is still, unfortunately, the liberation of Grenada. Cheers for us. But was it such a big deal? The mighty United States managed, not without some minor difficulty, to subdue a rag-tag bunch of Caribbean and Cuban Marxist riffraff. Is that what U.S. power has been reduced to?

I recently ran across some early January newspaper clippings in my files reporting that the United States was in the process of forming a 2,000-man commando force which would enable us to strike at terrorists worldwide. The article, based on an NBC News report, said further that two aging Polaris submarines, the John Marshall and Sam Houston, were being converted into underseas commando posts, each capable of carrying 100 anti-terrorist fighters from the Navy's Seal Team 6 or the Army's Delta Force.

In addition, the report said, "about a dozen transport aircraft and two dozen helicopters have now been assigned to the commandos."

This is great — on paper. It will be greater still when the anti-terrorist strike force is fully operational. But it will never be — even after the submarines have been converted and outfitted; the men trained; the material strategically located around the globe — if the commander-in-chief is unwilling to order U.S. forces into action.

The Navy has been appropriately tight-lipped about the conversion of the John Marshall and Sam Houston. Navy officials, however, confirm that both ships are at Puget Sound Naval Shipyard undergoing "modification or ship alteration to provide additional military capability." The $16-million modifications are scheduled to be completed in October.

It would be inappropriate for the United States government to make a public announcement about its capabilities or its intentions. Moreover, such public statements are not necessary. Intelligence sources worldwide no doubt are well aware of the fact that the Reagan administration is preparing the United States to go on the offensive against bloody terrorism — to wage what scholar Richard Shultz refers to as "twilight warfare."

The administration probably can be forgiven its handling of the TWA hijacking.

In the not-too-distant future, all of the excuses for sitting on one's hands in the face of international cutthroat terrorism will be made moot. That will be the day the U.S. counter-terrorism strike force is ready for action. And most assuredly it will be tested.

When that day comes, if the United States flinches again, and refuses to use its great power, no one anywhere will be safe. Heaven help us.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—State officials and business leaders have initiated their campaign to get voters to pass the Texas Water Plan, two of the proposed constitutional amendments on the November ballot.

Headed by the top legislative leadership, the campaign plans to spend $1.25 million selling the statewide water plan.

Already it reports total pledges of $300,000, including $100,000 pledged by dynamic Dallas businessman H. Ross Perot.

The campaign, the Water for Texas Future Committee, has former Texas Secretary of State John Fainter as treasurer.

The top three Republican gubernatorial prospects, Bill Clements, Kent Hance and Tom Loeffler have all endorsed the plan.

So have top Democrats, Gov. Mark White, Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby and House Speaker Gib Lewis.

Still a question mark on endorsement are the environmental groups which have defeated past water plans. And right now many of them are disappointed with Gov. White.

Former Roommate Last week White named his

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

We are writing to show our gratitude for all the concern people showed when our 4 year old son was injured on August 29. As everyone knows, Chad slipped and fell from the high diving board at the North Pool.

The EMT's who immediately came to the scene were excellent. We are from a fairly larger town than Ozona and thought the volunteers for the ambulance service were probably amateurs and not as efficient as professionals. We were proved to be wrong. Ozona's EMT's are not only professionals, they are also caring people who have been thoroughly trained. Thank you to all that helped that night.

The hospital staff was also very good with Chad. They showed just how well they are trained. They are also professionals doing a great job! Thank you nurses and Dr. Carlisle.

We also want to thank Janet Henry. She just happened to be at the party. Apparently, she has had EMT training. She knew just what to do with Chad until the ambulance got there. Thank you, Janet.

Thank you to all, friends and strangers, who showed us their concern in our time of need.

By the way, Chad is doing fine. He had a cut on his forehead and suffered from a concussion. We especially thank God for only these slight injuries. The accident could have been much worse.

Thank you again,
Ray Don, Barbie and Chad Myers

August 6, 1985

An Open Letter to My Patients:
I have re-entered the hospital to have a surgical procedure done on my leg. I have been hospitalized 6 times this year and I feel that it is time that reparative measures be taken.

I realize the difficulty my absence may cause you. I hope the surgery on my leg will be as successful as the surgery on my right leg and prevent me from missing anymore time from my practice.

I appreciate the support you have given me during the last year and I am certain I will be back before long.
Sincerely yours,
Don L. Carlisle, M.D.

old Baylor Law School roommate to the Texas Water Commission, and the environmentalists immediately criticized his choice of a person with no background in water issues.

White picked John Houch when the state received $25 million, the second half of the $50 million settlement negotiated last year.

Texas had pursued inheritance tax claims when Hughes died, and the case went to the U.S. supreme court three times.

The complicated case is "wrapped up," said Texas Attorney General Jim Mattox.

Hughes was born in Texas, and the state claimed that although he rented or borrowed residences in other states in his lifetime, he always was a Texan and his estate was subject to an 18 percent inheritance tax.

Hunting Season

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department last week approved higher fees for use of state parks and shortened the duck-hunting season because of fewer birds.

The fee increase was necessary to cover a $897,000 revenue shortage. The daily $2 per car entrance fee was not touched, but overnight rates were raised by $2 for primitive camping sites to $8 for cabins. Agency experts predicted fewer ducks because of dry weather conditions and loss of nesting habitats.

Short Takes

• Sen. Roy Blake, D-Nacogdoches, says he plans to introduce legislation in 1987 to repeal the mandatory seatbelt law. Blake says it is an infringement of individual rights.

Hill-Beckham wedding vows exchanged on yacht Aug. 25

Carolyn Chris Hill and John Martin Beckham were united in marriage Sunday, August 25, at 5 p.m. "The Quiet Dawn", a 44-foot Traveler Yacht, anchored off shore, near the Port Aransas light house, was the setting for the double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Jack Moore of the First Presbyterian Church of Port Aransas.

Following the ceremony, the couple enjoyed a sunset cruise in the Gulf and a sumptuous wedding dinner.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Clegg of Ozona, and the granddaughter of Mrs. Ira Carson of Ozona. She is a graduate of Ozona High School and Texas Tech University.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Halbert III of Monahan, and is the grandson of Mrs. Elsie Schwiening of Sonora. He is a Sonora High School graduate and attended Angelo State University.

After a short stay on the coast, and some deep sea fishing, the couple, and Heather Hill, daughter of the bride, are at home on the ranch east of Sonora.

Pandale Study Club begins new club year

Barbara Malone, president of the Pandale Study Club, presided over the first meeting of the club year September 5 at the Pandale Community Center. Yearbooks were presented by the program chairman, Becky Young. Annual donations to Boy's Ranch, High Sky Children's Ranch, and the San Angelo Volunteer Council were approved. Plans for the Pandale observance of Val Verde County's Centennial Year were made for the November meeting.

Jo Davidson, of Ozona, presented the program on "Life Story", the how-to of autobiographical interviewing. Mrs. Davidson told the group that "so often we have good intentions of preserving the past as remembered by our families, but fail to do so when it means writing it all down. With the 'life story' method, it is easy to talk it all on to a tape." Organizations as well as families can utilize the "Life Story" plan to preserve history as well as memories.

Shortbread, fruit salad and tea were served by hostessess Vonnie Womack and Ginger Perner to members Sue Arledge, Lela Bunger, Opal Everett, Sarah Hargraves, Barbara Malone, Myrtle Malone, Josephine Mills, Judy Norswothy, Jessie White, Becky and Audrey Young and guests Jo Davidson and Lela Marie Bunger from Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club
by Mrs. Bailey Post

Perhaps some of you may be interested in Rubber Plants (Ficus Elastica) which seems to be one of the most popular and appealing interior plants when displayed at the nursery. However, they can be very difficult to maintain unless you pay close attention to their requirements. They first need a bright location. A dark location simply will not do. An east, west or south is best if not too close.

The soil in the container should be porous and never should this plant stand in water. Soil and perlite and peat in equal portions serves a Rubber Plant well. Feed lightly, following a thorough watering. Use a complete fertilizer once every month or so. Watering is the trickiest operation and the one many growers fail. If the soil is porous and the light right, a good weekly watering will do. These plants should not suffer for water, but they must not be over indulged. If leaves drop at the slightest touch, you may know you have overwatered.

Disease and insects are very few and generally nothing to worry about. This plant is a member of the very large fig family so is related to the fig we eat, as well as the common fig vine. Contrary to what many believe, it is not the tree from which rubber is obtained. It is a native of tropical Asia.

Light For Our Cities

There's something dramatic about a city at night — like this view of Pittsburgh after dark. All the problems that beset our cities seem hidden as the skyline comes alive with a million gleaming windows marking the towers of man's industrial prowess.

Lost in the shadows are the steeples and graceful roofs of a hundred churches. Few of them are lighted at night... yet they are the center and source of the true light our cities need.

In every city, village and hamlet there is a golden triangle sustaining the lives of our families. It is the message of faith, hope and love that glows from our churches.

Lions lose opener - - - - -

Ozona thirteen yard line where they missed a field goal and turned the ball over for the first time of the game. Ozona then began to move the ball as Steve Sanchez hit Fierro for an eighteen yard gain followed by a nine yard gain and the Lions were moving. The drive was stalled on the Ranger twenty-three as Sanchez came up short on fourth down. Neither team threatened the rest of the quarter and the Rangers took their 14-0 lead to the locker room with one half finished.

The second half showed a new Lion offense as they came out moving the ball through the heart of the Ranger defense all the way down to the fourteen yard line. The drive was turned away as a fourth and twelve pass play fell incomplete. Adams carried the ball four times in the drive for thirty-two yards with carries for thirteen, nine, nine, and one yards. Greenwood was able to control for the rest of the quarter but was unable to score for the second consecutive quarter. The fourth quarter brought equal trouble as the first as the Rangers added fourteen more points on scores covering twenty-six and three yards. The first came just fifty-six seconds into the quarter as quarterback Chad Longley hit Abel Mireless on a well executed pass play. With just 5:50 left in the contest Garrett Mattison iced off the scoring for the night with a three yard run. Ozona had the ball one last time but were still unable to produce a score.

The Lions did have some bright spots as their offense moved the ball in the second half and the defense played two quarters of scoreless football. Linebacker Coach David McWilliams had high praise for outside linebacker Arturo Gonzales. "He played an excellent game for us at outside LB both against the run and pass." The hit of the week had not yet been determined at press time.

Tips count when reporting for Social Security benefits

People who get tips as a substantial part of their earnings should note that tips can also make a real difference in their Social Security benefits. The amount of the benefit they get when they retire, if they become disabled, or that goes to their families should they die is based on their annual earnings report to Social Security over their working life. The higher the earnings reported, the higher the monthly benefit.

However, unlike regular wages where the employer makes all the reports, tips require special reporting by the worker.

A person who gets tips is required to report them if they amount to at least $20 or more in cash from one place of employment in any 1 month. The tips must be reported to the employer within 10 days after the month ends. The report must be in writing on Form 4070 from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Any form may be used if it includes the same information as the Form 4070, including a time card or pay stub containing the amount of tips earned

Crockett County Library Notes

The Crockett County Public Library has a new Post Office Box Number. It is Box 3030.

New children's books have arrived at the library. They include The Wizard of Oz by L. Frank Baum, King Solomon's Mines by H. Rider Haggard, The Adventures of Tom Sawyer & Huckleberry Finn by Mark Twain, Robinson Crusoe by Daniel Defoe, Disco Basics by Maxine Polley, and American Indian Games and Crafts by Charles Blood.

Also Pete Pack Rat & the Gila Monster Gang by Robert Quackenbush, Malcolm Yucca Seed by Lynne Gessner, Jumping Bean by Edna Miller, The Sesame Street Book of Numbers and Rodeo Riders by Vella Munn.

We are in need of good Children's Books in the Library. If anyone has children's books that your kids have outgrown or no longer need, box them up and save them for the library. We will be having a "book drive" for the library soon. At present, since we still are not moved into our new building, we ask everyone to hold on to the books they would like to donate to the library. As soon as our new book shelves are delivered from the manufacturers, we will be able to get moved into our new library. Keep your fingers crossed, the furniture company now says we should have the shelving by September 12th. "I hope the computer will be kind to us and there will be no more delays," said Mrs. Ledoux, Crockett County Librarian.

Ram Performance Test set for September 27-30

The Annual Ram Performance Test conducted by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station set to begin September 27-30, 1985 at the Experiment Station in Sonora. The Field Day scheduled at the conclusion of the test is set for March 20, 1986.

Dr. Maurice Shelton, San Angelo based coordinator for the function said the test will be handled in a manner similar to tests of previous years. He noted that the method of obtaining fleece data, especially fleece yields, has not yet been determined. "It is expected that we will move toward scouring the entire fleece or hand scouring a core sample of the entire fleece," said Shelton. Shelton added that as a result of this, test officials are allowing an additional week prior to the field day for obtaining fleece data and preparing the final report.

Rams may be entered individually or in sire or ownership groups. Animals may be registered or non-registered. The test is open to all breeds but based on the type of data collected it is tailored more toward the Finewool breeds. Animals must be lambs at the time of entry; those showing yearling teeth will not be accepted. To be eligible for the American Rambouillet Sheep Breeders' Association Registry of Merit Program, rams must be registered and born on or after October 1, 1984.

Rams will be examined by an appointed committee between the delivery and the first official weigh-day. A note will be made of any unsoundness and breeders will be given an opportunity, but will not be required to remove these individuals before the first weigh-day. After the animals are officially on test, breeders are expected to leave the rams except for reasons of health as determined by station personnel.

Shelton said an initial deposit of $135 will be required per head. Any unused funds will be returned after the test is completed.

Local Game Warden reports on dove season

By Rod Chalmers
State Game Warden

Crockett County folks traditionally don't get too excited about dove season, and this year appears to be no exception. Regardless of whether it's a lack of doves blackening the skies, or the persistent heat wave stifling enthusiasm, fact remains we did rather quietly open mourning dove season Sunday, Sept. 1, and we can keep it open through Oct. 30 in the Central Zone. (By the way, the boundary between the Central and South Zones is US 90, not Interstate 10.) And if it's still too hot for you in October, you can wait till Jan. 4 and hunt through the 13th. Shooting hours are from 30 minutes before sunrise to sunset. Some hunters get hung-up on this sunset thing; and if you want to be exact, look up the tables in some thick newspaper. But folks, realistically speaking, most State Game Wardens you meet in the field won't go digging out ticket books for late shooting until the sun has dropped below the horizon. If you're hunting on the east side of a high hill, better put the ole' Blunderbust away when the sun goes out of sight, or refer to a sunset table. Wardens generally recognize an honest attempt by the hunter to be legal.

As of Sept. 1, 1985, persons hunting small game (including doves) in their county of residence are not exempt from needing a current hunting license. This is a change from years passed. The State of Texas and the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission have decided, and rightfully so, that all hunters who engage in the sport should help support the sport; or, pay their dues, so to speak. Those under 17 or 65 or over and disabled veterans can hunt under a Resident Exempt Hunting License. Your Resident Hunting (10.00) or Combination Hunting/Fishing (15.00) license will suffice anywhere in the state, but don't forget a Whitewing Dove Stamp (6.00) if there's any chance of taking one by mistake while mourning dove hunting. Also, while on the subject of stamps, waterfowl hunters also need the state and federal waterfowl stamps, signed and attached to your hunting license. Don't grumble, just buy it-it goes to a good cause!

We're allowed 12 mourning doves per day this year, and the possession limit is the maximum number of birds that can be legally taken in two days. Obviously, the possession limit on opening day of any season is the daily bag limit. No person may possess more than one day's limit while in the field or returning from the field. This daily limit of 12 doves can include up to two "mistake" whitewings and up to two white-fronted doves (very uncommon in this area), but the total per person is 12 in the aggregate. However, remember to have a Whitewing Dove Stamp on the back of your license to cover those mistake birds. Most hunters are aware that the whitewing season was cancelled this year, but the stamps weren't. By the way, we do have some whitewings in Crockett County-down along the Pecos River, mostly.

Now for some of the more common violations that crop up in the migratory bird hunting field. Hunting migratory birds that are being lured to feed is a violation. This does not apply to birds coming in to a maize field or a bunch of sunflowers, or any other bona-fide agricultural operation. However, doves coming in to a deer/turkey feeder cannot be shot. In the same light, if you're pouring out grain in the road or trough to fatten lambs, there'd best be some lambs around if you're going to hull doves in the area. It is also a violation of state and federal law to hunt migratory birds with the aid of a motor vehicle. This applies to both public and private property. Remember to be sure your scattergun is plugged to a maximum 3

Health conference slated Oct. 13-14

An animal health program designed to provide an exchange of information to both livestock producers and veterinarians has been scheduled for October 13-14 at College Station Hilton and Convention Center in College Station. The programs will kick off Sunday afternoon with seminars on Swine in the Bluebonnet Ballroom 2, Life Improvement in the Mockingbird Room C-D, and Potpourri in the Bluebonnet Ballroom 5-6-7.

A general session will be held Monday morning in the Bluebonnet Ballroom 1-2 followed by seminars in the afternoon on Pharmacology in Mockingbird A-B-C-D, Equine Management in Bluebonnet Ballroom 5-6-7 and Ruminant Management in Bluebonnet Ballroom 1-2.

The program committee includes Raymond W. Cook, general chairman, and Floron C. Faries Jr. and Bruce Lawhorn, co-chairmen.

An invitation is extended to all producers in Crockett County to attend these programs.

shell capacity, including the one in the chamber. Another problem we often run into is the daily limit in the field. Understand that this is the maximum number that a person may kill per day, not the number the whole group can have. By law, Dad cannot kill his limit of 12, plus enough to make limits for the wife and kids. Also avoid getting checked with your limit in the bag, plus a few "I picked up for the wife". She'd better pick up her own birds when Dad approaches his limit. Wardens aren't instructed to believe everything they're told by hunters; instead, we're supposed to take things at face value and write the violations as we find 'em. Help us out with this one by possessing only your birds. The last type of violation shouldn't need mentioning, but we occasionally find it so we'll talk about it. The Slob Hunter, alias Thrill Killer. Maybe he's already got his limit, or maybe he just doesn't like to eat doves. Regardless, he's powdering 'em as fast as they come flying in and not picking up any. If this is sport, we hunters are in trouble! Anyway, Mr. Slob Hunter is in big trouble-up to $200.00 per bird he killed and failed to retrieve.

So much for what you can't do. I wish I could now tell you where and when to go get a limit, but the birds are really scattered this year. Comments from hunters indicate late afternoons around waterholes are best, and that could be anywhere in the county. Sunflowers and croton weeds are usually good drawing cards for doves, but lots of our weed fields are covered with grass this year. The hunter's loss is the stockman's gain. Nature eventually gives everybody his turn.

Every year Texas has a rash of hunting accidents around dove season. Folks are rusty or anxious, or something. Keep safety foremost in mind while in the field this dove season, so you'll be assured of having a chance to enjoy this deer season!

JUNIOR HIGH CHEERLEADERS will be the Spirit of the Cubs when they take to the field during the football season this year. Clockwise the group of lovelies are Mikki Ramirez, Anna Borrego, Terry Vargas, Brenda Rodriguez and Kelly Williams. Coach Renee Schultze is their sponsor.

PUBLIC NOTICE

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

GENERAL ELECTION

NOVEMBER 5, 1985

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Sections 1 and 2 of House Joint Resolution 6 propose a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Texas Water Development Board to issue an additional $980 million of Texas Water Development bonds.

The additional bonds to be issued will be dedicated for deposit in the Texas Water Development Fund, with $190 million of those bond proceeds to be used for water supply loans and facilities acquisition and with $400 million of those bond proceeds to be used for state participation in the acquisition and development of facilities for storage, transmission, transportation, and treatment of water and wastewater. Of the remaining bonds authorized, $190 million will be dedicated for use in water quality enhancement projects, and $200 million will be dedicated exclusively for flood control projects.

The amendment would also allow the legislature to provide for the creation, administration, and implementation of a bond insurance program to which the state pledges up to $250 million of its general credit to insure payment of the principal of and interest on bonds or other obligations issued by political subdivisions of the state for water conservation, water development, water quality enhancement, flood control, drainage, recharge, chloride control or desalinization. Unless authorized to continue by a two-thirds vote of the members of each house of the Legislature, the bond insurance program will expire on the sixth anniversary of the date on which this section becomes a part of the constitution. Bond insurance issued before expiration of the program will not be affected by such expiration.

The amendment would authorize the legislature to create and appropriate money to special funds in the state treasury to make grants, loans, and other financial assistance available to governmental entities for certain enumerated water planning purposes. Also, the legislature would be permitted to extend the benefits of constitutionally approved water projects to nonprofit water supply corporations.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the issuance of an additional $980 million of Texas Water Development Bonds, to create special water funds for water conservation, water development, water quality enhancement, flood control, drainage, subsidence control, recharge, chloride control, agricultural soil and water conservation, and desalinization, to authorize a bond insurance program, and to clarify the purposes for which Texas Water Development Bonds may be issued."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Section 3 of House Joint Resolution 6 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the Texas Water Development Board to issue and sell Texas agricultural water conservation bonds in an amount not to exceed $200 million, if authorized to do so by a two-thirds vote of the members of each house of the legislature. The Texas agricultural water conservation bonds would be general obligations of the State of Texas, and would be paid from the first money coming into the state treasury in each fiscal year. The amendment would allow Texas agricultural water conservation bonds to be issued and sold only for four years after the date on which this Act becomes a part of the constitution.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance and sale of $200 million of Texas agricultural water conservation bonds."

House Joint Resolution 54 proposes a constitutional amendment that would permit the legislature to authorize a city or town to spend public funds and levy assessments for the relocation or replacement of water laterals on private property if such relocation or replacement is done in conjunction with or immediately following the relocation or replacement of water mains serving the property. Any legislative enactment permitting the expenditure of funds for such purposes would authorize the city or town to fix a lien on the property, with the owners' consent, for the cost of relocating or replacing the water laterals, and would provide that such cost shall be assessed against the property, with repayment by the property owner to be amortized over a period not to exceed five years at the rate of interest set by law. Such liens could not be enforced until after five years from the date the liens were affixed.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to enact laws permitting a city or town to spend public funds and levy assessments for the relocation or replacement of water laterals on private property."

This amendment would increase that authorization to permit the issuance and sale of up to $1.3 billion in bonds, $1 billion of which would be used for the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund. In addition, the amendment would remove the current definition of "veteran" from the constitution and permit the legislature to redefine "veteran" as the changing times and circumstances require.

Sheriff's report for week

On September 3, officers of the Crockett County Sheriff's Department investigated an attempted theft of a vehicle at the Charlie Harris residence. Officers also investigated an incident at Circle Bar Truck Corral where a subject swindled a cashier out of $50. A call was answered to Checho Moran's residence in reference to children shooting B-B guns. Officers later escorted home a juvenile who was apparently intoxicated.

Officers were called Wednesday to a residence in reference to a juvenile male who was apparently under the influence of drugs. They later responded to a disturbance call at the House of Flowers and also investigated a strange vehicle parked at Evelyn Keith's residence.

September 5, officers answered a disturbance call to the Inn of the West.

At 1:25 a.m. Friday, officers assisted with a two vehicle accident at the corner of Monterrey and Santa Anna Streets. Sgt. Bob Sapient with the Kansas Department of Corrections was given custody of prisoner Kenneth Gibson. Bill Black and Juan Rodriguez were both released on bond. Officers were dispatched to Taylor Box Road at Interstate 10 in reference to a possible kidnapping of a female but the report was confirmed as a hoax call. Danny Rivera was arrested on a warrant out of Karnes County for revocation of probation and after arraignment bond was denied. Officers also answered a call to a residence regarding a rabid skunk, a disturbance call at the corner of Monterrey and Santa Rosa Streets, a report of a loose horse in the draw, and two family disturbance calls.

A call was received from Texaco #2 that persons in a van had left without paying for their gasoline and officers located the subjects on Interstate 10. The subjects returned and paid their bill. An abandoned vehicle reported at the swimming pool of the Inn of the West was checked and turned out to be stolen from Boerne. The owner was advised and stated that he was enroute to pick up the vehicle. A neighbor reported that the Armond Hoover residence had been vandalized. Hoover was notified and advised officers to contact a local business that would repair damages.

Officers answered disturbance calls to El Chatos and to Casa Blanca and three family disturbance calls. Victor Luna Ramirez was arrested on traffic warrants out of LaSalle County and was later released after paying $269.50 in fines. Manuel Villarreal III was arrested for public intoxication and later released on $100 cash bond waiver. Jose Jurado was arrested for DWI and no driver's license and was later released on $1,000 surety bond after he paid $35.

Sunday, Alfredo Tijerina was arrested for public intoxication, fined $50 and released. A female alien was taken into custody and later released to U.S. Border Patrol officers. James Allen Gardiner was arrested for driving while his license was suspended. An abandoned vehicle was investigated 30 miles north on Hwy. 137 near the Bill Black ranch. Officers determined that it could cause a traffic hazard so a wrecker was called to the scene.

Officers were called to assist a motorist who had locked car keys in a vehicle at Red Apple and also investigated a report of a loose horse east of Circle Bar Truck Corral. Officers responded to a report of a missing child and located the child a few houses away from his home. Officers arrested Morris Woodrow Crow of Louisiana for public intoxication at the Ozona National Bank and later arrested Frederick W. Oeltjendiers for driving while intoxicated. They also investigated a report of a subject dressed in black clothing with a black cape sitting in the middle of a vacant lot at Crockett Heights but no one was found at the location.

Working Women

Last week, we looked at job related factors that impact a working woman and her family. This week we will consider areas for helping families adjust.

Child care arrangements vary depending upon a child's age, family finances, job location, and availability of child care services. Carefully consider the personality and skill of the caregiver, the atmosphere for child growth and development, the nutrition provided and the safety and cleanliness of the facility or home.

Young children have little concept of time. Hurrying and rushing in the morning usually upsets them. "Get up time" which allows for preparing and eating breakfast, dressing and sharing an activity before leaving home may help the transition to the caregiver easier.

Conversations between parents and caregivers about how the child has interacted in the caregiver's home and the parent's home are very important. Time for both the parent(s) and child to unwind once they return home is important. Reading, having a snack or playing outdoors are excellent ways to relax before plunging into evening chores and activities.

As children grow older, they can take on more responsibility for personal self care and skills. They can often help the family adjust to a working mother's schedule by helping with some household chores and meal preparation. These daily tasks might include bedmaking, preparing snacks or meals, kitchen cleanup, mowing the lawn, or vacuuming.

Once family members begin to assist with household projects, be liberal with praise. Sharing household tasks can have a side benefit to the whole family by helping children feel important and teaching useful skills.

Vignettes

Remembering some stories heard over the years in Ozona
BY EVART WHITE

HOW LIFE WAS LIVED BEFORE TV

In the days before television—before television? Was there ever a time when there was no television?

Yes, Virginia, there once was no television.

What then for entertainment? There were picture shows (movies) that is; there were the annual rodeos; occasional chautauquas if you cared for that sort of thing; the concerts by well known artists brought here under guarantees by one of the community clubs; the carnivals and tent shows that came in and sought their own sponsors; and there were the home talent plays and stunt night entertainments that you could usually count on to bring out the entire community any given night. And then at Christmas time, the community Christmas tree, when every kid in the community got a present of some sort.

Home talent plays! Shades of Mrs. A. W. Jones, director. Experienced, loaded with talent and an ability to dredge up the last bit of latent talent in most of us, getting the ham in all of us to the front and center with the result that the town banker, the grocery clerk, lawyer, news man, or ranchman were transformed for the night into people of another world, the world of the playwright's imagination. The people loved it. And packed the halls. Somewhere to go? No, it really was top notch entertainment.

Comedies they were for the most part—"Charlie's Aunt", "The Face on the Barroom Floor"—The tent shows that came through town, for one night or two weeks stands, were highlights of the traveling show season—the summertime. They brought the comedies and the tear jerkers—"East Lynn", "Our Little Nell," etc.

The school plays, directed by some faculty member with dramatic training or experience, were, of course, the great nights for the kids and their parents, and even greater thrills when the plays were presented in Inter-scholastic League competition. Teacher Hack Leath served as Ozona High School director for many years.

But, perhaps commanding even greater town interest, were the home talent plays, presented by amateur men and women who rehearsed for days on end to get ready for the opening night—and for the most part also closing night. Of course, you had to have a sponsor and civic clubs were most always ready to sponsor anything that might raise a little money. The Ozona Lions Club, the Ozona

Woman's Club, the Woman's Forum, were among the ready sponsors in the pre-TV days. Nearly every small town had its dramatic club, or rather a group of men and women willing to be drawn into rehearsing and presenting a home talent play. Nothing exclusive—anybody who could be induced to try was welcome and sought after. This inevitably led to inter-city contests or dramatic meets, Sonora and Ozona were naturals for such contests and had them frequently.

Ozona's group once took a sure fire winner, a tear jerker titled "The Valiant," the story of a young man under sentence of death who, in the highest of drama, deceived his sister to convince her that he was not her brother nearing execution. "The coward dies a thousand deaths—the valiant dies but once." The Fort Stockton Lions Club once sponsored us in a one-night stand in that city.

Great nights, too, were the "stunt nights" sponsored by the women's clubs of the city. Things like the night Hugh Childress and Marshall Montgomery sang—"Ain't we crazy—, ain't we crazy—we're going to sing this song all night today."

And there was the silhouette show—the girl and boy in an impassioned embrace silhouetted on a white screen on an inside curtain with strong light casting the shadow for the audience. Risqué, what? Went over big.

And the playlets or skits that made up most of the stunt night presentations. One I recall was a garden scene with a group of pretty girls dancing, and Vivian Clayton in her sweet voice softly singing a popular love song when an old man entered and crossed to what appeared to be a grave marker, sadly shook his head and said "Not yet, Marie, Not yet." This was repeated until once one of the girls stopped him and asked why he so often came and repeated those mournful words. "Well," said the old man. "She often told me 'Some day you'll tire of wine, women and song, and so, I say 'Not yet Marie, not yet.'"

Not such great entertainment, maybe, but it stands pretty tall against pictures of the president's insides; the endless scene of white haired ward-heel politician Tip O'Neil and fellow liberal shaggy browed Jim Wright of Texas trying to stem the tide of sanity that threatens to sweep them out of the public eye; Nicaragua; the Russians; Dr. Red Duke; the mutual admiration society, TV News broadcasters; or nearly anything else you see on TV except, of course, baseball and football.

Energas Company files for $23.7 million refund

Energas Company (OTC) Sept. 5, filed with the Railroad Commission of Texas a request for interim relief and a refund of approximately $23.7 million plus interest from Westar Transmission Company based on overcharges by Westar for gas purchased by Energas between October 1984 and June, 1985. Any amount refunded to Energas based on this filing would be passed on to our customers in a manner to be determined by the Railroad Commission. This request stems from a complaint case filed by Energas against Westar and its parent, Cabot Corporation, in December of 1984 before the Railroad Commission. The case is still pending.

In the complaint, Energas alleged that higher priced gas purchased from affiliated producers or suppliers of Cabot or Westar was delivered to the utility company instead of lower priced gas supplies that may have been available. Information Energas obtained in the discovery phase of the Railroad Commission proceedings substantiates the allegations. Therefore, the company has asked for the immediate refund of the overcharges for those months. Yesterday's filing addresses only the cost of gas issue in the complaint and the refund would include only those overcharges related to the cost of gas charged to Energas between October, 1984 and June, 1985.

Also alleged in the complaint was that Westar and Cabot may have transferred certain utility property and gas supply contracts from Westar to an affiliate. Any refunds based on this charge will be addressed at a later time.

A pre-hearing conference in this case has been scheduled for Friday, September 13, 1985, at the Railroad Commission offices in Austin.

Federal Land Bank officials attend annual meet in Austin

Officials of the Federal Land Bank Association of Sonora were among 1,500 stockholders who gathered in Austin recently for the Farm Credit Banks of Texas annual meeting. Local directors and officers attending were, Michael W. Smith, A. E. Prugel and Glen Richardson from Sonora, Lee F. Allison from Rocksprings, Otis Deal and James T. Williams from Eldorado and Pleas L. Childress, Jr. from Ozona.

While bad commodity prices and adverse weather conditions have hurt Texas farmers and ranchers, the Farm Credit Banks and their related associations have managed to keep their financial positions strong.

According to James A. Rogers, president of the Farm Credit Banks of Texas, a big reason for the banks' success is the experience of their employees in dealing with highly volatile conditions in Texas.

"We're subject to drought, hurricanes, and all kinds of weather problems," he said. "I think we lend money based on knowing that in the next three or five years, something's going to happen. Perhaps we have learned to handle our portfolio a little better than some other areas that are normally under much less pressure."

Rogers cited still another plus for the Texas situation. The state's land values have remained stronger than in many other parts of the country.

A recent USDA study shows Texas land values averaged a 4 percent overall increase from April 1984 to April 1985. Nationwide, land values

Firearms school this week in Dallas County

An intensive five-day Security Firearms Instructor School will be sponsored by the National Rifle Association at the Dallas County Community College, 5001 North McArthur Blvd., Irving, Tx. September 9-13, 1985, 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. daily.

Classes are open to advanced level security officers proficient with handguns and shotguns. Instruction will include: the legal and ethical aspects of firearms use, teaching techniques, marksmanship fundamentals, firearms and range safety, dim light firing and the fundamentals of shotgun instruction. Instructors will consist of staff members from the NRA's Security Training Department.

Participants successfully completing the course may apply for NRA Security Firearms Instructor certification; however, they must achieve a minimum of 70% on the course's written examination and fire at least an 86% on the firearms proficiency test. Course registration is available on a first-come, first-served basis because classroom facilities and firing line space are limited. A tuition fee of $300.00 must be paid prior to the commencement of class.

For further information on this school, contact the NRA's Security Training Department, 1600 Rhode Island Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036 or phone (202) 828-6165.

decreased 12 percent, the largest decline in a single year since the Depression. Rogers cautioned that land values overall may drop in Texas, but he is optimistic they will not approach the low levels seen in the Corn Belt.

In his report of operations, Rogers stated the Texas bank's net worth stood at $481 million. They have almost $46 million in reserves for losses and the associations have another $54 million set aside, for a total district reserve for losses of $100 million.

Stockholders heard of the bank's plan to contribute $7.9 million in 1985 to help out their sister Farm Credit Banks in Omaha, Nebraska, and Spokane, Washington. Both the Omaha and Spokane Farm Credit Districts have been devastated by declining land values and low commodity prices. By the end of March, more than a third of Omaha's $1.6 billion in loans were considered high risk.

"We will be asked to contribute some money to help our sister organizations," Rogers said. "All Farm Credit System entities stand behind our bonds; we have never defaulted and will not now."

"So, when other Farm Credit districts need help, we will supply our share. We will not, however, give away the company store."

Rogers noted that even with the $7.9 million contribution, the Texas banks project earnings between $24 million and $25 million in 1985. These contributions should not affect the association's interest rates substantially.

Focal point of the meeting was the dedication of the new 150,000 square-foot Farm Credit Banks Building.

The Farm Credit Banks of Texas are comprised of the Federal Land Bank of Texas and its 44 Land Bank Associations, the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Texas, 28 Production Credit Associations, and the Texas Bank for Cooperatives. Collectively, they provided more than $4 billion in financing to the state's farmers, ranchers, and their cooperatives last year.

The FLBA of Sonora has $40.5 million in loans outstanding to some 220 area farmers and ranchers. The association provides long-term real estate and rural home loans to producers in a 4-county region.

Lisa Pfaff and son, Andrew, of Hunt are here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Holt.

VFW fish fry honors Wayne Wahl and law enforcement

A large crowd was on hand Thursday night at the VFW Post to honor late Chief Deputy Wayne Wahl and enjoy a fish fry.

A display of Wahl's photographs and medals was backed by a pen and ink portrait of Wahl, by Alfredo Tobar. Wahl's hat was used a receptacle for donations and a total of $316 was given toward furnishing the foyer, known as the Wahl Hall, in the new library.

Wahl served as Sheriff Billy Mills' chief deputy for many years before being drowned in a flood which swept the north part of town the last of April of this year. He was attempting to rescue a stranded motorist at the time.

The upstairs foyer in the new library will house the Wahl collection. Wahl's hat, which he was never without, will be bronzed and added to the collection. Marcus Tooke is finishing a display case and shelving which will feature law enforcement and Southwest Texas.

Dr. and Mrs. Don Carlisle and Mr. and Ms. J.D. Brown will donate a Navajo area rug to the endeavor.

Brown has contacted the reservation and the rug will be a special order.

Dallas County law enforcement officials have donated a plaque in Wahl's memory and it has been placed in the jail. A plaque from Crockett County will be displayed in the foyer.

Entire families came for the event and enjoyed an evening of fellowship and reminiscing along with the fish fry. Wahl's widow, Pat, and Mrs. Billy Mills were on hand to welcome guests. Sheriff Mills and Anne Davidson were showing the display. The front table was seated with law enforcement officers and their families, also honored by the event.

County Judge A.O. Fields spoke briefly, and former Post Commander Bob Bailey gave the invocation.

Texas State Library sets up 7 Sesquicentennial exhibits

In celebration of Texas' 150th birthday, the Texas State Library will present seven special Sesquicentennial exhibits beginning November 1985.

Visitors to the Lorenzo de Zavala State Archives and Library Building in Austin will be able to view priceless manuscripts, original documents, books, photographs, and other historical treasures throughout the celebration. Showcased will be a draft of the 1836 Constitution, diaries and journals of early settlers, plus documents relating to Revolutionary War heroes such as Sam Houston, Ben Milam, and J. W. Fannin.

The exhibits will cover the spectrum of Texas' development since early Spanish exploration and will focus on the laws, people, cities, and events creating today's modern state.

The first display features "Texas Books and Writers: 150 Years" and will spotlight the variety and depth of literature including biographies, fiction, folklore, and history. In conjunction, a statewide campaign will be launched urging each citizen to conduct a personal observance by reading one Texas book per month during 1986. Contributions to local libraries will also be encouraged to augment and expand Texana collections and research materials.

The exhibit schedule for January-February 1986 includes "Legislative Landmarks of Texas," a survey of significant laws which continue to affect daily life. On display will be

James Hearne viewed on national T-V

James R. Hearne, a 1978 graduate of Ozona High School, who is now a U.S. Border Patrol Agent stationed in San Diego, California, received National Viewing on CBS Special Report "Whose America Is It", September 3, when he was interviewed, detaining a large group of Pakistanis, and was asked what he was going to do with them?

His reply was simply, "I don't know, they don't speak English or Spanish." Young Hearne was seen briefly later in the show loading aliens into a service vehicle.

James has been in the Border Patrol for two years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hearne. His father is a Border Patrol agent stationed here.

official copies of legislation, landmark laws, and governors' messages to the House of Representatives and Senate. Both the process and influence of legislation will be highlighted.

Open March-April will be "The Texas Revolution," depicting political and military events of the period through private papers, government records, and printed works.

"The Republic of Texas" during May-June will survey the stormy ten-year period of independence and the achievements during this unique era of American history.

During July-August, "The Governors of Texas" will spotlight the chief executives of Texas, the accomplishments of their administrations, and the role of the executive branch in state government.

Photographs, documents, and publications on view in September-October will trace the development of Texas cities, businesses, and family life in "150 Years of Texas' Growth."

Culminating the Sesquicentennial exhibits will be "Texans in the Wars" during November-December. Maps, diaries, correspondence, and military records will honor the valor of Texas fighting men from the Revolution to the present.

An exhibit summary brochure will accompany each display and list significant dates and a bibliography. In addition, special Sesquicentennial souvenir certificates will be available to document visits to the archives, during 1986.

Visitors will also be able to view items on permanent display, such as copies of the Texas Declaration of Independence, the Travis letter from the Alamo, and various treaties between Texas and other countries. Group tours of the lobby can be arranged by calling (512)475-2445.
