Junior high notes gains

Ozona Junior High is one of 629 Texas schools recognized by the State Board of Education whose students made exceptional scores or high gains on the TEAMS tests.

Nearly twice as many campuses are receiving awards from the State Board for 1987-88 TEAMS performance than received awards for 1986-87 results.

The increase in the number of schools recognized is attributed to more campuses working harder on preparing their students to take the TEAMS tests, Texas Education Agency officials said.

Another reason for the increase is that the Board recognized campuses with six or more students, while last year, only campuses with 25 or more students were recognized.

The Board recognized those schools where 90 percent or more of students mastered all sections of the TEAMS tests taken during the 1987-88 school year and those which recorded gains of 30 percent or more from 1986-87 to 1987-88.

Ozona Junior High students earned an exceptional gain rating by achieving a 65 percent gain overall. A 98 percent mastery of math was recorded compared to 81 the previous year. Reading mastery had improved from 70 percent to 93 percent, and writing was up from 55 percent to 79 percent. The writing mastery still remains one percent behind the state average, Principal Buddy Hooper noted.

Setting goals was the first step to the improvement, Hooper explained. Teachers responded to his challenge by doing superbly, the principal noted. They should all be commended with special pats on the back going to instructors Brenda Pool, Betty Hoover, Lynda Falkner, Glen Graham and substitute Janie Chandler, he said. "The students deserve pats on the back, too," Hooper praised. The youngsters were urged to do their personal best, and they came through.

Having the right kinds of material for the teachers to use in coaching students is partly responsible for the improvement, Hooper said. Materials used here are the same type the administrator used to improve scores while in the Menard school system.

Other area schools recognized for improvement include:

Iraan J.H., high score; Sheffield Elementary, high score; Junction Elementary, exceptional gain; Rankin Middle School, exceptional gain/high score; San Angelo Bowie, McGill and Travis elementaries, high score and San Angelo Fort Concho Elementary, exceptional gain/high score; Sonora Intermediate, exceptional gain.

Reports last week in major newspapers about the Drug Enforcement Administration using the press by giving out misleading reports on arrests should come as no surprise.

Anyone who has ever worked on a small town newspaper, even briefly, can cite instances of being purposely fed misleading information by one governing body or another. Or refused information which should be a matter of public record.

Attempts to use the press rather than dealing in straight-forward seems to be the name of the game. And the practice is not limited to governing bodies or public officials.

Still, I don't believe in reporting rumors.

And sometimes you wonder why there isn't much news in your paper!

Having something people want and advertising it worked well for downtown merchants Saturday. Christmas music, visiting with Santa, door prizes and free Cokes got people out and buying.

Most participating stores report increased traffic and sales.

The shop downtown project, which includes Christmas lights across a section of storefronts, is the brainchild of Carmen Sutton.

Pandale and the challenges of hunting its rough country provided the grist for Ken Grissom's Outdoors column Dec. 1 in the Houston Post.

Chief threat to the eight on the guided hunt turned out to be dog cactus, related Grissom. The hunters did, however, manage to bring down six does and seven bucks in three days.

Among the agenda items for commissioners' court Monday will be a request for a resolution to form an underground water district for Crockett County.

Reagan County is currently resisting annexation of part of the county by the Glasscock County Underground Water District.

Also to be considered on the agenda is the matter of quarters for the county attorney. Space formerly occupied by that office is being used by county agents.

County Judge Kathryn Mayfield has relocated from the top floor of the annex to the old law library in the courthouse.

Stockman to publish Santa letters

Letters to Santa will be published in the Dec. 21 issue of The Stockman. To be included, letters should arrive at the Stockman office no later than Dec. 15 so they can be typed and then forwarded to Santa at the North Pole.

Individuals or school classes are encouraged to bring their letters by the office or mail them to Santa Claus, c/o The Ozona Stockman, Box 370, Ozona, TX 76943.

Ozona shopping successful

Ozona shoppers were treated to music, free Cokes, door prizes and visits with Santa in downtown stores Saturday. The special shop at home promotion was well attended according to merchants along Ave. E.

Businesses planning to continue Saturday drawings until Christmas are J. W. Motor Parts, Westerman Drug, Brown Furniture and Baker Jewelers.

Carolyn Harris was the winner of a comforter and pillow set at Small Fashions Saturday. Kimberly Borrego's name was drawn to receive a ham from Bryan Poco Taco.

J. W. Motor Parts gave six door prizes and tended the Coca Cola booth all day. Winners were: Jesus Borrego, shock kit; Stephen Williams and Alton Davis, oil change kits; Don Morris, floor mats; John Tebbetts and Arturo Gonzales Jr., tune-up kits.

Use of the Coca Cola booth and the beverage were donated by Coca Cola Bottling Company of San Angelo.

Baker Jewelers' door prize was a ladies' watch won by Lilly Lujan.

The punch bowl from Westerman Drug went to Barbara Wallace. Romelia Fierro was winner of a tape recorder from Bill's TV and Appliance.

Ruth Helen Cervantez won a year of free HBO from Circle Bar Cable TV. The door prize from Brown Furniture, a $25 gift certificate, went to Brenda Taylor of Sonora.

Cottage Collection's door prize, a set of four mugs, was won by Susie Harrison.

Receiving a world globe from Happy Hollow was Diana Ramirez. Crockett Automotive gave a socket set as door prize. Winner was Ozona Butane.

Isabel Molina won $25 in merchandise from The Ozona Stockman.

Antiques Etc. and Discount Furniture gave a bottle of cologne won by Teresa Deaton.

Margaret Miller was the winner of a deer alert given by Ed Collett Gun Shop.

Anna Smith received the Christmas necklace given by Watson's Department Store.

Western Auto awarded two door prizes, a Walkman stereo to Mikki Ramirez, and a giant bucket of popcorn to Lupe Maskill.

The shampoo, cut and perm given by Better Trims was won by Emily Cervantez.

BB tournament set this weekend

Tradition continues this week with the opening of the 58th Annual Ozona Basketball Tournament Dec. 8. The three day event begins at 5:30 Thursday when the Coahoma and Reagan County boys meet.

Ozona girls will play Colorado City at 7 p.m. and the Ozona boys open tournament play at 8:30 against Junction.

Games start again at 10 a.m. Friday.

Championship play is set for 8:30 p.m. Saturday night for the boys and 7 p.m. for the girls.

Visiting teams in the boys' bracket are: Junction, Clyde, Crane, Coahoma, Reagan County, Brownfield and Dell City.

Girls' teams include: Colorado City, Clyde, Junction, Coahoma, Fort Hancock, Crane and Dell City. See bracket elsewhere this issue.

Hildebrand to make Ozona visit

Harvey Hildebrand, newly elected state representative for this district, will be in Ozona Tuesday, Dec. 13, to meet people and let them voice their concerns.

Everyone is invited to stop by the Emerald Room at Ozona National Bank to meet Hildebrand between 3:30 and 5 p.m.

Museum to offer Christmas tour

Sunday afternoon's Christmas Home Tour sponsored by Crockett County Museum will feature four homes and Emerald House. The homes of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Childress, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Clayton, Mrs. Zelma Johnigan and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Probst will be open from two until five p.m.

Tickets for the event are on sale at the museum for $5.00. The homes on the self-guided tour may be visited in any order. Guests are asked to make Emerald House their final stop so that they may enjoy refreshments served there.

The Childress home at 1 Country Club Road was built of native stone. The house has three bedrooms and two baths upstairs. Built after their marriage in 1973, the home was remodeled in 1981, doubling its space by adding a downstairs master bedroom, an office, an enlarged living room and a remodeled kitchen.

The furnishings are a delightful mixture of contemporary and antique.

Mark, their seven-year-old son, enjoys and entertains many friends with his swimming pool, tree house, fort and swings in his backyard.

When Boyd and Vivian Clayton moved to Ozona from Fort Stockton in 1935, their home was a one story wood frame house at 101 11th Street.

In 1947 they tore down the old house and built a two-story, 12 room brick home with a guest house. This is the home where Mike and Arlene Clayton now live.

The house contains nearly all the lumber from the old house that was built in the 1920's.

County records show that from April 1885 to April 1988, the land at 508 Terrace where Mrs. Zelma Johnigan's home is located changed owners 41 times. An early grant from the State of Texas deeded it to B. F. Brannan.

In 1976 the late Chester Kenley bought the property and gave it to his son, Steve, who built the house.

Dan Pullen was the next owner and sold it in April 1988 to Mrs. J. W. Johnigan.

She is delighted with this lovely pink brick, eight-room house and its many storage facilities.

The spacious rooms compliment her fine Early American maple furnishings.

In the summer of 1985, Crockett

County Consolidated Independent School District purchased three homes to be occupied by long term school personnel.

Jack and Judy Probst, high school counselor and third grade teacher respectively, live in one of these homes. They are located at 106 Ave. G.

The Probst home is filled with collectibles and family antiques - southwest or country flavored.

Being an artist herself, the walls are full of Judy's own crafts and art work.

Some of the oldest pieces in the home go back generations to grandparents who came from the Isle of Gernsey to America.

The Probst's daughter, Jennifer, is a student at Sul Ross State University in Alpine.

Pecos River group to meet

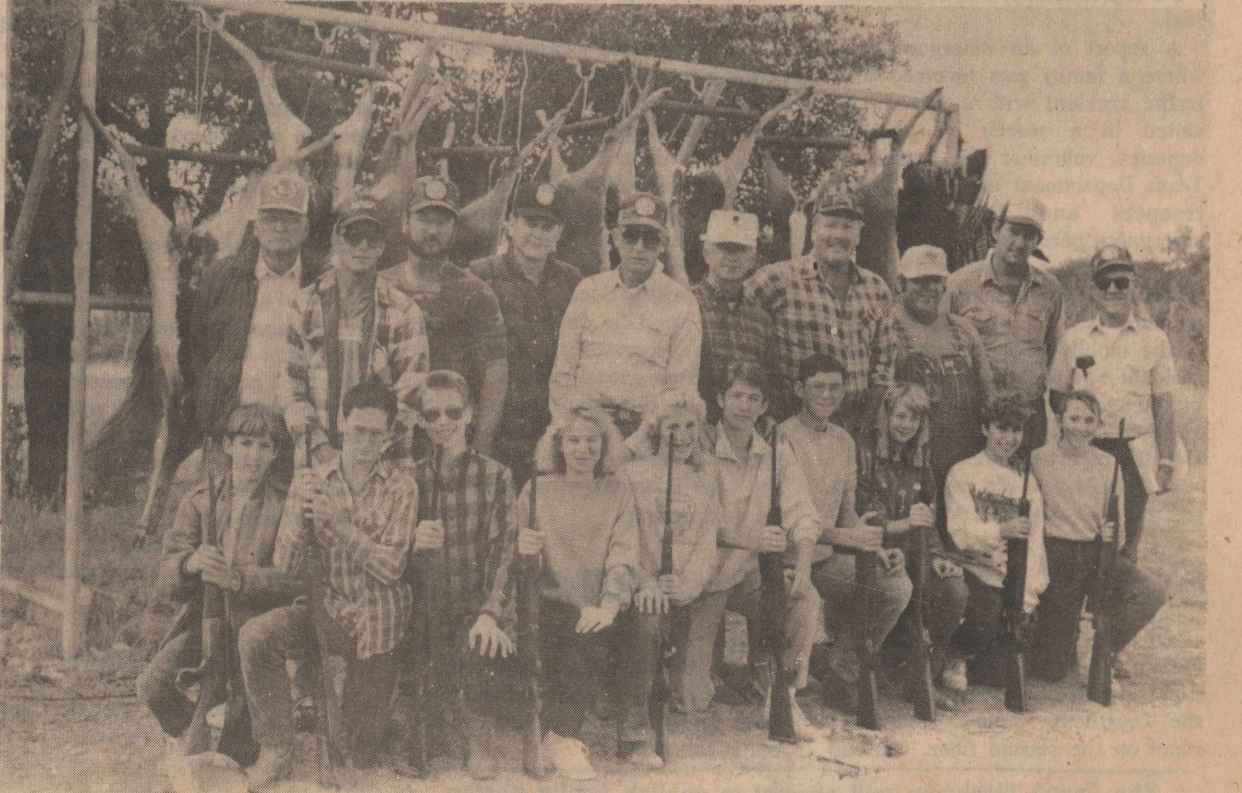

Area residents will have opportunity to attend a meeting focused on clean-up of the Pecos River Dec. 13 at the Civic Center. The meeting relates to water quality and prevention of future fish kills on the river.

The Texas Water Commission will be directing the meeting along with the Texas Railroad Commission and the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. These agencies are working together to find out what is causing the decrease in the quality of the water in the Pecos River and the death of wildlife that lives on the river.

According to State Senator Bill Sims, the goal of the agencies is to create a voluntary river watch program with local citizens and landowners. The agencies will be presenting educational materials, collecting information and answering questions at meetings scheduled in Ozona, Del Rio, Pecos and Iraan.

Sen. Sims' staff will be attending all of these meetings along with state representatives from the districts on the Pecos River. The Ozona meeting will begin at 7 p.m.

CITATION

TO: C. D. HUMMEL AND MOLLIE HUMMEL MARKWOOD, AND THEIR UNKNOWN HEIRS, SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS, DEFENDANTS.

GREETINGS:
 BERGER & LOGAN OIL CORPORATION did, on the 10th day of November, 1988, file in the District Court of Crockett County, Texas, in Cause No. 5136 on the civil docket of the 112th Judicial District Court of Crockett County, Texas, in which BERGER & LOGAN OIL CORPORATION and C. D. HUMMEL and MOLLIE HUMMEL MARKWOOD AND THEIR UNKNOWN HEIRS, SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS, are the Defendants, and has requested that an appointment of a Receiver be made by the Court to take charge of the outstanding mineral interests of such Defendant in the lands described in the Plaintiff's Original Petition, with full power and authority to execute, acknowledge and deliver an oil and gas lease covering the Defendants' undivided mineral interests therein, and for the lease to contain such terms and provisions as the Receiver may deem proper, subject to the approval of this Court.

The Honorable M. Brock Jones, Jr., Judge of said Court, has entered an Order Setting Hearing on such request for the appointment of a Receiver. Such hearing has been scheduled before the Court at Ozona, Crockett County, Texas, on the 17th day of February, 1988, at 10 o'clock, a.m.

Therefore, you are required to appear at the time and place above stated, and answer said Petition, showing cause, if any you can, why the same should not be granted.

GIVEN UNDER MY HAND AND SEAL OF SAID COURT and issued at office in the County Courthouse of Crockett County, Texas, in Ozona, Texas, this 29th day of November, 1988.

Sheriff's Report

A prank call resulted in the arrest of an area man Saturday. Charged with making a false report, which is a third degree felony, was Pepe Villarreal.

A report of an emergency call where a family was involved in a traffic accident with a fatality resulted in a search by sheriff's deputies, volunteer fire personnel, Texas Department of Public Safety troopers and Pecos County emergency personnel.

A plane was also used in the search, and an ambulance crew put on standby.

The mobile phone report of the accident was first picked up shortly before four p.m. Saturday.

Other items included in the sheriff's report include:

12-4 A 24-year-old male was apprehended by sheriff's deputies after a complaint from a local motel. The suspect turned out to be wanted by authorities in Arkansas. The person was picked up by Arkansas authorities on 12-6.

12-1 The sheriff's department received a report from a local motel of a theft that occurred over a period of time. The department is investigating the offense.

12-1 The sheriff's office is looking into a criminal mischief reported by a local motel. There are a few suspects, and the case is pending further investigation.

12-5 Sheriff's department received a report of a cruelty to animals from a local resident.

12-6 A local resident reported that her home had been broken into sometime during the evening hours. The case is under investigation by the department.

Social security to change site

Effective in December, the Ozona meeting place for the Social Security representative has been changed to the courthouse annex conference room on the second floor. Garland Gregg will be in Ozona Wednesday, Dec. 21, between 2 and 3:30 p.m. Anyone who wants information about Social Security should contact him at this time.

Christmas bells were strung in Monday morning's craft class by Juana Hernandez, Consuelo Sarabia and Moriana Perez. With big red bows and holly, the bells are sure to make any room come alive with the holiday spirit.

Joan Nicholas gave a fine presentation, complete with snapshots of her home town, posters, souvenirs, and magazines featuring the British Isles during It's A Small World Monday afternoon. Hot tea and scones were served. An informative question and answer period followed. We would like to thank Joan for an enjoyable afternoon.

Tuesday's bingo was assisted by volunteers Sophie Kyle and Georgia Kirby. Thank you, ladies, we appreciate the time you share with us. Prize winners were: Juana Hernandez, Alice Ross, Theo Burns, Moriana Perez, Santos Martinez, Elvira Pena and Bertha Miller.

An educational and scenic video on the British Isles was shown Tuesday afternoon. The residents were impressed. Thank you, Joan Nicholas, for sharing it with us.

The following residents were busy finishing up old projects so they could get started on Christmas pieces in Wednesday morning's ceramic workshop: Theo Burns, Hazel McDaniel, Moriana Perez, Juana Hernandez and Consuelo Sarabia. We would like to thank friendly and helpful volunteers Ruth Hester and Ruthie Doris for keeping things moving along smoothly.

Charles Huffman of Faith Lutheran Church presented a short Bible lesson Wednesday afternoon. Several visitors attended. Ruby Olson played the piano while visitors and residents sang hymns.

Beauty shop volunteers Vivian Hughes, Joann Williamson, Audrey Smith, Jody Miller, and Martha Tijerina put their best foot forward in Thursday morning's beauty shop and turned out some stunning hair styles. Thank you, ladies, you always brighten our day.

Jim Gray of First Baptist Church conducted this week's midweek Bible study. David McCarley led the singing. We would like to thank both gentlemen for dropping by. A short visitation followed.

As usual, a large number of visitors attended the Spanish Hour of Praise Thursday afternoon immediately following the midweek Bible study. Hymns were sung in Spanish, and a short visitation followed.

Friday's bingo winners were: Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos, Theo Burns, Minnie Karr, Santos Martinez and Carmen Mendez. Theo, Juana and Santos won two games each. Popcorn was served.

Friday afternoon was set aside for Christmas card addressing.

Sunday's worship service was conducted by Ken Harrison of Ozona United Methodist Church. Communion was offered, and a short visitation followed.

Christmas comes to Ozona library

Christmas came early to Crockett County Public Library this week. Ceramic Santas decorate the sitting room courtesy of artist of the month Donna Beth Davidson.

Most of her Santas are the antique type, explains Mrs. Davidson. Among those on the mantel are a monk Santa and a frontier Santa.

The beautifully detailed Christmas pieces take from two to three weeks to finish depending on their complexity, said Mrs. Davidson. She spends approximately four hours a day, five days a week creating these works of art at Ann Shaw's ceramic studio.

Also on exhibit at the library is a collection of ceramic dolls Mrs. Davidson has made for great-granddaughter Kimber.

She has also done a variety of items since beginning ceramics three years ago. Most of the work is given to family members, said daughter Anne.

Mrs. Davidson has made large pitchers depicting the four seasons for her children Becky, Anne, Barbara and Tom. Granddaughters will also receive these treasures.

The talented Mrs. Davidson has always been involved in crafts. "I like to go to shows and see what others are doing," she said.

Donna Beth Davidson is artist of the month for December at Crockett County Public Library. A collection of ceramic Santas made by Mrs. Davidson decorate the library mantel.

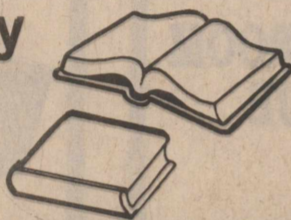

Copper enameling, needlepoint and sewing are some of her own specialties.

But for now, the intricacies of applying red and gold paints (both exceedingly difficult to work with) to Christmas ceramics occupies much of her time.

Library hours are 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday, Tuesday and Friday and from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday.

Advent Watch

by Ken Harrison
 First United Methodist Church

Advent is the period of time which begins four Sundays prior to Christmas and concludes with the remembrance of the birth of Jesus on Christmas day. It is a time of waiting and watching and of living in joyful expectation and anticipation. Advent provides a time of renewal and of preparation for the birth of the living Christ into the human heart. But Advent is also a time in which we may discover our fundamental disconnection with the God of our hope. For what do we wait and watch during this time of the year?

"The Long Search" is the title of a BBC-TV series on the religions of the world. Ron Eyre, the narrator of the series, traveled around the world interviewing leaders in the major religions and observing their rituals and religious practices. He probed to find how each group searched for the divine. Eyre also questioned lay people about how their faith affected their lives. He talked with Buddhists, Muslims, Hindus, Jews, and practitioners of some of the primitive religious faiths, as well as Christians.

In the final show of the series Eyre dealt with several questions that had recurred during his travels. One of these questions was, "Aren't all these religions saying the same thing?" His answer was to compare the religious search to climbing a mountain and the various religions to different mountain-climbing kits with different sets of equipment.

This is a familiar analogy and holds some truth, but the thing that separates the Christian faith from the others is that while most of the others are passive, the core of the Christian faith is an active anticipation of the divine. Advent, which begins the Christian year, is a reminder to the believer that God has come into our world through the Christ child, and a reminder, also, that we continue to be on the alert for His appearance. God has come to us and keeps coming. We are not on an endless and perhaps fruitless search. We are actively watching for the appearances of God in our world and in our individual lives.

According to a fable said to have come from Denmark, a spider once slid down a single filament of web from the lofty rafters of a barn and established himself upon a lower level. There he spread his web, caught flies, grew sleek and prospered. One day, wandering about his premises, he saw the thread that stretched up into the unseen above him. Having forgotten and now wondering why the single thread existed, he broke it, collapsing his whole web.

Much of our spiritual history is condensed into that fable. This is where we need to be ever watchful. Unless we can keep our Christmas materialism and hedonism from breaking our connections with the Unseen above us, some more of our spiritual history will prove the fable true. We watch for the Christ of Christmas, not for Santa Claus.

Charles Schultz captures the essence of our human separation from God in a little story about Charlie Brown and a little red-headed girl. Charlie Brown wants in the worst way to be friends with a little red-headed girl. In the language of the psalmist his heart seeks her face. At lunch time he wants to go and sit by her and share his lunch with her. But he is shy, and he does not know how to initiate friendship. Charlie does not know what to do or what to say. So he sits on his bench alone, so unhappy that the peanut butter from his sandwich sticks to the roof of his mouth. The only way the situation can be improved is for the little red-headed girl to come to Charlie Brown. If she were to come to him, to ask if she could share her lunch with him, and then to say she would like to be friends, what joy that would bring to the heart of Charlie Brown.

"Our hearts are restless, O God, until they find rest in you," said St. Augustine. The good news of Advent is that in our restlessness and heed and waiting we do not have to despair. In Jesus Christ, God has come to us. Now we no longer wait; we watch for the ways he continually comes to us.

Foreign citizens can obtain SS numbers

"A Social Security number to be used to obtain employment may be issued to a citizen of a foreign country only if he or she has been legally admitted to the United States or has been authorized to work by the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS)," Franklin H. Upp, Social Security manager in San Angelo, said recently.

"A citizen of a foreign country who has been lawfully admitted may obtain a Social Security number for a valid reason other than for work," Upp said.

The card will indicate that the number cannot be used to obtain employment. In addition, the person's Social Security record will be marked so that if the number is, in fact, used to obtain employment, the INS will be notified.

More information about Social Security numbers can be obtained by calling the San Angelo Social Security Office. The telephone number is 949-4608.

(Austin, Tx.) - Christmas and Hanukkah just wouldn't be the same without toys for the children. But each year many children are injured by cute, seemingly harmless playthings meant for their joy and entertainment. Texas Safety Association offers the following safety guidelines to help you make the smart choices during your holiday season buying.

- When selecting toys for babies or toddlers, choose those made of washable, flexible materials. Toys constructed of glass, brittle plastic, or other hard materials should be avoided.

- Toys should not be small enough to fit in mouths, ears, or noses.

- Avoid toys with cords or strings that could wrap around a child's neck.

- Select brightly colored toys that are light enough not to cause injury if dropped on the child. Mobiles, squishy stuffed dolls, or squeeze toys make good choices.

- Avoid toys with sharp edges, small detachable parts, or electrical or toxic components.

- Check stuffed toys for internal wires, or small pieces such as eyes that might be pulled off and swallowed.

- Purchasing toys for older children require a safe approach, as well.

- Be sure that playthings are well-constructed and strong enough to withstand hard use.

- If you purchase electrical toys, make sure that they bear the Underwriters Laboratories (UL) label. You can eliminate shock and cord hazards by buying battery-operated toys, instead.

- Avoid toys that have heating elements.

- If used with the chemicals provided in the set, chemistry sets are generally a safe buy.

- Avoid toys that shoot a projectile, such as arrows, rubber-tipped darts, disks, or other hard materials that could injure an eye.

After all the gifts have been opened and the wrapping thrown away, show your children the safe way to play with their new toys, and how to store them when they are finished. Remind older children to keep their toys out of reach of smaller children, and if a broken toy can't be fixed, throw it away.

Stress supplements truth revealed

Stress is a "hot-button" word these days, especially for women who are trying to juggle multiple roles as wives, mothers, employees, community leaders, athletes or students.

Some manufacturers of supplements would like us to believe that a pill is the answer to stress. Stress tablets are based on a formula originally developed for post-operative patients and victims of severe trauma.

While the acute stress of surgical procedures or injuries can increase energy and nutrient needs, psychological stresses such as fear, anger and tension fall into the category of normal stresses of daily living and do not substantially increase nutrient needs.

Supplement marketers try to convince the public that the RDA for some nutrients is not adequate to cope with day-to-day stress. The adrenal glands are involved in the stress reaction, they say, and because the adrenal glands have high amounts of Vitamin C, stress requires supplements of this vitamin. Clinical studies at this time do not support this claim.

Individuals under stress need supplementary B vitamins, say supplement manufacturers. Vitamin B-6 (pyridoxine) is included in stress formulas because it is thought to raise serotonin levels, thus improving mood. Recent research shows neurologic damage in women who take high doses of B-6 for months, typically for the treatment of PMS.

There is evidence to support increasing potassium intake during stress, but nutrition experts recommend doing this by eating more fruits and vegetables and drinking fruit juices.

So what can you do when you're experiencing day-to-day stress? Try taking these steps:

-Eat regular meals in small amounts, since stress can slow the digestive process.

-Increase the amount of fruits and vegetables in the diet.

-Eat high quality protein foods to protect against muscle breakdown.

-Drink plenty of fluids.

-Exercise to reduce anxiety and to feel a sense of control.

-Use relaxation techniques to counteract tension.

-Enjoy comforting foods like baked custard or chicken soup in moderation. Individual comfort foods are more likely to relieve stress than a pill!

For more information relating to your diet and health, contact the Crockett County Extension Office. We're located on the second floor of the Courthouse Annex, or you can call 392-2721.

Educational programs and information provided by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service are open to everyone, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin, or handicap.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Linda,
I suppose everyone has a "cause" these days, and mine is the self-esteem of our children. I grew up in a home where verbal abuse was a constant thing. I have painfully worked through the results of this unfortunate situation and remind myself daily to try to be a more positive parent.

I wonder if we realize how much our attitudes affect each other? There is parent-child, teacher-child, co-worker-co-worker, child-child, and the list goes on to include everyone we come in contact with every single day!

A friend of mine is taking a psychology class and shared these two examples of her studies with me. Will you please print them (especially the IALAC)?

By the way, we really enjoy the paper every week, appreciate all the X-TRA that you and Scotty do around the community, and of course, I hope your "Sign" stays strong.

Thanks,
Lisa Branch

IALAC

The IALAC story is based on the idea that every child feels lovable and capable until the people of significance in his life treat him in ways which make him feel less than lovable or capable. As each incident that makes the child in the story feel less than loving or capable occurs, a piece of the sign with the letters, IALAC on it is torn off until only a small piece is left. Think of the child who gets up in the morning with a big IALAC sign showing right straight across his chest. His first experience is his father's voice saying:

"Get out of bed, lazy bones, or you'll never amount to anything." He goes on to say, "Why can't you make good grades in school like your sister does?" The boy gets out of bed, comes downstairs and says to his mother, "What's for breakfast, Mother?" "Eat what I put in front of you and don't ask questions," is the reply. Still feeling pretty good about himself, he walks out the door and down to the bus stop. As usual, a group of children is gathered together waiting for the bus. One of the boys walks up behind him and bangs the books out of his hands. His homework goes flying across the street. He gets to school and the first thing his teacher says is, "This morning we are going to have a spelling test, boys and girls." Our hero feels pretty good about the spelling test because he studied the words very carefully the night before. On the first word the pencil lead breaks. He turns to the little girl sitting next to him and says, "May I borrow one of your pencils?" She turns to him and says, "Bring your own pencils to school. I am not sharing mine with anybody." Later on the girls line up to go out for recess. As usual, there is a certain amount of confusion, and the teacher's voice comes ringing through the class. "I like the way the girls line up."

The children get outside and are all gathered together on the playing field. Two boys have been selected to choose sides for a kick-ball game. Our hero again is right in there saying, "Choose me, choose me." And when they get down to the last, person, the captain of one team turns to him and says, "Oh, you take him, I don't want him, he can't kick very well, besides he can't catch very well either." Still surviving, our hero goes into the cafeteria carefully carrying his tray of food down the center aisle. Something happens, and his tray falls out of his hands. No one helps. Instead, the children turn toward him and laugh. Later in the day, Johnny gets home. He walks in the door and says, "Hey, Mom, how about some milk and cookies?" But Mom is nowhere around. She is playing bridge with the neighbors. He turns to his last source of refuge, the television set. Finally he gets his favorite program tuned in just in time to have his bigger brother walk in and change the station. Still later that evening while everyone is sitting around the table eating supper, carrying on a parallel conversation, our hero tries to get a word in to talk about his school experiences, to talk about his feelings. But still there is no one to listen. By the time he is ready for bed the only thing remaining of his IALAC sign is a tiny piece just about big enough to cover the gravy stain on his pajamas. Yet the next morning he wakes up with a new sign and a similar set of things happen.

Some examples of things that tear a child's sign are dad's expectations, comparisons between our hero and his sister, mother's lack of communication, lack of understanding of his needs, his experience at the bus stop on the way to school, teachers who turn children off, students who are inconsiderate of the needs of others in their own desperate struggle to make themselves feel good, and yes, more homes with latch key children. It is possible to reverse this trend if we can start a program where teachers consider the feelings of boys and girls. We can begin a program to help children feel lovable and capable.

At English Manor Elementary School each teacher started out the school year with an IALAC bulletin board. The bulletin board was set up in various ways. A third grade teacher had the bulletin board set up in the form of a jigsaw puzzle. She gave each of the children an IALAC sign and then cut the sign apart. The sign was then given to other girls and boys in the classroom. As one third grade child observed, "Gee, it's easy to cut it apart, but it's really hard to get it back together again." The sixth grade teachers played the IALAC story. At first the boys and girls really started out giggling and laughing and having a good time about it. Then one of the boys observed, "Hey, those things are too close to home, they really happen." By the time the teachers had finished the role play the whole classroom, 120 students, were so quiet one could hear a pin drop in the room. The sixth grade students were so enthusiastic about the idea of people being lovable and capable that they arranged several role plays themselves and took their plays to the lower grades. In the second grade, I told the IALAC story. For the next two mornings I went into the classroom and asked the boys and girls, "How's your IALAC?" The children responded, "It's fine, Mr. Davis." The third morning as I walked into the classroom, one little boy jumped up before I had a chance to ask, how's your IALAC and said, "Mr. Davis, my sign got torn this morning." "Tell me about it," I said. "Well, this morning I was kind of slow getting up. As I came downstairs, my mother really screamed at me." "What happened then," I said. "I told my mother that she tore my sign," the little boy said. "And then what happened," I asked. "My mother looked kind of surprised and then she said, 'I'm sorry.' And then you know what happened? My sign went all back together again." I use these examples to illustrate the idea that we can start new programs in schools that do have carry over into the community. It's not uncommon to hear boys and girls on the playground saying to another child, "Hey, you really tore my sign." The response from parents has been very good also. Parents have gotten the idea that dealing with children's feelings is an important part of everyday living. Many parents have adopted the idea with their children and say, "You're tearing my sign, child." Children need to know that parents have feelings also.

Freshmen continue search for win

STOCKMAN SPORTS
by Copie Davis

The Ozona Freshman Lions are still in search of their first win of 1988-89. After dropping their debut to Reagan County, they have lost twice more - once to Sonora 49-30 and two days ago to Iraan 30-33.

Monday, Nov. 29, Ozona's freshmen took on the Sonora Broncos. For all practical purposes, this year's 1-10 bragging rights were decided in the second quarter.

In the opening period, the Lions trailed by a mere two points, 10-8. However, in the second quarter, Sonora blew the game wide open. The Broncos burned the bucket for 17 points while Ozona found themselves struggling, scoring only seven points.

At the half, the Lions found themselves stuck in a 15 point hole, 27-15.

In the third quarter, Ozona finally found some offense. By outscoring Sonora 11-8, they were in a position to climb back into the game. However, 35-26 was as close as the game would ever get. In the final quarter, Sonora exploded for 14 points while the Lions could only manage four.

When the smoke cleared, the Broncos had manhandled Ozona 49-30.

The Lions' leading scorer on the night was Adam Alba who fired in 14 points, grabbed five rebounds and also handed out three assists. Also in double figures was Mark Ramirez with 10 points. Ramirez also had four rebounds and two assists.

In the Lions' game last Monday against Iraan, they blew a halftime lead and were overcome 38-33.

In the first quarter, the Lions hit for 12 points and held 12 points and held the Braves to nine.

Ozona increased its lead in the second quarter by four points, outscoring Iraan eight to four.

At the intermission, Ozona led a bit less than comfortably, 20-13. However, that lead turned shaky pretty quickly.

In the third quarter, Iraan cranked out 15 points while holding the Lions to only five. This change of momentum gave Iraan a much needed lift and a three-point lead.

Trailing by three going into the final quarter, the Lions could not find the offensive punch that fueled their first half advantage. They scored only eight points and gave up 10, therefore putting the final nail in their own coffin. The final score read Iraan 38, Ozona 33.

In a losing effort, Ramirez and Alba once again found themselves at the top of the scorebook. Ramirez pumped in 13 points, while Alba added 11. Also, Mike Ledoux came through with six points.

Although the Freshmen Lions are winless, Coach Jerry Tucker stresses that with each game, their team play and unity improves. "In these last couple of games, we've played better as a team. Before, we didn't have that."

The freshmen will see action Dec. 16 in the Crane tournament.

which marked the first time during this season that Ozona has faced a 2A conference team. The Lions passed this test in flying colors, pummeling the Braves 48-31.

Ozona jumped out to a quick lead during the first quarter, scoring 13 points while holding Iraan to only eight. Although they were ahead, the Lions refused to relax.

In the second quarter, the home team continued to dominate, reeling off 17 points compared to Iraan's measly sum of nine. At the half, Ozona led by a comfortable 13 point margin, 30-17.

After intermission, the Braves attempted to get back in the game by slowing the pace to a near standstill. Although scoring was low, Ozona still came out on top and outscored the Braves nine to four. With one quarter to play, the Lions led 39-21.

In the final quarter, the Lions pulled out their big guns, and, in the shuffle, Iraan finally was able to reduce the margin of defeat...albeit one point. The Braves scored 10 points while Ozona scored nine, but when time ran out, the Lions had won easily, 48-31.

Michael Ybarra led all scorers, pouring in 16 points and banging the boards for five rebounds.

One point away from double figures was Danny DeHoyos with nine points. DeHoyos also grabbed three boards.

Following DeHoyos was Ruben Borrego who had six points, six rebounds and dished off three assists.

Ozona's telephone man on the night was Shane Pridemore who hit from long distance twice -- one two-pointer and one from three-point land -- for five points.

Lady Lions mix up season

STOCKMAN SPORTS
by T. C. Tucker

Keying on Stacy Lay's 16 points and eight rebounds, the Ozona Lady Lions picked up their second victory Tuesday, Nov. 29, beating Iraan 35-28.

Gaining control of the lead in the first half, the Ladies continually stayed out front by three points or more through the rest of the game.

"We played well," Coach Frank Hughey said.

Other individual contributions to the team effort included Kristina Martinez' six rebounds and Stacie Winkley's three assists.

Last Thursday and Friday saw the Lady Lions involved in Big Lake tournament action, opening against Greenwood.

"We again played well; they just pulled out a little by each quarter," Coach Hughey said.

Greenwood, ranked tenth in the state as a Class 3A team, beat Ozona 57-37 and eventually finished second in the tournament.

Lay and Kriss Corley's scoring efforts produced nine and eight points respectively. Lay and Martinez pulled down six rebounds each.

Friday, the Ladies returned to Big Lake to face Pecos, coming up short once more, 39-50.

"We played poorly," Hughey said. "They (Pecos) tended to be undisciplined, and we played the same."

Lay again topped scoring and rebounding, having 18 points and nine rebounds. Adriane Wilson scored 10 points.

This Thursday, the Lady Lions open their play in the 58th Ozona tournament with a 7 p.m. game against Colorado City.

"I know little about Colorado City," Hughey said. "Overall, I figure it to be a tough girls' tournament."

Also in Ozona's half of the bracket are Clyde and Junction. Coahoma, Fort Hancock, Crane and Del City round out the other half.

On Tuesday, Dec. 13, the Lady Lions head to Junction for games there.

OJHS students zapped

A new program at Ozona Junior High School is achieving strong results during the short time it has been in place.

ZAP, Zeros Aren't Permitted, has been instrumental in changing the failure rate for this year's 8th grade class to 11 percent. The class had a 28 percent failure rate as 7th graders, said Principal Buddy Hooper.

"The students are really responding. They want their school to look good," said Hooper.

Michael Glaze, a second year student at Sul Ross State University, was just back from a trip to Mexico when he visited in Ozona during Thanksgiving. The SRSU marching band and jazz band had been to Chihuahua City as guests of the government to play at the Governor's Palace.

The trip included participation in a lengthy parade, a tour of the university campus and the city.

Lions fail to pick up victory

STOCKMAN SPORTS
by T. C. Tucker

The Lions came close last week but could not pull together all the pieces to secure their first victory of the year. Ozona hosted the Iraan Braves Tuesday, Nov. 29. In the first quarter, Iraan jumped out to a 16-6 lead, but the Lions fought back, trailing by only five, 19-24, at halftime.

Chris Denman attempts a shot against a tough Iraan defense in hoop action last Tuesday. Lalo Rodriguez [32] and Oscar Galindo [24] are ready to snare a tip-off in the hard fought 57-49 loss to the Braves.

Iraan held on though, maintaining that 5-point margin into the fourth quarter, finally closing out the game 57-49.

George Ybarra and Oscar Galindo scored 14 points each for the game while Chris Denman claimed five rebounds.

The Lions opened their action in the Sonora tournament against Eldorado.

The two teams traded the lead throughout the game with Ozona possessing a 6-point lead going into the fourth quarter; however, when the clock ticked out, both teams held the same score, forcing an overtime.

In the additional three minutes, each team surged to take and keep the lead. When time expired, Ozona and Eldorado were tied once again.

The second overtime period saw Eldorado edging away, though by mere points. Still, the thin margin proved enough to give them a 73-69 win over the Lions.

Wall eliminated the Lions from the tournament in the following game. After playing neck-and-neck for most of the game, Wall broke away long enough to establish their 64-58 win. Lalo Rodriguez and Denman each had 16 points during the game.

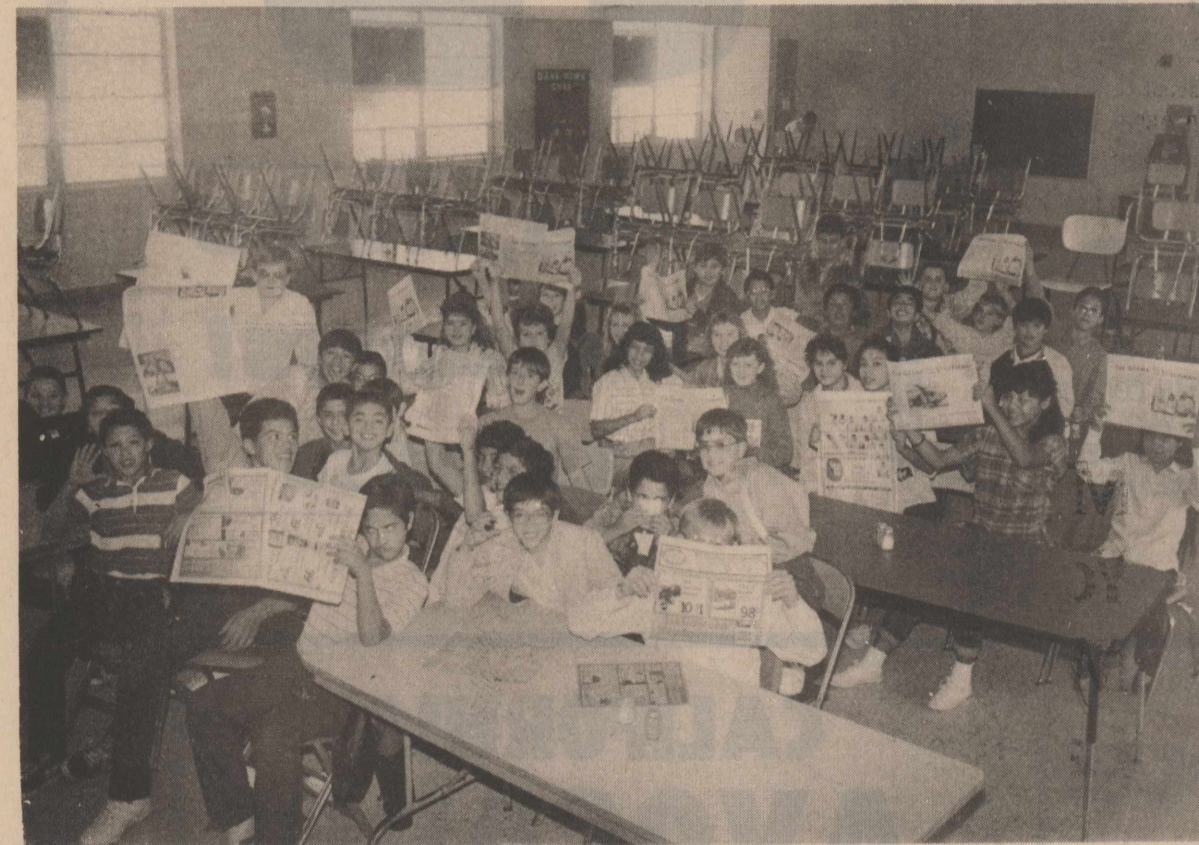

Thursday sees the Lions playing against Junction for their first round of the 58th Ozona Tournament. The game will be held at 8:30 p.m.

Then, next Tuesday, the boys head for Odessa for games with Odessa High.

Happy Birthday!

Firemen answer calls

A fire of unknown origin damaged a home at 201 Couch Street Nov. 26. The 1 a.m. fire was confined to the living room, but heat and smoke damage resulted in the rest of the house.

The property belongs to Hector De La Garza.

Firemen responded to four recent grass fires, all of which were confined to small areas. An unintended hunting camp fire burned about one-half acre on the George Bunker Ranch on Powell Field Road the afternoon of Nov. 26.

Two days later, a small grass fire burned one acre in the old housing area of the El Paso gas plant on U.S. Hwy. 190 north of Ozona.

An area in the right-of-way at Pandale Road and I-10 drew a quick response from firemen Dec. 1 at 12:23 p.m.

Volunteers responded to a car fire in the Texaco #1 parking area Dec. 1 at 4:56 p.m. A vehicle belonging to Tommy Wooton of Rankin caught fire under the hood.

A WTU transformer caused a small fire in the Country Club Estates are early on Dec. 2.

Three responses in early December were to scenes where no fire was found. A smoke report in the attic of the Community Center proved to be a furnace motor. A suspected fire on the Childress Ranch north of Ozona Dec. 1 was checked out and found to be smoke blowing from the east dump area.

A Dec. 3 fire near the Texaco gas plant south of Ozona on Hwy. 163 was out when firemen reached the tank. Volunteers used their trucks to cool down the tank.

Ozona volunteers have responded to 205 fires in 1988 through Dec. 3.

Michael Miller had as guests during the Thanksgiving week end at the J. B. Miller ranch, Dub Whittenburg and Ron John David from Waco, and his two sons, Miles Miller from A&M and Matthew Miller and his roommate from ACU in Abilene.

The Child Welfare Board of Crockett County is sponsoring its annual toy drive.

Please bring your new and/or usable unwrapped toy donations to the fire station. We need gift items for all ages. Donations of wrapping paper would also be appreciated.

Herring, Vannoy top winners at district

Lisa Herring and Whitney Vannoy walked away with top honors in their divisions at the District VI 4-H Food Show in Fort Stockton on Saturday.

Herring placed first in the Junior II Fruit and Vegetable category, while Vannoy placed first in the Junior II Snacks and Desserts category.

Other Crockett County winners, who all brought home third-place awards in their respective categories, were Tamie Reagor, Senior Snacks and Desserts; Julie Childress, Senior Breads and Cereals; and Leesa Haire, Junior II Main Dish.

According to County Extension Agent-Home Economics Tedra Ulmer, the ribbon placings are given according to each contestant's score, with one-third of the contestants in each division being awarded blue ribbons, one-third red and one-third white. "This means that if you have nine people in your category and win fourth place, you still receive a red ribbon," the agent noted. "All of Crockett County's contestants had scores of 97 or above in their categories, so we're very pleased with their efforts. They're all winners!"

Ulmer noted the amount of time the 4-H'ers spent in preparing for the contest. "It's not just a cooking show, although they do spend time perfecting their dishes. They must answer questions related to nutrition, such as what key nutrients are found in their dish and what these nutrients do for your body."

Each contestant is judged on nutrition knowledge, their dish, communications skills, a menu which includes their dish, and the experiences they have had in the project. "One of the best things about this contest is that the 4-H'ers learn to think on their feet and communicate what they've learned to the judges," Ulmer said.

Ulmer went on to recognize the efforts of the 4-H'ers' families. "These parents and grandparents help the 4-H'ers in many ways - from working with them on studying their nutrition, to getting them to the contest, to providing the groceries they need to make their dish a number of times. They also serve as volunteers in the total program, working with other 4-H'ers, judging, assisting with the production of the food show, and many other jobs which make the project possible."

The 12 contestants in the District Food Show advanced to that contest by winning their respective divisions in the Crockett County 4-H Food Show on Oct. 29. "Crockett County," said Ulmer, "should be very proud of these young people and the way they have represented our county in this event."

4-H to hold December caroling

December 4-H meetings will include caroling and refreshments as part of the agenda, according to the Crockett County Extension Office.

The junior high 4-H Club will meet Tuesday, Dec. 13, at 7 p.m. in the junior high cafeteria. 4-H'ers will go caroling at approximately 7:15 p.m. Transportation will be provided by adult leaders. Refreshments will follow the caroling, and all junior high 4-H members and their parents are encouraged to attend.

The intermediate 4-H Club will meet Tuesday, Dec. 20, at 5:15 p.m. at the Civic Center's small meeting room, and will also go caroling, with transportation provided by adult leaders. Following the caroling, the group will enjoy refreshments back at the Civic Center. All intermediate 4-H members and their parents are invited to attend.

High school 4-H Club members will meet Dec. 19 at 7 p.m. in the Arrott home for a Christmas party.

If you're not in 4-H but would like to join, it's not too late. Contact the Crockett County Extension Office at 392-2721. All Crockett County youth between the ages of nine (or third grade) and 19 are eligible to join, and there are no membership dues.

Progressive homemakers to meet

The Progressive Extension Homemakers Club will meet Thursday, Dec. 8, in the small meeting room of the Civic Center for a program on closet organization by County Extension Agent-Home Economics Tedra Ulmer.

The meeting begins at noon and ends at 1 p.m. Guests should bring a sack lunch. Coffee and tea are furnished by the club.

All interested persons are invited to attend; there is no obligation to join. For more information, contact the County Extension Office at 392-2721.

Survivors urged to apply for Social Security benefits

Surviving dependents of a deceased worker should apply for Social Security benefits as soon as possible following the worker's death. Franklin H. Upp, Social Security Manger in San Angelo, said recently.

Applying promptly will allow benefits to start in the shortest possible time. In addition, Upp said, some benefits cannot be paid more than a month before the application is filed.

Social Security benefits can be paid to these survivors:

*Unmarried children under 18, or under 19 if a full-time high school student.

*Unmarried children over 18 who were disabled before 22 and remain disabled.

*A surviving widow or widower of any age caring for a child under 16 or disabled who gets benefits.

*Widow or widower 60 or older.

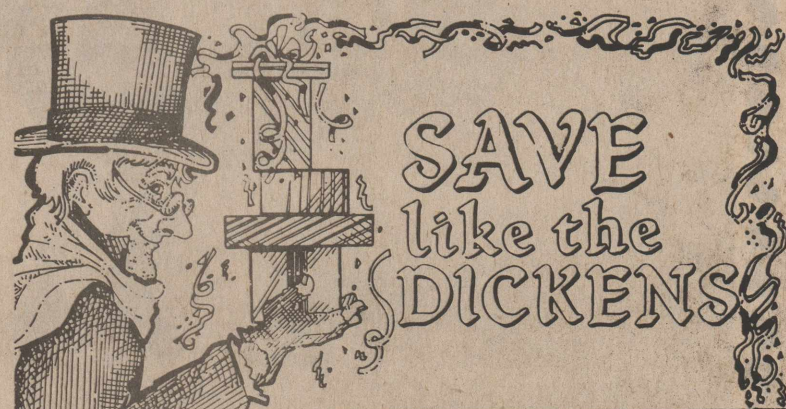

*Disabled widow or widower 50-60.

*Dependent parent 62 or older.

Benefits can also be paid to a surviving divorced spouse if the marriage to the deceased worker lasted 10 years or more. Grandchildren can get benefits on a grandparent's or great-grandparent's record under certain circumstances.

Before any benefits can be paid, the worker must have had credit for a certain amount of work covered by Social Security. In 1988, the amount ranges from 1½ to 9¼ years depending on the worker's age at death.

More information about survivor's benefits can be obtained at the San Angelo Social Security Office. The people there will be glad to answer any questions.

Make All Your Holiday Memories Lasting Ones

...by following these safety tips from West Texas Utilities.

- Use a wooden ladder or a metal one with rubber-tipped legs when installing outdoor lights. Be sure to stand on a dry surface.
- Be sure to discard strands of lights with frayed wiring and replace burned out bulbs BEFORE you decorate!
- Use heat-resistant cords with grounding plugs, and be careful not to overload too many lights or appliances on one circuit.
- Never leave your Christmas tree lights unattended. Unplug them when you go to bed or leave the house.
- Use a water-filled stand for live trees and check the water level daily.
- Make sure paper ornaments or tinsel do not touch light bulbs.

New consumer publication available

American Lamb Cookery Basics. American Lamb Council's newest consumer publication, includes 24 pages packed with information on selecting, storing and cooking American lamb. The booklet describes the various cuts of American lamb, their uses and suggestions on how to care for the product prior to preparation -- especially important to the many consumers who freeze their lamb after bringing it home. Hints on roasting, broiling, grilling, braising, pan-broiling and pan-frying lamb as well as suggestions on preparing American lamb in convection and microwave ovens will help consumers make the most of a tasty meat. American Lamb Cookery Basics also includes 14 easy to prepare recipes accompanied by nutritional analysis. Recipes average approximately 180 calories per three ounce serving of lamb, representing a nutritional bargain for today's diet conscious society. To order a free copy of American Lamb Cookery Basics, contact ASPC Distribution Department, LCB-FE, 200 Clayton St., Denver, CO 80206, or phone (303)399-8130.
