Special week honors EMS volunteers

Sept. 17-23 has been proclaimed EMS Week as a gesture of respect and appreciation for the dedicated volunteers who staff Emergency Medical Service units across the nation.

In Crockett County, Judge Kathryn Mayfield issued a proclamation commending the local unit for its work.

The theme for EMS Week 1989 is "We care. Every hour. Every Day."

Accidents are the leading cause of trauma and death from birth to age 38, and the fourth leading cause of death among persons of all ages. The EMS volunteer is the first contact with the health care system made by most victims of injuries and illnesses. Because these victim's health crises are unexpected, EMS personnel must rapidly, effectively and appropriately manage the unpredictable.

Although advanced life support is rarely needed here, (97 percent of all runs are to stabilize and get the patient to the hospital) a recent auto accident involved a hand and leg amputation. The patient was transferred to San Angelo where the leg was successfully re-attached.

Not only do volunteers give of their time, cost of training is also provided by each individual. Emergency Care Attendants must satisfactorily complete a 40 hour course for certification. Emergency Medical Technicians train for 120 hours. Forty additional hours earn the Special Skills rating. Paramedics have more than 400 hours training, and additional hospital hours are part of the requirements for the various levels.

Membership in the Ozona unit has dropped to 18 active members. More volunteers are needed, and an ECA class will be held if enough interest is shown.

EMTs Della Moore and Ten Rodriguez are president and vice-president of the organization. Dub O'Bryant, EMT/SS, is training officer for the organization.

Other members include: Elliott Barrera and Bob Faulkner, drivers; ECAs Raymond Borrego, Edward Fierro, Frank Galvan, Sandra Gonzales and Felix Trujillo; EMTs Betty Ramirez, Dee Keilers, Eddie Moore, Phyllis Tucker, Matt Gutierrez and Sharman West; EMT/SS John L. Henderson and EMT/Paramedic Doug Meador.

Dr. Marcus Sims serves as medical director.

James Montgomery and Steve Kenley are frequent first responders. First responders are individuals who are not on ambulance call, but respond in an emergency. Considered a big plus to any unit, first responders administer first aid and maintain airways until an ambulance crew can arrive.

"The quicker you can start CPR the better chance a heart attack victim has," said an EMS member in describing some of the work of unit members and first responders.

Hospital personnel working with the EMS as transfer nurses are R.N. Peggy McWilliams and L.V.N.s Zoe Green and Ruth Wisdom.

"Everybody putting everything together" describes the cooperative effort of EMS crew members, nurses, x-ray technicians and doctors.

Crockett County EMS volunteers logged 80 local runs, 52 transfers and two other runs during the first eight months of 1989.

The present day ambulance service started in 1977 when state law began requiring certified attendants. Brian Henry, Dub O'Bryant, Jerry Cain, James Mahaffey and Jack Balou were the first local trainees.

Prior to that time, Al Ramirez had operated the ambulance for the county. Jane's Funeral Home previously provided ambulance service.

Ambulances and related equipment are owned by Crockett County.

Lions turn talents to win

By Michael Vasquez

The Ozona Lions tamed the Water Valley Wildcats Friday with their defense in a game that ended with a 34-0 score.

Ozona came on strong early in the game, scoring 21 points in the first quarter alone. The Lions battled Water Valley to the fourth quarter where they scored again.

Running back George Ybarra had a great night with two touchdowns and carried the ball 16 times for 118 yards. Lalo Rodriguez also scored for the Lions and carried the ball 17 times for 71 yards. Daun Williams ran 11 yards to give the Lions their final score.

Quarterback Chris Denman led the Lions in their aerial attack, connecting with Ybarra four times for a gain of 61 yards. Lonnie Martinez also caught two of Denman's passes for a gain of 40 and a touchdown.

Mingo Perez and Sotero Fuentes caught three passes each for additional yardage.

The Lions made their first score with 9:46 left in the first quarter on a Denman pass to Martinez which produced 30 yards. Ruben Borrego kicked a beautiful extra point field goal.

Shortly after, with about 6:09 on the clock, Ybarra took the ball 25 yards to make the score Ozona 14, Water Valley 0. Again Borrego made the extra point. With 4:36 remaining, Lalo Rodriguez scored on a three yard run. Soon the quarter ended with Ozona 21, Water Valley 0.

In the second quarter, the Lions' offensive guns cooled. Although the Lions couldn't score, Water Valley didn't either except for a heart-breaking safety. The halftime score was Ozona 21, Water Valley 2.

The Lions came out ready to play the third quarter. Ozona's offense didn't score, but their defense made up for it by keeping the Wildcats from scoring.

The fourth quarter proved productive when Ybarra scored again on a 15 yard run. Borrego once again made the field goal. With only 1:17 remaining, the Lions scored again when Daun Williams ran 11 yards to make the score Ozona 34, Water Valley 2. Borrego attempted the field goal, but missed. The game ended Ozona 34, Water Valley 2.

Coach Don Payne was excited about the game. "We played the best game we've played in a long time." Reflecting on the offense, he remarked, "The offense played well except for the second and third quarters where it lost intensity."

"The defense played the entire game with a lot of intensity, particularly Mark (Fierro) and Andy (Stokes) also Cody (Morris) and Chapo (Isaac Leal)," said Payne.

The Lions host Iraan Sept. 22.

Across the district, Ozona stands 1-1, Forsan 0-2, Eldorado 0-2, Winters 2-0, Reagan County 2-0 and Wall 1-1 for the season.

Quilt featured on calendar

Ozona's premier quilt maker, Billie Rose Bailey, and Diane Herbot of Alexandria, VA won first place honors for their quilt last weekend in San Antonio.

Their creation, Rose's One and Only Peony Quilt, was entered in the group effort division for bed quilts. Theme for the Greater San Antonio Quilt Guild, Inc. show was "From Seed to Sew: A Bouquet of Quilts".

Rose's One and Only Peony Quilt is the February picture in the 1990 American Quilt Engagement Calendar. The quilt was selected for this honor after being chosen second place winner in an international quilt show and competition in Houston last year.

Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. Herbot developed their friendship when both were members of the San Antonio Quilt Guild. Mrs. Herbot, who has since moved to Virginia, designed and selected the material for the winning quilt. Mrs. Bailey then pieced the coverlet and sent it back to Mrs. Herbot to design the quilting pattern.

The quilting was done by Mrs. Bailey to complete the prize winner which contains 13 different red prints and 12 different greens.

Instead of a prize ribbon, the winning quilts at the San Antonio show were given rag dolls in appropriately colored gingham dresses.

Mrs. Herbot has authored a book on quilting using many items made by Mrs. Bailey as illustrations. An expert in fabric dyeing, she traveled from Virginia to teach a quilting class at the San Antonio show.

The ladies are currently collaborating on a second quilt to be entered in competition.

It's a boy!

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Beasley are the parents of a son, Ryan Wade, born Wednesday, Sept. 13, 1989, at Shannon Hospital in San Angelo. The baby weighed six pounds, 15 ounces and was 19 inches long at birth.

Helping make him welcome is older brother Zachary.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Justiss of San Angelo, Mrs. Judith Justiss of Austin and Jerry L. Beasley of Dallas. Great-grandparents welcoming little Ryan Wade are: Mr. and Mrs. David Surles of Mandeville, LA, Mrs. Jo Arnett of Comanche, Mr. and Mrs. Cleophas Cooke of Ozona and Mrs. Nola Beasley of Austin. The baby's great-grandmother is Mrs. W. Turner of Beaumont.

Joan Nicholas won a third place award for her oil painting entitled "The Fishing Lease".

Joan tells us that she accompanied Nick on a fishing trip to the Devil's River last month and made some sketches down there. The following day she executed a painting in about four hours with a few touch ups in the next day or two. She says she has always won more awards with paintings done quickly and spontaneously than those she has labored over for a longer time.

Two of her instructors have stressed the value of sketching in pencil or water color, with added notes, to better portray nature as it really is, and she is convinced that this is really the best way to create a successful painting.

Ballots made of broken pottery were used by the citizens of Ancient Athens to get rid of unpopular politicians. Whenever 6000 or more were cast, the official was sent into exile for 10 years.

Crockett County Public Library
News

by Louise Ledoux

Last week I attended the fall meeting of the Big Country Library System in Abilene. Mrs. Lou Deaton, CCPL lay representative, and Mrs. Katharine Russell, alternate lay representative, accompanied me to the meeting. The representatives are our vote, our voice to the state library and the ones who actually run the system. Librarians are advisors, but they have no vote. This year for the first time, we have alternates to fill in for our principal lay representatives in case they cannot make the meetings. Mrs. Deaton has been our representative since the opening of CCPL in 1985.

At the meeting, we learned some interesting facts about the Big Country Library System. It is geographically the largest system in Texas. BCLS is larger than 10 states, the largest of which is South Carolina. It is the second smallest in population with only 477,514 people (an average of 1,399 persons per square mile). The BCLS contains 42 public libraries, of which 29 are system members.

To become a system member, a public library must meet certain criteria in the areas of collection size, per capita tax support, staffing, and hours of service. The CCPL is very fortunate to meet all these criteria for membership. We receive equipment, collection development funds for books, long-term loan of books, free loan of films, special library skills training for librarians, literacy materials and workshops and much more. It is very important for our small library to maintain membership and be eligible for all these services from the state.

Mrs. Beatrice Tackas, system coordinator, gave everyone an overview of the events of 1989 and went on to outline the plans for 1990. We learned that state funding looks good for the coming year and that the system is converting over to a computerized film booking system that should greatly increase the efficiency of that department. System-wide use of the Interlibrary Loan Service is way up and is running smoothly. The ILL program is a wonderful service for small libraries. With this service, we can borrow books our patrons need from large libraries across the state and the nation free of charge.

It was an informative and enjoyable meeting. I always learn something new every time I go.

Louise P. Ledoux
Crockett County Librarian

Debbie Arrott recognized for special reading skill work

Mr. Jim Payne, principal of Ozona High School, would like to give special recognition to Freshman English teacher Debbie Arrott for her work with students needing extra assistance in developing their reading skills.

In the summer of 1988 Mr. Payne and high school counselor Jack Probst identified 13 incoming ninth grade students who needed to develop extra reading skills in order to master the TEAMS reading objectives.

These identified students were placed with Mrs. Arrott for an additional course in Language Arts each day. This course was designed to improve overall academic performance with special emphasis on reading and study skills.

Of the 13 students identified, only two had mastered reading on the seventh grade TEAMS test given in 1987. After taking this special Language Arts course and tutoring by Mrs. Arrott, 11 students were able to master the reading on the 1989 TEAMS test at the ninth grade level.

Mr. Payne said: "This program proved to be very successful and most of the credit should go to Mrs. Arrott and the eighth grade teachers that taught the students reading and English. We are repeating the process with this year's freshmen that have been identified as needing extra reading skills. My hat is off to Mrs. Arrott for tireless effort and unending patience that it required to make the successful."

Lions Club pancake supper to be held Sept. 22

Flop, flop, sizzle, sizzle. Add to that sound the smell of fresh cooked sausage, maple syrup, butter and you have the annual Ozona Lions Club pancake supper.

Band Boosters news

Ozona Band Boosters Association met in the OHS band hall Wednesday, Sept. 13, at 5:45 p.m. Nancy Moore, president, presided over the meeting. There were 22 in attendance.

The Poor Man's Supper will be held again this year in the Civic Center on Oct. 6, homecoming. The Freshman Class will be in charge of dessert for the supper; sophomores, cornbread; juniors, salad; and seniors, beans. Rosalind Williams will be in charge of tickets. More information on the supper will be available at a later date.

Sign up sheets to work the supper, for phone committee, football gate sales and locker favors were passed around during the meeting.

Other items on the agenda were the Lion Band pennants. It was decided to save enough to take to the band contest and sell the rest at a reduced price. There was discussion on ordering pins and buttons to sell. A combination of Lion heads and paws and Lion buttons will be ordered if it is possible. Yard signs are ready to be painted. Work on them should begin within the week.

A phone committee for junior high parents will try to be organized in order to notify parents of meetings. The next Band Booster meeting is scheduled for Oct. 11.

Cubs kick-off football season

by J. L. Tucker

"Anytime you have speed, you have potential," said Coach Craig Cooke, "and the seventh graders have speed." The seventh grade Cub football team is hoping that their speed covers for their lack of size and depth.

Executing from their basic Wing-T offense and 5-2 defense, the Cubs are looking forward to a successful season.

Seventh grade Cubs to watch for this season include linebackers, Tony Valencia (5-3, 103), Julio Martinez (5-8, 140), defensive ends, J.J. Lozano (5-6, 120) Joe Esparza (5-4, 110) and defensive tackle, Luis Longoria (5-6, 188).

The eighth grade Cubs are just opposite from the seventh grade. They lack speed but have size and depth. But most of all they have the desire to keep improving and to continue with a winning record.

The experienced Cubs finished with five wins and two losses last year. Losing to the Eagles from Junction and Eldorado is still on the Cubs' minds. "We are looking forward to revenging those losses," growled Coach Cooke.

Coaches Gene Hood, David Porter, and Cooke are looking for a good year and hoping that everyone will stay healthy and eligible.

The Cubs' first game is here Sept. 21 at Lion's Stadium against Sonora. The seventh grade will kick off at 5:00 P.M. and the eighth grade follows at six-thirty.

It's a new season for the junior high Cubs. They have been working hard since the first day of school and are ready for action.

Fans are urged to be early for the games to avoid missing some "speedy" excitement.

The 7th grade roster for 1989 includes: Jesse Garza, James Nelson, Chris Sanchez, Travis Davidson, Anthony Sanchez, Jason Parker, J. J. ## Ranch Worker program started

The Texas Ranchers' Labor Association, Inc., is preparing applications for H-2A worker contracts to begin in early January of next year. Anyone interested in applying for an H-2A worker to begin work at that time should contact the Labor Association soon.

The H-2A program currently involves payment of $495/month as wages to the workers, plus free room, board and workers' compensation insurance. Also, after a worker has completed 50 percent of his work contract, the employer must reimburse the worker for his transportation in getting to the ranch, and advance the transportation costs when the work contract is completed. Another basic requirement of the program is that the ranch jobs are offered first to qualified U.S. workers, and H-2A certification to import the foreign worker of the rancher's choice is issued for each ranch job not filled by a qualified U.S. worker.

The annual wage survey of sheep and goat ranch workers is being conducted by the Texas Agricultural Statistics Service and Dennis Findley, director, states that the survey will be conducted from the middle of September through early October. This survey will provide the basis for a new wage rate for the H-2A program. This new wage rate will be applied to the H-2A applications that the Labor Association will file in November for work contracts to begin in January.

Thus, the January contracts may have a wage rate different than the $459.00 per month. A very large number of Texas sheep and goat ranchers will be surveyed as to the wages and benefits provided to their temporary and seasonal ranch hands who live on the ranch, checking and tending sheep or goats or occasionally other livestock. The Labor Association strongly encourages everyone contacted in this survey to cooperate fully and to give thorough but precise answers.

While ranchers' H-2A applications are being prepared by the Labor Association, the wage rate for the January contracts will not be known. The Labor Association stresses that no H-2A applications will be filed for the January contracts until the new H-2A wage has been announced and each rancher-applicant has been individually contacted and has approved the filing of his application under the new wage. But it is important that everyone wanting to participate in the January contracts contact the Labor Association in the next few weeks to initiate preparation of their applications.

The Association's first H-2A "master" application, filed Dec. 19, 1988, involved 33 ranch hand jobs. Of those 33 jobs, 29 were certified for foreign H-2A workers. The success of this first set of applications has reinforced the belief that the H-2A program can provide sheep and goat ranchers with a reliable supply of qualified foreign labor where there is an insufficient number of U.S. workers.

The Labor Association recently filed its second "master" H-2A application and has obtained 10 H-2A certifications out of the 19 ranch hand jobs under that application. These contracts began Aug. 14, 1989, so it is too early to know the final number of H-2A certifications which will be obtained under this application. The Labor Association is also continuing development of an H-2A worker program for Texas cattle ranchers.

The efficiency and effectiveness of placing qualified workers under the H-2A program is directly related to the level of participation by ranchers. Higher participation increases the opportunity of placing qualified workers while decreasing the time and cost per worker. For this reason, the Labor Association strongly encourages your inquiries about H-2A. The Labor Association will carefully review your operation with you to assure that H-2A is an appropriate program for you to enter.

After the January 1990 H-2A contracts, your next opportunity to obtain workers under the H-2A program will be the June 1990 contracts. Anyone interested in applying for H-2A certification for contracts beginning in January 1990 should contact the Labor Association as soon as possible.

Survey shows West Texans believe in their teachers

People living in West Texas believe their local public schools are doing a good job educating students, but they have even more confidence in the ability of the local teachers who staff these schools.

These are the findings of a recent Texas Poll conducted July 23-Aug. 8, 1989, for the Texas State Teachers Association by Harte-Hanks Communications and Texas A&M University.

Over 1,000 residents were randomly polled statewide, including 106 in West Texas. The poll has a margin of error of plus or minus three percentage points.

West Texans say local teachers are doing a very good job in the schools in spite of the fact that they believe them to be "under-paid" and "over-stressed". These same residents give overall good marks to the local public school systems and believe that the quality of education is directly linked to their level of funding.

Seventy-one percent of the residents give schools a "passing grade" while the plurality believe the schools are underfunded.

TSTA President Ollie Besteiro said it is extremely heartening to the teachers that 81 percent believe local teachers care about students; 85 percent say teachers are hard working; and 79 percent believe teachers are well-informed on their subject matter.

Seventy-six percent of the respondents said that teachers deserve a pay increase this year.

Happy birthday to Brent Morris who will be 9 on Sept. 22.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Miller spent the weekend visiting in Abilene with their five grandchildren who are attending Abilene Christian University.

Happy anniversary to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Valdez who will celebrate 47 years of marriage Sept. 21.

"That makes it all the more ironic that many school districts in this area failed to even pass on to the teachers the mere $1,800 raise that the Texas Legislature granted this past session," Besteiro said.

"Top performance should be rewarded with top salaries," the TSTA President added. "Instead, our top Texas teachers are among the lowest paid in the nation - the average Texas teacher salary ranks 31st among the 50 states. It is obvious that legislators and school boards do not have their fingers on the public pulse in setting teacher salaries."

Besteiro noted the irony in that 83 percent of the residents in West Texas believe that teachers should have a say in the educational decisions that are made in local school districts. Only 12 percent said those decisions should be left exclusively to the school boards and administrators.

"During this past legislative session, TSTA introduced a bill that would have provided a process for teachers to have a voice in local policy decisions," Besteiro noted. "It was the school board and administrator associations that lobbied hard to defeat the bill."

"We're glad to know that the public agrees with TSTA in believing that teacher input can make a real difference in educational quality."

Seventy-three percent said that the amount of money spent per student in a school district affects the quality of education offered in that district. In the area of school reforms, 43 percent believe they have improved the quality of education and another 34 percent believe they have had no impact. A majority said the reforms have not affected teacher pay or teacher quality.

Residents are split in their opinions on the fairness of funding public education in Texas. Thirty-nine percent believe it's fair; another 30 percent said it's not fair; and the remainder are unsure. An overwhelming 80 percent believe that it is the state's responsibility to come up with an equitable funding system.

"On behalf of the thousands of TSTA members in this area, we thank West Texans for their support and confidence," Besteiro added. "During this year we will be asking the public's support to help TSTA to bring about the changes that both teachers and the majority of all Texans want in order to upgrade our public schools and the teaching profession in general."

Microwave canner may be unsafe

The increased use of the microwave in recent years has brought with it an increase in the number of gadgets available for use with the microwave. Unfortunately, some of these are not safe to use, and the unwary consumer may meet with an accident before the product is recalled.

One such microwave accessory is the Micro-Dome canner. It is marketed in major women's magazines by mail as well as in some stores. It is basically a home canner which can be used in the microwave.

However, there has been some concern about the safety of food canned using the equipment. Since microwaves cook food from the outside in, and since there may be cycling and uneven hot spots in a microwave, the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service food and nutrition specialists have advised against the use of microwave canning devices.

The Micro-Dome canner has also sent letters to customers advising them not to use their canner because of reports of malfunctioning. Apparently the plastic resin used to manufacture the product "may have physical property variations that could cause the Micro-Dome to malfunction and result in harm to you or your property," according to the letter from the company.

If you have a Micro-Dome canner or know someone who does, do not use the canner until you hear from the company. The Micro-Dome Corporation has stated that it will contact customers. However, if you did not send in a warranty registration, they will not have your address and you will need to write them for the initial information. The address should be with the canner information.

For the latest in research-based information on home canning and other methods of food preservation contact the Crockett County office of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at 392-2721.

Educational programs and information are available to people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or handicap.

Conference examines cashmere

SAN ANGELO—A new industry for Texas agriculture, cashmere goat and wool production, will hold the spotlight here Oct. 27-28 during the Cashmere Goat Conference at the San Angelo Convention Center.

The event is sponsored by the Cashmere Producers of America, Forte Cashmere, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

"National speakers, panel discussions and live animal and fiber evaluation sessions will be featured," said Dr. George Ahlschwede, Extension Service sheep and goat specialist here who is coordinator for the conference. "The conference will include classroom instruction and hands-on workshops which will allow participants to receive a tremendous amount of information."

Conference registration will open at 8 a.m. Oct. 27 at the convention center. Educational and commercial exhibits will be set up the day before.

The program will begin at 9 a.m. with a look at the cashmere situation and its potential for the United States. Also addressed will be the biology of skin and hair production, the genetic change of seasonality and fiber testing.

Following lunch, conference activities will move to the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center north of here. Five workshop sessions will cover cashmere evaluation, cashmere goat selection, management, parasite control and record keeping.

The day's activities will conclude with a banquet at the convention center. State Sen. Bill Sims of San Angelo, executive secretary of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association, will speak.

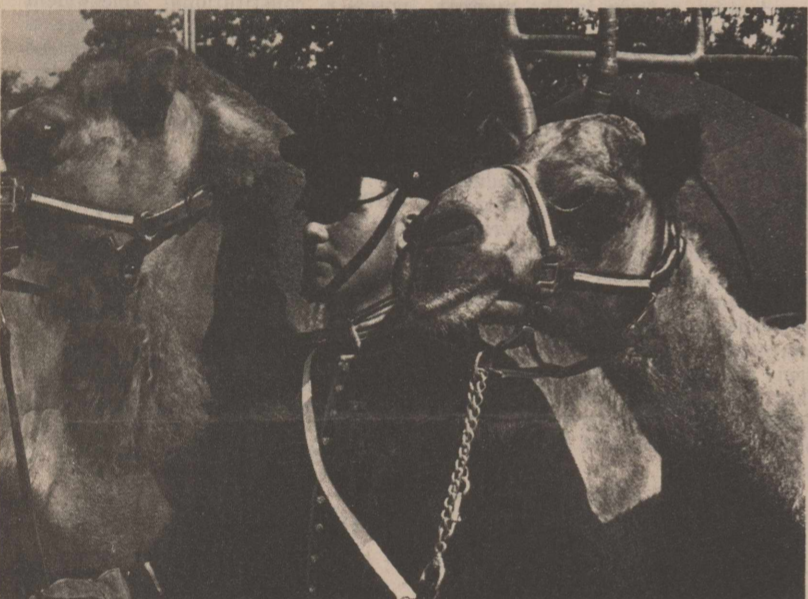

The second day will begin at 8 a.m. in the convention center with viewing of exhibits. This will be followed by talks on nutrient requirements of cashmere goats, brush control using the animals and small grain pasture possibilities. The morning session will end with a panel discussion on marketing cashmere goat fiber and meat.

Afternoon sessions will look at artificial insemination, embryo transfer and predator control. At 6 p.m., the Cashmere Producers of America will hold its annual meeting.

A West Texas barbecue and dance will conclude the conference. Additional conference information is available from the San Angelo Convention and Visitors Bureau, 500 Rio Concho Drive, San Angelo, Texas 76903, telephone (915) 653-1206.

Millions of years ago, camels roamed Texas and much of America. More than a century ago, the animals were imported into Galveston by the U.S. Army as it settled the Southwestern frontier, but the effort was interrupted by the Civil War and the rise of the railroad. Now camels may again begin sauntering across Texas. The camels shown here were brought from the 5-H Ranch in Cape Girardeau, Missouri, by Bill Sandidge, a San Antonio sculptor who wants to recreate the 1857 camel caravan from San Antonio to Los Angeles and re-introduce the animals to Texas agriculture as a diversification alternative. Processing raw camel fiber is a $40-million-a-year business worldwide.

For peace of mind examine yourself for skin cancer

Prolonged overexposure to the sun's rays may lead to skin cancer, and like all other cancers, it's important to detect it early. This can be done with a simple self-examination.

"Self-examination for skin cancer is painless, cheap, and gets less time consuming the more often it is done," Dr. Mary Ann Heussner, a health education specialist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service says. "It's an easy way to catch the disease in its early stages, when it is easier to cure."

According to the American Cancer Society, over 400,000 cases of skin cancer are reported each year. An estimated 7,400 of these cases prove to be fatal. They also reported a 3.4 percent increase per year in the incidence of melanoma, which is the most serious of the skin cancers.

"There are a few different warning signs to look for," the specialist says. "Look for changes in the size or color of moles, and the appearance of any new skin growths or patches of dark pigmentation.

"Though skin cancer is more likely to occur in areas that are most often exposed to the sun, all of the body must be examined," she advises.

PUBLIC NOTICE

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

SPECIAL ELECTION

NOVEMBER 7, 1989

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 102 proposes a constitutional amendment that would increase the salary of members of the legislature to one-fourth of the Governor's salary and increase the salary of the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker of the House of Representatives to one-half of the Governor's salary. The annual salary of members of the legislature, the Lieutenant Governor, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives is currently $7,200. Under this provision, the annual salary of the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker would be $46,716, and the annual salary of members of the legislature would be $23,358, based on the Governor's current annual salary of $93,432. The increase for the Speaker and the members of the legislature would take effect when the legislature convenes for its regular session in January 1991. The increase for the Lieutenant Governor would take effect when the term of that office begins in 1991. The salary increase for the Lieutenant Governor would not make members of the legislature ineligible to run for the office of Lieutenant Governor.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to limit the salary of the lieutenant governor and the speaker of the house of representatives to not more than one-half of the governor's salary and to limit the salary of a member of the legislature to not more than one-fourth of the governor's salary."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 5 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Texas Water Development Board to issue an additional $500 million of Texas water development bonds. The additional bonds are to be used as follows: $250 million of the bonds are to be used for water supply loans and facilities acquisition; $200 million of the bonds are to be used for water quality enhancement projects; and $50 million of the bonds are to be used for flood control. The legislature may provide that $100 million be used for subsidized loans and grants to economically distressed areas of the state for water and wastewater facilities.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the issuance of an additional $500 million of Texas water development bonds for water supply, water quality, and flood control purposes."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 51 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature to provide for the issuance of general obligation bonds to provide money to establish a Texas agricultural fund, a rural microenterprise development fund, a Texas product development fund, and a Texas small business incubator fund in the state treasury. The Texas agricultural fund would be used to provide financial assistance to develop, increase, improve, or expand the production, processing, marketing, or export of crops or products grown or produced in Texas by Texas agricultural businesses. The rural microenterprise development fund would be used to stimulate the creation and expansion of small businesses in rural areas. The Texas product development fund would be used to aid in the development and production of new or improved products in this state. The Texas small business incubator fund would be used to stimulate the development of small businesses in the State.

The principal amount of bonds outstanding at one time could not exceed $25 million for the Texas agricultural fund and $5 million for the rural microenterprise development fund. The financial assistance offered by both funds could include loan guarantees, insurance, co-insurance, loans, and indirect loans or purchases or acceptances of assignments of loans or other obligations. To carry out the Texas product development fund, the legislature could authorize loans, loan guarantees, and equity investments, and the issuance of up to $25 million of general obligation bonds for initial funding. To carry out the Texas small business incubator fund, the legislature could authorize loans and grants of money, and the issuance of up to $20 million of general obligation bonds for initial funding.

Bonds authorized under this amendment would be paid out of the first money coming into the treasury in each fiscal year that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution, less any amount in any interest and sinking account at the end of the preceding fiscal year that is pledged to payment of the bonds or interest.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to provide for the recovery and further development of the state's economy, with goals of increasing job opportunities and other benefits for Texas residents, through state financing of the development and production of Texas products and businesses."

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to exempt property of nonprofit veterans organizations from ad valorem taxation."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 11 proposes a constitutional amendment that would provide an exemption from ad valorem taxation for goods, wares, merchandise, other tangible personal property (including aircraft), and ores (other than oil, gas, and petroleum products) if the property is acquired in or imported into the state and is destined to be forwarded out of the state, regardless of whether the intention to forward the property existed when the property was acquired or imported into the state, if it remains in Texas for 175 days or less for assembly, storage, manufacture, processing, or fabrication. The proposed amendment would authorize the governing body of a county, municipality, school district, or junior college district to prevent the exemption of this tangible personal property from taxation by taking official action before April 1, 1990. A county, municipality, school district, or junior college district could rescind a decision to tax the property, in which case the exemption would become effective in the year of the rescission and the property could not thereafter be taxed.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment promoting economic growth, job creation, and fair tax treatment for Texans who export goods to other states and nations by restoring and allowing, on a local option basis, an ad valorem tax exemption for certain personal property that is in Texas only temporarily for the purpose of assembling, storing, manufacturing, processing or fabricating."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 4 proposes a constitutional amendment that would enable the legislature to provide, by general or special law, that members of a hospital district board may serve terms not to exceed four years. Currently, hospital district board members' terms are two years.

"Authorizing the members of a hospital district governing board to serve four-year terms."

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 40 proposes a constitutional amendment that would change the format of the oath of office for officeholders in this state. All elected and appointed officers would be required to take an oath or affirmation swearing to faithfully execute the duties of office and to preserve, protect, and defend the constitution and laws of the State and the United States. In addition, each elected and appointed officer would be required to sign a sworn statement that he or she had not paid, offered, or promised anything of value for a vote or to secure appointment to an office, as applicable. The written, sworn statement would be filed with the secretary of state. The information in the statement is currently contained in the oaths of office taken by elected and appointed officials.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to require that a member of the legislature, the secretary of state, and an elected or appointed officer, before assuming office, sign a written oath stating that the member, the secretary of state, or the officer did not engage in bribery to obtain the office."

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 24 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to authorize the issuance of up to $400 million in general obligation bonds. The proceeds of the bonds could be used to acquire, construct, or equip new corrections institutions, mental health and mental retardation institutions, youth corrections institutions, and statewide law enforcement facilities and to repair and renovate existing facilities of those institutions. The bonds would constitute a general obligation of the state. The bonds and interest on the bonds would be paid from the first money coming into the treasury that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution, less any amount in a sinking fund at the end of the preceding fiscal year that is pledged to payment of the bonds or interest.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of general obligation bonds for projects relating to facilities of corrections institutions, youth corrections institutions, and mental health and mental retardation institutions and for the expansion of statewide law enforcement facilities."

PROPOSITION NO. 9 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 101 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature to pass laws to organize and combine state agencies that perform criminal justice functions. The legislature could combine into one or more agencies all agencies that have authority over the confinement and supervision of convicted criminals, that set standards for or distribute state funds to political subdivisions with authority over the confinement and supervision of convicted criminals, and that gather information about criminal justice administration. Agencies that could be combined would include the Texas Department of Corrections, the Board of Pardons and Paroles, and the Texas Adult Probation Commission. The amendment would also authorize the legislature to pass laws authorizing the appointment of members of more than one department of government to serve on the governing body.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to organize and combine various state agencies that perform criminal justice functions."

PROPOSITION NO. 10 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 4 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature to enact laws requiring or permitting judges to advise juries that a defendant convicted of a criminal offense can receive credit for good conduct that results in a shorter prison term and that eligibility for parole or mandatory supervision can also affect the length of time a convicted criminal serves in prison.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to require or permit courts to inform juries about the effect of good conduct time and eligibility for parole or mandatory supervision on the period of incarceration served by a defendant convicted of a criminal offense."

PROPOSITION NO. 11 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 102 proposes a constitutional amendment that would increase the per diem of members of the Legislature. The amount of per diem allowed during a calendar year would be equal to the maximum amount allowed for federal income tax purposes as of January 1 of that same year as a deduction for living expenses incurred by a state legislator. The per diem of $30 would increase to $81, which is the current maximum living expense deduction.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to set the amount of per diem received by a member of the legislature at the amount allowed for federal income tax purposes as a deduction for living expenses incurred by a state legislator in connection with official business."

If the permanent school fund were required to make payment as a result of its guarantee of bonds issued by the state, the fund would have to be reimbursed immediately from the state treasury. The amount of bonds guaranteed by the permanent school fund could not exceed $750 million unless a higher amount was authorized by a two-thirds vote of both houses of the legislature. If a school district were to become delinquent on a loan, the amount of the delinquency would be offset against other aid to which the district was entitled.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to provide for using the permanent school fund and its income to guarantee bonds issued by the state for the purpose of aiding school districts."

PROPOSITION NO. 13 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 19 proposes a constitutional amendment that would provide a bill of rights for crime victims. This constitutional amendment would give crime victims the right to be treated with fairness and respect and to be reasonably protected from the defendant. On his request, the crime victim would have the right to notification of court proceedings, the right to be present at all public court proceedings unless a court determines that the victim's testimony would be affected by hearing other testimony, the right to confer with a representative of the prosecutor's office, the right to restitution, and the right to information about the conviction, sentence, imprisonment, and release of the defendant. The legislature would be authorized to enact laws to define the term "victim," to enforce the rights of crime victims, and to provide that certain public officers and agencies are not liable for a failure to protect a victim's rights.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment providing a bill of rights for crime victims."

PROPOSITION NO. 14 ON THE BALLOT

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment requiring a district attorney serving in Fort Bend County to be elected and serve a term in the manner provided by general law for criminal district attorneys."

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to permit and regulate raffles conducted by certain nonprofit organizations for charitable purposes."

PROPOSITION NO. 16 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 34 proposes a constitutional amendment allowing the legislature to pass general laws authorizing the creation of hospital districts upon approval of a majority of the qualified voters of the district. The amendment would also permit the legislature to authorize the creation of hospital districts by general or special law in counties with populations of 75,000 or less and to authorize the commissioners courts of such counties to levy ad valorem taxes and issue general obligation bonds for the support and maintenance of such districts.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment granting to the people the right to decide whether to create and maintain hospital districts to protect the public well-being in a manner independent of the legislature."

PROPOSITION NO. 17 ON THE BALLOT

Part of the money could be used for administrative costs of this program. The legislature would provide for the terms and conditions of all such scholarships, grants, loans, and other financial assistance.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the state to provide scholarships, grants, loans, and other financial assistance to local fire departments and other public fire-fighting organizations to purchase fire-fighting equipment, to aid in providing necessary equipment and facilities to comply with federal and state law, and to educate and train their members."

PROPOSITION NO. 18 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 44 proposes a constitutional amendment that would repeal subsection (e) of Article III, Section 50-d of the constitution. Article III, Section 50-d currently allows the Texas Water Development Board to issue and sell Texas agricultural water conservation bonds in an amount not to exceed $200 million, if two-thirds of the members of each house of the legislature approve. Under subsection (e), this authority will expire in November, 1989. Repeal of subsection (e) by passage of this amendment would continue in effect the authority to issue and sell the bonds.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to eliminate certain time limitations relating to the issuance of Texas agricultural water conservation bonds."

PROPOSITION NO. 19 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 59 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow local governments to invest their funds as authorized by the legislature. Currently, the constitutional prohibition against a grant of public money to an individual, association, or corporation or against becoming a stockholder in a corporation, association, or company prevents local governments from making some kinds of investments. This proposed amendment would allow local governments to make any investments authorized by the legislature.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize local governments to invest their funds as provided by law."

PROPOSITION NO. 20 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 16 proposes a constitutional amendment which, if passed, would abolish the office of county surveyor in Cass, Ector, Garza, Smith, Bexar, Harris, and Webb Counties. A majority of the voters in an affected county must vote in favor of this proposed amendment before the office is abolished in that county. If the office of county surveyor is abolished in any of these counties, the powers, duties, and functions of the office are transferred to a county officer or employee designated by the commissioners court of the county in which the office is abolished.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to abolish the office of county surveyor in Cass, Ector, Garza, Smith, Bexar, Harris, and Webb Counties."

PROPOSITION NO. 21 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 74 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature to enact laws authorizing the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board or its successor to provide for, issue, and sell an additional $75 million in general obligation bonds as college savings bonds. The form, terms, and denominations of the bonds would be prescribed by law. The interest rate and installments would be prescribed by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board or its successor. The maximum net effective interest rate would be set by law. Proceeds from the sale of the bonds would be credited to the Texas opportunity plan fund, which is used to make loans to students to attend institutions of higher education in Texas. The bonds and interest on the bonds would be payable from the first money coming into the treasury in each fiscal year that is not already appropriated by the constitution, less the amount remaining in the sinking fund at the close of the prior fiscal year.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds as college savings bonds to provide educational loans to students and to encourage the public to save for a college education."

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Capitol politics focused mainly on election campaigns last week, with several startling revelations coming to surface, including:

■ A key lawmaker will quit the Legislature, considered the first casualty of successive media reports about lobbyist contributions to lawmakers.

■ Texas Rangers pitcher Nolan Ryan has Texas Farm Bureau support if he'll try to strike out Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower.

■ Two Democrats running for lieutenant governor competed for headlines with different ethics reform proposals.

■ Attorney General Jim Mattox named a campaign spy he said was placed by the opposition's campaign, and called for State Treasurer Ann Richards to apologize. She didn't.

Schlueter to Exit

One of Speaker Gib Lewis' top lieutenants, Killeen state Rep. Stan Schlueter, said he will not seek re-election and concentrate instead on family and business.

Schlueter, a seven-term veteran, chairs the powerful Calendars Committee and was considered a top contender to be speaker some day.

Recent news reports revealed he has taken large contributions from lobbyists and regularly spent $9,000 monthly from his political fund, partly to lease an Austin residence.

Schlueter cited real estate and investment setbacks due to the recession. He recently bought a $272,000 home in Austin's exclusive Estates of Barton Creek.

He is considered a Capitol Hill insider's insider. Capitol watchers predict he very well could play a role next session as a successful lobbyist.

Ethics Reform Plans

Two candidates for lieutenant governor, state Sen. Chet Edwards and Comptroller Bob Bullock, released ethics reform plans last week.

Edwards, who developed the issue last spring, wants Gov. Bill Clements to call a special session on ethics reform before the Nov. 7 election and he proposed outlawing lobby-paid vacations for lawmakers. The governor is in Africa until Sept. 25.

Bullock, who is shrewd enough to sense when an issue becomes valid, unveiled his detailed plan, which includes cross-auditing political bank accounts with tax returns, comparing lobbyist spending reports with actual spending records and punishing offenders with fines, expulsion and criminal penalties.

Pitch to A Pitcher

Ryan, who owns a cattle ranch near Alvin, said he will wait until after the baseball season ends to decide whether he'll attempt to unseat Hightower.

The Farm Bureau, largest agriculture group in the state, has vowed to oust an incumbent they regard as too liberal with either a Democrat or Republican candidate.

Ryan declined to say which party he'd choose, but most experts agree Hightower is unbeatable so far in the Democratic primary. The news also signals that the Farm Bureau has apparently given up the idea of recruiting Walt Garrison, a former Dallas

Cowboy fullback and bullrider.

Campaign Spying

Attorney General Jim Mattox, who has yet to announce for the governor's race, accused Richards' campaign of sending a "spy" into his headquarters for information.

Her campaign denied the charge, implied Mattox was a political low-life for insinuating it, and refused to apologize.

Mattox named a Mexican national, Evaristo Hernandez, as the Richards' volunteer who entered his headquarters three times claiming to be a Mattox supporter.

Mattox campaigners recognized Hernandez working a Richards campaign booth at the Mexican-American Democrats convention. Mattox said Hernandez admitted working for Richards for six weeks.

Candidate List Grows

Railroad Commissioner John Sharp officially entered the race for Comptroller, saying he favors funneling illegal drug tax revenues back to local law enforcement.

His Republican opponent, Houston businessman Tommy Fatjo, immediately blasted Sharp for serving as Texas campaign manager for presidential candidate Michael Dukakis of Massachusetts.

Meanwhile, two Republicans in the governor's race disagreed on how to prevent a state income tax.

Kent Hance seeks a constitutional ban; Clayton Williams seeks to use veto power. While Hance painted Williams as soft, insiders know a constitutional amendment, requiring two-thirds majority in each house, is probably out of reach at this time.

Kay Bailey Hutchinson, a Dallas lawyer-businesswoman, became the first Republican to announce for state treasurer. Her goal is to restore the state's AAA bond rating, and she rapped Democrats for leading state government into deficit spending. Her campaign co-chairs are Roger Staubach and Anne Armstrong.

League begins club year

The Ozona Woman's League met in the home of Carmen Sutton Tuesday, Sept. 12, for a Welcome Back Supper. Members were served a delicious meal of lasagne, salad and cheesecake by co-hostesses Paula Bailey, Barbara Malone and Lorelei McMullan.

President Nancy Vannoy then conducted the business meeting. She read letters of thanks from the hospital for League's donation of new hospital gowns, and from Sheriff Jim Wilson for the contribution to the Crockett County Transient Fund.

Mrs. Vannoy welcomed new members Shana Smith and Katrece Hale, and read a letter of resignation from Karen Childress.

Yearbooks were distributed by Elizabeth Clark, vice-president, who outlined the various programs for the coming year.

Projects chairman Helen Bean announced that Crockett County Public Library has received funds for the Bonnie Cameron Memorial and will contact her if further assistance from the League is needed. She also thanked members for their contribution of educational toys for the Ozona Community Center.

Cookbook chairman Susan Slaughter announced that there will be an advertisement for "Diamonds in the Desert" in the next issue of "Ranch Magazine". The cookbook has been re-printed, and members were encouraged to continue promoting the cookbook in order to finance future community projects.

Members then answered roll call with "A Summer Adventure".

FMHA farm borrowers invited to meeting on loan servicing

Crockett County ranchers with loans from the Farmers Home administration are invited to a meeting on Sept. 26, 1989 on how FmHA's computer program is used in considering loan servicing options such as re-scheduling and write-downs, FmHA County Supervisor Ben T. Rucker, said recently.

The meeting will be at 1:00 P.M. at San Angelo Convention Center.

Rucker said the meeting is particularly important for FmHA borrowers behind in their payments and those having difficulty with their loans.

"We will go over all the options available to those borrowers and explain how to go about finding one that will keep them in operation," Rucker said. "We will be putting emphasis on the Debt and Loan Restructuring (DALRS) computer program that was developed just for this purpose."

Rucker said DALRS does many mathematical calculations quickly and in a number of combinations in helping in the analysis of farm financial plans.

"If a restructuring plan exists that will keep the borrower on the ranch, DALRS will find that plan, and that plan will minimize the cost of debt restructuring," he said.

DALRS was developed as a tool to help debt restructuring authorized by the Agricultural Credit Act of 1987. FmHA farm borrowers who are behind in their payments should, by all means, try to attend this meeting, Rucker said.

Radar balloon becomes operative at Marfa

Congressman Lamar Smith and Sen. Phil Gramm will be in Marfa Sept. 16 to help launch the first radar balloon to be deployed in Texas.

The balloon, equipped with 3,500 pounds of radar gear, is part of a six-balloon network to be deployed along the Southwest border. The balloons have a 150 nautical mile detection radius that will prevent low-flying aircraft from penetrating U.S. airspace.

"The aerostat 'Sourball System' is a real solution to the very real problem of drug trafficking across our border," said Smith. "I commend the people of West Texas for their commitment to solving the drug problem in the Southwest. This is a good example of the kind of community support called for in the President's new drug war strategy."

Since the deployment of aerostat balloons in Arizona and New Mexico, Customs officials have noted a change in air smugglers' operations. They are now being forced to take riskier land routes, where they can be apprehended by land-based agents. They are headed straight to our streets," Smith said.

"The Southwest border is one of the major trafficking corridors in this nation. If we don't stop the drugs here, they are headed straight to our streets," Smith said.

The balloon will be placed 16 miles west of Marfa in Presidio County, and the project will hire half of its 25 employees from the local area.

Local EMS inspects diesel powered ambulance

Blake Clifton with Ambulance Sales and Service of Mansfield was in Ozona last week allowing local EMS personnel to inspect and test drive the new Type I diesel Collins ambulance he was delivering to Bandera. At present, the Crockett County Ambulance Service has 1983 Type II and 1985 Type III Collins gasoline powered ambulances.

Mr. Clifton said that 90% of ambulances being sold today are diesel powered both for their economic and non-over heating values. Over heating is a problem our local ambulance service vehicles have been plagued with.

Mr. Clifton went on to say: "The diesel powered ambulance has more horsepower and torque, and the maintenance costs are approximately one-half when compared to gasoline powered ambulances."

The Crockett County Ambulance Service averages 125 local runs and between 75 and 100 transfers per year. When both ambulances are in use, the county is left without a backup.
