Sierra Blanca family robbed at knife-point at local motel . . . . . Parolees charged with armed robbery

by Scotty Moore

Three Houston parolees from the Texas Prison System, Holly Renee Reasoner, age 21, Robert Edward Garza, age 20, and Jesus T. Contreras, age 20, were apprehended and charged with aggravated robbery of a Sierra Blanca family at 10:50 Monday evening at the Inn of the West Motel.

The Crockett County Sheriff's Department received a report at 10:50 p.m. Monday of an armed robbery in one of the rooms at the Inn of the West. Larry and Marsha Choate, of Sierra Blanca, were robbed at knife-point by two suspects who took $300 and a bottle of liquor. Mr. Choate, an employee of Southern Pacific Railroad, was returning from the ice machine and was followed into the room by two male suspects armed with knives. One of the suspects held the Choate's young daughter at knife-point and demanded all of their money.

The sheriff's department was unable to get a description of the getaway vehicle from the Choates but had had earlier reports of a suspicious vehicle, a maroon Monte Carlo, in the vicinity of the Flying W Motel.

Law enforcement agencies from Sutton and Pecos Counties were called in to set up road blocks on I-10 and to be on the look out for the Monte Carlo, and the three were arrested at the Pecos River Bridge at approximately 11:45 p.m.

Two knives and part of the money were recovered from the suspects who are now in Crockett County Jail with bail set at $150,000 each by Justice of the Peace James Hearne.

The case will be referred to the Crockett County Grand Jury at its next meeting.

Commissioners purchase $14,999 wood chipper

Commissioners met Monday night in a called session originally scheduled as a budget workshop. The three item agenda was pared from budget workshop, purchase of wood chipper and discussion of 911 service to purchase of the chipper.

The court, Judge Kathryn Mayfield, Commissioners Sostenes De Hoyos and Jim House, approved buying a Vermeer Model 1250 chipper at a price of $14,999 with trade-in of the old chipper.

Commissioners Fred Deaton and Rudy Martinez were not present.

Although 911 was not discussed during the meeting, Judge Mayfield answered Stockman questions about the service prior to opening the court session. The service, as planned for Ozona before the county withdrew from the project, would have a computer to give a readout of the calling number. The person taking the call would hear the caller's request, then push a button connecting the caller with the proper department (fire, hospital, etc.).

The person at the original answering point would be able to stay on the line to be sure someone answered at the second location.

The equipment for Ozona would not show the location of the call, only the calling number. There would not be a printer to print out the calling number, nor would there be a recording system to tape the caller's information.

Absentee voting ended Tuesday

Absentee voting in the constitutional amendment and special local option elections ended Tuesday.

Jean Conner, absentee judge of the constitutional amendment election, reported 76 voting by personal appearance and four by mail at mid-morning Tuesday.

In the special election on tax issues for county education districts, there had been 49 absentee votes according to Mae Lay.

On election day, Saturday, Aug. 10, voters in the special election will all cast their ballots at the courthouse.

To vote in the amendment election, residents of Pct. 1 go to the courthouse, Pct. 2 votes at the junior high, Pct. 3 at the civic center and Pct. 4 at the primary school. The WTU power station at Girvin is the voting location for Box 36.

Supt. of Schools Jim Payne, in an article published July 24, recommended voting for amendment 1. This amendment allows voters in county education districts to adopt certain exemptions from the district's ad valorem taxation for residence homesteads and to provide for the taxation of certain tangible personal property.

"I would recommend that voters vote for this amendment because they will have the opportunity to vote for or against exemptions on homesteads and for or against the taxation of personal property when they go to the courthouse to vote on the local options. If this amendment does not pass at the state level, then there will be no exemptions allowed."

Amendment #2 provides for the issuance of general obligation bonds to provide educational loans to students. "I have no recommendation on this issue as it does not affect our district of County Education District #18, however I personally believe that it is a good amendment," Payne said.

The superintendent recommends voting for Local Option #1 and #2 and against #3.

A vote for #1 allows for the exemption of 20 percent of the market value of the residence homestead from ad valorem taxation in CED #18.

Faculty members have completed two seminars in San Angelo this summer as part of their required 15 hours of annual continuing education. These seminars covered classroom management and self-esteem.

Attending were: Wendy Tambunga, teacher for the older twos and younger threes; Dell Vinton, teacher of threes and fours; Linda Hernandez, aide and teacher of the after school group; Vicky De La Garza, teacher for the baby class; aide Leticia Payne and Mrs. Eastman.

Mrs. Eastman, who is required to have 20 hours of continuing education each year, attended an earlier management seminar. These programs were conducted through the Department of Human Services.

Letter to the Editor

I feel the need to touch on a subject that concerns all of us. Those that read the San Angelo paper have noticed lately there seems to be a lot of deaths due to not wearing seat belts. It was reported that only 47 percent of the people took time to buckle up, not near enough.

Of course we can state several reasons for not buckling up, such as, afraid of fire, just going down the block, don't like being "confined", and so on. Just a little note, only around one percent of vehicle accidents result in fire. I guarantee you one thing for sure, you have a greater chance of being thrown in front of a rolling vehicle than burning in one.

Of course we all have pet peeves, and mine is seeing children standing up in the front seat. Braking at 5 mph can cause enough force to paralyze a small child hitting the dash. Have you ever looked at a wrecked car at the windshield and seen where someone's head tried to go through?

Please, take time to buckle up, especially the children. The EMT's see it quite often, and it's never a pretty sight.

May I make a suggestion to the JP and County Judge? I understand that there are times when both of you are gone, communicate with each other, and if both are gone, let the sheriff's office know. Secondly, maybe a pager could be purchased so the sheriff's office could readily be in contact with a JP or the county judge.

Moore, Morris exchange vows

Melissa Moore and Cody Morris were united in marriage on Saturday, July 14, 1991, at 10:00 o'clock in the morning by the bride's father, Ralph Moore. The garden ceremony was held at the home of Mrs. Lowell Littleton at 208 Eleventh Street in Ozona.

Guests were ushered down a winding drive edged with white wrought iron pole bows interspersed with white baskets of greenery, baby's breath, and lovely white and pink silk roses. These decorations were fashioned by the bride's mother. An upper terrace enhanced with hanging baskets and terra cotta pots of blooming flowers, ferns and caladiums greeted guests as they approached the wrought iron and glass registry table. A pink and white bouquet, the bride's book with white feather quill and two tiny white doves holding golden double rings lay in a milk glass hand on the table. After registering, the guests were seated in front of a bridal arch banked with leather leaf fern and baby's breath. Baskets of white ball mums, stock and bridal pink roses were pedastaled on each side of the arch. From a sequestered spot among the greenery, Connie Jennings of Ozona and Brian Cunningham of Crane sang two songs, "Up Where We Belong" and "Only God Could Love You More". Other special music was pre-taped and played during the wedding. As a surprise for her bridegroom, the professional was the bride singing "All Of Me". The recessional was "Whither Thou Goest".

The bridal arch, bouquets for the bride and her attendants and many other wedding flowers were a "labor of love" from the bridegroom's paternal grandmother and a gift from both grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Morris of Ozona.

The bride wore a softly elegant gown of white crepe backed satin and chiffon with embroidered lace appliques encrusted with French iridescent sequins and seed pearls. The dress was an original design, made especially for her by the bridegroom's aunt, Georgeanne Loudamy of San Angelo. The fitted, dropped waist of the bodice followed the deep "V" line of the neckline, all embellished with the fine lace and jeweled appliques. Shirred puffed sleeves with a band of lace at the elbows complemented the billowing skirt, festooned about with jeweled lace appliques. Deep scallops of the jeweled lace edged the hemline of the skirt and train of the bridal ensemble.

For something old the bride carried her maternal grandmother's linen and lace bridal handkerchief. For something new she wore a single strand of pearls. For something borrowed she wore her sister's diamond earrings and for something blue she wore a blue satin and lace garter. The bride's veil, also made by Georgeanne Loudamy, was finger-rip length silk tulle held by a forehead band of braided bridal beads. Her bridal bouquet was a composite of white and bridal pink roses in a cascade of English ivy tendrils enhanced with baby's breath and stephanotis.

Attending the bride were her sister, matron of honor Michelle Gray of Memphis, and bridesmaids Stephanie Wallace of Lubbock, Tami Rea-gor, Kelly Porter and Angela Glasscock, all of Ozona. Their dresses were of polished cotton in a pastel floral print of light and dark mist green, French mauve, pale yellow and grey on a white background and were fashioned with deep tri-pleated collars moulded back and off-shoulder necklines, ending in a curving pleated point in front. The fitted bodices with slightly dropped waistlines, accentuated the full ballerina-length skirts. The attendants carried one bridal pink rose surrounded by leather leaf fern and baby's breath tied with a cascade of French mauve satin ribbon streamers. They wore one tiny pink rose in a sprig of baby's breath in their hair at the temple.

The flower girls were Amber Gray of Memphis, niece of the bride, and Tiffini Morris of Ozona, cousin of the bridegroom. They wore rompers of the same fabric as the bridesmaids' dresses. The rompers were adorned with detachable collars of white batiste edged with white lace ruffles that tied in a bow just below the waistline. Tiny pink rosebuds and baby's breath were caught in their hair. Their white flowerbaskets were a confection of French mauve satin ribbons laced through white eyelet ruffles and caught with pink rosebuds. They were creations of the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Abe Morris.

The bridegroom wore a white Pierre Cardin tuxedo with tuxedo shirt, a cutaway jacket with satin lapels and tails. His pleated satin cummerbund and bow tie were French mauve.

The best man was Ryan Morris of Ozona, the bridegroom's brother. Groomsmen were Spencer Morris, uncle of the bridegroom, Jimmy Williams, Jay Haire and Brent Moore, brother of the bride, all of Ozona. The bridegroom's attendants and the ushers wore dove grey Pierre Cardin tuxedos, white tuxedo shirts and dinner jackets with satin lapels and pocket trim. Their pleated satin cummerbunds and bow ties were French mauve. The groomsmen's boutonnières were rosebuds made from the fabric of the bridesmaids' dresses enhanced with a sprig of baby's breath. They were fashioned by the bride's mother. Ushers were David Gray of Memphis, brother-in-law of the bride, and Gary Loudamy of San Angelo, uncle of the bridegroom. Justin Glasscock of Ozona served as the bridal carpet valet.

Following the wedding rehearsal Friday evening, the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Morris, hosted a rehearsal dinner for the bridal party, family and friends, at the civic center. The room was decorated

The ring bearers were Shawn Gray of Memphis, nephew of the bride, and Brent Morris of Ozona, cousin of the bridegroom. Their white suits with French mauve satin cummerbunds and bow ties complemented the bridegroom's attire.

After the wedding ceremony guests made their way to the lower terrace garden where the reception was held. On the outdoor patio the bride's "L" shaped table was clothed in white linen and surrounded with floor-length white silk gathered skirts. Sitting on a bed of green fern, the exquisite three-tiered bride's cake was iced in antique ivory and decorated with graceful scrolls, ivory roses, tufts of French mauve satin ribbon loops and tiny pale mauve roses. The top tier was covered with a nosegay mound of ivory roses, tiny iridescent balls, tufts of French mauve tulle and satin ribbon loops, surrounded with sprays of green fern. At one end of the table coffee was served from an antique silver coffee service. At the other end, golden pineapple sherbet punch was served from a crystal punch bowl sitting on a lovely silver tray that was a gift from the bride's grandparents. The bride's bouquet cascaded across the table adding beauty and fragrance to the occasion. Interspersed along the table were crystal and silver bowls of ivory mints and toasted glazed nuts and trays of chicken salad finger sandwiches.

Serving at the bride's table were Jessica Deaton of Crane, Aime Loudamy of San Angelo, cousin of the bridegroom and Mrs. David Porter of Ozona.

The bridegroom's table was white scrolled wrought iron with a glass top. The undergirding decorative scroll work was beautifully entwined with grape ivy and baby's breath, another accomplishment of the bridegroom's grandmother, assisted by Mrs. Tommie Stokes. A small square cloth of linen and drawn work lay under the bridegroom's cake, a red velvet double heart, iced in chocolate with scroll borders and decorated with sprays of tiny red roses. His mother prepared the cake, and family friends Curtis and Evelyn Keith decorated it. Centered on the cake was a "Precious Moments" ceramic bride and bridegroom, a sentimental remembrance from Connie Jennings who sang at the wedding, from her own wedding day. A graceful vase of red roses and silver bowls of toasted nuts completed the decor.

Serving at the bridegroom's table were his aunts, Mrs. Brian Cunningham of Crane, Mrs. Larry Pittman of Monahans and Mrs. Spencer Morris of Ozona.

In addition to the many local friends and family, the following out-of-town guests were in attendance: Mr. and Mrs. Norris Dame of South Fulton, TN, the bride's maternal grandparents; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Grosshans of San Angelo, the bridegroom's maternal grandparents; Mrs. Judy Wallace of Lorenzo; Mr. and Mrs. R.D. Morris of San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. Brett Morris of Bandera; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Morris of McCamey; Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hal Arnette and Mr. Tommy Hodge of Big Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Brian Cunningham, Jessica, Jana, Jacy and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cunningham of Crane; Mr. and Mrs. James Hanna of Bishop; Mrs. Ronnie Cox and Joel and Mr. Don Jones of Sonora; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Pittman, Abbie, Shirlee and Bree of Monahans; Mr. and Mrs. Welton Martin of Andrews; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Boerner and family and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Henderson and Britni of Hobbs, NM.

After a wedding trip to San Antonio and South Padre Island, the newlyweds, both 1991 graduates of Ozona High School, will make their home in Lubbock. Cody will attend Texas Tech, majoring in sports medicine. Melissa will attend Lubbock Christian University, majoring in elementary education.

Snips, Quips, and Lifts

by Lottie Lee Baker

Only big government could advocate spending our way to prosperity while being broke.

No man is too big to be kind, but many men are too little.

A grouch is always unhappy and dissatisfied, especially when he gets what he deserves.

A three weeks' stay in the hospital - I did not choose that lot - But a kidney stone thought differently - And that is what I got.

Don't envy anybody. Every person has something that no other person has. Develop that one thing and make it outstanding.

A fanatic usually has such a big chip on his shoulder that it causes him to lose his balance.

Changing our habits, like climbing a long flight of stairs, is something easier to do when we are young.

A man's hair and his teeth are about his best friends, but even the best of friends fall out.

You can recognize the golden years by all the silver in your hair.

Happiness is a place somewhere between too much and too little.

To love others makes us happy; to love ourselves makes us lonely.

Doctors tell us that hating people can cause cancer, heart attacks, headaches, skin rashes and asthma. It doesn't make the people we hate feel too good, either.

Everybody agrees that it is bad enough to have a skeleton in the closet, but worse to have a bonehead in the family.

The human body, with proper care, will last a lifetime.

Stretching may be an aid to health, but it doesn't seem to help the truth.

Keep your head and your heart going in the right direction, and you won't have to worry about your feet.

A LIFT FOR THE WEEK

A FEW IDEAS ON USING COLOR TO DECORATE

One of the easiest ways to give your home new life, and new beauty is to take advantage of color as a decorating aid.

There are so many things you can do with color to perk up your rooms--whether you're talking about color on just one new thing, or on many new furnishings.

In most cases, it's a good idea to use both harmony and contrast in your rooms--that is, having some colors that harmonize with each other, and also some that contrast. That can make for both more beauty, and more interest.

Another technique that color experts talk about is using unequal proportions of color. That is often more pleasing to the eye and makes the best use of color.

Depending on your needs, you can add reds or yellows or oranges to introduce new sparkle and excitement . . . or, blues or greens to bring a more soothing, peaceful feeling . . . or tans or browns or grays etc., to help you harmonize or contrast with your other colors.

Just remember that the right use of colors in your rooms can be one of your best decorating friends and we invite you to come in and see not only new furniture or accessories you might need, but also those in the colors that can make your home even more beautiful.

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women in the United States will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as the result of breast cancer.

Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate.

A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, even before it can be felt.

Guidelines For Screening Mammography Established by the American Cancer Society.

I. 35-40 years of age - One baseline mammogram.

II. 40-50 years of age - A mammogram every 1-2 years depending on breast type and risk factor.

III. 50 years of age and over - An annual physical examination and annual mammogram.

IV. Asymptomatic women under 50 years of age with significant high risk factors should be examined at appropriate intervals. These risk factors include previous breast cancer and family history of cancer.

V. A symptomatic woman should have a mammogram at any age when she experiences a mass, nipple discharge, skin changes or unexplained breast pain.

A screening mammogram is an x-ray of the breast using extremely low dosages of radiation (usually comparable to dental x-rays) and is designed to find very early cancers.

A female technologist who is highly trained in mammography will perform the examination.

The charge for the screening mammogram is $45.00. The Unit accepts cash, check, Visa, Mastercard and American Express.

Terry Racher visits Ozona during break from school in Taiwan

Former resident Terry Racher was in Ozona last week while visiting the states during a break from school in Taiwan. His wife, Patty, has been in Houston for some time undergoing treatment at M. D. Anderson Hospital. She will remain there for several more weeks of treatment after Terry returns to Hsinchu late this month. Never one to sit still, Patty has taken a job driving a small horse-drawn carriage during her Houston stay.

Terry was filled with news of his work at the Bible college in Hsinchu; a business card lists his occupations there as missionary teacher, pastor, student counselor and English teacher. China is open to anyone wanting to teach English, Racher said, but the work doesn't pay much, he added.

Racher and two other men had a good and productive trip out of China, spreading the Word of God as Terry made his way back to the U.S. They traveled from Taipei by boat to Canton, then on to Beijing. There they met with a Chinese man who spent 21 years in prison for not participating in the state church before his release in 1977. The man, who testified that his belief in God had kept him healthy and strong during his imprisonment, asked the three to spread the word that "the church is alive in China."

The travelers journeyed by train from Beijing to Harbin then into Siberia and on to Moscow. This trip took six days, Racher said.

In Moscow they met many Russians. The people were very open, Racher said, and don't know what to do with their freedom. There he learned that the average wage is $12 per month with skilled workers receiving $20-$24 per month. While in the city, they lunched with a diplomat whose father is a former ambassador to Bulgaria.

Terry arrived in the U. S. July 14 via Holland and London. During the journey he met many young people traveling for lengthy periods. Some had traveled from six months to a year, going from one county to another.

This pastor/teacher finds that he and others from the Bible college are able to communicate very successfully with the general populace in China. He wants to broaden his ministry beyond the confines of the college. Racher's travels this summer "opened my eyes to many things," he said.

Think About It!

Slightly Soiled

The sign in the store window said it in great big red letters: SALE. Inside, at the counter, was another sign that said it more graphically: "Slightly Soiled - Greatly Reduced in Price." It is amazing how one little blemish can reduce the price.

I hear that most stores don't suffer great losses over items that are completely destroyed, but they lose countless thousands of dollars with things that have been slightly damaged. High quality merchandise is often reduced to incredibly low prices because of a rip, tear, or smudge.

It is true in life too isn't it? A few people are "reduced in price" after some tragic mistake destroys them, but far more have their worth reduced as the result of a minor blunder or flaw. Again, it is amazing how one misplaced deed or word can greatly reduce a person's influence.

Some stains just don't come out easily. If you are like me, you have them. Blurs and blemishes that are seen no matter how much good you try to do. It's sad, but true, that one slip of tongue can reduce your influence.

You know it is not generally the lions, tigers, and rattlesnakes that do most of the killing - it's the little tiny germ that invades a body and takes its strength away.

A slight mistake can cost dearly. What about a new car with a cracked windshield or a little hail damage? Or a new dress with a cigarette burn? Or a ten dollar bill with Lincoln's picture on it? Yes, slight mistakes damage and counterfeit. So it is that we often lose credibility over one lone mistake.

Damage, however slight, is costly and difficult to repair. Do you remember the Miss America who lost her crown because she posed for Playboy one time? Jane Fonda visited North Vietnam almost twenty years ago, and many, especially veterans, still despise her.

Sin, ever so slight, casts an indelible mark on one's soul. Not only does it separate one from the holy God, it often alienates him from others. The Bible is literally filled with examples of folks who fell through one mistake. And sin is costly, real costly.

God is in the restoring business. Those sins, the "big" ones or the "little" ones, can be washed away in the blood of Christ. The cleansing has already taken place - we just have to accept it and embrace it.

What should happen when we fall to damaging things that greatly reduce our worth? Admit it and ask forgiveness. With God or man, it seems that it is the only thing to do. God forgives, and I think that people do too generally speaking.

The prophet Isaiah, speaking God's message, said, "Come now, let us reason together, though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow" (Isa. 1:18). Applied that means, "whatever the blemish, God can restore."

Thanks to a loving Father, a sacrificial Son, and a comforting Spirit - our worth can be made new. Off the sale rack and on to the best shelf. Discredit and dishonor can be removed in the blood of Christ every day as we follow Him. I'm a sinner that says, does, and thinks things every day that soil me and reduce my worth, but thanks be to God that His grace reaches and restores even me.

Think about it.

hear them tell of the school and orphanage they have established at Puerto Escondido through Workman Ministries International.

The Westers are in Ozona for a short time visiting his mother, Nell Wester. The couple went to Mexico in 1988 to establish a vocational trade and Bible school. The children's home is an outgrowth of the school.

Larry is elated that the Mexican government has given the school "A.C." papers, the equivalent of non-profit status in the United States. "We are completely free to pursue the mission endeavors now without hesitation," he said. He has also been notified that the academic school will be accredited with the government once the children's home is completed.

Work on the foundation for the home began this month. Donations will determine the completion date, but the Westers hope for January of 1992. In addition to funds, workers and short-term construction teams are needed to meet the completion date.

The home will accept children ages 3-12 as soon as possible without waiting for completion of the building. The home will house 24 orphaned or abandoned youngsters. After age 12, the children may continue at La Casa Esperanza, but none will be accepted after that age.

The Westers began work with pastoral training through local churches in Puerto Escondido a year ago. Their goal is to raise missionaries principally to go into Moslem countries, Larry explained. They will accept children at as early an age as possible.

Academic classes are taught through the Accelerated Christian Education program which is available in Spanish for grades 1-6. Training in English is given to all classes in these grades. After grade six, the curriculum is entirely in English.

WMI's vo-tech department focuses on adult continuing education and teaching technical skills. Local church assistance through WMI includes construction, distribution of Bibles, tracts and Sunday school material and sponsorships of Mexican home missionaries, Larry said.

Dayspring Fellowship of San Angelo is the home church of the Westers. WMI is a non-profit organization.

Who is my Neighbor?

By Charles Huffman, Pastor
Faith Lutheran Church, Ozona
Hope Lutheran Church, Sonora

Luke 10:25-37

The lawyer who came to Jesus seeking assurance of eternal life was not about to challenge the divine summary of the Ten Commandments: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your life and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor like yourself." And he knew that his fellow experts in the Law couldn't challenge his love for God, because he said the right words, went through the right motions, and led a very respectable kind of life. But there was a point where the genuineness of his faith could be challenged. The "love your neighbor" part stopped him cold, so that he had only one recourse: "And who is my neighbor?"

It's hard to say whether or not Jesus' answer surprised the lawyer, but His parable of the Good Samaritan is a revealing and judgmental condemnation upon much that goes under the name of Christianity today. It tends to make much of our assumed or professed Piety seem less than genuine. Of course, as long as we say the right words and belong to the right church, our faith cannot be disproved by our fellow human beings. But the parable of the Good Samaritan pins us to the wall and demands that we "Put Up or Shut Up!"

There's no question about God's great salvation to eternal life - received by faith through His loving gift in the life, death and resurrection of His Son, Jesus Christ. However, it is not enough to just say the right words - like "Christ is Lord" or "I love You, Jesus". There must be total commitment, placing ourselves at God's disposal and presenting our bodies as living sacrifices (Romans 12:1). Thus it is not mere words but an act of the will. And the only way we can act in this way toward the Invisible God is to commit ourselves to the needs of our Visible neighbor.

"And who is my neighbor?" Jesus gives us the answer - loudly and clearly! Every human being is our neighbor - regardless of color, background or social status. May God in His grace deliver us from the bigotry and prejudice that taints our soul and teach us how to love our fellow human beings - as He has loved us in the greatest Good Samaritan of all history, Jesus Christ.

Spinks, Crowley exchange wedding vows

Gwyndolyn Ann Spinks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Freddy R. Spinks of Bangs, and Timothy Michael Crowley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Crowley of San Angelo, exchanged vows at three o'clock in the afternoon on July 27 in a double ring ceremony in the San Angelo Emmanuel Episcopal Church with Father John H. Loving officiating.

The bride is the niece of Mrs. Juanelle Davee of Ozona.

Guests were greeted and registered by Mrs. Connie Geron of Bangs. Ushers Toby Davee of Ozona, cousin of the bride, Doug Meeks and Dustin Seymore of Bangs, were attired in light grey pin-striped tuxedos with peach cummerbunds and bow tie with boutonnières of white carnations. Mrs. Dennis Ross provided the organ music and Mr. Lee Francis sang "The Ring".

Vows were spoken before an altar decorated with English ivy and several arrangements of white, peach, and teal fresh-cut assorted flowers. Two brass tiered candelabrams entwined with English ivy flanked each side of the altar. The rest of the church was decorated with English ivy, peach candles and large standing arrangements of white, peach and teal fresh-cut assorted flowers. Family pews were designated by large white bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, was escorted to the altar by her father. He wore a black pin-striped tuxedo accented by a white carnation boutonniere.

The bride was attired in a formal gown of white slipper satin and Schiffler embroidered lace. Double beaded embroidery accented the bustier bodice and back of the gown. Austrian crystals and drop pearls enhanced the gigot sleeves that were embellished with matching lace. A deep basque tipping was accented with crystal drops and Schiffler pearlized lace. The A-line satin skirt fell into a full cathedral train embellished with cutwork lace decorated with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. Sequin and seed pearls enhanced the large double bow bustle which complemented the back waist line. To complete her ensemble, the bride wore a tiara headpiece of white silk camellias enhanced with pearl sprays that were attached to a two-tier, elbow-length satin edged French pouf veil and carried a cascading arrangement of peach silk flowers and tulle, accented with pearl sprays, both made by the bridegroom's mother.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Ginger Geron of San Angelo. Bridesmaids included Dawn Crowley, sister of the bridegroom Julie Cash, cousin of the bridegroom, both of San Angelo, Melinda DeLaGarza, Amy Powers, Laura Cox, Amy Boyle, all of Bangs and Kim Mattix of Stephenville. The attendants wore matching dresses of peach satin. The tea-length dresses featured a drop waist with a full gathered skirt and matching bow at the waist. The gowns were complemented with peach satin shoes. Each attendant carried a peach rose with matching netting, peach and teal ribbons.

The flower girl was Kimberly Davee of Lake Jackson, cousin of the bride. She wore a tea-length dress of peach satin with a draped, ruffled overskirt accented with matching ribbon and a sash that formed a bow at the back waist. She carried a white satin and tulle covered basket accented with white roses and ribbons and peach string pearls. The basket was filled with assorted peach and white fresh cut flowers.

Jared Davee of Lake Jackson and cousin of the bride served as ringbearer. He was attired in a light grey, pin-striped tuxedo with a peach cummerbund and bowtie. A white pixie carnation boutonniere accented the coat. He carried a white satin heart-shaped pillow with double row of lace and small white cascading flowers and pearl spray.

Bible bearer was Vincent Hernandez of San Angelo, cousin of the bridegroom. Vincent carried a white family Bible with gold-edged pages and the couple's name and wedding date on the front. He also wore a light grey, pin-striped tuxedo with peach cummerbund and bow tie and white pixie carnation boutonniere.

The bridegroom was attired in a dark grey, pin-striped tuxedo with a wing tip shirt accented with grey. To complete his ensemble he wore a white rose boutonniere. Attending as best man was Jarius Beck of San Angelo. Groomsmen included Greg Spinks of Austin, Glen Spinks of San Marcos, brothers of the bride, Joel Sanchez, Scott Wooten, Chris Trimier, Scott Bible of San Angelo and Derek Prince of Dallas. The men wore light grey, pin-striped tuxedos with peach cummerbunds, bow ties and white carnation boutonniere.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Spinks selected a light peach tea-length, two-piece dress with lace overlay and shoes and purse to match. Her corsage was an arrangement of peach roses. Mrs. Crowley, the bridegroom's mother, chose a teal tea-length A-line dress with lace overlay and matching shoes.

The reception, catered by the mother of the bride and served by friends Sharon Meek of Brooksmith, Nita Ward of Early, Connie Geron, Dawn Geron of Bangs, Mr. Rafeal of San Angelo, Sara Cash, Diana Alexander, Elva Garza and Janice Trammel of San Angelo was held in the fellowship hall of the church. Music for the reception was provided by Park Fielder of San Angelo.

The bride's table was round and covered in white with a lace overlay. The three-tiered white cake topped with the traditional bride and bridegroom was decorated with shades of white, peach and teal flowers with white ribbon streamers leading down to matching heart-shaped cakes on each side. A heart-shaped arch with a double-ring candelabrum behind and a unity candle stand under it was flanked by heart shaped candelabrams on each side and was decorated with English ivy, assorted peach and teal flowers and accented with peach roses which was the setting for the couple lighting the unity candle while their song, "Just You and I", was being played.

The bridegroom's table was skirted with white and accented with white lace and flanked by large standing vases of fresh cut assorted peach, white, and teal flowers. A silver coffee service accompanied the German chocolate cake topped with figures of a bride holding the coat-tail of her bridegroom's coat. The wedding punch and champagne punch were served from hand-blown glass punch bowls. A large portrait of the bride on a brass easel separated the two tables.

Mr. Rafeal of San Angelo prepared the food table which was skirted with peach and accented with teal satin and white tulle with a centerpiece of a large fruit tower, flanked by an assortment of appetizers.

The registry and gift tables were skirted with peach overlaid with white lace featuring a large centerpiece of assorted white, peach and teal flowers.

As the bride and her father were dancing, the bridegroom cut in and the couple waltzed their first dance to "May I Have This Dance For The Rest of My Life".

The song, "If" was sung by Lee Francis to the bride as a surprise from the bridegroom.

The bride and bridegroom were driven from the church in a black limousine. After a wedding trip to the Caribbean, they will make their home in San Angelo where both are students at Angelo State University.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Crowley in their home where barbecue, potato salad, and beans were served.

"Friends" in San Angelo hosted a lingerie shower for the bride at Maximus. A miscellaneous shower for the couple was hosted by Connie Geron, Linda Meeks, Andy Walker, and Deann Cox of Bangs.

Shawn McMullan of Iraan won the match roping at the Jay Miller Memorial Roping held Sunday, August 4, at the fairgrounds arena.

McMullan wins Cheyenne All-around cowboy title

Shawn McMullan of Iraan was the surprised recipient of the all-around cowboy championship honor last month at the Cheyenne Frontier Days Rodeo in Wyoming.

The 21-year-old roper didn't realize he qualified for the all-around championship because he had only competed in and won the calf roping event. Cowboys usually have to place in at least two events to qualify for the all-around.

McMullan won the most money by placing second and fifth in two rounds to take home the buckle and $12,233. According to rodeo officials, it has been at least 10 years since a cowboy entered in only one event has won the all-around title at Cheyenne.

Shawn is the son of Glenda and Kenny McMullan of Iraan and grandson of Dorothy Friend of Ozona.

Scouting workshop certifies leaders

El Camino Girl Scout Council held an adult volunteer training workshop Aug. 1 at the Crockett Room. The Girl Scout program requires specific instructional trainings which correlate to the adult volunteers' job position. These trainings are designed to ensure compliance with the Girl Scout beliefs and guidelines. Level course training is essential in order to provide the skills necessary to enhance activities. Additional suggested trainings are offered throughout the year by El Camino Council.

training Norma Vigil and El Camino event director Carolyn Kirby, both of San Angelo, presented Brownie and Junior level trainings.

Receiving certification at the Brownie level were Jackie Necessary and Rhonda Shaw. Receiving certification at the Junior level were Vargus, Sara Hill and Rachel Ybarra. Previously certified adults Marge St. Clair, Linda Usener and Debbi Bachman were also in attendance.

The workshop concluded with an adult investiture ceremony for the newly certified leaders and their assistants.

Congratulations to Claude and Nelda Montya who celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary on Aug. 3.

The Ozona workshop represented the first El Camino Council Outreach Training Workshop. Prior to this workshop, all trainings were held at council or district headquarters.

Firefighters school is hot event

School may be out for children and teenagers, but for 5,000 firefighters from 25 countries and across Texas, school was just heating up at the largest firefighting facility in the nation.

These firefighters attended class at the 62nd Annual Texas Firemen's Training School on the Texas A&M University campus at Brayton Firemen's Training Field. The school is hosted by the Texas Engineering Extension Service and sponsored by the State Firemen's and Fire Marshal's Association. Class is in session July 15-August 2.

Students practice battling real fires on mock-ups of warehouses, automobiles, trucks, heater-treaters, rail cars and loading terminals. Firefighters attend basic and advanced courses depending on their level of expertise and previous training. Week-long schools are held for Spanish-speaking firefighters as well as firefighters from industry, municipalities and those who work with hazardous materials.

Suppressing fires isn't the only concern of Texas firefighters who attend the municipal school. There is a growing interest in agro-rescue," said Roger Fields, director of emergency services for the City of Friona. Fields is the instructor-in-charge of the "agro-rescue" course. He says accidents on farms and ranches have increased 30 percent in the last five years.

An accident on a farm outside of Bryan recently claimed the life of a well-known Texas A&M University professor. According to Fields, these accidents make it necessary for firefighters to be trained in agricultural rescue.

His students practice on a grain elevated storage tank, combine, hay swather, hay baler, brush cutter, tractor and auger trailer. Fields says the 30-hour course, which is designed to save lives, draws many volunteer firefighters from rural communities.

Other rescue courses are also taught. One involves high-rise rescue where participants rappel from a five-story building. These are not your ordinary classes nor your ordinary teachers. Fields is one of a 1,000 guest instructors who helps firefighters make the grade in summer school.

Attending from Ozona were the following: Kim Caddell, Firefighting I; David Tijerina, Firefighting I; Doug Meador, Fire Prevention 6, Phase III and arson investigator; Robert Tambunga, Pump Operations; Steve Kenley, Instructor of Fire Prevention; Bob Falkner, Emergency Service Dispatcher. EMTs attending were Sandra Gonzales and Tasha Nowell., Rescue I.

Notice of Effective Tax Rate (for use by counties)

1991 Property Tax Rates in CROCKETT COUNTY

This notice concerns 1991 property tax rates for Crockett County. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

Summer program ends for 4-year-olds

The summer program for 4-year-olds at Ozona Elementary concluded on Aug. 2 with an outdoor picnic. The six-week program, which began on June 24, was designed to give children going into pre-kindergarten this fall a headstart. The main emphasis of the program is to develop skills in oral language and English proficiency.

Throughout the program children were introduced to specific vocabulary in units such as people, animals, body parts, school items, colors, numbers, shapes, musical instruments and nursery rhymes.

The children participated in various fun and learning experiences throughout the summer. They enjoyed going on field trips which included the Crockett County Library, Thornton's Supermarket and Dairy Queen.

Members of the class were: David Ray Casarez, Raven Perez, Ruben Talamantez, Erika Lozano, Lupita Victorino, Lesley Mendoza, Carla Guerrero, Jasmine Rodriguez, Catherine Marmolejo and Elizabeth Vasquez.

The program was taught by Vicky Gonzales who was assisted by Kay Vargas.

Local project provides school supplies for needy children

Citizens of Ozona are invited to participate in the collection of school supplies for children whose families cannot provide the needed items.

Beginning Monday, Aug. 5, those interested in donating school supplies may go to either bank and pick an apple from the school supply tree. On the apples items will be listed that are needed by school children. Approximate cost of the items on each apple is $2.00. After purchasing the items, the school supplies and apples are to be returned to the baskets under the school supply trees in the bank lobby.

This project is sponsored by the Ozona United Methodist Women in cooperation with local banks.

School breakfast and lunch program guidelines

Dear Parent/Guardian:

The Crockett County Consolidated Common school District serves meals each school day. Children in Ozona Primary and Ozona Intermediate School may buy lunch for $.85 and breakfast for $.40. Children in Ozona Junior High and Ozona High School may buy lunch for $1.00 and breakfast for $.40. Children also may get meals free or at a reduced price.

If you now get food stamps or AFDC for your children, your children can get free meals. If your total household income is the same or less than the amounts on the Income Chart below, your children can get free meals or reduced price meals. A foster child may get free or reduced price meals regardless of your income. The reduced price is $.40 for lunch and $.30 for breakfast.

To get free or reduced price meals for your children, you must complete an application form and return it to the school. The district cannot approve an application that is not complete. Parents/Guardians of students who were in Ozona Public Schools last year will receive free/reduced lunch applications in the mail, but parents who wish to obtain these forms in advance may do so by contacting the principal of any campus.

Verification: Your eligibility may be checked at any time during the school year. School officials may ask you to send papers showing that your children should get free or reduced meals.

Fair Hearing: You may talk to school official if you do not agree with the school's decision on your application or the results of verification. You may also ask for a fair hearing. You may do this by calling or writing Mr. Ted Cotton, Box 400, Ozona Public Schools Administration Building, Ozona, Texas. The telephone number is 392-5501.

Reporting Changes: If your children get free or reduced price meals because of your income, you must tell the school if your household size decreases or your income increases by more than $50 per month or $600 per year. If your children get meals because they get food stamps or AFDC, you must tell the school when you are not getting AFDC or food stamps for them. You may then fill out another application giving income information.

Confidentiality: School officials use the information on the application to decide if your children should get free or reduced price meals.

Reapplication: You may apply for meals anytime during the school year. If you are not eligible now but have a change, like a decrease in household income, an increase in household size, become unemployed or get food stamps or AFDC for your children, complete an application then.

Lions prepare for practice

By Robert Gentry

Varsity and junior varsity football practice is set to start Aug. 12. Coach Don Payne and his staff appear ready to take on the complicating challenges of another football season.

Due to school's early start this year, two-a-days will only last about a week.

Shoes and helmets will be issued Aug. 7 from 8 a.m. until noon and from 6 until 8 p.m.

Last year, the varsity team lost a large number of its first and secondary teams to graduation.

The Lions' first scrimmage will be against Sanderson in Sanderson at 5 p.m. Aug. 23.

No known cure for Alzheimer's disease

A rapid increase in the number of elderly persons means more Alzheimer's disease cases than ever before.

In the year 2000, about two million Texans will be age 65 and older. Of these, more than 200,000 are expected to suffer from Alzheimer's disease.

Though more than 180,000 Texans now have this illness, many people don't know much about Alzheimer's disease. "It is a dementing disease, a thief of minds, a destroyer of personalities, wrecker of family finances, filler of nursing homes," said Morris H. Craig, director of TDH's Alzheimer's Disease Program. "It also is a leading cause of death, after heart disease, cancer, and stroke, causing 150,000 deaths each year nationwide. At this time, there are no known cures for this disease, and even the causes of it are not clear, though research continues."

Alzheimer's disease begins almost imperceptibly as perhaps an inability to find the right word — especially nouns, the need to write many reminder notes or wearing the same clothes day after day. Personalities change to reflect less spontaneity, ambition and interest. At the same point, the sufferer may become unable to write or speak coherently, to understand most spoken or written language, or to recognize anyone, including himself in the mirror. The patient becomes unable to feed himself and in time, becomes bedridden and incontinent. Eventually, he or she loses consciousness and is unable to survive without total care.

An Alzheimer's patient is usually cared for at home in the beginning. As the patient's mental powers slip away, the caregiving family agonizes over and usually concludes that nursing home care is the best choice for a patient who must be cared for around the clock.

Choosing a nursing home can be bewildering since there are many different kinds of nursing homes including religiously affiliated, usually not-for-profit homes and homes run for a profit. There are homes in which a wide range of disabilities are represented and homes with designated Alzheimer's units. Some homes are run on a pay-as-you-go basis and others are life care facilities which require an up-front payment (sometimes the patient's life savings) and may then provide care for life even after the patient's funds are exhausted.

In selecting a nursing home, families of Alzheimer's disease victims are advised to visit several to give some basis for comparison. "Visit when you can spend enough time to thoroughly check the facilities for everything from licensing to availability of snacks," advised Craig. "Visit at different times of the day and on different days before making a decision. Keep in mind that often there are waiting lists, so it's necessary to begin the selection process before placement becomes necessary."

Craig also warns family members to keep in mind that nursing homes care is expensive, currently averaging more than $2,000 a month. Medicare, Medicaid, private insurance, Veterans Administration System and Social Security Disability are areas of possible financial support for Alzheimer's victims. However, Alzheimer's caregivers often find these channels lacking and must pursue these benefits aggressively.

To provide support for Alzheimer's Disease Program, TDH staff provide specialized information, resources, research information and information regarding support groups.

"The good news is that Alzheimer's disease does not affect some 91 percent of those over age 65," said Craig. "And research is continuing so that in time, we may be able to prevent and even cure Alzheimer's."

For more information, contact Morris H. Craig, Ph.D., Director, TDH Alzheimer's Program, at 1-800-242-3399 or 512/548-7323, or Margaret Wilson, Public Health Promotion Division at 512/458-7405.

Adkins Supply Inc. new to Ozona

Texas gas production down in May compared to 1990

AUSTIN, July 24—Railroad Commission Chairman Lena Guerrero announced that Texas oil and gas wells produced 445,315,450 Mcf (thousand cubic feet) of gas in May, down four percent compared to May 1990's gas production total of 463,331,658 Mcf. April gas production was 439,585,175 Mcf.

The state's top producing counties, rank ordered by preliminary May production, were: Pecos, 24,440,345 Mcf; Webb, 24,007,988 Mcf; Zapata, 23,358,384 Mcf; Panola, 18,225,227 Mcf; Hidalgo, 16,778,777 Mcf; Crane, 11,623,940 Mcf; Crockett, 8,857,507 Mcf; Yoakum, 8,816,525 Mcf; Ector, 8,495,576 Mcf; and Hemphill, 8,442,535 Mcf.

Cashing in on the Texas meat goat market

No butts about it, Texas goat producers have found a market need and are jumping in to fill it.

They are eyeing a new industry for Texas agriculture — meat goat production on about 22 million acres of brushland stretching across about 40 counties.

Interest expressed by ranchers attending a field day at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station's La Copita Research Area near Alice indicated that many are adding such enterprises to their operations, said Dr. Wayne Hanselka of Corpus Christi.

"Other ranchers involved in meat goat production for a number of years say they plan to expand their herds," he said.

Hanselka, a range specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, discussed potentials for meat goat production in the South Texas brush country during the La Copita field day.

An Experiment Station study now under way seeks to determine how effectively the goats help control brush on rangeland and to evaluate their general nutritional needs.

"Previous research has shown that the meat goats prefer browse from native brush species and weeds over grass and other types of foods," Hanselka said.

Making goat meat, or cabrito, the "fajitas of the '90s," is another aim of the research.

"Cabrito, the meat from young goats, is nutritious, lean, and does not require a lengthy feeding period," Hanselka said.

He and Dr. Joe Paschal, an Extension Service livestock specialist at Corpus Christi, are coordinating the educational aspects of an agricultural diversification venture on meat goat production, expansion and marketing. Some results from the project are expected to be available in 18 to 24 months.

Besides the research studies, two major ranch demonstration herds and nine other cooperating ranches are expanding the knowledge base for meat goat production and management under field conditions.

"Results from these ranch studies show a strong potential for expanding the industry, particularly in South Texas," Paschal said. "These animals do not compete for available food with cattle or most other wildlife."

Hanselka said the goats help reduce such brush species as huisa-che, granjeno, catclaw, hackberry and blackbrush. "They also eat the beans of mesquite, and they browse on broadleaf weed species," he said.

A survey conducted recently by Winrock International indicated that prospects are bright for a meat goat industry in the southern states, including Texas, Hanselka and Paschal said.

But, they added, the study pointed to the need to expand the production of meat goats, because supplies of cabrito are generally limited to the months of April through September.

More information about the project and conference is available from Hanselka or Paschal at Texas A&M's Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Corpus Christi, (512) 265-9203, or Hoefler at Texas A&I, (512) 595-3689.

Public Notice

On April 9, 1991, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas to request that the optional feature "Call Transfer Disconnect" be available to all PLEXAR I customers by including the feature in Southwestern Bell's PLEXAR I tariff. Currently, this optional feature is available only on a customer requested basis.

Call Transfer Disconnect (CTD) is an optional feature that allows PLEXAR I customers the ability to transfer a call to another telephone number within or outside their PLEXAR I system, hang up, and permit the two remaining parties to continue with the call. The PLEXAR I user is then free to place or accept another call. CTD is not intended to be used to avoid toll charges. Therefore, CTD will not be available to PLEXAR I customers subscribing to optional Extended Metropolitan Service or Extended Area Calling Service.

If the company's application is approved, the monthly rate for CTD will be $4.00 for each PLEXAR I station line. Prior to the June 19, 1991, interim rate approval, Southwestern Bell was billing customers who receive the service $1.50 for each station line equipped with this feature. In addition, under Southwestern Bell's proposed tariff, every line within the PLEXAR I system must be equipped with this feature. The nonrecurring charge for the additional lines which must be equipped with CTD will be waived for existing CTD customers. The tariffed monthly rate will apply to all existing and future CTD customers.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0256, or (512) 458-0221, teletypewriter for the deaf.

Mohair Textile Marketing Association seeking funds

Mohair producers met in Ozona July 30 to hear a marketing proposal which would give the grower more control of his product according to proponent Jimmy Cahill of Sonora. Cahill, owner of Old Sonora Trading Company, explained to area ranchers that when they sell their mohair, they are getting out of the market after the first step.

The marketing proposal includes forming a cooperative or corporation of growers which could own the hair from the source to the finished product.

"There's a point in time when Texas producers own 100 percent of their mohair....and whoever owns it has a right to those profits," Cahill said.

The Sonora entrepreneur has spent six years developing and marketing a line of mohair throws, blankets and garments. "It took a year to get one blanket," he said, explaining the difficulties of finding U. S. firms to process mohair from the raw fiber to finished product.

Bolts of cloth and mohair garments were displayed for the audience of approximately 40 people.

Under Cahill's plan, mohair would be sold through warehouses just as it is now, then bought back by the organization. This step would ensure that the mohair incentive program remains in place, he said. The fiber would then go to a top maker to be broken down into core yarn and sliver. In the next step, these products would be sent to a spinner, then to a weaver, then to the cutter and sewer, resulting in a finished product for the Dallas Apparel Mart.

Each step would be done in the U. S., subcontracted with no scheduling by the processors until the product was in house, in all, about a nine-month period.

A steering committee has been established for the fledgling Mohair Textile Marketing Association. Committee member Mark White of San Angelo expressed enthusiasm for the project. White and Cahill have begun a search for financing of what they believe could be in excess of a million dollar first year in contracts for the association.

A loan through the Texas Department of Agriculture looks real, according to White. The TDA has assigned a person to help the association put together a business plan and a feasibility study necessary in securing a loan.

"I can offer an actuality test," said Cahill, speaking of the finished products he already markets.

The men believe the organization should be in line for a $2,000,000 loan. "We'd like to see area banks take a portion of this $2,000,000, spread the loans in banks where there's interested producers and bring the interest back home," White said.

Having a governor and commissioner of agriculture who actively promote Texas products can only help, they say.

Dr. Johnny Fields of Sonora, another member of the steering committee, added words of support. "It's an opportunity to control our fate a little bit better than in the past."

Local growers expressed interest in the proposal during a question and answer period, debating possible pitfalls and pluses of the plan.

Additional meetings are proposed throughout the Angora goat country in Texas. "We need the input from the agriculture community," White said. A previous meeting was held in Sonora.

Steering committee members include: Cahill, White, Fields, Seco Mayfield, Bob Rick, Art Beckworth, Robin Giles, Robert Allison, James Leonard and Matt Arrott.

Wool promotion referendum set for August 19-30 in Washington

WASHINGTON, JULY 22—The U.S. department of Agriculture has scheduled a referendum Aug. 19-30 for wool producers to decide whether to continue a market promotion and improvement program.

Keith Bjerke, administrator of USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, said the proposed program, similar to one approved in 1986, would continue to authorize deductions from producer price support payments.

If the referendum is approved by a majority of either the producers voting or the producers who own a majority of the sheep represented in the referendum, deductions from wool price support payments would be established at a rate not to exceed seven cents per pound of wool marketed and not to exceed 35 cents per hundredweight of unshorn lambs for calendar year 1991.

For calendar years 1992 through 1995, the deductions may increase up to an additional one cent per pound of wool marketed and up to an additional five cents per hundredweight of unshorn lambs, per year.

The amounts deducted will be used by the American Sheep Industry Association to finance advertising and sales promotion programs for wool in domestic and foreign markets, and for information programs for producers on production management and market development and improvement.

ASCS county offices will distribute ballots in early August. Completed ballots must be returned in person to the county office or post-marked by the August 30 deadline.

To be eligible to vote, a person must have owned sheep or lambs six months old or older for at least 30 consecutive days in 1990. A cooperative may vote on behalf of its members and if it does so, its members are then ineligible to vote in their own capacity.

In the 1986 referendum, producers owning 67.8 percent of the sheep approved the program.

Faithful volunteer Ed Hale put in hours of work as the youth rodeo's arena director. He is pictured working as a flagman.

Frank Tambunga receives commendation for service

S/Sgt. Frank Tambunga of Ozona, a Marine reservist, received special commendation last week for his service during the Persian Gulf War. Tambunga was in attendance at monthly reserve training in Abilene when the certificate of commendation signed by J.E. Livingston, Brigadier General, USMC Commanding was presented.

The commendation was awarded for "exceptional achievement and superior performance of duty while serving with Combat Service Support Detachment 40, 1st Marine Expeditionary Brigade, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, from 15 December 1990 to 15 April 1991. Called to active duty to participate in the 1st Marine Expeditionary Brigade Remain Behind Equipment maintenance effort in support of Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm, you met each of your responsibilities with uncommon efficiency and unparalleled professionalism. As a result of your superior technical skills and leadership abilities, more than 97 percent of the nearly 5,500 items of equipment that entered the RBE maintenance cycle were repaired timely and at quality levels that exceeded all expectations. Your dedication, professionalism, and steadfast devotion to duty contributed to the effectiveness of the Total Force Concept and reflects great credit upon yourself, the Marine Corps and the United States Naval Service."

Tambunga is employed at Ozona National Bank.

Angora goat raisers approve mohair promotion program

WASHINGTON, July 19—In a June 17-28 referendum, mohair producers voted to continue deductions from the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Commodity Credit Corporation mohair incentive payments to finance promotion of mohair.

Preliminary returns show approval by 2,533 to 385, with 86.8 percent of the producers approving continuation of advertising and other market development under a proposed agreement between USDA and the Mohair Council of America. These 2,533 producers owned 89.8 percent of the goats owned by producers voting in the referendum. This agreement provides for domestic and foreign advertising, and sales promotion programs.

The proposed agreement authorizes deductions of up to 4 1/2 cents per pound from payments made under the National Wool Act on mohair marketed from 1991 through 1995.

Although there were no mohair price support payments made to producers from 1972 through 1980, funds generated under a 1971 agreement were not exhausted until 1978. From 1978 through mid-1983, MCA's activities were funded by the Texas Mohair Producers Board as authorized by Texas producers in a 1976 Texas mohair referendum.

Since mid-1983, MCA's activities have been funded through deductions from price support payments under the National Wool Act. Deductions from 1989 price support payments were about $736,000.
