His

Say, George, have you heard about Samuel Doublecluck's old rooster? Well, be sure and don't tell anybody what I am about to tell ya, because I sure would hate for it to get out that I said so. Anyway old Sam's chicken has been reported sneaking around late in the evening down the street visiting Aunt Lucy's prize white hen. Ever since Lucy's husband passed away couple of years ago she has been kina lax on remembering to close the coop gate. Anyway Lucy's next door neighbor, Grandma Jesse, caught 'em together in the backyard just having the best old time you ever saw. Now you remember, George, don't you dare tell a soul where all this came from.

Well, old George kept it to himself just as long as he could stand it, for about 15 minutes as the clock ticks. Anyway, George passed his version of the story on to Jim Talksalot.

Say, Jim, have you heard what happened to Sam Doublecluck and Aunt Lucy in her backyard? Well anyway Grandma Jesse told me that she caught them having the best old time you ever saw. Anyway after she caught them, Jesse's hen took off for the coop and Sam's old rooster flew over the fence and headed for home as fast as he could run. Now don't you tell a soul who told you all of this. I sure would hate for it to come back to me.

Of course, Jim told someone else his version and they in turn told someone else. Each time the tale gets twisted just a little more and a little more. This is my version of a tale-twisting rumor that really got started unintentionally, without fault on anybody's part. It was intended to be humorous on George's part but ended up with an entirely different meaning, affecting the lives of Lucy and Sam.

There is one rumor going around that I would take pride in squashing by setting the record straight. The Hitchin' Post Restaurant is not closing, has no plans of ever closing, and wouldn't close even if you wanted it to. They are and will continue to serve those juicy, mouth watering steaks, fried fish and steak fingers just like they have always done in the past. This is straight from the owners, Debi and Pat Hamilton.

And no, I have not been sneaking out at night cleaning chicken houses all over town.

Commissioners discuss landfill problems

Crockett County commissioners ended their day of court Monday agreeing that landfill problems are their most pressing concern. The present landfill will be full before a new site could receive a permit and a landfill constructed.

Dan Davidson, president of Crockett County Water Control District and Doug Meador of the water district, and two representatives of Pack Rat Inc., a waste disposal company, met briefly with the court to discuss trash disposal. Judge Kathryn Mayfield asked Davidson to confer with his board at their next meeting and come up with a recommendation for the court. Crockett County operates and maintains the landfill, but the water district collects and hauls trash and bills for the service. Pack Rat Inc. offers a collection and hauling service which can include billing service.

A plan to combine five county departments under one supervisor in 1992 was officially approved by the court. Current road superintendent Eddie Moore will oversee the combined road, parks, cemetery, landfill and building maintenance department.

As reorganized, the new department will consist of Moore, a secretary, four employees for parks and buildings, three cemetery employees, three mechanics, one landfill operator and 15 road employees. Commissioners approved setting base pay at $6.00 per hour in this department beginning Jan. 1. A salary increase for one employee whose duties will change was also approved effective Jan. 1.

Onecimo Ortiz, parks department superintendent, submitted his resignation effective Dec. 31, 1991. Ortiz will leave the job after 41 years with the county.

Court members voted on specific requests for the 1992 budget from various departments but deferred approving the 1992 official budget until after the school system officially sets its tax rate Sept. 17. The court will meet in called session Sept. 18 at 7 a.m. to approve the county budget and the school's tax rate.

A tax rate of .68 per $100 valuation was set by commissioners on Monday.

County budget disbursement figures remain to be adjusted after approval of several requests Monday. Disbursements are expected to be approximately $6.2 million with income at $6,067,668. Auditor Sandy Stokes said Tuesday.

Commissioners voted to approve a hospital budget of $1,605,007 and a care center budget of $1,011,907. Of the hospital amount, $665,545 will come from county funds and $939,462 from other revenues. The care center budget will include $326,001 from county funds and $685,906 from other revenues.

Other budget requests approved by the court include:

- Part-time employee for district judge, cost shared by counties he serves; auto allowance and salary supplement for district judge
- Two automobiles for Sheriff's Department (three were requested); washer and dryer for jail
- Salary increase for two part-time civic center employees
- Salary increase for justice of the peace and his clerk; typewriter for J.P.
- Vehicle for Extension Service
- Street sweeper for road department

ment; $160,000 for paving throughout county

-$400 for temporary secretary for county attorney's office while regular secretary on vacation.

A request from the Sheriff's Department for two female jailers was denied as was a request from Constable Raymond Borrego for a salary increase and for $6,000 for a used automobile and $3,400 in vehicle operating expense.

Fuel bids from Shelton Oil and Gas and House Fuel were examined with the court voting to accept the low bid from House Fuel. Commissioner Jim House abstained from voting on the bids.

Qualifications for retirees who receive county medical insurance were adopted by the court. In order to be eligible, a retired employee must have completed 12 years of credited service and be 60 years of age or have accumulated 30 years of credited service.

Payment of overtime to librarian Louise Ledoux while her assistant is on maternity leave was approved.

Commissioners voted to leave sheriff and constable fees at the 1991 level.

Department reports were received from Sandy Stokes, auditor; Garland Young, civic and youth center director; Bob Denson, hospital and care center administrator; Eddie Moore, road department; Onecimo Ortiz, parks department; and Louise Ledoux, library. Judge Mayfield read written reports from Bob Falkner of the fire department and Janet Hill of Helping Hands.

Young announced that new Teen Council members appointed for the 1991-92 year are: James Nelson, Eddie De Luna and Kelly Gentry, freshmen; Jennifer Ybarra, Yvonne Madris and Robert Bryson, sophomores; and Jimmy McCary, senior. Holdover members are seniors Cullen Curry and Bryon Dunn and juniors Mike Kenison, Myra Wilson and Amy Goshen.

Following the report by Bob Denson, the court voted to adopt the actions of the hospital and care center board at its Sept. 5 meeting.

Bob Palmer, president of the land division of Shannon Estate, appeared to request 1.7 miles of lane fencing. The land involved will be dedicated to the county, Palmer said. The fencing will be placed on the agenda for the court's Sept. 23 meeting.

Eddie Moore reported that paving on 9th Street will begin once the water district completes work in the area. Moore also told the court about a type of asphalt which can be used in cooler weather, thereby extending the paving season. Cost of the material is virtually the same as that of the compound used here now.

Fire department personnel responded to two structure fires, one vehicle fire, three in-county grass fires during August. One call each was attributed to rescue, oilfield related, investigation and public assistance.

Helping Hands' Meals on Wheels program served 958 meals during the month and issued commodities to 72 families.

Ozona Primary and Intermediate schools participants in T.R.I.P.

The Region XV Education Service Center in San Angelo has notified Ozona Primary School and Ozona Intermediate School that the two campuses have been approved as participants in the Texas Renewal Initiative Project for this school year. The two campuses will join only 10 other school campuses across the region in receiving the service.

T.R.I.P. is a state-funded school improvement project designed to provide technical educational assistance to administrators and teachers of selected school campuses across the state. Consultants will assist with the development of campus improvement plans, provide workshops for teachers in meeting the needs of their students, help teachers in developing materials to teach objectives tested by the Texas Assessment of Academic Skills (TAAS) exam, provide administrator training in the area of instructional leadership, and offer other areas of technical assistance as identified by the teachers and principals.

Implementation of the project will begin on Thursday, September 12. Students in Ozona Primary and Ozona Intermediate School will be dismissed at 1:15 p.m. so that teachers and administrators in both schools can attend a three-hour workshop on "Cooperative Learning" that will be held in the Ozona Intermediate School Library. Students in these schools will also be dismissed at 1:15 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 18, for the second part of the workshop.

Board inspects new ambulance, hires lab technician

A new ambulance arrived in Ozona Sept. 5 just in time for an enthusiastic inspection during a regularly scheduled hospital board meeting. Doug Meador drove the $54,725 ambulance back from the factory in Newport, Arkansas.

The ambulance will be outfitted with medical supplies and undergo a rigorous inspection before being placed in use.

During this meeting, hospital board members voted to hire a laboratory technician recruited from the Philippines. Elizabeth Salazar Miranda will come to Ozona in 30 to 45 days according to Bob Denson, administrator.

The board voted to contract with a disposal firm for removal of hazardous waste. The hospital incinerator no longer works and would require extensive repairs and upgrading to meet regulations.

Faced with the choice of laying tile or painting the kitchen floor to correct an inspection deficiency, the board voted to tile the floor.

Denson reported that a copy of proposed by-laws, regulations and

CED tax rate set at $.7425 per $100 value

Members of County Education District #18 set a tax rate of .7425 cents per $100 valuation Sept. 5. The rate will raise better than $34,000,000 according to Supt. Jim Payne. A 96.62% collection rate is necessary to bring in the full amount of money.

The minimum tax rate mandated by the state is .72 per $100. Unless the law changes, the state mandated rate will increase to a $1.00 minimum in four years.

Mr. Payne, Dan Pullen, Ozona's representative on the C.E.D. board, and Tom Stokes, tax assessor were present at the meeting in Fort Stockton. Stokes will collect the C.E.D. taxes for Crockett County through his office. Crockett County will pay in $825,000 more than it gets back from the C.E.D., Mr. Payne said. The district should receive between $3,000,000 and $3,058,000 depending on the average daily attendance

Masonry open house set for Sept. 22

The Ozona Masonic Lodge No. 747 has joined 940 other Masonic Lodges across Texas in scheduling a simultaneous statewide public open house between 2 and 5 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 22. The Lodge is located at 910 Ave. E. in Ozona.

Freddie Nicks, master of the local lodge, said an open invitation is extended to anyone interested in learning more about Masonry and what Masons do.

He noted that Fred E. Allen of Mt. Pleasant, Grand Master of the 180,000 member Masonic Grand Lodge of Texas, has defined the intent of the "showcase" open house event as being "to put Masonry on display so anyone interested can see for themselves what Masons do and have a better understanding of what Masonry is all about."

Printed cards will give brief explanations of more significant points of interest about the lodge room, including some of the more prominent symbols utilized in Masonry to teach Masonic philosophy. Best known of these symbols are the square and compasses, which identify members of the craft, together with other tools of the medieval stonemasons... builders of the great Gothic cathedrals.

Allen explained that to the three and one half million Masons in the U.S., these symbols are reminders of a Mason's duty to live by highest moral standard, to practice brotherly love, and to affirm loyalty to his county. He said Masons believe that the quality of a man's life should reflect his faith in God and his ethical ideals.

Other Masonic-related organizations are also being invited to participate in the open house program to provide insight into their particular organizations. Although not active in all communities, these affiliated Masonic groups include the York Rite, Scottish Rite, the Shrine, the Grotto, the Beausceant, Order of Eastern Star, Daughters of the Nile, Daughters of Mokanna, Order of DeMolay for Boys, Order of Rainbow for Girls, and Job's Daughters, the newest entry into Texas.

Allen cited the showcase event as a first in Texas in which various Masonic and Masonic-related groups join in public display of their respective regalia and symbols in a blend of colorful pageantry open to all.

He declared an over all objective is to help dispel the misconception many people have that Masonry is a secret society. He pointed out Ma-fair hearing plan should be ready for board action at the October meeting.

During the care center portion of the meeting, new employee Diane Myers stated that former employee Helen Kenison "left things in good order" and requested that board members visit the nursing home frequently so they will know "what a super job the staff is doing".

The board discussed the necessity of adjusting private room rates.

After meeting in executive session to discuss pending or potential lawsuits and contracts, the board returned to open meeting and signed an addendum to Dr. Sims' contract agreeing to pay his malpractice insurance.

sonry does not conceal its existence, principles or aims. Members proudly wear the square and compasses and other Masonic insignia, and Lodge buildings are well identified and often made available for appropriate community activities.

Masons collectively provide over $2 million a day and thousands of hours of service donated to worthy causes, including over $750 million every year for charitable activities.

It was further pointed out that while Masons do not solicit members, men of good character may ask to become members.

Members of Ozona Masonic Lodge and other associated Masonic bodies will be on hand to answer questions during the public open house.

The proposed local tax rate for Ozona schools is .1575 per $100. Combined with the C.E.D. amount of .7425, the rate here will remain the same as the previous year, .90 per $100.

Member schools in C.E.D. #18 are: Crockett County, Buena Vista, Fort Stockton, Iraan, San Felipe, Comstock, Juno, Brackettville, Fort Davis, Valentine, Marfa and Presidio. Administrative offices of the C.E.D. are located in Fort Stockton. Officers include Gwen Ligon of Fort Stockton, chairman; Dub Slaughter of Iraan, co-chairman; and Dan Pullen, recording secretary.

"Philosophically, nobody wants it," said Supt. Payne of the C.E.D. "Realistically, there's not much we can do about it." Crockett County schools joined a suit challenging the constitutionality of the state education financing bill which created the C.E.D.s. Judge Scott McGowan ruled that the legislation was constitutional, however.

Public Notice

On June 28, 1991, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (Southwestern Bell) filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission) to add a new optional service offering for business Private Branch Exchange (PBX) Trunk customers called Digital Loop Service. The application has been assigned Docket No. 10461.

Digital Loop Service provides digital transmission of circuit switched voice and data communications between the customer's premises and the central office. This service allows the customer to use a 1.544 Mbps facility capable of delivering up to 24 line terminations. Southwestern Bell will provide Digital Loop Service within the customer's serving central office where facilities are available.

If approved by the Commission, the rates for the Digital Loop Service facilities will be $445 per month for each digital transmission loop arrangement which provides a capacity of up to 24 line terminations, plus $3 per month for each line termination and $9 per month for each channel termination. The proposed rate for the unlimited use of the central office varies from $12.25 up to $18.90 per month for each line termination depending on the rate group classification, determined by the customer's location. Southwestern Bell estimates revenue of $2.1 million from this offering during the first year.

As proposed by Southwestern Bell, customers who currently receive digital loop compatibility through facilities installed under a special construction agreement will have the option to receive their current digital loop arrangements pursuant to the Digital Loop Service Tariff or continue to pay their current charges until they make a change of location or account. Any increase in the number of line terminations to a customer's current digital transmission loop arrangement will be provided pursuant to the proposed Digital Loop Service Tariff; however, the customer will continue to have the option of paying current charges for the existing digital transmission loop capacity. Southwestern Bell's proposal to "grandfather" existing digital loop facility arrangements is subject to review and approval by the Commission.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible, but not later than October 15, 1991. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Are you one of the 7 out of 8 who have not prepared a will?

When you die you must leave behind everything for which you have worked and saved. The question is, "TO WHOM?" If you have a will, you have already instructed the State, attorneys and judges to act according to YOUR wishes. But if you don't have a will, the State will simply distribute your estate according to law.

Without a Will you let the State determine the disposition of your assets, the welfare of your spouse and the guardianship of your children. Probate costs, taxes and fees increase. What's worse, you rob yourself of the privilege of continuing stewardship through designated gifts.

DON'T MAKE THE MISTAKE OF THINKING:

- only wealthy people need a will
- that drawing a will is too complicated
- or that it is too expensive.

Williams' 40th wedding anniversary marked by surprise celebration Sept. 2

Mr. and Mrs. Jack F. Williams were honored Sunday, September 2, with a surprise luncheon in celebration of their 40th wedding anniversary. They entered the dining room of the Circle Bar to find more than fifty family members waiting to congratulate them. Hosting the happy occasion were their children, Mr. and Mrs. Craig Williams of Ozona and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Chirhart of Dallas. Assisting in the entertainment were the three young grandsons, Colin and Tyler Williams and Adam Chirhart.

A beautiful tiered wedding cake was cut by the honorees and served for dessert.

Jack Williams and Winona "Winnie" Cunningham Petsch were married in Gainsville, Texas, September 1, 1951. In 1991 a surprise party was a fitting tribute to Jack and Winnie. Their marriage came as a complete surprise to family and friends in Ozona. After a honeymoon trip they returned to Ozona to make their permanent home.

Jack, born in Ozona December 17, 1918, was the third son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Williams, Crockett County pioneers. He graduated from Ozona High School in 1937. Jack attended North Texas State in Denton until January, 1940 when he joined his brothers in the ranching business in Terrell County. World War II interrupted this venture as each of the brothers entered the service of their country. He served in the USAF until November, 1945. After discharge, he returned to ranching in Crockett County.

Winnie, a native of McCulloch County, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cunningham of Brady. She was living in San Angelo at the time of her marriage to Jack.

Their 40 year marriage has led them to many adventures, the most important being the parents of two children, Craig and Suzanne. They participated in many activities as the children went through the Ozona schools and on to higher education. They were all members of the Ozona United Methodist Church.

In addition to ranching, Jack served as Commissioner of Precinct 3 for 20 years, choosing not to run for re-election in 1989. While serving in this capacity, he had the rare distinction of having never missed a scheduled meeting. Among the many county projects, he was in charge of supervising the building of the Care Center and the conversion of Crockett County Public Library from a private home to the excellent facility it is today.

Winnie is a beloved member of her adopted family and community. For many years she was an active member of the Woman's Forum. Today she is an avid bridge player who enjoys both duplicate and party bridge with the Country Club Bridge Association. She is an excellent homemaker and delights her many friends with gourmet delicacies from her kitchen.

Guests present from Ozona included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Williams, Mr. Gene "Sooner" Williams, Mrs. Joe Williams, Mr. Michael Williams, Miss Taylor Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clayton.

Out of town guests included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clayton, Jr. and Miss Catherine Clayton of Brownwood, Mr. Christopher Clayton of Stephenville, Miss Cathy Williams of Midland, Ms. Connie Burrus of Buda, Mr. and Mrs. John Walsh, Wesley and Catherine of Odessa, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Nester of Dunlay, Mr. and Mrs. Don Peterson, Josiah and Jacob of Hondo, Mr. and Mrs. David Lynch and Paden of D'Hanis, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Keller and Cory of Castroville, Ms. Kami Keller of San Angelo, Mrs. Alfred Harris of Brady, Mr. and Mrs. John Lloyd Blauvelt of Rochelle, Mr. and Mrs. James Benson, Allison and Shane of Sonora, Mr. and Mrs. W.E. "Shorty" Nance of Midland, and Mr. Blayne Harris of Grapevine.

It's a girl!

The meal was served backward starting with dessert and finishing with salad. A get-acquainted game of "Who Is The Fictional Character on My Back?" and a word interpretation game were enjoyed by all who attended.

Boyd, Mercer vows spoken in Coleman

Beth Boyd and Dixie Mercer were united in marriage Aug. 3, 1991, in an afternoon ceremony in his Coleman home. Methodist minister Rev. Lloyd Hagemyer performed the ceremony.

The wedding party gathered to hear the vows before a fireplace whose hearth was covered with red and green caladiums, diffenbachia and ferns. Bouquets of fresh flowers were placed at vantage points about the room.

Dixie Faye Mercer of Austin, daughter of the bridegroom, attended Mrs. Boyd as maid of honor. Ray Mercer of Austin served as his father's best man.

Elizabeth Ann Mercer and Becky Mercer of Austin, granddaughters of the bridegroom, were flower girl and music director, respectively.

The bridal couple wrote their own vows for the ceremony, repeating them after the minister.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home. The newlyweds drank from silver goblets to a toast offered by Elizabeth Ann.

Wedding cake, nuts and mints and orange blossom punch were served from silver appointments.

The Mercers are at home in Coleman following a wedding trip to the south and north rims of the Grand Canyon and Las Vegas.

Band Boosters plan eventful year

On Monday, Sept. 2, Ozona Band Boosters met in the band hall with 16 in attendance.

There was discussion and planning for the band ice cream and cookie social which was held Tuesday, Sept. 3 following evening band practice. Thanks is extended to parents making or helping to set up and serve refreshments and to Curtis Keith for hauling tables. The event was a huge success.

Some boosters volunteered to sell pom poms and pins at the home football games.

Discussion continued from last week about the Halloween carnival booths. An interest was shown in having more than one booth this year for children.

The possibility of a second fund raising dinner, possibly at the spring track meet, was discussed.

A motion to have two signatures on booster checks was made by Frances Curry and seconded by Evelyn Keith.

Bill Fuller volunteered to check with the Ozona Stockman and report back to the group concerning the cost and printing of band calendars.

Presenting Band Sweetheart at a home football half-time show instead of at the Spring Concert was brought up and will be studied further.

The Homecoming Poor Man's Supper was to be planned at length at the Sept. 9 meeting.

Those attending were: Nancy Vannoy, Evelyn and Curtis Keith, Frances Curry, Kathy Grendahl, Pat Glaze, Paula Westmoreland, Maggie Carroll, Jeannie and Harold Thompson, Jeanie and Bill Fuller, Tommie Pena-Alfaro, Mary Denson, Kelly Glaze and Skip Carroll.

Crockett County Care Center News

by JoAnne Marshall

Labor Day was highlighted with a performance by the Sheriff's Posse Band. Band members delighting resident were Marsha Tomlinson, Bob Hartman, George Hester, Bill Dane, Jim Wilson and Bill Fuller. The music was great and we appreciate their sharing their holiday with us.

Virginia Hoover had the "luck of the Irish" with her during the Tuesday morning bingo games. She won three games. Monnie Boyd added a considerable amount of weight to her piggy bank by winning four-corners during the first 10 numbers that were called. Bertha Miller didn't do bad either. She won two games! Frances Davis, Hazel McDaniel, Joe Connolly, and Minnie Karr were also prize winners. We would like to thank Sophie Kyle for her assistance during the games.

A variety of pieces ranging from jewelry boxes to pigs was worked on during the Wednesday morning ceramic workshop. Under the leadership of Ruth and Patsy Hester, residents had a very productive morning. Residents attending the class were Hazel McDaniel, Frances Davis, Chata Tambunga, Moriana Perez, Barnabe Villarreal, Joe Connolly, Monnie Boyd, and Juan Hernandez. We would like to thank Ruth and Patsy for sharing their talents with us.

Wednesday afternoon was spent visiting with our volunteers. Thursday morning's beauty shop volunteers were Vivian Hughes, Joann Williamson, Lola Rios, Jerri Pesson, and Audrey Smith. Thank you, ladies. We always feel better after your visits.

Residents attended a short Bible study and song service, Thursday afternoon. The afternoon's activity was conducted by Don Godeau of the Calvary Baptist Church. Thank you, Don. The Spanish Hour of Praise was held Thursday afternoon. Mass was conducted by Father Quirino Cornejo of Our Lady of Perpetual Help

Catholic Church. Visitors attending the hour with us were Alicia Perez, Paulita Leal, Anita Fierro, Maria Vitela, Germana Onofre, Heriberto and Lorenza Gutierrez, Felipa Munoz, and Isabel Ramirez. We enjoyed their fellowship and would like to thank them for attending.

The Levis and Lace Square Dance Club paid the Care Center a visit Thursday evening. Members demonstrating their dancing abilities were Raul and Maria De La Rosa, Leonard and Mary Hillman, J.D. and Lillian Brown, Gailya Underwood, C.E. Light, Ozzy Kerkendal, Joanne Holmes, and Betty Allen. Everyone had a lot of fun, and we would like to thank them for coming.

Joe Connolly filled his piggy bank during Friday morning's bingo games. He received a fifteen dollar grand prize check for his efforts. Games were also won by Hazel McDaniel, Alice Ross, Monnie Boyd, Florencia Porras, Barnabe Villarreal, Myrtle Post, Nena Adelina, and Juana Hernandez.

A "honey" of a party was held Friday afternoon. Residents enjoyed sampling honey flavored treats such as Honey Nut Cheerios, honey cones, honey roasted peanuts and hot rolls filled with honey. I think it is fair to say that the party was in "good taste".

Sunday's worship service was presented by members of the Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church. We would like to thank them for sharing this very special and inspirational time with us.

Think About It!

By Ralph Moore

Rah, Rah, Bang!

Have you been following the story about the woman on trial (and convicted) for plotting to kill the mother of one of her daughter's cheerleading competitors? She thought that the other girl would drop out of the competition if her mother died, and that her own daughter would have a better opportunity to win a spot on the cheerleading squad. Hey, folks, this is a sad testimony of how sick our competitive society really is.

Students have a great deal of stress put upon them because of athletics, band, cheerleading, etc. Not every child can be on the team or squad, so some methods to select the best qualified candidates must be devised. Of course, regardless of the method used to choose, there are some who will be disappointed and others who will be highly upset.

Every parent, hear me again, every parent thinks that their son or daughter is the best and should be selected. There is validity to the thought that mothers often relive school days through their daughters and fathers do the same through their sons. Thus, when one's son or daughter is not selected, the parents feel rejected. Rejection leads to a loss of self-esteem, and that often leads to isolation and bitterness. And, apparently, even to murder.

The real victims in such cases are the students. Imagine how the daughter of the woman on trial for plotting murder must feel. The whole community where she lives knows what her mother did. So does the state. And the nation! That young girl's life will never be the same, and all because of an overzealous mother. I bet the young lady had rather know her mom will be home (rather than in prison) than have any cheerleading position.

Since there is such a stressful concern over the selection of athletic teams, bands, cheerleaders, and other extra-curricular activities—an accurate and impartial evaluation process is needed. To ensure accurate appraisal of a student's talent, people trained and qualified in those areas must be able to decide who has the needed skills. For a fair and impartial judgment of a student's capabilities, some outside sources are needed. In other words, some Solomons must be found to help select cheerleaders, band positions, and sports positions.

You know it is a shame that every student cannot be on the team, on the squad, or in the band. It just seems right that every child who wants to play, cheer, or march should be given some outlet to do so. If there are too many to all be cheerleaders—have a pep squad. If there are more than can be on the A and B teams—have a C, D, and E team if necessary.

I realize that there are some inherent problems in these suggestions for school officials, coaches, and band directors, but individuals, at whatever level of ability, must be considered. There are some athletes playing college ball who never played in high school. Some talent is inborn, some is developed.

The Special Olympics are special because every child gets to participate, and they get some recognition. They are all winners! Every parent sees their child participate, and every child feels successful and appreciated. Their self-esteem soars, and they have fun. I say hurrah for programs like the Special Olympics, and I wish there was some way to let everyone in the public schools who wanted to participate.

Christianity calls all to participation. Popularity, power, or possessions does not automatically put one on the team, or keep them off. The condition of participation is desire. Everyone who wants to follow Christ has the opportunity. There is no reason for jealousy, envy, bitterness, or hatred. No reason to plot the downfall of another. All who call upon the name of the Lord will be saved.

How about this: let's elevate the position of the child who doesn't make the team or get selected to the same respect as those who do. Let's cheer the students in the stands as much as we do those on the field. And, for goodness sake, let's not plot to kill, harm, or gossip about anyone for the furtherance of our own ambitions.

Think about it.

A BEAUTIFUL SETTING IN YOUR LIVING ROOM

Nothing will bring more beauty to a room than properly using beautiful furniture IN A BEAUTIFUL SETTING.

A home may have nice-looking things—but if they aren't arranged in good settings, both their beauty and usefulness are wasted.

When thinking about your home, it's a good idea to visualize some of the different pretty settings you could have. For example, one pretty setting might have a sofa, with the right size coffee table in front of it, and two chairs facing each other on either side of the sofa. Or—instead of one of the chairs, you might have a love seat at right angles to the sofa, or maybe a love seat facing the sofa.

Behind the sofa, you might want to think about a sofa table, or picture or a group of pictures. Also to consider in the setting are the kind of tables you want beside the sofa and beside the chairs, as well as the kinds of lamps and accessories you want on them.

Whatever beauty, warmth and hospitality you can visualize for your home can be created with the right choices of pieces—and the right arrangement of them. It can be created in your home, and we're here to help you start to achieve it. For furniture—and ideas—stop in.

Is church attendance optional

By Rev. Bill Fuller
First Baptist Church

There are those who say they do not need to attend a worship service to worship God. Although I believe an individual's relationship with God is a very personal matter, I do not believe God ever intended for it to be a private matter. In the Bible (Hebrews 10:25), we are encouraged to not give up meeting together, as some have, but continue to meet together and encourage one another. Furthermore, it goes on to say that our meeting and encouraging should increase as we see the "End" approaching.

I like the analogy of the glowing ember taken out of the campfire. It soon grows dull grey and cold. But once it is placed back among the other coals, it soon glows red hot again. If you are indeed a child of God, you need fellowship with His people, for encouragement and also to be an encourager. You also need the encouragement from God's word which is shared when His church meets. As a loving child you should also desire that fellowship with God the Father as He meets with His gathered family. There is a special presence of God promised where two or three (or more) are gathered in His name (Matthew 18:20).

Well, you might say, the church is full of hypocrites. I won't argue with that observation; we all are, to some degree or other at some time or other, aren't we? But the hypocrites did not keep Jesus from attending church regularly and participating as a faithful member of God's family. You will not agree with everyone, maybe even the pastor, all the time. But as all of us come together to glorify God, we will be in harmony more than discord. As you come encouraging and seeking God, in obedience to His commands, then He will have one less hypocrite working against Him.

You displease God and hurt the work of His kingdom when you refuse to obey Him in worshipping as a family. There are churches in Ozona where God the Father is worshipped each week. Please allow me to encourage you to attend one, this and every Sunday.

Visiting

Visiting in Ozona this week were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sprader of San Angelo. The visit was prompted from a recent news article concerning the town murals. Jack and Lucy, misplaced New Jersey folk, have lived in San Angelo for seven years. The two decided it was time to visit Ozona. "So pretty and odd at the same time to find this lovely town in the middle of nowhere," stated the delighted Lucy.

Belated birthday greetings go to Tom Everett who turned a year "wiser" Sept. 4. Hope you had a super day, Tom!

Joining the Tommie Tomlinson's at Fort McKavett for a long-awaited fishing trip were S. Sgt. Shane Tomlinson and family of Ft. Sill, Ok. No fish were brought home but the fun was plenty. Later in the week a phone call related news from Shane that he had caught his "limit" of fish on Jim Ned Creek at Lake Brownwood. He stated that the day was worth the three year wait.

Anniversary wishes go out Sept. 10 to two special people, Don and Sandy Stark. The Starks have been married 31 years. May you both have had a super day.

Birthday greetings go to a very sweet lady on Sept. 10... Mildred Fields. May your day have been filled with the same joy you share with others.

Leaving home for "REAL" is hard, but Joey Ybarra has done it. Joey is attending A.S.U. in San Angelo. With his first week behind him, he has decided it may not be so bad. Joey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ybarra.

News received this week from Hiroko Yamagiwa stated that she was home once again in Nara, Japan. Upon arriving home the first thing she saw were bluebonnets growing in her parents home. Hiroko's parents could not understand her tears at first, but were amused to find she was homesick for Texas friends. Hiroko says "Hi" to all her special friends in Ozona.

Visiting with Pete and Barbara Parker recently was Louise White. Mrs. White is from Levelland and is the mother to Mrs. Parker.

Returning to Ozona after a two year absence is the Rev. Carlos Venegas family. They have been living in Beaumont during their absence. The Rev. and Mrs. Venegas are pleased to be back where Rev. Venegas will resume his pastoral duties.

Big Lake Owls hoot at Lions 40-7

by Robert Gentry & Sandy Stark

"You could say we were shocked by their speed. We run against ourselves all week and we aren't used to that kind of speed," stated Coach Don Payne after the running game against the Big Lake Owls.

The Lions remained scoreless and defenseless through the first half while the Owls utilized quick feet...usually down the sidelines...and a variety of moves to defeat the Lions 40-7.

Early in the first quarter a punt of 30 yards by Adrian Vargas was blocked by Reagan County's Doug Gamer to the Ozona 10.

Ozona did rally in the second quarter with a dramatic though unproductive moment with a drive of 36 yards to Reagan County's 33 yards.

The Lions' bad luck was further illustrated by the Owls last touchdown in the first half. Reagan County was ahead 13-0 with under 5 minutes to play in the first half. The Owls could only manage to make it to their own 32 yard line before a holding call moved them back to the 22 yard line.

Had the Lion's defense been able to hold the Owls on third-and-12 to force the punt, the Lions may have been able to obtain a decent field position in the final minute of the first half. This was not meant to be as Reagan County's Michael Goodloe streaked down the sideline for a 64 yard touchdown run putting the Owls ahead 20-0 at the half.

The Lions rallied briefly during the 4th quarter when Manny Munoz received a forward pass from Adam Alba. The extra point was kicked by Adrian Vargas.

The varsity Lions next game will be against the Crane Golden Cranes in Crane on Friday, September 13 at 8:00 P.M.

Girl Scouts register 75 for 1991-92 year

Local Girl Scout leaders registered approximately seventy-five Scouts on September 5th at the ONB Crockett Room. Kim Nixon, El Camino Council field Representative, was present to provide information and answer questions.

The Ozona Girl Scout Program is open to all girls grades K-12. The major objectives of the program are to introduce preparatory life skills to the Scouts while instilling in them the desire to reach their highest potential. Activities and events are designed to allow the Scouts to develop morals and values, individual self-esteem, citizenship skills, a pluralistic attitude, and self-awareness. The program emphasized that learning by doing is fun.

The Ozona Girl Scout Program is one of the fastest growing youth organizations in Ozona. The program is led by an all-volunteer adult force. The rapid growth and interest in Girl Scouting has caused an adult volunteer shortage. We are in need of adult volunteers. The youth of Ozona represent our future. As adults, we have a responsibility to nurture our future. All persons interested in volunteering to become a leader are welcome to attend the upcoming Service Unit Meeting Sept. 17, 6:30 p.m. at the Girl Scout Hut. For further information on becoming a leader or registering your child to become a Girl Scout, please contact Debbi Bachman at 392-2973 or Pam Brewer at 392-2032.

4-H'er attends regional textile symposium

Katharine Durham, an eight year 4-H member from Crockett County, attended the Southern Region 4-H Textile and Furniture Symposium August 3-9 in North Carolina.

The symposium was held at North Carolina State University at Raleigh, the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, and High Point College in High Point, N.C.

Activities were conducted by faculty in the colleges of Textiles, Engineering, and Forest Resources at NCSU, the Departments of Clothing and Textiles and Interior Design in the School of Human Environmental Sciences at UNC-G, and the Home Furnishings Marketing Program at High Point College.

Forty-one delegates and eight returnees from 11 states participated and received certificates or silver trays upon completion.

First-year delegates opted to focus on either the textile or furniture industries during the week. Durham, 16, daughter of Tedra and Neal Ulmer of Ozona and Richard Durham of New Mexico, chose the textile option and studied fiber identification, yarn testing, design techniques, physical testing and color design.

Seminars covered the industry's history, economic significance, future and career options. Delegates toured textile and furniture companies in the Greensboro area for a first-hand look at how industries use the concepts and techniques they studied earlier in the week.

To obtain information on career opportunities, they attended career rap sessions led by textile or furniture professionals working as chemists, computer programmers, salespersons, designers, engineers and managers.

The symposium, conducted by the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Service, was initiated in 1989 through a grant from Guilford Mills, Katharine Durham receives symposium certificate from Dennis Julian (left), Executive Vice President of the North Carolina Textile Manufacturers Association, and J. Douglas Galyon, Director of Public Affairs for Guilford Mills, Inc., Greensboro, N.C.

Inc. The symposium is now sponsored by the industry members of the North Carolina Textile Manufacturers Association and by Classic Gallery, Inc., a furniture company in High Point, N.C.

Durham, who is the Texas 4-H Teen Fashion Board chairman, was one of four Texas representatives on the trip. Angie Hohensee of Ballinger and Tara Mallett of Lockney were the other first-year participants; Teresa Alexander of Travis County was a returning Textile Fellow. Applications were judged by members of the Texas 4-H Clothing Advisory board.

For more information about the symposium or other opportunities in 4-H, contact the Crockett County Extension Office at 392-2721. Educational programs sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service are open to all persons, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or handicap.

Correction, please

A story in the Aug. 28 issue of The Stockman incorrectly reported that commissioners tabled a request to approve purchase of a computer system for the county clerk's office.

The purchase was approved using funds budgeted for this year.

Purchase of a computer system for the county judge's office was tabled on a separate vote.

Storm damages power lines Aug. 30

An Aug. 30 storm at the Buddy Phillips Ranch tore down power line poles, toppled and twisted trees, but caused no damage to their home, Elaine Phillips said. Winds hit at 3:30 from the northeast but quickly switched to the west, blowing rain under a storage room door. The wind began to blow from the south, and at that point, Mrs. Phillips, who was home alone with her little dog, decided it was time for them to wait out the storm from the safety of the shower.

When the storm ceased, there was no electricity, telephone or water, so she and her pet started to town. Large trees near the house were blown down and cedars on the hill around the house were twisted, Mrs. Phillips said. Five REA poles were snapped between the Phillips place and Rick Hunnicutt one mile to the north. At no time did she hear the fabled freight train roar associated with tornados. Mrs. Phillips said Hunnicutt, who was in his barn at the time of the storm, told of a refrigerator being lifted up and set on feed sacks. A boat in the barn was also lifted, but there was no damage to the building.

The ancient Egyptians cultivated the wild watermelon. Pictures of the fruit have been found in the older of the pyramids.

Texas A&M University research station plans first wildlife field day

The Texas A&M University research station at Sonora is planning its first wildlife management field day Oct. 8.

Organizers hope the program will offer something for everyone interested in native Hill Country wildlife, whether it's the white-tailed deer or the black-capped vireo.

The research station has conducted research aimed at improving rangeland in the Edwards Plateau for more than 75 years, said Dr. Dale Rollins, extension wildlife specialist.

"The station is best known for its sheep and goat work, but it also has documented the effects of various range and livestock management practices on the area's wildlife," Rollins said.

The morning session will begin at 9 o'clock under the direction of Sutton County Extension Agent Preston Faris, the moderator. The first speaker is Dr. Butch Taylor, superintendent of the station, who will talk about "How Range Management Affects Deer."

"Sheep, Goats and Deer: Who's Competing, Who's Winning?" is the subject of a talk by Dr. Ken Risenhoover, assistant professor with Texas A&M University's wildlife and fisheries department.

Following a break, the program will resume with Dr. Fred Smeins, professor in A&M's Department of Rangeland Ecology and Management, speaking on how cedars affect wildlife. The morning session will conclude with two talks: "Managing Wild Turkey" by Don Davis, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department biologist, and "Why Aren't There More Quail in the Hill Country" by Rollins.

John Allen, Edwards County extension agent, will moderate the afternoon session. The program includes two talks—the first, "Why deer Management Fails," will be given by Dr. Charles DeYoung, research scientist with the Caesar Kleberg Research Institute at Kingsville. The second, "Mixing Sheep, Goats, Cattle, Deer and Hunters," will be given by Forrest Armke, foreman of the Ford Ranch at Melvin.

The day's activities will conclude with five field tours—the station's deer research facilities, prescribed burning for deer management, deer diets, cool-season food plots, and electric deer-proof fencing.

The program is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas Wildlife Association, and the Texas Section of the Society for Range Management.

The registration fee is $7 at the door. Further information is available from Butch Taylor, telephone (915)387-3168, or Dr. Rollins, (915)653-4576.

Land and water for life

Our civilization is rooted in our productive soils, and clean water is its lifeblood. Without protective vigilance, we are in danger of seriously depleting these vital natural assets.

To assure that the quality of American life is maintained and improved, we are committed to protect, preserve, and restore our invaluable soil and water resources. The United States Department of Agriculture meets this commitment through a number of programs to help rural landowners and operators conserve the soil, maintain the fertility of the land, keep the water of our streams and lakes clean and usable, develop the forests, and provide for a flourishing wildlife.

Since the 1930's, USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) has actively promoted the wise use of our land and water in partnership with farmers and ranchers through cost-shared conservation programs, and in cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service, Forest Service, Cooperative Extension Service, and other agencies and organizations. These programs look to the best long-term use of the Nation's agricultural lands and the waters that flow through them which serve farm, ranch, and downstream community.

Conservation practices to prevent soil loss and water pollution have public benefits that justify cost-sharing and technical assistance by the Federal government. These practices are not immediately profitable to the individual farmer or rancher, but help all of us by maintaining the productivity of our agriculture.

The Agricultural Conservation Program (ACP) is the principal channel through which the government assists ranchers and farmers to carry out conservation practices such as brush control, cross fencing, and water related installations. These practices are designed to hold the soil in place and aid in the preservation of a clean water supply. By achieving effective grazing distribution and utilization, ranchers are better prepared to conserve soil and other natural resources.

Ruth Seahorn of Ozona is promoting the ideals of conservation by allowing her son, Pon Seahorn, to operate the family ranch under a Long Term Agreement (LTA) with ASCS. Under this program, Mrs. Seahorn is completing brush dozing work that will clear the land of cedar and mesquite tree "canopy" (overhanging foliage) cover. Removal of the tree and its "canopy" allows grass to grow and hold the soil, protecting the soil from wind and water erosion. Additionally, range grasses will not have to compete with these trees for available moisture. Under a Conservation Plan developed by the Soil Conservation Service (SCS), Mrs. Seahorn is assured of the feasibility of work performed as well as providing for environmental concerns.

Through self-help activities, ranchers, farmers and other rural landowners, in partnership with ASCS and other cooperating agencies, have made significant progress toward soil and water conservation and pollution abatement goals. Much remains to be done.

People and the force of nature plunder the land and water, and people, by control of their own actions and control of nature, hold the key to preservation of the soil and a clean water supply—and civilization as we know it.

PUBLIC NOTICE

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 5, 1991

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 114 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize home rule cities having a population of 5,000 or fewer inhabitants to amend their city charters by a majority vote of a city's qualified voters at an election held for that purpose. The amendment makes clear that home rule cities that have declined in population below the population required to initially adopt a charter may nevertheless continue to amend their charters.

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 10 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to authorize the Texas Department of Transportation to expend money, from any source available, for the costs of the turnpikes, toll roads, or toll bridges of the Texas Turnpike Authority, provided that any monies expended from the state highway fund shall be repaid to the fund from tolls or other turnpike revenue.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment mandating the repayment to the Department of Transportation of monies expended to assist the Texas Turnpike Authority in the construction, maintenance, and operation of turnpikes, toll roads and toll bridges."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 26 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Veterans' Land Board to invest, as authorized by law, moneys of the Veterans' Land Fund which are not immediately committed to the payment of principal and interest on bonds issued by the Veterans' Land Board, the purchase of lands, or the payment of expenses. Investment of such moneys would no longer be restricted to investments in bonds or obligations of the United States. The proposed amendment would also authorize the Veterans' Land Board to invest, as authorized by law, moneys of the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund which are not immediately committed to the payment of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued by the Veterans' Land Board for the benefit of the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund, the making of home mortgage loans, or the payment of expenses. Investment of such moneys would no longer be restricted to investments in bonds or obligations of the United States. The proposed amendment gives the legislature power to implement the amendment and to delegate such duties and authority to the Veterans' Land Board as it deems necessary.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to further implement and enhance the administration of the veterans' housing assistance and land programs and to expand the investment authority of the Veterans' Land Board."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 4 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to authorize the issuance of a maximum of $1.1 billion in general obligation bonds. The proceeds of the bonds are to be used to acquire, construct, or equip new prisons and substance abuse felony punishment facilities, mental health and mental retardation institutions, and youth corrections institutions, to repair and renovate existing facilities of those institutions and to acquire, repair, or renovate other facilities for use as state prisons or substance abuse felony punishment facilities. The $1.1 billion is in addition to the $900 million currently authorized by the constitution to be expended on bond issues for facilities of correctional and mental health and mental retardation institutions. The bonds would constitute a general obligation of the state. The bonds and interest on the bonds would be paid from the first money coming into the state treasury that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution, less any amount in a sinking fund at the end of the preceding fiscal year that is pledged to payment of the bonds or interest.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of up to $1.1 billion in general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping new prisons or other punishment facilities to confine criminals, mental health and mental retardation institutions, and youth corrections institutions, for major repair or renovation of existing facilities of those institutions, and for the acquisition of, major repair to, or renovation of other facilities for use as state prisons or other punishment facilities."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 39 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow a county, junior college district, or municipality to exempt tangible personal property from ad valorem taxation if: (1) the property is acquired or brought into the state in an enterprise zone to be forwarded outside the state, (2) the property is assembled, stored, repaired, maintained, manufactured, processed, or fabricated in the enterprise zone, (3) the property is transported outside the state not later than 175 days after being acquired or brought into an enterprise zone, and (4) the person who acquired or brought the property into an enterprise zone is a qualified business. A county, junior college district, or municipality may exempt such property by entering into a written agreement with a qualified business that states the duration of the exemption and the terms on which the exemption is granted. Any action to exempt property must be taken before April 1 of the first year in which the property would otherwise be taxed. The term "enterprise zone" means an area that (1) has been designated as such by a state agency responsible for economic development, and (2) has pervasive poverty, unemployment, and economic distress. The term "qualified business" means a business that meets the qualification established by general law, and requires that the qualified business is actively engaged in a new business in the enterprise zone or is expanding a business that is already active in the enterprise zone. An enterprise zone is created to foster economic development in an area of pervasive poverty and unemployment.

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 8 proposes a constitutional amendment that would establish a Texas Ethics Commission with the powers and duties provided by law. The commission would consist of eight appointed members selected as follows: two members of different political parties appointed by the governor from a list of at least ten names submitted by the members of the house of representatives from each major political party; two members of different political parties appointed by the lieutenant governor from a list of at least ten names submitted by the members of the senate from each major political party; two members of different political parties appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives from a list of at least ten names submitted by the members of the house of representatives from each major political party; and two members of different political parties appointed by the lieutenant governor from a list of at least ten names submitted by the members of the senate from each major political party. A major political party is a political party required by law to hold a primary. With the exception of the initial appointees, commission members would serve for four-year terms. A member who has served for one term and any part of a second term would not be eligible for reappointment. The commission would be authorized to recommend the salary of the members of the legislature and may recommend that the salary of the speaker of the house of representatives and the lieutenant governor be set at an amount higher than that of other members. If the commission recommends a change in salary, the voters would be authorized to accept or reject the salary change at the next general election for state and county officers. If the voters approve the recommended salary, that salary would take effect January 1 of the next odd-numbered year; if the voters reject the recommended salary, no change in salary would occur. The commission would set the per diem of the members of the legislature and of the lieutenant governor. The per diem could be raised or lowered biennially as necessary to pay members' costs, but could not exceed the amount allowed as of January 1 that year as a federal income tax deduction for living expenses incurred in a legislative day in connection with a member's business as a legislator, disregarding any federal income tax exemption for legislators residing near the Capitol. The commission would have other powers and duties provided by the commission's enabling act (Senate Bill 1, 72nd Legislature, Regular Session). The amendment would also provide that an increase in the emoluments of the office of Lieutenant Governor would not make a legislator ineligible to serve in the office of Lieutenant Governor.

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 6 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the board of trustees of each statewide public retirement system to invest the funds of the system in such manner as the board considers prudent. The board would no longer be limited to investing the funds of the system in securities.

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 21 proposes a constitutional amendment that would permit the legislature to create debt by or on behalf of the state if the legislature submitted the debt question to the voters of the state in the form of a proposition and a majority of those voting approved the proposition. The legislature may call the election, by joint resolution approved by at least two-thirds of the members of each house, during any regular session or during any special session if the subject of the proposition is included in the Governor's proclamation for that special session. A proposition must clearly describe the amount and purpose for which debt is to be created and must describe the source of payment for the debt. The amount of debt stated in the proposition may not be exceeded and may not be renewed unless the right to exceed or renew is stated in the proposition. The legislature may enact laws necessary to implement the authority granted by a proposition. A law enacted in anticipation of the election on a proposition is valid if, by its terms, it is enacted subject to approval of the related proposition. State debt that is created following voter approval of a proposition and that is approved by the Attorney General is incontestable for any reason.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the voters of this state to consider state debt questions in the form of ballot propositions that must clearly describe the amounts, purposes, and sources of payment of the debt only after approval of the propositions by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature."

PROPOSITION NO. 9 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 11 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the commissioner of the General Land Office to issue patents for certain public free school fund land for which there is not a valid transfer of title from either the State or the Republic of Texas to a private party. A patent is a document of title issued by the state. On application to the School Land Board, a person is entitled to receive a patent if: (1) the land is surveyed public free school fund land, (2) the land was not patentable under the law before the adoption of this proposed amendment, (3) the person acquired the land without knowledge of the title defect out of the State of Texas or the Republic of Texas and held the land under color of title, the chain of which dates from at least January 1, 1941, (4) the person has a recorded deed on file in the county courthouse and, in conjunction with his predecessor in interest, has claimed the land for at least fifty years as of January 1, 1991, and (5) the person, in conjunction with his predecessor in interest, for at least 50 years has paid taxes on the land together with all interest and penalties associated with any delinquency. If the applicant is denied a patent, the applicant may file suit against the School Land Board in a district court in the county where the land is located within 60 days from the date of denial. The proposed amendment does not apply to beach land, submerged land, or islands, and may not be used to resolve a boundary dispute. The proposed amendment also does not apply to land found by a court to be state-owned or to land on which the state has given a mineral lease that is in effect when a patent is sought. A patent under this proposed amendment for land within five miles of mineral production shall reserve minerals to the state in the manner provided by law for reservations of minerals in sales to claimants of unsurveyed school land within five miles of production. An application for a patent under this proposed amendment must be filed with the School Land Board before January 1, 1993.

PROPOSITION NO. 10 ON THE BALLOT

The proposed amendment is similar to the version of article VII, section 4A, that was in effect between 1981 and 1990. The main difference is that under the earlier version the applicant for a patent to land had to have a chain of title that dated back to at least as early as January 1, 1932.

PROPOSITION NO. 11 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 15 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to pass general laws to exempt property owned by a nonprofit corporation organized to supply water or provide wastewater service from ad valorem taxation. A nonprofit corporation would be eligible for the exemption if its bylaws provide that on dissolution, the assets remaining after the discharge of the corporation's indebtedness will be transferred to an entity providing water supply or wastewater service, or both, which is exempt from ad valorem taxation. The transferred assets must be property that is reasonably necessary for and used for water supply and wastewater services.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to exempt certain property of a nonprofit corporation that supplies water or provides wastewater service."

PROPOSITION NO. 12 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 84 proposes a constitutional amendment that would increase the total amount of bonds that may be issued by the Texas Water Development Board to provide wholesale and retail water and wastewater facilities to economically distressed areas of the state. The proposed amendment increases the maximum principal amount of the bonds from 20 percent to 50 percent of the $500 million amount authorized by article III, section 49-d-7, of the Texas Constitution. The proposed amendment would increase the maximum aggregate dollar amount of bonds that the Texas Water Development Board could issue from $100 million to $250 million.

PROPOSITION NO. 13 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 2 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to pass general laws authorizing Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board or its successor to issue and sell up to $800 million of general obligation bonds to finance education loans to students. The maximum net effective interest rate to be borne by the bonds would be set by law. The amendment would also authorize the legislature to provide for the investment of bond proceeds and to establish an interest and sinking fund to pay the bonds and provide for the investment of such fund. Bonds authorized under this amendment would be paid from the first money coming into the treasury in each fiscal year that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution, less any amount in an interest and sinking fund established at the end of the preceding year that is pledged to the payment of the bonds or interests.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds not to exceed $300,000,000 to continue existing programs to provide educational loans to students, with repayments of student loans applied toward retirement of the bonds."

PROPOSITION NO. 14 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 15 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to pass general laws to exempt property owned by a nonprofit corporation organized to supply water or provide wastewater service from ad valorem taxation. A nonprofit corporation would be eligible for the exemption if its bylaws provide that on dissolution, the assets remaining after the discharge of the corporation's indebtedness will be transferred to an entity providing water supply or wastewater service, or both, which is exempt from ad valorem taxation. The transferred assets must be property that is reasonably necessary for and used for water supply and wastewater services.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to exempt certain property of a nonprofit corporation that supplies water or provides wastewater service."

PROPOSITION NO. 11 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 8 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to pass laws to authorize the State of Texas to operate lotteries and to enter into a contract with one or more legal entities that will operate lotteries on behalf of the State of Texas.

The proposed amendment will be described on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing a state lottery."

PROPOSITION NO. 12 ON THE BALLOT

The maximum net effective interest rate to be borne by the bonds would be set by law. ## Did You Know...

HONORED TREATY...

In January 1847, John Meusenbach, a German immigrant, rode into the camp of fierce Comanche Indians, seeking peace. Meusenbach won the Indians' respect with his courage and frankness. On March 2, 1847, a treaty was signed, allowing German immigrants to establish settlements. This treaty was the only one made between whites and Indians in Texas which was honored by both sides.
