Wilson wins, commissioners in run-off

Jim Wilson won the sheriff's race in the Democratic Primary on Super Tuesday with 995 votes. Challenger Jon Permer (J.P.) Allen received 611 votes. With 2637 registered to vote in this election, 1606, 62%, cast their ballots in this race.

Incumbent constable Raymond P. Borrego got 779 votes to Ray Shelton's 770.

Both commissioner precincts were thrown into a run-off.

In Pct. 1, Frank Tambunga was top vote getter with 155 followed by Jess Marley with 93.

Other candidates and their totals were: Leo Cervantez 83, David Vargas Perez 57, William Jennings Harris 32 and Alfredo M. Tobar, 3.

Commissioners prepare to issue certificates of obligation

Commissioners made preliminary steps toward issuing $500,000 in certificates of obligation at their meeting Monday. The court agreed on the amount and voted to authorize publication of the required notice of intent to issue the certificates.

The major portion of the funds will go toward an ambulance building, new roofs for the hospital, care center and clinic and for a maintainer and two dump trucks. Money is also earmarked for two sheriff's department vehicles, data processing equipment for the courthouse and $15,000 to pay the cost of issuing the certificates.

If the new roofs do not require all the allotted money, the remainder will be designated for courthouse improvements. The Americans with Disabilities Act is going to necessitate installation of an elevator in the courthouse, which is expected to cost in excess of $75,000.

After three motions, with two dying for lack of seconds, the court voted to leave a bumpgate in place at the George Thompson ranch entrance on County Road 310. A cattleguard was removed and the bumpgate installed last month, fulfilling a commitment made by former Pct. 3 commissioner Jim House in June. The gate, which was promised to Dan Riggs who ranches beyond Thompson, is not popular with others who travel the road.

In response to complaints about the bumpgate, Commissioner Dick Kirby had asked Judge Kathryn Mayfield to write landowners and tenants along the road to determine their wishes. Replies were two for the gate and eight against.

Those against expected majority rule, but were left with the bumpgate when court members took their own vote after listening to all who wanted to comment.

Commissioners Sostenes DeHoyos, Fred Deaton and Rudy Martinez voted to leave the $3,000 gate in place. Commissioner Kirby voted against and Judge Mayfield abstained. Kirby had earlier presented a motion to let the majority rule and replace the bumpgate with a cattleguard.

Thompson cited dumping of trash on his property by Iran residents as his reason for wanting the gate and for his request that the county road sign be removed. He said he has been contacted by the Texas Department of Health regarding the dumping near the Pecos River.

Commissioners are concerned about the possibility of being held responsible for an illegal dump since the trash is being thrown from a county road.

Tony Allen and Dickie Ferro asked the court for the cattleguard, citing inconvenience and difficulty in using the bumpgate for themselves and others traveling the road.

The last two weeks of March were set for spring cleanup. Residents and businesses with large items to be hauled need to place them at curbside during this time.

Commissioners voted to reappoint Steve Kenley as fire marshal and appoint Doug Meador assistant fire marshal. The appointments are made every two years, and both men serve without pay.

The court voted against participating in a cafeteria plan for employees' medical and hospital insurance, raised the travel reimbursement rate to 27.5 cents per mile for travel and approved authorization to the Texas Criminal Justice Division for a juvenile Grant. Renewal of a contract with Pritchard & Abbott Inc. for on-line data processing in the tax office was also approved.

Reports were heard from: Garland Young, civic and youth center director; Eddie Moore, road and parks superintendent; Bob Denson, hospital administrator; and Louise Ledoux, librarian.

During Young's report, the court voted to have T-shirts for the all-night graduation party paid for from the center's budget. Approval was given to pay for freezer shelving and a kitchen work service area with funds budgeted for installation of emergency room lights. (The installation was funded through grant money.) Keith Cameron was appointed to serve on the library board to replace Dr. James Queen who has resigned.

The afternoon portion of the meeting ended with an executive session to discuss pending or contemplated litigation. Upon returning to open session, commissioners voted to have County Attorney Orlando DeHoyos write a letter denying any liability on the part of the county in connection with an accident in which Wolv Rutherford was injured.

Haley Carson named to all-district basketball team

Haley Carson, a senior at Ozona High School, has been named to the 6AA all-district girls' basketball team.

Ozona players selected for honorable mention were Myra Sanchez, a junior, and Veronica Mendoza, a senior.

Carson and Cullen Curry were selected as members of the all-district academic team. Only seniors who hold a 90 or better average quality. Carson's average is 97 and Curry's is 93.5.

Attorneys say Sharp did not receive a fair trial

Michael Eugne Sharp, sentenced to death in Crockett County in 1983, was in San Angelo last week for a federal hearing to determine whether or not he received a fair trial.

Sharp was convicted here of the murder of Brenda Kay Broadway. He was previously convicted by a Lubbock jury of the murder of her 8-year-old daughter.

Sharp was accused of kidnapping Mrs. Broadway and her two daughters from a Kermit carwash in June of 1982. The older daughter, 14 at the time, escaped and later testified against Sharp.

A stay of execution was granted in 1990 after El Paso attorney Steven James asked for a habeas corpus petition.

James and co-counsel Mitzi Turner presented evidence in San Angelo supporting their claims that attorneys and judges made mistakes during the trial. Among the witnesses questioned over a two-day period were: trial attorney Glen Williamson of Andrews, lawyer Mark Stevens of San Antonio who testified as an expert witness, District Attorney Michael Fostel who represented the 109th Judicial District, former Odessa police detective Jerry Smith and Crockett County and District Clerk Debbi Puckett.

The attorneys have 45 days to submit legal briefs to U. S. Magistrate J. Q. Warnick who will rule on Sharp's habeas corpus petition.

Ozona caught in hail storm Sunday

A fast-moving thunderstorm pushed through Ozona shortly after 7:30 Sunday night. The weather system dumped .35 inch of rain and enough marble and pea-sized hail to cover the ground. The official National Weather Bureau recording station at the AMAX plant south of Ozona registered .22 inches of rain.

Lightning set off alarms at Tedford Jewelry and South Texas

Lumber Company at the height of the storm.

Shortly before the front reached Ozona, firemen were called to a tank battery fire at the Wintershall north of town. A lightning-caused fire melted a fiberglass tank, allowing oil to spill. When firemen arrived, only a few small patches of fire remained. In their attempts to reach the location, one truck became stuck in a combination of mud and crude oil.

Ozona competitors advance to state free-throw competition

With an excellent showing of support from Ozona fans March 7, six contestants from Ozona traveled to San Angelo to participate in the area Knights of Columbus free throw competition. First place at this event qualifies for the state contest to be held March 28 in Austin. Athletes placing second in the area contest will be alternates to the state contest.

Ozona athletes competed against winners from Midland, Sweetwater, Odessa and San Angelo.

Winning first places for Ozona were: Lindsey Flanagan, 10-year-old girl division; Linda Mendoza, 13-year-old girls division; Randall Borrego, 11-year-old boy division; and Lupe Llanas, 14-year-old boy division.

Second places went to Amber McWilliams, 11-year-old girls; and Bobby Cervantez, 10-year-old boys.

In the 1992 area event, contestants shot for the most free throws made out of 25 attempts. Each Ozona athlete shot no less than 17 of 25.

The Ozona Council Knights of Columbus wishes these winners the best of luck at state.

Trial ends with five-year sentence

Felicita Ramirez Flores was sentenced to five years in prison here March 4 in connection with the stabbing death of her husband, ending a trial which began with the calling of jurors on Feb. 24.

Mrs. Flores was indicted on a felony murder charge April 15, 1991, for the Feb. 25, 1991, death of Mario Flores, 41.

The jury deliberated until 11:30 p.m. Tuesday night before finding Mrs. Flores guilty of aggravated assault with a deadly weapon. Punishment was determined the following day.

Formal sentencing is set for March 25.

Thanks, guys

Total Rainfall for year: 5.03"

by Scotty & Linda Moore

His

This has been one of the hottest elections, according to a few oldtimers, in many a year. Tempers have flared, rumors have flowed, but never fear, all will be dear as time passes on. Anyway, I am glad it's over and gone, so that Ole Davy Crockett can once again stand up straight and stare at all of the out-of-staters with a gleam in his eye.

If there is anybody deserving a slap on the back in Ozona, Doug Meador leads the pack. Let me tell you, this guy has got more irons in the public service fire than anyone in town. He not only holds down a full time job with the water department, but ramrods the EMS, Lions Club, chamber of commerce and is a member of the Ozona Volunteer Fire Department, any one of which requires loads of time and patience. He was also recently appointed assistant fire marshal. Let it be known to his wife and son that I and many other citizens appreciate his sacrifices and yours.

Ozona residents were peppered with pea to marble sized hail accompanied with some rain for ten to fifteen minutes Sunday evening. The hail stripped the trees of many of their leaves. I had hoped that this would be a good year for peaches, plums and apricots. Oh well, maybe a few of the blooms survived the storm.

his

Nancy Moore, Ozona Chamber of Commerce coordinator, has reported that the chamber will be having a brain storm in breakfast for members March 24. More information on the meeting will be in next week's paper. Nancy was also delighted after hearing the news that the Knights of Columbus would be erecting their new log cabin in the park this week. Watch for it kids!

Texas Women's Alliance to award outstanding school principal

In conjunction with the Texas Women's Alliance first "Excellence in Education Award", they will present a $2,500 cash prize to an outstanding Texas middle school principal this spring.

Nominations can come from teachers, students, parents, colleagues or principals themselves. The award is being partially underwritten by Southwestern Bell Foundation and will be presented in May. Applications should detail the nominees' efforts and strategies to appropriately meet the educational needs of middle school children. The principal must have implemented such programs and activities during the 1991-92 school year.

1991 income tax forms

As a courtesy to our patrons we are providing Federal Tax Forms as a public service in the library. Remember that librarians are not trained tax experts, so don't ask them for tax advice. We can help you choose the tax form that fits you best. It may save time if you are able to use one of the shorter forms. You could get a faster refund if you can file Form 1040EZ. Plain or fancy, we've got the forms you need. Don't put off 'till April the dreaded chore of reporting your taxes. Come by the library and get the forms you need.

Library board officers

CCPL is governed by a seven member board appointed by the commissioner's court. Mr. Elliott Barrera is our president. Mr. Donnie York is vice-president, and Mrs. Mary Daniels is secretary. Members include Mrs. Camille Jones, Mrs. Mary Jo Mason, Mrs. Lara Sue Baggett and new member Mr. Keith Cameron.

The board deeply regretted the resignation of Dr. James Queen. Dr. Queen had served the library well. We will miss him and his wife, Valerie, and wish them well in San Angelo.

Mr. Cameron is the junior high school English teacher, and we welcome his expertise to the board. We are looking forward to working with Mr. Cameron and strengthening our commitment to the education of our young people through the public library.

If you see any of these dedicated library board members, please give them a pat on the back for a job well done. Our library wouldn't be what it is today without the time and work of our volunteers.

Ozona Lions Club works hard to contribute to citizens of Ozona and Crockett County

The Ozona Lions Club through its hard work and member participation has been a major contributor to the welfare of Crockett County citizens during the past year.

Through projects such as the Ozona Mop and Broom Sale, Lions Club Junior Rodeo, the Lions Chili Supper and "special" fund-raising projects such as the beard contest at the Ozona Centennial celebration and Lions Club play, the club has been able to contribute to many worthwhile projects for the citizens of Crockett County.

Since the club's last mop and broom sale they have given money to the following: purchased and installed playground equipment for children at the Ozona Community Center, contributed $500 to the Ozona Boy Scouts, $300 to the Crockett County Centennial Committee, donated $250 to Ozona Project Graduation, donated $100 to the Dare-to-Care intervention program, $500 toward the construction of the gazebo in the park, donated $105 for the purchase of ribbons for the Ozona Junior High War On Drugs program, donated $500 to the Crockett County Sheriff's Welfare Fund, donated $300 toward a local drug abuse prevention program, purchased two new refrigerators for the Helping Hands organization, purchased $230 worth of Christmas candy for Ozona youngsters, donated $250 to the Ozona Voluntary Fire Department and provided $1,040 for examinations and eye glasses for needy Ozona children.

In addition to paying for the club's annual dues which benefits Lions International projects and the Texas Lions Crippled Children's Camp in Kerrville, they have contributed $450 toward the construction of an eye clinic across the Mexican border. The club has also contributed $405 for the District 2 A-1 Lions Eye Bank and $81 for the Leader Dog for the Blind program in Michigan. The Lions Club's largest singular contribution was $5,000 toward the construction of a permanent building to house the Ozona Emergency Ambulance Service.

This year's annual mop and broom sale will be held on Saturday, March 14, at the Village Shopping Center at 7:00 a.m. There will be a dutch-treat breakfast at the Cafe Next Door beginning at 6:00 a.m. for those who help unload the truck and set up the merchandise for sale. Currently, the club is in the process of appointing a chairman to assume responsibilities for contacting all 84 members to see if they could possibly work one or more of these two-hour shifts. Doug Meador, president of the club, said "If you can work or would be willing to assume one of these leadership roles, please contact Armando Arredondo, chairman of the sale, or me as soon as possible in order that scheduling can be completed."

"If you have been 'absent' from our last meetings, I would like to encourage you to join us at our new location at El Chato's Restaurant for lunch each Thursday at noon for plenty of good fun and fellowship as we, together, work for the good of Lionism and Ozona," Meador said.

ICD Family Shelter defines domestic violence

(Information for the following article was taken from the brochure "Domestic Violence: Understanding a Community Problem," printed by the Department of Human Services.)

Domestic Violence - is the use of abusive and violent behavior among people who are married, living together, or have an ongoing prior intimate relationship. Approximately 95% of the victims of domestic violence are women.

Domestic violence can involve pushing, punching, slapping, choking, stabbing, forcing sexual activity, or using the threat of violence to control another's behavior. It can lead to serious injury or death.

Typically, the first response to domestic violence is to ask why women stay in abusive relationships. Many women do leave their abuser. Other women endure the violence for a variety of reasons.

"Because of religious, cultural, or socially learned beliefs, a woman may feel that it's her duty to keep the marriage together at all costs.

"Some women will endure physical and emotional abuse to keep the family together for the children's sake. Very often, it is when the violence is directed at her children that she will take them and leave.

"Her husband or partner may not always be abusive and may show remorse at his violent behavior, promising that he will change.

"A woman may be financially dependent on her husband. Statistically, a woman with children who leaves the home has a 50% chance that her standard of living will drop below the poverty level.

"A battered woman frequently faces the most physical danger when she attempts to leave. She may be threatened with violence or attacked if she tries to flee. She fears for her safety, her children's safety, and the safety of those who help her.

Women will be forced to endure physical abuse until people stop suggesting that battered women who stay deserve the violence and instead focus on the real issues.

The ICD Family Shelter offers a 24-hour toll-free hotline and free counseling for victims of domestic violence. For more information on the Shelter and its services call 1-800-749-8631.

March 31 deadline for lottery applications

Texas retailers who want to sell lottery tickets when the games begin this summer need to submit their license applications by Tuesday, March 31.

"We will guarantee businesses that meet the deadline, and have clean records, will be able to sell tickets when the Texas Lottery picks its first winners," said State Comptroller John Sharp. "Experience in other states shows that the first day of sales is one of the busiest, and we want as many Texas merchants as possible to join in the fun and profits from the beginning." The lottery expects to license as many as 15,000 retailers in time for the anticipated July 1 sales of the first instant-winner, scratch-off tickets.

"We've tried to make it as easy as possible for any interested Texas business to join the lottery," Sharp said. "All it takes is a $125 fee and a clean record - and an application postmarked by March 31."

To help Texas business with the application process, the Comptroller's Office has conducted retailer assistance seminars across the state and established a toll-free hotline. That retailers-only number is 1-800-37-LOTTO.

The completed application packet must include the fingerprint card which is part of the criminal background check required by state law.

HOW TO GIVE YOURSELF BEAUTY & STORAGE AT THE SAME TIME

If you need more storage space in your home (and who doesn't), you can really give yourself the best of both worlds by not only adding that storage -- but also getting added beauty in the bargain.

It's easy to do if you select the right pieces. Here are just a few ideas:

How about a breakfront that can hold so many things and have so much beauty in itself. Then there's an armoire, a tall cabinet that can be used as a wardrobe or storage chest.

Or a commode, a low cabinet with drawers or compartments that can be used nicely against a wall or as an end table.

Or you can choose from many other cabinets -- there's really a big, varied supply of pretty pieces that can give you precious extra storage space with shelves and drawers in many different kinds of combinations.

In thinking about these pieces, you should consider both how they fill your storage needs, and what they can add to your overall decorating scheme.

We invite you to shop here for these -- and all your furniture needs. We can show you selection and value, and give you help in making your home as beautiful and convenient as possible.

Ministerial Alliance sponsors food bank

The Ozona Ministerial Alliance wishes to announce the sponsorship of a community food bank for those who find themselves in temporary difficult circumstances. The food bank is located at the United Methodist Church, and persons in need may contact their minister or go to the church office between 9 a.m. and 12 noon.

Since the food bank has limited resources, food will be limited to those in genuine need.

Donations may be made at any Ozona church.

Ministers consider opening second hand store

The Ozona Ministerial Alliance sees a need in Ozona for better stewardship of material goods. Many good, usable items are discarded each day. There is also a need for good affordable goods for those in need.

In order to meet both needs, the Alliance is looking into the possibility for a second hand store along the lines of some of the stores run by charitable organizations in larger towns.

The store would only be possible if there were enough volunteers to help with the project and a kindly property owner who would donate the use of an empty store front.

Call one of the churches of Ozona if you are interested in this project.

"But without faith it is impossible to please Him; for he that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him.

Earnestly Contending For The Faith

By Rev. Miguel Jimenez
Church of God of Prophecy

Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints (Jude 3).

Brethren, I believe it is important for us to note a number of things. In contending for the faith, there are things about any group, there are times in the development and the dynamics of any organization where changes are inevitable.

There are times where we are inclined to look back and say, "my, those were the good old days". We sometimes wonder at what we have lost and look at what we have gained. Sometimes our hearts are a bit saddened, but this was not what prompted Jude to write the Church. He saw a danger that went beyond the mere passing of traditions.

Can you think of something more beautiful to write about than the common salvation, the redemptive power of Jesus Christ and His blood which has been applied to the heart? The basic problem being addressed by Jude concerned a certain manner of life and not a certain type of doctrine. The faith we are talking about is the recognized teaching and doctrine that emerged from the Apostle Peter's early sermons which began to crystallize in the writings and teachings of Paul and the other apostles.

The expression "the faith" as commonly used in the New Testament can be taken to mean the broad tenets of Christian truth and practice. This has survived the times of the church's greatest decline and by it we live today.

This body of truth is a permanent trust delivered by God - not discovered by man. In writing to the Corinthians, Paul made it clear that he had received of the Lord what he was delivering unto them. Concerning how they should partake of the Lord's Supper, he said, "For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you." (I Cor. 11:23). Concerning the resurrection, he said, "For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received. (I Cor. 15:3) In Philip-pians 1:27-30, Paul captures the type of contending in which we should be engaged.

While we may be contending for other things, we are told of two basic denials. The first one is that we can deny grace by turning it into lasciviousness. It is possible to be so caught up with freedom as the consequence of salvation that we even allow for those who advocate sexual promiscuity and perversion, thereby degrading Christian liberty to the level of pagan license. Tolerance is not always Christian. There are things we can permit in our minds that should not be there. Jude warned against that.

On the other hand, we see many who can live only by rules - do's and don't's, relying on their ability to say "I have" or "I can" or "I have" measured up - thereby establishing their own particular version of righteousness. We are denying the grace of God by following either of these rather extreme views. The principles of grace we should hold to are consistent with the faith once delivered to the saints. Paul wrote to Titus, "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men. Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lust, we should live soberly, righteously and godly in this present world. (Titus 2:11-12)

Board discusses roof and physician recruiting

Architect John C. Allen told board members last week that the hospital and care center buildings can support a sloped metal roof. The structures are built for a stress of 20 pounds per square foot, and metal roof would be 5-7 pounds per square foot.

Allen also gave the board an alternative to a metal roof for these facilities and the clinic. He suggested a foam roof with as 3/4" gravel coating at a considerable savings. Whichever roof is chosen will be paid for with funds from certificates of obligation to be issued by the county next month.

Rob Mosley of Merritt/Hawkins and Associates spoke to the board about physician recruiting. He said physicians look for four things when selecting a location: quality of life, quality of practice, geographic location and financial opportunity.

While $97,000 to $120,000 is the national median for a family practitioner, communities like Ozona pay from $130,000 to $150,000 for a doctor according to Mosley. He estimated that a family practitioner is worth $350,000 gross revenue to a hospital.

After a day spent assessing the medical situation, Mosley said there is now a practice and a half here. A third doctor likely would have to be compensated more than present doctors receive, he said.

Board members reviewed a $345,000 list of equipment needed from 1992-1995 and voted to present the list to commissioners.

A community survey and assessment of medical needs was approved. The survey, part of the hospital's three-year plan, will be paid for by grant funds.

Replacement of corroded shelves in the kitchen's walk-in freezer and two stained food surfaces is necessary to correct Medicare deficiencies according to Bob Denson, administrator. The board voted to make the corrections at an estimated cost of $1,148.

Specialty clinics are on the horizon for Crockett County Hospital. Dr. Price Burdine of San Angelo is considering coming to Ozona one day a month to hold an orthopedic clinic. A cardiac specialist and gastroenterologist could possibly conduct clinics here, also.

ner, herself a surgical nurse, talked about establishing a policy for smoke-free buildings. Input from a committee of smokers and non-smokers will be considered.

During the care center portion of the meeting, Denson reported that a state moratorium on nursing home expansion has not been lifted. Under the moratorium, a facility must have 85% Medicaid patients for six consecutive months before expanding with more Medicaid rooms.

During his financial report, Denson said the combined hospital/care center operation is $38,000 over budget through February.

Prevention of alcohol, drug abuse among youth starts with parents

Peer pressure to try alcohol and other drugs can begin as early as the fourth grade, and by the sixth grade more than 40 percent of children have used alcohol. But children who have strong bonds with their family and school are far less likely to try alcohol or other drugs. When parents work with their children, the school, and the community in a prevention program, the use of alcohol and other drugs by young people declines sharply.

According to a survey by the National Institute on Drug Abuse, the high-risk years for children's first use of illegal drugs begin at age 12. And approximately 100,000 10 and 11-year-olds reported getting drunk once a week.

The 1990 Texas School Survey of Substance Abuse, conducted by the Texas Commission on Alcohol and Drug Abuse, reported that only one-third of the Texas secondary students remained drug-free during the 1990 school year; the remaining two-thirds used either alcohol, tobacco, inhalants and/or an illicit drug.

To help Texas youths abstain from the use of alcohol and other drugs, parents need to be positive role models. Teens often will tune out lectures, but they watch their parents' every action. Following are suggestions for parents to help combat their children's use of alcohol and other drugs:

- Show the value of freedom to think and act independently, that one doesn't have to do something because "everyone is doing it". This helps teens see that negative peer pressure can be rejected.

- Demonstrate a sense of self-respect and self-esteem. For example: taking care of your health through exercise and diet offers a strong model for your child.

- Show respect for your child's concerns by being a good listener.

- Be cautious in using prescription or over-the-counter medicines as a quick fix for pain or stress. Your example can counter or reinforce the media message that any problem can be cured by chemicals.

- Be aware of how personal use of alcohol can influence your teen. Avoid using excuses for drinking, like having a rough day.

- Talk honestly about personal stress or conflict. Children need to know that such struggles are a normal part of life. They have a good model when they see parents coping with problems without relying on alcohol or other drugs.

Mrs. Debbie Glasscock's class has recently been studying bubbles. Students were using five different solutions to see which bubbles lasted longer, checking color and size. Each student has been asked to make their own bubble machine for a contest and will participate in a bubble gum blowing contest.

Texas rural land prices rope investors into the market

COLLEGE STATION-Buyers of Texas rural land believe much of the state's land market has bottomed, making it a good time to move into the market.

"Producers remained the primary buyers of Texas rural land, but investors have been showing an interest as well," says Charles E. Gilliland, associate research economist with the Real Estate Center at Texas A&M University.

Recent state and federal legislation, however, involving taxes and the environment has the potential to change the benefits of landownership in Texas, according to Gilliland.

"Because the laws are new, no one is sure just how the land market will respond. But future prices are sure to reflect any impact, and that makes buyers and landowners more cautious than usual."

Among the issues concerning Texas landowners and buyers are:

- rapid changes in environmental regulations by the federal government that make landowners liable for clean-up of toxic wastes and underground storage tanks on their property;
- endangered species protection that restricts land use;
- disputes over ownership of underground water;
- distressed properties disposition by the Resolution Trust Corporation and other federal agencies;
- property tax increases; and
- farm program changes that could reduce farm incomes.

Gilliland's statements are based on estimated values and trends reported by informed observers of the Texas land market. Current land market conditions and median values are summarized in his latest publication, Rural Land Values in the Southwest: Second Half, 1991.

The Texas rural land market registered a small increase in median values for irrigated and nonirrigated cropland from 1990 to 1991. Median rangeland values, however, remained the same for the past 12 months.

Panelists reported an estimated median value for average quality irrigated cropland of $563 per acre for a typical tract size of 200 acres. The second half 1990 median was $550 per acre. The highest estimated median value of $2,800 per acre for high quality irrigated cropland occurred in the El Paso area, while the Trans-Pecos region registered the lowest median at $80 per acre for low quality land. Panelists observed no change in the number of parcels either offered for sale or sold during the past 12 months.

Average quality nonirrigated cropland increased to $550 per acre, up from $500 per acre for the second half of 1990. Typical tract size was 200 acres. The lowest estimated value of $150 for low quality land appeared in the Rolling Plains-North area (eastern panhandle) of the state. The San Antonio region registered the highest median value, $1,213 per acre for high quality land. Number of offerings for sale increased by 5 percent from levels reported 12 months earlier, but tract sales averaged only 2 percent higher during the same period.

Panelists reported an estimated median value of $450 for average quality native rangeland, the same value estimated for the second half of 1990. The lowest median value was recorded for the Trans-Pecos region at $37 per acre for low quality land. The highest median of $1,500 per acre came from the San Antonio area, reflecting location's effect on rangeland value. Both number of tracts offered for sale and sold rose by 5 percent during the past 12 months.

Rural Land Values in the Southwest: Second Half, 1991 also reports trends in Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma. The complete 40-page publication is available for $2.50 in Texas, $5 out of state from the Real Estate Center, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas 77843-2115. Request publication NR-917 and add $1 handling charge per order.

The Real Estate Center was created in 1971 by the Texas Legislature to meet the needs of many audiences, including the real estate industry, instructors, researchers and the general public. The center's comprehensive program of research and education yields publications, audiovisuals and computer software distributed widely under the slogan "Solutions Through Research".

Cholesterol in the body for good health

Everyone has some level of cholesterol in their body. Without cholesterol, a person couldn't survive - as a building block for cell walls and hormones, it serves other important functions.

Heart attacks due to high blood cholesterol are brought on when the supply of cholesterol is more than the body needs. This "extra" cholesterol builds up in the bloodstream and clogs arteries, instead of being eliminated by the liver. The saturated fatty acids in the food you eat can slow down this elimination process.

State property values up

In 1991, property in Texas was appraised at a median average of 99% of its market value, as determined by the Property Tax Division of the Comptroller's Office. A median means that one-half of the properties in the state were appraised higher and one-half lower than 99%. The median 1991 ratio was between 95% and 105% in all but 29 of the 254 counties. Those 29 counties compare with 35 counties last year and 71 counties outside that range in 1989.

The median ratio for Crockett County was 76%. The only county in the state which was lower was Kimble at 71%. Figures for nearby counties include: 102% Crane, 96% Irion, 98% Reagan, 97% Schleicher, 99% Sutton, 103% Terrell, 102% Tom Green, 101% Upton and 98% Val Verde.

While median ratios are useful, many taxpayers find their property valued at another level. The preliminary data indicates that the average property varied from the median ratio by 16.4%. For single-family houses, 59 out of 100 were appraised within plus or minus 10% of the average; the other 41 were over or under-valued by 10% or more.

Intracounty variations among property categories are the more critical concern of an individual taxpayer. Variations simply mean that some taxpayers paid more or less than their fair share of local government costs.

Statewide the market value of taxable property was up slightly for the second consecutive year following four years of decline. However, the 1.4% preliminary increase may disappear after appeals are heard. Preliminary values were down in 517 school districts.
