Braves spoil Lions' Homecoming 34-26

The Iraan Braves defeated the Ozona Lions 34-26 in District 6-2A football action on Friday, Oct. 16, in Lions Stadium.

The loss dropped the Lions to 2-2 in district play while the Braves improve to 3-0.

The Lions got on the scoreboard first as a result of a Lion fumble recovery on the Iraan 24 yard line. Justin Castro hit Alex Borrego on a 10 yard pass play after a five play drive to give the Lions a 6-0 lead. On the PAT attempt, Joe Mendoza's kick hit the goal post. An Iraan player recovered the ball and ran it back to the other end zone. The resulting confusion held up the game for approximately 20 minutes. Finally, after consulting the rule book, the officials discounted the Braves' runback.

From this point in the game until the third quarter, the Lions were in trouble. A combination of mental errors, questionable calls by the officials, penalties, and poor field position killed every offensive effort by the Lions.

Meanwhile, the Braves, utilizing a passing offense, scored three touchdowns and a field goal to take a 24-6 lead at the half. After giving up another field goal to the Braves early in the third quarter and falling behind 27-6, the Lion offense began to move the ball. Putting together a six play drive, the Lions scored on a one yard run by Michael Fay with 6:43 left in the quarter. Mendoza's PAT attempt was good and the Brave lead was cut to 27-13.

In the fourth quarter the Lions scored on their first possession when Justin Castro fell on his fumble as he crossed the goal line. This reduced the Brave lead to 27-20 with 8:52 left in the game.

The Braves came back on their next possession to score after a three play drive which concluded with a 57 yard pass play good for a TD. The PAT was good and Iraan increased its lead to 34-20.

The Lions didn't give up. On their next possession, after a 40 yard pass play from Castro to Chris Sanchez and runs by Michael Fay and Robert Bryson, Fay scored from five yards out with 6:51 left on the clock. The PAT attempt failed. Trailing 34-26, a final Lion drive late in the quarter ended when a Justin Castro pass was intercepted.

Jason Yeager, who as injured early in the game, led the Lion offense with 51 yards, followed by Michael Fay with 35 yards. Justin Castro passed for 131 yards. Alex Borrego caught 4 passes for 83 yards to lead the Ozona receivers.

The Lions travel to McCamey for their next district encounter on Friday, Oct. 23.

Soil and water conservation district election held

Earl Acton was recently re-elected to the Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District board of directors. Acton represents Zone 4 of the district.

The purpose of the Crockett SWCD is to promote sound soil and water conservation programs on ranch lands within the district and to serve as a voice for ranchers on conservation matters and other issues affecting private property rights of landowners.

The board of directors coordinates the conservation efforts of various local, state and federal agencies and together organizations and has authority to enter into working agreements with these governmental and private concerns to carry out its purposes.

As one of five individuals serving on the district board of directors, Acton will be responsible for district policies and procedures for carrying out the district program within the framework of the Texas soil district laws.

In Texas there are 211 soil and water conservation districts. Each is a legal subdivision of state government organized by local agricultural landowners with assistance of the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board. Unlike most other legal subdivisions of state government, SWCD's do not have the power of eminent domain. All conservation programs managed by the district are of voluntary nature to the landowners or operators.

The Crockett District was organized in 1950. The purpose being to further soil, water and plant conservation to the land within the district.

Ladies enjoy fall foliage tour

Vada Pridemore and Sibyl Howell recently returned from a 20 day tour of the New England states and Canada. The fall foliage was beautiful. Wandering along the country roads of Virginia, New Hampshire and Maine with the lakes and mountain streams they saw scenery which was just like pictures.

Newport, RI, was interesting with the many beautiful mansions built from 1748 to 1902. The group toured the Marble House completed in 1892 for William Vanderbilt; it has its original furnishings.

Of special interest was Hammersmith Farm owned by Mrs. Hugh Auchincloss whose daughter, Jacqueline, was married to John F. Kennedy in Newport and the reception was held at Hammersmith Farm.

Pictures were made of President Bush's summer home at Kennebunkport, MA.

You are young only once. If you act foolish after that you will have to find some other excuse.

A person's faith is not judged by what he says about it, but by what he does about it.

You never have to take a dose of your own medicine if you know when to keep your mouth shut.

Some men succeed by what they know, some by what they do, others by what they are.

The Bible contains the vitamins for a healthy soul.

Noah was the first businessman mentioned in the Bible. He floated a company when at the time the rest of the world was under liquidation.

When a man has a birthday he may take a day off. When a woman has a birthday she may take as many as five years off.

People who brag about having an open mind should close it occasionally and think.

Did you ever suspect that when folks repent loud and long they are really bragging?

Fact: Who lives in poverty? One in 10 whites, one in three blacks, one in four people of Hispanic background, one in every five children. (Statistics from Church World Service)

While the C.R.O.P. Walk/Run sponsored by Ozona United Methodist Church, First Baptist Church, Catholic Church and 4-H cannot hope to solve the problems of the masses, it is hoped that money raised by the walkers/runners will alleviate the hunger and despair of a few.

The C.R.O.P. Walk/Run is scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 14. More information will be forthcoming in The Stockman.

Have a safe Halloween

Safety should be the main consideration when your little ones go out to "trick or treat". For a safe, fun Halloween, follow these do's and don'ts:

- Wear flame-retardant, light-colored materials
- Use reflective materials at night so motorists will see children
- Makeup is safer than masks; if masks are worn, make sure they're removed between trick-or-treat stops.
- Avoid billowy costumes and wigs which can burst into flames quickly if exposed to fire.
- Avoid oversized shoes, and make sure children walk on the sidewalk or grass and cross the street only from corners or at crosswalks. If kids must walk on the street, have them walk on the left side facing traffic.
- Props such as magic wands and swords should be made of cardboard rather than metal or wood.
- Make sure children observe all traffic signals and never dart between parked vehicles. They should also watch for cars turning at intersections or into driveways (or backing up from a driveway!).
- Avoid jack-o-lanterns illuminated with candles. Costumes can become entangled with fire from the candles. Flashlights are a safe way to illuminate pathways.
- Avoid dogs - they might be frightened by a costume.
- Make sure young children are accompanied by a parent or responsible adult, and older children not accompanied by adults should travel with friends.
- Tell children to avoid going inside a home or building to accept treats, and to stay in their own neighborhood.

Removing stains after the treats

If junior borrowed dad's best shirt for his hobo costume and got grease-paint all over it, is he in big trouble? Maybe not...here are a few hints to keep stains from haunting you long after the big night:

- Makeup stains from face paint and lipstick can be especially difficult to remove because of their greasy composition. For washable garments, use a pre-soak and the hottest water the care label will allow to remove these stubborn stains.
- Most hard candy stains can be removed easily by regular washing methods.

Remember, the longer a stain sits on a garment, the more difficult it becomes to remove.

For a free stain removal chart, come by the County Extension Office on the second floor of the courthouse annex. Educational programs and materials provided by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or handicap.

These young people and 4-H'ers from the 13 other Extension Districts in Texas will be honored at a banquet during the 1993 San Antonio Livestock Exposition.

Vannoy, a 9-year 4-H member, has excelled in all phases of 4-H work and in both projects and leadership. She was the 1991 recipient of the Dan Bean Memorial Scholarship for having the most outstanding agricultural projects in the county. She was also a 1990 Gold Star winner and received the Danforth "I Dare You" award in 1992.

Among her statewide accomplishments are a first place and $500 scholarship in the 1992 Texas 4-H Fashion Show, and two trips to the Texas 4-H Food Show, in 1990 and 1992. She was also a member of the fourth place Share the Fun act at State Roundup in 1991; with partner Lisa Herring, she placed fourth in the Farm and Ranch Management Demonstration contest at Roundup this year.

Vannoy has shown goats for seven years, ewe lambs for three years, and market lambs for eight years at local and major shows. She has received the Regina Everett Memorial Buckle for most points won at major shows, as well as several showmanship awards.

She currently serves as county 4-H Council secretary and has served in the past as district 4-H Council delegate from Crockett County. As a teen leader in the foods and clothing projects, she has taught almost 1,000 people, and has helped to collect several hundred pounds of food for local charities.

"Whitney is one of the most outstanding members in an extremely outstanding group of 4-H youth in our county," said Tedra Ulmer, County Extension Agent-Home Economics. "Her public speaking abilities, willingness to take leadership roles and ability to work with younger 4-H members makes her a real asset to the program on the county, district and state level," said Ulmer.

For more information about how your child can excel in 4-H, contact the Crockett County Extension Office at 392-2721. 4-H is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and participation is open to persons of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or handicap.

All 4-H'ers must be enrolled

All youth wishing to participate in 4-H Club meetings, project groups and other activities must have current enrollment cards on file at the County Extension Office according to County Extension Agent-Home Economics Tedra Ulmer, who is county 4-H coordinator.

"It has been brought to our attention that several youngsters have been expecting to be called about the foods and nutrition or other projects, but we do not have any form of enrollment information on them in the office, and therefore they aren't being assigned leaders or sent information," said Ulmer.

"We want every youth to have the same opportunities to participate in 4-H, but we need for the parents and youth to do their part by giving us the information we need to contact them about activities," the agent noted.

She explained that it costs nothing to enroll in 4-H - there are no dues or other fees. The only costs are what a youth spends on a project, and those are determined by the youth and parents.

Enrollment is simple, according to Ulmer. Either the youth or a parent or guardian can call or go by the Extension Office from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays and sign up by filling out a form. This form includes basic information such as age, grade, phone numbers and project interests.

"This enrollment information is put into our computer, so when it's time to start, say, the foods project, we generate lists of youth who said they wanted to be in the project and send important information to them," the agent said.

The computer lists are also used to determine how many leaders are needed and how many youths each leader will need to work with. "So, if you're not enrolled, we can't assign a leader or may not recruit enough leaders," she noted.

The County Extension Office is located on the second floor of the courthouse annex, next to the courthouse (Ave. D and 11th St.). As noted, hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., except for noon to 1 p.m., on weekdays. The telephone number is 392-2721 or 392-2722.

4-H is the largest youth-serving organization in the world, with more than five million members in the U. S. alone. All youth 9-19 are welcome to participate in 4-H, which is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and open to persons of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or handicap. Parents are urged to participate and are always welcome at all activities.

For more information, call the County Extension Office or go by and visit with County Extension Agents Tedra Ulmer or Billy Reagor about the opportunities available for your child.

Brownie Girl Scout troop 103 holds first meeting

The Brownie Girl Scout troop 103 held their first meeting of the season on Oct. 7 at the Ozona Seniors Apartments. The troop welcomed new members Heather Sheppard, Casey Solansky, Jenny Tollett and Patricia Martinez.

All the members, many who have been in Scouts since Daisies, performed several Girl Scout rituals. Each Scout was asked to share with the others their favorite memories of the previous year. The Thinking Day skit and doing fireworks painting, while earning their "Colors and Shapes" Try-it, were enjoyed most.

While earning Try-it patches, the Brownie Girl Scout will continue to explore the five exciting worlds of interest in Girl Scouting. They are: the World of Well Being, the World of the Arts, and the World of the Out of Doors. The Brownie Girl Scout Try-its are a unique feature of Brownie Girl Scouting. They are non-competitive recognitions that Brownies may receive to symbolize participation, not performance, in selective activities. To receive a Brownie Girl Scout Try-it patch, girls should complete four activities relating to the subject. the scouts shared a friendship circle Following an active discussion, and refreshments.

Specialty Clinic office remodeled

The Ozona Specialty Clinic upgrade was completed Oct. 16. The upgrade work was done by Alejos Lara. A thorough cleaning of the clinic is scheduled this week to finish the project.

Marcus Sims, D.O., and Robert Owensby, M.D., will assist the administrator and board members in establishing the guidelines for use of the specialty clinic. Some of these guidelines include the use of a referral and medical records system, a list of possible specialties along with the physicians who are interested and qualified to practice, and the formal application to the medical staff of these physicians to the Crockett County Hospital.

Quite a bit of coordination will have to go into the organizing of this specialty clinic so that it can become an integral part of the health care delivery system in Crockett County.

Blood drive to benefit John Traylor

The Xi Sigma Omega chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will sponsor a community blood drive and barbecue Thursday, Oct. 29, from 1 to 7 p.m. at the new Crockett County E.M.S. Building southwest of the hospital.

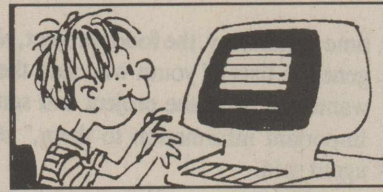

"Blood donated at the drive will be given on behalf of John Traylor of Ozona," said Connie Jennings, drive coordinator. "Xi Sigma Omega is urging all businesses to encourage their employees to participate in the drive and support John Traylor in his battle against cancer. John has given to our community...now we can give back to him," Mrs. Jennings went on.

Only when a significant number of people donate on a regular basis can a community maintain adequate blood supplies. If everyone waited for an emergency before donating, lives could be jeopardized. Waiting to donate in an emergency only creates emergencies. Blood must be available at all times in sufficient amounts to meet the needs of this community.

Managers from United Blood Services of San Angelo will cook hamburgers beginning at 4, and the ladies of Xi Sigma Omega have prepared all the trimmings to show appreciation to blood donors for supporting the community drive. Everyone donating before 4 is invited to come back after the serving begins to pick up a plate.

"Come tour the new E.M.S. Building and give a pint of blood for John," Mrs. Jennings said. "There is no greater gift you can give."

Trying Out Your Wings

By Charles Huffman, Pastor
Faith Lutheran Church
Hope Lutheran Church

"Those who depend on the Lord get new strength. They lift up their wings like eagles..." Isaiah 40:31 (AAT)

Sometimes we may be afraid to try our wings in a new area of endeavor. So often that's because we're frozen with the fear of failure.

One day a man watched as a mother eagle dropped a young eaglet into the deep canyon where he was fishing. The eaglet fluttered as it plummeted downward, and just when it seemed about to be dashed to death on the rocks below, the father eagle plunged beneath and caught his offspring on his broad back. Then he flew up high and dropped the young one again. This time the mother eagle caught the little one on her back. And this routine was repeated until the young eagle learned to fly.

God gives us opportunities to try out our wings so that we might learn to fly on to greater and higher experiences. Often these flights are adventures with our Lord in ministering to others. Our Father always watches over us and spreads His wings of protection beneath us. And He who sent His own Son to die on the Cross for our sins and to rise again that we might be led through death to eternal life will certainly never leave nor forsake us (Hebrews 13:5) on our earthly flights.

So, my fellow Christians, lift up your wings like eagles - for the Lord will sustain you!

Letter to the Editor

To whom it may concern:
Upon reading an article in one of the past issues of The Ozona Stockman, I was very dissatisfied to learn of the school board's re-evaluation of the high school's auto mechanics program. To do away with this vocational program would not only leave the lack of yet another vocational program for young adults of Ozona, but it may also raise the dropout rate. Auto mechanics is necessary to quite a few of the students because not all families can afford to send his/her child to a four-year college.

It has come to my understanding that this program has been reviewed because of the lack of interest.

I, myself, am one of several young adults who did pursue a career in auto mechanics, not only because I enjoy the work but because I didn't want to spend approximately $50,000 on a four-year college to work in a supermarket. After two years of auto mechanics in high school, I furthered my career by attending Universal Technical Institute in Houston. I have been working for Mitchell-Pontiac Toyota as their electrical and mechanical technician. Since being employed with Mitchell-Pontiac-Toyota, I have placed among the top 20% of the Pontiac certified technicians.

In conclusion, the auto mechanics program should not be terminated because of the lack of interest. It is an important option for those of us who love working on cars, and for those of us who would like to learn a trade. Without an auto technician, who would work on the many cars on the roads today?

Sincerley,
Kenneth D. Sessom

JV Lions massacre Braves 34-6

The Ozona JV Lions defeated the Iraan JV Braves 34-6 in Iraan on Thursday, Oct. 15.

Scoring in all quarters, the JV Lions ran their season record to 5-1-1.

Ozona's first touchdown came when Tony Valencia intercepted a Brave pass and returned it 31 yards to score. Andres DeLaGarza's kick was good and the Lions led 7-0.

A three yard run by David Browne gave the Lions a 13-0 lead early in the second quarter. The Braves' lone TD came in the second quarter and the half time score was 13-6 in favor of the Lions.

The Lions tallied twice in the third quarter. A two yard pass from Browne to Jesse Garza was good for the Lions' third touchdown. Later in the quarter, Tony Valencia ran 13 yards to give the Lions their fourth TD. After a two point conversion run by Browne, the Lions led 27-6.

The final Ozona touchdown came in the fourth quarter on a 44 yard pass play from David Browne to Jesse Garza. Bryan Mendez's kick was good, making the final score 34-6 in favor of the Lions.

David Browne rushed for 168 yards including one touchdown. He also passed for 73 yards including two touchdowns. Jesse Garza had four receptions for 67 yards including two touchdowns. Adam Carroll had several key blocks on long plays. Defensive highlights included Andres DeLaGarza with 12 tackles, Juan Trujillo with nine tackles, Justin Moran with 8 tackles, and Elliott

Barrera with six tackles.

"You've gotta love it! How many times do you get to beat Iraan twice in one year?" commented Coach Brad Brevard. "We were a little flat coming out, which is expected when you replay a team you have already beat. Once again, the second half belonged to Ozona. David (Browne) had a great game. He was in on 241 yards of our offense. I know this sounds redundant, but I can't say enough about our offensive line (Jamerson, DeLaGarza, Barrera, Trujillo, Moran, and Westmoreland). They are the reason we had 396 yards of total offense. We had a break (Coahoma beat Wall 6-0) which means we can win district if we win out. These are a fantastic group of guys and the future is definitely bright."

The JV Lions next game is Thursday, Oct. 22, when they host the McCamey JV Badgers.

Ozona schools participate in red ribbon week

Saturday, Oct. 24, marks the beginning of the 1992 Red Ribbon Campaign sponsored by the National Federation of Parents. This is a project that links via red ribbons millions of Americans who are convinced that the war of drugs is winnable. This is a grass roots effort which is helping to change attitudes about drugs.

The Red Ribbon Campaign originated when Federal Agent Enrique Camarena was murdered by drug traffickers in 1985. The red ribbon became the national symbol to reduce the demand for drugs, just as the yellow ribbon symbolized the hostages in Iran and the POWs in North Vietnam.

During Red Ribbon Week, Oct. 24-Nov. 3, communities will participate in activities designed to promote a drug free America. By wearing a red ribbon, individuals can create positive peer pressure about drug-free choices. It is the rallying point for millions of children and adults who share the commitment to live healthy lives unhampered by substance abuse.

David McWilliams, teacher in Ozona High School, reported that red ribbons will be given to all students in junior and senior high school. The high school biology class will study a unit on drug awareness. The health class will have a unit on drug and alcohol abuse. Posters depicting awareness of drugs will be put up around the school.

The junior high, intermediate and primary schools will be given ribbons and study drug units during the week.

Best students name best teachers for Who's Who directory

A select group of America's teachers are being honored by their toughest critics, their former students, in the second edition of Who's Who Among America's Teachers, 1992. All of the 65,000 teachers being honored were selected by their former students who themselves are currently listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students, or The National Dean's List, publications which recognize the top five percent of the nation's high school and college students respectively. Paul Krouse, publisher of Who's Who Among

America's Teachers said, "There is no greater honor teachers can receive than to be recognized by former students for their excellence and dedication. In this publication we clearly have the best teachers in America selected by the best students." The students were requested to nominate teachers who "made a difference in their lives" by helping to shape their values, inspiring interest in a particular subject and/or challenging them to strive for excellence. Many of the students commented about the enthusiasm and knowledge their teachers demonstrated in the classroom, and many praised their teachers for their ability to relate to youngsters on a personal as well as a professional level. One student wrote about her teacher saying, "she made education something pleasurable, instead of a dreadful ordeal, by letting me spread my wings and showing me the best way to fly." Local educators honored in Who's Who Among America's Teachers, 1992 include: Thomas DeHoyos, Janis Graham, David McWilliams, Jack Probst, Judy Probst, Manuela Rodriguez and Margaret Spiller.

There's a better way to stay warm...
Call your heating and cooling dealer instead.
The best way to stay warm this winter is to have your heating system serviced now. A checkup by a heating and cooling dealer could help prevent a costly, uncomfortable breakdown during the cold of winter. Proper maintenance can also help reduce operating cost and extend the life of heating equipment.

And if your present system has seen too many winters, replace it with an all season electric heat pump. Ask your dealer or WTU for details.

Crockett County Public Library News

By Louise Ledoux

The Crockett County Public Library was recently accredited as a member of the Texas Library System for fiscal year 1993, according to William D. Gooch, director and librarian of the Texas State Library.

"We are pleased to award a certificate of system membership in recognition of the efforts this community has made in providing public library services," said Gooch. "It is a symbol of having achieved a level of excellence."

The Crockett County Public Library is a member of the Big Country Library System and serves citizens in Ozona and the Crockett County area. CCPL had to meet strict criteria, according to Librarian Louise Ledoux, such as hours of access, professional staffing requirements, number of library materials, and local per capita operating funds to become an accredited member. Public libraries must apply and qualify for system membership annually. CCPL has been a member of the Big Country Library System for nine years.

Membership benefits include state funds for collection development, a microcomputer and software, audio-visual equipment, free loan of films and videos, and a Federal Interlibrary Loan program for books. We also get literacy materials and workshops, professional and technical help with budgeting, book selection and cataloging, plus library skills training through special workshops for county librarians. System membership is vital for a small community library like ours.

Authorized by the Library Systems Act of 1969, the Texas Library System was developed to improve library service in the state through cooperative efforts. Comprised of 10 regions, the statewide system provides an opportunity for local libraries to make the best possible use of both their own resources and those available elsewhere in the system. These cooperative efforts are made possible through state and federal funds appropriated to the Library Development Program of the Texas State Library. This year the Texas State Library will distribute about $8 million to the 10 library systems.

Mrs. Lou Deaton is the lay representative to the Big Country Library System and represents our library in planning system programs. She also serves on the advisory council to the State Library and attends all regional and state meetings for our system. The CCPL board and staff want to thank Mrs. Deaton for her time and dedication to the library.

Tax practitioner workshops scheduled

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service, in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service and the Texas Extension Education Foundation Inc., is once again offering the tax practitioner workshops across the state of Texas in the fall of 1992. These workshops are led by CPAs and attorneys who are experienced in the field of income tax reporting and planning. They provide valuable continuing education opportunities for tax professionals seeking CPE and MCLE credit.

This year, 26 general tax workshops, designed for practitioners who work mostly with individuals and small businesses, are offered in major Texas cities. The nearest one will be in San Angelo on Nov. 12-13. Fourteen advanced tax workshops are also offered. They are directed at the practitioner with substantial experience with individual returns, who does some business work, and feels the need to develop more skills in business related work. One will be offered in Austin on Dec. 3-4 and in San Antonio on Oct. 29-30.

In addition to the general and advanced workshops, there will be four each of the estate planning workshops and three each of the fiduciary income tax, S corporation and basic partnership workshops. The agricultural tax problems workshop, which was introduced in 1989, will be offered this year in two locations, Lubbock and San Antonio. A new workshop for 1992 will be the taxation of non-profit organizations and charitable giving held in San Angelo.

For a brochure with a complete listing of the 56 tax practitioner workshops offered in 1992, contact County Extension Agent Billy Reagar at 392-2721. Adopt-a-horse program in Sonora Nov. 7-8

Wild horses and burros, symbols of the nation's western heritage, will arrive in Sonora for an adoption sponsored by the U. S. government. The Sonora adoption will be Saturday, Nov. 7, and Sunday, Nov. 8, at Sutton County stockpens located south of Sonora and I-10 on Hwy. 277.

Hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day and admission is free.

About 50 burros and 70 horses will be available to qualified adopters. Adoption fee is $125 for each horse. Interested individuals may view horses on Friday, Nov. 6, and obtain applications at that time.

Before shipping, every animal rounded up by BLM is thoroughly checked by a veterinarian, Coggins tested, and vaccinated for various equine disorders.

Individuals interested in adopting will need to provide an adequate shelter of 12'x12' and 20'x20' of corral space with sturdy fencing 6 feet high, and a solid horse trailer with a covered top and side-swing back gates (drop ramp gates are not permitted). Four horse or larger trailers are preferred. BLM wranglers sort out adopted animals, halter and load them onto the adopter's trailer.

People who wish to adopt horses from the government must sign an agreement to provide proper care for the animals and not abuse them or commercially exploit them. With care and patience, wild horses can be tamed and used for pleasure riding, ranch work, showing, barrel racing, roping or other non-commercial purposes. On the one year anniversary date of the animal's adoption, the adopter is eligible to make an application for certificate of title. If the animal has been humanely cared for, the Bureau of Land Management will award the adopter clear title to the animal. Until that title is issued, the horse or burro remains U.S. government property and may not be sold, traded, or given away.

Statewide water meeting set

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service is sponsoring a statewide water issues program Oct. 22 in the San Angelo Convention Center. The symposium, "Water In 2020: Will It Be There?", will begin with registration from 8 to 8:45 a.m.

Rural and urban demand on Texas water is at an all-time high. State and federal legislation dictating water priorities is changing rapidly. The purpose of Water 2020 is two-fold: 1. to explain the new water legislative issues; 2. to present the newest information on water quality and conservation technology.

The morning session deals with legislative matters. Moderator is Rep. Robert Junell of San Angelo. The day's schedule will be:

9 a.m. Sen. Bill Sims, West Texas water issues

9:20 John Hall, chairman of Texas Water Commission, explanation of Texas water surface and groundwater rights

9:40 Allan Lang, manager of Lipan-Kickapoo Water Conservation District, Underground Water Districts: Functions and Authority

10 a.m. O. H. Ivie, general manager of Colorado River Municipal Water District, river basin authorities and watershed planning

10:20 break followed by: Arthur Talley, TWC pollution abatement coordinator, current status of water quality assessment, Dr. John Sweeten, Texas A&M, Federal Water Policy and Legislation: What's in Store?, Wayne Jordan, Texas Water Resources director, setting of state's water agenda concerning research, policy and funding needs.

There will be two concurrent sessions during the afternoon. Session A moderated by Rep. Bob Turner features topics: irrigation water use efficiency, chemigation, conservation tillage, crop chemicals and groundwater, concentrated animal feeding operations, agricultural chemical collection activities and centers, wellhead protection and water well regulations for farms and ranches, TWC agricultural unit and ag advisory committee role, functions and issues. Carolyn Gilbert, Dist. 7 Extension director, will moderate Session B. Topics include: wellhead protection for public water wells, recycling and waste minimization, proper disposal of household hazardous waste, Subtitle D regulation for small communities' solid waste management/landfills, xeriscaping and water smart programs, water quality testing and treatment, chemical use on lawns and gardens, and long range planning for towns.

Registration is $10 in advance or $15 at the door. Make checks payable to West Texas Water Conference and mail to Tom Green County Extension Office, 113 W. Beauregard, San Angelo, TX 76903.

Don Edwards to entertain at benefit

Singing cowboy Don Edwards along with former members of the Texas Playboys will be the featured entertainment at the first Ranch Heritage chuckwagon dinner, show and dance, Sunday, Oct. 18.

The Ranch Heritage will be held at Hoolihan Acres, near Mertzon, with proceeds from the evening benefiting West Texas Boys Ranch.

Folks will have a chance to sample authentic chuckwagon cooking and visit with the entertainers as they gather 'round the chuckwagons from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. for a genuine cowboy supper. Some of the best chuckwagon cooks in Texas will be on hand including San Angelo's own Doc Hudman of Zentner's Steakhouse.

The show and dance will begin at 8:00 p.m. Tickets for the benefit are $20.00 per couple and available at KGKL, Mr. Boots, Bentwood Golf Shop and at the gate.

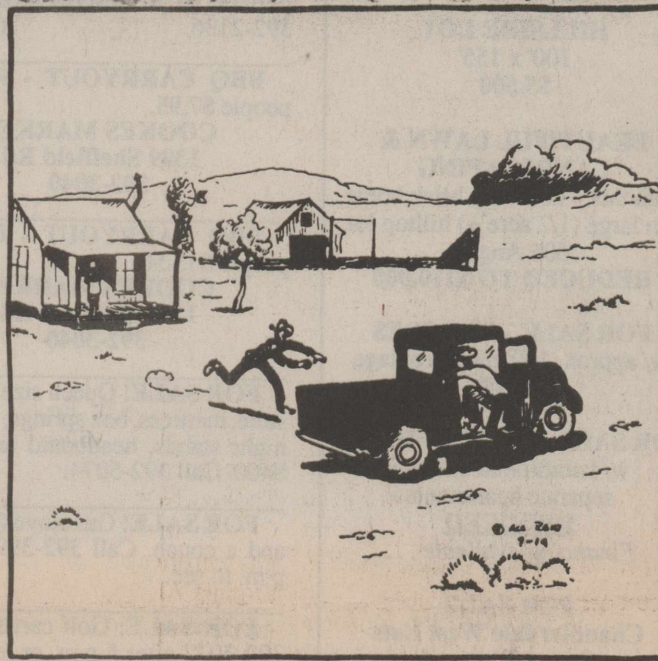

Entertainer Don Edwards can best be described as the modern voice of the Old West.
