Lions Maul McCamey In 38-0 Homecoming Win

by Neal Ulmer, Stockman sports-writer

Homecoming spirit and Lion Pride spurred Ozona's team in a 38-0 domination of the McCamey Badgers Friday night. The District 6-2A football contest was played before an enthusiastic homecoming crowd, kept warm despite near-freezing temperatures by the aggressive play of the Lions.

Coach Don Payne said, "This was a big win for us, especially at homecoming. The Lions played with a lot of confidence." The dynamic duo of QB Justin Castro and wide receiver Chris Sanchez accounted for one 31-yard TD and 157 receiving yards, as the Lions just couldn't be stopped by a hefty McCamey defense.

The Lions received the opening kickoff and Castro scrambled for two runs of 36 and 12 yards. They wasted little time before scoring, as a 20-yard pass to Chris Sanchez set up a 2-yard touchdown run by Julio Martinez. The extra point was kicked by Andres De La Garza, giving the Lions a 7-0 lead with 10:25 remaining in the first quarter.

A fired-up Lion defense was led by linebacker Juan Trujillo, who had 16 tackles in the game. They quickly forced a Badger fumble, recovered by Robert Bryson on the McCamey 40-yard line and giving Ozona another chance to score.

In the second Lion possession, a pass completion of 35 yards from Castro to Chris Sanchez was followed with an eight-yard loss and two incomplete passes. However, a 31-yard pass and a heart-stopping catch by Sanchez gave the Lions their second score of the night. Unfortunately, the extra point attempt was blocked, but the Lions led 13-0 with 6:39 left in the first quarter.

Again the mighty Lion defense—including noseguard Julio Martinez, who had nine tackles in the game—forced the Badgers to punt. With the ball on their own 18-yard line, the Badger center made a bad snap, causing the ball to fly over the punter's head out of the end zone. This McCamey error earned a two-point safety for the Lions with 4:55 left in the quarter, bringing the score to 15-0 with Ozona preparing to receive the ball.

Jesse Garza returned McCamey's kick to the Lion 48-yard line, where Ozona started with good field position. A five-yard run by Anthony Sanchez moved the ball, but was wiped out by an equal penalty. An 18-yard Castro to Garza pass again moved the ball up, and a McCamey penalty helped the Lions to advance even more.

However, Ozona received two more costly penalties, and instead of first-and-ten on the eight-yard line, they faced a fourth-and-twenty-six on their own 45. A Castro pass fell incomplete and the ball went over on downs to McCamey.

Yellow flags plagued the Lions all night, resulting in 120 yards lost through 14 penalties. On this series, the Ozona defense recovered the ball; however, the offense was unable to move down the field due to a penalty and incomplete passes.

McCamey's repossession of the ball was short-lived, as running plays failed to gain yardage. A punt gave the ball to Ozona's J. J. Lozano on the Lions' 40-yard line, then Chris Sanchez received passes for 16 and 42 yards. Short runs set up a 12-yard touchdown by Anthony Sanchez, and the extra point was good with 4:39 left in the second quarter.

Again McCamey took over, but a penalty and tough defense by the Lions forced them to punt. Ozona regained the ball on their 44-yard line, but were unable to generate any yardage until a stunning 42-yard pass to Chris Sanchez opened up the McCamey defense and allowed James Nelson to gather in a 4-yarder from Castro. Ryan Morris unlimbered a 30-yard field goal to put the Lions even farther out of McCamey's reach, 25-0.

McCamey received the ball, but time ran out and the half ended with a convincing Lion lead. The Badgers got the ball after halftime on their 40-yard line, but were only able to put together 14 yards of offense before punting.

When the Lions' offense took over, they were on the 48, but a penalty moved Ozona back to the 25. Castro passed for seven yards to Tony Valencia, but a penalty wiped out the play. Anthony Sanchez rushed for two tough yards, but an incomplete pass forced the Lions to give up the ball.

Again, McCamey failed to generate any offense and the Lions took over on Ozona's 29-yard line. Castro managed a 13-yard pass to Chris Sanchez and a 18-yarder to Jesse Garza before taking matters into his own hands with a 25-yard run for a touchdown. The extra point was good, making the score 32-0 in favor of the Lions with 3:30 remaining in the third quarter.

The Badgers put together a good series on their next drive, starting on the 20-yard line. However, penalties and more solid Lion defense caused a punt and Ozona took the ball on the 47-yard line.

Short runs and penalties characterized the next Ozona drive, and the Lions punted. McCamey recovered on the 33-yard line, but couldn't put a sustained drive together, as the ball went back and forth between teams for the next few series.

However, Ozona wasn't through scoring for the night. After Ozona got the ball back on a punt, Sophomore QB David Browne took over for Castro and moved the ball within scoring range. A pass from Browne to Joel Fuller resulted in 16 yards for the Lions, then Browne completed a four-yarder to James Nelson.

J. J. Lozano added a 14 yard run before sprinting in from the six for the game's final touchdown. The point-after attempt failed, and the score stood at 38-0.

McCamey received the ball on the 50-yard line but was hit with a penalty; two incomplete passes forced yet another punt. Ozona took the ball on their own 28, but were hit with another penalty, which negated a superb 70-plus yard run for what appeared to be a touchdown by Anthony Sanchez.

As a result of McCamey penalties, Ozona got the ball on the Mc-

Band Wins Marching Contest 10 Years Straight

The Ozona Lion Band earned a Division I rating from all three judges for the 10th consecutive year at the Region VII U.L.L. marching contest Oct. 23 in Brady. Bands are rated from I (superior) to V (poor) by a panel of three judges.

This year all A, 2A, and 4A bands who earn a first division rating at regional competition are eligible to advance to the area level of competition.

The Lion Band will travel to Wichita Falls Saturday, Oct. 30, to compete for a shot at the state marching contest.

At the area level of competition, the bands are ranked in order to choose the top two bands at the contest. Only these two bands will advance to the state marching contest to be held in Austin on Nov. 8. There will be approximately 14 bands in 2A competing at Wichita Falls.

Band directors Mr. Kelly Glaze and Mr. Skip Carroll were very proud of the band's performance on Saturday. The judges pointed out some items to improve upon before the area competition, but overall were quite impressed with the high degree of perfection exhibited by the Lion Band.

The directors would like to thank the community for their show of support at Brady and to the Sheriff's Office for the escort into town. It always gives the band students a thrill to see all the attention given to them after competition.

Other 2A bands from the region advancing to area are Eldorado, Bangs, Hamilton and Dublin. Class A bands from this region advancing are Menard, Irion County, Sterling City and Eden.

Trustees Ask For New Election Plan

At a special meeting of the Crockett County Consolidated C.S.D. Board of Trustees on Wednesday, Oct. 20, members voted to direct their consultant to present a plan to change the present board of trustee method of election from an at-large system to six single-member districts and one at-large member system. The plan will be presented to the trustees at the next regular board meeting on Nov. 10.

A suit filed June 17 in U. S. District Court in San Angelo by Orlando De Hoyos asks that the present method of electing board members at large be found unconstitutional.

The suit asks for single member electoral districts to ensure a board whose election will not "cancel out, minimize or dilute the voting strength of minority voters". Presently the 7-member board is made up of five Anglos and two Mexican-Americans.

The suit also asked that the board be prevented from calling, holding, supervising or certifying any further elections under the at large scheme. The plaintiff also asked for costs and attorney's fees. He was represented in the filing of the suit by Rolando L. Rios of San Antonio.

Correction, Please

A correction line in a school board story in the Oct. 20 issue of The Stockman was inadvertently put in the wrong place.

The sentence, which was part of a statement read by school board president Gary Mitchell, should have said "Embroidering our golf program in a couple of years of intense litigation is guaranteed to create a highly charged and divisive environment in our small community."

The Stockman apologizes for any confusion caused by the error.

Rollback Election Voting Underway

A school tax rollback election set for Nov. 9 had drawn 42 early voters as of Tuesday morning. Early voting by personal appearance began Oct. 20 and will end Nov. 5.

Spring Forward, Fall Back

Remember to set your clocks back one hour Saturday night so you will be back on Standard Time when you awaken Sunday morning.

Bingo And Amendment Elections Nov. 2

Early voting by personal appearance ends Friday in the constitutional amendment election and local option bingo election. Both ballots are being voted at the courthouse between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

On election day, Nov. 2, hours will be from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Pct. 1 voters will cast their ballots at the courthouse, Pct. 2 at the county road department, Pct. 3 at the civic center and Pct. 4 at the primary school.

As of Tuesday morning, there had been 35 early votes by personal appearance and seven ballots mailed out in the amendment election. In the bingo election, 37 had voted by personal appearance.

What Has Happened To Discipline In America?

by Linda Mae Casey, Ozona

Several weeks ago I saw a young mother of about twenty-two or three, struggling to control several young boys about two or three years old in a grocery store. The children were grabbing things off the shelves and running amuck all over the store.

The poor mother was looking harassed and embarrassed as well as helpless. She seemed completely powerless as to what to do to control these little children. I was amazed at how much power that young children seemed to have over an adult.

Later, I talked to a friend of mine who also has small children. "Why do you young mothers always seem to be being pushed around by your own children?" I asked her.

"Well, you can't spank children anymore," she said, "and sometimes the time outs, or sitting them down away from television or whatever alternative correction I try just doesn't work. I try talking to the kids, but they seem to just either not understand, or they just don't listen. Most of the time I am at my wits end."

I talked to several other young mothers as well, and came away with basically the same frustrated attitude from most of them.

I raised four children, and I only used spanking as a last resort. If everything else failed, then they were told why, and given a spanking. Some children always seem to take more discipline than others.

After doing some heavy research, I can well understand these young parents' frustration. I contacted child welfare all over Texas, and was given the royal run around, the moment I asked the question, "Is it legal to spank your child as part of discipline?"

I was finally put in touch with a spokesperson for this particular issue. It seems that spanking your child is not illegal in the state of Texas. As long as no real and lasting harm comes to the child. To clarify this, you cannot leave marks, or bruises, on your child, nor should you spank the child anywhere except on the bottom or the legs. This does not mean that you can beat your child in the name of discipline.

All other measures should still be employed before spanking. However, if you put your child on couch to sit for time out, and he or she refuses to stay, spanking him, is an alternative to pulling all your hair out.

Young parents have been made to fear their own children, by threats of going to jail, or losing their children, if they spank them. They also have been made to feel like failures if all the alternatives to spanking don't work for them. They hear that these methods work, and are frustrated, and embarrassed when they don't work for them.

Another problem that I saw recently was a couple of women arguing about something that had nothing to do with the younger woman's children. The older woman told her that if she didn't do what she said, she would call child welfare on her. She had seen the younger woman spank her child for going in the road. She had popped her twice, on the Pamper, with her hand.

This was not the first time I have seen someone use child welfare as a threat. People do use it in arguments. It is illegal to report a case of child abuse, if you know that one has not occurred. It is illegal to report any crime that you know is false.

Using child welfare as a threat could result in tying up the few child welfare investigators we have, checking out phony reports. This could result in a really seriously abused child being overlooked.

In some cases, not disciplining your children can be illegal, such as not making them attend school, or letting them destory other peoples property.

We as parents have a duty to our children, and society to teach them that there are rules in life that we must all live by. We must teach them that if they break the rules of society, they will be punished in some way.

It starts in the home. When a parent repeatedly tells a young child not to go into the street and the child continues to go in the street, the child should be disciplined.

I sincerely hope that no parent will take this as a permission to hurt a child, that is not what I am saying. This is only to inform the younger parents that if you spank your child's hand, or spank your child within careful limits, you are not in violation of Texas laws. According to the different people I was able to talk to in the child welfare department, they are not trying to discourage parents from disciplining their children.

Contenders

A Van Alstyne area family produced a trio of tri-athletes contending in the eighth annual triathlon and fun fair sponsored last month by the American Red Cross and Childrens Medical Center of Dallas. Actually, because of problems with the pool scheduled for use in the event, the Kidsport held Sept. 12 at Eastfield Community College in Mesquite wound up as a biathlon, but that didn't diminish the accomplishments of the Bradley boys. Eight-year-old Chase, left, placed fifth in his age group and Chad Bradley, nine, right, was fourth. Clay Bradley, 13, finished out of the top group. They are the sons of Joanie and Elliott Bradley, who live southeast of Van Alstyne, and are the grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baggett of Ozona.

Crockett County Public Library News
By Louise Ledoux

Here's the second of a two-part story on a typical day at the public library. Here's some of what we do -
1:00 p.m. After lunch, I change the bulletin board display and put up posters for Halloween. I put out scary books to interest children and adults. Most librarians specialize in one part of library work. In a small library like ours, I get to do a little bit of everything. Margaret and Mrs. Davis bring their first graders in for a story and to check out books. The kids love it!

2:00 p.m. Margaret goes to the post office and comes back with two armloads of mail. Most of it is junk, but it must all be carefully gone through. Fred Deaton comes in to read the Wall Street Journal. County Commissioners like to keep up-to-date.

3:00 p.m. Camille Jones dashes in and needs 500 copies of the latest Mary Kay products ad. The copier gets stuck and has to have an attitude adjustment.

3:30 p.m. School's Out! The Primary kids come in to get more books for their reading contest. Intermediate kids are doing Indian projects. Margaret and I now know more than we want to about Indians - from Abenaki to Zuni. Of course, the first kids in check out all the good books, and the last ones in have to scramble to find information. The typewriter and Apple computer are going non-stop on homework.

4:00 p.m. High school is doing all kinds of things, from the UIL health care topic to current events and term papers requiring 15 sources on each topic. Luckily, we have over 30 magazines and newspapers plus books to choose from. We also borrow materials from other libraries.

4:30 p.m. Of course, in-between we make copies and answer the phone with patrons' questions on every subject from how to spell hors d'oeuvres to what's the address of Russian President Yeltsin and how do you spell that?

5:00 p.m. Patrons love our copy machine and make copies of everything from the latest football pool to a petition circulated to show support for the Wool Act. Matilda Camarillo comes in to enlarge patterns for birthday cake decorations. What did we do before copiers?

5:30 p.m. Margaret calls patrons with overdue books. We love our books to circulate, but we must be firm to get them back so others can read them. I make the rounds urging kids to get their work finished up so we can close at 6:00. The library is a great place for homework and to meet your friends and catch up on the latest events at school. We try to keep it down to a Quiet roar!

6:30 p.m. At last! The last-minute people have all rushed in and out for books or copies and the last child has called for a ride and been packed off for home. It's been a great day at the library!

GARDEN CLUB EXHIBIT

The Ozona Garden Club brightens and beautifies the library every month with an exhibit. Mrs. Marge Smith has captured the harvest spirit with a cornucopia design. In a very creative arrangement, Mrs. Smith fashioned a cornucopia from a giant philodendron leaf and filled it to overflowing with Indian corn, ornamental gourds and a pumpkin. The beautiful fall colors of potted chrysanthemums complete this wonderful harvest design. Be sure and visit the library to enjoy this exhibit.

Better, Better, Better

By Dennis J. Prutow

The Book of Hebrews in the New Testament of the Bible presents Jesus Christ as better. He is better than the angels. "For He (God) did not subject to angels the world to come, concerning which we are speaking" (Hebrews 2:5). The world to come is given into the care of Jesus.

Jesus Christ is also presented as better than Moses and Aaron. He is shown to hold a perpetual priesthood. He is set before us as the negotiator of a better covenant founded upon better promises. This is true because Christ offers a better sacrifice, Himself. You see, the place of worship and sacrifice erected by Moses in the desert was built to "serve as a copy and shadow of the heavenly things" (Hebrews 8:5). But "the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, not man" is in heaven (Hebrews 8:2).

And here is the wonder of it all. Christ "entered through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation; and not through the blood of goats and calves, but through His own blood, He entered the holy place once for all, having obtained eternal redemption" (Hebrews 9:11-12). The message concerning Jesus Christ to you and me is quite simple. "He became to all those who obey Him the source of eternal salvation" (Hebrews 5:9).

McCamey JV Dominates Lions

by Neal Ulmer, Stockman sports writer

The Ozona JV Lions traveled to McCamey last Thursday, Oct. 21, where they met heavy opposition in a 45-0 loss to the Badgers. All night the Lions were dominated by an oversized team with a fast backfield.

Ozona had a tough game and was unable to mount an offensive effort. Coach Brad Brevard said about the loss, "The Lions did not play well and were unable to make any first downs." Lion QB Jeremie Castro went 0 for 8 in passing and threw two interceptions, one of which was returned for a Badger touchdown. There were also two fumbles to add to the Lions' woes.

Coach Brad Brevard reported even though Ozona had a hard game, some good individual efforts were made by Patrick Sanchez on offense and defense, as well as Manual Mendoza, Steve Montes and Casey Upham on defense.

Coach Rod Schneider said, "The jLions played as hard as they could. I'm proud of them."

The Badgers scored a total of seven touchdowns and three extra points. On the positive side, however, two of McCamey's seven extra point tries were blocked by the Lions and two other extra point attempts failed. One of the Badgers' touchdowns came from an intercepted Lion pass, and the last two McCamey TD's came on 30-yard runs by the fullback.

The JV Lions will be idle this week due to a Reagan county cancellation. Their next game will be played on Thursday, Nov. 4, hosting the Coahoma Bulldogs at 6:30 p.m. in Lion Stadium.

Keith Miller tied H. O. Hoover, Gene Castro, Desi Tijerina, Dennis Vargas and Ernesto Vargas with 15 correct picks, but takes home the pot with a tie-breaker score of 28.

Second place pickers with 14 picks were: Gene Castro, Rudy Martinez, Larry Hensley, Richard Vargas, Jesse Castro, Wyna Boyd, Sylvia DeHoyos, Ernesto Vargas and Joe Borrego.

Camey 10, and Browne downed the ball until time ran out. The final score for Ozona's 1993 Homecoming game was 38-0.

"The defense has improved from week to week," said Coach Payne, who noted the tough play of Justin Moran, Juan Trujillo, and Julio Martinez. Lion Travis Davidson also made eight tackles and Eddie De Luna had seven, while Ryan Morris and Elliott Barrera each made five tackles.

"The secondary all played well, and our defense whipped them on the line of scrimmage—giving them only five first downs," the coach added. During the evening, McCamey managed only 78 yards rushing and 23 yards passing.

The offense also put together a terrific aerial and ground show for the fans, with 216 yards rushing on 27 carries, and 240 yards passing, for 456 total yards on offense. Payne felt the offense "Played more consistently and moved the ball well, with a balance of running and passing." However, he added, "Penalties still hurt us. We have to eliminate those kinds of mistakes." Payne also noted the running of Anthony Sanchez as a factor in the game.

Looking down the road to next week's non-district game with Seagraves in Big Spring, Payne said, "Seagraves is at the top of their district and will be a real test for us." Coahoma will be the next must-win district match up for the Lions, on Friday, Nov. 5 in Coahoma at 8 p.m.

Lion fans are encouraged to support the Lions in Big Spring on Friday, Oct. 29 at 8 p.m.

Congress Tells Western Ranchers: You're Out Of Business

WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. 14, 1993 — Members of the House and Senate Conference Committee on the Interior Appropriations bill voted today to severely damage the western public lands livestock industry, The Public Lands Council said today.

By a vote of 5 to 2 among House members and 8 to 7 among Senators, the committee voted for an amendment offered by Senator Harry Reid of Nevada that will raise grazing fees 85% over the next three years as well as codify two-thirds of Secretary Babbitt's so-called "rangeland reform" proposals.

"We are extremely disappointed by the misinformed action of the Conference Committee," said Randall Brewer, president of the Public Lands Council and a rancher from Three Creek, ID. "This action, if it becomes law, will devastate the tens of thousands of ranch families who have for over a century provided stewardship on the public land and food and fiber for this nation."

Jack Metzger, Chairman of the federal Lands Committee for the National Cattlemen's Association and a rancher from Flagstaff, AZ, expressed the grave concern of many in the industry. "It took less than two hours of debate for only 4% of the congress to vote for massive changes in the management of 270 million acres of Bureau of Land Management and Forest Service land where ranchers operate," he said. "This clearly illustrates the problem with this whole process — the appropriations committee usurped the authority of the authorizing committees in both houses and jammed them down the throats of the public lands livestock industry. There were no hearings. We have never had a chance to tell our side of the story."

Brad Little, Public Lands Chairman of the American Sheep Industry Association and a rancher from Emmett, ID, pointed out that, "The last chapter has not been written yet. Dozens of Senators have written to Senator Byrd, Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, and Senator Mitchell, Majority Leader, telling them that they will support a filibuster of the appropriations bill when it comes to the Senate floor. This action added to the elimination of the Wool Act and will eliminate 30 to 60 percent of the U.S. sheep industry. It will be a great day for foreign sheep producers if this action is not overturned," he said.

Leonard Benson, President of the Association of National Grasslands and a rancher from Oral, SD, stated, "This proposal will put us out of business. That means those ranchers who have nurtured the land for generations will be forced off the land and onto the welfare rolls. America will have to pick up the tab and lose an important part of its heritage at the same time. Taxpayers will also lose the taxes generated by these small businesses."

The Public Lands Council represents 27,000 federal lands ranchers who operate in thirteen western states. It also coordinates the federal lands policy of the American Sheep Industry Association, Association of National Grasslands and the National Cattlemen's Association.

Action Needed To Save Sheep Grazing On Public Lands

The American Sheep Industry Association issued a call to action last week to prevent the removal of sheep from public lands and to oppose the National Biological Survey.

The Interior Appropriations Conference report, HR 2520, passed the House of Representatives Oct. 20 with language which would raise grazing fees by 85 percent in three years and codify most of the rangeland reform proposals made by Secretary Babbitt.

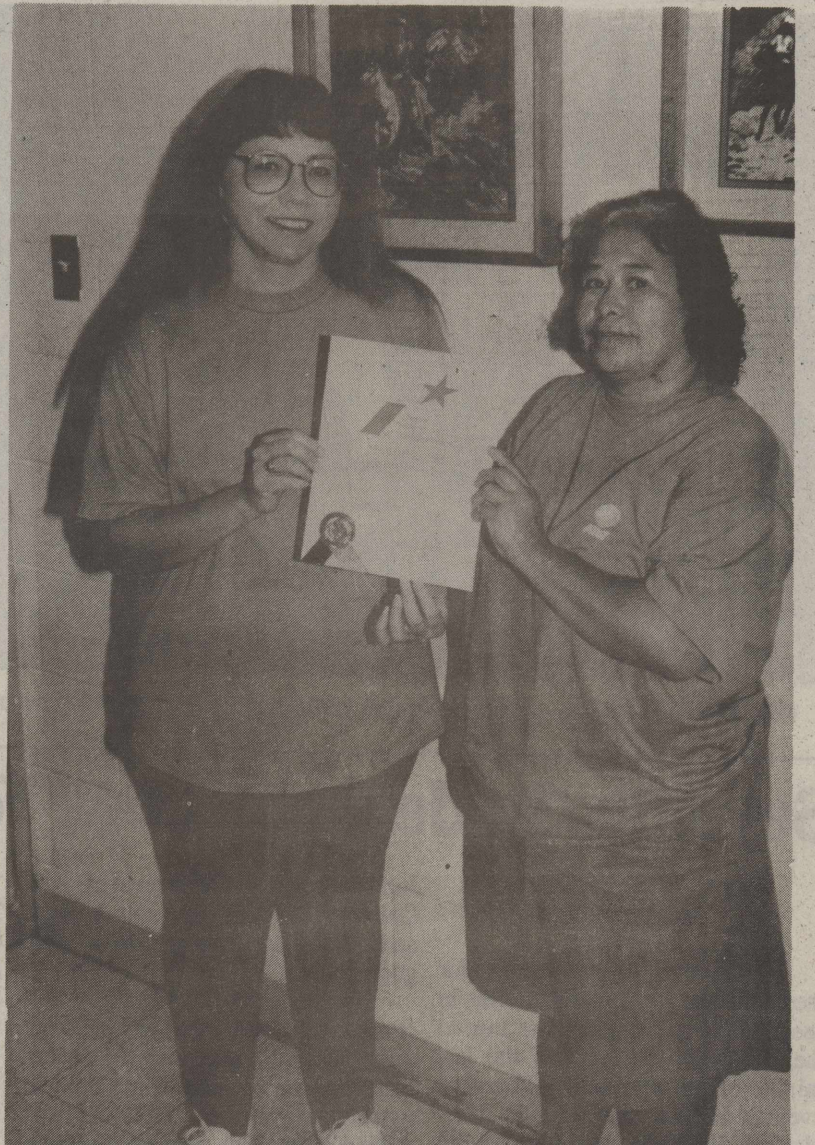

There was heated debate on the 16 plus pages of regulations included in the report which makes sweeping changes in the management of federal lands.

According to the ASI, the regulations would assault all ownership of water rights on public and associated private lands; jeopardize permits for infringement of any environmental laws or regulations and drastically change range improvement funding.

The National Biological Survey was added to the appropriations bill and passed by the House. ASI says all private property right protection amendments have been dropped except for the written permission requirement.

The Senate is preparing to filibuster HR 2520 and force a compromise on the proposal by Sen. Harry Reid of Nevada. A one-hour debate Tuesday morning on public lands range reform could result in another vote to see if the filibuster is approved.

Accepting a Texas Department of Transportation certificate of appreciation for participating in the litter pick up program are Janell Tambunga and Chuckie Ybarra of the KayCee Ladies. The organization picks up litter four times a year in a 2-mile area on SH 163 six to eight miles north of Ozona.

Eighth Grade Cubs Win Big Over McCamey

By Neal Ulmer, Stockman sportswriter

The Ozona 8th Grade Cubs rolled over the McCamey Badgers in their second win of the season by a score of 36-0 in last Thursday's game. Fans would have thought the Cubs had been on top all season, as they easily whipped the Badgers.

The Cubs racked up a total of four touchdowns and 169 yards in 16 minutes of playing time to improve their record to 2-4.

"This Cub victory added spark to the team," said Coach Lee Gonzales. "They played really well, and I'm proud of them. Our kids celebrated well, and it was a graceful win. They know how it is to be on the other side of the fence."

Little time was wasted as the Cubs received the opening kickoff and returned it to their own 47-yard line. After several short runs by the backs, QB Brian Badillo ran the ball 38 yards for a Cub touchdown with 4:51 in the first quarter. An attempted run for extra points failed.

A McCamey fumble on their own 37-yard line set up the second of the four first half touchdowns. A first down play earned no yardage, then Justin Browne ran for a 38-yard touchdown with 19 seconds left in the first quarter. Brian Badillo scrambled for the two extra points, running up the score to 14-0.

The Cub defense, led by noseguard Martin Cordova, linebacker John Esparza, and safety Donnie Bullard forced the Badgers to punt. With the Cubs getting the ball on the McCamey 44-yard line, the very next play saw Gary Dominguez in the end zone on a spectacular run. The extra point run was good, making the score 22-0 with 6:32 remaining in the second quarter.

Pressure put on the Badger quarterback by the Cub defense forced an intercepted pass by cornerback Robert Daniels. This alert play gave the Cubs another opportunity to score. But it was not to be, as two unfortunate penalties and a couple of incomplete passes forced the Cubs to punt.

The Cubs, after receiving the ball due to good defense, fumbled the ball. After recovering the ball on the 50-yard line, the Badgers themselves coughed up the ball after two losses of yardage. Starting on the McCamey 43-yard line, Badillo scrambled for a touchdown, only to be called back due to a Cub penalty as time was about to run out in the first half. The ball was placed on the 24-yard line, and Badillo again took the ball in to score. This time it was official, with the point after attempt failing, and at halftime the score stood 28-0 in Ozona's favor.

An excited Shannon Fleming intercepted a Badger pass to set up the Cubs' final score of the evening, as a 12-yard TD run by Robert Daniels with 2:49 in the third quarter topped off the night. Badillo succeeded in scoring the extra points, making the final score Ozona 36, McCamey 0.

"We were real pleased with the kids' play all around," said Coach John Cox. "We thought McCamey would be a good team to match up pretty well with, and it would be a matter of how our kids responded."

"We are getting more yardage with Gary Dominguez as fullback and Justin Browne at tailback," Cox noted on offense. "Brian Badillo as quarterback can throw and allows us to use the sprint out pass effectively. He has done a good job as well as providing real good leadership along with his skills."

Coaches Cox and Gonzales noted the good job done by several other players such as Lalo Guadarrama, Ramon Longoria, Robert Daniels and Gary Dominguez. Excellent defensive work was put in by John Esparza, Justin Browne, Martin Cordova, David Martinez and Donnie Bullard.

The 8th Grade Cubs will play in Grape Creek on Thursday, Oct. 28, immediately following the 7th Grade game.

Seventh Grade Cubs Lose To McCamey

By Neal Ulmer, Stockman sportswriter

It was a big disappointment for the 7th Grade Cubs and their fans to see Ozona's undefeated team lose to the McCamey Badgers in the last minute of the ballgame Thursday evening in Lion Stadium. The hard-playing 7th Grade Cubs lost to a big McCamey team 6-0, and the Cub season record now stands at 5-1.

"I was really proud of the kids and thought we played hard," said Coach Rodney Johnson after the game, "but there were too many turnovers. I think there were seven turnovers, and the penalties in the first half really killed us."

The Cubs and Badgers fought it out in that half with each team moving the ball some distance. A plague of yellow flags hit the Cubs with four penalties and five turnovers in the first half. However, Matt Galindo rushed for 49 yards in the first half, with his best runs being 13 and 20 yards. David Gutierrez, with his best runs of two-five yarders and an eight yard run, earned a total of 22 yards in the first half.

With mistakes like three fumbles, a blocked punt and a McCamey punt that was touched by an Ozona player and recovered by the Badgers, the Cubs were not able to assemble an offensive drive of any length. Despite the problems, some good individual offensive performances were turned in. "Robert Kelly did real well on the trap block," said Coach Johnson.

The Cub defense headed off a Badger attack by stopping them on each series of downs. Coach Johnson said of his defense, "That's the best and hardest-hitting game we've ever had this year. We kept McCamey from getting a first down in the first half."

Johnson noted that defensively David Gutierrez, Robert Kelly, Jason Alvarez and Alex Castaneda played a very good game.

In the second half, the Cubs continued to have problems holding onto the ball, and late in the fourth quarter a Cub fumble set up a Badger touchdown from the Cub 22-yard line. After a 3-yard run, on the next play a tall Badger end caught a 20-yard pass for a touchdown with 47 seconds left in the ballgame. A run for the extra point attempt failed.

With just 47 seconds left in the game, the Cubs started their try to even the score. After taking the ball on their 38-yard line, a halfback pass to QB Anthony Ortiz fell incomplete. David Gutierrez made about 15 yards for a first down, but time was running out with 32 seconds left in the game and the ball still on the McCamey 45-yard line. On the very next play, Ortiz attempted a pitchback and the ball was fumbled, ending any Cub hopes of tying the score.

"I was proud of the kids; they really played their hearts out," said Coach Johnson commenting on the game as a whole. "We gave McCamey too many opportunities. They are a real good football team, and they are tough. We could have easily laid down, but we didn't; we stuck our noses down and fought. I was real proud of them for that."

The Cubs will be playing again Thursday, Oct. 28, at 5 p.m. in Grape Creek. Fans should be prepared for a good game, as Johnson said, "The kids have said they are going to wear Grape Creek out, for they are mad. They were down at first, but now they are made and will be taking it out on them (Grape Creek)."

Training Career Goal For Justin Southern

by Neal Ulmer, Stockman sports-writer

With strong West Texas and Ozona traditions of playing high school football, many fans might wonder why a guy with the size to be a lineman would choose to work on the sidelines rather than be a player. The answer might come from looking at a young Tarleton State University student from Ozona, Justin Southern, who has set his sights on the future.

Justin, former student manager for the Ozona Lions, is enrolled in the Exercise and Sport Study option, working toward a bachelor of science degree in the Physical Education department at TSU.

He's the son of Fannie Southern of Ozona and Delmer Southern of Missouri, the grandson of the late Tom Everett and Opal Everett of Ozona, and E. T. Southern and Jean Cash Southern of Portales, NM. He has two half-sisters, Shelia and Shelly Southern. A half-brother, Shannon, died in an accident in 1985.

Justin was born in 1975 and attended Ozona schools from Kiddie Club through graduation in 1993, when he received several scholarships related to his grades, citizenship and leadership. In school, he was a student council member, on state championship FFA and 4-H Range Judging teams, and was featured in Who's Who in American High School Students, among other honors.

He played football, like many Ozona kids, in the seventh and eighth grades. However, in high school Justin chose to be the team manager rather than a football player.

Fannie Southern said when asked why he didn't want to play, Justin told people he "valued his bodily health and didn't want to play!" She said Justin felt he didn't want to get hurt himself or to hurt anyone else.

While Justin was interested in a medical career, he felt the grades and the time he would need to invest were too high a price to pay. He did attend a first-aid class at the Crockett County Hospital, and asked Coach Keith Shoush, a certified athletic trainer, about being a student trainer for the football team.

According to Shoush, Justin learned how to tape and wrap wrists, elbows, knees, ankles, and more. He also learned how to give rehabilitation to players for ankle, shoulder, elbow and knee injuries. For out of town games, Justin prepared medical kits, training equipment, kept medical records and insurance forms, inventoried and repaired helmets and other equipment, and performed his regular game duties.

Shoush, a big influence on Justin during the three years Southern spent as trainer, encouraged him to consider sports training as a career. To become a certified trainer requires an application plus 1,800 hours internship within a least three years under a licensed trainer. Following the internship, a state board exam must be passed.

As it came time to look for a college, Justin remembered Tarleton from a range judging contest. He had like the campus and town—as well as the cost of attending school there—and as he studied the catalog, he found there was a program for trainers. He discovered there were openings for two trainers, and had no problem getting letters of recommendation from Coach Shoush, Head Coach Don Payne, and current school counselor David McWilliams.

At college, Justin will take courses such as anatomy and physiology, athletic injuries, conditioning and fitness, concepts of exercise, and sports studies. He has decided to change his degree to Pre-Physical Therapy, which will eventually force him to leave Tarleton to attend a college with a physical therapy degree.

His job as a trainer at Tarleton includes field duties with the football team that are similar to things he's done the past few years at Ozona—such as handing out water and towels during time-outs and on the sideline. He also gives first aid—an important job since a new rule was made about taking care of bleeding cuts on players.

Off the field, Justin helps players do rehab exercises, including electrical muscle stimulation and ultrasound. He and the other trainers also help with physicals by taking weights and heights, blood pressures, body fat composition, and checking vision.

Of course, there are the less-exciting jobs that must be taken care of—like cleaning and stocking the training rooms, making up ice packs, and checking to see that everything is ready for practices and games.

Justin continues his tradition—begun at Ozona—of going the extra mile by helping the equipment manager. All this makes for a long day, as trainers start work at 1:30 p.m. each day and finish as late as 6:30 p.m. With a full class load, it takes much determination and work to study and keep some personal time—but Justin is making good grades and has his mind set on his future goals.

Those goals include a future either in a sports medicine clinic or as an orthopedic surgeon. That will take more school, but Justin has had many good role models and experiences that give the confidence to reach higher for what he wants out of life.

He names some of those people—his late grandfather, Tom Everett, was a big influence and source of advice. His ag teacher, Brent Pool, also encouraged him, as did 4-H shooting sports coach Ben English, Pep Porras and Mrs. Ann Shaw. He also cited his strong church background, 4-H leadership lab, and his 4-H shooting sports project as important things that taught self-discipline and leadership.

Coach Payne and several of this year's Ozona Lion players have noted how much they miss Justin's dependable help on and off the field. Tarleton's Head Trainer Dr. John S. Simpson says Justin came to Tarleton with more experience than any of the other present student trainers. Justin thinks his job at TSU is a "Good learning experience, and I like all the people I work with. They're all capable and good trainers."

Commenting on Justin's performance as a trainer at Ozona High, Coach Shoush said, "Justin did the whole show for three to four years. He was honest, a quick learner, hard worker, and did any job he was told to do. On his own, Justin attended two workshops by Mark Duncan of San Angelo Sports Medicine. Justin was a great help and a great kid!"

Southern's mother says, "Justin cares for people." Now and later, he'll have the opportunity to do just that while reaching his career goals. "And with Justin's determination, dedication and talents, the West Texas football tradition may someday include both playing and following in a famous athletic trainer's footsteps."

Handbells To Arrive Soon

"People don't say 'hello', they say 'are the bells in yet?'," Maridel Dudley said Monday while talking about the handbells ordered for a community choir.

The bells have been delayed in shipment twice, once because of heavy demand and again because the quality of available bells was not up to the company's standards, she said.

The bells should be shipped this Friday and received sometime the following week.

Mrs. Dudley and Katharine Russell, who will be working with the choir, hope to have a program ready in time for Christmas.

Pandale Study Club Prepares For Thanksgiving

Pandale Study Club met Oct. 23 to clean up the community building getting ready for their eighth annual Thanksgiving lunch. Rev. Carl Rolfs, pastor of San Angelo First United Methodist Church, will present the program.

Details of the meal were discussed along with other things pertaining to the dinner Nov. 11.

A delicious lunch was served by hostess Shelba Fahl to Sue Arledge, Josephine Mills, Louise Rowland, Betty Klyepler, Sara Hargraves, Myrtle Malone and Lou Deaton.

CROCKETT SOIL AND WATER CONSERVATION DISTRICT 42nd Annual Report

DISTRICT

The Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District was established in 1950 to identify and prioritize resource concerns within the county and to serve as a medium for local ranchers in coordinating assistance from federal, state and local agencies. Agencies providing assistance include the Soil Conservation Service, Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service, Texas Agriculture Extension Service, Farmers Home Administration, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department and University of Texas Lands.

A Memorandum of Understanding between the USDA-SCS and the District allows the SCS to furnish technical assistance to ranchers, farmers and other interested individuals in order that conservation plans can be developed to meet the needs and capabilities of the land and the objectives of the landowner.

The District is governed by a five member board of locally elected directors. These directors serve as a voice for landowners and operators within the District. Directors for the past year include Earl Acton, chairman; Bud Hoover, vice-chairman; Gene Perry, secretary; Pleas Childress III, member and Larry Williams, member.

Improper grazing management, brush infestation, conserving soil, water, plants and related resources and improving wildlife management on rangeland as a secondary land use are the primary concerns outlined in a long range program and plan.

The Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District realizes these concerns need to be addressed and steps taken to solve these problems in order to protect our resource base.

The Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District and Ozona lost a good friend and a true conservationist this past year. Donald P. (Bud) Hoover passed away after serving over 20 years on the Crockett Board. A descendent of one of the first ranching families in Crockett County, Bud spent all his life in the ranching business. He became a district cooperator in 1955 and became a director in 1972. The Crockett District would like to take this time to remember the dedication and contributions he made in carrying out conservation programs with the Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District.

Paul Perner, III Recently Elected To Zone 5

Paul Perner, III was recently elected to the Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District board of directors on 10-12-93. Paul will be representing Zone 5 of the district.

As one of five individuals serving on the district board of directors, Perner will be responsible for district policies and procedures for carrying out the district program within the framework of the Texas soil conservation district law.

In Texas there are 211 soil and water conservation districts. Each is a legal subdivision of state government organized by local agricultural landowners with the assistance of the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board. Unlike most other legal subdivisions of state government, SWCD's do not have the powers of taxation or eminent domain. All conservation programs managed by the districts are of voluntary nature to the landowner or operator or other potential users of the SWCD's programs.

Conservation Rancher

Sonny Henderson was selected as Outstanding Conservation Rancher in Crockett County for 1992 by the Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District. Sonny is shown receiving award from Larry Williams, District Director at an awards banquet in San Angelo.

John Lee Henderson Named Conservation Rancher

John Lee Henderson, Jr. was recognized by the Crockett SWCD as this past year's Outstanding Conservation Rancher.

Sonny has been a District cooperator for 34 years and has continuously carried out an excellent overall ranch program to improve both livestock and rangeland. His livestock operation consists of cattle, sheep and goats. This diversification allows for more efficient use of existing forages and along with proper stocking, enhances range improvement.

Grazing management and brush control have been the highest priority for Sonny. Deferred rotation grazing systems along with switchback grazing systems have been initiated on the 5400 acres which he ranches. Aerial spraying, chaining and treedoing have been carried out extensively for the control of mesquite, juniper and pricklypear, and regrowth brush has been kept under control by individual plant treatment with herbicides.

Crossfences, water storage facilities, pipelines and troughs have all been constructed to facilitate planned grazing systems and to improve livestock distribution.

The dedication and effort Sonny has put into the improvement and conservation of the range resources speaks for itself. The Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District would like to congratulate Sonny for his work in maintenance and improvement of our rangeland resources. The District is proud to recognize him as this year's Outstanding Conservation Rancher.

Conservation Education

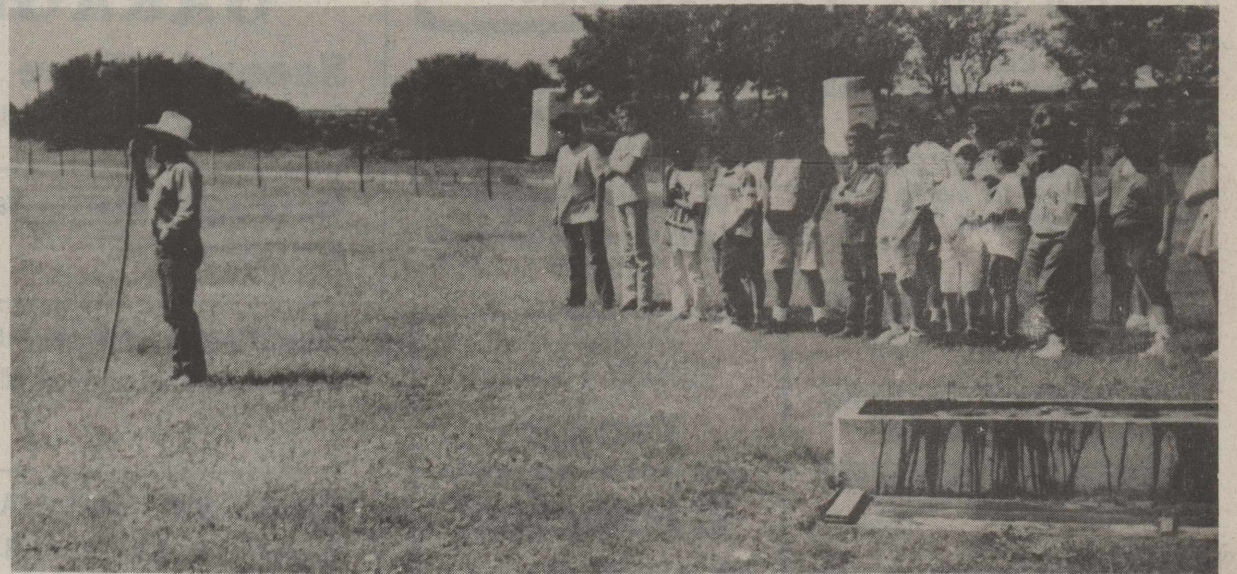

Sixth Grade Conservation Field Day

The Crockett SWCD sponsored the ninth annual Conservation Field Day for sixth grade students of Ozona on April 28th. The field day was held on the Gene Perry Ranch east of Ozona. The purpose of the program was to give the students a basic understanding of what our renewable natural resources are and how they must be properly cared for to sustain our current way of life.

The students were presented subject matter on range, wildlife and soils during the morning program. Eddie and Les Hale followed this by demonstrating the use of border collies for working livestock and explained how these dogs can be a very valuable working tool for ranchers.

Following a hamburger lunch provided by the District, presentations on wool and mohair and county statistics were made by Extension Service personnel. The students then observed a shearing crew in operation on the ranch. The students were then taken to the local wool and mohair warehouses for a discussion on the processes wool and mohair go through to become a finished clothing product.

The entire day was enjoyed by all who attended and the district plans to continue this education event annually.

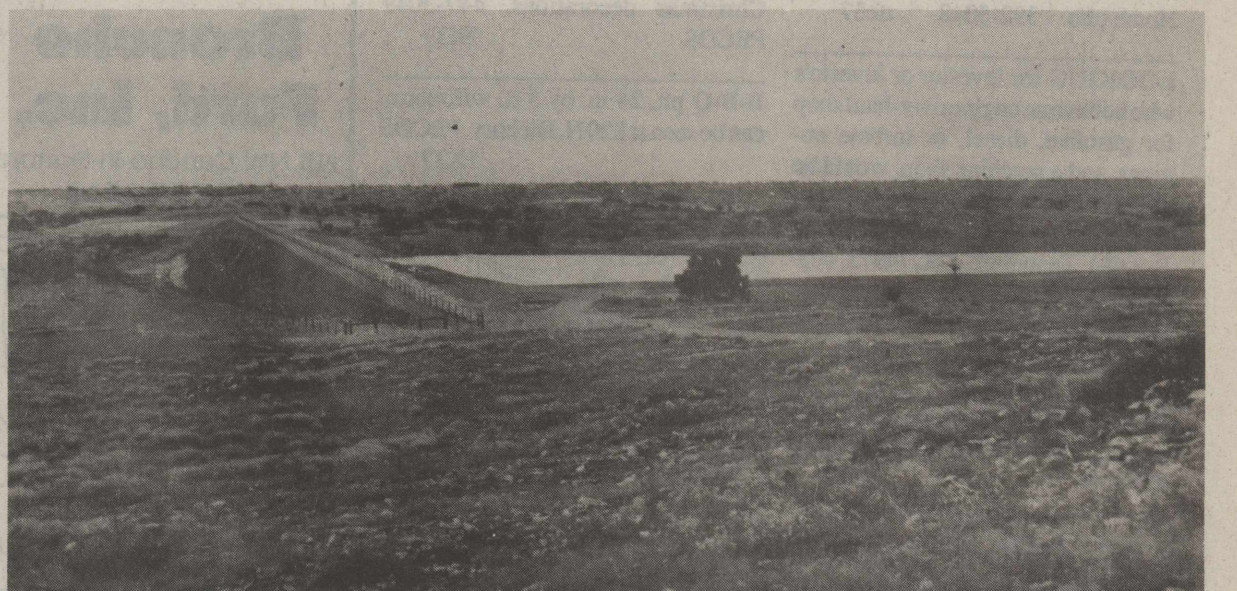

Eddie Hale shows the group of interested sixth graders how the border collie responds to his commands.

Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention

Due to the disastrous flood which occurred June 26-28, 1954, the Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District and the Crockett County Commissioners Court co-sponsored an upstream water shed protection project in the 101,000 acre Johnson Draw area above Ozona. In 1959, the project was completed with 7 dams being constructed and 10,032 feet of channel improvement through Ozona. This was the first project of its kind to be completed in the United States. The Crockett SWCD and the county have the responsibility of maintenance of the project to ensure the protection of citizens from flood waters. The 7 structures and channel are inspected annually by the local sponsors and every five years by Soil Conservation Service engineers. These inspections are made to ensure all structures and the channel are functioning as planned.
