Changes At Hospital Spark Nurses' Concern

Members of the nursing staff at Crockett County Hospital met with the board last week to discuss a number of concerns which have surfaced due to a recent change in staffing patterns. Administrator Gerry Phillips and board president Jack Baggett talked about the nurses' requests Monday when they met with commissioners' court.

Representing the nursing staff at the Thursday meeting were Sheryl Chandler, Beth Childress and Donna Crowder. Mrs. Chandler and Mrs. Crowder also talked with commissioners on Monday.

Items covered at the board meeting as outlined in Mr. Phillips' report to commissioners follow.

Staffing concerns - The nurses request two licensed nurses and one aide for the 3-11 shift instead of one nurse and two aides as now scheduled. They request this also for the 7-3 shift, weekends, and holidays. They expressed concern regarding professional liability for themselves as well as for the hospital and county. Fred Deaton responded that it would be well to look into the current liability policy to determine if changes/improvements are necessary due to the new staffing changes. Mr. Phillips informed those present that staffing is above minimum requirements. Dr. Ownsby stated that efficiency from the personnel is a determining factor. He feels the current staffing is acceptable but did state improvements could be made regarding efficiency. It was suggested that one RN and one LVN would be more cost effective for the county as this would eliminate employee benefits for one family. This, however, would not meet nursing demands for a three staff minimum for the above mentioned shifts.

Nurse station and drug box location - It was brought to the attention of the board that the location of the pager system in the nurses' station is both inconvenient and inefficient. In order to monitor the ambulance and to page the physicians, the nurses must be in the nurses' station and leave the patient while doing so. They have requested pagers be in both the nurse station and in the ER. They have also

Sewalt Wins Miller Roping

Rusty Sewalt of Tomball won the 11th Annual Jay Miller Memorial Roping Aug. 7 in Ozona. Currently third in world rankings, Sewalt was high money winner of the day with a total of $675.

The Miller Memorial Roping was started two weeks after his death by a son, Rod Miller. "Each year we are amazed at the attendance of ropers," said Miller's wife, Kim. Eugene and Vicky Miller donate the prize saddle in their son's honor annually. "We thank you, Granny and Grand John for doing that for us," said Mrs. Miller.

A two-horse trailer was given away at the 1993 roping with the help of the entire family and Jay Miller Construction Company.

"It was great to see that trailer drive up to the roping this year. The owner, Rusty Ridley, said the trailer had been all over the world and had many miles on it.

"Rod and I really would like to thank the ropers for coming each year, our family for the support and help, the workers who work each year, Jim House who announces and keeps me from going crazy and Granny and Grand John for the saddle. Without everyone's help we couldn't do it each year," said Kim. This year there were two ropings, an "A" and a "B". The "B" consisted of anyone who did not currently have their PRCA card or over 40. That roping brought in 48 competitors. The "B" roping was three for $50. B results follow.

1st Go - 1 Dane Driver 10.571; 2 Marshall Hubbard 11.029; 3 Jody Carper 11.063

2nd Go - Rusty Ridley 8.350; 2 Eric Cloudt 9.223; 3 Les Cochran 9.497

Average - 1 Todd Verdon (1994 AJRA champion) 34.093 on 3; 2 Rusty Ridley 34.691 on 3; 3 Tom Epperson 35.410 on 3; 4 Les Cochran 36.036 on 3.

The "A" roping was four for $75 and any one could rope. There were 41 contestants. Results were:

1st Go - 1 Ronny Haeker 8.856; 2 Cody May 9.977; 3 James Zant 10.170

2nd Go - 1 Eric Cloudt 9.124; 2 Rusty Sewalt 9.899; 3 Buba Flores 10.732

3rd Go - 1 Rusty Sewalt 8.545; 2 Dane Driver 9.661; 3 Mark Ivey 9.741

Average - 1 Rusty Sewalt 40.880; 2 Neil Felton 42.724; 3 Shawn Felton 44.202; 4 Tom Epperson 45.432.

Commissioners Vote No To Regional Dump Site

Commissioners decided Monday to decline participation in a agreement to pursue establishing a regional solid waste authority. The proposed inter-local agreement would have involved Crockett County, the local water works, Eldorado, Sonora, Sutton County and Schleicher County. These entities would have formed a taxing district for a regional landfill and equipment if approved by the upcoming Legislature.

Judge A. O. Fields, who with others from Ozona, had attended a recent meeting in Sonora on the subject, said Monday "I'm really not in favor of it."

Commissioners voted not to participate in the agreement.

A request to place a bump gate on County Road 108, which is paved, was tabled until commissioners can hear from affected landowners.

Commissioners voted to deny a request for payment to William Smith for damages caused to his vehicle by a bump gate on Road 106.

Approval was given for buying materials to lane three-tenths of a mile of road north of Road 109. Labor and a gate will be provided by Rowdy Holmsley.

Purchase of caliche to complete a street in Chandlerdale West was approved by the court. Land for the street was donated, and caliche had been promised, but the source has been depleted according to Eddie Moore, road superintendent.

After hearing from Moore regarding regulations for height of monuments and prohibition of curbing in requested a drug cart/box for narcotics to be kept in the ER. Consultant pharmacist Garry Lake will have to approve any decision regarding this.

Nurses on call - Previously, the nurses had been told being on call would be voluntary. The current schedule, however, reflects on call for nurses that weren't contacted prior to being scheduled. There also needs to be clarification regarding payroll for being on call and for call backs.

Standing doctors' orders - Nurses would like to see standing orders for things such as seizures, CVA's, shortness of breath, chest pain, etc. where treatment could be started immediately before contacting physician. Both doctors stated this has never been a problem as far as they knew.

Expenditure reduction - Connie Arredondo is currently scheduled from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the lab and is on call from 5 p.m. to 8 a.m. One lab person is being moved back to nursing staff and one in training will be ready to handle x-ray in another month.

Until the new lab person is fully trained, Mrs. Arredondo said she cannot be on call 7 days per week and needs outside help. Out of town personnel have been helping for the past seven years when needed. The problem here is that out of town personnel can't always run tests needed due to being unfamiliar with the equipment.

After giving his report to commissioners' Mr. Phillips and Mr. Baggett told the court that they are seeking an LVN for the 3-11 shift. They also plan to check into the pager system.

-- Here And There --

By Vada Pridemore

I will continue writing about the trip Zelma Johnigan and I made recently to Germany, Austria and Switzerland. Vienna is the capital of Austria. It is a lovely green city, with tree lined streets and a population of 1.5 million people.

A morning sightseeing tour showed us the remarkable way Vienna is laid out - in concentric rings. Our local guide took us magnificent Palace of Schonbrunn and its lovely grounds. The palace was the summer residence of Hapsburg emperors and ranks as one of the most elaborate palaces in all of Europe. The palace is yellow with black trim, the state colors.

We circle the Ringstrasse (strasse means "street") past a church, the Vienna State Opera House, the Hofburg Imperial Palace, the city hall and the university.

Of special interest to me was the Opera House. The exterior of the building is just beautiful and the interior with its five balconies dark red velvet and gold trim everywhere is breathtaking. I have seen this building on television, but never thought that I would have the opportunity to visit this wonderful place. The opera house was built 825 years ago and the man that designed it killed himself because people did not like the building, we were told.

We took an afternoon drive through the Vienna forest overlooking the beautiful city. Our guide called our attention to a tall garbage incinerator covered with gold leaf.

One of the city's landmarks is a giant ferris wheel, 200 feet in diameter. Zelma enjoyed this as did most of our group. I knew that I could live without that thrill as did two others in our group.

Late afternoon we enjoyed a concert of Johann Strauss music. This was in a lovely park. The bandstand was vine covered and hugh trees and flowers everywhere. Zelma and I sipped ice coffee as we listened to that wonderful music. It was like a dream - just being there. At the end of the concert it seemed that we just floated across the lovely park and it seemed that I could still hear that beautiful music --- forgotten were my tired feet and aching joints

The next morning we said a reluctant farewell to Vienna and made our way out of the city, first passing through the Vienna woods.

In the fertile Austrian province known as "upper Austria" we visited in the home of a farm family. They greeted us with a warm welcome. Their house and barns were all built together in a square with a courtyard in the center. Farm equipment and feed are stored in the barns. Then this farmer opened a door to show us his hogs - he raises 600 each year.

Across one side of the square building was their very large and beautiful home. Dark wood carved stairway leading to the second floor. We made our way to the front lawn - many flowers and tall trees. On one side the lawn dropped off to a dense forest and on the other side - up the mountain was a field of corn.

They served us apple cider and lean bacon on home baked bread. Then they brought out chocolate cake squares with walnuts. Also wild raspberry preserves baked on their rollup pastry. All was very good.

Our destination that day was the city of Innsbruck in its dramatic setting, surrounded by mountains.

MAGNIFICENT SCHOENBRUNN CASTLE in Vienna, Austria, was one of the many breathtaking sights enjoyed by the Ozona travelers.

Innsbruck is the capital of Tyrol, one of Austria's very beautiful provinces.

The 1964 and 1976 Winter Olympic games took place in Innsbruck and we drove past the Olympic facilities, including the gigantic ski jump that towers above the town.

After dinner that night we went to a performance of Tyrolean folk music. The next morning we had free time to browse through the narrow streets of old town, which looks much as it did 400 years ago, we were told. There were many shops. Zelma and I just had to buy handcarved clocks and we found linens and many things that caught our attention.

Early afternoon we head southwest along the valley of the Inn river. We crossed the border into Switzerland - this is an area of magnificent mountain scenery and our destination is St Moritz. I will write about Switzerland next week.

The Church And Society

By Dennis J. Prutow

The mandate originally given by God to humankind was simple. "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it" (Genesis 1:28). Adam and Eve were to fill the earth with God fearing people. They were to build a culture which would glorify God. But since sin entered the world, human beings have turned their energies to building a culture antagonistic to God.

The work of the church is to reclaim the world for God. Its mission lead in the building of a culture in which "we are taking every thought captive to the obedience of Christ" (2 Corinthians 10:5). This means the thoughts of people in politics, education, science, and business are to be guided by Jesus Christ.

Does this mean a church run state where church people cram their morals down the throats of others? Absolutely not. The job of the church is to so influence our culture through preaching, education, and example that freedom flourishes, the tide of violence is stemmed, and genuine love of neighbor is fostered. It is therefore no accident that Christians have always built colleges, hospitals, and institutions to fight poverty.

To this end, Christian people must use the forums existing in our pluralistic society to persuasively present Christian principles as a foundation for the answers to the problems of poverty, health care, and education.

Lions Gearing Up With Two-A-Days

Neal Ulmer, Stockman Sportswriter
Running, sweat, and hot days kicked-off the football season as the Ozona High School athletes took the field last Wednesday. Working out in shorts, the youngsters started their day at 8 a.m. with warm-up exercises, running windsprints, conditioning, and learning and relearning football plays.

The boys were given a break from 11 a.m. and then it was back to work until 12:30 p.m. Like most pre-seasons, the schedule and work changes very little.

Starting his eighth year as head coach, Don Payne said, "Monday was the first day of full pads and contact. So, we will know a lot more in a couple of days about what we got."

This week, with all the teachers doing inservice training, football practices will go to a 7-8 a.m. and a 7-9 p.m. schedule on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursdays. On Mondays and Fridays the practices will be from 8-10 a.m. and 11-12:30 p.m. Payne appears to be contented with his athletes as he said, "I think the kids showed up with a lot of enthusiasm. They seem to be ready to play. Our numbers are pretty good with us having about 50 players. Our sophomore and junior numbers are down a little bit."

Leadership and experience should come from seniors, and this year's group should be exceptional. There are 17 seniors this year leading the Lions. The seniors are: Elliott Barrera, Travis Davidson, Andres De La Garza, Eddie De Luna, Joe Esparza, Jesse Garza, Luis Longoria, J.J. Lozano, Julio Martinez, Doug Meador, Justin Moran, Matthew Ortiz, Anthony Sanchez, Chris Sanchez, Juan Trujillo, Tony Valencia, and Clay Westmoreland.

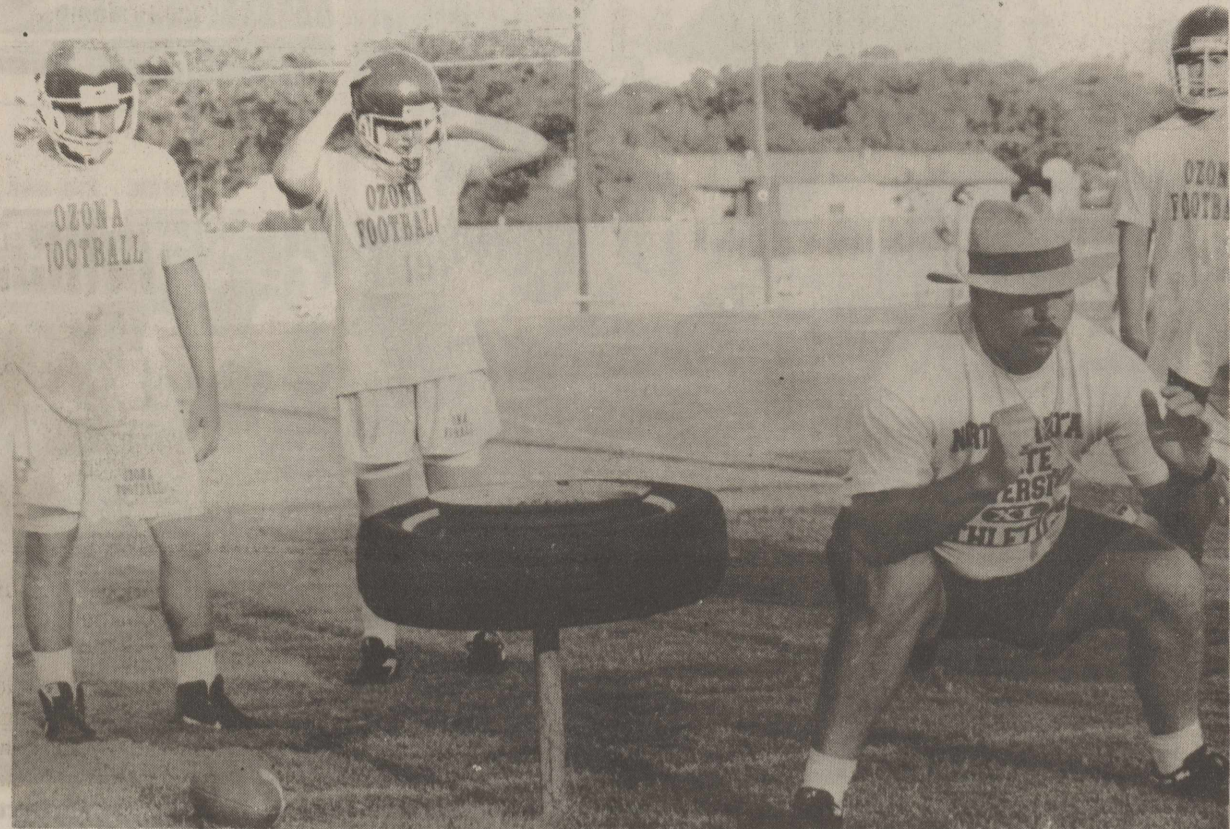

Although, there are only seven juniors, these young men have experience and the desire to assist their teammates in having a successful year. The junior players include David Browne, Adam Carroll, Lance Jamerson, Bryan Mendez, Patrick Sanchez, Casey Upham, and Jeffrey

Eleven sophomores will be adding their efforts to a successful season. These young men are: Pete Castanada, Juan De Hoyos, Shayne Fuentes, Manual Mendoza, Steven Montes, Lando Peña-Alfaro, Codie Porras, Jon Sanchez, Jason Stuart, Moses Ramirez, and Jason Hight.

A total of sixteen freshmen will make a big addition to the junior varsity or varsity team this year. These members are: Brian Badillo, Jason Baker, Rusty Bishop, Justin Browne, Donnie Bullard, Martin Cordova, Robert Daniels, Gary Dominguez, John Esparza, Shannon Fleming, Albert Flores, Lalo Guadarrama, Ramon Longoria, Brandon Parlow, David Martinez, and Bernie Arredondo.

Coach Payne is expecting a good year and "We are looking forward to our first scrimmage." The first scrimmage will be on Thursday, Aug. 18, starting at 6 p.m. in Robert Lee. Come watch the gridiron action and "Back The Lions".

the new part of the cemetery, commissioners voted to allow curbing and raised monuments in this section.

A previous court had voted to disallow curbing and require monuments to be at ground level for ease of maintenance.

Architect Jack Meeks gave an update on progress of plans for placement of an elevator in the courthouse. After reviewing plans, commissioners voted to proceed with the project.

During a report by civic and youth center director Garland Young, commissioners voted to increase salaries of Joyce Young and Mary Capps from $4.50 per hour to $5.50 and $5.00 respectively. Money for this increase was already in the budget.

Janet Hill McDaniel told the court that the Meals on Wheels program will no longer receive commodities because it is not classified as an institution. Other avenues will be followed to find additional financial help for the program.

Mrs. McDaniel said that she can no longer do the large amounts of paperwork for the organization without some compensation. She is also active in unloading foods as they arrive. Commissioners voted to approve hiring a senior citizen coordinator. A notice and job description will be posted in the courthouse. Money is in this year's budget for the position.

Crockett County Public Library's expansion fund grew with the donation of $550 from the Dan Bean Memorial Roping and $350 earned through a pie auction, Louise Ledoux said. She also told the court that grant proposals are going out to seek other funding for the expansion.

As part of the fire department report, Bob Falkner said their had been 25 grass fires, one vehicle fire and one structure fire during July. Total fires for the year, through July, are 80.

Commissioners voted to authorize advertisement for sealed bids for the sale of one sheriff's department car.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent reviewing the budget for the coming year.

The presidential custom of throwing out the first ball of the baseball season began under William Howard Taft in 1910.

Lions Club Officers Installed

By Neal Ulmer
Stockman Reporter

The Ozona Chamber of Commerce would like to thank everyone who helped with the David Crockett Birthday Festival. It takes everyone, either helping or participating, to make the weekend a success. We all enjoyed Carolyn Cotton and Sandra Walker. The Direct Descendants of David Crockett have special feelings for those who celebrate David and his life. It is wonderful to be a part of that history. Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Cotton expressed interest in bringing the Crockett Clan reunion to Ozona in 1998. This will be the next time the entire group will meet in Texas. We will be planning toward 1998 and the needs of the Crockett Clan.

Dee Keilers, outgoing president of Ozona Lions Club, installed new officers at the June 23 meeting of the organization.

Randy Branch is the new president. Other officers include Joe Logan, first vice-president; Mike Preddy, second vice-president; Neal Ulmer, third vice-president; Brent Taylor, secretary/treasurer; Pleas Childress, Jr., Lion tamer; and Keiuh Olive, tail twister.

First year directors are: Larry Hensley, Bill Fuller and Ted Cotton. Second year directors are: Charles Childress, Ernie Jones and Jim Wilson. Numerous recognitions were made during the membership awards luncheon. Miss Jana Kaye Cotton, past Lions Club Sweetheart, was commended by Keilers. Keilers presented Miss Cotton with a Lions Club necklace and pen and pencil set for her service with the Lions Club.

Present and receiving a membership chevron for 10 years was Doug Meador. Not present but recognized for years of membership were: Dick Kirby, 35 years; Weldon Maness, 30 years; Bob J. Harris, 20 years; A. O. Fields and W. D. Haire, each 15 years; and J. R. Bhakta, 10 years.

New members present and receiving certificates and pins were Brian Morrow and Brent Taylor. Also recognized as a new Lion was Will Thompson who was not present.

Dee Keilers was presented a Master Key Award for bringing in 16 new members in his many, many years of service to the Lions Club. Other members lauded for their efforts in bringing in new members were: Bob Falkner, 11 members; Doug Meador, five members; Mike Preddy, two members; and John L. Henderson III, one member. Others recognized but not present include: Curtis Keith, 10 members; W. D. Haire, three members; Johnny Jones, Burl Myers and Jim Wilson, two members each; and Robert Bryson, one member.

A new Lions Club sweetheart will be chosen at one of the meetings in August. At the present there are 75 members in the organization, and persons are invited to attend and join. For more information about the Ozona Lions Club, contact president Randy Branch at 392-5831.

HOUSTON--When a cholesterol-lowering diet is prescribed, lean beef can stay on the menu.

Researchers at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston have determined that eating lean beef in a cholesterol-lowering diet produces reductions in levels of total blood cholesterol and low-density lipoprotein, the "bad" cholesterol, similar to those achieved by eating chicken.

The study was funded by the National Live Stock and Meat Board.

Disabled People Should Not Wait To Apply

Workers suffering from a physical or mental impairment which prevents them from working should consider applying for Social Security disability benefits when it appears the impairment will last 12 months or longer, Franklin H. Upp, Social Security manager in San Angelo, said recently.

Social Security disability benefits can be paid to workers under 65, disabled widows and widowers 50-60, and to unmarried adult children that became disabled before reaching age 22.

Under Social Security, a person is considered disabled if he or she has a severe impairment which prevents him or her from doing substantial gainful work and is expected to last for at least 12 months or result in death.

No payments can be made to a disabled worker, widow or widower for the first five full months of disability.

To help speed the application process, it may be helpful for a person to gather the following information before applying:

- *the disabled person's Social Security number
- *the date last worked
- *the date the person became sick or was injured
- *the names, addresses and telephone numbers of doctors and hospitals that provided treatment
- *military service dates

- *a list of the kinds of jobs performed in the previous 15 years
- *the names and social security numbers of spouse and children
- *the worker's compensation claim number
- In addition, any medical records that you can provide directly to Social Security will help speed the processing of your claim.

Letter to the Editor

I am writing to appeal to you for assistance in research I am doing for a new book. I have written two books on the subject of "ghosts", and this will be the third one. The first, "Spirits of San Antonio and South Texas" has been out about a year and a half. The second, "Ghosts along the Texas Coast," will be out as of September 1. Both were published by Republic of Texas Press, a division of Wordware Publishing Company. This book will concentrate on West Texas stories. I have not yet decided on the title.

Would you be so kind as to check your files for any articles or features that might have run under the heading of "ghosts", "spirits", or "hauntings?" Often papers have run articles of this nature around Halloween. I am hopeful that your part of the state has at least one "really truly" good ghost story for inclusion in my book. Or, failing to find anything in your files, would you happen to know someone in the community, an "old timer," perhaps, who might help me? I am prepared to travel, visit your city, do interviews, take photos, etc., whatever it might take to put a good book together.

When I did the coastal area book, several newspapers were kind enough to run a little plea in a column stating that if anyone had a good family ghost story, or knew someone that might have one, would they contact me...and they ran my name address and phone number. I was delighted to receive several calls and letters that resulted in some excellent stories. I am, of course, very interested in finding stories that have not been previously published. In the cases of old stories that ran a number of years back, I try to run down the parties mentioned and bring the story up to date as much as possible.

Naturally, I expect to pay you for any xerox copies or postal charges you might incur, and if you will send me a bill I will remit immediately.

I will be eternally grateful for any help that you might give me. I want this book to be very special!

Sincerely yours,

Docia Schultz Williams
1319 Vista Del Monte
San Antonio, TX 78216

Neal Ulmer's kind words about our hunting activities are appreciated. In fairness, we at TrophyHeart Outfitters would like to emphasize that Sheriff Jim Wilson is the real force in our gaining national attention. The sheriff is a nationally-respected and tireless ambassador for Crockett County hunting resources. Through his efforts we are scheduled to hunt again with Gary Sitton (Peterson's Hunting magazine) and with John Taffin (American Handgunner) during the last week of December. Sitton, Taffin and Sheriff Wilson speak to a combined audited circulation of over 1.3 million gun-and-hunting enthusiasts. I believe that Jim Wilson is one of Crockett County's greatest hunting assets and that his efforts, skills, and connections will greatly benefit all local merchants, stockmen and hunting outfitters.

TrophyHeart Outfitters, Inc. is a new entity established to help manage our hunting activities, which were carried out under the name of Penn Baggett Ranch from 1974 until 1993. Lyndon and Laurie English are officers of the corporation. Logan and Layne English, as well as Lara, Leana, and I, furnish camp and field services to our clients. Our job of producing good hunting experiences is made much easier by the favorable publicity generated by Sheriff Wilson, his journalistic colleagues, and The Stockman.

WEEKLY REPORT
Congressman
Henry Bonilla
23rd District, Texas
1529 Longworth House Office Building Washington, D.C. 20515 202/225-4511

It's been a long, hot summer and August promises to be blistering as the health care debate heats up in Congress. Legislation is being crafted in secret meetings and the rumors flying around the Capitol are almost as thick as the humid Washington air. Some Congressional leaders are even threatening to hold the House hostage to health care by postponing or canceling the August district work period. However, if we stop for a moment and really think about this issue, countless questions arise: What is the best way to reform our health care system? Do we need to reform our system at all? Should health care be guaranteed for all 270 million Americans and is that goal even possible?

I can't think of anyone who would want a woman, man or child -- rich or poor -- not to be able to get the medical attention they need. We should not argue about helping the poor or getting health care coverage for everyone -- we all want that. The issue is what is the best way to do it. Should we turn the whole system over to the government or should we fix specific problems and leave the consumers in charge of our health system? I am for the consumer approach because I fear government control and caps on health care costs will limit our choice of doctors and put the quality of our health care services in jeopardy.

Instead of hiding behind closed doors to create a huge, new bureaucracy which would govern all the doctors, nurses, hospitals and health centers in the United States, congressional leaders ought to seek a more common-sense, bipartisan approach to health care reform. Some of the changes Congress could pass today include: insurance reform so people who are sick or change jobs won't lose their coverage; tax credits to help lower-income, working families afford health insurance; lawsuit reform to cut the cost of malpractice insurance; insurance pools so small businesses can better provide health insurance for their employees; and paperwork reduction to free up doctors and nurses to spend more time with patients. These and other reforms are things most of us already agree on. Congress should act on them today.

Whatever health care plan Congress prescribes, it should be made public early so the taxpayers and their representatives have enough time to review it carefully. If congressional leaders try to force a secret plan through at the last minute, health care reform could very well be bad medicine for the American people.

There's Hope For The 40-40 Crowd

HOUSTON - For the "40-40" crowd - people approaching or just past 40 and fighting an additional 40 pounds — there is hope.

"It's called perseverance," said Doug House, an exercise physiologist at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

There is nothing that can replace a regularly scheduled exercise program and a low-fat diet that allows you to eat moderately from all food groups.

"It's not easy," said House, who helps post-surgery patients get into shape at Baylor's Pain Control and Functional Restoration Clinic, "but it can be done, if you recognize that it will take time and serious commitment."

Habitual exercisers are created, not born, House said.

"Too many people want to be perfect now," he said. "They should realize that many seemingly perfect people were once out of shape."

House stressed the cumulative effect of exercise and low-fat nutrition.

For example, a walking program of four miles per day, five days a week, consumes 2,000 calories. Abolishing pre-dinner snacks or choosing low-fat desserts can save 1,600 calories a week. The result: a pound of fat loss per week.

For many reasons, one of them peer support, a health club can be an important first step to a leaner body.

Clubs can be less expensive than buying equipment, and they have qualified trainers who can help start a productive program. There is also the camaraderie of other neophytes.

Before joining a health club, anyone older than 40 and/or overweight should see a physician for a general check-up.

House recommends starting easy with weights, but not too easy. Muscle soreness is okay when it is a sign of muscles gaining strength. For beginners, one set of 10 to 12 repetitions, two or three times a week, is enough to reach moderate muscle fatigue.

Personal trainers are another alternative. They can design personalized programs, but they can also be expensive; however, the expense can be reduced by using a personal trainer only to get started.

House cautions that first-timers should have realistic expectations. It took time to put on those extra pounds, and it will take time to get them off.

David Crockett's Birthday

The Friends of the Library and Ozona Chamber of Commerce teamed up to celebrate Davy's birthday and generate some funds for the library expansion campaign. An old-fashioned fruit pie contest was held to show off the great cooks we have in Crockett County. Six delicious pies were entered. Lou Deaton won with her Pecos River peach pie. She will receive the $25 gift certificate donated by Ozona Chamber of Commerce. Nancy Hale was second place and Crystelle Childress was third. Dana Cowen and Louella Jones also entered pies. Thanks, Friends, for your entries.

The chamber of commerce auctioned off the pies in the park to benefit the library expansion project. Donnie Laughlin was great as our auctioneer. About $350 was raised from the auction. The Friends want to thank Sam Perner, Sammie Pierce, Ozona National Bank, Jim Wilson and the Crockett County Sheriff's Department, the Baggett Agency and David Bean and Randy Branch for buying the pies and supporting the library with the expansion campaign.

The Friends thank everyone who helped to make this fundraiser a big success. It was a beautiful day in the park to enjoy our Crockett County heritage and to look ahead to a very promising future for our community and for the Crockett County Public Library.

Veterans Of Battle Of The Bulge Anniversary

December 16, 1994, marks the 50th anniversary of the commencement of America's greatest land battle—the Battle of the Bulge. This battle took place from December 16, 1944, through January 25, 1945, in the bitter cold and snow of the heavily forested Ardennes Forest of Belgium and Luxembourg.

More than one million young men took part in this bloody World War II battle—600,000 of them American. There were 81,000 American casualties, including 19,000 killed.

Those who fought and survived the Battle of the Bulge will never forget. Those who sacrificed their lives will be remembered by survivors and others December 16, 1994, with memorial services and the dedication of a plaque at the Soldiers' Memorial Military Museum in St. Louis, Missouri. The USA World War II Commemoration Committee has designated St. Louis as the site for the national commemoration of the 50th Anniversary of the Battle of the Bulge.

Many other activities are being planned in connection with the 50th Anniversary Commemoration to be held December 15-18, 1994, in St. Louis, Missouri. Complete information regarding these ceremonies is available from the Veterans of the Battle of the Bulge, Inc. (VBOB).

It's Time To Enroll In 4-H

With the beginning of school, it's time to enroll in 4-H for the 1994-95 club year. All Crockett County youth ages 8 (or in the third grade) to 19 are encouraged to come by the County Extension Office and sign up for the 4-H projects and activities in which they're interested.

4-H members need to re-enroll by completing a new enrollment form every year. "Coming by the office and making sure you're signed up for projects you may be interested in means you won't be left out when we mail notices at the beginning of a project," said Tedra Ulmer, County 4-H coordinator.

There are many opportunities in 4-H besides just "cows and cooking," said Ulmer, noting that youth involved in the 4-H program learn leadership, public speaking, responsibility and many other lifetime skills through project work, camps, workshops, contests, exhibits and many other opportunities.

Three 4-H clubs serve Crockett County. The Intermediate 4-H Club serves grades 3-5 and meets at the intermediate school cafeteria. The Junior High Club serves grades 6-8 and meets in the school library during lunch. The Senior High Club serves high school students grades 9-12 and meets during lunch. All three clubs meet monthly during the school year. There are no club meetings during the summer months, but there are other activities in which the 4-Hers can be involved.

Officers for the three clubs were elected in May and have attended county officer training in June to become familiar with their responsibilities and plan programs for the upcoming year. Adult leaders serve as club managers and supervise the activities of the clubs. Parents are always welcome at meetings, project lessons and other 4-H activities. "4-H is a family affair," said Ulmer, noting that 4-H is a wonderful way for a family to spend time together.

4-H group projects offered in Crockett County include Angora goats, beef cattle, child development, clothing (buying or construction), ewe lambs, field and stream, food and nutrition, horse, market lambs, meat goats, photography, rabbits, shooting sports and swine. Two new projects, veterinary science and fitness leadership, are being offered for 1994-95. "Many other projects can be done on an individual basis using 4-H materials and assistance from the County Extension Office," said Ulmer.

Other activities which relate to projects include range evaluation, wool and mohair judging, horse judging, livestock judging, method demonstrations and public speaking, and Share-the-Fun skits.

4-H doesn't have to be expensive, if your family is on a tight budget. There are no membership dues charged for 4-H members or leaders. What you spend on project work and activities is up to you and your family's budget--and many projects cost nothing or very little to complete. For older youth, scholarships for various activities such as leadership labs and workshops are often available based on need. Time is also precious--and most 4-H activities can generally be planned around school, church and other obligations.

What can you get out of 4-H? You can enjoy meeting and working with 4-Hers and leaders from across the county, district, state and nation. You'll make friendships that last a lifetime, see new places, and learn new skills. You can go on trips, win awards for project work, and even win scholarships if you become active in 4-H. Since 1988, 4-H members from Crockett County have won over $90,000 in 4-H and related scholarships. "The leadership and citizenship activities required for 4-H are required for most scholarships available from non-4-H sources, so you'll be killing two birds with one stone," stated Ulmer, adding, "What you get out of 4-H depends on how much time and effort you put in and how much you become involved--as well as your final goals."

For more information on 4-H or to enroll for the current year, contact the Crockett County Office of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, located on the second floor of the County Courthouse Annex (next to the Courthouse, 411 Ave. D) in Ozona, or call 392-2721 or 392-2722. County Extension Agents Billy Reagor or Tedra Ulmer or Secretary Peggy Dickerson will be glad to help you. Office hours are 8 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Monday-Thursday. The office closes at 4 p.m. on Fridays.

Educational programs such as 4-H sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or disability.

Sutton Named Outstanding 4-H Girl

Stefny Sutton of Ozona has been selected as the 1994 Outstanding Senior 4-H Girl for District VI during judging by the District VI 4-H Adult Leaders Association. Sutton, daughter of Jeffrey and Carmen Sutton, is currently attending Texas A&M University where she is a biochemistry major.

Sutton, a 10-year 4-H member, was a national 4-H Fashion Revue recordbook winner, member of the Texas 4-H Teen Fashion Board, and was the 1993 District 4-H Council public relations chairman. In addition, she was the 1993-94 County Council and Senior Club president and won the Mother Davidson Award as outstanding county senior 4-H member.

She was featured in the 1994 Summer McCall's Pattern Magazine, and was a state method demonstration winner in the sheep and goat category. Because of her involvement and achievements in the clothing, Angora goats and food/nutrition projects as well as numerous citizenship and leadership activities, Sutton received a $10,000 Houston Livestock Show scholarship from the Texas 4-H Foundation, as well as $ 1,500 in Family Community Education Scholarships and her $ 1,500 fashion revue scholarship for her 4-H work. In 1993 she received the Dan Bean Memorial Scholarship as the outstanding Crockett County 4-H agriculture project participant.

Extension Connection

By Tedra Ulmer, County Extension Agent
Texas Agricultural Extension Service

With the start of school, most parents begin thinking more about their child's reading ability. Reading can certainly be taught in school, but most children learn the love of reading at home.

As a parent, you play an important part in teaching your children to love reading. It's as simple as setting aside 15 minutes from your busy day to share a small reading experience with your child. By doing so, you're sharing a skill that's necessary for success in life--reading!

Here are some practical ideas for sharing books with children:

- Set an example. Children learn by watching those around them. If reading is important to you, it will be more important to your child.

- Explore life together. Creating new experiences for children provides background for reading. By teaching children to use their observation skills, you build a rich background the child can use when reading, and what he or she reads will be more meaningful. For example, by studying a leaf from a tree and discussing what you see, a child will gain more from reading about leaves in science class.

- Choose a time, a place. Find a special time and place to read to your children. Anytime and anyplace can be appropriate...the important thing is to do it!

- Select appropriate books. We're fortunate to have an excellent library here in Ozona and in our schools, and the librarians can help you choose books based on the child's age and interest. Young children enjoy nursery rhymes, tales about animals, and stories about familiar objects.

Regardless of how well you read, or the language you speak, you can share stories. By selecting picture books, stories can be created together--or books that come with a cassette tape can be listened to together.

- Share books. That's more than just reading. Look at the cover, discuss the title, predict what might happen, and notice details in the pictures. Use expression in your voice to show emotion or change characters. Talk about how the story relates to real life.

- Extend the reading experience. Attend a play or community event that relates to a book. For example, there are many books and stories that feature Davy Crockett--did you attend his birthday celebration recently?

Visit the library together, and help the child build a library of his/her own. When you see a show on TV, look for a related book.

By sharing love, time and reading with your children, you as a parent can build the love of reading--and the necessary skills--your child will use for a lifetime.

For more information on child development, contact the Crockett County Extension Office at 392-2721. Educational programs and information provided by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or handicap.

A wrongdoer is often a man that has left something undone, not always he that has done something.

Predator Control Project Approved For County

The Texas Sheep & Goat Commodity Board has spent approximately 75% of all funds available for the period January through June, 1994, on predator control activities in Texas according to board member Ellis Helmers of Sanderson. Most of the funds are expended on aerial hunting by specialists of the Animal Damage Control Service.

The commodity board met earlier this month in San Angelo prior to the opening of the Texas Sheep & Goat Raisers' annual convention. Helmers, secretary/treasurer of the board, said member approved predator control projects in Coleman County and in southwest Crockett County during their meeting.

The board voted to petition the Texas Department of Agriculture for approval to include a referendum for the addition of Young County as part of the referendum area in conjunction with the scheduled biennial election of directors from each of three districts on Oct. 28 of this year. Young County was inadvertently left off the required publication notice when the initial referendum was held in 1992 and could not be included in the program because of the deletion.

Information and forms for persons interested in being candidates for election to the board are available from the commodity board office in San Angelo, or will be available in county agents' offices later this month.

The board also is looking at the possibility of requesting individual or county trapping clubs to transfer 1080 collars to the ADC rather than have them stored and not in use. Board members Philip Jacoby and Ernest Woodward were appointed to look into this matter. Purchase of additional collars is also under review.
