911 STILL ON GO

Commissioners voted again Monday to approve 911 for Crockett County, the only county in the state without the system. More than 100 people attended the meeting to hear a report from a committee appointed by the court to study the feasibility of 911 here.

Concho Valley Council of Governments has set aside funds for addressing 911 in Crockett County according to Hilda Arredondo who attended the meeting. COG also supplies all the equipment for 911, computers, printers, paper, moving of telephone lines necessary to the service and 20 hours weekly salary for an employee to maintain the addressing system. The county is responsible for one-fourth of the $100,000 COG estimates for the addressing project. If addressing costs are under $75,000, Crockett County will be refunded its portion.

COG funds its portion of the project through a 50 cent per month service fee on telephone bills and telephone surcharge funds which go directly to the state.

Bob Falkner, who headed the study committee, said most committee members were in favor of 911 and that a combined communications center would be the best option for the county. Under the plan presented, all emergency and non-emergency dispatching would be done from a central location within the jail. This would include dispatch of 911, the sheriff's department, fire department, ambulance and road department. Dispatchers would do reports, computer updates, proof deputies' reports and might be cross-trained to work as jailers.

The Texas Commission on Jail Standards has notified Crockett County that based on the capacity and configuration (two story) of the jail here, jailers can not work as 911 dispatchers while working a shift as a jailer.

Falkner also said that the majority of the committee does not want a tax increase or sales tax to fund the $128,289.12 in salaries and benefits for the supervisor and four dispatchers required for the communication set-up.

Shirley Kirby, president of Woman's Forum, the organization which has as a project bringing 911 to the county, emphasized that their original project was for 911 only and that it has been implemented in other counties without hiring additional personnel.

Sheriff-elect Shane Fenton was present to tell the court that he is willing to do whatever is necessary to get 911 at a price the county can afford without increasing taxes or adding a sales tax. "I cannot put it in the jail without more personnel," he said.

The court voted, four to one, with Commissioner Fred Deaton against, to implement 911. Deaton said he would not vote for something without knowing how it would be funded.

Annex Bids To Be Let

In addition to approving 911 at their meeting Nov. 15, commissioners approved advertising for bids for construction of the new courthouse annex. According to architect Jack Meeks of San Angelo, bids will be let in mid-December and construction should start just after the first of the year. He anticipates eight months to complete the structure.

Judge Jeffrey Sutton has received a letter from Sharon Fleming of the Texas Historical Commission approving plan changes to the annex and modifications to the present courthouse and grounds agreed to between the county and the commission.

On a smaller scale, commissioners voted to lease an area from Dr. Gary Vannoy to build a rabies quarantine facility adjacent to his veterinary clinic. The county built six dog runs at the clinic in 1975 for a local dog pound. This was recently inspected by the state and disapproved as a rabies quarantine facility.

The new area for animals suspected of rabies will have two runs with a separating wall and doors which can be padlocked. Vannoy is to get plans from the state to assure that the area meets specifications.

DPS Sgt. Carl Mayfield, Cpl. Ben English and Texas Ranger Jerry Byrne met with the court early in the day. Sgt. Mayfield was present to request that the county buy DPS radar units as in the past. He also asked for a separate budget section for the DPS like other counties have rather than allocating their funds through the office of the justice of the peace. A salary increase for parttime DPS secretary Deborah Brown commensurate with that of other county secretaries was also requested.

"Everything that comes to us we pay for out on the road," said Mayfield. He stated that each trooper brings in around $40,000 to the county.

The court voted to increase the DPS budget to provide $5,000 for the requested radar and to increase Mrs. Brown's hours from 20 to 24 a week with a raise.

During the presentation, Ranger Byrne, who has an office in the DPS building, spoke in support of the DPS and the office assistance he receives from the secretary.

Cpl. English warned listeners of a possible onslaught of drug transports through the area. English, who has just worked a drug task force in South Texas said "the druggies are taking over" along the border, and that in the Quemado area where he had been, frightened people are selling properties they've had in their families for three generations. "It's coming here if we're not ready. We're the next tier of counties," English said.

"As soon as the task force shuts down, they're going to be bringing it (drugs) up highways 277, 163 and 349, and that's what we're trying to get ready for."

English explained that Crockett County is an ideal area for transporters because of its sparse population, few law enforcement officers, all kinds of county roads, state highways and I-10. "It's here already and it's going to get worse if we don't do what we can to stop it," English said. "Drug lords have paramilitary troops just across the border," he continued. "This is for real."

In other action, commissioners approved several budget amendments, approved use of the south lot of the baseball field north of town for off-season school athletic programs Jan.-April, set the date for the annual employee appreciation banquet at Dec. 23 and set holidays for 1997.

A resolution accepting the Colonia and 1994-95 TCDP projects was approved, and a resolution was also approved to ask the next session of the Texas Legislature to allow use of the state air fare contract for the county. This reduction in air fare rates would be for use by the sheriff's department in transporting prisoners.

While meeting with Crystal Hargraves, commissioners voted to hire

State Sending Administrator To Care Center

An inspection at Crockett County Care Center has resulted in the placement of an interim administrator here by the state. The facility has operated without an administrator beyond the allotted time limit since the resignation of Virginia Box.

Inspectors arrived last Thursday in response to a complaint and basically cited the facility in four areas according to board vice-president Terry Dickerson. The inspection ended Monday afternoon with an exit interview after the inspection team did an in-depth study Monday.

No administrator on staff, understaffing, bedsores and not enough communication between nursing staff and the families of residents when there is a change in health were the four areas cited, Dickerson said.

An official list of deficiencies will be drawn up and sent to the state office and then to the care center according to Zoe Green who has filled in as interim administrator. "We are still licensed for 46 beds. They're not talking about pulling the license," Mrs. Green said.

Once life safety codes are met for the new wing and it passes inspection by the state, the facility will have 60 beds. The four boarder residents who live in the uncertified wing will have to be moved into the certified side of the care center or taken elsewhere until specifications are met and the added rooms certified.

Oscar Wise of the Texas Department of Health's public relations office in Austin said Tuesday that the center will be under voluntary trusteeship as soon as a court order is issued. An interim administrator for the state will remain here until a state monitoring team determines that local operation of the center can resume.

Crystal Hargraves of Sterling City has been hired as care center administrator but will not be able to begin her duties here until Dec. 1. Care center directors held an emergency meeting Monday night. At that meeting they terminated the employment of Honey Asis, director of nurses.

"We want to let everyone know that this is still our facility," Dickerson said. "There are several positions open and the board would like local people to come and apply."

Connie Nelson has agreed to work as assistant director of nurses until the director's position is filled.

Trustees Hold Public Hearing On AEIS Report

During its regular monthly meeting that was held last Wednesday, Nov. 13, members of the Ozona School Board held a public hearing on the district's 1995-96 Academic Excellence Indicator System (AEIS) Report that was recently received from the Texas Education Agency.

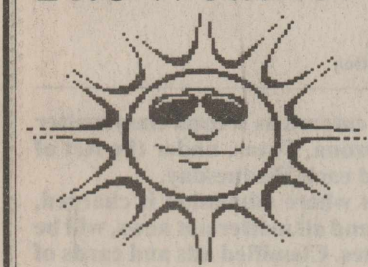

The report, produced by TEA and based on information submitted by all Texas school districts through the Public Education Information Management System (PEIMS), provides both state and local information about the performance of 1,044 school districts, more than 6,000 schools, more than 280,000 professional staff, and 3.7 million students.

The AEIS report contains data on local student performance at both the

He is survived by Peggy Mays Harlan, his wife of 27 years, and their daughter Ashley, as well as children Cynthia Diane and Martin Pelton Harlan, and their mother Georgia Harbison Harlan of Alpine. Sisters are Ida Lee Harlan of Waco and Betty LaVerne Williams of La Cruces, New Mexico.

Vernon was born Aug. 6, 1922, and grew up in Waco, attending local schools there. His undergraduate studies at Baylor were interrupted by the war years, but he returned to take his B.A. in English Literature. He received his Master's from Sul Ross State. Back at Baylor for his doctoral studies, he was regarded as an authority on Robert Browning.

His unusual military career included the Navy, where he served as a radioman during the Second World War, and also the Air Force, where he served as liaison officer for the Air Force Academy until 1981, retiring at the rank of Lieutenant Colonel.

His teaching career spanned thirty years. He taught high school English and Spanish in Kenedy, Ozona, and Del Rio. He served as a professor of English at Hill County Junior College, Paul Quinn College, and Sul Ross State University. He retired from teaching in 1977. Thereafter he is best remembered for his interest in exotic birds, working out of his aviary in Del Rio, and for his custom-made furniture, filling orders from across the United States, Mexico, England, and Germany.

Vernon took his civic responsibilities seriously and served in both elected and appointed positions for the City of Del Rio and Val Verde County.

Although a world traveler, his favorite haunts were the deer country of Ozona-Sonora, where he walked the canyons as a young man, and his retreat in colonia Los Frailes, Guajalato, Mexico, where he painted and wrote.

Memorial services were Nov. 13, 1996, under the direction of G. W. Cox Memorial Funeral Home, 114 Fletcher Drive. Contributions may be made to Val Verde Memorial Hospital Auxiliary or to the Vernon Martin Harlan Scholarship Fund at Del Rio National Bank.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Bobbie Bryson Home Once Again

After six weeks of reduction chemotherapy treatments at St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital in Memphis, TN, Bobbie Bryson is finally back home. According to the doctors at St. Jude's, she did surprisingly well this time.

She did have several set backs, but was able to withstand the harsh treatments of chemo without too many delays or set backs. Bobbie did have a diabetic reaction, caused as a side effect of one of the chemos, but due to Maida's quick reaction, her condition was corrected within a few hours.

Bobbie also had a severe mouth infection that required hospitalization but was released with I.V. antibiotics, administered by Maida, within 3 days. For six weeks Bobbie spent every day in the clinic or hospital receiving blood and/or chemo treatments. Her condition at this time is that she is still in remission, but will require two more years of weekly treatments, blood tests, and spinal.

Every Thursday Bobbie and Maida will be making the trips to San Antonio to the Santa Rosa Children's Hospital for blood tests and chemos. Then every fourth week we all go to Memphis for spinals and hard doses of chemos. Then in July they will add radiation to her scheduled doses of chemos.

Radiation is required due to her diagnosis of high risk Leukemia and her medical history. Radiation is required in hopes to keep her in remission. In Bobbie's case the doctors know there are still cancer cells, but are optimistic that the radiation will eradicate those unseen cancer cells.

Bobbie started school again this week, and for the basketball fans, began basketball practice. Bobbie is still unable to practice with the team but is working out in the gym on a do-what-you-think-you-can-do attitude.

If her blood count is high enough this Thursday she will begin to work out with the team. She is still very weak.

One of the chemos she is taking (one of 13) affects the joints and legs, but with physical therapy the doctors and coaching staff are optimistic she can overcome any handicap that the chemos might have caused.

Maida and I watched her practice last evening, and for the opponents of Ozona, she can still make those free throws and three pointers. Caution is advised!!!

To quote the doctors, "I am giving you folks a two year schedule of Bobbie's treatments so you can start planning some kind of lives for yourselves." The schedule in itself is a shock for us, but we know how hard it is for Bobbie, too.

Your prayers are what has got her this far, and we ask that you please continue to do so. A special thanks to our special (friends), Randy and Eddy Hall, Bill Crawford and family, Mary Harris, and Buddy Phillips. And of course, the Ozona Lady Lions' basketball team and coaching staff.

Bobbie is currently working part time at the auction barn, helping Maida with the computer end of the business on Saturdays, and helping her dad deliver livestock Saturday night, and Sunday mornings.

It is extremely important that we keep Bobbie both mentally and physically fit so she can be in the best of shape to endure the next two years of treatments we hope can save her life.

For those of you who have asked about Bobbie's friend, Amy, who had helped so much at St. Jude's Hospital, and has been sent home. Her condition has turned for the worse and the doctors have stopped all treatments. Amy has been given large doses of Morphine to control her pain.

Bobbie and Amy have been through so much together and they talk almost every day by phone. Amy lives in Peoria, IL, and like Bobbie is a star athlete in Illinois. Amy is 16 years old and was there when Bobbie's chances were slim. Amy was one of the reasons for Bobbie fight to recovery, and Bobbie has tried to be there for Amy, but Amy's condition hasn't been as fortunate as Bobbie's. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Amy and her family constantly.

Finally, Maida and I have tried so hard for Bobbie, and of course, will continue to devote our lives for her. We could not have done this without all of you. A special thanks to Maida's son, Billy Tramel, and Billy Green for holding our new company together while we are gone. Making the 16 hour drive each week from Memphis is hard enough for me, but I could not have done it without knowing things were cared for in our absence. God bless all of our supporters, and thanks for your prayers and support.

Please continue to pray for Bobbie. We are scheduled to spend Thanksgiving and Christmas at St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital. Like this dreaded disease goes, it does not discriminate against age, sex or origin, and it does not care about holidays. Treatments are scheduled seven days a week 365 days a year at St. Jude's. By the way, Bobbie's treatments end on her birthday, Sept. 24, 1998 (that will make her 120th week of treatments).

God bless you all. Thanks for your prayers and please continue to pray for her.

Robert Bryson

To Mr. Ruben Cantu And Coach Faught

On behalf of Bobbie Bryson, I wish to extend my gratitude to Mr. Cantu for commissioning the portrait of Bobbie to be made and originally planned for a fund raiser for her, and to Coach Faught for wanting it to be donated back to the Ozona High School to be hung in the gym for all to enjoy. However, I think Mr. Cantu did the right thing by presenting it to Bobbie for her to keep herself. I once told Bobbie that I sure would like to have the portrait myself, and she replied, "You know, to tell you the truth, Mom, I would sure like to have it, also". So, whoever passed the word on to Mr. Cantu, I thank them, too. The portrait is presently hanging in the "Hall of Fame" of her mobile home in Sonora. Who knows, someday it might even be hanging in the White House.

With sincere thanks,
Sweet Pea's Mom,
Leta Jean Bryson

JERRY AND BETH SCOGGINS' HOME

The home of Jerry and Beth Scoggins at 1204 Avenue C, was originally built in 1926 by Lee and Myrtle Childress, who occupied it with their sons. The Childress family made it their home in the winter and lived at the ranch in the summer. Other owners include Terry and Martha Gries, who purchased it from Myrtle Childress in 1972, and the Hank Sellers family, who purchased it from the Gries in 1977 and owned the home for 16 years. The Scoggins bought the house from Hank Sellers in the spring of 1993. At that time it had been unoccupied for approximately two years.

The home's 3450 square feet of living space consists of a living room, den, formal dining room, breakfast room, utility room, kitchen, two bedrooms and a bathroom downstairs, and two additional bedrooms and a bathroom upstairs. There is also a small apartment located behind the garage, which gives an additional bedroom and bathroom, which the Scoggins say come in handy when their three daughters and their husbands, along with the nine grandchildren all come home at once. The Scoggins, who do all of their own remodeling and decorating, say that it is a wonderful old house, and was basically in pretty good shape when they bought it.

Other than adding the patio cover in back and closing in one door of a "walk-through" bedroom (probably originally a study), they have made no structural changes. They have, however, made extensive cosmetic changes with paint, wallpaper, flooring, ceiling fans, etc. Additionally, they have remodeled the garage apartment.

The Scoggins, who have been remodeling homes for most of the 37 years they have been married (Jerry says that remodeling is his "golf game"), say that it is very important to them to maintain the integrity of a house while making improvements. For example, the kitchen still has the original cabinets, complete with flour bins and cutting boards. Also, they think the ceramic tile on the countertops is original. The two downstairs bedrooms and the laundry room have "picture molding" around the ceilings, which was typical of homes built in the 1920s. Those are features they wouldn't even consider changing, preferring to keep the "old" look.

In almost every room there is at its origin in a home built in 1935 by Hillary Phillips in the 200 Block of Ave. E.

This frame three bedroom, two bath house with living room, dining room, kitchen and breakfast room was later moved to the 1200 Block of Ave. E where the Phillips' brick two-story home is now located.

Later the frame house was moved to the corner lot of the 1300 Block of Ave. E. The Phillips lived there while the two-story home was being built.

Clay Adams purchased the frame house from the Phillips. There may have been other owners, but Larry Graves was the owner who moved the house to its present location. The Tobars bought the house from Mr. Graves in 1971.

The home has been remodeled and is now a split level with formal living and dining rooms, a sunken den with fireplace, a breakfast room, a game room with pool table, juke box and original Coca Cola box which dispenses sodas for 10 cents each. There are also two bedrooms and one and a half baths, the kitchen and laundry room downstairs.

The 40' by 20' master bedroom upstairs has a full bath and balcony.

The patio opens out to include a huge grill and smoker plus a swimming pool and a jacuzzi which has been made into a flower bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Tobar did the remodeling themselves, and the home reveals their artistic talents. Mr. Tobar designed the unusual front gate and door and had them made in Mexico.

least one piece of furniture that has been passed down from family. Beth has been heard to say that living in the house is "like waking up in a Bed and Breakfast every morning." The Scoggins say that their goal is to make the house "liveable and comfortable" for their family and other guests.

Although they are still in the process of making improvements in the house, the Scoggins are happy to share their home with the community on the home tour. "If we chose a theme for our house this year," they say, "it would be All Hearts Come Home for Christmas."

Sorority Accepts Two More Pledges

By Tonya Bullard

On Oct. 21, Alpha Alpha Mu had their Model Meeting. The two pledges that attended were Rhonda Shaw and Dana Cowen. Before the meeting started, we all formed a circle and passed the candle around, and we found out that there are now three women in our sorority expecting. We are keeping our title up by being called the "Baby Sorority." Everyone on the executive board explain to the pledges and the members their responsibility to the group. The executive board is made up of: Adrienne Cook, Janet Thompson, Patricia Sutton, Tonya Bullard, Donna Morrow and Tonya Poindexter. It was a Halloween atmosphere with Reflections as the theme. Members and pledges were served supper and a dessert.

The pledges were given a gift for appreciation of attendance. We discussed our up-coming annual poinsettia sales. If interested in purchasing any poinsettias, you can contact any Alpha Alpha Mu Member.

Members present were Janet Thompson, Tonya Bullard, Adrienne Cook, Patricia Sutton, Robin Byrne, Tonya Poindexter, Laurie Hale, Santa Fierro, Shawna Hopper, Donna Morrow and Kristi Ellis.

"A bundle of energy" describes Debra Lindsey, owner of The Electric Cactus. Her stained glass creations are the centerpiece of the business, but Debra also teaches classes and repairs stained glass.

The home where Debra lives with her husband Terry is the house she grew up in, and every room reflects her creative talent and interests. In addition to her work with stained glass, which she began 11 years ago, Debra does ceramics, throws pots by hand, paints with water colors and does charcoal drawings.

"Since I was young I've believed I should learn and master three new things a year, said Debra. One of the next things on her to learn list is fusing and bending glass. "Once I learn to fuse and bend glass, then I can make jewelry," said Debra. She is getting a kiln in order to do this.

"Fusing glass, doing pots and stained glass are my main things. Stained glass, it's just in me. I dream in glass," said Debra.

She recently completed an oval stained glass inset with more than 600 pieces for the front door at the home of Glen and Sue Burns and also did the Texas flag door inset at Dawn Kothman's. Two more customers have commissioned large works.

Debra taught others to work with stained glass for eight years at the Del Rio Council for the Arts and also took pottery classes there before moving back to Ozona in 1992. Debra began working with stained glass as therapy when her brother, Michael, was killed in an automobile accident.

Her first Ozona students were Leesa Marshall, Melissa Glosson and Vonda Flanagan. Other students are Kim Caddell, Beth Gravell and Judy Morris. Kim and Melissa exhibited their glass creations alongside Debra

This time of year finishing up a new stained glass Christmas ornament for each member of the family is a tradition. The little girls in the family will be pleased with the paperdolls Debra is creating for them along with special carrying cases and large wardrobes.

"I just do anything that I set my mind to," said Debra.

Soon she will set her mind to learning to lay Saltillo tile floors. The Lindseys enjoy working together and have several renovation projects in mind for the interior of their home. The tile will be perfect with the rock fireplace built years ago by Debra's mother. Rock work is something Debra knows well, also. "When I was growing up we'd pick up rocks one weekend and lay them the next." The terraced backyard and other rock work at the home are evidence of this skill.

She also has plans for an area in the backyard for a natural firing of Indian type pots she will create with coiled clay. A large collection of arrowheads, Debra estimates she may have as many as 500, and several Indian ceremonial pipes displayed in the Lindsey home will be interesting accompaniments to the pots Debra has planned.

Terry, who works for Valero, enjoys working with metal and wood and "is a real good carpenter", according to Debra. Enclosing the carport for his and her workshops, hers upstairs and his down, is another of their goals.

Each of the Lindseys has a grandchild, and Terry's son, Mack, makes his home with them. Debra's daughter, Stephanie DuBose, is a senior at Texas Lutheran University. Stephanie's son, Sterling Mitchell DuBose, age 4, shares his grandmother's love of the outdoors. Terry's daughter, Becky Powell of San Angelo, has an 8-month-old daughter, Aleya.

Holiday Ideas Featured In Thursday Program

"It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas" is more than just a song...it's the theme for the annual holiday program of the Crockett County Family Community Education Club. The program, featuring food, decor and gift ideas - and open to all interested persons - will be held at 10 a.m., noon and 6 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 21, in the Crockett County Extension Office's conference room. There is no charge to attend, but participants are asked to bring a non-perishable food item for Helping Hands.

New, quick-and-easy holiday recipes, money-saving gift ideas, stress-saving tips and time-saving decorating ideas will be featured by County Extension Agent Tedra Ulmer.

"The holidays are extremely stressful for many of us, because we fall into the superwoman syndrome," said Ulmer. The agent continued, "the purpose of this program is to give participants easy, inexpensive ideas to save time, money and energy during the holidays while still giving them the satisfaction of the 'homemade touch' that's so important to us."

Ulmer noted that people can attend whichever meeting best fits their schedule, "or all three, if you want!". She also said that various recipes will be available to taste, and special cookbooks with all recipes demonstrated will be given to participants. Recipes and handouts will only be available to those who attend the program.

For more information, contact Ulmer at 392-2721. The County Extension Office is located next to the Fair Park Convention Center at 1301 Ave. AA. Individuals with disabilities who require an auxiliary aid, service or accommodation in order to participate in this meeting are encouraged to contact Ulmer at 392-2721 in order to determine how reasonable accommodation can be made.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or disability.

"Yellow Bricks"

Probably one of the most misunderstood faces of the Christian life is "being led by the Lord". I was asked once about how I knew whether or not I was called into the ministry. One man asked me if God somehow spoke audibly from Heaven to me about it. My reply was that I just knew down inside me that I was called to preach. I call that place down in my heart, my "knower". You too, have no doubt just known some things in your knower also. The truth is, that God leads us in various ways, but most often by that inward leading--our knowers! My friend, it's simple really. God has a plan for each of us. It's sort of like that yellow brick road in the Wizard of Oz. All Dorothy had to do was follow the yellow brick road. It is the same for us, but, with God, we have to have faith and trust in Him. With God, you and I only get shown one brick at a time. Once we take that first step, then we will see the next one. This sounds simple, but it takes maturity and understanding. God is not weird nor is He scatter brained as some of us are! No! His ways are perfect! So, listen to your knower. That's where the Holy Spirit lives and when all you see is one brick to step on--take it. With God there is always one more.

Give Thanks To God

By Dennis J. Prutow

Is this your idea of Thanksgiving? It's a four day weekend. It's an opportunity for family gatherings. It's a time for celebrating with turkey, dressing and all the trimmings.

Psalm 117 captures the real essence of Thanksgiving. "Praise the Lord, all nations; Laud Him, all peoples! For His loving kindness is great toward us. And the truth of the Lord is everlasting. Praise the Lord."

Thanksgiving is a special time to honor and praise the God of the Bible. This is not to say family celebrations are bad. They're not. The point is that God has given you your family. If you enjoy those family gatherings with more than ample food on the table, thank God!

Not only so, Psalm 117 talks about loving kindness and truth. You cannot always depend upon other people. What about God's loving kindness? The Bible says, "God demonstrates His love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us" (Romans 5:8). You can depend upon that. What about the truth of God's Word in the Bible? Jesus said, "Not the smallest letter or stroke shall pass from the Law, until all is accomplished" (Matthew 5:18). You can depend on that, too.

This Thanksgiving, give thanks to God for your family and friends, food and shelter, work and recreation, towns and country, schools and teachers, churches and the Savior.

The trips I have written about I will never take, but the stories from our people made me feel that I have been there and seen a little of what they experienced. I am not a sight-seer, but I love to read about other people's experiences - so does all of Ozona based on the positive comments I have received from them enjoying "Out and Around". I'm not a writer, but I'm learning - so please call me at 392-2551.

You would be surprised how much everyone enjoys this article! I was - because I felt inadequate to do this. Everyone is more interested in you and cares about you more than you know. So please let me know, and then you will see for yourself.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Conner met all their family at the Embassy Suites in San Antonio Friday, Nov. 15. Saturday everyone visited and shopped.

That night they had two boat loads of family celebrating the Conners' 50th wedding anniversary on a dinner cruise in the Riverwalk area. Then it was on to the hotel for anniversary cake and the renewal of wedding vows.

The Conners' youngest grandson, Jaylon, age 9, performed the ceremony which was written especially for the occasion by a pastor.

Family came from Spring, Monahans, Plano, and from Clayton, NM.

Jean and Raleigh are still thanking their children who put the party on - Tom, Shelly, Tommy, Robin, Tony, Rhonda, Kassie, Krissie and Jaylon.

You kids gave them a wonderful memory.

Collection Begins With One Doll

By Eddy Hall

Marge St. Clair's interest in starting a doll collection began when she was a little girl in 1929. Her mom sent her to the store to buy 10 Penny (actual manufacturer's name) pencils, and, you guessed it, she spent 10 cents.

While she was at the store, a doll 16 inches tall with a porcelain head (with hair done in marcel style), hands and feet and a sawdust body caught her eye. Marion's (the doll) name was imprinted in the porcelain area under the neck.

"How much is the doll?" Marge asked the store owner, and he in turn asked "How much money do you have left?". When she said 15 cents, the doll was sold to the little girl who promptly took it home so her aunt could make Marion some clothes.

Since the purchase of this first doll, Marge has acquired a collection of more than 300 dolls. Among them are Mrs. Beasley, two Elvis dolls, original and "look-a-like" Cabbage Patch dolls, number unknown, including one porcelain head Cabbage Patch doll from New York. Also in her collection are Japanese wedding dolls, Raggedy Ann and Andy, Shirley Temple, Chatty Patty, trolls, Christmas dolls and the Simpson family dolls.

Marge lets her grandchildren play with them. "Dolls are no fun," she says, "unless you share."

Readers are welcome to go by and see the dolls. Just call first at 392-2437.

Sorority Holds Pledge Ritual

Members of Xi Sigma Omega held their Pledge Ritual in the Community Room of the Crockett County National Bank on Monday, Nov. 11. The chapter welcomed these new members into the sisterhood of Beta Sigma Phi: Kay Shaffer, Nancy Davee, Cindy Stump, Sherry Hapgood and Pam Cunningham.

Following the ritual and a salad supper, a brief business meeting was held to discuss sales of the Ozona address book. Ways and means chairman, Sally Roane thanked committee members Diane Anderson and Jackie Necessary for their hard work, as well as Martha Weant who greatly helped in the effort to assure the accuracy of the book. Special thanks was also noted for Steve Wilkins' patience, and use of his office for meetings and preparation of the book. The importance of selling all copies of the Ozona address book was stressed, to ensure meeting the chapter's budget for the annual scholarship and pending community projects.

The all new and updated Ozona address book is now available for only $6.00. This book has all Ozona post office box numbers and includes both personal and business listings. The Ozona Address Book is perfect for weddings, showers, parties, graduation invitations, quinceaneras, Christmas cards or direct mail advertising.

And don't forget, address labels can be made from all or any part of the listings in the Ozona address book. Proceeds from this project benefit the annual Beta Sigma Phi Scholarship Fund and other community projects. For information on labels or to reserve your copy of the Ozona address book, contact any member of Xi Sigma Omega.

district and campus levels. In addition, the report provides four specific comparisons: (1) district performance is compared to the state and the region of the education service center in which it is located; (2) campus performance is compared to the performance of a group of 40 similar campuses across the state; (3) performances of student groups are compared to that of other groups within a single campus and/or district; and (4) campus and district performance are compared to their performance for the prior year.

In the district's section of the AEIS, Texas Assessment of Academic Skills (TAAS) scores were compared to statewide results and results from the Region XV Education Service Center area, of which the district is a member. In the third grade last year, 84.2% of Ozona's students passed reading (80.5% state and 82.5% region), 87.5% passed math (76.7% state and 80.6% region), and 77.2% passed all tests taken (70.4% state and 73.8% region).

Student results on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) and/or the American College Test (ACT) above the criterion of 1,000 on the SAT or 24 on the ACT revealed that 17.4% of Ozona's students scored above the criterion level as compared to 18.0% across the state and 16.7% in the region. 67.4% took either the SAT or ACT (64.8% state and 65.5% region), the local average score on the SAT was 890 (891 state and 883 region), and the local average score on the ACT was 19.6 (20.0 state and 20.2 region).

Letter To The Editor

Dear Parents/Guardians:
Parental Involvement Day, Tuesday, Nov. 12, was a big success. I would like to thank all of the parents and grandparents that participated in the activities that took place at the Ozona Primary and Intermediate Schools.

To end Parental Involvement Week, I was very fortunate to attend the first Annual Statewide Parent Involvement Conference in Austin. The theme for the conference was Parent Involvement: Making A Difference In Texas Public Schools.

Throughout the conference, the word partner was used to describe the partnership that we all must build between home and school to make every child successful in school. Here in Ozona, we are building a strong partnership between home and school.

There are many ways any parent at any level can become involved in their child's education. As a parent, you can become involved in the Partners In Education Volunteer Program, reading to your child at night, helping with their homework at night, attending special programs/activities, or help with special activities at school.

Let's continue building a strong partnership between your home and the Ozona Public Schools; always remember Parent Involvement: Making A Difference In Ozona Public Schools.

If you would like information on how you can become a partner with the schools, please stop by and see me at the primary school or call me at 392-5505.

Sincerely,
Gracie Delgado
Home Liaison

Intermediate School Receives Recognition

Ozona's Intermediate School is among those recognized as best schools in the November issue of Texas Monthly. The article, "Our Best Schools", rates 3,172 of the elementary schools in Texas based on the Texas Assessment of Academic Skills test.

The rating system assigns stars for meeting certain goals with the best schools receiving four stars. Ozona's school was ranked as a three-star school, indicating that at least 70 percent of the students passed the TAAS test. This system is based on two numbers, the percentage of children who passed all portions of the TAAS test and the percentage on the free- or - assisted-lunch program.

Schools are compared with other schools with a similar number of disadvantaged students as indicated by the number on the lunch program. This system of comparing a school with others whose students have similar characteristics was developed by Darvin M. Winick of the Center for Houston's Future and Larry Toenjes, a University of Houston sociologist.

Accelerated Reader Program Definite Influence on Intermediate School

By Donnie York,
Librarian

Students enrolled in the Ozona Intermediate School are very fortunate to have the Accelerated Reader program in their library. This is the fourth year for our school to have this program and it is definitely a positive influence in our school. Almost 100 new books and tests have been added this year. In addition to these, the library houses over 6,400 titles.

Everyone is busy reading in order to earn points to purchase items from the Reader's Country Store. This year almost all items in the store are purple and gold with the Ozona Lion logo imprinted on them.

Other rewards during the year will be a fun day at the civic center (50 points), skating party and tour of Fort Concho (100 points) and a trip to San Antonio (200 points or more). Students who have earned 50 points by Friday, Dec. 13, will be rewarded with a fun day at the Ozona Civic Center. Those attending will be entertained with movies, craft making, and games. Classes with children who have earned 12 points or more are entitled to a pizza party for lunch at school. Mrs. O'Bryan's, Mr. Gully's and Ms. Sewell's classes have already had pizza parties.

Already this year students in the third grade have passed 2,855 tests. Fourth graders have passed over 3,000 tests and 5th graders 1,829. Layne English has the highest number of points with 158.9. Bobbi Bangeman comes in second with 128.6, and Jackie Llanas with 99.3. The average points earned for each student in the entire school is 29.9.

Following the public hearing on this report, the trustees reviewed and discussed three bids from Betco Bleachers, Selco Seating and Courts, and Sturdisteel for the installation of aluminum bleachers in the stands at Lions Stadium. After discussion of the bids, the members approved a $67,678.00 bid from Sturdisteel for the installation of the aluminum bleachers.

The school board also approved at first reading updates to the board's policy manuals and heard reports from Superintendent Larry Taylor on a telecommunications grant that was awarded to Midland College, Ft. Stockton ISD, and the local school district, and a report on the district's Effectiveness and Compliance (DEC) monitoring visit by the Texas Education Agency which started Monday and will continue through this Friday.

The meeting was adjourned following an affirmative vote to set the date and time of the December regular meeting on Tuesday, Dec. 17, at 7:00 p.m.

After adjournment, the seven members of the board participated in three hours of school board member training for team skills training as required by Senate Bill 1. The training was conducted by Louanne Cate and Joe McMeans, consultants for the Region XV Education Service Center in San Angelo.

Scrimmages Prepare Lady Lions For Season

By Neal Ulmer,
Stockman Sports-writer

Basketball scrimmages are used to show the coaches what their team needs to work on in preparation for their upcoming season. This year is no exception for the Class 2A State Champions, the Ozona Lady Lions.

The Ladies opened up their 1996-97 basketball season with a Nov. 5 scrimmage against the Sonora Lady Broncos and a three-way scrimmage against Snyder and San Angelo Central in Snyder Nov. 9.

Although no exact score was kept during both scrimmages, the Ladies played well considering they had to play with seven players. At least five of a total of 12 team members were sick with mononucleosis and did not play.

"We played four quarters and won three of the four. We held Sonora in single digits every quarter," said Ozona Lady Lion Coach Dickie Faught. "Our defense was great."

"Overall, our shooting was fine with the exception of needing to work on free throws. We did a good job on getting the ball to the inside."

Playing in the Sonora scrimmage were: Julie Perez, Shelly Sullivan, Amy Laughlin, Autumn McWilliams, Leslie Avila, Stormi Sessom, and Juli Hall.

The same girls played again the following Saturday in Snyder against the Lady Tigers and the San Angelo Central Lady Bobcats. "We won two quarters, tied one, and lost three of the six quarters we played. We weren't really able to press hardy at all or run fast breaks very much, due to the format. The format was not very kind to us because, we had to play two quarters against Snyder and two against Central." Then, they played one more quarter each.

The junior varsity and the junior varsity "B" team scrimmaged earlier at the same time, but in different gyms.

Ozona JV Ladies Coach Rodney Johnson said, "We won every quarter (in Sonora scrimmage). I thought the kids played real well, real hard, and got lots of playing time. They did a real good job, the hustling was excellent, everybody did what they were supposed to be doing and are headed in the right direction."

In both the Central and Snyder scrimmages, Coach Johnson said, "Both teams played man-to-man defense and didn't do anything out of the ordinary. Central tried to press, but we were able to break it."

Playing on the JV team included Kayla Turland, Stephanie Franco, Kristen Shurley, Traci Screws, Ar-

Lions Gobble Cranes In Home Opener

By Neal Ulmer,
Stockman Sportswriter

The Ozona Lions defeated the Crane Golden Cranes 73-59 in their home opener last Saturday evening in Davidson Gym. Three Lions were in double figures as they increased their season record to 1-1.

"We played four good quarters, both offensively and defensively," said Lion head boys' coach Ronnie Casey. "We ran the offense real well and the floor real well."

The Lions took to the court with an eagerness to win their first home game and that they did jumping out to an 18-12 first quarter lead.

The Lions kept the boards hot again adding 19 more points to their score to Crane's 13 points for a 37-25 halftime lead. The third quarter was closer as Crane out scored the Lions 22 points to 19 points trailing by nine at 56-47.

The Lions came back to score 17 points while holding the Golden Cranes to 12 points for a 73-59 victory.

Although the Lions won, Coach Casey noticed some things to work on. "Again, the things that hurt us were the same as in the first game in blocking out and making free throws and we just need to keep on working on getting our shot down," he said.

Casey was impressed with Crane as he said, "They ran the full court press, were quick, and were well coached."

Jon Sanchez led the Lions in scoring with 18 points. He was followed by Justin Browne with 15, Bobby Cervantez 14, Lando Penafarfo and Brian Badillo six each, Peter Rodriguez and Steven Martinez four each, Jason Stuart made three, Michael Nicks scored two, and Anthony Ortiz made one point. Also playing were Eric Ramos and Codie Porras.

Lady Lions Get Easy Win Over Prowlers

By Neal Ulmer,
Stockman Sportswriter

The Class 2A State Champions, the Ozona Lady Lions, definitely made a good showing in their season opener Nov. 12 with a 59-20 win over the Fort Stockton Prowlers in Fort Stockton. The Ladies showed the Prowlers that their 37-2 record from 1995-96 season was not a fluke as three Lady Lions were in double scoring figures.

"It was a good first game for us. We worked on our press in the first half and didn't have very many turnovers," said Lady Lion head coach Dickie Faught. "It was balanced scoring."

The Ladies had very little trouble out of the Prowlers, especially in the first half. The Ladies worked on their full court press getting many points out of a total of 25 scored in the first quarter compared to the Prowlers' two points.

The pace was a little slower in the second period as the Ladies scored 18 more points to the Prowlers' seven points for a 43-9 halftime lead.

The Lady Lion substitutes came in the second half scoring eight more additional points with seven scored by Fort Stockton to maintain a 51-16 third quarter lead.

"A lot of young players were able to play a lot. The young players got to ease into the varsity atmosphere," said Coach Faught. "We saw some good things out of the young girls."

The Ladies out scored their opponents 8-4 in the fourth quarter for a 59-20 win.

Leading the Lady Lions in scoring was Shelly Sullivan with 13 points. She was followed by Stormi Sessom and Juli Hall with 10 each, Leslie Avila and Amber McWilliams scored 8 each with McWilliams hitting two three-pointers, Autumn McWilliams hit two three-pointers for six points, and Julie Perez and Amy Laughlin made two points each. Also playing were Megan Tambunga and Lauren Wilkins.

JV Lady Lions Defeat Prowlers, Bearcats

By Neal Ulmer,
Stockman Sportswriter

The Ozona JV Lady Lions opened up their basketball season with wins over the Fort Stockton JV Prowlers 59-12 Nov. 12 in Fort Stockton and the Ballinger JV Lady Bearcats 36-27 in Ballinger Nov. 15.

In the Fort Stockton game, the Lady Lions put pressure on the Prowlers as they scored 17 points and held the Prowlers to four points.

"We jumped ahead of them early, because of our press," said Lady Lion JV coach Rodney Johnson. "Overall, it was a good game for us, because everybody got lots of playing time."

Ozona decided to pick up the pace in the second period adding 22 points, while holding the Prowlers to six for a 39-10 halftime lead.

In the second half, Ozona slowed it down a little making the game a little more interesting by scoring a total of 20 points to the Prowlers 11 points for a 59-21 victory.

Donika Martinez led the Ladies in scoring with 15 points. She was succeeded by Ammie Avila and Diana Ellison with 8 each, Kayla Turland and Angela Branch scored six each, Stephanie Castro and Araceli Tijerina made four each, Kristen Shurley and Traci Screws scored three each, and Maria Quiroz made two points. Also playing a good game was Stephanie Franco.

The Ballinger game was more exciting as the Lady Lions had a lull and the Bearcats fought back, but so did the Lady Lions for a 36-27 win.

"We had a good first half and a good defense," said JV Lady Lion coach Rodney Johnson.

The Ladies played hard in the first half as they worked to get most of their shots in. They put the pressure on the Lady Bearcats for a 12-2 first quarter. Both teams slowed a little in the second, but Ozona still out scored the Bearcats 9-5 for a 21-7 halftime lead.

In the last half, Ozona hit a little lull scoring only seven points to the Bearcats eight points in the third period for a 28-15 lead. The lull continued into the fourth quarter as the Bearcats made a desperate try with Beimer scoring six points for a come back. Ozona fought back scoring eight more points to the Bearcats 12 points to maintain a 36-27 win.

"In the second half, we got a little tired and missed a lot of easy shots inside, but played good enough defense to win the game," said Coach Johnson.

Ammie Avila led the Ladies in scoring with 10 points. Teammates following her in scoring were Diana Ellison 9, Donika Martinez 8, Angela Branch 4, Kayla Turland 3, and Stephanie Franco scored two points. Also playing a good game included Kristen Shurley, Traci Screws, Araceli Tijerina, Maria Quiroz, and Stephanie Castro.

Panthers Overpower Lions In Season Opener

By Neal Ulmer,
Stockman Sportswriter

The Ozona Lions were overpowered by a larger Fort Stockton Panther team, losing their season opener 75-46 in last Friday's basketball game in Fort Stockton. Energized, the Lions came out strong in the first half, but faltered in the third period as the stronger Panthers took over.

"I was real impressed with these guys, especially in the first half," said Ozona boys' varsity coach Ronnie Casey. "I didn't know what to expect, and they did not know about playing together."

Both squads came out in the first quarter scoring little but even with the Panthers taking a 3-point lead at 10-7. The pace quickened in the second period with both teams scoring 18 points and the Panthers maintaining a 28-25 halftime lead.

In the third quarter, the Lions went cold, scoring only two points to the Panthers' 20, giving them a huge 51-28 third quarter lead.

"We played good defense, and the third quarter was the key to the ball game as we missed a lot of shots and scored two points to their 22 - they were hot," said Coach Casey.

In the final period, the Lions heated up the rim, scoring 19 points, but the Panthers added 23 points to get a 75-46 win.

The Lions finished the fourth quarter shooting better. Coach Casey was satisfied with their ending despite the loss. "Then, we got our heads straight and had a good fourth quarter. I told the guys we are ahead this year as compared to this time last year."

"These are some of the things we need to work on and do," Coach Casey pointed out. "1 block out, 2 make free throws, 3 to handle and fight pressure, and 4 to be able to run our offense. This is a new group of varsity kids, and they have to learn to play together. Again, it is a good group and all are talented. Our strength is our quickness and good knowledge of the game. Those are two good strengths to have."

Leading the Lions in scoring was freshman Bobby Cervantez with 12 points. He was followed closely by Justin Browne with 10, Jon Sanchez scored seven, Anthony Ortiz made five, Jason Stuart and Lando Penafarfo scored four each, Peter Rodriguez made two, and Eric Ramos and Steven Martinez made one point each. Others playing included Codie Porras, Brian Badillo and Michael Nicks.

Lady Lions Take Bite Out Of Lady Bearcats

By Neal Ulmer,
Stockman Sportswriter

Two state-ranked ladies' basketball teams came together last Friday night in Ballinger with only one coming out victorious. The Ozona Lady Lions, ranked number one in Class 2A by the Texas Basketball Magazine defeated the District 6-3A Ballinger Lady Bearcats 41-35, who are ranked twelfth. The Ladies record is now 2-0 and the Lady Bearcats are 1-1.

"Offensively, we were very inconsistent and out of sync, as well," said Ozona High girls' head basketball coach Dickie Faught. "We did not execute our offense very well."

The Lady Lions started out very cold, while the Lady Bearcats (23-5 last year) started out a little warmer getting the first three points of the game.

A comeback was in store for the Ladies as they scored 11 points to the Bearcats' nine points to lead at the end of the first quarter.

They both picked up the pace in the second quarter with the Lady Bearcats, who returned seven lettermen including three starters, scored 13 more points. The Ladies added 10 to trail Ballinger by one at 22-21 at the half.

Both teams faltered some in the third as the Ladies could only muster four points and Ballinger nine points with the Lady Lions trailing 31-25.

"We came out really cold in the third quarter and didn't shoot well," said Coach Faught.

The final period was definitely an interesting and exciting one, as the Lady Lions finally took command late in the quarter. Ozona scored 16 points with high pointer Shelly Sullivan scoring nine of her total 17 points to lead all scorers.

Nine Lady Bearcat cheerleaders could not give their team or fans enough spirit to overcome that support given by Ozona's bench and fans to win the game. Ozona's defense held Amy Hays and her Lady Bearcat teammates to only four points for a 41-35 win.

"In the fourth quarter, we pressed them, but we didn't earlier because of illness. They (Ozona) did a great job on the press and keyed a 16-4 run in the fourth," said Coach Faught.

"They had a girl (Teresa Cabrera 3-3 pointers) hit some three pointers, we didn't expect. They shut us down some but so did we. Basically, it came down to us pressing them and getting some points in the fourth quarter."

Sullivan led the Ladies in scoring with 17 points. She was followed by Amber Tarr with 14, Stormi Sessom 4, and Leslie Avila and Amber McWilliams with one three-pointer each. Others playing included Julie Perez, Amy Laughlin, and Autumn McWilliams. Adding support from the sidelines were Megan Tambunga, Lauren Wilkins, and Juli Hall.

Granddaughter Of Ozonans Part Of Just Say No Rally

Emily Sanchez of Del Rio, granddaughter of Jesus C. Sanchez and Felix Trujillo of Ozona, participated in the Del Rio "Just Say No To Drugs" rally held last month. The rally was in conjunction with Red Ribbon Week on Oct. 27 in front of Plaza Del Sol Mall. Emily is a member of the 1996 Lobos' pep squad and drill team. The girls competed against three other drill teams in the dance competition of the rally and were awarded first place for their routine.

The girls have been very active this year, not only during the Pee-Wee football season, but also around the community. They have performed for the Del Rio Nursing Home, the Mental Health and Retardation Center, the Fermin Calderon PTO group and at the Brown Plaza for the 1996 September 16 festivities. They will perform at the Del Rio Civic Center Nov. 24 for the "Gift of Sharing" Thanksgiving dinner provided free of charge to the public. The girls will also be marching in the Del Rio Christmas parade.

Emily's achievement awards for the year include: best jumper, best dancer, star performer, most improved projection and best spirit. Team sponsor is Connie Sanchez.

Ms. Hargraves told the court, "I want a commitment from you like I did from the (care center) board that we're going to do whatever it takes to do it right." She also handed around the results of a state inspection outlining deficiencies and complaints regarding abuse and sanitation at the facility.

Commissioners voted to follow through on action under the litter abatement act for three properties and approved applying for reimbursement for costs of removing underground fuel tanks owned by the county.

Reports were heard from Garland Young for the civic and youth center, Eddie Moore for the road and parks department and Janet Hill McDaniel for Helping Hands. A written report was received from the fire department.

Healthy Lifestyles Can Help Prevent Chronic Disease In Children

Parents, do you know what your children are eating? Helping children learn to eat healthfully and be physically active can prevent or postpone such chronic diseases as diabetes, heart disease and cancer.

Parents can help children establish healthy eating habits by offering a variety of foods, according to the American Dietetic Association. Parents and caregivers who also eat healthy are the best role models for their children.

Meal planning and preparation, along with food shopping, provide ways to help children learn good ideas about eating healthy. The U.S. Department of Agriculture's Food Guide Pyramid is a great example parents and children can use together to build healthful eating habits. Even very young children can learn to identify foods from each of the food guide pyramid's five major groups and understand why these foods are important for their bodies to grow and develop.

The food guide pyramid includes the following food groups - bread, which includes cereal, rice and pastas; milk, including yogurt and cheese; meat, which also includes poultry, fish, dry beans, eggs and nuts; fruits and vegetables.

Grain products provide carbohydrates, vitamins, iron and fiber. Children need from six to 11 servings from the bread, cereal, rice and pasta group each day for energy to grow, learn, develop and perform physical activity.

That may sound like a lot of food, but actually, it's very easy to get six servings. For example, a child might eat a serving of cereal at breakfast (most of us will eat more than one serving at a time - check your cereal label for a serving size), a slice of toast, a sandwich at lunch, and perhaps some crackers for a snack. Dinner might include pasta or rice. That's six servings without even trying.

The vegetable and fruit group provides carbohydrates, vitamins A and C, and folic acid for healthy eyes, skin and blood, as well as being good sources of fiber. For good health, enjoy two to four servings of fruits and three to five servings of vegetables each day.

The milk, yogurt and cheese group provides protein, calcium and Vitamin D for strong bones and teeth. Children need two to three servings of this group each day.

Foods from the meat, poultry, fish, dry beans, eggs and nuts group give children protein for muscle formation and iron for red blood cells. Two to three servings from this group are recommended each day.

In using the food guide pyramid, it is important to emphasize a healthful eating style. Foods that provide mostly fat and calories - with few other nutrients - should be used only occasionally. That includes fats and sweets - things like chips, candy and soft drinks.

Healthy preparation methods - limiting fried foods, for example - are important to good eating.

A foundation of healthful eating patterns relies on building the diet with nutritious food choices. As a parent, you are the one who helps your child learn those choices.

For more information about feeding children, the food guide pyramid, or dietary guidelines, contact myself or Myra Tambunga, our Better Living for Texans nutrition program assistant, by calling 392-2721 or coming by our office, located next to the Fair Park Convention Center at Ave. AA.

Educational programs and information provided by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or disability.

Annual Boys' Ranch Hunt

Seven young hunters from West Texas Boys' Ranch bagged five bucks and three does during the annual outing at Perry Ranch Nov. 8-10. Sponsored by the Texas Game Wardens' Association, the hunt provides as much fun for the guides as for the hunters.

Youths participating were: Jamie Bishop, Joe Snow, Hank Danials, Adam Bert, James Landess, Travis Haddock and John Landess. Adults accompanying them from WTBR were: Jay Jones, Justin Weishuhn and Jay Black.

Ozona guides James Montgomery, Dee Keilers, Jerry Perry, Jerry Byrne, Tommy Miller, David Tijerina and Bob Harris were joined by Allen Haire of San Angelo, Jason Montgomery of Leander and Dude Speed of Midland.

The work of volunteer cooks and the donors who provide food and paper goods for the weekend also help make the outing possible. Heading up the kitchen detail as always was Harvey Hill. Adding their expertise in the kitchen were: Fred Garcia, Meme Garcia, Clay Garcia, Herdie Garcia, Lisa Benson, Virginia Gotcher, James and Gloria Williams.

Beth Gravell donated the pies and cakes, and other donors were: Shane Fenton, Lyndon English, Penn Baggett, John Watkins, Cherry Fielder, Mari Longoria and Donna Bell.

BOYS RANCHERS killed five bucks and three does during their annual hunt sponsored by Texas Game Wardens' Association on the Gene Perry Ranch near Ozona.
