Last Tuesday night was a special night for both the Lady Lions and the name was called last, and the roof of fans, but especially for the much loved Miss Bobbie Bryson. She returned home at last--to her home court, team- to the court by teammates, coaches, mates and the people of Ozona--as the Ozona fans (and even a few from Lady Lions faced the Reagan County Bronte and elsewhere) and Reagan Owls in their season opener.

Just like in the movies, Bobbie's Davidson Gym lifted at least six inches due to the ovation given on her return County players and fans. The Lady Bryson joined her teammates in Owls presented flowers and gifts to

Prior to the game, the United States flag was presented by fourth grader Kristen Bunger as the Star Spangled Banner was given a spine tingling rendition by Ozona JV cheerleader Cacy Savala. Then both teams took to the court, with center Amber Tarr getting the tip to Bobbie Bryson. Another roof-lifting cheer went up in documentation, French said. Meeting Addresses Care Center Questions

By Eddy Hall

Snow and sleet didn't discourage the 30 plus people who attended a care center information meeting Sunday afternoon. Family of residents and other interested people listened to David French of Austin describe the Center, which came under state management last week. With French were interim director of nurses Ms. Wesley Hill of San Antonio and Ms. the board, commissioners and state Crystal Hargraves of Sterling City. Ms. Hargraves has been hired by the care center board as administrator and will begin her duties here Dec. 1.

French comes to Ozona as a trustee through an agreed order signed by State District Judge Joseph H. Hart Nov. 19. According to information from the Texas Department of Human Services in Austin, Hart signed the order based on information provided by TDHS nursing home inspectors who conducted a complaint investigation. The care center board agreed to the trustee and is cooperating with the department.

Ms. Hill and French work together with long-term care facilities where there are problems. French had good of the kitchen and food, and of the cleanliness of the entire facility. The kitchen here would be the envy of many nursing homes in the state according to French. Under the court order, French has full authority to manage the facility. He will remain here until it is determined that the facility has the management capability to operate in compliance with the licensing and certification standards for nursing homes. French said he does not expect to be here long. Ms. Hill will remain to assist M: . Hargraves during the transition period.

Possible Suicide Investigated

Crockett County Nov. 20 is still under investigation, but preliminary findings indicate suicide says Chief Deputy Alton Davis.

Court-Appointed Trustee To Oversee Care Center

AUSTIN— Late Tuesday, Nov. 19, State District Judge Joseph H. Hart signed an agreed order placing a trustee in the Crockett County Care after being notified, the physician Center in Ozona.

Judge Hart signed the order based Department of Human Services (DHS) nursing home inspectors who conducted a complaint investigation and found conditions in the facility constituted an immediate jeopardy to the health and safety of residents.

The trustee, David French, has full authority to manage the facility in order to eliminate any threat to the residents' health and safety. He will remain until such time as it has been determined the facility has the management capability to operate in compliance with the licensing and certification standards for nursing homes.

The Crockett County Care Center management agreed to the trustee and has been cooperating with the department.

Evidence of sub-standard care documented by the DHS investigators included:

*In instances involving eight residents, the facility failed to provide needed treatment and services to prevent the development and worsening of pressure sores.

*The facility failed to notify residents' families and physicians of significant changes in their health status, resulting in residents receiving inadequate treatment and services;

One resident was transported 80 miles for a surgeon's evaluation of pressure sores without notification to the family.

of a resident experiencing chest pain, coughing and weakness was informed of the resident's condition for 12 days; diagnosed pneumonia.

D.A.R.E. Program Educates Fifth Graders

Deputy Dan Griffith of the Crockett County Sheriff's Department spends two days of his own time each week working with children in Ozona Intermediate School. Griffith is teaching the D.A.R.E. program, which stands for Drug Abuse Resistance Education, to 75 youngsters.

Griffith says the program, in its first year in Ozona schools, provides a positive alternative to drug use and violence. The officer is certified to teach the program in grades kindergarten through six, and he has to recertify each year.

Each student will be expected to write a brief essay about what they have learned through D.A.R.E. when the program ends, Griffith said. The youngsters will be recognized for their participation at the end of the course.

DEPUTY DAN GRIFFITH (rt.) accepts a check for the D.A.R.E. program from Alan Anthony, administrative supervisor of Union Pacific Rephoto by Scotty Moore sources.

PUBLIC NOTICE CROCKETT COUNTY TEXAS COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Crockett County has recently completed Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs Program activities under its 1994/1995 TCDP Contract #714030-715030. and 715025 Urgent Need. One public hearing will be held to allow citizens an opportunity to comment on the completed project activities, amount of funds spent and the amount of funds spent on activities that benefited low/moderate income persons. Specific information on the ICDP programs will be available.

AUSTIN — State Comptroller John Sharp last week said the Legislature would need about $1.6 billion more to pay for public education in the 1998-99 biennium.

A few days earlier, Gov. George W. Bush, citing figures provided by House Appropriations Chairman Rob Junell, D-San Angelo, said the amount needed would be about $1.2 billion.

According to a report in the Austin American-Statesman, Sharp, Education Commissioner Mike Moses, a Bush appointee, and other state officials, said $1.2 billion is not enough to meet a court order to maintain financial equity among school districts and construct school buildings.

Those costs are between $354 million and $400 million - the difference between Sharp's estimate and the House Appropriations Committee's estimate — which did not account for court ordered funding equalization, the report said.

Sharp said he intends to release, within the next three weeks, a list of budget cuts and savings equal to the $1 billion Bush said should be rebated to local property taxpayers.

Bush's tax relief plan is tied to money left over from the 1996-97 budget and projections of a healthy economy.

Meanwhile, last week, Lt. Gov. Bob Bullock forwarded a draft of his plan to Bush. The plan would lower taxes paid by homeowners, raise the homestead exemption and replace the resulting lost revenue with an increase in the state sales tax.

Education Fund Cost Increase

Texas Tomorrow Fund contracts went up about 16 percent this year, Comptroller Sharp said in announcing a new enrollment period last week.

The fund lets parents pay future college tuition and fees at today's prices, but contracts increase in cost as tuition and fees at state schools increase.

Evidence of tuition inflation: A contract purchased now for a newborn's four-year education costs $9,652.98 if paid in a lump sum. Last year, the same contract cost $8,320.80

Water Issues Heating Up

Texas' rapidly growing population, long droughts and overwatering may result in some changed state laws in coming months.

"Nothing is more critical to the state's future than water, said Mike Hailey, a spokesman for Lt. Gov. Bullock.

Bullock's office, along with Gov. Bush, Speaker Pete Laney's office and the Texas Natural Resource Conservation Commission are considering legislation to monitor and protect surface and underground water.

The right of landowners to pump water from beneath their lands and also to capture water from rivers are big issues.

Some officials say it is time to start developing a comprehensive drought plan for the state. Texas, the Dallas Morning News reported, is one of only three Western states without such guidelines.

Food Stamp Cutoff Notices Texas has begun notifying certain food stamp recipients that they will be cut off if they don't find employment within three months. The 1996 federal welfare law cuts off food stamp benefits to able bodied childless adults under age 50 who don't work at least 20 hours a week.

Nearly 80,000 Texans who fall in that category receive food stamps totaling $9.6 million a month. Eighty-eight percent of them do not claim any earned income.

Texas Workforce Commission figures show that Texas counties on the border with Mexico, where unemployment rates are more than 10 percent, will be among the hardest-hit by the food stamp cutoffs.

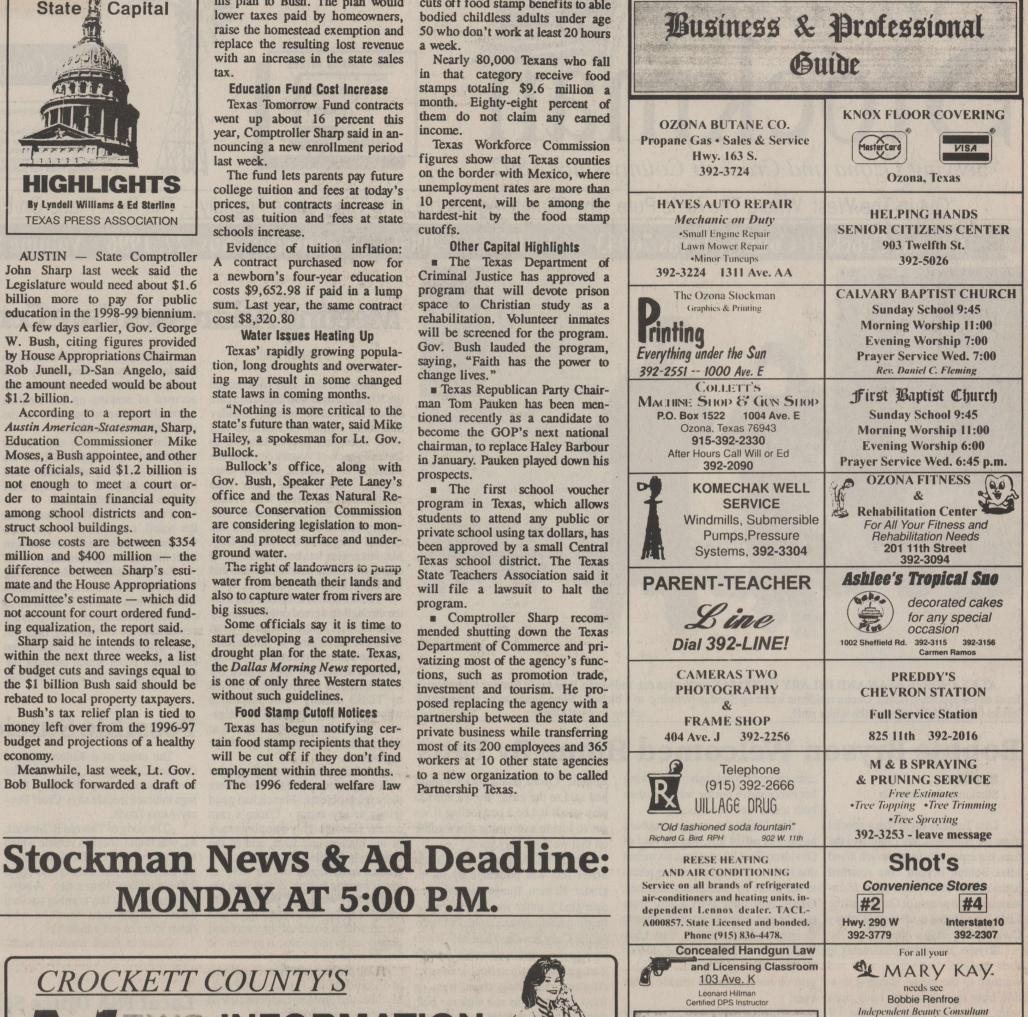

Other Capital Highlights

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice has approved a program that will devote prison space to Christian study as a rehabilitation. Volunteer inmates will be screened for the program. Gov. Bush lauded the program, saying, "Faith has the power to change lives."

Texas Republican Party Chairman Tom Pauken has been mentioned recently as a candidate to become the GOP's next national chairman, to replace Haley Barbour in January. Pauken played down his prospects.

The first school voucher program in Texas, which allows students to attend any public or private school using tax dollars, has been approved by a small Central Texas school district. The Texas State Teachers Association said it will file a lawsuit to halt the program.

 Comptroller Sharp recommended shutting down the Texas Department of Commerce and privatizing most of the agency's functions, such as promotion trade, investment and tourism. He proposed replacing the agency with a partnership between the state and private business while transferring most of its 200 employees and 365 workers at 10 other state agencies to a new organization to be called Partnership Texas.

The recommendations by the American Diabetes Association and the American Dietetic Association include:

•Looser rules that move away from a specific diabetes diet to a more individualized meal plan with reduced fat content and increased complex carbohydrates.

•Sugar is no longer a bad thing if eaten within the content of a normal diet. Sucrose, as well as other sugar sources such as fructose or honey, should be less than 10 percent of total carbohydrate calories. Studies proved that sucrose had no more effect on increasing blood glucose levels than did fructose. So both fructose and sucrose are allowed in reasonable amounts.

•Monounsaturated fatty acids such as olive, peanut or canola oils have been shown to control blood sugar levels better than the fat recommended by the conventional diabetes diet, while still lowering insulin and triglyceride levels.

a big pot and it's recommended to cook it outdoors. Just when you thought deep fat frying had disappeared in favor of more healthful cooking means, cooks in Texas, Louisiana and other parts of the South are rediscovering the virtues of the cooking technique. Extension poultry specialist Dr. Sarah Birkhold says frying in a kettle gives turkey a unique taste and texture and it reduces cooking time. An oven-baked bird averages four to five hours. Deep frying a 17pound bird, for instance, takes less than an hour. Use peanut oil to reduce smoking and start your bird once the oil reaches 350 degrees or a continuous boil. dog. Now before you laugh, hear me out. We picked up a hungry stray puppy that had been put out on the highway, and we noticed his eating habits. He guards his dinner bowl with such a ferocious way that all the other animals know to stay way clear of it. I somehow can't help but notice that he seems to remember those hungry dogs. He's just a mutt, but he sure seems thankful to have a home and a dinner bowl. He never seems to stray far from that bowl. In contrast we have a pedigreed dog that we raised from a puppy. This one has never known a hungry day, sleeps in the house and seems to approach the blessings that it gets as if they are a right and not a privilege. My friend, Thanksgiving was instituted by folks who know hunger and lack and unjust laws. Please don't forget, that what we have in America is a privilege and not a right. Although I don't recommend it, it's easy to appreciate a good meal when you've missed a few.

When it comes to changing people, all sorts of methods are used. For the most part, for most people, lack of education and poor environment are the main culprits in fostering undesirable character. How do we affect change? To change people for the better we exclaim, "Educate them! Change their surroundings!"

Will changing a person's environment really change how that person thinks or feels? Can a new home and a new set of clothes really change someone on the inside? Do the clothes make the man or woman? Well, you say, education can do that. Will putting a person in a classroom change the person's character? Cramming that individual's heart! The character of a person involves who that person is. It involves his or her soul. It includes all the emotions in his or her heart. You can't change the nature of a person's heart only through better education or only by altering facts into a person's head can't change the environment. It takes supernatural power to really change the human heart. This is what God promises. He says, "I will give you a new heart" (Ezekiel 36:26).

Do you need a new and better life? Moving to a new community or more education are not permanent solutions. You need radical heart surgery performed by God. You need to ask God for a new heart.

Becky and Giles Madray of Houston are here this week visiting her mother, Donna Beth Davidson, and other family members.

Airman Basic Eli Hernandez III, a 1996 graduate of OHS, is here for a few days visiting his parents, Elieser and Herlinda Hernandez. Airman Hernandez has been assigned to Goodfellow AFB in San Angelo in communications.

Adolfo Alvarez of Pecos, a friend of ours, and Justice of the Peace Adelita Smalling of Sonora went on a fishing trip with 35 others out of Port Aransas. About 30 miles out they started to fish. It started raining, and the rough seas (a hurricane was brewing) got rougher.

All of the other fishermen had caught their quota but for our friend Adolf. He was determined to catch something.

Everyone else was inside where it was dry when Adolf finally got a bite - a "big" bite. He saw a large head pop out of the water, and all the crew were yelling 'sailfish!' "

It took a lot of slipping and sliding for Adolph to stay on his feet while this fish was leaping and twirling in the rough weather. By now, the whole group of fishermen was cheering him on. He finally was able to reel the fish in close enough to get it in the boat.

The captain said, "Are you going to mount it to the tune of $500 or I'm cutting it loose."

The captain told Adolph he was one out of 50,000 people to catch kind of fish on this type of fishing trip. They were using dead bait to catch red snapper, etc., where normally a sailfish would not bite, but all of the rough water must have made it look like live

He decided to keep the sailfish, and the crowd cheered.

Adolph may not have come home with any fish to eat, but he did have bragging rights to catch a 6'8", 95 pound sailfish on a 50 pound test line.

Was it luck or perseverance? I you?

1997. Winners will be announced in late April 1997 with presentations of awards in early May. All high school students are eligible to compete, regardless or whether or not their school currently participates in the NEFE high school financial planning program. Entry kit request forms must be postmarked on or before Jan. 10, 1997. Further information on the program is available from Granovsky, telephone (409) 845-3850, by contacting the NEFE high school department, (303) 220-4847, or by contacting NEFE high school program director Elizabeth Shiever by email at eas@nefe.org.

The high school program was launched by NEFE's College for Financial Planning in 1984. Since then, the U.S. Department of Agriculture Cooperative State Research, Education and Extension Service, working through the nation's land grant university system county offices, has joined as a partner in offering the program.

Today, more than 700,000 students from 7,500 of the nation's high schools have learned money management through this course.

The Ozona Lady Lions shined brightly last Tuesday evening as they received their teammate, Bobbie Bryson, back into the fold and defeated the Reagan County Lady Owls 52-38 in their home opener in Davidson Gymnasium. With their first home win opener, the Ladies improved their record to 4-0.

"It was Bobbie's night," said Ozona's coach Dickie Faught. "We got off to a slow start due to all the hoopla, which is understandable. We knew we might not have played well because it was a special night for her."

The Ladies had a little trouble there at the first, but after getting a few kinks out, they got down to business. Midway into the first quarter, the Ladies pulled ahead with senior Shelly

"We had an off game tonight, and Big Lake had a lot to do with it - the pressure hurt us," said Ozona Lion coach Ronnie Casey after the game. "Everyone is entitled to a bad game, and I'm glad we are having it now and using it for a learning experience."

Ozona got off to a very rough start, scoring only nine points to the Owls' 22 points. It is possible that the hoopla of Bobbie Bryson coming back and the girls' game left the Lions a little fuzzy-headed.

The Lions got back on track in the next two quarters. They added 12 more points to their score in the second period, but the Owls maintained their pace as well, scoring 16 points to lead at the half 38-21.

This administration has a strange obsession with Bosnia. The problem is that this obsession is not backed by sound policy. Matter of fact, it isn't backed by any policy at all.

I have written several times in the past year warning about our role in Bosnia and the potential for American casualties. I don't attack the President's role as architect of U.S. foreign policy, but the Texans I talk to are just trying to figure out what the policy is. And in this case, what is the mission our young soldiers are supposed to accomplish?

The administration is scrambling to find a reason for the latest broken promise. One report said out troops are staying because the "simple reason is that war is likely to break out again in the country if Americans leave." So what does that mean? Will American troops have to stay forever?

The fact is that our military is designed to fight and win wars. It cannot settle age-old hatreds between rival clans, religious or ethnic groups. It cannot make people like each other. Putting them in the line of fire Some Sales Taxes May Be Filed By Phone Otitis media or inflammation of this is often not easy or realistic. the middle ear is the chief reason parents take children to the doctor," said Dr. Ellen Friedman, head of pediatric otorhinolaryngology at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston. "And winter is the peak season for these visits, although otitis media can occur at any time."

Middle ear infections strike more than 80 percent of children by age 3 at an annual cost of more than $1 billion, according to the National Center for Health Statistics. Children ages 6 months to 3 years are especially at risk.

Friedman suggest parents watch for early indicators of this painful and potentially dangerous infection.

"At the first sign of fever, fussiness, nausea, or vomiting, or any combination of these, parents should suspect middle ear infection," she said.

Middle ear infections occur when bacteria invades the middle ear causing inflammation. This results in a painful buildup of infected fluid behind the eardrum due to blockage of the eustachian tube leading from the sinuses to the middle ear.

Hinojos Returns From Persian Gulf

win W. Hinojos, son of Marcario D. Hinojos Sr. of Ozona, has returned from a six-month deployment to the Persian Gulf aboard the guided missile cruiser USS Shiloh.

Hinojos was one of 400 sailors departing the ship's home port of San Diego in May for the journey to the western Pacific and Indian Oceans. Hinojos' ship was part of the USS Carl Vinson Battle Group, which included nine tactical aircraft squadrons, and eight submarine and surface combat-Hinojos' ship is one of the most powerful warships ever put to sea. The computer-based AEGIS weapons system is the heart of the ship's warfighting capability. It centers around a powerful radar that enables the crew to detect, track and fire on more than one hundred targets at a time.

In September, Hinojos participated in Operation Desert Strike, a retaliatory cruise missile strike in response to Iraqi involvement in the Kurdish civil war. The ship launched six Tomahawk land-attack missiles against military targets in southern Iraq. In addition to Operation Desert

Thanksgiving At Grandma's

At Grandma's house, happy voices are heard as cars arrive, and park at it's curb. In the crisp Autumn air, with its cold wintry breeze The big tree in the yard, is losing its leaves. Inside the old house, children, noises do make. As they run and play, the house seems to shake They rush in and out, and slam the front door, and leave tracks in leaves on the living room floor

Grandma, in the kitchen, is still in her robe, as she rushes around from cabinet to stove. The turkey and dressing is delectably finesmells throughout the house are truly sublime. Pies and cakes are cooked and ready to eat, to satisfy everyone's taste for sweets.

Aunt Sue tends to vegetables and Mary makes tea. The tables soon loaded with food-certainly it's stretched full length and extra seats are brought in to make the seating complete. "Come and eat," Grandma says, "while the rolls are hot." "Oh, now," you say, "the children are not all here. In the bathroom is Roy and now I believe Tommy's outside still up in the tree."

But soon chairs around the table are filled, and all are there for the holiday meal. Grandpa gives thanks, in his special way, before they eat, for this wonderful day. Grandma's quite proud of folks who are herenow, down her face, slides one tiny tear. But she knows that soon will come the time when loved ones must leave-some disarray will remain where children have played.

Outside, leaves must die, when they fall to the ground yet, inside Grandma's house love can always be found. The dear lady could rest when all kin are gone, but she will stay busy, as time goes along. Her folks look to the future, each in his own way, and, to grandma's they'll go on Thanksgiving Day.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING DAY Eleanor Lucile Bohannon

Friends of the Library are sponsoring a Christmas tour of homes Sunday, Dec. 15, from two until five o'clock in the afternoon. Among the five homes on the tour is the Perner home located at 103 Ave. H.

The historic "Perner Home" is owned by Fred and Jan Van Shoubrouek and was Jan's childhood home during her kindergarten through high school years. Ralph Jones, Jan's father, purchased the home in 1944, leaving it to his wife, Mary Lee Jones, upon his death in 1972.

Mrs. Jones' sister, Mrs. Bonnie Warth, resided in and maintained the home until 1994 where upon Jan undertook repainting and refurnishing the home as a labor of love.

The origin of the home started in the nearby town of Emerald as a three room frame house and was moved to its present site in 1893, over 103 years ago.

The home was purchased and enlarged in 1894 by Phillip Perner (1864-1942), and their 11 children of the tour.

lived in the home until her death. The home was recorded as a Texas History Land Mark in 1975 by Mary Lee Jones. The present home consists of three bedrooms, a large living room, dining room, a sun porch, and a breakfast room. In the breakfast room there is a trap door leading to a dirt floor cellar under the kitchen.

On the left as you enter the front door is the bedroom where Mrs. Perner bore several of her children and where she passed away.

The front door is the original door installed by Mr. Perner before the turn of the century. This home brings back fond memories for many Crockett County residents.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

Thank you Commissioner Frank Tambunga. I've tried for four years to get the lot cleaned off between A Street at A-A and 12th Street. Everyone that I have talked to said they would check into it, and I never heard any more from them or about it.

Every kind of animal and varmint has been in my yard or under the house. Also, it was a fire hazard. For safety reasons it needed to be cleaned off.

Thank you again Commissioner for getting it done and keeping me informed. I never at any time felt that you sweeped me under the rug, like everyone else had.

Thank you again, and I do appreciate you. If you run for county commissioner again you will receive my vote.

Card of Thanks

To those of you who called, came by, or prayed for me during my recent hospital stay I want you to know how very grateful and thankful I am to you. The people in this small town have some of the biggest hearts I believe I've ever seen. I want to personally thank Dr. Sims, my mom & dad, Clair McDaniel, Johnny Perkins, Rick Byrd, and the whole congregation at the Church of Christ. You'll never now how much it means to me to have the friends and family I have here in Ozona. Once again, thank you for my life and THANK GOD !!
