Circle Bar Racing Captures Third At Ft. Worth

By Scotty Moore

Tom Mitchell's Circle Bar Racing Ford F-150 pickup crossed the finish line in third place Fort Worth's new Texas Motor Speedway June 7. Driving for Tom was Rick Crawford of Mobile, AL, who remains in second place, out of 20 drivers, in the Cintas Rookie-of-the-year point standing. "That's what we were running this year was for the Rookie-of-the-year standing," said Mitchell. Circle Bar Motel and RV Park became the primary sponsor of Rick Crawford's racing program in 1992 when Circle Bar owner Tom Mitchell wanted to sponsor Crawford's NASCAR Slim Jim All Pro Ford. Prior to his association with Crawford, Mitchell was involved in Indy Car Racing and the NASCAR Winston Cup series.

Mitchell's Ford Truck F-150 is a full size Ford weighing 3,400 lbs. Its engine is a 355 CID production based V-8 with a compression ratio of 9.5:1. The engine develops 650 bhp and tops out at over 150 mph.

"Rick and I started racing together in 1992. Last year was a real tough year for us. It was real stiff competition. We lead it all year, but had a couple of bad finishes and ended up in third place," said Mitchell.

Crawford started his career in 1981 when he was winner of the Alabama State Championship. He was Track Champion of the Mobile Speedway in Mobile, AL, and Track Champion at Five Flags Speedway in Pensacola, FL. He won the World Championship title race at Jackson Speedway in Jackson, MS. Since this time, in 1994, he won the NASCAR All Pro race at Summerville, SC, and in 1995 he won the NASCAR All Pro race at Martinsville, VA. He set new track records at Milwaukee, WI, and Greenville, SC.

Rick Crawford

At the end of each race they have a technical inspection that NASCAR performs on the top three finishers. They tear the engine down and inspect it to make sure the engine met factory specs and hadn't been tampered with.

The Texas Motor Speedway, sometimes called the mini-Indy track, is a high-dollar race track and is one of only three tracks around the country that have lights. "When you race in the middle of the day you have all the shadows on the track, and it really tears up the drivers. It's better racing at night because you don't have any shadows on the track. The cars run better when it's cool plus you have more people come out to the track when it's cooler at night," said Mitchell.

Mitchell's Ford pickup will run next in Crystal, TN, with about 20 more races to run this year. All of these races are televised.

Longoria Named To All-District Baseball

By Neal Ulmer
Stockman Sportswriter

Ozona High School junior Ramon Longoria was selected to first team of the District 8-2A Baseball Team. He was chosen as a utility player; that is, he played more than one field position. Ramon was used as a pitcher, catcher and third baseman. He was the only Lion team member chosen to the first team. Last year, Longoria was chosen as the most valuable player of District 5-2A.

There were four Ozona players chosen to the all-district second team. Those selected were: senior infielder Jon Sanchez, junior infielder Jamie Ramos, sophomore infielder Anthony Ortiz and junior outfielder Brian Badillo. Last year, Sanchez and Ramos were chosen to the first team in District 5-2A. This is the second year that Badillo was chosen to the second team.

Receiving honorable mention from Ozona were junior John Ortiz and freshman Kenny Vargas. This is the second time Ortiz has been chosen honorable mention.

The Lions ended their season with an 8-8 overall record and 3-5 in district play.

The Coahoma Bulldogs not only won the district but went on to the state semifinals. They lost to the Alto Yellowjackets 5-2 on June 6 in Austin. The Bulldogs finished the season 21-8 and had a district record of 8-0. They placed seven players on the all-district first team including the most valuable player, senior pitcher Mike McMillan. Their other two players were selected honorable mention.

Completing the district standings with their records are: 2 Wall 6-2, 3 Ozona 3-5, 4 Eldorado 2-6 and 5 Winters 1-7.

Winkley Lauded For Outstanding Performance

Glenda Winkley, a teacher at Ozona Primary School, has been cited for outstanding performance in reading education announces The Institute for Academic Excellence.

Mrs. Winkley is the third Ozona teacher this spring to be awarded the Reading Renaissance Model Classroom certification by the Madison, WI, based Institute. Model Classroom certification indicates that Mrs. Winkley's efforts to adopt Reading Renaissance methods have resulted in measurable increases in student reading performance.

Institute President Barry Mirkin said that "Glenda exemplifies the kind of commitment to the success of every student that is at the heart of effective teaching."

Teachers must demonstrate that their students receive a minimum of 60 minutes of reading practice time daily to receive Reading Renaissance Model Classroom certification. Additionally, teachers must be actively working with individual students to meet Institute-recommended standards for reading achievement.

Mrs. Winkley will receive a grant of $150 for this achievement in addition to national recognition. Ozona Primary School will receive discounts on educational software and staff development opportunities as a result

Care Center Board Meets

Dr. Marcus Sims told care center board members last week that during May there were 778 patients at the health clinic. Of these, 574 were seen by Dr. Sims, 99 by physician's assistant Phil Coley, 98 by the lab and 43 by a nurse. A total of $47,214.00 was charged out by the clinic.

Ambulance coordinator Doug Meador reported five local runs and 10 transfers by the service during May. One of the ambulances used a quart of oil on the last transfer, Meador said. He has been advised by Judge Jeffrey Sutton to budget for another ambulance. Meador said they will look at a Type II van ambulance to be used exclusively for transfers. Cost estimate is $50,000.

Repairs to the kitchen grease trap have been made, and Shannon has agreed to pay all costs for repairs to the clinic floor. Additional repair at the care center included replacing an air conditioner with a new 5 ton roof unit. The machine was purchased from Gideons Sheet and Metal for $5,447.

Board members discussed and approved leasing Dr. Sims' old waiting room to a local optician for her office. The board was to ask the commissioners to set the price.

Head of dietary, Sue Denney, will be leaving the care center June 30. Lupe Galvan will begin working for the care center June 23. Cooks' wages are to be changed to a 75 cent differential for cooking instead of a $6.65 hourly set wage.

The board approved offering a food service supervisory course to a few of the women in the kitchen. The course will cost around $400 each and will be done by correspondence with the assistance of the current dietician.

The care center staff is currently planning fund raisers for the purchase of new furniture. A car wash and a basketball tournament are being planned.

Number of residents for the center during May was 44.

Court Approves Talamantez Settlement

Commissioners voted in an emergency called meeting Tuesday morning to approve the release and compromise settlement of all claims in the Talamantez litigation. This action comes after recent mediation of claims against the county made by the family of the late Santiago Talamantez, who was a resident of Crockett County Care Center.

The county is to pay $75,000 to the Talamantez claimants and their attorneys while at the same time not admitting "any liability to any party to this agreement or anyone else by signing of this release but rather expressly deny any and all such liability."

In a notice of claim sent to Crockett County, it was alleged that Santiago Talamantez's death was due to acts or omissions of Crockett County. The Talamantez claimants claim that Crockett County wrongfully caused Santiago Talamantez's death by 1) failing to provide residents with accurate assessment of skin conditions, 2) failure to provide treatment as ordered by the attending physician, 3) failure to provide aggressive nursing care and prevention and treatment of pressure sores, 4) failure to provide pain control for Santiago Talamantez's condition, 5) failure to incorporate Hospice care for Santiago Talamantez, 6) failure to provide Santiago Talamantez with medical attention in a timely manner, 7) failure to notify Santiago Talamantez's son and physicians of significant changes in his condition, 8) failure to provide proper care and treatment for skin conditions, 9) failure to properly train, instruct, and supervise its employees in prevention of skin breakdown, 10) failure to provide a plan of care to meet the needs of Santiago Talamantez, 11) failure to keep the family and physician of Santiago Talamantez informed of change in his medical condition, 12) failure to add sufficient staff or personnel available to care for Santiago Talamantez, and 13) failure to follow the accepted standards of medical care and treatment.

The Talamantez claimants and the county entered into the release and compromise settlement of all claims voluntarily and with the advice of counsel. As part of the agreement, the Talamantez claimants "release, acquit and forever discharge Crockett County... from any and all causes of action, claims, disputes, damages, rights and complaints" in the future for acts or omissions occurring prior to the execution of the release.

State Capital

HIGHLIGHTS
By Lyndell Williams & Ed Sterling
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Three days after the 75th Texas Legislature ended its 140-day session on June 2, Lt. Gov. Bob Bullock called a press conference to announce that he will not seek a third term.

The 67-year-old Bullock, who was elected lieutenant governor in 1990, said it was time to "set aside public life and focus more on my family and friends."

"On and off for 40 years, I've had the honor to walk the halls of this magnificent building in partnership with the people of Texas.

"I've done so while serving as a House member from my hometown of Hillsboro, as an assistant attorney general, a governor's aide, as secretary of state and as comptroller of public accounts."

Bullock said he wanted no going-away parties, no banquets, no awards, no plaques, or speeches on his behalf.

"In January of 1999, I will leave this office. I do so with a heart-full of memories that will last the rest of my life," Bullock told the standing-room-only crowd.

Race for Governor Begins

Meanwhile, electioneering for the 1998 gubernatorial race began even before Bullock's surprise announcement.

One day after lawmakers departed Austin, Democrats questioned the effectiveness of Gov. George W. Bush, who made property tax reform his top goal for the Legislature.

"Texans would prefer a governor who's effective," said Democratic Party Chairman Bill White. "He started too late on tax reform and failed to deliver the votes."

Despite the Legislature's failure to substantially reduce the school tax burden on homeowners, Bush indicated he is not ready to quit the governor's mansion. "We've delivered the largest tax cut in the state's history ... you ought to assume I'm going to run (for reelection)," he told reporters.

If voters approve a constitutional amendment on the Aug. 9 ballot, the average homeowner can expect a $140 break by increasing the homestead exemption from $5,000 to $15,000.

Sharp, Mauro Eyeing Race

Comptroller John Sharp, a Democrat, who may have gubernatorial aspirations, said Bush's proposed business-activity tax would have taxed the income of limited partnerships and was nothing more than a personal income tax.

"If any Democrat had proposed this to the Legislature, they would have been run out of town inside 12 hours," Sharp said, adding that lawmakers did Bush a favor when they failed to agree on a tax reform plan.

Countering, Gov. Bush's spokeswoman, Karen Hughes, said Sharp had advocated a similar tax six years ago. And, she defended Bush's pre-session pledge not to raise taxes. She said it was "absolutely absurd" to portray the partnership tax as an income tax.

Meanwhile Land Commissioner Garry Mauro has hired a pollster and plans to travel the state, asking Texans "what they want in their next governor."

Water Bill is Approved

Both the Senate and House approved a massive water bill (Senate Bill 1), which requires a statewide drought plan and addresses environmental protection and population growth.

The legislation was Lt. Gov. Bullock's top priority for the session. "Our future depends on this bill. Texans can now stand united on a subject that has long divided us," he said.

The bill will provide more than $1 billion for upgrading standard drinking water systems. It will protect freshwater flows into bays and estuaries and it creates obstacles for transfers of water from one basin to another. The measure will appear as a constitutional amendment on the Nov. 4 ballot.

Cities, water districts and other local governments will have to work together to create and manage a water-conserving drought plan due September 2000.

'Gangsta' Investment Ban Revived

Texas could become the first state to prohibit agencies from investing in companies that produce or distribute "gangsta rap" music under a measure Gov. Bush will sign into law.

After a House committee threw it out, Sen. Bill Ratliff, R-Mount Pleasant, revived the measure by attaching it as a rider to the 800-page state budget bill. Ratliff, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, said he wanted to stop public money from going to companies he said poison the minds of children and teen-agers.

According to a report in the Austin American-Statesman, the rider prohibits the use of state money to invest in or buy securities of a business that owns 10 percent or more of a company that records or produces any song, lyrics or other musical work that explicitly describes, glamorizes or advocates:

- Acts of criminal violence, including murder, assault, assault on police officers, sexual assault and robbery;
- Necrophilia, bestiality, pedophilia;
- Illegal use of drugs;
- Criminal street gang activity;
- Degradation of women; and
- Violence against sex, race, ethnic group, sexual orientation or religion.

Crockett County Cook-of-the-Week

Tina Moran, Cook-of-the-Week
Someone's In The Kitchen

The old saying, "when you need something done, ask a busy person," certainly applies to Cook of the Week Tina Moran. The day Tina agreed to do this interview, she was cooking multiple cakes and pies to take to the Hunter Education Camp and also preparing for a Baptist ladies' weekend retreat in the country.

Tina has shared some of the favorite recipes of her family. When Tina and Joe Moran married, he was a single parent with four children, Joey, who was killed in a rig accident in 1979, Marilyn, Marcia and Jon. And Tina couldn't cook.

A woman from Mexico was living in the home to care for the children, and it was from her that Tina learned her early cooking skills. Arising at 4 a.m. was the norm, but Tina was accustomed to this because she had lived on a ranch. "I would sit in the kitchen and watch everything she did," Tina remembers. "I learned a lot of authentic Mexican cooking from her."

Joey was also a big help, Tina remembers, guiding her to the family's food likes and dislikes.

Tina grinds her own spices with a molcajete, a stone mortar and pestle, and even keeps one in the travel trailer for use with garlic and cumino.

Joe and Tina increased their family with two more sons, Jason and Justin, and large meals were required. A favorite birthday dinner at the Moran household was lasagne "which I found went a long way" with green salad, garlic bread or garlic toast. When she made cherry cheesecakes for dessert, Tina prepared three so there would be enough. This is still a meal Tina prepares when the family can all be together.

Mostly a scratch cook, Tina says one of the kids' favorite things is watching her roll and cook flour tortillas so they can have a fresh hot one with butter. One of the boys even makes flour tortillas for his friends in Colorado.

After 10 years of working with the youth hunter education camp, Tina had to step down from the demanding activity there, but she still helps by baking for the bunch since the passing of the official baker for the event, Granny Gravell. Tina also coordinates the 4-H Field and Stream program, helps with 4-H sewing and is a teacher's aide for first graders at Ozona Primary. "I love that I get to spend all that time with children because I don't have any at home and I miss my kids," she said. Tina and Joe do have eight grandchildren, however.

TINA'S LASAGNE

10 uncooked lasagne noodles
1 lb. extra lean ground beef
1 c. chopped onions
1 pkg. spaghetti sauce mix (any brand)
1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce
1 c. water
1 c. cottage cheese
4 oz. shredded longhorn cheese
4 oz. shredded mozzarella cheese
Cook lasagne noodles as directed on package. Drain, rinse with hot water. Set aside. Heat oven to 350. In large skillet, brown ground beef and onions, drain well. Stir in seasoning mix, tomato sauce, and water. Simmer 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. In ungreased 13"x9" dish, spread 1/4 meat mixture. Top with 1/2 cooked noodles, 1/2 meat mixture and dot with 1/2 cottage cheese. Repeat layers. Finish with mozzarella and longhorn cheese. Bake at 350 degrees for 35 to 40 minutes or until hot and bubbly. Let stand 10 minutes before serving. Serves 8.

CREAMY CHEESECAKE

1- 1/4 c. Graham cracker crumbs
1/4 c. sugar
1/2 c. margarine, melted
1- 8 oz. pkg. cream cheese, softened
1- 14 oz. Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk
1- 21 oz. can Comstock Cherry Pie Filling
Combine crumbs, sugar, and margarine; press into a 9-inch pie plate or springform pan. In large mixer bowl, beat cheese until fluffy, beat in sweetened condensed milk until smooth. Pour into prepared pan. Top with cherry pie filling. Chill before serving. Refrigerate leftovers.

TINA'S FLOUR TORTILLAS

4 c. flour
1 tsp. baking powder
1 T salt
3/4 c. shortening
1- 1/4 c. warm water
Mix flour, baking powder and salt with your hands in a medium mixing bowl. Cut shortening in until it feels gritty. Slowly add water while mixing with your hands. Form a ball adding water if dough is too stiff or flour is too sticky. Knead dough for several minutes until it is smooth. Let rest for about 15 minutes covered with a cup towel. Shape into golfball size pieces and roll into thin circles. Cook on an ungreased cast iron griddle. Cook lightly on first side and turn to other side and completely cook, then turn to first side and finish cooking that side. Stack in a container that has been lined with a cup towel and keep covered until you have finished rolling out all the tortillas. Leftovers can be refrigerated and reheated later.

"Believe it or not, there is a right side and a back side to tortillas" says Tina. "The side you cook first is the back side. My Mom used to tell me she hated making tortillas because she couldn't ever remember to keep her tortillas facing in the right direction. It seems to older Mexican women it was very important that those tortillas all should be facing up."

"Since butter-flavored Crisco appeared, we have tried using it and have found that we prefer it to plain Crisco. For those watching their diets: Yield: 20 to 24 tortillas. Calories: 95; Carbohydrates: 17 g; Fat: 2 g; Protein: 2 g."

You Can Rest Assured

By Linda Mae Casey

At two in the morning the ringing phone won't be good news.

You'll find the hairbrush in the exact place you left it, as soon as you remember where that was.

Getting your children raised will probably lead to babysitting with your grandchildren.

The day your lawnmower breaks down, all your neighbors will mow their yards.

The night your in-laws come to dinner, you'll burn the rice.

If you want to eat, you will sooner or later have to pay taxes.

If you give your child a second chance after she gets in trouble, she will most likely do it again.

The only night your child will bring home tons of homework will be the night you are having company for dinner.

When things go wrong with anything, your husband will probably blame you.

If you say something about your mother-in-law, your child will repeat it to her.

Fowler-Harder Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Fowler of Ozona announce the engagement of their daughter, Misty Marie, to Jason Leigh Harder of Vernon, British Columbia in Canada.

The bride elect is a 1991 graduate of Ozona High School. She is a senior kinesiology major at Angelo State University.

The prospective bridegroom is a graduate of North Central Michigan College. He is a registered respiratory therapist, technical coordinator at Shannon Hospital.

Wedding vows will be exchanged July 12 at 1:00 in the afternoon at Southgate Church of Christ in San Angelo.

Summer Blood Drive Scheduled In Ozona

Xi Sigma Omega will host a blood drive Thursday, June 19 from noon until 6:00 p.m. at the civic center.

United Blood Services of San Angelo will conduct the drive. As the blood provider for approximately 20 hospitals across West Texas, UBS San Angelo must collect nearly 400 units every week to supply patients in need.

According to UBS representatives, June has already been an extremely difficult month for blood collection because regular, consistent mobiles are bringing in fewer donors than usual.

"People get busy in the summer," said Angie Tyson, UBS Community Relations Representative. "They have so much going on, it's hard to make the time to donate blood. But the need for blood goes on and on no matter what season it is."

Blood donors are asked to bring identification, such as a UBS donor card or driver's license. Donors are also asked to know the name of any medication they are taking.

Appointments are available by contacting Martha Weant at 392-3460 or 392-3491. Anyone with questions about donating blood can contact UBS at (915) 653-1308.

Revival

By Rev. Mike Davis
Harvest Time
Christian Center

We are living in a time when I am convinced that revival is beginning to spread through the land. I believe that revival is a step in the right direction to find a cure for the sin sick world that we live in today.

The following is a prescription that will bring a revival to any church or community or any city on earth.

First, let a few Christians get thoroughly right with God themselves. This is the prime essential. If this is not done, the rest that I am to say will come to nothing.

Second, let them bind themselves together in a prayer group to pray for a revival until God opens the heavens and comes down.

Third, let them put themselves at the disposal of God for Him to use as He sees fit in winning others to Christ. That is all!

This is sure to bring a revival to any church or community. This prescription has been given around the world. It has been taken by many churches and many communities, and in no instance has it ever failed; and it cannot fail!

Melissa Ayne Harris and David Camuel Hendricks Jr. were married Saturday, May 24, 1997, in Merkel. The marriage was officiated at six o'clock in the evening by Rev. Brad Reeves at the First United Methodist Church. The ceremony was written by the bride's late grandfather and was used at her parents' ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Robert Leo and Connie Harris of Merkel. The bridegroom is the son of D. C. and Wanda Hendricks of Merkel.

Special music for the service included "The Lord's Prayer" when the mothers were seated, "Keeper of the Stars" by soloist Kelly Russell, cousin of the bride, and organist Mary Cary during the lighting of the unity candle.

The sanctuary was decorated with two white candelabras accented with white and pink bows and an arched candelabra with pink roses, white carnations and pink bows. English ivy twined around each.

Mr. Harris gave his daughter in marriage. She selected a white taffeta off-the-shoulder gown with scalloped neckline and fitted lace bodice embroidered with seed pearls and sequins. A bow in the back enhanced the chapel-length train and lace, sequins and pearls edged the full skirt and train.

Her English hat was embellished with pearls and sequins on the band and brim. Fingertip gathered tulle accented the hat. The bridal bouquet was of fresh stargazers and pink roses with fern.

Attending the bride were maid of honor Teresa Lucas, a cousin, of Merkel and flowergirls Chera and Chelsea Chaney of Merkel. Bridesmaids were childhood friends D'Ann Edmondz of Edinburg and Mandy Pack of Roscoe.

They wore fitted tea-length dresses of dusty rose with rounded necklines with V-backs. Each carried a bouquet of fresh flowers enhanced with stargazers.

Flowergirls also wore T-length white satin dresses with dusty rose collars and sashes. They carried baskets of white and pink roses.

David Pheister, a childhood friend of the bridegroom, was best man. Groomsmen were Kris "Bo" Harris, brother of the bride of College Station, and Mark McCarthy, uncle of the bride, from Livingston.

Ring bearers Tyler and Ryn Lucas of Hamlin are cousins of the bride. They carried white satin heart-shaped pillows made by the bride's grandmother. Kristin McCarthy of La Porte, also a cousin of the bride, served as candlelighter, and Cam Hendricks of Merkel, son of the bridegroom, was usher.

The bridegroom was attired in a black full-dress tuxedo with white vest. The father of the bride and other men in the wedding party wore black tuxedos with white vests trimmed in black.

First Baptist Church Fellowship Hall was the location for the wedding reception. Tables covered in white cloths were decorated with English ivy and pink and white candles. A buffet-style meal was served.

The bride's four-tiered, stair-stacked white cake was accented with English ivy, stargazers and pink roses. The chocolate bridegroom's cake was decorated with chocolate covered strawberries. Miniature gold golf clubs were placed around the sides of the cake. A fountain held punch for the reception.

Following a wedding trip to Sweetwater Lake and Ruidoso, NM, the couple is at home in Ozona.

The bride is a graduate of Merkel High School and TSTC in Abilene. An EMT-II, she is employed at South Texas Lumber Company. The bridegroom is also a graduate of Merkel High School. He is employed by Paterson Drilling.

REHEARSAL DINNER

The rehearsal dinner was held at Pug and Leo's Family Restaurant owned by the bride's aunt and uncle. A meal of barbecue, smoked ham, beans, potato salad, iced tea and banana pudding was served amidst Coca-Cola decorations. The dinner was hosted by the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks.

Arron Garza Captures Fourth Place In Junior Golf Tourney

Arron Garza, son of Lisa and Freddy Garza, returned from Austin Friday where he competed in the second Annual Trans-American Junior Golf Tournament which lasted three days. There were 350 youngsters signed up for the tournament, 32 of which were in the 11-12-year-old group with Arron. Arron was placed in the championship flight alongside 20 other young golfers in that age group.

Arron placed fourth in the champinship flight. He shot scores of 41 on Tuesday, 37 on Wednesday and a final round of 39 on Thursday for a total three-day score of 117. The winning score in his age group was a three-day total of 111. Arron received his fourth place plaque at the awards presentation at the Jimmy Clay Golf Course in Austin.

Arron also came in fourth last year at this same tournament, but in the 9-10 year-old age group.

Preparing Children For Summer Camp

Going to summer camp for the first time is a big step for children.

"Rather than just deciding it's time, parents ought to look for signals that a child is ready," said Dr. Lou Ann Todd Mock, a clinical psychologist at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston. "One of the first things to consider is that past behavior is the best predictor of future behavior."

Past successes with overnight stays and weekend campouts are two good clues that a child can manage camp.

"Even if they got a little sad or homesick, the fact they were able to comfort themselves and stay overnight is good," she said.

For children who have difficulty staying overnight with friends or relatives, Mock suggests day camps to help build confidence in being away from home.

"Age is not the determining factor, it's the developmental level," she said.

Temperament also plays a role in camp success.

"Two-week camps can be overwhelming and miserable for children who do not fit easily into groups," Mock said. "For those children, shorter camps provide a good opportunity to learn how to mix well."

The right type makes a difference as well. Camps that help a child develop skills in an area of interest, such as horseback riding, sports, science or nature, are more likely to be a hit.

However, picking the right camp, and one that is well qualified, requires homework.

"Parents need to feel comfortable about how a camp is managed," she said. "Ask for the names of parents whose children have attended, and talk to them."

An advance visit also can make both parent and child more relaxed.

Once the choice is made, Mock recommends that parents involve their child in the preparations. Having a child help with the choosing, labeling and packing helps build independence.

Parents should talk about homesickness and explain that it is perfectly normal to miss the family, house and pets.

"Taking a family picture along can help alleviate homesickness and is a reminder of that connection with home," she said. "Consider tucking a note in your child's bag saying you hope he's having a great time."

Summer camp can be a changing experience that makes a child feel independent and grown up.

"A good summer camp can provide experiences and learning opportunities that last though a lifetime," Mock said.

Sally Griffis on PBS Memorial Day Program

Former Ozonan Sally Baggett Griffis was part of a PBS National Memorial Day Concert program last month.

Her husband, Cpt. William A. Griffis III of San Angelo who was killed in Vietnam in 1970, was honored during the concert.

More than 25 years after his death on Jan. 24, 1970, Sally Griffis began work on a doctoral thesis with a focus on the effects of the Vietnam war on widows.

During the course of her work, Mrs. Griffis received a grant to travel to Vietnam to interview native widows. She also visited the spot where her husband was killed.

Texas Consumers Prefer Red Geraniums

COLLEGE STATION - Geraniums are red, violets are blue. And the price had better be right, too, according to a recent study on consumer preferences in geraniums.

Consumers in Texas, Delaware, Alabama, North Carolina and Kentucky were asked to rank color, leaf variegation and price as considerations for buying geraniums, said Dr. Charles Hall, Texas A&M agricultural economist.

Color and leaf variegation were the most important purchasing factors for all five markets studied, while price was the least important.

Texans wanted red geraniums with dark green leaves. They least preferred blue geraniums which are not on the market yet, but consumers in the Northeast and southeast loved them.

Future Lady Lions Attend Lady Raider Camp

By Neal Ulmer
Stockman Sportswriter

Seven young Ozona girls improved on their basketball skills after attending the Texas Tech Lady Raiders' Basketball Camp held June 1-5 in Lubbock. Several awards were brought home by the young ladies.

The first workout began Sunday, June 1, at 6 p.m., and the girls finished at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, June 5, with a demonstration for parents. During this camp, the girls worked on fundamentals of defense and offense and ball handling skills.

Instructors for the camp were the Texas Tech Lady Raiders' basketball coaches, high school coaches, and Lady Raider players, including two that many Ozonans are familiar with - Melinda Schumucker from Nazareth and Detra Johnson from New Deal.

Attending the camp from Ozona were: Gage Crawford, Lyndsie Crawford, Jenna Henderson, Hilary Huffman, Laura Pierce, Jessica Herring and Amy Ivey. These girls were among approximately 350 girls attending this session of the camp.

Three Ozona girls garnered awards at the end of camp. In the Young Gun division, Gage Crawford was awarded the Most Improved Overall Player, and Hilary Huffman received the Most Improved Defensive Player Award. In the Red Division, Jessica Herring was awarded the Best Dribbler.

Laura, Hilary and Jenna also stayed for the Shooters' Camp, which was June 6-8. Julie Hall also attended this camp and was in the Black Division. During this session, the girls worked in small groups learning shooting techniques.

The Ozona girls returned home Sunday night very tired. They reported having a great time and learning a lot about basketball.

With these young ladies working hard to improve their basketball skills, the future looks extremely bright for Lady Lion basketball.

Court Hears Air Quality Expert

Concerned with what he believes is an unusually high number of cancer cases in the community, Judge Jeffrey Sutton became interested in exploring the possible relation between the disease and air quality. In pursuit of information, Sutton invited George Lipinski of Austin, a chemical engineer and air quality expert, to speak to commissioners court Monday. Lipinski and Sutton had met for talks in Austin, and the engineer had also come to Crockett County for a tour some time earlier.

Lipinski talked about how hydrogen sulfide becomes sulfuric acid when released into the air and said that 10 parts per million in an air sample is considered low. Railroad Commission research reveals that in some of the old fields, there is as much as 21,000 parts per million, he said. Lipinski did say that H<sub>2</sub>S is not a carcinogen.

He offered a proposal to the court, which will be considered in the budget process, to make an assessment of H<sub>2</sub>S in Crockett County by collecting information from several sources, preparing a map with inventory and taking 75 air samples for assessment. If resulting reports reveal high numbers, "I think we've got reason to continue to look at it," Lipinski said. Two continuous monitors could be brought to the county if the figures were high.

Sutton believes the tests should be made for "the health and welfare of the people of Crockett County". This would not be an instant cure all but would provide data that could be tabulated and used, said Sutton, who will check into the medical aspect.

"The last thing I would want to do is hurt an oil company, because they're what we need to survive, but all we want them to do is comply," said Sutton of the chemical emissions.

Commissioners asked for a joint meeting next week with the care center board after being told by John Stokes, auditor, that the facility is $273,660 over budget now. Stokes said the care center deficit, which is caused primarily by salaries and some costs which were previously assigned to the hospital, could be up to $532,660 by year's end.

During a report by Crystal Hargraves, care center administrator, commissioners were told that a previously repaired air conditioner atop the building had gone out several times and was being replaced at a cost of $5,447.

Ms. Hargraves also said a workman's comp audit refund for $4,715 had been received from Rural County Hospitals due to Ladyne Mahannah's efforts in following up and collecting.

Deteriorating county roads and their repair during a year with an increased tax base was a topic during the report by Eddie Moore, roads and parks superintendent. With more than 200 miles of paved roads out in the county, there are roads which haven't been sealcoated in 18 years, Moore said. Roads with a good base needs to be sealcoated approximately every 10 years, he said.

Sealcoating consists of releveling in spots, working the edges of roads, spraying grass so it won't come back, buying and applying asphalt and aggregate rock. Asphalt is presently about 65 cents per gallon with 6,000 gallons used per mile in a 22 foot layout, Moore said.

Judge Sutton asked commissioners to take a look at their roads with Moore before the budget process begins.

The possibility of providing uniforms for road and parks department personnel was discussed. Moore is to obtain costs of the uniforms if employees paid half the cost.

Court members voted to place an employee at the recycling center Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Having someone on the premises will help guide persons using the center toward sorting as they dump, commissioners hope. The center will still be open on Saturday and Sunday.

Commissioners also discussed the possibility of buying their own rolloff containers and carrying some of the waste to a landfill at a nearby town. Judge Sutton is to explore this possibility further.

During Moore's report, commissioners voted to advertise for bids for two previously budgeted pickups for the road and parks department.

Commissioner Fred Deaton asked that the seized vehicle compound at the road department be moved to the back of the lot. He believes the concertina wire around the top of the fenced area looks bad to passersby and those who vote at the road department. Commissioners voted to have the vehicles moved to the back of the area.

In the absence of Sheriff Shane Fenton, Steve Kenley reported that the fire siren will be blown when the weather bureau forecasts a tornado or

Ozonans Attend Energy Science Symposium

Outstanding high school students and teachers from West Texas Utilities Company service area attended the 37th Annual Texas Energy Science symposium at the University of Texas in Austin June 3-6.

Sponsored by WTU from Ozona High School were Mr. Frank Reavis, teacher, and Autumn McWilliams, student.

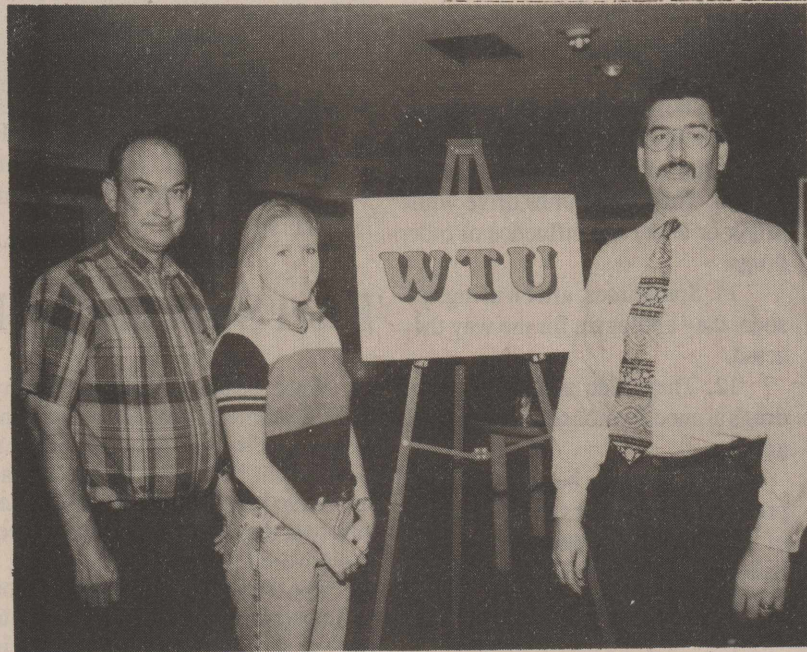

A total of 400 students and teachers throughout the state attended the four day event. Participants have the opportunity to tour some of the finest scientific facilities available and attend lectures and workshops by leading professionals in the scientific field.

The symposium is jointly sponsored by the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation and the University of Texas. West Texas Utilities

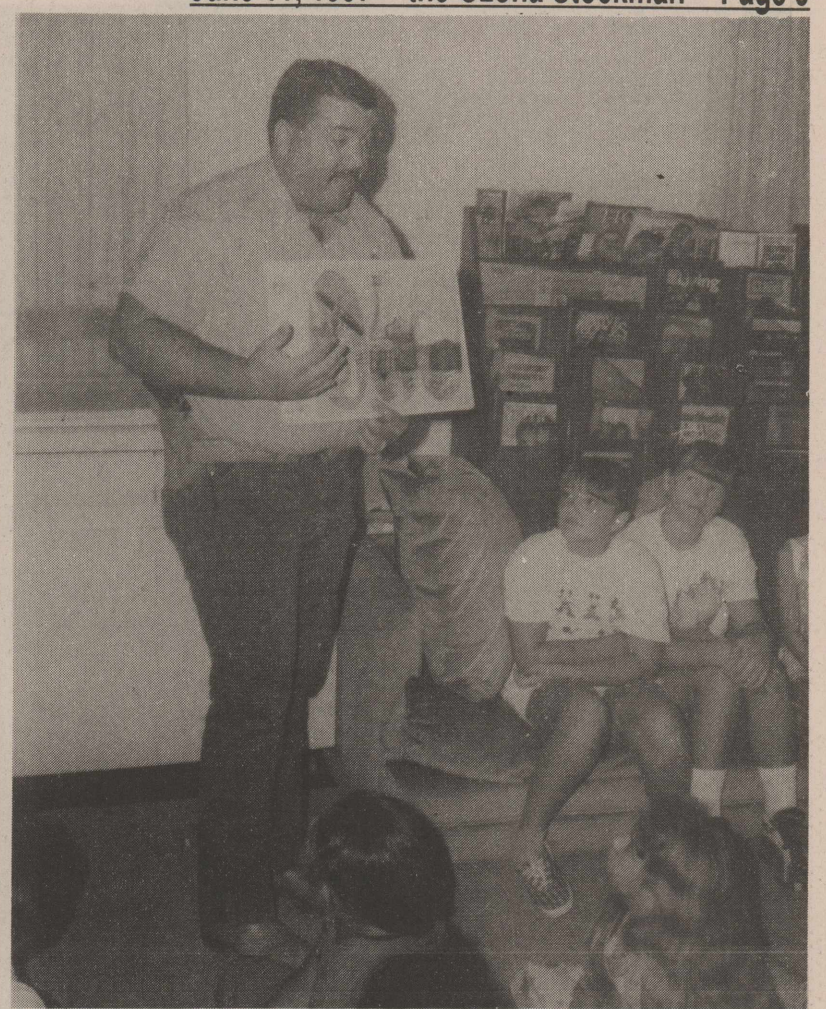

Company is one of the Foundation's sponsoring companies and paid for all expenses for the 30 students and teacher that attended from their service area.

The Foundation was founded for the primary purpose of conducting the world's first and largest privately financed research effort in the field of energy. The goal of the Foundation and WTU is not research alone, but also to broaden knowledge of energy science in Texas schools and to heighten awareness of the privileges that scientific discovery presents.

There are more than 1000 accredited senior high schools in the state of Texas, and West Texas can be proud of their schools for being chosen to send teachers and students to the symposium.

severe storm with large hail approaching Ozona.

Garland Young, director of the civic and youth center, told the court an attendance record had been broken again. In May there were 41 bookings attended by approximately 3200 people. He estimated 2500 kid visits to the teen center.

Librarian Louise Ledoux expressed hope that the library will receive the $50,000 grant from the State Library System needed to fund an expansion plan. "We're in the last pick," and have been asked to provide more information, she said.

The court voted to adopt a plan for the Senior Citizens' Building presented by Janet Hill McDaniel. The plan, which was drawn by Oscar Kost, appeared in the May 28 issue of The Ozona Stockman. Fund raisers will continue to obtain money for the building project.

Mrs. McDaniel reported that the Meals on Wheels program served 1215 meals in May.

A report from Fire Chief Bob Falkner showed two oil field fires during May with one each investigation, rescue/EMS, false alarm, grass fire and vehicle fire.

An oil and gas lease bid from UPR for 208 acres which includes streets in the Lima Addition, was approved by the court. The bid included a $75 per acre bonus and royalties of 20%. County attorney Bill Mason will meet with a company representative regarding lease terms.

After reviewing the county's retirement plan, commissioners asked that a representative of the actuarial firm meet with them. The county has several options which would eliminate a funding deficit on their part.

They could continue with employees contributing 7% and the county 8.1 which would cause benefits accrued after 1-1-98 to decrease 14%. The county could increase its contribution to 9%; or the county could increase its portion 8.5% which would reduce benefits accrued after 1-1-98 by 7%.

Purchase of equipment for the law library was approved by the court.

After discussing cleaning of lots and removal of junk cars, commissioners asked the county attorney to write a letter to be used for notifying property owners of the need for cleanup.

In other action, the court voted to execute an engagement letter with an independent auditing firm, Eckert, Ingram, Tinkler, Oliphant and Featherston.

Relieve The pressures Of Flying

You probably won't notice air pressure changes in jet cabins during flight unless you are suffering from a cold, the flu or bad allergies. Then the changing pressure can cause ear pain, especially on descent when the atmospheric pressure is increasing.

"If you do not suffer from heart problems, you can treat yourself by taking a decongestant that night before and the morning after your flight," says Dr. Bradley Marple, assistant professor of otorhinolaryngology at UT Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas. "Then squirt two puffs of an over-the-counter nasal spray of oxymetazoline hydrochloride in each nostril 30 minutes before getting on the plane. If it's a long flight, use the spray again 30 minutes before descent. But don't use it more than that."

If you couldn't take precautions and you feel pain during the flight, Marple says to use a nasal spray if you have it. Other advice: Chew gum or yawn. Pinch your nose and gently blow until your ears pop. Hold warm compresses to your face or the area that hurts.

"Usually there's no permanent danger," Marple says, "But the pain and temporary hearing loss can ruin your trip."

The Good With The Bad!!!

The timing of the recent rains were great, the landscapes were beginning to show some early signs of drying out. Even when we water, nothing is better than Mother Nature's Own.

Now, the bad...fire ants. Though it may appear that these critters fall from the sky with the rains, they, of course, don't. Many times they were already there and we just didn't see them. Some times they can be washed into low lying areas by the run-off. It really doesn't matter how or from where they came from, they're still here and nobody likes them. So let's get them back under control.

1. The two-step method: Use Logic or Amdro over the entire area. This does not have to be spread as evenly as fertilizer, being a bait, they will find it. Wait 'till after the second night before beginning step two. This will give the workers time to feed it to the queen, thus putting her out of commission. Next use Orthene, or any other quick kill formulation to kill the workers.

2. If the beds are in high traffic areas skip the first step and use the Orthene to quick kill each bed. This may need a follow up treatment every so often.

Food for thought. The rains may also create our age old problem of iron poor plants. Keep an eye on things.

Thanks, Ronnie Winkler

Is Your Diet Too High In Fat?

Many people are concerned about the amount of fat and cholesterol in their diet. Saturated fat and cholesterol have been linked with atherosclerosis, which is a major cause of heart disease. Persons with high blood cholesterol levels, or with a history of heart disease, may be advised by their doctor to reduce fat, saturated fat and cholesterol.

Some dietary fat is needed for good health. Fats supply energy and essential fatty acids and promote absorption of the fat-soluble vitamins A, D, E and K. More Americans are now eating less fat, saturated fat, and cholesterol down from about 40% of total calories to 34% of calories. The Dietary Guidelines for Americans recommends diets low in fat, saturated fat and cholesterol so that over time, total fat comprises no more than 30% of calories.

What are saturated fats, unsaturated fats and cholesterol?

Saturated fats are usually solid at room temperature, and occur in larger amounts in food from animal sources such as meat, poultry and dairy products. Unsaturated fats are usually liquid at room temperature, and are found in larger amounts in vegetable oils and fish. Cholesterol is a fatty substance found only in animal products. It is especially abundant in eggs and organ meats such as liver. This does not mean you can't eat a specific food you like. For example, eggs and liver contain cholesterol, but they also contain many essential vitamins and minerals. Most foods can be eaten in moderate amounts, provided your overall fat and cholesterol intakes aren't excessive.

Foods high in fat should be used sparingly.

Some foods and food groups in the Food Guide Pyramid are higher in fat than others. Fat and oils, and some types of desserts and snack foods that contain fat provide calories but few nutrients. Many foods in the milk group and in the meat and beans group (which includes eggs and nuts, as well as meat, poultry and fish) are also high in fat, as are some processed foods in the grain group. Choosing lower fat options among these foods allows you to eat the recommended servings from these groups and increase the amount and variety of grain products, fruits and vegetables in your diet without going over your calorie needs.

Remember, whether fat comes from plant or animal sources, it contains more than twice the number of calories of an equal amount of carbohydrate or protein. Choose a diet that provides no more than 30% of total calories from fat, however; this does not mean that every food you choose must contain only 30% calories from fat. A quick way to keep percent of calories from fat at or below 30% is to look for products that contain 3 grams or less of fat per 100 calories.

The upper limit on grams of fat in your diet will depend on the calories you need. Cutting back on fat can help you consume fewer calories. For example, at 2,000 calories per day, the suggested upper limit is about 600 calories. Sixty-five grams of fat contribute about 600 calories (65 grams of fat x 9 calories per gram = 585 calories (or about 600 calories when rounded off). On the Nutrition Facts Label, 65 grams of fat is the Daily Value for a 2,000-calorie intake.

Maximum Total Fat Intake At Different Calorie Levels
1,600 calories = 53 total fat grams
2,200 calories = 73 total fat grams
2,800 calories = 93 total fat grams

Olive and canola oils are particularly high in monounsaturated fats; most other vegetable oils, nuts and high-fat fish are good sources of polyunsaturated fats. Both kinds of unsaturated fats reduce blood cholesterol when they replace saturated fats in the diet.

Partially hydrogenated vegetable oils, such as those in many margarines and shortenings, contain a particular form of unsaturated fat known as trans-fatty acids that may raise blood cholesterol levels, although not as much as saturated fat.

The body makes the cholesterol it requires. In addition, cholesterol is obtained from food. Choosing foods with less cholesterol and saturated fat will help lower your blood cholesterol levels. The Nutrition Facts Label lists the Daily Value for cholesterol as 300 mg. You can keep your cholesterol intake at this level or lower by eating more grain products, vegetables and fruits, and by limiting intake of high cholesterol foods.

How Can I Tell If My Friend Has A Substance Abuse Problem?

Check out these behavior clues and decide which sounds true to you.

1. They use alcohol or other drugs more now than they used to.
2. They do things while they are using, and later they deny them or say they've forgotten them.
3. They refuse to talk about their using.
4. They make—and break promises to control or stop their alcohol or drug use.
5. They lie about their using.
6. Most of their friends are users.
7. They make excuses for their using or try to justify it.
8. Their behavior changes when they are using.
9. They avoid social functions where alcohol isn't served and other drugs aren't available or permitted.
10. They sometimes drive while drunk or under the influence of other drugs.
11. Sometimes, after a using episode, they apologize for the way they acted.
12. They hide alcohol or other drugs around the house or in the car or garage.

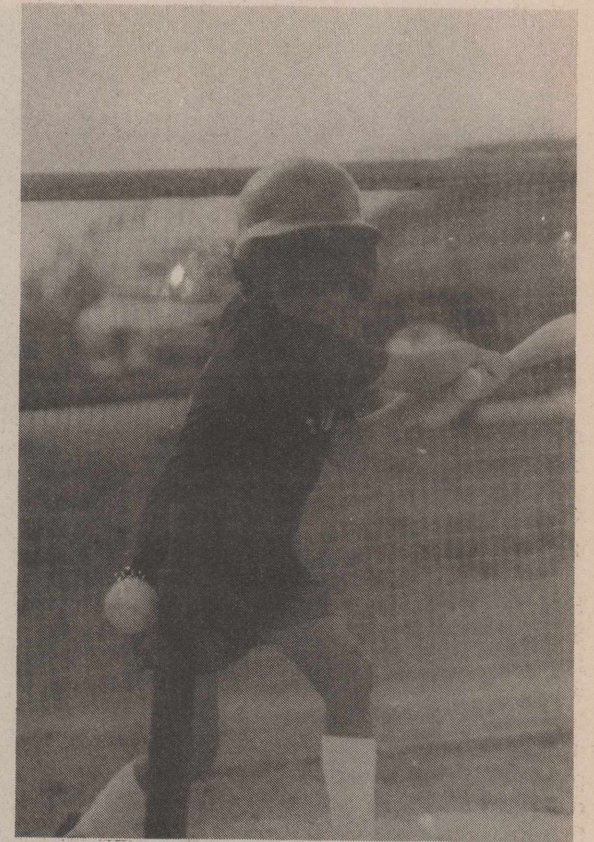

Your friends' behavior doesn't provide the only clues to the existence of a drinking problem. Your own behaviors and feelings can also be revealing. Read through the following and decide which sound familiar.

1. I'm afraid to be around them when they're using alcohol or other drugs.
2. I'm suspicious of their promises.
3. I feel anxious and tense around them.
4. I don't trust them.
5. I feel embarrassed when they're using.
6. I feel guilty when they're using.
7. I lie about them to other people.
8. I hate holidays because those are the times when they're almost certain to use.
9. I make excuses for them.
10. I'm afraid to ride in the car with them when they've been using.

If you feel like there is a problem there may be a problem! If you would like more information on resolving problems dealing with substance abuse please come by the Crockett County Courthouse Annex in Ozona. A representative of the Alcohol and Drug Abuse Council for the Concho Valley is at the Annex conference room (2nd floor) every Tuesday between 1:00 p.m. and 3:00 p.m. Please contact Johnny M. Day during these hours or call 1-800-880-9641 for an appointment. We address all levels of chemical dependency for persons who are medically indigent. Free screenings, evaluations, group presentations and referrals are available to anyone in the community. All contacts are strictly confidential.

Fuel Surcharge To Be Added To WTU Customer Bills

West Texas Utilities Company retail customers will see a slight increase in the total amount of their electric bills beginning last week. The surcharge is being added to customer bills over the next 12 months to collect unrecovered fuel costs and interest.

The Public Utility Commission of Texas approved WTU's request to recover approximately $13 million in unrecovered fuel costs and interest that are the result of unforeseen and significant increases in the cost of natural gas that have occurred over the last year throughout the country.

Implementation of the surcharge will result in a 1.6 percent increase in customers' bills over the 12-month period. Typical residential customers using 1000 kilowatt-hours of electricity a month would see their bills increase, on average, by approximately $1.22. The effect of the surcharges on customers' bills will vary depending on the rate schedule under which they take service.

Investor-owned electric utilities in Texas, like WTU, use fuel factors based on cost estimates to collect the projected cost of fuel used to generate electricity at their power plants.

When the actual costs of fuel significantly exceed the fuel charges that customers are paying in their monthly bills, PUCT rules require that the utility request permission to surcharge the additional amount. When the actual costs of fuel are significantly lower than what customers are paying in fuel charges, the electric utility is required to issue a refund.

Since this fixed fuel cost recovery mechanism was placed into effect in the late 1980s, WTU has refunded over $49 million in fuel cost reductions to its customers.

Unforeseen and significant increases in the cost of natural gas occurred over the last year throughout the country. The cost of natural gas was 38 percent higher during 1996 than it was in 1995. The increases were even more significant during colder months. For example, the actual cost of natural gas in December 1996 was 82 percent higher than the December 1995 cost.

Approximately 55 percent of WTU's annual generation of electricity is produced by power plants fueled by natural gas.

Crockett County 4-H'ers Enjoy State Roundup

By Tedra Ulmer
County Extension Agent
Family and Consumer Sciences

Scholarships, assemblies and motivational seminars were enjoyed by six Crockett County 4-H members last week as they attended Texas 4-H Roundup on the Texas A&M University Campus.

The week started with Texas 4-H Foundation Scholarship interviews on Sunday afternoon, June 1, for Amy Laughlin and Jason Hignight. They were accompanied by parents Charlotte Laughlin and Sara Hignight and myself. Over 300 4-H members applied for scholarships this year, and only 140 received interviews, so Crockett County was lucky to receive two interviews. After all, every scholarship penny is one you don't have to come up with yourself.

On Monday, registration and moving into the dorm were enjoyed in record humidity. Crockett County drew the "black bean" this year and had rooms on the fourth floor of both boys' and girls' dorms. Air conditioning doesn't begin to cut it when you've dragged a giant suitcase and several other bags all the way to the top.

Tuesday, pulses began to speed up as the scholarship assembly began. The rest of the Crockett County contingent arrived in time for the announcements - wool judging team members Leana Baggett, Mark Childress and Dustin Shaffer, plus method demonstration contestant Patricia Garza. The 4-H'ers were accompanied by wool judging coach Donnie Laughlin and County Agent Miles Dabovich.

Jason Hignight received his $1,000 Family Community Education Association scholarship plus a $2,000 scholarship from the Scarborough-Linberg Foundation. Amy Laughlin also received one of the $2,000 Scarborough-Linberg Foundation scholarships. The duo were quickly whisked away to their scholar banquet, and the rest of the group checked in to the dorms, enjoying their first supper in Sbis Hall and getting ready for the dance and district meeting. The day ended around 1 a.m. as we straggled off to bed.

On Wednesday, the wool judging team competed against 15 other teams and placed fifth. This was Amy Laughlin's last year to represent Crockett County on the team, and we are all very proud of her and will really miss her pizza parties at midnight. Another wild bowling tournament was held with the group, and we hear Miles' bowling efforts haven't improved much since last year.

While Mrs. Hignight met with a specialist about the state Rabbit Advisory Board, Pat and I attended the 4-H Spirit Rally, "Investment in Courage". A great motivational speaker, a trivia "game show" and yell practice from TAMU yell leaders were enjoyed by all. Mrs. Hignight and Pat had never been to the TAMU campus, so we attended the propaganda videos and did a little campus touring.

Crockett County was tremendously honored to have two adult leaders recognized at the "Salute to Excellence" banquet during Roundup. As the District VI honorees, Tina Moran and Sara Hignight were recognized along with leaders from the 12 other Extension districts, outstanding alumni, Friends of 4-H and the Volunteer Leaders' Association Meritorious Service Award. Mr. Joe Moran and I also attended. The leaders were honored with plaques for their service on the county, district and state level to the 4-H program.

While the wool judging guys went home on Wednesday evening, Amy and Leana stayed for one more dance. Jason enjoyed a second night of carrying a huge ice chest filled with ice and soft drinks from the parking lot to the district meeting site (that's what he gets for having his agent be one of the district coordinators). Patricia got down to serious business, practicing her demonstration until it was letter-perfect.

Unfortunately, the best-laid plans can go astray, and in a freak accident, one of Pat's main props - a tennis racquet - fell off the table during her demonstration. At the time, she was going great guns and was really on a roll. Gathering her composure, she carried on beautifully with her talk, but the flow was gone, and she ended up placing tenth out of fourteen entries.

However, for the first time doing a method demonstration at contest, we were pleased and knew that she could normally do much better than most of the people entered. For one thing, her mean old county agent wouldn't let her use note cards - unlike most of the competitors. However, she bounced back quickly and attended another Spirit Rally with her roommate, this time featuring a terrific hypnotist. Pat said, "I was on the edge of my seat through the whole show."

One bright spot on Thursday - we learned our junior photographers, Jenna Henderson and Jared Bird, did great in the State 4-H Photo Contest.

Jenna won two blue ribbons - one for her fish photo and one for a landscape. Jared received two white ribbons for photos of people. We are really proud of them - up against mostly older 4-H'ers, their photos really stood out, and they received some nice comments on their judging sheets.

Thursday night's assembly is always special - and this year was no exception. We thoroughly enjoyed seeing the Share the Fun acts and a special feature by State 4-H Council members to end the assembly. Another dance and a district meeting complete with a cake (bearing a "six" candle) ended the day.

One of the most rewarding experiences I had was seeing one of our newest county Extension agents at Roundup. Tamie Reager is doing a super job in Navarro County, and it's really fun to see her work with her 4-H members. Of course, revenge is also good, too. Hearing her complain about kids staying up all night and making noise was absolutely one of the high points of this year's roundup, and a memory I will treasure forever. Yes, what you do as a teenager does come back to haunt you.

On Friday morning, it's always a scramble to get loaded, gather up room keys, meal cards and dorm access cards. This year was no exception, but we got checked out, had the traditional breakfast at the I-Hop and a short stop at a bookstore for T-shirts before hitting the road home around 10 a.m. In Fredericksburg, we stopped for lunch - and ended up taking a "bath" when the skies finally opened up with pouring rain. Guess what, folks? It felt great - and we felt "drier" than we had all week. We can't tell you how great it was to cross the Crockett County line and see home coming into view.

Miles and I are fortunate to have such wonderful 4-H members and leaders to work with. Each young person gave 110 percent during their contest, and we are pleased that Amy and Jason received the scholarships they so richly deserve. Even more important, each person learned something about him or herself during the week. For some of us, it's that we're getting old and decrepit and can't climb stairs like we used to...but for others, it's that we can experience misfortune and then pick ourselves up, dust off, and get back on track without falling to pieces.

I've often said that judging contests and demonstrations are some of the best things we have to offer in 4-H. The poise, ability to think on one's feet, and the ability to relate to adults that these youngsters acquire over a period of several years is remarkable. The skills, maturity and self-confidence they have gained will be put to use over the rest of their lives - in college, in the job market, and in personal relationships.

The one thing I'm sure about - is that we believe in 4-H as an investment for the future of our community, our country and our world. Our young people in 4-H are truly making the best better.

4-H Rally Day Enjoyed By Kids And Parents

SPLASHDOWN! These 4-H members enjoy a cool dip at the 4-H Rally Day on May 27th. Sixty-five parents and youth enjoyed swimming, hotdogs and game time at the Civic Center while enrolling for the 1997-98 4-H year.

The 4-H Rally Day on May 27 was enjoyed by all who attended. Swimming, games at the civic center's youth center, and delicious hot dogs were a real treat for the 65 4-H'ers and parents.

The afternoon began with 4-H sign-up at the civic center. All 4-H'ers need to sign up each year, even if they were enrolled the year before. Invitations were handed out at school to all students in grades 2-8, and a number of brand-new members have joined as a result. If you still have yours, please mail it in or bring it by the Extension Office.

The youngsters enjoyed feeling "grown up" and having access to the game room at the civic. They played pool, foosball, video games and ping pong while waiting for the swimming party. Special thanks to the civic center youth board and to Mr. and Mrs. Young for use of the facilities. It was great.

At six p.m., the party moved over to the swimming pool, where life-guard Stephen Martinez kept a close eye on the youngsters as they swam until about 8:30 p.m. The water felt just right in the heat.

Attending during the afternoon were: Lakin Aaron, Mica Aaron, Brian Anderson, Christopher Arjon, Crystal Arjon, Ruby Arjon, Brandi Buchanan, Britni Buchanan, Rachel Byrne, Amanda Carson, Chrissy Carson, Gage Crawford, Lyndsie Crawford, Bobbie Darling, Tara Ellis, Rose Garza, Clint Hale, Trey Hale, Matthew Harris-Cane, Jenna Henderson, Julia Henderson, Sarah Hixon, Grant Hodges, Astella Howard, Hilary Huffman, Stephen Humphrey, Kayla Johnson, Chris Larson, Trace Larson, Stephen Maskill, Michelle Necessary, Katie Parker, Joe Perez, Britney Ramos, Janet Rodriguez, Frankie Skinner, Kassie Smith, Dean Wadsworth, Millie Wadsworth, Ashlee Worley, Casey Ybarra, Heather Ybarra and Matt Young.

Appreciation goes to all the parents who showed up and offered to help with cooking hot dogs, keeping Mr. Dabovich from setting the civic center on fire, and serving, cleaning up and supervising. Also appreciated are Trey and Clint Hale, Amanda Carson and Ashlee Worley for helping sign up 4-H'ers.

To enroll, re-enroll, or find out more about 4-H, contact the Crockett County Extension Office at 392-2721. Educational programs and activities such as 4-H sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or disability.

Jim Bowie Days Slated For June 19-21 In Menard

The hills south of Menard will resound with the war cries of the Lipan Apaches when a cast of about 100 takes to the outdoor stage in the tenth annual A Song of Silver.

Performances of the fictional musical based on historical facts are set for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 19, 20 and 21st, at Silver Ridge, located just southwest in Menard on FM2291. Performances begin at dusk; handicapped parking and seating are available.

The legendary Jim Bowie will again be portrayed this year by Tommy Hough, with Vennessa Gonzales repeating her role as his young wife, Ursula. Hough is a Menard construction contractor and has ably depicted Jim Bowie for several seasons. Vennessa is a high school student who has won numerous awards for her vocal talents. They will be joined by a large cast of singers, dancers and amateur thespians.

The tale of the lost silver mine will be retold to ever-growing audiences as the fame of the pageant spreads. Advance tickets are available by calling the A Song of Silver office at 915-396-2185. Tickets will also be available at the gate of the amphitheater.

For more information on JBD, call the Chamber at 915-396-2365.

Turner Legislation Helps Volunteer Firefighters

Rep. Bob Turner (D-Voss) has passed legislation which will give volunteer fire departments access to firefighting equipment that normally would be destroyed because of liability concerns. House Bill 680 will protect companies from liability when they donate used or obsolete firefighting equipment to the Texas Forest Service.

The Texas Forest Service already operates a program whereby donated equipment is recertified, where applicable, and distributed to volunteer fire departments around the state. "House Bill 680 already has resulted in the donation of hundreds of air packs," said Turner. "Most volunteer fire departments cannot afford to buy these, and they are absolutely critical breathing equipment for firefighters who enter burning structures," Rep. Turner said.

"A lot of industrial and chemical companies have fire brigades on site at their plants. OSHA requires them to upgrade their firefighting equipment periodically, and a lot of this equipment never even gets used. Until now, companies would actually destroy the obsolete equipment rather than donate it because of the liability. I am talking about things like breathing apparatus, bunker gear, hose, nozzles and gas metering devices - equipment that could save a volunteer firefighter's life and that was literally going into the trash heap," Turner explained.

"I am very proud of this legislation. I know it will save lives. Moreover, it will reduce insurance premiums in areas served by volunteer fire departments, because more VFDs will be able to meet the fire protection standards set by the state Insurance Services Office," said Turner.
