Sanchez, Marshall advance to state

David Screws
STOCKMAN SPORTSWRITER

The Lady Lions Cross Country

by Scotty & Linda Moore

L. B. T. Sikes died last week. His life had a lasting influence on many Ozona students during the 30 years he was here as a coach, teacher, principal and then superintendent. News of his passing brought sadness to friends and acquaintances, and many a Sikes story has been told in Ozona since his death Saturday.

In addition to the influence he exerted as an educator, Sikes was a 50 year Mason, receiving his 50-year pin at a ceremony here last February.

L. B. T. Sikes is gone, but the good he did in Ozona remains and his influence will be passed down for years to come.

team competed well at the regional level in Lubbock last Saturday, finishing 8th in the team scoring out of a field of 27 teams. Leading the ladies once again was Lori Sanchez, who crossed the line in 5th place individually in a time of 12:35.9. Only 2.4 seconds behind her was teammate Terren Marshall with an 8th place finish and a clocking of 12:38.3. Both of these Ladies qualified for the state meet which will be run in Round Rock on Nov. 15.

Tiffany Maldonado came in 23rd in a field of almost 200 girls with a time of 13:25.5. Other runners for the Lady Lions were Vanessa Hartman who ran a 14:23.8, Stacey Mendez with a time of 15:22.4, and Alex Lira in 18:27.0.

Ozona had one representative in the men's competition. Again, in a field of about 200 runners Ismael Villarreal finished 61st with a time of 18:58.7.

For senior Terren Marshall this will be her second consecutive year to compete at the state level. Lori Sanchez, a junior, will be running in her third state meet.

Commissioners talk about wind power

Patrick Woodson met with commissioners Monday to discuss a possible tax abatement for The Texas Wind Power Company which will build an electric generating plant in northwestern Crockett County. The project calls for a $45 million capital asset investment with $25 million of that in equipment, Woodson said.

The electric generating wind plant will be located partially in Crockett County and partly in Upton County. Construction is expected to start in the summer of 1998 with completion in six months. The project may be upgraded from a 50 megawatt to a 75 megawatt facility, Woodson said.

Tax Assessor Collector Tom Stokes told the court the plant "isn't going to help Ozona a bit" (because of its distant location in the county) but said it would diversify the tax base down the line.

More information will be necessary before court members decide whether or not to grant the tax abatement for the project. This will be the largest wind power electric generating plant in Texas when it is completed.

Commissioners discussed the fate of the old annex building but took no action Monday. County Attorney Bill Mason offered several suggestions for the building and stated that allowing subleasing is not a good thing to do.

Commissioners are planning a called meeting Monday, Nov. 17, at 6 p.m. to discuss the building with representatives of the Crockett County Historical Society, the Crockett County Historical Commission and Ozona Chamber of Commerce.

A request for rent payment by the county for the Texas Tech Health Sciences Center was not acted upon. Commissioners talked with Karen Huffman, who heads the local office, about the possibility of moving the center back into a county-owned

Secrets and good government don't mix

By DAN MORALES
Texas Attorney General

When does a government employee or a public official have a right to keep secrets from the people who pay his or her salary? My answer is: "Almost never."

Most citizens understand there are times when government secrecy is required, such as in cases involving national security or investigations to determine criminal wrong doing. In fact, there are other reasonable "exceptions" to the requirement of open government, such as the protection of personal records of children who attend public schools.

Nonetheless, most Texans also understand that the principle of open government is more than a good idea. It is a bedrock principle of our democracy. Those of us who serve as public officials and government employees should never forget that we work for the public, to benefit the public, and we should expect our work to be subject to public scrutiny.

Last spring, the Texas Legislature passed a bill making public information about traffic accidents harder to get. The problem they were trying to fix was a legitimate one. Many people felt that certain professionals were engaged in "ambulance chasing" by scrutinizing public accident reports and then calling people who had suffered severe injuries in these accidents in order to solicit their business. These victims were being harassed.

The effort to protect privacy was well intended, but it created a real obstacle to the public's right to know. In one case, the mayor of a Texas city and his wife were involved in a car crash that involved a fatality. The Texas Department of Public Safety, in its effort to follow the new law, refused to release information regarding that accident.

Several Texas news organizations challenged the law, and for good reason. They understood that it interfered with their right to know, and consequently, the public's right to know.

As Thomas Jefferson once wrote, "Our liberty depends on the freedom of the press, and that cannot be limited without being lost."

The Texas Daily Newspaper Association and the Texas Press Association want the Texas Legislature to revisit this issue and find a way to deal with the "ambulance chasers" without infringing on the public's right to know. We support that effort.

In another recent instance, our office was asked by a non-profit organization whether the phone records of the Texas Supreme Court were open to the public according to the Texas Public Information Act.

We drew on a number of court cases which made a distinction between the court records of the judiciary, which are excluded, and the administrative records of the judiciary, which are not, in our view, excluded from the Act. We ruled that while the judiciary was clearly granted an exemption under the Act, the telephone records that were subject to the request were administrative in nature, not judicial.

The state Supreme Court, in what we believe was a good faith disagreement, rejected our ruling, and reading the law very literally, said that all of their records were exempt and they had no intention of releasing any of them.

It will surprise no one that lawyers disagree. We interpret the law differently than the Supreme Court. But that disagreement can serve as an opportunity for all of us to look beyond differing interpretations of the law. We must never lose sight of the spirit of our open government laws which articulate a moral obligation for Texas government to operate openly in the light of day. We must never lose sight of the plain truth that darkness breeds secrets.

Honest, open government is the essential obligation of every person whose salary is paid by tax dollars. No one is excluded from that obligation, not presidents or governors or attorneys general or judges.

The preamble of the Open Records Act (since renamed the Public Information Act) says it best: "It is the policy of this state that each person is entitled, unless otherwise expressly provided by law, at all times to complete information about the affairs of government and the official acts of public officials and employees. The people, in delegating authority, do not give their public servants the right to decide what is good for the people to know and what is not good for them to know. The people insist on remaining informed so that they may retain control over the instruments they have created."

Sonny and Barbara Malone Cooks-of-the-Week

Sonny cooks every day, says his wife, Barbara Malone. "I only sandwich or do Schwan's during the week, so when you asked me to be Cook of the Week, I said, 'It needs to be Sonny, not me'."

"He cooks lots of good food that most of us don't eat anymore. His Daddy has lived to be 93 on the same foods Sonny is cooking now, so Sonny should have a long life, too.

"I guess fried deer meat is his favorite, and he cooks it the best. He keeps the freezer full of deer meat. It is a little low right now. He skins the deer immediately and quarters it and hangs it on hangers under the grape arbor to dry out overnight. The next day it goes in a refrigerator in the barn, and he cuts it into steaks the next day.

He also has a meat market size tenderizer, and each steak is tenderized before he packages to freeze. When he takes a package out of the freezer, he allows it to thaw, then puts it in water for just a short time and then into buttermilk until he is ready to fry. He mixes up a zipper plastic bag with flour, salt and pepper to coat the meat. He fries the meat in vegetable oil that is very hot. Then he lowers the heat just a little to fry both sides. He drains on plenty of paper towels, and it is delicious. He always asks me what I want on Friday evenings when I get in, and I always say deer meat.

"Along with the deer meat, he usually cooks cowboy potatoes. That is mashed potatoes with the peelings and all. He washes the potatoes, slices them and boils them until they are very tender. He then mashes with an electric blender with only Country Crock margarine, salt and pepper. He is very emphatic about no milk. They are wonderful, but I usually have a baked potato which is lots less calories, but not the wonderful taste. I splurged this weekend and had the mashed potatoes and no baked potatoes.

"He makes the best cream gravy in the world. He doesn't make it every day but just when I beg him to. He does not make the gravy in the same skillet he has fried the meat in. He takes about 4 or 5 tablespoons of the grease without the burned flour of the drippings, adds about 3/4 cup of flour. He browns that lightly then adds probably four or five cups of milk, all the while stirring. It's my job to get the milk and have it handy for him.

"When he isn't stirring or frying something he sits on a bar stool at a big cutting board table and gives orders to anyone who'll listen and help. He always said he would make a good 18-20 guests every day for two days. One day was seafood with trimmings; the next day was barbecued chicken with beans, potato salad and green salad. Sonny is a good organizer and keeps all his help busy.

"All of his fried seafood is also coated with buttermilk. The sack he mixed up for the coating has 1/2 cornmeal and 1/2 flour with salt and pepper added.

"I add the hushpuppy recipe off the back of the Aunt Jemima cornmeal sack and the red sauce. Here is my red sauce recipe."

2 c. tomato catsup, 1/4 c. creamed horseradish, juice of 1/2 lemon, dash of Worcestershire sauce

"This is good with raw oysters and crackers. Another hors d'oeuvre we serve is fried mushrooms and fried yellow and zucchini squash. I slice the squash very thin; the mushrooms are cut in half; then buttermilk is poured over them. They are coated with a flour mixture and fried in a very hot oil and drained very well on paper towels.

"My favorite cake to make is the Cocoa Sheath Cake in the Pandale Red Cookbook."

1 c. water, 1 stick margarine, 4 T cocoa, 2 c. sugar, 2 eggs, 1/2 c. buttermilk, 1 tsp. baking soda, 2 c. flour.

In a sauce pan combine water, margarine and cocoa. Bring to a boil. Remove from heat. Add sugar, flour and buttermilk which has had soda dissolved in it, eggs and vanilla. Combine well with blender; pour into greased 9x12 pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 25-30 minutes. Remove from oven and cool.

Topping:
3 egg yolks, 2 cans evaporated milk, 1 stick margarine, 1 c. sugar, 1 c. coconut, 1 c. pecans, chopped, 1 tsp. vanilla

Cook eggs, milk, margarine and sugar over low heat until mixture thickens. Remove from heat and add coconut, pecans and vanilla. When mixture cools thoroughly, pour over cooked sheath cake.

"This is better than a German Chocolate cake. I left one at the ranch for the weekend for family coming to hunt.

"I also make the best pecan pie. Just ask Buster Deaton. Lou is a marvelous cook, but he likes my pie."

4 eggs, beaten, 1 c. sugar, dash salt, 4 T melted margarine, 1 tsp. vanilla, 1 c. light corn syrup, 1 1/2 c. pecan halves.

Beat together the eggs, sugar, salt, vanilla, margarine and syrup. Stir in pecans. Pour into unbaked pie shell and bake at 325 degrees until center no longer shakes or until knife inserted into center comes out clean. This may take as long as 50 minutes. This is a pecan pie that is not so sweet and has a wonderful baked custard.

"I showed Sonny how to make vents in the top pie crust with the back of a teaspoon making half moon circles.

"The recipe he used for peaches was the following Peach Cobbler Supreme recipe of mine which is also in the Diamonds in the Desert Cookbook.

8 c. sliced peaches, 2 c. sugar, 4 T flour, 1/2 tsp. nutmeg, 1 tsp. vanilla extract, 1/3 c. margarine, melted

Combine peaches, sugar, flour and nutmeg in saucepan. Bring to a boil. Remove from heat, add margarine and vanilla, stirring well. Pour into bottom pie shell. Top with other half of pie crust. Bake in 350 degree oven for 30 to 35 minutes or until top is lightly browned.

"Sonny also fries Pecos River catfish that he has caught, cleaned, filleted and frozen; ready to cook when company comes. He usually adds oysters, shrimp and hushpuppies to the menu as we are blessed with friends and family who bring fresh seafood. This cooking is done outside over a butane burner, and it is wonderful. Over the 4th of July we entertained

Care Center Chatter

This has been the week of the yearly allergies, and everyone has kept their Kleenex box close by. We are all waiting for a good freeze to get the air all cleared up, and we sure hope it is very quick.

These next two months are really going to be busy with Thanksgiving and Christmas. There is so much to do before the dates arrive, and we could use some volunteers with the coming of these events. I know we have caring people here in Ozona, so give us a call or come by. Everyone looks forward to people visiting.

Bingo this week was really exciting. Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Martinez donated the beautiful fall basket arrangement. Everyone played and the top winner was Neva Palmer. Second place went to May Gomez and third runnerup was Rosa Diaz. Socorro Maldonado and Sophia Kyles were our volunteers for bingo.

Maxine Moreland has been sick, and we hope she is doing better. Everyone missed her smile and her laughing. Hope to see her this next week.

The residents enjoyed popcorn, given by Mary Friend's family. Popcorn is one of the residents' favorite snacks during game times.

Friday afternoon was wine (grape fruit juice) and cheese and crackers, served with the sound of music from the 1940s. This put us all in a good mood for the end of the week.

Beta Sigma Phi couples rush

The Alpha Alpha Mu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met Monday, Nov. 3, at the civic center for "Couples Rush".

Hostesses Tonya Bullard and Rhonda Shaw served members and their spouses lasagna, salad and French bread. Tonya made a lemon cake and Dana Cowen made peach cobbler for dessert.

After the members introduced themselves and their spouses, Rhonda and Tonya entered the room dressed in many layers of clothing. They announced that they had had trouble deciding what entertainment would keep the husbands interested and had decided that the group would play strip poker. Amid the laughter, they quickly announced that the game would instead be penny-ante poker.

Each person was given fifty pennies and told that they could not borrow or add to the original amount. After only thirty minutes of play, Gary Don Whitley was given the prize for having turned his fifty pennies into $3.45. He won a candle and his choice of baked dessert, supplied by Tonya and Dana. The next prize was supposed to be to the person with the least pennies; However, one-third of the room had busted completely. Instead, the prize was given to Donnie Wiley who had $2.50, and had driven everyone at his table to bankruptcy.

Several other prizes were given, including one to Adrienne and Ron Cook for having the most buttons on their clothes. Due to the location of some of the buttons, they did not have to prove the number.

Patricia Sutton did not win a prize so Tonya gave her the leftover lemon cake and she left happy. Tonya, who had never played poker before in her life, beat everyone at her table.

Enjoying the social were: Sandi and David Screws, Greg and Shawna Hopper, Ronald and Rhonda Shaw, Tonya and Roy Bullard, Clay and Shelly Childress, Ed and Laurie Hale, Prissy Cook, Tonya and Chad Poin-dexter, Patricia Sutton, Debbie Gaskill, Gary Don and Suzanne Whitley, Dana Cowen, Kristi Ellis, Donna and Donnie Wiley and Adrienne and Ron Cook.

Pandale Study Club enjoys annual Thanksgiving feast

A record crowd of friends and neighbors joined the Pandale Study Club as they enjoyed their traditional Thanksgiving feast Nov. 6 at the Pandale Community Building.

During the afternoon program, Bill Fuller, minister of the First Baptist Church in Ozona, provided guitar accompaniment for the singing of several hymns and also played and sang compositions of his own.

Carl Rolfs, minister of the First United Methodist Church of San Angelo, brought an inspiring message reminding his listeners that during times of asking ourselves "is this all there is?" "to remember to give thanks and know that "God is." Carl, who is an honorary citizen of Pandale, has been a delightful and cherished part in the Thanksgiving program since its beginning a number of years ago.

As always, there were friendly helpers in the kitchen — Bill Carson and Rita Lipham graciously and cheerfully washed and dried the dishes, giving thanks, I'm sure, for the use of paper plates for the 69 guests.

And, as always, the Study Club ladies want to thank all those who lent a hand to help make the day a happy occasion.

Reported by Sue Arledge

Garland Young has been down with a herniated disc and will be back at work as soon as he is able. He would appreciate your phone calls, says Joyce.

Ministerial Alliance to sponsor Community Thanksgiving Service

The Ministerial Alliance will sponsor the Community Thanksgiving Service on Sunday evening, Nov. 23, here in the Methodist Church. There will be a youth choir, a children's choir and a community choir singing for the service. The collection will go toward members who need help.

The hospitality committee will furnish refreshments in the fellowship hall following the service.

When the roof falls in, the family is there.

Not all families are those into which a person is born. There is a family ready and able to welcome you. And when hurt comes, they are there. It is almost too good to be true, but there is a circle — a church family — into which the heart is drawn to weather any storm. For you, there is a warm welcome into our family.

Card of Thanks

The Ozona Community Center would like to thank the Bean family for donating the proceeds from this year's Dan Bean Memorial Team Roping to the center. Your support will help us continue to build on a program that has been a part of this community for many years.

Card of Thanks

To my many friends in Ozona: Please just let me say I've been overwhelmed at the calls and prayers while I was in the hospital. I can't thank all of you enough, especially when I needed a blood transfusion, you offered, the beautiful flowers helped me through the day, the boxes of food you brought when I came home and to my little friend who answered the phone (when I had no voice) that rang 11 times in an hour. I can't thank all of you wonderful people enough. And a big gift of love to my daughter and son who never left my side and nursed me back. Believe me, three surgeries in 4 months was not my plan for retirement. Your love, thoughts, cards and all your kindness have truly helped me through this. Thank you dear friends.

"I tell you that this poor widow put more in the offering box than all the others. For the others put in what they had to spare of their riches; but she, poor as she is, put in all she had to live on."

A newly wed couple was stranded on a remote country road. On foot they set out toward a dimly lit farmhouse. An elderly couple met them at the door. The young man asked: "could you put us up till morning. A place on the floor would be fine." Grains of rice could still be seen in the young lady's hair. "Why surely, children," said the elderly woman. Next morning the newlyweds got up early, wanting to leave without disturbing the elderly couple. When they opened the door to the living room, they found the old couple asleep in chairs. They had given the newlyweds their only bedroom.

Like the widow in the gospel they gave not from their surplus, what they could spare, but rather from their own meager resources.

There are three kinds of givers: those who hate to give, those who ought to give and those who want to give. The stories of the widow in the gospel and the elderly couple invite us to ask ourselves: "How do I give?" Complaining, out of duty or willingly? We are not just talking about money, but also about giving of ourselves and of our time. How do we give of ourselves and our time to God, in Sunday worship and in daily prayer? How do we give of ourselves and our time to our neighbor?

We can give of ourselves in different ways to different people. Some one put it this way: "The best gift to an enemy is forgiveness, to a friend is loyalty, to a child is good example, to a father is honor, to a mother it is our heart and to a neighbor is our hand."

Luke 6:38 also can help us here: "Give to others and God will give to you. Indeed, you will receive a full measure, a generous helping poured into your hands - all that you can hold. The measure that you use for others is the one that God will use for you."

It's Only Rock 'N' Roll, But They Liked It

by Susan Calloway

...screamed the front page headline of the Fort Worth Star Telegram on Sunday, Nov. 2. The Rolling Stones appeared in concert Nov. 1 at the Texas Motor Speedway in Fort Worth on their only stop in Texas on their 1997-98 world tour.

Ozonan Alfredo Tobar was determined to see the show. He and friends Albert Flores, Gary Dominguez and Lalo Guadarrama left Ozona in the wee a.m. hours on Saturday to arrive early enough to get tickets for the show which began at 3 p.m. They were the first ones to arrive in the parking lot.

Tobar had painted a large "Lips and Tongue" Rolling Stones logo on the back windshield of their vehicle as well as smaller logos on the side windows and front windshield. These attracted the attention of a Star-Telegram reporter who interviewed the group. Alfredo was quoted as saying, "I don't think I'd do this for anybody else, but I grew up listening to 'em and they put on the best show I ever saw. I saw them in San Antonio—they're just great. To me, it doesn't matter where they play—I just hope it's worth it."

Fellow Ozona Stones fans Kevin and Susan Calloway were also the first ones in the parking lot Saturday morning at the KCDQ Texas 102 radio station offices in Odessa. They were traveling to the concert on one of the two KCDQ sponsored buses. The Calloways also caught the eye of the KMID news crew from Midland that traveled on the buses. The 10 p.m.

newscast on Sunday showed a clip of the Calloways, and announced that they were celebrating their anniversary on the trip.

When all was said and done, the concert was well worth the admission price. Opening bands Matchbox 20, the Dave Matthews Band and The Smashing Pumpkins kept the younger set entertained until 8:40 when the bad boys from Britain invaded the stage. From blue light and smoke to fireworks, to the enormous circular video screen behind and above the band, everything was tremendous. For a bunch of Brits in their mid-fifties who first performed in 1962, they sure know how to put on a show. Two hours, 10 minutes and 21 energy drenched songs later—they proved they aren't dead yet...not by a long shot.

ALFREDO TOBAR painted the back window of this vehicle with the Rolling Stones logo for he and his friends trip to the Bridges to Babylon concert held at the Texas Motor Speedway in Fort Worth Nov. 1. Kevin Calloway stopped by to check out the art work and swap stories about the concert that he and wife Susan attended on the KCDQ 102.1 radio station party bus out of Odessa. medical building. The building also may be used by West Texas Rehab if a proposal to offer physical therapy here is accepted by commissioners.

No action was taken on an agenda item to execute a resolution requesting the Texas Water Development Board to include the county in a specific region pending consultation with Dennis Clark of Emerald Underground Water District. Senate Bill 1 mandates the division of the state into 11 regions to plan for future water use. Crockett County has been placed in the region with Val Verde and Terrell Counties. Judge Jeffrey Sutton believes the county should be placed with counties to the north in our cloud seeding area.

Court members approved a contract with Val Verde County for detention of juveniles pending approval of the contract by the county attorney.

Two additional members were appointed to the Fair Park Convention Center. They are John L. Henderson and Jeffrey Stuart. Commissioners drew for terms for the two with Henderson to serve one year and Stuart two.

The court executed a resolution of appreciation for Tedra Ulmer, former County Extension Agent-Consumer Sciences. They also voted to pay travel expenses incurred by Mrs. Ulmer while she was still employed in Crockett County.

Results of the Nov. 4 constitutional amendment election were canvassed. County and district clerk Debbi Puckett said the electronic counting machine worked well.

Regular monthly reports were heard from department heads.

Auditor John Stokes said that the county's fund balance was $1,135,000 at the end of October and will probably decrease by $300,000 before the end of the year based on past experience.

During the financial report Commissioner Fred Deaton questioned payment of expenses by the county for computer and fiber optics wires for the new annex without pre-purchase approval by commissioners. These expenses were not part of the amount budgeted for the new facility. Judge Sutton said he had approved obtaining the materials because of the time frame involved.

The court approved advertising for a haul truck for the trash collection center. Eddie Moore, roads and parks superintendent, said the county can put its own haul truck together cheaper than it can purchase one. According to Moore, these type trucks are in such demand now that sellers "can ask just about what they want".

Sheriff Shane Fenton reported that the 911 project is working to get caller identification hooked up to the ring down service which has been installed. The brain of the system here is state of the art, Fenton said, but the answering part is not. The county would need mapping and another monitor to utilize the enhanced system capabilities.

The sheriff said an inmate work program started here Oct 31. According to Jail Standards, it is better if prisoners work under guard, but they don't have to, Fenton said. Three of the road department employees are to attend 40 hour jailer school and will stay with the prisoners when they work out of the jail.

Anyone in jail awaiting trial cannot be made to work, Fenton explained. These prisoners can work on a volunteer basis. Prisoners serving time can be made to work.

"The TDC deal didn't pan out," Fenton said. Prisoners were being brought from the prison in Fort Stockton to work here and in other counties. The van the county bought to provide transportation for these workers will Whenever I try to take a short cut it usually takes me twice as long to get there.

Some people will find fault in others, no matter what.

If you are tired of working for a living, try disability for awhile. You'll be glad to go back to work.

Being your own boss may sound glorious, but it's a lot of work.

Some folks say they can't find a job. Maybe their standards for what they'll do for a living are too high.

Some employees complain about not getting paid enough. Maybe if they did a little more work, the boss would pay them more.

Counting your chickens before they hatch is why lots of people with credit cards file bankruptcy.

be used for local inmate workers.

Belinda Wilkins reported for the civic and youth center board. She said that three events held to benefit Project Graduation have been quite successful but that more money is needed. Project Graduation requires $8,000 to $10,000 each year.

This year's Halloween Carnival was the largest Helping Hands has had as far as booth participation, said Janet McDaniel. Helping Hands now has $145,683.00 on hand toward the new building. She expects to need about $30,000.00 more.

The Meals on Wheels program served 1262 meals in October.

Louise Ledoux, county librarian, said she has 10 grant proposals out now in an attempt to obtain the $50,000.00 needed to complete funding to enlarge the library. The board has hired Henry Schmidt of San Angelo as architect for the project. He did Fort Concho and some of the buildings in San Angelo's historic district, she said.

The library will have to be relocated during the approximately one year of construction on the building addition according to Schmidt and other architects consulted by the board.

Ozona Fire Department's report prepared by Bob Falkner, fire chief, showed one investigation for a gas leak at a home, one structure fire and six false alarms during October. Four of the false alarms were at the care center and two at the Ozona Head Start.

Scotty and Linda Moore have returned from a weekend visit in Austin with their two sons Scott, Roy and his wife, Nancy, and of course those two redheaded granddaughters, Emily and Angela. There is never a dull moment with those two. "We had a blast!" said grandma and grandpa.

Southwest Classic a must for Texas

After the oil bust and recession of the mid 1980s, Texas' art market did not rebound with the rest of the Texas economy. Consequently, more and more Texas art buyers began to purchase their art out of state.

Late last year a group of Texas artists and businessmen began planning a major art show to start recapturing this market.

They have chosen Kerrville as the site for this event due to its being near the center of the state and its reputation as being an art mecca.

The 1st annual Southwest Classic Invitation Fine Art Show will open its doors for the preview showing at 5:30 p.m., Friday, Nov. 21.

Judy Black, formerly of Ozona and sculpture of "The Tie That Binds", will exhibit her work at the show.

The show is open to the general public Saturday and Sunday at no charge.

Red Ribbon Week activities at OIS

Red Ribbon week was celebrated in fine fashion at Ozona Intermediate School Oct. 27 through 31, when D.A.R.E. officer Dan Griffin kicked off the week's activities by addressing the Intermediate student body about the dangers of using illegal drugs. Additionally, Deputy Dan and the fifth grade D.A.R.E. group participated in skits to demonstrate the five ways a student should react when approached by someone with an illegal drug. A red wristband was also presented to each student to wear during the week to display and state publicly, Mission possible; Drug-Free.

On Tuesday, the front entrance to the building was decorated with large red ribbon bows, a banner across the doors proclaiming that "Drugs Are Scary" and a prominently displayed 15 foot scroll. This scroll, which was signed and annotated by everyone pledging a "Drug Free Life and Future", generated a lot of interest from students and visitors alike throughout the week on the Intermediate campus.

A contest was conducted on Wednesday and Thursday, with all the Intermediate students participating, by writing an essay entitled Drug Free-That's Me! These essays were judged by Mrs. Jones' high school English classes, with certificates, publication in The Stockman, and a hall display awarded to the first three papers of each grade level. The essay contest culminated with a trip for all nine winners to the Dairy Queen for Blizzard treats with Mr. Porter, the campus drug coordinator.

The last activity for Red Ribbon week was a ventriloquist assembly "Timothy E. Jones and Friends"; a forty-minute fast paced, entertaining and educational message based on the theme of drug prevention. A special invitation was extended to the parents to attend and participate in a good message plus a lot of fun with the children.

Blizzards ground the Lions

David Screws
STOCKMAN SPORTSWRITER

In a chilly contest last Friday night the Winters Blizzards shut out the Ozona Lions by 41-0. The Ozona passing game, which had looked promising for the past three weeks, was non-existent as senior quarterback Justin Browne was intercepted four times. In the first half Ozona could not cross mid-field. In the second half one of those four interceptions halted a scoring threat when the Blizzards picked off the pass at their own 35.

The defensive unit spent a great deal of time on the field, stopping Winters on their first two possessions but finally giving up the inaugural score with 3:07 to go in the first quarter when Kenny Whittenburg hit Justin Minzenmayer for a 30 yard tally. The PAT failed, but the same combination connected for a 15 yard touchdown early in the second period, and Winters led 13-0.

Six minutes later a big play set up Winters' next score at the Ozona 15 where Marshall Scates took it the rest of the way. At the 2:42 mark of the second, Whittenburg found Minzenmayer again, this time for a 66 yard strike, and with 24 seconds to play in the half Winters built an insurmountable 34 point lead when Whittenburg passed to Ricky Luz for an 8 yard score.

Ozona's defense shored up in the second half, stopping a Blizzard's threat when Anthony Ortiz broke up a pass at the Ozona 5 yard line, forcing Winters to try an unsuccessful field goal. Midway through the third stanza Lee Woffenden carried 25 yards to cap the scoring for the night. Early in the fourth quarter the Blizzards were stopped cold once more when they turned the ball over on downs at the Ozona 15. After that the Lions were able to keep Winters away from their goal.

In the offensive department, the only pass completion was from sophomore Ross Crawford to senior Anthony Ortiz for 15 yards. On the ground Justin Browne carried for 62 yards while Crawford added 46. Another sophomore, Tim Maldonado, stepped off 29 yards as the Lions could mount only 159 yards of total offense and 5 first downs.

On the other side of the ball the stops were once again spread among a number of defenders. Gabe Tambunga had 9 tackles, Crawford and Ty Mitchell, another sophomore, had 7 each while Brian Badillo and Dustin Shaffer, yet another young sophomore, had 6 per man. Donnie Bullard had 5.

The Lions finished the year with a 3-7 overall record and 1-5 in district action. Coach Hargrove summed up the season, "This year our nine seniors showed good leadership and a great attitude. The young kids learned a lot about playing football on Friday night. "We are very proud of the group we finished the year with," added Hargrove, "and we are encouraged about the 1998 year. Thanks to everyone for your support and encouragement."

THREE REASONS WHY I SAY NO TO DRUGS

by Jared Bird

These are my three reasons why I choose to say, "No To Drugs." I pledge to have a drug free life and future and here is why.

The first reason I would say no to drugs is because I learned what drugs do to you. Drinking is a bad habit. When you drink what you don't know is that slowly but surely you are causing changes in your personality. Sooner or later you get addicted, and then it is hard to stop. Cigarettes can cause your kidneys and lungs to stop working properly. Your heart starts getting blood in and out slower. If you don't watch out it can kill you.

The second reason I would say no to drugs is it can make a huge dent in your life. When you smoke all your money goes into cigarettes and pretty soon you are out of money. Then you might start stealing from other people to buy more. Then you don't have any money to go to college or to pay for your bills. With out going to college you can't get a good paying job. With out a job you can't have a house. See all the things that happen if you take drugs.

The last reason I choose to say no to drugs is it affects the people around you. When you smoke your clothes smell like smoke then people don't want to be around you. You can run forty-five yards or less until you have to stop and rest. Chewing tobacco causes your teeth to decay and turn as yellow as the sun. It can also cause gum disease. Doing this makes you lose friends. If you get cancer or if your parents will fell like they were responsible for your death.

These are the three reasons I choose to be drug-free. Fact or fiction the number of people who die each day from smoking is the same as if two full jumbo jets were to crash every day? Answer: True!

Third place - Makinsey Morris

WHY I SAY NO TO DRUGS

by Makinsey Morris

A drug is any substance, other than food that can affect the way your mind and body work. In this essay I will give you reasons why I say no to drugs.

A drug that most people don't think of is an inhalant. These are chemicals such as glue, gasoline, or about 2,000 other ingerous chemicals, which are used for sniffing, or "huffing" to get high. Using these as inhalants can be habit-forming, can cause serious, permanent damage to your liver and other parts of your body, and even kill you on your first try. I don't want to die of a stupid thing like that.

All drugs can kill you and most are addictive, which means once you start drugs you don't stop. Take cocaine for instance, Cocain is a highly addictive stimulant. It is usually snorted through the nose but can be smoked or injected. When addicted people can't get their drugs, they become very sick. Once they are this sick they can die.

I don't want to die of a stupid thing like drugs. Imagine what your family, friends and others will think of you? Most people do drugs just for curiosity but the thing that makes me wonder is why people who know that drugs can do to them still use drugs! Don't use drugs.

Drugs are very serious business. Drugs are no laughing-matter. They can kill the person who uses drugs and people around them even loved-ones. I will never use drugs. "SAY NO TO DRUGS" and live a drug-free life and future!

A DRUG FREE LIFE AND FUTURE

by Chelsea Tobar

This is red ribbon week. It is a time when we should be drug free. I can think of good reasons to say "No" to drugs and alcohol. The first thing is drugs change the way people think. They change the way people feel, and they change the way people act. They change the way the brain works. Some drugs are helpful and some drugs are harmful. If they are not used in the right way. There are many different drugs. Alcohol is a drug found in drinks like beer and wine. It makes it hard to see well and to speak clearly, hard to walk, and even hard to stand up. It can make people sick. They may get confused or sad or angry.

It is never safe for kids to use alcohol. Cigarettes and cigars are made from tobacco. Tobacco smoke hurts the lungs. It makes the heart work hard to pump blood. Tobacco causes a disease called cancer. If you know kids who use drugs stay away from them. If someone offers you drugs say "No" and walk away. If you find drugs, don't pick them up. Never pick up matches, needles, or anything else people use to take drugs. If any of these things happens to you go get help. These are my reasons why I wrote so you could be a drug free.

Second place - Jessica Moore

A DRUG FREE LIFE AND FUTURE

by Jessica Moore

This is Red Ribbon Week. It is a time when we stop to think about why we should be drug free. I can think of good reasons to say "No" to drugs and alcohol.

First of all we need to say no to drugs because they are not healthy for our minds and bodies. When people use drugs they are not thinking clearly. Once they start using drugs, they can not stop. Sometimes people can not stop using drugs and they have babies that are not born healthy. People that are not will do anything to get drugs.

Drugs are against the law and people should not do drugs anyway. If they get caught they should go to jail. People use drugs to make themselves feel good and forget their problems but when they wake up, all their problems are still there.

Alcohol kills people. When people drink too much and get drunk they can run over other people and hurt or kill them. Alcohol is legal so it is not as bad as drugs.

Drugs are against the law. You can not buy them at a store. People sell drugs to make a lot of money. If they don't get the money they are suppose to that's what causes a lot of violence in America today, people using or selling drugs. Today drug dealers even get children to sell drugs for them. Kids kill kids.

Choose life and say "No" to drugs. Think of the safety of the children in the future. Drugs are not cool.

Third place - Victoria Miller

IT WILL DAMAGE YOUR LIFE

by Victoria Miller

There are many reasons why people should not take drugs. I will explain why you should say no to drugs.

The first reason why you should not take drugs is it could hurt you and hurt somebody else. If you take drugs into a car to use you will most likely get drunk or high. If you are drunk or high on drugs you usually lose control of what you do. If you are in a car at that time you could have a big wreck and hurt yourself who ever is in the car with you and the people that you crash into.

The second reason you should not take any drugs is that it slows your body down so that you can't go as fast in running or any other sport. Like basketball, football, baseball, soccer, tennis and rodeoing. If you are not athletic while you are a little kid and especially while your in high school it is most likely that you won't be very healthy. Not being healthy would probably make your life shorter.

The third thing that will happen is you will get addicted to it. Lets say your best friend comes up to you and asks you if you would take a drink of beer. If you say you will and even if you just take a little drink you'll get addicted to it and you'll never stop. Its the same on cigarets and all of the other drugs. So don't take the chance or you could never stop.

These are the things that could happen. It could hurt you and somebody else, it slows you down, and you could get addicted to it. Remember it will damage your life!

by Levi English

There are many reasons to say no to drugs. I will tell my teacher three reasons why I say no to drugs.

The first reason I say no to drugs is because they make your body not work right. The second reason I say no to drugs is it's against the law to take drugs. The third reason I say no to drugs is I want to live a long and healthy life and by me not using drugs I can set a good example for everyone else so everybody can live a long and healthy life.

These are the reasons I say no to drugs. If everybody does there part the world will be a happy drug free place.

know I will regret it later it later on in life.

These are my reasons why I won't do drugs.

WHY DO PEOPLE USE DRUGS

by Catlin Sessom

Here are some reasons why I don't use drugs. I don't use drugs because I can hurt my body. If I used drugs I won't be as good as I can be in school. I can't use drugs because I don't want to hurt my family. I will never use drugs. So pleas don't use drugs. I don't want to see you ruin your life.

ARIES - March 21/April 20

"Where do I go from here?" That's a question you find yourself asking a lot this week. Aries. You've got so much going on professionally and personally that you don't know what to do. Take some time just for yourself. Being alone will help you sort out all that you have to do. Taurus plays a key role on Friday.

TAURUS - April 21/May 21

A fight with a loved one has you upset. Don't hold a grudge; try to talk things out with him or her. It's the only way to make yourself feel better. An old friend calls you out of the blue. However, he or she has an ulterior motive. Don't commit to anything before thinking about all the pros and cons.

GEMINI - May 22/June 21

Things get a little too monotonous for you early in the week. Gemini. Try to live things up at work and at home. People actually will appreciate some of your creative ideas. A loved one reveals a problem to you. Don't be afraid. Try to help him or her with the situation. Your efforts are needed.

CANCER - June 22/July 22

Everyone seems to be telling you their secrets. Cancer, and you just don't want to hear them anymore. Don't get upset. This just shows how much friends, co-workers and loved ones trust you. Try to remember this before you bite someone's head off. They need you to listen and give advice.

LEO - July 23/August 23

You should be proud of yourself this week. Leo. You make great headway toward personal and professional goals. People have their eyes on you, because they know you can succeed. A friend introduces you to an interesting person. Let your inner beauty — not your arrogance — shine through.

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22

You're a natural-born worrier, Virgo, and you've got a lot to be concerned about this week. A close friend gets in trouble with the authorities and needs you to help set things right. Do your best. A loved one has an accident. Your strength and clear thinking are needed to get things back on track. Gemini plays an important role.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23

Your generally pleasant manner is put to the test early in the week when you have to work with an inconsiderate person. Don't let his or her actions set you off; try to remain calm. A close friend wants to set you up on a blind date. Say yes. What have you got to lose?

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22

You feel down in the dumps when a romantic relationship comes to an end. Don't get discouraged, because deep down inside, you know that he or she wasn't the right person for you. Try to keep yourself busy this week to overcome your loneliness. Things will be back to normal soon.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21

While you're just trying to tell the truth, you stick your foot in your mouth when talking to loved ones early in the week. Sagittarius. Don't try to explain, because you'll just get into more trouble. That special someone wants to spend a romantic evening with you. Say yes. Pisces plays a key role.

CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20

Even though you like to be in control, Capricorn, you have to learn how to take directives this week. A problem arises, and you're not sure how to handle it. Let someone who knows take charge. It's the only way that you'll learn. Cancer plays a key role later in the week.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18

Your practical side takes control early in the week. Instead of making a big splash at work, you just try to do your job effectively. This is the surefire way to get yourself noticed by the higher-ups. A close friend needs your help. Be supportive; don't let him or her down in a time of need.

PISCES - Feb 19/March 20

Your sarcasm is not appreciated by others when a family crisis arises, Pisces. Try to be helpful without aggravating others. It's the best way to remedy the situation. That special someone you've been hoping to see again finally calls. Don't play hard to get; let him or her know how you feel.

JV Lions defeated by Winters Blizzards

David Screws
STOCKMAN SPORTSWRITER

Last Thursday in Lion Stadium the JV Lions took on the Winters Blizzards, coming away with a hard-fought 55-20 loss. The game saw yet another quarterback end the season on an injury when Casey Jamerson went down in the second half, and Ray Ramos became the fifth man called up to take the snaps from center.

The Lions fell behind early after Winters took the opening possession 99 yards, then stripped the ball from Ozona on their first possession and scampered 15 yards for the second tally. Ozona jumped right back into the game when Leon Garcia wormed his way through the Blizzard defense for 63 yards and a score.

In the second period, the teams traded touchdowns, Ozona's coming on a Jamerson pass to Seth Webster from the three yard line, leaving the Lions still in good shape to close the 16 point gap.

However, in the second half the Blizzards opened up the margin in a flurry of scoring that pushed their lead to 55-12 before the Lions could mount another scoring threat. By then Ray Ramos had assumed the position behind center after Jamerson was injured. After several runs by Garcia the Lions found themselves at the Blizzard 35 yard line when Ramos kept over the right guard for the distance. Ramos then passed to Joe Luna for the two point conversion to round out the scoring at Winters-55, Ozona 20.

Leon Garcia had another banner performance for the Lions offensive effort, turning in a total of 167 yards, making much of it on his own by ducking and dodging through would-be tacklers. Ray Ramos added 41 of his own, including the 35 yard touchdown run. Glenn Sutton contributed 19 yards.

The JV Lion finish the season with 3 wins and 7 losses.

Eighth Cubs close with 22-18 victory

David Screws
STOCKMAN SPORTSWRITER

The Ozona Middle School 8th Graders finished the 1997 football year with a rush, winning 3 of their last 4 games after going 0 for 5 in the first part of the season. The final victory came last Thursday night in Sonora as the Cubs defeated the Colts by 22-18. The game was evidence of a much improved group of youngsters because they had lost by 32-18 to the same team on opening night this year.

Sonora's first possession proved to be fatal for the Colts when the Cubs defense bowed up, stopping them one yard short of a touchdown. In spite of that lost opportunity, the Colts were able to put a touchdown on the board to lead 6-0 at the half.

On the Cubs' opening possession of the second half they put together a 60 yard scoring drive behind strong running by Jared Shaffer and Abel Rodriguez. Luis Cruz scored the TD, and Rodriguez added the two point conversion.

The Colts answered with a kick-off return for a score to regain the lead by 12-8, but the Cubs stayed in the game, driving the next possession until Shaffer carried over from the 2. The PAT failed, but Ozona was on top again by 14-12.

The seesaw battle continued into the fourth quarter as Sonora scored once again. Besides the lost opportunity to score in the first quarter at the Ozona 1, the Colts missed all three extra point attempts, which proved to be the margin of victory for the Cubs. With three minutes to go in the game, Abel Rodriguez scored from the 4, then added the two point conversion to put the Cubs on top for good. However, Sonora wasn't finished. They marched the next possession to the Ozona 5 before Rodriguez sacked the quarterback, caused him to fumble, then recovered the fumble to tie the Cub victory.

The 8th Cubs finish the season with 3 wins and 6 losses.

Sonora beats improved 7th Cubs

David Screws
STOCKMAN SPORTSWRITER

In the opening game of this season the Ozona 7th Cubs were bombed by Sonora by a score of 49-8. In the closing game of the year, the Cubs fell to the same team by a score of only 28-6, a net improvement of 19 points. The Cubs' record ends at 2-6-1.

The Cubs used the running game sparingly. Instead, they tried to capitalize on the arms of Michael Savala and Robert Ogle, who would sometimes throw from the backfield after taking the pitch from Savala. The two combined for a total of 110 yards in the air on 6 completions, including a 70 yarder to Lalo Garza who almost scored. The Colts scored once in the first quarter, twice in the second, and once more in the third to build their lead to 28-0 before the Cubs recovered a fumble at their own 15 to halt another scoring threat. From there the Cubs mounted an 85 yard drive which ended in a tally by Quay Ogle. The extra point failed, leaving the final score at 28-6.

FSA NEWS

By Jim Bob Solsbery

Due to extremely dry conditions and the deterioration of grazing conditions, the Crockett County Farm Service Agency (FSA) is looking into a new program. The Emergency Livestock Feed Program that has been available in the past is no longer available. The 1996 Farm Bill passed by Congress eliminated this program until at least 2003.

Congress has amended the Federal Register to make native forage eligible to be covered under the Non-Insured Crop Disaster Program (NAP). The regulations are being written for this program at this time and should be finished by the end of the year. The County Committee will have to wait until the regulations are received before they can proceed with requesting a NAP area declaration.

This program works entirely different than the old Emergency Feed Program. It is based on a 50% production loss to meet eligibility and will require documentation over the past 3 or 4 years to prove a ranch's production capability. Due to the process the program goes through and the fact that it will look at the entire calendar year when computing losses, it will probably be March or April before a producer would know if they are eligible and how much assistance they would receive. This also hinges on the area being approved by Washington to even be eligible to take applications.

One requirement of the program is that ranchers come into the FSA Office each year and "certify" or report the numbers of acres that they own or operate. This needs to be done by anyone that has any interest in making a NAP application should the program become available.

The Crockett County FSA Office, located at 201 11th Street in Ozona, is beginning to take the acre certifications now. Ranchers are en-

Care Center census reaches 50

Crockett County Care Center now has 50 residents administrator Crystal Hargraves told commissioners Monday. Capacity for the facility is 52.

During her report to commissioners of the Nov. 6 care center and health services meeting, Ms. Hargraves said that employee's probationary raises are due for Gerald Creel, Lupe Galvan and Mickey Frazier.

The administrator also discussed the need for a monitoring system for residents. Board members had agreed at their meeting that some type of system is needed. Different types will be priced and bids taken. The board and administrator had also requested release of liability from Bill Mason, county attorney, at the meeting.

Residents, their families, board members and commissioners will celebrate Thanksgiving early with a covered dish meal at the center on Nov. 22.

During the health services portion of the meeting, the board approved a proposal for physical therapy submitted by West Texas Rehab Center and asked Mason to look at the contract. Mason was also asked to consult with the commissioners regarding the proposal and its benefits to the community.

A WTRC physical therapy facility in one of the county buildings near the health clinic would serve care center residents and the community at large.

The ambulance report showed 31 runs for October. Of those, 12 were local, 11 transfers, seven standbys and one cancel. The need for the Medivac landing spot to remain clear at all times was discussed and referred to commissioners.

The health clinic report showed 821 patient visits for October. The doctor saw 503 patients, 117 were seen by the physician's assistant, 17 by other providers; there were 49 nurse visits and 135 lab visits.

Bob Wilkins, physician's assistant, will be in Ozona for approximately six months pending the hiring of a new PA.

Plan outlined to rebuild Texas highways

An aide to U. S. Sen. Phil Gramm will be in Ozona Tuesday, Nov. 18, to outline a new Gramm proposal that would make an extra $2 billion in federal funds available to rebuild Texas' crumbling highways.

Gramm's regional director, James Wilson, is meeting with officials in several Texas cities that week, highlighting the senator's road building plan to ease the congestion that often turns long stretches of Texas' interstate highways into parking lots.

Wilson will speak to members of the public at 4 p.m. in the Crockett Room.

Gramm's proposal, co-sponsored by U. S. Senators Robert Byrd, D-West Virginia, John Warner, R-Virginia, and Max Baucus, D-Montana, will direct federal highway authorities to begin using the money collected from the 1993 gasoline tax increase.
