

shared first impressions of the community.

"What's the deal with all the trash?" this writer asks. "Everywhere one looks there is trash. Along all the highways, the streets, vacant lots and business parking lots, there is no shortage of litter.'

seems there is no effort to stem the flow of litter. In addition to being ugly, the trash is illegal, says the newcomer. Enforcement of laws against littering, a community-wide clean-up day or week and education of residents regarding littering are suggested.

"Ozona has a lot to offer and could really be a pretty little town, with some pride and effort," says the resident.

Almost a year ago The Stockman published a front page picture of litter which has been thrown in the draw. Maybe we all need to look around us as if we were new to the community.

Tank airborne The writer goes on to say that it in explosion

By Susan Calloway

Ozona Fire Department received a call at 8:55 a.m. Thursday, March 19, of a tank explosion. Two trucks were dispatched down Couch Lane on Pandale Road to a Devon Energy Corporation location.

Preliminary investigation of the explosion by Fire Marshal Steve Kenley showed that Marcos Sandate, a Devon Energy employee, was standing by the wellhead, opening a valve to allow fluid to flow into the tank. Apparently static electricity caused an explosion, propelling Sandate onto the hood of his company vehicle.

The bottom of the tank was blown 30 feet to the east. Assorted pipe fittings were scattered around the location by the blast.

Sandate was transported to the Family Health Clinic of Ozona by company vehicle and was transferred to Shannon Hospital by ambulance. He was kept overnight for observation and released.

Letters to the Editor

When passing through Ozona Saturday, March 14, at 9 p.m. I experienced a breakdown. My driveshaft had broken on my pickup. I talked to a girl at a service station nearby. She had me wait while she caught a friend who was just leaving. This gentleman had a friend who lived a half block away. This friend owned a auto salvage yard. He was willing to get dressed and go out to help me get on the road again. Needless to say, 2 hours later I was on the road again. I never got these people's names, but I want to say how much my wife and I appreciated all of their help. Thank you, folks, and thank you Ozona.

> Sincerely, J. and J. Ryan

Galveston, TX

Dear Editor.

My husband, Don, (better known to three Ozona Lady Lions...Amber, Autumn and Laramie McWilliams) has a plaque that reads as follows... For when the One Great Scorer comes

To write against your name He writes not that you won or lost But... How You Played the Game!

He and I feel the Ozona Lady Lions played each and every game with character, dignity and class on the court. They conducted themselves in a way that Ozona could be very proud of them whether they won or lost!

And we know they played with team spirit and a gratitude to their many fans who were there cheering them on! Our congratulations to them and to Ozona for having had the thrill of four years of great basketball played there. Hope your fans will have many and you will! That's what makes a great team! Being behind your coaches and teams...cheering them on to Victory!

Hip Hip Hooray to the Ozona Lady Lions! No. 1 in our hearts! Sincerely, Pat Patton

Care Center Chatter

By Jan St. Clair Activity Director

Monday morning, March 16, was started with a visit from the state people. They were with us until the next afternoon.

All was well with our care center. What a great staff we have; each and everyone deserves a big hug. If it wasn't for our staffing, where would we be? Congratulations for a job well done. Everyone!!

Tuesday afternoon, St. Patrick's Day and residents' birthdays were celebrated. Residents having birthdays for the month of March are Lester manager Ed Hale and Anne Davidson.

Brian Morrow, Roland DeHoyos,

Evans, Juana Hernandez and Lilly Belle Halydier.

Janet Hill-McDaniel furnished her delicious sugar-free cake, white and green, with a St. Patrick's shamrock.

Marge St. Clair donated the sugarfree cookies, Pat and Commissioner Freddie Nicks the green shamrock cookies. Thanks to these people who make our parties so great.

Helping celebrate family birthdays were: Buck Evans, Spooky Flanangan, Mary Hayes, Audrey Glynn, Yolanda Tambunga and daughter, Priscilla Tambunga.

Wednesday afternoon our local band played for the residents. Otis, C. E., Len and Jim are so faithful to our care center. These guys put on quite a performance.

Thursday mornings are busy for our lady residents. Volunteers JoAnn, Kay, Gloria and Gerri are in the beauty shop to fix hair. Thanks, ladies, for the caring of our residents.

Thursday evenings the square dancers are ready to swing and take short intermissions and visit with the residents. What happy faces they bring to each resident.

Friday morning is bingo, the big day to find out who is the top winner. May Gomez topped in at number 1. She won five games Friday morning. Hazel McDaniel was second and Bonnie Warth was third.

Friday at lunch Jan and Josie took Mrs. Stanton, Jessie McCary and Wilma Friend to Burger King for a nice outing. At supper time Friday, Jan, Josie and Lupe took Jeff Owens and Etoile Bennett to Burger King.

Why Is Church Membership Important

By Rev. Mike Davis Harvest Time Christian Center

There are two things that must be understood in order to appreciate the Biblical meaning of church membership. 1. What is the church? 2. What does it mean to be a member of the church?

What is the church? The Greek

12:20 states that the church is a body made up of many members. I Corinthians 12:25-27 suggests that the members of the body of Christ are interrelated and inter-dependent. They are to support one another and care for one another. Ephesians 4:13-16 talks about the fact that as the body matures it grows and builds itself up in love as each part does its work.

The church is not an institution, but a witnessing agent that pricks the conscience of the world. As it faithfully witnesses to the truth about Christ, "fellowship" to refer to a church dinner or visiting after a service. The Biblical idea of the word means full participation in the family of God or the body of Christ.

sian believers, he told them to live and worship together in harmony and peace. The Apostle told the Hebrew believers not to forsake the assembling of themselves together. They needed to come together on a regular basis to encourage, strengthen and build one another up in the faith (Hebrews 10:25). Church membership means participation in the witnessing life of the church. Jesus promised that every believer would receive power to be His witnesses (Acts 1:8). Making a commitment to become a member of a local church means much more than adding your name to a membership roll. It means taking the responsibilities that come along with the privileges, being blessed and blessing others, and saying "no" to the world's standard of commitment and "yes" to God's. These are good reasons to encourage people to join the local church.

tion. So often we only use the word word for "church" is "ekklesia", which means "the called out ones". The word carries with it the idea of being called out of the world into the church. According to I Corinthians 12:13, all believers have been baptized into the body of Christ. However, the New testament in several places indicates that the local church kept track of its members and knew who was a part of their company (Acts 4:23). The membership of a community of believers was so clearly defined that it was known who belonged and who withdrew from the group (I John 2:19).

When Paul wrote to the Colos-

The church is not an organization, but a living organism that is alive and constantly growing. I Corinthians men and women become aware of their need of a savior. Paul talked about our conversation being full of grace and seasoned with salt, so we would know how to answer everyone (Colossians 4:6). The Apostle warned that even when men do not want to hear, we must correct, rebuke and encourage with great patience. (II Timothy 4:23). What does it mean to be a member of the church? The New Testament word that best describes church membership is "fellowship" or "koinonia", which means partnership or participation (Acts 2:42). The key word for "fellowship" is participa-

Middle school tennis teams look strong at Sonora tourney

David Screws STOCKMAN SPORTSWRITER

Last Saturday the Ozona Middle School Cubs and Cubettes broke out the rackets and tennis balls for their first tournament appearance and it was a good one for the teams.

In 7th girls' singles, Michelle Necessary bested Leandra Perez of Sonora, 6-3, 6-1, for third place. Derek Faught worked through a tough semifinal match to reach the championship where he defeated Reyes of Reagan Co., 6-3, 6-3, for the boys' singles title. Jarrett Vickers and Robert Ogle stormed through most of the competition and had trouble with only one set before capturing the 7th boys' doubles championship.

Shane Albers netted the 8th boys' singles consolation prize with an 8-2 victory over Batcher of Sonora. Staci Sutton and Leslie Flores found themselves down 6 games to 2 in their first round match before storming back to win the match 9-7. They ended up in the third place match which they handily won over a team from Reagan County by 6-4, 6-1.

Amy Ivey and Lana Stewart worked their way into the 8th girls' doubles championship before losing to Neal and Williams of Eldorado to settle for second. Also, in 8th boys' doubles the team of Chris Kennedy and Abel Rodriguez reached the title match before they lost.

Even though Midland Greenwood had sewn up the top spot in total points by the time the 1600 relay came around, the race was a classic. Christina Sanchez, Leslie Avila, Terren Marshall and Lori Sanchez put on the run of their lives as Iraan pulled a clocking of 2:40.05; Kayla Turland, away by a mere 4 seconds for first. However, Marshall and Sanchez put on a pair of great 400 meter legs to close the gap on Greenwood, beating them by .6 seconds for second. Given another 15 yards and Sanchez would have passed Iraan. Last Friday in Ozona the middle school eighth grade track and field Cubettes held their own with some stiff competition from Midland Greenwood, who won the meet with 194 points, and Sonora, who took second with 113. The Cubettes were third with 86 team points.

Individually Kristen Tambunga captured the first place medal in the 200 meter dash with a pace of 29.77 seconds and she finished second in the long jump with a leap of 14'6.75. Tambunga also ran on the second place 400 meter relay team which clocked in at 56.67 seconds. Teammates on the sprint relay were Stella Howard, Jorden Webster, and Erin Castro.

Along with her contribution to the sprint relay, Webster included two 4th place finishes; one in the long jump with a distance of 14'1.5" and the other in the triple jump at 28'4". Webster also finished the 100 meter hurdles in 20.37 seconds for 6th place points and was a member of the third place 1600 meter relay. That relay team also included Stella Howard, Staci Sutton and Jessica Herring and their time in the event was 4:58.68.

Expanded Judge Roy Bean Visitor Center dedicated

The Texas Department of Transportation celebrates the renovation of the historic Judge Roy Bean Visitor Center, located on U.S. 90 West at State Loop 25 in Langtry, with an official ribbon cutting earlier this month.

The information center, which provides professional travel counseling to visitors, was established in 1968. In 1994, the Val Verde Historical Commission donated the Lillie Langtry Opera House to TxDOT. The Opera House has been historically restored and integrated into the visitor center

The center features Judge Roy Bean's rustic saloon, courtroom, billiard hall and opera house, preserving the historic site where he ruled with a high-handed brand of homespun law in the 1880s. An extensive cactus garden displays native Southwest flora and interpretive signing. As part of the center renovation the path through the tension Office located at 1301 Ave. cactus garden has been redesigned for Wow! What a show! The Third Annual Friends of the Library Variety Talent Show was the biggest ever. The civic center auditorium was full to overflowing with excited people out to enjoy the entertainment on Friday night. Extra chairs were quickly set up, and everyone was made comfortable to watch the program that began with a bang and ended with a colorful explosion of song and dance. The Library People performed YMCA and thrilled the crowd by getting everyone in on the act. The Library Sisters' grand finale closed the show with a medley of songs and dance steps that had the crowd on their feet. All the talented local performers provided a non-stop night of entertainment from Eric's House Day Care pre-schoolers to the Old Timers' Band and everyone in between.

If you were not lucky enough to get one of the full color posters of The Library People or The Library Sisters, don't despair. We have made more copies, and they are now on sale at the public library. The posters are $2 each or three for $5. Come by and get yours today.

All proceeds benefitted the library building expansion fund, and almost $900 was raised by the talent show. Thanks, Friends, for your support of the expansion fund and all of the talented people who worked very hard to entertain during the show.

I also want to thank the volunteers who made the show possible. Thanks to KHOS Radio and Circle Bar Cable TV for getting the word out, and special thanks to everyone at The Ozona Stockman for the pictures and the advance publicity that resulted in such a great turnout for the show. Friends of the Library president Ann Light, vice-president Dean Allen and Mrs. Jimmie Jacoby worked very hard at the front table.
