division has steamed more than a half-million miles the Navy says.

Division Commander, Comdr. Dennis C. Lyndon said the tour ended was as successful as anyone could hope for.

The destroyers pounded Communist strongholds on North Korea's East Coast with almost 4,500 rounds of five-inch ammunition, he said. Only one ship, the Taussig, suffered damages. The Taussig took a hit from a 76 mm. gun during a strike on a railroad position near Hungnam. One man was injured.

The division flagship, the MacKenzie, commanded by Comdr. Clifford W. Bundy, spent a month in the harbor of Communist held Wonsan, the "most shot at city in the world," bringing the MacKenzie total time in that harbor area to 70 days. In addition to serving in Korean waters, the destroyers also spent a month on patrol of Formosa Strait.

The MacKenzie, Hanson, and Taussig each have logged 23 months of Far Eastern action since they escorted the First Provisional Marine Brigade to Korea in August, 1950. The Laws, a replacement for the Ernest G. Small, is rounding out her first Korean tour.

Two Bailey County sons, Louis and Harton Griffin are with this Destroyer Division 72. Louis Griffin, C.T.M., USS Taussig retires Feb., 1955. Horton Griffin, USS Laws, Navy Reserve, has been in the Navy since Feb. of this year. He went by transport ship to Japan to board the USS Laws.

Ralph Ware Reports On Trip To Boy Scout Jamboree

Ralph Ware, a local boy has returned from the National Boy Scout Jamboree in California. Ralph brought us his account of the trip there and back. We thought it very interesting and decided the Journal readers would too. Ralph's account of the trip is as follows: We left Lubbock at 7:00 Thursday morning the 9th of July. We ate lunch in Dalhart, and spent our first night in Pueblo, Colo., where we had supper and breakfast at the Saddle Club.

We stayed at Camp Roosevelt Scout camp, and here we met a number of Colorado Scouts who were having their pre-training period. We visited Royal Gorge the next day and took the Cable car to the bottom and back up. By lunch we were two and one half hours behind schedule. We went over the Monarch pass to Montrose, Colo. The scenery in this part of the country was beautiful.

We arrived in Price, Utah, about 9:30 p. m. and spent the night. Arrived at Salt Lake City about 11:30 a. m. the next morning and were on schedule. Had lunch, supper, and breakfast in the Hot Shoppe. We toured the Mormon Temple Grounds that afternoon, and had as a guide, Bob McKay, who is the son of the president of the Mormon Church. We also went swimming in the Great Salt Lake.

We went to Church Sunday morning in Delta, Utah, in the third ward of the Desert State of the Mormon Church. The services were simple, but very inspirational. The people were very friendly.

We arrived in Tonopah, Utah, about 9:00 p. m. and one and one half hours late after crossing the desert. We slept in the baseball park here and it was really rough. The scenery in this part of the country is really beautiful and the weather is sunny but cool. We started to go through Yosemite National Park, but the trails were so narrow for the busses, so we turned back.

We had supper July 13 at the Carnation Milk Co., in Bakersfield, Calif., and slept in the park.

The next day we were entertained by the Pico, Calif., Lions Club and had lunch with them. We arrived at the Jamboree Grounds. There was so much to do here, no one took very many notes. We visited Catalina Island, went swimming in the Pacific Ocean, and were entertained by such movie stars as Bob Hope and Debbie Reynolds.

We left the Jamboree Grounds for the trip home at 6:00 a. m., July 24, and ate lunch in Las Vegas, Nevada. We arrived at Boulder Dam about 2:30 and were taken on a tour of it, which took about an hour. We arrived at Kingham, Ariz., and ate supper at Richey's Cafe. Slept in the Park.

We got to Grand Canyon about 11:00 a. m. the next morning and ate the sack lunches which Richey's cafe had packed for us. After a rim drive through the Canyon we went on to Gallup, New Mexico for supper. Slept that night in a sticker patch near the swimming pool.

We finally got home on July 26th all tired but with memories of a wonderful trip, which we would keep for the rest of our lives.

Ralph Ware was honored by being offered a job as Assistant Scout Master at the next Scout Jamboree. It will be four years from now. The place has not yet been designated.

To Our Friends And Future Patrons

At last, all plans are complete for a co-op gin in the Muleshoe area and the Board of Directors of the Muleshoe Cooperative Gin Company wish to announce that a complete, all new, five 90-saw gin has been purchased from the Murray Company of Dallas, Texas. A fifteen acre tract of land for a gin site has been purchased from Mr. Roy White of Lazbuddie, and is situated one mile north and one half west of the stop-light in Muleshoe. Work is now under way on the foundation for the building. The building, an all steel structure, will start arriving in the next few days in Pre-fabricated sections and before many days have passed, one should be seeing the new gin building thrusting up into the air out north of town. Murray erection engineers have started to arrive on the scene, and the board hopes to have this, FIRST ALL NEW GIN FOR THE MULESHOE AREA, installed in record time. Our tentative ginning date is set for Oct. 1st., but of course it will be at an earlier date if at all possible to complete the gin sooner. All materials are made available and we anticipate no delays from that standpoint. All that we need now is plenty of sunshiny days, lots of hard work, and a little smile from the direction of the Good Lord, and with the good will of the people of the Muleshoe area, we are off to a grand start of a very worthy cause.

Come by and show your approval by making your presence and influence felt on the gin site. The Board of the Muleshoe Cooperative Gin Company earnestly solicits your presence and approval.

THANK YOU

Muleshoe Co-op Gin Co.

Muleshoe Girls Are Enjoying Summer At Camp Davis

Three Muleshoe girls are having the time of their lives this summer. They are: Joan Green, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. T. Green, Jr., Doris Jean Childers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Childers, and Kay Lenderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lenderson.

The girls have been at Camp Davis, which is near Las Vegas, N. M., since July 4. They will be there until August 1.

Although they find it too cold to swim, there is never a dull moment. There are pack trips into the mountains, hiking trips, horseback riding, riflery and other competitive sports, and crafts. The girls attend Sunday School every Sunday morning.

There are eighty-five girls in camp, with approximately thirteen girls and a counselor assigned to each cabin. There is a large recreation hall and a large mess hall where they take their meals, which are reported to be just out of this world. Once in a while though the girls have something they don't like. Joan Green said they had bear steak for supper one night, and she didn't care for it at all. The college girl counselors, with help from the girls in camp, put on a program practically every night.

This week, which is the girls last week in camp, they will go to Santa Fe, N. M., on chartered buses, for a day of souvenir hunt and a tour of some of the government houses.

Every Room Is A Corner Room

Here is a low-cost house of simple construction designed for comfortable living. It is an attractive house, compactly arranged, with pleasing horizontal lines.

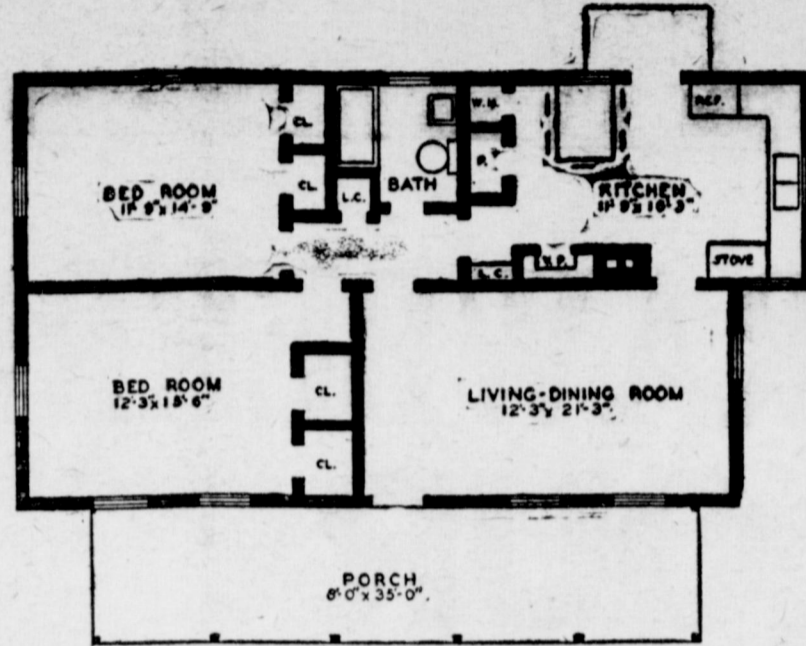

A large amount of usable wall space in the bedrooms permit desirable furniture arrangement. The two large closets in each bedroom provide storage for clothes, blankets, etc. A linen closet is in the hall, the lower section of which can be used as a dirty clothes hamper. The kitchen is arranged so that emergency prices of $35 a ton, corn at $1 a bushel, wheat at $1.10 and oats at 50 cents.

In addition, all efforts are toward quick and effective sale of beef through consumer advertising campaigns, government purchases and foreign exports. It seems likely that supplies of beef will continue high the next few years but that there will be very little increase in herd sizes. The long range effect is expected to help stabilize the market.

The stocker's chief problem will be in determining what part of his herd to sell and what to keep for continued production. Growers in the hard-hit areas should try to hold on to as many cattle as it is economically feasible to feed. Those with good pastures, principally in East Texas, may find this a good time to buy a few more head, depending on the size and condition of their range.

Farm and ranch people have demonstrated their mettle in asking only for the type of aid and relief which they could eventually pay back. With this kind of determination behind it, our cattle market will regain its solid footing.

it will be unusually cool. The window by the table makes a cheerful spot for eating, and the windows by the sink and stove provide an abundance of light where it is always needed. The large pantry, a small ventilated pantry, a linen closet and a water heater closet provide an abundance of storage space.

If more work space is needed or a screened porch wanted at some later date, the back door is placed so that this can be easily arranged by using shed roof construction. This will provide a large amount of space very economically and in no way detract from the appearance of the house of necessities and alteration in the kitchen.

A centrally located chimney will serve a living room heater and also the stove in the kitchen if a wood or coal kitchen range is used. If you want a fireplace for living room heat, it would be convenient to use the space now shown as a ventilated pantry and that shown as a chimney for storage.

The long front porch is a pleasant place to spend summer afternoons and evenings. You can obtain blueprints for this The Muleshoe Journal Farm & Ranch, Southern Agriculturist Plan No. 4807 and a handy list of materials by which you can figure your construction cost ac-

CATTLE PROSPECTS

Texas farmers and ranchmen, surveying their parched, brown earth and gaunt cattle, can very easily get a distorted picture of their future prospects. The situation is bad—but not hopeless.

Cattle owners must carefully consider their long-range plans. If you rush stock to the market which could be held, you may be cutting your income unnecessarily.

A larger part of our cattle backlog has been wiped out through quick marketing than many persons realize. Over 3½ million more cattle and calves were slaughtered during the first six months of 1953 than at the same time last year. In many cases, even the foundation herds of cattlemen have been cut drastically or eliminated entirely.

There is always the danger of going too far. Although the extremely favorable prices of the last few years may not return soon, measures are being put into effect which should add some strength to the market and encourage conservation of our foundation herds.

Some relief is on the way in the form of drought hay purchases, reduced railroad fares for transportation of necessary fodder and loans. Cottonseed pellets and meal is expected to sell to needy stock farmers at

BABSON Discusses — Korea And Business

Babson Park, Mass., July 30—Although I am still cautious as to the trend of business and still believe that the best investment today is in bank accounts, life insurance, and non-taxable bonds—yet I am not fearful of any serious crash from a Korean peace.

EFFECT ON EMPLOYMENT

It is a fact that a large number of industries are benefiting from war work. Marginal people who otherwise would be unemployed are now working. Almost every reader of this column knows who is directly or indirectly engaged in war work. Studies show that the inefficient workers add up to much less than one would think, probably to a total of only two or three million persons. This is less than 5% of the total employed today. The poorest workers of this group will lose their jobs if the Korean War ends and no other war starts. These will be people not interested in their work or those who are asking wages in excess of their real worth.

By far the greater fear of unemployment will come to those who are working on goods sold largely on installment or other forms of credit. This includes automobiles, refrigerators, television sets, homes and other things of which there is now a surplus. There may be a considerable turnover of employment when the Korean affair is cleared up, both from those engaged in war work and those dependent on the installment business. Good workers, interested in their jobs and earnestly striving to give their employer more than a dollar in value for every dollar received, have nothing to fear.

KOREA HAS NOT BEEN TOO EXPENSIVE

It is not healthy for the morale of the country to have inefficient people to get jobs as easily as they are doing today. As I have said before, the next panic will not be a banking panic, or a railroad panic, or a stock market panic, but rather a consumers' panic, due to an excessive boom in jobs, mortgages, and a too rapid increase in wages. Avoid debt if possible. Pay your bills promptly and don't waste time on TV or anything else.

As a further check upon the situation, I find that the Gross National Product of the United States for 1953 is estimated at over $360 billion. It is generally agreed that so long as the cold war with Russia lasts, we will spend at least $30 billions annually on national security. This means a decrease of only $20 billions if active fighting on all fronts should cease. This figure of $20 billions is less than 6% of the total given above. I still insist that we have seen the peak of business and employment for the next two or three years unless further war breaks out. On the other hand, I am more optimistic on the situation than I was a few months ago. Instead of flying a "danger signal", I would fly a "cautious signal".

WARS STIMULATE INVENTIONS

It, therefore, will be seen that peace in Korea will bring an improved situation to many to offset the hardships to others. In other words, we are slowly changing from war to a peace economy and every reader of this column should conscientiously consider how it will affect him or her, whether a banker, manufacturer, merchant, wageworker, or sales clerk, remembering that all of us are consumers. The purchasing power of the dollar is gradually increasing; prosperity is holding up better than anticipated; although of course, it is impossible for the dollar to increase in value unless present abnormal wages at least level off.

Wageworkers fail to realize that their increased wages during the past war years have been due to new machinery. War always stimulates inventions which either reduce costs or improve the product. If we draw a line showing the money spent on re-

SAND HILLS PHILOSOPHER Offers To Take Over 25 Million Idle Acres Worrying Government For '54

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm may be an expert on what he's talking about, but he probably has misinterpreted the government's plans, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:
I was napping out here yesterday afternoon on a couch on the front porch when a fluttering noise woke me up and I slapped at what I thought was a wasp but found out it was a newspaper which a puff of wind had dropped over my face and the steady risin and fallin of the paper as I snored was what was makin the flap-pin noise, and since I was awake by then and the paper was at hand I lifted it off my face far enough away to get it in focus and still stay stretched out and read where Washington is now worried over what to do with an estimated 25 million idle acres next year. If crop controls go into effect.

As I understand it, us farmers have produced so much stuff the Secretary of Agriculture will be required to reduce the number of acres that can be planted to wheat, cotton, and maybe other crops next year in order to make the price support program work, and Washington is scratchin his head and ponderin on the problem of what to do with the acres that'll be left idle.

Washington is sure strainin a point to find something to worry about. It just imagines idle acres will bother some farmers too, but out of years of experience I can report if a man has the strength of character he can get used to seein idle acres all around him and in time it ain't no more to worry about than fearin the sun won't come up in the mornin.

In fact, as an expert in handlin idle acres, I will be glad to take over the whole 25 million myself, if Washington can't think of anything else to do with em, and I will guarantee not an acre of it will be planted to wheat, cotton, corn, or any other crop the government wants to hold production down on. If holdin search and new machinery by any company, it will usually show how much the company can pay in higher wages. None of us realize what we owe to the inventors of our country. The wonderful new machines, products, and processes about to come on the market keep me from being a pessimist.

down production is what it takes to keep agriculture on an even keel. I'm the man they've been lookin for, and I don't mind sayin I feel pretty good about the whole thing. I've been criticized from certain quarters for idle-acre farmin for years, and I'm proud that the government itself has come around to my way of thinkin.

As far as I'm concerned, idle-acre farmin is the most satisfactory occupation there is.
Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Today's Meditation

He poureth water into a basin, and began to wash the disciple's feet. (John 13:5) Pilate . . . took water, and washed his hands before the multitude. (Matthew 27:24) Read John 13:1-5.

The lowly basin deserves a prominent place in Christian thinking because of its use during the closing hours of Jesus' earthly ministry. Basins were used twice within 24 hours; one by Jesus, the other by Pilate. Desiring to appease the crowd, Pilate took water and washed his hands after consenting to let Jesus be crucified. Pilate intended the washing of his own hands to indicate his innocence and the placing of the responsibility for Jesus' death upon the crowd and upon the religious authorities.

In the upper room we see the basin in the hands of Jesus. He used it in teaching the disciples a needed lesson in humility. They were too concerned over their individual position in the Kingdom of God. He humbled Himself, pouring water into a basin and washing their feet. Thus Jesus, by example, taught them humility.

PRAYER
O Father God, "breathe through the hearts of our desires" the compelling wish to seek truth, even truth about ourselves. Humble us so that we become willing servants of Thine. May Thy Spirit rule in our hearts by faith. In His name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
Am I a willing servant of the Lord and Master?
Charles W. Fisher (Wash.)

Elgin Editor Praises Journal And Muleshoe

R. L. "Bob" Carter, of Elgin, was here recently to visit his daughter, Mrs. Ben Chapman, and when he went home he had a copy of The Journal tucked under his arm. Now he writes ye editor to express his pleasure over his visit here and to offer to present the key to the city to any of the Muleshoe citizens he met should they decide to visit in Elgin.

And he encloses a copy of The Elgin Courier, which carried the comment of the editor, Edwin Bromough, on The Journal, which Mr. Carter had shown him. In his column, "Observations," Mr. Bromough said these nice things about the paper and its community and local people:

Bob Carter was out at Muleshoe in West Texas visiting his daughter, and seeing the fine paper that is printed in Muleshoe he bought one to us. Bob pointed out the advertising in the sixteen pages.

We wonder sometimes why some of those western towns thrive even during sandstorms and droughts—and knowing what a well patronized newspaper means we see the answer in the advertising of the merchants who are always cooperating to help bring people into their town to trade.

We checked the population of Muleshoe in 1950 and found it 600 smaller than Elgin. We did not check it at the present date. Those sixteen pages were crammed full of ads, quarter, half and two whole page grocery ads. And we noted one grocery used about $2 worth of his space for one item—five cents a pound short ribs.

Bob it was a pleasure to look the Muleshoe Journal over and dream of a time when Elgin merchants will take to advertising like that and drawing people here to trade. But of course that would make Elgin grow and then many new homes would have to be erected.

Sanitation And Personal Hygiene Individual's Defense Against Polio

Polio isn't running wild in Texas this summer as it did in '52, but it is still smart to play safe with the kids. State Health Officer George W. Cox will tell you. There are several common sense items parents ought to keep in mind during the polio season. Dr. Cox lists them like this:

Don't get panicky. Keep in mind that half of all polio victims recover completely, and 30 percent of the other half recover with only slight weakness. Only 14 percent have lasting paralysis. Realize that gamma globulin is not a cure for polio. There is no cure. GG is intended only as a temporary preventive against paralysis. At best it is effective only for 5 weeks, after which it has all been eliminated by the body.

Gamma globulin has been tested on more than 54,000 children and the results are now under study, but once the polio virus has reached the nerve cells, GG cannot alter the course of the disease.

You can find out whether or not your child is eligible to receive gamma globulin by asking the health officer in your county. He is familiar with the formula for GG distribution in effect in Texas.

Meanwhile, don't isolate your youngsters when you hear of a case of polio in the community. There is no point in letting them contact strangers, but they ought to be allowed in their usual circle of friends.

Keep them clean and see that they rest in the afternoon. A nap is fine, but even playing quietly part of the day will help conserve their strength.

Last, but highly important, call your doctor at the first onset of any of these signs: headache, fever, sore throat, upset stomach, stiff neck, or back. The earlier a case of polio is diagnosed, the better are the chances for recovery without lasting damage.

Great strides are being made toward the development of a vaccine, but until it is finally developed Dr. Cox believes this opinion is still valid:

"A high level of environmental sanitation and personal hygiene is the individual's best defense against polio."

Funds Solicited For Korean Aid In Rehabilitation

Bailey County people are expected to give generously to the proposed $5 million fund to provide immediate aid to millions of displaced, sick and injured persons and orphans in Korea. Bailey County will observe "Aid To Korea Week" August 2 to 9.

In a letter signed by Sam E. Fox, a member of the county committee, it is pointed out that: "The need in Korea on the part of the civilian population is acute. There are 15,000 amputees among Korean men, women and children . . . one in twenty has tuberculosis . . . 300,000 are war widows . . . there are more than 100,000 orphans."

Mahon Helps On Drouth Measures

Bill Millen, of Muleshoe, has received a letter from Congressman George Mahon acknowledging receipt of the communication in regard to the Texas drouth upon the occasion of the recent meeting with Secretary Benson. He has made the information available to appropriate officials in the capital.

In his letter, Mr. Mahon pointed out that Congress has since passed legislation in regard to credit for farmers and ranchers, and he expressed the hope the Department of Agriculture "will bodily project itself into this program and that real results will be accomplished."

The communication presented to the Agriculture secretary on his visit to Lubbock pointed out that drouth conditions existed in this county; that the farmer and stockman needed finances and long-term loans at low interest rates and with second lien security; and the communication said that crop control in the case of wheat be eased in this county so that wheat may be planted for livestock grazing purposes.

Golf Course Was Never So Pretty

Something to be proud of is the Muleshoe golf course these days. It is one of the prettiest spots in the whole countryside.

The recent rains have greened up the native grass and A. S. Stovall, one of Muleshoe's veteran golfers and acting now as caretaker, has had the grass on all fairways mowed neatly.

There are no unsightly weeds, although there is plenty of vegetation in the "rough", but it is not unsightly. Mr. Stovall complains that when the course was dusty and the grass scraggly, everyone wanted to play, but now when everything is so attractive, players have thinned out. He wants more to play on Muleshoe's beautiful course.

The sand greens are in fine shape and all the premises about the course are clean of rubbish and present an orderly appearance. Mr. Stovall wants local people to come out and see the place, even if they don't want to play golf.

Muleshoe Slaps Printers In 11-3 Win

The Muleshoe team got revenge and more too, after their defeat last week by the Printers.

In their game played Tuesday, the Muleshoe boys started off with a bang when they ran in five big scores in the very first inning to the Printers one. The first five men up for Muleshoe scored, while the next three were retired in order.

Muleshoe got five runs in the first, one in the fourth, three in the fifth, one in the sixth and one in the seventh for their 11-3 win over the Printers.

The Printers got one lonely run in the first, one in the third, and were allowed only one run in the sixth for their scoring.

Lewallen was the winning pitcher while Shaw pitched for the Printers.

REA On Short End Of 4-2 Score

In a make-up game, the Muleshoe team barely nozed out the REA boys by a score of 4-2, in a five inning game.

Muleshoe managed to slip in one run in the first inning, when Embry, the first man up, scored. The REA team went down three up. The Muleshoe boys got three more runs in the third inning while holding the REA boys still hitless. In the fourth frame, REA got in two runs for their only tallies, holding the Muleshoe team scoreless. The fifth inning saw neither team scoring and the game ended with the Muleshoe team winning another game at the expense of the REA 4-2. Their game, which had been for Monday, was rained out and they played it Wednesday.
