Fire Destroys Old Elevator, Loss Placed At $10,000

An old wooden elevator, property of King Bros. Grain & Seed Co., now used mostly for storage purposes was destroyed by fire Monday night.

The spectacular blaze endangered other property in the neighborhood. A stiff breeze whirled sparks from the fire dangerously close to another warehouse owned by the company and too close for comfort to a huge accumulation of cotton located nearby and belonging to Union Compress. Crews of the compress were on hand with their fire fighting equipment to help Muleshoe fire department members confine the fire to the elevator.

The fire boys did a good job of controlling the blaze which was reported to them about 1 a. m. and already had a big head start. A warehouse belonging to Houston Hart adjoining the elevator received some damage.

Company officials estimated loss of building and grain at $10,000, the loss being partially covered by insurance. The elevator was built about 1943.

RETURNED HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Warner returned home Wednesday from Missouri. They helped the Richard Smiths move there.

SOIL CONSERVATION SERVICE SAYS:

Stubble, Crop Residue Stop Blowing

Protecting the land from blowing is very important to the farmers in the Blackwater Valley Soil Conservation District. One of the best ways this type of conservation can be done, is by plowing the land with implements which leave the stubble and crop residue on the surface.

There will be no sale, but winners will receive awards and ribbons will be given.

A feature of the show is that all superintendents and assistant superintendents will be club boys and girls. Dave Sherrill, Lubbock county agent, and Raymond King of Lubbock Cotton Oil will be the judges.

300 Miles Of New Roads Estimated For Ranch Land Turning Into Farms

As more land on the Muleshoe ranch goes under the plow and farmers take over, the job of Tom Morgan, commissioner for Precinct 1 becomes bigger. Roads will be built around each section of land that is to be farmed for the first time, and Mr. Morgan estimates the change from ranch to farm land will add 300 miles of roads for him to maintain.

Most of the new agriculture land is in his precinct.

Most recent road to be built is one that will save many miles for some motorists. It leads straight south from the Plainview highway, from a point where the Y. L. farm to market road intersects that highway, across the Santa Fe tracks and to the Lubbock highway.

Mr. Morgan announced Tuesday he had just secured right of way easements from the Santa Fe and permission to make a crossing for that new road. He has already graded the road on both sides of the railroad and will soon begin construction of the fill for the crossing.

When all roads are completed, people will find that many roads lead out of and into Muleshoe instead of two main highways as at present. Farmers on these new farm lands will have an easy access to the town.

City people who have not kept up with the development of the ranch into a rich new agriculture area will find it entertaining to drive out and see what all is being done. They are changing the face of the old Muleshoe mighty fast.

Polio Chapter Elects Officers; Drive Big Success

Twenty members of Bailey Co. March of Dimes Chapter gathered for breakfast at Gerald's Cafe Wednesday morning to recapitulate a great year, an extra fine year financially, to review the spirited drive which has just ended most successfully, and to give its leins, so to speak, for the tremendous job that still lies ahead.

First off, they elected officers and directors to direct a program in the county that will tax the energies and imagination of many men and women during the coming two or three years and more.

Travis Reed, who successfully directed the drive for funds in the annual March of Dimes drive was elected chairman of the chapter. He will succeed Jeff Peeler, who has served two years. Bill Wilson was elected vice-chairman.

Directors elected are: W. E. Young, Owens Jones, Dee Clements, Rev. Clarence Stephens, Dr. W. F. Birdsong, Glen Williams, Alex Wilkins, Jerry Kirk, and Mr. Peeler.

Mrs. Mary Frances Holt read the financial report for the last two years. The chapter raised $1,700 in the special drive last summer which was led by Bill Moore; and went over the top in the annual drive by raising more than $3,700, against a goal of $3,500.

Mrs. Holt, who has served as secretary for five years, requested to be relieved and Mr. Jeff Peeler called for volunteers. At the same time Mrs. Wilbur LeVeque, who has served as treasurer, asked that another be placed in this important post and volunteers are sought for that place.

Mike Hyre, of Abilene, regional director for the National Foundation gave a most interesting review of efforts to develop Salk vaccine. Last year, second grade pupils in selected counties, 10 in Texas, received this vaccine; this year the first and second graders will get the shots and in addition there will be some for third and fourth graders and for expectant mothers. Of the second graders who last year received the vaccine, only 5 have been stricken with polio, and none of those cases were paralytic. So, the outlook for control of polio in seven or eight years seems very optimistic, Mr. Hyre said. The Journal will develop further facts and figures on this situation in next week's issue.

State Pres. Speaks To Local Jaycees

The local Jaycees met last Thursday night at Gerald's Cafe, and were honored with the presence of state JC president Rocky Ford of Midland and Odell Heathington, state vice-president, from Ralls.

After a brief business period, Odell Heathington introduced Ford, who addressed the group concerning the various activities of the Junior Chamber around the state of Texas. He inspired the local club to put their all into each JC project, and urged each individual member to do his share, and more if necessary, of the work in each project. Several worth-while projects were named and discussed. Among those were teen-age road rodeos, safety drivers, and aid to orphan children.

Plans for the coming JC sponsored minstrel were discussed and Herbert Griffiths was given the job of caring for "Rufus" the Muleshoe mule, this coming week.

Sudan Woman Dies As Car Overtakes Near Muleshoe

Mrs. Grace Cheshier Robertson, 48, Sudan, was killed when she lost control of her car and it overturned about 6 a. m. Monday, about five miles southwest of Muleshoe.

Mrs. Robertson was going towards Sudan and was riding alone. Her car struck the shoulder of the road, crossed to the other side and overturned several times. It came to rest on the right side of the highway near the fence.

A passerby called an ambulance and she was taken to West Plains Hospital in Muleshoe, where she was pronounced dead.

Lubbock Man Is Found Dead Here

John William Turpen, 46, of Lubbock was found dead on the highway east of Muleshoe Tuesday morning about 8 o'clock. It was theorized that he had exerted himself too much in trying to get his car out of deep sand on a new road north of the railroad.

He had walked across the tracks and was fatally stricken. The spot was very near the point where a Sudan woman lost her life when her automobile overturned early Monday.

The body was prepared for burial by Singleton Funeral Home here. Funeral and burial were at Lubbock. Mr. Turpen was a cotton buyer. He leaves his wife, a son, and a daughter.

Band To Get New Uniforms

At the first Band Booster meeting of the 1954-55 school year the club voted to have as its project for this year new uniforms for the high school band.

The club realized that this undertaking of approximately three thousand dollars was too much for the club alone. But with the cooperation of the school, the band director, business firms, and friends the project has been completed.

The club used for its methods of raising money a cake walk, which was held on the C. & H. Chevrolet car lot in October. In November and December the club sold Thanksgiving and Christmas fruit cakes.

At the time of the fruit cake sales a number of business firms offered to contribute a uniform to the band. After that, the club contacted other business firms and individuals for contributions, and all responded generously.

The club wishes to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their work and efforts in making it possible for the band to have the new uniforms for the spring concert and contest.

The following firms and individuals donated a complete uniform: Charles L. Lenau Lumber Co., Muleshoe Motor Co., Sam E. MULESHOE

FROM TECH

Gene Richardson visited here over the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Richardson. He is a student at Texas Tech.

FROM CANYON

Ann Woodley and Carlos Garner were visiting relatives and friends in Muleshoe over the weekend. Both are students at WTSC.

Miss Mary Alice Bauer And Ernest Ramm Wed In Impressive Candlelight Ceremony

St. Paul's Lutheran Church at Canyon was the scene of an impressive candlelight ceremony at 7:00 o'clock in the evening, Sunday, January 23, uniting in marriage Miss Mary Alice Bauer and Ernest Ramm.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin L. Bauer of Happy, and his parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Ramm, of Muleshoe.

The Rev. Harold Kaestner of Hereford, performed the beautiful double-ring ceremony before an archway of white candelabra with white satin bows and entwined with greenery. Huge baskets of white gladiolus entwined with greenery and tied with wide white satin bows flanked the altar. Centering the arrangement was a white satin kneeling bench.

Miss Helen Meyer presented a prelude of piano music and accompanied Oscar Schuette as he sang "I Love You Truly", and "The Lord's Prayer". Miss Meyer also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father was lovely in a floor length gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a tight fitting bodice featuring a yoke and collar of lace. The scalloped neckline was encrusted with seed pearls and her long sleeves came to points over her hands. The waist came to a point in the center front and was gathered onto the full skirt. She wore a triple strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Her fingertip length veil of illusion fell from a tiara of white satin encrusted with seed pearls. She carried a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis from which flowed white satin streamers which were tied in love knots. Carrying out the tradition, something old was a blue printed handkerchief which she borrowed from her grandmother. Her veil was borrowed and she wore a penny in her left shoe.

Mrs. Franklin Bauer of Friona served her sister-in-law as matron of honor. She wore a floor length gown of blue taffeta fashioned after that of the bride and carried a nosegay of pink carnations. 6th Graders Win At Olton 36-23

The local sixth grade basketball team defeated Olton's seventh grade boys Monday at Olton 36-23. Gary King led the Muleshoe scoring with 13 points. Paul Medria of Olton took the day's honors with 17 tallies.

Mules Rack Up Lockney By 63 to 41; Girls Continue On Win Path, 56 to 54

The Mules and Mullettes continued to make a clean sweep of the second round of the district 2-AA race Tuesday night by defeating the Lockney Longhorns in the local gym. The girls took their game 56-54 and the boys rolled a 63-41 victory.

Both teams went through the first quarter of the girls game in a deadlock but the Mullettes hustled to a 18-15 lead going in to the second period.

Muleshoe held its lead through the second. The Mullettes were going away 30-23 at the half.

Lockney rallied strong in the third and with less than a minute to go in the quarter the visitors tied the contest up 42-42.

Early in the fourth Lockney took its first lead 44-42. Both teams began a desperate last minute fight to win. Mid-way through the fourth the Mullettes trailed 50-46. Then Muleshoe rallied. First they tied it up then Jean Montgomery was fouled. Amid a deafening roar she sank two charity tosses to put the Mullettes ahead 55-53. The local girls took it from there to win. Jean Montgomery and Neil Cunyus teamed up to take the scoring honors with 34 points each. Gaede, Harrison, Dawson, Douglass, Wright, Holt, and Evans added their all out never die spirit to keep the local girls undefeated in district starts this season.

MULES WIN

A hard fast pace was set from the start of the boys' game. Lockney took an early lead but the Mules came back to go ahead 16-11 before the end of one.

Muleshoe held tight to its lead in the second, holding Lockney to eight points and adding ten to their first quarter score.

The Mules moved on ahead as the skill of a man at the foul line began to count a lot on the final score. Muleshoe led 41-29 going into the last quarter.

Every man got a hand in the last quarter scoring. The local offense began to click as the Mules after dropping an earlier contest to the Longhorns took this one going away.

Eugene Shaw was high point for the Mules with 31. Marion Cross laid in 12 for Lockney.

Mules Down Floydada 64-55; Mullettes Win Their 14th In Row 50-39

The local basketball teams took the second series of the season from the Floydada Whirlwinds last Friday night at Floydada. The Mules hustled to a 64-55 win, while the Mullettes rolled to victory, 50-39.

The Mullettes took the first lead in their game and never lost it through the entire contest. At the end of one they were favored 14-8.

Floydada tried to tighten up on defense before the half, but the local six still managed to pull away 27-14 at the mid-point.

Going into the fourth frame the score favored the Mullettes 42-31. Elaine Evans took over Barbara Douglass' position on offense before the end of the third, and June Freeman took over for Donna Wright late in the final round of play.

The fourth quarter was a show of defense on the part of both teams. The Mullettes scored only eight, while holding Floydada to the same tallies per quarter.

Jean Montgomery laid in 27 for Muleshoe, and Johnston led Floydada with 19 points. Harrison and Wright were extremely outstanding for the Mullettes on defense.

The Mules were off to an early five point lead before Floydada's offense could start clicking. The local team, lacking the services of Eugene Shaw set the pace as that of all-out hustle. Having gained height since their previous encounter with the Mules, the Whirlwinds threw the game into a 17-17 deadlock before the

Jr. High Squads Roll Over Olton

The local junior high basketball squads swept four straight from the visiting Olton teams last Monday night in the high school gym.

Opening the night's play was the eighth grade girls contest. The locals won the evenly matched contest 19-13. Gwen Williams scored 12 points to lead Muleshoe. Sandie Saint had six for Olton.

Muleshoe's eighth grade boys came from behind with less than two minutes remaining to win 18-17. Leroy Correlaz and Eugene Jackson teamed up to take the scoring honors for the winning five with six points each.

Sue Cunningham led the local freshmen girls to an early first quarter lead. Olton dropped in its first bucket with one minute remaining in the first round.

The scoring was even in the last three quarters. Sandie Briscoe led the local girls by sinking half of their total tallies. Bryant took Olton honors with eight points for her night's work. The score 20-15 Muleshoe.

Muleshoe's freshmen held the Olton boys to only two points in the first frame while they racked up a ten point lead.

Olton began trying to get back into the game in the second quarter but the Muleshoe five moved on to lead at half time 24-15.

The Jr. Mules turned the power on in the third and coasted to a 8-21 lead going into the last period.

Muleshoe scored only two points in the fourth but held tight to win 40-25.

Blackshear Makes Name On Tech's Cage Combo

A one time resident of Muleshoe, DuWayne Blackshear, is now a top ranking cager on the Red Raider squad at Texas Tech. Currently he is running second only to Jim Scott of West Texas State in the Border Conference's free shot realm. Scott has a 92.9 percentage mark, and Blackshear's figure is 83.8.

Scott's percentage is the best in the nation.

Free throws early vaulted the name of Blackshear, a 6 foot 6 forward, who now lives in Mountainaire, N. M., into the sports spotlight at Tech. In Blackie's freshman year, 1953, Tech was approaching against University of Arizona its first century mark in history even though Coach Polk Robison had inserted his reserves with minutes remaining.

With only seconds left and the score at 98-80 Blackshear was fouled. A deafening roar from the crowd shut down to tomb-like silence as the tall freshman walked to the line and was handed the ball.

Once, twice the ball sailed in a perfect arc from Blackie's hands through the basket, and Tech had its only century mark—since when they could have passed 100—until a 111-103 score was amassed against Furman University six weeks ago.

Last season Blackshear, although usually not a starter, wound up second in the Border Conference in free throw percentages, with 49 of 62 for 79 percent.

But more than free throws are Blackshear's contribution to the Red Raider cause this season. Improvement in his play is probably the one outstanding factor that stands between Tech's mediocre standing Coach Robison feared and the contending spot the Raiders are now in.

As Robison evaluated his team before the season began, three spots were definite. Those were the three occupied by the returning starters from last season.

Blackshear has more than solved half of Robison's problems. Whereas he averaged only 5.8 points per game last season, he's now hitting the basket at a clip of 13 points per contest. That's good enough to rank him tenth in the conference.

Furthermore, Blackshear's aggressiveness has picked up considerably, getting him in position for better shots or a chance to feed the ball off to teammates.

Blackshear married a Tech classmate during the summer, the former LaJune Chilton of McClean.

Bailey County Produced 58,875 Bales Of Cotton Last Year, Gov't. Reports

Bailey County's 1954 cotton production total is boosted in recent area reports. Figure for ginnings from last year's crop is now placed at 58,875 bales by the Bureau of the Census. This compares with ginnings of 73,245 for the crop of 1953.

The Bureau's preliminary report issued last week end covered ginnings to Jan. 16, and confirmed expectations that Lubbock and Hale Counties would wind up in one two position as the leaders of Texas production last year.

Lubbock County led the state with a total of 220,499; Hale had 204,376. Lamb County was in third place with 178,130 bales.

Texas production for 1954 was down to 3,822,205, against a 1953 total of 4,216,288 bales.

THIS & THAT

About
Homemakers & Homemaking IN BAILEY COUNTY
 By MOLLIE STINSON

I visited with two of the clothing demonstrators in the home demonstration clubs this week. The women made plans for the things they want to accomplish as demonstrators.

Mrs. Albert Davis is clothing demonstrator for the Progress Club. Included in her short time goals are pattern alteration and pattern selection. Mrs. Davis wants to be able to achieve a professional fit in the dresses she makes for herself and her daughter. To do this the patterns must be altered correctly to suit the wearer's figure. Mrs. Davis plans to do some experimenting on which is the most practical way to alter her patterns, and what size pattern is the most satisfactory.

Another of her aims is to get more information on pattern selection for her figure type and personality.

Mrs. J. H. Hanks is clothing demonstrator for the Muleshoe Club. First on her list of projects is the planning, building and finishing of a sewing cabinet of some type. Mrs. Hanks wants one that is portable and space saving. She is going to work on other parts of the sewing center, too. Including good placement of cabinet and machine for work simplification.

Each of these demonstrators has a different plan in mind. It is one in which she is interested and needs help in doing. The other clubs have clothing demonstrators also. It will be interesting to see what problems they select for their demonstration. Heavily soiled clothes that don't come clean, with regular washing are problems to many homemakers.

To make washing easier, special presoaking, suited to both soil and fabric is good. Soaking greasy overalls and cotton work shirts for 15 to 20 minutes in hot sudsy water containing a half cup of household ammonia. For convenience soak in the tub of the washer, then spin or wring out clothes and wash.

Oversoiled cotton slip covers, curtains and play clothes may be soaked for 10 to 20 minutes in warm water, or in warm water containing a detergent or non-precipitating water softener. Use one-half to one teaspoon of either substance for each gallon of water. After soaking extract water and wash as usual.

Soiled collars, neckbands and cuffs also will profit from some special attention before washing. Loosen the soil in these areas by working suds gently into the fabric with hands, soft brush or sponge. Use the same soap or other detergent that will be used in washing.

Only Car at its Price*...

So Smart! So Big! So Powerful!

*You can buy a big, powerful Pontiac for less than many models of the lowest-priced cars!

Whatever you want most in a car—beauty, size or performance—you get it in extra measure in a Pontiac. In fact, when you choose Pontiac the decision comes very easily—because Pontiac alone, at its price, gives you everything!

For example, take Pontiac's distinctive smartness. Certainly there is no question on this point. Pontiac is the one car that stands apart from all the others.

If it's size and big-car sure-footedness you want—Pontiac's your car! Pontiac's long wheelbase—124 inches in the Star

Chief, shown here, and 122 inches in the 860 and 870 series—is the plus wheelbase that provides the roominess, the comfort, the satisfying road-hugging security that only a big car can supply.

As for performance—once you get behind the wheel you have all the proof you need that Pontiac is way ahead in this department, too. Pontiac's spectacular performance starts with the most modern engine of all—the powerful new Strato-Streak V-8—specifically designed for Pontiac's all-new chassis to give you balanced performance. That means smooth, eager getaway in traffic; power to spare on the open road; and even more of Pontiac's traditional economy, dependability and long life.

All this adds up to a wonderful car and—with Pontiac's remarkably low price tag—a very wonderful buy. Come in soon and talk dollars and cents. If you're in the market for any new car, you'll discover you can easily afford all the pride and pleasure of a big, powerful, luxury-loaded Pontiac.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

God's complete and loving control of the universe and man will be stressed in the Lesson-Sermon on the subject of "Soul" which will be read at Christian Science services this Sunday.

"The Lord God is a sun and shield; the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly" (84:11). This verse will be read from Psalms together with selections such as the following from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The sun is not affected by the revolution of the earth. So Science reveals Soul as God, untouched by sin and death, as the central Life and intelligence around which circle harmoniously all timings in the systems of Mind" (p. 310).

The Golden Text is from Psalms (62:1): "Truly my soul waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation."

SANCTIONED SLAUGHTER

Editor's Note: Under the above caption Gilbert L. Kerr, vice-president, America Fore Insurance Group, has written a powerful treatise on the nation's traffic fatality and injury problem, which The Journal will print in this and succeeding issues. We are indebted for this copy to Pool Insurance Agency, which has ordered a number of these pamphlets to be distributed at the schools and other places.

The fundamental problem facing the automobile insurance industry is not one of rates or classifications, or compulsory insurance, assigned risk plans or uninsured judgement funds.

These are only symptoms of the basic disease, they get the publicity, but of themselves they are not fatal.

The basic disease is certainly a fatal one — it is worse than murder.

I am talking about the slaughter of 30 to 40 thousand of our people, and the mangling and maiming of over a million more, upon our highways each year.

And I am talking about the apathy of the general public towards this butchery, the appearance even of resistance to control measures, all of which, to me, adds up to the most amazing and totally baffling enigma in our history.

We can revise or create entirely new rating structures. We can raise rates. We cannot raise the dead.

I repeat, our traffic slaughter and our reaction to it, as a people, is a baffling, frustrating enigma.

Here is what I mean.

We Americans are the most unselfish people on earth. Three times within our generation we have given unstintingly of our lives and our resources in an effort, vainly perhaps, to bring the blessings of freedom to the rest of the world. Today we are feeding our friends, our former foes and our potential and avowed enemies alike.

We certainly are not basically a barbarous, brutal or blood-thirsty people, BUT . . .

We sanction the slaughter of 30 to 40 thousand of our own people on the highways each year.

We tolerate and sometimes participate in anti-accident campaigns.

We have our minds totally out of focus, our impressions totally out of perspective, our emphasis totally misplaced and our efforts totally misguided.

We sanction this slaughter because we sanction the drivers who kill. The privilege of using the highways is granted, withheld or taken away at the behest of the community.

It is being proven in some isolated areas that we can have safe highways if we want them bad enough to abandon the almost universally cherished notion that the rules of the road apply to everyone but ourselves.

What is our national response to the deaths by automobile in 1953 of 4,400 children under 14, of 8,200 from 15 to 24 years, to a total of 38,300 persons of all ages?

Well, we have seen no headlines about it, but we have seen headlines about 28 children who died in abandoned ice boxes in 1953.

I say we are out of focus, off perspective, and misguided.

In the past 11 years, an estimated 80 children have gotten themselves locked into ice boxes or refrigerators and have suffocated. Something less than an average of 10 a year. In 1953, as I observed, 28 children died in this manner, and there was widespread publicity.

As a result, laws were passed prohibiting the disposal of such object without first removing the doors. Communities and merchants offered prizes for old refrigerator doors. Teams of Boy Scouts and other organizations scoured dumps and rendered harmless thousands of these relics.

Certainly, I endorse this activity, but I remind you, there was not a tear in the public eye when in the same year the lives of more than 5,000 children were sacrificed to the automobile.

In 1951, 11 residents of Elizabeth, N. J., were killed, not as airplane passengers, but as a result of plane crashes into the city, all involving nearby Newark Airport. The aroused citizenry forced the closing of Newark Airport, until physical and operational changes were made.

Yet, in the same year, almost twice as many Elizabethians died by automobile, mourned only by family and friends. Their passing into statistics was marked only by a paragraph on a back page, if space was available, and a brief obituary.

Let a child be stricken with polio in a community, and what happens?

Schools, swimming pools and theatres close; committees are formed; and in one case, mobs of militant mothers marched upon city hall, demanding vaccine.

But look at the record. For every young life up to 14 years taken by polio, the automobile takes five lives, and from 15 to 24, 19 lives.

The critical age for fatal polio is from five to 14 years, when the polio death rate reaches a peak of TWO per 100,000 population.

Now look at the automobile death rate: Under 5 years of age — 11.8 per 100,000 population; 5-14 years — 8.4 per 100,000 population; 15-24 years — 39.0 per population.

I repeat the polio death rate — TWO per 100,000.

Death by automobile has cunningly kept the spotlight turned away from himself.

This is demonstrated further in an article entitled, "Our Daughter Had Polio", which appeared in the Aug. 15, 1954, issue of the "Saturday Evening Post". The author correctly reflects the perspective of typical parents when she says:

"Poliomyelitis. A word that strikes more terror in the hearts of parents than the atom bomb: Polio."

TRUE. Now the next time you are on the highway, count the parents you see hurtling along at 50 and over with a tot or two standing on the seat between them. You will count hundreds, each of whom has an unseen passenger. Death, ignorantly invited by parents into whose hearts the word polio strikes terror.

It is shocking, but it is a fact, that our indifference to motor vehicle deaths is such that they seem to be insidiously acquiring the status of a "natural cause" in the public mind.

Do not misunderstand me. I am not opposed to ice box drives, polio drives or any other of these very worthy causes. But remember this:

The automobile is the greatest single enemy of human life for the first one half of the normal life span.

I have two fine grandchildren, and I don't want them to fall victim to an abandoned ice box or polio. But I know who the greatest enemy of their lives is, and I want the spot light on him, too. I want him stopped in his tracks.

I asserted that we occasionally observe resistance to highway safety. Here is what I mean.

The radar technique of speed control has replaced the "cop behind the billboard", as the scapegoat of the motorists' wrath. It is unfair, sneaky—a trap. So? It is highly accurate, and therefore, just. It is highly economical. It is highly effective. It brings about a healthy regard for the speed limit. It hurts no one but violators of the law.

Yet we have witnessed the silly spectacle of a clergyman picketing an upstate New York community because he was picked up for speeding by radar. He was not protesting his innocence, but the method of his apprehension.

I call it a silly spectacle. I do so because I am a churchgoer, and I have always been told that the Recording Angel sees all we do, although unseen himself. A sort of supernatural radar.

So I have a picture of this minister, who must have preached many times on the same subject, now picketing the Pearly Gates and demanding that the Recording Angel reveal himself in blue uniform, badge and conspicuously marked car.

BABSON DISCUSSES—

The Bible And Formosa

Babson Park, Mass., Feb. 10—Four hundred years ago, my ancestor, the Rev. John Rogers, was burned at the stake in London, England, on February 4, 1555. To commemorate him and to add some current comments, is my desire today.

BIBLES WERE SMUGGLED INTO ENGLAND

The Rev. John Rogers was martyred for his work of translating the Bible into the English language and circulating this complete Bible in England. Tyndale, with the help of Coverdale, translated the New Testament and a portion of the Old Testament, as far as II Chronicles, when he was martyred therefor. Then John Rogers — under the assumed name of "Matthews"—completed the Bible in its entirety for readers in England. This was in 1537; and he did most of the work in Holland.

From Holland, the English imported flour, cheeses, and other foods. My ancestor arranged with the packers of the barrels and crates containing these food products to hide a Bible among the contents and thereby smuggled these Bibles into England. When he returned to England, about ten years later, he was arrested and imprisoned in the Tower of London. Finally, he was martyred at "Smithfield", where I have seen a bronze marker telling this story of his martyrdom.

IMPORTANCE OF SACRIFICE

There are many lessons for us from the above experience. First, is the consecration of the priest's and preachers of that day and their willingness to make any sacrifice, including their lives. Our willingness to sacrifice for our Church and Faith is a basic difficulty of the U. S. today. It is good to see church membership and attendance increase; but these figures mean little unless accompanied by a willingness to sacrifice.

Jesus never quoted statistics—He demanded that His followers be judged by their works of righteousness. I would go even further and say that the greatness of every powerful nation has been made possible by the people's sacrifice. When the willingness to sacrifice declined, the nation's economic strength declined along with its spiritual strength. In fact, the best U. S. barometer of our spiritual strength is the value of our dollar. It increases or decreases according to our willingness to sacrifice for what is right.

WE MUST AGAIN TEACH BIBLE TO OUR CHILDREN

The second lesson applies to the great need of more Bible reading today. When I was a boy, most New England families were Bible-reading families with daily family prayers. We were all taught to obey Bible Teachings and to memorize them. I believe that we must again install the Bible as a family guide and as our national guide.

Atomic bombs will not save us, any more than the Chinese Wall saved China, or the Maginot Line saved France. This nation is depending too much on material defense. The more wealth we have, the better target we are and, through jealousy, the more enemies we will have. Only as we practice the Bible's Golden Rule, both in national and international affairs, can we hope to survive. The Bible is the only "Bomb" which can save America. Read Isaiah, Chapter 31.

WHAT ABOUT CHINA AND FORMOSA?

The Chinese leaders of today were largely educated in colleges founded by missionaries sent to China by the Christian churches of the U. S., England, and our other Western Allies. I have visited some of these Chinese Colleges and have seen the Bible being taught there to the brightest young men of China. These students were greatly impressed by Jesus' Teachings, especially by the Sermon on the Mount.

As these students matured and became acquainted with the way our businessmen and politicians acted, they truly wondered if we are a Christian nation. Students

SAND HILLS PHILOSOPHER WANTS—To Make Rhode Island Independent Nation, Let Her Handle Formosa

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has an extremely preposterous idea this week, as you'll agree when you read the following.

Dear editor: I know about as much about international affairs as I do about whether there's any uranium under my farm out here in the Sand Hills, but lack of information never has been any bar to having an opinion, in Congress or out, and I have been giving considerable thought to the international situation lately and have come to a conclusion.

J. A.

The trouble with the United States, and the advantages Russia has over us, is that we haven't got any puppet state, one you can pull the strings for but dodge the responsibility of. If Russia wants to stir up some trouble in Korea, for example, she doesn't come out in the open where the rest of the world can pin it on her, she uses her puppet state, Red China, which in turn uses some of its undercover men in Korea. The scheme kept us looking ridiculous in Korea for three years.

Now the same thing is happening in Formosa. Russia is supplying Red China with materials and ideas. Red China is fomenting trouble in Formosa, and the United States and her allies are left with the job of trying to stop bullets after they're fired, when everybody knows the only way to do it is to eradicate the guns, but the guns come from Russia and we can't get at them because we just ain't the war-starting type, which is a good thing, but which leaves us with the burnt end of the stick, if you follow my military language.

But there is a way out, and I'm surprised that somebody else hasn't thought of it first. What the United States needs is a puppet state to do its fighting without requiring an act of Congress or involving the nation.

Now here's my proposal. There's Rhode Island sitting up there, not doing anything outstanding but not causing any trouble either and without very many votes. Why don't we declare Rhode Island an independent nation, sever our relations with it as a state, and then channel all the men and weapons needed through it and let her handle the Formosa situation or any other spot where the Communists break out? As an independent nation, with no connection with the United States, Rhode Island could start shooting where ever shooting is required, and we could sit back and send diplomatic notes to Russia every time Russia's toes were stepped on saying ain't it unfortunate but we can't do a thing with the independent and liberated nation of Rhode Island, she buys a little equipment from us now and then, we got the receipts to show for it, but beyond that we don't have any connection with her, and if anybody wants to declare war on her, go ahead, we can't help it, but if you fly over our area getting to her, that'd be a violation of our air and an act of war against us, which is a horse of a different color.

This idea might not work, but you can say the same for most of the diplomatic ideas tried up to now.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

An old legend relates that once on a cold, stormy night Martha was busy in her home preparing for the expected Christ. In the midst of her preparations, she heard a knock on the door. Opening it, Martha saw a ragged beggar standing there in the cold rain. Immediately she said, "I am expecting Jesus, the great prophet of Galilee, tonight. I have no time for beggars". Abruptly, she shut the door. Soon she heard another knock on the door. When Martha opened it again, she saw a frail, ill child there. To this child Martha said, "I am expecting Jesus tonight. I have no time to give you." But before she could close the door, suddenly Jesus, in all His majesty, stood before her! Martha had been too busy to recognize her Lord.

Are we so busy doing some work we think entirely worthy that we blind ourselves to see other, perhaps greater, work needful to be done? Are we, like Martha, too busy to recognize our Lord?

PRAYER

Help us, O God, to recognize Thee in the tasks ahead of us. Guide us from the confusion and pettiness of less important things that we may, with an eye single to Thy glory and honor and for others' good, devote ourselves to work for Thee. In Jesus' name. Amen.

FARMER COUNTY Farm Bureau News

By RAYMOND EULER

Membership drives for counties of the High Plains will be underway within the next thirty days. Farm Bureau leaders all over Texas are predicting a greater increase in membership than we have yet known. Farmers are seeing the necessity of an organization in which they can voice their opinions with reasonable hope that the nation's leaders will give consideration to them.

When differences of opinion are threshed out among the farmers themselves in a united effort to reach a satisfactory compromise, the wind is taken from the sails of politicians who say farmers can't agree, and then promote ideas of questionable value, simply because they sound like easy money to some of their constituents. A study of "guaranteed income" schemes always reveals the impossibility of their success in operation.

Since agriculture is a business venture, it is necessary that incomes and expenses of production and marketing be given consideration in plans for its success. Nobody in high places of administration can say with authority that a commodity market will be at a certain level for any period of time unless he can demonstrate a reasonable cycle of production cost, marketing differential and net profit to the producer and processor. This necessitates pointing to consumers, both at home and abroad who have the price to pay for the finished product.

We are in perfect agreement that if auto workers are to have a guaranteed annual wage, then farmers and everyone else should

Local People Invited To Inspect New Santa Fe Streamlined Train Feb. 18

Residents of the Muleshoe area will have the opportunity to visit aboard the new streamlined Santa Fe passenger train which will soon begin runs between Lubbock and Amarillo and give the South Plains overnight sleeper service to Chicago.

The new train will make an exhibition stop here Friday, Feb. 18 from 12:30 until 2:00 pm to enable local residents to tour the modern equipment. A group of Santa Fe officials and Lubbock

Chamber of Commerce representatives will be aboard to conduct visitors throughout the train. Also on hand to assist the tourists will be one of the famed Santa Fe Courier Nurses.

The Diesel-powered streamliner will make six tours during the week of Feb. 14-19 and will make exhibition stops in 35 South Plains towns. In many instances it will be the first time any such modern passenger equipment has been seen in the towns.

The train consists of a 2,000-horsepower Diesel locomotive and streamlined light weight baggage car, chair car and sleeper. All facilities will be arranged as they are on a regular scheduled run so that visitors can see the modern equipment.

Invitations have been sent to local city and school officials by the Lubbock Chamber, inviting all residents, both adults and children, to visit the train during the stop here. Various groups of entertainers will provide added color and music at each town.

The train will begin daily service between Lubbock and Amarillo on Sunday, Feb. 20. The sleeper will be cut into the San Francisco Chief at Amarillo and will provide South Plains residents with overnight sleeper service to and from Chicago.

have the same; but we are not socialistic minded enough to believe there is any justice in such a proposed economic plan for the people of America. The ultimate result of this kind of program would not be the lifting of living standards for some, but the lowering of those standards for all. We hope its proponents find no support at all in legislative areas. That would be the healthiest indication of sensibility we can think of. We are confident you feel the same.

Asking a farmer whether he had rather have 70 or 90 percent of parity for a commodity without qualification is about the same as a cafe operator wondering which he would sell the most of if he published hamburgers and K. C. steaks on his menu at the same price.

Home economists estimate that the average homemaker will dry approximately 16 washer loads of clothes a week. Some of these loads will dry in five minutes. Other fabrics take as much time as an hour — or more — to dry. The average load requires about 30 to 35 minutes to dry. Gas for drying clothes costs approximately 1 cent an hour. IN BAILEY COUNTY
By MOLLIN STINSON

High school girls interested in 4-H work are asked to attend an organizational meeting at the Courthouse on Saturday, Feb. 5 at 1 p.m. Any mothers who would like to come will be welcome.

This meeting will be to organize a club and decide whether the girls want to meet once a month or work on individual projects. Any girl in the ninth through twelfth grades would be eligible to join the club.

If some girl who is interested and can't come she should call the County Agent's Office and leave word with me or the secretary that she would like to join.

For the past two weeks I have been visiting in the homes of 4-H girls. I have visited most of the adult leaders for all the clubs and part of the officers for the Bula 4-H club. I hope to meet the rest of the adult leaders and talk with the officers for the other clubs soon.

These visits have been most enjoyable and informative for me. I hope that the others enjoyed them too. Such home visits are the best way to get to know 4-Hers and their parents. Most of the girls I visited selected their project for the year.

There should be some good results from all the plans they had. Some of the demonstrations selected were: clothing, food preparation, food preservation, gardening, and bedroom improvement.

A clothing project might include: care of clothes, keeping closet neat and clean, selection of some clothes, mending garments, making garments, and remaking garments. What each girl included in this project would be eligible to enter the County Dress Review which will be held this summer. In connection with the clothing program 4-H clothing workshops will be held this summer.

A project in foods work might include preparing meals, preparing dishes of food, but not a whole meal, canning, freezing or helping to can and freeze foods learning better food habits and using better work methods in the kitchen. A girl with this as a project could work up a demonstration and enter the dairy foods demonstration contest to be held in the county in April.

Gardening would include working in the garden. It would be a good idea to combine gardening with a food preservation project. This way a girl would take care of the produce of the garden. There is a contest on freezing vegetables that is open to members with this project.

Bedroom improvement is the demonstration selected by some girls. This can include keeping the room neat and clean, making minor decorating changes. In one family they planned to redo the girl's bedroom so she took bedroom improvement as her demonstration. She will help to select the paper and colors to be used and do some of the work herself. She also plans to make a bookshelf to add storage space to her room. Such big changes in a room aren't necessary for a bedroom improvement project though. Adding a wastebasket made by covering an ice cream carton with wallpaper could be part of a demonstration.

These are not the only demonstrations that a 4-Her can take. Farm and Home Safety might be a project one would like. This would include looking for safety hazards around the house or farm and then correcting them or getting someone

Farmers And Social Security

(Editor's Note: This is another in a series of articles prepared for farm families by the Lubbock, Texas, District Office of the Social Security Administration.)

In our previous articles, we have described the general coverable provisions of the self-employed farmer and rancher, and those working as employees on farms and ranches. In today's article, we would like to describe how farm earnings for social security purposes is determined, and reported.

A self-employed farmer or rancher determines his net earnings for social security purposes in much the same manner as the business man has been doing for the past four years. However, the farmer and rancher has a simplified manner of reporting with two options available to him to determine his net income for social security purposes. This does not change the manner or method that the farmer and rancher reports his income for income tax purposes, and the option can be used only for social security purposes.

For low-income farmers and ranchers, those of you who report their income tax on a cash basis, and whose gross income is $1800 or less, have the choice of reporting your actual net earnings, after taking all deductions allowed by law necessary in the operation of your farm or ranch, or reporting one-half of your gross income. Either the net or one-half the gross must be $400 or more.

For farmers and ranchers whose gross income is over $1800, you must determine your actual net earnings. If these net earnings are less than $900, then you can report either the actual net earnings, or $900, whichever you prefer.

4-H members whom I have not visited should be thinking about their project. Parents consent and approval is necessary for a successful project. A child can't accomplish a lot without the backing of her parents. This is why I like to visit with the 4-H members in her home when she is deciding on her project.

I may not get around to everyone's house, so if any 4-Her knows that she wants to be a good 4-H member and have a project, I'd appreciate her telling me at club meetings or writing a card or calling. That way I'd be sure to visit her soon.

"Slave Daze" On In High School

As in days of old, almost every boy in Muleshoe High school now has a girl he paid good money for, and is being served throughout each school day this week. Don't become alarmed parents. Its only the FHA sponsored "Slave Daze". Wednesday morning the girls were auctioned off during an assembly program by "experienced auctioneer", Jerry R. Kirk. Several of the girls brought as much as seven dollars as both boys and girls joined in the bidding. A total of ninety-one dollars was raised for the annual FHA banquet.

and not one minute's trouble did I have with the young people. I hope they were as glad to see me as I was to see them coming for play time. Now our country or town would not mean very much to us older people without our young people.

This would be a sad place without them. The last week or so I have been taking notice to the traffic up and down the streets. The most things I have noticed was speeding too fast on Main Street, and driving through red lights, and this was not all young people that made this mistake.

Now people we have a nice town, so let each one of us back our town by abiding by our laws. We don't want anyone to be afraid to come to town on account of fast driving or misbehavior. This advice is to our children, my children, Pop, Mom and all.

You all are my friends. Will you let me have your friendship? Please read carefully and thoughtfully. This might be the means of saving a life, and it might be some of yours or mine. It is happening every day, and we don't want it to happen in our town.

A few lines to my friends and citizens of Muleshoe and surrounding communities:

Me and my family have been living here at Muleshoe for 15 years. When we came here we thought it a wonderful town, and the longer I live here the more I think of it.

The thing that makes it better is more business firms. We don't have to run off to some other town to buy the things we need. They handle a line of anything you might need. If it is money we have a good bank and they will be glad to talk to you and explain their returns if you will visit them. If it is in the furniture line they have it; also television, radio, anything in this line.

If you need medicine there are two good drug stores and always ready to serve you. We have real good doctors here that can tell you just the kind of medicine you need. Some have said to me that we have a rowdy set of young people at Muleshoe. I was caretaker of the park for about one year. I mixed and talked with a lot of the young folks as well as the older folks.

INSTRUCTIONS

To Those Preparing To

SMOKE IN BED

1. Call a friend, and notify him where you wish to have the remains sent, as it is a matter of record that a high percentage of fires, are caused by this careless practice.
2. Notify those in adjoining rooms of your intention of endangering their lives, so that they may take necessary precautions to protect themselves.
3. Look around for the nearest window, so that if you are fortunate enough to escape, you may reach safety.
4. Now sit down and think how foolish it is for you to take the risk — you may enjoy your smoke while thinking it over.
