CCCCSD Tax Ratification Election passes

BY MELISSA PERNER
THE OZONA STOCKMAN

By a narrow margin, the CCCCSD Tax Ratification Election passed Tuesday night. Voters cast 175 ballots in favor and 156 against. Total voter turnout was around 14 percent. Crockett County has a total of around 2,500 registered voters. The school district's tax rate will increase two cents from $1.04 to $1.06 per $100 valuation. The estimated $400,000 those two pennies are expected to raise will be used to pay off the Qualified School Construction Bond federal loan used to renovate and upgrade various facilities across the district, and building up the district's fund balance. "I want to thank all the voters for getting out to vote, and thank you to the people that supported the school. Please continue your support for our school district and our children," said CCCCSD School Board President Ray Don Myers. In April 2011, the board unanimously approved a resolution authorizing around $3.4 million funding from the QSCB program. While the name is misleading, the QSCB is not a traditional school bond, but instead a low-interest loan through the federal government. With the tax rate passing, the QSCB loan can be paid off in eight years, instead of the original 16. With the funds, the district replaced the heating and air conditioning units in the Ozona High School Heritage Building, renovated portable buildings by the middle school into eight apartments for school housing, renovated existing school housing facilities and paid for a new track, the football field turf, concession stand and seating at Lion Stadium. Unlike the rest of the district's proposed budget, the $400,000 raised by the two additional cents will not be subject to recapture by the state. During their regular meeting on Aug. 28, the school board unanimously approved an or-finance setting the tax rate at $1.06 if approved by the voters. For county taxpayers, in a house valued around $50,000 the increase will raise taxes $25, said Rhonda Shaw, county tax assessor-collector. The average home in Crockett County is worth around $41,000. Raising a school district's maintenance and operations tax rate above $1.04 requires voter approval under state law.

Lions make comeback over Eagles

BY MELISSA PERNER
THE OZONA STOCKMAN

ELDORADO - For the first 24 minutes Friday night, it seemed the Eldorado Eagles were going to be the dominate team. In the second 24 minutes, the Ozona Lions took the momentum and the 34-20 win. The Lions, under new Head Coach Edward Perez, won their first game on Aug. 30, after coming back from a 20-7 deficit. "Our game was a testament to our kids 'never say die attitude.' Our kids played well in the second half and trusted the game plan," Perez said. The third quarter was the game-changer for the Lions. Eldorado would come out and quickly score their third touchdown of the game. The Lions found their new momentum when Quarterback Tyler Galindo found Daniel Gonzales for a 48-yard pass to put Ozona into Eagle territory. Three plays later, Gonzales would carry the ball into the end zone. Galindo's extra-point kick was good making it 20-14 with 5:51 in the third quarter and the start of the Lions comeback.

DANIEL GONZALES looks to make a move during Friday's game against Eldorado. Gonzales had eight rushes for 52 yards, five catches for 110 yards and two interceptions for the Lions. Ozona takes on Iraan at 7:30 p.m. Friday at Lion Stadium.

Commissioners hold final workshop

BY MELISSA PERNER
THE OZONA STOCKMAN

The Crockett County Commissioners' Court had one final look at the 2014 budget during an Aug. 29 workshop. During the workshop, County Auditor Janie Chandler pointed out the requests to take out the funds for the Care Center generator, previous discussions with officials stated that the Care Center can wait a year, put more money in the EMS revenue fund and add funds for pet supplies and postage in animal control. The proposed 2014 budget also includes a $150 a month raise for employees and elected officials. "It looks pretty bare bones to me on most of it. We've done more work on this budget than we've done in the past," said County Judge Fred Deaton. At the Aug. 12 regular meeting, the commissioners voted to say with the proposed effective tax rate, which is around three cents higher than last year. The effective tax rate will raise around the same amount in county tax revenue as last year. With a proposed rate of .55082 per $100 valuation the county will raise around $11.3 million for the 2014 budget. Last year's effective tax rate was .51641 per $100 valuation. Commissioners Frank Tambunga and Randy Branch were absent from the meeting. The commissioners will look at adopting the budget and tax rate at the Sept. 9 regular meeting. The meeting will be at 9 a.m. at the courthouse annex and it will be open to the public.

School board adopts budget

BY MELISSA PERNER
THE OZONA STOCKMAN

The CCCCSD School Board adopted the 2013-2014 Official Estimated Budget during their regular meeting on Aug. 28. The balanced budget, which was unanimously approved by all board members, is estimated at $23 million with around $13 million that will be sent to the state for recapture. This is $775,000 loss than last year due to a four percent drop in property values. The budget does include an $8,290 increase in teacher and staff training that was cut last year due to a loss of state funding.

New state laws take effect

More than 659 new state laws passed by the Texas Legislature took effect starting Sept. 1. Below are some of the highlighted notable laws. CELLPHONES IN SCHOOL ZONES Expands the ban on using cellphones in school zones to school property, including pickup and drop-off lanes and in school parking lots. The only exceptions are if the vehicle is stopped, if the driver is using a hands-free device or making an emergency call to police or fire departments, or a hospital or doctor. Under previous law, school districts could opt in to the ban by posting signs in school zones. (Austin and most area school districts opted in.) The new law makes the ban mandatory statewide. SCHOOL BUS LOADING, UNLOADING HB 1174 amends current statute to increase the minimum fines for the misdemeanor offense of passing a stopped school bus loading or unloading children. The minimum fine increases from $200 to $500, and the maximum fine for such an offense increases from $1,000 to $1,250. The bill also enhances the penalty for a second or subsequent conviction of that offense committed within five years to a misdemeanor or punishable by a minimum fine of $1,000 and a maximum fine of $2,000. HANDGUN LICENSES Lawmakers reduced the number of hours of classroom training needed to obtain a concealed handgun license, from 10 to 15 hours to 4 to 6 hours. In addition, Texans now may renew their concealed handgun licenses online. The new law also scraps a renewal requirement to take a refresher handgun proficiency course. The refresher courses can last several hours and have drawn increasing complaints as a waste of time and money. To keep license holders abreast of law changes regarding handguns, the new

Oil boom leads to variety of new businesses

With the oil boom taking place around San Angelo, more and more people are deciding to start their own business.

Over the past few months I have had the opportunity to help various clients start their trucking businesses, mobile kitchens, contracting companies, and other companies that offer services to the oil field.

As their business adviser, my job is not done when they start their business. It continues over time helping them be prepared for what is ahead, such as tax obligations, expansions, employees, etc.

When I visit with my clients, and more with clients working in the oil field industry, these are some of the areas I focus on:

- Permits and Business Insurance - According to the type of business, certain

BUSINESS TIPS

permits are required to start working. Starting a business without the necessary permits will result in costly fines. Business insurance many times is forgotten but its importance and benefits are an utmost. Protecting the business property, its clients, its cargo, etc. should be considered wisely.

• Obtaining Accounting Advice - Due to the nature of the job, income in this industry tends to be in the triple digits. This is wonderful, but triple digits also mean triple responsibility. As a self-employed person, the responsibilities increase. You are now accountable for not only your part of the with holdings, Social Security and Medicare, but now you are also responsible for the employer's portion. Also, you will be required to report taxes quarterly.

• Industry Knowledge - Changing roles from an employee to business owner changes the perspective of things. To be effective in business, it is important to be a step ahead. Quality, safety, cost, customer service, are just some of the areas where excellence must be attained to stay in business. Staying competitive can be a challenge. A clear understanding of industry trends and establishing relationships in the field can be the key to success.

Oil field Services is a tough industry. Though the industry encourages entrepreneurship, there is so much opportunity that many have joined and the industry has become hyper-competitive. Therefore, attention to detail, excellence in services, and customer relations are some of the characteristics that can set you aside from others, giving you the chance to compete.

The foundation they received at the SBDC helped them be aware of the situations they encountered on the way to success.

Five freedoms fueled 1963 'March' - and much more

On Aug. 28, 1963, the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. delivered his famed "I have a Dream" speech.

King's speech closed out the "March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom" 50 years ago. It set out a historic milestone in civil rights movement. But King and other speakers - including Walter Reuther, long-time president of the United Auto Workers - also called for equal opportunity in employment.

That focus on workers was right in keeping with the First Amendment, the "blue collar worker" part of the Bill of Rights. The First Amendment is the means, mechanism and method by which we actively use freedom to participate in self-governance, including the work required to achieve King's and Reuther's vision of equality in the voting booth, the workplace and the public square.

Clearly, the right of free speech ensured that an entrenched and powerful system of bigotry backed by laws of segregation and the historical customs of separation could not silence its critics. The rights of assembly and petition guaranteed that generations of Americans - civil rights advocates, labor activists, suffragettes and others - cannot not long be dispersed or silenced by government.

The amendment also provided that a free press, while sometimes shamefully slow to do so, ultimately provide a living-room view of the horrific death spasms of a segregated society. There was no avoiding in the late 1950s and 1960s the nightly TV news views of police dogs and fire hoses loosed on fellow citizens, the magazine articles with indelible images of lynched men, and the newspaper stories and photos of bombed churches and bloody Freedom Riders.

Just 100 years after the Civil War tore at the fabric of the Union, those freedoms provided the path for our nation to take corrective action by a new set of laws to protect voting rights and against discrimination, and to set in motion new attitudes.

Little more than one century after a nationwide controversy was sparked in 1901 when President Theodore Roosevelt invited not-

INSIDE THE FIRST AMENDMENT
GENE POLCINSKI

American president, Barack Obama.

President Obama - standing 50 years later to the day on the same Lincoln Memorial steps from which King addressed the march - decried that unemployment for minorities is twice that of whites. Speakers at other National Mall events commemorating the March expanded the call for equality to all minorities, to gays and to immigrants. Critics also assailed the U.S. Supreme Court decision earlier this year to ending what many see as the essential voter protections of the Voting Rights Act of 1965.

Today's battles over major issues of our day - as in King's time, including equal rights and jobs - are both fueled by First Amendment freedoms and tempered by the "safety valve" aspect of those same rights.

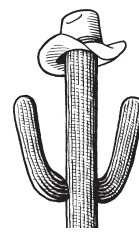

We have thus far used those freedoms to avoid the great fear of the Founders, the "tyranny of the majority" that could freeze policies and programs in place.

Panelists in a July 29 program at the Newseum in Washington, D.C., theorized that King's closing words were rooted in five basic freedoms of the First Amendment: religion, speech, press, assembly and petition.

"When we allow freedom to ring, when we let it ring from every city and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all of God's children, black men and white men, Jews and Gentiles, Protestants and Catholics, will be able to join hands and sing in the words of the old Negro spiritual, "Free at last, Free at last, Great God almighty, We are free at last."

IT'S THE PITTS

LEE PITTS

I laugh when I hear people say how revolutionary all this computer marley is, like e mail, e Harmony and e everything. As far as Internet matchmaking goes, let me tell you, people were just as desperate for affection back in my day. Or at least I was.

Picking a mate without meeting her or she is nothing new, what do you think the lonely old miners, ranchers, mountain men and shepherders in the early west did when they married whatever got off the stagecoach, or the train? It's just one more example of how, if you wait long enough, everything that is old will come around again.

I'm just waiting for it to be my turn.

Many of the women who wanted to come west were "picture brides" because the men, who outnumbered the women sometimes by as much as 60 to one, picked their lifelong mate as if they were ordering from a Sears Roebuck catalog. They were also called "mail-order brides," only in many cases they were "mail-order lies" as the product that arrived by boat after sailing around the horn was often not as advertised. But what were the lonesome men supposed to do, send the women back? This wasn't catch and release fishing we're talking about here.

It was also common for foreigners who came to this country to marry women who were picked out for them back in the old country. And there were probably just as many lies told in the Gold Rush days as there are now on the Internet. There had to be, why else would a nice woman leave the cozy confines of the east to live in a dugout with a dirty old man, cook, clean, propagate and fight off Indians and wild animals in her spare time?

This subject arose because a friend of ours is "back on the market" after being married for 25 long years. Slick said that his wife was "monogamously challenged" but I can't say as I blame her because Slick is as exciting as gray wallpaper. He's also very lonely and he's going broke paying $3.95 per minute to talk on the phone to some gal in Thailand who speaks terrible English.

Slick is one of those men who just can't seem to live without a woman in his life. He is also like those miners and ranchers of yesteryear in that he takes a bath once a week, has no social skills, lives in poverty and is desperate for a mate because he is tired of doing his own dishes. The problem is the odds have evened up and there is one woman for every man in the West now.

Except for Slick, that is. Slick got so tired of cleaning his own bathroom and was so desperate for love that he went on a matchmaking web site to prospect for a wife. After paying up, Slick was asked to complete an in-depth confidential personal survey. But just like the liars of old, he "aggressively stretched the truth," you might say. Instead of saying he's 5'8", he said he was 6'2" and instead of saying he was bald, fat and ugly, he said he loved to cook, was a 185 pound bundle of muscle and had all of his own hair. He also said that he was sensitive, caring, liked jewelry, made in excess of $150,000 a year and had several homes, despite the fact that he's a day-working cowboy who lives in a 1965 model trailer house. And it's not even a double wide!

When I asked him why he lied Slick said, "What woman in her right mind would go out with me if I told the truth?"

I had to admit, he had a very valid point. So the Internet dating service matched him up with a "voluptuous 25 year old who loved to cook and clean" who turned out to be a 65 year old whose face would stop a freight train. "She'd keep the crows out of your crops," said Slick dejectedly.

"So you're not going to see her again?" I asked.

"Oh no, we're thinking of moving in together in the trailer house," said Slick optimistically. "Sure, we were both a little disappointed at first but fortunately neither one of us is in a position to get too fanatical about a few minor details."

TxDOT to get input on road repair plans

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS By Ed Sterling | Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — Concerns over the state's upkeep of paved roads in oil and gas production and exploration zones in South Texas and West Texas emerged and have continued since July, during the second special session of the 83rd Texas Legislature.

Legislators from affected districts expressed alarm over a Texas Department of Transportation plan to patch crumbling pavement with gravel instead of ordering higher quality road maintenance and repair.

On Aug. 28, TxDOT announced a 60-day period for counties "to review plans to convert damaged roads to high-end unpaved roads in the state's energy-producing areas before proceeding with the work" and during that evaluation, the agency would "not move forward on converting other damaged roads unless there is an immediate safety concern."

"We believe our plan to potentially convert 83 miles of significantly damaged roads in the energy sector is the safe and sensible solution with TxDOT's available funding," TxDOT Executive Director Phil Wilson said. "At some point, when drilling activity has subsided and more funding is available, we plan to rebuild these roads to paved farm-to-market levels."

TxDOT is planning town hall meetings on the topic with legislators, local elected officials, property owners and communities.

ED CHIEF NOTES ANNIVERSARY

Texas Education Commissioner Michael Williams on Aug. 28, the 50th anniversary of the historic civil rights "March on Washington" noted the continued importance of closing the achievement gap among all students in Texas.

Among points Williams made was this: "Education continues to be the great equalizer. And in a state where the majority of our students are now Hispanic or African-American, closing the achievement gap takes on increasing significance for the future prosperity of Texas."

"It is the reason I purposely chose to make that factor a major component of our state's new accountability system. The results of this year's ratings as well as recently announced numbers on graduation rates and ACT scores show that Texas has made tremendous strides."

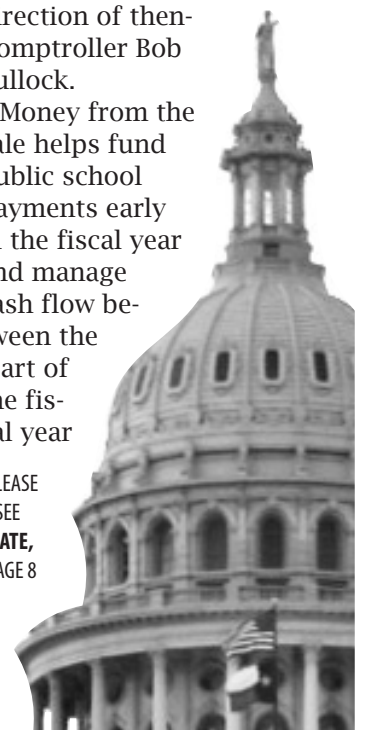

STATE'S NOTES SELL WELL

Texas Comptroller Susan Combs on Aug. 27 announced the sale of some $7.2 billion in state Tax and Revenue Anticipation Notes, continuing an annual practice begun in 1987 under the direction of then-Comptroller Bob Bullock.

Money from the sale helps fund public school payments early in the fiscal year and manage cash flow between the start of the fiscal year

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Caul Craighead

Mary Taylor Morgan Oglesby and Matthew Caul Craighead of Midland, Texas were united in marriage on Saturday, August 10, 2013 at half past six in the evening in the Kent R. Hance Chapel on the campus of Texas Tech University. Mr. David Evans of Odessa, Texas performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Sally and Sterling Harris, of Ozona and Wimberley, Texas and the late Mike John Oglesby of Ozona, Texas. Parents of the groom are Kathy and Steve Craighead of Vernon, Texas.

The bride wore a strapless gown of ivory French Alencon lace with beaded accent at her waistline and a corset bodice. The delicate beadwork, sequins and pearls over layed satin and flowed to a scallop edged eyelash lace chapel length train. She placed a simple cluster of hydrangeas in her hair which was twisted softly off her neckline. She accented attire with crystal teardrop earrings with a smokey gray topaz stone. She carried a bouquet of fresh cinnamon roses, lilies, hydrangeas, and a hidden ball of cotton bound together with lace from her mother's wedding dress and her father's wedding ring.

Maid of Honor was Katie Gardner, Sorority Sister, of Houston, Texas. Bridesmaids were Blair Bayliss, sorority sister of Dallas, Texas, Kim Kellman, friend of the bride of Houston, Texas. Kristen Gibson, sorority sister of Dallas, Texas, and Abbye Irons, sorority sister of Midland, Texas. The flower girl was Charli Elizabeth Oglesby, niece of the bride of Ozona, Texas. She wore a brushed satin tea length dress with gray sash. The bridesmaids wore gowns of two styles in soft charcoal chiffon with a shirred empire bodices accented with coral teardrop earrings given to them by the bride. They carried bouquets of coral roses, hydrangeas, lilies, thistles and seeded eucalyptus tied with a gray satin ribbon.

The ring bearer was Liam Kocurek, cousin of the bride from Robstown, Texas. He was greeted at the front of the Chapel by the Best Man and brother of the groom Chase Craighead of Vernon, Texas. The Groom wore a classic black two button tuxedo with grosgrain lapels and matching grosgrain stripes on the trousers. His ivory duet vest and paisley print Euro tie coordinated with his bride. Groomsmen and ushers wore an identical tuxedo with exception of a black vest and Euro tie. Groomsmen were Austin Fleck, cousin of the groom of Dallas, Texas, Nate Sykes, fraternity brother of Midland, Texas, Shane Jansa, lifelong friend of Vernon, Texas and Jackson McGraw, fraternity brother of Fort Worth. Ushers were Jake Young and Patrick Hunt, fraternity brothers of Dallas, Texas and Chris Crowley and Sam Sutherland, fraternity brothers of Austin, Texas. All wore black boots to complete the attire.

The mother of the bride wore an elegant fitted gown in antique lace featuring off the shoulder scalloped neckline. Her attire was accented by simple diamond jewelry. The mother of the groom wore a black two piece chiffon gown embellished with silver and white beading at the neck and waistline. The sheer jacket had an abundance of light catching beads on the scallop trim. She chose pearls for accents.

Upon arrival at the Chapel, guests were seated to selections of classical music played by a harp duo, The Cooley Sisters. The bride was escorted by her brother, John Quay Oglesby of Ozona, Texas. The center of the altar featured a 5-foot floral arrangement, flanked by two 3-foot arrangements in pewter colored urns filled with lilies, cinnamon roses, deep coral gladiolas, safari sunset and curly willow. These spilled over with draping amaranthus. The evening sunlight cascaded in on each side reflecting on the gold leaf back wall of the Chapel.

The reception was immediately following the ceremony just steps away at the Mackenzie-Merket Alumni Center. Guests entered the courtyard area for cocktails and music by John Fischer. The focal point on the patio was the Texas Tech brick that had been placed within the pathway with the bride and groom's names and their wedding date. Inside the main ballroom the decor featured champagne cloths and chair coverings with accents of wood, mercury glass vases, contrasting silk runners and varying arrangements of orange and cinnamon roses, hydrangeas, hanging amaranthus, safari sunset and curly willow with draping moss. The wedding table had heirloom silver chalice for the champagne toast. Champagne flutes surrounded a red lite "Double 1" ice sculpture.

Introductions were made, food was enjoyed and then the cake was cut. The first dance signaled the beginning of a fun-filled evening of music by "The Wonderfols." A generational dance was done honoring the longest married couple in attendance. Over 40 yrs. was achieved by Judge and Mrs. Brock Jones. They offered words of wisdom for a long and happy marriage to the newlyweds. Fun was had by all to the stroke of midnight and the departure of the happy couple.

The parents of the groom entertained guests for cocktails and a Rehearsal Dinner in the Sunset Ballroom of the Overton Hotel in Lubbock. A Bridal Brunch was hosted by family and close friends of the bride in the Horizon Room at the Overton Hotel. The groom's aunt and a family friend held a Groom's Luncheon at Triple J's in Lubbock. The bride and groom had several wonderful pre-wedding parties in Ozona. There was a lovely bridal shower in Vernon.

PROPER ATTIRE

How do I look? Is the question most frequently asked? Usually women are more concerned about the clothes they wear. Many times my wife will ask me if her dress matches. Dressing properly or having the right kind of clothes for the type of work we do is very important. Thinking about proper dress reminds me of something in the Bible. Yes we are to wear proper clothing or attire, both men and women especially if the claim they are Christians, (1 Timothy 2:9&10). But there is another type of attire the Bible addresses for Christians. It partly our behavior but more importantly it is our attitudes and what is in our heart. God plainly says there are things we are to get out of our lives and things we are to put in. We are to put off or not have immorality, impurity, passion, evil desires and greed, (Colossians 3:5). We are also to get rid of anger, wrath, malice, slander, abusive speech and lying to others, (Colossians 3:8&9). Christians are to set their minds on things above not on the things of the world, (Colossians 3:1&2). Christians are to be different, God expects that of us, (Romans 13:12-14). We may not have the wherewithal to overcome these things but being in Christ and with the power of the Holy Spirit, our helper we can get victory, (John 14:16, Ephesians 4:24).

See you in Church next Sunday.

OZONA SENIOR HAPPENINGS

Senior Bingo Social Sept. 23

BY BRENDA NEWTON
SENIOR CENTER DIRECTOR

Boy, these last few days have been fun. I have felt like a kid again. Had a birthday and the Mexican Train girls gave Joann Babbitt and me a birthday party. It was so good!

Today I got a birthday cake from a dear friend and shared it with the quilting ladies. Another friend said a birdie told him I was having a birthday and he bought me one of the prettiest birdhouses I have ever seen. I said it once and I will say it again: I have the best friends in the world. Thanks to you all!

Just so you will not forget, our bingo social will be on Sept. 23 at 6 p.m. We will have ham sandwiches with chips and apple cobbler with ice cream for dessert. Sounds good to me. All you have to do is bring a small bingo prize to join in on the fun.

Area Agency on Aging will be here the second Tuesday of each month at 10:30 a.m. to help you with questions about Medicare, Medicaid and other things seniors need to know. I found out the last time Triple A was here that Lynne is also the representative for Concho Valley Transit. This is an agency that takes care of the Thunderbird Bus along with COG. Maybe you could come and help me clue here in about the senior's problems with the bus. If you are reading this, please pass this information around.

We had the last Master of Memory class on Sept. 3. I can't thank Whitney Walston enough for coming to the center and working with us. It has been a learning experience that we all needed to hear.

The Texas RioGrande Legal Aid, Inc will be here on Sept. 12 to offer legal services for low income persons. If you need assistance before then, call 1-888-988-9996. Even if you do not need legal aid, come listen to what they have to say.

Exercise still available on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays at 9 a.m. Bridge is happening at 1:30 p.m. on Mondays. Tuesdays and Thursdays we have balance exercise at 2 p.m. Mexican Train is at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday. The Prayer ladies still meet at 3 p.m. on Wednesdays. Quilting is on Thursday at 9:30 a.m. Remember your trash for the trade table. We all look forward to seeing what everyone brings. Come see us - we will try our best to make you feel at home. We have puzzles to work on that are a bit challenging. If you have not tried out the Helping Hand meals, you should. They put on a pretty good feed. I still think you guys would enjoy the pool table and games. Come on out- the coffee is on.

Care Center board meeting Thursday

The Crockett County Care Center, Health and Emergency Services Board of Directors will hold a regular meeting at 7 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 5, at the EMS Building.

The meeting is open to the public.

Items on the agenda:
- Sign and approve the minutes of the Aug. 8 meeting.

- Ambulance and Administrator's reports.

- Discussion on Upper Payment Limit

- Discussion on Resident Care.

- Public Comments

- Discussion of non-agenda items by members for the purpose of placing them on the next agenda.

- Review and authorization to pay Care Center/H.S.C./E.M.S. Financials.

- Executive session if needed.

Card of Thanks

On behalf of Elisa and Elsa (Las Quatas), we would like to take this opportunity to thank each and everyone who helped make our 60th birthday celebration such a blessing. For the gifts, the good food and especially for your attendance, THANK YOU from the bottom of our hearts.

law requires the Department of Public Safety to develop informational materials on the use of deadly force and where handguns may be carried; renewal applicants will have to acknowledge receipt of the information.

PROOF OF AUTO INSURANCE

Drivers who are stopped by police will be able for the first time to use their cell phone or computer tablet to display their proof of insurance to avoid a ticket.

DRUG TESTING FOR UNEMPLOYMENT

Under this controversial measure, a drug screening questionnaire will be given to first-time applicants for jobless benefits whose previous job required them to take a pre-employment drug test — workers in the aviation, trucking and hazardous materials industries, for example.

If the questionnaire, to be developed by the Texas Workforce Commission, points to potential drug use, the applicant will have to pass a drug test to receive benefits.

Applicants who fail a drug test could receive benefits if they enter a treatment program or pass a second test administered after four weeks.

The change will apply only to claims filed after February — after state officials develop new rules for the testing program, according to a House analysis of the bill.

TOBACCO TAX

One of the few straight-up tax bills of the legislative session, this one will add a 2.75-cent "fee" on every cigarette sold by a small group of manufacturers who weren't part of the highly publicized 1998 agreement between Texas and the major U.S. tobacco companies to settle a lawsuit over health care costs linked to smoking.

Under the deal, the tobacco industry agreed to pay the state $15 billion over 25 years and to pay about $2.3 billion through 2003 to Texas counties and hospital districts based on their provision of indigent health care, according to state officials.

But smaller manufacturers weren't part of the agreement, and legislators decided they should pay the tax too, because their products also cause health problems.

WINERIES

Wine drinkers can rejoice at the passage of this bill by state Sen. Jane Nelson, R-Flower Mound. Under the law, wineries can remain open until 2 a.m. on Jan. 1, instead of midnight, to accommodate New Year's Eve revelers.

SNACK FOOD TAX

Texans who buy certain snack foods from vending machines or in single servings could soon see a price increase, because this bill removes the sales-tax exemption from an array of bars — breakfast, granola, nutrition, sports, yogurt and protein — and such items as snack and trail mix, nuts that aren't candy-coated, popcorn, chips, crackers and hard pretzels.

SLOW DOWN FOR TXDOT

SB 510 requires drivers to move over or slow down (as required depending on the roadway) when approaching a stationary Texas Department of Transportation vehicle with its lights activated and not separated from the roadway by a traffic-control device. This provision expands the state's Move Over/Slow Down law, which already requires drivers to yield to tow trucks, police, fire and emergency vehicles. Violators would commit a misdemeanor offense punishable by a fine of up to $200; punishable by a fine of $500 if property damage occurs; or a Class B misdemeanor if the violation results in bodily damage.

RENDER AID PENALTY

SB 275 increases the penalty for leaving the scene of a motor vehicle accident resulting in the death of a person and failing to render aid from a third-degree felony to a second-degree felony. A second degree felony carries a punishment of two to 20 years in prison and an optional fine not to exceed $10,000, whereas a third degree felony carries a penalty of two to 10 years in prison and an optional fine not to exceed $10,000.

FALSE EMERGENCY REPORT

HB 1284 increases the penalty for the offense of initiating, communicating or circulating a false report of an emergency (such as a bomb threat) involving an institution of higher education from a Class A misdemeanor to a state jail felony. *This bill is effective immediately.

ADDITIONAL CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE

HB 124 adds Salvia divinorum (unless unharvested and growing in its natural state) — including all parts of the plant, seeds and extracts from a part of the plant — to Penalty Group 3 of the Texas Controlled Substances Act.

SEX OFFENDERS

HB 2637 provides that an individual fraudulently using identifying information to avoid registering as a sex offender to be punished at the next highest degree felony.

EDUCATION

Texas high school students are getting a break in the classroom. Lawmakers cut the number of standardized tests needed to graduate from 15 to five after teachers, parents, administrators and students complained of overtesting.

UTILITY DISCOUNTS

Poor Texans are in line for deep — but temporary — discounts on their electric bills to help them avoid getting their power shut off during peak summer months. Lawmakers voted to stop diverting money from the System Benefit Fund to other places so it can be used for what was intended. But don't get used to it. Lawmakers decidated in 2017 to end the fund financed with fees assessed from every electric customer.

RAPE INVESTIGATIONS

To improve rape investigations, hospitals with emergency rooms will be required to have doctors and nurses trained in basic forensic evidence collection for "rape kits." Sexual assault victims still will have the option to use facilities with specialized sexual assault nurse examiners.

STATE BUDGET

The new two-year state budget restores $4 billion slashed from public schools in 2011 and gives state employees a 3 percent raise. Lawmakers also approved spending an additional $260 million on mental health services.

On Ozona's next possession, Quarterback Jayton Rodriquez would make his game debut with a 27-yard touchdown pass to Galindo. Galindo's kick was good giving Ozona a 21-20 lead with 53 seconds left in the third quarter.

Momentum shifted for the Lions and the defense began to shut down the Eagles.

When Ozona had the ball back, Gonzales again sprinted for the 13-yard touchdown run making the lead 27-20 with 5:58 left in the game.

Ozona's defense got the ball back as Ryan Porras stripped the ball away giving the Lions a chance to get back on offense.

Galindo and Gonzales failed to connect on the next possession forcing Ozona to punt.

With 1:24 left in the game, and Eldorado driving down field, Gonzales grabbed his first of two interceptions giving Ozona a chance to seal the win.

"We knew in the fourth (quarter) they were going to come out with the pass," Gonzalez said in a San Angelo Standard-Times article. "I just read it, got the ball and ran as fast as I could. When it's a close game like that, you have to make plays like that."

Lombrana would then get the five-yard touchdown win. Galindo's kick was good making it 34-20 for the Lions.

"Our defensive and offensive execution went to a higher level the second half because I think we started to play one play at a time and just focused on the task at hand. We were still playing too high and too slow but we just need to play better each week. I think as our kids begin to mature and trust each other, as well as the coaching, our success will become more consistent and we will be a better team," Perez said.

Gonzales had eight rushes for 52 yards and five catches for 110 yards.

Ricky Porras was also all over the field for the Lions in yards with 13 carries for 105 yards, including the game's first touchdown.

Galindo was 6-11 for 118 yards passing.

Ozona's next test will be against Iraan this week. Perez said preparation for the game will include an emphasis on the basics of blocking, tackling and taking care of the football.

"Our focus this week will to simply be better than last week and not to become content with our present level of play. Iraan has a number of great skill kids and some big lineman up front. This week will be a battle and I'm hoping we have learned that we must come out and start fast and finish strong. We won last Friday, in my opinion, because of our ball security and ability to execute late in the game," Perez said.

The Lions, 1-0, will face the Braves at 7:30 p.m. Friday at Lion Stadium.

JV Lions dominate Eldorado Eagles

The JV Lions started the season with a big win, 43-6, over the Eldorado Eagles on Aug. 29 at Lion Stadium.

Ozona's Thomas Fay was all over the field with two touchdowns and an interception. Matthew Scheel also scored on a fumble return. John Jurado and Aiden Fierro added touchdowns for the Lions.

James Bradley had a near interception and Jonathan

Focha knocked down the ball on a critical fourth down play.

"The offensive line took control of the game. Defensively, we attacked the football, got there and caused some turnovers. Even our third set of line was in on a scoring drive," said Coach Edward Perez. "They all played really well."

Ozona will take on Iraan at 6 p.m. Thursday in Iraan.

Also, there is a $35,000 increase for band instruments, $10,000 for a student work study program and around $14,500 for new vehicles. The last time the district budgeted funds for vehicles was 2011-2012. The board did not dedicate a fund balance because the district is not at the optimum fund balance level of $5.5 million. The district's current fund balance is around $3.5 million. Adoption of the budget came after the board met in a two and a half hour executive/closed session. No action was taken on personnel issues discussed in the closed session. However, Orland DeHoyos, board vice president, had requested at the board's Aug. 21 budget workshop to discuss questions on salaries in executive/closed session at the Aug. 28 meeting. "We certainly have received a lot of input from everyone. I feel like everybody and others concerned had the opportunity to make recommendations. I feel like there was a lot of fairness," DeHoyos said of this year's budget process. The board also unanimously approved several budget amendments to the 2012-2013 official budget. These amendments include $36,000 to offset overages in district legal fees and $24,000 for softball field repairs. The money will come out of the district's fund balance.

SPECIAL EDUCATION REPORT

Superintendent Raul Chavarria presented the board with a report from Texas Education Agency stating that the district had met requirements in all areas of special education compliance. The 2013 Local Educational Agency Determination Report is done annually under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

OTHER AGENDA ITEMS APPROVED

- The 2013-2014 CCCC-SD Student Handbook, Code of Conduct and Band Handbook.
- The 2013-2014 Professional Development Appraisal System Calendar and the Certified District PDAS Appraisers including Cheryl Bricken.
- Whitney Walston with the Crockett County AgriLife Extension Office as adjunct faculty for 2013-2014 school year.

The board's next regular meeting will be 6:30 p.m. Sept. 18 at the Administration Building.
