County appraisal values take a dip

BY MELISSA PERNER
THE OZONA STOCKMAN

County appraisal values took a dip this year.

At Monday's special commissioners' court meeting, County Judge Fred Deaton said values are down 16 percent. The discussion was part of the commissioners' budget workshop.

County Auditor Janie Chandler presented the commissioners with two sets of proposed revenues. If the commissioners go with a lower tax rate that raises $9.5 million in tax revenue, the county would be short $93,520 compared to last year.

County Judge Fred Deaton said that would mean budget cuts.

"It's a volatile oil and gas field out there," Deaton said. "You can cut your budget where you can't operate your county."

The proposed effective tax rate for 2015 is $.59811 per $100 evaluation. This is around 10 cents higher than last year's rate.

If the commissioners go with the effective tax rate that would raise $10.5 million in tax revenue, the county would have $906,480 in extra revenue.

"The extra money may allow for new roofs on the care center and annex buildings," said County Judge Fred Deaton.

The commissioners will have another budget workshop at their Aug. 10 regular meeting, and then again at the end of August. The tax rate will be set at their September meeting.

HORSE BARNs and ARENA

David McGuire, the new Horse Stall and Arena Manager, gave an update to the commissioners.

McGuire said he has 12-14 more horse stalls rented and that everybody is paid up. He also said brought in a vet to get everyone caught up on coggins and vaccinations.

People are also staring to clean their pens, he said.

He also had a bunch of old trailers hauled off, some of which didn't even have tags on them.

"I would still like to make the big barn a little bit more horse friendly. When it was first built, it was built for sheep or pigs," McGuire said. "I know you wanted that horse problem taken care of and it's basically taken care of. I only have two, maybe three stalls left. I'm hoping to try and get a 4-H horse program started, so I'm leaving those open to see if that happens."

McGuire also said he would like to improve the arena to host more play days, rodeos, bull ridings or other events.

"We need to fix it where it's a better facility for all of Ozona. It's really an awesome facility. I'm just trying to make it user friendly and draw people," he said.

Commissioner Frank Tambunga asked McGuire to review the rules of the facilities and come to the commissioners' with any

CCCCSD School Board discusses honoring the late Coach Sewell

BY MELISSA PERNER
AND SUSAN WILLIAMS

The CCCCSD School Board discussed renaming Lion Stadium in honor of Coach L.T. "Rip" Sewell Monday night.

During a special called meeting, Board Vice President Orlando DeHoyos brought up the item for discussion.

Sewell, who died on July 4, coached in Ozona from 1968-1989. While coaching at Ozona High School, his football teams won several district championships going several rounds into the playoffs. He also coached track and golf, taking teams to the state meets.

Sewell was selected by his peers to the Texas High School Coaches' Association's Hall of Honor in 1986.

"He was here for a long time and he was invaluable for his service," DeHoyos said.

DeHoyos said if the board does decide to rename the stadium, he suggests doing an official dedication at the Sept. 25 homecoming game.

"One of the things our administrative staff is working on is the pride of our community, and this might be one place to start," said Board President David McWilliams.

Board Secretary Grizz Medina suggested maybe naming a section of the stadium after Sewell.

The board decided to table the item until their Aug. 19 regular meeting so they could have time for more feedback.

NEW HIRES and RESIGNATIONS

After meeting in executive/closed session for two hours, the board approved the hiring of David Porter for fifth grade social studies, Dena Porter for third grade, Jackie Martinez for Pre-K and Hillary Rodriguez for kindergarten.

They also approved resignations from Justina Saunders, Guy Barnett and Patricia Sutton.

BUDGET WORKSHOP

Superintendent Raul Chavarria told the board that a decision on the increase in the district's health insurance will need to be made by the Aug. 19 meeting.

The district's increase is about $50 per month for each employee.

Currently, the district contributes $454, the state contributes $75 and district employees contribute $26 per month.

In order to keep the contribution the same, the district would have to make up the difference of $50, Chavarria said.

Chavarria said he will get options to the board members for consideration later this week.

HOUSING BIDS

The board decided to table approving the bids for housing renovations due to needing clarification on one of the bids.

TSCRA reflects on 84th Texas Legislative Session

This year started off on a busy note as the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association (TSCRA) tracked legislation and worked with state elected officials and staff during the 84th Texas Legislative Session, which convened Jan. 13 through June 1.

Over 6,400 pieces of legislation were filed by state legislators and TSCRA leaders and staff tracked over 600 bills and resolutions of interest to ranchers and landowners.

We were actively involved with more bills this session than ever, proving there are a growing number of issues impacting our members. This is why it is extremely crucial for us to keep these important matters on the radar of elected officials whom we have worked to build and maintain relationships with over the years.

As we expected, a central topic for TSCRA this session was water. We aggressively monitored and weighed-in on numerous pieces of legislation related to groundwater rights and ownership issues. TSCRA played an active role in opposing legislation that would have infringed on Texans' constitutionally protected groundwater rights. Thankfully, we succeeded in preventing bills from passing that would have ultimately threatened or taken away local management of groundwater.

Additionally, TSCRA represented private property owners this session by being directly involved in many discussions associated with eminent domain legislation. We successfully worked with other landowner groups to block legislation that would have allowed certain entities to misuse the power of eminent domain to drill allocation oil and gas wells on land that many have worked tirelessly and sacrificed to own.

Further, I was proud to see a balanced budget pass to provide necessary funding for some very important needs in Texas.

The Texas Department of Transportation (TXDOT) received a 52 percent increase in general revenue funds as a result of Proposition 1 passage in November 2014. Texans will have another opportunity to vote on an additional constitutional amendment this November, which could add another $2.5 billion toward transportation needs in Texas. We have supported these efforts as our state continues working to meet growing mobility needs. TSCRA will work to ensure that rural Texas gets its fair share of these dollars.

Also, the Texas Animal Health Commission (TAHC) received a 27 percent increase in general revenue funds and 27 new full-time employees focused on border disease issues and feral swine disease response. These additional resources are crucial to protect the cattle industry from devas-

Congress should reject Iran deal

The pursuit of a nuclear program by Iran is not about energy or weapons; it's about power. Secretary of State John Kerry should have used the recent missed deadline in the nuclear negotiation between Iran and major world powers as an excuse to walk away. He could have finally heeded the advice and guidance of our partners in the region and dealt with Iran as the belligerent exporter of terrorism that it is. By agreeing to a bad deal, they are enabling Iran to use delay tactics to continue its nuclear program to flip the balance of power in the region.

years and is a very dangerous cyberthreat to U.S. critical infrastructure.

Supporters of Iran are quick to highlight Iranian efforts to fight ISIS in Iraq and Syria. Iran recognizes the threat to its strategic interest by Israel, Benjamin Netanyahu, remarked during his March speech to a joint session of Congress, "The enemy of your enemy is still sometimes your enemy."

An Iran under the pressure of financial sanctions is dangerous; an Iran without those restrictions and flush with cash is even more dangerous. Under various forms of financial sanctions since 1979, the Iranian government has for the past four decades funded Hezbollah, responsible for numerous terror attacks, including against the Marine barracks in Beirut, the Khobar Towers and U.S. embassies. Now, with Iran set to recover up to $150 billion from foreign bank accounts frozen due to nuclear sanctions, the Iranians will be well-capitalized to conduct the same types of attacks they are known for while biding their time on nuclear weapons construction.

We don't have to conjecture on what the Iranians believe. Their own words reveal their true intentions. In the midst of the recent negotiations, the Supreme Leader of Iran Ayatollah Ali Khamenei announced last week that the U.S. was an "arrogant power which must be resisted even after a deal."

Lifting the ban on selling traditional arms to Iran is a brazen attempt to further strengthen Iranian military might in the Middle East. Recently, Russian Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov had the audacity to claim, "Lifting the arms embargo would help Iran to advance its efficiency in fighting terrorism." While I understand Foreign Minister Lavrov's interest in ultimately selling weapons to Iran, the exact opposite will happen if this embargo is lifted.

Having spent almost a decade as an undercover officer in the CIA chasing bad guys, I learned firsthand that previous actions are indicative of future behavior. Iran's bad behavior has been a special focus of the United Nations nuclear watchdog, the International Atomic Energy Agency, or IAEA. The U.S. Institute of Peace outlines that between June 2003 and September 2010, the IAEA issued 30 reports on Iran's nuclear program and its covert activities dating to the 1980s. Tehran initially cooperated with the IAEA, but eventually the agency secured four rounds of sanctions against Iran after finding the Iranians hiding a wide range of strategic nuclear work.

Despite sanctions, the Iranian government has provided small arms and explosives to both the Taliban and Iraqi militias, which were used to produce IEDs used against coalition forces. Over the past few years, despite sanctions, the Iranian security apparatus has put itself in a position to brag about being in control of four Arab capitals — Baghdad, Damascus, Beirut, and Sanaa.

To think the leaders of Iran have changed and won't do this again under a new deal is pure naïveté.

The alternative to walking away from a nuclear deal with Iran is not war. It is additional sanctions that prevent Iran from strengthening its control of the Middle East. The current agreement is indeed historic in the fact that it will only enable Iran to increase its power over the Middle East.

Additionally, as Fred Kagan of the American Enterprise Institute outlines in a recent report, the size and scope of Iran's offensive cyber capabilities has grown significantly in the last few

Horse Hunting

IT'S THE PITTS

LEE PITTS

It is the most endangered of all species, the rarest form of animal life in existence. I am referring of course to the equinus kidicus, otherwise known as "the kid's horse." I think there are only two in captivity.

The requirements for a good kid's horse are that it won't buck, kick or run fast while the child is learning to ride. Then, once the adolescent has mastered the art of horsemanship the parents expect that same horse to carry their child around the barrels in thirteen seconds breaking Charmayne Rodman's record of ten world championships and allowing the parents to retire in the lap of luxury. Needless to say, this is a very hard horse to find.

I pride myself on being a fair judge of horse flesh and I have occasionally been called upon to evaluate the merits of numerous flea bitten broom tails.

Years ago I was asked by some of our best friends to find a bomb-proof horse for their eight year old daughter, not realizing that if I found such a horse I would have to hear about its faults for the next ten years and that I would be taken off their Christmas card list.

The information that I was in the market for a kid's horse traveled faster than a rumor on Twitter. I think every horse trader in the country called and snickered into my ear, "I hear you're looking for a kid's horse?"

I learned that some of the people who specialize in kid's horses make used car salesmen seem like paragons of virtue. I checked out one "kid's horse" that belonged in a rodeo bucking string. The outlaw attempting to sell me the cayuse was so crooked he could sleep in the shadow of a post hole auger. Shortly after taking a seat on the buzzard bait's back the sun was shining on the bottoms of my boots. The crook only wanted $5,000 for the man-killer but that figure didn't include future attorney's fees or hospital bills.

In my quest for the perfect kid's horse I examined several that were barely breathing. I inspected a lot of horses that were dead but just wouldn't lie down. One was an Appaloosa with just three gaits, the walk, the stop and the parked. In action the horse sounded something like this, "clip, clop, clip, clop, huff, puff, snore." The owner was willing to sacrifice at only $6,000 seeing how we were friends and all.

There were several advertisements in the local newspaper offering, "a free horse to a good home." These were generally 30 year old horses that had not been ridden in 15 years, that were blind in one eye and were one breath away from the bone yard. Such horses are like in-laws, you can never get rid of them, especially now that the feds have outlawed horse slaughter. If you buy one of these elder care horses you have to promise not to sell the horse for export to France and oh, by the way, someone will be by once a week to check on the old flea bag. After much looking I did find one excellent kid's horse that was dog gentle, loaded in a trailer and ate table scraps. But the girl didn't like the horse's name.

I responded to one ad that offered a horse for "$600, or best offer." The spoiled old plug was so "gentle" I could not raise a pulse. He was a little long in the tooth, and I do mean tooth. (Not in the plural sense).

Naturally, the girl fell in love with the horse at first sight. They had what the father called "obvious chemistry." With visions of blue ribbons running through her head the young girl anxiously asked the owner, "Will I be able to race him in the 4-H horse show?"

"Sure you will," said the owner. "And I have no doubt you will beat him." It was an old, well worn joke but in this case, absolutely true.

Three weeks after the girl got the horse home he went to the big glue factory in the sky and my ex-friends had to pay $150 for Buzzard Bill to haul his hollow carcass away.

Now there is only one kid's horse left in captivity.

Governor says family of dead woman deserves answers

AUSTIN — Gov. Greg Abbott on July 22 issued a statement regarding the arrest and death of Sandra Bland, a 28-year-old Illinois resident who had driven to Hempstead in response to a job offer from Prairie View A&M University. On July 10, Bland was pulled over by a state trooper, arrested and placed in the Waller County jail in Hempstead. Three days later Bland was found dead in her jail cell. Local authorities conducted an autopsy and reported suicide as the cause of death. Bland's family ordered an independent autopsy. "Our hearts and prayers remain with the Bland family for their tragic loss. The family deserves answers. The Texas Rangers, working in coordination with the FBI, will conduct a full and thorough investigation that will deliver those answers and work toward the ultimate goal of ensuring justice in this case," Abbott wrote. On July 21, Texas Department of Public Safety officials briefed state leaders on the investigation. "DPS has been working closely with the family of Ms. Bland during this investigation and the department extends our sincere condolences for their tragic loss," said DPS Director Steven McCraw. "It is important that her family has confidence in the efficacy of this investigation, which is why the Waller County Sheriff's Office and District Attorney originally requested investigative assistance from the Texas Rangers; and it's also why DPS requested the FBI assist in this investigation." The DPS posted on its website the state trooper's dash camera video from the traffic stop. Also, video footage showing activity in the jail at the time of the discovery of the body was widely broadcast.

COURT DISMISSES COERCION CHARGE

Texas' 3rd Court of Appeals on July 24 dismissed one count of a two-count felony indictment handed down in August 2014 by a Travis County grand jury against Rick Perry for actions he took as governor in 2013. The court threw out the count of official coercion against Perry for demanding the resignation of the head of the state's Public Integrity Unit, Travis County District Attorney Rosemary Lehmburg, in the spring of 2013 after she was arrested and jailed for drunken driving. Lehmburg apologized for her actions but refused to resign. Perry then vetoed the unit's $7.5 million in state funding. Texans for Public Justice, an Austin-based government watchdog organization, filed the original criminal complaints against Perry. The other count, alleging abuse of power, remains pending and could be set for a court date later this year.

Sales Tax Holiday is Aug. 7-9

This year's Sales Tax Holiday is Aug. 7 - 9. As in previous years, the law exempts most clothing, footwear, school supplies and backpacks priced under $100 from sales and use taxes, which could save shoppers about $8 on every $100 they spend.

All sales of qualifying items made during the holiday period qualify for the exemption, including items sold online, or by telephone or mail. Lay-away plans can be used again this year to take advantage of the sales tax holiday.

The dates for the sales tax holiday are set by the Legislature.

OZONA SENIOR HAPPENINGS

Blood pressure, diabetes checks today

BY BRENDA NEWTON
SENIOR CENTER DIRECTOR

Here we are at the end of another month. School will be starting soon, so make sure all your duckies are in a row with supplies and registrations. It seems impossible that it is two more days until August. Time is passing all too fast. I hope you all are enjoying your summer.

Carter Healthcare will be coming here to the center on Wednesdays at 1:30 p.m. to check blood pressure and diabetes levels.

This is a good thing, no waiting in line or making appointments or cost. Take advantage of this offer from Charlene Sanchez at Carter Healthcare.

The August Senior Social is scheduled for Aug. 17 with chicken salad served with crackers and ice cream sandwiches on the menu.

The movie for Thursday, July 29, will be "Calendar Girls" starring Helen Mirren and Julie Walters. This movie was inspired by a true story - a lovely, funny, heartwarming beautifully told story. This is a terrifically entertaining comedy. Don't miss it. Come out and enjoy yourself with popcorn puffs and drinks Thursday at 2 p.m.

Unclog your drain naturally with baking soda and vinegar.

Put two teaspoons vanilla in a coffee mug, turn on the oven to 300 degrees, put mug in oven for one hour and your house will smell like heaven.

OBITUARIES

Mary R. Najar

Mary R. Najar was born in Ozona, on January 20, 1944. She went to live with our Heavenly Father on July 22, 2015. She was preceded in death by her father, Jesus Ramos; mother, Mercedes Ramos; sister, Tommie Galan; brother-in-law, Pancho Galan; nephew, Joe Thomas Galan and her best friend, mother-in-law Patsy Najar.

Survivors include her husband, Stanley P. Najar Jr. of Ozona; her two sons: Stan Najar III of Ozona, Rodney and Haley Najar of San Antonio; three daughters: Mylene Najar and Jim Kaiser of Watauga, Texas, Marisa Najar of Ozona and Dawn Hanson of Austin; one grandson, Stanton Najar of San Diego; three granddaughters: Lauren Najar and Eli Treto of Ozona, Chelsey Najar of San Antonio and Victoria Najar of Ozona; father-in-law Stanley Najar Sr. of Ozona; sister-in-law Aurora Najar of Ozona; two brothers: Chuy "Jessie" Ramos and Susan of Dallas, and Randy Ramos of Ozona; and one sister, Linda Ramos of Midland.

She is also survived by three wonderful nephews: Frank and Lynn Galan of Midland, Lee and Cheryl Galan of San Angelo and Ryan Ramos of Ozona; two nieces: Dee Ramos of Dallas and Stacy and Josef Pickett of Midland; several great-nephews, six amazing and loving great grandchildren, all of whom she loved dearly: Inesia Najar, Ceigan Najar, Alex Najar, Sienna Najar, Adelina Najar and Anaya Treto all of Ozona, along with many great friends, cousins and neighbors.

Mary was a life-long member of OLPH Catholic Church. She lived for her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Her hobbies included gardening, spending time with family and friends and drinking coffee at Town and Country until all hours of the night. She could spend hours at a nursery just picking out the perfect rose bush. Mom loved our frequent family trips to Pandale. She would spend all night by the campfire enjoying the bright starry night. She had such special relationships with all her children's and grandchildren's friends that many so lovingly called her Granny.

SUPER BOWL RINGS

I saw the winners of a previous Super bowl showing off their championship rings. There have been a lot of football players but only a few are wearing Championship rings. They received that award after a lot of training, pain, heartaches, self-sacrifice and effort. Seeing those rings reminded me of what could be in store for many Christians (1 Peter 5:4, 2 Timothy 4:8). Non-Christians will not get any rewards, just punishment (Matthew 25:41, John 5:29). God wants all Christians to live in a way (to be champions for Him) that honors Him and to do His will. In football you may play one way (on the field) and live differently off the field. It's not that way in the Christian life. On the field (going to church) and off the field (at work, home or play) is the same, no double standards. Jesus lived His whole life in perfect obedience to the Father and just before He was crucified He said He was about to finish His work on earth (John 17:4). No, Jesus won't be wearing a Super bowl ring but He will be wearing a beautiful crown and His title will be King of Kings and Lord of Lords (Revelation 19:12&16). We ought to have the same goal as Jesus and maybe one day we will be in the champion's circle (1 Corinthians 9:24, 25, James 1: 12). See you in Church next Sunday. Brother J

Dress Code Reminders

At CCCCSO we believe that we should "dress for success". Clothes matter a lot to everyone. They affect how we feel about ourselves and how well we can function at school.

We had a lot of violations of dress code this last year at CCCCSO, and so we want to clearly set the boundaries up before school begins.

Here are some guidelines from our handbook, as well as, a copy of the dress code section from our handbook, so parents and students can make good clothing choices.

SHORTS

We have had some short shorts last year at CCCCSO, and so we are giving our school kids a rule - "shorts and skirts of modest length" is the statement in the handbook and for our kids "modest length" is either 2 inches below the fingertips OR 3 inches above the knee that is the "Target Modest Zone" at CCCCSO!

OUR DRESS CODE ALSO STATES THAT:

- "shirts or tops with spaghetti straps and tank tops are not permitted"
- "shirts or tops which expose the midriff are not permitted"

- "hair styles (such as Mohawks, they are not appropriate at OES and OMS)

- accessories, clothing or lack of clothing that are extreme or disrupt, distract or interfere with the learning process will not be permitted" for us at CCCCSO this means:

- that any shirt you wear must have a shoulder panel of at least 3 fingers wide,

- no exposed shoulders or shoulder blades,

- no exposed undergarments of any kind.

- If a student wears leggings, then the shirt over the leggings must be of "modest length" which is either 2 inches below the fingertips OR 3 inches above the knee

- this also means that if your shirt shows any cleavage you will be made to change into a T-shirt from the office until the end of the day or until another shirt is brought to you from home

- this also means NO HOLES, frays, rips, or tears above the knee in your pants

- NONE, not patches, no leggings underneath, NONE means NONE!

Our handbook finally says that "Principals retain final discretion and authority in determining dress code violations"; it also states that the principal can (and will) confiscate clothing that is in violation of dress code for up to one week. We want to be very clear with students, staff and parents as to what we consider to be appropriate, so students and parents can make decisions about student clothing.

Students will be expected to follow these dress code guidelines at all school events: band concerts, awards ceremonies, dances, and any other school activity.

If you have any questions, please feel welcome to call or come by the office and discuss them with us.

Sincerely,
Ronny Clayton,
Ozona High School
Tamara McWilliams,
Ozona Elementary and Middle Schools

OHS Summer Band schedule

It is important that we begin rehearsals at the designated times. Please arrive early enough to find your place before rehearsal/practice begins. If you are early it means you are on time. Step 1: List All Household Members Who Are Infants, Children, And Students Up To and Including Grade 12.

- List each child's name.
- Print the first name, middle initial, and last name for each child in the household in the spaces provided. If there are more children in the household than lines on the application, use the back of the application to record additional names.

Special Directions:

Include all members in the household who are age 18 or under and are supported with the household's income. Children do NOT have to be related to anyone in the household to be a part of the household.

- Mark the box following the child's name if the child is a student in the Crockett County Consolidated Common School District.
- Check the appropriate box if the child qualifies for free meals as participant in the foster care system; as a participant in a Head Start, Early Head Start, or Even Start program; or as a child meeting the criteria for homeless, migrant, or runaway.

Special Directions

On this application, checking Foster indicates that a foster care agency or court has placed the child in your home. Foster children who live in the household may count as members of the household and may be listed on your application. If the application is being submitted for foster children only, complete Step 1, skip Steps 2 and 3, and go to Step 4.

If all children in the household are participants in one of these programs, skip Steps 2 and 3 and go to Step 4.

Step 2: Do Any Household Members (Including You) Currently Participate in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), or Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations (FDPPIR)?

- If no one in the household currently participates in any one of these programs skip the remaining questions in Step 2, and go to Step 3.
- If anyone in the household participates one of these programs Record the Eligibility Determination Group Number (EDG) in the space provided, skip Step 3, and go to Step 4.

Step 3: Report Income for All Household Members.

Part A. Income for Children in the Household

- Record the total income for all children by how often the income is received (frequency). Do not include income for adults in this section. Record the income of adults in Part B.

Special Directions:

It is not necessary to record the income of the children in the household individually. Instead, combine and report children's total income by frequency. For example, combine all income received weekly and record the total amount in the space under weekly.

The Child Income Information Box (on the right) provides additional information on the types of income that needs to be reported for children in the household.

Part B. Income for All Adult Household Members (Including Yourself)

- Record the first and last name of each adult in the household in the space provided.
- If there are more adults in the household than the spaces provided, use the back of the application. Do not include the income of children in Part B. Children's income is reported in Part A.

Special Directions:

In this section, include all adults living in the household that share income and expenses, even if the adult is not related to anyone in the family and even if the adult does not receive income of her or his own. Do not include people who live in the household but are not supported by the household's income and do not contribute income to the household.

- Record the amount of income the adult receives under the type of income:
 - Working Earnings
 - Public Assistance/Child Support/Alimony
 - Pensions/Retirement/Social Security/ Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
 - All Other

Special Directions:

Report all amounts in gross income only and in whole dollars. Gross income is the total income received before taxes or deductions. Many people think of income as the amount they take home and not the total, gross amount. Ensure that the income reported on this application has not been reduced by the amounts deducted for taxes, insurance premiums, or any other purpose. The Adult Income Information Box provides additional information on the types of income that need to be reported. Foster children may be included as part of the household, but are not required to be included.

Write a 0 in any fields where there is no income to report. Any income fields left empty or blank will be counted as zeroes. If you write 0 or leave any fields blank, you are certifying (promising) that there is no income to report. If local officials have known or available information that the household income was reported incorrectly, the application will be verified for cause.

- Circle how often each type of income is received (frequency).
 - W = Weekly
 - E = Every 2 Weeks
 - T = Twice per Month
 - M = Monthly
 - A = Annually

- Record the total number of children and adults in the household in the appropriate box.

Special Directions:

This number MUST be equal to the number of household members listed in Step 1 and Step 3. If there are any members of the household that have not been listed on the application, go back and add them. It is very important to list all household members, as the size of the household determines the household eligibility.

- Provide the last four digits of the Social Security number (SSN) of the adult signing the application or check the box for no SSN.

Special Directions:

A social security number is not required to apply for these programs.

Step 4: Provide Contact Information and Adult Signature.

- Read the certification statement.
- Write your current address and contact information in the fields provided. Sharing a phone number, email address, or both is optional, but helps us reach you quickly if we need to contact you.
- Print the name of the adult completing the form in the spaced provided.
- Sign the form.

Special Directions:

All applications must be signed by the adult household member completing the application. By signing the application, the household member is promising that all information has been truthfully and completely reported. Before completing this section, please read the privacy and civil rights statements on the back of the application.

- Record today's date in the appropriate box.

Area Grazing Management Clinic in Sonora

BY DONNIE LUNSFORD
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

SONORA - The Texas Grazing Lands Coalition will be hosting a Grazing Management Clinic on Aug. 5 at the Sutton County Civic Center in Sonora, Texas.

The featured speaker is Jim Gerrish, a grazing specialist with over 20 years of experience in beef-forage systems with the University of Missouri and the Forage Systems Research Center along with more than 20 years of experience in the commercial cattle and sheep industry on his family farm in northern Missouri.

Topics will include: efficiently capturing solar energy, creating a more efficient water cycle, building a dynamic mineral cycle, enhancing biodiversity in pastureland and rangeland, and grazing system design.

After lunch, there will be a ranch tour to see local rancher, Joe David Ross's high intensity- low frequency grazing operation.

Gerrish and Ross will discuss grazing systems, water distribution and fencing options with an open group discussion to talk about your successes.

"This workshop will discuss successes with intensive grazing management systems and feature a ranch tour where this style of system has been in place for over 30 plus years," said Scott Petty, Edwards Region Chairman. "This event allows conservation minded producers to come together and see what they can take home and implement in their operation." Cost for the workshop is $25 a person or $30 at the door, which includes a catered lunch.

For more information, call Kason Haby at (830) 426-2521 ext. 116. Please RSVP by July 29 to the Edwards Region GLCI, 257 Highway 173 North, Hondo, Texas 78861 or call (830)741-0717.

tating animal diseases. While this year's session has ended, our work continues as many state agencies focus on implementation of the new policies signed into law by Governor Greg Abbott. TSCRA is already closely working with agency leaders and staff to conscientiously implement these new laws. We will make sure rancher's and landowner's best interests are taken into serious consideration as we work through this process. The next legislative session in 2017 seems like a long time away, however it will be here before we know it. TSCRA is already discussing key legislative items and looking forward to having more of these conversations at our fall Policy Conference in September and throughout the next two years. Most importantly, we greatly appreciate the efforts of the many TSCRA members who reached out to us and their state senators and representatives to support or voice concerns on legislation this session. You were instrumental throughout the entire process and we greatly appreciate your willingness to help in these vital efforts. We will need this same amount of attentiveness and participation from members during the interim and for sessions to come. If you have questions or would like to voice concerns on a particular legislative issue, please contact TSCRA's Government and Public Affairs office anytime at 512-469-0171. Your feedback is always welcome. PETE BONDS, has ranched his entire life. He operates the Bonds Ranch in Saginaw, Texas, where he also lives. made by the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service in late June lifted a ban on the importation of beef from Northern Argentina and 14 of Brazil's 27 states. Texas Agriculture Commissioner Sid Miller recently spoke out against the federal agency's action because, he said, those areas have a known history of foot-and-mouth disease. "The U.S. has not suffered from a case of foot-and-mouth disease since 1929, in part because of our nation's bans against animal and meat imports from countries dealing with the disease," Miller stated in a July 21 news release.

UNEMPLOYMENT RATE DECREASES

Texas Workforce Commission on July 17 announced Texas marked its third straight month of seasonally adjusted job growth with the addition of 16,700 nonagricultural jobs in June. And, the state has added jobs in 56 of the last 57 months, including a total of 53,600 positions in the first half of 2015. Over the year, Texas has seen an increase of 269,900 jobs. Texas' seasonally adjusted unemployment rate fell to 4.2 percent in June, down from 4.3 percent in May, the lowest rate of unemployment for the state since July 2007, according to the agency.

GROWTH TREND CONTINUES

Texas Secretary of State Carlos Cascos on July 16 reported continued growth in new business formations for the first half of 2015. Some 83,235 certificates of formation were filed between Jan. 1 and June 30 with the secretary of state's office to form new Texas for-profit corporations, professional corporations, professional associations, limited liability companies and limited partnerships. This is an almost 4 percent increase from the 80,039 certificates of formation filed Jan. 1 to June 30 of 2014, Cascos pointed out.
