Lions under new leadership

Team aiming for district title and beyond

BY MELISSA PERNER
THE OZONA STOCKMAN

The Ozona Lions are gearing up for another football season.

Under new Athletic Director and Head Coach Kyle Freeman, the Lions are aiming to reach a district title and beyond.

Monday's first day of workouts did see players who did not play last year and some new students to the district, Freeman said.

"Overall we are very upbeat with a good attitude. We accomplished what we wanted to do on day one," he said.

Freeman said he runs a multiple base offense out of the I, but is starting off things slowly.

"It's kind of vanilla right now. Over the next few weeks, we will get more advance," Freeman said.

Defensively, Freeman takes pride when his players are able to "outhit" their opponents.

"We are capable of more. We need to be more physical than the people we play. Our goal is not be outhit," he said.

Freeman comes to Ozona from Bruni High School, located 45 miles east of Laredo.

During his two years at Bruni, Freeman was 22-5 and led the Badgers to the state quarterfinals both years, losing to state champion Bremond this past season.

Prior to Freeman, Bruni had only won about three playoff games.

Commissioners approve first payment on new clinic

BY MELISSA PERNER
THE OZONA STOCKMAN

The Crockett County Commissioners' Court approved the first interest payment for the new clinic during a special called meeting Monday.

At the meeting, the commissioners approved a payment of $25,962.42 to be moved from the building and maintenance fund to the new interest and sinking fund for the clinic.

The budget for the new clinic is $3 million. It will be located across from Lion Stadium. Shannon Medical Center will provide $275,000 worth of new equipment.

The commissioners issued $2 million tax notes for the clinic, along with $1.1 million from the county's money market account in December 2015. A tax note can be issued by the county for projects to be financed for seven years or less. The clinic project has been estimated to be paid back within five years.

The new clinic, which is currently under construction, is around 10,000 square-feet, and will have 11 exam rooms that will be used by local physicians and specialists from San Angelo.

The commissioners also approved National Incident-Based Reporting System Software.

The software is part of a grant through the Texas Governor's Office.

The next regular commissioners' court meeting will be 9 a.m. Monday, Aug. 8, at the courthouse annex. The meeting is open to the public.

CONSTRUCTION ON THE NEW OZONA CLINIC continues. The clinic is located across from Lion Stadium. During a special meeting Monday, the Crockett County Commissioners' Court approved the first interest payment on the clinic's tax notes.

Hitting the road

The best part of my job is meeting with families across the district. Each town, from San Antonio to El Paso, and every place in between, has their own flavor and charm, not to mention, some of the hardest working people I've ever met. When not working in DC, I'm traveling to one of these towns in the twenty-nine counties in the 23rd Congressional District of Texas, to meet with constituents and learn about the issues most important to them. Sometimes I stop in a half-dozen or more towns before flying back to DC on Monday. Why is this so important? Because my job is to serve as your Representative, and hearing from you face-to-face makes me more effective.

This is why I look forward to August recess all year, so that I can hit the road with my team and meet with folks all month long. This year, I am hosting two sets of public meetings during the first half of August. The Tech2Town Summer Road Trip will be held in San Elizario and Van Horn on Today, Aug. 3; Alpine, Fort Stockton and Sonora on Thursday, Aug. 4; and Del Rio on Aug. 5, where I will bring computer professionals to provide free computer and internet training as part of a larger initiative to inspire STEM education, careers, and entrepreneurship. These workshops will be open to the public - all are welcome!

To have a qualified workforce, we must ensure access to technology education and development for all ages and abilities—and not just in the big cities like San Antonio and El Paso—but in all of our hard-working communities. Prioritizing education initiatives like Tech2Town will help create a diverse 21st century workforce, drive technological advancement and innovation across every industry, and allow Texans to be more competitive in the global arena. Get the full details on these workshops by visiting Hurd.House.gov/Tech2Town or calling (210) 921-3130. DC2DQ, my meet and greet series at local Dairy Queens throughout the district, was a hit last summer, so we're continuing the tradition. I will be hosting DC2DQ Part II from Aug. 8-12 with stops in 23 Texas towns. Just like last year, each meeting will be open to the public, and be an opportunity for me to hear your questions and concerns directly, along with providing you an update on what I'm working on back home and in Washington to keep us safe, grow the economy, and increase opportunity across the district. It has been an eventful year, so count on many lively and insightful conversations.

We are still finalizing all the exact details for DC2DQ Part II. We will be in Helotes, Somerset, Castroville and Hondo on Sunday, Aug. 7 and then Devine, Pearsall, Dilley and Cotulla on Monday, Aug. 8. On Tuesday, Aug. 9, you'll find us in Uvalde, Crystal City, Carrizo Springs and Eagle Pass, before heading to Del Rio, Sonora, Ozona and Big Lake on Wednesday, Aug. 10. Destinations include Crane, Monahans, Kermit and Pecos on Thursday, Aug. 11, and we'll wrap things up on Friday, Aug. 12 in Presidio, Alpine and Fort Stockton. You can visit Hurd.House.gov/DC2DQ or call (210) 921-3130 for more information.

In order to represent you to the best of my ability, regular feedback from your community is essential.

I encourage you to share the upcoming opportunities with your neighbors and friends, so we can make this year's DC2DQ even better than the last. Looking forward to meeting you soon!

10 Places Not To Find A Cowboy

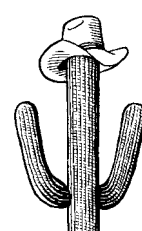

If you want to catch a glimpse of a real cowboy here are ten places NOT to look.

#10 Mercedes dealership- Although I don't hang around such places myself, I doubt a Mercedes is the cowboy's dream drive. I don't even think Mercedes makes a pickup, do they? Although I did write a story once about a cowboy who had a Cadillac. He cut out the rear seat, front right seat, and trunk so he could haul his pet Longhorn around. (I have the photos to prove it.)

#9 Accountant's office- I have yet to meet a cowboy who has a personal accountant in order to employ tax avoidance strategies. A cowboy's life is one big involuntary tax avoidance scheme. The portfolios of most cowboys consist of their boots, dog, hat, rifle, belt buckle and old truck. It's a toss-up which is their most valuable asset... their saddle or their horse.

#8 Forbes 400- Every year I buy the Forbes 400 magazine to see if I'm amongst the country's wealthiest. I have yet to see my name, or that of any cowboy. Sure, I see plenty of folks on the list who own lots of real estate in cow country but I really doubt if any of them have ever sewn up a cow's prolapse with baler twine or roped a wild one and tied it to a tree.

#7 Union Meeting- I only know of one time when a bunch of cowboys tried to unionize and that was in a great novel by Elmer Kelton called the Day The Cowboys Quit. Generally, a cowboy

IT'S THE PITTS

of their bodies were shimmering white. And they don't need to spend a month's salary getting all slathered with mud because they do that for free when they have to pull out a boggy cow.

#5 Kanye West rap concert- If a cowboy wants to go someplace crowded and listen to some loudmouth rattling off a bunch of jabber words he'll go to the auction market, thank you very much. If he goes to a concert it probably features cowboy poetry, Dave Stamey or Red Steagall.

#4 Next to a squirrel hole- A cowboy in Texas once told me to never spread my bedroll next to a squirrel hole because rattlesnakes like to live there. I never was brave enough to test his theory.

#3 Fashion Show in New York City- Your average cowboy does not wear clothes with designer labels, unless you consider Wrangler one. If he won't listen to his wife, he's darn sure not going to listen to some transgender New York City fashion editor tell him what to wear. You could say he wears a uniform to work and the only thing that changes might be his belt buckle, and that's only if he wins a ranch rodeo.

#2 John Deere dealership- Most cowboys I know hate tractors. They are far more apt to collect Copenhagen lids than they are those miniature tractors that old farmers like to play with. Cowboys don't wait anxiously for the new baler models to come out each year and given a choice between going to the dentist or the parts house, a cowboy will pick the molar mechanic every time.

#1 A vegetarian buffet at a PETA protest- My guess is it would be easier to find a cowboy enrolled in some Ivy League Grad school studying floral management, poultry science or Bassoon studies than it would to find a real cowboy protesting on behalf of animals that have repeatedly tried to kill him on a regular basis.

If you want to spot a real cowboy you'd have a better chance at COSTCO once every six weeks, church, sale barn, emergency ward, county fair, Big Bend Saddlery or waiting in line to beg for an advance on his measly earnings at the Big House once a month.

State rolls out revised women's health program

AUSTIN — A women's health program is in effect and ready to deliver more care to more women statewide who are 15 to 44 years old and whose income is up to 200 percent of federal poverty guidelines.

Sen. Jane Nelson, R-Flower Mound, and Texas Health and Human Services Executive Commissioner Charles Smith, in a joint announcement on July 25, said they expect the "new and improved" Healthy Texas Women program to serve some 300,000 women, while earlier programs served 270,000 women. Participation for minors will require parental consent.

Nelson, current chair of the state Senate Finance Committee and former chair of the Senate Health and Human Services Committee, said the program combines and streamlines two of the state's previous women's health programs to provide a full range of women's health services, including:

- Pregnancy testing and counseling;
- Family planning;
- Immunizations;
- Breast and cervical cancer screenings;
- Screenings and treatment for diabetes, hypertension, and high cholesterol; and more.

"State funding for women's health services has reached an all-time high," said Sen. Nelson. "We have expanded our provider network to the largest it has ever been and will continue working to make sure women all over the state can access family planning and other preventative health services."

"We place a high priority on helping all Texas women access the comprehensive healthcare services they need," Smith said, "and we're committed to helping ensure more women know what benefits are available to help them take charge of their health."

CERTIFICATION PROGRAM DEBUTS

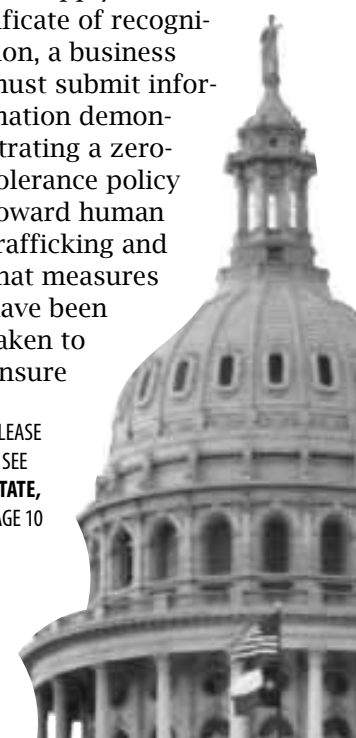

Secretary of State Carlos Cascos on July 27 invited Texas businesses to participate in the Human Trafficking Prevention Business Partnership Program created by the Texas Legislature in 2015.

The program requires the secretary of state to present a certificate of recognition to a participating corporation or private entity to recognize its contributions to the efforts of federal, state and local officials engaged in combating human trafficking and prosecuting human-trafficking crimes.

To apply for a certificate of recognition, a business must submit information demonstrating a zero-tolerance policy toward human trafficking and that measures have been taken to ensure

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NEWS

Chamber President recognized for tenure

BY SHANON BIGGERSTAFF
OZONA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Texas Chamber of Commerce Executives (TCCE) is renowned as the oldest and one of the largest associations for chamber executives in the United States. TCCE is an organization of chamber executives from across the state, working together to improve the business climate in Texas, while developing ways to enhance the quality of life in the communities that they represent.

Since 1906, TCCE has been enhancing and promoting the professional growth of chamber executives by providing leadership for chamber employees through its many publications and resources.

There are many networking opportunities including the annual conference held each summer, mini-conferences, and other meetings with the purpose of bringing executives together to exchange ideas and success stories.

This year's state conference was held in Corpus Christi, June 19-21.

Over 225 people attended the conference, with chamber professionals representing some 120 communities. Shanon Biggerstaff, President, represented the Ozona Chamber of Commerce.

During the Annual Excellence Awards Dinner & Celebration, Biggerstaff was presented with an award in recognition of her outstanding service and dedication to the Chamber of Commerce profession for 25 years.

"While the sessions always offer good information, networking with your peers is also a very productive part of these conferences. Having a chance to visit with executives from other rural, urban and metropolitan communities, gives you an opportunity to share experiences. We talk about what works, and what doesn't, the challenges and resources available and needed to accomplish our goals at home. No two communities are the same. You take what you learn and tailor that knowledge to fit your community," says Biggerstaff. "As a member of TCCE, the resources through this organization are invaluable to the Ozona Chamber of Commerce. It's also great fun to spend time with such an enthusiastic group of people who truly care about the future of their towns they represent."

Lexi Montgomery interns at camp

Lexi Montgomery recently returned from Interns to America at Texas Bible Institute/Discovery Camp in Columbus, Texas.

Interns to America is a program designed for teenagers, ages 12-17, who volunteer one week of their summer to work side-by-side with Team DC. As an intern, students have the opportunity to be a part of ministering to over 20,000 children and teenagers, and meet new friends from all over the United States.

Lexi met a lot of other interns and got to help a lot of campers.

This brought her closer to God and she never felt so much pride in herself and what she got out of serving, said her grandmother Sandy Montgomery.

"She thinks every teenager should go to ITA at least once and learn to serve God and others. She can not wait to go back next year and serve again as an intern. She is a different teenager. I dropped off and the one I picked up. There is a total peace over her. She even sounds different and she can not wait to share what she learn and experience with others," said Sandy Montgomery.

Lexi will be a freshman at Ozona High School this fall.

The pancreas: out of sight, out of mind

Most people aren't even aware they have a pancreas, let alone its function or location. That is... until they encounter pancreatitis, diabetes or blood sugar issues.

The pancreas is a long, flat organ situated in the digestive tract behind the stomach and under the liver. It controls the body's glucose levels in the blood stream and secretes a "pancreatic juice" of digestive enzymes into the duodenum, by way of the pancreatic duct to break down carbohydrates, proteins, and lipids in the chyme. The duodenum is the first structure of the small intestine coming from the stomach.

Actually two glands in one, the pancreas controls the passage of nutrients between the exocrine cells (the digestive track) and the endocrine cells (inside the body) that interact with the blood supply.

"Classically, these are divided into an "endocrine" role, relating to the secretion of insulin and other substances within pancreatic islets and helping control blood sugar levels and metabolism within the body, and an "exocrine" role, relating to the secretion of enzymes involved in digesting substances from outside of the body." From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia.

As with all or body's organs, the pancreas is relatively unchanged genetically in its development over the most recent 30,000 years. Unfortunately, our food supply took a more accelerated path between 5 and 10 thousand years ago and shifted from an agrarian based diet to an agrarian one, rich in carbohydrate.

HERE'S TO YOUR HEALTH

JIM FISH

The last 150 years has seen the greatest changes with refined sugars, grains (like flour) and the hybridization of our high glycemic fruits and vegetables.

Along with the most recent changes came our "western (or mix-matched) diseases"; Diabetes Mellitus, heart disease, dementia, Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD), the various cancers and obesity; just to mention a few. These conditions evolve out of our nutritional intake or, more accurately, malnutrition.

The pancreas, as with all our organs, is simply being bombarded by levels of macronutrients with which they lack both the capability and purpose to process. Half of the world's population is impacted by one or more by the illnesses and conditions listed above and these pandemics are not improving with time.

Our very survival is in question and we are the purveyor of the poor quality of life to come.

Pancreas conditions include; type 1 diabetes, where the body's immune system destroys the pancreas' insulin-producing cells; type 2 diabetes, where the pancreas loses its ability to produce and release insulin as intended; cystic fibrosis, a disorder that affects multiple body systems including the lungs; pancreatic cancer, which is usually far too advanced by the time it is discovered because of the organ's location. Then there is pancreatitis, where it is inflamed and damaged by its own digestive chemicals; islet cell tumor, where the hormone-producing cells of the pancreas multiply abnormally, creating a benign or cancerous tumor; or an enlarged pancreas, which may mean other problems that require treatment.

Treatments and solutions will vary... from simple dietary elimination to oral enzyme medications... to pancreatic transplantation of the entire organ or any of its various parts. Still, prevention is the best solution for the pancreas, as with any malady affecting our wellbeing or the quality of our lives.

Since most illness and disease is nutritionally based, our education and familiarity with what is generally and individually causing our diseases is imperative. Refined sweeteners and grains (like flour, cereals, pastas and the like), and high glycemic fruits and vegetables should be seriously scrutinized. Their inclusion or exclusion in whatever we decide is to be our healthy way of eating lies in the balance.

Each of us has but one body, one life and one chance to get it right. We may seek the advice and skill of our medical authorities and take the counsel in their knowledge. But, do you believe it is a good idea to frivolously relinquish its daily control to someone who does not suffer its disease or benefit from its wellbeing?

Here's to your health.

OBITUARIES

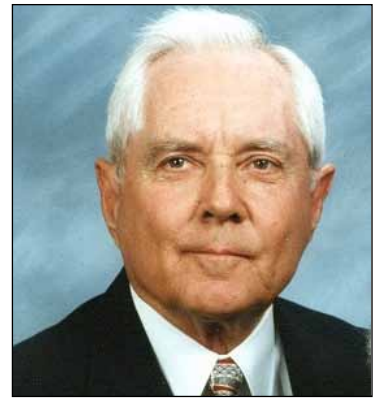

Charles Lee Schneider

Charles Lee Schneider passed away Sunday morning on July 31, 2016 at The Regency House in San Angelo. A memorial Service will be held at Harper Funeral Home on August 8, 2016 at 10 a.m., and will be officiated by Tommy King.

Charles was born on February 6, 1929 in Ozona, Texas, the only child of Robert Lee and Myrtle (Feist) Schneider. During his school years in Ozona, his sweet disposition earned him the nickname "Sugg" ... a moniker which is still used by a select set of old time friends.

After graduating from Ozona High School in 1947, Charles went to Angelo State Jr. College before going on to North Texas State University in Denton, Texas where he received a Bachelor's Degree in Business. Charles returned to Ozona and began working in the Post Office where he met his future bride, Gussie Ruth Sparks, who had just started working there after graduating from high school. They married May 2, 1952. After a period of serious Bible study with Gussie's brother, Burl Sparks, Charles was baptized into Christ in 1957. He spent the rest of his life following Christ and was a dedicated student of God's word. Charles and Gussie raised their two sons in a Christian home and were members of Ozona Church of Christ. Charles worked at the post office in Ozona for 39 years. He was the Assistant Post Master when he retired in 1990. Charles and Gussie moved to San Angelo in 1994. They have been well known and loved by fellow members of the 9th and Main Church of Christ.

Charles always loved working out and took great pride in staying in shape. Throughout his life he played basketball, tennis, golf, lifted weights and was still riding his bike 5 miles a day as recently as a year ago.

Charles is survived by Gussie, his wife of 64 years; son, Mike and his wife Stephanie of Cheyenne, Wyo.; son, Ronnie and his wife Kelly of San Angelo; granddaughter Monica Huntington and her husband Bob of Cheyenne, Wyo.; granddaughter, Jessica Schneider of Cheyenne, Wyo.; granddaughter, Kathy Schneider of Fort Worth; great grandchildren, Brock Huntington and Micaela Huntington of Cheyenne, Wyo.

The family would like to extend their heartfelt thanks and gratitude to Hospice of San Angelo, all their staff, and especially to Debbie Bishop, Shirley Jones, and Veronica Dominguez for their loving care throughout this journey. They would also like to thank Dr. Dusty Arderton and Penny Griffin for the care they have given Charles for many years and the nurses at Regency for their most recent care.

The family requests that any memorial donations be made to Hospice of San Angelo. (HOSA)

Family and friends are invited to share condolences and sign the online register book for Charles at www.harper-funeralhome.com.

THE HOPE FOR AMERICA

I remember one time while shopping in town I decided to eat dinner at a restaurant before returning home. As I was eating, a young couple came up and sat down at the table next to mine. They looked to be in their late thirties and seemed well mannered. They also had a cute little blonde haired girl with them. When their orders arrived, the father reached out and took hold of his wife's hand and then the two of them tried to take hold of the little girl's hand. She was reluctant at first but then she took their hands. She even bowed her head a little while her father prayed. The father prayed softly so I was not able to hear what they were saying but I heard the softly spoken, "Amen". I watched them and could tell they loved that little girl very much. When I got up to leave, I went over to their table and asked them if they were Christians and they responded with a, "yes". I told the father that I admired what they were teaching their little daughter and I told him to keep on. God tells us in the Bible to seek the kingdom of God first, (Matthew 6:33). It also tells us to train up our children in the things of the Lord, (Psalm 78:5-7, Ephesians 6:4).

ARE YOU READY FOR SOME LIONS FOOTBALL?

In his first year at Bruni, Freeman had no seniors on the team. The Badgers "defied a lot of people's expectations" by making it to the state playoffs, Freeman said.

In the last two years at Bruni, the team had seven shutout wins and last season the Badgers had the top defense in Class 2A.

The Lions were 4-7 overall last year and 2-2 in district. They lost to Stamford in the first round of the playoffs.

In 2014, Ozona won the district championship but lost in the first round of play-offs as well.

Dave Campbell's Texas Football Magazine predicts the Lions will finish fourth in District 3-AA after Christoval, Anthony and Eldorado. McCamey rounds out the district.

"We have larger goals set for this year," Freeman said. "We see no reason why we can't make a run at the district title and beyond."

Along with Freeman, the Lions Defensive Coordinator this year is Paul Veirs, Offensive Coordinator Daniel Mejia and Assistant Coaches Matt Gutierrez, Justin Doiron, Luke Wyatt, Mitch Kay and Carlos Robles. Trainer is Rick Fox.

Workouts for all Texas high schools began Monday.

According to rules of the University Interscholastic League, the governing body of Texas high school athletics, teams must hold practices without pads for the first four days of the week. No contact activities are permitted until Friday.

Freeman said he believes in safety and that the players' helmets and equipment are top notch.

The Lions will continue workouts for the rest of this week and next week.

Meet the Lions Night will be held at 8 p.m. Friday, Aug. 12, at Lion Stadium.

Ozona will scrimmage Irion County at 10 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 13, at Lion Stadium. They will then travel to Coahoma for a scrimmage at 5 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 18.

Ozona will start their season against rival Sonora at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Aug. 26, at Lion Stadium.

- My Child's Application Was Approved Last Year. Do I Need To Fill Out A New One? Yes. An application is only good for that school year and for the first few days of this school year. Send in a new application unless the school has told you that your child is eligible for the new school year.
- If I Don't Qualify Now, May I Apply Later? Yes. Apply at any time during the school year. A child with a parent or guardian who becomes unemployed may become eligible for free and reduced-price meals if the household income drops below the income limit.
- What if My Income Is Not Always the Same? List the amount normally received. If a household member lost a job or had hours/wages reduced, use current income.
- We Are in The Military. Do We Report Our Income Differently? Basic pay and cash bonuses must be reported as income. Any cash value allowances for off-base housing, food, or clothing, or Family Subsistence Supplemental Allowance payments count as income. If housing is part of the Military Housing Privatization Initiative, do not include the housing allowance as income. Any additional combat pay resulting from deployment is excluded from income.
- May I Apply If Someone in My Household Is Not a U.S. Citizen? Yes. You, your children, or other household members do not have to be U.S. citizens to apply for free or reduced-price meals.
- Will Application Information Be Checked? Yes. We may also ask you to send written proof of the reported household income.

Kari Hunt who was stabbed to death in a Marshall, Texas motel room by her estranged husband while her 9-year-old daughter unsuccessfully tried dialing 911, according to an article from the Longview News-Journal.

The child did not know she was required to first dial 9 to reach an outside line, the article stated.

Brad Dunn was found guilty of fatally stabbing Hunt and was sentenced to 99 years in prison in March, the article stated.

Kari's Law applies to all businesses with outside lines.

The law is supported by hotel chains and professional associations.

The law also requires all capable multi-line telephone system background to be programmed to send notification of a 911 call to a central location on the premises of the site a 911 call is placed.

Under Kari's Law, if a multi-line system cannot meet these requirements without substantial cost, a one-year wavier of these requirements may be granted.

If a wavier is granted, an instructional sticker must be placed adjacent to all noncompliant, outbound capable telephones that the phone is unable to directly access 911 without first requiring a prefix.

Food handlers course Aug. 23

Due to high demand, two additional Food Handlers classes have been scheduled for this summer.

These will be the last in-person classes offered until the fall.

"Food Safety: It's In Your Hands" will be 9-11 a.m. and 5-7 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 23, at the Crockett County Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service, 1301 Avenue AA, in Ozona.

The "Texas Food Establishment Rules (TFER)" was revised and updated and will be effective Oct. 11, 2015.

A major change in the revision now requires all food employees to complete an accredited food handlers training program within 60 days of employment, effective Sept. 16, 2016.

This 1-2-hour course will now be required for all food service employees to help promote the service of safe food.

The certificate is good for 2 years and is valid anywhere in the State of Texas. The course is a basic overview of food safety practices that are necessary to ensure that safe food is served at your establishment.

Practices discussed include good personal hygiene, cross contamination, and time and temperature abuse. To register for the course, call the Crockett County Extension Office at (325) 392-2721.

The cost is $20 per person and must be paid in full before the course begins.

HURRICANE SEASON CONTINUES

The Texas Department of Public Safety on July 26 encouraged Texans to evaluate their emergency plans and monitor weather forecasts for potential hurricanes and tropical storms. Hurricane season began June 1 and continues through Nov. 30.

Historically, August and September are the more active months during a hurricane season.

DPS Director Steven McCraw listed measures to prepare:

- Assemble an emergency kit that includes essential documents, supplies and provisions;
 - Review hurricane evacuation maps and select a route;
 - Plan how family members and pets will evacuate safely;
 - Consider any special needs for individuals with disabilities or older family members; and
 - Stay informed about changing local and regional weather conditions.
- More information is available online at texasprepares.org.

PANEL GETS BUDGET INPUT

Texas Comptroller Glenn Hegar expects the state economy to continue to grow, but at a slower rate than in recent years, when the oil and gas industry provided added stimulus.

Hegar, in testimony before Texas' 10-member Legislative Budget Board on July 25, said other oil- and gas-producing states have been similarly affected.

The board's job is to develop budget and policy recommendations for legislative appropriations, to analyze proposed legislation for its fiscal consequences and to evaluate and review the efficiency and performance of state and local governmental operations.

Tom Currah, chief revenue estimator for the Office of the Comptroller, told the panel he anticipates $5 billion less than the current revenue projection of $113 billion for general spending in the next budget. The estimate, a critical component of the budget-writing process, is delivered at the beginning of each legislative session.

DPS Director Steven McCraw listed measures to prepare:

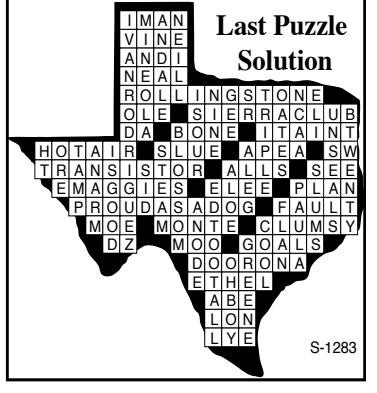

- Assemble an emergency kit that includes essential documents, supplies and provisions;

- Review hurricane evacuation maps and select a route; - Plan how family members and pets will evacuate safely; - Consider any special needs for individuals with disabilities or older family members; and - Stay informed about changing local and regional weather conditions.

More information is available online at texasprepares.org.

The overlay means current 210 area code customers will get to keep their 210 numbers.

New customers could be assigned either the 210 or 726 area code. All customers will be required to dial 10 digits for all local calls and 11 digits for long distance, the PUC said.
